Peter: Sorry... the ideas just keep flowing... I just had a terrific conversation with [REDACTED]
He and I connected via social media and have corresponded for several years. He has also been following the FOIA issue with great interest.

You probably know of [REDACTED]. He knows of you! He is the former professor of crop science, University of Guelph (retired); executive vice-president, Ontario Corn Producers' Association; president, Canadian Renewable Fuels Association; chair, National Committee on Agriculture and Climate Change, etc. He is currently working to develop a Canadian based science comm network and I think that he would get some value out of attending the Symposium.

His email address is [REDACTED] Can you invite him too?
