I am fine with this.

Just so you know, Kevin Folta worked with the New York Times reporter and for the record I thought the story was fair.

I think IFAS/Kevin/Ruth/David could put together something that includes all the information they want the reporter to have in addition to the public records requested, and I can share it with the reporter when we respond to her public records request.

My guess is she will want to follow up with Kevin anyway, as any good reporter would do.

That work for you?
