TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics supports Americans' ability to know what is in their food so that they can make healthy choices at the point of purchase for themselves and their families. The Food and Drug Administration's proposed rule on menu labeling would do much to supply consumers with that valuable information. The Academy is disappointed that, following a robust notice and comment period, the FDA has delayed the rule's implementation. The food industry has been working to comply with the updated Nutrition Facts Label, which gives consumers calorie information in a bolder format, uses more realistic serving sizes, and most importantly will provide a separate line and Daily Value for added sugars. In the interest of assisting Americans in knowing what is in their food, the Academy encourages the FDA to reconsider its decision and implement the rule without delay.

Executive Director Dr. Sally Rockey to Participate in Today's Senate Agriculture Committee Hearing

Foundation for Food and Agriculture Research Executive Director Dr. Sally Rockey will participate in today's Senate Agriculture Committee hearing, titled "Agricultural Research: Perspectives on Past and Future Successes for the 2018 Farm Bill."

This will be Dr. Rockey's first opportunity to publicly thank the Committee in this type of setting for their forethought in establishing FFAR through a bipartisan, broad-based effort in the 2014 Farm Bill. She will speak on a panel alongside the following U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) officials, who are also FFAR ex-officio board members:

- Dr. Ann Bartuska, Acting Under Secretary, USDA Research, Education, and Economics
- Dr. Sonny Ramaswamy, Director, USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture
- Dr. Chavonda Jacobs-Young, Administrator, USDA Agricultural Research Service

Leading up to the hearing, the National Coalition for Food and Agriculture Research announced their submission of testimony and a group letter signed by more than 60 organizations in support of FFAR and the need for a strong food and agriculture research title.

Dr. Rockey intends to update the Senators on the progress made by FFAR including the following program announcements over the past month:

- Sustainable American Aquaculture Competitive Grant Program to Open for Applications July 10
- Grant to Michigan State University Researchers for Work to Combat Invasive Pest in Tart Cherries
- Grant to University of Illinois Researcher Developing Cutting Edge Plant Simulation Models
- Competitive Grant Program to Improve Health and Productivity of Egg-laying Hens and Swine: Now Open for Applications

As we look toward the 2018 Farm Bill, FFAR will continue to demonstrate its unique value to the American taxpayer and to U.S. agriculture. Today, Dr. Rockey will ask for the Committee's continued support for FFAR, as well as for agricultural research across the board. She will discuss how the Foundation is perfectly positioned to put America back on top as a global leader in agriculture R&D by accelerating problem solving on behalf of U.S. agriculture. She will emphasize FFAR's unique matching model. FFAR matches every one of its public research dollars with outside funding, delivering huge value for American taxpayers.

Just wanted to check in and give an update on our efforts.

We have requested for a meeting with the Secretary and you during PPW. Because of the uncertainty of how this Administration is operating, there is hesitation going to far out on appointments.

Jenn has also been working to secure an appointment with the Secretary's COS one of the few appointments made. We are fortunate that one of RDNs colleagues who we have a great relationship with has the ear of the COS. This RDN is a highly respected Republican which is to our benefit. She was a featured speaker at FNCE a few years and was grateful to be asked.

When you are at United Fresh, feel free to ask Tom if he has any suggestions. They use a high level lobbyist (who also is employed by other commodity groups). Randy Green. Randy had become a friend over the years and might be able to move forward the meeting request.

I know you have been working on this as well. I think once appointments are made the usda vision and plan can be fleshed out. Right now it is career staffers trying to carrying on.

Someone asked me the other day if I was sure Donna Martin didn't want to be part of this Administration. I told there would be a mutiny of our members if you left. LOL

Have a great meeting in Chicago. We are so proud of you!

Immediate action needed by Public Policy Coordinators and affiliate leaders! Please post the Academy approved information below to your communication channel as soon as possible.

Participate in the Prevention Fund “Virtual” Advocacy Day on June 15!

The Senate may soon consider legislation similar to the House-passed American Health Care Act (AHCA). The Academy is joining partners on Thursday, June 15th for a Virtual Advocacy Day in support of the Prevention and Public Health Fund. The Academy continues to oppose the AHCA’s elimination of the Prevention Fund, the sole federal investment in prevention, which will harm state and local communities that depend on effective public-private partnerships to improve the health of their communities.

It is critical that your Members of Congress know about your support of the Prevention Fund. Learn more about programs funded by the Prevention Fund that utilize the unique expertise of RDNs, who are working on the front lines of preventive care across the country.

We hope you will take three quick but important steps today:

- First, sign up for a Thunderclap to spread the word about the June 15th Advocacy Day.
- Second, please RSVP for the Advocacy Day
You will receive a reminder email about the 15th and a link to a tool that will make it simple and easy to contact your Members of Congress by phone and via social media.
- Finally, please forward this message to your colleagues and encourage them to participate in the June 15th Advocacy Day.

Food Aid Does More than Feed Hunger Abroad

On Wednesday, June 7th the House Committee on Agriculture discussed the future of international Food Aid and agriculture development at a hearing. Stories were heard about how these programs feed starving people; however, this unique panel also brought to light the importance of Food Aid programs in other ways. Food Aid plays an important role in national security, creates sustainable agriculture in developing countries, promotes a healthy economy, employs Americans, educates and empowers women and children, and ultimately saves the lives of millions of people. Read more about the critical need of Food Aid programs here and the Academy's recent addition of global food security

Can Medicare be More Efficient for Both Patients and Taxpayers?

With growing elderly population, Medicare is a hot topic. Those who are eligible can receive Medicare benefits through Medicare Advantage (MA), which is offered by private companies and approved by Medicare. On June 7th the Committee on Ways and Means Subcommittee on Health discussed how to make these programs more efficient for both taxpayers and patients. This would involve a change in program delivery and designs. There was discussion on moving to a value-based insurance design (V-BID) to improve MA flexibility and providing more research on the benefits of the various SNPs which are not currently studied by Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS). Click here for more information on possible strategies to improve the efficiency of PACE and SNPs.

Technologically Advanced World, Yet SNAP Has Frequent Glitches

The Farm Bill subcommittee on Nutrition held a hearing on June 8th titled, "SNAP Technology and Modernization." Ranking member Jim McGovern (MA-02) discussed the reality of glitches in the EBT (Electronic Benefit Transfer) system and associated stigma that can lead participants to abandon their food carts. Solutions were discussed to enhance the electronic benefits system, including privatizing technologies to increase the system's efficiency at a reduced cost. Another solution offered was use to use mobile apps to allow self-service check-ins, banking, and scanning. It was noted that with technology comes the potential risk of fraud. Learn more about the technological needs set to be addressed in the upcoming Farm Bill here.

Webinar: Advocacy Opportunities to Support Public Health and Access to Care

Join Academy partners' American Public Health Association, Prevention Institute, Public Health Institute, and Trust for America's Health for a Forum highlighting the status of the American Health Care Act and the president's budget. The session will explore issues likely to arise in the Senate, and outline next steps. Panelists will discuss strategies and actions to ensure robust communications are provided to key audiences including policymakers. Included is a Q&A session with the panelists. Register here today for the webinar which will be held June 14th at 3:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

Stay-cation Advocacy -- How to Win in Washington From Your Own Backyard

Traveling to Washington to meet lawmakers can be challenging for advocates, while members of Congress often are harried and overbooked when in Washington. "Stay-cation" advocacy back home can often be the best strategy to get "quality time" with key decision makers. Join Academy partner, the Congressional Management Foundation for this webinar on June 22, 2017 at 1:00 PM EST. Register here!

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

PPW 2017 Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The almost-final list of registrants for PPW 2017 has been posted in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). A few edits are being made this week in response to member changes to their voting states. To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. As a reminder, PPCs should contact those members attending from his/her affiliate to provide guidance on the affiliate's scheduling of Hill meetings.

I am sorry to report that Susan Brantley had a very unfortunate accident last week. While assisting at Bible school she fell. She underwent surgery and now has pins and rods in both the right and left femurs. Regretfully Susan won't be able to attend this week's HLT meeting or the Board retreat because she is in rehab. We sincerely hope she can attend FNCE. We are wishing Susan a speedy and full recovery!

Sara,

Mary Pat, so many thanks for introducing me to Sara-.

Sara, I am close by in DC and would be pleased to drop by briefly for a short coffee--I used to work at USDA some years back when we development the Senior Farmers Market Nutrition program and have also worked with the City Council on the DC Produce Plus program.

Is there a day and time later this week that would be convenient for a short stop by--am headed to Chicago June 26th for the Academy's Foundation Board meeting and would be pleased to receive some insights on your DC and national work on SNAP ED.

Sincerely,

Gus Schumacher 202-549-3308

Evidence Based Nutrition: Using Scientific Evidence to Inform Clinical Practice

Date: Tuesday, June 13, 2017, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPEU Hours: 1.0

CPE Level: 2

Evidence based practice is considered the standard of care across health-care disciplines. Unfortunately, most practicing RDs were not taught the foundations of the evidence based process (the 5-Step Process and critical appraisal). Thus, while most RDs want and attempt to incorporate evidence into their clinical practice, the process is arduous and inefficient. We will present the 5-Step Process as a mechanism for practicing evidence based nutrition with emphasis on acquiring and critiquing evidence. The necessity of using evidence to inform clinical decisions will be identified. The 5-Step Process will be described, and how-to guidance will be provided for each step. The evidence based hierarchy will be discussed, and strategies for efficiently locating evidence will be presented. Resources for critically appraising the literature, and practical strategies for incorporating evidence into the Nutrition Care Process will reviewed.

Learning Objectives:

1. Explain the importance of integrating scientific evidence with experience and patient preferences when developing recommendations for patient care or public health practice.
2. Implement the 5-step process of evidence based practice.
3. Identify and appraise appropriate sources of scientific evidence.

Speaker:

Dr. Teresa A. Marshall, PhD, RDN, LDN, FAND coordinates and teaches the nutrition curriculum, and has led a team to design and implement an evidence based dentistry (EBD) curriculum within the University of Iowa College of Dentistry. Dr. Marshall's primary research interests focus on the relationships among diet, nutrition, oral health, and systemic health. She is a research editor for the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and a reviewer for multiple nutrition and dental journals. REGISTER HERE!

If your schedule changes and you cannot attend, note that the webinar will be recorded and available at eatrightPRO for self-study.

Donna and Mary Pat,

Delighted to see Jessie Lupo, RD, LDN, CLC supporting DC Farmers Markets on a Saturday.

Will try and meet her at the markets June 10th and get some pictures. Impressive work on a weekend. Hope she is a member of the Academy.

Gus

Good evening Farmers and Market Managers,

First and foremost, I apologize for the late email.

We received most of our FMNP/PP stamps and posters this week, so we are going to make some trips out to the markets this weekend to hand deliver material to participating farmers. Please take a look at the attachment to see if the market you participate in is on the list. If it is not, we will reach you during a weekday or weekend market next week. I will send out delivery schedules throughout the week to alert farmers and market managers.

The delivers this weekend will be either myself, a DOH courier by the name of Melissa or Christi Dorsey.

The materials being delivered will be:

- FMNP stamps,
- Produce Plus Stamps
- Authorized FMNP Farmer Posters
- Authorized FMNP Food List Posters
- Justice for All posters

We are short on the authorized FMNP food list poster, so not all farmers will receive one during this delivery. Also, some stamps still have not arrived, so if you only receive one or none, they will be coming shortly and we will mail them through the postal mail.

If you have any questions, please get in touch with me! Looking forward to meeting some of you tomorrow.

Thanks,

Jessie

<image003.png>Dear Family and Friends,

Diane Update: We wanted to share with you the recent picture we took in Asheville on May 31st on our 30th Wedding Anniversary!

On Monday Diane had her 5th Chemotherapy treatment. Diane continues to be a trouper, as despite trying everything but “the kitchen sink”, the nausea continues to make her continuously uncomfortable during almost the entire three week period. In addition to the nausea, the chemo creates havoc on the taste buds and very few foods are agreeable to her. The biggest recent addition to her very limited diet is hot dogs! You might want to buy lots of shares of Oscar Mayer/General Foods as I even see evidence of hot dog consumption in the middle of the night with the frying pan left out dirty in the morning. She will have her last Chemo round June 26th and her major surgery is scheduled for July 28th.

During her third week of Round 4 we traveled through North Carolina in route to celebrating our 30th Wedding Anniversary in Asheville. We started in Raleigh to both (i) visit our nephew and niece Justin/Meridith and their 3 young children (Wesley and Warren 6 month old twins along with older sister Whitney, 3 years old) and (ii) drop off “Ace”, our stained glass German Shepherd who was selected as part of a Gallery’s juried “Pets and People” exhibition during June. Diane and I are miserable trying to figure out how we are going to survive a month without our pet dog. Next we were very successful in leaving the Casino in Cherokee a few dollars ahead, after a couple days of blackjack! Then an hour drive to Asheville to enjoy scenery, restaurants, and anticipated shopping and browsing art galleries. You know Diane wasn’t herself when I didn’t have to spend hours reading while she shopped ... her total shopping time was about 45 minutes.

Paul's Been Influenced by Sheryl Sandberg's Writings and Comments on Grief Connecting Issues Related to Death and Serious Illness

In addition to Sheryl's amazing book "Lean In", she has just released a new book to address the conversations around adversity entitled: "Option B: Facing Adversity, Building Resilience and Finding Joy". In conjunction with the book, Paul has had the opportunity to listen/read a podcast with Katie Couric and a cover story in Time Magazine. She not only provides insights on how to personally address grief, but discusses her beliefs on how people can best approach talking to, deciding what to say to people in the midst of a significant death or illness/cancer. A couple of comments that have resonated include:

- "I thought back to a friend with late-stage cancer telling me that for him the worst thing people could say was, 'It's going to be OK'. He said the terrified voice in his head would wonder, 'How do you know it's going to be OK?' "
- "In the weeks after David died, I was shocked when I'd see friends who did not ask how I was doing. I felt invisible, as if I were standing in front of them but they couldn't see me"

- Paul Paraphrasing .. ‘People have difficulty trying to think of what to say .. I found people expressing their difficulty in knowing what to say was fine, and asking “how I was today” sensitive and caring’.
- The importance of humor and finding joy despite the circumstances.

Paul's Been Influenced by Sheryl Sandberg's Writings and Comments on Grief Connecting Issues Related to Death and Serious Illness

In addition to Sheryl's amazing book "Lean In", she has just released a new book to address the conversations around adversity entitled: "Option B: Facing Adversity, Building Resilience and Finding Joy". In conjunction with the book, Paul has had the opportunity to listen/read a podcast with Katie Couric and a cover story in Time Magazine. She not only provides insights on how to personally address grief, but discusses her beliefs on how people can best approach talking to, deciding what to say to people in the midst of a significant death or illness/cancer. A couple of comments that have resonated include:

- "I thought back to a friend with late-stage cancer telling me that for him the worst thing people could say was, 'It's going to be OK'. He said the terrified voice in his head would wonder, 'How do you know it's going to be OK?'".
- "In the weeks after David died, I was shocked when I'd see friends who did not ask how I was doing. I felt invisible, as if I were standing in front of them but they couldn't see me"
- Paul Paraphrasing .. 'People have difficulty trying to think of what to say .. I found people expressing their difficulty in knowing what to say was fine, and asking "how I was today" sensitive and caring'.
- The importance of humor and finding joy despite the circumstances.

Dear Academy Board,

I'm always happy to share good news about fundraising for the Second Century. I wanted you to know that the California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation (CANDF) voted in May to contribute $5,000 to the Academy Foundation's Second Century Campaign. In addition, the California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (CAND) contributed $500 in honor of Lucille Beseler's presentation at their Annual Conference and another $3,500 to match the generous support of their members who made individual donations to the Second Century.

We thank both CANDF and CAND for the $9,000 contribution and especially, Amy Myrdal Miller, MS, RDN, FAND for her help in championing the Second Century to both organizations. Below is a quote from Amy.

“The Executive Board of the California Academy felt it was important for us to support the Second Century because funds will be used to advance our profession and to create new opportunities for members working here in the U.S. as well as globally. A donation to the Second Century campaign shows you support the future of nutrition and dietetics and the collective success and impact of our profession,” - Amy Myrdal Miller, MS, RDN, FAND, Immediate Past President, California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Four other states have joined with their donations, including a $7,500 gift from Texas. We look forward to welcoming many more affiliates to the campaign. If you are interested in knowing how your state affiliate is supporting the campaign and would like to help encourage their gift, please reach out to Foundation Annual Fund Manager, Paul Slomski (pslomski@eatright.org). Thank you and have a wonderful weekend.

Best regards,

Pat

June 9, 2017

Dear Public Policy Workshop attendees,

PPW is 16 days away!

Just Announced! DC Walking History Tour – Sponsored by ANDPAC

Are you arriving at PPW early? If you are looking for a way to get your steps in and find out more about our nation's capital – we have the solution! Join us for a walking tour led by history buff and Academy staff member Pepin Tuma. The event will be held on Sunday, June 25 from 8 to 10 a.m. A $25 dollar contribution to ANDPAC is requested and can be paid onsite. Register for the event today!

PPW Session 5: Ready Set Charge!

The recording of this webinar is now available for online viewing by clicking the link below:

Play recording

Note: The webinar viewing will require a live internet connection to play as it will stream directly via the WebEx system.

The webinar has been converted to an mp4 and is loaded on the Public Policy Workshop Community of Interest, PPW topic, PPW 2017 Recorded Webinars subtopic and finally by session number and title in the subtopic.

Hill Visit Appointments

As a reminder, the Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) or designated alternate for each affiliate will work with you to schedule all of the Hill visits for your group. Attendees do not need to schedule their own visits, unless this has been agreed upon with or requested by your PPC. If you have not connected with your PPC, please let me know. A list of PPCs and their contact information is available on the COI. The PPW Tool Kit contains sample scripts for scheduling meetings that may be useful.

Be Prepared for PPW!

Have you logged into the Public Policy Workshop Community of Interest yet? The community of interest (COI) is an online forum that will help all PPW attendees get up-to-date information about the conference, download handouts and presentations, view recorded webinars, link up with other PPW registrants and discover fun PPW activities! We have more than 100 attendees who have not yet visited the Community of Interest. As a reminder, you are expected to view the pre-PPW webinar recordings located in the Public Policy Community of Interest Library.

You can access this PPW community at <https://pia.webauthor.com/> To log in, enter your Academy username and your Academy password (which you use to log into the member area of EatrightPRO.org). If you questions, please contact me.

Affiliate PPCs, DPG/MIG PALs Meeting Reminder – June 25th

We will meet in the Constitution Room A at 1 p.m. to cover last minute details and instructions. The agenda for the meeting is posted in the PPW COI. Each PPC will receive his or her state's leave-behind packets for Congressional offices at the meeting. The packets are easy to recognize, green folders for the House of Representatives and red folders for the Senate.

The “Big Two” PPW Legislative Issues

Are you prepared for your Hill visits? Be sure to listen to the Recorded Webinars located on the PPW Community of Interest! As a reminder the two nutrition policy issues are:

1. Value of Nutrition Services in Prevention and Treatment

2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill

The final tools have been posted to the PPW COI. We anticipate having an action alert open before you arrive in Washington, DC. It is imperative that Academy members send as many letters as possible in advance of our Capitol Hill visits next week. Ask your friends and colleagues to take action. Congress needs to know that over 300 participants at PPW represent 100,000 food and nutrition professionals. This will get their attention.

ANDPAC's Power Breakfast Update

If you signed up for the ANDPAC's Power Breakfast, your name will be added to the registration list. A confirmation email will be send to registrants prior to PPW. A limited number of seats are still available so if you wish to sign up, please contact ANDPAC@eatright.org for additional information.

Are You a Nursing Mother?

If you are breastfeeding and you need access to a lactation room on Capitol Hill, we can help! We need to know in advance in order to make reservations. Please email govaffairs@eatright.org to request this service.

Please let me know if you have questions. We look forward to seeing you on Sunday, June 25!

Jeanne

Agree! Mary Pat has done a great job of working to help him understand our organization and really our mission and vision. I am sure it is hard to differentiate initiatives of the Academy and those of the Foundation.

It was nice to see him at the BPC event. I think he thought he threw me a softball with a question he asked about fruits and vegetables, but it was a bit out of place with he focus on provider training. It was like he wanted to mention Whitewave. The importance of programs that increase access to fruit and vegetables (and food overall) are important to obesity prevention. It it was really in the weeds for the type of conversation that we were having.

I am looking forward to working with him more, he defiantly has ideas and connections!

I am not sure what his role is for ANDPAC as that has not been shared with me.

Thanks Mary Pat. He participated in the new Foundation Board member orientation web ex with staff last week. I sent him a follow up email offering to set up a call in preparation of the June Board Meeting to answer any questions about the agenda or the role and work of the Foundation versus the Academy.

I will keep you posted, but think June will be a great opportunity for him to continue to be engaged and understand the Foundation's work.

Gus treated me to a wonderful lunch today at the World Bank.

It was fun and productive as I think he continues to learn about the broadness and depth of our profession. We brainstormed about ideas that would benefit our members from Farmer's Markets to food waste.

He loved the recent call with ANDPAC leaders that gave him more insight into the ANDF. Great job and kudos to you!

Academy members are an amazing group in our reach in food and nutrition. He has become more aware of this as he sees our work.

He was very impressed with Jeanne's role at the Bipartisan Policy Center roundtable on obesity. He learned of the depth of our Farm Bill work that nutrition education and nutrition research. With these exposures, his brain is already ruminating on opportunities for the Foundation.

At the FRAC dinner the night before, I shared with him that Dan Glickman who was the evening's host was also the Academy's recent Honorary member. Again it showed him our reach.

We will share with him our Farm Bill Work Group recommendations as there will opportunities to leverage his expertise.

I will continue to be a resource for Gus as he becomes an engaged ANDPAC member. I know as he learns more, it will benefit us all.

Your questions are welcome!

Dear Board of Directors,

The Board "Partners" Program serves an integral role in recognizing the Academy's 2017 National Honors and Awards recipients. This partner program was developed to ensure each recipient's award experience is a positive and memorable one. As you may recall, at the May Board meeting you volunteered to partner with one or more of the 2017 Honors and Awards recipients (see attachment). We ask that you initiate contact with your partner to extend your congratulations and offer your assistance throughout the recognition process.

Please be sure to provide your contact information to your partner, offer to personally welcome them at FNCE, and offer any assistance as needed. The day, date, time, and location of your partner's award presentation is listed on the attachment. Unless your partner is a Medallion recipient, you are not required to attend your partner's ceremony, but are welcome to if your schedule permits. Partners of Medallion recipients will present the awards during the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 22 (a script will be provided ahead of the breakfast).

If you have any questions, please contact Matthew Novotny, Honors Committee staff liaison, by phone at 1-800-877-1600 x4827 or by email at mnovotny@eatright.org.

Dear Board of Directors,

The Board "Partners" Program serves an integral role in recognizing the Academy's 2017 National Honors and Awards recipients. This partner program was developed to ensure each recipient's award experience is a positive and memorable one. As you may recall, at the May Board meeting you volunteered to partner with one or more of the 2017 Honors and Awards recipients (see attachment). We ask that you initiate contact with your partner to extend your congratulations and offer your assistance throughout the recognition process.

Please be sure to provide your contact information to your partner, offer to personally welcome them at FNCE, and offer any assistance as needed. The day, date, time, and location of your partner's award presentation is listed on the attachment. Unless your partner is a Medallion recipient, you are not required to attend your partner's ceremony, but are welcome to if your schedule permits. Partners of Medallion recipients will present the awards during the Honors

Breakfast on Sunday, October 22 (a script will be provided ahead of the breakfast).

If you have any questions, please contact Matthew Novotny, Honors Committee staff liaison, by phone at 1-800-877-1600 x4827 or by email at mnovotny@eatright.org.

Best regards,

Joan

Hi Donna

Would it be advantageous to follow up with Michelle's team and see if a 10-15 minute keynote talk is more palatable for this opportunity? Since we are in the hopeful home stretch for Sanjay Gupta, doing something with Michelle focused around the honorary membership and some key talking points may be a better fit for her.

Thoughts?

It would still be opening session.

We have invited Mrs. Obama to give our keynote address at our annual Food and Nutrition Conference, which is being held in Chicago this year on October 21-24. This is the Academy's Centennial year, and we feel like there is not a better inspirational speaker, than her, to give our opening keynote address. We are expecting approximately 12,000 RDN's and RDTR's at the meeting. We were hoping that when she gave her address, we could give her the honorary membership. We have sent her office the letters and correspondence, but we really do not have any way to contact her to find out if she might be interested in committing to come? Therefore, I am reaching out to you to see if you could facilitate anything through your

Her F2S work is outstanding ...

- Farmers knock on the back door and delivered the veggies directly into the kitchen.
- They take herbs from the garden and make pizzas with them (along with kale and butternut squash.
- She has done boat to tray with local fish ... and much, much more.

Hi Donna,

Congratulations on starting your year as President of the Academy!! I am really looking forward to this year, our 100th anniversary, and with you at the helm to usher us into our second century.

I have been a dietitian for over 25 years and a member of the Academy for that time. I have three wonderful daughters and one of them decided to become a dietitian - which she did two years ago now. I have encouraged her to remain a member of the Academy and her enthusiasm continues to inspire me to attend FNCE.

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to ensure that you have a successful year in your role as President. We are here for you!!

Academy Honors and Awards

Dear Michelle,

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics' Board of Directors and its members wish to acknowledge your outstanding and continued support of the Academy and the nutrition and dietetics profession by awarding you Honorary Membership. This honor is bestowed upon those who have made notable contributions to the field of nutrition and dietetics.

Your Honorary Membership will be presented during the Member Showcase on Monday, October 23, 2017, at the Academy's Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo, October 21-24, 2017, in Chicago, Illinois. We sincerely hope it will be possible for you and a guest to attend. We also wish to invite you to attend the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 22.

As an Honorary Member, you will receive access to the Academy's Web site, www.eatrightPRO.org, the quarterly Food and Nutrition magazine, our monthly scientific Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and complimentary registrations to future FNCEs, including invitations to the yearly Honors Breakfast.

Additional information regarding FNCE is attached for your review and more information will follow as it becomes available. The attached document also includes the specifications for a high-resolution color photo that we hope you will be able to provide for use on the FNCE Honors Display by May 31.

The Board of Directors and the entire membership of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics are pleased to welcome you as an Honorary Member!

Sincerely,

Academy Honors and Awards

Dear Michelle,

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics' Board of Directors and its members wish to acknowledge your outstanding and continued support of the Academy and the nutrition and dietetics profession by awarding you Honorary Membership. This honor is bestowed upon those who have made notable contributions to the field of nutrition and dietetics.

Your Honorary Membership will be presented during the Member Showcase on Monday, October 23, 2017, at the Academy's Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo, October 21-24, 2017, in Chicago, Illinois. We sincerely hope it will be possible for you and a guest to attend. We also wish to invite you to attend the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 22.

As an Honorary Member, you will receive access to the Academy's Web site, www.eatrightPRO.org, the quarterly Food and Nutrition magazine, our monthly scientific Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and complimentary registrations to future FNCEs, including invitations to the yearly Honors Breakfast.

Additional information regarding FNCE is attached for your review and more information will follow as it becomes available. The attached document also includes the specifications for a high-resolution color photo that we hope you will be able to provide for use on the FNCE Honors Display by May 31.

The Board of Directors and the entire membership of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics are pleased to welcome you as an Honorary Member!

Sincerely,

Thanks, Donna!

Im happy to give you a call with more detail! Generally, this bill is the start to a conversation. It would have to be taken up in Child Nutrition Reauthorization, which we know probably isn't going anywhere in the next two years. We can work to get a Senate bill but have really spent a lot of time getting the details of the bill ironed out, and garnering organizational support for the bill. Currently the Farm to School Network, SHAPE America have endorsed the bill and we are close to have endorsements from Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior, Tisch Food, Education and Policy Center at Columbia University and FoodCorps.

More details:

It is a 5 year grant through Team Nutrition. Congressman Tim Ryan is on appropriations committee, and we have stressed the need to fully fund Team Nutrition at $25M, which is an increase of $9.5M, to fund this grant program and as not to take away from current Team Nutrition programming.

Let me know if you have any additional thoughts or questions!

THANKS, DONNA!

Jenn, I am just getting around to reading this proposed bill. I look forward to talking to you more about this. Super exciting. For right now I have the following questions:

1. Does the bill have co-sponsors?
2. How much funding would he be asking for?
3. Would this fund for 1 year or multiple years?
4. Does this have a prayer of getting off the ground?
5. What about a bill in the senate?

I have some other similar questions, but you get my drift. You can call me today or tomorrow if you have time to discuss.

Donna,

Hope you are well! Just wanted to put this on your radar. We have been working with Congressman Tim Ryan's staff to get this bill off the ground. We think it fits nicely with our 2nd Century objective to promote more Academy members in schools and strengthens the requirements for wellness policies by providing funding to help LEAs implement them. Written into the bill is a requirement to coordinate with school nutrition directors too. At the end of this week I'll work with communications to get a quote from you to put into the Congressman's press release when he introduces the bill at the end of the month. Very exciting!

Lauren Au also brought to our attention her research presented last month which found:

School wellness committees are associated with lower BMI z-scores and improved dietary outcomes in U.S. schoolchildren. Presented at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Healthy Eating Research Meeting on April 20, 2017 by Lauren Au PhD, RD, of the University of California, Nutrition Policy Institute.

What is the association between school wellness committees and implementation of nutrition wellness policies on: Children's weight status (BMI-z); Obesity-related dietary outcomes?

- An active wellness committee was associated with decreased BMI z-scores in U.S. School children
- Schools that reported better implementation of wellness policies had children with improved obesity-related dietary outcomes
- Active school engagement in wellness policy implementation appears to play a positive role in efforts to reduce childhood obesity

Summary of the bill:

Congressman Tim Ryan is planning on introducing a bill to improve the implementation of nutrition education through the utilization of nutrition specialists in local school districts. This bill titled Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act will allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) activities and local wellness policies.

These programs include using innovative lunchroom strategies such as family style eating to encourage healthy decision making, delivering hands-on nutrition education lessons that are aligned across grade levels, and providing schools and child care providers the technical assistance they need to develop health centered environments.

Very best,

Jenn

Academy Commends Senators for Introducing Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act in 115th Congress

The Academy commended U.S. Sens. Shelley Moore Capito (W.Va.) and Gary Peters (Mich.) for re-introducing the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act in the Senate. The bill's language is the same as in the previous Congress, and would provide Medicare coverage of medical nutrition therapy for prediabetes provided by registered dietitian nutritionists. The House version of the bill should be introduced in the next few weeks. More information will be shared soon on how Academy members can reach out to your members of Congress to support this important legislation that would improve access to nutrition services.

Hello all,

Tina Shepard, ASU Faculty & Dietetic Internship Director, will also be attending the meeting at 11am. She can only attend from 11-11:15am, so it is best if everyone meets approx. 10:50am at the registration table so the meeting begins on time. I believe Margie and Adrienne can attend longer.

President Donna Martin, I am sorry to have to miss this wonderful opportunity to meet you, but I cannot attend the meeting due to a family conflict. I have attached my concerns regarding the Future Education Model Accreditation Standards, which is a topic that will be discussed at the meeting. If you have time, we would appreciate it if you would review the attached document prior to the meeting.

Margie Tate, MS RD, has been a key faculty in the success of the Paradise Valley (PVCC) & Chandler-Gilbert (CGCC) Community College DT Consortium Program for many years, and has been instrumental in its success. In addition, we have worked closely with Tina Shepard in the smooth transfer of our students into ASU's Nutrition and Dietetics program. We are deeply concerned about the future of the two year DT Programs, and so are the many dietetic professionals and health care employers we work closely with in the Phoenix Metropolitan area. We appreciate you taking the time to listen to our concerns, and I have also discussed our concerns in length with Mary Gregoire.

Thank you Glenna for initiating and helping to set up this meeting!

Hi Donna

Thank you for reaching out. I can give you a call tomorrow (Thurs June 8) morning at 8 am CT/9am ET – will that work for you? If any others want to be on the call, let me know and I will set up a conference line.

I have had several email and phone conversations with Lori and she had sent ACEND the document you attached. The summary of my conversations with Lori and the documents she sent were all shared with the ACEND Standards Committee as they reviewed input on the proposed Future Education Model Standards and made suggested revisions. The revised standards will be discussed by the ACEND Board at their meeting next week.

Thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to talk with the educators in AZ. I look forward to talking with you.

Dear NDEP Members,

Please let your students know the Academy Foundation's Student Stipend Program is now accepting applications! This program was designed to help active Academy student members attend FNCE[®]. Students who have registered for FNCE[®] can apply for a $100 stipend, which have been made available from the Academy Foundation thanks to the generosity of the many dietetic practice groups, state affiliates and individual Academy members who have supported this program.

Our application process is now open.

Stipend recipients will be selected by random and will be contacted by the Foundation via email in September. In order to be eligible for the $100 stipend you must meet the following criteria:

- Must be enrolled for Fall 2017 and a student member of the Academy in 2017-2018.
- Must be registered for FNCE[®] by Friday, September 8 – which is also the Early Bird registration pricing deadline.
- Must complete the following brief questionnaire by Friday, September 8.

Thanks, Donna!

Im happy to give you a call with more detail! Generally, this bill is the start to a conversation. It would have to be taken up in Child Nutrition Reauthorization, which we know probably isn't going anywhere in the next two years. We can work to get a Senate bill but have really spent a lot of time getting the details of the bill ironed out, and garnering organizational support for the bill. Currently the Farm to School Network, SHAPE America have endorsed the bill and we are close to have endorsements from Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior, Tisch Food, Education and Policy Center at Columbia University and FoodCorps.

More details:

It is a 5 year grant through Team Nutrition. Congressman Tim Ryan is on appropriations committee, and we have stressed the need to fully fund Team Nutrition at $25M, which is an increase of $9.5M, to fund this grant program and as not to take away from current Team Nutrition programming.

Let me know if you have any additional thoughts or questions!

THANKS, DONNA!

Jenn, I am just getting around to reading this proposed bill. I look forward to talking to you more about this. Super exciting. For right now I have the following questions:

1. Does the bill have co-sponsors?
2. How much funding would he be asking for?
3. Would this fund for 1 year or multiple years?
4. Does this have a prayer of getting off the ground?
5. What about a bill in the senate?

I have some other similar questions, but you get my drift. You can call me today or tomorrow if you have time to discuss.

Donna,

Hope you are well! Just wanted to put this on your radar. We have been working with Congressman Tim Ryan's staff to get this bill off the ground. We think it fits nicely with our 2nd Century objective to promote more Academy members in schools and strengthens the requirements for wellness policies by providing funding to help LEAs implement them. Written into the bill is a requirement to coordinate with school nutrition directors too. At the end of this week Ill work with communications to get a quote from you to put into the Congressman's press release when he introduces the bill at the end of the month. Very exciting!

Lauren Au also brought to our attention her research presented last month which found:

School wellness committees are associated with lower BMI z-scores and improved dietary outcomes in U.S. schoolchildren. Presented at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Healthy Eating Research Meeting on April 20, 2017 by Lauren Au PhD, RD, of the University of California, Nutrition Policy Institute.

What is the association between school wellness committees and implementation of nutrition wellness policies on: Children's weight status (BMI-z); Obesity-related dietary outcomes?

- An active wellness committee was associated with decreased BMI z-scores in U.S. School children
- Schools that reported better implementation of wellness policies had children with improved obesity-related dietary outcomes
- Active school engagement in wellness policy implementation appears to play a positive role in efforts to reduce childhood obesity

Summary of the bill:

Congressman Tim Ryan is planning on introducing a bill to improve the implementation of nutrition education through the utilization of nutrition specialists in local school districts. This bill titled Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act will allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) activities and local wellness policies.

These programs include using innovative lunchroom strategies such as family style eating to encourage healthy decision making, delivering hands-on nutrition education lessons that are aligned across grade levels, and providing schools and child care providers the technical assistance they need to develop health centered environments.

Very best,

Jenn

Hi Pat

I have a number of comments about Susan's email that I would prefer discussing on our P call. First and foremost we need to be ensuring our alliance benefits the Academy and its members. Since when do we write or develop revenue producing continuing education programs for another group. When we choose someone we need to be sure that they understand "collaboration". Some of these names believe we need to help other health professionals provide low level nutrition services. I can not support those individuals. I like very much having someone that is on the board on Other advisory boards. JoJo would be my choice. Thanks, Lucille

Subject: RE: AACE Alliance - Next Steps

Hi Diane,

This is good news that the Academy is inviting AACE to have an alliance. There is much to be gained by both organizations. After attending the AACE Conference, Liz and I noticed several areas where the alliance can be helpful:

1. Many of our legislative issues are similar supporting some of the same bills and wanting the same objectives to help our patients
2. Each of us would benefit by sponsoring speakers for each other's conferences. DCE's idea is to have Maggie Powers speak on the position statement for referring patients for DSMT. Another dietitian and physician team tell about how having a dietitian in the Endocrinologist's office benefits the patients and can be reimbursed for diabetes and pre-dialysis renal disease.
3. AACE needs better materials in their store for nutrition information. The only book they had on nutrition contained information that was very outdated. Recommend we have a marketing agreement for them to be able to sell some of the Academy publications. They need materials on obesity, diabetes, cardio-vascular health, general nutrition, and coding for reimbursement for MNT for those who hire dietitians.
4. They are planning to develop a nutrition module for continuing education for their members. We can offer are well qualified dietitians to write it for them.

During our weekly Chair Call, DCE decided on a list of potential volunteers for the alliance representatives. All six of them have chaired DCE. We feel that several people can play key roles:

Maggie Powers, PhD, RD, CDE – 00396770 - She is the primary author of the DSMES position statement and promotes it very well. She is an excellent speaker and well respected. She has served in the leadership of ADA. Although she is interested in the position, she is concerned about the time commitment. She may be a better selection for being a speaker than serving on a committee or another board.

Melinda Maryniuk, MEd, RD, CDE, FADA – 00490043 – Also is an author of the DSMES position statement. Physicians rave about her nutrition presentations. She works very well with physicians and they see her as an equal (very important when working with AACE) Her experience working at Joslin is well known.

Alison Evert, MS, RD, CDE – 00579412 – Alison has done projects with AACE in the past and works very well with the Endocrinologists at the University of Washington. Their practice is a model for how we would want other doctors to work with dietitians. She knows what works and what does not. She has been very involved with writing and updating the SOP/SOPP for diabetes. The physicians listen to her and take her advice. She is a valued speaker. She responded within an hour after I sent the invitation to send a bio.

Molly Gee, MEd, RD, LD – 00354672 – Will be out of office until 12 June so has not seen my email to invite her to apply. We thought her best contribution would be to write the obesity session of the AACE nutrition module

Charlotte Hayes, MMSc, RD, LD, CDE – 00632783 – she did not respond to the invitation. We believe that is because she is working with Novo Nordisk and may be restricted from being on the board. We thought she would be good for working with their legislative team because of her experience on the Legislative and Public Policy Committee.

Jo Jo Dantone, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, FAND – 00408179 – Jo Jo really wants to take the position and has a relationship with a few of the AACE Leaders. She attended their conference for the past 2 years.

Of these six candidates, three of them are most interested in being the alliance representative: Melinda, Alison, and Jo Jo. I will be sending their response for a short bio and CV separately.

Thank You,

Subject: AACE Alliance - Next Steps

Importance: High

Good morning, Susan-

I am reaching out to you to inform DCE leaders that the Academy Board of Directors has formally extended an alliance invitation to AACE. By formalizing an alliance, it will allow the two organizations to collaborate across a variety of programs and initiatives.

Once the alliance is formalized, the Academy will need to appoint an alliance representative. We welcome recommendations from DCE DPG for the three Academy Presidents' consideration for the representative role. Since we are aware of some initial conversations that DCE was having with AACE, including a potential volunteer role for Maggie Powers, we would encourage DCE to refocus at this time by developing a list of alliance representative candidates for consideration.

Please provide the following information for each individual that DCE may choose to put forward for consideration of the alliance representative role:

Name

Member ID

Brief Rationale for Nomination

Short Bio/CV for Candidate

The Academy leadership and Presidents will be in communication with DCE about future reciprocal collaborations with AACE as those opportunities are identified.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,

Diane

Tom, things are going well thanks to you and your team. This is exactly the direction I wanted to go in for the September President's page. I would like to bring in the School Nutrition aspect of this problem too (as usual). Here is the link to the CBS that was done on our football team. It will give you some perspective.

Here are some thoughts on the subject. Please feel free to reword. I would also like you to mention, if you have room, that my college football team (University of Georgia) has 6 RDN's on Staff.

For the student athletes in Burke County providing an extra meal (supper) not only nourished them, but allowed them to complete their practices and compete better on the field. For a lot of my students getting an athletic scholarship is the only way they hope to go to college. By doing better on the field, they have a better chance of getting that scholarship. It also has a secondary benefit, that in order to play on a team, they have to keep their grades up. We worked with athletes who needed to gain weight, lose weight, build muscle mass and increase endurance. Special after school snacks, smoothies and supper did the trick! Very proud of our Burke County Bears!

Importance: High

Good morning, Susan-

I am reaching out to you to inform DCE leaders that the Academy Board of Directors has formally extended an alliance invitation to AACE. By formalizing an alliance, it will allow the two organizations to collaborate across a variety of programs and initiatives.

Once the alliance is formalized, the Academy will need to appoint an alliance representative. We welcome recommendations from DCE DPG for the three Academy Presidents' consideration for the representative role. Since we are aware of some initial conversations that DCE was having with AACE, including a potential volunteer role for Maggie Powers, we would encourage DCE to refocus at this time by developing a list of alliance representative candidates for consideration.

Please provide the following information for each individual that DCE may choose to put forward for consideration of the alliance representative role:

Name

Credentials

Member ID

Brief Rationale for Nomination

Short Bio/CV for Candidate

The Academy leadership and Presidents will be in communication with DCE about future reciprocal collaborations with AACE as those opportunities are identified.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Panel Discussion on June 7

Over 1/3 of U.S. adults have obesity, with obesity care costing as much as $210 Billion per year, and yet it is not a major focus in the training and education of our current and future health care providers. To address this critical gap, educators from over 20 organizations representing a dozen health professions have collaborated to develop the first ever set of interdisciplinary educational competencies for the prevention and treatment of obesity.

A webcast has been set up for attendees who cannot attend the in-person event, click here to register for the June 7, 10 - 11:30 a. m. (Eastern Time) session to learn about these first-of-their-kind competencies, how they were developed and how they can be implemented, and what adoption of these competencies could mean for patients. Jeanne Blankenship, M.S., RDN, the Academy's Vice President for Policy Initiatives and Advocacy, will join other patient and provider advocates on the panel.

Obesity Roundtable Solutions Proceedings Released

Driving Action and Progress on Obesity Prevention and Treatment—Proceedings of a Workshop, which summarizes the September 2016 National Academy of Science Engineering and Medicine workshop of the same name. This workshop highlighted the multisector nature of the Obesity Roundtable, bringing together leaders from health policy, philanthropy, business, health care, early education, nutrition and physical activity, and government to present their visions for improving opportunities for all Americans to move more and eat better, and offered practical steps to get there.

The publication is available for download from the National Academies Press (nap.edu). Additional resources from the workshop, including the videos of panel sessions and the Proceedings—in Brief, can be found on the workshop webpage.

Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act to be Introduced in the 115th Congress

On June 6, Senators Capito (W. Va.) and Peters (Mich.) are expected to re-introduce the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act in the Senate. The bill language is the same as in the 114th Congress, and would allow Medicare coverage of medical nutrition therapy provided by registered dietitian nutritionists for prediabetes. The House version of the bill should be introduced in the next few weeks. The Academy will share an update when the House bill is introduced. Stay tuned for ways to reach out to your Members of Congress to support this important legislation that would improve access to nutrition services!

Food Safety Education Using a Positive Deviance Approach

On June 8 at 1pm EST, join Academy partners at the Partnership for Food Safety Education to learn about food safety education using a Positive Deviance approach! Researchers from the University of California, Davis will share the results of their research behind this powerful behavior change tool and its use in outreach to high-risk populations. They will also provide curriculum ideas and take-home activities to strengthen correct food safety behaviors. Learn more and register here.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

1. The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;
2. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
3. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
4. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
5. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Action Alert Update

As a reminder, the action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 were closed at the fiscal year ended. Watch for new action alerts to be posted in the next two weeks that correspond to the issues for which Academy members will be advocating at PPW. Stay tuned! We will need your help to ensure members of Congress receive letters from Academy members before PPW!

Dear Chuck,

Thank you for the invitation to attend the August 4-7 AADE Conference in Indianapolis. Unfortunately, both Lucille Beseler and I are unable to attend the conference this year due to schedule conflicts. We are very pleased that Jo Jo Dantone-DeBarbieris, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, FAND, our current Treasurer and nationally respected certified diabetes educator, will be formally representing the Academy this year at the AADE Conference. As the Academy's official representative, can complimentary registration be extended to her? We will be pleased to reciprocate for an official AADE representative to attend FNCE 2017 being held October 21-24 in Chicago. Thank you for your consideration.

Best wishes for a successful meeting!

Donna,

Hope you are well! Just wanted to put this on your radar. We have been working with Congressman Tim Ryan's staff to get this bill off the ground. We think it fits nicely with our 2nd Century objective to promote more Academy members in schools and strengthens the requirements for wellness policies by providing funding to help LEAs implement them. Written into the bill is a requirement to coordinate with school nutrition directors too. At the end of this week I'll work with communications to get a quote from you to put into the Congressman's press release when he introduces the bill at the end of the month. Very exciting!

Lauren Au also brought to our attention her research presented last month which found:

School wellness committees are associated with lower BMI z-scores and improved dietary outcomes in U.S. schoolchildren. Presented at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Healthy Eating Research Meeting on April 20, 2017 by Lauren Au PhD, RD, of the University of California, Nutrition Policy Institute.

What is the association between school wellness committees and implementation of nutrition wellness policies on: Children's weight status (BMI-z); Obesity-related dietary outcomes?

- An active wellness committee was associated with decreased BMI z-scores in U.S. School children
- Schools that reported better implementation of wellness policies had children with improved obesity-related dietary outcomes

- Active school engagement in wellness policy implementation appears to play a positive role in efforts to reduce childhood obesity

Summary of the bill:

Congressman Tim Ryan is planning on introducing a bill to improve the implementation of nutrition education through the utilization of nutrition specialists in local school districts. This bill titled Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act will allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) activities and local wellness policies.

These programs include using innovative lunchroom strategies such as family style eating to encourage healthy decision making, delivering hands-on nutrition education lessons that are aligned across grade levels, and providing schools and child care providers the technical assistance they need to develop health centered environments.

Very best,

Jenn

Evidence Based Nutrition: Using Scientific Evidence to Inform Clinical Practice

Date: Tuesday, June 13, 2017, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPEU Hours: 1.0

CPE Level: 2

Evidence based practice is considered the standard of care across health-care disciplines. Unfortunately, most practicing RDNs were not taught the foundations of the evidence based process (the 5-Step Process and critical appraisal). Thus, while most RDNs want and attempt to incorporate evidence into their clinical practice, the process is arduous and inefficient. We will present the 5-Step Process as a mechanism for practicing evidence based nutrition with emphasis on acquiring and critiquing evidence. The necessity of using evidence to inform clinical decisions will be identified. The 5-Step Process will be described, and how-to guidance will be provided for each step. The evidence based hierarchy will be discussed, and strategies for efficiently locating evidence will be presented. Resources for critically appraising the literature, and practical strategies for incorporating evidence into the Nutrition Care Process will reviewed.

Learning Objectives:

1. Explain the importance of integrating scientific evidence with experience and patient preferences when developing recommendations for patient care or public health practice.
2. Implement the 5-step process of evidence based practice.
3. Identify and appraise appropriate sources of scientific evidence.

Speaker:

Dr. Teresa A. Marshall, PhD, RDN, LDN, FAND coordinates and teaches the nutrition curriculum, and has led a team to design and implement an evidence based dentistry (EBD) curriculum within the University of Iowa College of Dentistry. Dr. Marshall's primary research interests focus on the relationships among diet, nutrition, oral health, and systemic health. She is a research editor for the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and a reviewer for multiple nutrition and dental journals. REGISTER HERE!

Pat, wanted to forward this request onto you from the dairy council. I think I can work it out in my schedule, but I do not have time to get the talk together. I called Katie Brown, but her Dad just died so I cannot count on her to help. Between now and then I have Arizona Academy, keynote at United Fresh Produce and then PPW. I don't have much in my bag of tricks based on what they want already prepared to create a talk. Camelia and Tab said they would help with getting presentation together. They want me to bring in healthcare as well as school stuff. Advise please?

Donna – I left you a voice mail message on your cell phone, and said that I would follow-up with an email with more details. Katie Brown, Camellia and I have discussed this opportunity and think you would be perfect for this panel of experts. The meeting will be held in Chicago at the Loews Hotel Downtown (Loews Chicago Hotel (Downtown)) at 455 N. Park Drive in Chicago, IL. I am not sure if you are involved in the AND Foundation Board meeting on June 28-29, but this is early in the morning and I hope that you can participate. Your valuable experience as the School Nutrition Director for Burke County as well as your expertise as an RDN would really add to this panel.

The description of the session and the invited panelists are noted below.

Could you let me know at your earliest convenience, if you are interested and able to participate? If I need to go through some specific channels at the Academy now that you are President, please let me know and I will do that.

Thanks in advance for considering. Tab

Marketing Food Through Hope, Not Fear (June 29 - 7:30-8:45)

The United States has one of the safest and most productive food systems on the planet, all while enabling consumers to spend the smallest percentage of income to purchase food. If we can agree that we want to produce food that is safe, affordable, accessible and nutritious, why are food marketers increasingly using tactics designed to erode consumer trust in food production? An executive panel of experts will discuss the ethics of food marketing as it relates to sustainability and agriculture.

I wanted to alert you to some great news regarding the Academy's leadership on the crucial issue of malnutrition. The Academy's Strategic Communications Team worked with our partners at Abbott on an article calling on the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to support improvements in malnutrition quality care. The article, under Lucille Beseler's byline, appeared today on FierceHealthcare, one of the top online health care publications, with more than 140,000 unique visitors per month. Below is a link to the article. It will be shared today on the Academy's social media platforms.

Congratulations on being a member of the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group. To see our new higher profile page, log into www.eatrightpro.org and select the orange Member Benefits button on the green menu bar at the top. From the left sidebar, select Academy Groups, and then click Other Academy Groups. You will see:

- Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP)

Click More Information to read our new Vision, Mission and Values. A list of the officers on the NDEP Council can be located there as well.

Want to volunteer for a committee or task force? Contact Vice Chair Claudia Scott at claudiawscott@gmail.com.

WEBPAGE

Our webpage is: www.ndepnet.org Log in the same way you do at the Academy's homepage (www.eatright.org). On this page, you can find information about the NDEP Council members, the upcoming regional meetings, the NDEP portal and electronic mailing list (EML), and other pertinent information.

The NDEP Portal and the Electronic Mailing List (formerly known as the LISTSERV)

The NDEP online portal is a communication and networking tool for the members of the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group. The portal includes a message board, an electronic mailing list (EML), a resource library and calendars for all NDEP events. This portal will be the main communication system between the NDEP leadership and the members through email blasts and messages.

Once you become a member of the NDEP group, you are automatically a member of the portal. There is no need to sign up! You can visit the portal at <http://ndep.webauthor.com> to access all the features of the portal. Your user name and password are the same as your Academy member ID and password that you use to log into the Academy's eatrightpro.org website. If you do not remember your Academy user name and password, please call Member Services at 800-877-

1600 ext. 5000 and ask for your Academy user name and password.

There are two ways to begin using the EML. One way is to log into the portal, visit the Discussions tab, which is the EML, and post a new message. Your message will be posted both as a discussion in the portal and also be sent out to NDEP members as an EML via email. Another way is by emailing ndep@ndep.webauthor.com directly. All instructions, which include a webinar, are listed in the library tab. You can, as an NDEP member, opt out or change settings of the EML by updating your settings under My Profile once you have logged into the portal. The current default setting is "Daily Digest," which means you will receive an email with all the EML messages once per day. If you want an alternative setting such as "Real Time" or "No" EML messages, you can update these preferences by going to the Settings button in the upper right hand corner and then to "My Profile." In "Real Time," the EML messages will come to your email as they are posted, the same as any email message.

If you have any questions regarding the EML or the portal, please contact ndep@eatright.org.

NDEP Regions Realignment

Beginning June 1, 2017: NDEP is now in 6 regions instead of 7 areas!

WEST REGION

West Coast: Washington, Oregon, Idaho, California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Alaska, Hawaii, International

West Central: Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana

CENTRAL REGION

North Central: Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee

North East: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts

South East: Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Puerto Rico

Check out the NDEP website – www.ndepnet.org to find your Regional Director's contact information.

Please be sure to contact your Regional Director with your comments, questions, concerns, ideas, etc. to assist him/her in representing you and your colleagues at our monthly NDEP Council meetings as well as in other forums.

2018 Regional Meetings

NDEP holds spring meetings throughout the country each year. These are a great place to earn CPEU credits, keep up with what is happening in the education, accreditation, and registration worlds, and network with other educators and preceptors. Online registration for the 2018 area meetings will begin in January 2018. Check the NDEP website for more information later this year.

NDEP-Line Newsletter

NDEP-Line is the quarterly newsletter. To submit an article to the NDEP-Line, contact the Newsletter Editor, Colleen McGrief at mccric@sage.edu. We especially welcome articles from preceptors about how you teach interns during supervised practice. Have an interesting case study or learning activity? Please share it!

NDEP - Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

NDEP holds a section in the Journal where four times each year a Practice Applications article written by an NDEP member is published. If you have a Best Practice, an educational topic, or other application paper that is pertinent to educator issues, you are encouraged to submit the article to the NDEP section of the Journal. The NDEP Council can work directly with members who wish to submit articles on emerging studies in Education for the Practice Applications section, and has designated expert peer reviewers to provide streamlined feedback to assist with the publication process. To review author guidelines for submission of Practice Applications articles to the Journal go to www.andjrn.org. Contact Mary-Jon Ludy at mludy@bgsu.edu for details about submitting an article.

EBlast

Not everyone wants to subscribe to the EML, so an EBlast is a service by which we send out important messages to all NDEP members. Your NDEP-Line newsletter will arrive as a .pdf file attached to an EBlast message directly to your inbox.

NDEP Graduate Student Mentoring Program

NDEP is beginning a program to provide an opportunity for graduate students to network and learn from other NDEP members who are in the job positions that they wish to attain (DPD Directions, Faculty Members, etc.). Many graduate students have questions on negotiating salaries, the accreditation process, pedagogy techniques, and tenure in teaching positions, and the NDEP Graduate Student Representative is looking for mentors. Mentors will have the opportunity to share their experiences and knowledge related to the characteristics, skills and experiences necessary to succeed in their current role as a program director and/or faculty member. If you are interested in being a mentor or have questions about this program, please contact Emily Riddle at esr146@gmail.com.

Again, thanks for joining NDEP. We have exciting things ahead this year! If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me, or email ndep@eatright.org.

Dear PPW 2017 Attendee,

The Academy's premier Public Policy Workshop is only 25 days away! We are looking forward to seeing you!

PPW Legislative Issue 2: Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill

The recording of the webinar is now available for online viewing by clicking the link in the table below. Note: The webinar viewing will require a live internet connection to play as it will stream directly via the WebEx system.

The webinar has also been converted to an mp4 and is loaded on the Public Policy Workshop Community of Interest, or the PPW COI. Select PPW topic, PPW 2017 Recorded Webinars subtopic and finally by session number and title in the subtopic.

PPW Agenda

The agenda is posted on the PPC COI. The workshop is a paperless conference so be sure to download or print any materials you wish to reference or review onsite.

Meeting Location

Grand Hyatt Washington DC
Constitution Ballroom BCDE
1000 H Street NW

Washington, D.C., USA, 20001

Tel: 202 582 1234

Note: There will be Wi-Fi in the Constitution Ballroom.

Registration Hours:

Stop by the Registration Desk to pick up your name badge and ribbons. Registration will be located in the Constitution Ballroom E Foyer in the hotel. Registration will be open on Sunday, June 25 at 12:00 p.m. Please stop by registration at your earliest convenience to avoid the rush!

Important Note: arrive at least 30 minutes in advance of the start of the program.

PPW Community of Interest

The community of interest (PPW COI) is an online forum that will help all PPW attendees get up-to-date information about the conference, download handouts and presentations, view recorded webinars, link up with other PPW registrants and discover fun PPW activities! You can access this community by pasting the following URL into your browser if necessary:

<https://pia.webauthor.com/>. To log in enter your Academy username and your Academy password (which you use to log into the member area of eatrightpro.org). If you need assistance, please contact us.

Get a head start, Be prepared for PPW!

All PPW attendees are expected to participate in the PPW Webinar Series. Four of the five webinars have now been recorded and are posted in the PPW COI. Participants will receive 1 CPEU for each session.

PPW Resources

You will find several new resources in the PPW COI in the library folder entitled “PPW Tool Kit.” The Issue Brief, Leave Behind resource, Talking Points and the Commonly Asked Questions from Capitol Hill are posted in the 2017 Issue Briefs and Talking Points topic folder -- be sure to be familiar with the materials before the workshop. There is a subtopic folder titled with each issue name.

You Might be Asking, "Who Get's What???"

Documents for Academy Members and Attendees Only

Issue Briefs -- these documents summarize the issue and research for the issue. They are intended for Academy members since they are more in-depth and include information intended to help members be informed on the issue.

Commonly Asked Questions -- some questions can be anticipated so we have prepared answers for you!

Talking Points -- we have narrowed down the information to help you deliver the key messages during your meetings.

Documents for Members of Congress

The Leave Behinds -- Members of Congress want a concise two-page summary of the information you discuss. Leave this with the staff member when the meeting concludes or better yet, allow them to review it while you deliver your messages.

Please note that we will not provide printed copies at PPW except for the Leave Behinds which will be included in the folders for each visit. Your affiliate's public policy coordinator will arrange for you to have the folders needed for your visits.

ANDPAC Invitation

ANDPAC's Chair Susan Scott personally invites you to the ANDPAC Power Breakfast on Monday, June 26th. The Power Breakfast will once again be held at the prestigious National Press Club. Make an advanced reservation today or add to your PPW registration. Making your donation for the $125 breakfast (ticket required) is very effective in providing Academy members the opportunities to speak with members of Congress and candidates on your behalf. For questions, email ANDPAC@eatright.org.

Making a donation now will allow you to focus on your leadership and advocacy efforts during your short stay in Washington D.C. ANDPAC funds raised help to recognize RDNs and NDTRs as trusted nutrition professionals, encourage our presence at the decision-making policy table, protect jobs, and help to make for a healthier world.

See you in Washington, D.C. on June 25! And remember, dietetics is your profession, policy must be your passion!

Best regards,

Subject: Meeting Announcement: Community Preventive Services Task Force

Dear Donna,

As an expert in the field, you may already be aware of the referenced meeting, but I wanted to share it with you. Details are below.

The Task Force Meeting will be held on Wednesday June 14 at the CDC Edward R. Roybal Campus, CDC Headquarters (Building 19), 1600 Clifton Road NE., Atlanta, GA 30329. The meeting will be held from 8:30 am to 6:00 pm EDT and Thursday, June 15 from 8:30 am to 1:00 pm EDT. CDC will send the webcast URL to registrants upon receipt of their registration. A public comment period, limited to three minutes per person, will follow the Task Force's discussion of each systematic review FOR THOSE ATTENDEES ON-SITE. NOTE: PUBLIC COMMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE VIA WEBCAST AND NO OPPORTUNITY FOR WRITTEN COMMENT IS PLANNED.

Systematic review topics proposed for discussion:

Diabetes prevention: Diabetes Prevention and Control (Effectiveness of Mobile Phone Applications to Improve Glycemic Control (HbA1c) in the Self-management of Diabetes); Obesity Prevention and Control (Economics of School-based Interventions for Obesity Prevention, Availability of Healthy Food and Beverage (AHFB) and Snack Food and Beverage (SFB));

Physical Activity (Effectiveness of Activity Monitors for Increasing Physical Activity in Adults with Overweight or Obesity);

and Women's Health (Effectiveness of Interventions for the Primary Prevention of Intimate Partner Violence and Sexual Violence Among Youth).

The Task Force's recommendations, along with the systematic reviews of the evidence on which they are based, are compiled in the Guide to Community Preventive Services (The Guide). No draft documents are available, but the agency has agreed to send meeting transcripts when available and notify us of the release of the updated Guide. The agenda is subject to change without notice. The Task Force roster is here

The full meeting announcement is here.

I hope you are available to attend.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thanks again for your interest in public policy issues.

Please read the communication from Marsha Sharp below. Just as I predicted. Although she asked me not to share her news, I thought I'd give you a heads-up since this fits nicely with my goal of the Academy being the Secretariat. I'm thinking the news will be made at the DC meeting held the second week of June and that ICDA would be informed concurrently. Joan will include the topic on the next 4Ps call.

Dear Pat,

Hope you are very well!

I am writing to share my news -- to retire. I provided Notice to the Board in March after 12 months of serious planning for transition. I don't have an absolute final date as I provided the Board time to work out its timeline and preferences re overlap or not. October is my target, and final date will be communicated to the Board shortly. I have not shared with ICDA Board or others in ICDA. The Board made a public announcement in May and followed that with an announcement about the Search Process, in accordance with a plan we had developed together.

My personal decision caused me a lot of anxiety during ICD in Granada, as the new ICDA Board was pressing me to serve as Chair. At any rate, as I am Chair although underperforming due to matters I have had to attend to here, I have to work through how my retirement plan will impact my term as ICDA Chair. Please don't share my news yet. I am sharing with you before Marty does (:)). I will share with ICDA Board very soon.

Would have been great to see you again, but it seems we won't get that chance soon. I won't assume we might not cross paths again. Knowing you has been one of the great opportunities of my role at DC.

My best,

Marsha

One of our Board responsibilities is to annually evaluate the CEO's performance. It is time for us Board members to complete section II of the evaluation - Competency Evaluation. It is available on survey monkey. Prior to doing the evaluation, take a look at Board agendas, general communications to the Board, CEO summary reports in Board meeting packets, executive session discussions with Pat as well as minutes from our Board meetings.

Please complete the questionnaire by Wednesday, May 31, 2017. The CEO Compensation Committee will summarize the responses, provide you with a summary report and recommendation regarding the CEO base salary for 2017-18 that will be discussed via conference call. We will contact you via doodle poll for a call in August.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you for participating!

TO BEGIN THE SURVEY click or copy this link into your browser:

June 7 Panel Discussion: 'Preparing Health Care Providers for Obesity Care'

Even though more than one-third of U.S. adults are obese, with obesity care costing as much as $210 billion per year, obesity is not a major focus in the training and education of current and future health care providers. To address this critical gap, educators from more than 20 organizations representing a dozen health professions have collaborated on the first set of interdisciplinary educational competencies for the prevention and treatment of obesity. A June 7 panel discussion will address these first-of-their-kind competencies, how they were developed and how they can be implemented, and what adoption of these competencies could mean for patients. How does this look? Donna and I collaborated for the response. THANKS!

Dear Priscilla,

Thank you for taking the time to provide your feedback. Your feedback is valuable but we are disappointed to hear that you have not seen any value and leadership within the Academy as it relates to child nutrition programs. We have been working tirelessly here in DC and throughout the country to support Academy members who lead child nutrition programs. In fact the Academy's Council on Future Practice has identified child nutrition programs as a potential growth market for Academy members and we couldn't agree more!

With the passage of the Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act in 2010, the Academy led efforts to include rigorous education requirements and continuing education benchmarks for school nutrition professionals nation-wide. These standards ensured that qualified professionals, like DTRs and RDNs, were leading school nutrition programs at the local and state director levels. In DC we vigorously support nutrition standards for school meals that meet the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, and the provision that requires qualified professionals to run school nutrition programs. These efforts are directly supported by ANDPAC.

The Academy and its grassroots network have activated to send thousands of letters to member of Congress on the importance of child nutrition programs, specifically school nutrition. Last year, during the Academy's annual Public Policy Workshop, attended by over 400, member policy leaders were trained on the importance of child nutrition programs. That workshop culminated in storming Capitol Hill to tell their members of Congress in person the enormous public benefit of feeding our children healthy foods at school and the professionalism of those leading these programs.

USDA and the Academy have had a wonderful partnership and understanding that child nutrition programs are a rewarding avenue that utilizes the unique skills of DTRs and RDNs. Over the past year USDA and the Academy have worked together to provide materials to Dietetic Internship Directors and Child Nutrition Program State Agencies about the outstanding benefits that a dietetic intern can bring to child nutrition programs. The overall objective was captured in the December 2016 blog post by USDA “USDA Child Nutrition Program to Dietetics Interns: We Need to Talk!” Our hope is to get more dietetic interns exposed to School Nutrition Programs. (or something like that)

I am guessing you have not had the pleasure of meeting or hearing speak the Academy's President-Elect, Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND. Donna is constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and stating how having Academy members on staff would help manage child nutrition programs more effectively. Donna has spoke at a congressional hearing on School Nutrition, and the former First Lady of the US, Michelle Obama came to her district to help plant her garden and then Donna went to the White House to help harvest the First Lady's garden. In those meetings Donna's uplifting message always focuses on the kids she serves and how she couldn't do what she does without her team which includes many RDNs.

That would be great. I would definitely tell her that we now have a president who is out constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and how having RDN's on staff would cure all our problems. The new regs are now requiring more education for directors depending on the size of the system. AND PAC is the best way to help us get this message out. RDN's have got to become ambassadors to help show what we are worth. I feel like statistically we have seen a huge increase in the numbers of RDN's in SNP. Just some initial thoughts.

As school nutrition professional and a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, including the Texas affiliate, I am writing to tell you that I do not donate to the state or national Political Action Committee (PAC). My reason for this is quite honestly that the state and national associations have done little to nothing to address my on-going concerns regarding the state of affairs in school nutrition programs where registered dietitians and other qualified nutrition professionals have been replaced in local, state and regional offices with individuals who have NO training in nutrition or food service. I have repeatedly expressed this concern to the Texas affiliate even having a discussion with the TAND president and public policy liaison about five (5) years ago and also discussing it with those working the PAC booth at the AND FNCE.

Our jobs are being taken by those with no nutrition or food service training and we wonder why the interests of public health nutrition are being ignored in Washington, DC. We should expect no less, so until AND and the state affiliates take a much bigger stand to protect the profession and seek for nutrition professionals to be strategically placed in government, there is no reason to support a PAC at any level.

Dear Priscilla,

Thank you for taking the time to provide your feedback. Your feedback is valuable but we are disappointed to hear that you have not seen any value and leadership within the Academy as it relates to child nutrition programs. We have been working tirelessly here in DC and throughout the country to support Academy members who lead child nutrition programs. In fact the Academy's Council on Future Practice has identified child nutrition programs as a potential growth market for Academy members and we couldn't agree more!

With the passage of the Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act in 2010, the Academy led efforts to include rigorous education requirements and continuing education benchmarks for school nutrition professionals nation-wide. These standards ensured that qualified professionals, like DTRs and RDNs, were leading school nutrition programs at the local and state director levels. In DC we vigorously support nutrition standards for school meals that meet the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, and the provision that requires qualified professionals to run school nutrition programs. These efforts are directly supported by ANDPAC.

The Academy and its grassroots network have activated to send thousands of letters to member of Congress on the importance of child nutrition programs, specifically school nutrition. Last year, during the Academy's annual Public Policy Workshop, attended by over 400, member policy leaders were trained on the importance of child nutrition programs. That workshop culminated in storming Capitol Hill to tell their members of Congress in person the enormous public benefit of feeding our children healthy foods at school and the professionalism of those leading these programs.

USDA and the Academy have had a wonderful partnership and understanding that child nutrition programs are a rewarding avenue that utilizes the unique skills of DTRs and RDNs. Over the past year USDA and the Academy have worked together to provide materials to Dietetic Internship Directors and Child Nutrition Program State Agencies about the outstanding benefits that a dietetic intern can bring to child nutrition programs. The overall objective was captured in the December 2016 blog post by USDA "USDA Child Nutrition Program to Dietetics Interns: We Need to Talk!" Our hope is to get more dietetic interns exposed to School Nutrition Programs. (or something like that)

I am guessing you have not had the pleasure of meeting or hearing speak the Academy's President-Elect, Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND. Donna is constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and stating how having Academy members on staff would help manage child nutrition programs more effectively. Donna has spoke at a congressional hearing on School Nutrition, and the former First Lady of the US, Michelle Obama came to her district to help plant her garden and then Donna went to the White House to help harvest the First Lady's garden. In those meetings Donna's uplifting message always focuses on the kids she serves and how she couldn't do what she does without her team which includes many RDNs.

That would be great. I would definitely tell her that we now have a president who is out constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and how having RDN's on staff would cute all our problems. The new regs are now requiring more education for directors depending on the size of the system. AND PAC is the best way to help us get this message out. RDN's have got to become ambassadors to help show what we are worth. I feel like statistically we have seen a huge increase in the numbers of RDN's in SNP. Just some initial thoughts.

As school nutrition professional and a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, including the Texas affiliate, I am writing to tell you that I do not donate to the state or national Political Action Committee (PAC). My reason for this is quite honestly that the state and national associations have done little to nothing to address my on-going concerns regarding the state of affairs in school nutrition programs where registered dietitians and other qualified nutrition professionals have been replaced in local, state and regional offices with individuals who have NO training in nutrition or food service. I have repeatedly expressed this concern to the Texas affiliate even having a discussion with the TAND president and public policy liaison about five (5) years ago and also discussing it with those working the PAC booth at the AND FNCE.

Our jobs are being taken by those with no nutrition or food service training and we wonder why the interests of public health nutrition are being ignored in Washington, DC. We should expect no less, so until AND and the state affiliates take a much bigger stand to protect the profession and seek for nutrition professionals to be strategically placed in government, there is no reason to support a PAC at any level.

Dear NDEP Members,

CDR received a request during the Spring NDEP regional meetings to consider expanding the signature for the verification form to include the internship coordinator or other internship director designee. The CDR Competency Assurance Panel considered this request at its recent meeting and voted to revise the form to include this request. The updated form is now available on the NDEP Portal under Library, then Preceptor Resources, then CPE's for Preceptors.

As a reminder, CDR has made the decision to award continuing professional education credit to preceptors. Precepting will be included under the current Leadership activity type with a three (3) CPEU/ year, fifteen (15) CPEUS per five year recertification period maximum for Leadership and/or Precepting activities. This change will be effective with Professional Development Portfolio Guide published on June 2, 2017.

Subject: Farm Bill Work Group Recommendations APPROVED

Good morning,

We have great news to share!

Lauren Au, our co-chair, presented the Farm Bill Work Group's recommendations to the Legislative and Public Policy Committee on Friday afternoon and the recommendations were approved!

These recommendations will be sent to the Board of Directors, with the support of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee. Lauren did an amazing job presenting our recommendations, and the discussions our work group has had over the last 4 months. We also included a memo that noted marker bills related to the Farm Bill (attached).

The final approved documents are attached for your reference. We are working on a communication plan to release these recommendations and we hope to keep you all engaged as the Farm Bill process unfolds in Congress this summer.

We will also use the recommendations on nutrition education programs, EFNEP and SNAP-Ed, during the Academy's annual Public Policy Workshop. During that workshop we will train our member leaders on these two programs and they will then go to Capitol Hill to advocate to their members of Congress!

Working with you on these recommendations has been exciting and rewarding! I have enjoyed getting to know each of you better, and learning from you. Thank you for your sharing your time and expertise to craft these recommendations and contributing to your profession.

On another but similar note, we wanted to make sure you saw this announcement from the Academy and how it impacts programs we care about like SNAP and food and nutrition research.

President's Budget Proposal Would Drastically Cut Funding for Programs Important to RDNs

Vital food, nutrition, and health programs and services would face severe reductions in funding under President Trump's proposed budget for the 2018 fiscal year. The Academy recently released a statement urging Congress to fully fund those programs and services, and it will continue to advocate for them.

Subject: FINAL DRAFT Farm Bill Work Group Recommendations

Good morning!

We have a final draft of our Farm Bill recommendations! There is a summary (attachment 1) and a full report (attachment 2). Note that these have not gone through our communications department for final editing. Our process was to get this to you all first for review and comment. I hope that we have captured your ideas into this document.

Thank you for all of your input in this process thus far!

Please make your comments in track changes/comment box and save with your initials in the title. I will need your comments by end of business next Wednesday, May 17.

I will compile edits and create a final document which Lauren Au, our co-chair, will present to the Legislative and Public Policy Team during their monthly call on Friday May 26.

MANY MANY THANKS! For all your work to provide vision and direction for the Academy on the Farm Bill.

If you have any questions, please email or call Jenn.

Very best,

June 2 Deadline: PPW Registration and Housing

Please join the over 300 members to stand up for important issues at the Academy's Public Policy Workshop, June 25 to 26 in Washington, D.C. Be sure to register by Friday, June 2 to secure your spot at the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit. You must reserve your room no later than 5 p.m. (Eastern Time) on June 2; rooms are based on availability and may sellout prior to the deadline. For information about the tentative PPW agenda, click here.

"Preparing Health Care Providers for Obesity Care" Panel Discussion on June 7

Over 1/3 of U.S. adults have obesity, with obesity care costing as much as $210 Billion per year, and yet it is not a major focus in the training and education of our current and future health care providers. To address this critical gap, educators from over 20 organizations representing a dozen health professions have collaborated to develop the first ever set of interdisciplinary educational competencies for the prevention and treatment of obesity.

A webcast has been set up for attendees who cannot attend the in-person event, click here to register for the June 7, 10 - 11:30 a. m. (Eastern Time) session to learn about these first-of-their-kind competencies, how they were developed and how they can be implemented, and what adoption of these competencies could mean for patients. Jeanne Blankenship, M.S., RDN, the Academy's Vice President for Policy Initiatives and Advocacy, will join other patient and provider advocates on the panel.

Last Chance! Do You Work in a Hospital or Long-Term Care? Tell the Academy about Malnutrition's Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility. Please provide your submissions.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

1. The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;
2. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
3. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
4. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
5. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Academy's Centennial Resolution Gains Cosponsors in Congress

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, H. Res. 161/S. Res. 75, the centennial resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial, has two new cosponsors in the House of Representatives; Reps. Marcy Kaptur (Ohio) and Mo Brooks (Ala.). Please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the resolution and send a note of thanks to those who already have.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 have been closed. The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports will be located in May 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the May 2017 subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

President's Budget Proposal Would Drastically Cut Funding for Programs Important to RDNs

Vital food, nutrition, and health programs and services would face severe reductions in funding under President Trump's proposed budget for the 2018 fiscal year. The Academy recently released a statement urging Congress to fully fund those programs and services, and it will continue to advocate for them. Click here to read more on how the president's budget proposal would affect programs that are important to Registered Dietitian Nutritionists.

California Bill (SB 349) Passes a Hurdle

The California Senate Bill 349 was introduced in February 2017. The bill sets forth facility safety standards and staffing ratios for certain healthcare professionals providing services in settings in which chronic dialysis services are provided. On May 26, the California bill (SB 349) was amended to include registered dietitians, stating "Commencing January 1, 2019, a chronic dialysis clinic shall ensure that a registered dietitian is not assigned more than 75 patients."

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has been working with the California Academy on this legislation since February. The amended bill passed the California Senate Appropriations Committee on Friday, May 26. To read the bill text, click here.

"Preparing Health Care Providers for Obesity Care" Panel Discussion on June 7

Over 1/3 of U.S. adults have obesity, with obesity care costing as much as $210 Billion per year, and yet it is not a major focus in the training and education of our current and future health care providers. To address this critical gap, educators from over 20 organizations representing a dozen health professions have collaborated to develop the first ever set of interdisciplinary educational competencies for the prevention and treatment of obesity.

A webcast has been set up for attendees who cannot attend the in-person event, click here to register for the June 7, 10 - 11:30 a. m. (Eastern Time) session to learn about these first-of-their-kind competencies, how they were developed and how they can be implemented, and what adoption of these competencies could mean for patients. Jeanne Blankenship, M.S., RDN, the Academy's Vice President for Policy Initiatives and Advocacy, will join other patient and provider advocates on the panel.

Last Chance! Do You Work in a Hospital or Long-Term Care? Tell the Academy about Malnutrition's Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility. Please provide your submissions.

The only other thing we might add is how we always talk to our congressman and congresswoman about SNP when we go to DC for PPW.

On May 26, 2017, at 2:34 PM, Jennifer Folliard <JFolliard@eatright.org> wrote:

Let me know what you think.

Dear Priscilla,

Thank you for taking the time to provided your feedback. Your feedback is valuable but we are disappointed to hear that you have not seen any value and leadership within the Academy as it relates to child nutrition programs. We have been working tirelessly here in DC and throughout the country to support Academy members who lead child nutrition programs. In fact the Academy's Council on Future Practice has identified child nutrition programs as a potential growth market for Academy members and we couldn't agree more!

With the passage of the Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act in 2010, the Academy led efforts to include rigorous education requirements and continuing education benchmarks for school nutrition professionals nation-wide. These standards ensured that qualified professionals, like DTRs and RDNs, were leading school nutrition programs at the local and state director levels. In DC we vigorously support nutrition standards for school meals that meet the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, and the provision that requires qualified professionals to run school nutrition programs. These efforts are directly supported by ANDPAC.

The Academy and its grassroots network have activated to send thousands of letters to member of Congress on the importance of child nutrition programs, specifically school nutrition. Last year, during the Academy's annual Public Policy Workshop attended by over 400 member policy leaders were trained on the importance of child nutrition programs. That workshop culminated in stormomg Capitol Hill to tell their members of Congress in person the enormous public benefit of feeding our children healthy foods at school and the professionalism of those leading these programs.

USDA and the Academy have had a wonderful partnership and understanding that child nutrition programs are a rewarding avenue that utilizes the unique skills of DTRs and RDNs. Over the past year USDA and the Academy have worked together to provide materials to Dietetic Internship Directors and Child Nutrition Program State Agencies about the outstanding benefits that a dietetic intern can bring to child nutrition programs. The overall objective was captured in the December 2016 blog post by USDA "USDA Child Nutrition Program to Dietetics Interns: We Need to Talk!"

I am guessing you have not had the pleasure of meeting or hearing speak the Academy's President-Elect, Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND. Donna is constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and stating how having Academy members on staff would help manage child nutrition programs more effectively. Donna has sat at her Congressman's' table, and the former First Lady of the US, Michelle Obama came to her district to help plant her garden and then Donna went to the White House to help harvest the First Lady's garden. In those meetings Donna's uplifting message always focuses on the kids she serves and how she couldn't do what she does without her team which includes many RDNs.

That would be great. I would definitely tell her that we now have a president who is out constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and how having RDN's on staff would cure all our problems. The new regs are now requiring more education for directors depending on the size of the system. AND PAC is the best way to help us get this message out. RDN's have got to become ambassadors to help show what we are worth. I feel like statistically we have seen a huge increase in the numbers of RDN's in SNP. Just some initial thoughts.

As school nutrition professional and a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, including the Texas affiliate, I am writing to tell you that I do not donate to the state or national Political Action Committee (PAC). My reason for this is quite honestly that the state and national associations have done little to nothing to address my on-going concerns regarding the state of affairs in school nutrition programs where registered dietitians and other qualified nutrition professionals have been replaced in local, state and regional offices with individuals who have NO training in nutrition or food service. I have repeatedly expressed this concern to the Texas affiliate even having a discussion with the TAND president and public policy liaison about five (5) years ago and also discussing it with those working the PAC booth at the AND FNCE.

Our jobs are being taken by those with no nutrition or food service training and we wonder why the interests of public health nutrition are being ignored in Washington, DC. We should expect no less, so until AND and the state affiliates take a much bigger stand to protect the profession and seek for nutrition professionals to be strategically placed in government, there is no reason to support a PAC at any level.

Let me know what you think.

Dear Priscilla,

Thank you for taking the time to provided your feedback. Your feedback is valuable but we are disappointed to hear that you have not seen any value and leadership within the Academy as it relates to child nutrition programs. We have been working tirelessly here in DC and throughout the country to support Academy members who lead child nutrition programs. In fact the Academy's Council on Future Practice has identified child nutrition programs as a potential growth market for Academy members and we couldn't agree more!

With the passage of the Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act in 2010, the Academy led efforts to include rigorous education requirements and continuing education benchmarks for school nutrition professionals nation-wide. These standards ensured that qualified professionals, like DTRs and RDNs, were leading school nutrition programs at the local and state director levels. In DC we vigorously support nutrition standards for school meals that meet the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, and the provision that requires qualified professionals to run school nutrition programs. These efforts are directly supported by ANDPAC.

USDA and the Academy have had a wonderful partnership and understanding that child nutrition programs are a rewarding avenue that utilizes the unique skills of DTRs and RDNs. Over the past year USDA and the Academy have worked together to provide materials to Dietetic Internship Directors and Child Nutrition Program State Agencies about the outstanding benefits that a dietetic intern can bring to child nutrition programs. The overall objective was captured in the December 2016 blog post by USDA "USDA Child Nutrition Program to Dietetics Interns: We Need to Talk!"

I am guessing you have not had the pleasure of meeting or hearing speak the Academy's President-Elect, Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND. Donna is constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and stating how having Academy members on staff would help manage child nutrition programs more effectively. Donna has sat at her Congressman's' table, and the former First Lady of the US, Michelle Obama came to her district to help plant her garden and then Donna went to the White House to help harvest the First Lady's garden. In those meetings Donna's uplifting message always focuses on the kids she serves and how she couldn't do what she does without her team which includes many RDNs. worth.

That would be great. I would definitely tell her that we now have a president who is out constantly touting School Nutrition as a great career and how having RDN's on staff would cure all our problems. The new regs are now requiring more education for directors depending on the size of the system. AND PAC is the best way to help us get this message out. RDN's have got to become ambassadors to help show what we are worth. I feel like statistically we have seen a huge increase in the numbers of RDN's in SNP. Just some initial thoughts.

Donna,

As of June 1, 2017 your monthly stipend will increase from $750 per month to $2,500 per month. This increase helps cover the incidental costs you may incur. As before, it will be directly deposited into your bank account the first week of every month and you will receive an email the day prior notifying you of the deposit. No paperwork is required for your use of the stipend. In addition to the stipend, you will still be reimbursed for all expenses incurred on behalf of and approved by the Academy. You declined our offer of an American Express card from the Academy; if at any time you change your mind please, let me know.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me.

Best regards,
Pat

Donna,

I hope you're having a great Friday! I heard back from Ciara, the reporter from CNN. She indicated that you provided great insight during the conversation yesterday.

She is wondering if she could speak with one of the cafeteria managers in your school district because she wants to explore a few key elements, such as advancements made in kitchen equipment that have helped serving healthier foods to students and some of the day-to-day operations.

I'm not sure whether that would be possible or what the protocol is in your school district, but I told her I'd reach out to you and ask.

Thanks again for agreeing to the interview yesterday.

Best,

Rhys

Sounds great! The reporter, Cara, just got back to me. This is specifically what they want to discuss with you. Are you still comfortable talking to the reporter, and if so, what number should I have her call you at?

Information wise, we are looking to discuss the relationship between the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the School Nutrition Association in previous years. Shirley Watkins (Former SNA president) informed us yesterday that there used to be a relationship between the two, but things began breaking off with SNA when it went in a separate direction for its viewpoints on healthier meals for K-12 students.

Thanks!

Donna,

Hello, I hope you're doing well today!

We were contacted today by a reporter with CNN who is working on a story about the school lunch proclamation that Ag Secretary Sonny Perdue recently announced. One aspect of the story involves the School Nutrition Association.

One of the Association's former managers, Shirley Watkins, spoke to the reporter this afternoon about the organization's position change throughout the years. They briefly mentioned the Academy. The reporter wants to "get some perspective on how the relationship(s) have changed" and wants to know if someone is available to talk this week.

On its face, the interview seems to be similar, subject-wise, to an article in which you were recently quoted:

http://www.pressrepublican.com/news/local_news/food-fight-on-over-changes-to-federal-nutrition-standards-for/article_5077d9c6-7779-5728-b75b-f394451dba2f.html

Would you be interested in talking to the CNN reporter?

Thanks!

As school nutrition professional and a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, including the Texas affiliate, I am writing to tell you that I do not donate to the state or national Political Action Committee (PAC). My reason for this is quite honestly that the state and national associations have done little to nothing to address my on-going concerns regarding the state of affairs in school nutrition programs where registered dietitians and other qualified nutrition professionals have been replaced in local, state and regional offices with individuals who have NO training in nutrition or food service. I have repeatedly expressed this concern to the Texas affiliate even having a discussion with the TAND president and public policy liaison about five (5) years ago and also discussing it with those working the PAC booth at the AND FNCE.

Our jobs are being taken by those with no nutrition or food service training and we wonder why the interests of public health nutrition are being ignored in Washington, DC. We should expect no less, so until AND and the state affiliates take a much bigger stand to protect the profession and seek for nutrition professionals to be strategically placed in government, there is no reason to support a PAC at any level.

Attached find a copy of the agenda for PPW. Jeanne had planned to speak with you at the Board meeting last week but did not get that opportunity.

We have identified a moderator role for each of you. In addition, we are planning to have a panel interview as a part of the last session on Sunday June 25. It will be approximately a 20 minute event. Mary will serve as the interviewer for the session. We will be working with you on the specifics. The topic is "keeping it nonpartisan". The PIA team will assist with the scripts for your moderator portion of the program as well as developing the questions for the panel. There will be more information very soon.

Please let me know if you have questions, Thank you in advance for support.

Good morning, Susan-

I am reaching out to you to inform DCE leaders that the Academy Board of Directors has formally extended an alliance invitation to AACE. By formalizing an alliance, it will allow the two organizations to collaborate across a variety of programs and initiatives.

Once the alliance is formalized, the Academy will need to appoint an alliance representative. We welcome recommendations from DCE DPG for the three Academy Presidents' consideration for the representative role. Since we are aware of some initial conversations that DCE was having with AACE, including a potential volunteer role for Maggie Powers, we would encourage DCE to refocus at this time by developing a list of alliance representative candidates for consideration.

Please provide the following information for each individual that DCE may choose to put forward for consideration of the alliance representative role:

Name

Credentials

Member ID

Brief Rationale for Nomination

Short Bio/CV for Candidate

The Academy leadership and Presidents will be in communication with DCE about future reciprocal collaborations with AACE as those opportunities are identified.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

I received the attached letter from Dr. Leffert, AACE President, inviting the Academy to appoint a member as an advisor on their Lifestyle and Nutrition Scientific Committee and Obesity Scientific Committee. Diane Enos wrote to Susan Yake that the appointee recommendations need to come to the Academy's President and CEO. The letter is below.

My letter to Dr. Leffert initiating a formalized alliance relationship is also attached.

Hi, Donna: Attached for your review is our draft of your August president's page. Can you please let us know if it is OK or if you would like us to make any edits, which we're glad to do. (We're at the word limit now, so any edits can't increase the article's net length.)

Because of the references to the Foundation and its programs in the article, we sent this text to the Foundation for their review, and they have OK'd it as is.

With your OK, we'll send the text to the Journal. Thanks very much, talk to you soon!

Information wise, we are looking to discuss the relationship between the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the School Nutrition Association in previous years. Shirley Watkins (Former SNA president) informed us yesterday that there used to be a relationship between the two, but things began breaking off with SNA when it went in a separate direction for its viewpoints on healthier meals for K-12 students.

Thanks!

Donna,

Hello, I hope you're doing well today!

We were contacted today by a reporter with CNN who is working on a story about the school lunch proclamation that Ag Secretary Sonny Perdue recently announced. One aspect of the story involves the School Nutrition Association.

One of the Association's former managers, Shirley Watkins, spoke to the reporter this afternoon about the organization's position change throughout the years. They briefly mentioned the Academy. The reporter wants to "get some perspective on how the relationship(s) have changed" and wants to know if someone is available to talk this week.

On its face, the interview seems to be similar, subject-wise, to an article in which you were recently quoted:

Dear Donna,

As an expert in the field, you may already be aware of the referenced meeting, but I wanted to share it with you. Details are below.

The Task Force Meeting will be held on Wednesday June 14 at the CDC Edward R. Roybal Campus, CDC Headquarters (Building 19), 1600 Clifton Road NE., Atlanta, GA 30329. The meeting will be held from 8:30 am to 6:00 pm EDT and Thursday, June 15 from 8:30 am to 1:00 pm EDT. CDC will send the webcast URL to registrants upon receipt of their registration. A public comment period, limited to three minutes per person, will follow the Task Force's discussion of each systematic review FOR THOSE ATTENDEES ON-SITE. NOTE: PUBLIC COMMENT IS NOT POSSIBLE VIA WEBCAST AND NO OPPORTUNITY FOR WRITTEN COMMENT IS PLANNED.

Systematic review topics proposed for discussion:

Diabetes prevention: Diabetes Prevention and Control (Effectiveness of Mobile Phone Applications to Improve Glycemic Control (HbA1c) in the Self-management of Diabetes); Obesity Prevention and Control (Economics of School-based Interventions for Obesity Prevention, Availability of Healthy Food and Beverage (AHFB) and Snack Food and Beverage (SFB));

Physical Activity (Effectiveness of Activity Monitors for Increasing Physical Activity in Adults with Overweight or Obesity);

and Women's Health (Effectiveness of Interventions for the Primary Prevention of Intimate Partner Violence and Sexual Violence Among Youth).

The Task Force's recommendations, along with the systematic reviews of the evidence on which they are based, are compiled in the Guide to Community Preventive Services (The Guide). No draft documents are available, but the agency has agreed to send meeting transcripts when available and notify us of the release of the updated Guide. The agenda is subject to change without notice. The Task Force roster is here

The full meeting announcement is here.

I hope you are available to attend.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thanks again for your interest in public policy issues.

ANDHII – Online Platform Supporting Patient Care

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Health Informatics Infrastructure (ANDHII) provides practitioners with tools to track and report outcomes for individual patients and for their practice as a whole. ANDHII plays a key role in nationwide research initiatives in areas such as malnutrition diagnosis, evidence based practice guideline implementation and comparative effectiveness research.

Showcase Your Value....By Proving Outcomes

The power of outcomes research is in your hands! ANDHII provides the tools you need to document efficiently and accurately use the Nutrition Care Process. This not only validates your role, but elevates the profession of dietetics by aggregating data which will improve overall quality of nutrition interventions.

Prove your Nutrition Expertise with eNCPT

Registered dietitian nutritionists must prove effectiveness in solving patients' nutritional problems by fully adopting the Nutrition Care Process and using the same terminology. Implementing the nutrition care process allows for a consistent and standardized way for practice making outcomes research much easier. The electronic Nutrition Care Process Terminology (eNCPT) helps in this way. eNCPT is an online publication containing a narrative explanation of the Nutrition Care Process. Subscribers of the eNCPT have access to the most up-to-date terminology used in nutrition care.

This is a follow up to the recent Finance and Audit Committee call. It was brought to my attention that some of you may not have been aware of Mary Pat's retirement at the end of this fiscal year and the transition plan. Attached is the April 18 email that I forwarded to the Board. As the letter mentions, I decided to keep Mary Pat on for a short duration to ensure a smooth transition and to support the Academy's ongoing work in D.C.; her work as VP however ends on May 31. This expense is covered with funds that were already budgeted for an external D.C. consultant.

It is also important that I address communication protocol regarding the transition of employees. The Academy supports Human Resources best practices and has adopted a longstanding protocol that is also recommended by legal counsel. It is our business practice that I communicate with the Board regarding the employment status of executive team members. Vice Presidents and Directors communicate all other staff departures, promotions and alignments with their respective committees.

I hope that this information is helpful. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,

Pat

Donna,

Sounds great! The reporter, Cara, just got back to me. This is specifically what they want to discuss with you. Are you still comfortable talking to the reporter, and if so, what number should I have her call you at?

Information wise, we are looking to discuss the relationship between the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the School Nutrition Association in previous years. Shirley Watkins (Former SNA president) informed us yesterday that there used to be a relationship between the two, but things began breaking off with SNA when it went in a separate direction for its viewpoints on healthier meals for K-12 students.

Thanks!

Rhys

Diane Enos and I are in complete agreement that the appointment process to AACE go through the the Academy. Tomorrow I will request an alliance with AACE to formalize the collaboration and thereby the appointment process. AACE is not an alliance network of DCE but even if it was, standard operating procedure is that appointments come from the Academy President and CEO. Generally, input is requested from DPGs when appropriate.

I will let you know when I receive the request from Dan. In the interim, please think about potential names.

Dear Dan,

It was nice to meet you at AACE a few weeks ago. I hope you have had some down time after the conference to catch up.

Last week The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics had our quarterly Board of Directors meeting.

At that meeting I was able to speak with the Academy's President (Lucille Beseler) and President Elect (Donna Martin). They have expressed their excitement for the possibility of a closer collaboration between AACE and the Academy.

They have asked me to request that you send the letter of request for the committee appointments to the Academy instead of only to DCE (Diabetes Care and Education practice group). DCE is a subgroup of the Academy as I mentioned when we met. The Academy would be the leading organization to appoint the RDNs to the committees you mentioned in your letter as attached.

The person who should be contacted with the request letter is:

New: Member Survey on Informatics Resources

A new online survey in the Academy's Member Engagement Zone asks members to share which of the Academy's nutrition informatics resources you have found most useful. The Member Engagement Zone is a platform developed to gather insights and secure feedback on issues affecting the nutrition and dietetics profession. You can help advance the Academy and the profession by taking this short, one-question survey.

Academy's Stance: President's Budget Jeopardizes Nutrition Programs and Services

President Trump's 2018 budget proposal would drastically cut domestic spending, including substantial funding for vital nutrition assistance programs and health care assistance. The Academy opposes cuts to programs that curb food insecurity and provide nutrition education to the most vulnerable populations and stabilize health insurance markets. The Academy is working with both parties in Congress against these cuts that jeopardize vital programs and services.

Do You Work in a Hospital or Long-Term Care? Tell the Academy About Malnutrition's Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility.

Menu Labeling Progresses in New York City, Delayed Nationwide

New York City will become the first jurisdiction to enforce menu labeling rules that include chain restaurants, chain convenience stores and grocery stores, despite the Trump administration's decision to delay the national menu labeling requirements until May 2018. The Academy strongly supports menu labeling. In issuing the delay for the national menu labeling standards, the Food and Drug Administration said it is seeking public comment on "approaches to reduce regulatory burden or increase flexibility." The Academy will respond consistent with our previous comments and input from Dietetic Practice Groups.

New CDC Infographic: Impact of Obesity Epidemic on National Security

A new infographic titled "Unfit to Serve: Obesity is Impacting National Security" is available from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity and Obesity in partnership with Mission Readiness, an organization of retired admirals and generals whose goal is to strengthen national security by ensuring children "stay in school, stay fit, and stay out of trouble." The infographic details how the obesity epidemic affects national security, with more than a quarter of young adults being too heavy to serve in the military. The Academy has worked with Mission Readiness on anti-obesity initiatives, including programs for legislators and media who attended the 2016 national party conventions.

My first thought is that he is cute. That always helps. I am going to hold out hope for Sanjay. We are lobbyists for an organization that supports the work he does. Not one that is really selling stuff unless you count selling prevention. That is my story anyway. I will check more into this guy tomorrow.

Hi Donna-

Sanjay is available, but I am trying to clear the concerns and limitations he has with CNN about not speaking for anyone with active lobbyists (4 people in the DC office are registered lobbyists).

If that is a sticking point for us to be unable to get him, here is another option to consider...Bert consistently gets Standing "O's" at TEDX and other keynotes. Thoughts?

<image002.jpg>BERT JACOBS – CO-FOUNDER AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OPTIMIST OF LIFE IS GOOD

Known for their lifestyle brand spreading the power of optimism and helping kids in need, Bert and John Jacobs have grown a social following of 2.5 million optimists and counting over the past 20 years of their business. From selling their designs at street fairs to, today, over 4,500 retailers nationwide carrying Life is good products, the company's growth and success lies in its connection to the community. The company donates 10 percent of its net profits to The Life is good Kids Foundation. Bert and the company have been featured on CNNMoney, CNBC's Business Nation, ABC Nightline, NBC's The Today Show, and in The New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Inc., Men's Health and Men's Journal, among others.

The Life is good Company spreads the power of optimism and donates 10 percent of its net profits to help kids in need. The company has raised $11 million for kids in need to date, principally through Life is good products, events and community fundraising efforts. Life is good® is a registered trademark of The Life is good Company.

The Life is good Kids Foundation is an accredited 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization established by Life is good to raise money to help kids in need. LPPC and ANDPAC Members,

As you likely heard, the Administration's budget proposal was released yesterday and recommends significant cuts to domestic programs. We have reviewed the budget and will be issuing a statement today highlighting the impact this proposal would have on nutrition programs, public health infrastructure and our country's health.

The Academy's statement is high-level and focused on the larger issue of decreased funding, as opposed to effects on individual programs. We will post a more detailed report of the budget proposal's impact at the end of this week on eatrightPRO that will call out specific programmatic cuts that would take place if this budget were to be adopted.

Now that the budget has been released, Congress takes over. No president's budget in modern history has been approved as submitted. It is likely this budget will meet that same fate and will be used by Congress to guide its work but will not be adopted in its entirety. Our responsibility is to continue to advocate: to prevent elimination or deep cuts by Congressional appropriators in nutrition programs that keep our nation healthy and employ the Academy's members.

If you have any questions, please contact me or Jenn Folliard.

Thanks Mary Pat, I had a phone conversation with Gary Black, Georgia Ag Commissioner and best friend of Sonny Perdue, about getting a meeting with him. I have drafted two letters that I will be sending him as soon as I can get his email address. I am asking for an appointment to see him, and asking for him to attend our Feed my School Event in August. Gary Black said, if I copied him on the letters, he would help. Let's do this!!!

This is perfect timing! We met yesterday with our partners who are RDNs and have the ear of Secretary Perdue. They were unaware of your work and were delighted to hear about it. And you are from Georgia! No wonder they were so excited when I shared the grits information.

We have decided this is the time to bring everyone together and help the new Administration especially the federal agencies. We will lead this effort so more to come.

Back to your article. We also told our friends that you and other SNS leaders are not bound by regulations. You know the science and your heart is with the kids. That combination is a winner for our children.

They did ask if it was too late for you to be undersecretary.

Thanks for your leadership. And this appreciation is expanded to everyone on this email for your time and leadership!

Dear Dr. Jeff Bland, Mark Hyman and Patrick Hanaway,

I wanted to share the following information.

Attached please see upcoming AAPI eBook 3 next month to be released at the AAPI National convention on 6/21. 2500 Physicians, AMA

president, Senators, Congressmen, Ambassador of few countries and other dignitaries will be present.

Mark, I want to tell you that Brigid has shared her chapter with other colleagues and Cleveland Clinic's name will be prominent. I am sure she makes you proud..

Andy, IFM will be in the forefront as IFM Faculty members like Michael Stone, MD, Joel Evans, MD, Leslie Stone MD, Deanna Minich IFMCP , Terry Wahls, Dale Bredesen

have contributed their chapters. Example is in the attachment. Trying my best to inspire Young and Seasoned MDs to take AFMCP and IFM's some of the Module OR get IFMCP certification.

Liz, Appreciate you sending an email announcement showing COVER page ONLY to IHS folks know about this eBook 3.

Joel Evans MD has been invited speaker to Bangalore -India in August 2017. Joel proud of you. Joel has passion for India and Indians.

Dr. Lodha,AAPI National President is Originally from Rajsthan India and his desire is to bring Functional Medicine concepts to India.

Wait till you read Introduction for this eBook Mark !

All of you are champions and I must say that in 2008 it was Diana Noland who invited me to attend IFM's AFMCP and Kathie Swift to be credited who invited me to to attend Dr. Gordon's FAM program twice. That was the beginning of my journey. I was very impressed by Michael Stone MD since then,

THANK YOU Dr. Bland, Mark and Patrick. You all are my Heros..

Hope you all are doing well.

Lorelei DiSogra Ed.D., R.D.

Named 2017 Women in Produce Honoree

Retiring industry veteran and nutrition champion Lorelei DiSogra Ed.D., R.D., is this year's honoree and featured speaker at the Reception Honoring Women In Produce, taking place from 4:30-5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 14 at the United Fresh Convention in Chicago.

Prior to her decade of service to the industry at United Fresh, Lorelei served as the Director of the National 5 A Day Program at the National Cancer Institute and Vice President of Nutrition at Dole Food Company. Throughout her career, Lorelei has worked tirelessly to advance children's access to fresh fruits and vegetables.

Her work has helped expand the Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program to schools in all 50 states; get fresh fruit and vegetables included in WIC Food Packages; and increased fruits and vegetables in school meals across the country to benefit more than 32 million students a day. At the time of her retirement, more than 5,000 salad bars will have been donated to schools across the country, thanks to her efforts as one of the creators of the Let's Move Salad Bars to Schools program.

Lorelei will join a distinguished community of past honorees, including:

- Dan'I Mackey Almy, DMA Solutions, Inc.
- Tonya Antle, Organic Produce Network
- Frieda Caplan, Frieda's, Inc.
- Karen Caplan, Frieda's, Inc.
- Margaret D'Arrigo, Taylor Farms, Inc.
- Jan DeLyser, California Avocado Commission
- Jan Fleming, Strube Celery &Vegetable Company

- Joline Godfrey, An Income of her Own

- JoAnn Hines, Women in Packaging

- Janice Honigberg, Sun Belle, Inc.
- Lorri Koster, Mann Packing Company
- Julie Krivanek, Krivanek Consulting Inc.
- Lisa McNeece Miceli, Grimmway Enterprises Inc.
- Teri Miller, The Fresh Market

- Kathleen Nave, California Table Grape Commission
- Dr. Martha Rhodes-Roberts, Roberts Associates
- Steffanie Smith, Andrew Smith Company
- Heather Shavey, Costco Wholesale
- Mayda Sotomayor-Kirk, Seald Sweet/Greenyard USA
- Rosemary Talley, Talley Farms
- Jenney Tenney, The Kroger Company

- Claire Thornton, The Fresh Approach

Join us this June at one of the most popular networking events of the show, to celebrate Lorelei and all women working in the fresh produce industry! Ensure your spot to this event with an All Access Package.

Dear Dr. Jeff Bland, Mark Hyman and Patrick Hanaway,

I wanted to share the following information.

Attached please see upcoming AAPI eBook 3 next month to be released at the AAPI National convention on 6/21. 2500 Physicians, AMA

president, Senators, Congressmen, Ambassador of few countries and other dignitaries will be present.

Mark, I want to tell you that Brigid has shared her chapter with other colleagues and Cleveland Clinic's name will be prominent. I am sure she makes you proud..

Andy, IFM will be in the forefront as IFM Faculty members like Michael Stone, MD, Joel Evans, MD, Leslie Stone MD, Deanna Minich IFMCP , Terry Wahls, Dale Bredesen

have contributed their chapters. Example is in the attachment. Trying my best to inspire Young and Seasoned MDs to take AFMCP and IFM's

some of the Module OR get IFMCP certification.

Liz, Appreciate you sending an email announcement showing COVER page ONLY to IHS folks know about this eBook 3.

Joel Evans MD has been invited speaker to Bangalore -India in August 2017. Joel proud of you. Joel has passion for India and Indians.

Dr. Lodha,AAPI National President is Originally from Rajsthan India and his desire is to bring Functional Medicine concepts to India.

Wait till you read Introduction for this eBook Mark !

All of you are champions and I must say that in 2008 it was Diana Noland who invited me to attend IFM's AFMCP and Kathie Swift to be credited who invited me to to attend Dr. Gordon's FAM program twice. That was the beginning of my journey. I was very impressed by Michael Stone MD since then,

THANK YOU Dr. Bland, Mark and Patrick. You all are my Heros..

Hope you all are doing well.

This is perfect timing! We met yesterday with our partners who are RDNs and have the ear of Secretary Perdue. They were unaware of your work and were delighted to hear about it. And you are from Georgia! No wonder they were so excited when I shared the grits information.

We have decided this is the time to bring everyone together and help the new Administration especially the federal agencies. We will lead this effort so more to come.

Back to your article. We also told our friends that you and other SNS leaders are not bound by regulations. You know the science and your heart is with the kids. That combination is a winner for our children.

They did ask if it was too late for you to be undersecretary.

Thanks for your leadership. And this appreciation is expanded to everyone on this email for your time and leadership!

Free May 24 Webinar: Making Malnutrition Matter

Up to half of older Americans are at risk for malnutrition, yet there is a gap in the delivery of care. The Academy, as part of the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition, helped develop the National Blueprint: Achieving Quality Malnutrition Care for Older Adults. The blueprint outlines potential actions to close the gap and improve health outcomes for older adults by addressing malnutrition care across the continuum of acute, post-acute and community settings, as well as strategies to address malnutrition. The webinar on May 24, 3:30 p.m. (Eastern Time) will show members how you can make a difference. The webinar offers 1 CPEU. To register, click here.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

1. The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;
2. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
3. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
4. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
5. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Achieving Rural Health Equity and Well-being: Challenges and Opportunities

On June 13, 2017, the National Academy of Science, Engineering and Medicine Roundtable on the Promotion of Health Equity and the Elimination of Health Disparities and the Roundtable on Population Health Improvement will hold a joint 1-day workshop in Prattville, Alabama and via webcast on "Achieving Rural Health Equity and Well-Being: Challenges and Opportunities." Participants will explore a range of initiatives focused on improving community well-being. The workshop is intended to illustrate some promising and constructive actions that rural communities facing these enormous challenges are taking to equitably improve residents' health and well-being. Visit the Roundtable's website for more information, including in-person and webcast registration.

Academy's Centennial Resolution Gains Cosponsors in Congress

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, H. Res. 161/S. Res. 75, the centennial resolution commemorating the Academy's 100th Anniversary, has three new cosponsors in the House of Representatives and one new cosponsor in the Senate! In the House, the new cosponsors are Reps. Al Lawson (Fla.), Diana DeGette (Colo.) and David Joyce (Ohio). In the Senate, the new cosponsor is Senator Luther Strange (Ala.). Please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the resolution and send a note of thanks to those who already have.

Menu Labeling Progresses in NYC, Delayed Nationwide

New York City announced it will enforce its menu labeling rules, which includes chain restaurants, chain convenience stores, and grocery stores (the first jurisdiction to do so), beginning May 22, despite the Trump administration's decision to delay the national menu labeling requirements for yet another year until May 2018. The Academy strongly supports menu labeling, which gives consumers necessary information about calories at the point of purchase (and other nutritional information upon request) to help them make a healthful choices. In issuing the delay for the national menu labeling standards, the FDA is seeking public comment on "approaches to reduce regulatory burden or increase flexibility," to which the Academy will respond consistent with its previous comments and input received from our Dietetic Practice Groups.

New Infographic on Impact of Obesity Epidemic on National Security

Check out a new infographic "Unfit to Serve –Obesity is Impacting National Security" from the CDC's Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity, and Obesity in partnership with Mission Readiness, a team of "retired admirals and generals strengthening national security by ensuring kids stay in school, stay fit, and stay out of trouble." This infographic details the extent to which the obesity epidemic in the United States impacts our national security, with over one in four young adults being too heavy in serve in our military, and demonstrates how improved nutrition and increased physical activity are essential to a strong nation. The Academy has worked with Mission Readiness on a number of anti-obesity initiatives, including programs for legislators and media attending the national party conventions in 2016.

Chronic Care Legislation Advances; Efforts Continue to Add New Obesity Provisions

On May 18, the Senate Finance Committee passed the CHRONIC Act of 2017, which focuses on ways to improve health outcomes for millions of Americans living with chronic illnesses. Bipartisan work will continue on a number of amendments offered during the hearing, including an amendment offered by Senator Cassidy (La.) to incorporate provisions of the Academy's Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (TROA) into the legislation and obtain a Congressional Budget Office score for TROA. The Academy continues to urge that any meaningful health care reform must include implementation of whole-population prevention strategies and specific chronic disease management that includes nutrition counseling and self-care.

Work in a Hospital? Long Term Care? Tell Us about Malnutrition's Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility. Please provide your submissions.

List of Recorded Webinars Available on Communities of Interest

Attached please find an undated list of the recorded webinars that are available on the Policy and Advocacy communities of interest (COI) in the Library. The PPW sessions 3, 4 and 5 recordings will be after the live broadcasts.

Updated PPW 2017 Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The updated list of registrants for PPW 2017 has been posted in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. If members are missing from the list, it means that their registration has not been processed. If you have any questions, please let us know.

June 2 Deadline: PPW Registration and Housing

Please join the over 400 members to stand up for important issues at the Academy's Public Policy Workshop, June 25 to 26 in Washington, D.C. Be sure to register by Friday, June 2 to secure your spot at the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit. You must reserve your room no later than 5 p.m. (Eastern Time) on June 2; rooms are based on availability and may sellout prior to the deadline. For information about the tentative PPW agenda, click here.

Scheduling Meetings with Members of Congress

The affiliate public policy coordinators are encouraged to begin scheduling meetings with US Senators and Representatives. The "Meeting Scripts and Outline for contacting your Members of Congress" is available in the PPW 2017 Tool Kit subtopic on the Community of Interest.

Two sample Hill Day meeting schedule forms can also be found in the PPW 2017 Tool Kit subtopic on the Community of Interest. One is an Excel file and the other is a Word document. Each sample has an example meeting shown. Please edit, add additional items or change the document to meet your affiliate needs. For example, you may want add a column to identify the name of the staff member(s) you will be meeting with or you may wish to identify legislation that the member of Congress has supported in the past. If you need assistance, please let us know.

PPW Bootcamp Webinar Recordings available for PPCs and PALs

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).
2. Ask your members to take action now!

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports will be located in May 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the May 2017 subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Here is a chart identifying the action alert statistics as of today:

All,

During our call today, two things came up that I wanted close the loop on; Nutrition Focused Physical Exam (NFPE) program and the name of the program for Food and Nutrition Magazine.

Regarding the NFPE program; it has generated $207, 000 in revenue this year and is $23,612 above budget through April. The program I could not remember for Food and Nutrition Magazine is the "Engagement program". It has generated $170,200 in revenue this year and is $75,000 over budget through April.

These are two of our success stories in FY17!

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Subject: RE: Finance and Audit Committee call on Tuesday, May 23rd at 1:00 p.m. CDT

Good morning to everyone,

As you know, we have our final Finance and Audit Committee call for the 2017 Fiscal Year on Tuesday, May 23rd at 1 p.m. CDT. I am attaching the agenda for your review. This month, we will focus on the following;

1. March final financials
2. April preliminary financials
3. Feedback from the Board on the FY18 budget

Most of the information should be posted to the portal this afternoon. Since Christian has a big job in completing the narratives, this might not make it until tomorrow. In both cases, Maria will let you know when the information is available.

You should also receive an email from the Academy IT department. This will be the webinar invitation. If you don't receive it today, please let me know and I will follow up to have it resent.

We also will have guests joining our meeting this month. The members who will be joining this Committee in FY18 have all been invited to audit the call. I know schedules are difficult and not everyone will be able to attend. However, everyone is welcome. For those of you who are new to the Committee in FY18 and have not served on this Committee in the past, you will have the option to receive an orientation to the Committee. More news to follow on this issue. Of course, if the former members of this Committee would like a “refresher”, just let me know. Finally, the Academy Executive team is always welcome to audit the Finance Committee calls. So, some of them may join us as well.

If you can't make it on Tuesday, please let me know.

We had a great meeting today with Beth Johnson and Maggie Sommers. Beth is a RDN and a former high ranking member of the Bush Administration at USDA.

We have forged a very nice trusting friendship. As a result Beth and Maggie have briefed us on the new Administration/USDA's plans. They have a great relationship with Mr. Perdue and staff and are willing to make more connections for us. As you know, we have been working on getting a meeting with you and the Secretary. Although we have not pushed waiting for the undersecretary to be announced, rather we are establishing new relationships.

We have identified opportunities for the Academy to take on the leadership of several issues that are ahead. And to continue to be the bridge on some of these more difficult conversations.

Beth and Maggie have been recently hired by SNA to provide some guidance on messaging on legislative issues and are doing a great job. We discussed the possibility of having a joint meeting with you and USDA and bringing in SNA. I know it would be hard but I think you would be a great leader to help repair some things for SNA. I am wondering though if it makes more sense to wait until Lynn assumes Presidency. Or try to schedule something with Becky still in office?

Your thoughts are welcome!

Beth Johnson, MS, RD, Principal &CEO

Elizabeth (Beth) Johnson, MS, RD, founded Food Directions LLC in February 2010. Johnson's unique experience and skill set helps clients gain valuable insight into the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Drug Administration (FDA), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and Capitol Hill. Johnson also has strong relationships with thought leaders at NGOs, food associations, and consumer groups, which help Food Directions gain a diverse perspective on food issues. Johnson is regularly tapped to speak at food related conferences and events.

Prior to starting Food Directions LLC, Johnson served as Executive Vice President for Public Affairs for the National Restaurant Association where she oversaw government affairs, public policy and communications for the organization. In 2008, Johnson was named Acting Under Secretary for Food Safety at USDA where she lead and oversaw the Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS), USDA's public health agency that ensures the nation's commercial meat, poultry, and certain egg products are safe, wholesome, and correctly labeled and packaged. In addition to her service as Acting Under Secretary for Food Safety, Johnson was deputy chief of staff and senior advisor for the Secretary of Agriculture at USDA, where she focused on agricultural trade, animal health, food safety and nutrition. She joined the department in 2002 after nearly four years at Fleishman-Hillard, Inc., where she was a vice president with clients in the food and agriculture arena. Her previous experiences include positions as a senior professional staff member at the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry; a nutritionist at the U.S. Food and Drug Administration; and a research dietitian at USDA. Johnson also worked at the National Cattlemen's Beef Association as associate director for food policy.

Johnson is a member of the Institute of Food Technologists (IFT), serves on the National Food Policy Conference Advisory Committee, Food Research &Action Center (FRAC) host committee, and on Dunkin Brands' Nutrition Advisory Board and is a Food Cowboy Advisor. Johnson has been quoted in numerous media outlets including USA Today, HealthDay, Supermarket News, Food Navigator USA, AdWeek, Washington Times, Politico, and The Hill, among others.

Johnson holds a BS in Dietetics from Ball State University and an MS in Nutrition from the University of Maryland. Johnson lives in Maryland with her husband Bill and daughters Hanah and Sara.

You may remember at this past week's Board meeting that we talked about the many accomplishments of Wahida Karmally, DrPH, RD, CDE, CLS, FNLA. We just learned that Dr. Karmally spearheaded a working group of RDNs to develop new guidelines on nutrition therapy for patients with a rare lipid disorder called familial chylomicronemia syndrome (FCS), which causes a buildup of triglycerides (TGs) in the blood, a trait that can lead to life-threatening pancreatitis.

Dr. Karmally is the lead guideline researcher for the new dietitian-recommended guidelines which suggest limiting fat intake to <20 grams per day or 15% of total calories. Patients should also avoid alcohol and sugar and limit simple carbohydrates. These guidelines are designed to help RDNs work with patients to navigate a nutritional plan that can potentially reduce the risk of pancreatitis and improve quality of life. The guidelines were presented at the National Lipid Association's annual meeting in Philadelphia this month.

Best regards,
Pat

Free May 24 Webinar: Making Malnutrition Matter

Up to half of older Americans are at risk for malnutrition, yet there is a gap in the delivery of care. The Academy, as part of the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition, helped develop the National Blueprint: Achieving Quality Malnutrition Care for Older Adults. The blueprint outlines potential actions to close the gap and improve health outcomes for older adults by addressing malnutrition care across the continuum of acute, post-acute and community settings, as well as strategies to address malnutrition. The webinar on May 24, 3:30 p.m. (Eastern Time) will show members how you can make a difference. The webinar offers 1 CPEU. To register, click here.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

1. The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;
2. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
3. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
4. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
5. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Achieving Rural Health Equity and Well-being: Challenges and Opportunities

On June 13, 2017, the National Academy of Science, Engineering and Medicine Roundtable on the Promotion of Health Equity and the Elimination of Health Disparities and the Roundtable on Population Health Improvement will hold a joint 1-day workshop in Prattville, Alabama and via webcast on "Achieving Rural Health Equity and Well-Being: Challenges and Opportunities." Participants will explore a range of initiatives focused on improving community well-being. The workshop is intended to illustrate some promising and constructive actions that rural communities facing these enormous challenges are taking to equitably improve residents' health and well-being. Visit the Roundtable's website for more information, including in-person and webcast registration.

Academy's Centennial Resolution Gains Cosponsors in Congress

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, H. Res. 161/S. Res. 75, the centennial resolution commemorating the Academy's 100th Anniversary, has three new cosponsors in the House of Representatives and one new cosponsor in the Senate! In the House, the new cosponsors are Reps. Al Lawson (Fla.), Diana DeGette (Colo.) and David Joyce (Ohio). In the Senate, the new cosponsor is Senator Luther Strange (Ala.). Please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the resolution and send a note of thanks to those who already have.

Menu Labeling Progresses in NYC, Delayed Nationwide

New York City announced it will enforce its menu labeling rules, which includes chain restaurants, chain convenience stores, and grocery stores (the first jurisdiction to do so), beginning May 22, despite the Trump administration's decision to delay the national menu labeling requirements for yet another year until May 2018. The Academy strongly supports menu labeling, which gives consumers necessary information about calories at the point of purchase (and other nutritional information upon request) to help them make a healthful choices. In issuing the delay for the national menu labeling standards, the FDA is seeking public comment on "approaches to reduce regulatory burden or increase flexibility," to which the Academy will respond consistent with its previous comments and input received from our Dietetic Practice Groups.

New Infographic on Impact of Obesity Epidemic on National Security

Check out a new infographic "Unfit to Serve – Obesity is Impacting National Security" from the CDC's Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity, and Obesity in partnership with Mission Readiness, a team of "retired admirals and generals strengthening national security by ensuring kids stay in school, stay fit, and stay out of trouble." This infographic details the extent to which the obesity epidemic in the United States impacts our national security, with over one in four young adults being too heavy to serve in our military, and demonstrates how improved nutrition and increased physical activity are essential to a strong nation. The Academy has worked with Mission Readiness on a number of anti-obesity initiatives, including programs for legislators and media attending the national party conventions in 2016.

Chronic Care Legislation Advances; Efforts Continue to Add New Obesity Provisions

On May 18, the Senate Finance Committee passed the CHRONIC Act of 2017, which focuses on ways to improve health outcomes for millions of Americans living with chronic illnesses. Bipartisan work will continue on a number of amendments offered during the hearing, including an amendment offered by Senator Cassidy (La.) to incorporate provisions of the Academy's Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (TROA) into the legislation and obtain a Congressional Budget Office score for TROA. The Academy continues to urge that any meaningful health care reform must include implementation of whole-population prevention strategies and specific chronic disease management that includes nutrition counseling and self-care.

Work in a Hospital? Long Term Care? Tell Us about Malnutrition's Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility. Please provide your submissions.

List of Recorded Webinars Available on Communities of Interest

Attached please find an undated list of the recorded webinars that are available on the Policy and Advocacy communities of interest (COI) in the Library. The PPW sessions 3, 4 and 5 recordings will be after the live broadcasts.

Updated PPW 2017 Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The updated list of registrants for PPW 2017 has been posted in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. If members are missing from the list, it means that their registration has not been processed. If you have any questions, please let us know.

June 2 Deadline: PPW Registration and Housing

Please join the over 400 members to stand up for important issues at the Academy's Public Policy Workshop, June 25 to 26 in Washington, D.C. Be sure to register by Friday, June 2 to secure your spot at the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit. You must reserve your room no later than 5 p.m. (Eastern Time) on June 2; rooms are based on availability and may sellout prior to the deadline. For information about the tentative PPW agenda, click here.

Scheduling Meetings with Members of Congress

The affiliate public policy coordinators are encouraged to begin scheduling meetings with US Senators and Representatives. The "Meeting Scripts and Outline for contacting your Members of Congress" is available in the PPW 2017 Tool Kit subtopic on the Community of Interest.

Two sample Hill Day meeting schedule forms can also be found in the PPW 2017 Tool Kit subtopic on the Community of Interest. One is an Excel file and the other is a Word document. Each sample has an example meeting shown. Please edit, add additional items or change the document to meet your affiliate needs. For example, you may want add a column to identify the name of the staff member(s) you will be meeting with or you may wish to identify legislation that the member of Congress has supported in the past. If you need assistance, please let us know.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).
2. Ask your members to take action now!

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports will be located in May 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the May 2017 subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Thank you, Donna! This is excellent information to have. We were going to include the Foundation's food waste report, and the profiles of you and the other members in it, so this information will work very well in the page. We will send you a draft this week to review. Thank you very much again, talk to you soon!

Tom, I wanted to give you some ideas for the food waste article on what we are doing here in Burke County to help with food waste.

School Nutrition Programs have been receiving a lot of criticism about increased food waste since the new standards came out as part of the Healthy Hunger Free Kids act of 2010. Critics say that this new law increased food waste in School Nutrition Programs all over the country. I beg to differ with that assessment. In Burke County we make sure we don't have food waste by giving kids lots of choices of fruits and vegetables when they come through the serving line. Offer versus serve allows children to pick up what they will eat, not plating food that may not be eaten. We make sure all our fruit, like apples and oranges, are cut up so that children who may not have enough time to eat lunch, have enough time to eat the fruit. Schools all over the country are composting what food goes into the trash cans and using it to fertilize their school gardens. By using more local farm to school products we are cutting down on our carbon footprint, and helping farmers sell products that might be in abundance in their fields and could potentially be wasted instead of eaten. We also serve our leftover the next day so food is not wasted. Lots of our kids come into the lunch and will ask if we have any leftover beef stir fry we served the day before.

Hope this helps!!!

Can you give me some background on this NE DPG listserv post? I realize this is sponsored, but explain to me who reviewed/approved this posting wording. We have the centennial FNCE coming up, which is easily the largest meeting for RDNs based on the meetings industry reports. Yet we allowed an outside post with a subject line stating they are the #1 nutrition conference of the year?

This is very concerning. Please advise.

Hello Donna!

Congratulations on becoming our Academy President! It has been a long time! I was in your AADI class of 1990. Not at all surprised how much you have accomplished professionally. :-) When I saw you were running (Jeanne Lee first sent out an e-mail), I forwarded your name to all of my colleagues and encouraged them to vote for dynamic you! Wishing you a successful and rewarding presidency.

Best to you,

Renew and Be Part of the Celebration

Hi Trisha,

My name is Donna S. Martin. I have been a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics for more than 40 years, and it is my privilege to be serving as the Academy's 2017-2018 President. The Academy has been an invaluable part of my career as a registered dietitian nutritionist, and I am certain that Academy membership enhances your career as well. For this reason, I am writing to personally encourage you to renew your Academy membership for the coming year.

During 2017, we mark the centennial of the Academy's founding. Today, as the largest organization of food and nutrition experts in the world, the Academy provides resources in more than 25 specialties within the profession – from renal to diabetes, to nutrition education and sports nutrition – all in one location. You don't have to search dozens of sites or join multiple organizations; the Academy does the heavy lifting for you.

You can renew online at www.eatrightPRO.org/renew or by calling the Academy's Member Service Center at 800/877-1600, ext. 5000 (weekdays, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Central Time). International callers can reach us at +1-312/899-0040, ext. 5000.

Don't miss out on the advantages of Academy membership and the excitement of our centennial celebration and our Second Century! Please join me and renew today.

Sincerely,

Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND

Hello Donna – and thank you for the reminder to renew my AND membership.

It's been 35 years, but you may remember me from your Augusta Area Dietetic Internship class of 1981-1982—the very first! It's almost unimaginable that 35 years have passed.

Congratulations on your elected role of AND President! Wishing you a productive and gratifying term. Proud that you are representing Georgia at this national level!

Perhaps there will be an opportunity to re-connect in person at some point. That would be nice.

Dear LPPC Leaders:

Agenda items for Friday's meeting have been uploaded to the LPPC Community of Interest which can be accessed here. The following items are still outstanding and will be available no later than COB tomorrow:

4.0(a) April LPPC Meeting Minutes

A combined PDF of all documents will be made available prior to Friday's meeting. As a reminder, the information needed to access the meeting is detailed below:

Step 1: Log into the webinar via the personalized link provided here.

The meeting password is: LPPC17

Step 2: Follow the audio prompts to use the "CALL ME" feature to have the Web-Ex system dial you in the audio portion of the meeting. This will sync your computer and the audio together accordingly. Do not dial into the meeting directly when connecting to Web-Ex unless you do not have a direct dial phone number (If you do not have a direct dial phone number, please select the option to dial-in from the drop-down menu – the number will be provided). By using the Call Me feature, the system will sync your web and audio connections together under your attendee name in Web-Ex.

Note: For those individuals unable to participate in the web portion of the meeting and/or do not have a direct dial phone number, you can dial in to the meeting as follows:

Conference Code: 271-642-5619

My first thought is that he is cute. That always helps. I am going to hold out hope for Sanjay. We are lobbyists for an organization that supports the work he does. Not one that is really selling stuff unless you count selling prevention. That is my story anyway. I will check more into this guy tomorrow.

One more thing and I heard someone say it at the Board meeting too-- that we are member driven. We are member focused, which we decided was the terminology to be used per Sandra Gill's recommendation at the Board retreat in New Orleans. The Board agreed. Joan, is that the term -- member focused-please see notes. Thanks.

In my mind it's a bit of a disconnect for Linda to do it when it's an organizational issue. I don't want her to get the idea to send it to the House, like was done w the NDA. There's a line in the Q&A about the legalities of selecting a name (why the Board did it) which may be of help to squelch her unmmm creativity. I can send it or Diane can as she offered because of Stacia's reaching out to the DPGs and affiliates. I hate to elevate these issues which waste everyone's time to the President or Speaker. It gives an importance to this issue which it doesn't deserve.

DRAFT FOR REVIEW

Dear Stacia:

Thank you for your email. The two items you mention, the name change and the optional RDN credential, were widely shared with members at all every stage of planning and discussion and members' feedback was taken into account. As you may know, the Board of Directors sets and monitors the strategic direction for the organization and the profession, and works closely with the House of Delegates. In fact six members of the House Leadership Team serve on the Academy's Board of Directors. At the time these decisions were made, I served on the Academy's Board as a Director and I fully supported both.

Following our name change in 2012, the Academy experienced a noticeable increase in the numbers of organizations who were interested in collaborating with us on initiatives to improve the public's health – in many cases, these are initiatives in which the Academy is taking the lead. Our media coverage also increased significantly, over 7 billion impressions, after the name change. In short, our objectives in making the change were achieved.

Regarding the RDN credential, let me emphasize that this credential is offered as an option to RDs who want to convey the nutrition aspect of the credential to the public and to other health practitioners. Use of the RDN credential is totally optional.

I hope this is helpful to you.

Best regards,

Linda Farr

I was with Lucille when Milton texted her to beware and not get into a # match. I would like to see the reply before it is sent. Doris, we have the version that talks about how many more impressions we received within a few months and being invited to the table. This does not warrant an extensive reply even though it went to the affiliates. It's about who we are and what we do. Short response and to the point. Say something like since implementation (blank) years ago, the expected outcome was achieved .

I know I wrote before, but I'm astounded about this though not completely surprised. We still have appeals about grandfathering which occurred in 1969.

Appears we all received it.

Can I connect with you on Monday to pull the master letters/response template about the positive outcomes from when we changed our name. Also, the one we used when RDN went into effect?

Since she blasted it out on one affiliate listserv and three DPG listservs, I am happy to send a response to her.

Dear fellow members,

I have two issues that I think will better our nutrition and dietetics membership organization, and I'm wondering if anyone else out there feels the same. I outline the issues below in a message to our "membership" address - maybe it doesn't work any longer as I've not heard back.

If these two issues are of concern to you as well, maybe we could have a small group to write two short documents for consideration in the house of delegates discussions and decision making process?

Subject: Membership Organization - an Association that is member driven

Dear colleague,

How can we start a dialogue about our identity as an organization? I somehow missed, as I believe many others did as well two things that still leave me unsettled:

- 1 - Changing our name from the American Dietetic Association to the Academy.
- 2 - Adding Nutritionist to Dietitian coming up with a new term Dietitian Nutritionist

I believe this has taken our membership organization in the wrong direction.

I can live with people taking on Nutritionist to their title, I often call myself a Nutritionist as some audiences I work with absorb this term better. But, I think the dialogue around changes like this need full discussion among members and that is where I would like to focus my efforts. We are a membership organizations and it should function at the will of its members, only. It should be an extremely democratic organization and have democratic systems in place. We need lots of discussions and membership votes for making major changes, not through a house of delegates, but through membership voting.

I would like to start a discussion within our membership about changing our name and acronym to:

American Nutrition and Dietetic Association, ANDA.

I would like to discuss and institute new processes for annual membership voting alongside voting for our leadership.

Looking forward to your thoughts on this,

ROB REINER – ACTOR, DIRECTOR & PRODUCER

Rob Reiner has directed some of the most popular and influential motion pictures of the past two decades, deftly moving among many styles. He has created films that win both audience enthusiasm and critical acclaim.

The versatile filmmaker has been immersed in the entertainment business for much of his life, succeeding first as an actor, then as a director and producer. Prior to his directorial debut, Reiner acted in many television and feature productions. It was, however, his Emmy Award-winning work as the son-in-law of 'Archie Bunker' in the hit series All in the Family that made him a household name.

Reiner's credits as a director of feature films include, among others, the now-legendary This is Spinal Tap, a parody documentary about a mythical heavy metal group; Stand By Me, about four boys coming of age in the fifties, for which he received Best Director nominations from the Directors Guild of America and the Hollywood Foreign Press Association; the much loved fantasy The Princess Bride, adapted for the screen by Academy Award winner William Goldman from his original novel.

Reiner was a co-founder of Castle Rock Entertainment, and under that banner produced and directed When Harry Met Sally... (Directors Guild nomination), Misery, A Few Good Men (Directors Guild nomination and Academy Award nomination for Best Picture), The American President, and Ghosts of Mississippi. His recent films include The Story of Us, Alex & Emma, Rumor Has It..., The Bucket List, and Flipped. He has recently completed Summer at Dog Dave's, starring Morgan Freeman. At the 2015 Toronto Film Festival, Reiner premiered Being Charlie, written by his now clean son Nick Reiner and inspired by his son's heroine addiction and its effects on the family.

CAL RIPKEN, JR. – LEGENDARY “IRON MAN” OF BASEBALL

Baseball's "Iron Man," Cal Ripken Jr. broke several professional baseball records during his 21 seasons, but none is as sacred as his consecutive-games-played record. Shattering Lou Gehrig's streak of 2,131 games by more than 500, Ripken displayed perseverance, endurance, and an everyday work ethic that endeared him to fans, transformed him into a national icon—and some argue, even saved baseball at its darkest moment. He is the author of 2004's Play Baseball the Ripken Way, 2006's Parenting Young Athletes the Ripken Way: Ensuring the Best Experience for Your Kids in Any Sport, and Get in the Game: 8 Elements of Perseverance That Make the Difference, released in 2007.

As a celebrity and sports speaker, Cal Ripken Jr. is the personification of leadership, commitment, and excellence. In a warm and witty presentation filled with stories from his illustrious career, he shows how these keys to success apply to the business world as well as they do to the baseball field. He recounts lessons learned in both victory and defeat, and insights given to him by family members and Hall of Fame competitors alike. From his own philanthropy with the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation and his dedication to helping children around the country through the Boys & Girls Clubs and the charity NikeGo, Ripken also showcases how individuals can give back and create new opportunities for others. One of the most popular athletes of his generation, Cal Ripken's example inspires audience members of all ages to achieve their own brand of success.

Donna,

Just wanted to send a quick note to let you know that I had reached out the Cathy Schuhart and Sherry Lavin at SNA regarding the rumors that President Trump may include block grants to CN programs in his budget request to Congress. I wanted to let them know we stand with them to oppose any potential cuts and we would be opposing the President's budget if large cuts to CN programs were the case.

We now don't expect big cuts to CN programs, but we do expect cuts to SNAP, welfare, and Medicaid.

Hope your Monday is off to great start!

Good morning,

I hope you both enjoyed your visit to Cleveland, birthplace of the Academy. I want to share with you a committee update that does not require any action on your part (I know that makes you both very happy). There is a separate application and selection process for a student representative to ANDPAC, who also serves on the Student Advisory Committee. That selection process is complete so we'll be sending an official appointment letter to Alicia Grove. It's very exciting to see the large number of students interested in serving in this capacity. Our future is strong!

Lilliane,

I wanted to let you know that we have offered the position to Alicia Grove who has accepted. We had nearly 30 applications and it was a challenge to narrow it down. We are likely asking one of the applicants to sit in on the LPPC as an ex-officio and will determine if we want to continue that moving forward. The applicants that were not selected have been encouraged to participate on the advisory panel for the PAC, which involves answer short surveys on an occasional basis.

Please let me know if you have questions!

Beyond the App Game: Integrating Mobile Apps into Dietetics Practice

Date: Thursday, May 25, 2017, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPE Level: 2

With thousands of mobile diet apps available and utilized by the public, dietetics professionals and other health providers need effective, evidence-based strategies for incorporating apps into practice. This session will provide best practices for evaluating and implementing apps in patient counseling sessions based on the latest research. Patient and provider perceptions of apps will be discussed, along with research-related outcomes of app interventions on changes in patients nutrition knowledge, behaviors, weight, and biochemical markers. HIPPA-compliance and FDA regulation in apps will also be covered.

Learning Objectives:

1. Utilize behavior change strategies incorporated into mobile apps to support dietetics practice.
2. Evaluate apps for use in dietary counseling.
3. Explore current developments and future directions of apps in dietetics research and practice settings.

Speakers:

Kristen DiFilippo, MS, RDN is a PhD candidate in Nutritional Sciences at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Kristens research focuses on app-based strategies to support nutrition education for behavior change. Her research includes the development of a tool for nutrition app evaluation, for which she won the Nutrition Education for the Public DPG Award of Excellence in 2016. Justine Karduck MS, RDN, CDE is a Clinical Assistant Professor and the Director of the Didactic Program in Dietetics in the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. She previously worked as a clinical dietitian, diabetes educator, and as nutrition consultant for a fitness center and Headstart. She is a part-time doctoral student in Human Nutrition at the University of Illinois and her dissertation research is focused on mobile apps in the clinical management of diabetes and obesity. REGISTER HERE!

FROM: Lucille Beseler

One of our Board responsibilities is to annually evaluate the CEO's performance. It is time for us Board members to complete section II of the evaluation - Competency Evaluation. It is available on survey monkey. Prior to doing the evaluation, take a look at Board agendas, general communications to the Board, CEO summary reports in Board meeting packets, executive session discussions with Pat as well as minutes from our Board meetings.

Please complete the questionnaire by Wednesday, May 31, 2017. The CEO Compensation Committee will summarize the responses, provide you with a summary report and recommendation regarding the CEO base salary for 2017-18 that will be discussed via conference call. We will contact you via doodle poll for a call in August.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you for participating!

TO BEGIN THE SURVEY click or copy this link into your browser:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/276SXTS>

The survey does not need to be completed in one sitting. If you wish to exit the survey and return to complete it later, please feel free to do so. Prior to the deadline, you will be able to log back in and resume the survey from where you left off by using the link above, which is unique to you.

If you have any questions about the evaluation, please contact me at lbeseler_fnc@bellsouth.net.

Thank you!

May 19, 2017

Dear LPPC Leaders:

The agenda for next Friday's meeting has been uploaded to the LPPC Community of Interest which can be accessed here. All agenda items will be uploaded to the COI no later than COB Tuesday, May 23rd.

As a reminder, the information needed to access the meeting is detailed below:

Step 1: Log into the webinar via the personalized link provided here.

The meeting password is: LPPC17

Step 2: Follow the audio prompts to use the "CALL ME" feature to have the Web-Ex system dial you in the audio portion of the meeting. This will sync your computer and the audio together accordingly. Do not dial into the meeting directly when connecting to Web-Ex unless you do not have a direct dial phone number (If you do not have a direct dial phone number, please select the option to dial-in from the drop-down menu – the number will be provided). By using the Call Me feature, the system will sync your web and audio connections together under your attendee name in Web-Ex.

Note: For those individuals unable to participate in the web portion of the meeting and/or do not have a direct dial phone number, you can dial in to the meeting as follows:

Dial In: 866-477-4564

Conference Code: 271-642-5619

As always, if you have any questions I am happy to assist!

Regards,

Christine A. Rhone

Sounds good.

I told Margo that we were not that concerned with the announcement. Our members would continue to follow the science and use this for healthy meals. And those that need mentoring, we are there for them.

I also said maybe it is time to advocate for more money for school meals. Yes, I know that will be supported by all members of Congress but at least they should hear it.

Good luck! :-)

For your eyes only

It is not that big of a deal to keep beating this issue and it takes this out of appropriations

AMIA Launches Informatics Workforce Survey
LAST CHANCE -- SURVEY CLOSES MAY 24

AMIA invites the members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics to participate in its first Informatics Workforce Survey, an important and unique opportunity to help shape the future of informatics. The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is distributing this survey to ensure the specific perspectives of its members are considered in the development of programs to support informatics professionals.

To participate, click this link or paste it into your browser:

<https://www.amia.org/ahic/survey>

Please complete this survey by May 24, 2017.

The survey is designed for professionals and students from all informatics domains and should take approximately 15 to 20 minutes to complete. By completing this survey, you will become eligible to enter a drawing for one of ten $250 VISA gift cards. No identifying information will be revealed in reporting results of this survey.

AMIA is seeking broad representation from the informatics field. Please share the survey link with colleagues who may be interested in participating.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact workforcesurvey@AMIA.org.

Thank you for your time!

About AMIA

AMIA, the leading professional association for informatics professionals, is the center of action for 5,400 informatics professionals from more than 65 countries. As the voice of the nations top biomedical and health informatics professionals, AMIA and its members play a leading role in advancing the field of informatics. AMIA actively supports five domains in informatics: translational bioinformatics, clinical research informatics, clinical informatics, consumer health informatics, and public health informatics.

Serve as an expert workgroup member to formulate and answer research questions and develop evidence-based nutrition practice guidelines using the Academy's Evidence Analysis Process. Workgroup members, with the assistance of lead analysts, review, analyze and summarize nutrition research. Resulting information is published on the Evidence Analysis Library

EAL® Toolkits for your Practice

Implement evidence-based practice and the Academy's Nutrition Care Process. The EAL® toolkits—in downloadable format—are designed to assist the registered dietitian nutritionist in applying the evidence-based nutrition practice guidelines. The toolkits include MNT protocol, documentation forms, case studies, and much more!

Beyond the App Game: Integrating Mobile Apps into Dietetics Practice

Date: Thursday, May 25, 2017, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPE Level: 2

With thousands of mobile diet apps available and utilized by the public, dietetics professionals and other health providers need effective, evidence-based strategies for incorporating apps into practice. This session will provide best practices for evaluating and implementing apps in patient counseling sessions based on the latest research. Patient and provider perceptions of apps will be discussed, along with research-related outcomes of app interventions on changes in patients nutrition knowledge, behaviors, weight, and biochemical markers. HIPPA-compliance and FDA regulation in apps will also be covered.

Learning Objectives:

1. Utilize behavior change strategies incorporated into mobile apps to support dietetics practice.
2. Evaluate apps for use in dietary counseling.
3. Explore current developments and future directions of apps in dietetics research and practice settings.

Speakers:

Kristen DiFilippo, MS, RDN is a PhD candidate in Nutritional Sciences at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Kristens research focuses on app-based strategies to support nutrition education for behavior change. Her research includes the development of a tool for nutrition app evaluation, for which she won the Nutrition Education for the Public DPG Award of Excellence in 2016. Justine Karduck MS, RDN, CDE is a Clinical Assistant Professor and the Director of the Didactic Program in Dietetics in the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. She previously worked as a clinical dietitian, diabetes educator, and as nutrition consultant for a fitness center and Headstart. She is a part-time doctoral student in Human Nutrition at the University of Illinois and her dissertation research is focused on mobile apps in the clinical management of diabetes and obesity. REGISTER HERE!

Good morning to everyone,

As you know, we have our final Finance and Audit Committee call for the 2017 Fiscal Year on Tuesday, May 23rd at 1 p.m. CDT. I am attaching the agenda for your review. This month, we will focus on the following;

1. March final financials
2. April preliminary financials
3. Feedback from the Board on the FY18 budget

Most of the information should be posted to the portal this afternoon. Since Christian has a big job in completing the narratives, this might not make it until tomorrow. In both cases, Maria will let you know when the information is available.

You should also receive an email from the Academy IT department. This will be the webinar invitation. If you don't receive it today, please let me know and I will follow up to have it resent.

We also will have guests joining our meeting this month. The members who will be joining this Committee in FY18 have all been invited to audit the call. I know schedules are difficult and not everyone will be able to attend. However, everyone is welcome. For those of you who are new to the Committee in FY18 and have not served on this Committee in the past, you will have the option to receive an orientation to the Committee. More news to follow on this issue. Of course, if the former members of this Committee would like a "refresher", just let me know. Finally, the Academy Executive team is always welcome to audit the Finance Committee calls. So, some of them may join us as well.

If you can't make it on Tuesday, please let me know.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

June 2 Deadline: Public Policy Workshop Registration and Housing

Please join more than 400 Academy members in standing up for important priorities at the Academy's Public Policy Workshop, June 25 to 26 in Washington, D.C. Register by June 2 to secure your spot at the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit. You must reserve your hotel room by no later than 5 p.m. Eastern time on June 2; rooms are based on availability and may sell out prior to the deadline. Registration and housing information and the tentative PPW are available on the Academy's website.

May Is Older Americans Month

The White House has proclaimed May as Older Americans Month, recognizing the need for older adults to receive "the best health care available." The Administration for Community Living leads the celebration and created the 2017 theme "Age Out Loud." ACL was also instrumental in developing the interagency "2016 Profile of Older Americans." The Academy is working with ACL and other government agencies to enhance effective wrap-around services that will reduce costs, improve health and promote older adults' independence by utilizing registered dietitian nutritionists, nutrition and dietetics technicians, registered and other qualified providers to provide more sophisticated and a broader set of services through existing care channels.

Health Hearings Abound on Capitol Hill

The Senate Finance Committee held a hearing May 16 on the CHRONIC Act of 2017, which focuses on ways to improve health outcomes for millions of Americans living with chronic illnesses. The Academy continues to urge that any meaningful health care reform must include implementation of whole-population prevention strategies and specific chronic disease management that includes nutrition counseling and self-care. The House Energy and Commerce Committee's health subcommittee held a hearing May 1 on four bipartisan bills addressing public health. The House Labor, Health and Human Services subcommittee on Appropriations is holding a hearing May 17 on the Fiscal Year 2018 budget for health research. The House Ways and Means Committee will hold a May 18 hearing on Medicare payment systems and programs that are set to expire by the end of the year. The Academy works closely with these committees and their staffs, providing research demonstrating the value of nutrition services in prevention and treatment and advocating for coverage of these crucial services throughout the continuum of care.

Expected Soon: President's Budget Request for Fiscal Year 2018

Congress recently completed work on the delayed Fiscal Year 2017 budget, and House Appropriations Committee members are immediately gearing up to respond to President Trump's anticipated detailed budget request for Fiscal Year 2018, which begins October 1. In light of proposed significant cuts to many federal programs, the Academy will continue to vigorously advocate for sufficient funding for programs and agencies through which members effectively promote better health through food and nutrition.

Free May 24 Webinar: Making Malnutrition Matter

Up to half of older Americans are at risk for malnutrition, yet there is a gap in the delivery of care. The Academy, as part of the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition, helped develop the National Blueprint: Achieving Quality Malnutrition Care for Older Adults. The blueprint outlines potential actions to close the gap and improve health outcomes for older adults by addressing malnutrition care across the continuum of acute, post-acute and community settings, as well as strategies to address malnutrition. A May 24 webinar will show members how you can make a difference. The webinar offers 1 CPEU.

Members' Input Needed: Malnutrition Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility.

May 25 Webinar: Integrating Apps Into Practice

With thousands of mobile diet apps available and used by the public, dietetics professionals and other health providers need effective, evidence-based strategies for incorporating apps into practice. A May 25 webinar titled "Beyond the App Game: Integrating Mobile Apps into Dietetics Practice" will provide best practices for evaluating and implementing apps in patient counseling sessions based on the latest research. Patient and provider perceptions of apps will be discussed, with research-related outcomes of app interventions on changes in patients' nutrition knowledge, behaviors, weight and biochemical markers. The webinar offers 1 CPEU.

Hi Donna,

I worked with Amy Biedenharn, Senior Manager of Affiliate and MIG Relations, to gather the names of the affiliate presidents and have added them to the attached affiliate list. Annually Amy sends out a survey to the affiliates to collect incoming leaders' names; the current survey is open until May 31. The attached list reflects the names submitted to date; the only outstanding survey is for Nevada. Kansas and Massachusetts turn over officers July 1 and the leaders listed are the current presidents until July. Please let me know how I can assist further.

Joan, Attached is the state listing by alphabetically order and the second tab is by when they were last visited. Do you think under the last visited tab you could list the President and President-elects names for us and then we might be able to see if we know any of them before we decide how to reach out to them? If it is easier to list their names under the alphabetical section that would be fine too! Not a great chart when you look at the results. I added the state membership numbers so that might help us assess if we fund to go or they fund us or maybe we split the cost? We can and will do better!

Barbara, The language on the documents is fine, but I wish we would include a sentence at the beginning as to how the compensation and benefits survey results are used by members and employers? I think people who are asked to complete the survey don't totally get what the survey is all about, and how people and employers use the results. I just think if we put a little something more about that in the request we might get more people to fill out the survey? Just my thoughts, take them or leave them.

Barbara, here are drafts of the survey emails and cover letters. In addition to edits/approvals, we'll need Donna Martin's signature, a lightweight Academy logo to use in the emails, and the 2017 order form.

Let me know if you have any questions.

I thought you might be interested in this since it's our anniversary(or any time really). The interesting thing is that we have no record of her being a member. Since she died in 1956 she would not have been registered since that began in 1969.

See you soon!

Dear Pat,

Thank you so much for all the information about Elmira and for attaching the Journal articles. I have tried to get some of those but it's been difficult since they were published so long ago.

I had learned of the TAND scholarship in her honor and I was able to travel to Texas last year to attend the award ceremony and present the scholarship. It was quite an honor and special occasion. I was unable to attend this year due to work constraints but hope to make it an annual event. This past fall I had occasion to be in Houston and enjoyed a very nice meeting with the current director of the VA dietetic internship program. She had a lot of photos of Elmira in her archives.

Sadly, Elmira died in August 1956 of breast cancer. She was only 42. I only knew her as a young child but have always held her in a bit of awe. After finding so much information about her via a Google search a couple years ago, I have been intent on learning as much about her professional accomplishments as I can. You have contributed significantly to my goal and I thank you!

Carolyn

Dear Carolyn,

Thank you for contacting the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Your aunt and godmother, Elmira Blecha, was actively involved with the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, formerly known as the American Dietetic Association. She was the author or co-author of several scientific articles that were published in the Journal of the American Dietetic Association. The Journal is our interdisciplinary, peer reviewed publication, highly ranked in the scientific community. Attached are copies of her articles. Also included is an attachment that refers to an excerpt from Carry the Flame, our historical anthology, which states the following in chapter six: "The chairs of this section from 1950 to 1956 were Marguerite Pettee, Corrine Robinson, Doris Johnson, and Elmira Blecha."

In 1956, Ms. Blecha served as the American Dietetic Association's Senior Delegate at Large. Currently, the Texas Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, our state affiliate, offers The Elmira Blecha Scholarship. You may want to contact Dolores Cheek, the Executive Director of the Texas affiliate, for more information about the scholarship at tand@eatrighttexas.org.

Ms. Blecha was obviously a highly regarded and accomplished nutrition professional.

We hope the information is helpful to you.

Dear Eat Right,

Not sure if this is the correct email address for my inquiry, though it is the only one I located on your website.

I would like to find out if your organization has any mention in its archives of my aunt and godmother, Elmira Blecha, a dietician of some note in the 1940s and 1950s.

Elmira was a graduate of Wayne State University and on the faculty of the University of Michigan School of Medicine for a time. After that, she went on to head up the dietetics internship program at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Houston, a program thriving to this day. Elmira authored and co-authored scholarly articles in medical journals and I believe she may have authored some in the Journal of the American Dietetic Association.

I would be most grateful if you could respond or forward my inquiry to an appropriate person or department at your organization who may be able to respond.

Many thanks,

Carolyn Blecha Hall

Important Announcement

I am writing this section as a special thank you for the work that each of you do to advance the policy and legislative work of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. As our paths in life change, it is time for me to make a change - I am retiring. My last day as an Academy staff member will be May 31, 2017. It has been an honor and privilege to work with each of you over the past four years. I look forward to connecting with you during the next two weeks. Again, thank you for your leadership in affiliates, DPGs and MIGs. It has been a great experience to work for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Please watch for additional information in the next two issues of Public Policy Weekly News on the transition plans. If you have questions, please let us know.

Centennial Resolution - New Cosponsors

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the Congressional Resolution Commemorating the Academy's Centennial (H. Res. 161) now has 8 cosponsors in the House of Representatives! We are pleased to announce that Representatives Tim Ryan (Ohio), Carol Shea-Porter (NH), Jamie Raskin (Md.), Zoe Lofgren (Calif.), Jim McGovern (Mass.), Joyce Beatty (Ohio) and Anna Eshoo (Calif.) have co-sponsored the Resolution. Our Congressional champions in both the House and Senate appreciate the work of Academy members in reaching out to Congress! Please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the Congressional Resolution.

Administration Formally Recognizes May 2017 as Older Americans Month

The White House has formally issued a proclamation that recognizes May 2017 as Older Americans Month, recognizing the need for older adults to receive "the best healthcare available," among other issues. The Administration on Community Living also released the 2016 Profile of Older Americans, which provides key statistics on older Americans across the country. The Academy continues to work to protect nutrition services for older Americans, and appreciate the work of our members in this field!

Health Hearings Abound on Capitol Hill!

Both the House of Representatives and the Senate are in session this week, and have a packed schedule before the Memorial Day recess! On Tuesday, May 16, the Senate Finance Committee is holding a hearing on S. 870, the CHRONIC Act of 2017, which focuses on ways to improve health outcomes for patients living with chronic illness. The Academy continues to urge Congress that meaningful reform must include implementation of whole-population prevention strategies and specific chronic disease management that includes nutrition counseling and self-care to provide patients of all ages and medical conditions with the knowledge and tools necessary to improve their health.

On Wednesday, May 17, the Energy and Commerce health subcommittee will hold a hearing on four bipartisan bills that address public health. The House Labor, Health and Human Services subcommittee on Appropriations will hold a hearing on the Fiscal Year 2018 budget for health research. On Thursday, May 18, the House Ways and Means Committee will hold a hearing on Medicare payment systems, and programs that are set to expire by the end of the year. The Academy will continue to work with these committees to demonstrate the value of nutrition services in prevention and treatment.

President's Budget Request for FY 18 Expected Soon

Although Congress recently completed work on the Fiscal Year 2017 budget, members of the Appropriations Committee do not get a break in their workload! We are now gearing up the President's budget request for Fiscal Year 2018, which begins on October 1. The Academy continues to advocate for many different issues that align our mission and goals, including investing federal funds in specific food and nutrition programs, and agencies, that promote healthy eating for all Americans.

Malnutrition Impact on Patients and Practice: Member Input Needed!

You may have seen Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS's) April 14 announcement that the FY 2018 Inpatient Prospective Payment System (IPPS) Proposed Rule (malnutrition measures are referenced on pages 1083-1087) proposes inclusion of four new malnutrition-focused electronic clinical quality measures (eCQMs) in a future Hospital IQR Program. The Academy is thrilled that our efforts have resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures (screening, assessment, diagnosis, and care plan) for malnutrition being included in the proposed CMS hospital inpatient rule as in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program (IQR)! The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, we are asking for your involvement and support with your submissions about the impact of malnutrition on (1) your patients, residents, and clients, and (2) your business, company, or specific facility.

PPW 2017 Updated Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The updated list of registrants for PPW 2017 will be posted later today in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. If members are missing from the list, it means that their registration has not been processed. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).

2. Ask your members to take action now!

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports will be located in May 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest. The affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the May 2017 subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Administration Formally Recognizes May 2017 as Older Americans Month

The White House has formally issued a proclamation that recognizes May 2017 as Older Americans Month, recognizing the need for older adults to receive "the best healthcare available," among other issues. The Administration on Community Living also released the 2016 Profile of Older Americans, which provides key statistics on older Americans across the country. The Academy continues to work to protect nutrition services for older Americans, and appreciate the work of our members in this field!

Health Hearings Abound on Capitol Hill!

Both the House of Representatives and the Senate are in session this week, and have a packed schedule before the Memorial Day recess! On Tuesday, May 16, the Senate Finance Committee is holding a hearing on S. 870, the CHRONIC Act of 2017, which focuses on ways to improve health outcomes for patients living with chronic illness. The Academy continues to urge Congress that meaningful reform must include implementation of whole-population prevention strategies and specific chronic disease management that includes nutrition counseling and self-care to provide patients of all ages and medical conditions with the knowledge and tools necessary to improve their health.

On Wednesday, May 17, the Energy and Commerce health subcommittee will hold a hearing on four bipartisan bills that address public health. The House Labor, Health and Human Services subcommittee on Appropriations will hold a hearing on the Fiscal Year 2018 budget for health research. On Thursday, May 18, the House Ways and Means Committee will hold a hearing on Medicare payment systems, and programs that are set to expire by the end of the year. The Academy will continue to work with these committees to demonstrate the value of nutrition services in prevention and treatment.

President's Budget Request for FY 18 Expected Soon

Although Congress recently completed work on the Fiscal Year 2017 budget, members of the Appropriations Committee do not get a break in their workload! We are now gearing up the President's budget request for Fiscal Year 2018, which begins on October 1. The Academy continues to advocate for many different issues that align our mission and goals, including investing federal funds in specific food and nutrition programs, and agencies, that promote healthy eating for all Americans.

Malnutrition Impact on Patients and Practice: Member Input Needed!

You may have seen Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS's) April 14 announcement that the FY 2018 Inpatient Prospective Payment System (IPPS) Proposed Rule (malnutrition measures are referenced on pages 1083-1087) proposes inclusion of four new malnutrition-focused electronic clinical quality measures (eCQMs) in a future Hospital IQR Program. The Academy is thrilled that our efforts have resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures (screening, assessment, diagnosis, and care plan) for malnutrition being included in the proposed CMS hospital inpatient rule as in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program (IQR)! The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, we are asking for your involvement and support with your submissions about the impact of malnutrition on (1) your patients, residents, and clients, and (2) your business, company, or specific facility.

PPW 2017 Updated Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The updated list of registrants for PPW 2017 will be posted later today in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. If members are missing from the list, it means that their registration has not been processed. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).

2. Ask your members to take action now!

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports will be located in May 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest. The affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the May 2017 subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Hi Donna,

Attached is a copy of the passing of the gavel talking points. On Friday at 5pm the Board and staff will be going over to the Dittrick museum to view the 100th Anniversary display and we will hold the ceremony during our visit. We have champagne chilling to help us celebrate the event!

Also attached is your BOD report for the May 26 LPPC meeting consent agenda. I used the accomplishments report from the BOD packet – it highlights the Academy's many achievements for the past year.

See you soon!

Hi Donna,

Great to hear from you! Camille mentioned she was with you recently, and I had been meaning to reach out. I hope you're doing well.

Thanks for your note about the PHA Summit. It was a great event, and Mrs. Obama was fantastic. I'm glad everyone you heard from enjoyed it.

As far as the Academy's annual meeting, I would suggest reaching out to other people for the keynote. You can also follow up with the scheduling email where you sent the invite to check in. I have a feeling that with this being the first year out and the event not until the fall, that it's unlikely Mrs. Obama would be able to commit any time soon if she could attend, and unfortunately it's probably unlikely that she will be able to attend. I think it's worth following up with the scheduling email, and I can try to reach out from my end as well. But I would suggest seeking out other options for speakers because I wouldn't want you to be stuck in a place where it's last minute trying to find someone.

Let me know next time you are in DC if you're ever up here, and maybe we can find some time for coffee to catch up.

Kelly, Mary Pat said she saw you working with FLOTUS for the Partnership for a Healthier America meeting in DC. I heard nothing, but unbelievable comments from everyone who attended. Congratulations on another excellent event. Just so you know, we reached out to Mrs. Obama and her team back in early March about the possibility of her coming to do the keynote address this year at the Academy's annual meeting in Chicago on Saturday, October 21. As you know, we are celebrating our 100th year in existence and getting ready for the Second Century to begin. There is no one better than Mrs. Obama to kick off the second century. We got a response that they received our request and that it would be 3-4 weeks before we heard anything. It has been 2 months now and we need to try and determine if it is a definite no or a maybe? I have emailed Deb and have not heard anything back. Do you have any suggestions on which way to go? We have got to get the information out about the meeting soon, and need to know if we need to look elsewhere for an opening keynote speaker? There will be at least 12,000 people in attendance and I cannot think of a better way to get her message out. Any advice would be appreciated!! Best to you!

Hi Mary Pat!

Sorry to miss you at the PHA Summit. I was around but mostly backstage making sure everything was set for Mrs. Obama's participation... just like the old days :).

I'm doing well. I don't think I've updated you yet, but I'm working at Burness. It's a communications firm based in Bethesda that works with nonprofits and foundations mainly on public health and health care issues. I'm working with RWJF, AHA, Pew, Rudd, and others so it's a nice continuation of working with similar groups on similar issues like school nutrition, food policy, early child care, etc.

And then I was helping with Mrs. Obama's participation in PHA.

How are you doing??

I am wondering if you could meet with his district staff to follow up on this? I feel like they are missing the boat if he thinks senior citizens on Medicare need obesity prevention in the home. We could get some WMDPG leaders to go with you or your policy team. Thoughts?

Subject: A Response From Johnny Isakson

Thank you for contacting me regarding S. 830, the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017. I appreciate hearing from you, and I am glad to have the opportunity to respond.

Introduced by Senator Cassidy (R-LA), S. 830 would authorize the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to cover intensive behavioral therapy for obesity under the Medicare program. This bill would also authorize HHS to cover medication for the treatment of obesity or for weight loss management for an overweight individual with one or more related comorbidities under Medicare Part D.

There are many well-chronicled health complications associated with obesity. I believe these health problems threaten the long-term health of our nation and these issues need to be addressed. While I am committed to finding the appropriate way to educate the public about obesity, I believe that obesity prevention starts in the home. Families can take simple steps to prevent and address obesity, such as physical activity, healthy food choices and education about physical health. I believe these measures are the best and most effective way to address obesity in America.

This bill has been referred to the Senate Committee on Finance, of which I am a member. Please know that I will keep your thoughts in mind should this bill come to the floor for a vote.

Thank you again for contacting me. Please visit my webpage at <http://isakson.senate.gov/> for more information on the issues important to you and to sign up for my e-newsletter.

Sincerely,
Johnny Isakson
United States Senator

Dear ANDPAC, CPLS and LPPC members:

Teresa Nece, MS RDN has served as the director of grassroots advocacy for the Academy for the past four years. She has been a champion for the public policy panel leaders and has led the development of a robust grassroots advocacy program that is a model for other organizations.

Prior to joining the Academy, Teresa was active as a volunteer leader and held numerous leadership positions including serving as the Iowa affiliate president, member of the legislative and public policy committee and chair of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee among others. In addition to serving the Academy, Teresa has been active for her entire career in legislation and public policy for the School Nutrition Association and held several leadership positions.

It is with deep gratitude for her service that we announce that Teresa will be retiring from her position on May 31, 2017. Please join me in thanking her for sharing her leadership and expertise with members of the Academy- and in wishing her well in her retirement and new life adventures.

Sincerely,

Thank you for contacting me regarding S. 830, the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017. I appreciate hearing from you, and I am glad to have the opportunity to respond.

Introduced by Senator Cassidy (R-LA), S. 830 would authorize the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to cover intensive behavioral therapy for obesity under the Medicare program. This bill would also authorize HHS to cover medication for the treatment of obesity or for weight loss management for an overweight individual with one or more related comorbidities under Medicare Part D.

There are many well-chronicled health complications associated with obesity. I believe these health problems threaten the long-term health of our nation and these issues need to be addressed. Dear Teresa, While I do not blame you for wanting to retire, I am very sad. You have done such an amazing job and I always loved being able to call on you from wherever I was, and whenever I needed you. You always got back to me with lightning speed, no matter the day or time. I also loved that you got the School Nutrition piece so well, and could get exactly what I was talking about. You have made such progress on the grassroots advocacy front and we are all grateful for that. I hope that your retirement brings you much satisfaction, and that whomever takes your place, will do the job with as much enthusiasm and passion as you have! Best to you my friend!!!

Dear Teresa,

I would personally like echo Jeanne's words and thank you for being a true leader and champion in the Academy's Public Policy efforts on the grassroots level. Your kindness, leadership and knowledge have inspired me and many, many other affiliate public policy leaders in our efforts to motivate and challenge our members to advocate for public policy as nutrition leaders. Your advice, calmness and direction have given me the confidence to participate in webinars, lead my affiliate in public policy in the ways that represent the Academy at its best, and have encouraged me to continue my role as a leader.

I know that the members of the LPPC will join me in extending our immense appreciation on how you have advanced grassroots advocacy in the Academy.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart,

image002.jpg

Good morning,

I'm happy to announce that the Academy was successful in nominating two members to serve on new clinical care subcommittees being formed by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) to develop episode-based cost measures which are a requirement of the Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015 (MACRA). Kate Willcutts, DCN, RDN from the University of Virginia was selected to serve on the Gastrointestinal Disease Subcommittee and Sarah Peterson, DCN, RDN from Rush University was selected to serve on the Pulmonary Disease Subcommittee. Their work will help CMS identify key items, care and services to achieve quality outcomes in the inpatient setting which will further enable CMS to pursue improvements in quality and reductions in costs through Medicare's Quality Payment Program. Our goal is to ensure nutrition services provided by RDNs and the associated costs are appropriately recognized in these episodes of care. Additional clinical care subcommittees will be formed in the future and the Academy will continue to nominate member experts to represent us in this important work.

Best,

Marsha

AMIA Launches Informatics Workforce Survey

AMIA invites the members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics to participate in its first Informatics Workforce Survey, an important and unique opportunity to help shape the future of informatics. The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is distributing this survey to ensure the specific perspectives of its members are considered in the development of programs to support informatics professionals.

To participate, click this link or paste it into your browser:

<https://www.amia.org/ahic/survey>

Please complete this survey by May 24, 2017.

The survey is designed for professionals and students from all informatics domains and should take approximately 15 to 20 minutes to complete. By completing this survey, you will become eligible to enter a drawing for one of ten $250 VISA gift cards. No identifying information will be revealed in reporting results of this survey.

AMIA is seeking broad representation from the informatics field. Please share the survey link with colleagues who may be interested in participating.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact workforcesurvey@AMIA.org.

Thank you for your time!

About AMIA

AMIA, the leading professional association for informatics professionals, is the center of action for 5,400 informatics professionals from more than 65 countries. As the voice of the nation's top biomedical and health informatics professionals, AMIA and its members play a leading role in advancing the field of informatics. AMIA actively supports five domains in informatics: translational bioinformatics, clinical research informatics, clinical informatics, consumer health informatics, and public health informatics.

Hi, Milton. Thanks for your email. I think sustainable nutrition is the next frontier—sounds like you do as well. I am familiar with the ILSI/CIMSANS work you're referring to led by Dave Gustafson. Coincidentally, as part of the Foundation's Future of Food initiative, we are in the early stages of planning a sustainable nutrition roundtable, similar to one we hosted a few years ago in agriculture, nutrition, and health. Below is the working description:

- In an effort to expand the understanding and awareness of sustainable nutrition from a wide-angle view, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation will host a one-day roundtable discussion of the topic with approximately 20 key stakeholders. The roundtable will be an opportunity to bring together a multi-sector group of experts to who may have differing viewpoints on the topic but agree on three core principles: 1) Sustainable nutrition is a big issue and will continue to grow; 2) RDNs and nutrition professionals are a key stakeholder group to the topic; and 3) Not one organization, profession, or person can solve the sustainable nutrition challenges and advance the solutions alone.

- The roundtable outcome goals are: 1) The discussions will produce specific strategies for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Foundation to better prepare RDNs for conversations and professional opportunities in sustainable nutrition; 2) create a consensus statement/platform for framing the discussion, advancing the science, areas for research/metrics creation, and communicating and education stakeholders on sustainable nutrition; 3) develop a proceedings consensus paper for joint publication in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and one or more other journals.

Happy to discuss further if you'd like.

Donna, Katie:

Conversations are happening around sustainable diets that incorporate consideration of nutrition, diet diversity/cultural patterns, and environmental metrics, but to date, little progress has been made to advance that conversation to a meaningful research agenda and actionable advice.

Our team is looking to have some type of collaboration that supports convening experts from various disciplines to share the language, metrics and goals for each, and then align on a research agenda that would allow for a more meaningful discussion of the science, including an acknowledgement of trade-offs. (This work was started by ILSI CIMSANS on the metrics piece but we are not sure of their future direction.)

Do either of you have any thoughts about this? I'm happy to schedule a call to gather more thoughts.

Thank you,
Milton

A revised agenda and all corresponding attachments for the May 19-20 Board meeting are now posted on the Board of Directors' communication platform. Please click here and enter your Academy user name and password to access the materials, a pdf copy of the complete packet is attached. A paper meeting packet will be delivered on Monday, May 15 via UPS (no signature required) to those Board members who requested one. Materials for the Executive Session will not be placed on the communication platform but will be emailed to you on Monday, May 15.

We welcome incoming Public Member Kevin Concannon, incoming Treasurer-elect Manju Karkare, incoming Speaker-elect Marcy Kyle, incoming President-elect Mary Russell, incoming Director-at-Large Kevin Sauer, incoming HOD Director Milton Stokes, and incoming Foundation Chair Marty Yadrick to the meeting!

Reservations have been made for you at the Hilton Cleveland Downtown, for arrival on Thursday, May 18 and departure on Saturday, May 20, unless you requested otherwise; your room confirmation numbers are listed on the attached travel document. For those of you who wish to ride together to/from the airport, also included on the travel document is a list of itineraries. Transportation information to/from Cleveland Hopkins Airport follows.

- Average cab fare from Cleveland Hopkins Airport to downtown, about a 15-20 minute drive, is about $40 each way.
- Both Lyft and Uber will drop off and pick up from the airport. There is a designated rideshare area for pick-ups - approx. $25 each way.
- RTA Red Line trains from the airport into Tower City – Public Square Station are $2.50 each way. The hotel is about 4.5 blocks from the station.

Next week you will be receiving a pre-conference email from the Ohio Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (OAND) with meeting details and the OAND conference program. Event highlights provided by OAND that may be of interest to Board members are attached. As a reminder the Foundation Second Century Fundraising Reception takes place on Thursday, May 18 from 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm at the Hilton Cleveland Downtown Hotel in the Veterans Ballroom. Because this is a fundraising event for Second Century, Board members are encouraged to sponsor a student member of OAND to attend the reception, in lieu of registering for this event. If you choose to support the event, please provide Beth Labrador or me with the $20 sponsorship cost when you see us in Cleveland.

On Friday, May 19 we will visit the Dittrick Museum of Medical History to view the 100th Anniversary display developed by the Greater Cleveland Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. This display was made possible by a grant from the Foundation. We have arranged for the gavel exchange ceremony to take place during our visit. Afterwards we will go over as a group to dinner scheduled from 6:15pm – 8:30pm at Pura Vida restaurant.

Joan, Got it and will include change in my remarks! Just got to hotel. They did a terrible job of coordinating this visit. They did not book hotel room, they did not arrange any transportation from airport to hotel (60 miles away) and although I sent them my presentation weeks ago, they asked for it again today. I had to eventually rent a car to get here from the airport. Sometimes when things start out bad they end up good!

Hi Donna –

I know you are presenting tonight at the West Virginia affiliate. Tom Ryan's team have made some small text edits to slide 7 on the Academy Update PPT (in the notes field only, there are no changes on the slide itself). The slide with the revised script is attached. Please let me know if there is anything more you may need.

Good Luck!

June 7 Panel Discussion: 'Preparing Health Care Providers for Obesity Care'

Even though more than one-third of U.S. adults are obese, with obesity care costing as much as $210 billion per year, obesity is not a major focus in the training and education of current and future health care providers. To address this critical gap, educators from more than 20 organizations representing a dozen health professions have collaborated on the first set of interdisciplinary educational competencies for the prevention and treatment of obesity. A June 7 panel discussion will address these first-of-their-kind competencies, how they were developed and how they can be implemented, and what adoption of these competencies could mean for patients. Speakers will include Jeanne Blankenship, MS, RD, vice president for policy initiatives and advocacy.

Members' Input Needed: Malnutrition Impact on Patients and Practice

As previously reported, the Academy's efforts recently resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures for malnutrition (screening, assessment, diagnosis and care plan) being included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' proposed hospital inpatient rule in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, members are asked for input about the impact of malnutrition on your patients, residents and clients, and on your business, company or facility.

Hello!

Here is a few articles about the student debt being carried. Since Master's degrees will be the norm for level of practice, I wonder if we could try to identify some solutions for students. Lots to consider with the move to increase diversity in our profession as well.

Let me know if I can help in any way?

Graduate student loan debt

About 40 percent of the $1 trillion student loan debt was used to finance graduate and professional degrees.

Combined undergraduate and graduate debt by degree:

MBA = $42,000 (11% of graduate degrees)

Master of Education = $50,879 (16%)

Master of Science = $50,400 (18%)

Master of Arts = $58,539 (8%)

Law = $140,616 (4%)

image002.jpg

Good morning,

So making appointments to Academy committees is the gift that keeps on giving. I received word yesterday that Samia Hamdan, the member of the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition whom you asked to serve as Vice Chair this coming year, has experienced some changes in her personal life and so is no longer able to take on this additional responsibility. She will continue to serve on the committee but I need you to appoint a new Vice Chair. I spoke at length with Diane Juskelis (staff partner) yesterday about the situation. Based on her conversations with the current Chair and Vice Chair of the committee, she recommends asking Shannon Robson to serve as Vice Chair as one of the "senior" members of the committee. They do not believe Michele Guerrero is ready to take on this leadership responsibility (lacking experience, travels a lot for work and so sometimes is not able to participate in conference calls). Here is the listing of committee members for the 2017-2018 program year:

Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (8 positions)

Member with <7 years of experience

Shannon Robson+

2016-2019

Expert in PHCN education

If Shannon does not wish to take on this responsibility (she current is a delegate although her term expires May 31), then Diane and the committee leaders recommend asking Lauren Melnick. While she will be brand new to the committee, she has previous leadership experience that would qualify her for this role. Here is their contact information:

Shannon	robson@udel.edu	860-227-2375
---------	-----------------	--------------

Lauren	melnickl@ccf.org	724-422-4169

Just let me know how you'd like to proceed and of course I'll provide any necessary support. Dianne, this committee was on your list to contact for the first go-around so I guess it's yours this time, as well, unless you and Donna wish to handle it differently.

Thanks,

Marsha

Malnutrition Impact on Patients and Practice: Member Input Needed!

You may have seen Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS's) April 14 announcement that the FY 2018 Inpatient Prospective Payment System (IPPS) Proposed Rule (malnutrition measures are referenced on pages 1083-1087) proposes inclusion of four new malnutrition-focused electronic clinical quality measures (eCQMs) in a future Hospital IQR Program. The Academy is thrilled that our efforts have resulted in four electronic clinical quality measures (screening, assessment, diagnosis, and care plan) for malnutrition being included in the proposed CMS hospital inpatient rule as in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program (IQR)! The Academy believes CMS should address malnutrition immediately by adopting all four proposed malnutrition measures in the Hospital IQR this year and to adopt malnutrition measures in post-acute care and community settings in future rulemakings. In advance of the Academy's June comments, we are asking for your involvement and support with your submissions about the impact of malnutrition on (1) your patients, residents, and clients, and (2) your business, company, or specific facility.

Academy Urges Congress to Extend the Children's Health Insurance Program

The Academy joined First Focus and other leading stakeholders in sending a letter to Congressional leaders urging Congress to act quickly to enact a long-term extension of the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). The communication calls for securing CHIP's future so that this essential program will continue to be available for the 8.9 million children and hundreds of thousands of pregnant women who rely on CHIP for their coverage. For two decades, the strong bipartisan program has been an essential source of children's coverage for families whose parents earn too much to qualify for Medicaid but too little to purchase private health insurance on their own. The state-federal partnership gives governors broad flexibility to design their programs to meet the needs of their states' child populations.

Save Women's Preventive Care Act Introduced

Sen. Patty Murray (Wash.) has introduced legislation that would codify the Women's Preventive Services Guidelines established by the Affordable Care Act. The Academy and other leading medical and public health organizations joined together to thank the Senator for her work. The legislation would continue coverage for over 55 million insured women including breastfeeding services and supplies, screening for HIV infection, and gestational diabetes and well women visits among other services.

"Preparing Health Care Providers for Obesity Care" Panel Discussion on June 7

Over 1/3 of U.S. adults have obesity, with obesity care costing as much as $210 Billion per year, and yet it is not a major focus in the training and education of our current and future health care providers. To address this critical gap, educators from over 20 organizations representing a dozen health professions have collaborated to develop the first ever set of interdisciplinary educational competencies for the prevention and treatment of obesity. Join us at a panel discussion on June 7 to learn about these first-of-their-kind competencies, how they were developed and how they can be implemented, and what adoption of these competencies could mean for patients. Jeanne Blankenship, M.S., RDN, the Academy's Vice President for Policy Initiatives and Advocacy, will join other patient and provider advocates on the panel.

Congress Approves Funding Bill that Includes Federal Nutrition and Health Programs

On May 5, President Trump signed into law H.R. 244, the 2017 Consolidated Appropriations Act, funding discretionary programs of the federal government through September 30, 2017. Overall, the Academy's priorities fared well in the bill. The Academy will continue working to protect funding for key nutrition programs and services as Congress and the Administration draft the Fiscal Year 2018 budget by communicating the value of nutrition programs developed, led, and provided by RDNs and NDTRs.

Complementary Webinar: Making Malnutrition Matter -- Introducing a New Quality Blueprint for Action

Up to one out of two older Americans are at risk for malnutrition, yet there is a gap in the delivery of care. The Academy, as part of the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition, helped to develop the National Blueprint: Achieving Quality Malnutrition Care for Older Adults. The blueprint outlines potential actions to close the gap and improve health outcomes for older adults by addressing malnutrition care across the continuum of acute, post-acute, and community settings as well as strategies to address malnutrition. Join us on May 24, 2017 at 3:30 p.m. to learn how Academy members can make a difference! One CPEU offered to attendees, register today.

Webinar: Successful Strategies to Diagnose, Treat, and Control Hypertension

Join Academy partners at the National Forum's virtual mid-year member meeting on World Hypertension Day (WHD) May 17, 1-2 PM EDT. The Forum, which will highlight members' actions to improve blood pressure control, is themed Know Your Numbers, with a goal of increasing high blood pressure awareness in all populations around the world. Five National Forum members will share policy, program, and system change strategies that improve blood pressure control.

New Senate Co-Sponsor: Academy's Centennial Resolution

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has gained another new co-sponsor in the Senate: Chuck Grassley (Iowa). Please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the Congressional Resolution and send a note of thanks to those who already have!

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).

2. Ask your members to take action now!

We are stunned and deeply saddened to inform you of the death of Constance Geiger, PhD, RDN, LD,CD who passed away from pancreatic cancer on Friday, May 5.

Constance Geiger was president of Geiger & Associates LLC, a food labeling, health communications and government affairs consulting firm, and a research associate professor at the University of Utah, where she previously was director of the division of foods and nutrition. Constance worked as a nutritionist and research associate at the American Medical Association and published research articles and book chapters on such areas as food labeling, the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, health claims, functional foods and the health benefits of nuts. In 1992, she was the recipient of the Academy's Mary P. Huddleson Award for her consumer research on food labeling. Constance chaired the Academy's Food Labeling Task Force/Working Group and was a member of the Dietetic Technicians, Registered Task Force. Constance was a former CDR chair, served on the House of Delegates' 2004-06 Dietetic Education Task Force and was a past-president and board member of the Utah Dietetic Association. She earned an undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina–Greensboro, a master's degree from The Ohio State University and a doctorate from Utah State University. Constance completed her dietetic internship at the Medical College of Virginia Hospitals. She was currently serving on the Academy Foundation Board of Directors. Constance had a distinguished career and it was nationally and internationally recognized for her expertise.

Constance requested that there be no funeral service. In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the University of Utah College of Health, and designate that it be in honor of Constance. There is a scholarship fund in her name for students in the field of nutrition. Contributions can be mailed to Courtney Garay, College of Health, 383 Colorow, Salt Lake City, UT 84108. Online condolences may be given at crandallfhevanston.com.

Dear Dr. Donna Martin,

Congratulations on being elected President of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics! What an accomplishment. My name is Beth and I am the Incoming Chair for the Research DPG of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

I am sure that you have a lot of events to attend at FNCE, but I wanted to reach out to you to see if you would be available to attend the Research DPG member breakfast, even if it is just for a few minutes, and maybe say a few words to our members.

We don't have the official schedule yet, but it will likely be early in the morning on Monday, October 23rd. I will send the details once I know them.

Thanks for your consideration,

Beth

From: Foundation Chair, Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

I am pleased to announce that $145,000 in funding from the General Mills Foundation to support the Hunger Free Communities pilot was secured. We look forward to working on this important project and appreciate General Mills Foundation's ongoing support of the Academy Foundation.

In Phase I (planning) of the Hunger Free Communities Project, we collaborated with food security, nutrition, and health economics experts from around the world to develop and validate the following:

- A food and nutrition security community assessment facilitator guide tailored for existing data and community characteristics

- A decision process that allows communities to consider financial impact and uncertainty criteria to rank a list of potential food and nutrition interventions
- Recommended food and nutrition security assessment tools
- Infrastructure assessment for communities to collect data and evaluate impact with the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics' Health Informatics Infrastructure (ANDHII) platform

In Phase II, we proposed field testing the guide, process, and tools with two communities in the U.S. and one international community. This will benefit the targeted communities in strategic planning and decision making and to make additional enhancements to the guide which can only be identified through pilot testing in real-life situations. Global dissemination and communications about the revised guide will be launched.

Please let me know if there is any additional information we can provide. Thanks.

Wonderful! See below for details.

- Alumni Talk
 - o 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions
 - o Attendees would include alumni, students and faculty from the UAB Department of Nutrition Sciences. We'll get you the estimated number of attendees closer to the day.
 - o The UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success was very interested in having you speak to alumni since it is the Academy's centennial year, you are the president-elect and a graduate of the school.

- o You will most likely have an overlap of attendees for this talk and the DI certificate ceremony so the topics would need to be different.
- o The message for this talk could be on how you were able to impact the school systems in your area and how you will use your position in the Academy to continue to make a difference. I think it is inspiring to hear about the innovative ideas dietitians are implementing in the community to make an impact.

- DI Certificate Ceremony

- o 20-30 minute talk
- o The message could be about a dietitians impact on initiating change in the profession, government, and/or the community. Or maybe what advice you would have given yourself back at your graduation.
- o This talk will be specifically directed to the graduating interns (25 total). There will be parents, preceptors and program faculty (past and present) in attendance. We usually have around 125 attend.

Thank you,

Donna,

I have received approval for UAB to pay for your flight from Augusta to Birmingham and then from Birmingham to Tulsa! Our Office Associate, Sarah Peek, will need your date of birth, cell phone number, how your name appears on your license and an example of a flight you would like for UAB to book for you. I've included her on this email so that you can send the requested information to her directly.

For the keynote speech, really any topic that would encourage the interns, motivate them to do great things, fulfill their full potential...something along those lines. Maybe even sharing some advice on starting out a career in dietetics. I'll probably talk about dreaming big. Were there any moments in your career where an opportunity scared you but you took on the challenge and it changed your career? Feel free to call me if you'd like to discuss this further. I'll also have the Chair of the Department, Tim Garvey, and the Vice Chair of the Education Mission within the Department talk for a little bit.

I had previously mentioned that the UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success is very interested in having you speak with our program alumni outside of the DI Certificate Ceremony. Would you be interested in also doing a separate talk for alumni, students, and faculty in the Department of Nutrition Sciences that Friday, August 11th? We were thinking possibly 7:30-8:15 or 8-8:45 that morning before the ceremony; a 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions? If you are interested, we were thinking of the below ideas as topics:

- Your work with the School system in Georgia – focused on athletes performance, addressing nutrition in a low income population and food desserts
- Involvement with national organization – vision for nutrition in the future, importance of involvement on a policy avenue

Again, thank you so much for accepting our invitation. We look forward to having you return to UAB!

Carleton, I would love to come and be the keynote speaker for the UAB Dietetic Intern graduation. Do you all think you would be willing to pay for half of my airline ticket that I am going to make from Augusta to Birmingham and then Birmingham to Tulsa and then Tulsa to Augusta? I think it would only be about $350 for your share. I would not need an hotel room as I can stay at my son's home in Birmingham. If that would work out, then all I need from you is some idea of what you would like me to talk about so I can work on the presentation. Just some idea of what direction to go in for the presentation would be great. Look forward to hearing back from you. Thanks!

Carleton, Thanks so much for your email. I will definitely see what I can try and work out to come to the Student Graduation Ceremony to speak on Friday, August 11th. How long would you like me to speak for if I can work it out? I need to get with the Academy to check my schedule because of another potential speaking engagement that I might have on the 12th. I may have to go to Oklahoma City on Saturday, August 12th to speak so I would then need to fly to Birmingham on Thursday and then fly to Oklahoma City on Friday night. If I don't have to speak Saturday in Oklahoma City on Saturday I could drive from Augusta both ways. I will get back to you as soon as I know what my Saturday plans are. Thanks!

Hello Donna,

I hope you are doing well. It was so wonderful to hear you speak at the ALDA Annual Meeting this month. I'm very excited about where the Academy is moving! I am contacting you today to invite you to be the keynote speaker at the UAB Dietetic Internships certificate ceremony on Friday, August 11th. The ceremony will be from 9 to 10:30am with a small reception following.

If this date does not work for you, would you be interested in visiting UAB at another time during the summer or fall? I have been in communication with the UAB School of Health Professions alumni department and we are all very interested in having you visit UAB during the Academy's centennial year to speak to current students and faculty as well as our alumni family within the Department of Nutrition Sciences. I have included Amanda Martin, a representative from the SHP Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success, on this email if you would like to discuss the alumni speaking opportunity in more detail.

Good Morning, Donna.

You are so right! Here is the list. You'd also asked for the strategic plan. Right now we are providing the new Vision and Mission, I will send the document under separate cover.

Just as FYI, we are in the process of updating the Board Handbook and all BOD members will be getting a link to the 2017-18 Handbook in June. The 2016-17 copy is on the portal and can be accessed here, keeping in mind the organizational units that are currently reviewing and revising their sections.

Please let me know what else you may need.

Joan, Attached is the state listing by alphabetically order and the second tab is by when they were last visited. Do you think under the last visited tab you could list the President and President-elect's names for us and then we might be able to see if we know any of them before we decide how to reach out to them? If it is easier to list their names under the alphabetical section that would be fine too! Not a great chart when you look at the results. I added the state membership numbers so that might help us assess if we fund to go or they fund us or maybe we split the cost? We can and will do better!

The list of Major Gift Donors to the Second Century Fund continues to climb! With her $100,000 donation, we are so pleased to add Academy Former President Susan Laramée, MS, RDN, FADA, FAND to the list of Founder level donors! Susan has an impressive leadership history. She is currently a member of the Academy's Ethics Committee and will serve as Chair in 2017-2018. Susan has held many other significant leadership roles within the Academy, including President, Chair of the Political Action Committee, member of the House of Delegates, and Vice Chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR). Susan has been very committed to diversity efforts and leadership training for RDNs and NDTRs. While serving on CDR, she championed these causes which resulted in the establishment of two funds through the Foundation, the CDR Diversity Scholarship and the CDR Leadership Grant. We are so fortunate to have her serving on the Foundation's Philanthropy Council to encourage others to give. Please join me in thanking Susan for her very generous support!!

Donna, we listed a bi-monthly presidents call between you and Pat on the schedule. Is this something you'd like to continue? If yes, is that time/day of the week good for you – Pat is totally flexible. Lastly, if you'd like to do the calls, what is the preferred number Pat can reach you at? Lots of Qs, but thanks!

Donna, we listed a bi-monthly presidents call between you and Pat on the schedule. Is this something you'd like to continue? If yes, is that time/day of the week good for you – Pat is totally flexible. Lastly, if you'd like to do the calls, what is the preferred number Pat can reach you at? Lots of Qs, but thanks!

Hi Donna,

We would also suggest adding the information that we had an action alert in March on AHCA. Here is the addition.

In March 2017, the Academy also had an action alert opposing ACHA. That alert was open for 8 days and over 2500 Academy members sent letters. In March we did send an all-member action alert announcement.

The decision to create an action alert in May was made late afternoon on Wednesday, May 3. The vote was anticipated to occur on early afternoon, Thursday, May 4. With the last minute action alert, we sent a message out to the policy leaders in the affiliates, DPGs and Member Interest groups asking them to take action. Several of the affiliates, DPGs and MIGs sent a message out to their membership. We used the Public Policy Weekly News email group as our target list. We reached nearly 950 members.

With the time constraint we had, this was the most efficient pathway. We had over 2,400 members send letters in the less than 24 hours.

Hope this helps Donna.

Let us know if you need anything else or have questions.

Dear Policy Leaders,

We would like to thank you for your grassroots work in the past 24 hours on the American Health Care Act (H.R. 1628). More than 1500 letters were sent to members of Congress by our Academy members. Despite our efforts and those of countless other health organizations, the U.S. House of Representatives passed the bill earlier today by a vote of 217-213. Hi, Donna: We wanted to seek your thoughts on an idea for your August page.

In your April 26 email, you mentioned food waste....Would you want to have your page be on the numerous activities the Academy is involved in, regarding food waste, and how they connect to our future goals for Second Century? We could quote a member or two who is working in this area as well.

Much of the information we could use is contained in the attached talking points we prepared recently for Pat for a meeting with IFT, ASN and IFIC to discuss the Further With Food initiative. Since most members probably do not know much about this initiative, or the extent of our activities in the food waste area, we thought the topic would be good for your entire August page.

Can you please let us know as soon as possible what you think of this idea? Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Since most members probably do not know much about this initiative, or the extent of our activities in the food waste area, we thought the topic would be good for your entire August page.

Can you please let us know as soon as possible what you think of this idea? Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Donna,

Jenn and I spoke about the grits last week. We are wondering if given the weight that maybe we should use them for our fall advocacy day. We could craft a message campaign around that and would need fewer bags. But you could always bring them for the Georgia visits at PPW. Bringing a gift to the scheduler from the "home" state always leaves an impression!

Let us know your thoughts!

Dear Dr. Donna Martin,

Congratulations on being elected President of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics! What an accomplishment. My name is Beth and I am the Incoming Chair for the Research DPG of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

I am sure that you have a lot of events to attend at FNCE, but I wanted to reach out to you to see if you would be available to attend the Research DPG member breakfast, even if it is just for a few minutes, and maybe say a few words to our members.

We don't have the official schedule yet, but it will likely be early in the morning on Monday, October 23rd. I will send the details once I know them.

Thanks for your consideration,
Beth

Hi Pat! First I would like to personally thank you for attending our HOD and HLT meeting in April! I know you have such a busy schedule and we really appreciate you being there with us socially and as our CEO!

During our HLT meeting, you mentioned some thoughts about the future of governance in our Second Century. You also mentioned that Glen Tecker would be working with the BOD at our retreat this summer. With that in mind, I have been talking with Marsha Schofield about how we might be able to prepare ourselves and the HLT for this BOD discussion. I would like to have a better sense of what your thoughts may be about the future of governance in relation to our members and the profession. That way I can prepare our HLT for the planning process.

Would it be possible for me to set an appointment to speak with you? I also want to include Marsha in our discussion.

Thanks so much!

Hi Donna-

I think at this point, maybe one more follow up email from you (copy me) and indicate we just need to know if it is even a possibility at this point. Maybe indicate that even though our speaker have historically spoken for 45-60- minutes, we are flexible on time/length, format (keynote style or "conversation" between both of you on stage in a more casual setting), etc.

I have a good back up plan with Second City Business if we need to go a different route.

You may want to use the following talking points if asked about the Academy's statement on AHCA.

The Academy will work to advocate for continued access and coverage for preventative services, coverage for preventative care, ambulatory care, behavioral health and numerous other services where registered dietitian nutritionists are improving health.

The proposed legislation as currently drafted does not include the Academy's five tenets:

- The health of all Americans should improve as a result of our health policy choices. Sufficient resources must be made available to ensure optimal health.

- Access to quality health care is a right that must be extended to all Americans.
- Nutrition services, from pre-conception through end of life, are an essential component of comprehensive health care.
- Stable, sufficient and reliable funding is necessary for our health care system to provide everyone access to a core package of benefits.
- Health care must be patient-centered.

We look forward to continued collaboration to improve the health and nutrition for all Americans.

No doubt you have heard that the House of Representatives today passed the American Health Care Act, which the Academy has opposed. We sent a letter yesterday, reiterating our opposition, to Speaker Paul Ryan and Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi. The letter is on eatrightPRO at <http://www.eatrightpro.org/resource/news-center/on-the-pulse-of-public-policy/from-the-hill/academy-letter-ahca>.

Attached is a press release the Academy issued to the news media this afternoon, which will also be posted to eatrightPRO, announcing our continued opposition to the bill and urging the Senate to not pass it.

As we state in the release: The Academy will work with states to advocate for continued access and coverage for preventive services, coverage for preventive care, ambulatory care, behavioral health and numerous other services where registered dietitian nutritionists are improving patient health.

We will be doing social media messaging based on this release, as well.

Please let me know if you have any questions on the Academy's stance on this issue.

It is not a bother at all, I am glad that you are asking!

So under the AHCA, it removed the essential health benefits requirement for the Medicaid population starting on January 1, 2020. Also starting in 2020, states would be able to apply for a waiver to re-define essential health benefits for health insurance coverage in the individual or small group market. The waivers would likely be approved unless the Secretary decided to deny the request.

Also, the Kaiser Family Foundation has an awesome website that compares the proposals with the ACA, in case anyone that you are speaking to is interested in all of the details! Here is the link: <http://kff.org/interactive/proposals-to-replace-the-affordable-care-act/>.

Let me know if there is anything else that I can provide information on!

Yes, That helped a lot. Next question is did they include essential health care services in the House bill? Donna,

Thank you for checking, and it is definitely a confusing issue. In the Fiscal Year 2017 appropriations bill (the omnibus), the Prevention Fund is included and allocated to fund programs through September 30, 2017. That was passed by both the House & the Senate, and will be signed into law by the President. However, in the American Health Care Act (AHCA), which the House passed today, the Prevention Fund is repealed starting in Fiscal Year 2019 (so October 1, 2018). This is because the Prevention Fund was established under the ACA, so it is part of the repeal effort.

The hope is that the Senate will pass a different bill on the health reform side, and not use the House-passed AHCA. We will continue to make the case for the importance of the Prevention Fund, especially since it is critical to funding our federal health programs!

Does that make it more clear? Honestly it was infuriating that the House voted to approve a bill that used the Prevention Fund, and then the next day tried to repeal it!

Thanks for asking such great questions, always happy to help.

Sincerely,

Stefanie

Thanks for copying me on these great follow up emails. I am confused about the prevention fund issue though. Is it in the house bill or not? Is it a dead issue unless the senate puts it back in? A little more information on that would help please. Sorry to bother you. Want to stay informed.

Lindsey and Malcolm,

Good afternoon, and thank you so much for meeting with us on Monday to discuss the importance of nutrition services for the prevention and treatment of chronic diseases. We appreciate Senator Wyden's leadership in the Senate to protect prevention services, and to improve access to nutrition services.

I wanted to be sure to send you the video that Donna discussed in our meeting, about the impact of nutrition on her local football team. It is an excellent example of why it is so critical to address malnutrition across the lifecycle. While we were very happy that the Senate passed the Omnibus appropriations bill today, which included funding of the Prevention Fund, we were disappointed that the House repealed the Prevention Fund through the AHCA. I have attached the Academy's letter in opposition to the American Health Care Act in the House, as well as our press release on the House vote today. Please consider us a resource as the Senate moves forward with the reconciliation process.

I will be sending you the Academy's farm bill recommendations soon, and will connect you with my colleague Jenn Folliard, who leads our USDA legislation and policy efforts.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and we look forward to working with you!

Donna,

Thank you for checking, and it is definitely a confusing issue. In the Fiscal Year 2017 appropriations bill (the omnibus), the Prevention Fund is included and allocated to fund programs through September 30, 2017. That was passed by both the House & the Senate, and will be signed into law by the President. However, in the American Health Care Act (AHCA), which the House passed today, the Prevention Fund is repealed starting in Fiscal Year 2019 (so October 1, 2018). This is because the Prevention Fund was established under the ACA, so it is part of the repeal effort.

The hope is that the Senate will pass a different bill on the health reform side, and not use the House-passed AHCA. We will continue to make the case for the importance of the Prevention Fund, especially since it is critical to funding our federal health programs!

Does that make it more clear? Honestly it was infuriating that the House voted to approve a bill that used the Prevention Fund, and then the next day tried to repeal it!

Thanks for asking such great questions, always happy to help.

Sincerely,

Stefanie

Attached for your review and input is the draft agenda for the May Board meeting. We welcome your feedback. Also attached are the draft minutes for the February 23 Joint Academy and Foundation Board Retreat, the February 24 Board meeting and the April 4 Board meeting webinar. Please make your editorial changes to provide time to focus our discussions on substantive issues at the May Board meeting.

On Monday, materials for the meeting will begin to be posted on the Board communication platform. Paper copies will not be automatically provided to Board members; please contact me by Monday if you want to receive a paper packet. Any attachments for the Executive Session will not be placed on the communication platform but will be e-mailed to Board members prior to the meeting.

You will note on the agenda that the Board meeting starts on Friday, May 19 at 1:00pm and lunch will be provided at noon. Although our meeting does not begin until Friday, some of you expressed an interest in hearing Lucille, Donna and Susan Finn present the keynote address at the Ohio Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (OAND) annual conference at 8:30am on Thursday, May 18. Those of you who live in the area will be there, and of course all are welcome, as your schedule permits. The Hilton Cleveland Downtown Hotel is the venue for both the OAND meeting and the BOD meeting and room accommodations are limited.

Board members have been registered for the OAND conference taking place Thursday, May 18 through Friday, May 19 until noon, and are welcome to participate as your schedule allows. The OAND conference program can be viewed by clicking here.

Board members are asked to attend the Foundation Second Century Fundraising Reception on Thursday, May 18 from 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm at the Hilton Cleveland Downtown Hotel in the Veterans Ballroom. In lieu of registering for this fundraising event, Board members are asked to sponsor a student member of OAND to attend the reception. Please provide Beth Labrador or me with the $20 sponsorship cost when you see us in Cleveland. You will be matched with a student and provided an opportunity to meet them at the reception.

On Friday, May 19 the Board will be visiting the Academy's 100th Anniversary Exhibit at the Dittrick Museum of Medical History in the Allen Memorial Medical Library. Transportation will be provided to take you to the exhibit and from there to the Board celebration dinner scheduled from 6:00pm – 8:30pm at Pura Vida, 170 Euclid Avenue.

The attire for the meetings, including the reception and dinner, is business casual.

No doubt you have heard that the House of Representatives today passed the American Health Care Act, which the Academy has opposed. We sent a letter yesterday, reiterating our opposition, to Speaker Paul Ryan and Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi. The letter is on eatrightPRO at <http://www.eatrightpro.org/resource/news-center/on-the-pulse-of-public-policy/from-the-hill/academy-letter-ahca>.

Attached is a press release the Academy issued to the news media this afternoon, which will also be posted to eatrightPRO, announcing our continued opposition to the bill and urging the Senate to not pass it.

As we state in the release: The Academy will work with states to advocate for continued access and coverage for preventive services, coverage for preventive care, ambulatory care, behavioral health and numerous other services where registered dietitian nutritionists are improving patient health.

We will be doing social media messaging based on this release, as well.

Please let me know if you have any questions on the Academy's stance on this issue.

Dear Policy Leaders,

We would like to thank you for your grassroots work in the past 24 hours on the American Health Care Act (H.R. 1628). More than 1500 letters were sent to members of Congress by our Academy members. Despite our efforts and those of countless other health organizations, the U.S. House of Representatives passed the bill earlier today by a vote of 217-213. Our work will now focus in the Senate as we strive for opportunities to advocate for nutrition services. Attached is a copy of the Academy's press release.

Please watch for the next steps in the near future. Again, we thank you for quickly activating our members.

Please let us know if you have questions.

Go Paperless for the Upcoming CDR Registration Maintenance Fee Notice

CDR would like to encourage you to enroll in the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) paperless registration maintenance fee notification option.

The Reason Why You Should Consider the Paperless Registration Maintenance Fee Notice Option:

- Save a stamp! Instead of receiving your CDR registration maintenance fee notice and reminders through the mail, you will receive email notifications from June 2017 to March 31, 2018, or until your CDR fee is paid.

If you select the paperless option, it is extremely important that you have and maintain a primary e-mail address on your CDR record at all times.

Important: If your institution or company has a firewall that blocks emails from eatright.org, you will have to select an alternate primary email address (i.e., your personal email) to avoid missing important CDR notices.

To learn more about or to select the paperless option, please visit: cdrnet.org/dates-regdates/paperless

If you do not choose an option your CDR registration maintenance fee notice will continue to be mailed via USPS.

2017-2018 CDR Registration Maintenance Fee Invoice

In mid-June, the 2017-2018 CDR fee invoice/notice will be placed online and you will be able to pay your fee by logging into your CDR record at cdrnet.org/fees. The annual CDR fee is $60 and the payment due date is August 31, 2017.

(Note: RDs, RDNs and DTRs, NDTRs whose 5-year recertification cycle is ending May 31, 2017, will not be billed until their Professional Development Portfolio (PDP) Activity Log has been approved.)

Please call CDR at 800-877-1600, ext. 5500 (8am to 5pm/CT), if you have any questions.

Thank you for considering going Paperless.

Dear Academy Member,

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, through its Dietetics Practice Based Research Network (DPBRN), is assessing the roles and responsibilities of Academy members in public health nutrition and community nutrition. We emailed you about this survey approximately 2 weeks ago. If you have already taken the survey, please ignore this email. Due to the anonymous nature of the survey, we cannot limit this message to those who have not yet completed the survey.

We are looking for input from Academy members who work in a paid position in public health nutrition/ community nutrition. This anonymous survey will take approximately 10-15 minutes to complete and will ask questions about your roles and functions in public health nutrition and community nutrition, the skills you use in fulfilling these roles, factors that prepared you for a job in public health nutrition and community nutrition, as well as factors that influenced you to work in this area of practice.

The survey will be open until May 12, 2017, and we would appreciate your responses. This survey can be completed in multiple sittings, if necessary, but you must return using the same computer. You can access the survey using this link:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/phcnworkforce>

At the conclusion of this survey, you will have the opportunity to enter into a drawing for one of three $100 American Express gift cards. We anticipate 250 responses to the survey, so complete it now for a chance to win one of three American Express gift cards!

Please direct any questions to dpbrn@eatright.org.

Thank you for your participation.

Dear Board of Directors,

The Academy has opened a new action alert titled, Vote No on the American Health Care Act. We request you to take action immediately!

The House of Representatives is expected to vote as soon as 1:00pm ET today on an amended version of the American Health Care Act, which the Academy continues to oppose for conflicting with our tenets for health care reform. We are asking you, as our member leaders, to please reach out to your Member of Congress right now to express your concerns about the impact of this legislation on access to health care services for people in your district.

Take Action Today!

Members of Congress need to hear directly from constituents on these important matters!

Please assist with getting letters sent to your U. S. Representative today!

Please let me know if you have questions.

Best regards,

Teresa

Happy Nutrition Research Month!

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is committed to a world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.

View in browser.

Nutrition Research Month highlights the relevance and importance of scientific research in dietetics, while promoting valuable resources the Academy provides to encourage and support the research process by all registered dietitian nutritionists.

Research has practical applications in every area of dietetics practice, making a solid research background a useful tool for every RDN. This awareness campaign will help the Academy further promote the incredible work of RDNs in improving the lives of everyone through current, science-based nutrition guidance. In 2017, Academy members can participate in research by:

- Volunteering for an Evidence Analysis Library project
 - Joining the Dietetics Practice Based Research Network (DPBRN)
 - Using the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Health Informatics Infrastructure (ANDHII)
- Practice-based research activity is critical to discovering not only how nutrition interventions affect different disease states, but also how they impact outcomes and the lives of patients.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy Continues to Oppose American Health Care Act

The Academy sent a letter on May 3 to House Speaker Paul Ryan (Wis.) and Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (Calif.) reaffirming the Academy's opposition to H.R. 1628, the American Health Care Act, as recently amended. President Lucille Beseler, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, FAND, wrote: "The new proposal set forth in the AHCA not only fails to improve the health of all Americans, but it will worsen patient care and public health by removing vital resources that are currently effective in improving health across the country."

Another Successful Quarterly Advocacy Day on Capitol Hill

More than 20 Academy members visited with key members of Congress May 1 to discuss the effectiveness of medical nutrition therapy and other nutrition services in improving health care outcomes and reducing federal spending. Teams met with health legislative assistants for Sens. Sherrod Brown (Ohio), Ben Cardin (Md.), Bill Cassidy (La.), Dean Heller (Nev.), Johnny Isakson (Ga.), Rob Portman (Ohio), John Thune (S.D.) and Ron Wyden (Ore.), and met with health legislative assistants for Reps. Gus Bilirakis (Fla.), Diane Black (Tenn.), Marsha Blackburn (Tenn.), Kathy Castor (Fla.), Chris Collins (N.Y.), Diana DeGette (Colo.), Anna Eshoo (Calif.), Brett Guthrie (Ky.), Lynn Jenkins (Kan.), Joe Kennedy (Mass.), Leonard Lance (N.J.), Ben Lujan (N.M.), Doris Matsui (Calif.), Peter Roskam (Ill.), John Sarbanes (Md.), Janice Schakowsky (Ill.), Kurt Schrader (Ore.), John Shimkus (Ill.), Patrick Tiberi (Ohio) and Fred Upton (Mich.).

Register Now: Public Policy Workshop

There has never been a better time to show the important role food and nutrition play in our nation's health: Attend the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit, the Academy's Public Policy Workshop, June 25 to 26, in Washington, D.C. Exciting changes make this year's PPW the "go-to" event to sharpen your communication skills, advocate for the profession and develop new high-level personal and professional relationships. A new video shows why attending PPW is so important.

New USDA-Academy Toolkit Will Help Interns Locate Child Nutrition Rotations

Recognizing the value of registered dietitian nutritionists and dietetics interns in child nutrition programs, the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced a new effort with the Academy to provide more internship opportunities for interns at the federal, state and local levels. USDA and the Academy have created a toolkit of resources to help state agencies get ready to host and to help interns get ready for your rotations.

Academy Urges FDA to Approach Redefinition of 'Healthy' Cautiously and with More Research

The Academy has been integrally involved in the Food and Drug Administration's process of redefining the nutrient content claim "healthy" when used on labels as a product name or description of a food product. In formal comments to FDA last week, the Academy argued that there was not a single identifiable definition that met the Academy's food labeling principles, reflected the best and most recent science and effectively communicated the meaning of the term to consumers. The Academy offered specific guidance on elements of any potential definition to ensure conformity with the 2015-2020 Dietary Guidelines for Americans and additional needed consumer research.

USDA Updates Nutrition Standards in School Meals

Agriculture Secretary Sonny Perdue provided guidance May 1 to school nutrition directors that sodium and whole grains nutritional requirements as part of the school meals programs will be the same for the 2017-2018 year. The Academy has been at the forefront of these issues during previous debates and negotiations on child nutrition reauthorization with constant input from member leaders and dietetic practice groups. The Academy continues to support school nutrition directors who lead the way in planning and serving children nutritious school meals.

Congress Avoids Government Shutdown

On April 28, the House and Senate passed a one-week extension of funding at existing levels that avoids an imminent government shutdown as Congress and the Trump administration seek a final funding agreement for Fiscal Year 2017. The Academy is working to prevent cuts to key nutrition programs and services by submitting letters of support to leadership at the Departments of Health and Human Services and Agriculture and continuing to work with relevant congressional committees to communicate the value of nutrition programs developed, led and provided by registered dietitian nutritionists and nutrition and dietetics technicians, registered.

Clinical Care Commission Act Passes Key Committee

The Senate's Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee voted April 26 to approve the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 904/H.R. 309), which has been an Academy legislative priority for the past three congressional sessions, and works to ensure that federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. Sen. Susan Collins (Maine) introduced a letter of support from the Academy and our partners in the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance and urged swift passage of this bill. More information will come soon on this important bill as it moves closer to passage.

Provide Education to Developing Nations: Global Food and Nutrition Resource Hub

A food and nutrition resource hub is now available to support health professionals' humanitarian assistance efforts in developing areas of Central America. Funded through the Foundation, this open-access collection includes background information on key issues, educational illustrations and nutrient comparison charts unique to the local food supply. The Academy will continue to expand resources for global nutrition education; members are asked to sharing your feedback in a brief survey.

Dear Public Policy Leaders,

We need your immediate assistance! The Academy has opened a new action alert titled, Vote No on the American Health Care Act. This action alert will only be open for a day or two. We need you to take action immediately!

The House of Representatives is expected to vote as soon as tomorrow, May 4, 2017, on an amended version of the American Health Care Act, which the Academy continues to oppose for conflicting with our tenets for health care reform. We are asking you, as our member leaders, to please reach out to your Member of Congress right now to express your concerns about the impact of this legislation on access to health care services for people in your district.

Take Action Today!

Members of Congress need to hear directly from constituents on these important matters!

Please assist with getting letters sent to your U. S. Representative today!

Please let me know if you have questions.

Best,

Teresa

Jeanne, Are you at all confident we would want the 535 packages of grits for PPW? If so, I need to work on getting them and I am going to put a sticker on them that I would have approved by you to tell about what they are used for. To get that many and have them shipped would take a little time, but totally doable.

The groups call for securing CHIP's future so that this essential program will continue to be available for the 8.9 million children and hundreds of thousands of pregnant women who rely on CHIP for their coverage.

Staff has reviewed the letter and we recommend signing on. Congress might try and leverage the need for reauthorization into making changes or Medicaid cuts, but this letter encourages them to avoid that.

I have now reached out SOS who have responded and confirmed we did not have any conversations about her. They did tell me Gus sent her resume to the CEO today.

I really have any issue with her not telling the full story since it is my reputation being discussed with others.

Sounds good, you might want to think if you are able to step back into a leadership position. Which of course would be great. You could have Jeanne co-lead with you, if that would be good for your schedule.

Camille is very helpful but I am respectful that her experience is limited. And that she is looking for that first real job, exciting time for her. I would love if you and Jeanne could mentor her.

I am not sure we ever got the one page summary you had referenced in your last email.

Hi Mary-Pat,

Thank you for sending this update! I greatly appreciate this update and Jeanne's leadership to move this forward. Thank you also to Camille for helping to advance this. Camille and I have been speaking regularly and she has been keeping me apprised.

As I suggested to Camille, I'd like to convene a quick conference call of the LEAN group to discuss the updated concept and discuss next steps. Perhaps Wed or thereabouts next week when everyone has had an opportunity to review the document. I can send a Doodle Poll with a few options if that works and I'm happy to provide a conference line etc.

Thank you again for moving this forward.

Best wishes,

Thank you, Matthew! I completely agree that the Earth has shifted a little post-election and that the next several years will require intense work and necessary prioritization. I, like you, am still committed to the cause and would like to be supportive, but I cannot promise to own the lead on this in the short term.

Camille, it would be great if you'd help write up the work to date and needs for moving forward so as to ensure it is captured and ready for next steps...even if those steps may be a little delayed or less dramatic right away.

Thank you all for your interest in this and I look forward to continuing to figure it out and grow the concept in the months ahead!

Hi folks,

I hope this email finds you all well. I am reaching out to reconnect regarding our LEAN initiative following a several weeks of radio silence post-election.

Like, I am sure, many of you, the results of November 8 have required that we take a step back to reflect, renew and reprioritize on where we will place our focus and limited resources in the coming weeks, months and years. As a global organization working on issues such as climate change, reproductive health services for women and girls, and food and nutrition, many of our organizational priorities are under threat and, at the very least, in the crosshairs.

In this environment, I have to take stock on the extent to which we can — and I personally am able to — contribute to the LEAN initiative, at least through the early months of 2017.

That said, I do want to underscore my commitment and excitement to the vision we outlined and developed in Dallas and during our last call. I am not stepping away, I just want to be prudent and honest about the challenges we face on the road ahead. At the same time, I recognize that the goals we identified for LEAN are more important than ever.

I would appreciate hearing the thoughts and input from other members of our team. Do others feel the same?

Plus, as we discussed before, the unique nature of the LEAN work will require some resources from an early state in order to ensure we can move forward.

In the meantime, perhaps as an interim step, Camille had kindly reached out to offer her support in preparing the summary and updated project spec, summarizing where we are and next steps.

Camille, if you offer is still on the table, perhaps we could connect later this week or early next to finalize that document and share back with the group and our colleagues at Whalen Consulting etc. Let me know.

Best,

Matthew

I do think there are critical questions that need to be addressed regarding the funding viability of this project and the extent to which our organizations and partners can commit to this cause.

Thanks again and I look forward to further dialogue.

Subject: Food Bus Article - Access to healthy foods

When we had our in-person meeting in February I mentioned the food bus that some dietitians were connected with in, I thought, Atlanta. Well, I found the article and it was Orlando, not Atlanta. I have attached the article in case any of you are interested. It highlights that dietitians with Hebni Nutrition consultants are behind the Food Bus.

The attached article appeared in the Spring 2017 issue of Diabetic Living.

Hello Donna,

Susan provided a minor edit for her portion of the OAND presentation. I have placed the revised deck on the BOD portal; it can be accessed by clicking here. If all is good, I will send to OAND tomorrow. The conference organizer asked if you will be needing a “polling feature” for your presentation. If yes, please let me know and I will have the organizer set up for you.

Thanks!

I think a "special" orientation for Gus is a great idea. Susie and I were already brainstorming about this very concept before she went on vacation. I will circle back with her and we will get something on the calendar. We have done this in the past with other public members so it is certainly in line with our existing protocols. There is a lot for them to absorb so any chance to work one-on-one and make their experience that much more effective for all of us is a good thing.

I am always in favor of having Mary Pat pay for dinners J. I'm certain it was an excellent use of resources and I thank you all for spending some quality time with our new board member and his spouse. They are both prospects so I consider it important cultivation work!

Mary Beth and Pat, Lucille and I spent an evening with Gus Schumacher in DC, on Sunday night, to give him a little heads up about the Foundation and also to talk to him about getting his help with SNAP Ed. We were worried that his asking for money for Wholesome Wave might take money from SNAP Ed.

What I wanted to talk to you about was his role on the Foundation Board. I would like to suggest that we bring him in a day early before the Foundation meeting in June to give him a short orientation to the Foundation. If we don't, he will be trying to talk about things that will drag the meeting down and make it not productive. He has lots of ideas and lots of contacts, but he does not really understand what his role is and what the foundation does. He would be open to coming early or at least doing a phone call orientation with you all. Lucille, Mary Pat, Jenn, Camille and I met him and his wife for dinner and we had a great meeting with him and I think we will be able to work with him on some great projects. He has so many contacts for us on the hill. Lucille and I told Mary Pat to pay for all of our dinners, as it was so worth it, because of the work we accomplished at dinner. Hope that was OK? If not, I am happy to pay for their meals.

Hi Donna,

I hope you had safe travels and got to sleep in a little this morning.

Just wanted to make sure I followed up with our idea for Gus and Mary Beth to have an orientation before our board meeting in Chicago. I believe we have one additional new Foundation board member who might also appreciate an informal orientation before starting their term. I was surprise to learn we have taken this out of our onboarding process!

I would be very interested/available in joining Gus on these days and have sent a note to him to make sure he leaves flexibility in his schedule should we be able to make it happen.

Talked to Kelly Miterko this morning and she says hi!

Safe travels during this busy time! Let me know when you are in DC!

Academy's Third Quarterly Advocacy Day on Capitol Hill a Success!

Over 20 Academy members visited with key members of Congress to discuss the clinical-effectiveness and cost-effectiveness of medical nutrition therapy and other nutrition services that improve health care outcomes and reduce federal spending. Teams met with health legislative assistants for Senators: Sen. Sherrod Brown (Ohio), Bill Cassidy (La.), Ben Cardin (Md.), Dean Heller (Nev.), Johnny Isakson (Ga.), Rob Portman (Ohio), John Thun (S.D.) and Ron Wyden (Ore.). Teams also met with health legislative assistants for Representatives Marsha Blackburn (Tenn.-7), Diane Black (Tenn.-6), Kathy Castor (Fla.-14), Chris Collins (N.Y.-27), Diana DeGette (Colo.-1), Gus Bilirakis (Fla.-12), Anna Eshoo (Calif.-18), Brett Guthrie (Ky.-2), Lynn Jenkins (Kan.-2), Joe Kennedy (Mass.-4), Leonard Lance (N.J.-7), Ben Lujan (N.M.-3), Doris Matsui (Calif.-6), Peter Roskam (Ill.-6), John Sarbanes (Md.-3), Janice Schakowsky (Ill.-9), Kurt Schrader (Ore.-5), John Shimkus (Ill.-15), Patrick Tiberi (Ohio-12) and Fred Upton (Mich.-6).

Continuing Resolution/Omnibus Update

On April 28th, the House and Senate passed a one-week extension of the current Continuing Resolution (CR), thus maintaining FY 2017 funding at the existing levels for one more week while they try to come to a final funding agreement for FY 2017.

We will continue to closely monitor the situation. Our priority is to not have any cuts to key nutrition programs as part of any final funding agreement for FY 2017, and we will watch closely for that. The Academy submitted letters of support of nutrition programs and services in both the Departments of Health and Human Services and Agriculture. The Academy continues to work with Appropriations Committees and House and Senate leadership to assure they understand the value of nutrition programs.

Centennial Resolution

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the Congressional Resolution Commemorating the Academy's Centennial has gained new cosponsors in the Senate! We are pleased to announce that Senators Ben Cardin (Md.), Bob Casey (Pa.) and Bill Cassidy (La.) have co-sponsored the Resolution, and our Congressional champions appreciate the work of our members in reaching out to Congress! Please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the Congressional Resolution.

Clinical Care Commission Act Passes Key Committee

Great news! On April 26th, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee voted to approve the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 904/H.R. 309). This bill has been an Academy legislative priority for the past 3 Congressional sessions, and works to ensure that federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. During the hearing, Senator Collins' introduced a letter of support from the Academy and its' partners in the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, and urged swift passage of this bill to help people with diabetes. Stay tuned for updates on this important bill as it moves one step closer to passage!

USDA Maintains Current Nutrition Standards in School Meals, Moves to Allow Flavored Low-Fat Milk

On Monday, Secretary of Agriculture Perdue provided guidance to school nutrition directors that sodium and whole grains requirements will stay current for the coming 2017-18 year. Any additional changes will be addressed through the regulatory process, which will be available for public comment. To address decreasing milk consumption and meeting the needs of calcium, a new interim rule will be promulgated and open for public comment which is expected to allow low-fat flavored milk. USDA also noted that they supports technical support to help address specific issues related to whole grains, sodium and dairy in the school meals programs. These issues were discussed during the debates and negotiations on child nutrition act reauthorization with input from our member leaders. We continue to support our school nutrition directors who will move forward serving children nutritious meals.

Secretary's Advisory Committee on National Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Objectives for Healthy People 2030 This week the Department of Health and Human Services' Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, subcommittee on Healthy People 2030 discussed a report, entitled “Report of the Approaches Subcommittee, Healthy People 2030.” The subcommittee convened to report presents the Subcommittee’s recommendations for a proposed approach to Healthy People 2030, a rationale for that approach, and for the initiative’s structure and content. In June of 2017, APHA + HHS will host a webinar about the development of Healthy People 2030 and will announce the opening of the public comment period, which will stay open for several months in Summer-Fall 2017. A variety of stakeholders will be able to make comments during this time.

Recording Available for PPW Bootcamp Session 2 for PPCs and PALs

The PPW Bootcamp Session 2: Preparing the Affiliate Policy Team for PPW webinar recording is now available. Click here to listen to the recording. The MP4 recording is also available on the Public Policy Coordinator community of interest in the PPW topic. The recording is filed in the PPW Bootcamp 2017 subtopic.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy’s 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).

2. Ask your members to take action now!

Academy's Third Quarterly Advocacy Day on Capitol Hill a Success!

Over 20 Academy members visited with key members of Congress to discuss the clinical-effectiveness and cost-effectiveness of medical nutrition therapy and other nutrition services that improve health care outcomes and reduce federal spending. Teams met with health legislative assistants for Senators: Sen. Sherrod Brown (Ohio), Bill Cassidy (La.), Ben Cardin (Md.), Dean Heller (Nev.), Johnny Isakson (Ga.), Rob Portman (Ohio), John Thun (S.D.) and Ron Wyden (Ore.). Teams also met with health legislative assistants for Representatives Marsha Blackburn (Tenn.-7), Diane Black (Tenn.-6), Kathy Castor (Fla.-14), Chris Collins (N.Y.-27), Diana DeGette (Colo.-1), Gus Bilirakis (Fla.-12), Anna Eshoo (Calif.-18), Brett Guthrie (Ky.-2), Lynn Jenkins (Kan.-2), Joe Kennedy (Mass.-4), Leonard Lance (N.J.-7), Ben Lujan (N.M.-3), Doris Matsui (Calif.-6), Peter Roskam (Ill.-6), John Sarbanes (Md.-3), Janice Schakowsky (Ill.-9), Kurt Schrader (Ore.-5), John Shimkus (Ill.-15), Patrick Tiberi (Ohio-12) and Fred Upton (Mich.-6).

Continuing Resolution/Omnibus Update

On April 28th, the House and Senate passed a one-week extension of the current Continuing Resolution (CR), thus maintaining FY 2017 funding at the existing levels for one more week while they try to come to a final funding agreement for FY 2017.

We will continue to closely monitor the situation. Our priority is to not have any cuts to key nutrition programs as part of any final funding agreement for FY 2017, and we will watch closely for that. The Academy submitted letters of support of nutrition programs and services in both the Departments of Health and Human Services and Agriculture. The Academy continues to work with Appropriations Committees and House and Senate leadership to assure they understand the value of nutrition programs.

Centennial Resolution

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the Congressional Resolution Commemorating the Academy's Centennial has gained new cosponsors in the Senate! We are pleased to announce that Senators Ben Cardin (Md.), Bob Casey (Pa.) and Bill Cassidy (La.) have co-sponsored the Resolution, and our Congressional champions appreciate the work of our members in reaching out to Congress! Please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the Congressional Resolution.

Clinical Care Commission Act Passes Key Committee

Great news! On April 26th, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee voted to approve the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 904/H.R. 309). This bill has been an Academy legislative priority for the past 3 Congressional sessions, and works to ensure that federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. During the hearing, Senator Collins' introduced a letter of support from the Academy and its' partners in the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, and urged swift passage of this bill to help people with diabetes. Stay tuned for updates on this important bill as it moves one step closer to passage!

USDA Maintains Current Nutrition Standards in School Meals, Moves to Allow Flavored Low-Fat Milk

On Monday, Secretary of Agriculture Perdue provided guidance to school nutrition directors that sodium and whole grains requirements will stay current for the coming 2017-18 year. Any additional changes will be addressed through the regulatory process, which will be available for public comment. To address decreasing milk consumption and meeting the needs of calcium, a new interim rule will be promulgated and open for public comment which is expected to allow low-fat flavored milk. USDA also noted that they supports technical support to help address specific issues related to whole grains, sodium and dairy in the school meals programs. These issues were discussed during the debates and negotiations on child nutrition act reauthorization with input from our member leaders. We continue to support our school nutrition directors who will move forward serving children nutritious meals.

Secretary's Advisory Committee on National Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Objectives for Healthy People 2030 This week the Department of Health and Human Services' Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, subcommittee on Healthy People 2030 discussed a report, entitled “Report of the Approaches Subcommittee, Healthy People 2030.” The subcommittee convened to report presents the Subcommittee’s recommendations for a proposed approach to Healthy People 2030, a rationale for that approach, and for the initiative’s structure and content. In June of 2017, APHA + HHS will host a webinar about the development of Healthy People 2030 and will announce the opening of the public comment period, which will stay open for several months in Summer-Fall 2017. A variety of stakeholders will be able to make comments during this time.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy’s 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We continue to need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).

2. Ask your members to take action now!

I like it, let's do something about True Grit or another catchy phrase. We would need 535 packets unless we give more than one to each office. I don't know how many you can get.

We could try to work on a meeting with Sunny Perdue and I think also Tom Price the day after PPW if you would like? We may not get a meeting directly with either the first time, but we can start working our way up and it is never too early to start that.

Thanks for responding Jeanne, and when I set all this up I did not even realize that Mary Pat was retiring. Your email makes perfect sense with regards to changes in the DC office. I look forward to seeing what comes out of the treatment issue. I enjoyed yesterday and will be glad to be a resource for anything with USDA and School Nutrition Programs. I would like to set up a meeting with Sonny Perdue as soon as he is settled into his job. If we decide to focus on anything at PPW with School Meals I would like to bring Whole Grain Grits to give to all the congressman offices we visit. I have talked to the farmer who mills for us and he would be willing to ship the packages of grits to DC for me so we could give them to the congressman/congresswoman or their staff to make our point. Sonny Perdue said the whole grain grits have black specs in them and they certainly do not. What do you think?

Donna,

Thanks for your note. I appreciate our explanation of the dinner and am sorry that I just didn't reach out to both of you and ask to attend in advance. I appreciate your understanding of work-life balance and of course it is something we all struggle with!

Mary Pat and I have divided issues based on a variety of factors over the years, but obviously we have to both be knowledgeable at some level about issues collectively. With Mary Pat's transition, I will be overseeing our efforts and am completely comfortable with that. It also means that Jenn will report to me, though obviously she has expertise that allows her to work independently. I am trying to think about the transition and to become more involved in areas that I have been the back-up on until now. There have been challenges with the current structure with regard to delegation because we are a small team and despite LPPC and ANDPAC being under my side, I do not have staff to support their management. As a result, both Stefanie and Jenn have not had the opportunity to develop their leadership skills in non-profit management and I on the other hand, have functioned below the level of which I am capable.

I really do appreciate your note, it was just a surprise to see others attended when I was told that it was exclusive. I am sure you can understand my confusion! But please don't give this another thought, we have far more issues and pressing work to do! I am just glad you were able to come. We have a lot of ideas and thoughts after yesterday. When I do the update on the 3 P's for the California bill, I can share with you some of our plans for messaging and talking points. In fact, I am convinced we need a complete reset on nutrition not only as prevention (the offices get that) but on treatment! Pepin and I had a great conversation with Marsha and Alison this morning and ideas for what resources we have to support a campaign like that. Exciting :-)

Thanks again for coming!

Jeanne

Jeanne, I am sorry we did not get to spend more time together. I want to apologize for possibly hurting your feelings by not inviting you to dinner Sunday night. I want to explain my thought process. I contacted Gus Schumacher about dinner, because I needed to talk to him about Wholesome Wave. We have started the process to get SNAP approved at our Farmer's Market and I needed to talk to Gus about finding some funding for the Wholesome Wave matching part. When I told Mary Pat I was having dinner with Gus, she asked me to talk to him about the fact that by him requesting 100 million dollars for Wholesome Wave, it had the possibility of taking money away from SNAP Ed. I asked her if she would be willing to come to dinner to help with that discussion. I was concerned that I would not be able to answer all the political questions surrounding her concern. She then suggested bringing Jenn and I said fine. My thought process was that you all hate having to spend all your evenings having dinner with work related issues, and I try to not make you all feel like you have to entertain us or spend time with us because of our positions on the board. I know I value my evening time with my family and hate when work takes me away from my family. I really was trying to be sensitive to the little bit of home time you get and not at all trying to exclude you. I realize that was a mistake now, and I will in the future make sure I include you and let you make the decision to come or not come. Please know that it was not meant to be a include not include type event. Please accept my sincerest apologies as it was not my intent to hurt anyone's feelings.

May 2017 Chair Monthly Message

from Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation Chair
 Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

Thank You For This Tremendous Opportunity!

I have been honored to serve as your Academy Foundation Chair for the last two years. First and foremost I would like to thank you, our Academy members and Foundation donors for this tremendous opportunity. Your generosity and desire to give back and make an impact throughout our profession inspires me on a daily basis. Our Foundation has helped thousands of Academy members through scholarships, awards, research grants and our public education programs over the last few years because of you.

Next, I would like to thank all the dedicated Foundation Board members and volunteers I have worked side-by-side with over the last few years. I admire your dedication and stewardship to our Foundation, giving back to our profession that has given us so much. Your time, talent and treasure that you have given freely to our Foundation has made us stronger. I have appreciated your input, but more importantly, value the relationships we have built over the years through a mutual passion for our Foundation.

Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND, and 2016/17 Academy Foundation Board Members

Finally, I would also like to recognize and thank the Foundation and Academy staff who works often times behind the scenes, but are just as essential to the process and provides us with all the support to help us succeed as a Board and an organization.

We have had many accomplishments over the past few years, but what I am most proud of is the opportunity to welcome us into our Second Century and all the hard work and planning that has gone into this process. Our Academy and Foundation has had the forethought to recognize our 100-year anniversary and usher us into our Second Century as a profession, creating a future where our members will lead the charge in accelerating improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition. Our Foundation will be the conduit to help make this happen, building upon our programs and successes, supporting dietetics professionals locally, nationally and now globally, through scholarships, research grants, awards and community education. If you haven't done so already, please join your peers by making a gift today, and help us create a bigger, better, bolder Second Century – together!

Please join me in welcoming our new Chair in June, Marty Yadrick, MS, MBI, RDN, FAND. Marty is a hard-working, dynamic individual, having served Academy President in 2008-09 and Chair of ANDPAC, the Academy's Political Action Committee, in 2012-13. He has previously served as the Chair of the Nutrition Informatics Committee, Academy Treasurer, House of Delegates Director, Delegate, Academy media spokesperson and Chair of the SCAN DPG. I am looking forward to working with you as Past-Chair and serving our profession.

This has been an opportunity of a lifetime for me. I leave with a greater appreciation for all the tremendous things the Foundation does for our Academy members, the generous donors who make all this happen and the dynamic individuals who are doing great things around the world, in our profession, from our support. Thank you!

Warm Regards,

Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

I think it could have been a lot worse. Maybe SNA will back off now and stop asking for changes which would be a good thing. Just as a FYI, Jenn was asked to give her opinion on changes in school meals with key influencers. She was guided by your recommendations which was extremely helpful. I know she was contacted because she is able to look at the big picture of children's health and give common sense input. She has a non-threatening manner which is appreciated by both sides.

I do not think any other nutrition groups were contacted for this. So at this point, we are not sharing that externally as to have hard feelings or putting others on the defense for their decision.

Absolutely unbelievable!

By the way, I'm on my way to a Dairy Council meeting w Jean Regalie at their HQ w Mary Beth. I won't be on the LPPC call. Heard an earful yesterday on the phone from Jean as President of Dairy about our Vegetarian position paper (six months later?) that has a line in it about dairy and meat. Nothing in the paper says don't eat dairy or meat or be a vegetarian or vegan but she was saying that Dairy is helping us with funding to elevate the Academy's science and evidence and it's so disappointing.

I resented the correlation of the sponsorship.

I wasn't on the internship funding call yesterday because Abbott and Avalere came to HQ about next action steps related to the quality measures with CMS. Danna and Amie (the Abbott reps) stayed longer than expected to discuss some issues. I did tell Jeanne to communicate that I felt strongly that we should NOT take a neutral position , which was going to be the recommendation. I asked Jeanne to prepare talking points for Lucille who was addressing the California affiliate so she had a heads up if asked. I think we should NOT support the legislation since it will have a negative impact on internships and preceptorships, although I certainly appreciate the dilemma. I can also ask Mary G to participate on the 4Ps call in addition to Jeanne.

Barbara and Sonja,

Thank you Sonja for seeking further clarifications of the Media Excellence Award. Barbara, per your request, see message below.

I received written responses from Char, Joan, Alyce, Jamie, Michele and Sonja regarding this award as requested by noon today.

Char, Joan, Alyce, Jamie and I, are in favor of presenting the award based on the review that was provided by Char. It is my understanding that both applicants were well qualified and received a score well above 80. Our recommendation is in keeping with the process that was followed when other members reviewed the other awards of excellence and made their recommendations.

Feel free to send the applications for the Media Award to the committee. Those members who did not respond By noon today, may want to review the applications and score them. Michele indicated that she would honor the wishes of the committee. However, she may want to review the applications as well.

Hopefully, we can reach a consensus by May 2. That will give other members time to review the applications for the Media Award. They may also write back and let us know if they support the score of the reviewer.

Thank you all for all of your professional time and effort in reviewing the applications as assigned. The membership would really appreciate the work and attention that is devoted to the Honors and Awards Committee. I appreciate you all and the staff in helping to maintain the integrity of this committee.

I like the idea of fun ... it should be for your year. I know so many are excited for your leadership year.

I have an idea...what if we switched Sunday schedule? We meet you all for drinks and a quick update. And then you can have dinner and discuss the Foundation. I would like to reinforce with Gus our process working with our members on issues. I am not sure he understands if monies shift from SNAP-Ed to FINI, our members will lose jobs. I want to get you out of uncomfortable positions with him!

I think that will be helpful as I am not sure Gus is aware of the difference between the Foundation and the Academy. He seems a bit confused when he has described his role to our external partners. It sounds like he is excited but just needs some clarification. Is there an orientation for ANDF BOD members?

I have sent Camille job opportunities and have not had a response. The jobs are entry level but seem to be a good fit. It is competitive here and there are lots of candidates with great experience for these higher level position. Since I have not heard back from her, it might be a sign she has other resources for her job search.

The good news is that by being so busy with the Academy, I don't have much time to be down about either my father's death or my mother's pitiful situation. I am taking life one day at a time and trying to keep my head above water. The other good news is that I am trying to have fun with the Academy job and know that in 13 months most of the stress will be over and I can go back to being a normal employee, wife, mother and grandmother. I also don't want to dwell on the fact you are retiring. I so appreciate your willingness to stay on as a consultant though. I just count on you to have my back all the time and keep me straight. You also keep me pumped up because you are so supportive.

Sure wish Deb Eschmeyer would get back to me on what FLOTUS is thinking. I have emailed her recently and she will not email me back. We need to go with FLOTUS or change directions. I just feel like she is going to do it and don't want to throw in the towel yet, but I know Diane Enos is getting antsy! Can't wait to see you Sunday. I am going to meet Camille early for drinks to discuss issues with Gus and the Foundation. Evidently, he has questions.

I like the idea of fun ... it should be for your year. I know so many are excited for your leadership year.

I have an idea...what if we switched Sunday schedule? We meet you all for drinks and a quick update. And then you can have dinner and discuss the Foundation. I would like to reinforce with Gus our process working with our members on issues. I am not sure he understands if monies shift from SNAP-Ed to FINI, our members will lose jobs. I want to get you out of uncomfortable positions with him!

I think that will be helpful as I am not sure Gus is aware of the difference between the Foundation and the Academy. He seems a bit confused when he has described his role to our external partners. It sounds like he is excited but just needs some clarification. Is there an orientation for ANDF BOD members?

I have sent Camille job opportunities and have not had a response. The jobs are entry level but seem to be a good fit. It is competitive here and there are lots of candidates with great experience for these higher level position. Since I have not heard back from her, it might be a sign she has other resources for her job search.

The good news is that by being so busy with the Academy, I don't have much time to be down about either my father's death or my mother's pitiful situation. I am taking life one day at a time and trying to keep my head above water. The other good news is that I am trying to have fun with the Academy job and know that in 13 months most of the stress will be over and I can go back to being a normal employee, wife, mother and grandmother. I also don't want to dwell on the fact you are retiring. I so appreciate your willingness to stay on as a consultant though. I just count on you to have my back all the time and keep me straight. You also keep me pumped up because you are so supportive.

Sure wish Deb Eschmeyer would get back to me on what FLOTUS is thinking. I have emailed her recently and she will not email me back. We need to go with FLOTUS or change directions. I just feel like she is going to do it and don't want to throw in the towel yet, but I know Diane Enos is getting antsy! Can't wait to see you Sunday. I am going to meet Camille early for drinks to discuss issues with Gus and the Foundation. Evidently, he has questions.

Lorri, Mike and Nadine,

We are recommending that the Academy continue to oppose the latest version of the AHCA bill. The amendments offered by Rep. MacArthur eliminate the essential health benefits requirements and allow states to determine coverage, among other things. In addition the door is opened for charging higher premiums for those with pre-existing conditions.

These provisions have opened the door for the Health Freedom Caucus to support the bill, however the moderate Republicans have not unilaterally indicated their support for the bill and in fact, many of the Republicans who previously were opposed to the last version of the bill continue to be opposed. As noted previously, even if the bill can pass through the House, we anticipate that there would be a significant debate in the Senate and stalling of its progress in the current form.

Our team has updated the letter previously sent and have asked for Lucille's approval to send. At this time we have not planned an action alert or additional advocacy beyond our meetings next Monday. Following our meetings, we will determine next steps.

Please indicate if you support the continued opposition and the revised letter. Please note we will update the reference for the number of uninsured that would result if the legislation were to pass.

Best Regards,

Jeanne

Hello Pat, Lucille, Donna and Joan,

I have a small dilemma. Currently my flight out of Cleveland on Saturday, May 20 (with a connecting flight) has me arriving home in the evening. Lo-and-behold, that Saturday is my daughter's senior prom, and she is devastated about me not being home at all!

(My life has been crazy recently, and I didn't have senior prom in my calendar when I booked the flight).

I am wondering if it would be OK for me to leave Cleveland mid-morning, so that I can be home in time for grand march? I can send my husband with her in the morning to the hairdresser.

I am happy to pay for this change in my ticket, or I can purchase a separate one-way return ticket and not use the one I bought through Deem.

It is my very last Board meeting, so it is truly heart wrenching to leave early.

Barbara and Sonja,

Thank you Sonja for seeking further clarifications of the Media Excellence Award. Barbara, per your request, see message below.

I received written responses from Char, Joan, Alyce, Jamie, Michele and Sonja regarding this award as requested by noon today.

Char, Joan, Alyce, Jamie and I, are in favor of presenting the award based on the review that was provided by Char. It is my understanding that both applicants were well qualified and received a score well above 80. Our recommendation is in keeping with the process that was followed when other members reviewed the other awards of excellence and made their recommendations.

Feel free to send the applications for the Media Award to the committee. Those members who did not respond By noon today, may want to review the applications and score them. Michele indicated that she would honor the wishes of the committee. However, she may want to review the applications as well.

Hopefully, we can reach a consensus by May 2. That will give other members time to review the applications for the Media Award. They may also write back and let us know if they support the score of the reviewer.

Thank you all for all of your professional time and effort in reviewing the applications as assigned. The membership would really appreciate the work and attention that is devoted to the Honors and Awards Committee. I appreciate you all and the staff in helping to maintain the integrity of this committee.

Subject: AB 387 - Minimum wage: health professionals: interns

Hi Lorri,

Thank you for reaching out to the Academy regarding AB 387 - Minimum wage: health professionals: interns. On Thursday April 27, representatives from the Academy's board of directors, CDR, ACEND, LPPC and staff met to review the California bill AB 387 - Minimum wage: health professionals: interns. Following discussion, consensus was reached that the California Affiliate could take a stance to oppose this legislation even though the Academy does not have a stance on this particular issue.

These Academy leaders do recommend that the California Academy consider offering a recommendation to the appropriate California Assembly committee or bill sponsor that there be a study to identify possible the impact of the legislation on various internship programs. This specific legislation could cause a number of adverse actions including reduction of the number of internship programs, increased costs for participating in a California based internship programs, and increased competition from individuals from other states.

We continue to encourage the California Academy to focus on the importance of the education and supervised practical experience required to be a registered dietitian nutritionist.

The Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy team looks forward to continued discussions with you and your affiliate going forward.

Please let us know if you have questions.

Best,

Teresa

Hi Donna

There are no ACEND accreditation standards that would prevent an organization from charging students for supervised practice experience in their facility. ACEND standards would require that the program is letting students know in advance of this cost as part of the total costs for the program if it is a separate cost not included in the program's overall tuition/fees. It was not clear from the program's website whether this fee is incorporated into the fees students pay already or if it is a separate fee. We will check with the program director to be sure that students are made aware of this cost, if it is not covered in their tuition.

The practice of charging students for some or all of their internship rotations is not uncommon. Most internships charge students a fee for the internship/supervised practice experience, commonly $10,000 - $15,000. What appears to be different here is that the program may be charging tuition/fees for the internship yet the tuition/fees may not cover the cost of this rotation, rather the students may be paying for that separately. What many programs do is incorporate such a cost into the fees charged to students and then the program pays the site rather than the students. We will check further on this.

The program director ultimately makes decisions on which supervised practice sites are used and is expected to routinely include student input in the evaluation of these sites. We will also talk with the director to assure that this evaluation is occurring and that students are being adequately prepared.

Thank you for sharing this email. Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Subject: Internship - Preceptor location / Ethical question

Hi Donna,

Hope you are well. Wonder if you could assist in this concern:

A major teaching hospital in our area is charging students $1,400 each for a six week clinical rotation for senior students (in addition to the private university tuition they are already paying Viterbo College).

This is the same rotation they do with me at Black River Memorial Hospital... no fee of course. The students that are upset and the Director of Nutrition insists on making the students pay this separate fee—for the rotation.

Previously I called the Academy and talked to someone in credentialing/education that stated there was no policy that states whether a facility can charge the students or not. So there wasn't anything we could do.

The feedback on this costly rotation is very poor.

Is there anything we can do to develop a policy? The Nutrition Director's actions are unethical and she has been asked to drop the fee by the Dean and she refuses. This individual has a long history of bullying staff and over 15 RDN's have left because of this director. What's most ironic is that she graduated from Viterbo University.

I have talked to the internship director and she is very disturbed but doesn't know where to turn. Because of limited preceptor sites she feels compelled to utilize this hospital, which is the largest in our area. I hear from the students that it was a very poor experience with little or no patient contact... plus $1,400.00!

Thank you for any suggestions you may have.

Best,

Ruth

Dante, Thanks for doing this for me, but since the Florida AND pays for me to come, wouldn't it be better for me to pay for it and get reimbursed? When I get the reimbursement from the New Mexico AND I am going to send a check to the Academy since they paid for the hotel room. This would keep you all out of paying for it and me reimbursing you?

Thank you, Donna, we definitely understand your schedule! We will take a look at that sentence and see if we can fix it up. Then we'll send the text to the Journal.

Great idea for August, we'll keep you posted on progress and send a draft to you as soon as possible for your review.

Tom, I am so sorry I have not gotten back to you sooner. I have been out of town speaking in New Mexico and then have had two days of Finance and Audit Committee Meetings. I really like the article, but only have one question and that is about the following statement "Seeing them in their homes can be a great attribute as a dietitian".

Could we possibly rephrase that to say something like, "Getting to work with them in their home environments is an added benefit of the job" It just did not seem to flow for me. Please feel free to rephrase what I wrote or keep what you wrote.

Therefore, it is a go!!!

For August, I was thinking about back to school and I thought we could look at RDN's in colleges and universities as well as schools with emphasis on food waste and the changing pallets of students. This could work well with our second century.

It is with sadness that I inform you of the death of William (Bill) Fileti, who passed away April 22 from cancer, diagnosed in October of 2016. Bill was the loving husband of Cecilia Fileti, MS, RDN, FADA, FAND, former Board member, Legislative and Public Policy Committee member and a year 2000 Medallion award recipient. A candlelight vigil will be held May 4 and a mass celebrating Bill's life will be held May 5 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Former Academy Foundation Chair Stella Cash will represent the Academy and Foundation boards at the services. In lieu of flowers, a contribution will be made to the Academy Foundation in honor of Cecilia's husband on behalf of both Boards.

Condolences may be sent to Cecilia at the following address.

Congressional Briefing on Importance of Breastfeeding: Wednesday, April 26

If you live in the Washington, D.C. area, you may be interesting in attending a Congressional Briefing on Wednesday, April 26, from 2-3 pm in 2020 Rayburn House Office Building, sponsored by Medela LLC together with the March of Dimes, and in cooperation with the offices of Congresswomen Jaime Herrera Beutler (Wash.) and Lucille Roybal-Allard (Calif.), Co-Chairs of the Congressional Caucus on Maternity Care. The PDF invitation is attached. Please RSVP by email to michael@chainlinksolutions.com.

Senate Confirmation of Sonny Perdue for Secretary of Agriculture

The Senate voted this week to confirm former Georgia Governor, Sonny Perdue DVM, to lead the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Secretary Perdue was confirmed in the Senate Agriculture Committee on March 30th, and was confirmed by the full Senate on April 24th with bipartisan support.

New Resource Materials for Child and Adult Care Food Program Updated Meal Pattern

Team Nutrition in conjunctions with the Child and Adult Care Food Program, serving more than 4.2 million children and 130,000 adults nutritious meals and snacks each day as part of the day care they receive, have released materials aimed at helping transition to an updated meal pattern. The 2010 Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act required CACFP to align more closely with the Dietary Guidelines for Americans and next fall these requirements will go into effect. Click here to learn more about the program and the new meal pattern,

Clinical Care Commission Act Jumps Another Hurdle to Passage!

Great news! On April 26th, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee will hold a mark-up on the National Clinical Care Commission Act (H.R. 309). This bill has been an Academy legislative priority for the past 3 Congressional sessions, and works to ensure that federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. Stay tuned for updates on this important bill as it moves one step closer to passage!

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 remain open. We need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Here is what you can do:

1. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161).
2. Ask your members to take action now! Sample messages have been posted in the Public Policy Weekly News for the past several weeks.

Here is a chart identifying the action alert statistics as of today:

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts will be posted later today in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports will be located in the April 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 April subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy

Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Congressional Briefing on Importance of Breastfeeding: Wednesday, April 26

If you live in the Washington, D.C. area, you may be interesting in attending a Congressional Briefing on Wednesday, April 26, from 2-3 pm in 2020 Rayburn House Office Building, sponsored by Medela LLC together with the March of Dimes, and in cooperation with the offices of Congresswomen Jaime Herrera Beutler (Wash.) and Lucille Roybal-Allard (Calif.), Co-Chairs of the Congressional Caucus on Maternity Care. The PDF invitation is attached. Please RSVP by email to michael@chainlinksolutions.com.

Senate Confirmation of Sonny Perdue for Secretary of Agriculture

The Senate voted this week to confirm former Georgia Governor, Sonny Perdue DVM, to lead the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Secretary Perdue was confirmed in the Senate Agriculture Committee on March 30th, and was confirmed by the full Senate on April 24th with bipartisan support.

New Resource Materials for Child and Adult Care Food Program Updated Meal Pattern

Team Nutrition in conjunctions with the Child and Adult Care Food Program, serving more than 4.2 million children and 130,000 adults nutritious meals and snacks each day as part of the day care they receive, have released materials aimed at helping transition to an updated meal pattern. The 2010 Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act required CACFP to align more closely with the Dietary

Guidelines for Americans and next fall these requirements will go into effect. Click here to learn more about the program and the new meal pattern,

Clinical Care Commission Act Jumps Another Hurdle to Passage!

Great news! On April 26th, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) Committee will hold a mark-up on the National Clinical Care Commission Act (H.R. 309). This bill has been an Academy legislative priority for the past 3 Congressional sessions, and works to ensure that federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. Stay tuned for updates on this important bill as it moves one step closer to passage!

Recording Available for April Public Policy Forum

The "Changing the Rules: Impacting Regulations through the Public Comment Process" webinar recording is now available. Click here to listen to the recording. The recording is also available on the communities of interest in the Public Policy Open Forums topic. The recordings are filed by month and year.

Recording Available for PPW Bootcamp Session 1 for PPCs and PALs

The PPW Bootcamp "Leadership: Roles and Responsibilities" webinar recording is now available. Click here to listen to the recording. The recording is also available on the Public Policy Coordinator community of interest in the PPW topic. The recording is filed in the PPW Bootcamp 2017 subtopic.

Recording Available for Don't Wing it Campaign Webinar

More than 400 BAC Fighters participated live in the Don't Wing It intro webinar! Check out the recording and receive 1 CEU. The Don't Wing it Campaign, from the Academy's partners in the Partnership for Food Safety Education, educates consumers on the importance of practicing safe poultry handling in store and at home.

Good morning,

I believe both of you are busy today with the Finance and Audit Committee Meeting. When you get done, I have one more request of you related to committee appointments. Academy staff working with the Honors Committee brought to my attention that per their policy they are supposed to have a NDTR serving on the committee and we failed to appoint someone to replace the NDTR who is rotating off the committee. I accept responsibility for that error as I had noted it early in the process and then overlooked it when I was confirming the work you had done when you met in March. Since this committee does all of its work electronically, after consulting with staff and Pat we decided it would be fine to add 1 more person to the committee this year and then adjust the committee back down to size next year.

With that in mind, attached is the input we had received from staff on appointments to the committee. No NDTRs expressed an interest in serving on this committee via the Opportunities to Serve survey, so we all recommend that you go with the individual, Christine Gosch, identified by staff as meeting the criteria for serving on the committee. If you agree, the attached document has contact information for her. Donna had done all the outreach for this committee so perhaps she will do this one more.

Thanks and, once again, my apologies for not catching this one sooner.

Good morning,

I believe both of you are busy today with the Finance and Audit Committee Meeting. When you get done, I have one more request of you related to committee appointments. Academy staff working with the Honors Committee brought to my attention that per their policy they are supposed to have a NDTR serving on the committee and we failed to appoint someone to replace the NDTR who is rotating off the committee. I accept responsibility for that error as I had noted it early in the process and then overlooked it when I was confirming the work you had done when you met in March. Since this committee does all of its work electronically, after consulting with staff and Pat we decided it would be fine to add 1 more person to the committee this year and then adjust the committee back down to size next year.

With that in mind, attached is the input we had received from staff on appointments to the committee. No NDTRs expressed an interest in serving on this committee via the Opportunities to Serve survey, so we all recommend that you go with the individual, Christine Gosch, identified by staff as meeting the criteria for serving on the committee. If you agree, the attached document has contact information for her. Donna had done all the outreach for this committee so perhaps she will do this one more.

Thanks and, once again, my apologies for not catching this one sooner.

Dear NDEP Members,

April is coming to a fast close so make sure to celebrate National Preceptor Month!!

We want to continue the tradition and share some great stories and pictures of how some of you thanked your wonderful preceptors this year! We are asking program directors to send in pictures and/or stories of how you will be celebrating National Preceptor Month and we will post your stories on the Academy's Facebook page, on ACEND's Preceptor Website, in email blasts and even in Eat Right Weekly! We want to show off all you and your students are doing in April for your amazing preceptors! Send your stories and pictures to preceptor@eatright.org

Need some ideas for how you can thank your preceptors:

- Send a little note- just a few words to say 'thank you' goes a long way
- Thank your preceptor's boss for allowing her/him be a preceptor
- Make a sign to hang on your preceptor's office door so everyone knows they are helping to create tomorrow's leaders
- Bring them a homemade present or healthy goodie
- Treat them to lunch or a coffee
- The best thank-you gift of all – have your students tell their preceptors that they are going to become one after they receive their RDN or NDTR credential!

Make sure you present your preceptors with the 2017 Certificate of Appreciation which is posted in the NDEP Portal (<http://ndep.webauthor.com>) click Library, then Preceptor Resources, then Preceptor Certificates.

We are still actively recruiting preceptors in our Find-a-Preceptor Database! We have recruited many practitioners to be preceptors, but we always need more! Our goal this year is 100 new preceptors!! Encourage those you know to register to be a preceptor! If you are in need of preceptors, make sure to use the database as a resource and check back often as there are new preceptors added every day!

To learn more about the Find-a-Preceptor Database and National Preceptor Month visit www.eatright.org/preceptors

Thanks for all the kind words, I really appreciate all of them!

I have had the best job ever these past seven years building a solid policy platform for the Academy working with Jeanne Blankenship. Every day I get to promote what our members do to improve health of the nation with Congress, Federal agencies and the White House. And to work with such great colleagues and member leaders is a bonus! This combination has led to the success of moving our policy issues forward to result in more job opportunities for our members and a focus on the value of nutrition in public policy.

I also have had the opportunity to showcase our members' value with our external partners. It has been wonderful to be able to do this while highlighting the broad areas that our members lead. We are an innovative and creative group which our partners recognize and as a result include us in important discussions.

For that, I thank you for giving me this experience and all your support. And for the friendships that I treasure.

Many thanks again!

For more than 40 years, Mary Pat Raimondi has been synonymous with dedication, skill and leadership in the Academy and the dietetics profession. Mary Pat has announced that she will be retiring from the Academy effective May 31. It goes without saying that her leadership and encouragement will be missed.

Since she joined the Academy in 1975, Mary Pat has tirelessly and creatively devoted herself to improving the health of all Americans and advancing the role of registered dietitian nutritionists in providing top-quality health care. As a member, Mary Pat applied her unique talents and enthusiasm to leadership positions including chair of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, president of the Minnesota Dietetic Association, a representative of Minnesota in the House of Delegates, and as an HOD Director on the Academy's Board.

Mary Pat worked for many years with nutrition programs and reducing hunger nationally and in her community as program director for health and nutrition programs at the University of Minnesota. In addition to community work, she served as a marketing director for Novartis Nutrition. She is a past member of the Board of Directors of Hunger Solutions Minnesota, Second Harvest Heartland and the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs. She received the Hunger and Environmental Nutrition DPG's Award of Excellence and served on the Academy's Sustainable Food System Task Force.

In 2010, I was able to convince Mary Pat to bring her unique combination of skills to the Academy's Headquarters Team, joining our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy group in Washington,

D.C., as vice president for strategic policy and partnerships. For the past seven years in this critical position, she has devoted herself to propelling our profession forward. She has worked with members of Congress, the White House and policy making agencies throughout the federal government, ensuring that the Academy and registered dietitian nutritionists are included in legislation, programs and decision making roles that secure the health of the public.

Our successes in the nation's capital have been many, they have been significant and they will be lasting, thanks to Mary Pat's contributions. She has agreed to serve as a consultant to assist in the transition. Our hearts are sad to say farewell to such an important and amazing colleague, but we are happy for Mary Pat as she begins the next chapter of her remarkable life.

Mary Pat embodies the best of our Academy and our profession, both of which are better off because of her service. Please join me in thanking Mary Pat and warmly wishing her all the best on her retirement.

Best regards,
Pat

We are unable to get full Board attendance at the July 13-15 Board retreat, an important meeting where we will be discussing the new strategic plan. The alternative dates are Thursday, July 20, beginning at 1:00pm, to Saturday, July 22, adjourning at noon. The destination is Austin, TX. Hopefully your schedule allows you to attend.

Best regards,
 Joan

Dear Jim:

Thank you for your email and for sharing the feedback you received on the content of your scientific presentation. Our members appreciate interpretation of emerging research and the Academy welcomes lively panels of multidisciplinary expertise. As I mentioned in my email, the Academy encourages members to review existing studies, sample sizes, methodologies, as well as existing guidelines and materials, and work on their own conclusions to further interpret what is being presented.

The comments we received from members were not about your scientific presentation. They were directly related to your personal bias and your negative remarks regarding the Academy. The perception from attendees is that you refuse to accept the views of colleagues, other associations, and the Academy specifically pertaining to guidelines in cardiovascular health. We encourage you, as we do all speakers who present at state meetings, to maintain a level of professionalism and collaboration despite the fact that established research and emerging research may sometimes appear disconnected.

If an audience member approaches you with any questions regarding the Academy, please feel free to direct them to their state liaison who will be able to assist them.

We wish you well at the Vermont and Minnesota meetings and will let you know if we receive further comments from attendees.

Sincerely,

Pat

Hi Pat

Thanks for the reply. I am sorry that the members that wrote you were disappointed with the talk. I didn't realize I said anything derogatory. I thought I said I disagreed with the cholesterol and sat fat recommendations of the Academy. I apologize if it came across that way. I asked my assistant to put together the responses I got from the last couple talks so you can see a broader perspective of the response.

I am really writing you because I was just talking with my good friend Dave Grotto and he had nothing but wonderful things to say about you. He said you were always fair and honest and out for the good of the Academy. So I thought I would bring the issue to you.

My thought is that discussion about differing views is a good thing for the Academy. I have changed my views about dietary fat over the last couple decades and they differ from the position of the Academy in a few instances. There was talk from the people in St Louis about not approving my talks for CEUs. I assume they follow through with this but if they ever do would you please involve me in the conversation?

My question is how would you like me to proceed? Do you want me to give my perspective on the science at future AND meetings? I would be glad to talk with anyone about how my position is incorrect. I speak at the Vermont Academy tomorrow and Minnesota on Thursday. My last question is do you want me to ask the membership to email you with their thoughts?

Thanks for you

time.

Thank you for your email. The Academy leadership and I heard from several Academy members who were disappointed in your presentation at state meetings. They indicated that your comments were derogatory towards the Academy and the Nutrition Care Manual.

We understand that the Academy's guidelines may not always dovetail with your research regarding saturated fats and cholesterol. As you know, the Academy's Nutrition Care Manual experts are currently synthesizing recommendations from AHA, NLA, and the Academy's Evidence Analysis Library to develop a standard approach on this topic. As with any presentation of emerging studies and new interpretations, please encourage your audience at the remaining Academy state meetings to review existing studies, sample sizes, methodologies, as well as existing guidelines and materials, to work on their own conclusions and within their institutions and the Academy toward gold-standard care.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions.

Lucille and Patricia

I gave a talk last week to MoAND, afterwards many came up and thanked me but my students said that a few of the dietitians were upset. When I asked why they said people were talking about the sat fat part of the talk and more so about my statements about the Academy's position about SF.

So when I gave the talk to CAND I tried to make it more positive and asked if they agreed with the outline I presented to write both of you and express their views. I am not sure any of them did.

My goal has been to get the most current data to the Academy but as I have thought and prayed about it I am not sure I have taken the right approach. I asked members to email you and that may have been more of an aggravation than a help. For any problems it created I do apologize.

I have a few more Academy meetings this year and I am going to give the heart health talk as I have for more than 20 years with all the data and no mention of my work on the NCM or suggestions to email both of you. I leave for a talk at IAND in a couple hours. At this point I don't know if I can be of any service to the Academy in this area. I am actually for the Academy and if I can be of service I would be willing to be involved in the discussion. Again I apologize for any inconvenience I caused in my approach to getting the information across. I would be interested in talking with either of you if you have time. 217-549-3275.

Calling all Dietetic Internship, Coordinated Program, and ISPP Directors! Learn about a new rotation opportunities and resources with USDA's Child Nutrition Programs

Join the Academy, NDEP, and the USDA for a webinar to learn about opportunities for your students to work with USDA's child nutrition programs. This Academy-USDA collaboration is a unique opportunity for your students/interns to develop leadership skills in child nutrition, foodservice, and nutrition education, and to serve our nation's children. The webinar will give you a chance to:

- Hear from directors who have had students rotate with these programs.
- Have your questions answered directly by child nutrition experts at the USDA.
- Learn how to set up a rotation experience tailored to the needs and focus of your DI program.

For more information about this collaboration, check out this blog by the USDA:

As many of you know, legislation has been introduced in California that would require a minimum wage-salary be paid during training programs for health professionals. Proponents of the legislation, including organized labor, state that the legislation would increase access to health professions by a more diverse group of individuals who otherwise might not be able to complete the training due to financial hardship. However, this legislation would result in the need for internship sites to secure funding for dietetic interns among other health professionals. There is significant concern that if the legislation passes, many sites would not be able to continue to offer a program or in the least, would need to significantly reduce the number of interns that are hosted. A list of organizations that are opposing the legislation is included in the attached analysis.

Lorri Holzberg, chair of the Legislation and Public Policy Committee is also the Vice President, Public Policy for the California affiliate. In our initial conversations with Lorri, the Academy recommended that the affiliate remain neutral on this legislation since there is not a formal Academy stance and because of the work the affiliate has undertaken with support by organized labor for dialysis staffing legislation and licensure. The affiliate's lobbyist has told Lorri that there is a chance this legislation will pass but does not anticipate that the governor would sign the bill into law. Lucille will be speaking at the affiliate meeting this week on Thursday and we anticipate she will receive questions from attendees.

Pat Booth from UCSF has written a letter to educators in the state encouraging them to act as individuals and oppose the legislation with elected officials. However, some students in the affiliate have indicated support for the legislation.

Since the Academy does not have a formal stance on this issue and we need to urgently determine if we are willing to oppose the legislation, we are seeking a call to bring together CDR, ACEND, the Academy Board and LPPC representatives to reach consensus.

Please respond with your availability for a call at the following times:

_____Wednesday, April 26th 3:30– 4:30 p.m. CT/4:30 – 5:30 p.m. ET

_____Thursday, April 27th 11 a.m. – Noon CT/ Noon – 1 p.m. ET (Lucille not able to attend)

Subject: Requesting a Meeting to discuss Academy

Importance: High

Hi Lucille, Donna, Linda, Lorri, Mike and Nadine,

We are writing to request a meeting with you to discuss the Academy's stance on a California Bill AB 387: Minimum wage for health professions interns.

Would you be available on Monday, April 24 at 1:00 pm for the discussion? If this works for everyone, we will send out a calendar invitation with the conference call information to confirm.

Attached you will find a one page overview of the bill and a copy of the bill text. The California Academy is getting feedback from members and dietetic internship directors who wish to have the California affiliate oppose this bill. The Academy provided guidance to the affiliate regarding taking a neutral stance in March 2017.

Here is the recommendation provided to California in March 2017.

“We recommend that the California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics takes a neutral stance on AB 387, which is consistent with the Academy's stance as an evidence-based organization. Please note that a “neutral stance” is one in which the Academy neither supports nor opposes a topic or piece of legislation, but it does not mean that the Academy is not monitoring the legislation or collecting additional information about an issue. Neutral stances are often employed when there is a lack of scientific evidence for an issue or when the issue is not directly related to the Academy's public policy priority areas.

We are continually engaged in reviewing the science and policy around facility staffing levels and encourage the California Academy to focus on the important role registered dietitian nutritionists have in dialysis patient care and treatment.

We encourage the California Academy to focus on the importance of the education and supervised practical experience required to be a registered dietitian nutritionist”

Please let us know if you are available for this important discussion.

Thank you.

All,

As you know, we have our Finance and Audit Committee calls next week. The calls will be on Tuesday, April 25th from 8:30 – 11:30 CDT and on Wednesday, April 26th from 8:30 – 11:30 CDT. I am attaching the agenda for your review. I know this is a great deal of time out of your schedules. Even though we need everyone for each day, the budget discussion on Tuesday is the most critical. Even on Tuesday, if we need to adjust to put the FY18 budget first, please let me know. On Wednesday, we will have three guest joining us;

1. Rob Wessel – Central Insurance -Insurance
2. Jim Hagestad and Kathy Downey – Plante Moran – Budget and Tax plan for FY17/18
3. Al Bryant – Segall, Bryant and Hamill – Investments

Most of the information will be posted this afternoon, including the budget presentation. The one thing that may not come until tomorrow are the March results. We are still working on them. Maria will notify you once the information is posted. Finally, you should have received the two webinar invitations for our meeting from the Academy IT department. You will have one for each day.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

To: Academy Foundation Board Members

From: Jean Ragalie-Carr, Foundation Chair

I am thrilled to announce that Academy Past President Mary Abbott Hess made an generous $100,000 gift to the Second Century Camping in honor of the Academy's 100th Anniversary. She also hosted a Second Century reception recently at her home that was attended by Academy leaders, area donors and students. We greatly appreciate Mary Abbott's support. Please join me in thanking her. She can be reached at hesshunt@aol.com or 773-348-2200 if you would like to thank her directly. Attached is the April fundraising update that includes this gift. Thanks and have a great weekend.

April 21, 2017

Dear LPPC Leaders:

Agenda items for next Friday's meeting have been uploaded to the LPPC Community of Interest which can be accessed here. The following items are still outstanding and will be available no later than COB Monday, April 24th:

4.0(a) February LPPC Meeting Minutes

4.0(b) BOD Report

4.0(h) NSPC Report

5.0(a) PIA Update

7.0(a) Nutrition in Prevention and Health Care

As a reminder, the information needed to access the meeting is detailed below:

Step 1: Log into the webinar via the personalized link provided here.

The meeting password is: LPPC17

Step 2: Follow the audio prompts to use the "CALL ME" feature to have the Web-Ex system dial you in the audio portion of the meeting. This will sync your computer and the audio together accordingly. Do not dial into the meeting directly when connecting to Web-Ex unless you do not have a direct dial phone number (If you do not have a direct dial phone number, please select the option to dial-in from the drop-down menu – the number will be provided). By using the Call Me feature, the system will sync your web and audio connections together under your attendee name in Web-Ex.

Note: For those individuals unable to participate in the web portion of the meeting and/or do not have a direct dial phone number, you can dial in to the meeting as follows:

Dial In: 866-477-4564

Conference Code: 271-642-5619

As always, if you have any questions I am happy to assist!

It is going to be impossible to replace Mary Pat. In DC Mary Pat is the known as the "advocacy whisperer". She has everyone's ear and everyone will listen to Mary Pat, when they will not listen to any other person from any other organization. If you need a contact to get information on a bill, she knows who to go to. If you need an expert witness, she has one. If you need to know how the wind is blowing on a bill, she knows. If you need a co-sponsor for a bill, she knows who to go to. Need to know the staffer for a particular office, she knows them and probably knows their life story too!!!! Need suggestions on how to get a piece of legislation off the ground, contact Mary Pat. She is everywhere and she knows everything. My heart is breaking to lose her for not only my sake, but for the Academy's sake and for the future of nutrition in the country. She has big shoes to fill and she is going to be missed by so many allied health organizations, who she so graciously helps, so that we all can further the agenda of better health for all Americans. I am happy for her, but sad for the Academy. Congratulations, Mary Pat for a job well done. You leave a wonderful legacy behind. One to be very proud of. I know I am proud to call you friend and thank you for all the support you have given me over the years. I wish you the best and please do not change your phone number!!!

Subject: Mary Pat Raimondi

For more than 40 years, Mary Pat Raimondi has been synonymous with dedication, skill and leadership in the Academy and the dietetics profession. Mary Pat has announced that she will be retiring from the Academy effective May 31. It goes without saying that her leadership and encouragement will be missed.

Since she joined the Academy in 1975, Mary Pat has tirelessly and creatively devoted herself to improving the health of all Americans and advancing the role of registered dietitian nutritionists in providing top-quality health care. As a member, Mary Pat applied her unique talents and enthusiasm to leadership positions including chair of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, president of the Minnesota Dietetic Association, a representative of Minnesota in the House of Delegates, and as an HOD Director on the Academy's Board.

Mary Pat worked for many years with nutrition programs and reducing hunger nationally and in her community as program director for health and nutrition programs at the University of Minnesota. In addition to community work, she served as a marketing director for Novartis Nutrition. She is a past member of the Board of Directors of Hunger Solutions Minnesota, Second Harvest Heartland and the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs. She received the Hunger and Environmental Nutrition DPG's Award of Excellence and served on the Academy's Sustainable Food System Task Force.

In 2010, I was able to convince Mary Pat to bring her unique combination of skills to the Academy's Headquarters Team, joining our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy group in Washington,

D.C., as vice president for strategic policy and partnerships. For the past seven years in this critical position, she has devoted herself to propelling our profession forward. She has worked with members of Congress, the White House and policy making agencies throughout the federal government, ensuring that the Academy and registered dietitian nutritionists are included in legislation, programs and decision making roles that secure the health of the public.

Our successes in the nation's capital have been many, they have been significant and they will be lasting, thanks to Mary Pat's contributions. She has agreed to serve as a consultant to assist in the transition. Our hearts are sad to say farewell to such an important and amazing colleague, but we are happy for Mary Pat as she begins the next chapter of her remarkable life.

Mary Pat embodies the best of our Academy and our profession, both of which are better off because of her service. Please join me in thanking Mary Pat and warmly wishing her all the best on her retirement.

Best regards,
Pat

Hi Lucille, Donna, Linda, Lorri, Mike and Nadine,

We are writing to request a meeting with you to discuss the Academy's stance on a California Bill AB 387: Minimum wage for health professions interns.

Would you be available on Monday, April 24 at 1:00 pm for the discussion? If this works for everyone, we will send out a calendar invitation with the conference call information to confirm.

Attached you will find a one page overview of the bill and a copy of the bill text. The California Academy is getting feedback from members and dietetic internship directors who wish to have the California affiliate oppose this bill. The Academy provided guidance to the affiliate regarding taking a neutral stance in March 2017.

Here is the recommendation provided to California in March 2017.

“We recommend that the California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics takes a neutral stance on AB 387, which is consistent with the Academy's stance as an evidence-based organization. Please note that a “neutral stance” is one in which the Academy neither supports nor opposes a topic or piece of legislation, but it does not mean that the Academy is not monitoring the legislation or collecting additional information about an issue. Neutral stances are often employed when there is a lack of scientific evidence for an issue or when the issue is not directly related to the Academy's public policy priority areas.

We are continually engaged in reviewing the science and policy around facility staffing levels and encourage the California Academy to focus on the important role registered dietitian nutritionists have in dialysis patient care and treatment.

We encourage the California Academy to focus on the importance of the education and supervised practical experience required to be a registered dietitian nutritionist”

Please let us know if you are available for this important discussion.

Thank you.

Dear Academy Member,

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, through its Dietetics Practice Based Research Network (DPBRN), is assessing the roles and responsibilities of Academy members in public health nutrition and community nutrition. We are looking for input from Academy members who work in a paid position in public health nutrition/ community nutrition. This anonymous survey will take approximately 10-15 minutes to complete and will ask questions about your roles and functions in public health nutrition and community nutrition, the skills you use in fulfilling these roles, factors that prepared you for a job in public health nutrition and community nutrition, as well as factors that influenced you to work in this area of practice.

The survey will be open until May 12, 2017, and we would appreciate your responses. This survey can be completed in multiple sittings, if necessary, but you must return using the same computer. You can access the survey using this link:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/phcnworkforce>

At the conclusion of this survey, you will have the opportunity to enter into a drawing for one of three $100 American Express gift cards. We anticipate 250 responses to the survey, so complete it now for a chance to win one of three American Express gift cards!

Please direct any questions to dpbrn@eatright.org.

Thank you for your participation.

Is it possible for you to provide a short backgrounder and how you envision the joint alliance can work on the proposed food waste project. I think this will be helpful for the discussion on Saturday. If you can provide it to me by Friday, I can share it with the group. My sincere apologies for the short notice.

All,

As you know, we have our Finance and Audit Committee calls next week. The calls will be on Tuesday, April 25th from 8:30 – 11:30 CDT and on Wednesday, April 26th from 8:30 – 11:30 CDT. I am attaching the agenda for your review. I know this is a great deal of time out of your schedules. Even though we need everyone for each day, the budget discussion on Tuesday is the most critical. Even on Tuesday, if we need to adjust to put the FY18 budget first, please let me know. On Wednesday, we will have three guest joining us;

1. Rob Wessel – Central Insurance -Insurance
2. Jim Hagestad and Kathy Downey – Plante Moran – Budget and Tax plan for FY17/18
3. Al Bryant – Segall, Bryant and Hamill – Investments

Most of the information will be posted this afternoon, including the budget presentation. The one thing that may not come until tomorrow are the March results. We are still working on them. Maria will notify you once the information is posted. Finally, you should have received the two webinar invitations for our meeting from the Academy IT department. You will have one for each day.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Hi Donna,

I hope this email finds you well! As you know, we are working to publish the Nutrition Impact Summit briefing paper along with Summit proceedings in JAND. The online version will also include a photo album and the print version will feature a few photos as well. As such, we were hoping to use the attached two photos of yours (I pulled them from social media).

Are you comfortable with us using the photos in the Journal in print and online, with worldwide distribution?

Thank you!

Dear NDEP Members,

In an effort to focus more on discussions and working sessions during the NDEP Regional Meetings this year, the Academy Leadership panel presentations were provided as videos in advance of the meetings. Meeting attendees were asked to view them ahead of time in order to bring questions to discuss with the representatives at each of the meetings. 1.5 CPEUs have been approved for viewing these webinars and completing a short 10-question assessment quiz.

To obtain the CPE certificate, complete the assessment quiz at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/NDEPPanelPresentationQuiz>. Once you complete the quiz, click the "Done" button at the bottom of the page and you will receive the answers to the quiz. Once you have viewed the answers and click the "Done" button again, you will be able to download the CEU certificate.

This information, including the videos and link to survey are posted on the NDEP website (www.ndepnet.org), the NDEP portal (<https://ndep.webauthor.com>) and the regional meeting website (<http://sites.psu.edu/ndep/>).

NDEP Members who were not able to attend the regional meetings are able to view the videos and obtain CPEU credit as well. Visit either the NDEP website or NDEP portal links above to obtain the videos and survey link.

Note that some of the videos were created using WebEx. If you have not used WebEx to view videos, you may need to set-up WebEx on your computer before you can watch the video (there will be instructions to do this when you click on the video link).

Please direct any questions or concerns to ndep@eatright.org.

Hi Pat-

Thank you for the confidential heads up. Considering we still do not have a commitment for the Opening Session and I have yet to hear back from Deb Eschmeyer on my follow up on April 10, I question if this would even be possible UNLESS we presented it to her at the Opening if she accepted the invitation. We definitely would not have funding to cover the necessary secret service advance and onsite preparations unless we could also justify a speaking role.

I would be happy to reach out to Roniece from the angle of our invitation for her speaker role, but I assume the Honors committee information would need to remain confidential.

Donna and Diane:

Barbara Visocan has informed me that the Honors Committee is submitting Michelle Obama to the Board as a new Honorary Member. Naively the Committee asked Barbara and Matthew Novotny to help “ensure” that Mrs. Obama accept this honor in person at FNCE. Evelyn Crayton is chair of the Honors Committee this year and made no mention of our efforts in attempting to book Mrs. Obama.

I am sharing this with you confidentially (the Board will be presented with all Honors recommendations during the May 19-20 meeting) because the committee felt that the following individuals, who were named knowing Mrs. Obama, might be influential in encouraging her in-person acceptance. Donna, note that you are one of the two mentioned.

Good afternoon, Deb-

I hope this email finds you well. We are in the process of finalizing the educational program for the October 2017 program and were wondering if you had any additional insight about the status of the invitation sent to Mrs. Obama regarding the Opening Keynote in Chicago, IL. As you can imagine, it would be such an honor to have Mrs. Obama join our 2017-2018 President, Donna Martin for this Centennial event.

If you need any further details, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Best Regards,
Diane

March 3, 2017

Mrs. Michelle Obama

The Office of Barack and Michelle Obama scheduling@obamaoffice44.org

Dear Mrs. Obama:

During the Obama Administration and in particular with the creation and remarkable success of your Let's Move! Initiative, it was my personal and professional honor to work with you and your team to improve the nutritional health of our nation's children. Your visits to the Burke County schools and your kind invitation for me to attend the Let's Move! celebratory event last October proved that we agree: There is no greater calling in life than to be able to teach children to live a healthier life. It was a joy and a privilege for eight years for our country to have a First Lady who shares the same passions as the registered dietitian nutritionists of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

As a parent, grandparent, taxpayer and RDN, I could not have been happier to see what we can do – and are doing – for children. Nutrition and health for kids is a nonpartisan issue, and one that all of us can get behind and celebrate. We share your passion for molding a future for our children that will endure for their lifetimes. Healthier children really do make a healthier nation.

In June, I will have the distinct honor of beginning my one-year term as President of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. This honor is made even more special because 2017 is our Academy's Centennial year. We are celebrating our past and planning for our Second Century as the leaders in food and nutrition. Since the Academy's beginning, food and health systems have continued to evolve, becoming more global and complex. These challenges also create unprecedented opportunities for innovation and collaboration,

The Academy's Board recently adopted as our new vision: "A world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition." And we have dedicated ourselves to the new mission: "Accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition."

In October of this year, the Academy will officially celebrate our 100th birthday in our organization's hometown – and yours – of Chicago, at our Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo. We can think of no individual who would be more appropriate than you to be the Keynote Speaker at our conference of more than 12,000 food and nutrition professionals.

On behalf of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Board of Directors, it is my pleasure to invite you to present the 2017 Opening Keynote Lecture on October 21, 2017. The Opening Session will be from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Central Time McCormick Place-West in the Skyline Ballroom.

The Opening Keynote Lecture annually focuses on an issue that is important for the future of the dietetics profession. I have personally experienced how you have moved the needle in terms of school nutrition and positively affected the health of millions of children. Academy members want to keep this momentum going, and you are the perfect person to speak to these dedicated professionals for whom nutrition and health are like oxygen! We are not yet where we need to be, but together we will get there.

Academy members would be honored to hear your remarks and learn from your expertise on this important topic. I hope your schedule permits you to serve as our Keynote Speaker. Your scheduling staff can contact Diane Enos, the Academy's Vice President of Lifelong Learning and Professional Engagement, at 312/899-1767 or denos@eatright.org.

I look forward to working with you in the years to come, and to seeing you at our conference in October.

Respectfully,

Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND
2017-2018 President of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Supermarket Victory: Optimizing Sports Performance through Step-by-Step Shopping Guides

Date: Friday, April 21, 2017, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPE Level: 2

A supermarket tour guide developed for dietetic professional peer-on-peer training has been implemented as a part of successful strategies to improve fruit and vegetable consumption among college students. Sports nutrition-specific guides can streamline the implementation of a comprehensive, outcome-focused program designed to address the specific needs of collegiate and professional athletes. Through a step-by-step guided tour, we address all areas of the supermarket that are critical to athlete needs in both performance and recovery. Our research explores the adaptability, reproducibility and scalability of a guided supermarket tour specific to athletes.

Learning Objectives

1. Describe evidence-based research for a sports-specific supermarket tour training kit.
2. Identify critical components of programming that result in improved sports nutrition knowledge and behaviors.
3. Explain importance of sports-specific supermarket tour implementation as a component of collegiate and professional athlete's nutrition education.

Speakers:

Nyree Dardarian, MS, RD, CSSD, FAND, LDN is the Director of the Center for Nutrition & Performance (CNP), and Assistant Clinical Faculty at Drexel University in the Department of Nutrition Sciences. With the CNP, Nyree provides nutrition needs for the Philadelphia Union, (MLS soccer team) and the Philadelphia Flyers (NHL team). Jessica Liu will graduate with a Masters in Human Nutrition from Drexel University in June 2017. Her research is focused on the development and implementation of a sports nutrition supermarket training toolkit for dietetic professionals, which involves working with the Philadelphia Union and Drexel ISPP dietetic interns. Leah Tsui is currently at Drexel University to complete the Didactic Program in Dietetics, and will graduate with a Masters in Human Nutrition in June 2017. At Drexel, she was selected as one of five graduate Sports Nutrition Assistants with the Center for Nutrition & Performance and held a Teaching Assistantship position with the Department of Nutrition Sciences. ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy Success: Malnutrition Measures Included in CMS' Proposed Rule

Under the Academy's stewardship, with Avalere Health and Abbott as collaborators, four malnutrition measures have been included as part of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' Inpatient Prospective Payment System - Public Inspection Proposed Rule for possible inclusion in future years in the Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting and Medicare and Medicaid EHR Incentive Programs. See pages 1048 and 1049 of the proposed rule. These measures, which were the focus of a September 26 Quarterly Advocacy Day on Capitol Hill, are for malnutrition screening, assessment, care planning and documentation that will be included in a future Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program. The Academy will submit formal comments as CMS refines its proposal; members are encouraged to work through dietetic practice groups to submit input for these comments by May 31, or email Mark Rifkin at mrifkin@eatright.org.

New Report: State-by-State Impact of Public Health Funding

Academy partner Trust for America's Health has released a new report, "A Funding Crisis for Public Health and Safety: State-by-State Public Health Funding and Key Health Facts, 2017." The report found core funding for disease prevention and health promotion programs has declined by about $580 million federally and has remained flat in states since 2010 (adjusting for inflation). Cuts to federal funds have not been offset by increases to state and local funding. The Academy continues to advocate for the importance of investing in public health; members are encouraged to

Dear Jim:

Thank you for your email. The Academy leadership and I heard from several Academy members who were disappointed in your presentation at state meetings. They indicated that your comments were derogatory towards the Academy and the Nutrition Care Manual.

We understand that the Academy's guidelines may not always dovetail with your research regarding saturated fats and cholesterol. As you know, the Academy's Nutrition Care Manual experts are currently synthesizing recommendations from AHA, NLA, and the Academy's Evidence Analysis Library to develop a standard approach on this topic. As with any presentation of emerging studies and new interpretations, please encourage your audience at the remaining Academy state meetings to review existing studies, sample sizes, methodologies, as well as existing guidelines and materials, to work on their own conclusions and within their institutions and the Academy toward gold-standard care.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions.

Lucille and Patricia

I gave a talk last week to MoAND, afterwards many came up and thanked me but my students said that a few of the dietitians were upset. When I asked why they said people were talking about the sat fat part of the talk and more so about my statements about the Academy's position about SF.

So when I gave the talk to CAND I tried to make it more positive and asked if they agreed with the outline I presented to write both of you and express their views. I am not sure any of them did.

My goal has been to get the most current data to the Academy but as I have thought and prayed about it I am not sure I have taken the right approach. I asked members to email you and that may have been more of an aggravation than a help. For any problems it created I do apologize.

I have a few more Academy meetings this year and I am going to give the heart health talk as I have for more than 20 years with all the data and no mention of my work on the NCM or suggestions to email both of you. I leave for a talk at IAND in a couple hours. At this point I don't know if I can be of any service to the Academy in this area. I am actually for the Academy and if I can be of service I would be willing to be involved in the discussion. Again I apologize for any inconvenience I caused in my approach to getting the information across. I would be interested in talking with either of you if you have time. 217-549-3275.

Regards

JP

Barbara Byrd Keenan, Chief Executive Officer

Endocrine Society

Dear Barbara:

I am writing in regard to the Endocrine Society's newly issued Clinical Practice Guideline, advising health care providers on ways to diagnose and treat hypothalamic amenorrhea. The online announcement at <http://endocrinenews.endocrine.org/endocrine-society-issues-hypothalamic-amenorrhea-guideline/#sthash.dWU00t8N.dpuf> quotes Catherine M. Gordon, chair of the task force that authored the Guideline, as saying: "Referring patients to a nutritionist for specialized dietary instructions is an extremely important part of their care" (emphasis added).

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics agrees completely that nutrition is a vital component of care for women with hypothalamic amenorrhea. However, the term nutritionist is not regulated or a protected title; literally anyone can call himself or herself a nutritionist, whether or not he or she has the education and experience to provide specialized nutrition-based care. We respectfully ask that the Guideline be amended – and Dr. Gordon's quotation be edited – to specify that patients should be referred to a registered dietitian nutritionist.

An RDN is a food and nutrition expert who has met rigorous academic and professional requirements to earn and maintain the credential, including:

- Earned a bachelor's degree with course work approved by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics' Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND). Coursework typically includes food and nutrition sciences, foodservice systems management, business, economics, computer science, sociology, biochemistry, physiology, microbiology and chemistry.
- Completed an accredited, supervised practice program at a health care facility, community agency or foodservice corporation.
- Passed a national examination administered by the Commission on Dietetic Registration.
- Completes continuing professional educational requirements to maintain registration.

Forty-six states currently have statutory provisions regarding professional regulation of dietitians and/or nutritionists. The rationale for legislatures acting to protect these titles is that the public deserves access to professionals who are qualified by education, experience and examination to provide nutrition care services.

Thank you very much for your attention to this important issue that is so vital to protecting the public's health. I miss not seeing you in Chicago. I hope the transition went without a hitch. I will call you to schedule a meeting next time I'm in DC and we can discuss establishing a formal alliance between the Academy and the Society. Please let me know when you're in Chicago.

Hoping you and yours have a joyful Easter!

Pat

Dear Karen,

Thank you for bringing this important issue to our attention. We will contact the Endocrine Society to inform them that nutritionist is not a protected term and they should be referring patients to a registered dietitian nutritionist (RDN) for specialized diet instructions. We will clarify that registered dietitian nutritionists are the competent, proficient food and nutrition experts who have met rigorous educational, experiential, examination and continuing professional education requirements to earn and maintain the RDN credential. As we often say, All registered dietitians are nutritionists – but not all nutritionists are registered dietitians.

Dear Pat and Diane,

In case you haven't seen it, you might like to check the below links for a new statement from the Endocrine Society.

<http://endocrinenews.endocrine.org/endocrine-society-issues-hypothalamic-amenorrhea-guideline/>

<<http://www.medscape.com/viewarticle/877950>>; Hypothalamic amenorrhea guidance includes nutritionist referral

The Endocrine Society is recommending referral to a nutritionist instead of referral to a registered dietitian nutritionist.

Is the Academy considering a letter to the Endocrine Society, asking them to clarify that an RDN is the preferred professional for that referral? It would be great if a constructive dialogue with the organization led them to provide that nuance in future media communications.

Thank you, and all best,
Karen

Hello Donna,

I am preparing a schedule of the 2017-18 program year bimonthly President calls with Pat and 4Ps calls. Is there a day of the week and time that works best for your schedule? I will take into account prescheduled meetings (the E-Team meets on Wednesdays from 9-11am CT) and holidays/observances, but if there is a time you have scheduled vacation or time off, I would appreciate if you can share those dates, too. Once I draft the schedule I will run it past you so we can put it on the agenda for the May 8 5Ps call.

Thanks!

Sure you already made this connection, but I thought it was worth mentioning if you hadn't. Just landed in New Mexico!

Tom, I had an idea this morning about the July President's page. One I am sure you have already thought about. How about we tie in the fact that 100 years ago one of the reasons our founding members started the Academy was because of the malnutrition with our soldiers. Now we are still dealing with malnutrition with our recruits not being able to enlist because they are overweight. National security then and national security now. We could get a quote from our new board member Kevin Concannon about the issue of recruits not qualifying to enlist because of their weight. Or I could get a retired admiral or general to do a quote? They are all over this issue. This is probably old news for you, but I thought I would mention it. Headed to New Mexico to give the Academy update!!!

For more than 40 years, Mary Pat Raimondi has been synonymous with dedication, skill and leadership in the Academy and the dietetics profession. Mary Pat has announced that she will be retiring from the Academy effective May 31. It goes without saying that her leadership and encouragement will be missed.

Since she joined the Academy in 1975, Mary Pat has tirelessly and creatively devoted herself to improving the health of all Americans and advancing the role of registered dietitian nutritionists in providing top-quality health care. As a member, Mary Pat applied her unique talents and enthusiasm to leadership positions including chair of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, president of the Minnesota Dietetic Association, a representative of Minnesota in the House of Delegates, and as an HOD Director on the Academy's Board.

Mary Pat worked for many years with nutrition programs and reducing hunger nationally and in her community as program director for health and nutrition programs at the University of Minnesota. In addition to community work, she served as a marketing director for Novartis Nutrition. She is a past member of the Board of Directors of Hunger Solutions Minnesota, Second Harvest Heartland and the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs. She received the Hunger and Environmental Nutrition DPG's Award of Excellence and served on the Academy's Sustainable Food System Task Force.

In 2010, I was able to convince Mary Pat to bring her unique combination of skills to the Academy's Headquarters Team, joining our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy group in Washington, D.C., as vice president for strategic policy and partnerships. For the past seven years in this critical position, she has devoted herself to propelling our profession forward. She has worked with members of Congress, the White House and policy making agencies throughout the federal government, ensuring that the Academy and registered dietitian nutritionists are included in legislation, programs and decision making roles that secure the health of the public.

Our successes in the nation's capital have been many, they have been significant and they will be lasting, thanks to Mary Pat's contributions. She has agreed to serve as a consultant to assist in the transition. Our hearts are sad to say farewell to such an important and amazing colleague, but we are happy for Mary Pat as she begins the next chapter of her remarkable life.

Mary Pat embodies the best of our Academy and our profession, both of which are better off because of her service. Please join me in thanking Mary Pat and warmly wishing her all the best on her retirement.

Hi Donna—

We received the attached information for your presentation at the Florida affiliate meeting for July 16. We noticed the W-9 is already signed, but since you will not be accepting honorarium for your presentation, we have asked if you need to complete this form. To confirm, will you be flying directly from the Board retreat to the Florida Food and Nutrition Symposium? If so, we will make your hotel reservations for the night of July 15. Thank you!

Cheers,
Dante

I think the timing of her decision may have been in part due to election results. She sent me pictures of the new house she and her husband bought in a 50+ retirement community! I am using Bob Blancotto's consultation money to keep her in a consultation role. She's coming to FNCE so I thought we could do a celebration dinner then. Am sensitive to doing it at year end celebration for President in May.

Subject: Mary Pat Raimondi

For more than 40 years, Mary Pat Raimondi has been synonymous with dedication, skill and leadership in the Academy and the dietetics profession. Mary Pat has announced that she will be retiring from the Academy effective May 31. It goes without saying that her leadership and encouragement will be missed.

Since she joined the Academy in 1975, Mary Pat has tirelessly and creatively devoted herself to improving the health of all Americans and advancing the role of registered dietitian nutritionists in providing top-quality health care. As a member, Mary Pat applied her unique talents and enthusiasm to leadership positions including chair of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, president of the Minnesota Dietetic Association, a representative of Minnesota in the House of Delegates, and as an HOD Director on the Academy's Board.

Mary Pat worked for many years with nutrition programs and reducing hunger nationally and in her community as program director for health and nutrition programs at the University of Minnesota. In addition to community work, she served as a marketing director for Novartis Nutrition. She is a past member of the Board of Directors of Hunger Solutions Minnesota, Second Harvest Heartland and the National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs. She received the Hunger and Environmental Nutrition DPG's Award of Excellence and served on the Academy's Sustainable Food System Task Force.

In 2010, I was able to convince Mary Pat to bring her unique combination of skills to the Academy's Headquarters Team, joining our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy group in Washington, D.C., as vice president for strategic policy and partnerships. For the past seven years in this critical position, she has devoted herself to propelling our profession forward. She has worked with members of Congress, the White House and policy making agencies throughout the federal government, ensuring that the Academy and registered dietitian nutritionists are included in legislation, programs and decision making roles that secure the health of the public.

Our successes in the nation's capital have been many, they have been significant and they will be lasting, thanks to Mary Pat's contributions. She has agreed to serve as a consultant to assist in the transition. Our hearts are sad to say farewell to such an important and amazing colleague, but we are happy for Mary Pat as she begins the next chapter of her remarkable life.

Mary Pat embodies the best of our Academy and our profession, both of which are better off because of her service. Please join me in thanking Mary Pat and warmly wishing her all the best on her retirement.

Best regards,
Pat

Take action now to encourage your senators and representatives to sponsor this important initiative to expand professional opportunities for our members!

Reducing Global Food Insecurity Webinar

Join the Academy, along with our partners at Society for Nutrition Education & Behavior (SNEB) and the American Public Health Association for an upcoming webinar on “Efforts to Reduce Global Food Insecurity: Perspectives from the United States and the United Nations”. The webinar will introduce the Global Food Security Act of 2016 and expand on America’s current efforts to help promote food security around the world. Speakers will provide perspectives from the U.S. Agency for International Development and Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to explain the current situation of global nutrition issues and progress made to alleviate global concerns such as hunger, chronic health issues, and mortality. Suggestions will be discussed on how nutrition and global health professionals can pitch in to reduce global food insecurity. The webinar will be held on Thursday, May 4, at 9 a.m. (Eastern Time), and participants will receive 1 CPE.

New Report on State-Impact of Public Health Funding

Academy partner Trust For America’s Health has released a new report, A Funding Crisis for Public Health and Safety: State-by-State Public Health Funding and Key Health Facts, 2017. The report found that core funding for disease prevention and health promotion programs has declined by around $580 million federally and has remained flat in states since 2010 (adjusting for inflation). The annual review demonstrates that cuts to federal funds have not been offset by increases to state and local funding. The Academy continues to advocate for the importance of investing in public health, and this report is a great tool to use for Academy members.

New Funding Announcement for Diabetes Prevention Efforts

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has released a Funding Opportunity Announcement last week to promote scaling and sustaining the National Diabetes Prevention Program in underserved areas. Applications must be submitted by June 12th. More information available here.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy’s 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. We need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161). Please take action now!

Here is a chart identifying the action alert statistics as of today:

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts will be posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports are located in the April 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 April subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Join the Academy, along with our partners at Society for Nutrition Education & Behavior (SNEB) and the American Public Health Association for an upcoming webinar on “Efforts to Reduce Global Food Insecurity: Perspectives from the United States and the United Nations”. The webinar will introduce the Global Food Security Act of 2016 and expand on America’s current efforts to help promote food security around the world. Speakers will provide perspectives from the U.S. Agency for International Development and Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to explain the current situation of global nutrition issues and progress made to alleviate global concerns such as hunger, chronic health issues, and mortality. Suggestions will be discussed on how nutrition and global health professionals can pitch in to reduce global food insecurity. The webinar will be held on Thursday, May 4, at 9 a.m. (Eastern Time), and participants will receive 1 CPE.

New Report on State-Impact of Public Health Funding

Academy partner Trust For America’s Health has released a new report, A Funding Crisis for Public Health and Safety: State-by-State Public Health Funding and Key Health Facts, 2017. The report found that core funding for disease prevention and health promotion programs has declined by around $580 million federally and has remained flat in states since 2010 (adjusting for inflation). The annual review demonstrates that cuts to federal funds have not been offset by increases to state and local funding. The Academy continues to advocate for the importance of investing in public health, and this report is a great tool to use for Academy members.

New Funding Announcement for Diabetes Prevention Efforts

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has released a Funding Opportunity Announcement last week to promote scaling and sustaining the National Diabetes Prevention Program in underserved areas. Applications must be submitted by June 12th. More information available here.

Action Alert Update

The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy’s 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. We need your assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Please contact your members of Congress and ask them to co-sponsor the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (S. Res. 75 and H. Res. 161). Please take action now!

Here is a chart identifying the action alert statistics as of today:

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts will be posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports are located in the April 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 April subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Hi Pat,

After thinking about this more and talking with Diane E (who I'm copying in), I'd like to propose that I reach out by phone to the education chair and conference planning chair from each of the below affiliates to give them a heads up about the feedback we've been receiving about Painter's comments. Given our current relationship with the affiliates that limits us from dictating their decisions and knowing they can provide their own CPE directly through CDR our hands are a bit tied. I think that a heads up to give these affiliates a chance to closely monitor and moderate the sessions may help us control his statements.

Let me know how this sounds and if there are any other recommendations I can do from my end.

The Indiana meeting is taking place now so not much we can do there. The next meeting is Vermont in a little over a week.

Thanks,

Amy

Hi all,

I took a look at the list of affiliate meetings that have not taken place yet this spring/early summer. I went to their websites to find the agenda of speakers for their meetings. Below is a list of meetings that I see Jim Painter on the agenda.

Note: this information is based on what I found on the affiliate websites. Affiliates are not required to send me their conference speakers so I do not track a comprehensive list.

Subject: Heart Health talks

Lucille and Patricia

I gave a talk last week to MoAND, afterwards many came up and thanked me but my students said that a few of the dietitians were upset. When I asked why they said people were talking about the sat fat part of the talk and more so about my statements about the Academy's position about SF.

So when I gave the talk to CAND I tried to make it more positive and asked if they agreed with the outline I presented to write both of you and express their views. I am not sure any of them did.

My goal has been to get the most current data to the Academy but as I have thought and prayed about it I am not sure I have taken the right approach. I asked members to email you and that may have been more of an aggravation than a help. For any problems it created I do apologize.

I have a few more Academy meetings this year and I am going to give the heart health talk as I have for more than 20 years with all the data and no mention of my work on the NCM or suggestions to email both of you. I leave for a talk at IAND in a couple hours. At this point I don't know if I can be of any service to the Academy in this area. I am actually for the Academy and if I can be of service I would be willing to be involved in the discussion. Again I apologize for any inconvenience I caused in my approach to getting the information across. I would be interested in talking with either of you if you have time. 217-549-3275.

Regards

JP

Donna,

Good morning, last November, I was invited to speak at Tim Lang's UK Food Research Collaborative on nutrition incentives and Veggie R/x programs.

Professor Tim Lang and his colleagues at City University of London continue to do terrific work policies to improve sustainable diets.

Wonder if the Academy might explore inviting Tim or one his colleagues to join us in June in Chicago?

Gus

Food Thinkers “How can we make progress on normalising Sustainable Diets?”

Speakers: Tim Lang, Professor of Food Policy, City, University of London; Tara Garnett, Director, (FCRN) Food Climate Research Network and Modi Mwatsama, Director of Policy and Global Health, UK Health Forum

When: Wednesday 24 May 2017, 4pm – 6pm

Where: A130, College Building, City University of London

RSVP here

About the talk:

This Food Thinkers seminar is an opportunity to discuss the issue of sustainable diets. This simple phrase sometimes seems to cover a vast range of issues shaping how and what we eat, from the environment to ethics, from the labour process to the content of foods. Three researchers will lead off discussion: Dr Tara Garnett of Oxford University who set up the Food Climate Research Network which has been a key global source of data and thinking over the last 11 years; Dr Modi Mwatsama of the UK Health Forum, which has been preparing a new report on how Health Sustainable Diets policy options in the UK; and Prof Tim Lang, of the Centre for Food Policy, whose new book Sustainable Diets (with Pamela Mason) offers an overview of the topic.

About the Speakers:

Tim Lang

Tim Lang has been Professor of Food Policy at City University London's Centre for Food Policy since 2002. After a PhD in social psychology at Leeds University, he became a hill farmer in the 1970s which shifted his attention to food policy, where it has been ever since. For over 35 years, he's engaged in academic and public research and debate about its direction, locally to globally. His abiding interest is how policy addresses the environment, health, social justice, and citizens. He has been a consultant to the World Health Organisation (eg. auditing the Global Top 25 Food Companies on food and health). He has been a special advisor to four House of Commons Select Committee inquiries (food standards x 2, globalisation and obesity), and a consultant on food security to the Royal Institute of International Affairs (Chatham House). He was a Commissioner on the UK Government's Sustainable Development Commission (2006-11), reviewing progress on food sustainability. He was on the Council of Food Policy Advisors to the Dept for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs (2008-10), and was appointed to the Mayor of London's Food Board in 2010

Tara Garnett

Tara Garnett initiated and runs the Food Climate Research Network (FCRN), based at the Environmental Change Institute.

Her work focuses on the contribution that the food system makes to greenhouse gas emissions and the scope for emissions reduction, looking at the technological options, at what could be achieved by changes in behaviour and how policies could help promote both these approaches. She is particularly interested in the relationship between emissions reduction objectives and other social and ethical concerns, particularly human health, livelihoods, and animal welfare. Much of her focus is on livestock, since this represents a nodal point where many of these issues converge.

Tara is keen to collaborate through the FCRN with other organisations to undertake research, organise events and build and extend interdisciplinary, intersectoral knowledge in this field.

Donna,

I have received approval for UAB to pay for your flight from Augusta to Birmingham and then from Birmingham to Tulsa! Our Office Associate, Sarah Peek, will need your date of birth, cell phone number, how your name appears on your license and an example of a flight you would like for UAB to book for you. I've included her on this email so that you can send the requested information to her directly.

For the keynote speech, really any topic that would encourage the interns, motivate them to do great things, fulfill their full potential...something along those lines. Maybe even sharing some advice on starting out a career in dietetics. I'll probably talk about dreaming big. Were there any moments in your career where an opportunity scared you but you took on the challenge and it changed your career? Feel free to call me if you'd like to discuss this further. I'll also have the Chair of the Department, Tim Garvey, and the Vice Chair of the Education Mission within the Department talk for a little bit.

I had previously mentioned that the UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success is very interested in having you speak with our program alumni outside of the DI Certificate Ceremony. Would you be interested in also doing a separate talk for alumni, students, and faculty in the Department of Nutrition Sciences that Friday, August 11th? We were thinking possibly 7:30-8:15 or 8-8:45 that morning before the ceremony; a 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions? If you are interested, we were thinking of the below ideas as topics:

- Your work with the School system in Georgia – focused on athletes performance, addressing nutrition in a low income population and food desserts
- Involvement with national organization – vision for nutrition in the future, importance of involvement on a policy avenue

Again, thank you so much for accepting our invitation. We look forward to having you return to UAB!

Carleton, I would love to come and be the keynote speaker for the UAB Dietetic Intern graduation. Do you all think you would be willing to pay for half of my airline ticket that I am going to make from Augusta to Birmingham and then Birmingham to Tulsa and then Tulsa to Augusta? I think it would only be about $350 for your share. I would not need an hotel room as I can stay at my son's home in Birmingham. If that would work out, then all I need from you is some idea of what you would like me to talk about so I can work on the presentation. Just some idea of what direction to go in for the presentation would be great. Look forward to hearing back from you. Thanks!

Carleton, Thanks so much for your email. I will definitely see what I can try and work out to come to the Student Graduation Ceremony to speak on Friday, August 11th. How long would you like me to speak for if I can work it out? I need to get with the Academy to check my schedule because of another potential speaking engagement that I might have on the 12th. I may have to go to Oklahoma City on Saturday, August 12th to speak so I would then need to fly to Birmingham on Thursday and then fly to Oklahoma City on Friday night. If I don't have to speak Saturday in Oklahoma City on Saturday I could drive from Augusta both ways. I will get back to you as soon as I know what my Saturday plans are. Thanks!

Hello Donna,

I hope you are doing well. It was so wonderful to hear you speak at the ALDA Annual Meeting this month. I'm very excited about where the Academy is moving! I am contacting you today to invite you to be the keynote speaker at the UAB Dietetic Internships certificate ceremony on Friday, August 11th. The ceremony will be from 9 to 10:30am with a small reception following.

If this date does not work for you, would you be interested in visiting UAB at another time during the summer or fall? I have been in communication with the UAB School of Health Professions alumni department and we are all very interested in having you visit UAB during the Academy's centennial year to speak to current students and faculty as well as our alumni family within the Department of Nutrition Sciences. I have included Amanda Martin, a representative from the SHP Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success, on this email if you would like to discuss the alumni speaking opportunity in more detail.

Supermarket Victory: Optimizing Sports Performance through Step-by-Step Shopping Guides

Date: Friday, April 21, 2017, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPE Level: 2

A supermarket tour guide developed for dietetic professional peer-on-peer training has been implemented as a part of successful strategies to improve fruit and vegetable consumption among college students. Sports nutrition-specific guides can streamline the implementation of a comprehensive, outcome-focused program designed to address the specific needs of collegiate and professional athletes. Through a step-by-step guided tour, we address all areas of the supermarket that are critical to athlete needs in both performance and recovery. Our research explores the adaptability, reproducibility and scalability of a guided supermarket tour specific to athletes.

Learning Objectives

1. Describe evidence-based research for a sports-specific supermarket tour training kit.
2. Identify critical components of programming that result in improved sports nutrition knowledge and behaviors.
3. Explain importance of sports-specific supermarket tour implementation as a component of collegiate and professional athlete's nutrition education.

Speakers:

Nyree Dardarian, MS, RD, CSSD, FAND, LDN is the Director of the Center for Nutrition & Performance (CNP), and Assistant Clinical Faculty at Drexel University in the Department of Nutrition Sciences. With the CNP, Nyree provides nutrition needs for the Philadelphia Union, (MLS soccer team) and the Philadelphia Flyers (NHL team). Jessica Liu will graduate with a Masters in Human Nutrition from Drexel University in June 2017. Her research is focused on the development and implementation of a sports nutrition supermarket training toolkit for dietetic professionals, which involves working with the Philadelphia Union and Drexel ISPP dietetic interns. Leah Tsui is currently at Drexel University to complete the Didactic Program in Dietetics, and will graduate with a Masters in Human Nutrition in June 2017. Did You Know?

The Quality Management Committee has collaborated with the Commission and other Academy organization units/ teams to develop a Definition of Terms resource for the dietetics profession.

The Definition of Terms policy and background information is available at the following link:

- Definition of Terms Policy

The Academys Definition of Terms list was updated in January 2017. The Academy definitions serve as standardized language for RDNs and NDTRs to apply in various practice settings. Terms that have statutory, accrediting, or regulatory implications for the profession of nutrition and dietetics or that affect the Scope of Practice are included in the Definition of Terms.

- Definition of Terms List

CDR credentialed practitioners may request that a new term be added to the definition of terms document or that an existing definition be revised by completing the form available at the following link

Practice Competencies Initiative

The CDR Competency Assurance Panel collaborated with the Academy's Quality Management Committee on the development of dietetics practice competencies and performance indicators. These competencies and performance indicators will replace the current learning need codes for the Professional Development Portfolio recertification system in 2015 beginning with new registrants whose registration begins on or after June 2nd, 2015 and current registrants beginning their June 1, 2016 recertification cycle. An article describing the development and validation of the practice competencies was published in the June 2015 Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics..

The CDR website has been updated to include a Practice Competencies page, <https://www.cdrnet.org/competencies>, which includes several practitioner resources including recordings of webinar presentations made during 2016-2017.

CDR has scheduled webinars on the following dates to introduce CDR credentialed practitioners and students to the new Professional Development Portfolio practice competencies. All webinars will be recorded and placed on the CDR website.

Let's Talk About the Power of Partnerships

Since our inception, the Partnership for a Healthier America has been focused on public-private partnerships and bringing together leaders from any sector that can help us end the childhood obesity crisis. At this year's Summit May 10-12, we will hear from former President Bill Clinton, who has helped lead the Alliance for a Healthier Generation as collaborative change-makers working to create a nation where children can thrive. Join us to learn more about the intersection of health and business, the power of partnerships and a shared vision for success.

Subject: PPW Session 1 What's in it for me?

Hi Donna and Dianne,

Happy Wednesday! Thank you for agreeing to serve as the speakers for the First PPW session for all PPW attendees. The session is titled: What's In it for Me? Making your impact on policy makers". The intent of the session is to motivate the attendees and build the enthusiasm before they arrive in DC. The session is a time for you to tell your "story" and successes. We would like to see you talk about more than PPW. This session is not about the nuts and bolts, it is about the reason that policy is important to you, what you have gained from your policy work and the reasons you work to pave the way for the Academy members....

You will each have 25 minutes to speak – we would like to see the picture, reduce the written words on the slides and enjoy your presentation as if you were the keynoters to a room full of more than 400 members.

Here are objectives – open for edits or revisions – they are not cast in stone... So feel free to edit.

- i. Describe your value and communicate it to elected officials during visits with elected officials on the Hill and in the home state
- ii. Utilize effective connecting and developing relationships with their legislators
- iii. Identify techniques to effectively communicating Academy messages with elected officials
- iv. Utilize proven advocacy strategies for successfully and effectively connecting and developing relationships with their legislators

I would like to set up a call to discuss the session – any chance you have time next week for the three of us to be on the same phone line? I know you are both busy people.

I know Donna has a headset.

Dianne, do you have a headset? Or should we have one shipped to you?

I think if we can talk on the phone, you can share your creative ideas....

LPPC chair Lorri Holzberg will be the moderator for the session.

Thanks,

Teresa

There is still time to celebrate National Preceptor Month!

National Preceptor Month is an occasion to recognize and thank the practitioners who take the time and make the effort to create the next generation of professionals by teaching students in their workplace. In order to help recognize the importance of preceptors and to take part in the festivities of National Preceptor Month, we are asking everyone to show their appreciation for preceptors throughout the entire month!

We want to continue the tradition and share some great stories and pictures of how some of you thanked your wonderful preceptors this year! We are asking program directors to send in pictures and/or stories of how you will be celebrating National Preceptor Month and we will post your stories on the Academy's Facebook page, on ACEND's Preceptor Website, in email blasts and even in Eat Right Weekly! We want to show off all you and your students are doing in April for your amazing preceptors! Send your stories and pictures to preceptor@eatright.org

Need some ideas for how you can thank your preceptors:

- Send a little note- just a few words to say 'thank you' goes a long way
- Thank your preceptor's boss for allowing her/him be a preceptor
- Make a sign to hang on your preceptor's office door so everyone knows they are helping to create tomorrow's leaders
- Bring them a homemade present or healthy goodie
- Treat them to lunch or a coffee
- The best thank-you gift of all – have your students tell their preceptors that they are going to become one after they receive their RDN or NDTR credential!

Make sure you present your preceptors with the 2017 Certificate of Appreciation which is posted in the ACEND Portal (<http://education.webauthor.com>) under Accreditation Forum, then click Library, then Other Information and Resources.

We are still actively recruiting preceptors in our Find-a-Preceptor Database! We have recruited many practitioners to be preceptors, but we always need more! Our goal this year is 100 new preceptors!! Encourage those you know to register to be a preceptor! If you are in need of preceptors, make sure to use the database as a resource and check back often as there are new preceptors added every day!

The 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo™ (FNCE®) will be held October 21-24 in Chicago, Illinois preceded by the House Leadership Team (HLT) meeting on October 19 and the House of Delegates meeting October 20-21. You will remember that you all agreed last year to discontinue our Board meeting immediately following FNCE. I am attaching the most recent Board meetings calendar for your reference.

Housing

The Executive Office staff will make your reservations at the FNCE® headquarters hotel, Hyatt Regency Chicago, 151 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL, for arrival on Thursday, October 19 and departure on Tuesday, October 24. For members of the HLT (Speaker, Speaker-elect, Immediate Past Speaker, HOD Directors), we will make your hotel reservations for arrival on Wednesday, October 18. If business or personal reasons require you to extend your stay, please notify me. Your hotel room will be master-billed; you will be asked to pay for incidentals.

Registration

Complimentary FNCE® registration is open Tuesday, May 2 through Friday, September 8.

Registration instructions follow:

- Complete your registration online by going to <http://eatrightfnce.org/attend/registration/>
- o Select the Registration link
- o In the New Registration section on the left side, enter the registration code “password” under your name
- § Continue and complete the required registration information.
- Registration questions, please contact Rebecca McHale at 312/899-4851.

Travel

You are approved to make your travel arrangements for FNCE®; see instructions below. If you wish to book your travel on your own, please submit your expenses for reimbursement after the conclusion of the meeting.

Booking Your Travel Online:

- 1) Book your travel whenever possible Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30am and 7:00pm EST
- 2) Go online to: www.atcmeetings.com/Academy
- 3) Login to your account using your User ID (email address) and the password you created when you activated your account. (If you have forgotten your login, click “Forgot password” and enter your email address on file with Deem in the USERNAME field. You will immediately receive a reset password email.)
- 4) Search for and select your flights (book “non-refundable” fares only)
- 5) When you reach the Purchase Trip page, select 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo from the drop down menu and enter the GL Code 1032430.

Subject: PPW Session 1 What's in it for me?

Hi Donna and Dianne,

Happy Wednesday! Thank you for agreeing to serve as the speakers for the First PPW session for all PPW attendees. The session is titled: What's In it for Me? Making your impact on policy makers". The intent of the session is to motivate the attendees and build the enthusiasm before they arrive in DC. The session is a time for you to tell your "story" and successes. We would like to see you talk about more than PPW. This session is not about the nuts and bolts, it is about the reason that policy is important to you, what you have gained from your policy work and the reasons you work to pave the way for the Academy members....

You will each have 25 minutes to speak – we would like to see the picture, reduce the written words on the slides and enjoy your presentation as if you were the keynoters to a room full of more than 400 members.

Here are objectives – open for edits or revisions – they are not cast in stone... So feel free to edit.

- i. Describe your value and communicate it to elected officials during visits with elected officials on the Hill and in the home state
- ii. Utilize effective connecting and developing relationships with their legislators
- iii. Identify techniques to effectively communicating Academy messages with elected officials
- iv. Utilize proven advocacy strategies for successfully and effectively connecting and developing relationships with their legislators

I would like to set up a call to discuss the session – any chance you have time next week for the three of us to be on the same phone line? I know you are both busy people.

I know Donna has a headset.

Dianne, do you have a headset? Or should we have one shipped to you?

I think if we can talk on the phone, you can share your creative ideas....

LPPC chair Lorri Holzberg will be the moderator for the session.

Thanks,

Teresa

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

In Advance of Earth Day: Academy Signs On To AAAS Letter Supporting Science

The Academy has signed on to a multisociety letter to Congress, drafted by the American Association for the Advancement of Science, articulating the importance of investing in basic and applied research across all disciplines. Academy members are encouraged to join the March for Science on Earth Day - April 22 - to celebrate the remarkable role science has played in improving people's lives.

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act Reintroduced

Great news from Congress: The Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 has been introduced in both the Senate and House with bipartisan support from Sens. Bill Cassidy (La.) and Tom Carper (Del.) and Reps. Erik Paulsen (Minn.) and Ron Kind (Wis.). TROA is a critical step in addressing the obesity epidemic by providing better treatment options including intervention and counseling by registered dietitian nutritionists and safe, innovative medications approved for obesity management. More than 175 representatives and senators sponsored this legislation in the previous Congress; the Academy is working hard to push this bill over the finish line. Encourage your representatives to sponsor this important initiative to expand professional opportunities for Academy members.

Register Now: Public Policy Workshop

There has never been a better time to show the important role food and nutrition play in our nation's health: Attend the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit, the Academy's Public Policy Workshop, June 25 to 26, in Washington, D.C. Exciting changes make this year's PPW the "go-to" event to sharpen your communication skills, advocate for the profession and develop new high-level personal and professional relationships. A new video shows why attending PPW is so important.

April 17 Deadline: How Important Are Federal Programs to You?

As soon as Congress returns from its recess, it will need to pass legislation to fund the federal government for Fiscal Year 2017. In March, the Trump administration released a "skinny budget," setting a broad budget blueprint for FY 2018, which begins October 1, and a more detailed budget is expected in early May. The Academy needs your stories and anecdotes expressing how important federally funded food safety, nutrition assistance, public health nutrition and nutrition education programming are to you and the populations and clients you serve. Please reply by April 17 by to Jennifer Folliard at jfolliard@eatright.org and Stefanie Rinehart at swinston@eatright.org.

April 17 Application Deadline: ANDPAC Student Representative

Are you a Student member with an interest in the link between nutrition policy and the profession? The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee's Student Representative serves a one-year term on the ANDPAC board and on the Academy's Student Advisory Committee. Submit an application, letter of interest, resume and letter of recommendation from a faculty member by April 17.

Subject: Nutrition and Prevention in Healthcare Webinar

Teresa, Pepin and Stefani, I just finished listening to the Nutrition and Prevention in Healthcare Webinar in preparation for our Hill visits on May 1. I thought you all did an excellent job and I wanted to tell you how much I got out of the webinar. It was very well done and I think did a great job of preparing me for the Advocacy Days. Thanks for putting this together. I wish all our Academy members would listen to these webinars, because they would get so much out of them. Thanks again and see you in DC May 1st when we storm the Hill!

Katie,

A few weeks ago, I requested your support of resolution S. Res. 75/H. Res.161 a bi-partisan resolution recognizing the 100th anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. I am following up to see what questions you might have and again ask for Rep. Rick Allen's support. I am excited to be part of this wonderful celebration and a group that focuses on nutrition health on an individual and community level. Some of my colleagues and your constituents in our community are doing some impactful things to improve and maintain health that include-

- Providing nutrition counseling to over 40,000 families to help them understand how diet can help manage chronic disease.
- Leading farm to school programs in our communities to teach lifelong healthy eating habits.
- Helping employers reduce health care costs by providing engaging effective nutrition and wellness programs
- Working in retail stores to help grocers and consumers maximize shopping dollars.
- Developing a nutrition feeding plan for premature infant in the ICU.

I am proud to share that the Academy remains strongly connected to our origins: committed to helping solve the greatest food and nutrition challenges of the day through the transformational power of nutrition.

Please see if you can get Rep. Rick Allen to support the resolution in Congress and let me know if you I need to answer any questions for you?

Best to you!

Tom, This looks good, I may tweak it some myself when I have time, but it is exactly what I needed to get me going. If I need anything else to finish it I will email you. Thanks so much for doing this!

Do you have any speeches written for Internship Graduations? My internship in Birmingham, AL has asked me two years in a row now to do their internship commencement speech, but I could not do it last year. I am considering doing it this year and it is in August. I know I would not have time to get something together, so before I say yes or no, I wanted to check to see if you have something I could use?

I hope you are not regretting my election????? Love you guys!

We will find out but I wonder if the staffer really digested the information. The interesting thing is that one of our sponsors has a rule never to sign on or sponsor any bills! J

Rick Allen is going to age you. So my suggestion is that you run for his seat in two years. You will be Academy Past President and it would be perfect timing. J

Just kidding...well just kind of kidding as you would be great as a member of Congress

Subject: S. Res. 75/H. Res.161 support

Katie,

A few weeks ago, I requested your support of resolution S. Res. 75/H. Res.161 a bi-partisan resolution recognizing the 100th anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. I am following up to see what questions you might have and again ask for Rep. Rick Allen's support. I am excited to be part of this wonderful celebration and a group that focuses on nutrition health on an individual and community level. Some of my colleagues and your constituents in our community are doing some impactful things to improve and maintain health that include-

- Providing nutrition counseling to over 40,000 families to help them understand how diet can help manage chronic disease.
- Leading farm to school programs in our communities to teach lifelong healthy eating habits.
- Helping employers reduce health care costs by providing engaging effective nutrition and wellness programs
- Working in retail stores to help grocers and consumers maximize shopping dollars.
- Developing a nutrition feeding plan for premature infant in the ICU.

I am proud to share that the Academy remains strongly connected to our origins: committed to helping solve the greatest food and nutrition challenges of the day through the transformational power of nutrition.

Please see if you can get Rep. Rick Allen to support the resolution in Congress and let me know if you I need to answer any questions for you?

Best to you!

Hello!

My name is Corrie Staff and I am a dietetic intern from UW-Stout at WAND this year. You were asking for ideas for a title rather than "eat the truth". It sounded like a creative and fun project and what I came up with was "Fork the Facts".

If I do come up with more I will let you know. Thank you for the presentation!

Update from Capitol Hill

From April 8-23, Members of Congress are back in district for the Easter recess, finishing a busy six-week work period in Washington D.C. We wanted to highlight key issues that impact Academy members, and preview what to expect when Congress returns.

Academy's Centennial Resolution in Congress Gains Co-sponsors!

Thanks to the grassroots advocacy of Academy members, support is growing for the Congressional Resolutions celebrating the Academy's Centennial and honoring the work of Academy members across the country. In the House, Reps. DeGette (Colo.), McGovern (Mass.), and Tim Ryan (Ohio) are now cosponsors for H. Res. 161. In the Senate, Senator Cassidy (La.) is now a cosponsor for S. Res. 75. Be sure to reach out with our action alert to contact your member of Congress to share this opportunity to celebrate the past, present and future of the Academy's members.

March Madness for Federal Budget Process – Tell US How Important Programs Are to YOU!

When Congress returns, a critical issue will be passing legislation to fund the federal government for the current Fiscal Year (FY 2017). The government is currently operating under a Continuous Resolution (CR) passed by Congress in December, which expires on April 28th. A CR maintains the funding levels for federal programs as the past year. Now Congress is working to pass spending bill to fund government programs through the end of the fiscal year, which expires on September 30, 2017. While negotiations on the details of the bill continue, the Academy continues to advocate for funding of evidence-based federal nutrition programs.

Once Congress completes funding for FY 2017, then work will begin on Fiscal Year 2018 (FY 2018). In March, the Administration released a “skinny budget,” which set a broad budget blueprint for FY 2018 (which begins October 1, 2017). A more detailed budget from the Administration is expected in early May.

The Academy PIA team continues to meet with House and Senate appropriations offices to discuss the Academy’s priorities to be considered in committee discussions. Academy staff also worked with the House Diabetes Caucus and with champions of Senior Nutrition programs, and the National WIC Association to gain sponsors for Dear Colleague letters for specific funding requests. Dear Colleague letters are authored by Members of Congress to gain support among colleagues for specific programs or issues.

We will continue to provide resources on the effectiveness of these evidence-based programs, and stay tuned for opportunities to engage with your members of Congress.

We are looking for stories that will express how important federally funded food safety, nutrition assistance, public health nutrition and nutrition education programming are to you and the populations and clients you serve. As part of the Academy’s efforts to tell this story we need to hear from you by April 17! Please email Jennifer Folliard jfolliard@eatright.org and Stefanie Rinehart swinston@eatright.org

Chronic Care Legislation Reintroduced in the Senate

On April 7, the Creating High-Quality Results and Outcomes Necessary to Improve Chronic (CHRONIC) Care Act of 2017 was introduced in the Senate as S. 870. The legislation builds upon bipartisan work of the Senate Chronic Care Working Group in the 114th Congress, and aims to improve health outcomes for Medicare beneficiaries with chronic conditions. The Academy has provided comments and continued collaboration with the bill sponsors, and will continue to work with the bill sponsors to ensure that critical nutrition services are included in this important legislation.

Academy School Nutrition Leaders Present on Policy Options

The Pew Charitable Trust Kids Safe and Healthful Kids Project, which lead efforts to improve access and funding to school kitchen equipment grants, held a capstone event which featured many Academy school nutrition leaders. Academy President-Elect Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, hosted a panel on successes of school nutrition directors over the past five years. Beverly Girard Ph.D., M.B.A., R.D., Linette Dodson PhD RD FAND and Cheryl Johnson MS, RD,

LD expressed support for providing more fruits, vegetable and whole grains in school meals and emphasized the importance of providing nutrition education with the recent change in the school meal patterns.

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act Reintroduced!

The Academy is excited to announce that the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 (S. 830, H.R. 1953) was introduced last week in both the Senate and House with the bipartisan support of Senators Bill Cassidy (La.) and Tom Carper (Del.) and Representatives Erik Paulsen (Minn.) and Ron Kind (Wis.). The Treat and Reduce Obesity Act is a critical step in addressing the obesity epidemic in the United States by providing better treatment options for healthcare professionals including intervention and counseling by RDNs, and safe, innovative medications approved for obesity management. More than 175 congresspersons and senators sponsored this legislation in the previous congressional term, and the Academy is working hard to push this bill over the finish line! Take action now to encourage your representatives to sponsor this important initiative to expand professional opportunities for our members!

Action Alert Update

We need your immediate assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. Here is what you can do:

1. Take the action alert and encourage all affiliate, DPG and MIG leaders and public policy team members to do the same.
2. Send an eblast message to your affiliate, DPG or MIG membership asking them to send letters to their Senators and Representatives and post the message to your electronic mailing list. The follow approved message should be used:

Dear Colleague,

We need your help to build more support in Congress for the congressional resolution celebrating the Academy's Centennial! Please ask your members of Congress to sign on and recognize the Academy and our profession.

Click here to take action. The Academy is counting on you to send a letter today!

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts are posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports are located in the April 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 April subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Hello!

My name is Corrie Staff and I am a dietetic intern from UW-Stout at WAND this year. You were asking for ideas for a title rather than "eat the truth". It sounded like a creative and fun project and what I came up with was "Fork the Facts".

If I do come up with more I will let you know. Thank you for the presentation!

Update from Capitol Hill

From April 8-23, Members of Congress are back in district for the Easter recess, finishing a busy six-week work period in Washington D.C. We wanted to highlight key issues that impact Academy members, and preview what to expect when Congress returns.

Academy's Centennial Resolution in Congress Gains Co-sponsors!

Thanks to the grassroots advocacy of Academy members, support is growing for the Congressional Resolutions celebrating the Academy's Centennial and honoring the work of Academy members across the country. In the House, Reps. DeGette (Colo.), McGovern (Mass.), and Tim Ryan (Ohio) are now cosponsors for H. Res. 161. In the Senate, Senator Cassidy (La.) is now a cosponsor for S. Res. 75. Be sure to reach out with our action alert to contact your member of Congress to share this opportunity to celebrate the past, present and future of the Academy's members.

March Madness for Federal Budget Process – Tell US How Important Programs Are to YOU!

When Congress returns, a critical issue will be passing legislation to fund the federal government for the current Fiscal Year (FY 2017). The government is currently operating under a Continuous Resolution (CR) passed by Congress in December, which expires on April 28th. A CR maintains the funding levels for federal programs as the past year. Now Congress is working to pass spending bill to fund government programs through the end of the fiscal year, which expires on September 30, 2017. While negotiations on the details of the bill continue, the Academy continues to advocate for funding of evidence-based federal nutrition programs.

Once Congress completes funding for FY 2017, then work will begin on Fiscal Year 2018 (FY 2018). In March, the Administration released a “skinny budget,” which set a broad budget blueprint for FY 2018 (which begins October 1, 2017). A more detailed budget from the Administration is expected in early May.

The Academy PIA team continues to meet with House and Senate appropriations offices to discuss the Academy’s priorities to be considered in committee discussions. Academy staff also worked with the House Diabetes Caucus and with champions of Senior Nutrition programs, and the National WIC Association to gain sponsors for Dear Colleague letters for specific funding requests. Dear Colleague letters are authored by Members of Congress to gain support among colleagues for specific programs or issues.

We will continue to provide resources on the effectiveness of these evidence-based programs, and stay tuned for opportunities to engage with your members of Congress.

We are looking for stories that will express how important federally funded food safety, nutrition assistance, public health nutrition and nutrition education programming are to you and the populations and clients you serve. As part of the Academy’s efforts to tell this story we need to hear from you by April 17! Please email Jennifer Folliard jfolliard@eatright.org and Stefanie Rinehart swinston@eatright.org

Chronic Care Legislation Reintroduced in the Senate

On April 7, the Creating High-Quality Results and Outcomes Necessary to Improve Chronic (CHRONIC) Care Act of 2017 was introduced in the Senate as S. 870. The legislation builds upon bipartisan work of the Senate Chronic Care Working Group in the 114th Congress, and aims to improve health outcomes for Medicare beneficiaries with chronic conditions. The Academy has provided comments and continued collaboration with the bill sponsors, and will continue to work with the bill sponsors to ensure that critical nutrition services are included in this important legislation.

Academy School Nutrition Leaders Present on Policy Options

The Pew Charitable Trust Kids Safe and Healthful Kids Project, which lead efforts to improve access and funding to school kitchen equipment grants, held a capstone event which featured many Academy school nutrition leaders. Academy President-Elect Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, hosted a panel on successes of school nutrition directors over the past five years. Beverly Girard Ph.D., M.B.A., R.D., Linette Dodson PhD RD FAND and Cheryl Johnson MS, RD, LD expressed support for providing more fruits, vegetable and whole grains in school meals and emphasized the importance of providing nutrition education with the recent change in the school meal patterns.

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act Reintroduced!

The Academy is excited to announce that the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 (S. 830, H.R. 1953) was introduced last week in both the Senate and House with the bipartisan support of Senators Bill Cassidy (La.) and Tom Carper (Del.) and Representatives Erik Paulsen (Minn.) and Ron Kind (Wis.). The Treat and Reduce Obesity Act is a critical step in addressing the obesity epidemic in the United States by providing better treatment options for healthcare professionals including intervention and counseling by RDNs, and safe, innovative medications approved for obesity management. More than 175 congresspersons and senators sponsored this legislation in the previous congressional term, and the Academy is working hard to push this bill over the finish line! Take action now to encourage your representatives to sponsor this important initiative to expand professional opportunities for our members!

Action Alert Update

We need your immediate assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. Here is what you can do:

1. Take the action alert and encourage all affiliate, DPG and MIG leaders and public policy team members to do the same.
2. Send an eblast message to your affiliate, DPG or MIG membership asking them to send letters to their Senators and Representatives and post the message to your electronic mailing list. The follow approved message should be used:

Dear Colleague,

We need your help to build more support in Congress for the congressional resolution celebrating the Academy's Centennial! Please ask your members of Congress to sign on and recognize the Academy and our profession.

Click here to take action. The Academy is counting on you to send a letter today!

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts are posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports are located in the April 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 April subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

April Public Policy Forum

Connect with the Academy:

April is National Preceptor Month, and as the experts that make the biggest impact on future generations of registered dietitian nutritionists, we ask you to recognize the importance preceptors have in nutrition and dietetics. We also ask that you consider becoming a preceptor to help to shape the leaders of tomorrow.

Preceptors were vital in guiding you to reach your dream of becoming a registered dietitian nutritionist. By registering yourself as a preceptor, not only are you helping a student to fulfill that same dream, but you are helping to reverse the preceptor shortage this means the development of more registered dietitian nutritionists to positively influence the worlds nutrition!

In celebration of the Academys Centennial, our hope is to recruit 100 more preceptors than last year! Helps us meet our goal!

We invite you to learn more or sign up to be a preceptor today!

Dont forget about CDRs FREE Preceptor Training Course!

Participants can earn 8 CPEUs. Click here for more information.

Dear Stephanie,

I hope this note finds you well. I wanted to reach out to you and sincerely thank you for your recent gift and your generous support of the Foundation. We know that you have many choices when it comes to your philanthropic dollars, and we wanted you to know how much we appreciate your decision to support the Foundation. Your support will help ensure the strength of our specialty for years to come. You might enjoy an update on what we have been doing:

FOCUS ON FAMILIES

Kids Eat Right

The Kids Eat Right initiative was developed to ensure that sound nutrition recommendations are part of childhood obesity prevention. One of the great features of Kids Eat Right is a consumer website, www.kidseatright.org which is filled with age-appropriate, Academy-approved tips, articles, recipes, and videos to help families shop smart, cook healthy and eat right.

Support allows for new tips, articles and recipes on the consumer site www.kidseatright.org each Monday. Toolkits on the member site www.kidseatright.org/volunteer provide resources for campaign volunteers to educate the public on a variety of important topics.

USDA's Healthier US School Challenge awards

Over the past several years, the Foundation has collaborated with the Iowa Department of Education through their Team Nutrition grants to implement RDN expertise to over 70 schools in Iowa to assist in applying for USDA's Healthier U.S. School Challenge awards.

RD Parent Empowerment Program

The Academy Foundation's RD Parent Empowerment program brings the expertise of registered dietitian nutritionists into school and community settings to educate and empower parents to improve their families' eating and physical activity habits and to influence their peers to do the same. The program has been implemented in Indianapolis, San Francisco, Washington, DC, Chicago, Johnson City, Tennessee, New York, and Houston. Materials are available to all Kids Eat Right members to download through the Kids Eat Right member site, in English, Spanish, and Chinese.

HUNGER INTIATIVES

Future of Food initiative

Since 2012, the Future of Food initiative has strived to bring awareness and education to Academy members about food insecurity and agriculture. Six new actions and resources were added to the Kids Eat Right member site for campaign members to take action at the local level to get involved in efforts to reduce food insecurity in their communities. Resources developed as part of the project include two new toolkits, mini-grants and over 12 free live CPEU webinars.

Second Century Vision

In 1917, when Lenna Cooper and Lulu Graves founded what is now the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, they had a powerful vision to create a profession that would change the course of nutrition and health in America. Now we have the opportunity to look ahead again and set as bold a vision.

This new vision should elevate the profession, expand our reach, and do more to improve nutrition and health in the U.S. and around the world, beyond the areas in which we're already strong. The biggest goal involves elimination of malnutrition, primarily through the education of women.

FUNDS AND DEADLINES

Annual Fund – Unrestricted Gifts

The Foundation depends on unrestricted gifts to continue its grant-making and fundraising activities and initiatives such as Kids Eat Right and Future of Food. Unrestricted gifts ensure that the Foundation has a secure basis of funding to sustain itself and address the ever-changing needs of the public.

Scholarship and Awards

The Foundation is the leading funder of scholarships and fellowships for the dietetics profession. In the last 5 years the Foundation has provided over $1 million in educational support. The Foundation can direct donations to the general scholarship fund or over 150 named scholarship/award funds.

Foundation Grants

The Foundation offers several grants throughout the year. Following are a list of deadlines:

- Professional Development, Recognition and Leadership Awards – Aug 1st, Nov 1st, Feb 1st and May 1st
- Home Food Safety Grant – December 1st
- Awards – February 1st
- Scholarships – March 18th
- Named Research Grants – April 1st

DONOR RECOGNITION

Donor Recognition

The Foundation Eat Right Society recognizes donors who make annual gifts of $250 or more to any Foundation initiative. The Early Professionals Eat Right Society recognizes donors who have been in practice five years or less who make annual gifts of $50 or more to the Scholarships, Research, Kids Eat Right or the Annual Fund.

I WILL Legacy Society

The Foundation also encourages members to join the Foundation's I WILL Legacy Society. The Legacy Society celebrates those individuals who have made provisions for the Foundation in their estate plans. All that is need is for you to communicate your intent by filling out a Declaration of Intent Form.

Best regards,

We are saddened to inform you of the death of Donna Martin's father, William (Bill) Fredrick Schleicher, Jr., who passed away on Sunday, April 9 at the age of 87. Bill was the loving husband of Elizabeth Mizrahi Schleicher; they were married 67 years. Services are not scheduled yet, but will be private. Donna welcomes you to sign the guestbook at <http://www.thomaspoteet.com/obituaries.asp>. In lieu of flowers, a contribution will be made to the Academy Foundation in honor of Donna's father on behalf of both Boards.

Best regards,
Joan

Joan, Thanks for the kind words. My sisters and I are at peace about his death, but my Mom is struggling. We are trying to support her now. We had Dad cremated and plan to bury Mom and Dad at the same time when my mother passes. We are going to have a service at the facility my Mom is in because she cannot travel to a funeral. It will just be for the residents of Brandon Wilde where she lives. All the family will attend.

Here is what you can send out to the board. Do not want a big deal made out of this. Please do not send flowers or anything. Save the Academy's money!

Entered into rest Sunday, April 9, 2017, Mr. William (Bill) Fredrick Schleicher, Jr., 87, loving husband to Elizabeth (Liz) Mizrahi Schleicher. Bill and Liz were married 67 years.

Services are not scheduled yet, but will be private.

Hi Jean,

I am wondering why the Dairy Council is sponsoring someone to a present at affiliate meetings who blatantly and consistently attacks the Academy. He was on one agenda as the opening speaker which set a very negative tone. Staff are spending time which should be directed at meaningful activities to do damage control related to an individual who lacks data, references and credibility. His peers denied his "opinion " for inclusion in our NCM. We are hearing from top leadership (below is the most recent example) asking us to remove him from affiliate agendas. As you know affiliates are legal entities and although I will share the feedback with our affiliate manager, at this point we will forward the complaints to the Dairy Council for a response. I am aware that he is presenting at the West Virginia affiliate where Donna will be in attendance. Any help you can provide will be appreciated. As you can imagine, this does not help fundraising efforts. Thanks!

Hi Pat-

He was unbelievable. Actually called out the CEO, president and someone else. He asked people to write letters to complain. He is certainly an odd duck. Hear him a few years ago on portion control and he was good. This time on fats---citing studies with n's of 12, 13, 16. Not really showing references. Complaining about the US Dietary Guidelines—I guess he know everything! Even a knock about women at the end!

He should be shot!

Hi Donna-

We have your original flights cancelled on our end, but since it is within 24-48 hours, the system may not update in time to remove the notifications.

Don't check in or worry about the original flights as we will resolve those credits on the back end with the travel store.

Thanks for letting us know and safe travels!

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the April Standards Update is posted on the ACEND website www.eatrightpro.org/acend in the Public Notices and Announcements section.

The April Update features the draft criteria and guidelines for the future education model demonstration programs. ACEND requests that input on these draft criteria and guidelines be sent to acend@eatright.org.

The public comment period on the revised Future Education Model Accreditation Standards will end on April 28, 2017. Comments can be made at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RevFEMComments>. ACEND values your input.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

Re: Estate gift to the Foundation

The Academy Foundation received a generous $130,000 gift from the estate of Elsiné Roderick who passed away on May 30, 2016. Elsiné joined the Academy in 1966 and was a member of the Foundation's I WILL Legacy Society. Her obituary follows - http://www.rickerfh.com/memsol.cgi?user_id=1804840.

As stipulated in the estate, one third of the donation will be directed to the Foundation's scholarship program. Staff will explore some options and bring forward for our approval for directing the remaining dollars towards diabetes research and education that align with existing funds and our Second Century efforts. We appreciate Elsie remembering the Foundation in her estate plans.

Hi, Donna:

We have created a widescreen version of the Academy Update PPT for your use if desired. Below is a link to download it:

<https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/St02D>

We have also sent it to Lucille and asked Joan to post it to the BOD portal as well.

This is the same presentation, with the slides re-formatted and with most bullet points and images made larger. Otherwise the presentation is unchanged from the regular-size screen version you already have, and the slides should look fine if combined with the Second Century slides, for example.

Please let us know if you need anything else. Thanks very much, talk to you soon!

Hello!

Thank you for reaching out to your members of Congress (MOC) to support our 100th Anniversary celebration. As you know, these type of requests take follow-up to make sure action is taken. And most important it needs to come from constituents.

Below is a sample email to follow-up with them. Now that you have given them the facts, it is time to do some emotional based marketing. It will help build your personal relationship and trust with these MOC which is vital to the success of the Academy's advocacy efforts. Please feel free to tailor with your own examples. Highlight your colleagues work and your own contributions!

This is a very winnable request with no funding from Congress needed. Once you do that please reach out to your colleagues, friends, affiliate and DPG to respond to the action alert. We are at only 2.9% response for an issue that is non-controversial. This is an exciting year for us and this might also help our members get engaged in the celebration at all levels of membership.

MOC will be in their district offices for the next two weeks so it should be a great time to reach staff.

Many thanks!

Sample email

A few weeks ago, I requested your support of resolution S. Res. 75/H. Res.161 a bi-partisan resolution recognizing the 100th anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. I am following up to see what questions you might have and again ask for your support.

I am excited to be part of this wonderful celebration and a group that focuses on nutrition health on an individual and community level. Some of my colleagues and your constituents in our community are doing some impactful things to improve and maintain health that include-

- Providing nutrition counseling to over 40,000 families to help them understand how diet can help manage chronic disease.
- Leading farm to school programs in our communities to teach lifelong healthy eating habits.
- Helping employers reduce health care costs by providing engaging effective nutrition and wellness programs
- Working in retail stores to help grocers and consumers maximize shopping dollars.
- Developing a nutrition feeding plan for premature infant in the ICU.

My job which I love is XXX

I am proud to share that the Academy remains strongly connected to our origins: committed to helping solve the greatest food and nutrition challenges of the day through the transformational power of nutrition.

Please support the resolution in Congress and let me know if you would like to visit any of my colleagues to see them in action!

I have attached our two issue briefs related to food insecurity and nutrition services for active duty & veterans; I love the theme of Dietitians in National Security! Also, below is a blog post that we did in Stone Soup for Veterans Day, along with an explanatory paragraph. Please let me know how else I can be of assistance, and thank you for highlighting this issue!

In honor of Veterans Day, we wanted to share an article posted in the Food and Nutrition Stone Soup blog. It shows the reality of food insecurity among our active duty military and veterans and highlights how Academy members are on the front lines to improve nutrition assistance.

We will continue to work with our Congressional champions to address this issue in the 115th Congress.

Here is a good snapshot of the issue. In case you get asked we did not take an official stance/position on the legislation.

But we did support the Senate Ag Work on this. Jacqlyn and Julian tried to at least make a reasonable effort on this. The bill passed and is law.

Tom, thanks for staying on top of the president's page deadlines. I was thinking since it this will be the July issue, and I always think of the 4th of July, we could do something on the role of Dietitians in National Security. I thought we could interview someone in the armed services serving overseas, someone working in School Nutrition helping keep our children stay fit so they could serve in the armed services (this has become a hot issue with the armed services and recruitment) and we could talk with a RDN working with returning vets and their recovery (evidently a lot of them are on feeding tubes).

Mary Pat and Jenn said they know some people working in these areas they could help with and also might have some information they could share for the narrative part.

How does this sound as a beginning and do you have any further ideas that could work with this theme?

Subject: Re: Discussion for July President's Page

Tom, thanks for staying on top of the president's page deadlines. I was thinking since it this will be the July issue, and I always think of the 4th of July, we could do something on the role of Dietitians in National Security. I thought we could interview someone in the armed services serving overseas, someone working in School Nutrition helping keep our children stay fit so they could serve in the armed services (this has become a hot issue with the armed services and recruitment) and we could talk with a RDN working with returning vets and their recovery (evidently a lot of them are on feeding tubes).

Mary Pat and Jenn said they know some people working in these areas they could help with and also might have some information they could share for the narrative part.

How does this sound as a beginning and do you have any further ideas that could work with this theme?

Hi, Donna: In preparation for your July Journal President's Page, would you have time in the next few days to talk briefly about the topic you'd like to cover, and any members we can spotlight in the page? I won't be at the Nutrition News Forecast but will be available to talk by phone at any time that is good for you. Or if you would like to email your thoughts, of course that would be great, too. Can you please let us know? Thank you very much, have a great time in Denver and we'll talk to you soon!

Action Alert Update

We need your immediate assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. Here is what you can do:

1. Take the action alert and encourage all affiliate, DPG and MIG leaders and public policy team members to do the same.
2. Send an eblast message to your affiliate, DPG or MIG membership asking them to send letters to their Senators and Representatives and post the message to your electronic mailing list. The follow approved message should be used:

Dear Colleague,

We need your help to build more support in Congress for the congressional resolution celebrating the Academy's Centennial! The resolution was introduced on March 1, in both the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives.

Please ask your members of Congress to sign on and recognize the Academy and our profession. Each of the resolution's original sponsors is from Ohio, where our Academy was founded in 1917. Good morning!

I know we are hoping for the former First Lady to speak at FNCE.

Dr. Jim Gavin remains the Partnership for Healthier America BOD chair and very close to the First Lady. She will be attending the PHA conference next month. He also remains very supportive of our work and shares that with many others.

I wonder if a reach-out to Jim might help our request?

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts are posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The reports are located in the April 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 April subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

Subject: RE: Query from Irish NUtrition and Dietetic Institute on American Dietetic Association Partnerships

As the Academy develops its strategic plan for the Second Century, partnerships and collaborations are central to advancing our new mission and vision.

New Vision

A world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition

New Mission

Accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition

The Academy's current collaborations with organizations through the alliance program and with industry through the sponsorship program help the Academy and its collaborators fulfill their specific missions in the following ways:

- Delivering messages to a wider consumer audience than the Academy and collaborators could reach using their own resources
- Providing educational tools and materials to Academy members and stakeholders that are useful in their professional work with the public
- Creating consumer nutrition education messages and communications programs to make them consistent with sound science.

In terms of criteria, from the Academy's perspective, the collaboration should allow for combining skills and assets while contributing social value. Due diligence, structured frameworks, disclosures, adherence to codes of ethics, conflicts of interest policies, and operating with transparency are needed as safeguards. While these accountability mechanisms seem obvious, both the challenge and success is in upfront strategic thinking, assessing fit, and planning to avoid unanticipated or unintended consequences. Accountability mechanisms assist nonprofits in ensuring both service delivery and alignment with social value missions needed to maintain integrity and public trust. Factors that should discourage collaboration include opposing missions and organizational cultures.

In its relations with corporate organizations, the Academy is mindful of the need to avoid a perception of conflict of interest and to act at all times in ways that will only enhance the credibility and professional recognition of the Academy and its members. Collaborations positively enhance partners' brands, recognition, and reputation, provided both partners maintain integrity.

Due diligence and disclosure are key components of the collaboration. The Academy's procedures and formal agreements with external organizations are designed to prevent any undue influence particularly where there is a possibility that self-interest might tend to conflict with sound science or Academy positions, policies and philosophies. Here is a link to the Academy Guidelines for Corporate Sponsors <http://www.eatrightpro.org/resource/about-us/advertising-and-sponsorship/about-sponsorship/academy-guidelines-for-corporate-relations-sponsors>, which provide examples of criteria when considering a suitable partner.

The Academy also adheres to the following principles in its relationships with sponsors:

<http://www.eatrightpro.org/resource/about-us/advertising-and-sponsorship/about-sponsorship/guiding-principles-of-the-academys-corporate-sponsorship-program>

The Academy's Scientific Integrity Principles ensure the high quality and objectivity of scientific activities conducted at or funded by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Foundation http://www.andjrnl.org/article/S2212-2672\(15\)01081-3/fulltext01081-3/fulltext). Transparency helps the collaboration ensure that public-interests are met rather than self-interest.

I hope this helps. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Pat

Dear Professor Dwyer ,

My dietetic colleague, Dr Clare Corish has shared your contact details as she felt you may be in a position to share some information on the American Dietetic Association experience of partnership.

The Irish Nutrition and Dietetic Institute, the professional body for Irish Dietitians, is looking to develop a strategic engagement plan with an old estate house (Airfield Estate) which among many other things is an urban working farm, has a restaurant, recreational areas, promotes growing your own food, eating healthy food, education on animals, gardens etc. See www.airfield.ie.

I am a member of a team tasked with developing a specific engagement strategy and work plan for activities to partner with Airfield Estate. This strategy is to work towards our goal of improving the health of the nation, while simultaneously enhancing the value and visibility of Dietitians in Ireland.

My reason for contacting you is to enquire whether or not the American Dietetic Association have ever engaged in any formal stakeholder strategy partnership with a similar organisation?

If so, for what purpose?

Who with?

What level of stakeholder engagement have you achieved?

What considerations did you make before considering them as a suitable partner?

How did you undertake the engagement process?

What are the benefits of the partnership to the American Dietetic Association, and what value does your association offer to the stakeholder?

I appreciate you taking the time to read this mail and any information you can supply will be greatly appreciated.

Many thanks

Georgia ag commissioner: Aggies should be 'booster club' for school nutrition

The agriculture community throughout the country should become boosters for school nutrition, Georgia Agriculture Commissioner Gary Black told the Local Foods Impact Conference at George Washington University today.

Noting that there are booster clubs for school bands and sports teams, Black asked “Who is the booster club for school nutrition? It is my personal quest for the agriculture community to rise up across the country and be the booster club for school nutrition.”

As Georgia agriculture secretary, Black has promoted a program called “Georgia Grown” that existed when he took office. It includes “Feed My School,” which encourages the use of foods grown in Georgia and even within the individual counties of the state.

But Black told the conference, which gathered local food production advocates from 34 states and 10 more online, not to limit their definition of local production to only small farmers.

Gary Black

“If we want to make a difference, don’t discriminate,” Black said, noting that he is proud when the label “Georgia Grown” is on bales of cotton that are exported, and is even encouraging utilities to put “Georgia Grown” on utility poles made from trees grown in his state.

The word “Georgia” is the feminine form of George, but its origins go back to a Greek word meaning farmer, he said. Black wants Georgia Grown to be the No. 1 state brand in America and also to be known all over the world.

Georgia Grown, he said, is designed like a commodity checkoff, and everyone from fruit and vegetable growers to cotton farmers to foresters “invest in a license” and get information on how create “brand impressions” for the term.

When he took office in 2011, Black said he could see that, with the development of local food and farmers markets, “there has never been a time people have been more excited about farms. I am sure that the local nature of this is not a fad, it is not going to come and go. This is a new paradigm.”

But in what appeared to be a reference to large-scale conventional farming, he added that people “get confused about farming. It is a big portfolio.”

In an interview afterward, Black said what people mean by “local” gets into “terminology.”

Even though his state is known for large-scale cotton, peanut and peach production, Black said that products grown by small farmers in hoop houses are just as popular in Georgia as they are in Massachusetts, which does not have large-scale conventional food production.

“Agriculture is a reality atmosphere that people are discovering,” Black said, explaining his view that people spend so much time on their smartphones they like to put them down and buy tomatoes from the farmers who produced them.

Conventional agriculture is the largest segment and has the advantage of being able to feed large numbers of people, he said, while organics, gluten-free and other smaller production are a part of the “portfolio” that his agency tries to make profitable.

Too often the niche markets are viewed as “a social issue,” he said, but noted his agency views them as an economic issue.

Black described federal agencies as “our partners,” and said the Georgia Agriculture Department has gotten $5.7 million in specialty block grants and value-added grants in the last few years to create jobs and expand processing facilities.

“Every time we make an investment in a local community, it is in a community that needs it,” Black said.

The Georgia Department of Agriculture can do three things, Black said: regulate business, put people out of business or help people pursue their dreams.

Black said he has to sign orders every week penalizing people who do not follow Georgia regulations but “our objective ought to be to help people stay in business rather than what people blame government for — putting people out of business.”

Black said he certifies organic growers and takes growers to New York each year to a James Beard conference to connect them with brokers in the Northeast.

But Black sounded the most proud of the Feed My School effort, which has included programs to try to serve as much locally food grown as possible for a week, and by the the start of the 2020 school year, will require that at least 20 percent of the required menu for student meals will comprise “Georgia Grown” products.

Black, who interned for Sen. Herman Talmadge. D-Ga., said he came into office just as former governor Sonny Perdue, a Republican, was leaving, and therefore he could not really speak to how the nominee for Agriculture secretary views the programs he has been implementing in the last few years.

But Black said he has known Perdue for years, is “very excited” about Perdue becoming secretary, and is sure he would be open to a message about healthy, locally produced school food.

Hi Donna and Lucille,

We are beginning to put together the teams for the advocacy day. I wanted to ask if you both feel comfortable leading a team? We may not need you to do so, but wanted to gauge your interest before we start assigning folks and making appointments. It is completely fine if you would prefer not to do this, we can make it work either way!

We are really grateful to have you both attending!

April 2017 Chair Monthly Message

from Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation Chair
 Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

How Our Next Generation Can Get Involved!

I recently had the opportunity to attend the Illinois Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Annual Meeting as a member and I was so proud of the great turn out we had, how active we are as members and how passionate we are about our profession. Many of my colleagues on the Academy and Foundation boards have also been attending their affiliate annual meetings and even sharing our Second Century and Foundation messages when given the opportunity. What has impressed us the most is the number of students, interns and young professionals that are attending, who are as equally passionate about our profession, excited about their future and looking for ways to forge a career and make a difference in their own unique way.

That is a big part of what our Second Century initiative is all about, how the next generation of registered dietitian nutritionists will make an impact and how will we, as an Academy, and individually, accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition. Our Academy Foundation has been helping this happen over the last fifty years, and looks forward to continuing to evolve through our Second Century, providing opportunities and resources for members, students, interns and young professionals to take charge of their career, get involved in their community and also give back by making a difference in their own unique and creative way.

- Our Foundation is the largest world-wide provider of dietetic scholarships and offer opportunities at all levels of education. Our scholarship application is open until April 17 and I encourage anyone who is eligible to apply or pass this message along to others who would be interested.
- Our Foundation's public education programs, Kids Eat Right and Future of Food, have so many free resources at your disposal to help deliver these programs in your communities and establish yourself as an expert in helping people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition. Our Everyday Heroes can show you how they have utilized these programs and resources in their communities to help get you started.
- If you are a student and would like to make a difference and impact in your chosen profession, consider holding a special event fund raiser on your campus like Keshia Okorie and get highlighted on the Foundation website, or young professionals can get creative and start a GoFundMe page on the Foundation's behalf and utilize your social media network to help spread the word about what you are passionate about and why.

Our Foundation works on behalf of all members, including students, interns and young professionals, get involved and utilize our resources, and don't forget generous donors make all of this possible! As our Affiliates convene through their annual meetings over the course of the next several months, I would like to thank all the volunteer state Fundraising Champions at the affiliate level who are holding special events during their meetings to benefit our Foundation. The IL

Affiliate held their annual gift basket drawing that raised close to $1,000 to benefit our Foundation. In fact, the PA volunteer Fundraising Champion, Jessica Bachman, PhD, MPH, MS, RD is a previous Foundation scholarship recipient and is compelled to give back by volunteering, just recently utilizing a creative t-shirt website to sell shirts and raise money on the Foundation's behalf , great job Jessica!

Let's all have a great Spring and get involved with our local affiliates, the energy, enthusiasm and passion you will experience at your local level will remind you why you chose this great profession of ours!

Warm Regards,

Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

Good Morning!

We are looking forward to the BOD Webinar today and have two additional documents to include in the meeting materials.

First, we received a request to provide an update on the Therapeutic Diet Order Regulation change. A one-page summary of the progress is attached for your review. The information will also be discussed on today's call.

Second, comments that were submitted to the Federal Trade Commission by the International Association for Health Coaches that specifically address dietetic licensure are also attached. This document helps frame the rationale for the development of a stance related to MNT and Health Coaches.

Please let me know if you have any questions, we will make sure we address those in the presentation in addition to any that we get during the meeting itself.

I also agree with Donna's suggestion regarding activities/initiatives for Second Century.

The letters look fine to me, but also agree that we should remove the old mission.

I like your commitment to the Academy will help lead us into our Second Century OR your commitment to the Academy supports our goal of transforming the next century of dietetics practitioners and positioning the Academy as the food and nutrition leaders on a global scale (or alternatively in the world)

Good morning,

In preparation for sending out letters next month to everyone who will be serving on an Academy committee next program year, I've updated the letters used in the past. Attached are drafts of the 3 letters for your review:

1. Committee chair
2. Committee vice chair
3. Committee member

Based on the specific committee we will adjust the term of office, so don't worry about that part. What I'd like you to do is review and let me know if you'd like to make any changes to any of the letters. You'll see that they all currently reference our previous mission about empowering members to be leaders. I expect you'll want to change that part, although I'm not sure the new mission fits the purpose of the letter quite as well:

Accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition

Here are some options for rewording that sentence for your consideration:

- a. Your commitment to the Academy will help lead us into our Second Century!
- b. Your commitment to the Academy will help us fulfill our new mission to accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition.
- c. Your commitment to the Academy will help us create world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.
- d. Your commitment to the Academy supports our goal of transforming the next century of dietetics practitioners and positioning the Academy as the food and nutrition leaders on a global scale.

I look forward to receiving your feedback on the letters by April 7.

Thank you for the important work you are doing to create successful committees.

Now in its fifth year, National Preceptor Month is a chance to recognize, thank and join practitioners, who dedicate their time and talents to teach the next generation of dietetics professionals. Preceptors make a lasting impression on the profession by helping students fulfill their dreams of being registered dietitian nutritionists and providing them a rewarding experience. Being a preceptor is not only rewarding for students dietitians also benefit from the energy and enthusiasm these future dietetics professionals bring to the workplace.

In celebration of the Academys Centennial, our hope is to recruit 100 more preceptors than last year. Helps us meet our goal!

I second Donna's praise declaration to you Marsha. We are nearly finished, and as you said, earlier than usual!! I am only waiting back for the two new interoperability and standards committee acceptances and Margaret Garner's acceptance to the Quality Management committee. (If she for some odd reason declines, I have two back up suggestions for replacement.) Everyone else is on board! By the way, Moira accepted the Member services committee within 5 minutes of my email!

Hi,

I have what I believe is the last piece of information you need regarding committee appointments. For the ISC, I have confirmed that we will move forward with increasing the size of the committee to include the past-chair as well as 1 new member. So Dianne can add to her list contacting the following individuals:

Donna Quirk

current Chair who will be asked to extend her term by 1 year to serve as past-chair on the committee

Phone: (803)791-2248 (office)

Email: dlquirk@lexhealth.org

Sue Kent

Sue was identified as your back-up person for this committee

Phone: (216)444-3644 (office)

Email: KENTS@ccf.org

Please let me know what else you need from me. We're entering the home stretch!

Hi Mary,

All good questions and important concerns. The affiliates are independent legal entities but frankly often more aligned to Academy processes than DPGs. I'll ask Diane Enos to update me on Monday morning on what kind of resources we provide to the affiliates in planning meetings. I'll place this topic on the 4Ps agenda for Monday.

Safe travels home!

Jennifer called and we had an excellent discussion. Updated Connie.

Later in the program an anti GMO guy spoke-very associational talk often w/o references, and with lots of sensationalized animal data-- and at the end he touted his books and video/upcoming movie in blatant violation of the speaker agreement I signed which assume is the same for all speakers.

The organizers were apparently pressured to include this "anti" topic by someone on the MOAND planning committee (Connie knows her name) who was not even present. Apparently the committee tried to find a different anti GMO speaker w/o success.

There was a speaker in support of GMO later on the program who was in his session and was very upset.

Can someone please help me better understand the CE approval process for controversial, limited evidence sessions at state meetings?

And also to understand what should happen when a speaker may be violating his contract? (I do remember that affiliates don't have the same relationship as DPGs/MIGs with the Academy so maybe not an Academy concern?)

Not the organizer's "fault" when people present sketchy evidence but really leaves folks (and me) wondering.

Have a very good rest of the weekend-look forward to the call late Monday pm!

Dear Program Directors,

Hooray! It's once again time to celebrate National Preceptor Month!

National Preceptor Month is an occasion to recognize and thank the practitioners who take the time and make the effort to create the next generation of professionals by teaching students in their workplace. In order to help recognize the importance of preceptors and to take part in the festivities of National Preceptor Month, we are asking everyone to show their appreciation for preceptors throughout the entire month!

We had some great stories and pictures of how some of you thanked your wonderful preceptors last year and we would love to continue the tradition and share more stories! We are asking program directors to send in pictures and/or stories of how you will be celebrating National Preceptor Month and we will post your stories on the Academy's Facebook page, on ACEND's Preceptor Website, in email blasts and even in Eat Right Weekly! We want to show off all you and your students are doing in April for your amazing preceptors! Send your stories and pictures to preceptor@eatright.org

Need some ideas for how you can thank your preceptors:

- Send a little note- just a few words to say 'thank you' goes a long way
- Thank your preceptor's boss for allowing her/him to be a preceptor
- Make a sign to hang on your preceptor's office door so everyone knows they are helping to create tomorrow's leaders
- Bring them a homemade present or healthy goodie
- Treat them to lunch or a coffee
- The best thank-you gift of all -- tell your preceptor that you're going to become one after you receive your RDN or DTR credential!

Make sure you present your preceptors with the 2017 Certificate of Appreciation which is posted in the ACEND Portal (<http://education.webauthor.com>) under Accreditation Forum, then click Library, then Other Information and Resources.

We are still actively recruiting preceptors in our Find-a-Preceptor Database! We have recruited many practitioners to be preceptors, but we always need more! Encourage those you know to register to be a preceptor! If you are in need of preceptors, make sure to use the database as a resource and check back often as there are new preceptors added often!

To learn more about the Find-a-Preceptor Database and National Preceptor Month visit www.eatright.org/preceptors

We are all very excited about the upcoming projects and events this year, so get involved today!

If you have any questions or for more information, please visit the Preceptor Page located at www.eatright.org/preceptors or contact preceptor@eatright.org

Hello, this is Rhys Saunders, the media relations manager for the Academy. I hope you've had a great week so far.

We have an exciting opportunity to participate in a media campaign about the benefits of breakfast for schoolchildren that will be featured in USA Today in late June. Mediaplanet, the company that is spearheading this project, has asked the Academy to write a 400-word article about the benefits of children eating breakfast and how not eating breakfast can affect academic performance. They're also looking for some tips on key components of a healthy breakfast.

Because of your expertise in this subject, would you be OK with having your name attached to the article as the author, representing the Academy? If so, we can draft the article and send it to you for review and approval. We would be glad to make any needed edits after you review it.

Hi,

I have what I believe is the last piece of information you need regarding committee appointments. For the ISC, I have confirmed that we will move forward with increasing the size of the committee to include the past-chair as well as 1 new member. So Dianne can add to her list contacting the following individuals:

Donna Quirk

current Chair who will be asked to extend her term by 1 year to serve as past-chair on the committee

Phone: (803)791-2248 (office)

Email: dlquirk@lexhealth.org

Sue Kent

Sue was identified as your back-up person for this committee

Phone: (216)444-3644 (office)

Email: KENTS@ccf.org

Please let me know what else you need from me. We're entering the home stretch!

Hi Donna

I wanted to get your thoughts on the following speaker as a possible option for Opening Session IF we don't get a commitment from Michelle. Tasha is incredibly profound with a strong command of the stage and her content is so applicable to some of the struggles we have been dealing with at the Academy/members and how to leverage expertise for the better good of the organization as we move into the second century.

She just presented at a meeting I am attending and she has to be one of the best speakers I have seen in years...and I am a pretty tough critic after all these years.

Let me know your thoughts.

Marsha, My only suggestion would be to say in the letters that their appointment starts June 1. I don't think everyone on these committees would know when the 2017-2018 year begins. Other than that I think it is a go. Keep in mind some of these appointments are for 1,2 or 3 years. Thanks!

Good morning,

In preparation for sending out letters next month to everyone who will be serving on an Academy committee next program year, I've updated the letters used in the past. Attached are drafts of the 3 letters for your review:

1. Committee chair
2. Committee vice chair
3. Committee member

Based on the specific committee we will adjust the term of office, so don't worry about that part. What I'd like you to do is review and let me know if you'd like to make any changes to any of the letters. You'll see that they all currently reference our previous mission about empowering members to be leaders. I expect you'll want to change that part, although I'm not sure the new mission fits the purpose of the letter quite as well:

Accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition

Here are some options for rewording that sentence for your consideration:

- a. Your commitment to the Academy will help lead us into our Second Century!
- b. Your commitment to the Academy will help us fulfill our new mission to accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition.
- c. Your commitment to the Academy will help us create world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.
- d. Your commitment to the Academy supports our goal of transforming the next century of dietetics practitioners and positioning the Academy as the food and nutrition leaders on a global scale.

I look forward to receiving your feedback on the letters by April 7.

Thank you for the important work you are doing to create successful committees.

Best,

Marsha

Marsha, My only suggestion for the letter would be in the last paragraph.

We say "More information will be shared with members on the Academy's Second Century in the coming months. Could we add something behind Century like activities or initiatives? It sounds awkward to just say Second Century. My thoughts, take it or leave it. Thanks for allowing us to review.

Good afternoon,

At Dianne's request, I went back to the committee staff partner for the Member Services Advisory Committee for input on the names tossed out by Dianne for consideration. Here is the input I received:

Based on the input that Jim provided as well as the member surveys, it looks as though Moira Faris most closely meets the criteria. She is a more experienced member, has practiced in many different areas of practice and would be an asset to MSAC.

Laura Gollins had previously worked with the Academy's membership committee at one time and Kathleen Benson is a newer professional. A number of the returning committee members are newer professionals and it would be good to have a member with more practical experience to help provide a balanced perspective.

Feel free to use this information as you wish in making your decision. If you need contact information for anyone, just let me know.

Paula Macris turned down our offer to serve on the Member Services Advisory Committee. She was elected to serve on the executive board of her DPG and does not want to over commit. All the other folks on that committee accepted. I did not have an alternate listed.

Other names that I scored highly included: Laura Gollins, Kathleen Benson and Barb Pyper (but staff wasn't overly supportive of Barb). I just noticed Moira Faris also applied for this committee and we ended up taking her off the diversity. What are your thoughts?

Paula's note:

Hi Dianne,

After much thought, I've decided to decline the appointment to the Member Services Advisory Committee. As I shared, I have been elected to serve as treasurer of the ON DPG and want to be sure I have adequate time to fully serve the practice group.

We will reach out to her. We were contacted recently to get our members involved in their telehealth network. They have a partnership with ACG and their 13,000 members, who will be using the Gastro Girl platform to refer patients to RDNs. They promote 30-minute counselling sessions with an RDN for $49.95. We are asking Marsha Schofield to setup a call with other individuals who know about the telehealth guidelines.

Jacqueline Gaulin is a certified health coach and was previously the Director of Communications and Digital Engagement for the American College of Gastroenterology. We have dialogue going with ACG already.

Donna,

As the Founder of Gastro Girl, I'm pleased to share that we are the official patient education partner of the American College of Gastroenterology (ACG). It's on the basis of that partnership, and the roughly 26 million patients with digestive symptoms, conditions, and diseases represented by ACG's 13,500 gastroenterologists, that I wanted to reach out to you. We have identified a potential strategic partnership opportunity with A.N.D. that would have significant impact on your members' ability to gain access to new clients. To this point, I would like to schedule a discussion with you to provide you with more details. It would prove to be a powerful catalyst for RDs to maintain their membership in A.N.D.

Is there a specific day and time next week that works best for you for a brief initial call?

Thank you in advance.

Subject: Board Webinar: April 4

Attached are the agenda and attachments for the Board Webinar scheduled for Tuesday, April 4 at 12:00pm ET/ 11:00am CT/ 10:00am MT/ 9:00am PT.

In response to your evaluations we realize time constraints may not allow for discussion of additional items not on the agenda. Lucille has allotted time at the end of the April 4 webinar for open discussion. Please submit topics for consideration by March 31 to Dante Turner dturner@eatright.org. We plan to have open dialogue on four-five topics submitted.

As a confirmed participant, the following information should be used to connect to both the Audio and Web components of the meeting.

Step 1: Connect to Web

- Join WebEx meeting (or online at <https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/j.php?MTID=m1a67c7e2ce540e0d7f89b8e3c9ff7519>)
- Enter your Name and Email when prompted; Click Join
- Enter meeting password BOD17April when prompted

Step 2: Connect to Audio

- The phone bridge connection will come up on your computer screen once logged into the web portion of the event. Please follow the three steps show on your screen to (1) dial in, (2) enter conference code, and (3) once connected, enter your unique attendee ID from your audio connection box in WebEx to sync your phone and computer
- If you do not show this pop up screen on your computer, alternative phone bridge information follows:

Conference Code: 47 06 63 11 73#

To add this meeting to your calendar program (for example Microsoft Outlook), please click the following:

Add to Calendar

When it's time, join the meeting.

To check whether you have the appropriate players installed for UCF (Universal Communications Format) rich media files, go to <https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/systemdiagnosis.php>.

Alternative Connection Option:

1. Go to <https://eatright.webex.com/eatright> Under Meeting Center tab (upper left), browse meetings to find the Board of Directors Webinar meeting listed.
2. Select Join on the far right
3. It will have you enter your name, email and the event password. This password is case sensitive so you would enter BOD17April

4. Follow the prompts to connect to the Audio on the screen (or via Step 2 above) and it will pull you into the event.

NEW! - Mobile Device Users:

You are welcome to connect via the free iTunes App Store or Google Play Store Cisco WebEx App. Be sure to download and install the free app. To connect, simply open the app and join the event via Meeting Number by entering the following:

2098. Committee Appointment Letters - Response needed by April 7

Template Ltr Vice Chair Appts - 2017 - 032817.docx

Good morning,

In preparation for sending out letters next month to everyone who will be serving on an Academy committee next program year, I've updated the letters used in the past. Attached are drafts of the 3 letters for your review:

1. Committee chair
2. Committee vice chair
3. Committee member

Based on the specific committee we will adjust the term of office, so don't worry about that part. What I'd like you to do is review and let me know if you'd like to make any changes to any of the letters. You'll see that they all currently reference our previous mission about empowering members to be leaders. I expect you'll want to change that part, although I'm not sure the new mission fits the purpose of the letter quite as well:

Accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition

Here are some options for rewording that sentence for your consideration:

- a. Your commitment to the Academy will help lead us into our Second Century!
- b. Your commitment to the Academy will help us fulfill our new mission to accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition.

c. Your commitment to the Academy will help us create world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.

d. Your commitment to the Academy supports our goal of transforming the next century of dietetics practitioners and positioning the Academy as the food and nutrition leaders on a global scale.

I look forward to receiving your feedback on the letters by April 7.

Thank you for the important work you are doing to create successful committees.

Best,

Marsha

Think Outside the Meat and Potatoes Box With Lamb!

Plus, if you submit feedback + pics by April 7, you'll be entered to win an incredible Mauviel 7-piece copper & stainless steel cookware set valued at $1,275!

Lamb hits all the high notes of a nourishing meal: a delicious, good-for-you protein that conveniently offers exciting meal possibilities.

Gather your loved ones at the table for a nourishing, wholesome meal featuring flavorful lamb with these few cooking tips.

In a hurry?

- Choose lamb chops, de-boned leg of lamb, kabobs, or ground lamb cuts which can be grilled in minutes!
- Quick-cooking lamb loin and rib chops are also the perfect small portion of meat around 3 ounces of satisfying protein and rich flavor! A 3-ounce portion of lamb provides half your daily protein needs and 40% of the fat in lean lamb is heart healthy monounsaturated fat.

Enhance the flavor.

- Sauces and dips like tahini, tzatziki, chutneys, and pomegranate dressing make lamb even more enticing for first-timers.
- Aromatics are lambs' best friend. Onions, garlic, spices, and lemon juice enhance the natural sweet flavor in lamb.
- Marinades make lamb even more succulent and quick to cook.

Feeling intimidated? Dont!

- Lamb is easy to prepare and incredibly versatile it's just as simple as cooking beef, chicken, or pork.
- Choose high heat and short cooking times for kabobs, chops, leg steaks.
- Choose "slow and low" cooking methods (such as braising, stewing, or slow cooking) for roasts and shanks.

For lamb cooking tips, recipes, and nutrition info visit www.nourishwithlamb.com.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

House Cancels Vote on ACA Replacement Bill

Speaker of the House Paul Ryan and President Trump pulled the American Health Care Act from consideration by the House on March 24, effectively killing the bill. Ryan said for the foreseeable future the Affordable Care Act will remain law and the House will move to other priorities. The Academy opposed the AHCA and joined in advocacy efforts with partners across the health spectrum to voice concerns with the bill's impact on prevention and access to nutrition services. The Academy will continue to work with both parties in Congress to enact evidence-based solutions to improve health care and ensure nutrition services are included in comprehensive care. Hi,

Well good for her but too bad for us. But I'm glad she gave it serious consideration and is being mindful of her overall commitments. As you think about potential alternates, please let me know if you want me to go back to the committee staff partner to run any of these names past them. It's not a required step, but can be done if desired.

Thanks,

Paula Macris turned down our offer to serve on the Member Services Advisory Committee. She was elected to serve on the executive board of her DPG and does not want to over commit. All the other folks on that committee accepted. I did not have an alternate listed.

Other names that I scored highly included: Laura Gollins, Kathleen Benson and Barb Pyper (but staff wasn't overly supportive of Barb). I just noticed Moira Faris also applied for this committee and we ended up taking her off the diversity. What are your thoughts?

Paula's note:

Hi Dianne,

After much thought, I've decided to decline the appointment to the Member Services Advisory Committee. As I shared, I have been elected to serve as treasurer of the ON DPG and want to be sure I have adequate time to fully serve the practice group.

Thank you,

Paula

PENNSYLVANIA AFFILIATE HOLDS A FUNDRAISER FOR THE ACADEMY FOUNDATION AND JESSICA BACHMAN VOLUNTEERS TO GIVE BACK!

The Pennsylvania Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (PAND) and Jessica Bachman, PhD, MPH, MS, RD, the Academy Foundation's volunteer Fundraising Champion for PA, recently held a very creative T-Shirt Fundraiser through the online resource Ink to the People, a website that allows you to design your own t-shirts and sell them to raise funds that benefit a charity. Donors could choose one of four t-shirts with the PAND logo and the effort sold 55 t-shirts, raising $355.60 on behalf of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation. Donors who participated in the event are encouraged to wear their t-shirts at the PAND Annual Meeting & Exhibition from April 21st – 23rd for the group picture.

Bachman is an Assistant Professor at the University of Scranton in the Department of Exercise Science and was a previous Foundation Award Recipient, "I enjoy being a fundraising champion for the Foundation because receiving an award from the Foundation when I was a student was an empowering moment for me. It not only was very helpful financially but, it confirmed that I was following the right career path and it was encouraging that I was being recognized for my hard work and dedication to my studies. I want to ensure that as many students as possible can continue to have the same wonderful experience that I had thanks to the Foundation."

The Academy Foundation does not receive a portion of any member dues and relies on donations to thrive. Affiliate Fundraising Champions, like Jess, who have a passion for giving back to their chosen profession and an appreciation of the great work the Foundation does as the only charitable organization devoted exclusively to nutrition and dietetics are critical to our success. The Academy Foundation would like to thank Jess, and all PAND donors for participating!

FYI – we are also moving forward with the contract for Second City for all three keynotes to help bridge messaging with custom scenes, so Doris and I are already in discussions about how to really tie it all together for a grand impact with attendees.

There was not a dry eye as this young girl told her story. And how wonderful to realize it was school lunch that changed her life. Access to these meals led by our school nutrition leaders.

I love this idea!

FYI – we are also moving forward with the contract for Second City for all three keynotes to help bridge messaging with custom scenes, so Doris and I are already in discussions about how to really tie it all together for a grand impact with attendees.

I will defer to Doris (when she comes back from a well deserved vacation) as to how she would like to move forward with next steps.

There was not a dry eye as this young girl told her story. And how wonderful to realize it was school lunch that changed her life. Access to these meals led by our school nutrition leaders.

She also shared later that her dream is to finish high school, go to Notre Dame and study nutrition. And be a nutrition professional and change lives.

She is a eloquent and engaging speaker.

American Health Care Act

On March 24, Speaker of the House Paul Ryan and President Trump pulled the American Health Care Act (AHCA) from consideration by the House. Speaker Ryan stated that for the foreseeable future the Affordable Care Act will remain the law of the land, and the House will move to other priorities. The Academy will continue to work with Congress on evidence-based solutions to improve health care and ensure nutrition services are included in comprehensive care. The action alert was closed on March 24. Action alert reports were posted to the Public Policy Communities of Interest on Friday, March 24.

Public Policy Workshop – PPC and PAL Updates

As of today, 47 affiliates have submitted the name of the Public Policy Coordinator (PPC) who will be serving in the role beginning June 1, 2017. One of the most important responsibilities of the PPC or alternate PPC is to coordinate the team activities at PPW. The affiliate's PPC for 2017 - 2018 will receive a complimentary registration to PPW 2017. As of today, 22 DPGs and 4 MIGs have submitted the name of the Policy and Advocacy Leader (PAL) who will be serving in the role beginning June 1, 2017. Each DPG and MIG PAL whose term begins on June 1, 2017 will receive a complimentary registration to 2017.

Please contact me if questions.

Action Alert Update

We need your immediate assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. Here is what you can do:

1. Take the action alert and encourage all affiliate, DPG and MIG leaders and public policy team members to do the same.
2. Send an eblast message to your affiliate, DPG or MIG membership on Wednesday, March 15 asking them to send letters to their Senators and Representatives and post the message to your electronic mailing list. The follow approved message should be used:

Dear Colleague,

We need your help to build more support in Congress for the congressional resolution celebrating the Academy's Centennial! The resolution was introduced on March 1, in both the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives.

Please ask your members of Congress to sign on and recognize the Academy and our profession. Each of the resolution's original sponsors is from Ohio, where our Academy was founded in 1917. The Senate sponsors are Sherrod Brown and Rob Portman, and the House sponsors are Marcia Fudge and Pat Tiberi.

Special Note for Ohio: Instead of asking these members of Congress to co-sponsor, please edit the action alert message to thanking them for their support!

Click here to take action. The Academy is counting on you to send a letter today!

Your RDN friend,

Insert your affiliate or DPG name

Special Note: The Academy's action alert center has a new look. The browser is a very important component to the optimal functioning of the action center. Currently, the vendor indicates that the following browsers optimize the performance of the action center: Internet Explorer 9.0+, Firefox 5.0+, and Chrome 17.0+.

1. Please encourage all board members, committee members, colleagues and friends to complete the action alert. Thank you for activating your membership.

Here is a chart identifying the action alert statistics as of today:

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts were posted in the Public Policy Panel COI last Friday. The reports are located in the March 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 March subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

April Public Policy Forum

Join the open forum to hear about the "Changing the Rules: Impacting Regulations through the Public Comment Process" The April Public Policy Forum will be held on Tuesday, April 18, 2017 from 2 – 3 p.m. (Eastern Time).

Register today for the April Public Policy Open Forum. All DPG, MIG and Public Policy Panel leaders should attend (please make sure at least one person from your DPG or affiliate participates).

March Public Policy Forum Recording Available

The Public Policy Open Forum for March, "Success Stories for Increasing Member Engagement" was recorded. The recording is available in the library topic Public Policy Forums, subtopic 2017 public policy forums on the public policy communities of interest. If you were not available to listen to the live event, we recommend that all affiliate, DPG and MIG policy leaders listen to the recording.

Attend the Academy's Third Advocacy Day on May 1, 2017

The Academy and invited partners will host its third quarterly advocacy day on Monday, May 1 in Washington, D.C. The event will focus on advocacy on nutrition and prevention in health care. The event will include Hill visits and an ANDPAC hosted reception focused on obesity. Prior to the event, a webinar (live and recorded), will be offered to prepare you to advocate for this important topic on the Hill.

Tentative Schedule:

- 9:30 to 10 a.m. Required pre-meeting Capitol Hill
- 10:30 a. m. – 12 p.m. Hill Visits
- 12 – 1 p.m. Lunch (on your own)
- 1 – 3:30 p.m. Hill Visits

Public Policy Workshop – PPC and PAL Updates

As of today, 47 affiliates have submitted the name of the Public Policy Coordinator (PPC) who will be serving in the role beginning June 1, 2017. One of the most important responsibilities of the PPC or alternate PPC is to coordinate the team activities at PPW. The affiliate's PPC for 2017 - 2018 will receive a complimentary registration to PPW 2017. As of today, 22 DPGs and 4 MIGs have submitted the name of the Policy and Advocacy Leader (PAL) who will be serving in the role beginning June 1, 2017. Each DPG and MIG PAL whose term begins on June 1, 2017 will receive a complimentary registration to 2017.

Please contact me if questions.

Action Alert Update

We need your immediate assistance to increase member action alert participation for the Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. The action alerts for the Resolution Recognizing the Academy's 100th Anniversary and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 will remain open. Here is what you can do:

1. Take the action alert and encourage all affiliate, DPG and MIG leaders and public policy team members to do the same.
2. Send an eblast message to your affiliate, DPG or MIG membership on Wednesday, March 15 asking them to send letters to their Senators and Representatives and post the message to your electronic mailing list. The follow approved message should be used:

Dear Colleague,

We need your help to build more support in Congress for the congressional resolution celebrating the Academy's Centennial! The resolution was introduced on March 1, in both the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives.

Please ask your members of Congress to sign on and recognize the Academy and our profession. Each of the resolution's original sponsors is from Ohio, where our Academy was founded in 1917. The Senate sponsors are Sherrod Brown and Rob Portman, and the House sponsors are Marcia Fudge and Pat Tiberi.

Special Note for Ohio: Instead of asking these members of Congress to co-sponsor, please edit the action alert message to thanking them for their support!

Click here to take action. The Academy is counting on you to send a letter today!

Your RDN friend,

Insert your name and title

Insert your affiliate or DPG name

Special Note: The Academy's action alert center has a new look. The browser is a very important component to the optimal functioning of the action center. Currently, the vendor indicates that the following browsers optimize the performance of the action center: Internet Explorer 9.0+, Firefox 5.0+, and Chrome 17.0+.

1. Please encourage all board members, committee members, colleagues and friends to complete the action alert. Thank you for activating your membership.

Here is a chart identifying the action alert statistics as of today:

Action Alert Title

Number of Members Participating

Percentage Participation

Number of Legislators Contacted

Number of Letters Sent

The reports listing the number of Academy members who have responded to the action alerts were posted in the Public Policy Panel COI last Friday. The reports are located in the March 2017 subtopic located in the Participation topic on the community of interest.

The Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) will find participation report listing the names of members posted in the 2017 March subtopic located in the participation topic folder of the Public Policy Coordinator COI. We will continue to provide this type of information for affiliate presidents and PPCs to use, but ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress.

April Public Policy Forum

Join the open forum to hear about the "Changing the Rules: Impacting Regulations through the Public Comment Process" The April Public Policy Forum will be held on Tuesday, April 18, 2017 from 2 – 3 p.m. (Eastern Time).

Register today for the April Public Policy Open Forum. All DPG, MIG and Public Policy Panel leaders should attend (please make sure at least one person from your DPG or affiliate participates).

March Public Policy Forum Recording Available

The Public Policy Open Forum for March, "Success Stories for Increasing Member Engagement" was recorded. The recording is available in the library topic Public Policy Forums, subtopic 2017 public policy forums on the public policy communities of interest. If you were not available to listen to the live event, we recommend that all affiliate, DPG and MIG policy leaders listen to the recording.

Attend the Academy's Third Advocacy Day on May 1, 2017

The Academy and invited partners will host its third quarterly advocacy day on Monday, May 1 in Washington, D.C. The event will focus on advocacy on nutrition and prevention in health care. The event will include Hill visits and an ANDPAC hosted reception focused on obesity. Prior to the event, a webinar (live and recorded), will be offered to prepare you to advocate for this important topic on the Hill.

Tentative Schedule:

- 9:30 to 10 a.m. Required pre-meeting Capitol Hill
- 10:30 a. m. – 12 p.m. Hill Visits
- 12 – 1 p.m. Lunch (on your own)
- 1 – 3:30 p.m. Hill Visits
- 3:30 – 5 p.m. Reception with Congressional Champions

The event is open to all Academy members and there is no charge to participate. Registration will close on April 17, please make your plans to attend now.

Register to attend the May 1 Advocacy event today or contact the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team for more information.

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for the update. What a wide range of experiences making phone calls! In terms of that person for the Committee for Lifelong Learning, let me know if we need to check contact information to make sure you have the correct phone number/email. Alison Steiber and I are playing phone tag about the Interoperability & Standards Committee but I hope to have an answer for you this week about whether or not to appoint the extra folks.

Thanks again,

Subject: UPDATE on Committee Appointments

I have five still remaining to confirm. One has to get final permission from her supervisor and does not think it will be a problem. Another was elected as a DPG delegate and may not have time. I gave everyone until Thursday to get back with me.

One lady yelled at me for calling at 8:50 p.m. Thursday night. It was 7:50 my time and she was really nasty. I did not even say who I was or why I was calling; she hung up. I sent an email two days ago and tried to call again today. Someone answered "Hey, what.... I told her who I was and she said she did not live there. She gave me another phone number. Just saying..... We may need another person for Committee for lifelong learning.

Everyone has graciously accepted and were honored to have been asked.

Dear Academy members and Registered Dietitian Nutritionists,

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is working with the Diabetes Care and Education (DCE) Dietetic Practice Group (DPG) to assess RDNs knowledge of diabetes and practice. We emailed you about this survey approximately 2 weeks ago. If you have already taken the survey, please ignore this email. Due to the anonymous nature of the survey, we cannot limit this message to those who have not yet completed the survey.

We are looking for RDNs in ALL practice areas and at ALL experience levels that counsel patients with diabetes. This anonymous survey will take approximately 15-20 minutes to complete and will ask questions about your knowledge of RDN scope of practice in diabetes, medical nutrition therapy and its application to diabetes practice, and identification of professional development needs for the RDN. Your responses will help to inform the development of a certificate of training program in diabetes.

The survey will be open until April 3, 2017, and we would appreciate your responses. This survey can be completed in multiple sittings but you must return using the same computer. Complete the survey at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DCE2017CoT>

At the conclusion of this survey, you will have the opportunity to enter into a drawing for one of four $100 American Express gift cards.

Please direct any questions to dpbrn@eatright.org.

Thank you for your participation.

All,

Due to the demands on everyone's schedules this week, the Finance and Audit Committee call we have scheduled for this afternoon has been cancelled. I apologize for any inconvenience this may cause you.

If you have any questions about the financial information that has been provided, either via email or on the portal, please let me know. I will be happy to answer any and all questions.

Finally, our next meeting is the FY18 budget meeting. It is critical that you attend. It is from 8:00-11:30 CDT on Tuesday, April 25th and Wednesday, April 26th. Linda will send out an email invitation to ensure it gets put onto your calendars.

Have a great day.

All,

We have our monthly Finance and Audit Committee call next week on Tuesday, March 28th at 1 p.m. CDT. If you can't attend and have not yet informed us, please do so as soon as possible. Also, you should have received the webinar invitation from the Academy IT department as well as notification from Maria that the documents have been loaded onto the portal. If you are missing either, please check your spam folder and/or let me know and we will get the information to you. The only thing the portal is currently missing is the January final overview provided by Christian. This should be done by tomorrow.

The call on Tuesday will focus on the January final results and the February preliminary results. We did not have any changes to the preliminary January results.

The Academy's February preliminary financial results look good on the very bottom line; Net income (after investments). Unfortunately, that is due to the investments returns. Investment returns were $379,178 in February. This is $275,011 higher than the budget. For the year, investments have returned $1,200,725. This is $263,222 higher than the budget. At this moment, it doesn't look like March will continue our winning streak. However, we have another week.

I will not go into any further detail on February. I am attaching the summary for the Academy for you to review. It should help with “high level” explanations for the variances of each financial line item. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to send me an email and I will get you an answer.

Have a great day.

Paul

Subject: RE: ANFP Annual Conference 2017 June

I do not feel that we should exhibit for a few different reasons:

1. The alliance is not providing equal ROI. We provide a solid investment and they provide little to nothing for a return. I was there last year and it wasn't nearly at the level or standard I would want the Academy to continue unless the overhead was low (local with minimal travel, etc). I was able to get GES to waive shipment costs back to HQ from the meeting last year because the GES rep knew my name from FNCE. Basically, I called in a favor.

2. ANFP is trying to go around the Academy HQ-level and work directly with DHCC DPG to commit to a 40K investment of a collaborative meeting in Dallas in FY18. It is a HUGE risk to the DPG and I haven't let it go through on their POW yet as I am awaiting further clarification from ANFP meeting services to verify budget numbers. The ROI is to ANFP to drive attendance and very low to DHCC. It is a personal, pet project of the Chair Elect and many other DHCC leaders are not in agreement since it doesn't benefit their larger membership.

Happy to explain more if needed.

I am conflicted about this request since ANFP has not consistently been exhibiting at FNCE and considering the transportation cost to send the exhibit this year to Vegas. Last year was an anomaly because you both brought a lot of the material yourself, however in years prior the cost was around $1500 with no tangible ROI expect collegiality. What are your thoughts?

Greetings Pat,

I hope all is well with you.

Please let me apologize that I have not already contacted you however I do want to again volunteer to have an Academy exhibit at the ANFP annual conference. The dates are June 6-8th and the location is Las Vegas. This year I am speaking at the conference and will be glad to set up the exhibit, make sure the booth is staffed and then get everything back to the Academy. My flight is paid for by ANFP so there might be 1 additional hotel night that I would request reimbursement for from the Academy.

It would be an honor (as always) to represent the Academy at the conference.

Just wanted to see if the Academy would like to continue to be represented as we build on our efforts to work together with ANFP.

Thank you so much for your consideration of this.

Thank you so much.

We will be pleased to have you formally represent the Academy at the ANFP Annual Conference in June, but due to the printing and shipping costs for the materials and booth we will not be exhibiting this year. ANFP has not exhibited at FNCE for the past two years although we offer them free booth space. Please let Joan know of any expenses incurred as our representative.

In response to your evaluations we realize time constraints may not allow for discussion of additional items not on the agenda. Lucille has allotted time at the end of the April 4 webinar for open discussion. Please submit topics for consideration by March 31 to Dante Turner dturner@eatright.org. We plan to have open dialogue on four-five topics submitted.

As a confirmed participant, the following information should be used to connect to both the Audio and Web components of the meeting.

Step 1: Connect to Web

- Join WebEx meeting (or online at <https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/j.php?MTID=m1a67c7e2ce540e0d7f89b8e3c9ff7519>)
- Enter your Name and Email when prompted; Click Join
- Enter meeting password BOD17April when prompted

Step 2: Connect to Audio

- The phone bridge connection will come up on your computer screen once logged into the web portion of the event. Please follow the three steps show on your screen to (1) dial in, (2) enter conference code, and (3) once connected, enter your unique attendee ID from your audio connection box in WebEx to sync your phone and computer
- If you do not show this pop up screen on your computer, alternative phone bridge information follows:

Phone: 866-477-4564

Conference Code: 47 06 63 11 73#

To add this meeting to your calendar program (for example Microsoft Outlook), please click the following:

I agree that the concept is a good one. As a working President elect I think she would welcome this change. The only down side I see for this year is the June meeting of the Foundation where its strategic plan will be developed. Not all President elects have been Treasurers so keeping a Foundation position open and filling it each year based on need and expertise may make sense. Mary would be on LPPC, Committee for Lifelong Learning, Executive Committee, and Compensation Committee. There may be other opportunities to serve as we develop workgroups and task forces throughout the year.

Pat, Based on the bylaws we probably will have to let Mary do both the FAC and Foundation. It just seemed like it might have been helpful for her to not have to do those two committee since she has been on both. The good news is that if she has to miss a call due to scheduling it won't be as big a deal since she has been on the committee, unless they then don't have a quorum!

Dear Lucille and Donna,

Previously, we discussed that those individuals that served as treasurer in the past and sat on the Foundation Board and FAC do not need to be on those 2 groups if they are elected to President-elect because they are familiar with their purpose and program of work. Have you spoken Mary about this by any chance? This does change the composition of both groups; the President-elect position is specifically noted in the Foundation's bylaws. The next 4Ps call is schedule for Monday, April 3 and Mary is participating. What are your thoughts?

Subject: Re: Your Affiliate Annual Meeting

Paul, I attended and talked at the meeting last week. They did do a wine pull to raise money and I think it was very successful. I had already gotten the information from Beth on scholarship winners and money that was sent back to the state. I always ask people that received scholarships or awards to stand up.

Subject: Your Affiliate Annual Meeting

Hi Donna,

I am sending this email out today to all Foundation Board Members, I know you are set with the Affiliate information and your meeting presentations, please let me know if I have missed anything and thanks for all your help!

Dear Donna,

Will you be attending your Affiliate Annual Meeting this year? If so, I wanted to provide you with the contact information for the GA Affiliate volunteer State Fundraising Champion (below) so you can reach out to her and encourage them to fund raise for the Foundation and participate in the Affiliate Second Century Challenge. A number of Affiliates hold a fund raiser or have a booth with Foundation information at their annual meeting, reaching out them is another touchpoint and opportunity to connect.

You can remind them of the Affiliate Challenge we introduced at FNCE last year.

THE ACADEMY FOUNDATION AFFILIATE SECOND CENTURY CHALLENGE

1. Provide a gift to the Second Century from your budget/reserves. It's an important time and deserves your thoughtful consideration.
2. Organize a committee that includes membership of all ages and hold an event to raise money for the Second Century.
3. Encourage your members, through your communications, to give to the Second Century while remembering to contribute to the annual fund when renewing their dues through the online process.

Below you will see the impact our Foundation has had in the state from 2012 to 2106. Please feel free to share this information with the State Fundraising Champion and if you would like I can put together a Foundation Update PPT if you have the opportunity to present at any point during the meeting. I have also attached a one-page Foundation and Second Century Fund Messages for you to use as background information.

I look forward to helping you in any way to encourage your Affiliate to fund raise for the Foundation, please pass along any feedback you might receive from these individuals, including any request for hand-outs and contribution forms and we can get them right out to them. Don't forget to show your Second Century pride and wear your lapel pin while attending the meeting. Thanks for your help!

Dear NDTR Program Director or Educator,

As a NDTR Program Director or Educator, we are sure that you are aware of the importance of promoting our credentials and profession in the nutrition and dietetic field. That being the case, we would like to invite you to encourage your students to join the Dietetic Technicians in Practice DPG through the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

With that membership they will get access to quarterly newsletters highlighting recent news and activities in the NDTR community, continuing education options, opportunities to network with other NDTRs already working in the field, as well as access to the DTP DPG website, allowing them an insider look at archived newsletters as well as communications and policies that relate to the NDTR practice. As a Student they are eligible to join the DTP DPG at the significantly reduced rate of only $10.

Be sure to share this great opportunity with your students and invite them to visit us at www.dtpdpg.org for more information or to join today at www.eatright.org. We also invite any questions to be directed to us via email at dtpdpg@yahoo.com.

Thank you for your time and continued support of the DTP DPG and for all that you do to promote the NDTR profession!

Sincerely,

Christine Gosch, DTR

Hello, this is Rhys Saunders, the media relations manager for the Academy. I hope you've had a great week so far.

We have an exciting opportunity to participate in a media campaign about the benefits of breakfast for schoolchildren that will be featured in USA Today in late June. Mediaplanet, the company that is spearheading this project, has asked the Academy to write a 400-word article about the benefits of children eating breakfast and how not eating breakfast can affect academic performance. They're also looking for some tips on key components of a healthy breakfast.

Because of your expertise in this subject, would you be OK with having your name attached to the article as the author, representing the Academy? If so, we can draft the article and send it to you for review and approval. We would be glad to make any needed edits after you review it.

Please let us know if you would like us to proceed with this opportunity. Thank you very much.

All,

We have our monthly Finance and Audit Committee call next week on Tuesday, March 28th at 1 p.m. CDT. If you can't attend and have not yet informed us, please do so as soon as possible. Also, you should have received the webinar invitation from the Academy IT department as well as notification from Maria that the documents have been loaded onto the portal. If you are missing either, please check your spam folder and/or let me know and we will get the information to you. The only thing the portal is currently missing is the January final overview provided by Christian. This should be done by tomorrow.

The call on Tuesday will focus on the January final results and the February preliminary results. We did not have any changes to the preliminary January results.

The Academy's February preliminary financial results look good on the very bottom line; Net income (after investments). Unfortunately, that is due to the investments returns. Investment returns were $379,178 in February. This is $275,011 higher than the budget. For the year, investments have returned $1,200,725. This is $263,222 higher than the budget. At this moment, it doesn't look like March will continue our winning streak. However, we have another week.

I will not go into any further detail on February. I am attaching the summary for the Academy for you to review. It should help with "high level" explanations for the variances of each financial line item. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to send me an email and I will get you an answer.

Have a great day.

Paul

Hi, Donna:

For the June Journal article containing biographical paragraphs on the members of the Board of Directors, we usually introduce the BOD members with a quote from the President. Below is the quote we have drafted for you; could you please review it and let us know if this is OK or if you would like us to make any edits, which we're happy to do.

We need to send this text to the Journal by early next week to meet our deadline.

Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Tom

During 2017-2018 – our Academy's Centennial Year – we honor our past and choose a bold, purposeful way to continue our proud legacy with a new vision for the Academy's Second Century. We will elevate the profession, expand our reach and do more to improve health around the world. For the coming year, we will be led in our work by the outstanding individuals who will serve as the Academy's 2017-2018 Board of Directors. It is my pleasure to introduce them to you.

FITNESS MATTERS!

Spring signals the return of warmer weather and longer days. Its also the best time to plan fitness events such as walks, 5K races and bike-a-thons and other programs to celebrate National Nutrition Month®. Here are some additional ideas:

- Organize a sports nutrition education session after school or during gym class.
- Conduct a series of healthy weight and fitness sessions at your workplace. Recruit a local fitness or yoga instructor to assist you. Give each participant a National Nutrition Month® t-shirt, pedometer or water bottle plus healthy eating handouts.
- Ask a local health club if you could host a Put Your Best Fork Forward event at their facility. This event could be promoted along with a free pass to the gym for a day.

This is a reminder to make your flight arrangements for the May Board meeting which convenes on Friday, May 19 at 12:00 pm and adjourns on Saturday, May 20 at 1:00 pm. Please try to make your reservations for arrival as early as possible on Thursday, May 18 so you can attend the Ohio Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (OAND) conference. Lucille and Donna will be representing the Board at the OAND Opening Keynote Address scheduled for 8:00-9:30 am on Thursday. Please be sure to attend the Foundation's Second Century Reception which takes place on Thursday at 5:30 pm. Again, the Board meeting convenes at noon on Friday so you have the option to attend the OAND meeting on Thursday.

The OAND meeting, Second Century reception and Academy Board meeting will be held at the Hilton Cleveland Downtown hotel. The Cleveland Hopkins International Airport (CLE) is about 12 miles from the hotel, approx. 15 minute by taxi. We will register Board members for the OAND meeting.

To book your travel through the Academy's travel service please click on www.atcmeetings.com/Academy and login using your email address and the password you created when you activated your account. All,

We have our monthly Finance and Audit Committee call next week on Tuesday, March 28th at 1 p.m. CDT. If you can't attend and have not yet informed us, please do so as soon as possible. Also, you should have received the webinar invitation from the Academy IT department as well as notification from Maria that the documents have been loaded onto the portal. If you are missing either, please check your spam folder and/or let me know and we will get the information to you. The only thing the portal is currently missing is the January final overview provided by Christian. This should be done by tomorrow.

The call on Tuesday will focus on the January final results and the February preliminary results. We did not have any changes to the preliminary January results.

The Academy's February preliminary financial results look good on the very bottom line; Net income (after investments). Unfortunately, that is due to the investments returns. Investment returns were $379,178 in February. This is $275,011 higher than the budget. For the year, investments have returned $1,200,725. This is $263,222 higher than the budget. At this moment, it doesn't look like March will continue our winning streak. However, we have another week.

I will not go into any further detail on February. I am attaching the summary for the Academy for you to review. It should help with "high level" explanations for the variances of each financial line item. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to send me an email and I will get you an answer.

Have a great day.

Paul

Hi Donna,

I understand the potential confusion. Originally you had a back-up person for this committee, but when I learned that instead of NDEP appointing this position that you and Dianne needed to do so, it switched the back-up plan to an action plan. So thanks for calling her.

Subject: RE: My recommendations for the last committee appointments

Good morning,

Thanks for the update. And if the 2 of you want to ask Milton to serve on the Diversity Committee, you have my support. So to clarify, Susan Brantley will not be asked to be a liaison to any committees, is that correct? I don't ask the question to indicate it's a problem, but rather just to make sure I have my information straight.

And from my end, here is an update on the Dietetics Practice Based Research Network Oversight Committee:

I discovered on Friday that I had received some incorrect information from the committee staff partner. My records indicated that there is a NDEP representative on that committee. I learned it is not an NDEP representative, but rather an educator. Which gives you one more person to appoint to the committee. But never fear! For this committee you had a back-up person (who happens to be an educator), pending whether or not Bonnie Jortberg was selected to be the Academy's AMA RUC HCPAC representative. Bonnie ended up being runner-up for that position, so you can appoint her to this committee. And then you can appoint your back-up person, Christine County, as well to fill the educator slot.

I expect to have an update for you later this week about the potential additional new “seats” on the Interoperability & Standards Committee, so stay tuned.

Thanks for all of your efforts and I look forward to your updates as members accept your invitations to serve.

Best,

Marsha

After talking with Donna this afternoon, we have a couple changes to make. Michele Lites will be our board liaison to ANDPAC. (She did not want the diversity committee appointment.)

2. Bylaws rep will be Susan Brantley.
3. Catherine Austin is the mentor/mentee program chair
4. Brenda will be on the finance committee.

To replace Michele on the diversity committee, how about Milton?

Hi Donna,

As I was updating my files to reflect all of the persons you contacted to serve on committees, I came across one gap. I did not see that you had invited Christine County to serve on the Dietetics Practice Based Network Oversight Committee per my email below. Can you please confirm? Here is her contact information (she's from Georgia):

christine.county@gmail.com

(330)285-4034 (office)

Thanks again,

Marsha

Good morning,

Thanks for the update. And if the 2 of you want to ask Milton to serve on the Diversity Committee, you have my support. So to clarify, Susan Brantley will not be asked to be a liaison to any committees, is that correct? I don't ask the question to indicate it's a problem, but rather just to make sure I have my information straight.

And from my end, here is an update on the Dietetics Practice Based Research Network Oversight Committee:

I discovered on Friday that I had received some incorrect information from the committee staff partner. My records indicated that there is a NDEP representative on that committee. I learned it is not an NDEP representative, but rather an educator. Which gives you one more person to appoint to the committee. But never fear! For this committee you had a back-up person (who happens to be an educator), pending whether or not Bonnie Jortberg was selected to be the Academy's AMA RUC HCPAC representative. Bonnie ended up being runner-up for that position, so you can appoint her to this committee. And then you can appoint your back-up person, Christine County, as well to fill the educator slot.

I expect to have an update for you later this week about the potential additional new "seats" on the Interoperability & Standards Committee, so stay tuned.

Thanks for all of your efforts and I look forward to your updates as members accept your invitations to serve.

Best,

Marsha
