Diet Order Writing and Telehealth: Louisiana Affiliate's Legislative Success

The Louisiana Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics recently was effective in having three pieces of legislation passed to advance the profession and modernize dietetics licensure in the state. H.B. 579 (now Act 415) gives LDNs authority to independently write diet orders and order lab work in licensed health care facilities if they have been granted privileges by the medical staff and bylaws; H.B. 595 (now Act 417) ensures LDNs are included in the state's telehealth law; and H.B. 642 (now Act 636) includes changes in the practice act related to provisional licensing and fees.

Academy Assists with Training for Obesity Advocates

Academy staff and partners in the Obesity Care Advocacy Network recently provided an advocacy training at the Your Weight Matters Convention, hosted by the Obesity Action Coalition, in advance of meetings with members of Congress to discuss the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and resolutions in both the House and Senate to recognize Obesity Care Week. Patient advocates' real-life stories and perspectives help policy leaders understand the importance of comprehensive care and treatment, including nutrition services for those living with obesity.

American Heart Association Releases Added Sugar Recommendations for Children

The American Heart Association has released guidelines for added sugar consumption for children and teens. The guidelines state children and teens should limit added sugar intake to no more than 25 grams per day, and that children under 2 not consume any added sugar. The Food and Drug Administration recently announced added sugars will be listed on the revamped Nutrition Facts Panel. It is the Academy's position that higher intake of added sugars is associated with higher energy intake and lower diet quality, which can increase the risk for obesity, prediabetes, type 2 diabetes and cardiovascular disease.

Initial findings from a recent study in the American Journal of Public Health concluded a penny-per-ounce tax on soda instituted in Berkeley, Calif., decreased consumption of sugary drinks by 21 percent and significantly increased water consumption when compared to surrounding cities without the tax. It is the position of the Academy to recommend that individuals drink few or no regular sodas, sports drinks and fruit drinks to safely enjoy a range of nutritive sweeteners and nonnutritive sweeteners.

2016 Second Century Pledge Form.doc

Good Afternoon Foundation Board Members. Thanks to all who have already accepted the Second Century fundraising challenge and made a gift or pledge to the campaign. To date, nearly $55,000 has been raised from our Foundation family. We are off to a tremendous start! All gifts count, at any level and I know I can count on all of you to help us reach our first and most important milestone -- 100% Foundation Board participation.

I hope to announce this achievement during the Academy Board Meeting preceding the Nutrition Impact Summit on September 21. So please respond before we head off to Dallas. A list of giving clubs and pledge card are attached. You can return this form to Susie Burns at sburns@eatright.org to make us aware of your commitment or if you prefer, you may contact me personally. I can be reached at jean.ragalie-carr@dairy.org or 847-561-1195. Thanks for all that you do to support and advance the great work of the Foundation and your consideration of this important request.

Sincerely,

Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

SNA DROPS LOBBYING FIRM: The School Nutrition Association is shaking up its approach in Washington, just weeks before the Senate could move on child nutrition reauthorization legislation. The group, which represents some 55,000 school nutrition professionals, did not renew its $90,000 per-quarter contract with lobbying firm Barnes & Thornburg last month, disclosure records show.

The move comes after years of infighting - and public spats with first lady Michelle Obama and the USDA - over new school meal standards, which SNA has lobbied to relax. Back in 2014, the group weathered criticism from past leadership for dropping its longtime lobbying firm, Olsson Frank Weeda Terman Matz, which specializes in food and agriculture issues, in favor of Barnes

&Thornburg - which at the time represented the National Rifle Association and mostly non-food-related clients and was widely seen as more adversarial in its approach on Capitol Hill. As part of SNA's new strategy, the group will do its lobbying with in-house resources and contract with Food Directions LLC, a firm known for its middle-of-the-road approach, to advise on nutrition issues more broadly.

Asked about the shakeup, SNA CEO Patricia Montague told MA the switch is in line with the association's strategic plan. "SNA has centralized lobbying and legislative activities by expanding internal staff resources," Montague said. "While SNA greatly appreciates Barnes &Thornburg's work, SNA no longer requires their lobbying services and will not replace the firm." Hi Joan. I have a Quex re: the travel to Spain. Do we have travel insurance? If not, do you think I should get some (I don't mind paying). Just wondering. We may be getting stormy weather in Jax on Friday and I want options in case flights get cancelled or delayed. That may not help anyway if it's weather related though. Just wondering.

In April you were notified that we were able to secure Barbara Corcoran as our keynote speaker for the Opening Session in Boston. Diane Enos just confirmed a private meet and greet with Barbara and a limited number of VIPs before Opening Session in the backstage Green Room. Time will be secured to allow us a photo op and a meeting with Barbara prior to the session. Barbara indicated that this opportunity is intended for the Board of Directors and some Academy VIPs, not the media.

In early October Lucille, Doris, Diane and I will have a call with Barbara to plan this session. She normally has a staffer take this call but is excited to have the opportunity to talk to “such an influential group of professional women.”

Looking forward to a thrilling event!

To All Academy Members:

The Academy is celebrating its centennial in 2017 and we are busy preparing for the Second Century. Every member is an integral part of this planning process, and the Academy needs your input and involvement starting now!

By this Friday, September 2, please do two things: First, watch a brief webinar that provides background on the Second Century initiative and our potential opportunity areas. Then, please take a five-minute online survey and provide your valuable feedback.

And of course, encourage your fellow members to do the same. The Academy's future is limitless and you will play a vital role in shaping our future.

Thank you!

Katie, I was only able to get through page 16, but I have attached my comments in the document. Most of my comments were extra spaces I found in the document, but I did have several other comments on content. My biggest concern was a statement made on page 8 about schools having unhealthy eating environments. I would really like you to remove that part of the statement if you can? Obviously, I am particularly sensitive to that statement. Otherwise, I love the document and cannot wait to finish reading it. Maybe on my plane ride to Spain!

It is a really big issue for Lucille, and she is going to be very disappointed if we can't get it any higher than the $30,000. Talk to you next week.

I know EC will do nothing to help. I agree with you that Margaret and Paul just see the Special Olympics fiasco. It's not about attending meetings anymore --it's about actively participating in deliberations and being at the table with other organizational presidents. It's about the video tapings to keep the membership engaged and updated; it's about personally reaching out to members who have questions related to multiple issues and being updated on the backgrounds of each; it's about keeping up with emails that go directly to the President rather than to staff or the President's email box; it's about approving appointment recommendations; it's about approving communications under the President's signature; etc, etc.

Dear Board Members,

The Member Sponsorship Review Committee has been busy with the ongoing review and discussions related to the proposed forms and process from the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force report. There will be an Executive Session at the September Board meeting (Sept. 20, 1:00 pm) to share further details. However, in the meantime please read the following update.

Next week there will be an update in Eat Right Weekly within the Academy Member Updates section with a link to the Commitment to Transparency page where the following information will appear.

Member Sponsorship Review Committee (MSRC) Update

What is new with the MSRC?

As part of the one-year pilot, the Member Sponsorship Review Committee is carefully reviewing and adapting the recommendations of the Academy's Sponsorship Advisory Task Force. Companies that are interested in becoming a National or Premier level sponsor are currently going through the MSRC pilot process.

What comes next?

In the fall, the MSRC will submit a report to the Board of Directors containing its recommendations on the potential sponsor evaluation process and forms, including feedback from DPGs and MIGs. After submission of the MSRC's report to the Board and the Board's final decision, any changes or updates to the Academy's sponsorship program will occur at that time.

Has the MSRC reviewed any new potential sponsors?

The MSRC has reviewed and recommended that the Board approve one new potential Academy Premier Sponsor. Information about the sponsor will be posted to the Advertising and Sponsorship section of the Academy's website shortly.

What is happening with the Academy's sponsorship program?

The Academy continues to work with organizations that help the Academy fulfill its mission and vision, and adheres to the Board-approved Academy Guidelines for Corporate Sponsors:

<http://www.eatrightpro.org/resource/about-us/advertising-and-sponsorship/about-sponsorship/academy-guidelines-for-corporate-relations-sponsors>

Companies currently interested in becoming a National or Premier level sponsor, go through the MSRC pilot process. After the submission of the MSRC report to the Board and the Board's final decision, any changes or updates to the Academy's sponsorship program will occur at that time.

Where can I find out who is serving on the MSRC?

Member Sponsorship Review Committee members:

<http://www.eatrightpro.org/LeadershipDirectory>

Who can I contact for more information?

Academy members may email corporaterelations@eatright.org.

Journalists may email media@eatright.org.

The MSRC is committed to making recommendations and a course of action that works for both the Academy and its entities. I look forward to sharing more with you in Dallas.

Regards,

Catherine

Thanks for sharing the letter, Donna. I had heard an NPR article that noted the Alliance would not be impacted by the significant changes coming to the Clinton Foundation. Glad that this letter confirms the accuracy of the story and more importantly that the Alliance will continue their good work.

Academy and Affiliate District Support Program.docx
Texas Academy District to Region Restructure.docx

Good morning, Lucille, Donna, and Evelyn-

I hope this email finds each of you well. As a follow up to a recent 4Ps call conversation about the Affiliate Relations area, specifically Texas (TAND), I am sending you this email on behalf of Amy Biedenharn (Sr. Manager, Affiliate and MIG Relations – abiedenharn@eatright.org) and myself. We want to make sure that you have the most updated information regarding the Texas Academy (TAND) Board recent decision to change the process for managing local dietetic associations (districts) within the state. This shift means that instead of separate dietetic association (districts) functioning within the state, TAND would take on a centralized management approach of offering member benefits at a local level. This decision was made to streamline the goals of the organizations, provide support to rural geographic regions struggling to maintain districts, and to reduce inefficiencies in delivering member benefits.

The TAND Board segmented the state of Texas into 5 regions which includes combining geographic areas that were previously separated by the district structure. The goals, objectives, and funding for each of the regions will be managed at the affiliate level. Each of these regions will continue to have representation on the TAND Board and volunteers working in the region to deliver member benefits. The intention is not to eliminate member benefits, but to improve the way programs are managed.

TAND first made the Academy aware of this restructure at FNCE® 2015. The Affiliate Relations Team has had ongoing communications with them through this process to help sort out details, adhere to legal requirements, and ensure that members are adequately informed. As with any change there have been pain points. The implementation of this restructure involved the districts handing over their finances and assets to TAND which has caused many district leaders to feel their money was being taken away and given to the affiliate without them having a say in what happens next, which is not the case. This has been the feeling of only a few as TAND has seen an overwhelming positive response from members about the restructure.

Attached is a document highlighting some of the interactions that have taken place between TAND and the Academy during the implementation. As this was a TAND decision not Academy decision, there has been guidance and advice, but the primary responsibility for implementing and communication rests with TAND's leadership.

Conversations with TAND as well as with other affiliates have made it apparent to the Affiliate Relations team that the Academy can continue to improve the relationship with districts. We see opportunities related to training of district leaders as well as opportunities for the Academy and districts to benefit each other. Additionally, we also foresee more affiliates interested in this region structure which will cause us to review various items that are district specific. (For example, the RYDY award is segmented by districts. New criteria will need developed for a region structure.) Therefore, there is a second attachment included that highlights some of the current goals Amy is proactively working on in an effort to grow and make improvements. We welcome any ideas and feedback!

Please let us know if any additional clarifications are needed.

Sincerely,

Diane Enos & Amy Biedenharn

Dear Donna,

Happy Kids Eat Right Month!

Children are the future of this great country of ours and this amazing planet. I had the opportunity to spend the last week at a camp with more than 150 students from grades 5 thru 12 representing 45 states! They were learning about how to help their fellow students eat better and move more in schools. Dietitians of the future, possibly, what an inspiration! However, students and their families need access to accurate and relevant nutrition information. That is why I am so proud and supportive of our Kids Eat Right Initiative.

As a mini-grant award winner or Kids Eat Right volunteer, you know the value of this program more than anyone else. We created this program in such a way to encourage you, as Academy members, to get involved and deliver these messages in your communities with schools, worksites, policy makers, and the media, providing you with the tools and resources to position you as leaders and change agents in this arena. I am so proud of how many of you jumped right in and embraced this campaign. To date, Academy members have received more than $186,950 in mini-grants to help them deliver 2,348 presentations to more than 61,150 individuals nationwide.

Everyday Heroes - August 2016: Kids Eat Right Month

We couldn't do any of this without the support of Academy members. Member donations, not dues fund all of our programs and resources. I hope that you will support Kids Eat Right Month by donating to the Foundation today and thank you for bringing this program and its message to your community!

Sincerely,

Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

Hi Donna and Lorelei,

Loved the photos on Facebook from your visit with Congressman Allen! Keep at it!!!!

I think this still sounds like a good strategy considering the changes at SNA.

We are going to work on educating and pushing the House to get on board with the Senate bill. We will keep you in the loop about how this is going.

Very best,

Jenn

Subject: Re: any progress on high level mtg SNA and Nutrition Advocates?

Lorelei and Jenn, I talked this over with Mary Pat, and what we thought would be the best approach was to wait until after the November 8th election and see what the outcome was and how it will change the face of the politics on the hill. Then we would get all the interested parties together to map out a unified strategy for CNR going forward, with the make up of the hill in mind. If I thought we were really going to be able to get CNR passed before November 8th I would try and get everyone together, but I was not that optimistic. If you think it is going to happen then I would continue to try. SNA is now going to get their own Summit together to get people on board. That is what they told me when I tried to get one done and include them. They will not include USDA in their "summit" because USDA cannot lobby. I love them stealing my idea, but if they get it together, that would be great. USDA or no USDA we need to get everyone at the table. Yet, I thought if we were just going to strategize after the election then USDA could then come. That is my plan for now, wait and see until November 8th and then act. I will take any advice.

I had Rick Allen in the school yesterday for a big event. Got him lots of publicity in the newspaper and on TV. Not sure I changed his mind, but I am nibbling at him every chance I got.

Subject: any progress on high level mtg SNA and Nutrition Advocates?

Hi Donna,

I hope school is off to a good start and that you had some time for a vacation over the summer. I'm checking in with you to ask about any progress securing a high level meeting between SNA and child nutrition advocates?

This meeting is very important to build trust and see if we can all work together to try to get CNR over the finish line this year and also if CNR doesn't make it to finish line this year. Jenn, AHA, Pew and myself have meetings with House ED/Workforce committee staff today and with Jacquelyn on Monday. The situation is urgent but so is trusting SNA again. Are they going to continue to work to repeal school meal nutrition standards, including the F/V, sodium, Smart Snacks, and whole grains, thru policy riders in AG Appropriations?

Below I've pasted in article from Politico this morning about SNA.

Thanks for any help/miracles you can pull off. Lorelei

SNA DROPS LOBBYING FIRM: The School Nutrition Association is shaking up its approach in Washington, just weeks before the Senate could move on child nutrition reauthorization legislation. The group, which represents some 55,000 school nutrition professionals, did not renew its $90,000 per-quarter contract with lobbying firm Barnes & Thornburg last month, disclosure records show.

The move comes after years of infighting - and public spats with first lady Michelle Obama and the USDA - over new school meal standards, which SNA has lobbied to relax. Back in 2014, the group weathered criticism from past leadership for dropping its longtime lobbying firm, Olsson Frank Weeda Terman Matz, which specializes in food and agriculture issues, in favor of Barnes &Thornburg - which at the time represented the National Rifle Association and mostly non-food-related clients and was widely seen as more adversarial in its approach on Capitol Hill. As part of SNA's new strategy, the group will do its lobbying with in-house resources and contract with Food Directions LLC, a firm known for its middle-of-the-road approach, to advise on nutrition issues more broadly.

Asked about the shakeup, SNA CEO Patricia Montague told MA the switch is in line with the association's strategic plan. "SNA has centralized lobbying and legislative activities by expanding internal staff resources," Montague said. "While SNA greatly appreciates Barnes &Thornburg's work, SNA no longer requires their lobbying services and will not replace the firm." For those who want to time-travel back to 2014 and SNA's infighting, your vehicle is here.

Reality check: MA readers might recall that the House introduced an extremely contentious child nutrition bill in the spring, setting up an even tougher road for getting reauthorization done in the foreseeable future. It's still possible the Senate will shepherd its bipartisan bill through the chamber, creating the possibility of the bill being attached to another must-pass vehicle later this year. Stay tuned. Meanwhile, brush up here on Democrats' furor over the House bill in June.

I'm putting together an article examining my local school district's lunch offerings for the 2016-2017 school year. I see that you're a spokeswoman for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and I hope you might speak with me this week about the importance of school lunches, the components of a health school lunch, the regulations districts must abide by and whether it's difficult to plan healthy lunches under tight financial restrictions.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Make the Most of the Last Two Weeks of Congress's August Recess

Members of Congress are back in their home district for two more weeks, until September 5, so now is a great time to meet with your member of Congress in person to discuss important public policy priorities. Resources are available about Child Nutrition Reauthorization, the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act.

In Oklahoma: Successful In-District Meeting with Rep. Cole

Academy member Stephanie DeBerry, MS, RDN/LD, represented the Academy at an August 5 in-district meeting with Rep. Tom Cole (Okla.). DeBerry joined with representatives of the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance to share the importance of diabetes prevention efforts in the state, including the value added by registered dietitian nutritionists. The group urged Cole, the chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, to commit to important diabetes prevention efforts that allow registered dietitian nutritionists to effectively do their jobs and improve the quality of life of their patients.

National Diabetes Clinical Care Commission Act Update

When Congress returns on September 6, the House Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Health is expected to hold a legislative hearing on the National Diabetes Clinical Care Commission Act (H.R. 1192/S. 586). The Academy strongly supports passage of this important legislation to create a commission comprised of diabetes experts. Registered dietitian nutritionists and other health care professionals who treat diabetes, patient advocates and representatives from federal agencies most involved in diabetes care will work together to streamline federal activities and support clinicians who provide high-quality care to people with diabetes and prediabetes.

Academy Advocates for Quality Improvement and Continued Ability to Order Therapeutic Diets

The Academy's work to ensure registered dietitian nutritionists have the ability to order therapeutic diets across the continuum of care continues to be effective, with the process for ordering in Critical Access Hospitals outlined in the proposed Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services regulation that the Academy commented on last week. The Academy also supported proposed non-discrimination measures, quality assessment and performance improvement programs, and strategies for reducing readmissions.

Academy Highlights Role of RDNs in Patient Care to CMS

The Academy emphasized to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services the role of the registered dietitian nutritionist and medical nutrition therapy throughout the continuum of care for numerous disease states and conditions across health care settings. CMS's ability to "see" the clinician-patient relationship of high-value providers - specifically the RDN - is crucial for CMS's initiatives and for the allocation of payments for RDNs in Alternative Payment Models.

School Spirit: Bring Students to FNCE

The Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo helps instill beliefs, values, attitudes and behaviors in students that will prepare them for practice and lifelong learning. Educators: Give your students the best possible start in dietetics and bring them to FNCE. The Academy will recognize four programs, one for each program type: Didactic Program in Dietetics, Dietetic Internship, Coordinated Program in Dietetics and Dietetic Technician Program. The four programs that bring the highest percentage of students to FNCE will receive special recognition with President Lucille Beseler, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, FAND, and complimentary site access for up to three Center for Lifelong Learning webinars. Email your number of total enrollment, number of students attending FNCE and the percentage this represents to education@eatright.org by September 26.

Hi Donna,

My apologies for not being clear. We won't send a formal letter to Meghan, but rather I will just follow up with her by phone or email as I initially contacted her to see if she might be interested and get a copy of her CV. Per Diane Enos, we usually present 2 options to the President for consideration (so be forewarned when it is your turn J).

In terms of a committee appointment, it would be great for you to encourage her to complete the Opportunities to Serve survey we put out in January/February as a method for gathering the pool of members for consideration. That way she has the chance to express her interest in specific committees. How does that sound?

Thanks,

Marsha

Marsha, I don't think we need to send Meghan a letter saying she did not get the appointment. I plan on trying to put her on a committee next year. Would that be OK?

Good morning Donna,

I hope all is well with you with the start of the school year. I wanted to give you a heads up that Lucille has selected someone to replace you on this workgroup. We presented her with the option of either Meghan or Dayle Hayes and she has selected Dayle. Neither Dayle nor Meghan has been informed of this decision yet, so I ask that you keep it confidential for now. Diane Enos and I are working together to draft the appropriate communications to both the candidates and the Alliance. I expect you will be copied on the letters but, if not, I'll make sure to send copies your way so you know the loop has been closed.

Thanks for your work to date on this important project. And I know you'll work with Dayle to make it a smooth transition.

Warm regards,

Marsha

Marsha, The person I would recommend is Meghan Gibbons. gibbonsmk@vvsd.org Meghan is the Director of Nutrition Services at Valley View School District in Bolingbrook, Illinois. Make the Most of the Last Two Weeks of Congress's August Recess!

Members of Congress are back in their home district for two more weeks, until September 5, and this is the perfect time to meet with your Member of Congress in person to discuss important public policy priorities! Resources are available here about Child Nutrition Reauthorization, the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act. Now is the time to make your voices heard!

We want to hear about your meetings with Congress members, local events attended by your members and events where a member of Congress visited a work site. The Legislative Tracking Meeting forum is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. It is extremely important that we hear about these meetings. Attached find a copy of the reporting form. Be sure to take pictures and send with your reports to me. Reports are due by September 5, 2016.

National Diabetes Clinical Care Commission Act Update

When Congress returns on September 6, the House Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Health is expected to hold a legislative hearing on the National Diabetes Clinical Care Commission Act (H.R. 1192/S. 586). This legislation creates a commission comprised of diabetes experts including registered dietitians and other health care professionals that treat diabetes, patient advocates and representatives from the federal agencies most involved in diabetes care. The goal of the commission is to streamline federal diabetes activities and support clinicians that provide high quality care to people with diabetes and pre-diabetes. The Academy supports the passage of this important legislation.

Action Alert Reports

The Affiliate Presidents and Public Policy Coordinators will find the reports posted in the participation topic folder of the community of interest. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress. Do you have success stories to share? Policy leaders are looking for ideas that work. Please send your ideas and success stories with us.

Oklahoma Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics public policy coordinator, Stephanie DeBerry, MS, RDN/LD, represented the Academy at an in-district meeting with Representative Tom Cole (Okla.) on August 5, 2016. Ms. DeBerry joined with diabetes advocates from the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance to share the importance of diabetes prevention efforts in the state, including the role of RDNs. The group urged Representative Cole, who is the chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, to invest in important diabetes prevention efforts that allow RDNs to do their jobs and improve the quality of life of their patients. Thank you for your leadership and advocacy!

Thanks to the work of the Illinois Academy of Nutrition and Dietetic public policy team and many other organizations, more hungry kids in Illinois will get the food they need each morning.

"Breakfast After the Bell" is now state law in Illinois. By opening the door to serving breakfast after the school day has begun in high-need schools, an additional 175,000 kids have the chance to get the school breakfast they need for their brains and bodies. Way to go, Illinois!

Good morning Donna,

I hope all is well with you with the start of the school year. I wanted to give you a heads up that Lucille has selected someone to replace you on this workgroup. We presented her with the option of either Meghan or Dayle Hayes and she has selected Dayle. Neither Dayle nor Meghan has been informed of this decision yet, so I ask that you keep it confidential for now. Diane Enos and I are working together to draft the appropriate communications to both the candidates and the Alliance. I expect you will be copied on the letters but, if not, I'll make sure to send copies your way so you know the loop has been closed.

Thanks for your work to date on this important project. And I know you'll work with Dayle to make it a smooth transition.

Warm regards,

Marsha

Make the Most of the Last Two Weeks of Congress's August Recess!

Members of Congress are back in their home district for two more weeks, until September 5, and this is the perfect time to meet with your Member of Congress in person to discuss important public policy priorities! Resources are available here about Child Nutrition Reauthorization, the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act. Now is the time to make your voices heard!

We want to hear about your meetings with Congress members, local events attended by your members and events where a member of Congress visited a work site. The Legislative Tracking Meeting forum is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. It is extremely important that we hear about these meetings. Attached find a copy of the reporting form. Be sure to take pictures and send with your reports to me. Reports are due by September 5, 2016.

National Diabetes Clinical Care Commission Act Update

When Congress returns on September 6, the House Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Health is expected to hold a legislative hearing on the National Diabetes Clinical Care Commission Act (H.R. 1192/S. 586). This legislation creates a commission comprised of diabetes experts including registered dietitians and other health care professionals that treat diabetes, patient advocates and representatives from the federal agencies most involved in diabetes care. The goal of the commission is to streamline federal diabetes activities and support clinicians that provide high quality care to people with diabetes and pre-diabetes. The Academy supports the passage of this important legislation.

Action Alert Reports

The Affiliate Presidents and Public Policy Coordinators will find the reports posted in the participation topic folder of the community of interest. We ask that you don't post names of members (yours or from another affiliate) for public viewing. PPCs should review the action alert participation list and encourage members to send letters to Congress. Below is a chart of the action alert metrics as of August 22, 2016. Action Alert Title Academy Members Participating Percentage Participation Legislators Contacted Number of Letters Sent

House Child Nutrition Bill	3,228	4.4%	432	3,963
Senate Child Nutrition Bill	4,698	6.5%	100	14,350
Treat and Reduce Obesity Act	1,700	2.3%	493	5,495
Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act	1,607	2.2%	498	3,183

Hi Donna,

Hope your week is off to a good start! I have a quick question – we didn't extend a speaker invitation to Gus Schumacher from Wholesome Wave, but we just got a note from him asking us to confirm that his speaking slot is on 9/23 at the Summit. I remember that you had left him a voicemail in early June to follow-up on his invitation – did he ever call you back? If so, do you have any insights that might help us understand why he thinks he's speaking? He's a wonderful man and we're so excited he's coming, so we can certainly fit him into the program if needed, but wanted to check with you first.

Thanks!

Hi, Joan. There is an Academy Board call next week. Katie is giving a Second Century update. I just confirmed with Pat that we would like to include the Foundation Board in the invitation to join the call. If you could put it at the top of the order for the call so they can drop off when the Board discusses their other business that would be ideal.

Please share the invitation and call in information with Susie so we can draft an intro and send it out to the Foundation Board.

Susie, we know this is short notice and it's not mandatory. We just don't want to miss the opportunity to provide the Foundation Board with the update and answer questions at the same time.

See me if either of you have any questions.

Hi Donna,

Hope your week is off to a good start! I have a quick question – we didn't extend a speaker invitation to Gus Schumacher from Wholesome Wave, but we just got a note from him asking us to confirm that his speaking slot is on 9/23 at the Summit. I remember that you had left him a voicemail in early June to follow-up on his invitation – did he ever call you back? If so, do you have any insights that might help us understand why he thinks he's speaking? He's a wonderful man and we're so excited he's coming, so we can certainly fit him into the program if needed, but wanted to check with you first.

Thanks!

The Academy's Second Century

Having trouble viewing this e-mail? View it in your browser.

To All Academy Members:

Its an exciting time to be a member of the Academy! As we approach 100 years as an organization in 2017, the Academy is planning for our Second Century. One of the goals of our Second Century initiative is to chart a new vision that will guide everything we do in the coming years.

Part of the Second Century process is twofold: First, identify areas of opportunity for our members; and second, lead the way in accelerating progress toward good health and well-being for all people. Every member is an integral part of this process, and we need your input and involvement starting now!

By September 2, please do two things: First, watch a brief webinar that provides background on the Second Century initiative and our potential opportunity areas. Then, please take a five-minute online survey and provide your valuable feedback.

And of course, encourage your fellow members to watch the webinar and take the survey as well.

The Academys future is limitless and you will play a vital role in shaping our future.

Thank you!

Hello, Academy BOD!

I hope this email finds you well! Per the last Board of Directors meeting in May, we wanted to share a near-final draft of the briefing paper for your reactions. Since our meeting, we have reframed the Opportunity Areas (OA), so the section you signed up for may look a little bit different now.

Below is a list with the section you signed up to review. For those of you who weren't able to join us at the meeting, we assigned a section based on your interests. Please feel free to review a different section if you'd rather.

At this point, we wanted to give you an opportunity to weigh in on the below specific sections given all of the changes. Please note that this paper is not meant to be an exhaustive overview of all of the Opportunity Areas – rather, it is meant to frame the opportunities and provide a starting point to help generate ideas and discussion at the Summit.

Given that, if you would like to weigh in on this draft, please read pages 3-11 for context and then review your assigned sections (below). Please provide comments only with your general reactions/feedback and thoughts on whether we're missing anything major. Please provide comments either in an email or as comments in the paper by Tuesday, 8/23 by end of day to Nicci (copied here).

Please note that this draft is not final – the communications team will do a thorough copy edit and we are still finessing language, so we appreciate you not tracking changes at this time.

Donna,

You are correct, we have continued to look for ways to lower the number of comp registrations.

Staff has diligently worked to reduce the number of comps for committee members and we have a chargeback in place for the DPGs who fund attendance. This number is actually in line with previous years as this is the first year that we directly registered all speakers in advance. Since many did not register until arriving onsite, the number looks much higher than previous years. In actuality, the number is comparable factoring in the number of people who are taking advantage of this benefit, such as speakers, 50-year members, invited VIP guests, Former Presidents, and others.

Best regards,

Pat

Pat, This is very encouraging news. The only thing that looks odd to me is the comps at 629? I thought we had talked about trying to reduce the comps and make other groups pay for their representative to attend?

August Chair Monthly Message

Monthly message from Academy Foundation Chair Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

Happy Kids Eat Right Month!

Children are the future of this great country of ours and this amazing planet. I had the opportunity to spend the last week at a camp with more than 150 students from grades 5 thru 12 representing 45 states! They were learning about how to help their fellow students eat better and move more in schools. Dietitians of the future, possibly, what an inspiration! However, students and their families need access to accurate and relevant nutrition information. That is why I am so proud and supportive of our Kids Eat Right Initiative.

In 2010, our Foundation launched Kids Eat Right to support public education projects and programs that address the national health concern of obesity among our children. We created this program in such a way to encourage you, as Academy members, to get involved and deliver these messages in your communities with schools, worksites, policy makers, and the media, providing you with the tools and resources to position you as leaders and change agents in this arena. I am so proud of how many of you jumped right in and embraced this campaign. To date, Academy members have received more than $186,950 in mini-grants to help them deliver 2,348 presentations to more than 61,150 individuals nationwide.

Everyday Heroes - August 2016: Kids Eat Right Month

Kids Eat Right Month highlights the role that everyone, from families and communities to health care professionals and policy makers, can take to improve children's health. The Academy and our Foundation are committed to helping all kids eat right because raising the next generation of healthy children starts today. If you haven't had the opportunity to register as a volunteer and check out all the great Kids Eat Right toolkits available for you for free as members, including infographics, articles, tip sheets, and PowerPoint presentations, please do so today.

Just like all the great offerings of the Foundation, member donations, not dues fund these valuable resources and innovative programs offered through Kids Eat Right. I hope that you will support Kids Eat Right Month by donating to the Foundation today and thank you for bringing this program and its message to your community!

Misleading Media Coverage of New Study Examining Impact of School Meals on Obesity

As you meet with your members of Congress, we wanted to provide you with a note about a recent study that garnered some inaccurate media attention. A study released this week by Virginia Tech and RTI, concluded that school meal consumption correlated with higher BMI and that there was a dose relationship such that those students who most consistently consumed school meals fared the worst. The study key is that it's based on data between 1998 and 2007. Thus, the data doesn't even reflect the impact of the 2004 Child Nutrition Reauthorization let alone the 2010 Healthy Hunger-Free Kids Act and the new regulations. Despite that, some media outlets picked up on it and touted it as proving that the updated regulations were actually causing the problems they were intended to solve.

Dear Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation BOD,

I wanted to write a quick letter expressing my gratitude for funding me to present at both the annual Texas state dietetic meeting, and most recently at the SNEB (Society of Nutrition Education and Behavior) conference in San Diego. While the format and content were different, they both focused on strategies to reduced wasted food on the consumer level and food service level. The responses from attendees were both enthusiastic and supportive. I cannot say how much I support this increased focus on reducing food waste, and look forward to the continued initiatives sponsored by the ANDF.

Over the past 2 years I have grown personally and professionally thanks to your support, and I am extremely grateful for the opportunities you all have provided. I look forward to continuing to promote the dietetic profession, especially in this important 100-year milestone in our profession's history.

Sincerely,

Chris

Thank you again for your support and contribution to ANDPAC!

Sincerely,

Nancy Z. Farrell, MS, RDN

Academy members are not required to contribute to ANDPAC and there is no reprisal for not contributing. Amounts recommended for contribution in Academy publications are merely suggestions and there is no minimum contribution level.

Federal law requires political committees to report to Federal Election Commission the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200.00 in a calendar year. Corporate contributions are prohibited by law. Individuals can not contribute more than $5000 per calendar year to the same political action committee. There is no penalty for not contributing. modified June 2016 electronic.xlsx

All,

We have finally reconciled the budgets and believe we have accounted for everything for June that should have been reflected. The reconciliation process took a little longer this year. The monthly distributions of the budgets is always time consuming. Hopefully, we have the right distribution. We should not experience any further delays on the financial results as we go forward.

I am attaching two files for you;

1. Narrative for June 2016 - This document provides, by financial line item, a small explanation of the Academy's variances for June.

2. The full June financial package. I have added a table of contents in the beginning to help map the information for you. I will continue to work on the table of contents to make it easier for you.

One thing to keep in mind; variances to the first month or two of the year do not necessarily provide us any overall guidance. It just is simply too early to determine how the groups will do. Once we roll through October, we will have a clearer picture.

This information will be put onto the portal today as well. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Paul

My apologies for the confusion regarding your flights – I had to get a little ‘creative’ when booking in order to utilize airline rewards. Voucher seats were not available on the first leg of your trip so I had to book that separately. You should find the Spain roundtrip (Madrid to Granada) in your ATC profile as that also had to be booked independently of the international leg.

Pat and Marsha,

I wanted to let you know that as of September 1, 2016, I will resume the role of staff partner for ANDPAC to allow Teresa to focus on her grassroots advocacy work. During the next few weeks, Teresa and I will be working to transition the responsibilities. We plan to meet next week to discuss the transition and subsequent to that, I will be sending a communication to the ANDPAC board of directors.

Teresa will continue to be involved in many ANDPAC initiatives including connecting the public policy panels to ANDPAC and assisting them with requests to attend and host events. Teresa has led the growth of ANDPAC in many areas and I am appreciative of her dedication and contribution as I know that all of you are.

Please let me know if you have any questions regarding this transition. I would ask that we keep this confidential until it is announced to the ANDPAC board.

Joan, I was checking my flight information for the upcoming Spain trip. It seems like whoever booked my ticket, booked me traveling from Atlanta to Madrid and did not book the Augusta to Atlanta part of the trip. Coming back they booked the Madrid to Atlanta to Augusta part of the ticket. Do you know who I need to talk to about getting that straightened out? Thanks!

Kelly, We would absolutely love for either you or Deb to attend the Nutrition Impact Summit. We would love for who ever comes to be able to share all their knowledge with all the other participants, but you would not have to speak. I am attaching the list of attendees we have to date. We will pay all expenses for who ever attends. We still would love to get a video from FLOTUS. Dr. Katie Brown (copied on this email) could help with all the info you would need to put the video together.

If you are a nutrition and dietetics educator or practitioner, please consider becoming an ACEND Program Reviewer! ACEND Program Reviewers examine nutrition and dietetics educational programs and conduct site visits to universities and other organizations with ACEND-accredited programs. This peer-review accreditation process strengthens nutrition and dietetics education and the profession as a whole.

ACEND is in need of several reviewers for three-year terms beginning June 2017. Criteria include the following:

- Membership in the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and registration (RDN or NDTR) by the Commission on Dietetic Registration
- Masters or higher degree preferred
- Willing to provide professional leadership
- Employed in education or practice for more than three years
- Have a commitment to quality nutrition and dietetics education programs
- Represent a major area or area of nutrition and dietetics practice
- Meet the time commitment required by the position (prepare for and conduct two site visits per year and review two to four program reports per year, estimated to be 20 days annually)
- Be able to attend a Program Reviewer Training workshop following their appointment
- Program Reviewers may not serve simultaneously on other groups within the Academy that may represent a conflict of interest with ACEND® activities or violate U.S Department of Education regulations (i.e., member of the Academy Board of Directors, Academy BOD Executive Committee, HOD Leadership Team, member of the Commission on Dietetic Registration)

In addition to learning about current nutrition and dietetics education and giving back to the profession, there are several benefits. You will further develop leadership and communication skills, travel to universities and practice sites across the country (expenses covered by ACEND) and enjoy the camaraderie of peers in the profession. Many ACEND Program Reviewers comment that the experience has helped them to improve their own practice or educational programs. Finally, ACEND Program Reviewers can add to their leadership experience by running for positions on the ACEND Board of Directors after at least three years of experience as a Program Reviewer.

Visit <http://www.eatrightacend.org/ACEND/reviewers.aspx> to learn more about the position and to access the application. Applications are due by November 1, 2016 for terms beginning June 1, 2017.

Nutrition Related Quality Measures: CMS Agrees with Academy

In a final rule related to the Long-Term Care Hospital Prospective Payment System, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services agreed with the rationale of the Academy and its partners in the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition "for consideration of adopting malnutrition quality measures, including a malnutrition care composite measure, and for including nutritional status and a nutrition care plan during transitions of care to an individual, a caregiver or provider as they are important components of care for LTCH patients." The Academy and Defeat Malnutrition Today also advocated for "inclusion of nutritional status and a nutrition care plan as necessary health information that is transferred to an individual, a caregiver, or provider of services as a component of the Transfer of Health Information for Individuals and Care Preferences quality measure."

I approve.

Hello Board of Directors Executive Committee Members,

Thank you for your recent approval of the Final Recommendations for the Visioning Report 2017. The 2016-2017 Council on Future Practice recently reviewed the final recommendations at their face to face meeting and a concern was raised in regards to recommendation #8. It was noted that NDTRs should be included in the language of this recommendation as they often play a role in nutrition screening. It was also noted that leaving NTDRs out of recommendation #8 could further disenfranchise this Academy group.

The 2016-2017 Council on Future Practice passed a motion to approve the Final Recommendations for Visioning Report 2017 as presented with the incorporation that language in recommendation 8 be changed from "RDNs" to "CDR Credentialed Practitioners".

Upon further discussion with Chris Reidy, Executive Director of CDR, and the Visioning Process Workgroup of the Council on Future Practice, the following modification (noted in red) was made to recommendation #8 to be inclusive of NDTRs and future CDR credentialed practitioners:

8: Recommend the Academy promote collaboration among Dietetic Practice Groups and commit additional resources to position RDNs and other CDR credentialed practitioners, consistent with their scope of practice, as local and global leaders in the prevention, reduction, assessment, and management of malnutrition across all practice settings by increasing training in nutrition risk screening, including nutrition-focused physical examinations, and by influencing public policy, regulatory agencies and other health care practitioners.

Please indicate your support of the modified recommendation #8 to Cecily Byrne at cbyrne@eatright.org by Wednesday, August 17, 2016 at 12 pm CT to move this document to the next step of drafting the Visioning Report 2017 for publication in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Thanks,
Cecily

Subject: Review and Support for the Council on Future Practice's Final Recommendations for the Visioning Report 2017

The Council on Future Practice's Visioning Process Workgroup presents the attached final 12 recommendations for review and approval by the Council on Future Practice, House of Delegates Leadership Team and the Board of Directors Executive Committee. The final recommendations were written to address the 10 change drivers as identified by the Council on Future Practice in the document, "Change Drivers and Trends Driving the Profession: A Prelude to the Visioning Report 2017" and informed by Academy members and credentialed dietetics practitioners, Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons. The final recommendations were determined after a thorough review of input from Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons and consensus of the Visioning Process Workgroup. The final recommendations are not intended to be an all-inclusive list but rather specific, actionable items that can be pursued in the next 10-15 years to advance the profession.

Please indicate your support of the final recommendations to Cecily Byrne at cbyrne@eatright.org by Wednesday, July 20, 2016 at 12 pm CT to move this document to the next step of drafting the Visioning Report 2017 for publication in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Hello Board of Directors Executive Committee Members,

Thank you for your recent approval of the Final Recommendations for the Visioning Report 2017. The 2016-2017 Council on Future Practice recently reviewed the final recommendations at their face to face meeting and a concern was raised in regards to recommendation #8. It was noted that NDTRs should be included in the language of this recommendation as they often play a role in nutrition screening. It was also noted that leaving NTDRs out of recommendation #8 could further disenfranchise this Academy group.

The 2016-2017 Council on Future Practice passed a motion to approve the Final Recommendations for Visioning Report 2017 as presented with the incorporation that language in recommendation 8 be changed from "RDNs" to "CDR Credentialed Practitioners".

Upon further discussion with Chris Reidy, Executive Director of CDR, and the Visioning Process Workgroup of the Council on Future Practice, the following modification (noted in red) was made to recommendation #8 to be inclusive of NDTRs and future CDR credentialed practitioners:

8: Recommend the Academy promote collaboration among Dietetic Practice Groups and commit additional resources to position RDNs and other CDR credentialed practitioners, consistent with their scope of practice, as local and global leaders in the prevention, reduction, assessment, and management of malnutrition across all practice settings by increasing training in nutrition risk screening, including nutrition-focused physical examinations, and by influencing public policy, regulatory agencies and other health care practitioners.

Please indicate your support of the modified recommendation #8 to Cecily Byrne at cbyrne@eatright.org by Wednesday, August 17, 2016 at 12 pm CT to move this document to the next step of drafting the Visioning Report 2017 for publication in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Thanks,
Cecily

Subject: Review and Support for the Council on Future Practice's Final Recommendations for the Visioning Report 2017

The Council on Future Practice's Visioning Process Workgroup presents the attached final 12 recommendations for review and approval by the Council on Future Practice, House of Delegates Leadership Team and the Board of Directors Executive Committee. The final recommendations were written to address the 10 change drivers as identified by the Council on Future Practice in the document, "Change Drivers and Trends Driving the Profession: A Prelude to the Visioning Report 2017" and informed by Academy members and credentialed dietetics practitioners, Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons. The final recommendations were determined after a thorough review of input from Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons and consensus of the Visioning Process Workgroup. The final recommendations are not intended to be an all-inclusive list but rather specific, actionable items that can be pursued in the next 10-15 years to advance the profession.

Please indicate your support of the final recommendations to Cecily Byrne at cbyrne@eatright.org by Wednesday, July 20, 2016 at 12 pm CT to move this document to the next step of drafting the Visioning Report 2017 for publication in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Subject: ACEND Standards Update - Release of the 2017 Accreditation Standards
Attachment:

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is pleased to announce the release of the 2017 Accreditation Standards. The standards and crosswalks of the 2017 standards with the 2012 standards are posted on the ACEND Website. Guidance information for interpreting the standards and templates for reports are being finalized and will be released within the next few weeks. ACEND thanks all who participated in surveys and provided input throughout the development of the standards.

The August Standards Update, which also is posted on the ACEND Website, describes expectations for implementing the standards and the types of support that will be available for interpreting the standards. The August communication also addresses questions received last month through correspondence and at the July 14 Virtual Town Hall Meeting. The town hall meetings are open to all stakeholders and are held the second Thursday of each month at 4:00 p.m. Central Time. The next meeting will occur August 11. Information for connecting to the virtual town hall is posted on the ACEND standards committee webpage.

The 2017 Standards are the result of a planned five-year review cycle of the current 2012 Accreditation Standards to ensure compliance with USDE regulations. Please note that the 2017 standards are different from the future education model associate, bachelor and master degree standards that will be released for public comment in fall 2016.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response. Thank you.

Hi Jeanne,

We have received a request from the AMA to sign-on to a letter to CMS (see attached). Since it relates to our work with the AMA RUC, Jane and I have discussed and feel we should sign-on. In a nutshell the importance of this issue to us is that it was actually the Refinement Panel process we used in 2008 to increase the value of the MNT codes after CMS rejected the values proposed by the RUC. So it would be good to continue to have that avenue available.

With that information in mind, does this request need to be approved by our committee Chairs/Vice Chairs? The deadline to sign-on is August 11.

Thanks,

Attached is the revised version with the time investment included. There is definitely a value to the President and other Board members representing the Academy at meetings, but there also is a better way of strategically selecting and managing the process. I'm also looking forward to Spain—we'll learn a lot and have fun!

Seize the opportunity to earn your sports dietetics certification

Dear members of Sports, Cardiovascular, and Wellness Nutrition,

Every day you work to move people toward better health through evidence-based medical nutrition therapy, research, education, and advocacy that helps clients make modifications to their nutrition and physical behaviors to gain beneficial long-term health benefits.

You've worked hard to gain expertise in your field. As you advance beyond the entry level, now is a great time to specialize and nothing demonstrates this expertise like a credential that identifies you as a Board Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics (CSSD).

The next testing window for the CSSD exam is in February 2017 and the first application deadline is November 4th - so the time to act is now.

Obtaining a specialist credential from CDR represents more than passing an exam - it is a key milestone in your career. Whether you are working to implement evidence-based nutritional strategies and therapies, or address client and community nutrition issues, your CDR-administered specialist certification inspires confidence and demonstrates your ability to clients and employers alike.

But here are a few more benefits you may want to consider:

Be In Demand:

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, demand is growing for RDs with specialized training.

Earn More:

The Academy Compensation & Benefits Survey indicates that board certified specialists receive higher incomes than RDs without specialist certification.

Maximize Your Professional Aims:

Get Recognition and Respect:

Board certified specialists state increased recognition from peers and employers, greater promotion opportunities, and additional professional responsibilities.

These are powerful reasons to consider investing in your career as a specialist. In an increasingly competitive marketplace, a specialist certification from CDR sets you apart from the competition and demonstrates your professional commitment we hope you will join the growing numbers of Board Certified Specialists in Sports Dietetics today.

I'm excited to share that U.S. Olympian, registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy member Sarah Scherer finished 8th in the Women's 10m Air Rifle Final on Saturday! Sarah will have another shot at a gold medal this Thursday. The Academy has been supporting Sarah via social media (see tweet below from last week). Please note that because USOC social media guidelines are very strict for athletes, we are letting Sarah take the lead and reposting her messages from @eatrightPRO. We also will have a blurb under Latest News today on the eatrightPRO homepage and in this week's Eat Right Weekly, in addition to a Food & Nutrition Magazine hero profile in 2017.

Best regards,

Pat

Enhanced Telehealth Resources Now Available

Telehealth is an emerging area of practice for many health care professionals. Regulations, policies, and standards are in flux until a gold standard becomes consensus; but that has not stopped technology from entering into mainstream practice. It is not surprising that RDNs are asking themselves how their patients can benefit from Telehealth and Telenutrition. In response to this, the Academy has redesigned and expanded its online content in this area. Members can arm themselves with vital resources on up-to-date policies, regulations, reimbursement methods, use of technology and best practices when exploring this emerging system of care.

Children are the future of this great country of ours and this amazing planet. I had the opportunity to spend the last week at a camp with more than 150 students from grades 5 thru 12 representing 45 states! They were learning about how to help their fellow students eat better and move more in schools. Dietitians of the future, possibly, what an inspiration! However, students and their families need access to accurate and relevant nutrition information. That is why I am so proud and supportive of our Kids Eat Right Initiative.

In 2010, our Foundation launched Kids Eat Right to support public education projects and programs that address the national health concern of obesity among our children. We created this program in such a way to encourage you, as Academy members, to get involved and deliver these messages in your communities—with schools, worksites, policy makers, and the media, providing you with the tools and resources to position you as leaders and change agents in this arena. I am so proud of how many of you jumped right in and embraced this campaign. To date, Academy members have received more than $186,950 in mini-grants to help them deliver 2,348 presentations to more than 61,150 individuals nationwide. Here are just a few of our Academy members and Foundation volunteers helping kids eat right every day!

Everyday Heroes - August 2016: Kids Eat Right Month

Kids Eat Right Month highlights the role that everyone, from families and communities to health care professionals and policy makers, can take to improve children's health. The Academy and our Foundation are committed to helping all kids eat right because raising the next generation of healthy children starts today. If you haven't had the opportunity to register as a volunteer and check out all the great Kids Eat Right toolkits available for you for free as members, including infographics, articles, tip sheets and PowerPoint presentations, please do so today.

Just like all the great offerings of the Foundation, member donations, not dues fund these valuable resources and innovative programs offered through Kids Eat Right. I hope that you will support Kids Eat Right Month by donating to the Foundation today and thank you for bringing this program and its message to your community!

Policy leaders, including former USDA Secretary Dan Glickman and former Sen. Tom Daschle, spoke of the importance of improved nutrition, preventive services and enhanced use of telehealth to improve care.

Schedule Meetings with Your Congress Members in August 2016

Members of Congress are back in their respective states for a work period from August 1 – September 2, 2016. This is a great time for Academy members and public policy leaders to connect with their U.S. Senators or Representative as a follow-up from PPW 2016.

The Affiliate Public Policy Coordinator (PPC) is to lead the efforts in a way that works for your public policy team. Each affiliate is unique. We do not want to be prescriptive on how you make these connections but rather give you the support you need. August is a great month for your teams to meet with Congress Members, attend town hall meetings and invite members of Congress to visit work sites.

Congress Members. The 2016 August meetings with Congress subtopic contains a variety of resources to assist you and your teams with your August grassroots advocacy activities. The three policy issues webinar recordings used for PPW 2016 are also posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The three policy issues for your meetings are:

- Child Nutrition Reauthorization
- Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act
- Treat and Reduce Obesity Act

The Issue Brief, Leave Behind document and Talking Points for each of these three legislative issues is posted in the 2016 August meetings with Congress subtopic in the Public Policy Panel COI. These resources were used during PPW.

We want to hear about your meetings with Congress members, local events attended by your members and events where a member of Congress visited a work site. The Legislative Tracking Meeting forum is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. It is extremely important that we hear about these meetings. Be sure to take pictures and send with your reports.

If you have questions or need assistance finding the resources, please let us know.

Action Alerts Remain Open!

The action alerts for the Academy's three current legislative issues are still open for our members. With Congress members working in their district, it is perfect timing to send your members a reminder asking our members to send letters. We have 4 action alerts open:

Child Nutrition Programs Reauthorization – House (H.R.5003)

Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act – (S. 3082, H. R. 1886)

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act – (S. 1509, H. R. 2404)

Please note:.. The Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act also includes a letter for Senators.

Please encourage all board, committee, colleagues and friends to also complete action alerts. Thank you for activating your membership. The action alert reports will be available next week.

Action Alert Reports

Action alert reports for the affiliate PPCs were posted on July 27. New reports will not be posted until August 9th as the participation rate was low this past week. Monthly message from Academy Foundation Chair, Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

Happy Kids Eat Right Month!

Children are the future of this great country of ours and this amazing planet. I had the opportunity to spend the last week at a camp with more than 150 students from grades 5 thru 12 representing 45 states! They were learning about how to help their fellow students eat better and move more in schools. Dietitians of the future, possibly, what an inspiration! However, students and their families need access to accurate and relevant nutrition information. That is why I am so proud and supportive of our Kids Eat Right Initiative.

In 2010, our Foundation launched Kids Eat Right to support public education projects and programs that address the national health concern of obesity among our children. We created this program in such a way to encourage you, as Academy members, to get involved and deliver these messages in your communities—with schools, worksites, policy makers, and the media, providing you with the tools and resources to position you as leaders and change agents in this arena. I am so proud of how many of you jumped right in and embraced this campaign. To date, Academy members have received more than $186,950 in mini-grants to help them deliver 2,348 presentations to more than 61,150 individuals nationwide.

Kids Eat Right Month highlights the role that everyone, from families and communities to health care professionals and policy makers, can take to improve children's health. The Academy and our Foundation are committed to helping all kids eat right because raising the next generation of healthy children starts today. If you haven't had the opportunity to register as a volunteer and check out all the great Kids Eat Right toolkits available for you for free as members, including infographics, articles, tip sheets and PowerPoint presentations, please do so today.

Just like all the great offerings of the Foundation, member donations, not dues fund these valuable resources and innovative programs offered through Kids Eat Right. I hope that you will support Kids Eat Right Month by donating to the Foundation today and thank you for bringing this program and its message to your community!

In the past three years, the Foundation has helped change the lives of more than 2,000 dietetic professionals and students, including James Alvarado, a 2016 Diversity Scholarship recipient:

I have had several members contact me about the concern they had with members doing MRT/LEAP testing. These are my thoughts on the subject based on my conversations with them.

The issue of food allergies, food sensitivities, and food intolerances is an interesting and evolving area of practice for many of our members, as well as the public. Like other evidence-based professions, including physicians, nurses, and others, we have a responsibility to remain abreast of the research and help guide our members toward the use of the best possible practices in each of these areas. Abundant research and guidelines exist in the area of food allergy diagnosis and the upcoming paper sounds like it will provide evidence-based guidance for our members. Our job, as practitioners, is to interpret the science of food and nutrition for our clients and patients. If we do not support the use of science and the peer-reviewed evidence how are we different from those practicing with no clinical training or evidence?

Regardless of the effect it may have on the practice of a small percentage of our members, our responsibility as leaders is to the whole body and, as importantly, to the public. MRT/LEAP is not evidence-based because there are no peer-reviewed human studies that support its use for any of the mentioned conditions. There is no evidence that MRT has been clinically validated in any way for any condition. In fact, it is a patented test that is only available through one lab in the country. The lack of availability of other labs to perform this test and lack of data to prove its validity is a red flag.

On the other hand, there is evidence for the use of lab tests, such as serum IgE and skin prick tests (though these have known limitations, there is no mention of limitations of the MRT test on the website for the company that sells this test), for diagnosing food allergies in conjunction with other diagnostic methods. There is evidence for the use of an elimination diet with proven protocol and solid emerging clinical research, such as the FODMAP diet. These are the kinds of evidence-based approaches that our members should be directed to.

Patients and clients who have significant digestive distress, as those who seek LEAP/MRT practitioners likely do, may have serious disease conditions (Crohn's, colitis, or even cancer) that require medical intervention such as medication or even surgery. Treating these patients with this non-evidence based approach could delay them from receiving the care that they need, causing additional physical and financial hardship. Our goal should be to avoid harm. RDNs are not diagnosticians and we should be referring these patients to their physician, allergists, and gastroenterologists for appropriate evaluation and diagnosis. The role of the RDN should be to work as integral parts of the care team along with other healthcare professionals and to support these patients in getting accurate diagnosis, within our scope. We should then work within that diagnosis to identify and treat the nutrition problem (in accordance with our Nutrition Care Process), which is our area of expertise.

Subject: Re: Member request - LEAP/MRT testing

Hello Leah,

Thank you for submitting your request that the issue of dietitians ordering and charging for LEAP/MRT testing be discussed by the House of Delegates.

The HOD relies on members such as you to bring professional issues for consideration through affiliate or DPG delegates, or directly to the Speaker of the HOD. Since decisions about issues to be addressed by the HOD are made by the House Leadership Team, I'm responding on behalf of all of the recipients of your email.

I understand your concern and am pleased to let you know that a new practice paper, "The Role of the RDN in the Diagnosis and Management of Food Allergies," scheduled to be published in the October Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, will address this issue.

Based on the scientific evidence, the paper will not recommend use of the mediator release assay (LEAP diet) for diagnosing a food allergy and will reinforce the fact that RDNs and NDTRs should utilize evidence-based practice according to the Academy's Code of Ethics. As with all of practice papers, this one will be widely promoted to members and guide them to appropriate practice.

While none of us wants to think our colleagues are practicing in anything but an ethical manner, any concern about an individual RDN or NDTR should be reported to the Academy's Ethics Committee at ethics@eatright.org.

You may also be interested in knowing that since 2014, the Commission on Dietetic Registration has a moratorium in place on providing CPEU for LEAP Certification.

Based on the actions noted above, I hope you will agree with me that this issue does not need to be discussed by the House of Delegates.

Thanks again for being an engaged member and for sharing your practice concern. Please address any future issues you feel need to be discussed by the HOD to the Speaker of the House at hod@eatright.org.

Best regards,

Linda

I respectfully request that the issue of dietitians ordering and charging for LEAP/MRT testing be discussed at HOD meeting.

1. This method of testing for food intolerances is not endorsed by the American Academy of Allergy and Immunology and several other national academies of allergy and immunology share those same views. <http://www.mm3admin.co.za/documents/docmanager/8e7be0a4-2b8d-453f-875e-cd1e5132b829/00015032.pdf> so when dietitians are recommending or ordering these types of tests it makes us look less legitimate.
2. These types of tests are often endorsed by alternative medicine practioners and groups like the Alliance for Natural Health and not board certified allergists/ physicians.
3. There have been very few peer-reviewed studies on this type of testing or its efficacy.
4. I do not believe most insurance plans cover this type of testing.

5. There are limited labs that perform this testing - possibly another "red flag" as to its legitimacy.

Schedule Meetings with Your Congress Members in August 2016

Members of Congress are back in their respective states for a work period from August 1 – September 2, 2016. This is a great time for Academy members and public policy leaders to connect with their U.S. Senators or Representative as a follow-up from PPW 2016.

The Affiliate Public Policy Coordinator (PPC) is to lead the efforts in a way that works for your public policy team. Each affiliate is unique. We do not want to be prescriptive on how you make these connections but rather give you the support you need. August is a great month for your teams to meet with Congress Members, attend town hall meetings and invite members of Congress to visit work sites.

The library in the Public Policy Panel COI has a topic folder titled, August In-District Meetings with Congress Members. The 2016 August meetings with Congress subtopic contains a variety of resources to assist you and your teams with your August grassroots advocacy activities.

The three policy issues webinar recordings used for PPW 2016 are also posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. The three policy issues for your meetings are:

- Child Nutrition Reauthorization
- Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act
- Treat and Reduce Obesity Act

The Issue Brief, Leave Behind document and Talking Points for each of these three legislative issues is posted in the 2016 August meetings with Congress subtopic in the Public Policy Panel COI. These resources were used during PPW.

We want to hear about your meetings with Congress members, local events attended by your members and events where a member of Congress visited a work site. The Legislative Tracking Meeting forum is posted in the Public Policy Panel COI. It is extremely important that we hear about these meetings. Be sure to take pictures and send with your reports.

If you have questions or need assistance finding the resources, please let us know.

Action Alerts Remain Open!

The action alerts for the Academy's three current legislative issues are still open for our members. With Congress members working in their district, it is perfect timing to send your members a reminder asking our members to send letters. We have 4 action alerts open:

Child Nutrition Programs Reauthorization – House (H.R.5003)

Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act – (S. 3082, H. R. 1886)

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act – (S. 1509, H. R. 2404)

Please note:.. The Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act also includes a letter for Senators.

Please encourage all board, committee, colleagues and friends to also complete action alerts. Thank you for activating your membership. The action alert reports will be available next week.

Action Alert Reports

Action alert reports for the affiliate PPCs were posted on July 27. New reports will not be posted until August 9th as the participation rate was low this past week. The chart below provides the current total numbers as of today. Action Alert Title Academy Members Participating Percentage Participation Legislators Contacted Number of Letters Sent

House Child Nutrition Bill	3,154	4.3%	432	3,834
Senate Child Nutrition Bill	4,638	6.4%	100	14,043
Treat and Reduce Obesity Act	1,571	2 %	488	5,042
Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act	1,501	1.9%	494	2,782

Public Policy Plan of Work for 2016 - 2017

Each year we ask the affiliates and DPG/MIGs to identify the goals and strategies for their public policy teams. This public policy plan of work was reviewed during the April 2016 orientation sessions. Please send the plan of work to me by September 1, 2016. The plan template for the affiliates and the DPG/MIGs is located in the Public Policy Panel COI and the DPG/MIG Public Policy COI. If you have questions, please contact me.

If you have questions, please let us know.

Connect with Us:

Research shows that nutrition intervention of a patient with, or at risk for, malnutrition can decrease length of hospital stay, falls, pressure ulcers, infections, complications, re-admissions, and overall health care costs. Registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs) can perform a nutrition focused physical exam (NFPE) to more accurately provide individuals with a nutrition diagnosis of malnutrition.

The Academy is offering hands-on training workshops designed to provide the RDN with the skills to perform an NFPE.

Adult NFPE Hands-On Training Workshop

Saturday, October 15, 2016

Newton-Wellesley Hospital, Newton, MA

After attending the NFPE Hands-On Training Workshop, you will be able to:

- Recognize the role of the NFPE in identifying malnutrition
- Assess muscle wasting and fat loss
- Evaluate the presence of edema or fluid accumulation
- Identify clinical signs of micronutrient deficiencies and toxicities
- Measure functional status using hand grip strength dynamometer
- Demonstrate basic NFPE skills on pediatric patients

A Message About CDR Specialist Certification

Dear colleagues,

Since earning my CDR board certified specialist credential, I have noticed a variety of doors opening to me that were not previously available. It gave me the edge in negotiating new contracts for dietitian hours in long term care facilities, assisted living organizations, and even acute care hospitals. Earning and renewing my specialist credential was one of the best decisions that I have made for myself and my career.

The specialist credential I earned has validated my expertise. I encourage you to learn more about and pursue the specialist certification opportunities which are available through CDR. The next testing window for the Board Certified Specialist in Pediatric Nutrition credential is in November.

The first application deadline is August 12th.

The specialist certification is right for you if you:

- are a current registered dietitian with CDR for a minimum of 2 years.
- have at least 2,000 hours of documented pediatric specialist practice experience as an RD within the past five years.
- are seeking professional advancement.

New doors are opening for me and I hope they do for you too take your credential to the next level

Hello Leah,

Thank you for submitting your request that the issue of dietitians ordering and charging for LEAP/MRT testing be discussed by the House of Delegates.

The HOD relies on members such as you to bring professional issues for consideration through affiliate or DPG delegates, or directly to the Speaker of the HOD. Since decisions about issues to be addressed by the HOD are made by the House Leadership Team, I'm responding on behalf of all of the recipients of your email.

I understand your concern and am pleased to let you know that a new practice paper, "The Role of the RDN in the Diagnosis and Management of Food Allergies," scheduled to be published in the October Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, will address this issue.

Based on the scientific evidence, the paper will not recommend use of the mediator release assay (LEAP diet) for diagnosing a food allergy and will reinforce the fact that RDNs and NDTRs should utilize evidence-based practice according to the Academy's Code of Ethics. As with all of practice papers, this one will be widely promoted to members and guide them to appropriate practice.

While none of us wants to think our colleagues are practicing in anything but an ethical manner, any concern about an individual RDN or NDTR should be reported to the Academy's Ethics

Committee at ethics@eatright.org.

You may also be interested in knowing that since 2014, the Commission on Dietetic Registration has a moratorium in place on providing CPEU for LEAP Certification.

Based on the actions noted above, I hope you will agree with me that this issue does not need to be discussed by the House of Delegates.

Thanks again for being an engaged member and for sharing your practice concern. Please address any future issues you feel need to be discussed by the HOD to the Speaker of the House at hod@eatright.org.

1. This method of testing for food intolerances is not endorsed by the American Academy of Allergy and Immunology and several other national academies of allergy and immunology share those same views. <http://www.mm3admin.co.za/documents/docmanager/8e7be0a4-2b8d-453f-875e-cd1e5132b829/00015032.pdf> so when dietitians are recommending or ordering these types of tests it makes us look less legitimate.
2. These types of tests are often endorsed by alternative medicine practioners and groups like the Alliance for Natural Health and not board certified allergists/ physicians.
3. There have been very few peer-reviewed studies on this type of testing or its efficacy.
4. I do not believe most insurance plans cover this type of testing.

Dear Public Policy Coordinator (PPC):

Greetings! As the chair of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee (LPPC), I am asking for your help! As you may have heard, the Academy is hosting its first quarterly advocacy day on September 26th in Washington, D.C. We will be advocating for solutions that address senior malnutrition with several exciting sessions. Can't make it to D.C.? We have an "ask" for your affiliate in District! But first, let me explain why we are introducing these events.

The quarterly advocacy days are new this year and are meant to help the Academy achieve its policy and advocacy goals by complementing the work done at PPW and by you and your affiliate in district offices. Specifically, the Academy is working to have increased and consistent visibility of Academy members on Capitol Hill. We hope to build a strong base of local advocates with a passion for public policy.

The advocacy days are different from other Hill visits in which our colleagues may have participated on behalf of the Academy. We will work with partner organizations to form interdisciplinary and inter-organizational teams that meet strategically with members of Congress. During these events, the focus will be on key members of Congress. The resources that members will need for meetings with members of Congress on this important issue are currently being developed.

The event on September 26th will include a Congressional briefing, Hill visits and an ANDPAC hosted reception focused on senior malnutrition. The event is open to all Academy members and there is no charge to participate. You and your affiliate's members can participate in any of the sessions, even if not able to attend the full day.

Tentative Schedule:

9:30 – 10:30 a.m. Malnutrition Congressional Briefing

11 a.m.– 3 p.m. Hill Visits

3:30 – 5 p.m. Reception with Congressional Champions

We realize it will be challenging to attend these events if you are not local to the D.C. area or if your affiliate has not budgeted for travel. You can help even if you aren't able to attend the event in D.C.!

Here is how you help:

1. Participate in the preparation webinar on September 7, 2016 at 2 p.m. or listen to the recorded webinar (CPEU provided).
2. Work with public policy panel to schedule in district meetings during September and October. If there are key congressional committee members in your affiliate, we will let you know so that you can conduct district office visits to further extend the advocacy efforts.
3. Encourage your affiliate members to complete the action alert on this topic which is planned for September 2016.

Again, the Advocacy Day is being held in Washington, D.C. If you or your members plan to travel from out of town, please make your own arrangements for travel and hotel, as necessary. Meals are not provided for attendees, however there will be light refreshments available at the briefing and during the reception.

If you need additional information or have questions, please contact the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team.

We look forward to hearing about your successful in district visits!

Sincerely,

Nadine Braunstein, PhD, RD, LDN, CDE

Hi Donna –

You can send the attached overview deck and here is some suggested language to include in the response:

At the Summit, we will be exploring collaborative opportunities to accelerate progress toward good health and well-being for all people. Areas for discussion will include improving food system resilience, scaling nutrition solutions and transforming treatment through nutrition interventions. Expected outcomes include innovative solutions to today's unique public health challenges and opportunities for participating organizations to collaborate and stimulate improvements in national and global health through nutrition.

We expect more than 175 leaders, including participants from the Alliance for a Healthier Generation, Feeding America, PEW Charitable Trusts, YMCA, Kaiser Permanente, Abbott Nutrition, Project Peanut Butter, Kroger, USDA Center for Nutrition Policy and Promotion, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, FoodCorps, CVS Health, FDA, Gardens for Health International, National Medical Association, Target, Mead Johnson Nutrition, Walmart, and Wholesome Wave; as well as institutions including Duke University, Tufts University's Gerald J. and Dorothy R. Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy, and Johns Hopkins University's Bloomberg School of Public Health (among others!).

Let me know if I can help with anything else!

-Nicci

Kelly, I know you are busy with the Democratic Convention right now and I can't wait to hear Mrs. Obama's speech! Do you know what the possibilities look like to get a video message from FLOTUS for "The Nutrition Impact Summit" in September? The Academy is trying to work out the schedule for the event and asked me to circle back with you all. Thanks for your efforts on this issue.

Subject: Nutrition Impact Summit Invitation

Dear Connie,

I hope this email finds you well. It was wonderful seeing you at the IFT conference. As a leading strategic thinker and innovator, you are invited to join other leaders in food, wellness and health care systems this fall at “The Nutrition Impact Summit: Connecting Strengths, Inspiring Innovation, Scaling Up Solutions” and explore collaborative opportunities to accelerate progress toward good health and well-being for all people.

I'm writing to personally request your presence at the Summit. Given your extraordinary leadership and contributions in the food and nutrition community—chairing the Nutrition Sciences department at Purdue, serving on the Dietary Guidelines Committee and as a member of the National Academies of Sciences Food and Nutrition Board, and as the Director of the Purdue Women's Global Health Institute, I would also like to invite you to speak at the Summit.

We are using a unique speaker format for the Summit. Rather than have typical keynotes and panels, we are having a small handful of experts and leading thinkers each do a TED-style five-minute talk focused on a specific big idea, emphasizing innovation and how the future will be different than the present. We would be thrilled if you would give a five-minute talk highlighting the work you are doing and what that means for the future.

As you know, this is an exceptionally exciting time for national and global health initiatives. Increased recognition of the close relationship between nutrition and health has led to tremendous momentum over the past decade, presenting opportunities to build on current successful efforts and to inspire new thinking, partnerships and actions.

This invitation-only Summit, to be held September 21 to 23 in Dallas, Texas, is being convened by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, the world's largest organization of food and nutrition professionals, and its Foundation. The Summit areas for discussion will include improving food system resilience, scaling nutrition solutions and transforming treatment through nutrition interventions. Expected outcomes include innovative solutions to today's unique public health challenges and opportunities for participating organizations to collaborate and stimulate improvements in national and global health through nutrition.

We expect more than 175 leaders, with participants from the Alliance for a Healthier Generation, Feeding America, PEW Charitable Trusts, YMCA, Kaiser Permanente, Abbott Nutrition, Project Peanut Butter, Kroger, USDA Center for Nutrition Policy and Promotion, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and Wholesome Wave; as well as institutions including Duke University, Tufts University's Gerald J. and Dorothy R. Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy, and Johns Hopkins University's Bloomberg School of Public Health.

I hope you will join us! Your RSVP is requested by Monday, August 1. I'm attaching a brief summit overview deck for you here. I think you'll find many of the opportunity areas showcased on slide 10 that we'll be exploring at the summit of great interest and your participation will certainly contribute to advancing the dialogue. For more information please visit the Summit event site. Additionally, our planning team welcomes a conversation with you by phone to answer any questions you may have and discuss more details about your speaker role.

Yours in health,

Pat

July Chair Monthly Message

Monthly message from Academy Foundation Chair Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

OUR SECOND CENTURY INITIATIVE

"An honorable past lies behind us, a developing present is with us, and a promising future lies before us.

Mary I. Barber
Academy historian (1931)

I have never been more excited about the future of our profession as I am today. As Foundation Chair, I have the privilege of meeting many bright, exceptional and passionate dietitians working to make the world a better place through the profession we have chosen and love. In fact, many of these individuals I meet and work with on our Board, are recipients of Foundation programs, who have received a scholarship, award or grant that has helped advance their career and are now making an impact in nutrition and dietetics.

Just recently, our Foundation Board met Marie Spiker, a registered dietitian, Academy member and a doctoral student in Human Nutrition at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. Marie received a Foundation/Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) scholarship during her studies that provided critical financial support for her continuing education. She is doing fascinating work to improve the availability of nutrient-dense foods in low- and middle-income countries. Marie is just one of hundreds of individuals who receive support from the Foundation through scholarships, awards or grants, and are the future of our profession!

Speaking of the future, I am excited to share with you the Academy and Foundations plan for our Second Century. As the Academy approaches its centennial in 2017, we are committed to continue building a profession that optimizes health through food and nutrition, as well as creating a new vision for our Second Century a future that focuses on service, collaboration and an emphasis on accelerating progress towards solving the biggest food and nutrition challenges of the 21st century.

The Foundation will play a critical role in the Second Century and is the catalyst for Academy members and the profession to come together to collaborate on these issues. The Second Century initiative will build upon the Foundations programs with emerging projects and global opportunities to meet the growing needs of the public.

With these new initiatives will come the need for additional funds and the Foundation is well positioned to raise these dollars to support these innovative projects and our future. I am proud to have joined such distinguished donors as Susan Finn, PhD, RD, LD, Sonja Connor, MS RD, LD, Jean Hankin, DrPH, MS, MPH, RD and provided a significant lead gift to the Second Century Campaign to show my support and commitment to this exciting new endeavor and the future of a profession that has meant so much to me. We are so appreciative of all donors who have showed their commitment by making a contribution to this campaign.

In the coming months you will learn more about the Second Century and have opportunities to participate in various ways. As a member of the Academy, this will also be your opportunity to make a significant impact on the future and donate to the Second Century as we prepare to kick-off the campaign at FNCE 2016. I hope you are all as excited as I am to be an Academy member as we head into our Second Century. This is our time to be bold and visionary in creating a legacy for the profession as our founders did 100 years ago!

Deb and Kelly, Please see the attached letter addressed to Mrs. Obama. We are still hopeful that one of you will be able to attend our Nutrition Impact Summit September 21-23 in Dallas, TX, but I am specifically reaching out to you about Mrs. Obama in this email. We have firmed up Kevin Concannon attending the summit and I just received a very encouraging email from Sam Kass that he might be able to also attend. We think having Mrs. Obama's voice at this important meeting is vital to our success and the success of her agenda! Looking forward to hearing back from you concerning this request for her to send a video to the summit. You guys are continuing to do amazing work and those of us in the trenches really appreciate it!

Orange = 2010 numbers (for comparison to Boston)

Fortunately, we are seeing the weekly growth meeting and slightly exceeding historical trends at this point. These numbers change hourly, so the increases in paid attendance and revenue will come closer in alignment as we approach the meeting. We remain positive and proactive when encouraging our members to commit to attending FNCE® this year in Boston!

Deb and Kelly, Please see the attached letter addressed to Mrs. Obama. We are still hopeful that one of you will be able to attend our Nutrition Impact Summit September 21-23 in Dallas, TX, but I am specifically reaching out to you about Mrs. Obama in this email. We have firmed up Kevin Concannon attending the summit and I just received a very encouraging email from Sam Kass that he might be able to also attend. We think having Mrs. Obama's voice at this important meeting is vital to our success and the success of her agenda! Looking forward to hearing back from you concerning this request for her to send a video to the summit. You guys are continuing to do amazing work and those of us in the trenches really appreciate it!

Jeanne and Mary Pat, I am sorry, but I am probably not going to be able to be on the call today. I have a new teachers luncheon that the superintendent has pitched a fit about that I was going to skip so I could be on the call. The new teacher luncheon has been on the schedule for a while and he feels "very strongly" that all directors need to be there so we can introduce ourselves to the new staff. If I can get away and jump on the call I will. I am very disappointed about this because you both know I am passionate about public policy.

Hi Donna,

Just wanted to make you aware of a slight change in speakers. Kelly Langston will be taking Alysa's place for the PTA. Kelly is North Carolina's Coordinator for Action for Healthy Kids and PTA President of North Carolina and will be able to speak from a more local level. Also wanted to specifically point out that it will be our Deputy Under Secretary Dr. Katie Wilson on the call this Thursday. Previously, it was Under Secretary Kevin Concannon, but he is on travel. Katie is a great speaker and an advocate for school food service programs and staff. Again, don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!

Janna

Subject: Academy Foundation Board Meeting Ask Follow Up

Good morning Donna. It was great to see you for the Academy Foundation Board of Directors Meeting. Your passion, expertise and dedication to our work is greatly appreciated. This is such an exciting time to be leaders in the organization as we embark on the second century of the profession and the Academy. You heard a great deal about the work that has been happening and your ongoing input into the process, opportunity areas and summit has been invaluable.

It was also an opportunity to discuss the campaign goal, specific strategies on how to meet that goal and build awareness, appreciation and value of the foundation, resulting in a stronger annual giving program. Reaching a $5 million goal will take significant support from internal and external stakeholders to fund both the process and innovative projects that emerge, along with the current initiatives of the Foundation - to provide support for scholarships, research and public education, but in a broader, more visible and global way.

During our time together, I asked that you join me in making a leadership gift to this campaign and consider making this one of your top three charitable contributions this year. I hope you've had time to reflect on this ask and give it some important consideration. Attached are the various giving levels and the donors who have committed their support to date. Our goal is 100% participation among the Foundation Board. You can return this form to Susie Burns at sburns@eatright.org to make us aware of your commitment or if you care to contact me personally, I can be reached at jean.ragalie-carr@dairy.org or 847-561-1195. We are also happy to set up a time to discuss this important decision.

As leaders of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Foundation, this is our opportunity to make a significant impact on the future. We set the tone for all other Academy leadership groups as well as the members. This is our time to be bold and visionary in creating a legacy for the profession as our founders did 100 years ago.

Thank you for your consideration and commitment,

All,

As you are aware, we have a Finance and Audit Committee call on Tuesday, July 27th, at 1 p.m. CDT. The focus of the meeting will be as follows;

1. June 28th minutes (portal document)
2. Audit Update
3. May Financials (portal document)
4. June financials (if available)
5. Investment policy update (portal document)

6. HQ relocation loan
7. President's stipend (portal document)

The four items identified above as "portal document" will be loaded onto the portal today along with the Agenda. I am attaching a preliminary agenda for you. You should have also received an email webinar invitation from the Academy IT department. If you have not received the invitation, please let me know. As I look at the agenda, I think a few things need to be addressed;

1. June Financials (if available) – During most months, the financial results would be completed. However, June is a difficult month because the Accounting staff is pulled into a few directions;
 - a. Audit support. This is the peak demand for the audit support. The resources focus on this area first. The audit is moving fine. However, as you would expect, the level of scrutiny the auditors from Plante Moran can be very time and resource consuming. The result has been a delay in the finalization of the June results.
 - b. Distribution of budgets. Once the budgets are approved, they get put into the financial systems. The budgets are then distributed based upon the previous year's monthly financials. Once this is done, the information is "tweaked" to reflect changes and adjustments that may be necessary. The Accounting team works with the individual project managers to make sure the distribution is directionally correct. Once this is done, I take another look for the "common" costs and to ensure the distribution is not done in a manner that may make it difficult to determine the viability of the information we provide to you. You may recall on our financial sheets, one of the key variables is the consistency of the financial results. There are times that revenues and/or expenses may be "back loaded" or higher at the end of the year. This would not be correct. Therefore, it needs to be adjusted. This year it is taking a little longer to get the budget distributions correct.

Christian, Maria and the entire team are working diligently to get this completed. As soon as it is completed, I will let you know.

2. May Financials - The May financial report will be loaded onto the portal. Christian will provide the narrative, as usual. Nothing has changed since you first saw these in June. Please keep in mind that the May financials will not go final until the auditors have completed their work.

3. Investment Policy update – At the last Foundation Board meeting, a motion was passed to put the investment management services out for bid. Essentially, our policies would indicate that we evaluate, at least every five years, whether to put an RFP out for the investment management services. The decision to move forward was not a reflection on Al Bryant or Segall, Bryant and Hamill. It was primarily to ensure we are adhering to the due diligence requirements of the business. I am working on the RFP. As a part of this process, I thought it would be appropriate to review the Investment Policy. This policy will go out with the RFP. The changes are minor and reflect current conditions or the need to clarify the current document.

4. HQ relocation Loan - This is to let remind everyone that as a part of the Headquarters' relocation process, the Academy would be required to take out a loan for the construction costs. I am finalizing the loan documents with our bank. The final amount should not exceed $2.5 million. I say final amount because the loan will be similar to a working capital loan; we will draw on it over the next few months to pay for services required for the move. The loan rate will start at 2.1% and will have a payback period of no more than 4 years. If we choose too, we can repay the loan anytime after the first year. I have this on the agenda as an action item. Even though this was approved with the move, I think it would be appropriate to have a motion from the Finance Committee authorizing me, and of course, Pat, to execute on the loan not exceed $2.5M.

Key elements would be;

a. The loan would have a floating interest rate beginning at 2.1% and subject to markets. It could go. However, if interest rates rise, we can convert it to a fixed loan. This should reduce our interest costs.

b. Payback period would not exceed 4 years. Even though we will generate at least $850,000 in free cash flow beginning in year one (and rising), giving us the opportunity to repay the loan off earlier, I would prefer to retain some of the free cash flow for operational needs if necessary. The four year window provides us the greatest flexibility at the lowest price.

c. The loan will work like a line of credit. We will be able to draw on the loan during construction with the maximum amount being $2.5M. Most of the money will be needed beginning at the end of August.

I will keep everyone up to date on the loan each month it is in existence.

5. President's Stipend – We discussed this last month briefly. Pat has provided the documentation and will be available to discuss, this proposal.

I look forward to hearing from everyone on Tuesday. If you can't make the call, please let me know. Maria will notify you as the documents are loaded onto the portal. Have a great day.

Paul

July Chair Monthly Message

Monthly message from Academy Foundation Chair, Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND

OUR SECOND CENTURY INITIATIVE

I have never been more excited about the future of our profession as I am today. As Foundation Chair, I have the privilege of meeting many bright, exceptional and passionate dietitians working to make the world a better place through the profession we have chosen and love. In fact, many of these individuals I meet and work with on our Board, are recipients of Foundation programs, who have received a scholarship, award or grant that has helped advance their career and are now making an impact in nutrition and dietetics.

Just recently, our Foundation Board met Marie Spiker, a registered dietitian, Academy member and a doctoral student in Human Nutrition at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. Marie received a Foundation/Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) scholarship during her studies that provided critical financial support for her continuing education. She is doing fascinating work to improve the availability of nutrient-dense foods in low- and middle-income countries. Marie is just one of hundreds of individuals who receive support from the Foundation through scholarships, awards or grants, and are the future of our profession!

Speaking of the future, I am excited to share with you the Academy and Foundation's plan for our Second Century. As the Academy approaches its centennial in 2017, we are committed to continue building a profession that optimizes health through food and nutrition, as well as creating a new vision for our Second Century — a future that focuses on service, collaboration and an emphasis on accelerating progress towards solving the biggest food and nutrition challenges of the 21st century.

The Foundation will play a critical role in the Second Century and is the catalyst for Academy members and the profession to come together to collaborate on these issues. The Second Century initiative will build upon the Foundation's programs with emerging projects and global opportunities to meet the growing needs of the public.

With these new initiatives will come the need for additional funds and the Foundation is well positioned to raise these dollars to support these innovative projects and our future. I am proud to have joined such distinguished donors as Susan Finn, PhD, RD, LD, Sonja Connor, MS RD, LD, Jean Hankin, DrPH, MS, MPH, RD and provided a significant lead gift to the Second Century Campaign to show my support and commitment to this exciting new endeavor and the future of a profession that has meant so much to me. We are so appreciative of all donors who have showed their commitment by making a contribution to this campaign.

Jean Ragalie-Carr, Foundation Chair, presents her contribution at the Torchbearer level to Pat Babjak, Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Chief Executive.

In the coming months you will learn more about the Second Century and have opportunities to participate in various ways. As a member of the Academy, this will also be your opportunity to make a significant impact on the future and donate to the Second Century as we prepare to kick-off the campaign at FNCE® 2016. I hope you are all as excited as I am to be an Academy member as we head into our Second Century. This is our time to be bold and visionary in creating a legacy for the profession as our founders did 100 years ago!

You should have also received an email webinar invitation from the Academy IT department. If you have not received the invitation, please let me know. As I look at the agenda, I think a few things need to be addressed;

1. June Financials (if available) – During most months, the financial results would be completed. However, June is a difficult month because the Accounting staff is pulled into a few directions;

a. Audit support. This is the peak demand for the audit support. The resources focus on this area first. The audit is moving fine. However, as you would expect, the level of scrutiny the auditors from Plante Moran can be very time and resource consuming. The result has been a delay in the finalization of the June results.

b. Distribution of budgets. Once the budgets are approved, they get put into the financial systems. The budgets are then distributed based upon the previous year's monthly financials. Once this is done, the information is "tweaked" to reflect changes and adjustments that may be necessary. The Accounting team works with the individual project managers to make sure the distribution is directionally correct. Once this is done, I take another look for the "common" costs and to ensure the distribution is not done in a manner that may make it difficult to determine the viability of the information we provide to you. You may recall on our financial sheets, one of the key variables is the consistency of the financial results. There are times that revenues and/or expenses may be "back loaded" or higher at the end of the year. This would not be correct. Therefore, it needs to be adjusted. This year it is taking a little longer to get the budget distributions correct.

Christian, Maria and the entire team are working diligently to get this completed. As soon as it is completed, I will let you know.

2. May Financials - The May financial report will be loaded onto the portal. Christian will provide the narrative, as usual. Nothing has changed since you first saw these in June. Please keep in mind that the May financials will not go final until the auditors have completed their work.

3. Investment Policy update – At the last Foundation Board meeting, a motion was passed to put the investment management services out for bid. Essentially, our policies would indicate that we evaluate, at least every five years, whether to put an RFP out for the investment management services. The decision to move forward was not a reflection on Al Bryant or Segall, Bryant and Hamill. It was primarily to ensure we are adhering to the due diligence requirements of the business. I am working on the RFP. As a part of this process, I thought it would be appropriate to review the Investment Policy. This policy will go out with the RFP. The changes are minor and reflect current conditions or the need to clarify the current document.

4. HQ relocation Loan - This is to let remind everyone that as a part of the Headquarters' relocation process, the Academy would be required to take out a loan for the construction costs. I am finalizing the loan documents with our bank. The final amount should not exceed $2.5 million. I say final amount because the loan will be similar to a working capital loan; we will draw on it over the next few months to pay for services required for the move. The loan rate will start at 2.1% and will have a payback period of no more than 4 years. If we choose too, we can repay the loan anytime after the first year. I have this on the agenda as an action item. Even though this was approved with the move, I think it would be appropriate to have a motion from the Finance Committee authorizing me, and of course, Pat, to execute on the loan not exceed $2.5M. Key elements would be;

- a. The loan would have a floating interest rate beginning at 2.1% and subject to markets. It could go. However, if interest rates rise, we can convert it to a fixed loan. This should reduce our interest costs.
- b. Payback period would not exceed 4 years. Even though we will generate at least $850,000 in free cash flow beginning in year one (and rising), giving us the opportunity to repay the loan off earlier, I would prefer to retain some of the free cash flow for operational needs if necessary. The four year window provides us the greatest flexibility at the lowest price.
- c. The loan will work like a line of credit. We will be able to draw on the loan during construction with the maximum amount being $2.5M. Most of the money will be needed beginning at the end of August.

I will keep everyone up to date on the loan each month it is in existence.

5. President's Stipend – We discussed this last month briefly. Pat has provided the documentation and will be available to discuss, this proposal.

I look forward to hearing from everyone on Tuesday. If you can't make the call, please let me know. Maria will notify you as the documents are loaded onto the portal. Have a great day.

Dear NDEP Members,

An interest group of the Global Forum on Innovation in Health Professional Education has been exploring the high rates of stress in the health professions and its negative impacts on the intersection of the learning environment and the service provision environment (educators, students/trainees, and preceptor/providers). Members of the Forum developed a brief survey that aims to (1) establish the extent to which the multiple professions perceive stress and burnout as a problem within their profession; and (2) assess whether interprofessional interventions are used by any professions to try and mitigate negative impacts of the stress. The results of this questionnaire will inform a section of a NAM-published discussion paper that aims to address interprofessional approaches to addressing stress and burnout.

We invite you to participate in this survey and share the survey with any colleagues who might want to participate as well.

Access the survey by clicking here. Thank you in advance for your response!

Hi Donna,

Just wanted to make you aware of a slight change in speakers. Kelly Langston will be taking Alysa's place for the PTA. Kelly is North Carolina's Coordinator for Action for Healthy Kids and PTA President of North Carolina and will be able to speak from a more local level. Also wanted to specifically point out that it will be our Deputy Under Secretary Dr. Katie Wilson on the call this Thursday. Previously, it was Under Secretary Kevin Concannon, but he is on travel. Katie is a great speaker and an advocate for school food service programs and staff. Again, don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!

Members will be updated as these projects near completion.

Hi Donna,

Just wanted to make you aware of a slight change in speakers. Kelly Langston will be taking Alysa's place for the PTA. Kelly is North Carolina's Coordinator for Action for Healthy Kids and PTA President of North Carolina and will be able to speak from a more local level. Also wanted to specifically point out that it will be our Deputy Under Secretary Dr. Katie Wilson on the call this Thursday. Previously, it was Under Secretary Kevin Concannon, but he is on travel. Katie is a great speaker and an advocate for school food service programs and staff. Again, don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!

Mary Pat, Jenn and Jessica, OK A team, here is the advance copy of what is coming down this Thursday. I am assuming you all can keep this quiet until Thursday please, or else they will never trust me again!

Mary Pat and Jenn, Since you all are so crazy with PPW, I reached out to Jessica to see if they could help me draft my 2-3 minutes of talking points for the opening part of the media conference call. Jessica said as long as she had permission from the Academy she would help. I cannot imagine that we are not all on the same page with this? I am sure between the four of us we can put out some sound bites that the media could use to help going forward with our ultimate mission. You three are so much more familiar with what was being planned and what became final and also what the hot spots are that we need to focus on in our talking points. You guys got me started down this path and I so appreciate your support to keep the message on point like you need it to be!

Jessica, let me know if this is all you need to get a draft going?

I've also attached a list of our key messages so you can get a sense of what USEC Concannon may be saying during his remarks.

Also, all of the call-in information is below. Please don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions at all. One note: I will be on vacation on Thursday, so if anything comes up that day, please feel free to reach out to my colleague Amanda Heitkamp at amanda.heitkamp@oc.usda.gov. But until then, I'm all yours!

Ms. Martin,

I was given your name by USDA Under Secretary Kevin Concannon as a great child nutrition ally. I'm contacting you to ask for your help in discussing some upcoming progress in child nutrition programs. For your information only, USDA will be releasing four final rules this Thursday – the Local School Wellness Policy, Smart Snack in Schools, Administrative Review Process, and Community Eligibility Provision final rules. To best explain what these rules are and why they are important, we're hosting a "media roundtable." Mr. Concannon will be on the call, which will be open for any member of the media to call in, listen to remarks, and then ask questions. We will also have Ms. Alysa Grude from the PTA to provide another perspective, but we're really like someone who could provide the school nutrition perspective to join us.

We're hoping you would agree to being on the call to discuss about these rules, especially the Local School Wellness Policy and possibly the Smart Snacks final rules, to provide a crucial perspective. The call is from 1:30 – 2:30pm ET. We would simply request you speak for approximately 2-3 minutes at the beginning of the call after Mr. Concannon kicks things off and then be available to answer questions. Would you be willing to join the roundtable? If you need any additional information on the call or the rules, please let me know.

Thanks much!

Agriculture Deputy Under Secretary Wilson Hosts Media Call to Discuss Smart Snacks, Local Wellness Policies to Make School Environments Healthier

Final regulations ensure snacks, marketing messages in schools are consistent with healthier school lunch and breakfast standards

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 21, 2016 – TODAY, Agriculture Deputy Under Secretary Katie Wilson will join Burke County School Nutrition Program Director, Donna Martin, and PTA President of North Carolina, Kelly Langston, to announce final changes under the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act (HHFKA) that will improve access to healthy food, consistent nutrition standards for foods marketed and served to students, and program integrity efforts that will further improve the administration of federal child nutrition programs.

Since implementation of HHFKA in 2012, the more than 52 million children who attend schools that participate in the National School Lunch Program have healthier school environments than ever before. Research shows that nearly 80 percent of schools offer two or more vegetables at lunch, and students are eating 16 percent more vegetables with their meals. In addition, more low-income children are benefiting from breakfast and lunch programs, and nearly four million children have access to healthy food in the summer when school is out and meals are scarce.

Mary Pat, I met with Doug Davis at ANC and asked for a meeting of all the players in the sandbox to come together so we could move forward. Dayle Hayes and Bertrand Weber were in the meeting also. I followed up with Katie Wilson and she is on board for a meeting. Katie has even suggested a neutral facilitator to run the meeting. Dayle is supposedly following up with Doug to see if we are a go. I plan on including SNA, PEW, United Fresh, Alliance, AND, FRAC and USDA. There may be other players as we start to work this out and I will count on you for who else to include. Don't want it too big though. I feel like we will do the meeting in DC if we can get SNA to agree to the meeting. Our plan is to rally around our common goal to block the block grants. I feel like we have started the ball rolling and Dayle, Bertrand and I are going to keep at it. I assume the Academy would fund me to go to a one day meeting if we get this worked out? I would be OK with you representing the Academy and me not going too. My only other concern would be who would be willing to pay for the facilitator? Let me know your thoughts on our plan so far?

Good morning Donna. It was great to see you for the Academy Foundation Board of Directors Meeting. Your passion, expertise and dedication to our work is greatly appreciated. This is such an exciting time to be leaders in the organization as we embark on the second century of the profession and the Academy. You heard a great deal about the work that has been happening and your ongoing input into the process, opportunity areas and summit has been invaluable.

It was also an opportunity to discuss the campaign goal, specific strategies on how to meet that goal and build awareness, appreciation and value of the foundation, resulting in a stronger annual giving program. Reaching a $5 million goal will take significant support from internal and external stakeholders to fund both the process and innovative projects that emerge, along with the current initiatives of the Foundation - to provide support for scholarships, research and public education, but in a broader, more visible and global way.

During our time together, I asked that you join me in making a leadership gift to this campaign and consider making this one of your top three charitable contributions this year. I hope you've had time to reflect on this ask and give it some important consideration. Attached are the various giving levels and the donors who have committed their support to date. Our goal is 100% participation among the Foundation Board. You can return this form to Susie Burns at sburns@eatright.org to make us aware of your commitment or if you care to contact me personally, I can be reached at jean.ragalie-carr@dairy.org or 847-561-1195. We are also happy to set up a time to discuss this important decision.

*As leaders of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Foundation, this is our opportunity to make a significant impact on the future. We set the tone for all other Academy leadership groups as well as the members. This is our time to be bold and visionary in creating a legacy for the profession as our founders did 100 years ago.

Thank you for your consideration and commitment,

A recent request from an Academy member to develop a position paper on GMOs, coupled with some new action in Congress has prompted me to provide you with an update on our activities in this area. On Thursday, July 14, Congress passed legislation requiring the government “to establish a national disclosure standard for bioengineered foods and for other purposes.” The White House says President Obama will sign the bill, which would pre-empt a Vermont law that took effect this month. The bill, which passed by a 306 to 117 vote, directs the U.S. Department of Agriculture to create a national labeling standard that allows food producers to choose how they want to disclose the presence of genetically modified ingredients. Under the legislation, manufacturers will be able to use text, symbols or a QR code that consumers must scan with a smartphone to relay the information.

Two active Academy initiatives related to food technology, including genetically modifying foods, are underway: an Evidence Analysis Library systematic review titled “Advanced Technology of Food Production” (the review portion is completed and is currently available on the EAL and a manuscript describing the study and its results will be submitted for publication in the fall to the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics); and a white paper discussing genetically modified foods within the food supply that will be submitted for publication upon completion.

This information will be shared with members Academy in this week's Eat Right Weekly and will be posted to www.eatright.org/transparency. Academy members will also be updated on these projects when near completion.

3. Action Alerts Remain Open – Take Action Today!
4. Action Alert Reports

Public Policy Open Forum: Connect with Congress in August

Members of Congress will be back in their respective states for a work period from August 1 – September 2, 2016. This is a great time for Academy members and public policy leaders to connect with their U.S. Senators or Representative as a follow-up from PPW 2016.

Take your advocacy efforts to the next level by participating on the next public policy open forum on Tuesday, July 19 from 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. (Eastern Time). Academy members will outline the suggested advocacy activities for PPW follow-up with members of Congress in their home districts. All DPG, MIG and public policy panel leaders should attend (please make sure at least one person from your DPG or affiliate participates).

Register Here. The webinar will be recorded so leaders who have a scheduling conflict can view it at a later date.

Continuing the Academy's PPW Successes

The Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (S. 3082, H.R. 1686) has 45 co-sponsors. The 10 new co-sponsors are Rep. Joyce Beatty (Ohio-3), Rep. Matthew Cartwright (Pa.-17), Rep. Ben Lujan (N.M.-3) and Rep. Grace Meng (N.Y.-6).

Visit <https://www.congress.gov> for additional information about each of the legislative issues.

Thank you to all of our members who have reached out to ask your Member of Congress to sign-on to these bill.

Action Alerts Remain Open!

The action alerts for the three PPW legislative issues are still open for Academy members. The three PPW issues are:

- Child Nutrition Reauthorization (2 action alerts)
- Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act
- Treat and Reduce Obesity Act

Please urge your Affiliate, DPG and MIG members to utilize the Action Center to send letters to members of Congress. There is power in numbers but only if we activate our membership!

Here is what you can do:

1. Send an eblast message to your members asking them to send letters to their Senators and Representative. You can also post the message to your electronic mailing list. The following approved message should be used.

Dear Colleague,

Please send your members of Congress email letters today. Click on each of the titles below to take action. It takes only a few minutes!

Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act – (S. 3082, H. R. 1886)

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act – (S. 1509, H. R. 2404)

Please note: There are four separate action alerts, one for each of the legislative issues. The Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act also now includes a letter for Senators.

It is urgent that members of Congress hear from you. Please take action today.

Your RDN friend,

2. Please encourage all board, committee, colleagues and friends to also complete action alerts. Thank you for activating your membership. The action alert reports will be available next week.

July 19, 2016

LPPC members,

My sincere apologies for the delay in providing the agenda and materials for our next call on Friday, July 22 at 11:30 am EST/10:30 am CST/8:30 am PT. Due to my Father's recent passing, I took some time away from the office. Unfortunately, I will also not be present for Friday's call as I will be home in Jamaica for a memorial service. I will be unavailable starting July 20 - 27.

The agenda for Friday's meeting has been uploaded to the LPPC Community of Interest which can be accessed here. We anticipate uploading all agenda items no later than COB today.

In addition, please pay close attention to the PPW discussion document attached to this email. All LPPC members are asked to do their best to prepare responses to the discussion questions.

Below, you will find the information needed to access the meeting:

Step 1: Log into the webinar via the personalized link provided here.

The meeting password is: LPPC16

Step 2: Follow the audio prompts to use the "CALL ME" feature to have the Web-Ex system dial you in the audio portion of the meeting. This will sync your computer and the audio together accordingly. Do not dial into the meeting directly when connecting to Web-Ex unless you do not have a direct dial phone number (If you do not have a direct dial phone number, please select the option to dial-in from the drop-down menu – the number will be provided). By using the Call Me feature, the system will sync your web and audio connections together under your attendee name in Web-Ex.

Note: For those individuals unable to participate in the web portion of the meeting and/or do not have a direct dial phone number, you can dial in to the meeting as follows:

Dial In: 866-477-4564

Conference Code: 271-642-5619

As always, if you have any questions we are happy to assist! Again, I will be out of town for the meeting on Friday but, please feel free to reach out to Paulina Weeden for any help you might need.

Christine A. Rhone

Hello! Below and attached are updates for The Nutrition Impact Summit. I look forward to talking with you tomorrow. Thanks! --Katie

As of July 17, RSVPs for all of the 96 internal member spots for The Nutrition Impact Summit have been confirmed, including securing representation from all desired member categories (students, early career professionals, seasoned professionals and national leaders) to ensure diverse perspectives across the identified opportunity areas.

Additionally, 58 of the 80 external stakeholder RSVPs have been confirmed, and we expect to confirm the remaining 22 spots in the next couple of weeks. As invitees confirm their participation at the Summit, we are continually evaluating the list and extending a small number of invitations to confirm that we will have adequate representation across all 15 of the Opportunity Areas. Also, Connie Weaver, PhD, will be receiving a personal invite this week from Pat.

(see invitation below) The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is getting ready to have their 100th anniversary and is planning on developing a new strategy to help accelerate the global impact we have on health. We are convening 150 "nutrition leaders" from all over to help us shape this future. I cannot think of anyone who could help us shape this new direction more than you. The Academy would pay for you to participate in this summit if your schedule permits. We already have an unbelievable list of people who will be coming and I know you would enjoy networking with them (even though I know you don't need that). The dates are September 21-23 in Dallas. Please let me know if this could fit into your schedule! I look forward to hearing back from you!

(see invitation below) The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is getting ready to have their 100th anniversary and is planning on developing a new strategy to help accelerate the global impact we have on health. We are convening 150 "nutrition leaders" from all over to help us shape this future. I cannot think of anyone who could help us shape this new direction more than you. The Academy would pay for you to participate in this summit if your schedule permits. We already have an unbelievable list of people who will be coming and I know you would enjoy networking with them (even though I know you don't need that). The dates are September 21-23 in Dallas. Please let me know if this could fit into your schedule! I look forward to hearing back from you!

Did You Know?

CDR credentialed practitioners, RDs and DTRs, elect Commissioners for three-year terms on an annual basis. Every year the Academy Nominating Committee sends out a call for nominations to all Academy members and CDR credentialed practitioners. The Nominating Committee reviews all nominations and develops a slate of candidates. The candidate slate is distributed to all CDR credentialed practitioners in January of each year. Election results are reported annually in late February. As a credentialed practitioner it is very important that you participate in both the election process.

Since 1990, an elected DTR member has served on the Commission. A Board Certified Specialist and an Advanced Practice in Clinical Nutrition credentialed practitioner are also included on CDR since the implementation of these certification programs. For this first year since implementation of the new Advanced Practice in Clinical Nutrition certification program this position was appointed. Beginning with the 2017 ballot, this will also be an elected position on the Commission. A public representative has held an appointed position on CDR since 1984 and has full rights and privileges. Beginning in June 2006, a newly credentialed registered dietitian serves in an appointed position on the Commission for a two-year term. In all, the Commission currently consists of 12 members, 10 who are RDs, 1 of whom is newly credentialed, 1 DTR and 1 public representative.

An article describing the development and validation of the practice competencies was published in the June 2015 Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Donna,

Let me share her name with Diane Enos, as well, for that other position. As you can imagine, lots of great candidates for committee appointments so the selection process is challenging. Perhaps Dayle might be selected in the future for the CFP.

Dayle would be great choice for that position too, but I thought she was going to be on the Council of Future Practice.

So I appreciate you asking the question to bring the matter to my attention.

On another note, I did communicate with Diane Enos about the need to find a replacement for you for the VFHK and passed along your recommendation. I have not heard back from her so will circle back around to confirm that process is moving along.

The Council on Future Practice's Visioning Process Workgroup presents the attached final 12 recommendations for review and approval by the Council on Future Practice, House of Delegates Leadership Team and the Board of Directors Executive Committee. The final recommendations were written to address the 10 change drivers as identified by the Council on Future Practice in the document, "Change Drivers and Trends Driving the Profession: A Prelude to the Visioning Report 2017" and informed by Academy members and credentialed dietetics practitioners, Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons. The final recommendations were determined after a thorough review of input from Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons and consensus of the Visioning Process Workgroup. The final recommendations are not intended to be an all-inclusive list but rather specific, actionable items that can be pursued in the next 10-15 years to advance the profession.

Dear Donna,

I, along with the rest of our Delaware delegation, really enjoyed meeting you briefly at PPW 2016 and hearing you speak! I am currently serving as the President-Elect of the Delaware Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and am therefore beginning the process of planning our annual conference. I was wondering if you would be willing to come speak at the Annual Conference of the Delaware Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics in Newark, Delaware in May 2017. Of course, I would be happy to answer any questions you may have before deciding!

Best,

Anja

Deb and Kelly, Please see the attached letter addressed to Mrs. Obama. We are still hopeful that one of you will be able to attend our Nutrition Impact Summit September 21-23 in Dallas, TX, but I am specifically reaching out to you about Mrs. Obama in this email. We have firmed up Kevin Concannon attending the summit and I just received a very encouraging email from Sam Kass that he might be able to also attend. We think having Mrs. Obama's voice at this important meeting is vital to our success and the success of her agenda! Looking forward to hearing back from you concerning this request for her to send a video to the summit. ### ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Congress Passes Global Food Security Act

The House of Representatives passed the Global Food Security Act (S. 1252) on July 6 and the bill has gone to President Obama for his signature. The bill requires the administration to create a global food security strategy as an important step in ensuring adequate investment, attention and coordination for global agricultural development, food security and poverty alleviation. The Academy had sent Congress a letter of support for the legislation from President Lucille Beseler, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, FAND, and Chief Executive Officer Patricia Babjak. The Academy thanks the bill's many champions, including Sens. Bob Casey (Pa.) and Johnny Isakson (Ga.) and Reps. Betty McCollum (Minn.) and Chris Smith (N.J.) for their work on this bill.

Preventive Health Savings Act of 2016 Introduced in the Senate

Senators Mike Crapo (Idaho) and Angus King (Maine) re-introduced the Preventive Health Savings Act of 2016 in the Senate as a companion bill to H.R. 3660. A priority of the Academy in the last Congress, this bill would allow the Congressional Budget Office to more accurately reflect the cost savings of preventive health care by extending the budget time-frame from 10 years to 30 years. Expanding the window enables Congress to have cost data, making it more likely to invest in evidence-based preventive interventions.

New Cosponsors for Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act

Thanks to the efforts of Academy members, there are two new House cosponsors to the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 1686), which would enable registered dietitian nutritionists to provide medical nutrition therapy to Medicare patients with prediabetes. The new cosponsors are Reps. Matt Cartwright (Pa.) and Don Young (Ala.). The Academy continues to advocate for passage of H.R. 1686; members are urged to take action today and ask your member of Congress to cosponsor.

GMO Labeling Compromise Passes Senate, on to House

The Senate passed a bill which would set a national requirement that food manufacturers disclose ingredients that are genetically modified through one of a variety of different tools or language. The bill would preempt state laws such as Vermont's regarding GMO ingredient labeling. The House is expected to vote on the legislation as early as this week.

House Appropriations Committee Releases Health Spending Bill

The House Appropriations Committee released the Fiscal Year 2017 Labor, Health and Human Services funding bill on July 6 and the Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services held a hearing on the bill on July 7. The bill provides $73.2 billion for the Department of Health and Human Services, including $33.3 billion for the National Institutes of Health, $7.8 billion for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, $9.3 billion for the Head Start program, $454 million for congregate meals and $234 million for home-delivered meals. The Academy advocated for many of these spending increases and will continue to support strong funding for nutrition programs.

The Nutrition Impact Summit

Connecting Strengths, Inspiring Innovation, Scaling Up Solutions

September 21-23, 2016

Dallas, Texas

Dear Sam,

I hope this email finds you doing well. I wanted to personally invite you to this Nutrition Impact Summit that the Academy is holding in September in Dallas. (see invitation below) The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is getting ready to have their 100th anniversary and is planning on developing a new strategy to help accelerate the global impact we have on health. We are convening 150 "nutrition leaders" from all over to help us shape this future. I cannot think of anyone who could help us shape this new direction more than you. The Academy would pay for you to participate in this summit if your schedule permits. We already have an unbelievable list of people who will be coming and I know you would enjoy networking with them (even though I know you don't need that). The dates are September 21-23 in Dallas. Please let me know if this could fit into your schedule! I look forward to hearing back from you!

As a leading thinker, innovator or practitioner in food, wellness or health care, you are invited to participate in "The Nutrition Impact Summit: Connecting Strengths, Inspiring Innovation, Scaling Up Solutions."

This invitation-only Summit, to be held September 21 to 23 in Dallas, Texas, is being convened by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Foundation to explore collaborative opportunities that can accelerate progress toward good health and well-being for all people.

Since its founding in 1917, the Academy has led the way in recognizing food and nutrition are the basis for good health, enabling communities to thrive in unprecedented ways. The start of the Academy's Second Century in 2017 represents a rare moment to continue current momentum and take new actions with those — like yourself— who are at the forefront of creating positive global change.

The Nutrition Impact Summit will follow a highly interactive and structured process, using the Appreciative Inquiry Summit model. Participants will collaborate to shape a collective vision and strategy for accelerating the global impact of nutrition on health. Your participation is requested for two half-days and one full day as follows:

- Wednesday, September 21: 2 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. CDT
- Thursday, September 22: 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. CDT
- Friday, September 23: 7:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. CDT

Areas for discussion may include improving food resilience; empowering better food choices through increased knowledge of and access to nutrient-dense foods; accelerating shifts to preventive care; and transforming health care treatment through nutrition interventions.

To facilitate planning, your RSVP is requested by Friday, May 20. Please click here to RSVP.

For more information about the Summit, its expectations and the meeting's agenda, please visit the Summit event site.

Participation in this Summit is by invitation only and is non-transferable. If you cannot attend and would like to recommend someone else to attend in your place, please email nutritionimpactsummit@eatright.org.

We look forward to seeing you in Dallas in September.

Thank you for agreeing to help the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation thank its donors! Your efforts will go a long way in making our donors feel valued and strengthening our long-term fundraising initiatives.

Things to remember:

- Calls can be made whenever it is convenient for you.
- Feel free to leave a thank-you message if you get the donor's voicemail system, and consider that call completed.
- If you call an office number and the donor is unavailable, ask if the donor has personal voicemail so you can record a thank-you message. If not, leave a message that you're calling on the Foundation's behalf simply to thank them for their support, and a call back is not necessary. You're welcome to leave your number if you so choose.

This script is just a suggestion to get you started. The main point is to thank the donor for his/her support, but DO NOT ASK for either current or future gifts.

Sample Script: Hello, may I please speak to _____? This is (name) calling on behalf of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation. As a Board Member, I wanted to sincerely thank you for your recent gift and your generous support of the Foundation. We know that you have many choices when it comes to your philanthropic dollars, and we wanted you to know how much we appreciate your decision to support the Foundation. Your support will help ensure the strength of our specialty for years to come. Thanks again.

Sample Email: Dear _____.

I hope this note finds you well. I wanted to reach out to you and sincerely thank you for your recent gift and your generous support of the Foundation. We know that you have many choices when it comes to your philanthropic dollars, and we wanted you to know how much we appreciate your decision to support the Foundation. Your support will help ensure the strength of our specialty for years to come.

Best regards,

DO NOT ASK FOR SUPPORT. This is a THANK-YOU only.

Questions you may be asked:

Are you calling to ask me for money?

No – we understand that there are many charities out there who ask for your support. We just wanted to say thank you for valuing the Foundation's work enough to support it.

How much have I given?

I don't have that information, but you can certainly call Martha Ontiveros at 800-877-1600, extension 4773, and she'll be able to tell you.

I was wondering if you would be willing to come speak at the Annual Conference of the Delaware Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics in Newark, Delaware in May 2017. Of course, I would be happy to answer any questions you may have before deciding!

September 21-23, 2016

Dear Sam,

I hope this email finds you doing well. I wanted to personally invite you to this Nutrition Impact Summit that the Academy is holding in September in Dallas. (see invitation below) The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is getting ready to have their 100th anniversary and is planning on developing a new strategy to help accelerate the global impact we have on health. We are convening 150 "nutrition leaders" from all over to help us shape this future. I cannot think of anyone who could help us shape this new direction more than you. The Academy would pay for you to participate in this summit if your schedule permits. We already have an unbelievable list of people who will be coming and I know you would enjoy networking with them (even though I know you don't need that). The dates are September 21-23 in Dallas. Please let me know if this could fit into your schedule! I look forward to hearing back from you!

As a leading thinker, innovator or practitioner in food, wellness or health care, you are invited to participate in "The Nutrition Impact Summit: Connecting Strengths, Inspiring Innovation, Scaling Up Solutions."

This invitation-only Summit, to be held September 21 to 23 in Dallas, Texas, is being convened by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and its Foundation to explore collaborative opportunities that can accelerate progress toward good health and well-being for all people.

Since its founding in 1917, the Academy has led the way in recognizing food and nutrition are the basis for good health, enabling communities to thrive in unprecedented ways. The start of the Academy's Second Century in 2017 represents a rare moment to continue current momentum and take new actions with those — like yourself— who are at the forefront of creating positive global change.

The Nutrition Impact Summit will follow a highly interactive and structured process, using the Appreciative Inquiry Summit model. Participants will collaborate to shape a collective vision and strategy for accelerating the global impact of nutrition on health. Your participation is requested for two half-days and one full day as follows:

- Wednesday, September 21: 2 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. CDT
- Thursday, September 22: 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. CDT
- Friday, September 23: 7:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. CDT

Areas for discussion may include improving food resilience; empowering better food choices through increased knowledge of and access to nutrient-dense foods; accelerating shifts to preventive care; and transforming health care treatment through nutrition interventions.

To facilitate planning, your RSVP is requested by Friday, May 20. Please click here to RSVP.

For more information about the Summit, its expectations and the meeting's agenda, please visit the Summit event site.

Participation in this Summit is by invitation only and is non-transferable. If you cannot attend and would like to recommend someone else to attend in your place, please email nutritionimpactsummit@eatright.org.

We look forward to seeing you in Dallas in September.

The Council on Future Practice's Visioning Process Workgroup presents the attached final 12 recommendations for review and approval by the Council on Future Practice, House of Delegates Leadership Team and the Board of Directors Executive Committee. The final recommendations were written to address the 10 change drivers as identified by the Council on Future Practice in the document, "Change Drivers and Trends Driving the Profession: A Prelude to the Visioning Report 2017" and informed by Academy members and credentialed dietetics practitioners, Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons. The final recommendations were determined after a thorough review of input from Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice think tank members and Academy external organization liaisons and consensus of the Visioning Process Workgroup. The final recommendations are not intended to be an all-inclusive list but rather specific, actionable items that can be pursued in the next 10-15 years to advance the profession.

Hi Donna –

Hope you're having a nice Tuesday! Quick question – I saw the back and forth on Friday that was getting the language finalized for the outreach to Michelle Obama. I just wanted to follow-up to see if the video request had been extended – I don't think I was copied.

Thank you!

Dear PPW Attendees,

What a wonderful event we had last month at the Academy's 2016 Public Policy Workshop in Washington D.C.!

It's been my pleasure to serve as ANDPAC Chair this year. I enjoyed seeing so many of you bonding with colleagues, making new friendships, learning about the importance of ANDPAC and the Academy's legislative goals, and then building and reinforcing relationships with members of Congress. Remember that your donations to ANDPAC help to provide outreach opportunities for Academy members to network with U.S. Senators and Representatives that influence food and nutrition regulations and legislation. Please work on my Action Item request of sharing what you learned and experienced at PPW with your affiliate members. We are stronger as a team that works together to benefit us all.

Finally, it was so good to see our red, white and blue proud. I hope you will view this short video, and search for your smiling face. Thank you for your continued support!

Sincerely,
Nancy Z. Farrell, MS, RDN
2016 ANDPAC Chair

All,

As Paul indicated in his email below, all documents for Tomorrow's conference call are loaded into the portal, with the exception of the President's stipend discussion and the Controller's narrative for April.

They will be loaded into the portal tomorrow and I will send you an email when completed.

Please let us know if you have any questions

All,

I want to follow-up on the email from this morning. We continue to close the books on May. However, Maria is loading onto the portal, as I type this email, the preliminary results for May and the Fiscal Year. Everything will be loaded onto the portal with the exception of the support for the President's stipend discussion and the Controller's narrative for April. We will also load onto the portal the FAC's contact information and Biographies. Keep in mind that the May financials will remain preliminary until after the auditors have completed their review. This should have happened in August. At the same time, Accounting will continue to make adjustments where appropriate as they reconcile all of the accounts across each business entity. Also, I would not be surprised to see a late invoice come through that would require us to book the expense. It does happen.

To help facilitate our discussion on Tuesday, I do have a variance report for the Academy's May financials. Over the next few weeks, I will see if I can put together a similar summary for the full fiscal year. Finally, on Monday, I will send to you an additional email providing some more detail on the results for each business entity. I also will provide the "map or key" for each of the financial package pages. The suggestion was made at the Finance Committee that we create this map. This is a great idea that should have been done before!!

In any event, please feel free to call me if you have any questions or concerns.

Paul

P.S. One final note; the webinar invitation went out to everyone today. It will come from the Academy IT department. Please let us know if you haven't received it.

All,

This is a reminder that we have our first Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, June 28th at 1 p.m. CDT. Hopefully, everyone can make it. The first call of the year may be a little longer than normal. Our agenda has us ending at 2:30. I hope this won't be the case. However, please block out the full 90 minutes. The information for our meeting will be put onto the portal over the next couple of days. Maria Juarez will contact you as the information is submitted. Since I know the calendar has changed a little since it originally was provide in early May, I am attaching it for you now. Please put the dates onto your calendars. If you cannot make a call, please let me know.

The call on Tuesday will have a few items to discuss;

1. 2016-2017 Program of work

2. President's stipend
3. April final financials
4. May preliminary financials

Since we are still receiving bills to close out the 2016 Fiscal Year, we may not spend too much time on the financial results for May at this time. If we don't, then it will reduce the time we spend on the call. I will follow-up with additional information this afternoon.

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the June Update is posted on the ACEND Standards webpage www.eatrightacend.org/ACEND/Standards.

The June Update announces the release of a REVISED Draft of the 2017 Accreditation Standards (June 2016) and highlights key changes that were made in response to comments received since their initial release in February. ACEND greatly values your input and encourages you to provide additional comments on the revisions during a second comment period that will close June 30, 2016. The revised standards are posted on the ACEND standards committee webpage and comments can be provided at www.surveymonkey.com/r/REV2017STD.

The draft 2017 Standards are the result of a planned five-year review cycle of the current 2012 Accreditation Standards to ensure compliance with USDE regulations. Please note that the 2017 standards are different from the future education model associate's, bachelor's and master's degree standards that will be released for public comment later this year.

The June Update also addresses questions received at April NDEP meetings and the May 12 Virtual Town Hall Meeting. The Virtual Town Hall meetings are open to all stakeholders and are held the second Thursday of each month. Please note that beginning in June, the meeting time will change to 4:00 p.m. Central Time. The next meeting will occur June 9. Information for connecting to the virtual town hall is posted on the ACEND standards committee webpage.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

Ok, perfect - thanks for confirming!

As far as the meeting, unfortunately, given the First Lady's schedule this month, it won't be possible for her to participate in person or via video. Apologies! Hope all goes well with the meeting and Hill visits - keep us posted!

Hope you have a great weekend!

I got three emails worth of photos. Thanks so much for finding the ones with the Superintendent, he has been about to drive me crazy to get the photo.

I also wanted to see about getting something on your radar. The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is having their Public Policy Workshop on Thursday, June 23 in Washington. We will have over 400 Registered Dietitian Nutritionists in town getting ready to storm the hill over the Child Nutrition Reauthorization Bill that the House marked up. We are starting our meeting that Thursday at 3 pm. Do you think there would be anyway to get the First Lady to be able to give a few brief remarks to the Dietitians attending the workshop to make sure they know how important it is to get this bill changed? Even if she could send a video message over to the meeting that would be helpful. We will have Dietitians there from all 50 states and they will be visiting their Senators and Congressman. I think it would really help get them fired up about this issue. Let me know what you think? Thanks again for the pictures!

Hi team,

Happy Friday! We would like to share an update on Summit RSVPs as well as request your help in reaching out to the external invitees who we haven't heard from yet. Please see below for a summary of RSVPs to date and the attached document with more details.

- Please take a look at the “External – Rds 1 & 2” tab in the attached and focus on the invitees whose RSVP status is “Haven't Heard From.”
- Please review those invitees and let me know if there is anyone you know (or don't know) and are willing to contact.
- By end of day Monday, June 6, please send me the list of people that you'd like to reach out to.

· To avoid duplicate efforts, on Tuesday morning I will circulate the sign-up list and a draft script/email language to aid in your outreach.

We greatly appreciate your help! We've learned that personal outreach and framing the Summit for invitees is crucial in securing attendance from these key stakeholders and influencers.

Let me know if you have any questions!

-Nicci

Nicci, I emailed all three of my people and have followed it up with phone calls. I left a message with Gus Schumacher (and have not heard back) and talked to someone in Dr. Wotecki's office. They asked if we could resend her invitation to Michele.simmons@osec.usda.gov and she would make sure she responded. I talked to some people in Deb Eschmeyer's office and they said so much depended on what was going on at the time, but they would look into it. Let me know when you have sent the second invite for Dr. Wotecki to her assistant Michele. Thanks and I will let you know when I hear something.

Hi Donna,

I hope this note finds you well! I just wanted to check-in to see if you were able to connect with the external invitees you signed up for during the BOD meeting a couple weeks ago. Apologies if I missed it in my inbox! It looks like you signed to reach out to a few folks, none of whom we've heard back from:

- Deb Eschmeyer, Let's Move!
- Gus Schumacher, Wholesome Wave
- Cathy Woteki, USDA

If you haven't had a chance to connect with them, do you think you can reach out this week? Please let me know if you need me to resend the materials to aid in this outreach.

Thanks!

In the spirit of health and happiness,

Nicci

As any of you who have also volunteered know, it can be hard but rewarding work. We have the opportunity to work with diverse individuals that share the same passion for our profession and want to make a positive impact themselves and in collaboration with others.

Please join me in welcoming our 2016-17 Board of Directors:

This year's board includes two additional positions, a student member, Sitoya Mansell, and a new professional, Camille Range, to bring fresh perspective.

Sitoya Mansell

Camille Range

Both of these dynamic individuals have already shown great leadership within Academy, proactively serving on committees, we welcome them to the team. We are proud, too, that Ms. Mansell is a past recipient of a Foundation scholarship. As you know, the Foundation has given hundreds of individuals scholarships and awards that recognize excellence while supporting efforts in nutrition education and public health. Foundation award recipients are excelling in all areas of our profession, and that is something we can all be proud of. I'm so inspired by what these fellow dietitians have done across the country with the support of the Foundation through donations from our members and partners.

A donation to our Foundation is an investment in our profession. The Foundation does not receive a portion of any member dues, we thrive on donations, and a donation to the Foundation is a great investment in the future of our profession. Thank you to all of you who have donated and thank you in advance to those of you who donate in the future.

Here's to another great year - together, we can continue to make a difference! Please email me if you have any questions about the great work the Foundation is doing.

You Can Help Prevent Child Hunger

The House of Representatives bill Improving Child Nutrition and Education Act of 2016 (H.R. 5003), will in fact increase child hunger. This bill would:

- Make it harder for children to receive healthy food at school
- Increase paper work for schools
- Not recognize the importance of science-based nutrition standards.

The Academy is asking you to voice your opposition to provisions in H. R. 5003.

As individuals and as an organization, we can make a difference but only with your help.

1. Stop the House from passing a bill that will increase child hunger.

TAKE ACTION TODAY!

2. Make a contribution to ANDPAC. Help the Academy support decision makers who understand the importance of child nutrition programs. Because of relationships built through the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee, the Academy actively voices concerns for stopping child hunger.

Review the Academys Child Nutrition Reauthorization recommendations.

Read the text of HR 5003.

Read a summary of the bill.

Read the opposition letter signed by the Academy and more than 700 other organizations.

Lucile Beseler, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, FAND

President, 2016-2017

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee is a separate segregated fund of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics used to support candidates and elected officials. Academy members are not required to contribute to ANDPAC and there is no reprisal for not contributing. Amounts recommended for contribution in Academy publications are merely suggestions and there is no minimum contribution level.

TO: Foundation BOD

I'm noticing a trend that we are fast becoming the only nutrition organization being asked to be at the table for deliberations. Earlier this month Evelyn represented the Academy at the roundtable on food, nutrition and health, organized by the Institute of Food Technologists and supported by the Charles Valentine Riley Memorial Foundation. Participants included leaders from food, nutrition and health organizations, academia and other stakeholders. Evelyn discussed the critical need for a unifying message and contributed ideas and insights on moving forward toward a common goal. A few other examples follow.

Clinton Health Initiative

The Academy was invited by the Clinton Health Matters Initiative to serve as the nutrition content experts for its new College Health Program. Academy member and past president Connie Diekman, director of university nutrition at Washington University in St. Louis, has been named the Academy's representative to the program. Please refer to the attachment. CHMI is a sister initiative to the Healthier Generation Benefit, in which the Academy is a partner with the American Academy of Pediatrics. CHMI is expanding a program launched on college campuses in 2014 to address numerous social indicators of health, including nutrition. The program is grounded in evidence-based research and expert recommendations focused on building a culture of total wellness for students. The desired outcome is to establish regional learning communities of member schools and to position college students to reach their full academic potential by creating a sustainable culture of health on campus.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Advisory Committee

The Academy was invited to serve on the RWJF's Engaging Oral Health Professionals in Efforts to Reduce Childhood Obesity advisory committee. As a long proponent on educating oral health professionals on nutrition, Lucille is the Academy's representative on this committee. The project is being spearheaded by a collaboration consisting of the National Maternal and Child Oral Health Resource Center, the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry, the American Dental Association, the American Dental Hygienists' Association, and the Santa Fe Group. The committee will fine tune the national conference program with the goal to develop meaningful recommendations and strategies related to oral health and nutrition for reducing childhood obesity.

National Virtual Resource Center

Last week I signed a memorandum of understanding between the Academy and the U.S. Department of Agriculture to create a National Virtual Resource Center on Food Loss and Waste (NVRC). Food loss and waste, which is estimated at 30% of the U.S. food supply, has far reaching negative impact on food security and the environment. A wide range of private and public organizations are stepping up to contribute to meeting the Administration's goal to reduce food loss and waste in the United States by 50 percent by 2030. As these efforts proliferate, there is a growing need for a centralized repository for information on reducing food loss and waste. The NVRC will serve as the nation's public meeting place to exchange information about achievements, challenges and opportunities for reducing food loss and waste in the United States. The NVRC will provide one-stop access to information on best practices for preventing, recovering and recycling food loss and waste, educational materials, research results, and government, business and community initiatives. Along with the Academy and USDA members of this public-private partnership include: Food Marketing Institute, National Restaurant Association, Grocery Manufacturers Association, World Resources Institute, Natural Resource Defense Council, World Wildlife Fund, Inc., United States Environmental Protection Agency, Innovation Center for U.S. Dairy, Feeding America, Sustainable America and National Consumers League. The Academy was selected as the sole organization representing health and nutrition.

Best regards,

Food and nutrition policies greatly impact the health of the public, and the careers and livelihoods of RDNs. Please show your understanding and help the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee (ANDPAC) reach the 2016 PPW fundraising goal of $32,000 by making a donation to ANDPAC today.

ANDPAC’s Chair Nancy Z. Farrell personally invites you to the ANDPAC Power Breakfast on Friday, June 24th. The Power Breakfast will be held at the prestigious National Press Club. We anticipate hearing from invited guest, and Nancy's Congressman, Representative Rob Wittman (VA-1). Make an advanced reservation today or add to your PPW registration. Making your donation for the $125 breakfast (ticket required) is very effective in providing Academy members the opportunities to speak with members of Congress and candidates on your behalf.

For questions, email ANDPAC@eatright.org.

Making a donation now will allow you to focus on your leadership and advocacy efforts during your short stay in Washington DC. ANDPAC funds raised help to recognize the RDN as THE nutrition expert, encourage RDN presence at the decision-making policy table, protect RDN jobs, and help to make for a healthier world.

Recently I asked Dr. Mary Gregoire to update us regarding the Academy's longstanding participation in interprofessional education and collaboration. At that time I assured you that the Academy's involvement has been strategic and proactive, not reactionary and spans more than a decade. Mary's communication to you is attached to refresh your memory as is mine to Richard Valachovic, the President of the Interprofessional Education Collaborative (IPEC).

I am pleased to inform you that there is an opportunity to join IPEC this fall. Dr. Valachovic responded and recommended we submit an application for the 2017 cycle which will begin on November 1, 2016. I have requested that Dr. Gregoire, in her role as Executive Director of Accreditation and Education Programs, work with Dr. Katie Eliot, the Academy's alliance representative to the IOM Global Forum on Innovation in Health Professional Education, to complete the application. We will use the NDEP Council as the organization unit, specifically the IPE Committee of NDEP, within the Academy to provide examples of how it represents and serves academic units.

I am forwarding the new development to Alice Fornari, EdD, RDN, who originally asked the question about the Academy's efforts for inclusion in IPEC.

Pat

I'm noticing a trend that we are fast becoming the only nutrition organization being asked to be at the table for deliberations. Earlier this month Evelyn represented the Academy at the roundtable on food, nutrition and health, organized by the Institute of Food Technologists and supported by the Charles Valentine Riley Memorial Foundation. Participants included leaders from food, nutrition and health organizations, academia and other stakeholders. Evelyn discussed the critical need for a unifying message and contributed ideas and insights on moving forward toward a common goal. A few other examples follow.

Clinton Health Initiative

The Academy was invited by the Clinton Health Matters Initiative to serve as the nutrition content experts for its new College Health Program. Academy member and past president Connie Diekman, director of university nutrition at Washington University in St. Louis, has been named the Academy's representative to the program. Please refer to the attachment. CHMI is a sister initiative to the Healthier Generation Benefit, in which the Academy is a partner with the American Academy of Pediatrics. CHMI is expanding a program launched on college campuses in 2014 to address numerous social indicators of health, including nutrition. The program is grounded in evidence-based research and expert recommendations focused on building a culture of total wellness for students. The desired outcome is to establish regional learning communities of member schools and to position college students to reach their full academic potential by creating a sustainable culture of health on campus.

Good morning, Donna-

First let me begin by congratulating you on your first official day as President-Elect!

As you begin this role, I wanted to reach out and begin our discussions about your vision for the 2017 FNCE® keynote speaker series. As the 2017-2018 Academy President, we want to make sure that we provide options that meet your vision during the year of your Presidency. In order to determine overall conceptual direction, speaker availability/budget, and to provide you a few potential sequence options for your review, we ask that you review the following questions. You are welcome to provide me your feedback via email or we can set up a call at your convenience to discuss in further detail.

Developmental Questions

1. When thinking about the three keynote sessions, what feeling(s) do you want to evoke?
2. What do you want the members to think or feel as they leave the room?
3. Is the gender, age, or race (diversity) of the speaker important to you?
4. Are you interested in motivational, inspirational, or other types of speakers?
5. Are there any specific speakers you have seen or heard that have peaked your interest in the past or any that you have in mind for consideration for FNCE® 2017?
6. Are there any other items of consideration you would like us to factor in when developing a list of possible speakers for the keynotes at FNCE®?

We will use your responses to formulate a few different possible patterns/options for the three keynote session roles at the meeting and send those back to you for further review and input. Our goal is to have the three speakers secured to announce at the conclusion of Closing Session in Boston so we can align these speakers with the Centennial efforts/kick off.

Thank you in advance for reviewing and responding to the above questions!

Best Regards,

Diane

Good afternoon, Donna-

I am pleased to let you know that we have been able to secure a complimentary international business/first airline ticket for the upcoming travel to Granada using Academy travel points. Since this results in a significant financial savings to the Academy, we are asking for your review of the following held flight plan as we will need it confirmed by end of day tomorrow (Wednesday, June 1) to move forward with the full ticketing for your flights. While we realize that you originally everyone requested a Delta flight, we needed to secure two traveler flight plans on Delta (yourself and Lucille) and two on American (Judy and Pat) in order to best manage the flight availability.

The following flight plan represents your full air travel for the meeting and designates who else will be traveling on each flight with you where applicable. Please let us know if we can move forward securing this flight itinerary as you will receive confirmation of all finalized travel plans once we can move them into a fully ticketed status.

AA Notification

Good afternoon, Donna-

I am pleased to let you know that we have been able to secure a complimentary international business/first airline ticket for the upcoming travel to Granada using Academy travel points. Since this results in a significant financial savings to the Academy, we are asking for your review of the following held flight plan as we will need it confirmed by end of day tomorrow (Wednesday, June 1) to move forward with the full ticketing for your flights. While we realize that you originally everyone requested a Delta flight, we needed to secure two traveler flight plans on Delta (yourself and Lucille) and two on American (Judy and Pat) in order to best manage the flight availability.

The following flight plan represents your full air travel for the meeting and designates who else will be traveling on each flight with you where applicable. Please let us know if we can move forward securing this flight itinerary as you will receive confirmation of all finalized travel plans once we can move them into a fully ticketed status.

Evelyn, Lucille and Donna,

I want to let you know that I will be leaving the Academy on Tuesday, May 31st. I am moving to a pr firm here in Chicago to work on their health and wellness team, where I will undoubtedly be putting to use all of the incredible knowledge and experiences I've gained from the Academy over the past seven years. My time here has been invaluable, and I'm especially grateful to Doris, Pat and Mary Beth for their steadfast leadership and guidance of me and everyone here at HQ during that time. I'm also incredibly grateful for the time I've spent with you. You have shown me what it means to be a selfless leader, and I aspire to reach similar levels in my own profession someday.

Thank you very much for everything you've done for me, the rest of the Academy staff, the members and the profession. I'm sad that I will not be able to join you for what I know will be an amazing second century, but know that I will be watching and cheering you on from the wings. I look forward to our paths crossing again someday. Until then, be well!

Sincerely,

Ryan O'Malley

Subject: Re: Nutrition Facts Panel Revisions

Dear Dr. Shapiro,

Thank you for your inquiry to the Academy regarding the Nutrition Facts Panel Revisions. As outlined in our communications to members on this topic, the Academy, and thus registered dietitian nutritionists, have been involved in the revisions through every step of the process. The Academy has a well-developed collaborative relationship with the FDA and its RDNs on staff.

In the years preceding the final ruling, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics took action so it could provide valuable input to the FDA about the Nutrition Facts label. Some of the actions taken by the Academy included:

- Forming the Food and Nutrition Labeling Workgroup (FNLW) in early 2014 comprised of member experts appointed by various DPGs. The FNLW was tasked with assisting the Academy as it developed stances and principles on various labeling issues in anticipation of submitting comments on regulations to position the Academy as a continuing leader on these issues.
- Meeting with FDA officials on April 1, 2014 to provide insight and input in the development of regulations revising the NFP. This meeting included FNLW members, Academy staff and Academy President Evelyn Crayton.
- Having the FNLW present at national forums and public meetings for nutrition education stakeholders and experts, per the FDA's request. In addition, the Academy had regular meetings industry and public health partners to discuss proposed changes to the label.
- Submitting comments to the FDA about the proposed changes. The first comments were submitted in August 2014; additional comments submitted in October 2015.
- Hosting a well-attended FNCE 2014 session entitled "Back to the Future of the Nutrition Facts Label" examining proposed changes to the NFP.

If you consider the above bulleted items, you can see the high level of engagement by RDNs in the process. We were fortunate because of our relationship with FDA to speak with agency officials prior to the release of the new panel. This allowed us to develop timely communications to our members and to prepare our spokespeople for media inquiries. The Academy's volunteer media spokespeople — registered dietitian nutritionists representing the 25 largest media markets as well as specialty nutrition areas — are the news media's best resource for expert commentary, story ideas and background on the full range of food and nutrition topics including the new Facts Panel. Media inquiries are received on a regular basis and our strategic communications team makes the connection to the appropriate spokesperson.

Thank you again for your inquiry, please let me know if you need additional information.

Best Regards,

Jeanne

Dear ADA President and other Members of ADA,

I would like to know if any RD's were involved in these revisions? I would also like to know if any RD's were contacted by any news agencies to discuss these revisions? I did not see any on the national news shows that covered the new labels. So I am hoping the local TV stations contacted an RD to explain the changes.

Looking forward to hearing back from you.

It's my pleasure to notify you that the Food and Drug Administration has issued its final rule updating the Nutrition Facts Panel that is found on most food packages sold in the United States. You can learn about the new rule here.

The Academy supports the new rule and the goals of the revised Panel. The Academy has also encouraged the FDA to take further important steps, such as front-of-package labeling consistent with the Dietary Guidelines for Americans.

To help members understand the revised Panel and to help our clients and patients use it in their everyday lives, the Academy has developed an EatrightPRO article outlining the changes and

To reiterate our phone conversation, we will be departing on Friday, September 2 and arriving in Madrid on Saturday, September 3. Lucille, Donna, Judy and I will depart on Sunday, September 11 from Granada to Madrid at 7:00am. I am writing separately to Evelyn who is traveling with her daughter. They are staying at Hotel Saray as well.

We're working with a couple of Associations on essentially the same issue. Increasing direct interaction with membership in a way that better informs (a) members with less "filtration", and (b) decision makers without being held hostage by the "poll results of the moment"

How does May 26 at 10:00 EDT (9:00 CDT) work for you? If not, if you would prefer we could talk mid morning June 1 while I'm driving to Irvington NY

I saw Patti Montague, CEO of School Nutrition Association, at the recent NRA (Restaurant Association, not guns) and she was quite pleased with your work and very appreciative of my referral of you working with them on governance. I'm giving some thought to revamping our existing governance model and would like to connect with you to discuss. I hope to explore new communication models that would increase the speed, accuracy and reach of member engagement and relieve our reliance on a narrow group of volunteers to serve as communication touch points. We can start with a conversation. Are you available Thursday, May 26 or Tuesday, June 1 to discuss? Let me know and I will arrange a call. Thanks.

Best regards,

Pat

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy Involvement in FDA's Updates to Nutrition Facts Panel

The Academy played a significant part in the Food & Drug Administration's update to the Nutrition Facts Panel that was announced May 20. Action by the Academy and members included providing valuable input as the FDA considered the first major changes to the Panel since it was created more than 20 years ago. The Academy was prepared to immediately inform members and the public about the changes and how to help consumers make informed food choices given the significant link between diet and chronic disease.

First Lady Cites Incoming President-Elect in Speech on Creating a Healthier Generation of Children

In her remarks May 20 at the Partnership for a Healthier America Summit, First Lady Michelle Obama discussed the significant progress that is being made nationally in helping children become healthier. She spotlighted the school nutrition program directed by the Academy's incoming president-elect, Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, where Mrs. Obama visited in April. She quoted a blog posting by Martin that said, in part: "This is our chance to help mold the future that our children will endure for the rest of their lives."

Food Date Labeling Act Introduced in Congress

The Food Date Labeling Act (S.2947/H.R. 5298) was introduced in Congress May 18. The legislation would standardize food date labeling such as "sell by" and "expires on" across the country. Academy staff members attended a media event for the bill's introduction, and Academy President Dr. Evelyn Crayton, RDN, LDN, FAND, was quoted in a press release sent out by both Congressional sponsors noting the bill's beneficial impact in addressing food waste.

Arizona Enacts Law Enabling RDNs to Order Therapeutic Diets

Arizona Governor Doug Ducey signed SB 1327, which adds a new clause to the definition of a prescription order to include "a diet order or an order for enteral feeding, nutritional supplementation or parenteral nutrition that is initiated by a registered dietitian or other qualified nutrition professional in a hospital." The Arizona Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and Advocacy Director Adrienne Udarbe, MS, RD, were instrumental in shepherding the bill through the state legislature.

House and Senate Committees Pass Child Hunger and Nutrition Programs Bills

The House Committee on Education and Workforce has passed a bill reauthorizing child nutrition programs. The bill contains few of the Academy's recommendations (see "Explanation of Recommendations") and would roll back much of the progress made over the last decade in meeting the nutritional needs of children. The Senate Appropriations Committee passed a bill funding agriculture and nutrition programs like WIC, nutrition research and child nutrition programs and included many of the Academy's priorities. Unlike the House's version, the Senate did not include disruptive nutrition policy changes.

Senate Votes to Protect Prevention Fund

The Senate has voted against a proposal to fund the Zika emergency response with money from the Prevention and Public Health Fund. The Academy joined with partner organizations to urge Congress to protect the Prevention Fund, including a letter from Academy President Dr. Evelyn Crayton, RDN, LDN, FAND. The Senate instead passed a $1.1 billion proposal introduced by Sens. Roy Blunt (Miss.) and Patty Murray (Wash.) to fund the Zika emergency response without taking money from the Prevention Fund.

Hello!

As promised, attached is the policy pipeline workbook. There are four separate spreadsheets based on the public policy priority areas.

1. Disease Prevention and Treatment
2. Lifecycle Nutrition
3. Food Systems Access
4. Quality Health

Within each spread sheet are topic areas and level of leadership. Please feel free to add any topic areas.

It would be great if you could return your recommendations to me by June 15 at mraimondi@eatright.org. And, I would love your suggestions throughout the year. Again it is not to be exclusive but inclusive of maximizing our members' expertise.

In the next few weeks, we will also be sending out a request for names to submit to the President's transition teams. This request will ask for key member leaders to be appointed to influential positions within the new Administration.

Many thanks for your input!

Your questions are always welcome.

Hi Donna,

I hope this note finds you well! I just wanted to check-in to see if you were able to connect with the external invitees you signed up for during the BOD meeting a couple weeks ago. Apologies if I missed it in my inbox! It looks like you signed to reach out to a few folks, none of whom we've heard back from:

- Deb Eschmeyer, Let's Move!
- Gus Schumacher, Wholesome Wave
- Cathy Woteki, USDA

If you haven't had a chance to connect with them, do you think you can reach out this week? Please let me know if you need me to resend the materials to aid in this outreach.

Thanks!

In the spirit of health and happiness,

Nicci

Subject: A New Model for Governance

CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mickie,

I would like to use your consultant services. I'm giving some thought to revamping our existing governance model and wondering if you can ask these questions to your list of organizations:

- In this day of technology, is the traditional House of Delegates relevant?
- What are the new models of discussing professional issues in associations?
- Do you know of any groups who have shifted from the traditional House of Delegates to a new model?

The questions are very confidential as I am exploring new communication models that would increase the speed, accuracy and reach of member engagement and relieve our reliance on a narrow group of volunteers to serve as communication touch points. I want to broach the topic with the House Leadership Team at its meeting on June 10 and would appreciate your insight and any literature that addresses this. If you are interested in assisting please let me know your fee for service. Thank you!

Best regards,

Pat

All,

As all of you may know, we have a Finance and Audit Committee meeting tomorrow at 1 p.m. CDT. I have to apologize to the Committee. I was on vacation last week and everything did not get completed as planned. As I reviewed the April results, I am still finding a few things that need to be adjusted. Therefore, I don't believe I will have April put onto the portal until later today. Everything else should be on the portal. You should have also received the webinar invitation last week from the Academy IT team. If you have not, please let me know. Again, I hope to have April done this afternoon. As soon completed and posted I will let you know.

The First Lady opens her presentation with her experience at Burke School and gives details of her visit with Donna Martin. It is amazing.

She ended the presentation with a quote from Donna Martin. You could hear a pin drop.

This is a nonpartisan issue of having healthy children and our member is not only at the table but leading a nation.

I cannot describe the pride in this room for all the dietitians in this room. The energy is amazing.

Thank you Donna and all for providing leadership and commitment.

It is a great day for the Academy!!

As Lucille mentioned at the May Board meeting, a Board orientation webinar will be held in June. Although the orientation is intended for incoming 2016-17 Board members, all are encouraged to participate. It's a good refresher on governance policies and best practices. To select the date, please click on the link below and indicate your availability for a 2 ½ hour webinar (times are listed as Central Time).

Hi Joan

My apologies for not responding sooner but we were out all last week at our National Leadership Conference meeting.

Yes we are more than happy to extend a comp registration for Donna Martin at ANC this year, and appreciate the reciprocal arrangement to send one of our leaders to FNCE this year. Attached is a link for the ANC registration form. Just fill out and write -- COMP PER P MONTAGUE – on top and send back to me and I will have it processed.

I know rooms are filling up at the Hyatt Regency which is the headquarters hotel, but if you get me the dates that Donna will need a hotel reservation, I will share that with our Meetings staff and they will get her in. Below is the link to hotels so you have information.

To my fellow Academy members:

Its my pleasure to notify you that the Food and Drug Administration has issued its final rule updating the Nutrition Facts Panel that is found on most food packages sold in the United States. You can learn about the new rule here.

The Academy supports the new rule and the goals of the revised Panel. The Academy has also encouraged the FDA to take further important steps, such as front-of-package labeling consistent with the Dietary Guidelines for Americans.

To help members understand the revised Panel and to help our clients and patients use it in their everyday lives, the Academy has developed an EatrightPRO article outlining the changes and the Academys role in developing guiding principles and recommendations to the FDA.

As with the release in January of the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, I encourage all Academy members use the opportunity presented today by the FDAs action to highlight your expertise and to reinforce your position as the food and nutrition experts for the public and other health professionals alike.

Research often provides additional opportunities to collaborate with physicians and other healthcare providers, which improves working relationships among the different healthcare professions. It helps build a culture of cooperation and common mission within an organization. In addition, research that demonstrates how the participation of nutrition and dietetics professionals contributes to the effectiveness of healthcare teams paves the way for increased recognition and reimbursement for RDN services.

Interesting that a Christian chooses money over hungry children. He might referred to as a "faith challenger".

To all my friends who help us protect and feed the children of this country!

I finally had a 30 minute conversation with Katie Hunter in Rick Allen's office. These are the important points from the conversation.

1. I let her know that we are not happy with his voting on CNR and that when he gets back to his district that there are going to be a lot of unhappy people. She told me that she had already told him that a lot of people were not going to be happy with the House Bill in his district! I told her that I have never seen such a fire storm of upset people mobilizing against the house bill. He told a superintendent to their face that he was not going to support keeping CEP like it was, even though it would adversely affect his school district.
2. I asked her what the meaning of his amendment was, and she said that he wants USDA to study to see if there is a way that we could get businesses to donate money to SNP programs to decrease the amount the Federal Government pays for SNP. He wonders if businesses would be willing to possibly donate food to SNP and she also brought up the idea of us outsourcing SNP to save money. You can only imagine my response to that idea!

3. Her main point was that the committee had a really hard time getting a bill to put out for a vote. She said that the only way they could get the bill out for a committee vote was to include the 3 states doing a block grant trial. Many of the committee members wanted to block grant the whole program and felt like the bill was not conservative enough and would not vote for it without it including the block grants. She said it was a huge struggle to get this bill out and they are not very optimistic about getting enough Republicans to vote for the bill to get it passed. She is also worried about if it does pass how it could be reconciled with the Senate Bill. She said they figured Obama would probably veto it if it had block grants in it. She said a lot of members of the committee wanted to use the money they would save with going to 40-60% CEP, to go to retire the deficit, instead of what they did by investing the money in extra breakfast reimbursement.
4. She reiterated, exactly what I already thought about Rick, that he is a first term congressman, and ran on conservative principles, and is looking for anyway to save money. He is a strong Christian and worries about feeding children, but he is a strong conservative and wants to save money. He gets conflicted on how to reconcile those two points.
5. She said they hope to get a vote before August.
6. I know she gets what our issues are with block grants and CEP and she has had lengthy conversations with him about this, but he still cares more about saving money. He does not like that kids who can afford lunch get free lunch with CEP.
7. We agreed to keep an open dialogue going about the bill and both know exactly what positions each person has. I think she is more on our side, but can't get him to change his mind. Know that I gave her all the reasoning behind every point he made on why we feel differently. She knows both sides of the issues, but can't get him to change his vow to cut the deficit anyway he can. I told her that children were not the way to do it!!! Hope this helps, but we have a lot of work to do!

4035. Update: Child Nutrition Programs

Dear Public Policy Leaders,

We are providing an update on Child Nutrition in the House of Representatives.

The House Committee on Education and the Workforce finished a 6 hour debate on child nutrition programs yesterday. The debate included over 30 amendments put forward for consideration, with only a few amendments passing.

The final bill does not align with many of the Academy's priorities to support child nutrition programs. Specifically, the bill did not protect evidenced-based nutrition standards for school meal programs; increased the threshold for schools to utilize the community eligibility - a provision that decreases paperwork and improves student participation in the meal programs; included a three state pilot program that will study the impact of block granting the school meals programs; eliminated the word "fresh" from the Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program; and did not include as study to examine coordination between nutrition education programs.

A few gains within the final bill include expansion of farm to school program funding; increase in breakfast reimbursement for schools; inclusion of dietitians with other groups to help review USDA regulations; and the option for residential child care institutions to utilize the Child and Adult Care Food Program.

We will be watching closely as both Senate and House leadership decide how to proceed. Until we know more the best thing you can do is push the Senate action alert that is open.

Stay tuned, expect more updates soon.

Donna,

Did you get the managers amendment last night? If not I will send it to you.

So far only Rick Allen's amendment has passed, all the D amendments have failed.

There are House floor votes in less than an hour (at 1:50 pm) so all of this will get delayed until tonight after 6 pm. There are a total of 25 D amendments, not sure if that # will get reduced.

Everyone, including SNA (Cathie and 2 others from SNA are here) are opposed to this bill.

Donna,

Did you get the managers amendment last night? If not I will send it to you.

So far only Rick Allen's amendment has passed, all the D amendments have failed.

There are House floor votes in less than an hour (at 1:50 pm) so all of this will get delayed until tonight after 6 pm. There are a total of 25 D amendments, not sure if that # will get reduced.

Everyone, including SNA (Cathie and 2 others from SNA are here) are opposed to this bill.

I would agree that you should bring that up with the Congressman. These last minute changes are making this bill worse and worse. The mark up tomorrow will be tough as all 20 amendments offered by the Dems will fail. I have no idea what state would volunteer for any block grant???? I think it is just put in there to appease Representative Brat from Virginia.

Let us know if you get a hold of the Congressman. Thank you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Donna,

The House CNR debate is in committee tomorrow. Has Katie reached out again to you on this topic? We have heard that the Congressman may still need more support and understanding on

CEP. Anything you can do would be helpful. We are concerned that amendments may be brought forward to increase the threshold even higher (80%), which basically eliminates the provision all together.

Let me know what you think, or if you have heard anything about this in district.

Many thanks for your leadership!

Very best,

Jenn

Katie,

I hope that this email finds you well! We continue to be concerned about the impact of CEP provision in the House version of CNR. We know that you and your boss understand the impact in his district and we are so grateful for his support.

We also wanted to send along this great story from Burke County football team and hunger. It is a really telling story about the need in the Congressman's district.

We will be sending along an email that details our concerns later today, please let us know what else we can do as we look to mark up.

Jenn

We are also hearing that there may be a markup next week? Do you have any insights on timing on moving this bill?

THE RIGHT TAKES ON SCHOOL LUNCH: Heritage Action, a hardline conservative political group, has a new target in its sights: the federal school lunch program.

The group says it has been working with the House Education and the Workforce Committee for several weeks, encouraging its leaders to rework their child nutrition reauthorization bill to be more true to conservative principles. On Tuesday, the committee dropped something of a bombshell by adding language to a substitute amendment that would create a pilot program to test block-granting school meal programs in three states for three years.

The move is widely viewed by many health, hunger and school nutrition leaders as an assault on federal nutrition programs - and a backdoor way to cut funding for school meals down the road. The School Nutrition Association came out forcefully against the bill Tuesday and that opposition is particularly notable because the group has worked with House Republicans to address many of the association's concerns with nutrition standards and other changes the Obama administration has made.

Dan Holler, a spokesman for Heritage Action, said some conservatives didn't think the committee's draft bill was conservative or "bold" enough, but instead was "tinkering around the edges" and largely locking in Democratic policy. "There's certainly been chatter among conservatives that the draft didn't go far enough," Holler said. The group hasn't decided yet if it will score lawmakers on the bill, and Holler said they're waiting to see what happens in markup today. Stay tuned for more on this from Pro Agriculture today.

I would agree that you should bring that up with the Congressman. These last minute changes are making this bill worse and worse. The mark up tomorrow will be tough as all 20 amendments offered by the Dems will fail. I have no idea what state would volunteer for any block grant???? I think it is just put in there to appease Representative Brat from Virginia.

Let us know if you get a hold of the Congressman. Thank you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jenn, I will try and get in touch with his office. I am concerned about this new block grant proposal that will come out tomorrow from The House. SNA is going to get exactly what I told them they would get by working with the Republicans! What State would volunteer to do the block grant?

Donna,

The House CNR debate is in committee tomorrow. Has Katie reached out again to you on this topic? We have heard that the Congressman may still need more support and understanding on CEP. Anything you can do would be helpful. We are concerned that amendments may be brought forward to increase the threshold even higher (80%), which basically eliminates the provision all together.

Let me know what you think, or if you have heard anything about this in district.

Many thanks for your leadership!

Very best,

Jenn

Katie,

I hope that this email finds you well! We continue to be concerned about the impact of CEP provision in the House version of CNR. We know that you and your boss understand the impact in his district and we are so grateful for his support.

We also wanted to send along this great story from Burke County football team and hunger. It is a really telling story about the need in the Congressman's district.

<http://www.cbsnews.com/news/high-school-football-team-battles-malnutrition/>

We will be sending along an email that details our concerns later today, please let us know what else we can do as we look to mark up.

Many many many thanks!

Best,

Jenn

Donna was also kind enough to talk about the impact of the change in CEP threshold to your district. I have attached the information for your review and cc-ed Donna to continue this conversation and to provide context if you have questions.

We are also hearing that there may be a markup next week? Do you have any insights on timing on moving this bill?

Many many thanks to you and your boss!

Hi Donna,

I checked and Kathleen Zelman's name was on the Partners sign-up sheet for this year and your name was next to hers. She is receiving her award and giving her lecture at this year's FNCE in Boston.

Dayle Hayes was selected for the award by this year's Honors Committee, but the Cooper recipient is always given a year to prepare the lecture to be given at next year's FNCE. As a result, she'll receive her award and deliver her lecture in Chicago. She has been notified that she was selected.

Sorry for the confusion and please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Thank you,

I would agree that you should bring that up with the Congressman. These last minute changes are making this bill worse and worse. The mark up tomorrow will be tough as all 20 amendments offered by the Dems will fail. I have no idea what state would volunteer for any block grant???? I think it is just put in there to appease Representative Brat from Virginia.

Let us know if you get a hold of the Congressman. Thank you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Jenn, I will try and get in touch with his office. I am concerned about this new block grant proposal that will come out tomorrow from The House. SNA is going to get exactly what I told them they would get by working with the Republicans! What State would volunteer to do the block grant?

Donna,

The House CNR debate is in committee tomorrow. Has Katie reached out again to you on this topic? We have heard that the Congressman may still need more support and understanding on CEP. Anything you can do would be helpful. We are concerned that amendments may be brought forward to increase the threshold even higher (80%), which basically eliminates the provision all together.

Let me know what you think, or if you have heard anything about this in district.

Many thanks for your leadership!

Very best,

Jenn

Katie,

I hope that this email finds you well! We continue to be concerned about the impact of CEP provision in the House version of CNR. We know that you and your boss understand the impact in his district and we are so grateful for his support.

We also wanted to send along this great story from Burke County football team and hunger. It is a really telling story about the need in the Congressman's district.

We will be sending along an email that details our concerns later today, please let us know what else we can do as we look to mark up.

Many many many thanks!

Best,

Jenn

Katie,

Thank you for meeting with Donna yesterday. I know it meant a lot to her to connect with you. She sent the links below, and I have added the Academy's article on the visit.

Donna was also kind enough to talk about the impact of the change in CEP threshold to your district. I have attached the information for your review and cc-ed Donna to continue this conversation and to provide context if you have questions.

We are also hearing that there may be a markup next week? Do you have any insights on timing on moving this bill?

Many many thanks to you and your boss!

Very best,

Jenn

Pat, Looks good. My only suggestion would be to maybe word the part about accreditation being recommended to say that "if accreditation exists that they be required to be accredited in their home country, if such accreditation exists." I can live with it either way you decide to go. Definitely got the right tone in the language correct!

Academy Members on Capitol Hill and at other DC Events

There is a lot of action planned on Capitol Hill this week!

Monday

President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition held its annual meeting highlighting the impactful work of Academy members' work with Fuel Up to Play 60.

Tuesday

The Senate Agriculture Appropriations sub-committee will be debating the merits of agriculture and nutrition spending. We expect that will pass out of sub-committee and will be debated by the full Appropriations Committee on Thursday.

Remember the House marathon debate on Agriculture Appropriations a month ago? To refresh your memory on the big issues click here.

Wednesday

We are hearing rumors that the House may debate child nutrition programs. We expect that the debate will be very long, and will center on the a few main issues that are of concern to the Academy. We plan to engage with an action alert when the bill is on the House Floor.

The Jean Mayer USDA Human Nutrition Research Center on Aging at Tufts University and the AARP Foundation will hold a presentation for Hill staff on the new MyPlate for Older Adults. Featured speakers include Academy champions Rep. Jim McGovern (Mass.), House Hunger Caucus Chair, Bob Blancato, Executive Director, National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs and Alice H. Lichtenstein, D.Sc., Senior Scientist and Director Cardiovascular Nutrition Lab, USDA Human Nutrition Research Center on Aging

Thursday

We expect that the full Senate Appropriations Committee will debate agriculture and nutrition program spending.

The Partnership for a Healthier America (PHA) will hold its annual meeting. The Academy will be represented by Academy President, Dr. Evelyn Crayton RDN, LDN, FAND. Many other Academy members will be speakers for this conference. PHA's mission is working with the private sector to ensure the health of our nation's youth by solving the childhood obesity crisis.

Friday

The Academy will attend a small reception at the White House to celebrate the work of Let's Move in improving children's health.

We have heard rumors that the Nutrition Facts Panel will be released this week as well.

Keep your eyes peeled for a new food and product labeling bill to reduce food waste and educate consumers out this week too.

Highlights for the week of May 9, 2016

Dietitians Work in Grocery Stores were highlighted in Congress last week. The House Agriculture Committee held a hearing to discuss the retailer perspective as it relates to serving food insecure Americans using the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. Academy Champion, Representative Michelle Lujan Grisham (N.M.), brought up the fact that for programs that serve seniors, like those funded through the Older Americans Act, should utilize dietitians. Congresswoman also asked a witness, Ms. Kathy Hanna, Senior Director Enterprise Payments & Store Support, The Kroger Co. how dietitians can be utilized more in grocery stores. To see the full interaction please click here.

Donna,

The House CNR debate is in committee tomorrow. Has Katie reached out again to you on this topic? We have heard that the Congressman may still need more support and understanding on CEP. Anything you can do would be helpful. We are concerned that amendments may be brought forward to increase the threshold even higher (80%), which basically eliminates the provision all together.

Let me know what you think, or if you have heard anything about this in district.

Many thanks for your leadership!

Very best,

Jenn

Katie,

I hope that this email finds you well! We continue to be concerned about the impact of CEP provision in the House version of CNR. We know that you and your boss understand the impact in his district and we are so grateful for his support.

We also wanted to send along this great story from Burke County football team and hunger. It is a really telling story about the need in the Congressman's district.

<http://www.cbsnews.com/news/high-school-football-team-battles-malnutrition/>

We will be sending along an email that details our concerns later today, please let us know what else we can do as we look to mark up.

Many many many thanks!

Best,

Jenn

Katie,

Thank you for meeting with Donna yesterday. I know it meant a lot to her to connect with you. She sent the links below, and I have added the Academy's article on the visit.

Donna was also kind enough to talk about the impact of the change in CEP threshold to your district. I have attached the information for your review and cc-ed Donna to continue this conversation and to provide context if you have questions.

We are also hearing that there may be a markup next week? Do you have any insights on timing on moving this bill?

Many many thanks to you and your boss!

Very best,
Jenn

Go Paperless for 2016-2017 Registration Maintenance Fee Notice

CDR would like to invite you to participate in the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) paperless registration maintenance fee notification option.

Paperless Registration Maintenance Fee Notice Option

Save a stamp and go green! Instead of receiving your CDR registration maintenance fee notice through the mail, you will receive a series of email notifications from June to March 31, 2017, or until your CDR fee is paid.

If you select the paperless option, it is extremely important that you have and maintain a primary e-mail address on your CDR record at all times. If your institution or company has a firewall that will block emails from eatright.org, you may want to change your current primary email address to your personal email to avoid missing important notices.

To learn more about or to select the paperless option, please visit

<https://www.cdrnet.org/dates-regdates/paperless>

If neither option is chosen, your CDR registration maintenance fee notice will continue to be mailed via USPS.

2016-2017 CDR Registration Maintenance Fee

At this time, there is no 2016-2017 CDR fee invoice/notice online. In mid-June, the 2016-2017 CDR fee invoice/notice will be online and you can pay by logging into your CDR record at <https://cdrnet.org/dates-regdates>. The annual CDR fee is $60 and the payment due date is August 31, 2016.

(Those RDNs, RDs and NDTRs, DTRs whose 5-year recertification cycle is ending May 31, 2016, will not be billed until their Professional Development Portfolio (PDP) Activity Log has been approved.)

Please call CDR at 800-877-1600, ext. 5500 (8am to 5pm/CT), if you have any questions. Thank you.

Hello, Marty, Margaret, Sitoya, Camille, and Donna! Congratulations on joining the Academy Foundation BOD! In preparation for the June orientation call, I wanted to provide some background information on the Second Century planning, and to also offer to meet with you by phone if you'd like additional information or to discuss any questions you may have. For the June call, I'll provide an update on the latest information on the Second Century planning.

I'm attaching here: 1) a short Second Century slide deck with notes that has been used at various member meetings; 2) a 1-page Second Century backgrounder that has been used primarily with external stakeholders preceding an interview that we've done with them; and lastly, 3) here is a link to a 1.5 hour webinar that our consultant, John Whalen and myself hosted with the HOD in April: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qn4BLftfnl> .

Thanks!

DRAFT

I have devoted my career to the welfare of the Academy's membership, the future of the nutrition and dietetics profession, the credibility of the registered dietitian nutritionist credential and the health of the public. As president-elect in the coming year and as president in 2017–2018, I will work very hard with members to advance our organization and profession.

While I welcome communications at any time, on any topic, it would not be appropriate for me to engage in detailed discussions on the work that is currently being conducted by the Member Sponsorship Committee. I value the time and effort these volunteer member leaders are investing in our organization and our profession. I can assure you that – like me – these members have the profession's best interest at heart and are carefully considering all aspects of sponsorship. Matt Ruscigno, MPH, RDN, was one of the members who served on the original task force and contributed to the recommendations that are now being implemented by the Member Sponsorship Committee.

As I stated in my previous email, I truly respect and appreciate the hard work and dedication of all volunteer committees, task forces, work groups and individual members in serving our Academy and profession. Once again, I encourage members of DFPI who are not members of the Academy to join and volunteer.

Thank you very much.

Subject: Re: Hello from Dietitians For Professional Integrity

Dr. Martin,

Thank you for getting back to us. We appreciate your time.

In the spirit of honest dialogue, we are disappointed that the questions we asked in our last email regarding AND's sponsorship guidelines and current sponsors went unanswered. We don't have a better understanding of how AND thinks PepsiCo "optimizes health through food and nutrition", or why corporate behavior and lobbying history are not part of AND's new sponsorship guidelines.

It has been disheartening that, over the last three years, our attempts at substantive dialogue with AND leadership have largely gone unanswered or been dismissed.

This is a topic of high importance to many dietitians, and one that has become part of a greater national dialogue on ethics and transparency. Our intention is to have this conversation to elevate the dietitian credential and ultimately strengthen our profession.

Many fellow dietitians have reached out to us over the last year -- especially after last year's Kids Eat Right/Kraft Singles controversy -- with concerns. Many do not feel heard or validated. Acknowledgment of their concerns by leadership, without justification or trivialization of the issue, would be a tremendous boon to AND.

There is a real opportunity here for an AND leader to make history and inspire the many dietitians who currently feel apathy and defeat.

Sincerely,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity

To Dietitians for Professional Integrity:

Thank you for your email. It was a privilege for me to be chosen by the members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics as the 2016-2017 President-elect. This is especially true as the Academy and the entire nutrition and dietetics profession prepare for our Second Century of serving the public -- in the U.S. and increasingly around the world.

As you know, on January 13, the Academy's Board of Directors voted to implement a one-year pilot program that includes 1) adopting the recommendations of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force, 2) creating a Member Sponsorship Review Committee and 3) approving newly revised sponsorship guidelines. The task force's report includes tools the Academy is using to review potential sponsors.

I am grateful for the hard work of the task force and the committee, as well as to the House of Delegates which discussed the sponsorship issue and provided valuable feedback, and to all members who have made their voices known. I am confident that the guidelines and assessment tools will assist the committee and the organization in selecting sponsors in alignment with the Academy's mission and vision.

We truly appreciate the hard work and dedication of the volunteer committees, task forces, work groups and individual members in serving our Academy and profession. The work of the of the Member Sponsorship Review Committee is ongoing and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process is in progress. I will share your comments with the committee.

Thank you again for your email. To those members of DFPI who are not members of the Academy, I strongly encourage you to join. Help us make our Second Century a historic and healthful time for all people.

Yours very truly,

Donna

Dear Dr. Martin,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity extends its congratulations on your new position as President-Elect of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

We very interested in advocating for sponsorship reform, and strongly believe dialogue with AND leadership is an important piece of our work.

We are pleased with some of the progress we have seen since our inception in February of 2013, including the formation of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force in 2014.

Specifically regarding the recently revised sponsorship guidelines, some concerns and questions remain for us:

1) Some of the new guidelines (i.e.: "the sponsor's mission and vision align with AND's") existed in the previous version, under which PepsiCo -- and former sponsors Coca-Cola, Kellogg's, and General Mills -- was deemed an appropriate sponsor.

2) The guidelines focus on product portfolios and do not consider corporate behavior, lobbying history, and media statements as a measure of whether a company is an appropriate sponsor. Current sponsor PepsiCo, for example, has lobbied against soda taxes and against the inclusion of added sugar on the Nutrition Facts Panel. Its CEO has been quoted as saying that "if all consumers exercised... the problem of obesity wouldn't exist." How does this align with AND's mission and vision?

3) Are existing sponsors going to go through this review process? If so, how is PepsiCo an example of a company that "optimizes health through food and nutrition"?

4) Back in January 2016, it was announced that the Board of Directors "voted to implement a pilot program encompassing many of the SATF's recommendations." Can you comment on the status of this new committee and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process?

Our position is not one of "zero sponsorship." While that is certainly an option, we don't see this as an issue of being "for" or "against" sponsorship. That rhetoric creates a dichotomy that only further divides dietitians and does not address systemic issues.

Instead, let's think about what kind of sponsorship is appropriate, relevant, and ethical for a health organization. We also don't think sponsors must be limited to the food sector; wellness, technology, and culinary companies could make for excellent partners.

We hear from dietitians and dietitians-to-be who have concerns about the current sponsorship model on a weekly basis. This is an issue of high priority for many of our colleagues.

We always welcome dialogue, and want you to know that you can always reach out to us for further conversation on this topic. Our foremost priority is to elevate the RDN credential. As evidenced by last year's Kraft Singles/Kids Eat Right controversy, sponsorship plays a large role in public perception of who we are and what we stand for.

Thank you for your time. We look forward to ongoing dialogue with you.

Hi Donna,

Hope all is well with you. Here is the draft response to DFPI. I recommend you reply the first week of June. We know from experience that Andy will continue to send emails and will never be satisfied with the response.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information. See you soon in Chicago.

Best regards,
Doris

DRAFT

I have devoted my career to the welfare of the Academy's membership, the future of the nutrition and dietetics profession, the credibility of the registered dietitian nutritionist credential and the health of the public. As president-elect in the coming year and as president in 2017–2018, I will work very hard with members to advance our organization and profession.

While I welcome communications at any time, on any topic, it would not be appropriate for me to engage in detailed discussions on the work that is currently being conducted by the Member Sponsorship Committee. I value the time and effort these volunteer member leaders are investing in our organization and our profession. I can assure you that – like me – these members have the profession's best interest at heart and are carefully considering all aspects of sponsorship. Matt Ruscigno, MPH, RDN, was one of the members who served on the original task force and contributed to the recommendations that are now being implemented by the Member Sponsorship Committee.

As I stated in my previous email, I truly respect and appreciate the hard work and dedication of all volunteer committees, task forces, work groups and individual members in serving our Academy and profession. Once again, I encourage members of DFPI who are not members of the Academy to join and volunteer.

Thank you very much.

Dr. Martin,

Thank you for getting back to us. We appreciate your time.

In the spirit of honest dialogue, we are disappointed that the questions we asked in our last email regarding AND's sponsorship guidelines and current sponsors went unanswered. We don't have a better understanding of how AND thinks PepsiCo "optimizes health through food and nutrition", or why corporate behavior and lobbying history are not part of AND's new sponsorship guidelines.

It has been disheartening that, over the last three years, our attempts at substantive dialogue with AND leadership have largely gone unanswered or been dismissed.

This is a topic of high importance to many dietitians, and one that has become part of a greater national dialogue on ethics and transparency. Our intention is to have this conversation to elevate the dietitian credential and ultimately strengthen our profession.

Many fellow dietitians have reached out to us over the last year -- especially after last year's Kids Eat Right/Kraft Singles controversy -- with concerns. Many do not feel heard or validated. Acknowledgment of their concerns by leadership, without justification or trivialization of the issue, would be a tremendous boon to AND.

There is a real opportunity here for an AND leader to make history and inspire the many dietitians who currently feel apathy and defeat.

Sincerely,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity

To Dietitians for Professional Integrity:

Thank you for your email. It was a privilege for me to be chosen by the members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics as the 2016-2017 President-elect. This is especially true as the Academy and the entire nutrition and dietetics profession prepare for our Second Century of serving the public -- in the U.S. and increasingly around the world.

As you know, on January 13, the Academy's Board of Directors voted to implement a one-year pilot program that includes 1) adopting the recommendations of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force, 2) creating a Member Sponsorship Review Committee and 3) approving newly revised sponsorship guidelines. The task force's report includes tools the Academy is using to review potential sponsors.

I am grateful for the hard work of the task force and the committee, as well as to the House of Delegates which discussed the sponsorship issue and provided valuable feedback, and to all members who have made their voices known. I am confident that the guidelines and assessment tools will assist the committee and the organization in selecting sponsors in alignment with the Academy's mission and vision.

We truly appreciate the hard work and dedication of the volunteer committees, task forces, work groups and individual members in serving our Academy and profession. The work of the Member Sponsorship Review Committee is ongoing and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process is in progress. I will share your comments with the committee.

Thank you again for your email. To those members of DFPI who are not members of the Academy, I strongly encourage you to join. Help us make our Second Century a historic and healthful time for all people.

Yours very truly,

Donna

Dear Dr. Martin,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity extends its congratulations on your new position as President-Elect of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

We very interested in advocating for sponsorship reform, and strongly believe dialogue with AND leadership is an important piece of our work.

We are pleased with some of the progress we have seen since our inception in February of 2013, including the formation of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force in 2014.

Specifically regarding the recently revised sponsorship guidelines, some concerns and questions remain for us:

1) Some of the new guidelines (i.e.: "the sponsor's mission and vision align with AND's") existed in the previous version, under which PepsiCo -- and former sponsors Coca-Cola, Kellogg's, and General Mills -- was deemed an appropriate sponsor.

2) The guidelines focus on product portfolios and do not consider corporate behavior, lobbying history, and media statements as a measure of whether a company is an appropriate sponsor. Current sponsor PepsiCo, for example, has lobbied against soda taxes and against the inclusion of added sugar on the Nutrition Facts Panel. Its CEO has been quoted as saying that "if all consumers exercised... the problem of obesity wouldn't exist." How does this align with AND's mission and vision?

3) Are existing sponsors going to go through this review process? If so, how is PepsiCo an example of a company that "optimizes health through food and nutrition"?

4) Back in January 2016, it was announced that the Board of Directors "voted to implement a pilot program encompassing many of the SATF's recommendations." Can you comment on the status of this new committee and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process?

Our position is not one of "zero sponsorship." While that is certainly an option, we don't see this as an issue of being "for" or "against" sponsorship. That rhetoric creates a dichotomy that only further divides dietitians and does not address systemic issues.

Instead, let's think about what kind of sponsorship is appropriate, relevant, and ethical for a health organization. We also don't think sponsors must be limited to the food sector; wellness, technology, and culinary companies could make for excellent partners.

We hear from dietitians and dietitians-to-be who have concerns about the current sponsorship model on a weekly basis. This is an issue of high priority for many of our colleagues.

We always welcome dialogue, and want you to know that you can always reach out to us for further conversation on this topic. Our foremost priority is to elevate the RDN credential. As evidenced by last year's Kraft Singles/Kids Eat Right controversy, sponsorship plays a large role in public perception of who we are and what we stand for.

Thank you for your time. We look forward to ongoing dialogue with you.

Sincerely,

Tracey Bates suggested we take a group photo commemorating that "Our Future is Bright" as we plan for our second century. We will take the photo of current and incoming Board members on Friday. The attire remains business casual.

Thank you Tracey for this fun idea!

Action Alert: Suspend Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for Diabetes Testing Supplies

As of today, only 2.3 % or 1,696 Academy members have responded to the action alert. Please ask your members to urge Congress to suspend the Competitive Bidding Program. Your efforts will help reverse this trend of harmful practice for our patients.

Please send the following message to your membership:

Subject line: Action Alert: Suspend the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for Diabetes Testing Supplies

Dear Colleague,

Your Senator and Congressman need to hear from you. Please urge Congress to suspend the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for Diabetes Testing Supplies.

In 2011, Medicare tested a Competitive Bidding Program aimed to save money and to maintain the quality of care for patients. Although the Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report in 2012 stating that there was insufficient data on the programs' effectiveness, Medicare launched the program nationwide in 2013.

A recent peer-reviewed article in the American Diabetes Association's Diabetes Care journal, demonstrates that the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for diabetes testing supplies has led to needless deaths, more hospitalizations and increased costs. Despite this, Medicare still plans to request new competitive bids on July 1.

Please take action today!

Thank you,

Your RDN friend,

Insert your name and title

Insert your affiliate or DPG name

Action Alert: Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs

Please continue to support the Senate Agriculture Committee's bipartisan reauthorization of child nutrition programs bill, titled the Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016.

Encourage your members to take action today!

As of today, only 5% or 3,623 Academy members have responded to the action alert. The Senators need to know that their constituents strongly support this bill, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals and promote nutrition education for our children. We expect a vote on this bill in the Senate later this spring.

Please send the following message to your membership:

*Subject line: Action Alert: Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs in the Senate

Dear Colleague,

Your Senators need to know that their constituents strongly support the bi-partisan Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals and promote nutrition education for our children.

Please take action today to support healthy meals for hungry children.

Thank you,

Action Alert Reports

| Action Alert Title           | Academy Members             | Participating                        | Percentage | Participation | Legislators |

Ha! I laughed at those statements but grimaced at the ones about me! They are as bad as DFPI when it comes to misinformation. Do they really think I set salaries on whim and favoritism? No concept about running a multimillion dollar business. You and Lucille made me feel so much better. I know one person can submit multiple comments so it makes it feel like the whole Board thinks that way. By the way, I was interviewed. They don't know that I was offered the position two times before that but wanted to stay with CDR. Interesting that they are nasty about Jean R too. Have a good trip in and we can celebrate the changes on Thursday night!

Best,

Pat

Just got finished reading the board source document, and Lucille and Kay and I are having fun laughing at what we all said about a certain person on the board. Hope she reads it carefully. We were all talking about who wrote the ridiculous comments about doing a CEO search, and we know exactly who said what, without them even telling us. You have plenty of support, so just laugh it all off like we are doing!!! One more year and life will be much better for you when three very weak board members rotate off! See you soon!

Dr. Martin,

Thank you for getting back to us. We appreciate your time.

In the spirit of honest dialogue, we are disappointed that the questions we asked in our last email regarding AND's sponsorship guidelines and current sponsors went unanswered. We don't have a better understanding of how AND thinks PepsiCo "optimizes health through food and nutrition", or why corporate behavior and lobbying history are not part of AND's new sponsorship guidelines.

It has been disheartening that, over the last three years, our attempts at substantive dialogue with AND leadership have largely gone unanswered or been dismissed.

This is a topic of high importance to many dietitians, and one that has become part of a greater national dialogue on ethics and transparency. Our intention is to have this conversation to elevate the dietitian credential and ultimately strengthen our profession.

Many fellow dietitians have reached out to us over the last year -- especially after last year's Kids Eat Right/Kraft Singles controversy -- with concerns. Many do not feel heard or validated. Acknowledgment of their concerns by leadership, without justification or trivialization of the issue, would be a tremendous boon to AND.

There is a real opportunity here for an AND leader to make history and inspire the many dietitians who currently feel apathy and defeat.

Sincerely,

- 4) Back in January 2016, it was announced that the Board of Directors "voted to implement a pilot program encompassing many of the SATF's recommendations." Can you comment on the status of this new committee and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process?

Our position is not one of "zero sponsorship." While that is certainly an option, we don't see this as an issue of being "for" or "against" sponsorship. That rhetoric creates a dichotomy that only further divides dietitians and does not address systemic issues.

Instead, let's think about what kind of sponsorship is appropriate, relevant, and ethical for a health organization. We also don't think sponsors must be limited to the food sector; wellness, technology, and culinary companies could make for excellent partners.

Good afternoon,

Recently I received a blackmail threat from an organization claiming a DDoS attack on our web properties is imminent if a payment is not transmitted. We forwarded the email to our website vendor Verndale and IC3 (FBI division that investigates phishing scams). We've now received word that based on some of the language/word combinations used in the message, an "imminent DDoS attack" was actually very likely to happen. According to Verndale, the type of attack that has been following this particular threat is extremely difficult to manage without the necessary firewalls and there is no reliable way to trace the source of the attacks because they are using proxy servers in other countries and can easily jump from one country to the next. In addition, the attacks are precise in that they send too much traffic for the application to handle, but not enough to trigger automated built-in attack prevention features.

With membership renewal and FNCE registration in full swing, we are working with Verndale and quickly getting ahead of this via a service called Cloudflare. This new service will protect the Academy's websites at the DNS level instead of the hosting level. The Academy websites are a bigger target for these attacks because they're more successful than they've ever been in terms exposure. Since much of the Academy's revenue relies on site stability (eatrightSTORE.org, the join application, event registration, donations, etc.), in addition to more members logging onto the site for interaction (elections, dues renewal, profile updates, plus accessing member benefits), we will be as primed as possible against any future attacks. We negotiated the costs down so the new program will not increase our expenses overall.

As you already know, cybercriminals are getting smarter and savvier, making protecting the organization an ever-changing battle. We will continue to be vigilant in protecting the Academy's web and social media properties and stay on top of the latest threat detection services.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions.

Pat

At the March Board meeting, Sylvia Escott-Stump, the Academy's representative to the International Confederation of Dietetic Associations (ICDA), presented the ICDA proposals on international competence standards and international accreditation process for the dietitian-nutritionist. Both proposals will be presented at ICDA's meeting in Granada, Spain in September (see workshop attachments for background).

The Board requested that I work with ACEND and CDR to develop feedback to the proposals for your approval. Based on our discussions, I am recommending that the attached draft communication, which includes our feedback, be sent to ICDA as the official Academy response. Please review and provide your input at the Board meeting on Friday.

Please note the difference in the survey form between ACEND's response and my suggestions related to international competence standards. I believe that professional standing would improve if everyone had the same minimum level of competence. That being said, I recognize that there is a need for practitioners to have different skills in different countries.

I have also attached ACEND Accreditation Standards for Foreign Dietitian Education Programs for you information.

Thank you very much.

This year, we will be adding three new participants; Jo Jo Dantone-DeBarbieris, Dianne Polly and Manjushree Karkare. As is our tradition, we would like everyone to provide a picture and a small bio to be shared with Committee members. I am attaching a copy of the current list for everyone to review to see if you would like to change the picture or bio and for Jo Jo, Dianne and Manjushree to see what we would like them to provide. Send your information and/or changes to Linda Serwat at Lserwat@eatright.org.

I am also attaching a preliminary schedule for FY17 schedule. Currently, we still have the last Tuesday of each month set on the calendar. Please let us know if this will be a problem. We also still have a face to face meeting at FNCE on the calendar. Historically, this meeting was scheduled in order to review the audit report that was to be provided to the Board at their FNCE face to face meeting. This year, there will not be a Board meeting at the end of FNCE. Given that, I would recommend that we not have the FAC face to face meeting either. We can either schedule another call in September, or use the meeting we currently have set, to address the audit. I know FNCE is a long, draining week for all of you and you want to get home to your families. If we cancel this meeting, we will not only save your time, but, save money since will not need to fly in the auditors. So, let me know your thoughts on this issue as well.

I look forward to another productive year from the best Committee in the business! As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please let me know either via email or at extension 4730 at headquarters.

Lucille:

You raise good points. We have not contacted Joyce so let's step back. I benchmarked and found numerous "hardship" forms and procedures offered by American Bar, Dental, a Psychology association, etc. None totally waive the dues so let's not go there. Also, having the Board pay is very thoughtful of you but that sets a precedent and I doubt the Board would want to pass the hat if this "hardship" concept becomes more prevalent. My benchmarking shows that the "hardship" dues are about 1/3, generally have a 5 year max, and there is a form to sign that basically says it is an ethics violation if they are falsifying their situation.

So, how about Jim offers Joyce $75 dues and we will solidify the "hardship" procedure and forms.

What a sad situation and helping this one member is benevolent and the right thing to do. What do we do for others with similar situations? Is there a policy for this type of situation and do other associations adjust fees based on employment status? Giving discounts get tricky if other members find out. In my practice if someone can not pay a copay or other fee and we feel it is a hardship I will pay the fee or copay but not call it a discount. Your suggestion Donna is a good one the board can chip in to pay her membership not give her free or discounted membership. We are not offering this to others. Thanks, Lucille

Dear Dr Crayton,

I viewed your inspiring video that you sent to AND members earlier today. Thank you for all your hard work over the past year. You truly have accomplished quite a bit while at the helm of our esteemed professional organization. Congratulations on a job well done!

If I may, I would like to bring an Academy policy to your attention – a policy that you may or may not be aware of, but that I hope you will consider changing.

First, I need to give you a little background. I have been unemployed for 18 months. I lost my job in Nov 2014 when I needed to take time off from work to care for a family member who was not covered under FMLA. Due to excessive absences from work, I was terminated. I have been diligently seeking employment ever since but, with the exception of a few per diem, temporary, and freelance jobs, I have not been able to secure steady full-time (or even part-time) employment. At this point, unless something drastic changes, I am on track to earn only about $7,000 this year.

Last year at this time - when I had been unemployed for 5 months - I had contacted the Academy to request that my membership dues be reduced. I was told that the only thing the Academy could do was to spread my payments out (between June 2015 and January 2016), but that no discount could be extended. Because I value my membership in the Academy, I accepted the payment plan option (which actually increased my membership dues as administrative fees were added).

This year, however, I simply will not be able to afford the membership dues, even if they are spread out between June 2016 and January 2017. Nearly all the income I am earning is going toward paying my health insurance premiums. Due to the financial strain my unexpected long-term unemployment has put on our household, my retired husband went back to work last month.

I have been a member of the Academy since I was an undergraduate. If memory serves me, I first became a member in 1980 - 36 years ago. I do not wish to forfeit my membership in the Academy but, as I'm sure you can imagine, I have been faced with many such difficult choices over the past year. If a waiver of this year's dues (or a substantial discount) is not possible, then I will not, most unfortunately, be able to renew my membership in the Academy nor the 3 DPGs to which I belong (DCE, HEN, DIFM).

Last month, I sent the Academy an email with the same information I am relating to you now, requesting a waiver or discount of my membership dues. Matthew Novotny responded as follows: "Thank you for contacting us, and for your years of membership and support. Unfortunately, we're unable to discount or waive Academy membership dues in this manner. If you find you are unable to renew your membership this year, we understand, but wanted you to know it is possible and easy to resume your membership whenever your financial situation improves. I encourage you to reach to me personally whenever you are ready to renew or reactivate your membership. We would be happy to waive your reinstatement fee should your membership lapse..."

I am still in a state of disbelief that AND has no policy to assist decades-long members, especially those who are Fellows, when they are experiencing financial difficulty. Although I value my membership with AND, many of my RD friends and colleagues do not, and are not members. AND's inability or unwillingness to help unemployed members maintain their membership does not, to say the least, breed good will. My membership dues for the National Kidney Foundation were reduced from $125 to $57 when I informed them of my dire financial situation this past December.

As the Academy's President, I thought it was important for you to be aware of this.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Regards,

Joyce Vergili (RD # 15115)

Hello Everyone -

Barbara and I have discussed this. Considering Joyce's years of continuous membership and dedication to the profession, we are going to waive her membership fees for the 2016-2017 year. I will reach out to her and let her know as well.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Subject: I have been a member of AND since 1980

Dear Dr Crayton,

I viewed your inspiring video that you sent to AND members earlier today. Thank you for all your hard work over the past year. You truly have accomplished quite a bit while at the helm of our esteemed professional organization. Congratulations on a job well done!

If I may, I would like to bring an Academy policy to your attention – a policy that you may or may not be aware of, but that I hope you will consider changing.

First, I need to give you a little background. I have been unemployed for 18 months. I lost my job in Nov 2014 when I needed to take time off from work to care for a family member who was not covered under FMLA. Due to excessive absences from work, I was terminated. I have been diligently seeking employment ever since but, with the exception of a few per diem, temporary, and freelance jobs, I have not been able to secure steady full-time (or even part-time) employment. At this point, unless something drastic changes, I am on track to earn only about $7,000 this year.

Last year at this time - when I had been unemployed for 5 months - I had contacted the Academy to request that my membership dues be reduced. I was told that the only thing the Academy could do was to spread my payments out (between June 2015 and January 2016), but that no discount could be extended. Because I value my membership in the Academy, I accepted the payment plan option (which actually increased my membership dues as administrative fees were added).

This year, however, I simply will not be able to afford the membership dues, even if they are spread out between June 2016 and January 2017. Nearly all the income I am earning is going toward paying my health insurance premiums. Due to the financial strain my unexpected long-term unemployment has put on our household, my retired husband went back to work last month.

I have been a member of the Academy since I was an undergraduate. If memory serves me, I first became a member in 1980 - 36 years ago. I do not wish to forfeit my membership in the Academy but, as I'm sure you can imagine, I have been faced with many such difficult choices over the past year. If a waiver of this year's dues (or a substantial discount) is not possible, then I will not, most unfortunately, be able to renew my membership in the Academy nor the 3 DPGs to which I belong (DCE, HEN, DIFM).

Last month, I sent the Academy an email with the same information I am relating to you now, requesting a waiver or discount of my membership dues. Matthew Novotny responded as follows: "Thank you for contacting us, and for your years of membership and support. Unfortunately, we're unable to discount or waive Academy membership dues in this manner. If you find you are unable to renew your membership this year, we understand, but wanted you to know it is possible and easy to resume your membership whenever your financial situation improves. I encourage you to reach to me personally whenever you are ready to renew or reactivate your membership. We would be happy to waive your reinstatement fee should your membership lapse..."

I am still in a state of disbelief that AND has no policy to assist decades-long members, especially those who are Fellows, when they are experiencing financial difficulty. Although I value my membership with AND, many of my RD friends and colleagues do not, and are not members.

AND's inability or unwillingness to help unemployed members maintain their membership does not, to say the least, breed good will. My membership dues for the National Kidney Foundation were reduced from $125 to $57 when I informed them of my dire financial situation this past December.

As the Academy's President, I thought it was important for you to be aware of this.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Regards,

Joyce Vergili (RD # 15115)

Donna and all,

Generally, we have the meeting to get the audit accepted. Since the Board will not be meeting after FNCE, the review from auditors can be done via conference call. We can either do this on the September call or the October call. So, I could see not having a face to face meeting at FNCE.

Paul, Margaret and Kay, I am sure none of you have been worried about this, but I think we need to rethink out F2F FAC meeting at FNCE being after the closing session on Tuesday? If we do not have a board meeting anymore on Wednesday, a lot of people will be trying to catch flights, and I don't think having a meeting late Tuesday afternoon will work. I know I always have to catch two flights to get home and the latest flight I can get is 6:30pm that will get me in at midnight. Which means I would probably have to leave no later than 4:30pm. While this might work out, I thought it was worth thinking about doing something different? Maybe a breakfast meeting on Tuesday? Other suggestions? I was already trying to book flights, as they seem to be going out of sight for me, but was unsure what time we could get away on Tuesday.

Hi,

I received an invitation from Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (see below) to join its advisory committee on the “Engaging Oral Health Professionals in Efforts to Reduce Childhood Obesity.” It is a collaborative project with the National Maternal and Child Oral Health Resource Center, the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry, the American Dental Association, the American Dental Hygienists’ Association, and the Santa Fe Group. It is great the Academy was selected to represent childhood obesity.

Regardless of RWJF goal #1, I recommend we need to be a part of this advisory group. I would suggest Lucille take my place because of her expertise in children’s nutrition. Should you agree, we need to share our involvement with the Sponsorship Committee when Pepsi comes up for renewal.

Best regards,

Pat

Dear Pat,

I hope that all is well with you!

I'm writing to invite you to become a part of an important new Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) project—Engaging Oral Health Professionals in Efforts to Reduce Childhood Obesity—by joining the project's virtual advisory committee. The project is being spearheaded by a collaboration consisting of the National Maternal and Child Oral Health Resource Center, the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry, the American Dental Association, the American Dental Hygienists' Association, and the Santa Fe Group.

A series of background papers designed to examine the state of the science related to preventing childhood obesity (children under age 12) and reducing the consumption of sugar-sweetened beverages among children has been commissioned. The findings from reviews of the scientific research and national surveys of oral health professionals will be shared during a national conference of stakeholders—a wide array of professionals—to refine evidence-based recommendations and strategies that oral health professionals, oral-health-related organizations, and others can employ to prevent childhood obesity. An invitation to the conference was sent to your organization. If you did not receive the invitation, please let me know. For more information about the conference, visit <http://www.oralhealth4healthyfutures.org>.

sugar-sweetened beverages and (2) to ensure that children enter kindergarten at a healthy weight.

We understand that you are involved in many activities and your time is limited. For this reason, all advisory committee business will be conducted electronically. In other words, there will be no scheduled conference calls or meetings. When there is a topic to discuss or for which committee members' feedback is needed, the "conversations" will take place via e-mail or another convenient electronic method. This will allow discussion to take place in the most efficient manner possible and will enable everyone to take part in the discussion at a convenient time.

We hope that you will join this exciting project's virtual advisory committee and contribute to enabling children to live longer, healthier lives.

To let us know whether you or another representative from the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics are interested in being part of the committee, please contact Beth Lowe at eal38@gmail.com. For planning purposes, we would appreciate hearing about your decision by May 20.

Thank you so much for considering our request.

With warm regards,

Thank you for your quick response. I agree Nancy Collins would be a great addition. The selection of nominees was based on the identified opportunity areas. Sonja, for instance, is an expert on wasted food and she also contributed 100k towards Second Century. Judy Rodriguez is nominated because she is the new ICDA delegate. Susan Finn and Judy Dodd both are donors and co-chairs of Second Century. Marty Yadrik is chair-elect of the Foundation. Glenna and Ethan are part of the appreciative inquiry interview as were other Past Presidents.

The Diversity Matrix is used to ensure a representative group attends the Summit. The Matrix includes demographics, specialty, and membership category qualifications.

Brenda Richardson or Dr. Nancy Collins both offer an additional depth of knowledge. Full disclosure Nancy is a good friend of mine but I lean toward her. She is a legal expert on nursing home abuse works with countless lawyers, a wound care expert and sold a tech company to a major corporation. As you can imagine not a easy personality but very knowledgable and a visionary. I also think very highly of Brenda, great chair of PAC, quality control expert and expert in long term care. Perhaps you have others to consider...

Hope all is well. Thank you for this list. I appreciate how hard it must be to compile a list of the top 100 in our field. So glad to see Ellie Krieger on the list I think her notoriety will be a great asset. I notice long term care or geriatrics does not seem to be represented. You may have someone that can fill that position. If not I may have some ideas of who can fill into that space.

Aside from my suggestion I approve. Thanks, Lucille

Action Alert: Ask Congress to Suspend the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for Diabetes Testing Supplies

In 2011, Medicare tested a Competitive Bidding Program aimed to save money and to maintain the quality of care for patients. Although the Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report in 2012 stating that there was insufficient data on the programs effectiveness, Medicare launched the program nationwide in 2013.

A recent peer-reviewed article in the American Diabetes Associations Diabetes Care journal, demonstrated that the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for diabetes testing supplies has led to needless deaths, more hospitalizations and increased costs. Despite this, Medicare still plans to request new competitive bids on July 1. The Diabetes Care and Education Dietetic Practice Group leadership has been very active and voiced concerns for patients unable to receive supplies needed.

So here are the next steps:

1. Exercise your voice. We are asking you to take action now and urge Congress to suspend the Competitive Bidding Program. Your efforts will help reverse this trend of harmful practice for our patients.

TAKE ACTION TODAY!

2. Make a contribution to ANDPAC. The funds help the Academy support decision makers who understand the importance of quality of care for diabetes patients. Because of relationships built through ANDPAC, the Academy actively voices concerns for patients unable to receive diabetes testing supplies.

Thank you for taking action today!

Dr. Evelyn F. Crayton, RDN, LDN, FAND

President, 2015-2016

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee is a separate segregated fund of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics used to support candidates and elected officials. Academy members are not required to contribute to ANDPAC and there is no reprisal for not contributing. Amounts recommended for contribution in Academy publications are merely suggestions and there is no minimum contribution level.

First let me apologize from sending this message from my iPad.

We are working on the sessions for PPW. We are planning the opening session for PPW on June 23 at 3 pm to be that motivational session for our attendees. We would like both of you involved as the speakers for the first session - approximately a 45 time block. Once we have the additional details, we will schedule a time to talk over a conference call.

Please confirm that you will be attending PPW and willing to serve as opening session speakers.

I look forward to working with both of you.

Looking forward to seeing you in June.

To raise awareness of the importance of research in dietetics, the Academy is declaring May as Research Month. The Academy promotes evidence-based practice and urges members to become involved in the research process. Practice-based research activity is critical to discovering not only how nutrition interventions affect different disease states, but also how they impact outcomes and the lives of patients. In addition, practice-based research in community settings fills a public health function and determines the role of nutrition in achieving a healthy population.

Hi Steve,

First, congratulations on your new position! The Federal Reserve is very lucky to have you and the honor spills over to the Academy. Knowing Janet Yellen is fantastic and now we have an "in" with you which may open the door to her being a keynote speaker at a future FNCE!

We will miss your perspective next week at the meeting but it is perfectly understandable you need to be acclimated to your new role. Again, congratulations!

Best,

Pat

Pat,

I believe that you are aware that I very recently moved from Cornell University to a new role on the Board of the Federal Reserve of the United States.

Unfortunately, this means that I won't be able to make the upcoming Board meeting in Chicago. They simply have me scheduled with so many 1-1 and group meetings that there's no way I can break away for two days this early in my tenure. I'm operating under the assumption that this will be a short-lived phenomenon and that I will be able to return to regular participation in Academy sessions shortly.

I apologize in advance for missing next week's meeting. Frankly, I had forgotten just how crazy the first few weeks on a major new role can be!

Steve

PS - Good news. I have had a chance to meet Janet Yellen. VERY nice lady.

Action Alert: Ask Congress to Suspend the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for Diabetes Testing Supplies

The Academy opened a new action alert. An Academy action alert email message will be sent to all members on Friday, May 6. You can take action here today!

In 2011, Medicare tested a Competitive Bidding Program aimed to save money and to maintain the quality of care for patients. Although the Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report in 2012 stating that there was insufficient data on the programs' effectiveness, Medicare launched the program nationwide in 2013.

A recent peer-reviewed article in the American Diabetes Association's Diabetes Care journal, demonstrates that the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for diabetes testing supplies has led to needless deaths, more hospitalizations and increased costs. Despite this, Medicare still plans to request new competitive bids on July 1. Diabetes Care and Education DPG leadership has been very active and voiced concerns for patients unable to receive supplies needed.

Action Alert Senate Bill: Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs

Please send your members a reminder about supporting the Senate Agriculture Committee's bipartisan reauthorization of child nutrition programs bill, titled the Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016.

As of today, only 4.6 % or 3,382 Academy members have responded to the action alert. The Senators need to know that their constituents strongly support this bill, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals and promote nutrition education for our children. We expect a vote on this bill in the Senate later this spring.

Please send the following message to your membership:

*Subject line: Action Alert: Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs in the Senate

Dear Colleague,

Your Senators need to know that their constituents strongly support the bi-partisan Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals and promote nutrition education for our children.

Please take action today to support healthy meals for hungry children.

Thank you,

Your RDN friend,

Insert your name and title

Insert your affiliate or DPG name

Thank you for activating your membership over the past few weeks!

Action Alert Reports

The reports of the number of Academy members by state who have responded to the two action alerts that are open will be posted later this week in the Public Policy Panel COI. Here is a chart

Joan, Is the Academy going to be doing headshots at the May BOD meeting for the incoming board members? I had one done in Denver, but really hate it. Do you think there is anyway to have another one done in Chicago if we are doing them at the May board meeting? I would be glad to personally pay to have mine taken again. Thanks!

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the May update is posted on the ACEND Standards webpage www.eatrightacend.org/ACEND/Standards.

The Mayupdate explains how the associate degree practitioner prepared in the proposed future education model will be a different practitioner than the associate degree practitioner prepared under the current ACEND accreditation standards (2012 and 2017 draft standards). The update also answers questions we received at the March NDEP meetings and the April ACEND virtual town hall meeting. We invite all stakeholders who are interested in learning more about the work of ACEND to attend these meetings which are held the second Thursday of each month at 11:30 a.m. Central Time. The next meeting will occur May 12. Information for connecting to the virtual town hall is posted on the ACEND Standards webpage www.eatrightacend.org/ACEND/Standards.

We also would like to remind you to provide input on the draft 2017 Accreditation Standards at the following survey link prior to Friday, May 13, 2016.

•<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2017Std2>

The 2017 draft standards are the result of a planned five-year review cycle of the current 2012 Accreditation Standards to ensure compliance with USDE regulations; and are different from the future education model associate's, bachelor's and master's degree standards that will be released for public comment later this year.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you so much.

Mary Gregoire, PhD, RD

Thanks for checking.

Pat, I am very interested in going to this event, but wanted to check with you to make sure there was not any conflict of interest since it was a Monsanto event. They have asked if I would like to bring someone from the Academy to it also in a second email. What are your thoughts? I would love to continue to get educated about this subject as it might be useful information for the Second Century Summit. Monsanto is paying all expenses.

The President-elect's role on committees varies in participation. Your role for instance on the Committee for Lifelong Learning is not to review FNCE session proposals, but rather to provide an overview of the Academy's strategic direction to guide the committee in its decision-making. Staff supporting each of the boards/committees will be sending you orientation materials and more details.

You will be asked to present at Affiliate, DPG and MIG meetings. Affiliate, DPG and MIG invitations are discussed on the 4Ps calls. Please e-mail the 3Ps (Lucille, Evelyn, Pat) and Joan Schwaba (jschwaba@eatright.org) which invitations you accept, their dates and locations so we can develop a calendar of events. A copy of the 2016-17 Presidents' Calendar is attached. The calendar is a standing agenda item for each 4Ps meeting. Representation at other organizational meetings should be discussed with me and the 3Ps to track these and to avoid representation duplication; for example, the Chief Science Officer attends the annual Experimental Biology meeting but you may also receive an invite. Attached are the Representation at Meetings policies which provide information on Academy representation at Affiliate, DPG and MIG meetings and at other organizations.

To make your travel arrangements for these meetings, you are encouraged to use ATC Travel Management www.atcmeetings.com/Academy and enter the GL Code 1032430 and Meeting Authorization Code 9198834.

While serving on the Board in one of the three presidential positions, you are entitled to the following:

- Monthly Stipend
- Academy American Express card

· Academy Business Cards

Monthly Stipend

As President-elect, you will receive a $750 monthly stipend. This stipend is intended to help cover any incidental expenses that you may incur as President-elect and will increase to $2,000 in June, 2017 to cover expenses during your year as President. As Immediate Former-president, the stipend decreases back to $750. You will receive your first stipend in June, 2016. It will be directly deposited into your bank account the first week of every month and you will receive an email the day prior notifying you of the deposit. No paperwork is required for use of the stipend. In addition to the stipend you will be reimbursed for all expenses incurred on behalf of and approved by the Academy.

American Express Card

As President-elect, you are offered an American Express card to use during your three-year tenure on the Board. The primary benefit of providing this card is to give you another line of credit to use for the expenses you will incur during your tenure. The Academy pays the credit card fee, however, you will be responsible for paying any expenses incurred on the card that are personal. Any reimbursable expenses would require you to submit to the Academy an expense reimbursement form. The Academy will reimburse you either by check or direct deposit, so please let us know which method you prefer. If you are not currently set up for direct deposit and would like to be, please contact Joan (jschwaba@eatright.org or 312-899-4798) and she will work with the Accounting Services Team to begin the process.

Please let me know if you want a card, and we will fill out the information and mail it to you for your signature.

Business Cards

As President-elect you receive Academy business and note cards for your use when representing the Academy.

I look forward to working with you and I will make sure we schedule some “alone time” for any questions you may have. As always, please contact me anytime!

Best regards,

Pat

Donna, we received both donations (attached is a receipt). I believe the reason why you have not received a confirmation is because the batch for the web transaction is not closed (not sure, but I will find out).

I will get back to you on when the confirmation is sent to our donors

Subject: Foundation and ANDPAC donations

Maria, I decided to bother you instead of Paul on this issue. I went on-line today and donated $250 to ANDPAC and $250 to the Foundation. I did it with my credit card, but have yet to receive any kind of confirmation? The website said they would email me confirmation, but that was over an hour ago. Do you have any way of checking to see if the transactions went through? After what we were talking about with the website today on the FAC call I hope this is not another issue with the website. I would think the notification would be immediate like most web sites? If I put something in wrong it should have notified me of that also. Sorry to bother you, but I usually give Paul a check at the FAC face to face meeting, but since we are not having one I thought I better go on line and donate instead. Missed being able to see you at our usual F2F meeting. Hope you are doing well. Thanks for your help with this issue.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

PPW Registration Is Open

There has never been a better time for food and nutrition to play a role in our nation's health. Attend the 2016 Public Policy Workshop - the world's largest food and nutrition policy and advocacy summit, in Washington, D.C., June 23 to 24. Exciting changes make this year's workshop the "go-to" event to sharpen your communication skills, advocate for the profession and develop high-level personal and professional relationships.

House Introduces Child Nutrition Bill

The House of Representatives' Committee on Education and the Workforce has introduced its version of child nutrition reauthorization, which sets the scope of such programs as National School Breakfast and Lunch; Farm to School; Child and Adult Care; Food, Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program; and WIC. This is the next step in reauthorizing these important programs; the Academy is taking a cautious approach since the bill aligns with few of the Academy's recommendations.

Agriculture and Nutrition Spending: House Begins Annual Debate

The Academy is closely watching as Congress debates 24 spending bills addressing federal agency requests made by President Obama in February, particularly the Senate and House

Agriculture and Labor, Health Human Services bills. The House Appropriations Committee is debating the $21.3 billion agriculture and nutrition program spending bill that proposes $451 million less on agricultural programs than in Fiscal Year 2016 and $281 million below President Obama's request.

Global Food Security Act Moves in Congress

The Senate passed the Global Food Security Act, bringing the Feed the Future program a step closer to law. The bill would authorize a $1 billion per year agricultural development initiative that the Administration launched in 2010, and an emergency food security program for the U.S. Agency for International Development. The House's version of the bill passed earlier in April, and a conference committee of members from the House and the Senate will reconcile the two bills.

USDA's Final Rule Outlines Healthy Meals and Snacks in Child Care

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has finalized rules to strengthen nutrition standards for food and beverages served to young children and others in daycare settings. Meals will contain more whole grains, a greater variety of vegetables and fruits and fewer added sugars and solid fats. The Academy had urged USDA to adopt these science-based standards.

Through ANDPAC: Be Part of the Voice of Nutrition That Congress Trusts

When you annually pledge to the Academy's political action committee ANDPAC, critical messages are heard. Your donations make it possible to have honest discussions and create relationships with candidates for federal office to support health families, healthy communities and a sustainable profession.

House Introduces Child Nutrition Bill

The House of Representatives' Committee on Education and the Workforce introduced their version of child nutrition reauthorization, which sets the scope of programs like National School Breakfast and Lunch Program, Farm to School, Child and Adult Care Food Program, Fresh Fruit and Vegetable program, and WIC. This is the next step in reauthorizing these important programs, but we are cautious as this bill aligns with very few Academy recommendations. We believe that this bill will be debated very soon. The Academy continues to work with its partners to ensure that these important programs are strengthened and protected. To read more, see this week's Eat Right Weekly.

New Action Alert: Ask Congress to Suspend the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for Diabetes Testing Supplies

The Academy opened a new action alert. An Academy action alert email message will be sent to all members later this week. You can take action here today!

In 2011, Medicare tested a Competitive Bidding Program aimed to save money and to maintain the quality of care for patients. Although the Government Accountability Office (GAO) issued a report in 2012 stating that there was insufficient data on the programs' effectiveness, Medicare launched the program nationwide in 2013.

A recent peer-reviewed article in the American Diabetes Association's Diabetes Care journal, which shows that the Medicare Competitive Bidding Program for diabetes testing supplies has led to needless deaths, more hospitalizations and increased costs. Despite this, Medicare still plans to put out new competitive bids on July 1. DCE leadership has been very active and voiced concerns for patients unable to receive supplies needed. We are asking you to take action now and urge Congress to suspend the Competitive Bidding Program. Your efforts will help reverse this trend of harmful practice for our patients.

Action Alert Senate Bill: Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs

Please send your members a reminder about supporting the Senate Agriculture Committee's bipartisan reauthorization of child nutrition programs bill, titled the Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016.

As of today, only 4.3 % or 3,164 Academy members have responded to the action alert. The Senators need to know that their constituents strongly support this bill, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals and promote nutrition education for our children. We expect a vote on this bill in the Senate later this spring.

Please send the following message to your membership:

*Subject line: Action Alert: Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs in the Senate

Dear Colleague,

Your Senators need to know that their constituents strongly support the bi-partisan Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals and promote nutrition education for our children.

Please take action today to support healthy meals for hungry children.

Thank you,

Your RDN friend,

Insert your name and title

Insert your affiliate or DPG name

Thank you for activating your membership over the past few weeks!

Action Alert Reports

The reports of the number of Academy members by state who have responded to the two action alerts that are open will be posted later this week in the Public Policy Panel COI. Here is a chart identifying the action alert totals as of today:

Action Alert Title Academy Members Participating Percentage Participation Legislators Contacted Number of Letters Sent

|-----------------------------|-------|------|-----|-------|------------------------------|-------|------|-----|--------|
| Senate Child Nutrition Bill | 3,164 | 3.4% | 100 | 7,550 | Treat and Reduce Obesity Act | 6,422 | 8.8% | 538 | 28,941 |

House Begins Annual Debate on Agriculture and Nutrition Spending

The Academy is closely watching as Congress is supposed to pass 24 spending bills addressing federal agency requests made by the President last February. Specifically, the Academy is watching four of these items – the Senate and House Agriculture and Labor, Health Human Services bills. In addition to the spending levels outlined in the legislation, the proposed policy changes, called "riders," are being monitored. This Fiscal Year 2017 spending deliberation started with the House Appropriations Committee debating the $21.3 billion agriculture and nutrition program spending bill which proposes $451 million less overall on agricultural programs than in FY 2016 and $281 million below President Barack Obama's FY 2017 request. To read what programs were funded or to understand policy riders, like menu labeling, click here.

USDA Final Rule Released Outlining Healthy Meals and Snacks in Child Care

A finalized rule released from USDA will strengthen nutrition standards for food and beverages served to young children and others in day care settings. Young children and adults in day care will now receive meals with more whole grains, a greater variety of vegetables and fruits, and less added sugars and solid fats. The science-based standards introduced in this final rule will elevate the nutritional quality of meals and snacks provided under the CACFP to better align with the Dietary Guidelines for Americans and to be consistent with the meals children receive as part of the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and School Breakfast Program (SBP).

Please let me know if you have questions.

Teresa

Hi Joan

My apologies for not responding sooner but we were out all last week at our National Leadership Conference meeting.

Yes we are more than happy to extend a comp registration for Donna Martin at ANC this year, and appreciate the reciprocal arrangement to send one of our leaders to FNCE this year. Attached is a link for the ANC registration form. Just fill out and write -- COMP PER P MONTAGUE – on top and send back to me and I will have it processed.

All,

The FY16 Forecast and FY17 Budget has been loaded onto the portal for you to review. It is a large deck, as always, that can be broken down into two sections;

1. Overview – Pages 1-19
2. Supporting detail – Pages 20 – 51

On the supporting detail pages, I attempted to identify the areas that are generating the “largest changes” in FY17 when compared to FY16. In some cases, there may not be anything material to address. For example, Rent and Utilities are going up $22K in 2017. The reason; higher operating expenses in the Chicago office. That’s all there is!! I hope the supporting detail gives you an idea of what the Academy is proposing.

As many of you already know, to arrive at this 51 page summary, we first start with every area of the business providing to us their expectations for the remainder of FY16 and for FY17. Once this is done, Christian and his team go through each project, identify concerns and sit with each manager who is responsible for the project, and their supervisor, to address changes. Once this has been done, I go through every project and look for more opportunity. This process was very successful this year. However, it didn't get us as far as we needed to be. Therefore, I drilled down into each project further and evaluated each line item. If the revenue was too high, I looked to adjust it. If the revenue was too low, a stretch objective was added. The same thing could be said for the expenses. In some cases, managers did not have enough expense. If this was the case, expenses were added. However, in most of the situations, expenses were cut.

The largest area of expense cuts was in travel. It will be a risk. However, it should not impact anyone's ability to manage the business. The biggest adjustments will come in our drive to use technology. For example, we did not budget for a Vice Chair Orientation or Affiliate training in Chicago in FY17. We will find a way to use technology to achieve the same effect. We also took a hard look at the travel expenses for staff at FNCE or to the host offices if there was an expectation of working remotely. Adjustments were made to be consistent and fair. For example, a remote supervisor will only get two trips to the host office (either Chicago or Washington DC) to manage their team in FY17. A non-supervising remote employee will have one trip available. You would be surprised how much money we saved on this issue alone. This does not mean people won't travel to Chicago or Washington DC. It just means they will travel less and have to package together the required meetings with the need to supervise staff.

As you go through this deck, please keep in mind quite a bit of this information has not been entirely disclosed to anyone, including staff. Please take notice of the footnote on page one of the deck; "Not to be disclosed outside of the Academy Finance and Audit Committee". When and how we communicate the information may determine success or failure. Internally, once the FAC approves the budget and recommends it to the Board for their approval, staff will be informed of budget changes, adjustments and impact. In most cases, there will not be too many surprises. However, Pat, Mary Beth and I should address it with the rest of the executive team first.

You will also find items in this deck that will impact the membership. Once approved, staff will create a communication plan. The communication plan will critical be to our success. So, disclosure before this is completed could either result in failure or in raising anxiety or stress unnecessarily. Since the most sensitive issues will not be implemented until the second half of FY17, we have given ourselves the time we need to effectively communicate to the membership the plans for FY17. Also, we want to make sure you, as well as the Board members, have all the information you need to help make the plan successful. Besides, you have every right to alter anything in this package before it goes to the Board. So, what you see now may not be what the Board gets to approve.

In any event, I look forward to talking to everyone next week. If you have not received the webinar invitation, please let me know as soon as possible.

Paul

Subject: Annual Nutrition Conference

Joan, I would really like to attend the Annual Nutrition Conference (School Nutrition Association) again in San Antonio in July (10-13). Can you check with Pat to get approval and see about getting the complimentary registration again? Can you also see if they will get hotel accommodations for me too if it is approved for me to go? It is just like our annual meeting and hard to get hotel reservations, but I know they can make that happen. The School Nutrition Services Practice Group has asked me to come to some of their networking events already. I was not planning on going when the board retreat was conflicting with it, but now that we have cancelled that, I would really like to go. Thanks for your help as usual! Once I am on the P's calls, I know I will be able to get this handled without having to bother you!

Subject: RE: IMPORTANT: Upcoming Meeting Information

Dear Board members,

I am sharing additional information regarding upcoming Board meetings. The decision not to have a face to face retreat meeting is stated below. I am asking however that you continue to save the retreat dates of July 9-11 for a webinar(s) in order that we address ongoing Board business. We also added a day to meet face to face immediately preceding the Second Century Summit. The Board meeting and Summit dates and times are provided in the email below. We will continue using webinars on focused topics, i.e., PCMH/ACO, Grassroots Advocacy, that were initiated this year.

Joan will be sending out a communication to incoming Board members regarding a June orientation webinar highlighting Board member roles and responsibilities and major Academy programs and policies. Any continuing Board members who would like to participate are welcome to do so. In October at our Board meeting in Nashville, you asked that we not hold our regularly scheduled meeting at FNCE®, therefore, are looking to meet face to face in November. Joan will be sending you an updated 2016-17 Board meeting calendar shortly.

Best regards,

Pat

The 2016 Board retreat in July will be cancelled since the annual strategic thinking and planning agenda is being replaced by the Second Century Summit taking place in Irving, Texas (adjacent to Dallas) on September 21-23. We are adding a one-day Board meeting immediately preceding the Summit. The Board meeting will take place September 20-21, beginning at 1:00pm on September 20 and adjourning at 11:00am on September 21 to allow Board members to attend the Summit, which begins at 2:00pm on September 21 and will adjourn at 2:00pm on September 23.

You are approved to make your travel arrangements for both the May and September meetings; see instructions below. In order for your airfare to be charged to the Academy credit card on file, you must have an active Traveler Profile in the Academy's online booking tool Deem@work® (formerly aXiom). If you do not have a traveler profile, please contact Rebecca McHale at rmchale@eatright.org and you will receive an activation email from Deem@work® within two business days prompting you to complete your profile. If you wish to book your travel on your own, please submit your expenses for reimbursement after the conclusion of the meeting.

Thanks, Donna! I think the communications team caught the suggestions you provided.

Hope you are well! We will keep you apprised of the feedback we get from this letter. We sent it over to the majority bill authors in hopes that changes will be made to the discussion draft prior to introduction.

Very best,
Jenn

Jenn and Mary Pat, Thanks for sending me this information. I found a couple of items in the letter that did not make sense. Feel free to take or leave suggestions. See below:

1. Require a review of the current rule on a la carte servings (probably just need to add of)2.
2. We recommend the Senate's Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act that provides incentives for improving verification numbers but also provides support at the state level for improved coordination of data systems, of which the continuing eligibility provision is a vital component

(need to add that or something else to make this make sense)

3. These provisions ensure that these effective WIC services are meeting the needs of the population the program is intended to serve. (add s to provision)

Donna,

We wanted to give you a heads up that we are sending this letter to the House Ed and Workforce Committee staff on the majority side, the main authors of the discussion draft.

We plan to send this today from Evelyn and Pat, and if/when the a House bill is actually introduced we will may have more public statements.

As we mentioned last week, the Academy has been working with the Committee staff to make this bill incrementally better. We are sending this letter to formalize our recommendations.

Your thoughts are always welcome.

Very best,

Jenn

Thanks, Donna. The meetings we receive invitation for and those we attend regularly are included on the Presidents' Meetings and Events calendar. The calendar is a standing item on the 4Ps call agenda. I have added IFT to the calendar which will be reviewed on the next 4Ps call, Tuesday, April 26 at 10am CT to discuss representation. Traditionally the incoming president elect is invited to attend the last couple of 4Ps calls for the program year for transitioning. Are you available to attend the call next Tuesday?

Joan, Thanks for following up on this request. I decided not to do the presentation for the IFT, because what she wanted me to present on was not evidenced based enough for this organization. She instead asked me to do a webinar for her on food insecurity. If the Academy would like to send a representative to this meeting I would be glad to go, but only if this is a meeting that we need board representation at.

We missed Pat in Denver, but the meeting was great. Lucille and I had a lot of fun and really enjoyed the presentations and getting to know the spoke persons. Doris and her staff did a great job.

Joan, Dr. Uruakpa has invited me to present at the IFT conference in Chicago this July. Please see her email below. I told her I would have to ask you all if there was anything on the BOD schedule that would interfere with this meeting. I told her that "if" I were to be elected President-elect that the Academy meetings would be my first priority. I told her I would try and get some guidance from you today. She did say they would pay my way to go. I know you are like me and getting ready for the Candidate Forum, but I thought I would reach out to see what your thoughts were?

Subject: Speaker at 2016 IFT Annual Conference

Dear Ms. Martin,

Allow me to introduce myself; my name is Florence Uruakpa and I met you at Buffalo NY at the CDR/AND certificate of training in childhood and adolescent weight management program held Sept 10-12, 2015. You were one of the speakers at the session (you presented on Day 3. You were the last speaker).

Also, we met at the airport when we were leaving Buffalo.

I am writing to ask if you'll find time (in your very busy schedule) to speak at one of the Symposia at the 2016 IFT Annual Meeting and Food Expo to be held in Chicago, IL in July 16-19, 2016.

I am the Chair of one of IFT's conference Symposia, and I'd like to invite you to speak at the symposium on "Obesity/weight management". It will be an honor to have you as a speaker for that symposium.

I have already submitted the proposal and preliminary update on the submitted proposal from IFT shows that it will be approved. I will know the status of the proposal by next week. If you'll be interested in serving as one of the speakers, I'll need more details on your accomplishments to include in my revised proposal to be submitted in 3 days (I'm assuming you'll be willing to accept my invitation to give a talk at the session).

Kindly respond back to me by Sunday Jan 31, 2016.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

State Policy Representative (SPR) Orientation

Rumblings in the House on Child Nutrition Programs

The House Education and the Workforce Committee is getting ready to debate child nutrition and hunger programs, like WIC, School Meals, Farm to School, Child and Adult Care Food Package and Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program. The Academy continues to engage and work with members of Congress on this Committee to include our recommendations. We have sent a letter, from the Academy's President Dr. Crayton and the Chief Executive Officer Pat Babjak, with our thoughts on the Committee's discussion draft of the bill. We will keep you posted on any developments in the House, but also encourage you to push the Senate Action Alert on Child Nutrition programs to your members. The Senate bill has the majority of our recommendations and we need to show our support. If you have any questions please email Jenn Folliard.

Show Me the Money! Congress Debates 2017 Spending

The House Agriculture Appropriations sub-committee debated and passed a bill that funds programs like WIC, food and agriculture research, nutrition education through Team Nutrition, kitchen equipment grants and many other programs. The full Appropriations committee is set to debate this bill Tuesday at 11am. A full write of the hearing and the outcomes will be in Eat Right Weekly. Over the last 4 months the Academy has worked with members of Congress on the Appropriations Committee to submit specific funding requests for priority programs as well as submitted a letter with all of the funding priorities of the Academy within the Departments of Agriculture and Health and Human Services. The Academy is closely watching, over the next few months, as Congress debates spending priorities for 2017. We are especially watching out for policy changes or funding decreases that may impact the Dietary Guidelines for Americans, school meals and other nutrition programs.

Healthy People 2020 Webinar on Screening & Early Intervention for Diabetes

On April 19, the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance and the Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion at the Department of Health and Human Services will host a meeting with Healthy People 2020 Stakeholders. This is the 3rd meeting, and will focus on screening and early intervention for diabetes, as well as ways to promote the new United States Preventive Services Task Force (USPSTF) screening guideline. The Academy is a member in the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance. See the agenda and learn more here.

Academy Participates in Hill Day to Promote Public Health!

On April 19th, Academy staff lead a group of advocates on the Hill with the Coalition for Health Funding. The focus of the Coalition meetings will be urging lawmakers to join the new House Public Health Caucus, as well as continuing to educate staff on the importance of the public health continuum, including the importance of nutrition in public health. The day started with a kick-off breakfast featuring Rep. Rob Wittman as the speaker. Stay tuned for ways to follow-up with your member of Congress!

Please let us know if you have questions.

Best,

Teresa

Donna,

We wanted to give you a heads up that we are sending this letter to the House Ed and Workforce Committee staff on the majority side, the main authors of the discussion draft.

We plan to send this today from Evelyn and Pat, and if/when the a House bill is actually introduced we will may have more public statements.

As we mentioned last week, the Academy has been working with the Committee staff to make this bill incrementally better. We are sending this letter to formalize our recommendations.

Your thoughts are always welcome.

Very best,

Jenn

June 1 marks a new day and Lucille and I are in sync!

Lucille's intentions were good but I think you need to be on too. I wrote to Lucille (see below) before I saw your email, so I will make sure I underscore the spokesperson role and Jeanne's strong concerns. I thought Dianne Polly, who will serve on three groups, was being taken off QM Committee and Denice was going there. Again, I think Lucille was trying to protect your time, but if you're willing by all means you should be on even if Denice stays. I'm sure Lucille told you about the conversation with Denice and Michele.

I was really looking forward to seeing both of you this past weekend. It's in the high 70's here and if only I hadn't made my reservation for Saturday morning departure!

Best,

Pat

Hi!

We have an option and that is to include Donna and Denice. Jeanne said she would "make it work" but she has great trepidation about Denice and worries she'll question every decision already made by the group. How about putting Donna on too because the presidents are the spokespeople on public policy issues?

Pat, The conversation with Denice and Michelle concerns me greatly! Denice has driven me crazy with all the requests she makes of the staff to get information that is not worth all the time the staff has to put in to get it. She is going to drive LPPC crazy. I will be glad to keep her in check!!!

Lucille's intentions were good but I think you need to be on too. I wrote to Lucille (see below) before I saw your email, so I will make sure I underscore the spokesperson role and Jeanne's strong concerns. I thought Dianne Polly, who will serve on three groups, was being taken off QM Committee and Denice was going there. Again, I think Lucille was trying to protect your time, but if you're willing by all means you should be on even if Denice stays. I'm sure Lucille told you about the conversation with Denice and Michele.

I was really looking forward to seeing both of you this past weekend. It's in the high 70's here and if only I hadn't made my reservation for Saturday morning departure!

Best,

Pat

Hi!

We have an option and that is to include Donna and Denice. Jeanne said she would "make it work" but she has great trepidation about Denice and worries she'll question every decision already made by the group. How about putting Donna on too because the presidents are the spokespeople on public policy issues?

Dear Board members,

I am sharing additional information regarding upcoming Board meetings. The decision not to have a face to face retreat meeting is stated below. I am asking however that you continue to save the retreat dates of July 9-11 for a webinar(s) in order that we address ongoing Board business. We also added a day to meet face to face immediately preceding the Second Century Summit. The Board meeting and Summit dates and times are provided in the email below. We will continue using webinars on focused topics, i.e., PCMH/ACO, Grassroots Advocacy, that were initiated this year.

Joan will be sending out a communication to incoming Board members regarding a June orientation webinar highlighting Board member roles and responsibilities and major Academy programs and policies. Any continuing Board members who would like to participate are welcome to do so. In October at our Board meeting in Nashville, you asked that we not hold our regularly scheduled meeting at FNCE®, therefore, are looking to meet face to face in November. Joan will be sending you an updated 2016-17 Board meeting calendar shortly.

Best regards,

Pat

Attached for your review and input is the draft agenda for the meeting; we welcome your feedback. The final agenda and corresponding attachments for the Board meeting will be emailed and posted on the Board of Directors' communication platform by Monday, May 2. We are adding a one-day Board meeting immediately preceding the Summit. The Board meeting will take place September 20-21, beginning at 1:00pm on September 20 and adjourning at 11:00am on September 21 to allow Board members to attend the Summit, which begins at 2:00pm on September 21 and will adjourn at 2:00pm on September 23.

You are approved to make your travel arrangements for both the May and September meetings; see instructions below. In order for your airfare to be charged to the Academy credit card on file, you must have an active Traveler Profile in the Academy's online booking tool Deem@work® (formerly aXiom). If you do not have a traveler profile, please contact Rebecca McHale at rmchale@eatright.org and you will receive an activation email from Deem@work® within two business days prompting you to complete your profile. If you wish to book your travel on your own, please submit your expenses for reimbursement after the conclusion of the meeting.

That's fantastic! I will talk with Katie Brown and Alison Steiber to make sure we include you and them in our activities there. As soon as get their names I will place them on our volunteer list for all organization unit committees, task forces and workgroups.

In addition to Katie and Alison, we also have four RISA staff presenting and it will be good for them and your students to get to know each other. I realize the competition to present is fierce, so congratulations to you and them!

Some other members who will be there are Sylvia, Bea, Lucille, Donna, and Judy.

Thank you and have a great weekend too. I look forward to seeing you and meeting your students in Granada!

Just wanted you to know that we got a couple of posters accepted for ICD in Granada, Spain. Two students will be presenting one poster and I'll be presenting the other poster. One student is an RDN and is completing her MS with us this year. The other is finishing her BS this Spring. If you have any functions it would be great to include these two. I foresee that they are potential leaders in the Academy.

Also, since I'll be there, let me know if I can help out in anyway.

Take care and have a wonderful weekend!

Subject: Exciting News

I am happy to share some exciting news from the Academy.

We have secured an amazing keynote speaker for the Opening Session in Boston. Lucille Beseler's vision for FNCE is to feature a strong businesswoman who can motivate and inspire our members. We have booked Barbara Corcoran, a nationally recognized personality who will be a big draw for all age groups.

<image002.jpg>As one of the "Sharks" on ABC's hit TV show "Shark Tank," Barbara has invested in 22 businesses, competing to make deals for all to see, then shepherding them to success. I am one of the many millions of fans who watch this popular network show.

Barbara Corcoran's "credentials" include straight D's in high school and college and 20 jobs by the time she turned 23. She took a $1,000 loan to start The Corcoran Group and became one of the most successful entrepreneurs in the country. Barbara's latest book, Shark Tales, takes readers behind the scenes of her life and business and televised venture capitalism. Famously brash and blunt, bold and courageous, Barbara is a brilliant identifier of opportunity and talent that is often invisible to others. Read more about Barbara at www.barbaracorcoran.com.

FNCE promotions are just beginning, and the Academy will aggressively promote this exciting featured speaker to all potential attendees.

Congratulations to Donna Martin! First Lady Michelle Obama will visit Burke County (Ga.) Middle School on April 7, joining Donna and her students to plant the school garden as part of her American Garden Tour highlighting the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm-fresh produce to its students daily. We will share this information with our members in Eat Right Weekly, eatrightPRO.org and on social media channels. By the way, Burke County Middle School was awarded a 2015-2016 General Mills Champions Grant through the Academy Foundation.

In addition, Donna has been invited by USDA's Under Secretary Kevin Concannon to address school nutrition policy changes at The Obesity Society meeting in New Orleans on November 4, 2016. Under Secretary Concannon recommended Donna join him as a panel member so that the audience would benefit from hearing a "real-world perspective from a progressive SFA director."

All,

Just a reminder that we have a Finance and Audit Committee meeting on the mornings of April 26th and April 27th. The webinars will be from 8 – 11:30 a.m. CDT. Please make sure you are available. This is an important meeting since it will address the 2017 Fiscal Year budget. The information is nearly complete. We will begin posting the information for the meeting on Monday. Maria will let you know as she posts the information. I am attaching the preliminary agenda for you. It may change a little, but, the content should stay the same. We will provide to you the financial results for February and March. However, they are not on the agenda out of respect for your time. We will discuss them if the Committee would like too. At the very least, you will see them again in May.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Joan, Dr. Uruakpa has invited me to present at the IFT conference in Chicago this July. Please see her email below. I told her I would have to ask you all if there was anything on the BOD schedule that would interfere with this meeting. I told her that "if" I were to be elected President-elect that the Academy meetings would be my first priority. I told her I would try and get some guidance from you today. She did say they would pay my way to go. I know you are like me and getting ready for the Candidate Forum, but I thought I would reach out to see what your thoughts were?

Dear Ms. Martin,

Allow me to introduce myself; my name is Florence Uruakpa and I met you at Buffalo NY at the CDR/AND certificate of training in childhood and adolescent weight management program held Sept 10-12, 2015. You were one of the speakers at the session (you presented on Day 3. You were the last speaker).

Also, we met at the airport when we were leaving Buffalo.

I am writing to ask if you'll find time (in your very busy schedule) to speak at one of the Symposia at the 2016 IFT Annual Meeting and Food Expo to be held in Chicago, IL in July 16-19, 2016.

I am the Chair of one of IFT's conference Symposia, and I'd like to invite you to speak at the symposium on "Obesity/weight management". It will be an honor to have you as a speaker for that symposium.

I have already submitted the proposal and preliminary update on the submitted proposal from IFT shows that it will be approved. I will know the status of the proposal by next week. If you'll be interested in serving as one of the speakers, I'll need more details on your accomplishments to include in my revised proposal to be submitted in 3 days (I'm assuming you'll be willing to accept my invitation to give a talk at the session).

Kindly respond back to me by Sunday Jan 31, 2016.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Katie,

Thank you for meeting with Donna yesterday. I know it meant a lot to her to connect with you. She sent the links below, and I have added the Academy's article on the visit.

Donna was also kind enough to talk about the impact of the change in CEP threshold to your district. I have attached the information for your review and cc-ed Donna to continue this conversation and to provide context if you have questions.

We are also hearing that there may be a markup next week? Do you have any insights on timing on moving this bill?

Many many thanks to you and your boss!

Very best,

Jenn

Please see below. I know that Doris made you aware of the winter storm about to hit Denver. I just cancelled my trip. Unfortunately I was leaving tomorrow when it hits and I can't chance returning on Sunday due to commitments on Monday.

I believe if you are traveling today it should not be a problem but there may be one leaving on Sunday.

I had side meetings scheduled with a couple attendees so I am in the process of rescheduling those. I will miss seeing you, and as Evelyn knows, this is a great meeting both from a learning perspective as well as fun!

Thanks, Diane. Mary Beth already cancelled and based on Doris' and Susie's assessments, I will too since I'm scheduled to go and return at the worst times predicted for the storm. I have to be back on Monday and can't take the chance of being snowed in. Susie is using MB's room since she no longer feels comfortable driving. I will need mine cancelled.

Thank you.

Hi Doris-

Since there is an official winter storm warning in effect in Denver until 8am MST on Sunday, we should be able to cancel any necessary flights without incurring a rebooking fee/penalty. If we can get a list of any staff or other funded individuals who need to cancel, Mary can handle these cancellations with the ATC Travel Store.

Canceled tickets for this trip can be used as a flight credit for future purchases. The flights will not be refunded and the airlines do not allow the transfer a ticket credit to somebody else's name, but we can use these flight credits for a future travel for any of the canceled individuals. Those flight credits will remain on file with the travel store for the next 12 months so we can apply them as needed for a future flight.

We do need the traveler names immediately so we can expedite the cancellations.

Thanks!

Hi All,

Looking forward to seeing you all tomorrow!

THE NATIONAL WEATHER SERVICE IN DENVER HAS ISSUED A WINTER STORM WATCH...WHICH WILL BE IN EFFECT FROM LATE FRIDAY NIGHT THROUGH LATE SATURDAY NIGHT. * TIMING...EVENING THUNDERSTORMS FRIDAY NIGHT ARE EXPECTED TO TRANSITION TO WIDESPREAD RAIN LATER IN THE EVENING. RAIN WILL CHANGE OVER TO SNOW BY MIDNIGHT OR DURING THE EARLY MORNING HOURS SATURDAY. SNOW IS THEN EXPECTED TO CONTINUE THROUGH THE DAY SATURDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT. LIGHTER SNOW IS EXPECTED ON SUNDAY. * SNOW ACCUMULATIONS...ACCUMULATIONS OF 8 TO 14 INCHES WILL BE POSSIBLE BY SUNDAY MORNING. THE HIGH DENSITY SNOW WILL TEND TO SETTLE AS IT ACCUMULATES...SO THAT SNOW DEPTHS COULD REMAIN LESS THAN 8 INCHES. * WIND/VISIBILITY...NORTH TO NORTHEAST WINDS 15 TO 25 MPH...ESPECIALLY EAST OF I-25. * IMPACTS...SNOW-COVERED AND SNOW PACKED ROADS ARE EXPECTED...ESPECIALLY ON BRIDGES...OVERPASSES AND SECONDARY STREETS. THE SNOW WILL ALSO BE HEAVY TO SHOVEL...AND RESIDENTS SHOULD BE CAUTIOUS TO AVOID OVER-EXERTION WHILE SHOVELLING. PRECAUTIONARY/PREPAREDNESS ACTIONS... A WINTER STORM WATCH MEANS THERE IS A POTENTIAL FOR SIGNIFICANT SNOW...SLEET...OR ICE ACCUMULATIONS THAT MAY IMPACT TRAVEL. CONTINUE TO MONITOR THE LATEST FORECASTS.

To Dietitians for Professional Integrity:

Thank you for your email. It was a privilege for me to be chosen by the members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics as the 2016-2017 President-elect. This is especially true as the Academy and the entire nutrition and dietetics profession prepare for our Second Century of serving the public -- in the U.S. and increasingly around the world.

As you know, on January 13, the Academy's Board of Directors voted to implement a one-year pilot program that includes 1) adopting the recommendations of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force, 2) creating a Member Sponsorship Review Committee and 3) approving newly revised sponsorship guidelines. The task force's report includes tools the Academy is using to review potential sponsors.

I am grateful for the hard work of the task force and the committee, as well as to the House of Delegates which discussed the sponsorship issue and provided valuable feedback, and to all members who have made their voices known. I am confident that the guidelines and assessment tools will assist the committee and the organization in selecting sponsors in alignment with the Academy's mission and vision.

We truly appreciate the hard work and dedication of the volunteer committees, task forces, work groups and individual members in serving our Academy and profession. The work of the of the Member Sponsorship Review Committee is ongoing and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process is in progress. I will share your comments with the committee.

Thank you again for your email. To those members of DFPI who are not members of the Academy, I strongly encourage you to join. Help us make our Second Century a historic and healthful time for all people.

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr. Martin,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity extends its congratulations on your new position as President-Elect of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

We very interested in advocating for sponsorship reform, and strongly believe dialogue with AND leadership is an important piece of our work.

We are pleased with some of the progress we have seen since our inception in February of 2013, including the formation of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force in 2014.

Specifically regarding the recently revised sponsorship guidelines, some concerns and questions remain for us:

1) Some of the new guidelines (i.e.: "the sponsor's mission and vision align with AND's") existed in the previous version, under which PepsiCo -- and former sponsors Coca-Cola, Kellogg's, and General Mills -- was deemed an appropriate sponsor.

2) The guidelines focus on product portfolios and do not consider corporate behavior, lobbying history, and media statements as a measure of whether a company is an appropriate sponsor. Current sponsor PepsiCo, for example, has lobbied against soda taxes and against the inclusion of added sugar on the Nutrition Facts Panel. Its CEO has been quoted as saying that "if all consumers exercised... the problem of obesity wouldn't exist." How does this align with AND's mission and vision?

3) Are existing sponsors going to go through this review process? If so, how is PepsiCo an example of a company that "optimizes health through food and nutrition"?

4) Back in January 2016, it was announced that the Board of Directors "voted to implement a pilot program encompassing many of the SATF's recommendations." Can you comment on the status of this new committee and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process?

Our position is not one of "zero sponsorship." While that is certainly an option, we don't see this as an issue of being "for" or "against" sponsorship. That rhetoric creates a dichotomy that only further divides dietitians and does not address systemic issues.

Instead, let's think about what kind of sponsorship is appropriate, relevant, and ethical for a health organization. We also don't think sponsors must be limited to the food sector; wellness, technology, and culinary companies could make for excellent partners.

We hear from dietitians and dietitians-to-be who have concerns about the current sponsorship model on a weekly basis. This is an issue of high priority for many of our colleagues.

We always welcome dialogue, and want you to know that you can always reach out to us for further conversation on this topic. Our foremost priority is to elevate the RDN credential. As evidenced by last year's Kraft Singles/Kids Eat Right controversy, sponsorship plays a large role in public perception of who we are and what we stand for.

Thank you for your time. We look forward to ongoing dialogue with you.

Sincerely,

I am very pleased to inform you that all of our flights to Granada, Spain for the ICD are covered by comp tickets, providing a savings of $28,000! Thanks go to Diane Enos and her team for careful management of the booking process.

Paul told me about his suggestion that we consider not attending the Congress this year in Spain due to budget constraints. As primary stakeholders (we pay 50% of the dues, prorated based on total membership), our absence would be a political mistake. Lucille and Donna are there as the Academy's top leadership; Sylvia is an ICDA Board member and the Academy's official representative; Judy becomes the official representative for 2016-2020 and assumes office immediately following the Congress; I am the alternate delegate. We will carefully assess the ROI of continued membership and evaluate the benefits in relation to our international strategic plan going forward, including potential global initiatives emanating from the Second Century Summit. In the interim, I feel strongly that we need to show our support.

Pat, This was a great event that brought together a lot of stakeholders who have a common goal. It reinforced the need to work together and collaborate so that we all are on the same page and can support each other with policy. To have Kevin Concannon and Katie Wilson there from USDA was a coup for AND. Last night's event was also a great opportunity to network and I got a chance to talk to Secretary Vilsack. They say he might be Hillary's VP choice. The next three years cannot possibly compete with the last two weeks! XOXO

I am happy to share some exciting news from the Academy.

We have secured an amazing keynote speaker for the Opening Session in Boston. Lucille Beseler's vision for FNCE is to feature a strong businesswoman who can motivate and inspire our members. We have booked Barbara Corcoran, a nationally recognized personality who will be a big draw for all age groups.

Barbara Corcoran's "credentials" include straight D's in high school and college and 20 jobs by the time she turned 23. She took a $1,000 loan to start The Corcoran Group and became one of the most successful entrepreneurs in the country. Barbara's latest book, Shark Tales, takes readers behind the scenes of her life and business and televised venture capitalism. Famously brash and blunt, bold and courageous, Barbara is a brilliant identifier of opportunity and talent that is often invisible to others. Read more about Barbara at www.barbaracorcoran.com.

FNCE promotions are just beginning, and the Academy will aggressively promote this exciting featured speaker to all potential attendees.

Congratulations to Donna Martin! First Lady Michelle Obama will visit Burke County (Ga.) Middle School on April 7, joining Donna and her students to plant the school garden as part of her American Garden Tour highlighting the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm-fresh produce to its students daily. We will share this information with our members in Eat Right Weekly, eatrightPRO.org and on social media channels. By the way, Burke County Middle School was awarded a 2015-2016 General Mills Champions Grant through the Academy Foundation.

In addition, Donna has been invited by USDA's Under Secretary Kevin Concannon to address school nutrition policy changes at The Obesity Society meeting in New Orleans on November 4, 2016. Under Secretary Concannon recommended Donna join him as a panel member so that the audience would benefit from hearing a "real-world perspective from a progressive SFA director."

Thank you Linda for that suggestion. We worked to give the First Lady special recognition at PPW in 2010. We voted on and approved an award, however we were notified by her office that the First Lady is not able to accept awards. The DC staff is following up on the potential of accepting honorary membership. We are also looking into the post-office rules and regulations regarding both the award and honorary membership options.

Thank you, and I will let you know the results.

On April 7, 2016, the Senate unanimously passed the Older Americans Act (OAA) Reauthorization Act of 2016 (S.192). The Senate originally passed the bill in July 2015, and the House of Representatives passed an amended version on March 21. Due to these changes, the measure had to be reconsidered by the full Senate before being sent to the President for his signature.

Nutrition highlights in the bill include:

- Direct utilization of registered dietitian nutritionists in nutrition programs.
- Increased use of locally grown fresh foods in nutrition programs.
- Separate funding for congregate and home delivered meal programs.

The bill will now go to President Obama to be signed into law, which we expect to happen soon! This is a great bipartisan success, and thank you to all Academy members who worked for this reauthorization since 2011!

On April 7, 2016, the Senate unanimously passed the Older Americans Act (OAA) Reauthorization Act of 2016 (S.192). The Senate originally passed the bill in July 2015, and the House of Representatives passed an amended version on March 21. Due to these changes, the measure had to be reconsidered by the full Senate before being sent to the President for his signature.

Nutrition highlights in the bill include:

- Direct utilization of registered dietitian nutritionists in nutrition programs.
- Increased use of locally grown fresh foods in nutrition programs.
- Separate funding for congregate and home delivered meal programs.

The bill will now go to President Obama to be signed into law, which we expect to happen soon! This is a great bipartisan success, and thank you to all Academy members who worked for this reauthorization since 2011!

This information will be shared with members in Eat Right Weekly and is posted to EatRightPRO and all of our social media channels.

Thanks Pat for sharing this wonderful experience. If every First Lady was as passionate about nutrition as she is, we would accomplish our vision so much faster. When I told her I was the incoming president-elect of the Academy, she was so excited. WOW!! We're all so proud of you-- you really make us look good!! The photo you shared w the First Lady is amazing! What treasures you leave behind as your legacy for your family and their descendants! Yes, these sentences all require exclamation points!

Now for a downer. We will have something very general as a response to DFPI on Monday. We don't want to show we instantly jump when they question us. We're using a process for deliberations and Andy and his non member colleagues should realize we listen to our members.

Thanks for everything you do and how you do it. Hope you have a relaxing weekend!
Best,Pat

Subject: Hello from Dietitians For Professional Integrity

Dear Dr. Martin,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity extends its congratulations on your new position as President-Elect of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

We very interested in advocating for sponsorship reform, and strongly believe dialogue with AND leadership is an important piece of our work.

We are pleased with some of the progress we have seen since our inception in February of 2013, including the formation of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force in 2014.

Specifically regarding the recently revised sponsorship guidelines, some concerns and questions remain for us:

1) Some of the new guidelines (i.e.: "the sponsor's mission and vision align with AND's") existed in the previous version, under which PepsiCo -- and former sponsors Coca-Cola, Kellogg's, and General Mills -- was deemed an appropriate sponsor.

2) The guidelines focus on product portfolios and do not consider corporate behavior, lobbying history, and media statements as a measure of whether a company is an appropriate sponsor. Current sponsor PepsiCo, for example, has lobbied against soda taxes and against the inclusion of added sugar on the Nutrition Facts Panel. Its CEO has been quoted as saying that "if all consumers exercised... the problem of obesity wouldn't exist." How does this align with AND's mission and vision?

3) Are existing sponsors going to go through this review process? If so, how is PepsiCo an example of a company that "optimizes health through food and nutrition"?

4) Back in January 2016, it was announced that the Board of Directors "voted to implement a pilot program encompassing many of the SATF's recommendations." Can you comment on the status of this new committee and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process?

Our position is not one of "zero sponsorship." While that is certainly an option, we don't see this as an issue of being "for" or "against" sponsorship. That rhetoric creates a dichotomy that only further divides dietitians and does not address systemic issues.

Instead, let's think about what kind of sponsorship is appropriate, relevant, and ethical for a health organization. We also don't think sponsors must be limited to the food sector; wellness, technology, and culinary companies could make for excellent partners.

We hear from dietitians and dietitians-to-be who have concerns about the current sponsorship model on a weekly basis. This is an issue of high priority for many of our colleagues.

We always welcome dialogue, and want you to know that you can always reach out to us for further conversation on this topic. Our foremost priority is to elevate the RDN credential. As evidenced by last year's Kraft Singles/Kids Eat Right controversy, sponsorship plays a large role in public perception of who we are and what we stand for.

Thank you for your time. We look forward to ongoing dialogue with you.

Sincerely,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the First Lady

For Immediate Release

April 1, 2016

FIRST LADY MICHELLE OBAMA TO PLANT WHITE HOUSE KITCHEN GARDEN AND EMBARK ON AMERICAN GARDEN TOUR

Tuesday, April 5, 2016

The White House * 1:30 PM – The First Lady will welcome students from across the country as well as NASA representatives to plant the White House Kitchen Garden for the eighth year in a row, and final time as First Lady. In 2009, Mrs. Obama planted a vegetable garden on the South Lawn to initiate a national conversation around the health and wellbeing of our nation—a conversation that evolved into her Let's Move! initiative.

Mrs. Obama will be joined by students that have inspiring school garden programs from Wisconsin, Colorado, and Louisiana, and she will be joined by students from Bancroft Elementary School and Harriet Tubman Elementary School, who regularly help in the White House Kitchen Garden. The First Lady also invited some of the students from Bancroft Elementary who participated in the ground breaking of the garden and in the very first planting in 2009.

In addition, NASA Deputy Administrator Dava Newman and Astronaut Cady Coleman will join Mrs. Obama and the students to plant the same variety of lettuce that has been grown on the International Space Station.

MEDIA RSVP: This event is open to pre-credentialed media. Members of the media who wish to cover this event must RSVP to firstladypress@who.eop.gov by Monday, April 4, 2016. Members of the media who do not have a hard pass must submit their full name, date of birth, social security number, gender, and city and state.

Students joining the First Lady participate in the following garden programs:

Washburn School Garden Program – Washburn, Wisconsin

The mission of the Washburn School Garden Program is to cultivate environmental stewardship, foster human health, and develop ecological sustainability. The Washburn School District currently maintains a 6,400 square foot school garden and small orchard. Elementary grades each have a section of the garden to maintain throughout the year, and the middle school and high school have classes that use the garden extensively, culminating in an Agriprenuer program. Much of the food grown is used in the school food service, with additional food sold to the community.

Montezuma School to Farm Project – Cortez, Colorado

The Kemper Elementary School Garden is a program of the Mancos Conservation District's Montezuma School to Farm Project (MSTFP) in Cortez, Colorado. Kemper serves several Native American tribal communities along with a strong Hispanic community and students of families that were some of the first settlers in the area. With a strong indigenous and agricultural heritage, students learn science, math, health, and nutrition lessons through experiential education lessons that use native seed varieties and focus on drought resilient water and soil conservation practices. Produce that students grow in their school garden goes directly to school cafeteria meals, student taste testing, and is also utilized in youth farmers' markets.

Edible Schoolyard New Orleans (ESYNOLA) – New Orleans, Louisiana

ESYNOLA is a comprehensive seed-to-table food education program that aims to change the way children eat, learn, and live. The program offers hands-on gardening and kitchen classes that are integrated into the curriculum, culture, and cafeteria programs at the schools it serves. At Arthur Ashe Charter School, each grade level participates in garden classes where the students learn the importance of cultivating the soil, planting, nurturing, growing, sowing, and harvesting fruits, vegetables, herbs, and flowers. From wellness workshops to Family Food Nights, the program helps students learn the importance of eating healthy and connect their experiences in the garden to the subjects they are learning in their classrooms.

Thursday, April 7, 2016

The First Lady will continue her American Garden Tour to highlight the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Earlier this year, Mrs. Obama surprised students who participate in gardening programs at Watkins Elementary School and John Burroughs Elementary School in Washington, DC, along with a local family, who has made their backyard garden a community effort. In case you missed it, watch the video of the surprise visits HERE.

Burke County, Georgia * 11:00AM ET – The First Lady will visit Burke County Middle School and join students to plant the school garden.

Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm fresh produce to their students daily. By offering local, fresh fruits and vegetables, the school district found that student consumption rates of fruits and vegetables doubled. Burke County Middle School is home to the county's STEM-based learning garden, where students are writing a cookbook that incorporates food they are harvesting from their garden. The district also offers a bi-monthly farmers' market at the high school that showcases the locally grown food, and the district provides cooking demonstrations in class to reinforce the healthy habits being taught in the lunchroom.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ryan Vilfer at Vilfer.Ryan@gmail.com.

Newark, New Jersey * 3:00PM ET – The First Lady will join students at Philip's Academy Charter School to participate in planting their school garden.

Philip's Academy created the EcoSpaces Education program to connect students to food, how it's grown, and how it nourishes their bodies in order to empower them to make healthy choices throughout their lives. Students receive homemade meals prepared by their culinary team following USDA nutritional guidelines and served family style by the children at a community table. The school uses their learning environments—a rooftop garden, teaching kitchen, AeroFarms indoor growing lab, and dining room—to connect core curriculum to food literacy in an interactive way.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ken Campbell at kenjcampbell@gmail.com.

Subject: Hello from Dietitians For Professional Integrity

Dear Dr. Martin,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity extends its congratulations on your new position as President-Elect of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

We very interested in advocating for sponsorship reform, and strongly believe dialogue with AND leadership is an important piece of our work.

We are pleased with some of the progress we have seen since our inception in February of 2013, including the formation of the Sponsorship Advisory Task Force in 2014.

Specifically regarding the recently revised sponsorship guidelines, some concerns and questions remain for us:

1) Some of the new guidelines (i.e.: "the sponsor's mission and vision align with AND's") existed in the previous version, under which PepsiCo -- and former sponsors Coca-Cola, Kellogg's, and General Mills -- was deemed an appropriate sponsor.

2) The guidelines focus on product portfolios and do not consider corporate behavior, lobbying history, and media statements as a measure of whether a company is an appropriate sponsor. Current sponsor PepsiCo, for example, has lobbied against soda taxes and against the inclusion of added sugar on the Nutrition Facts Panel. Its CEO has been quoted as saying that "if all consumers exercised... the problem of obesity wouldn't exist." How does this align with AND's mission and vision?

3) Are existing sponsors going to go through this review process? If so, how is PepsiCo an example of a company that "optimizes health through food and nutrition"?

4) Back in January 2016, it was announced that the Board of Directors "voted to implement a pilot program encompassing many of the SATF's recommendations." Can you comment on the status of this new committee and the development of assessment tools to support the sponsorship process?

Our position is not one of "zero sponsorship." While that is certainly an option, we don't see this as an issue of being "for" or "against" sponsorship. That rhetoric creates a dichotomy that only further divides dietitians and does not address systemic issues.

Instead, let's think about what kind of sponsorship is appropriate, relevant, and ethical for a health organization. We also don't think sponsors must be limited to the food sector; wellness, technology, and culinary companies could make for excellent partners.

We hear from dietitians and dietitians-to-be who have concerns about the current sponsorship model on a weekly basis. This is an issue of high priority for many of our colleagues.

We always welcome dialogue, and want you to know that you can always reach out to us for further conversation on this topic. Our foremost priority is to elevate the RDN credential. As evidenced by last year's Kraft Singles/Kids Eat Right controversy, sponsorship plays a large role in public perception of who we are and what we stand for.

Thank you for your time. We look forward to ongoing dialogue with you.

Sincerely,

Dietitians For Professional Integrity

Doris, They are not going to release the official White House photos for three weeks. I will get you those as soon as I can. The only photos out that I have seen are on Facebook and Twitter. The True Citizen in Waynesboro has posted some pictures on their Facebook page. You can look at my Facebook page and see what people are posting and where it is coming from. There is a link to a live feed on there also. Sorry I can't be much help, but it will be on the today show tomorrow (Friday).

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the First Lady

For Immediate Release

April 1, 2016

FIRST LADY MICHELLE OBAMA TO PLANT WHITE HOUSE KITCHEN GARDEN AND EMBARK ON AMERICAN GARDEN TOUR

Tuesday, April 5, 2016

The White House * 1:30 PM – The First Lady will welcome students from across the country as well as NASA representatives to plant the White House Kitchen Garden for the eighth year in a row, and final time as First Lady. In 2009, Mrs. Obama planted a vegetable garden on the South Lawn to initiate a national conversation around the health and wellbeing of our nation—a conversation that evolved into her Let's Move! initiative.

Mrs. Obama will be joined by students that have inspiring school garden programs from Wisconsin, Colorado, and Louisiana, and she will be joined by students from Bancroft Elementary School and Harriet Tubman Elementary School, who regularly help in the White House Kitchen Garden. The First Lady also invited some of the students from Bancroft Elementary who participated in the ground breaking of the garden and in the very first planting in 2009.

In addition, NASA Deputy Administrator Dava Newman and Astronaut Cady Coleman will join Mrs. Obama and the students to plant the same variety of lettuce that has been grown on the International Space Station.

The event will be livestreamed at www.whitehouse.gov/live.

MEDIA RSVP: This event is open to pre-credentialed media. Members of the media who wish to cover this event must RSVP to firstladypress@who.eop.gov by Monday, April 4, 2016. Members of the media who do not have a hard pass must submit their full name, date of birth, social security number, gender, and city and state.

Students joining the First Lady participate in the following garden programs:

Washburn School Garden Program – Washburn, Wisconsin

The mission of the Washburn School Garden Program is to cultivate environmental stewardship, foster human health, and develop ecological sustainability. The Washburn School District currently maintains a 6,400 square foot school garden and small orchard. Elementary grades each have a section of the garden to maintain throughout the year, and the middle school and high school have classes that use the garden extensively, culminating in an Agriprenuer program. Much of the food grown is used in the school food service, with additional food sold to the community.

Montezuma School to Farm Project – Cortez, Colorado

The Kemper Elementary School Garden is a program of the Mancos Conservation District's Montezuma School to Farm Project (MSTFP) in Cortez, Colorado. Kemper serves several Native American tribal communities along with a strong Hispanic community and students of families that were some of the first settlers in the area. With a strong indigenous and agricultural heritage, students learn science, math, health, and nutrition lessons through experiential education lessons that use native seed varieties and focus on drought resilient water and soil conservation practices. Produce that students grow in their school garden goes directly to school cafeteria meals, student taste testing, and is also utilized in youth farmers' markets.

Edible Schoolyard New Orleans (ESYNOLA) – New Orleans, Louisiana

ESYNOLA is a comprehensive seed-to-table food education program that aims to change the way children eat, learn, and live. The program offers hands-on gardening and kitchen classes that are integrated into the curriculum, culture, and cafeteria programs at the schools it serves. At Arthur Ashe Charter School, each grade level participates in garden classes where the students learn the importance of cultivating the soil, planting, nurturing, growing, sowing, and harvesting fruits, vegetables, herbs, and flowers. From wellness workshops to Family Food Nights, the program helps students learn the importance of eating healthy and connect their experiences in the garden to the subjects they are learning in their classrooms.

Thursday, April 7, 2016

The First Lady will continue her American Garden Tour to highlight the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Earlier this year, Mrs. Obama surprised students who participate in gardening programs at Watkins Elementary School and John Burroughs Elementary School in Washington, DC, along with a local family, who has made their backyard garden a community effort. In case you missed it, watch the video of the surprise visits HERE.

Burke County, Georgia * 11:00AM ET – The First Lady will visit Burke County Middle School and join students to plant the school garden.

Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm fresh produce to their students daily. By offering local, fresh fruits and vegetables, the school district found that student consumption rates of fruits and vegetables doubled. Burke County Middle School is home to the county's STEM-based learning garden, where students are writing a cookbook that incorporates food they are harvesting from their garden. The district also offers a bi-monthly farmers' market at the high school that showcases the locally grown food, and the district provides cooking demonstrations in class to reinforce the healthy habits being taught in the lunchroom.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ryan Vilfer at Vilfer.Ryan@gmail.com.

Newark, New Jersey * 3:00PM ET – The First Lady will join students at Philip's Academy Charter School to participate in planting their school garden.

Philip's Academy created the EcoSpaces Education program to connect students to food, how it's grown, and how it nourishes their bodies in order to empower them to make healthy choices throughout their lives. Students receive homemade meals prepared by their culinary team following USDA nutritional guidelines and served family style by the children at a community table. The school uses their learning environments—a rooftop garden, teaching kitchen, AeroFarms indoor growing lab, and dining room—to connect core curriculum to food literacy in an interactive way.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ken Campbell at kenjcampbell@gmail.com.

Hello,

I am looking forward to seeing all of you in Denver for Nutrition News Forecast. Attached is some logistical information as you start preparing for your trip. This includes the agenda and details for the headshot session that will be taking place on Saturday morning. At your convenience, please review and let me know if you have any questions.

Also, all three of you happen to be on the same flight that lands at 7:30pm on Friday night. I think this will make it difficult for you to make our Friday night dinner with the Spokespeople, which starts at 6:30. So please do not feel like you need to rush to the restaurant. We will likely be wrapping up by the time you would arrive. Please eat at your own convenience, and we will see you bright and early on Saturday morning. See you soon!

Thanks,

Congratulations to Donna Martin! First Lady Michelle Obama will visit Burke County (Ga.) Middle School on April 7, joining Donna and her students to plant the school garden as part of her American Garden Tour highlighting the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm-fresh produce to its students daily. We will share this information with our members in Eat Right Weekly, eatrightPRO.org and on social media channels. By the way, Burke County Middle School was awarded a 2015-2016 General Mills Champions Grant through the Academy Foundation.

In addition, Donna has been invited by USDA's Under Secretary Kevin Concannon to address school nutrition policy changes at The Obesity Society meeting in New Orleans on November 4, 2016. Under Secretary Concannon recommended Donna join him as a panel member so that the audience would benefit from hearing a "real-world perspective from a progressive SFA director."

Paul told me about his suggestion that you consider not attending the Congress this year in Spain due to budget constraints. As primary stakeholders (we pay 50% of the dues, prorated based on total membership), our absence would be a political mistake. You are there as the Academy's top leadership, Sylvia is a Board member and our delegate, and I am the alternate delegate. I think we need to carefully assess the ROI and the benefits to our international strategic plan, including potential global initiatives emanating from the Second Century Summit and then make an informed decision regarding continuing our membership. In the interim, I feel strongly that we need to show our support.

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the April update is posted on the ACEND Standards webpage www.eatrightacend.org/ACEND/Standards.

The Aprilupdate explains the process of developing competency statements for the future education model programs. This process includes a validation study of the competencies. On April 7 and 8, the survey will be sent to random samples of RDNs, NDTRs and other stakeholders who will be asked to rate the importance of these competencies for future practice in nutrition and dietetics. If you receive the questionnaire, we encourage you to take time to respond. Respondents can earn CPE credit for participating.

The update also answers questions we received at the ACEND virtual town hall meeting in March. We invite all stakeholders who are interested in learning more about the work of ACEND to attend these meetings which are held the second Thursday of each month at 11:30 a.m. Central Time. The next meeting will occur April 14. Information for connecting to the virtual town hall is posted on the ACEND Standards webpage www.eatrightacend.org/ACEND/Standards.

ACEND also continues to gather feedback on the draft 2017 Standards through an open survey to the public. The 2017 draft standards are the result of a planned five-year review cycle of the current 2012 Accreditation Standards to ensure compliance with USDE regulations; and are different from the future education model associate's, bachelor's and master's degree standards that will be released for public comment later this year. We encourage you to provide input on the 2017 Standards at the following survey link prior to Friday, May 13, 2016.

•<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2017Std2>

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you so much.

Subject: Opening Session keynote speaker

Importance: High

I am happy to announce that we have secured an amazing keynote speaker for the Opening Session in Boston. Lucille's vision for FNCE is to feature a strong businesswoman who can motivate and inspire our members. We have booked Barbara Corcoran, a nationally recognized personality who will be a big draw for all age groups.

As one of the "Sharks" on ABC's hit TV show "Shark Tank," Barbara has invested in 22 businesses, competing to make deals for all to see, then shepherding them to success. I am one of the many millions of fans who watch this popular network show.

Barbara Corcoran's "credentials" include straight D's in high school and college and 20 jobs by the time she turned 23. She took a $1,000 loan to start The Corcoran Group and became one of the most successful entrepreneurs in the country.

Barbara's latest book, Shark Tales, takes readers behind the scenes of her life and business and televised venture capitalism. Famously brash and blunt, bold and courageous, Barbara is a brilliant identifier of opportunity and talent that is often invisible to others. Read more about Barbara at www.barbaracorcoran.com.

FNCE promotions are just beginning, and the Academy will aggressively promote this exciting featured speaker to all potential attendees.

Thank you, Lucille, for your vision and recommendation of Barbara Corcoran!

Best regards,

Pat

Congrats to Donna Martin! First Lady Michelle Obama will visit Burke County (Ga.) Middle School on April 7, joining Donna and her students to plant the school garden as part of her American Garden Tour highlighting the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm-fresh produce to its students daily. We will share this information with our members in Eat Right Weekly, eatrightPRO.org and on social media channels.

In addition, Donna has been invited by USDA's Under Secretary Kevin Concannon to address school nutrition policy changes at The Obesity Society meeting in New Orleans on November 4, 2016. Under Secretary Concannon recommended Donna join him as a panel member so that the audience would benefit from hearing a "real-world perspective from a progressive SFA director."

Best regards,

Pat

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the First Lady

For Immediate Release

April 1, 2016

FIRST LADY MICHELLE OBAMA TO PLANT WHITE HOUSE KITCHEN GARDEN
AND EMBARK ON AMERICAN GARDEN TOUR

Tuesday, April 5, 2016

The White House * 1:30 PM – The First Lady will welcome students from across the country as well as NASA representatives to plant the White House Kitchen Garden for the eighth year in a row, and final time as First Lady. In 2009, Mrs. Obama planted a vegetable garden on the South Lawn to initiate a national conversation around the health and wellbeing of our nation—a conversation that evolved into her Let's Move! initiative.

Mrs. Obama will be joined by students that have inspiring school garden programs from Wisconsin, Colorado, and Louisiana, and she will be joined by students from Bancroft Elementary School and Harriet Tubman Elementary School, who regularly help in the White House Kitchen Garden. The First Lady also invited some of the students from Bancroft Elementary who participated in the ground breaking of the garden and in the very first planting in 2009.

In addition, NASA Deputy Administrator Dava Newman and Astronaut Cady Coleman will join Mrs. Obama and the students to plant the same variety of lettuce that has been grown on the International Space Station.

The event will be livestreamed at www.whitehouse.gov/live.

MEDIA RSVP: This event is open to pre-credentialed media. Members of the media who wish to cover this event must RSVP to firstladypress@who.eop.gov by Monday, April 4, 2016. Members of the media who do not have a hard pass must submit their full name, date of birth, social security number, gender, and city and state.

Students joining the First Lady participate in the following garden programs:

Washburn School Garden Program – Washburn, Wisconsin

The mission of the Washburn School Garden Program is to cultivate environmental stewardship, foster human health, and develop ecological sustainability. The Washburn School District currently maintains a 6,400 square foot school garden and small orchard. Elementary grades each have a section of the garden to maintain throughout the year, and the middle school and high school have classes that use the garden extensively, culminating in an Agriprenuer program. Much of the food grown is used in the school food service, with additional food sold to the community.

Montezuma School to Farm Project – Cortez, Colorado

The Kemper Elementary School Garden is a program of the Mancos Conservation District's Montezuma School to Farm Project (MSTFP) in Cortez, Colorado. Kemper serves several Native American tribal communities along with a strong Hispanic community and students of families that were some of the first settlers in the area. With a strong indigenous and agricultural heritage, students learn science, math, health, and nutrition lessons through experiential education lessons that use native seed varieties and focus on drought resilient water and soil conservation practices. Produce that students grow in their school garden goes directly to school cafeteria meals, student taste testing, and is also utilized in youth farmers' markets.

Edible Schoolyard New Orleans (ESYNOLA) – New Orleans, Louisiana

ESYNOLA is a comprehensive seed-to-table food education program that aims to change the way children eat, learn, and live. The program offers hands-on gardening and kitchen classes that are integrated into the curriculum, culture, and cafeteria programs at the schools it serves. At Arthur Ashe Charter School, each grade level participates in garden classes where the students learn the importance of cultivating the soil, planting, nurturing, growing, sowing, and harvesting fruits, vegetables, herbs, and flowers. From wellness workshops to Family Food Nights, the program helps students learn the importance of eating healthy and connect their experiences in the garden to the subjects they are learning in their classrooms.

Thursday, April 7, 2016

The First Lady will continue her American Garden Tour to highlight the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Earlier this year, Mrs. Obama surprised students who participate in gardening programs at Watkins Elementary School and John Burroughs Elementary School in Washington, DC, along with a local family, who has made their backyard garden a community effort. In case you missed it, watch the video of the surprise visits HERE.

Burke County, Georgia * 11:00AM ET – The First Lady will visit Burke County Middle School and join students to plant the school garden.

Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm fresh produce to their students daily. By offering local, fresh fruits and vegetables, the school district found that student consumption rates of fruits and vegetables doubled. Burke County Middle School is home to the county's STEM-based learning garden, where students are writing a cookbook that incorporates food they are harvesting from their garden. The district also offers a bi-monthly farmers' market at the high school that showcases the locally grown food, and the district provides cooking demonstrations in class to reinforce the healthy habits being taught in the lunchroom.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ryan Vilfer at Vilfer.Ryan@gmail.com.

Newark, New Jersey * 3:00PM ET – The First Lady will join students at Philip's Academy Charter School to participate in planting their school garden.

Philip's Academy created the EcoSpaces Education program to connect students to food, how it's grown, and how it nourishes their bodies in order to empower them to make healthy choices throughout their lives. Students receive homemade meals prepared by their culinary team following USDA nutritional guidelines and served family style by the children at a community table. The school uses their learning environments—a rooftop garden, teaching kitchen, AeroFarms indoor growing lab, and dining room—to connect core curriculum to food literacy in an interactive way.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ken Campbell at kenjcampbell@gmail.com.

Newark, New Jersey * 3:00PM ET – The First Lady will join students at Philip's Academy Charter School to participate in planting their school garden.

Philip's Academy created the EcoSpaces Education program to connect students to food, how it's grown, and how it nourishes their bodies in order to empower them to make healthy choices throughout their lives. Students receive homemade meals prepared by their culinary team following USDA nutritional guidelines and served family style by the children at a community table. The school uses their learning environments—a rooftop garden, teaching kitchen, AeroFarms indoor growing lab, and dining room—to connect core curriculum to food literacy in an interactive way.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the First Lady

For Immediate Release

April 1, 2016

AND EMBARK ON AMERICAN GARDEN TOUR

Tuesday, April 5, 2016

The White House * 1:30 PM – The First Lady will welcome students from across the country as well as NASA representatives to plant the White House Kitchen Garden for the eighth year in a row, and final time as First Lady. In 2009, Mrs. Obama planted a vegetable garden on the South Lawn to initiate a national conversation around the health and wellbeing of our nation—a conversation that evolved into her Let's Move! initiative.

Mrs. Obama will be joined by students that have inspiring school garden programs from Wisconsin, Colorado, and Louisiana, and she will be joined by students from Bancroft Elementary School and Harriet Tubman Elementary School, who regularly help in the White House Kitchen Garden. The First Lady also invited some of the students from Bancroft Elementary who participated in the ground breaking of the garden and in the very first planting in 2009.

In addition, NASA Deputy Administrator Dava Newman and Astronaut Cady Coleman will join Mrs. Obama and the students to plant the same variety of lettuce that has been grown on the International Space Station.

The event will be livestreamed at www.whitehouse.gov/live.

MEDIA RSVP: This event is open to pre-credentialed media. Members of the media who wish to cover this event must RSVP to firstladypress@who.eop.gov by Monday, April 4, 2016. Members of the media who do not have a hard pass must submit their full name, date of birth, social security number, gender, and city and state.

Students joining the First Lady participate in the following garden programs:

Washburn School Garden Program – Washburn, Wisconsin

The mission of the Washburn School Garden Program is to cultivate environmental stewardship, foster human health, and develop ecological sustainability. The Washburn School District currently maintains a 6,400 square foot school garden and small orchard. Elementary grades each have a section of the garden to maintain throughout the year, and the middle school and high school have classes that use the garden extensively, culminating in an Agriprenuer program. Much of the food grown is used in the school food service, with additional food sold to the community.

Montezuma School to Farm Project – Cortez, Colorado

The Kemper Elementary School Garden is a program of the Mancos Conservation District's Montezuma School to Farm Project (MSTFP) in Cortez, Colorado. Kemper serves several Native American tribal communities along with a strong Hispanic community and students of families that were some of the first settlers in the area. With a strong indigenous and agricultural heritage, students learn science, math, health, and nutrition lessons through experiential education lessons that use native seed varieties and focus on drought resilient water and soil conservation practices. Produce that students grow in their school garden goes directly to school cafeteria meals, student taste testing, and is also utilized in youth farmers' markets.

Edible Schoolyard New Orleans (ESYNOLA) – New Orleans, Louisiana

ESYNOLA is a comprehensive seed-to-table food education program that aims to change the way children eat, learn, and live. The program offers hands-on gardening and kitchen classes that are integrated into the curriculum, culture, and cafeteria programs at the schools it serves. At Arthur

Ashe Charter School, each grade level participates in garden classes where the students learn the importance of cultivating the soil, planting, nurturing, growing, sowing, and harvesting fruits, vegetables, herbs, and flowers. From wellness workshops to Family Food Nights, the program helps students learn the importance of eating healthy and connect their experiences in the garden to the subjects they are learning in their classrooms.

Thursday, April 7, 2016

The First Lady will continue her American Garden Tour to highlight the impact and benefits of diverse gardens across the country. Earlier this year, Mrs. Obama surprised students who participate in gardening programs at Watkins Elementary School and John Burroughs Elementary School in Washington, DC, along with a local family, who has made their backyard garden a community effort. In case you missed it, watch the video of the surprise visits HERE.

Burke County, Georgia * 11:00AM ET – The First Lady will visit Burke County Middle School and join students to plant the school garden.

Rural Burke County has a Farm to School Program that provides farm fresh produce to their students daily. By offering local, fresh fruits and vegetables, the school district found that student consumption rates of fruits and vegetables doubled. Burke County Middle School is home to the county's STEM-based learning garden, where students are writing a cookbook that incorporates food they are harvesting from their garden. The district also offers a bi-monthly farmers' market at the high school that showcases the locally grown food, and the district provides cooking demonstrations in class to reinforce the healthy habits being taught in the lunchroom.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ryan Vilfer at Vilfer.Ryan@gmail.com.

Newark, New Jersey * 3:00PM ET – The First Lady will join students at Philip's Academy Charter School to participate in planting their school garden.

Philip's Academy created the EcoSpaces Education program to connect students to food, how it's grown, and how it nourishes their bodies in order to empower them to make healthy choices throughout their lives. Students receive homemade meals prepared by their culinary team following USDA nutritional guidelines and served family style by the children at a community table. The school uses their learning environments—a rooftop garden, teaching kitchen, AeroFarms indoor growing lab, and dining room—to connect core curriculum to food literacy in an interactive way.

This event will be open to pre-credentialed media. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 5pm ET with full name and outlet to Ken Campbell at kenjcampbell@gmail.com.

Hi Donna,

I'm writing on behalf of Kevin Concannon, Under Secretary of USDA-FNCS. He has been invited to speak on a panel at The Obesity Society meeting in New Orleans, LA on November 4, 2016. Specifically, he's been asked to address school nutrition policy changes, and he thought that the audience (mostly scientists) would also benefit from hearing a real-world perspective from a progressive SFA director. As it often does, your name rose to the top of our list! Is there any chance that you would be interested and available to participate? I have attached the invitation form that they sent to us, and am happy to respond to any informal questions you might have (we've had some offline discussion with the conference folks). If you're interested, I will also refer you to our contact on the conference organizing committee.

Thank you for your consideration.

Recently Academy members received the following request to take action in support of Child Nutrition Reauthorization. It is critical we have members respond to the Action Alert. Child Nutrition Reauthorization funds thousands of Academy members' positions and assures access to healthy foods and nutrition information for families. We are very proud of this bipartisan crafted bill that included almost all of our recommendations. Now the Senators of the Agriculture Committee are looking to us for support. Please take action and reach out to your colleagues and others to encourage them to do so.

Many thanks for your help and leadership!

TAKE ACTION NOW:

Keep These Students Smiling

Support Child Nutrition and Hunger Programs!

I need your voice to take the next step in the Senate, to help support healthy meals and nutrition education for hungry children. Child Nutrition Programs provide nutrition to millions of children as well as providing thousands of jobs for Academy members.

Our members have been leading the way in providing healthy safe meals and engaging nutrition education to help these smiling children be successful – members like the Academy's incoming president-elect, Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, school nutrition director in Burke County, Ga.

So here is the next step:

1. Exercise your voice. Tell your Senators to support these by voting to pass the Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016. Two minutes of your time means a lifetime of health for these children.

TAKE ACTION TODAY!

2. Make a contribution to ANDPAC. The funds help the Academy support decision makers who understand the importance of child nutrition programs. Because of relationships built through ANDPAC, the Academy successfully advocated for key provisions in the Child Nutrition bill language.

OPTIMISM BUILDS FOR NEW ENGLAND GMO LABELING PUSH: Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island have long been looking to implement their own GMO labeling statutes, and the rash of companies labeling to comply with Vermont might be just the cover they need to get it done. Labeling supporters are optimistic that legislatures in the three New England states will make a move this year now that Vermont's measure has survived legal and congressional challenges, and food companies have agreed to label without passing those costs onto consumers.

"The state legislatures have definitely been watching what's going on at the federal level, and they are busy, so they don't want to act if the federal government is going to come in and preempt them," said Tara Cook Littman of Citizens for GMO labeling. "I think things kind of were on hold a little bit and are going to pick up now."

New bills in Massachusetts and Rhode Island largely mirror the law in Vermont, while legislation in Connecticut would remove trigger provisions in an existing labeling law that requires at least four other states (one of which must share a border with Connecticut) that total more than 20 million people to enact a similar measure before the statute can go into effect. All three efforts have broad support in their respective state legislatures. Lawmakers are wrapping up in Hartford in the first week of May and Boston and Providence in the beginning of June, so time is running short. But Cook Littman told MA that the time frame shouldn't be too much of a problem given that most bills aren't dealt with until the last few weeks of a session anyway. GMO labeling measures have been taken up by all three states' legislatures in past years, laying the groundwork for passage now.

"These are not new bills so I think there is a real possibility that all three bills could move forward," she said, adding that if one passes "that will really open the door for the other two states."

HAPPY TUESDAY, MARCH 29! Welcome to Morning Ag where it seems that this was the year for Easter Peep feature story . Seems MA needs to get on the marshmallow beat right away. You know the deal: Thoughts, news, tips, Peep-sicles? Send them to jhopkinson@politico.com or @jennyhops. Follow the whole team @Morning_Ag.

AND MAINERS COULD BE HEADED TO BALLOT BOX, TOO: In case you missed it, the Maine House of Representatives passed a bill late last week that also would lob to voters the question of whether to repeal a trigger clause in the state's GMO labeling law. Currently the measure is set to go into effect only if five contiguous states pass similar measures by 2018. However, the bill faces an uphill battle, according to reports from New Hampshire Public Radio. The measure passed the Democrat-controlled House on a party-line vote, and the GOP Senate and governor have been frosty on the issue, according to NHPR.

IT'S NOT JUST THE NORTHEAST THAT'S INTERESTED IN GMOS: While the bills in Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island seem the most likely to get passed this year, legislators in Tennessee, Florida, Hawaii, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York and Oregon have also considered labeling laws this spring. Meanwhile, lawmakers in Alaska and Mississippi have mulled restrictions on the sale and cultivation of GMO salmon. Meanwhile, on the other side of the GMO battle, Kansas, Missouri and Wyoming legislatures have looked at resolutions that would urge the U.S. Congress to block labeling.

OBAMA'S ANTIBIOTICS PROGRESS REPORT: To help slow antibiotic resistant bacteria in animal agriculture, the Obama administration should: be able to measure the effectiveness of FDA policies designed to phase out use for growth promotion and expand the oversight of veterinarians; work with state, agriculture industry and academic partners to increase educational outreach, surveillance and develop alternatives to the drugs; and secure continuous funding for these initiatives. Those are a few of the many recommendations contained in a 125-page draft report by a panel of government officials, healthcare professionals, academic experts and industry representatives, a copy of which was obtained by Morning Ag.

The President's Advisory Council on Combating Antibiotic Resistant Bacteria will vote on the report - which also outlines recommendations for human medicine and government-wide progress on a national action plan rolled out last year - at the end of a two-day meeting in Washington on Thursday.

For public health advocates, the recommendations reflect more of the same from the Obama administration and don't go far enough. Namely, there are no reduction targets for antibiotic use in animal agriculture. "Animal agriculture and veterinary oversight are a key component to a successful antibiotic-resistance mitigation strategy," says Susan Vaughn Grooters, policy analyst at Keep Antibiotics Working. "Without clear, concise, and measurable calls for reduction of antibiotic use in animal agriculture from the administration, an opportunity could be lost for more targeted and achievable reforms." Read the report here.

AG GROUPS RAMP UP PRESSURE FOR PSM FIX: Dozens of agriculture groups are pushing House appropriators to require the Occupational Health and Safety Administration to scrap its plan to start applying certain hazardous material storage rules to agricultural retailers, arguing that if OSHA wants to make the change it should have to do so through a formal rulemaking process. In a letter sent to the leaders of the House Appropriations Committee and its labor panel, the groups reiterate their calls to include in report language - to be attached to forthcoming appropriations bills - requests for the administration to withdraw a July 2015 memo that ends the decades-long exemption for retail facilities from Process Safety Management rules. Without relief, OSHA's change will force fertilizer retailers to update the way they handle anhydrous ammonia and could cause businesses to close, the groups have long argued. The letter is here. Pros can brush up on the effort by farm groups to keep the retail exemption in place here.

GMO CITRUS MAKER LOOKS TO EXPAND RESEARCH: Florida could soon be getting 400 acres of genetically engineered citrus trees. Southern Gardens Citrus, the Clewiston, Fla., grower that has inserted spinach genes into a citrus tree to make it resistant to citrus greening disease, is seeking a permit from the EPA to expand its plantings in order to develop more data on whether the GE tree will really be able to handle the disease. The agency, in a Federal Register notice that is set to be published today, will accept comments until April 28. Florida's citrus industry has been devastated by citrus greening. While the state's growers harvested 133.6 million boxes of oranges as recently as the 2012-2013 season, the Agriculture Department's latest forecast has this season's harvest at just 71 million boxes. The notice is here.

BERKELEY TRIES TO GET CITIES TO FOLLOW ON SODA TAXES: The Berkeley, Calif., health group that backed the city's successful soda tax campaign in 2014 has launched a new effort to help other cities across the country pass their own taxes. The Ecology Center posted a 13-minute video today titled Berkeley vs. Big Soda, which tells the story of how soda tax advocates defeated the beverage industry in the liberal city of 118,000, along with other resources to support similar tax efforts in other communities.

The group said it is distributing the film widely to local, state and national groups, noting that organizations from British Columbia and Texas are promoting it. Soda tax measures are "marching forward" in Philadelphia, Seattle, San Francisco, other parts of California and the United Kingdom and "others are forming under the radar," the groups said. Watch the video here.

The beverage lobby was dismissive of the effort. "Berkeley is a very-pro-tax city that is not at all like the rest the country," said Lauren Kane, a spokeswoman for the American Beverage Association. "Elsewhere, soda tax proposals have been rejected 40 times across the country in the past eight years. Beverage taxes remain highly unpopular because the majority of Americans oppose discriminatory taxes that single out one item in the grocery cart."

N.Y. NURSERIES ALMOST PERFECT ON INVASIVE SPECIES RULE: New York's nursery industry is doing a great job of staying in line with the state's new invasive species regulations, according to the state agriculture department. Horticultural inspectors report a 95 percent compliance rate among the 1,533 plant dealer facilities and 1,077 plant grower locations they've visited across the state since the new rules went into effect on March 10, 2015. The regulations, which stem from a law signed in July 2012, prohibit 69 plants and require special labeling and care regulations for six others. Among the plant species prohibited: the Multiflora Rose. The plant was once valued for its soil stabilization qualities, but it proved to be aggressive and invasive, degrading the quality of hay fields in the state, recounts Chris Logue, director of the state agriculture department's plant industry division.

INSTANT OATS:

- Americans will each eat an average of 54.3 pounds of beef this year on average, the first increase since 2006, according to USDA data, Bloomberg News reports.
- Health leaders are defending the role farm-to-school programs play in teaching kids healthy eating habits after an article in POLITICO's The Agenda questioned the value of such efforts.
- A Saudi dairy company's land purchase in the U.S. Southwest is raising questions about water rights, the AP reports.

Hi Donna,

I'm writing on behalf of Kevin Concannon, Under Secretary of USDA-FNCS. He has been invited to speak on a panel at The Obesity Society meeting in New Orleans, LA on November 4, 2016. Specifically, he's been asked to address school nutrition policy changes, and he thought that the audience (mostly scientists) would also benefit from hearing a real-world perspective from a progressive SFA director. As it often does, your name rose to the top of our list! Is there any chance that you would be interested and available to participate? I have attached the invitation form that they sent to us, and am happy to respond to any informal questions you might have (we've had some offline discussion with the conference folks). If you're interested, I will also refer you to our contact on the conference organizing committee.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best,

Rachel

Thank you to all Academy members and credentialed dietetics practitioners who participated in the Council on Future Practices visioning process survey to provide feedback on the change drivers and trends driving the profession, as identified by the Council. Your input was critical in helping the Council on Future Practice to identify priorities and shape the draft recommendations that are being developed for the Visioning Report 2017.

The Council on Future Practice reviewed the statistical analysis of the survey results in detail. Highlights from the survey include:

- Nearly four percent (4%) of those who received and opened the email communication completed the survey (n=1786);
- Eighty-five percent (85%) of those who completed the survey were Academy members (n=1524);
- Respondents of the visioning process survey were similar to Compensation and Benefits Survey respondents, except there were more educators and PhD respondents to the visioning process survey;
- There were some slight differences in ranking of the change drivers based on age and years in practice;
- All 10 change drivers were rated as very important by respondents from a statistical perspective. Based on this statistical analysis, the Council on Future Practice is considering the implications of all 10 change drivers when drafting recommendations for the Visioning Report 2017.

The Council on Future Practice also appreciates all the comments that were submitted by members, credentialed dietetics practitioners, and Academy organizational units. Each comment was reviewed, and it was determined that most of the comments were addressed in the change drivers document. For those not addressed, these comments are being considered when drafting the recommendations for the Visioning Report.

The draft recommendations will be released late Spring for input from Academy organizational units, Council on Future Practice Think Tank Members, and Academy External Organization Liaisons. Further communications regarding the draft recommendations will be shared at that time. The Visioning Report is projected for publication in 2017.

Again, thank you for your participation in the visioning process survey. Your feedback is critical to this process, and your time and dedication is greatly appreciated.

HHS Secretary: Prevention Saves Money

Health and Human Services Secretary Sylvia Burwell announced March 23 that the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services has certified that expansion of the Diabetes Prevention Program, a model funded by the Affordable Care Act, would reduce net Medicare spending. In a follow-up message on March 29 to Academy members, President Dr. Evelyn F. Crayton, RDN, LDN, FAND, wrote: "Because RDNs and NDTRs are very much involved in, and are being recognized for, our efforts with the Diabetes Prevention Program - whether leading these programs or implementing them in our communities - we will work with CMS to include strong language recognizing the value RDNs and NDTRs bring to such programs."

I think we do have a pretty good relationship with Patty and her staff.

I will say it is very hard for other partners including both parties when SNA agrees to something and then backs out.

I always find it interesting that SNA feels others need to mend the fences. Fortunately we have never strong confrontation but others sure have.

I am excited about the relationship between you and Laura Harvey and your leadership role. That will be great!

Hi Donna,

In January a survey was sent to all members via Eat Right Weekly, the Academy website, organizational units' posts and our social media outlets inviting members to submit their names for consideration to serve on a committee. The survey took place January 14-February 11, 2016.

After the survey closed, committee appointments were made March 17 by the President-elect, Speaker-elect and Nominating Committee chair, and are currently in the process of being confirmed. If members wish to be considered for a committee appointment for next year they are welcome to send their name and contact information to hod@eatright.org. Other volunteer opportunities in the Academy are available to members year round. Please click on the following link to learn more <http://www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/volunteering/volunteer-opportunities>.

Hope this helps. Please let me know if you need anything else.

A Message from Academy President Dr. Evelyn F. Crayton, RDN, LDN, FAND

HHS: Prevention Saves Money

The Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS), Sylvia Burwell, announced March 23 something that Academy members have known for a long time: Prevention saves money.

The Secretary announced that “the independent Office of the Actuary in the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) certified that expansion of the Diabetes Prevention Program, a model funded by the Affordable Care Act, would reduce net Medicare spending. The expansion was also determined to improve the quality of patient care without limiting coverage or benefits. This is the first time that a preventive service model from the CMS Innovation Center has become eligible for expansion into the Medicare program.”

CMS will be looking at “the best strategies for incorporating the Diabetes Prevention Program into Medicare,” and the Academy is prepared to offer some best practices for RDN-led nutrition interventions.

As Academy members know, about 30 million Americans have type 2 diabetes, resulting in two deaths every five minutes in this country. Additionally, one in every three adults has prediabetes – putting them at increased risk for developing type 2 diabetes, heart disease and stroke. Many people with prediabetes develop type 2 diabetes within ten years.

This new development builds on the Academy’s efforts that will increase opportunities for persons with prediabetes to see an RDN. Last fall, the United States Preventive Services Task Force issued its final recommendation statement (with an impressive Grade B recommendation) for diabetes screening and treatment that aligns with the Academy’s guidelines to expand screening and referral to intensive behavioral counseling interventions to asymptomatic patients at risk for diabetes. The Academy continues to work with HHS and CMS to ensure that implementation of these new diabetes screening guidelines include opportunities for our members to help treat and manage diabetes and prediabetes.

Results of a demonstration project through CMS’s Innovation Center showed that the Diabetes Prevention Program (DPP) reduces health care costs and helps prevent diabetes. The DPP is a lifestyle intervention program that includes changing participants’ nutrition and physical activity behaviors. Many of these DPPs are delivered in the same locations as Diabetes Self-Management Education (DSME) programs, making prevention and treatment of diabetes available to patients. The Academy continues to advocate for RDNs' delivery of the most effective services for preventing diabetes.

As coverage is expanded, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) will ensure the fidelity and rigor of the DPP through the accreditation process of the established CDC Diabetes Prevention Recognition Program (DPRP). This accreditation helps ensure that decisions about individual participation, patient referral and health insurance benefits are based on accurate, reliable and trustworthy information. Many of the programs with DRPR accreditation rely upon RDNs to lead programs in their communities. In addition, expanded coverage will offer new opportunities for our valued nutrition and dietetic technicians, registered (NDTRs).

Details of the proposed new coverage are not known at this time, but the Academy will be integral in formulating the regulatory language CMS will include in its CY 2017 Medicare Physician Fee Schedule proposed rule to be released in the summer. Because RDNs and NDTRs are very much involved in, and are being recognized for, our efforts with the Diabetes Prevention Program – whether leading these programs or implementing them in our communities—we will work with CMS to include strong language recognizing the value RDNs and NDTRs bring to such programs. We will continue to engage our diabetes experts to provide input and guidance into the Academy's formal comments to ensure that final details of coverage are favorable to Academy members and the Medicare beneficiaries we serve.

Please continue to share your outcomes and impactful stories with Academy staff and research networks, as this is what is needed to be successful in driving better policy. And it remains critically important to promote our value to physicians and other providers about the cost- and clinical-effectiveness of MNT and the need for improved Medicare coverage. Your efforts will help increase referrals and provide the solution for physicians searching where to send patients with prediabetes and diabetes for the best treatment.

Meetings are already scheduled with key Congressional leaders on the passage of the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 1686), which would expand the Medicare Part B MNT benefit to include coverage for patients at risk of prediabetes. Your robust legislative advocacy and concomitant Academy initiatives with CMS on the proposed rules will enable persons with prediabetes to have access to quality RDN- and NDTR-provided nutrition services.

Members' response to Action Alerts are crucial to help pass legislation. We will continue to keep members informed of activities and actions on both the regulatory and legislative fronts.

Academy Warns Members of Fraudulent Emails

Some Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics members have received fraudulent emails asking them to renew their membership or donate to the Academy. The subject line of the fake membership renewal email read "Your EatRight membership," and within the text of the email is an offer to renew membership "at a special discount rate of 29.95$."

This email was not sent by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and members should not click on any links within it. This is considered a phishing email, which is intended to trick people into submitting personal information. Phishing emails often appear to be sent from legitimate individuals and organizations. Academy members can guard against fraudulent emails by checking that they are sent from trusted addresses, like ones that contain the domain "@eatright.org." Members should also be vigilant when emails ask for personal information, such as credit card numbers, social security numbers and home addresses. You can learn more about phishing scams by visiting the Federal Trade Commission and United States Computer Emergency Readiness Team websites.

Members are encouraged to contact the Academy's Member Service Center if they suspect they are being targeted by a phishing scam.

The Member Service Center can be reached via email at membership@eatright.org or by calling 800/877-1600, ext. 5000.

You may be asked by members about the latest scam we experienced regarding membership renewal. Former president Connie Diekman informed us about an email telling members their membership is about to expire and to remit their payment to Pay Pal. We believe members whose emails are provided on the Find a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist online referral service were targeted. We have posted information about the scam on the eatrightPRO.org homepage as the top item in Latest News and are disseminating the forewarning via social media.

All,

We have a Finance and Audit Committee meeting will be on Tuesday, March 29th at 1:00 p.m. CDT. Maria has begun to put the information onto the portal and will let you know when everything is completed. Also, the webinar invitation has gone out to everyone from the Academy IT team. Please let me know if you did not receive the information. The meeting agenda will focus on the following;

1. January final financials
2. February preliminary financials
3. April FAC meeting

As we did last month, I will also invite the Academy Executive team to audit the call. I think it was valuable for everyone last time. If anyone disagrees, please let me know.

Now, onto the narrative.

I. January Adjustments

There were no changes made to the original January financials

II. Investments

The investment news is beginning to get better. In February, the combined portfolios lost approximately $88K, all of which was in the Academy portfolio. This is a far cry from the previous losses we have experienced. We began to see the shift upwards in our portfolio near the end of February. In March, we have seen the portfolios jump ahead. Through yesterday, March 23rd, the combined portfolios were up nearly $2.1 million for the month. That is great. Until yesterday, they were up even more. I can see that the markets are down today. However, at the moment, the markets really are not sure what to do. This was the case until late in the day yesterday. Then they dropped. So, who knows what will happen today. Since the markets are closed tomorrow, we will have four more trading days in the month. Hopefully, it will continue to climb from here.

III. Academy preliminary February Financials (A3 and A10)

The Academy results for January were short of expectations on the revenue front. However, it was nearly offset by lower expenses. In February, the Academy revenue was short of the budget target by $97,759. On the expense front, the Academy expenses were under budget by $71,707. If you combine these two numbers, you will see that the Academy missed its Operating Income target by $26,052. As I mentioned above, the Academy investment portfolio lost money in February. The Academy's portion of the loss was $45,160. This was $149,327 short of the budget. So, after adding everything together, the Academy had a Net Deficit of $368,621. This underperformed the budget by $175,379.

Year to date, through February, the Operating Revenues are now down by $557,708 while the Operating Expenses are under budget by $157,987. This results in an Operating Deficit of $1,079,282 which is under-performing when compared to the budget by $399,721. As was the case last month, the one bright spot on the “overall financials” is the Operating Deficit is much smaller than the Operating Deficit through February of last year. The Operating Deficit in FY15, through February, was -$1,961,463. So, even though the Academy has not achieved the budget goals, it has improved on the Operating results by over $882,000 or 45%. As you can see from the results on A10, most of this is coming from expenses which are lower by $813,048 through February. This represents a 4.3% reduction. Great news on this front. As was the case last month, one of the “takeaways” from the financial results is the Academy is doing much better than last year, but, not as good as our budget.

The revenue in February continued to under-perform in some of the same areas as we have discussed previously. One bright spot is Membership Dues. This month, the Membership Dues revenue actually exceeded the budget by $114. This is the second month in a row that the Membership Dues revenue has stayed above the budget. We are optimistic that this will continue for the remainder of the fiscal year. Also keep in mind that on a year to date basis, total revenue has grown by $69,133. So, it is up, but, not up enough.

On the expense front, the Academy was under or near budget in all categories except Personnel (up $8.8K), Bank and Trust Fees (up $9.5K) and Expense Allocation (up $7.9K). The Expense Allocation is due to the CDR funding gap that was created when CDR decided to not fund a few initiatives. Personnel is over budget due to the need for temporary help when we have our vacancies. Unfortunately, the work must get done. Bank and Trust fees is the credit card costs. This continues to climb at an accelerating pace. Even after renegotiating lower rates with our processor, the costs are going up. This is due to higher volume and increases from the credit card companies. Unfortunately, they have just announce another price increase!!! We will do what we can to help mitigate this problem, but, I believe it will continue.

On a year to date basis, we do have a few expense areas over-running the budget and quite a few under running the budget. So far, there have been a couple “misses” with Travel and Bank fees being the most obvious. I do think we will be over on both of these areas for the year. As you can see from February’s results, we did close the gap on our over-run for Travel. However, I don’t expect us to close it entirely. The Bank fees will continue to over-run the budgets. This is due to more members using credit cards. Some people might ask “why not charge a fee for the use of the cards?” In some cases, this might work. However, I don’t believe this would be a good strategy for the Academy. I think we may also continue to feel pressure on the Personnel front. I would factor into our budgets an amount of “open positions” throughout the year. Unfortunately, using Temporary help each time there is a vacancy clears that away. This is a new phenomena with the Academy. Given the work load, one that appears necessary. So, this could continue to over-run the budget going forward.

However, keep in mind the Academy is nearly $158,000 under budget. This is also after considering the short fall generated by CDR's reduction in support. So, if we factor out the $79,486 that is in the "expense allocation", the Academy is really $237,473 under budget. That is a great number in this environment.

Overall, the Academy is holding expenses under-budget even with some of the over-runs. The major area of concern is revenue. It isn't meeting expectations. As always, I am including the variance grid for your review. The grid will provide a little more detail.

IV. Foundation Preliminary February Financials (A2, A8 and A9)

The month of February was a mixed month for the Foundation financially . Revenue for the month was under budget by $169,498. However, expenses were $110,840 under budget. It offset 2/3rds of the revenue shortfall. The Operating results for February reflect a deficit of $117,959 which is $58,658 larger (worse) than the budget. Some of the revenue shortfall can be a timing issue. Revenue was under budget on Grants and Donations by $109,000. However, there is an ELANCO funding budgeted in February for $150,000. Since we have recorded over $75,000 for this previously, at least half of this is a timing issue. At this time, the Foundation does not expect to receive the other $75,000. You will also see Sponsorships are under in February by $27K. Since this is over budget for the year, this clearly is a timing issue. The major area that is under-budget in February on the expense front is Scholarships and Awards. This is under budget in February by $78,669. This also could be a timing issue. In addition to the good news on expense under-runs, the Foundation also inched out a gain of $4,475 from investments. Not great, but, a positive result! Given the last few months, positive results, regardless of how small, is good news.

Year to date, the Foundation's revenue is $493,880 under budget while the expenses are $331,214 under budget. This results in an Operating Deficit that is $162,666 larger (worse) than the budget. Considering the loss of the General Mills Grant revenue in December and the return of the Monsanto money in January, the Foundation is performing well. The only negative at this time is the Investment income. Even with getting a slight positive from investment income in February, the Foundation is now $2,246,937 below budget.

The overall financial results have now driven the Foundation's Net Assets to $21.8M (A9). Smaller, but, still strong.

V. CDR preliminary February Financials (A4 and A11)

CDR, overall, had another good month in February with the exception of Investments. Revenue exceeded the budget by $55.4K while expenses were under budget by $36.9K. This combination resulted in an Operating deficit of $17,753 which was $92.3K smaller (better) than the budget. All are good signs. As was addressed above and in previous months, the only negative is the Investment income. Investment income fell short of budget by $71,713 in February.

On a year to date basis, CDR is performing very well. Revenue is over budget by $52.3K while Expenses are now $1,155,979 under budget. Overall Operating Income is $1,208,258 higher than the budget. The only negative for the year are investment results. The investments are down $442,208 for the year. Even though CDR has a Net Deficit of $182.7K, it is still $345,204 smaller (better) than the budget.

VI. DPGs/MIGS/ACEND Preliminary February Financials (A5 and A12)

The combined DPGs/MIGS/ACEND financial results were better than expectations in February. Both revenue (up $34.8K) and expense (down $67.5K) performed better than the budget targets. The final results reflected Operating Income of $118,378 which was $102,350 larger (better) than the budget. It is always good to have a positive operating result. The only negative in February was the Investment results. These were down $22,838 when compared to the budget.

On a year to date basis, the combined revenues are exceeding budget expectations by $13,689 while the combined expenses are under-budget by $663,432. The combined Operating Income/Deficit is nearly showing a "break-even" result (down $3.4K) which is $677,432 smaller (better) than the budget. The only bad news here is the investment results. They are under budget by $409,742.

You will also see on page A16, we now have two DPGs/MIGs on the "watch list"; Dietitians in Business and Communications (71%) and Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition (67%). The Management in Food and Nutrition Systems (76%) DPG has left the watch list. The Investment losses continue to have an impact on the DPG/MIG reserves. However, the Operating results are helping to offset the losses. We will continue to monitor this situation.

VII. ANDPAC Preliminary February Financials (A7 and A14)

ANDPAC had a mixed month in February. Revenue was over-budget (up $2.2K) and expenses were over- budget (up $3.5K). February saw an increase in Member contributions when compared to both budget and last year. In addition, ANDPAC received corporate contributions that exceeded the budget. So, good news on the revenue front for February. Expenses were over budget due to higher contributions to candidates. On a year to date basis, ANDPAC's revenue is now below budget by $16,856 (20.9%). However, it is still higher than last year at this time (up $8.7K or up 15.8%). Regardless, the PAC's' year to date Operating Deficit is $14,949 smaller (better) than the budget. In addition, the PAC now has $175.4K in reserve (A18). The PAC is in still in good financial shape at the end of February.

I hope this helps a little when going through the February package. As I finish this up, I can see that the stock market has erased most of the losses (Dare I say starting to move positive!!!). Hopefully, this will continue and the day, the next week and the month will end on a positive note. If you have any questions, or can't make the call on Tuesday, please let me know. You should have received the webinar invitation from the Academy IT department today. Let us know if you have not. Also, Maria will let you know when everything is on the portal for you to review.

Have a great weekend.

Hi Denise – the DPG and MIG elections did end on 2/22 just as the national elections. Our next process is to enter the names of the winners in our database for each group, which we do over the next month or so. We do not gather state information on any of the candidates for DPG/MIG offices, and they are entered into the database by the specific DPG or MIG, which does not generate a listing of the person's state affiliate.

I would have to look into whether or not there is a report that could be generated to indicate the state affiliation of our DPG/MIG leaders, however due to the fact that we have not yet entered the names into the database, at this time I do not have the information on state affiliations that you are requesting.

Hi Joan - thanks for the copy on the minutes.

I have another question that I thought others may be interested in the answer.

From the recent election - including DPGs - can we obtain a list of newly elected leaders by state?

I was going to congratulate someone on the PA list serv and then thought - what if there are other newly elected leaders and I left them out...

Also, it would be interesting - at some point - to see a list of current leaders at the national level by state. To me, this type of real data is valuable. And, maybe it exists somewhere now - thank you!

Good morning,

Alexis Pezzullo, a member of the Nutrition Services Payment Committee, and I are looking forward to providing you with an update tomorrow on the Academy's progress toward implementing the recommendations of the PCMH/ACO Workgroup. Attached to this email are the webinar slides as well as a handout for your reference. We hope you will be able to join us live for the webinar so we can address your questions and engage in discussion, but also recognize your schedules are full after returning from the recent BOD meeting. For those of you unable to join us for the live webinar, it will be recorded and made available to you. The link for the webinar is <https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/j.php?MTID=m25cfa8cfe35008ea362c5a1fd4e4633b>. For the audio component we will be using VOIP, meaning you will join via your computer's sound system rather than dialing in through a conference call line.

Thank you for taking the time to listen to this important update. Please feel free to contact me with any questions. If you encounter any problems connecting to the webinar, please contact Erin Carpenter at ecarpenter@eatright.org or 1-800-877-1600 ext 4866.

Subject: Webinar: March 24 PCMH/ACO Update

Following is an email communication from Marsha Schofield.

Dear Board of Directors:

In the continuing series of webinars on topics of interest for the Board, we would like to invite you to join us for a webinar on Thursday, March 24, 2:00 – 3:00 pm Central time, for a progress report on implementation of the PCMH/Population Health Models Workgroup Report's recommendations. Understanding March is a busy month, this date was selected based upon your availability. Should you be unable to attend this webinar, it will be recorded and sent out after the call. The link for this webinar is <https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/j.php?MTID=m25cfa8cfe35008ea362c5a1fd4e4633b>.

The webinar will provide an overview of progress to date by Academy organizational units as they implement recommendations from the report. Units across the Academy are actively engaged in efforts to achieve the workgroup's vision of positioning RDNs as essential members of person-centered health care delivery models. As we hit the mid-point of the 3-year window framed by the workgroup, now is a good time to assess progress and identify areas that may require attention in terms of resource allocation and/or prioritization by the Board. This progress report may also help us to "Get Smart" as we create our vision for the Second Century.

I look forward to the discussion and your feedback and ideas.

Sincerely,

Marsha

Mary Pat, I am on my way home from speaking about school nutrition for the Child and Adolescent Weight Management Certificate Course in Indianapolis. Just looking at my emails. My schedule is pretty clear for this event. Do you know if the Academy would fund me going? I know Penny McConnell is very active with this group and wanted to talk to me about what they do.

Wanted to discuss how they could partner with the second century vision. Is there not any programming other than the gala? If the Academy would fund it then I think I could work it out. What are your thoughts? Do you think it would be worthwhile?

Will work on the joint farm to school blog tomorrow for the Farm to School network. Jenn sent me the suggestions to be included. They look good to me. I did not know that Erin wanted to use the future President-elect tag. I have collaborated with them before. I had told her I was out of pocket for a few days, so this is the first I have seen of the rough draft. Leaving now for the last leg to get home. Talk to you tomorrow.

Thanks, Kay. I thought we would have pushback about eliminating the House governs the profession vs the Board governs the organization, but we didn't. Working with Linda I believe we can begin a dialogue about new ways to engage delegates and all members, potentially eliminating a House face to face meeting. Frankly many of the "mega issues" are suited well as webinar topics. Not only will this allow for more member engagement but will save us a chunk of money!

Looking forward to seeing you!

Donna,

First, a belated congratulations on the election. You will be a fabulous President of the Academy and I look forward to working with you in that role. And yes, I totally understand the need for you to re-evaluate your commitments. Thank you for bringing it to my attention and suggesting Dayle Hayes. I'll get the process started for pursuing a replacement and will keep you posted.

Thanks again and look forward to seeing you at the upcoming BOD meeting.

Warm regards,

Marsha, I am really excited, honored and humbled to have been elected President-elect of AND. Given that, I wanted to touch base with you about us appointing another Academy member to be on consortium in my place. It is a great group of people, but it is a very time consuming group and I know I will not be able to continue to serve on the committee. I am already having conflicts with dates they are proposing for conference calls. The only suggestion I have of someone who would be great on the consortium would be Dayle Hayes. I know you all have to go through channels to appoint someone, but I thought I would give you that one suggestion. I am not sure if she would do it, but she would be great. I look forward to continuing to work with you in the future.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Members Highlight Nutrition Interventions in Cancer Care Continuum

Members of the Academy's Oncology Nutrition dietetic practice group and chief science officer Alison Steiber, PhD, RDN, participated in an Academy-sponsored workshop on March 14 by the Institute of Medicine's Food and Nutrition Board titled "Examining Access to Nutrition Care in Outpatient Cancer Centers." Panels examined nutrition in clinical settings; dangers of "prescribed" dietary supplements by unqualified "nutritionists"; models of care both nationally and internationally; costs and benefits of care; and best practices for implementing care across sectors. A summary of the workshop, including recordings and presentations, will be available soon.

President Urges Congress: Protect Prevention Fund

Academy President Dr. Evelyn Crayton, RDN, LDN, FAND, urged the House Energy & Commerce Committee to remove language from H.R. 4725, which would repeal the Prevention and Public Health Fund and eliminate a funding stream critical to ensuring that RDNs are able to help create healthy communities through successful nutrition interventions.

Academy Supports Study to Improve Child Nutrition Programs, Enhance Nutrition Education

The Academy has offered strong support for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Services proposed Child Nutrition Programs Operations Study II, which will collect and analyze data on policy, administrative and operational issues for the Child Nutrition Programs; provide input for new legislation; and provide pertinent training and technical assistance. Academy noted that school nutrition professionals, including many registered dietitian nutritionists, struggle with a "trilemma"; meeting nutritional requirements of the student; minimizing program costs (including maintaining outdated facilities); and maximizing student acceptability and participation. The Academy has offered assistance in improving these programs.

FDA Warns of Dangers from Imported Dietary Supplements

The Food and Drug Administration has warned consumers of the dangers of purchasing imported products marketed as dietary supplements and nonprescription drug products from ethnic or international stores, flea markets, swap meets or online. Despite claims by anti-science groups funded by the supplement industry - that frequently and inaccurately criticize the work of the Academy - dangerous, ineffective and falsely labeled supplements abound. A recent PBS program highlighted issues of fraudulent supplements.

Waiting for Senate Action: Child Nutrition Programs

Members' voices are needed to support the Senate Agriculture Committee's bipartisan reauthorization of the Improving Child Nutrition Integrity and Access Act of 2016. The Academy expects this bill to come up for a vote, and Senators need to know their constituents strongly support the bill, which incorporates many of the Academy's recommendations to support healthy meals (and thousands of members who work in child nutrition programs) and to promote nutrition education for children.

USDA Grants to Reduce Child Food Insecurity in Rural Communities

I am sharing the attached report, The State of America's Wasted Food, and Opportunities to make a Difference, which is available on both the Academy's and Foundation's websites. A version of the report is also available on the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics website, in advance of print publication later this year. An introduction to the report and manuscript is provided by Evelyn. As part of the Foundation's Future of Food initiative, the report was written by registered dietitian nutritionists Chris Vogliano, agriculture, health and nutrition research fellow at the Academy and Katie Brown, the Academy Foundation's chief global nutrition strategy officer. Many Academy groups and members are leading efforts to reduce wasted food, feed the hungry and positively impact the environment. The report highlights a few of our shining star members in this area. We will include a link to the report in this week's Eat Right Weekly.

Also attached is the press release, which is being distributed to the media later today. Please note that Donna's efforts to decrease food waste are spotlighted in the press release.

I thank Sonja for educating me on wasted food, which inspired me to include a performance goal to follow up on the challenge received by FNCE Keynote speaker Doug Rauch. We are identifying industry partners that we can collaborate with and challenge to improve their food waste reduction initiatives and also highlight the important role RDNs and NDTRs play in this effort.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Pat
