18 SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
19 COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

21 DEWAYNE JOHNSON,
22 Plaintiff,

24 MONSANTO COMPANY,
25 Defendant.
26

Case No. CGC-16-550128

DEFENDANT MONSANTO COMPANY'S OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF COMPLAINTS FILED AGAINST MONSANTO

Honorable Judge Suzanne R. Bolanos

Department: 504
Trial Date: June 18, 2018

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff Dewayne Johnson (“Plaintiff”) requests judicial notice of ten complaints filed 3 against Defendant Monsanto Company (“Monsanto”) in various state and federal courts from 4 October 30, 1991 through November 5, 2015. Monsanto hereby opposes Plaintiff’s request for the 5 following reasons: First, the Court should not permit Plaintiff to introduce actual complaints into 6 evidence at trial—rather than just referring to the complaints—since there is nothing in the 7 complaints that is not an untested and unproven allegation, and since the complaints would 8 inevitably confuse, mislead, and distract the jury, and cause an undue consumption of time. See 9 Cal. Evid. Code § 352.

10 Second, Monsanto opposes Plaintiff’s request for notice of Exhibits 4, 6, and 7, because 11 these complaints do not allege that the plaintiff was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin lymphoma 12 (“NHL”), and therefore cannot put Monsanto on notice of the alleged connection between 13 glyphosate and the injury at issue in this case, pursuant to Judge Karnow’s Order on Motions in 14 Limine.

15 Third, Monsanto objects to Plaintiff’s request because none of the complaints Plaintiff
16 attaches have been certified as required by San Francisco Local Rule (“SF LR”) 8.6(b); Plaintiff
17 must first lodge with the Court the certified copies prior to introducing any complaint at trial.

18 Last, Monsanto requests that the Court remind Plaintiff that he must still lay the proper 19 foundation prior to introducing the complaints. In addition, Monsanto requests that the Court 20 instruct the jury that the fact of the filing of the complaints does not establish the truth of any of 21 the allegations in the complaints and that Plaintiff instruct his witnesses that they cannot volunteer 22 or discuss the 4,000 other cases that they may be working on related to Monsanto.

23 II. ARGUMENT

24 Judge Karnow ruled in his April 3, 2018 Order that Plaintiff may “introduce the facts of 25 the filing of the 6 or 7 cases [that pre-date Plaintiff’s last exposure] to show notice. Monsanto
26 may propose to the trial judge a short limiting instruction that makes it clear the fact of the filing 27 of the complaints does not establish the truth of any of the allegations in them.” 4/3/2018 Order at 28 6. At the hearing on June 20, 2018, Plaintiff’s counsel confirmed to this Court “we’re seeking

1 simply to introduce the fact that [Monsanto] had been sued by applicators of Roundup and other
2 glyphosate-based formulations in the past for these injuries, non-Hodgkin lymphoma, cancers. . .”
3 Declaration of Sandra A. Edwards (“Edwards Decl.”) at ¶ 2, Ex. 1 (Transcript at 189:20-24 (June 4 20, 2018)). Based on Plaintiff’s representation, this Court then ordered as follows:

5 I don’t want any reference to the 4000 cases that are not relevant to the issues or to 6 this lawsuit or the allegations that have to be proven in this lawsuit.

7 You can introduce into evidence the limited number of cases that you can argue 8 show notice to Monsanto, but you have to lay a foundation for that evidence. And I 9 don’t know how or if you are going to be able to do that, but if there is an issue we 10 will address it at that time.

11 With regard to the 4,000 other cases, just please advise your witnesses of the 12 rulings that I have made on these motions in limine, and specifically on this 13 motion with regard to the testimony of your experts, so that they know they are not 14 permitted to volunteer or discuss the 4,000 other cases that they may be working on 15 for you. I don’t know, but in any event I don’t want any of that information to be 16 discussed in front of the jury.

17 Id. at 194:18-195:13.

18 A. Monsanto Objects To Introducing The Complaints Into Evidence

19 Monsanto requests that the Court preclude Plaintiff from admitting the actual complaints 20 into evidence at trial, rather than merely referring to the fact of the filing of the complaint. The 21 complaints are extremely lengthy, with one complaint being more than 300 pages and the sum 22 total being over 700 pages, and would be extremely prejudicial to Monsanto if introduced into 23 evidence. See, e.g., Plaintiff’s RJN Exhibit 4 (Walsh Complaint is 380 pages long); Cal. Evid.
24 Code § 352. They consist of allegations that have been subject to no scrutiny or factual challenge
25 whatsoever, and have never been adjudicated. Moreover, allowing the jury to review long 26 complaints containing unsubstantiated allegations, many of which name numerous defendants and 27 numerous products and chemicals unrelated to this litigation would confuse the issue—that the 28 complaint is solely relevant for purposes of notice—cause an undue consumption of time, and prejudice Monsanto. See Cal. Evid. Code § 352. Instead, if Plaintiff demonstrates that he can lay the appropriate foundation, Monsanto requests that the Court instruct the jury only that seven complaints were filed over the course of the 24 years prior to Plaintiff’s last exposure, rather than allowing the pleadings into evidence at trial.

1 B. Exhibits 4, 6, And 7 Are Not Proper For Judicial Notice Because They Do Not
2 Relate To Plaintiff’s Injury

3 Only seven of the ten complaints of which Plaintiff requests judicial notice allege that a 4 Monsanto product caused an alleged injury subject to this litigation: NHL. See Plaintiff’s RJN at 5 Exhibits 1-3, 5, and 8-10. Plaintiff represented to the Court that it would only introduce 6 complaints related to Plaintiff’s diagnosis. See Edwards Decl. at ¶ 2, Ex. 1 (Transcript at 189:20-
7 24 (June 20, 2018)); Plaintiff’s RJN at 3 (Plaintiff intends to introduce the complaints to show
8 Monsanto was on notice of the allegations of cancers of blood cells, which are the “same type of 9 cancer suffered by Plaintiff.”). The remaining three complaints cannot be introduced for purposes 10 of notice because those complaints allege injuries different from that of Plaintiff Johnson; those 11 complaints allege injuries of acute myeloid leukemia and myelodysplastic syndrome. See 12 Plaintiff’s RJN at Exhibits 4, 6, and 7. The Court should deny Plaintiff’s request for judicial 13 notice of Exhibits 4, 6, and 7 because these complaints cannot feasibly put Monsanto on notice of 14 the alleged injury in this litigation. See 4/3/2018 Order at 6.

15 C. Plaintiff Must Submit Certified Copies to the Court

16 Monsanto also objects to introducing any non-certified copy of a complaint that was filed 17 outside of the San Francisco Superior Court.¹ See SF LR 8.6(b) (requiring certified copies of 18 court records filed outside of San Francisco Superior Court). Plaintiff failed to attach any certified 19 copies of the complaints to his request for judicial notice and in order to demonstrate to the Court
20 that the complaint is, in fact, what it purports to be, the Court should require Plaintiff to submit 21 certified copies.

22 D. Monsanto Requests The Court Require Plaintiff to Lay the Proper Foundation
23 and Instruct the Jury as to the Limited Purpose of the Complaints

24 In addition, whether or not this Court grants judicial notice, Monsanto requests that the 25 Court remind Plaintiff that he still must lay the proper foundation before introducing or referring 26 to any complaint at trial, as Plaintiff has yet to articulate how a proper foundation could possibly 27 _____

28 ¹ If Plaintiff can lay the proper foundation, Monsanto agrees that Exhibit 3, which is a complaint filed in San Francisco Superior Court, need not be certified. See SF LR 8.6(a).

1 be established. Moreover, prior to referring to or introducing the complaints at trial, Monsanto
2 requests that the Court instruct the jury that the fact that a plaintiff has chosen to file a complaint
3 does not establish the truth of any of the allegations within the complaint. See 4/3/2018 Order 4 at 6.

5 III. CONCLUSION

6 For the foregoing reasons, this Court should preclude Plaintiff from admitting the actual 7 complaints into evidence, rather than referring to the complaints at trial. In addition, the Court
8 should deny Plaintiff's request for judicial notice of Exhibits 4, 6, and 7 because they do not relate 9 to Plaintiff's injury. Notwithstanding Monsanto's request, the Court should not allow Plaintiff to 10 introduce any of the complaints at trial without first laying the proper foundation, submitting 11 certified copies to the court, and instructing the jury that the filing of the complaints does not 12 establish the truth of any of the allegations within the complaints.
