On November 1, 47 million people - half of whom are children - saw a decrease in their SNAP benefits, equating to about $36 per month, or 21 meals per month. This cutback in SNAP benefits is due to the expiration of the 2009 economic stimulus package, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. As Congress discusses the fate of the Farm Bill, SNAP could be subjected to even deeper cuts.

Subject: More good news....Award Winning Academy!

I am extremely proud to share that the Academy just won ten 2013 MarCom Awards! Sponsored by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals, the MarCom Awards honor excellence in concept, writing and design of print, visual, audio and web materials and programs. This prestigious competition has grown to perhaps the largest of its kind in the world, with about 6,000 entries per year – from corporate marketing and communication departments, advertising agencies, PR firms, design companies, production companies and freelancers.

The Academy received Platinum Awards for:

- Food & Nutrition Magazine “Stone Soup” blog (Website Element/Blog category)
- Home Food Safety Program “Is My Food Safe?” (Mobile & Web-Based Technology/Mobile App)
- Food & Nutrition Magazine (Writing/Magazine)
- Food & Nutrition Magazine (Magazine/Association)

We received Gold MarCom Awards for:

- Foundation Kids Eat Right “Nourish to Flourish” (Website Element/Infographic)
- Home Food Safety Program “Is My Food Safe?” (Design Web/Mobile App)
- Home Food Safety Program website (Website Redesign)
- Food & Nutrition Magazine (Photography/Magazine)
- Food & Nutrition Magazine “Inspire” (Photography/People/Portrait)
- Food & Nutrition Magazine “Made in USA” (Writing/Feature Article)

Congratulations to all who were involved in the creation and production of these outstanding communications pieces under the direction of Mary Beth Whalen, Doris Acosta and Liz Spittler.

Pat, Although you know that you do not need to get our permission or approval, I do appreciate you keeping us in the loop. The is an extremely timely and important issue that we need to move forward on, and I appreciate the Academy's flexibility in being able to move this initiative forward in a timely fashion. Thanks for making the decision to make this happen.

Pat,

Thank you for your support of this additional funding. While we were initially trying to be prudent with Academy dollars, the HOD dialogue plus our conversations with Board members has led us to the conclusion that we need the outcomes of this workgroup faster than a conference call approach can accomplish. I'm confident that with a focused, face-to-face meeting the group can produce a strong set of recommendations in a more timely manner. I think we will realize a very good return on investment.

Hi Pat

This is follow-up to our conversation yesterday about a workgroup meeting of the Patient Centered Medical Home/Accountable Care Organization (PCMH/ACO). Due to the urgency put on this issue by the House of Delegates and the desire of our Board to support the efforts of the Coding & Coverage Committee, Marsha and I feel that a 2-3 day meeting of the 6 person PCMH/ACO workgroup would be best in order to achieve their charge. The charge is:

As a sub-group of the Coding and Coverage Committee, the workgroup will:

Review the Academy Medical Home Workgroup's 2009 report: "Patient-Centered Medical Home Strategic Plan" and develop recommendations for Academy leadership (CCC, BOD and/or HLT/HOD) regarding Academy strategies for advancing RD involvement in PCMHs;

Develop an Academy strategy for engaging members to take advantage of the opportunities that are presented with the PCMH and ACOs. Assess member resource needs on PCMH and ACO ; and

Identify new resources to educate members about the PCMH and ACO concepts to position RDs as an integral component of these health care delivery models (with focus on coverage/reimbursement) These opportunities for resource development will be evaluated for inclusion in the FY14 budget.

The budget to support this meeting would be 2391 (Coding and Coverage Committee). Please note this is an unfunded project that we felt could be completed via conference calls (we budgeted for conference calls, not a meeting). The cost of this unfunded meeting would be about $10,000 would be used for lodging, transportation, per diem and food service. We would like to request your support for conducting this meeting, which will result in a $10,000 overage for budget 2391. We feel strongly that this is good use of Academy dollars and feel that the overage will be beneficial to the membership/profession.

Will you support convening the workgroup meeting which will result in an overage to this budget?
Thanks for your consideration of this matter.

Pat,

Thank you for your support of this additional funding. While we were initially trying to be prudent with Academy dollars, the HOD dialogue plus our conversations with Board members has led us to the conclusion that we need the outcomes of this workgroup faster than a conference call approach can accomplish. I'm confident that with a focused, face-to-face meeting the group can produce a strong set of recommendations in a more timely manner. I think we will realize a very good return on investment.

Thank you,
Marsha

The proposal nicely captures the HOD dialogue and what's required to address the professional needs identified. I approve going forward with the initiative as outlined in light of the urgency and designated response timeline approved by HLT.

Hi Pat

This is follow-up to our conversation yesterday about a workgroup meeting of the Patient Centered Medical Home/Accountable Care Organization (PCMH/ACO). Due to the urgency put on this issue by the House of Delegates and the desire of our Board to support the efforts of the Coding & Coverage Committee, Marsha and I feel that a 2-3 day meeting of the 6 person PCMH/ACO workgroup would be best in order to achieve their charge. The charge is:

As a sub-group of the Coding and Coverage Committee, the workgroup will:

1. Review the Academy Medical Home Workgroup's 2009 report: "Patient-Centered Medical Home Strategic Plan" and develop recommendations for Academy leadership (CCC, BOD and/or HLT/HOD) regarding Academy strategies for advancing RD involvement in PCMHs;
2. Develop an Academy strategy for engaging members to take advantage of the opportunities that are presented with the PCMH and ACOs. Assess member resource needs on PCMH and ACO ; and
3. Identify new resources to educate members about the PCMH and ACO concepts to position RDs as an integral component of these health care delivery models (with focus on coverage/reimbursement) These opportunities for resource development will be evaluated for inclusion in the FY14 budget.

The budget to support this meeting would be 2391 (Coding and Coverage Committee). Please note this is an unfunded project that we felt could be completed via conference calls (we budgeted for conference calls, not a meeting). The cost of this unfunded meeting would be about $10,000 would be used for lodging, transportation, per diem and food service. We would like to request your support for conducting this meeting, which will result in a $10,000 overage for budget 2391. We feel strongly that this is good use of Academy dollars and feel that the overage will be beneficial to the membership/profession.

Will you support convening the workgroup meeting which will result in an overage to this budget?
Thanks for your consideration of this matter.

Hello Donna,

Pearlie asked that I follow-up with you regarding your PowerPoint presentation for the November 22-24, 2013 Certificate of Training in Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management Program. We have switched to the CDR site to upload the PowerPoint files. Please use the instructions below to login and upload your presentation.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org
2. To login choose the "Login" option on the upper right-hand side of the page.
3. Sign-in using your e-mail address and the password – welcome
4. On the purple banner, hover over the "Portal" option on the right-hand side and choose the "Library" option from the drop-down menu.

5. Click on the “November 2013 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts” link located to the left.
6. Click on the “Upload Multiple Files” link located in the gray menu bar.
7. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on “add files” button (lower left side)
8. Browse for your file.
9. Click open.
10. To add another file choose “Add Files” button again to add another file to the list.
11. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the “Start Upload” button (lower left side). When upload had finished press “Continue.”
12. Don’t pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on “Complete Upload” bar.
13. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail.

Please let me know if you have any question about the above instructions.

Hi Donna. I have met Patti at several NDC sponsored meetings. I think she is terrific and it is about time they made her CEO! I would be happy to meet with her and you to discuss their Foundation and share some of our best practices. I checked with Pat's assistant and we are both available on December 17 from 9am until 1pm. Would that be enough time? I'm happy to share with Patti our position descriptions for the Foundation Director and Executive Director jobs. Just send me her email address. I will reach out to HR and get this information to pass along.

Thanks for your kind words. We are so proud of what the Foundation has accomplished over the years and it is thanks to the support of committed volunteers like you that we have enjoyed such success.

Subject: Request for Joint Meeting of School Nutrition Association and Academy

Pat and Mary Beth,

Patti Montague, Chief Executive Officer of the School Nutrition Association (SNA) and School Nutrition Foundation, has asked me to contact you, both, to see if we could arrange a possible meeting of the Academy and the SNA in Chicago? Patti is the new CEO of the SNA, after having been on the staff for over 20 years. Their foundation, unlike ours, is struggling to be relevant and is in the infancy of a rebirth under Patti's watch. Patti really looks up to the Academy as the role model of how an Association and Foundation should operate.

The SNA vision, Healthful meals and nutrition education are available to all children, is very much in line with our vision of We All Eat Right. She would very much like to be able to sit down and meet with both of you to explore areas that we could work together on, and also to get some advice on how to re-structure their foundation. The current Director of the SNA Foundation has just resigned to pursue other opportunities that have arisen, and they think this is a perfect time to make some changes in their foundation staff. She has asked me to attend the meeting, if we can arrange one in the near future. When we cross checked our schedules we both had the following dates available for a possible meeting:

December 3

December 4

December 9

December 13

December 16

December 17

I hope that we can work this out, so that these two great organizations can pull our collective resources together and further both of our mutual visions. SNA will fund me to attend the meeting, if we can work it out.

I look forward to hearing back from you on this proposal for a meeting. Thanks and have a much deserved great weekend!

PS - She also asked if we would be willing to share our job description for our foundation director, as she is trying to rewrite their job description for the director they are recruiting.

Hi Donna. I have met Patti at several NDC sponsored meetings. I think she is terrific and it is about time they made her CEO! I would be happy to meet with her and you to discuss their Foundation and share some of our best practices. I checked with Pat's assistant and we are both available on December 17 from 9am until 1pm. Would that be enough time? I'm happy to share with Patti our position descriptions for the Foundation Director and Executive Director jobs. Just send me her email address. I will reach out to HR and get this information to pass along. Thanks for your kind words. We are so proud of what the Foundation has accomplished over the years and it is thanks to the support of committed volunteers like you that we have enjoyed such success.

Subject: Request for Joint Meeting of School Nutrition Association and Academy

Pat and Mary Beth,

Patti Montague, Chief Executive Officer of the School Nutrition Association (SNA) and School Nutrition Foundation, has asked me to contact you, both, to see if we could arrange a possible meeting of the Academy and the SNA in Chicago? Patti is the new CEO of the SNA, after having been on the staff for over 20 years. Their foundation, unlike ours, is struggling to be relevant and is in the infancy of a rebirth under Patti's watch. Patti really looks up to the Academy as the role model of how an Association and Foundation should operate.

The SNA vision, Healthful meals and nutrition education are available to all children, is very much in line with our vision of We All Eat Right. She would very much like to be able to sit down and meet with both of you to explore areas that we could work together on, and also to get some advice on how to re-structure their foundation. The current Director of the SNA Foundation has just resigned to pursue other opportunities that have arisen, and they think this is a perfect time to make some changes in their foundation staff. She has asked me to attend the meeting, if we can arrange one in the near future. When we cross checked our schedules we both had the following dates available for a possible meeting:

December 3

December 4

December 9

December 13

December 16

December 17

I hope that we can work this out, so that these two great organizations can pull our collective resources together and further both of our mutual visions. SNA will fund me to attend the meeting, if we can work it out.

I look forward to hearing back from you on this proposal for a meeting. Thanks and have a much deserved great weekend!

PS - She also asked if we would be willing to share our job description for our foundation director, as she is trying to rewrite their job description for the director they are recruiting.

Wow, this is terrific!! I will encourage all of my new, highly smart but "culinarily" challenged MBA friends to check these out. These people can solve amazingly complex corporate problems. Yet when they see my bag of community supported agriculture vegetables, they say "I'd have no idea what to do with all of those". These tools will help them!!

TGIF everyone.

Just in time for the holidays, the Academy's RD Recipe videos, from our Home Food Safety Program, and our How Do I... videos will be distributed to Sam's Club nationwide, reaching over 600 locations in the US and generating 24 million monthly views.

Look for the videos to debut soon at a Sam's Club near you! We will promote this great news to members in next week's issue of Eat Right Weekly.

Hi Donna. I have met Patti at several NDC sponsored meetings. I think she is terrific and it is about time they made her CEO! I would be happy to meet with her and you to discuss their Foundation and share some of our best practices. I checked with Pat's assistant and we are both available on December 17 from 9am until 1pm. Would that be enough time? I'm happy to share with Patti our position descriptions for the Foundation Director and Executive Director jobs. Just send me her email address. I will reach out to HR and get this information to pass along.

Thanks for your kind words. We are so proud of what the Foundation has accomplished over the years and it is thanks to the support of committed volunteers like you that we have enjoyed such success.

Pat and Mary Beth,

Patti Montague, Chief Executive Officer of the School Nutrition Association (SNA) and School Nutrition Foundation, has asked me to contact you, both, to see if we could arrange a possible meeting of the Academy and the SNA in Chicago? Patti is the new CEO of the SNA, after having been on the staff for over 20 years. Their foundation, unlike ours, is struggling to be relevant and is in the infancy of a rebirth under Patti's watch. Patti really looks up to the Academy as the role model of how an Association and Foundation should operate.

The SNA vision, Healthful meals and nutrition education are available to all children, is very much in line with our vision of We All Eat Right. She would very much like to be able to sit down and meet with both of you to explore areas that we could work together on, and also to get some advice on how to re-structure their foundation. The current Director of the SNA Foundation has just resigned to pursue other opportunities that have arisen, and they think this is a perfect time to make some changes in their foundation staff. She has asked me to attend the meeting, if we can arrange one in the near future. When we cross checked our schedules we both had the following dates available for a possible meeting:

December 3

December 4

December 9

December 13

December 16

December 17

I hope that we can work this out, so that these two great organizations can pull our collective resources together and further both of our mutual visions. SNA will fund me to attend the meeting, if we can work it out.

I look forward to hearing back from you on this proposal for a meeting. Thanks and have a much deserved great weekend!

PS - She also asked if we would be willing to share our job description for our foundation director, as she is trying to rewrite their job description for the director they are recruiting.

Dear Donna:

The Academy has recently implemented a new member recognition program, and I would like to invite you to participate. For those who qualify, designation as a Fellow of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (FAND) recognizes your professional accomplishments, valuable service to the profession and public, and quest for life-long learning. From a personal perspective, being a Fellow signifies not only tenure in the dietetics profession, but also living the Academys values of customer focus, integrity, innovation and social responsibility.

Hear what a member had to say about recently becoming a FAND:

"I am proud to be a Fellow of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics! The Academy is the premiere professional organization that I access to receive up to-the-minute, customer-friendly and scientifically-sound nutrition information, which I regularly utilize to educate my customers. Having my FAND gives me a unique platform to share my sustained commitment to the field of nutrition and dietetics."

Suzanna Nye, MS, RDN, FADA, FAND

I encourage you to take advantage of this new Fellowship recognition program too. By earning the right to include the initials FAND in your title line, you will let colleagues, clients and the public know that you have been welcomed as a recognized leader into the worlds largest organization of food and nutrition professionals.

Learn more about the program and start the online application today!

Applicants for the Academy Fellow program need a minimum of 5 years previous Academy membership and 5 cumulative years of full-time or part-time nutrition and dietetics employment. Those seeking the recognition must submit a fee as well as complete an online application by receiving a minimum of 100 points.

Sincerely,
Dr. Glenna McCollum, MPH, RDN

Pearlie, I just looked at the pre-test and I do not have any questions on the pre-test for School Nutrition. If you want to replace the longer version of the report with these handouts in the future, that might help the students narrow down what they need to know. Thanks for your diligence in continuing to make this course the best it can be.

Hi there! Question on Learning activity #1.

The first article Healthy Hunger Free Kids Act of 2010 Food and Nutr Services, is about 77 pages. I am finding it difficult to remember all the exact points of the article. Are there any areas of recommendations to focus on? What should be the most important parts of this article in relation to the pre-test/test/conference?

Thank you!

Tell us about your research experience and be entered to win a complimentary 2014-15 Academy Membership!

Having trouble viewing this e-mail? View it in your browser.

Greetings!

Take 20 minutes of your day to complete the Research experience and perceived obstacles of Dietetics Practice Based Research Network (DPBRN) members and non-members survey and be entered in a drawing for a complimentary 2014-15 Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics membership!

You have been selected to participate in a research study about your experience with research. Your input may provide information of value for the field of nutrition and dietetics and will help the DPBRN of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics improve and cater their programs and services to best serve your needs and those of other dietitians/nutritionists and dietetic technicians. The survey takes about 20 minutes to complete, is completely anonymous, meaning that your identity cannot be connected in any way to your survey answers, and it is voluntary, so you can opt out at any time. If you complete the survey, you will be entered into a drawing for a complimentary 2014-15 Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics membership. Drawing will take place one week after the survey closes and the winner will be notified via e-mail. You must be 18 years or older to participate in the survey and the drawing. The survey will be open for three weeks.

To access the survey, please click here. If the survey does not open automatically, please copy and paste the link to your internet browser's address bar:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/DPBRNknowledgeneeds>. Questions about this survey? E-mail: christine.dougherty2@my.liu.edu.

Thank you for your time!

Phyllis,

I want to apologize to you for not responding sooner. I, unfortunately, missed Donna's request to answer this e-mail. So, please forgive me. It will not happen again!!! I appreciate your question. When looking at the presentation, the two areas I believe your question may have originated were slides 13 and/or 15. In slide 13, we are addressing where all of the money comes from that essentially covers the entire expense base of the Academy. Salaries and wages would be one of those categories. Slide 13 really addresses the money coming into the Academy. In order to address staff salary reporting, you would get closer on slide 15. On slide 15, each category represented with the exception of Affiliate rebate, would include some staff salary. For example, the $0.13 of every dollar from Dues associated with Governance would reflect all expenses to cover the Board, HOD, Finance Committee, and all other committee expenses as well as the staff support needed to make sure these committees are successful. This would be similar for the remaining categories.

So, in essence, our staff salary expenses are built into all of the other expense categories. You are correct in saying staff salaries are a large part of the Academy budget. However, when looking at the staff expenses, we also need to factor in all of the other expenses besides salaries. Benefits, taxes and even temporary help go into our overall personnel expenses. The overall personnel expenses as a percent of the total budget are expected to be the same in FY14 as they were in FY13; approximately 53%. Holding the personnel expenses flat is difficult due to the rising cost of health care and the increase in taxes paid at the state and federal levels. We recognize the importance of balancing out the needs of members with the Academy's ability to support a personnel structure that is comparable to similar non-profit organizations. So, holding the overall expenses flat to budget while making new investments in programs for members, which include additional personnel, was not an easy task. The Finance and Audit Committee has done a great job making sure the member's dues are spent appropriately.

I hope this answers your question. If not, please let me know. Again, I am sorry for not responding to you sooner.

Hi there! Question on Learning activity #1.

The first article Healthy Hunger Free Kids Act of 2010 Food and Nutr Services, is about 77 pages. I am finding it difficult to remember all the exact points of the article. Are there any areas of recommendations to focus on? What should be the most important parts of this article in relation to the pre-test/test/conference?

Thank you!

Thank you everyone for your responses, it so appreciated! We are already using this information.

As an update within an hour after it being sent, Jenn and I received several emails of appreciation for our letter from senior Congressional staff members representing the Conference Committee members. I am sure they had a few other things on the their plate preparing the meeting the next day!

Yesterday we were at the White House for a major announcement between Sesame Street and the Produce Marketing Association brokered by Let's Move and Partnership for Healthier America. It is a new initiative that the Academy can easily support that promotes positive Marketing to Kids and a way to increase fruits and vegetable consumption. It seems like our flagship healthy kids nutrition program, Kids Eat Right, is a natural fit for this.

I decided to do a photo montage of how many Academy members could I spot at the event. Since it was a small audience, I would say we ruled! Marianne Smith Edge had a work emergency that caused her to miss the event. We need to include attendee Dr. William H. Dietz former director of the Division of Nutrition and Physical Activity at the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention who reminds me often he is an honorary member.

Speaking of that category, we have offered an honorary membership to Elmo. He is all about having colorful foods in the diet.

Subject: Farm Bill Recommendations

Importance: High

Congress is beginning to move on some key legislation. One of the major pieces, the Farm Bill, will be discussed tomorrow with House and Senate Conference Committee. Staff has been meeting with key members of the committee to assure support for our issues. They have been able to identify some champions that value nutrition and our role. It is unknown though what might happen. To be prepared, we have sent a letter from Glenna and myself reinforcing our recommendations. We will keep you posted on the outcomes. It is likely an action alert will be sent in the near future. It is crucial that our members respond as it will impact jobs and nutrition services for many years.

As we move forward, it would be helpful for our DC staff to leverage our BOD members when necessary. Can you take a few minutes and send the names of your members of Congress to Mary Pat at mraimondi@eatright.org.

Thank you everyone for your responses, it so appreciated! We are already using this information.

As an update within an hour after it being sent, Jenn and I received several emails of appreciation for our letter from senior Congressional staff members representing the Conference Committee members. I am sure they had a few other things on their plate preparing the meeting the next day!

Yesterday we were at the White House for a major announcement between Sesame Street and the Produce Marketing Association brokered by Let's Move and Partnership for Healthier America. It is a new initiative that the Academy can easily support that promotes positive Marketing to Kids and a way to increase fruits and vegetable consumption. It seems like our flagship healthy kids nutrition program, Kids Eat Right, is a natural fit for this.

I decided to do a photo montage of how many Academy members could I spot at the event. Since it was a small audience, I would say we ruled! Marianne Smith Edge had a work emergency that caused her to miss the event. We need to include attendee Dr. William H. Dietz former director of the Division of Nutrition and Physical Activity at the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention who reminds me often he is an honorary member.

Speaking of that category, we have offered an honorary membership to Elmo. He is all about having colorful foods in the diet.

Thank you all again for your responses,

Mary Pat

Importance: High

Congress is beginning to move on some key legislation. One of the major pieces, the Farm Bill, will be discussed tomorrow with House and Senate Conference Committee. Staff has been meeting with key members of the committee to assure support for our issues. They have been able to identify some champions that value nutrition and our role. It is unknown though what might happen. To be prepared, we have sent a letter from Glenna and myself reinforcing our recommendations. We will keep you posted on the outcomes. It is likely an action alert will be sent in the near future. It is crucial that our members respond as it will impact jobs and nutrition services for many years.

As we move forward, it would be helpful for our DC staff to leverage our BOD members when necessary. Can you take a few minutes and send the names of your members of Congress to Mary Pat at mraimondi@eatright.org.

Subject: CONFIRMATION - September 2014 Childhood Weight Management Program

Good Morning All,

Thank you for providing your availability for this program. This is to confirm that we will proceed to schedule a Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management program on September 4-6, 2014 in Newport Beach, California. Please add this program to your calendar.

We are still in the contract negotiation process with the Buffalo, New York hotel to schedule a program on May 28-30, 2014.

We will let you know when these two contracts have been signed.

Thank you and have a good week.

Yesterday we were at the White House for a major announcement between Sesame Street and the Produce Marketing Association brokered by Let's Move and Partnership for Healthier America. It is a new initiative that the Academy can easily support that promotes positive Marketing to Kids and a way to increase fruits and vegetable consumption. It seems like our flagship healthy kids nutrition program, Kids Eat Right, is a natural fit for this.

I decided to do a photo montage of how many Academy members could I spot at the event. Since it was a small audience, I would say we ruled! Marianne Smith Edge had a work emergency that caused her to miss the event. We need to include attendee Dr. William H. Dietz former director of the Division of Nutrition and Physical Activity at the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention who reminds me often he is an honorary member.

Speaking of that category, we have offered an honorary membership to Elmo. He is all about having colorful foods in the diet.

Dear Board of Directors:

During the recent Board meeting in Houston, you determined that the topic of Public-Private Relationships was covered at FNCE 2013 and therefore the topic of the 2014 Presidents' Lecture should be changed to reflect a different focus area. The Board can select any topic they feel would be a benefit to the members of the Academy so a list of potential topics follows (via FluidSurveys) for your rating and comments.

Each topic should be rated based on the level of benefit/value it can provide to Academy members. Additional space for comments regarding each topic is also provided if deemed necessary to support or explain your decision. After the final results are tallied, the Academy will provide a list of potential speakers for Board consideration.

You can access the survey online at <http://fnce.fluidsurveys.com/s/2014PresidentsLecture/>

Please note—survey deadline is 5pm CT, November 15, 2013

Andy,
I am glad we had the chance to meet face-to-face at FNCE. It is that kind of professional dialogue that I know we both believe is best for communicating our vision for moving our profession forward.

As I'm sure you know, Change.org makes all petition signatures publically available in electronic format. To best evaluate your petition's signatures, we utilized this service and cross-referenced the signatures against the Academy membership database. While only 600 signatures matched with current Academy membership, I can assure you that I hear and understand your concerns and will continue to advocate on behalf of all of the more than 75,000 Academy members. I understand we do not all agree on every aspect of the Academy's strategic plan, but I do believe that with these diverse views and opinions, we can collectively, through continued professional dialogue, retain the Academy's position as the leader for registered dietitian nutritionists, dietetic technicians, registered and other food and nutrition professionals across the country and globe.

Thank you for your continued dedication and passion to the nutrition and dietetics profession.

Also, please note I have sent this from my president@eatright.org email address. Please use this account for any future communications, as it is the one I dedicate solely to Academy matters.
Thank you!

Pat,
Excellent! Thank you for sharing.
I like the “hear and understand your concerns” part.
Fits what we learned about expressing the emotion or feeling part of their problem.

Andy,

I am glad we had the chance to meet face-to-face at FNCE. It is that kind of professional dialogue that I know we both believe is best for communicating our vision for moving our profession forward.

As I'm sure you know, Change.org makes all petition signatures publically available in electronic format. To best evaluate your petition's signatures, we utilized this service and cross-referenced the signatures against the Academy membership database. While only 600 signatures matched with current Academy membership, I can assure you that I hear and understand your concerns and will continue to advocate on behalf of all of the more than 75,000 Academy members. I understand we do not all agree on every aspect of the Academy's strategic plan, but I do believe that with these diverse views and opinions, we can collectively, through continued professional dialogue, retain the Academy's position as the leader for registered dietitian nutritionists, dietetic technicians, registered and other food and nutrition professionals across the country and globe.

Thank you for your continued dedication and passion to the nutrition and dietetics profession.

Also, please note I have sent this from my president@eatright.org email address. Please use this account for any future communications, as it is the one I dedicate solely to Academy matters. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Subject: Farm Bill Recommendations

Importance: High

Congress is beginning to move on some key legislation. One of the major pieces, the Farm Bill, will be discussed tomorrow with House and Senate Conference Committee. Staff has been meeting with key members of the committee to assure support for our issues. They have been able to identify some champions that value nutrition and our role. It is unknown though what might happen. To be prepared, we have sent a letter from Glenna and myself reinforcing our recommendations. We will keep you posted on the outcomes. It is likely an action alert will be sent in the near future. It is crucial that our members respond as it will impact jobs and nutrition services for many years.

As we move forward, it would be helpful for our DC staff to leverage our BOD members when necessary. Can you take a few minutes and send the names of your members of Congress to Mary Pat at mraimondi@eatright.org.

Dear Staff,

Thank you for making the 2013 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo yet another great success! It would not have been possible without all your hard work preparing for and producing an unforgettable experience for attendees. Many Academy members stopped me and members of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors to offer positive comments about sessions, exhibits, and interactions with staff. Whether you were in Houston or at headquarters, your teamwork and commitment to serving our members is greatly valued.

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors, we appreciate all that you do to execute a successful FNCE!

Dear Staff,

Thank you for making the 2013 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo yet another great success! It would not have been possible without all your hard work preparing for and producing an unforgettable experience for attendees. Many Academy members stopped me and members of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors to offer positive comments about sessions, exhibits, and interactions with staff. Whether you were in Houston or at headquarters, your teamwork and commitment to serving our members is greatly valued.

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors, we appreciate all that you do to execute a successful FNCE!

ANDPAC Raises More Than $20,000 at FNCE

Members demonstrated record support for the Academy's Political Action Committee, ANDPAC, at the 2013 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo by donating nearly $21,000. Since membership dues cannot be used to fund ANDPAC, the Academy was thrilled by members' generosity and support. Contributions to ANDPAC help the Academy and our members forge relationships with members of Congress who influence health, food and nutrition policies.

Member Input Requested: EHR Best Practices Implementation Guide

As a result of the HITECH Act, 90 percent of U.S. hospitals are now on track to adopt an Electronic Health Record. To facilitate implementation of this new system, the Academy drafted a guide that shares references, suggestions and lessons learned from fellow registered dietitian nutritionists and facilities. Members are invited to download a copy of the draft guide and make recommendations by November 23, after which a final guide will be released.

Importance: High

Congress is beginning to move on some key legislation. One of the major pieces, the Farm Bill, will be discussed tomorrow with House and Senate Conference Committee. Staff has been meeting with key members of the committee to assure support for our issues. They have been able to identify some champions that value nutrition and our role. It is unknown though what might happen. To be prepared, we have sent a letter from Glenna and myself reinforcing our recommendations. We will keep you posted on the outcomes. It is likely an action alert will be sent in the near future. It is crucial that our members respond as it will impact jobs and nutrition services for many years.

As we move forward, it would be helpful for our DC staff to leverage our BOD members when necessary. Can you take a few minutes and send the names of your members of Congress to Mary Pat at mraimondi@eatright.org.

Dear Pat, Glenna and Mary Pat and team,

My member of the House of Representative

1. Representative Chellie Pingree

My Senators are

1. Senator Susan Collins

2. Senator Angus King

I have been in contact with all three with positive support from all. And Senator Collins has recorded a video presentation to kick off our Fall Maine Academy Conference on Friday and continues to be very supportive of our issues.

Sincerely,

Marcia Kyle, RDN, LD, CDE

Importance: High

Congress is beginning to move on some key legislation. One of the major pieces, the Farm Bill, will be discussed tomorrow with House and Senate Conference Committee. Staff has been meeting with key members of the committee to assure support for our issues. They have been able to identify some champions that value nutrition and our role. It is unknown though what might happen. To be prepared, we have sent a letter from Glenna and myself reinforcing our recommendations. We will keep you posted on the outcomes. It is likely an action alert will be sent in the near future. It is crucial that our members respond as it will impact jobs and nutrition services for many years.

As we move forward, it would be helpful for our DC staff to leverage our BOD members when necessary. Can you take a few minutes and send the names of your members of Congress to Mary Pat at mraimondi@eatright.org.

After I read it, the role of RD in the future is clear, bright, and needed. Only the RD can help bring scale to meet the needs of the consumer, cost/effectiveness of capitation and the Integrated Practice Unit (p55), and can advance the technology needs with ANDII. Add to it the great partnership work Pat and Team has done, I can see only AND being able to assist in leading a solution that brings scale and meets these needs.

Good afternoon –

We are pleased to announce that the Academy's portal is being updated. We will transition to the new platform effective November 4, 2013. To help with the transition, attached are instructions for using the new tool.

Note:

- Starting November 4, you will be redirected to the new portal. In the meantime, you can go to: <https://eal.webauthor.com> to familiarize yourself with the look and feel of the new portal.
- To log into the new portal, enter the username and password that you use for the original portal. New login information is not required.
- There are no changes to the way committee work is conducted. Navigation bars are in a different location, new icons, etc – but overall, the way documents are downloaded, discussions posted, etc., is not changing.
- All committees are located in Committee Central – we no longer have a separate Executive Central. Users can only see/access the committee(s) to which they have been assigned.
- The Help feature in the portal is still being updated so please e-mail me, or your Academy staff liaison, with any questions, concerns, glitches, etc.

Important: The original portal and the new portal are synced so please be careful when testing out the new portal. Please do not post documents or discussions to the new portal until November 4 (you should continue to use the old portal until the transition).

Thank you for your cooperation and patience as we make this transition.

Dear Pat and team:

This was a very special FNCE for me - and I am still reflecting on the many amazing activities and events that took place during our week in Houston. I couldn't agree with you more (and all the others) regarding the excellent leadership skills and talent that is continually demonstrated by our Academy team (before, during, and after FNCE). My greatest appreciation for the outstanding work and collaboration.

Dear Staff,

Thank you for making the 2013 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo yet another great success! It would not have been possible without all your hard work preparing for and producing an unforgettable experience for attendees. Many Academy members stopped me and members of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors to offer positive comments about sessions, exhibits, and interactions with staff. Whether you were in Houston or at headquarters, your teamwork and commitment to serving our members is greatly valued.

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors, we appreciate all that you do to execute a successful FNCE!

On the Pulse of Public Policy

Rep. Green Meets with ANDPAC at FNCE

More than 100 Academy members gathered Tuesday, October 22, to hear U.S. Rep. Gene Green (Texas) speak at the Academy's Political Action Committee's annual Power Breakfast at the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo. As an avid supporter of improving health care quality and access, Rep. Green gave the audience a unique, nutrition-focused policy perspective.

EHR Use Spreads Across the Country

Electronic health record adoption has increased since 2009 when the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health EHR Incentive Program began. With the increase, the Academy and our members must continue to advocate for nutrition inclusion in EHR to optimize the health of patients.

October 30 Webinar - "Meeting Need for Obesity Treatment: Developing RD/PCP Partnership"

Are you wondering how registered dietitian nutritionists can participate in Medicare's Intensive Behavioral Therapy for Obesity benefit? While RDNs are not able to direct bill for this new benefit, RDNs have an opportunity to partner with primary care providers to deliver this service. A new webinar titled "Meeting the Need for Obesity Treatment: Developing the RD/PCP Partnership" will provide the information and tools you need to successfully align with primary care providers to offer this benefit to Medicare beneficiaries and beyond. The live webinar will be October 30 at 1 p.m. Central Time.

All,

Gee, it seems like we just had a meeting....oh that's right, we did just meet!! Well, it was great to see everyone that could attend. We have another meeting on Tuesday, October 29th at 1 p.m. CDT. I hope this will be a relatively short meeting. It will focus on the Final August financials and the preliminary September financials. Maria will put the information onto the portal this afternoon.

She will notify you when the information is available. Also, you will receive a WebEx invitation from Eric Hayes. If it does not arrive, please let me know.

I. August Changes

There were no changes to the actual results for August. We did find a calculation error on A1 that was corrected. However, none of the information for any of the Academy entities changed.

II. Investments

- Investments for September were very strong. The combined portfolios gained approximately $1,190,700. October has continued this success so far. Through the close of business yesterday, the combined portfolios gained an additional $1,260,000 in October. Even though there are only five more trading days (including today) for October, it is still too early to tell how we might end the month. However, we have a strong foundation!!!

III. Academy September Financials (A10)

September, overall, was another good month for the Academy. Even though revenue fell short of the budget expectations by $9.6K, our expenses were under budget by $54.1K. The net result was an operating deficit that was $44.5K smaller than expected. The actual operating result was a deficit of $345,475. When you factor in the investment gains of $453,396 for the month, the Academy actually had Net Income of $107,921. This is $389,894 better than the budget.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,891,663. This is $268,436 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $1,773 while expenses for the year are lower by $266,663. As I mentioned last month, we still have some variances that could indicate revenue or expense concerns when you look at the detail. However, these are offset by some positive trends. This makes the net result, especially on the revenue side, look positive. It is nice to say that after 1/3rd of the year is completed, our revenue is exceeding budget!!

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

a. Membership Dues - This area is under budget by $10,073 in September and is under budget by $34,195 for the year. As was the case in August, we think part of the under run could be a budget timing issue. We are also looking at the distribution of members in the graduated dues program to see how this compares to our budget. The good news is we do know our overall membership numbers are higher than last year. In addition, we saw our first FAND revenue get booked this month. This is $24,224 over budget and helping to offset the membership revenue shortfall. We will continue to monitor membership and hope to have some additional information at our next meeting in November.

b. Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $3,988 in September and is over budget by $2,383 for the year. The over-run in September is all due to higher Professional development revenue.

c. Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $17,350 in September and over budget by $104,848 for the year. The over-run in September is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $5.4K), NCP/SL sales (up $7.5K), higher List Rental (up $7.1K) and higher Guides for Practice (up $1.5K), offset by lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.1K).

d. Subscriptions – This area is under-budget by $2,973 in September and is under budget by $12,646 for the year. The under-run for September is due to lower NCM and related products (down $4.0K). This is offset by higher EAL (up $1.0).

e. Advertising – This area is on target in September and under budget by $19,485 for the year. Nothing was budgeted in September.

f. All grants - This area is over budget by $1,905 in September and is under budget by $5,733 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to the timing of recognition of grants such as ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $7.6K) and Carry the Flame (down $1.7K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $11.2K).

g. Sponsorships – This area is under budget by $20,000 in September and is under budget by $40,000 for the year. As was mentioned in August, this under-run is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be “conservative”. If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.

h. Other – This area was over budget by $225 in September and is over budget by $6,601 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

a. Personnel – This area is over budget by $5,838 in September and over budget by $20,059 for the year. The over-run in September is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.

- b. Publications – This area is under budget by $1,151 in September and over budget by $8,563 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $4.4K) offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $2.9K) and higher across all other (up $0.3K).
- c. Travel – This area was under budget by $41,993 in September and under budget by $101,869 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower Governance (down $22.7K), lower Informatics (down $3.0K), lower Public Policy (down $8.9K) and lower Marketing (down $7.5K) offset by higher across all other (up $0.1K).
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $2,752 in September and is under budget by $74,963 for the year. The under-run in September is being driven by lower Marketing (down $19.0K), lower Research (down $15.0K), lower Governance (down $2.4K), lower Traditional Publications (down $2.0K), offset by higher Web/IT expenses (up $21.5K), higher membership recruitment (up $12.7K) and higher across all other (up $1.4K).
- e. Postage and Mailing Service – This area is over budget by $11,394 in September and over budget by $8,185 for the year. This over-run in September is primarily due to higher Membership (up $1.9K) and higher Traditional Publications (up $9.5K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is under budget by $822 in September and under budget by $4,801 for the year. The over-run in September is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $3,282 in September and under budget by $8,998 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $1,954 in September and over budget by $9,680 for the year. The over-run in September is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.
- i. Commissions – This area is on target in September and is under budget by $3,897 for the year.
- j. Computer Expenses – This area is under budget by $2,432 in September and under budget by $7,263 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower IT maintenance and repair requirements.
- k. Advertising and Promotion – This area is under budget by $1,130 in September and under budget by $3,570 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower Traditional Publications (down $0.8K) and lower across other all areas of the business (down $0.3K).

- l. Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in September and is over budget by $2,037 for the year. The over-run in September is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.
- m. Depreciation – This area is on target in September and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees – This area is over budget by $14,533 in September and over budget by $32,497 for the year. The over-run in September is primarily due to lower credit card fees.
- o. Other – This area is under budget by $9,135 in September and under budget $32,938 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $6.8K) and lower Governance (down $3.1K) offset by higher costs across all other (up $0.8K).
- p. Expense allocation – This area is over budget by $3,036 in September and is over budget by $12,145 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.
- q. Meeting services – This area is under budget by $15,657 in September and is under budget for the year by $66,649. The under-run in September is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $2.0K), lower Public Policy (down $3.4K), lower Research (down $5.0K), lower Governance (down $2.7K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $2.6K).
- r. Legal and Audit – This area is under budget by $2,989 in September and is under budget by $2,183 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower legal bills.
- s. Printing – This area is under budget by $3,899 in September and is under budget by $28,408 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $1.9K), lower Governance (down $1.0K), lower Research (down $2.1K) and lower across all other (down $0.7K), offset by higher Marketing (up $1.8K).

As I mentioned above, the month of September was a good month for the Academy. In addition, the Academy is in good financial shape after four months of the year!

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in September!! Revenue exceeded the budget by $145,203. In addition, expenses were under budget by $225,941. Overall, the Foundation had an operating surplus of $47,562. This was more than $371,000 better (lower) than the budget. Once you factor in the investment gains of $416.5K, the Foundation had a Net Income of over $464,000. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $110,000. This was the second payment of the support provided by CDR. As I mentioned last month, the CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year.

On the expense front, the largest variance was in Professional Fees (down $166.3K). The majority of this is from the EB4K project (down $153.3K). The majority of the remaining under-run in this area comes from the Nutrition Education for the public initiative (down $11.2K). The other major under-run was in Scholarships and Awards (down $29.5K). This appears to be timing.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $352.6K, expenses are down over $280.2K and the overall operating deficit of $406.3K is nearly $633K better (lower) than the budget. After you factor in the gains from investment income, the Foundation has net income for the year of $10,608. This is nearly $585K better than the budget.

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a mixed month in September. Revenues are $19,646 over budget. However, expenses were over budget by $35,454. Revenue was higher due to higher Registration and exam fees (up $18.9K), higher Publications (up $4.9K) offset by lower Weight Management program revenue (down $4.2K). Expenses were over budget in a few areas of significance; Travel (up $9.4K), Bank and Trust fees (up $16.2K), and Meetings (up $17.3K). Bank and Trust fees are the credit card fees association with registration renewal. This is an area where the expenses are on the rise. The other major areas, Travel and Meeting Services can be mapped back to the Specialty Practice Certification, Competency Assurance and Weight Management programs.

For the month, CDR had an operating deficit of $91K which was $15.8K worse (lower) than the budget. However, after factoring in Investment income of $165.4K, CDR ended the month with Net Income of $74.4K. This was $149.6K higher than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is performing well. Revenues are now higher than budget (up $10.4K). Expenses, through September, are lower by $100.3K. The investment income, year to date, is

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a great month in September. Revenue exceeded expectations (up $29.8K). In addition, expenses were lower than budget (down $17.7K). Once again, the overall Operating results reflected income for the DPGS/MIGS (+$128,761) which was higher than budget. The investment gains of $155,409 just makes the results better!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $536,493. This is $270,787 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves growing. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG still retains the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 70%). It has gone down in September, but there isn't anything to be concerned about at this time.

VII. ACEND (A13)

Overall, ACEND had another strong month in September. Even though revenues were lower (down $3.8K), it appears to be due to timing. Expenses were lower than budget as well (down $38.2K). The largest variance is in travel (down $21.5K). In addition, the other major variance is in personnel (down $10.0K). The personnel under run is due to vacant positions within ACEND.

Overall, ACEND had an operating and net surplus of $38,501 in September. This was $34,409 higher than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $90,283. This is $110,190 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $270,083.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC had a good month in September. Revenue was over budget by $2.6K while expenses were under budget by $19.5K. The under-run on expenses is due to the timing of Advertising and Promotion (down $10K), Travel (down $3K) and Candidate Contributions (down $6.5K). The Advertising and Travel may materialize in October with FNCE. So, these may be due to budget timing.

Year to date, the PAC is running just under its budget for revenue (down $1,167) and is also lower than budget on expense (down $9,869). Even though the PAC had a deficit in September of $13.8K, it is still in strong financial shape with reserves over $245K.

I will stop here on the summaries. I hope this helps. I look forward to our call on Tuesday. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know.

Have a great night.

- Investments for September were very strong. The combined portfolios gained approximately $1,190,700. October has continued this success so far. Through the close of business yesterday, the combined portfolios gained an additional $1,260,000 in October. Even though there are only five more trading days (including today) for October, it is still too early to tell how we might end the month. However, we have a strong foundation!!!

III. Academy September Financials (A10)

September, overall, was another good month for the Academy. Even though revenue fell short of the budget expectations by $9.6K, our expenses were under budget by $54.1K. The net result was an operating deficit that was $44.5K smaller than expected. The actual operating result was a deficit of $345,475. When you factor in the investment gains of $453,396 for the month, the Academy actually had Net Income of $107,921. This is $389,894 better than the budget.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,891,663. This is $268,436 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $1,773 while expenses for the year are lower by $266,663. As I mentioned last month, we still have some variances that could indicate revenue or expense concerns when you look at the detail. However, these are offset by some positive trends. This makes the net result, especially on the revenue side, look positive. It is nice to say that after 1/3rd of the year is completed, our revenue is exceeding budget!!

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

A. Revenues

a. Membership Dues - This area is under budget by $10,073 in September and is under budget by $34,195 for the year. As was the case in August, we think part of the under run could be a budget timing issue. We are also looking at the distribution of members in the graduated dues program to see how this compares to our budget. The good news is we do know our overall membership numbers are higher than last year. In addition, we saw our first FAND revenue get booked this month. This is $24,224 over budget and helping to offset the membership revenue shortfall. We will continue to monitor membership and hope to have some additional information at our next meeting in November.

b. Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $3,988 in September and is over budget by $2,383 for the year. The over-run in September is all due to higher Professional development revenue.

c. Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $17,350 in September and over budget by $104,848 for the year. The over-run in September is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $5.4K), NCP/SL sales (up $7.5K), higher List Rental (up $7.1K) and higher Guides for Practice (up $1.5K), offset by lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.1K).

d. Subscriptions – This area is under-budget by $2,973 in September and is under budget by $12,646 for the year. The under-run for September is due to lower NCM and related products (down $4.0K). This is offset by higher EAL (up $1.0).

e. Advertising – This area is on target in September and under budget by $19,485 for the year. Nothing was budgeted in September.

f. All grants - This area is over budget by $1,905 in September and is under budget by $5,733 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to the timing of recognition of grants such as ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $7.6K) and Carry the Flame (down $1.7K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $11.2K).

g. Sponsorships – This area is under budget by $20,000 in September and is under budget by $40,000 for the year. As was mentioned in August, this under-run is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be “conservative”. If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.

h. Other – This area was over budget by $225 in September and is over budget by $6,601 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

a. Personnel – This area is over budget by $5,838 in September and over budget by $20,059 for the year. The over-run in September is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.

- b. Publications – This area is under budget by $1,151 in September and over budget by $8,563 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $4.4K) offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $2.9K) and higher across all other (up $0.3K).
- c. Travel – This area was under budget by $41,993 in September and under budget by $101,869 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower Governance (down $22.7K), lower Informatics (down $3.0K), lower Public Policy (down $8.9K) and lower Marketing (down $7.5K) offset by higher across all other (up $0.1K).
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $2,752 in September and is under budget by $74,963 for the year. The under-run in September is being driven by lower Marketing (down $19.0K), lower Research (down $15.0K), lower Governance (down $2.4K), lower Traditional Publications (down $2.0K), offset by higher Web/IT expenses (up $21.5K), higher membership recruitment (up $12.7K) and higher across all other (up $1.4K).
- e. Postage and Mailing Service – This area is over budget by $11,394 in September and over budget by $8,185 for the year. This over-run in September is primarily due to higher Membership (up $1.9K) and higher Traditional Publications (up $9.5K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is under budget by $822 in September and under budget by $4,801 for the year. The over-run in September is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $3,282 in September and under budget by $8,998 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $1,954 in September and over budget by $9,680 for the year. The over-run in September is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.
- i. Commissions – This area is on target in September and is under budget by $3,897 for the year.
- j. Computer Expenses – This area is under budget by $2,432 in September and under budget by $7,263 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower IT maintenance and repair requirements.
- k. Advertising and Promotion – This area is under budget by $1,130 in September and under budget by $3,570 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower Traditional Publications (down $0.8K) and lower across other all areas of the business (down $0.3K).

- l. Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in September and is over budget by $2,037 for the year. The over-run in September is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.
- m. Depreciation – This area is on target in September and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees – This area is over budget by $14,533 in September and over budget by $32,497 for the year. The over-run in September is primarily due to lower credit card fees.
- o. Other – This area is under budget by $9,135 in September and under budget $32,938 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $6.8K) and lower Governance (down $3.1K) offset by higher costs across all other (up $0.8K).
- p. Expense allocation – This area is over budget by $3,036 in September and is over budget by $12,145 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.
- q. Meeting services – This area is under budget by $15,657 in September and is under budget for the year by $66,649. The under-run in September is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $2.0K), lower Public Policy (down $3.4K), lower Research (down $5.0K), lower Governance (down $2.7K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $2.6K).
- r. Legal and Audit – This area is under budget by $2,989 in September and is under budget by $2,183 for the year. The under-run in September is due to lower legal bills.
- s. Printing – This area is under budget by $3,899 in September and is under budget by $28,408 for the year. The under-run in September is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $1.9K), lower Governance (down $1.0K), lower Research (down $2.1K) and lower across all other (down $0.7K), offset by higher Marketing (up $1.8K).

As I mentioned above, the month of September was a good month for the Academy. In addition, the Academy is in good financial shape after four months of the year!

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in September!! Revenue exceeded the budget by $145,203. In addition, expenses were under budget by $225,941. Overall, the Foundation had an operating surplus of $47,562. This was more than $371,000 better (lower) than the budget. Once you factor in the investment gains of $416.5K, the Foundation had a Net Income of over $464,000. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $110,000. This was the second payment of the support provided by CDR. As I mentioned last month, the CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year.

On the expense front, the largest variance was in Professional Fees (down $166.3K). The majority of this is from the EB4K project (down $153.3K). The majority of the remaining under-run in this area comes from the Nutrition Education for the public initiative (down $11.2K). The other major under-run was in Scholarships and Awards (down $29.5K). This appears to be timing.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $352.6K, expenses are down over $280.2K and the overall operating deficit of $406.3K is nearly $633K better (lower) than the budget. After you factor in the gains from investment income, the Foundation has net income for the year of $10,608. This is nearly $585K better than the budget.

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a mixed month in September. Revenues are $19,646 over budget. However, expenses were over budget by $35,454. Revenue was higher due to higher Registration and exam fees (up $18.9K), higher Publications (up $4.9K) offset by lower Weight Management program revenue (down $4.2K). Expenses were over budget in a few areas of significance; Travel (up $9.4K), Bank and Trust fees (up $16.2K), and Meetings (up $17.3K). Bank and Trust fees are the credit card fees association with registration renewal. This is an area where the expenses are on the rise. The other major areas, Travel and Meeting Services can be mapped back to the Specialty Practice Certification, Competency Assurance and Weight Management programs.

For the month, CDR had an operating deficit of $91K which was $15.8K worse (lower) than the budget. However, after factoring in Investment income of $165.4K, CDR ended the month with Net Income of $74.4K. This was $149.6K higher than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is performing well. Revenues are now higher than budget (up $10.4K). Expenses, through September, are lower by $100.3K. The investment income, year to date, is

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a great month in September. Revenue exceeded expectations (up $29.8K). In addition, expenses were lower than budget (down $17.7K). Once again, the overall Operating results reflected income for the DPGS/MIGS (+$128,761) which was higher than budget. The investment gains of $155,409 just makes the results better!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $536,493. This is $270,787 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves growing. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG still retains the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 70%). It has gone down in September, but there isn't anything to be concerned about at this time.

VII. ACEND (A13)

Overall, ACEND had another strong month in September. Even though revenues were lower (down $3.8K), it appears to be due to timing. Expenses were lower than budget as well (down $38.2K). The largest variance is in travel (down $21.5K). In addition, the other major variance is in personnel (down $10.0K). The personnel under run is due to vacant positions within ACEND.

Overall, ACEND had an operating and net surplus of $38,501 in September. This was $34,409 higher than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $90,283. This is $110,190 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $270,083.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC had a good month in September. Revenue was over budget by $2.6K while expenses were under budget by $19.5K. The under-run on expenses is due to the timing of Advertising and Promotion (down $10K), Travel (down $3K) and Candidate Contributions (down $6.5K). The Advertising and Travel may materialize in October with FNCE. So, these may be due to budget timing.

Year to date, the PAC is running just under its budget for revenue (down $1,167) and is also lower than budget on expense (down $9,869). Even though the PAC had a deficit in September of $13.8K, it is still in strong financial shape with reserves over $245K.

I will stop here on the summaries. I hope this helps. I look forward to our call on Tuesday. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know.

Have a great night.

The talent and commitment from the Academy staff, once again, showed us that there is no bounds to what the Academy can do when we work together. We all thank you from the bottom of our hearts! All that taking care of us, is just a great prelude to the Southern Hospitality you will all be shown next year in Atlanta!!!!

Dear Staff,

Thank you for making the 2013 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo yet another great success! It would not have been possible without all your hard work preparing for and producing an unforgettable experience for attendees. Many Academy members stopped me and members of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors to offer positive comments about sessions, exhibits, and interactions with staff. Whether you were in Houston or at headquarters, your teamwork and commitment to serving our members is greatly valued.

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors, we appreciate all that you do to execute a successful FNCE!

Dear Staff,

Thank you for making the 2013 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo yet another great success! It would not have been possible without all your hard work preparing for and producing an unforgettable experience for attendees. Many Academy members stopped me and members of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors to offer positive comments about sessions, exhibits, and interactions with staff. Whether you were in Houston or at headquarters, your teamwork and commitment to serving our members is greatly valued.

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards of Directors, we appreciate all that you do to execute a successful FNCE!

Dear Donna,

FNCE is upon us! We are looking forward to successful events and the opportunity to network and thank Foundation donors and friends.

You will find attached the most up to date version of the Foundation's FNCE event schedule, talking points that can be utilized with members and with students about the Foundation, information about volunteering at the Foundation Booth and promotional information about Foundation events that can be sent to your colleagues.

We would like to assign Board Members to some donor cultivation and networking as schedules will permit. Please review the following assignments.

* Please volunteer for one hour during the conference to work the Foundation Booth. This is a great way to cultivate potential new donors. During your hour timeslot at the booth, we will ask you to assist in handing out student stipends and to network with members about the Foundation. Please see the attached information regarding the Foundation Booth. Please let me know by Wednesday, October 16th when you are available to volunteer at the Booth for a one hour timeslot during the following days/times.

Saturday, October 19

12:00 pm-2:00 pm or 2:00 pm- 4:00 pm

Sunday, October 20

9:30 am -10 am or 11:30 am -1:30 pm or 3:00 pm- 3:30 pm

Monday, October 21

9:30 am-10 am or 11:30-1:30

Tuesday, October 22

11:15 am -12 pm

* Thank Corporate Donors

You have been assigned to visit the following corporate donor's booths in the expo hall to thank them for their support of the Foundation:

Company/Booth number:

Hershey Company, The

1509

Kellogg Company

1219

Expo hours:

Sunday, October 20: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Monday, October 21: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Tuesday, October 22: 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

* Celebrate our Emeritus Level Donors at the Foundation Board of Directors Dinner, Saturday, October 19th, 6:30 pm. A list of Emeritus Donors attending the dinner will be shared with the Board shortly.

* Meet and Greet at the Foundation Donor Reception, Sunday, October 20th . While attending this special event, we ask that you thank attendees for their support of the Foundation. Members of the Eatright Society and State Fundraising Chairs are invited to attend.

* Gala Attendance: We want all of our Board Members to attend this year's Kid's Eat Right Gala on Monday, October 21st from 6:30-9:30 pm. If you cannot attend, please consider sponsoring a student or award winner so that they can attend the Gala. Please contact Foundation Staff at 312-899-4773 or foundationtemp@eatright.org to purchase a table or tickets. Please promote the Gala to your friends and colleagues. It is the social event of FNCE, after all!

* Promote Foundation Events to Colleagues We ask that you promote all of our Foundation Events to Friends and colleagues. Please cut and paste the attached promotional copy about Foundation events and send via email to your contacts.

* As you may know, the Academy has introduced the first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors. This free app is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE, and much more. To download the app for Apple<<https://itunes.apple.com/us/app/fnce-2013/id655362712?mt=8>> or Android<https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=a2z.Mobile.FNCE&feature=search_result?t=W251bGwsMSwyLDEsImEyei5Nb2JpbGUuRk5DRSJd> devices, visit the app store and type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions. We appreciate your support and look forward to seeing you in Houston!

Pearlie,

Attached is the pdf file for the AND position paper on interventions for the prevention and treatment of pediatric obesity. The paper was published this month. I just wanted to be sure our group was aware of this publication and thought it would be important to include in the reference materials for those attending the course.

Thanks,

Subject: Polling the Participants

While you are preparing your PowerPoint presentation for the November 2013 program, I just wanted to let you know that we have the capability to poll the participants using audience response devices. These devices were purchased at the request of the Level faculty; however, we can use them at all programs. Please let me know if you wish to add this to your presentation prior to the program; otherwise, the devices will not be shipped to the on-site program.

Thank you.

Dear Donna,

FNCE is upon us! We are looking forward to successful events and the opportunity to network and thank Foundation donors and friends.

You will find attached the most up to date version of the Foundation's FNCE event schedule, talking points that can be utilized with members and with students about the Foundation, information about volunteering at the Foundation Booth and promotional information about Foundation events that can be sent to your colleagues.

We would like to assign Board Members to some donor cultivation and networking as schedules will permit. Please review the following assignments.

· Please volunteer for one hour during the conference to work the Foundation Booth. This is a great way to cultivate potential new donors. During your hour timeslot at the booth, we will ask you to assist in handing out student stipends and to network with members about the Foundation. Please see the attached information regarding the Foundation Booth. Please let me know by Wednesday, October 16th when you are available to volunteer at the Booth for a one hour timeslot during the following days/times.

Saturday, October 19

12:00 pm-2:00 pm or 2:00 pm- 4:00 pm

Sunday, October 20

9:30 am -10 am or 11:30 am -1:30 pm or 3:00 pm- 3:30 pm

Monday, October 21

9:30 am-10 am or 11:30-1:30

Tuesday, October 22

11:15 am -12 pm

· Thank Corporate Donors

You have been assigned to visit the following corporate donor's booths in the expo hall to thank them for their support of the Foundation:

Company/Booth number:

Hershey Company, The

1509

1219

Expo hours:

Sunday, October 20: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Monday, October 21: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Tuesday, October 22: 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

- Celebrate our Emeritus Level Donors at the Foundation Board of Directors Dinner, Saturday, October 19th, 6:30 pm A list of Emeritus Donors attending the dinner will be shared with the Board shortly.
- Meet and Greet at the Foundation Donor Reception, Sunday, October 20th . While attending this special event, we ask that you thank attendees for their support of the Foundation. Members of the Eatright Society and State Fundraising Chairs are invited to attend.
- Gala Attendance: We want all of our Board Members to attend this year's Kid's Eat Right Gala on Monday, October 21st from 6:30-9:30 pm. If you cannot attend, please consider sponsoring a student or award winner so that they can attend the Gala. Please contact Foundation Staff at 312-899-4773 or foundationtemp@eatright.org to purchase a table or tickets. Please promote the Gala to your friends and colleagues. It is the social event of FNCE, after all!
- Promote Foundation Events to Colleagues We ask that you promote all of our Foundation Events to Friends and colleagues. Please cut and paste the attached promotional copy about Foundation events and send via email to your contacts.
- As you may know, the Academy has introduced the first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors. This free app is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE, and much more. To download the app for Apple or Android devices, visit the app store and type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions. We appreciate your support and look forward to seeing you in Houston!

All,

It has been brought to my attention that the closing ceremony for FNCE ends at 3:30. Since I know many of you would like to attend the end of FNCE, I am recommending we push back the FAC meeting until 3:45 p.m. This will allow everyone to attend FNCE's closing ceremony and still make it to the meeting room on time. Please let me know if this will be a problem for anyone. We will make sure the room available and the auditors are informed.

All,

Just a reminder that our meeting will be held at the Hilton in room 336AB. This is on the 3rd floor. I know we will need some time to get from the closing ceremony to the Hilton. So, we can push the start time back from 3:00 to 3:15. Jim Hagestad sent over to me today the "presentation" material he will use. I am attaching it for your review. It will also be put onto the portal in the morning. I know that both Milton and Ann cannot attend the meeting. If anyone else cannot attend, please let me know. Ann/Milton, if you have any specific questions you would like us to ask, please feel free to pass them along.

There has been a change to the final Board schedule for Saturday, October 19th. Please note that your attendance is highly encouraged between 3:00 pm – 3:30 pm for the Corporate Sponsor Meet and Greet in Room 350C GRBCC. From there, we will go to the Board Photo Shoot in the General Assembly Theater, which begins at 3:30 pm and will finish by 3:45 pm.

This will be reflected on your FNCE meeting schedule included in the program packets delivered to your rooms.

Thanks!

All,

It has been brought to my attention that the closing ceremony for FNCE ends at 3:30. Since I know many of you would like to attend the end of FNCE, I am recommending we push back the FAC meeting until 3:45 p.m. This will allow everyone to attend FNCE's closing ceremony and still make it to the meeting room on time. Please let me know if this will be a problem for anyone. We will make sure the room available and the auditors are informed.

All,

Just a reminder that our meeting will be held at the Hilton in room 336AB. This is on the 3rd floor. I know we will need some time to get from the closing ceremony to the Hilton. So, we can push the start time back from 3:00 to 3:15. Jim Hagestad sent over to me today the "presentation" material he will use. I am attaching it for your review. It will also be put onto the portal in the morning. I know that both Milton and Ann cannot attend the meeting. If anyone else cannot attend, please let me know. The following letter from Pat and Glenna has been sent to four leaders of Congress requesting the federal shutdown issue be resolved. We have provided several examples on how the shutdown is impacting the nutrition health of Americans.

We are hopeful that something will be resolved today however we felt it was important to be on record urging a solution. We know this has impacted our members and their clients.

Questions are welcome! See you soon.

Dear Donna,

FNCE is upon us! We are looking forward to successful events and the opportunity to network and thank Foundation donors and friends.

You will find attached the most up to date version of the Foundation's FNCE event schedule, talking points that can be utilized with members and with students about the Foundation, information about volunteering at the Foundation Booth and promotional information about Foundation events that can be sent to your colleagues.

We would like to assign Board Members to some donor cultivation and networking as schedules will permit. Please review the following assignments.

· Please volunteer for one hour during the conference to work the Foundation Booth. This is a great way to cultivate potential new donors. During your hour timeslot at the booth, we will ask you to assist in handing out student stipends and to network with members about the Foundation. Please see the attached information regarding the Foundation Booth. Please let me know by Wednesday, October 16th when you are available to volunteer at the Booth for a one hour timeslot during the following days/times.

Saturday, October 19

12:00 pm-2:00 pm or 2:00 pm- 4:00 pm

Sunday, October 20

9:30 am -10 am or 11:30 am -1:30 pm or 3:00 pm- 3:30 pm

Monday, October 21

9:30 am-10 am or 11:30-1:30

Tuesday, October 22

11:15 am -12 pm

· Thank Corporate Donors

You have been assigned to visit the following corporate donor's booths in the expo hall to thank them for their support of the Foundation:

Company/Booth number:

Hershey Company, The

1509

1219

Expo hours:

Sunday, October 20: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Monday, October 21: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Tuesday, October 22: 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

· Celebrate our Emeritus Level Donors at the Foundation Board of Directors Dinner, Saturday, October 19th, 6:30 pm A list of Emeritus Donors attending the dinner will be shared with the Board shortly.

· Meet and Greet at the Foundation Donor Reception, Sunday, October 20th . While attending this special event, we ask that you thank attendees for their support of the Foundation. Members of the Eatright Society and State Fundraising Chairs are invited to attend.

· Gala Attendance: We want all of our Board Members to attend this year's Kid's Eat Right Gala on Monday, October 21st from 6:30-9:30 pm. If you cannot attend, please consider sponsoring a student or award winner so that they can attend the Gala. Please contact Foundation Staff at 312-899-4773 or foundationtemp@eatright.org to purchase a table or tickets. Please promote the Gala to your friends and colleagues. It is the social event of FNCE, after all!

· Promote Foundation Events to Colleagues We ask that you promote all of our Foundation Events to Friends and colleagues. Please cut and paste the attached promotional copy about Foundation events and send via email to your contacts.

· As you may know, the Academy has introduced the first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors. This free app is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE, and much more. To download the app for Apple or Android devices, visit the app store and type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions. We appreciate your support and look forward to seeing you in Houston!

Subject: October Board Meeting
Attachment:

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the October 23 Board meeting are now available on the Board of Directors' communication platform. Please login to the platform using the link <http://academybod.webauthor.com> and enter your Academy website username and password. The agenda and attachments are located under the Library tab, 2013 Board Meetings, October Board Meeting. A paper packet will be delivered, together with your FNCE meeting materials, to your hotel room the day of your arrival in Houston.

Also in your Board packet you will have a highly confidential Plan for Potential Disruptions at FNCE. It includes an overview, trigger sessions, Academy contacts, potential case scenarios and action steps, talking points for sponsorship, continuing education and the expo floor. As discussed during the Board conference call, this document is highly confidential so it will distributed via hard copy, along with Dr. Covello's tips from the July retreat.

We are also cross checking the change.org list to our membership and should have some additional information to share with you onsite. Remember that change.org has been criticized for the fact that it is a for-profit business despite using the .org domain suffix rather than the commercial .com. The site has been accused of fooling its users and hiding the fact that it is "a for-profit entity that has an economic incentive to get people to sign petitions." It has been noted that change.org is being deliberately deceitful through the use of the.org name. We suspect that the members who did sign the petition are not aware that change.org is a for-profit corporation, and that the corporation plans on using the contact information being provided to them to earn revenue.

Items in your on arrival packet include a copy of the final Board FNCE schedule, the Board meeting packet, your designated exhibitor assignments prepared by the meetings team, FNCE badge, ribbon(s), program book, FNCE bag, House of Delegates meeting materials, confidential materials and general talking points prepared by Doris, in case you are asked to say a few words to different groups (DPGs, MIGs, affiliates, etc.). A copy of the script with instructions for those Board members (Ethan Bergman, Becky Dorner, Sonja Connor, Nancy Lewis, Donna Martin, Kathy McClusky, Mary Russell and Elise Smith) introducing Medallion recipients during the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 20 will also be included in the packet.

The Board meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 23 at the Hilton Americas-Houston hotel in Grand Ballroom L. Breakfast will be served at 7:00 am and the meeting will convene at 7:30 am. Sandra Gill is unable to attend the meeting. We have a number of guests participating: Dick Rogers of Readex will present the results of the Advanced Practice Audit, and Nancy Wooldridge, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) and Riva Touger-Decker, chair of CDR Advanced Clinical Nutrition Practice Audit Taskforce, will be present for the practice audit discussion; Sylvia Escott-Stump, our representative to the International Confederation of Dietetic Associations, Elena Paravantes, president of the American Overseas Dietetic Association (AODA), and Erin Boyd Kappelhof, immediate past president of AODA, will join us for the International Strategic Goals discussion; and James Hagestad, CPA, Senior Manager and Genevieve Burns, Partner of Plante Moran, will present the FY 2013 Audit Report. The Board will also have time to dialogue with the auditors during an executive session immediately following the Audit Report.

A Board dinner is scheduled for Tuesday evening, October 22 from 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm in the Presidential Suite #21029 in the Hilton Americas-Houston hotel, allowing for a relaxing and fun evening. Joan Schwaba should be contacted at jschwaba@eatright.org if you are planning on bringing a guest to the dinner.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and I look forward to seeing you soon!

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org
2. To login choose the "Login" option on the upper right-hand side of the page.
 1. Sign-in using your e-mail address and the password – welcome
 2. On the purple banner, hover over the "Portal" option on the right-hand side and choose the "Library" option from the drop-down menu.
 3. Click on the "November 2013 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts" link located to the left.
 4. Click on the "Upload Multiple Files" link located in the gray menu bar.
 5. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on "add files" button (lower left side)
 6. Browse for your file.
 7. Click open.
 8. To add another file choose "Add Files" button again to add another file to the list.
 9. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the "Start Upload" button (lower left side). When upload had finished press "Continue."
 10. Don't pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on "Complete Upload" bar.
 11. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

The due date for your PowerPoint presentation and handouts is Friday, November 8, 2013.

Thank you for your input. Attached is the final Board schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. Based on your feedback regarding the schedule, we strategically selected DPG/MIG events where we wanted Board presence. For those of you who have been assigned to DPG/MIG events, we have registered you and notified the DPG or MIG chair. You will be greeted by the chair; if not, please introduce yourself. Attached is a list of DPG and MIG chairs and chair-elects for reference.

Just a reminder, the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, and stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE. To download the app for Apple or Android devices, visit the app store, type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Subject: FNCE Board Schedule

Attached for your review is a draft schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. The schedule is not intended to reflect all the sessions you attend. We recognize that most of you hold multiple DPG and MIG memberships and that you will be attending affiliate, DPG and MIG business meetings and receptions on your own. We will register those of you who have specific DPG events designated on the Board FNCE schedule. Please let me know if an activity/session requiring Board representation is not reflected or if you have a conflict and are unable to attend an activity or session to which you were assigned. Since rooms and times may still change, a final copy of the schedule will be sent with your October meeting packet. Your meeting packet will also include the Honors script for those presenting Medallion awards to their Board Partners at the Honors Breakfast and your designated assignments from the Meetings Team for thanking our exhibitors.

Tickets for the Foundation Gala are purchased directly by you. The Foundation would like to challenge all Board members to consider sponsoring an Academy student member to attend the gala. To purchase a table or ticket, or sponsor a student, please contact Foundation staff at 1-800/877-1600, ext. 4773.

As you know, the Academy has introduced the first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors. This free app is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE, and much more. To download the app for Apple or Android devices, visit the app store and type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install.

Pearlie, I am glad to clarify the answer for the participant.

The new regulations require that a student pick up 3 different components at breakfast in order for the meal to be reimbursable. One of the components must be a fruit. Answer A has three different components (meat, grain and fruit) and contains a fruit. Answer B has 3 different components, but not a fruit. Answer C has only two different components, dairy and fruit. Answer D has only 2 different components, grain and fruit. Therefore, answer A is correct. If the participant would like to contact me, I would be happy to talk to them.

Hi Donna, a participant has a question about this pre-test question. Can you please provide me with a response. Thanks.

1. Which of these breakfast trays would be a reimbursable meal?

a) Sausage biscuit and 4 oz juice.

b) Milk and chicken biscuit.

c) Milk, 4 oz. juice and ½ cup fruit

d) 2 slices of toast and ½ cup fruit

Participant Question:

Can you clarify why the answer for #2 is a) Sausage biscuit and 4 oz of juice and not d) 2 slices of toast and 1/2 cup fruit? I will be honest, the article along with my own research I'm doing on the new guidelines have confused me slightly...although I understood there to be reimbursement for 3 food items selected out of 4 food items and 3 food components offered at Breakfast. And, "d" seemed to clarify the serving sizes to fit the food items criteria.

Paul, Everything looks good with the exception of slide 8. I think the figures should be 50% where the 71% and 77.9% are on the slides. I think the 71% and 77.9% represent the whole column and not just what is in blue? Correct me if I am wrong? I would prefer the parenthesis be for the whole column with the figures you used. I can say that the blue part is the 50% requirement level and that is how far above the requirement we are. I open for other suggestions though. Other than that I think it is fine.

Donna,

I think I have made all of the adjustments we discussed;

1. Page 1 - Changed your credentials to match page 2.
 2. Page 6 - I added some notes. I talked to Susan Burns and these are her highlights.
 3. Page 8 - Changed FY12 and added the percent of budget.
 4. Page 12 - In notes, I spelled out Nutrition Care Process/Standardize Language (NCP/SL).
 5. Page 13 - Added some explanations to what each category contains. Not much for each.
- The big one is "other" since it is so vague.

I also added spots where I think you had to "Click the mouse" to make the slides move. They are in red. If everything is good, I will send it over to Harold and his team.

Paul, Everything looks good with the exception of slide 8. I think the figures should be 50% where the 71% and 77.9% are on the slides. I think the 71% and 77.9% represent the whole column and not just what is in blue? Correct me if I am wrong? I would prefer the parenthesis be for the whole column with the figures you used. I can say that the blue part is the 50% requirement level and that is how far above the requirement we are. I open for other suggestions though. Other than that I think it is fine.

As per our practice, every year Board members visit the vendors on the exhibit floor to thank them for their participation in the Expo. Attached are your designated booth assignments; a paper copy will be provided in your onsite meeting packet. Be sure to stop by the Association for Nutrition and Foodservice Professionals (ANFP) booth #660. Their CEO, Joyce Gilbert, has requested that the ANFP booth have a banner showing our strengthened collaboration. Mary Beth Whalen is working with ANFP's marketing director to develop the phrasing, using the creative wording provided by Becky and Elise.

You will remember that you received communication about our reversal decision for the following exhibitors:

- Oxford Biomedical/LEAP-MRT (booth #1233)
- Nutrigenomix (booth #730)
- GenoVive (booth #1754)

When you visit the exhibits, you may hear from them, their supporters and their detractors. Please use the following talking points.

- Members value having an understanding of the variety of programs, products and services that are available to their clients and consumers in the marketplace.
- We need to share cutting-edge information with our members, even when evidence is lacking, as long as members practice safely and within their scope.
- Please provide us with scientifically valid information regarding the product to help in next year's evaluation.

Please read the attached letter regarding professional liability insurance that went out to affiliate, DPG and MIG leaders, as you may get a couple of questions. Please direct members with inquiries to the Marsh booth (#1042) where an insurance specialist can answer their specific questions.

Thank you!

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org
2. To login choose the “Login” option on the upper right-hand side of the page.
3. Sign-in using your e-mail address and the password – welcome
4. On the purple banner, hover over the “Portal” option on the right-hand side and choose the “Library” option from the drop-down menu.
5. Click on the “November 2013 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts” link located to the left.
6. Click on the “Upload Multiple Files” link located in the gray menu bar.
7. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on “add files” button (lower left side)
8. Browse for your file.
9. Click open.
10. To add another file choose “Add Files” button again to add another file to the list.
11. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the “Start Upload” button (lower left side). When upload had finished press “Continue.”
12. Don’t pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on “Complete Upload” bar.
13. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

The due date for your PowerPoint presentation and handouts is Friday, November 8, 2013.

Wonderful news! Elanco's animal health may be a growing interest for some of our students. I had an intern a couple of years ago from TX A&M. Her dad was a veterinarian and the company she worked with in high school (Hills dog food), told her she would be hired after her internship to work for them on animal nutrition. She did continue on with them--and BTW she wrote a great article for my website blog on comparing animal nutrition to humans and how to feed your pet healthfully.

Subject: Program Updates

I wanted to share some updates on two Foundation Programs, Kids Eat Right and the Future of Food.

For the past 11 years, the Foundation has partnered with the General Mills Foundation to provide $500,000 in annual grants for innovative nutrition and physical activity programs being implemented by 501c3 charities which enlist the expertise of registered dietitians. I am happy to share that the organization will provide the Foundation $1,000,000 (double the amount) in funding to make these grants available for 2014. In addition, the General Mills Foundation will provide the $100,000 administrative fee that they award the Foundation for managing the program and an additional $25,000 this year to pay for some necessary technology upgrades.

I also wanted to give you some more information about an exciting new sponsorship with Elanco, something that was briefly discussed during our last Academy Foundation Board call. Elanco is a worldwide leader in developing products and services that enhance animal health, wellness and performance. Elanco products contribute to the production of an abundant supply of food. They are new to the Foundation and their interest is related to our Future of Food initiative. This program with the National Dairy Council and Feeding America aligns nicely with Elanco's goal to be a leader in solving world hunger through safe and healthy consumption of animal protein.

Elanco has committed to a two-year $300,000 grant to the Foundation to raise awareness and educate Academy members and consumers about issues related to domestic and international food insecurity, and evidenced-based solutions to nutritiously and safely feed the world with plant and animal agriculture innovations. An advisory group of registered dietitians who have expertise in farming and agriculture will be formed as part of the project. The advisory group will be trusted informants in guiding the project and in developing educational outreach components of the project to members and to the public. As part of the project, the Foundation will develop:

- A toolkit on issues related to feeding the world, possible solutions including innovations in sustainable agriculture and the importance of animal protein.
- Two webinars on issues related to world food insecurity, roles of macro and micro-nutrients in advancing the health and wellness of developing countries, and global collaborations among the health, agriculture, and business professions to feed the planet.

- A story mapping workshop that includes content experts and Academy media spokespersons to develop a communications framework about consumer concerns related to sustainable agriculture and feeding the world.
- Presentations, educational sessions and panel discussions around the issue.

All this news is a lot to digest. If you have any questions about either initiative, just let me know.
Thanks.

Thanks for sharing this terrific news.

Great accomplishments and kudos to Susie and the Foundation team.

These are most helpful supporters in accomplishing our mutual goals.

I look forward to hearing the outcomes of these endeavors.

Also thank you to the Foundation for carefully managing these and all of our funds.

Subject: Program Updates

I wanted to share some updates on two Foundation Programs, Kids Eat Right and the Future of Food.

For the past 11 years, the Foundation has partnered with the General Mills Foundation to provide $500,000 in annual grants for innovative nutrition and physical activity programs being implemented by 501c3 charities which enlist the expertise of registered dietitians. I am happy to share that the organization will provide the Foundation $1,000,000 (double the amount) in funding to make these grants available for 2014. In addition, the General Mills Foundation will provide the $100,000 administrative fee that they award the Foundation for managing the program and an additional $25,000 this year to pay for some necessary technology upgrades.

I also wanted to give you some more information about an exciting new sponsorship with Elanco, something that was briefly discussed during our last Academy Foundation Board call. Elanco is a worldwide leader in developing products and services that enhance animal health, wellness and performance. Elanco products contribute to the production of an abundant supply of food. They are new to the Foundation and their interest is related to our Future of Food initiative. This program with the National Dairy Council and Feeding America aligns nicely with Elanco's goal to be a leader in solving world hunger through safe and healthy consumption of animal protein.

Elanco has committed to a two-year $300,000 grant to the Foundation to raise awareness and educate Academy members and consumers about issues related to domestic and international food insecurity, and evidenced-based solutions to nutritiously and safely feed the world with plant and animal agriculture innovations. An advisory group of registered dietitians who have expertise in farming and agriculture will be formed as part of the project. The advisory group will be trusted informants in guiding the project and in developing educational outreach components of the project to members and to the public. As part of the project, the Foundation will develop:

- A toolkit on issues related to feeding the world, possible solutions including innovations in sustainable agriculture and the importance of animal protein.
- Two webinars on issues related to world food insecurity, roles of macro and micro-nutrients in advancing the health and wellness of developing countries, and global collaborations among the health, agriculture, and business professions to feed the planet.
- A story mapping workshop that includes content experts and Academy media spokespersons to develop a communications framework about consumer concerns related to sustainable agriculture and feeding the world.
- Presentations, educational sessions and panel discussions around the issue.

All this news is a lot to digest. If you have any questions about either initiative, just let me know. Thanks.

2013 Edna and Robert Langholz International Nutrition Award and Lecture

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation is pleased to announce that former Academy Chief Science Officer, Esther Myers, PhD, RD, FADA, has been awarded the prestigious Edna and Robert Langholz International Nutrition Award. This award is presented to a person whose contribution to nutrition has had international significance. Dr. Myers had a distinguished career in the United States Air Force (1975-2000). After retiring from the Air Force she served as Chief Consultant to the USAF Surgeon General and then went on to serve as the Academy's Chief Science Officer (2000-2012).

Dr. Myers will present the Edna and Robert Langholz International lecture, at FNCE® on Monday, October 21 from 1:30 pm- 3:00pm in Room 342 of the George R. Brown Convention Center in Houston. The lecture will focus on the global harmonization within practice and its importance to the future of dietetics, particularly in resolving key global health issues on both ends of the spectrum: under and over nutrition.

We encourage all of Esther's colleagues to show their support and attend her lecture at FNCE®!

Subject: Availability - Locations for Spring /Summer 2014 Weight Management Programs

Importance: High

Hi everyone, thank you for providing your availability for the dates below. The March and April dates will not work based on your availability. It looks like we may be able schedule a program on June 18-21, 2014; however, the location may change. Please save this date on your calendar and will confirm later with the specifics.

We need to schedule a program prior to June 1, 2014 to meet budget. We have located availability in Buffalo, New York for May 19-21 (Monday to Wednesday) and May 28-30 (Thursday to Saturday – Memorial Day is May 26). Are you available?

Thanks Donna – It bounced back to me as well and I sent Robin a separate email directly to her.

I think you will really like the system. You can update it as you go and then submit it on the last day of the meeting.

Dear Finance and Audit Committee Members:

Attached are the instructions for submitting your expense reports using the web based electronic expense report system. The link to access the system is www.eatright.org/expense . Log in using the same username and password you currently use for eatright.org. The steps for using the system after signing in are below:

1. Click "Add New Expense Report".
2. Select your approver. (For the FAC that would be Paul Mifsud).
3. Fill in the information on the "Create Expense Report" screen.
4. Enter your expenses in the appropriate line by clicking on the yellow pencil icon.

5. Make a PDF of your receipts and upload a copy to the expense report by clicking "Add Receipt". (Note, you do not need to add a separate PDF for each receipt, one PDF of all receipts will work fine).

6. Lastly, click "Submit for Approval".

After the expense report is submitted for approval, the system will take over and you will receive your money quicker than using the old paper and pen method and dropping the report in the mail. I'm sure you will find using this system to be very efficient and intuitive. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me or Sylvia Jackson, Cash Processing Manager at 312-899-4883 or by email at SJackson@eatright.org.

Looking forward to seeing you all in Houston. As a reminder, the FAC meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, October 22, 2013 from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in meeting room 336AB at the Hilton. This is the third floor of the hotel and has a connecting bridge to the convention center.

Donna,

I shared the presentation with e-team and they had a few changes. First off, disregard my e-mail from a few minutes ago. You are right. It should have read FY13 and not FY14. That has been changed. So, the changes to this deck from the previous ones are as follows;

1. Page 6 - In the box we changed the note to say .where no food and nutrition professional has gone before.
2. Page 8 - I did change the FY to 13 from 14.
3. Page 10 - I added "capital infrastructure upgrades to the box.
4. Page 12 - This has change a lot since last week. Let me know your thoughts. The box on the bottom is the latest change.
5. Page 14 - I change the box to use the term ."external stakeholders" instead of "legislative issues". I also added a * to 2014 to reflect that it is a projection.
6. Page 17 - I changed bullet point 3. Some felt we needed to not limit ourselves to just public policy. That it needed to be broader. So, I changed it to ".activities across all areas of the Academy."

7. Page 18 - I changed bullet to use the term "external stakeholders" instead of legislators.

I think that is it. I know that I still want to provide additional commentary for you. I will continue that next. Let me know if we are good. Also, a final note; the charts on the slides keep changing size. I can't figure out why. So, if they get bigger on your pages, let me know.

Dear Finance and Audit Committee Members:

Attached are the instructions for submitting your expense reports using the web based electronic expense report system. The link to access the system is www.eatright.org/expense . Log in using the same username and password you currently use for eatright.org. The steps for using the system after signing in are below:

1. Click "Add New Expense Report".
2. Select your approver. (For the FAC that would be Paul Mifsud).
3. Fill in the information on the "Create Expense Report" screen.
4. Enter your expenses in the appropriate line by clicking on the yellow pencil icon.
5. Make a PDF of your receipts and upload a copy to the expense report by clicking "Add Receipt". (Note, you do not need to add a separate PDF for each receipt, one PDF of all receipts will work fine).
6. Lastly, click "Submit for Approval".

After the expense report is submitted for approval, the system will take over and you will receive your money quicker than using the old paper and pen method and dropping the report in the mail. I'm sure you will find using this system to be very efficient and intuitive. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me or Sylvia Jackson, Cash Processing Manager at 312-899-4883 or by email at SJackson@eatright.org .

Looking forward to seeing you all in Houston. As a reminder, the FAC meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, October 22, 2013 from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. in meeting room 336AB at the Hilton. This is the third floor of the hotel and has a connecting bridge to the convention center.

Thank you for participating in our Academy's partner program. Attached is the current 2013 partners list. If you haven't done so already, please initiate contact with your respective partner(s) prior to FNCE, offering congratulations and asking if she/he requires any assistance.

For those of you partnering with Medallion Award recipients, the medallion award presentations will be held during the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 20 from 7:00 am – 8:30 am in the Ballroom of the Americas AB of the Hilton Americas-Houston. Attached is the script to introduce the recipients during this recognition breakfast. The opening and closing remarks are provided by Ethan, as current chair of the Honors Committee.

The introductions follow the script.

Ethan Bergman/Opening Remarks

Becky Dorner/Suzanne Cryst

Kathy McClusky/Connie Diekman

Donna Martin/Dayle Hayes

Mary Russell/Dr. Mildred Mattfeldt-Beman

Sonja Connor/Dr. Mary Molt

Ethan Bergman/Dr. Nora Nyland

Elise Smith/Dianne Kammerer Polly

Nancy Lewis/Dr. Jamie Stang

Ethan Bergman/Closing Remarks

Please review your portion of the script. The citations were drafted by the nominators and have been approved by each recipient. Medallion recipients will be seated with their families and colleagues. As presenters, you will be seated together at one designated table, unless you were asked to be a guest of a Medallion recipient. Please proceed to the podium with your recipient during the applause for the previous recipient. Once the presentation is completed, proceed back to your seat. Each recipient has been asked to present for one (1) minute. If your schedule allows, please remain in the room immediately following the reception as we will be taking photographs.

A paper copy of the script will also be included with your FNCE meeting packet. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Matthew Novotny at mnovotny@eatright.org or 1-800/877-1600, ext. 4827.

Hello everyone, the contract for the May 28-30, 2014 Childhood Weight Management program has been signed. Please be sure that this program is included on your calendar.

Update for Denver program (November 22-24, 2013) – we have 115 registrants for this program. We are in the process of completing the contracts for the program. They will send the contract to you with the authorization to book travel to Denver by end of day this Thursday.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Subject: Availability - Locations for Spring /Summer 2014 Weight Management Programs

Importance: High

Hi everyone, thank you for providing your availability for the dates below. The March and April dates will not work based on your availability. It looks like we may be able schedule a program on June 18-21, 2014; however, the location may change. Please save this date on your calendar and will confirm later with the specifics.

We need to schedule a program prior to June 1, 2014 to meet budget. We have located availability in Buffalo, New York for May 19-21 (Monday to Wednesday) and May 28-30 (Thursday to Saturday – Memorial Day is May 26). Are you available?

Thank you.

Subject: Availability - Locations for Spring /Summer 2014 Weight Management Programs

Hello All,

We are beginning to explore options for Spring/Summer 2014 to schedule Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management Programs. We have located hotel availability as noted below. Please let me know if you are available. We are looking to schedule one program in March/April and one in June 2014. The locations will be selected based on faculty availability.

Annapolis, MD – March 9-12, 2014 or March 26-28, 2014

Providence, RI – April 30 – May 2, 2014

Indianapolis, IN – June 11-14, 2014

Columbus, OH – June 18-21, 2014 or June 24-28, 2014

Thank you.

Good morning. Last May we held a story mapping exercise focused on the hunger and obesity paradox. I wanted to share with you the final outcomes and story mapping communications plan. At the bottom of this email is the screen grab of the infographic that was developed and posted last week. On Facebook, the infographic and feature story on Eatright.org's reach included 6,006 views; 49 likes; 33 shares in less than 24 hours. On Twitter, there were 11 retweets and 1 favorite. Overall, the link was clicked from social media 399 times in that time period. I have attached the infographics in both its entirety and in separate pieces so you can more easily view it. I have also attached a copy of the press release distributed.

Following is the communications plan for October:

Week one

- Distribute infographics and other resources via social media including Monday Message (ongoing)
- Announce mini-grants as incentive for toolkit use and create report based on recipient feedback
- Distribute press release to media outlets and RD bloggers
- Post information on eatright.org homepage with link to infographics
- Share updated PowerPoint, handout, press release and infographics with Spokespeople

Week two

- Promote PowerPoint, press release and infographics via Eat Right Weekly

Week three

- Promote PowerPoint, press release and infographics via Eat Right Weekly

Week four

- Promote PowerPoint, press release and infographics via Eat Right Weekly

Date TBD

- Incorporate information into F&N magazine
- Share with DC office to distribute through LLPC

An existing toolkit was enhanced and a handout developed by incorporating outcomes from the story mapping exercise and the infographic. I will send these resources under separate cover. Both these resources are available for Kids Eat Right Members to access at www.kidseatright.org/volunteer. Below the infographic is the Monday Message which announces the mini-grants available for these toolkits. Thanks again to ConAgra Foods and the ConAgra Foods Foundation for their educational grant to make this workshop possible.

Hunger in Our Community Kids Eat Right Mini-Grant Opportunity

To support the use of the recently enhanced “Hunger in Our Community. What We Can Do” toolkit, 25 grants of $200 are available. Recipients of the mini-grants agree to give two presentations between October 28 and December 27, 2013, utilizing the presentations for adults or teens from the Hunger in Our Community toolkit.

Please see full application for details at www.eatright.org/foundation/kergrants. Applications are due October 18, 2013, and mini-grantees will be announced October 28, 2013.

The Hunger in Our Community toolkit is available at www.kidseatright.org/volunteer as a free download consisting of two ready-made presentations, suggested activities, and handouts for adults and teens.

This Hunger in Our Community Mini-Grant opportunity was made possible through an educational grant from the ConAgra Foods Foundation.

Innovations in Food Distribution and Nutrition Education at Food Banks

Take a tour of the nation's largest food bank — the Houston Food Bank.

Saturday, October 19, 2013

11:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Registration fee is $80, including a $20 donation to the Foundation.

2.5 CPE for attending the session at FNCE®

Deadline to register is Monday, October 7th

Through Kids Eat Right, the Foundation is working with Feeding America to raise awareness of the issue of nutrition and food insecurity. Take an insider's tour of the nation's largest Feeding America food bank, learn about their model programs, and participate in a lively discussion with national leaders about strategies to increase access to healthy foods for all Americans. Transportation and a box lunch will be provided. Space is limited. Sponsored by Walmart®.

To register for the Food Bank tour, go to www.eatright.org/FNCE/content.aspx?id=6442469305 or contact Linda Hudson at 312-899-4773 or lhudson@eatright.org.

Pat,

Thank you for these materials.

I look forward to our discussions this afternoon.

As I read the materials, one thought I had is if the group of Bachelor's DPD people with a designation (such as NDA) would possibly form subgroups over time. For example, some may choose to practice in Community Nutrition and form something similar to our current DPG's in that area. Similarly, those who are most interested in Consumer Nutrition Education might form a subgroup (or practice group) in that area.

Just a thought I wanted to share as we have our discussions.

Thanks and will talk with you soon.

Importance: High

Thank you for making yourself available to participate on the special teleconference of the Board of Directors to discuss the recent Board retreat motion related to the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs.

It was pointed out during the Board discussion that none of the designations under consideration were tested with potential recipients. Since the retreat, we surveyed student members and student non-members, and we will share those results with you on the call. I would also like to present for your consideration a new alternative that goes beyond a title recognition.

Please find the conference call information below.

Hello Everyone, Do you have a response you would like to share with this person?

Dear Sir:

I am writing in regard to the breadth of expertise represented on the Certification for Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management faculty.

While the faculty represents a diversity of skills, there is one that is not represented. I am assuming that those skilled in psychology/family dynamic issues and exercise are included? The one that is missing is lactation support – there are no International Board Certified Lactation Consultants (IBCLC) listed.

Evidence based research that indicates breastfeeding reduces risk of overweight/obesity for the baby into childhood and possibly for the mother. The potential for breastfeeding to reduce future overweight/obesity risk is important to share. While not all mothers will choose to breastfeed, health care providers are professionally obligated to provide evidence based information that could make a difference later. Providing professionals with adequate information, including preventative strategies like breastfeeding, would give families more choices and tools.

Please consider adding a professional trained in lactation support, such as an IBCLC, to the faculty. The addition would broaden the knowledge base and skills for those planning this important training.

Thank you.

Preceptor Recruitment Fair and Reception

Are you working in the field as a clinical dietitian, foodservice manager, community dietitian, or in one of the many dietetic careers that are available?

Do you enjoy teaching and mentoring students?

Are you wondering how you can meaningfully give back to your profession?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, we welcome you to attend the Preceptor Recruitment Fair and Reception sponsored by the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors Council at FNCE® this year!

The Reception and Recruitment Fair is held to honor our current preceptors, recruit new preceptors, and connect dietitians who want to mentor students with dietetic internships in their area.

The Preceptor Reception and Recruitment Fair will be held on Monday, October 21st 5:15 6:30 pm in the Ballroom of the Americas E & F at the Hilton Americas Hotel. Join us for an opportunity to meet and greet and learn how you can give back to the dietetics profession!

Contact preceptor@eatright.org for questions regarding how to become a preceptor or the Preceptor Recruitment Fair and Reception.

If you are an internship director and would like to also be a part of the preceptor recruitment fair, please contact Rayane AbuSabha, Vice Chair of NDEP, at abusar@sage.edu.

Subject: RE: MTC 3rd qtr report

Sonja, Since I work in School Nutrition and am familiar with the HUSSC awards, I wanted to put my few cents in on the subject. In terms of the 6 cent requirement for School Systems, that is a requirement that all schools on the program must meet. If you did not meet it last year, then the State Department would be coming out to your school system this year to do a review on your system, and make sure you are meeting the 6 cent requirement. By the end of this year I would predict that all school systems will have met that requirement. Therefore, that should no longer be a barrier. The real barriers in my mind are:

1. Proving that the teachers do not reward children's behavior with food.
2. Providing enough physical education minutes per week at the various grade levels.
3. Providing enough physical activity each week (recess, walking clubs).
4. Providing enough nutrition education for the students.
5. Ensuring you have an active Wellness Committee in each school.
6. Making sure all competitive foods sold in the school meet requirements.

Meeting the nutrition requirements are pretty easy, but the rest of the award criteria can be a daunting effort to accomplish.

I would be glad to answer anyone's questions they have about the award. All my Elementary and Middle Schools have received the Gold Healthier US School Challenge Award. I cannot get my High School to get rid of their concession stand during lunch that does not meet guidelines, so I do not even attempt to apply for them. Hope this helps some!

Hi Sonja. The USDA has pretty stringent guidelines to achieve the HUSSC awards. The 6 cent reimbursement requirement is really a barrier for food service. So much so that they don't want to go through all the paperwork required to meet the criteria. The RDs are there to provide technical assistance, but the USDA has now made it even more challenging. I spoke with those involved in the project and they don't think this is a state level issue, but a USDA requirement issue. Hope that helps.

Sonja, Since I work in School Nutrition and am familiar with the HUSSC awards, I wanted to put my few cents in on the subject. In terms of the 6 cent requirement for School Systems, that is a requirement that all schools on the program must meet. If you did not meet it last year, then the State Department would be coming out to your school system this year to do a review on your system, and make sure you are meeting the 6 cent requirement. By the end of this year I would predict that all school systems will have met that requirement. Therefore, that should no longer be a barrier. The real barriers in my mind are:

1. Proving that the teachers do not reward children's behavior with food.
2. Providing enough physical education minutes per week at the various grade levels.
3. Providing enough physical activity each week (recess, walking clubs).
4. Providing enough nutrition education for the students.
5. Ensuring you have an active Wellness Committee in each school.
6. Making sure all competitive foods sold in the school meet requirements.

Meeting the nutrition requirements are pretty easy, but the rest of the award criteria can be a daunting effort to accomplish.

Paul, I can talk to you anytime next week, basically, with the exception of Monday afternoon. Just give me a call. I think what Pat and the Executive team want us to do is just fine. I totally understand, and certainly do not want to stand up there while people take shots at me about sponsorship! I just might shoot back, and then you would have to come bail me out of jail. I suspect that would not be a good use of Academy funds!

Donna,

I shared the presentation with e-team and they had a few changes. First off, disregard my e-mail from a few minutes ago. You are right. It should have read FY13 and not FY14. That has been changed. So, the changes to this deck from the previous ones are as follows;

1. Page 6 - In the box we changed the note to say .where no food and nutrition professional has gone before.
2. Page 8 - I did change the FY to 13 from 14.
3. Page 10 - I added "capital infrastructure upgrades to the box.
4. Page 12 - This has change a lot since last week. Let me know your thoughts. The box on the bottom is the latest change.
5. Page 14 - I change the box to use the term ."external stakeholders" instead of "legislative issues". I also added a * to 2014 to reflect that it is a projection.

6. Page 17 - I changed bullet point 3. Some felt we needed to not limit ourselves to just public policy. That it needed to be broader. So, I changed it to ".activities across all areas of the Academy."

7. Page 18 - I changed bullet to use the term "external stakeholders" instead of legislators.

I think that is it. I know that I still want to provide additional commentary for you. I will continue that next. Let me know if we are good. Also, a final note; the charts on the slides keep changing size. I can't figure out why. So, if they get bigger on your pages, let me know.

Paul

Thank you for making yourself available to participate on the special teleconference of the Board of Directors to discuss the recent Board retreat motion related to the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs.

It was pointed out during the Board discussion that none of the designations under consideration were tested with potential recipients. Since the retreat, we surveyed student members and student non-members, and we will share those results with you on the call. I would also like to present for your consideration a new alternative that goes beyond a title recognition.

Please find the conference call information below.

Donna,

Lets target Wednesday morning at your convenience. My day is wide open. Let me know the time. I think we might need about an hour. If you want to do it after work on Tuesday, or any other day, please let me know.

Paul, I can talk to you anytime next week, basically, with the exception of Monday afternoon. Just give me a call. I think what Pat and the Executive team want us to do is just fine. I totally understand, and certainly do not want to stand up there while people take shots at me about sponsorship! I just might shoot back, and then you would have to come bail me out of jail. I suspect that would not be a good use of Academy funds!

Donna,

I shared the presentation with e-team and they had a few changes. First off, disregard my e-mail from a few minutes ago. You are right. It should have read FY13 and not FY14. That has been changed. So, the changes to this deck from the previous ones are as follows;

1. Page 6 – In the box we changed the note to say ...where no food and nutrition professional has gone before.
2. Page 8 – I did change the FY to 13 from 14.
3. Page 10 – I added “capital infrastructure upgrades to the box.
4. Page 12 – This has change a lot since last week. Let me know your thoughts. The box on the bottom is the latest change.
5. Page 14 – I change the box to use the term ...”external stakeholders” instead of “legislative issues”. I also added a * to 2014 to reflect that it is a projection.
6. Page 17 – I changed bullet point 3. Some felt we needed to not limit ourselves to just public policy. That it needed to be broader. So, I changed it to “...activities across all areas of the Academy.”
7. Page 18 – I changed bullet to use the term “external stakeholders” instead of legislators.

I think that is it. I know that I still want to provide additional commentary for you. I will continue that next. Let me know if we are good. Also, a final note; the charts on the slides keep changing size. I can't figure out why. So, if they get bigger on your pages, let me know.

Paul

Weight Management Certificate Programs

As a previous participant of the Certificate of Training in Adult Weight Management program or the Certificate of Training in Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management program, you are eligible to participate in the Level 2 Certificate of Training in Adult Weight Management program which is scheduled to be held on Friday, December 6, through Sunday, December 8, 2013 at the Renaissance Austin Hotel, 9721 Arboretum Blvd, Austin, Texas,. The registration deadline is November 20, 2013.

There are three components to this Level 2 program: a self-study module (30 hours of readings, activities, pre-test and a pre-work evaluation), a 2 1/2 day live workshop with a program evaluation, and a post test. You must pass the pre-test with a score of 80% to attend the workshop. After successful completion of the course and the take-home post-test, you will be awarded a Level 2 Certificate of Training in Adult Weight Management program certificate, suitable for framing. You will be awarded a total of 50 CPEUs for completing all three components.

All program participants will receive continuing professional education units; however, only those who pass the post-test will receive the certificate. Participants will only be given one opportunity to pass the post-test.

The program registration fee is $445.00 which is only $8.90 per CPEU. Registration includes access to the on-line self-study module and pre-test, 2 1/2 day on-site program and a take home post-test. Beverage breaks are included. Meals are not included. A $75.00 cancellation fee will apply once your registration has been processed.

You can obtain a registration brochure or additional information by visiting the CDR web site at <http://cdrnet.org/weight-management/level2>. To register for the program by telephone, please contact CDR Staff at 1/800-877-1600, ext. 4760 or 4783.

Donna,

I talked to Pat about the presentation. She had some concerns about page 12 that addressed Sponsorships. She did not want this to be “highlighted” because it could give the wrong impression. It could give the impression that sponsorships are going away. Which we both know is not the case. So, given the potential for controversy, I changed 12 to “funding sources” are declining. I could take out any reference to anything in it except the investment income. The investment income is declining over $1.2M, but, overall funding is declining only $800,000. However, I left in the box sponsorship, investment income and publications revenue. Pubs is going down about $50K.

The balance here is to give enough information, but, not too much that it causes more problems. In any event, let me know when you have some time to discuss this with me.

Paul

I wanted to share some updates on two Foundation Programs, Kids Eat Right and the Future of Food.

For the past 11 years, the Foundation has partnered with the General Mills Foundation to provide $500,000 in annual grants for innovative nutrition and physical activity programs being implemented by 501c3 charities which enlist the expertise of registered dietitians. I am happy to share that the organization will provide the Foundation $1,000,000 (double the amount) in funding to make these grants available for 2014. In addition, the General Mills Foundation will provide the $100,000 administrative fee that they award the Foundation for managing the program and an additional $25,000 this year to pay for some necessary technology upgrades.

I also wanted to give you some more information about an exciting new sponsorship with Elanco, something that was briefly discussed during our last Academy Foundation Board call. Elanco is a worldwide leader in developing products and services that enhance animal health, wellness and performance. Elanco products contribute to the production of an abundant supply of food. They are new to the Foundation and their interest is related to our Future of Food initiative. This program with the National Dairy Council and Feeding America aligns nicely with Elanco's goal to be a leader in solving world hunger through safe and healthy consumption of animal protein.

Elanco has committed to a two-year $300,000 grant to the Foundation to raise awareness and educate Academy members and consumers about issues related to domestic and international food insecurity, and evidenced-based solutions to nutritiously and safely feed the world with plant and animal agriculture innovations. An advisory group of registered dietitians who have expertise in farming and agriculture will be formed as part of the project. The advisory group will be trusted informants in guiding the project and in developing educational outreach components of the project to members and to the public. As part of the project, the Foundation will develop:

- A toolkit on issues related to feeding the world, possible solutions including innovations in sustainable agriculture and the importance of animal protein.
- Two webinars on issues related to world food insecurity, roles of macro and micro-nutrients in advancing the health and wellness of developing countries, and global collaborations among the health, agriculture, and business professions to feed the planet.
- A story mapping workshop that includes content experts and Academy media spokespersons to develop a communications framework about consumer concerns related to sustainable agriculture and feeding the world.
- Presentations, educational sessions and panel discussions around the issue.

All this news is a lot to digest. If you have any questions about either initiative, just let me know. Thanks.

I spoke with Ellen Lugar of General Mills yesterday. As you know they will receive our Corporate Award this year and she was genuinely pleased about that. They are so proud of their relationship with us and I told her how much these projects demonstrating the contributions of Registered Dietitians have meant to us, in addition to the services to the public which we have been able to provide. She said the call "made her day." See you soon.

Subject: Program Updates

I wanted to share some updates on two Foundation Programs, Kids Eat Right and the Future of Food.

For the past 11 years, the Foundation has partnered with the General Mills Foundation to provide $500,000 in annual grants for innovative nutrition and physical activity programs being implemented by 501c3 charities which enlist the expertise of registered dietitians. I am happy to share that the organization will provide the Foundation $1,000,000 (double the amount) in funding to make these grants available for 2014. In addition, the General Mills Foundation will provide the $100,000 administrative fee that they award the Foundation for managing the program and an additional $25,000 this year to pay for some necessary technology upgrades.

I also wanted to give you some more information about an exciting new sponsorship with Elanco, something that was briefly discussed during our last Academy Foundation Board call. Elanco is a worldwide leader in developing products and services that enhance animal health, wellness and performance. Elanco products contribute to the production of an abundant supply of food. They are new to the Foundation and their interest is related to our Future of Food initiative. This program with the National Dairy Council and Feeding America aligns nicely with Elanco's goal to be a leader in solving world hunger through safe and healthy consumption of animal protein.

Elanco has committed to a two-year $300,000 grant to the Foundation to raise awareness and educate Academy members and consumers about issues related to domestic and international food insecurity, and evidenced-based solutions to nutritiously and safely feed the world with plant and animal agriculture innovations. An advisory group of registered dietitians who have expertise in farming and agriculture will be formed as part of the project. The advisory group will be trusted informants in guiding the project and in developing educational outreach components of the project to members and to the public. As part of the project, the Foundation will develop:

- A toolkit on issues related to feeding the world, possible solutions including innovations in sustainable agriculture and the importance of animal protein.
- Two webinars on issues related to world food insecurity, roles of macro and micro-nutrients in advancing the health and wellness of developing countries, and global collaborations among the health, agriculture, and business professions to feed the planet.

- A story mapping workshop that includes content experts and Academy media spokespersons to develop a communications framework about consumer concerns related to sustainable agriculture and feeding the world.
- Presentations, educational sessions and panel discussions around the issue.

All this news is a lot to digest. If you have any questions about either initiative, just let me know.
Thanks.

Attached for your review is a draft schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. The schedule is not intended to reflect all the sessions you attend. We recognize that most of you hold multiple DPG and MIG memberships and that you will be attending affiliate, DPG and MIG business meetings and receptions on your own. We will register those of you who have specific DPG events designated on the Board FNCE schedule. Please let me know if an activity/session requiring Board representation is not reflected or if you have a conflict and are unable to attend an activity or session to which you were assigned. Since rooms and times may still change, a final copy of the schedule will be sent with your October meeting packet. Your meeting packet will also include the Honors script for those presenting Medallion awards to their Board Partners at the Honors Breakfast and your designated assignments from the Meetings Team for thanking our exhibitors.

Tickets for the Foundation Gala are purchased directly by you. The Foundation would like to challenge all Board members to consider sponsoring an Academy student member to attend the gala. To purchase a table or ticket, or sponsor a student, please contact Foundation staff at 1-800/877-1600, ext. 4773.

As you know, the Academy has introduced the first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors. This free app is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE, and much more. To download the app for Apple or Android devices, visit the app store and type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Paul, You make my life too easy, but I love it! The slides and comments look good. I think they will really get a lot out of this presentation if they pay attention! I don't see anything that needs changing. I think we need to leave the FNCE part alone. It would take the whole 15 minutes to explain the in's and out's of picking where FNCE is held.

Donna,

I put some notes into the presentation. There were a few items that came up during the FAC call;

1. Reserves - Explain what they are
2. FNCE decisions - how they are made
3. Revenue sources
4. Where Dues go.

There may be others. If there are, let me know. I think we cover these, with the exception of the FNCE decisions. This one is a tough one. I can add a slide to elaborate on FNCE. However, it is more complicated than most. It isn't easy to explain we try to get the best deal from the best city. Sometimes this means we go to a city with lower attendance. In any event, if you want me too, I can find a way to include a slide. Also remember, you can't discuss the guarantee from Houston.

I will keep working on this. I will put in the "clicks" for the presentation to help along with the comments. That is my next cut. Let me know if this helps.

Subject: Availability for Board of Directors Call

Importance: High

President Glenna McCollum is calling a special teleconference of the Board of Directors to discuss the recent Board retreat motion related to the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs: Move that the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs be Nutrition and Dietetics Associate. As a next step, the Board asked staff to determine the development and designation specifics.

It was pointed out during the Board discussion that some of the designations under consideration were not tested with potential recipients. Since the retreat, we surveyed 18,853 student members and non-members, and we would like to share those results with you. I would also like to present for your consideration a new alternative which addresses CDR's decision not to credential the baccalaureate graduate due to its practice audit results, but that does address the intent of the original motion passed by the Board in January 2012, namely, that our graduates obtain a designation that helps ensure safe, quality practice while enjoying competitive advantage in a marketplace that continues to experience a proliferation of new nutrition and dietetics related credentials.

Please complete the Doodle Poll by clicking on the link below to indicate your availability for a call. Thank you!

Subject: Kids Eat Right Program Updates

Happy Monday. I wanted to share some updates on two Foundation Programs, Kids Eat Right and the Future of Food.

For the past 11 years, the Foundation has partnered with the General Mills Foundation to provide $500,000 in annual grants for innovative nutrition and physical activity programs being implemented by 501c3 charities which enlist the expertise of registered dietitians. I am happy to share that the organization will provide the Foundation $1,000,000 (double the amount) in funding to make these grants available for 2014. In addition, the General Mills Foundation will provide the $100,000 administrative fee that they award the Foundation for managing the program and an additional $25,000 this year to pay for some necessary technology upgrades.

I also wanted to give you some more information about an exciting new sponsorship with Elanco, something that was briefly discussed during our last Academy Foundation Board call. Elanco is a worldwide leader in developing products and services that enhance animal health, wellness and performance. Elanco products contribute to the production of an abundant supply of food. They are new to the Foundation and their interest is related to our Future of Food initiative. This program with the National Dairy Council and Feeding America aligns nicely with Elanco's goal to be a leader in solving world hunger through safe and healthy consumption of animal protein.

Elanco has committed to a two-year $300,000 grant to the Foundation to raise awareness and educate Academy members and consumers about issues related to domestic and international food insecurity, and evidenced-based solutions to nutritiously and safely feed the world with plant and animal agriculture innovations. An advisory group of registered dietitians who have expertise in farming and agriculture will be formed as part of the project. The advisory group will be trusted informants in guiding the project and in developing educational outreach components of the project to members and to the public. As part of the project, the Foundation will develop:

- A toolkit on issues related to feeding the world, possible solutions including innovations in sustainable agriculture and the importance of animal protein.
- Two webinars on issues related to world food insecurity, roles of macro and micro-nutrients in advancing the health and wellness of developing countries, and global collaborations among the health, agriculture, and business professions to feed the planet.
- A story mapping workshop that includes content experts and Academy media spokespersons to develop a communications framework about consumer concerns related to sustainable agriculture and feeding the world.
- Presentations, educational sessions and panel discussions around the issue.

All this news is a lot to digest. If you have any questions about either initiative, just let me know. Thanks.

Hello Foundation BOD,

I'd like to let you know that I am leaving my position at the Foundation effective Wednesday, October 2, 2013.

I have enjoyed my almost five years here and I appreciate having had the opportunity to work with you all. Thank you for the support and encouragement you have shown me during my time here. Even though I will miss you, I am looking forward to starting a new phase of my career.

Thanks again and have a great time at FNCE.

Best Regards,

Subject: Board Vote: Award Criteria Update

To: Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation Board of Directors

From: Amy Donatell, Annual Fund Manager

The Foundation periodically receives requests to approve new criteria or to change existing criteria documents. These changes require board approval. Please review the request to approve one new criteria and a change to an existing criteria. Motions conducted via email require a unanimous vote and responses should be returned within five working days. Please approve or oppose this fund criteria via email to Amy Donatell at adonatell@eatright.org by Thursday, October 3rd.

The criteria documents are attached to this message for your information.

New Criteria: James and Susan Finn Fund.

The purpose of this fund is to commemorate the Academy's 100th anniversary and position the profession for the future. The fund should allow for funding of programmatic expenses associated with the 100th anniversary campaign.

Please approve or oppose the establishment of the James and Susan Finn Fund:

☒X___ Approve

☐___ Oppose

Changes to existing criteria: The Abbott Nutrition Fund

This fund was established in honor of Susan C. Finn, 1992-1993 Academy President, to recognize dietitians who make significant contributions to the importance of nutrition in women's health. The fund currently provides funding for the Abbott Award in Women's Health and The Abbott Renal Nutrition Grant. Abbott Nutrition would like to continue funding the Women's Health Award, however they would like to amend the criteria relating to the Renal Research Grant for the development of a new award. The Abbott Nutrition Alliance Award would recognize up to four Academy members on an annual basis working in a hospital setting who have made a significant contribution to improve awareness of malnutrition and taking action to address the issue. The ideal candidate would work as part of an interdisciplinary team with other healthcare professionals. The award will provide a $1,400 recognition prize for each recipient.

Please approve or oppose the requested changes to the Abbott Nutrition Fund:

☒X___ Approve

Thanks to all ... especially to folks on the front line like Amy Virus in Philly.

Personally, I feel like we have reached the tipping point in schools meals ... and it sure makes me smile!!

Thanks for sharing Jennifer, this is helpful information.

The School District of Philadelphia has been approached by the Mid Atlantic Regional Office of USDA to be a resource to talk about how the new requirements are working in large urban centers. We've struggled in the beginning, like many districts, but we feel now with the first year "under our belt" that we are meeting and exceeding the new guidelines.

We aren't sure what will be expected- whether it is talking to the media, speaking at profession event etc... but we are excited to be a part of the positive message surrounding school meals.

Undersecretary Concannon will be visiting Philadelphia on October 15th. We will be visiting Saul Agriculture HS, one of the largest urban Agriculture High Schools in the country. We are excited for his visit and look forward to talking about our efforts to incorporate salad greens grown on the grounds of the school into the cafeteria.

Lots of positive things are happening... Thanks everyone for the support in getting the message out!

Good afternoon.

Mary Pat and I were able to attend a sneak peek of the Pew Charitable Trust's Safe and Healthful Foods Project new study entitled, "Serving Healthy Meals: Despite challenges, schools meet USDA meal requirements". The Pew team, along with Mathematica Policy Research, gathered information from school food authorities nationwide, between August and December 2012, on the implementation of the new school meal standards. As member leaders in the school nutrition community we wanted to share the attached press release that highlights some of the research findings (Embargoed until September 30, please do not share widely).

Many of our friends and colleagues are leading the way in this area. What Mary Pat and I both got from this presentation today was that we need to continue to support the good work that is being done in school nutrition, while looking for solutions to the identified challenges.

We look forward to reading the full report when it is released next week.

Very best,

Please review the request to approve one new criteria and a change to an existing criteria. Motions conducted via email require a unanimous vote and responses should be returned within five working days. Please approve or oppose this fund criteria via email to Amy Donatell at adonatell@eatright.org by Thursday, October 3rd.

The criteria documents are attached to this message for your information.

New Criteria: James and Susan Finn Fund.

The purpose of this fund is to commemorate the Academy's 100th anniversary and position the profession for the future. The fund should allow for funding of programmatic expenses associated with the 100th anniversary campaign.

Please approve or oppose the establishment of the James and Susan Finn Fund:

Changes to existing criteria: The Abbott Nutrition Fund

This fund was established in honor of Susan C. Finn, 1992-1993 Academy President, to recognize dietitians who make significant contributions to the importance of nutrition in women's health. The fund currently provides funding for the Abbott Award in Women's Health and The Abbott Renal Nutrition Grant. Abbott Nutrition would like to continue funding the Women's Health Award, however they would like to amend the criteria relating to the Renal Research Grant for the development of a new award. The Abbott Nutrition Alliance Award would recognize up to four Academy members on an annual basis working in a hospital setting who have made a significant contribution to improve awareness of malnutrition and taking action to address the issue. The ideal candidate would work as part of an interdisciplinary team with other healthcare professionals. The award will provide a $1,400 recognition prize for each recipient.

Fortify Your Nutritional Value: Connecting Malnutrition Research to Clinical Practice

Sunday, October 20 8:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. Grand Ballroom C

The purpose of this session is to enable RDs to better communicate the value of their role and clinical expertise as it relates to providing quality of care in our current healthcare environment focused on high-quality patient care and cost reduction. Interactive polling and in-session activities will be included to maximize the learning. Presented by top-level sponsor, Academy Partner: Abbott Nutrition.

Preceptor Recruitment Fair and Reception

Sunday, October 21 5:15 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. Ballroom of the Americas E & F

The Reception and Recruitment Fair is held to honor our current preceptors, recruit new preceptors, and connect dietitians who want to mentor students with dietetic internships in their area. Join us for an opportunity to meet and greet and learn how you can give back to the dietetics profession!

Contact preceptor@eatright.org for questions regarding how to become a preceptor or the Preceptor Recruitment Fair and Reception.

Sustainable Nutrition: Will We Be Able to Feed the World in 2050?

Sunday, October 20 10:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. Grand Ballroom C

This session will allow RDs to gain insights and information that will assist them in communicating sound science on the issue of sustainable nutrition. Additionally, RDs will lead the effort to support the food insecure in the U.S. and communicate/educate about available resources to provide healthy foods to the food insecure. Presented by top-level sponsor, Academy Partner: National Dairy Council®.

Meet a Career Expert

Sign up for a private one-on-one consultation with a Career Expert to help find your first job or land your next big career move. Career Experts are available for students, new professionals and seasoned practitioners.

Students, not sure what to expect at FNCE®?

Check out the new FNCE 2013 Student Toolkit! This indispensable guide contains info on all of the opportunities and events you'll want to attend, tips on what to do before and during FNCE, and networking recommendations. This Toolkit has all you need to get the most out of your time at FNCE!

School Spirit: Bring Students to FNCE® Houston

Bringing students to the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo helps instill professional practice beliefs, values, attitudes, and behaviors that will prepare them for practice and lifelong learning. Give your students the best possible start in dietetics: Bring them to FNCE and be eligible to win.

For 2013, the Academy has decided to provide an opportunity to four dietetics education programs, one for each program type, Didactic Program in Dietetics, Dietetic Internship, Coordinated Program in Dietetics and Dietetic Technician Program. The four education programs that bring the highest percentage of students to FNCE will receive special recognition at FNCE with President Dr. Glenna McCollum, MPH, RDN and a complete set of FNCE 2013 DVD-ROMs ($349 value).

If you are interested in having your program considered for this opportunity, submit your total enrollment, number of students attending FNCE and the percentage this represents to students@eatright.org by Thursday, October 3. In case of a tie, a random drawing will be held of the programs with the highest percentage of attendees Nutrition is going Digital!

Tuesday, October 22 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

As health information technology is adopted in the United States, the Academy is working hard to ensure the inclusion of nutrition in electronic healthcare records and mobile applications. Come learn and share your experiences with your peers.

Interested in improving quality outcomes in your practice?

Tuesday, October 22 9:45 a.m. - 11:15 a.m.

Come and discuss the role of NCP/IDNT in the collection of outcomes data to improve quality and elevate the role of the RD in practice.

Continue to LEARN at an Expo Briefing

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is shining a spotlight on a variety of scientific and evidence-based topics presented by FNCE exhibitors at this year's Expo. Attend up to 3 Expo Briefings and earn CPE credit! Each session will last 20 minutes, and allow FNCE attendees to continue learning valuable information while at the Expo. Don't miss this opportunity. The Expo Briefing pavilion will be located behind booth 304 on the Expo floor. Check out the complete list of Expo Briefings on our Web site! Visit our booth to view the photos submitted by fellow Academy members for the 2013 Journal Photo Contest and cast your vote for your favorite. The winning entry will be featured on the cover of the Journal in 2014.

Don't forget to pick up your 2014 Journal calendar featuring 12 of the very best photos submitted last year and enter our prize drawing for a Nike+ FuelBand®.

Also, mark your calendars for the meet and greet with Editor-in-Chief Linda Snetselaar, PhD, RDN, LD, on Sunday, October 20, from 1-2 p.m.

Malnutrition Programs: How to Get Physicians on Board

Sunday, October 20 3:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Proper diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of malnutrition continue to be a growing concern among healthcare providers. Partnerships between MDs and RDNs are vital to addressing the problem, but how do RDNs get MDs on board? This session will provide the RDN and MD perspective on effective messaging and approaches for educating physicians, medical residents and medical students regarding the prevalence, etiology, characteristics and consequences of malnutrition in adult acute care patient populations. Listen to case study examples and glean insights from the field.

Subject: FNCE Board Schedule

Attached for your review is a draft schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. The schedule is not intended to reflect all the sessions you attend. We recognize that most of you hold multiple DPG and MIG memberships and that you will be attending affiliate, DPG and MIG business meetings and receptions on your own. We will register those of you who have specific DPG events designated on the Board FNCE schedule. Please let me know if an activity/session requiring Board representation is not reflected or if you have a conflict and are unable to attend an activity or session to which you were assigned. Since rooms and times may still change, a final copy of the schedule will be sent with your October meeting packet. Your meeting packet will also include the Honors script for those presenting Medallion awards to their Board Partners at the Honors Breakfast and your designated assignments from the Meetings Team for thanking our exhibitors.

Tickets for the Foundation Gala are purchased directly by you. The Foundation would like to challenge all Board members to consider sponsoring an Academy student member to attend the gala. To purchase a table or ticket, or sponsor a student, please contact Foundation staff at 1-800/877-1600, ext. 4773.

As you know, the Academy has introduced the first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo App for attendees and exhibitors. This free app is a great tool to use onsite to view session information, create your personalized schedule, map out your route on the Expo floor, stay up to date on the latest announcements during FNCE, and much more. To download the app for Apple or Android devices, visit the app store and type in FNCE 2013 in the search field and install.

I'm thrilled to share some good news with you, especially since this morning's news regarding the compensation study results were not as we may have hoped for or as "uplifting" as Lucille noted.

Food & Nutrition Magazine will now be distributed to over 2,500 waiting rooms in doctor's offices and hospitals, reaching an estimated audience reach of 50 million! This new initiative will officially be announced during the Food & Nutrition Conference and Expo.

In addition, during Hunger Action Month, the Academy is sharing the most recent issue of Food & Nutrition Magazine with millions nationwide. The Academy is working closely with CSPI and the national office of Food Day, to distribute the magazine at events taking place across the country on October 24.

Please be sure to read the September/October 2013 Food & Nutrition hunger issue as it explores food insecurity from domestic, global, institutional, policy and personal perspectives. Many thanks to Liz Spittler and Doris Acosta for continuously improving a great product!

Here is a follow-up to my earlier email. The overruns of Food & Nutrition Magazine will be distributed free on a bimonthly basis through an already established fulfillment and distribution service. The company we are working has an existing arrangement with doctor's offices and hospitals and will take care of fulfillment and distribution. The great news is there is no distribution cost for us. Through this free distribution arrangement, we are able to leverage our content and engage a new audience by providing them with quality information while promoting the RDN. This new initiative will officially be announced via social media during the Food & Nutrition Conference and Expo.

In the future, we will be looking into repackaging some of the content from Food & Nutrition Magazine for consumers, including information from Kids Eatright and promotion of Find a Nutrition Professional. Subject: Availability for Board of Directors Call

President Glenna McCollum is calling a special teleconference of the Board of Directors to discuss the recent Board retreat motion related to the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs: Move that the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs be Nutrition and Dietetics Associate. As a next step, the Board asked staff to determine the development and designation specifics.

It was pointed out during the Board discussion that some of the designations under consideration were not tested with potential recipients. Since the retreat, we surveyed 18,853 student members and non-members, and we would like to share those results with you. I would also like to present for your consideration a new alternative which addresses CDR's decision not to credential the baccalaureate graduate due to its practice audit results, but that does address the intent of the original motion passed by the Board in January 2012, namely, that our graduates obtain a designation that helps ensure safe, quality practice while enjoying competitive advantage in a marketplace that continues to experience a proliferation of new nutrition and dietetics related credentials.

Please complete the Doodle Poll by clicking on the link below to indicate your availability for a call. Thank you!

Subject: RE: Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, September 24, at 1 p.m. CDT

All,

The year is moving very quickly. I can't believe it is nearly the end of September. Next week, on Tuesday, September 24th at 1 .m. CDT, we will have our September Finance and Audit Committee meeting. I hope you all will be able to attend. Please look for the Webinar invitation from Eric Hayes as well as an e-mail from Maria Juarez when everything is on the portal. This month, we will be focusing on the July final financials, August preliminary financials and a FNCE financial update.

I. July Changes

There were no changes to the actual results for July. However, we did modify the monthly budgets slightly for CDR. This would only impact the distribution across the months and not the total annual budget. We hope this will be the last month that we make any changes to the budget. The monthly distributions may not be perfect, but, they should be close enough that any variances due to the budget distribution should be small.

II. Investments

As I mentioned on our last call, the investment portfolios were not performing well in August. The combined portfolios lost more than $983K in August and brings us back to a "break even". Since this is bad news, and I hate bad news, I will chalk it up to timing and talk about September!! As of September 18th, the combined Academy and Foundation portfolios have gained $1,960,000. So, I guess we have gained the $983K loss back and added a little extra.nearly $1M extra! So, we are approaching $2M in gains for the fiscal year. Hopefully, we will be able to hold onto these gains over the next few weeks. There are still 8 trading days left and a debt/budget deadline of October 1st looming in front of us. So, anything can happen between now and the end of the month.

III. Academy August Financials (A10)

August, overall, was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $2,772. Again, this was primarily driven by Publications (up $52,069). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $39,652. As always, there were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy's operating income being $52,424 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for August.

The investment loss of $372,553 did make the results look somewhat worse. However, as I mentioned above, this may be a timing issue. The final result was net loss of $677,805 for the month of August. This is far below budget and is being driven all by the investment losses.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,546,187. This is $223,964 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $11,351 while expenses for the year are lower by $212,612. So, even though some of the variances could be a concern, especially on the revenue side, the Academy will finish the first quarter doing better than the budget operationally.

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

A. Revenues

- a. Membership Dues - This area under budget by $18,676 in August and is under budget by $24,122 for the year. This could be a budget timing issue. We have looked at the number of members and the revenue we have received this year, through August, versus last year, through August. We are higher overall. This may play itself out over the next couple of months.
- b. Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $2,624 in August and is under budget by $1,605 for the year. The over-run in August is all due to higher Professional development revenue.
- c. Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $52,069 in August and over budget by $86,498 for the year. The over-run in August is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $26.0K), NCP/SL sales (up $37.0K), offset by lower List Rental (down $7.1K) and lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.0K).
- d. Subscriptions - This area is under-budget by $5,188 in August and is under budget by $9,674 for the year. The under-run for August is due to lower NCM and related products (down $5.1K). Last month I mentioned this could be a budget anomaly. This could be true. Rate increases will not take effect until October. This may have not been taken into consideration during the budget monthly distribution, resulting in higher monthly budgets in the beginning of the year. This may smooth itself out later in the year.
- e. Advertising - This area is over budget by $1,475 in August and under budget by $19,485 for the year. The month and year to date variance is all due to the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

- f. All grants - This area is under budget by $9,815 in August and is under budget by $7,638 for the year. The under-run August is primarily due to lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $8.5K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $1K).
- g. Sponsorships - This area is under budget by $20,000 in August and is under budget by $20,000 for the year. The under-run in August is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be "conservative". If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.
- h. Other - This area was over budget by $281 in August and is over budget by $6,377 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

- a. Personnel - This area is over budget by $3,275 in August and over budget by $14,221 for the year. The over-run in August is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.
- b. Publications - This area is under budget by $6,653 in August and over budget by $9,714 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).
- c. Travel - This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).
- e. Postage and Mailing Service - This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment - This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications - This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.

- i. Commissions - This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.
- j. Computer Expenses - This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.
- k. Advertising and Promotion - This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- l. Insurance - This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.
- m. Depreciation - This area is on target in August and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees - This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.
- o. Other - This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).
- p. Expense allocation - This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.
- q. Meeting services - This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)
- r. Legal and Audit - This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.
- s. Printing - This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874. Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

VII. ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to pay-out the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

The monthly distributions may not be perfect, but, they should be close enough that any variances due to the budget distribution should be small.

II. Investments

- As I mentioned on our last call, the investment portfolios were not performing well in August. The combined portfolios lost more than $983K in August and brings us back to a “break even”. Since this is bad news, and I hate bad news, I will chalk it up to timing and talk about September!! As of September 18th, the combined Academy and Foundation portfolios have gained $1,960,000. So, I guess we have gained the $983K loss back and added a little extra...nearly $1M extra! So, we are approaching $2M in gains for the fiscal year. Hopefully, we will be able to hold onto these gains over the next few weeks. There are still 8 trading days left and a debt/budget deadline of October 1st looming in front of us. So, anything can happen between now and the end of the month.

III. Academy August Financials (A10)

August, overall, was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $2,772. Again, this was primarily driven by Publications (up $52,069). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $39,652. As always, there were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy’s operating income being $52,424 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for August.

The investment loss of $372,553 did make the results look somewhat worse. However, as I mentioned above, this may be a timing issue. The final result was net loss of $677,805 for the month of August. This is far below budget and is being driven all by the investment losses.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,546,187. This is $223,964 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $11,351 while expenses for the year are lower by $212,612. So, even though some of the variances could be a concern, especially on the revenue side, the Academy will finish the first quarter doing better than the budget operationally.

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

A. Revenues

- a. Membership Dues - This area under budget by $18,676 in August and is under budget by $24,122 for the year. This could be a budget timing issue. We have looked at the number of members and the revenue we have received this year, through August, versus last year, through August. We are higher overall. This may play itself out over the next couple of months.
- b. Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $2,624 in August and is under budget by $1,605 for the year. The over-run in August is all due to higher Professional development revenue.
- c. Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $52,069 in August and over budget by $86,498 for the year. The over-run in August is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $26.0K), NCP/SL sales (up $37.0K), offset by lower List Rental (down $7.1K) and lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.0K).
- d. Subscriptions – This area is under-budget by $5,188 in August and is under budget by $9,674 for the year. The under-run for August is due to lower NCM and related products (down $5.1K). Last month I mentioned this could be a budget anomaly. This could be true. Rate increases will not take effect until October. This may have not been taken into consideration during the budget monthly distribution, resulting in higher monthly budgets in the beginning of the year. This may smooth itself out later in the year.
- e. Advertising – This area is over budget by $1,475 in August and under budget by $19,485 for the year. The month and year to date variance is all due to the Food and Nutrition Magazine.
- f. All grants - This area is under budget by $9,815 in August and is under budget by $7,638 for the year. The under-run August is primarily due to lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $8.5K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $1K).
- g. Sponsorships – This area is under budget by $20,000 in August and is under budget by $20,000 for the year. The under-run in August is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be “conservative”. If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.
- h. Other – This area was over budget by $281 in August and is over budget by $6,377 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

- a. Personnel – This area is over budget by $3,275 in August and over budget by $14,221 for the year. The over-run in August is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.

- b. Publications – This area is under budget by $6,653 in August and over budget by $9,714 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).
- c. Travel – This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).
- e. Postage and Mailing Service – This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.
- i. Commissions – This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.
- j. Computer Expenses – This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.
- k. Advertising and Promotion – This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- l. Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.
- m. Depreciation – This area is on target in August and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees – This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.
- o. Other – This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).

- p. Expense allocation – This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.
- q. Meeting services – This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)
- r. Legal and Audit – This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.
- s. Printing – This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874. Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

VII. ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to pay-out the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

Attached is a report (hot off the press) of the top line results from the 2013 Compensation and Benefits Survey. Some of the most interesting findings follow.

- RDNs essentially matched the two-year inflation rate of +3.4%, while DTRs, in reporting the same median salary as in 2011, lost ground relative to inflation. By way of providing context, an analysis of wage estimates for 24 allied health occupations reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics showed a weighted average mean hourly wage gain of 3.8% from May 2011 to May 2013. RDNs essentially kept pace, while DTRs lagged this benchmark.

- As in prior surveys, there is essentially no difference in median hourly earnings between practitioners working full-time and those working part-time.

- There is still a small wage premium associated with Academy membership, and with holding one or more of the specialty certifications asked about (which included, but were not limited to, the CDR "certified specialists" credentials).

- In a reversal of prior findings, those holding state licenses in 2013 have essentially reached parity with those not licensed.
- An analysis new to the 2013 survey compared the effect of RDNs entering the profession with a master's rather than a bachelor's degree. Median wage for those entering the field within the last five years and having a dietetics-related master's when registered is $23.08; for those with a bachelor's, $22.30. So the entry-level master's premium is currently $.78 per hour. A similar analysis comparing early career DTRs with associate's versus bachelor's preparation, however, showed no difference in median wage.

The top line results will be shared with members in next week's issue of Eat Right Weekly.

President Glenna McCollum is calling a special teleconference of the Board of Directors to discuss the recent Board retreat motion related to the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs: Move that the professional designation for graduates of baccalaureate degree DPD programs be Nutrition and Dietetics Associate. As a next step, the Board asked staff to determine the development and designation specifics.

It was pointed out during the Board discussion that some of the designations under consideration were not tested with potential recipients. Since the retreat, we surveyed 18,853 student members and non-members, and we would like to share those results with you. I would also like to present for your consideration a new alternative which addresses CDR's decision not to credential the baccalaureate graduate due to its practice audit results, but that does address the intent of the original motion passed by the Board in January 2012, namely, that our graduates obtain a designation that helps ensure safe, quality practice while enjoying competitive advantage in a marketplace that continues to experience a proliferation of new nutrition and dietetics related credentials.

Donna and Paul, when do you arrive in Houston? Maybe it would work best to meet to discuss either before the meeting (Thurs early eve or Friday sometime) or before/after the FAC meeting?

If those options don't work I will be flexible to meet your needs.

Happy fall!

Thanks Paul, great summary as always. Hoped the market would continue its stellar performance but not today! Will see how the month ends.

Paul and Donna, have been thinking about Pat's eval/comp/bonus as we get closer to planning FY 15 budget. Can we talk about this soon or at least schedule a little face time at FNCE?

Donna, of course don't want to rain on your parade but do want to "earn" my keep on FAC and BoD.

All,

The year is moving very quickly. I can't believe it is nearly the end of September. Next week, on Tuesday, September 24th at 1 .m. CDT, we will have our September Finance and Audit Committee meeting. I hope you all will be able to attend. Please look for the Webinar invitation from Eric Hayes as well as an e-mail from Maria Juarez when everything is on the portal. This month, we will be focusing on the July final financials, August preliminary financials and a FNCE financial update.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> I. <!--[endif]-->July Changes

There were no changes to the actual results for July. However, we did modify the monthly budgets slightly for CDR. This would only impact the distribution across the months and not the total annual budget. We hope this will be the last month that we make any changes to the budget. The monthly distributions may not be perfect, but, they should be close enough that any variances due to the budget distribution should be small.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> II. <!--[endif]-->Investments

A I mentioned on our last call, the investment portfolios were not performing well in August. The combined portfolios lost more than $983K in August and brings us back to a "break even". Since this is bad news, and I hate bad news, I will chalk it up to timing and talk about September!! As of September 18th, the combined Academy and Foundation portfolios have gained $1,960,000. So, I guess we have gained the $983K loss back and added a little extra.nearly $1M extra! So, we are approaching $2M in gains for the fiscal year. Hopefully, we will be able to hold onto these gains over the next few weeks. There are still 8 trading days left and a debt/budget deadline of October 1st looming in front of us. So, anything can happen between now and the end of the month.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> III. <!--[endif]-->Academy August Financials (A10)

August, overall, was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $2,772. Again, this was primarily driven by Publications (up $52,069). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $39,652. As always, there were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy's operating income being $52,424 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for August.

The investment loss of $372,553 did make the results look somewhat worse. However, as I mentioned above, this may be a timing issue J. The final result was net loss of $677,805 for the month of August. This is far below budget and is being driven all by the investment losses.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,546,187. This is $223,964 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $11,351 while expenses for the year are lower by $212,612. So, even though some of the variances could be a concern, especially on the revenue side, the Academy will finish the first quarter doing better than the budget operationally.

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

<!--[if !supportLists]-->A. <!--[endif]-->Revenues

<!--[if !supportLists]-->a. <!--[endif]-->Membership Dues - This area under budget by $18,676 in August and is under budget by $24,122 for the year. This could be a budget timing issue. We have looked at the number of members and the revenue we have received this year, through August, versus last year, through August. We are higher overall. This may play itself out over the next couple of months.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->b. <!--[endif]-->Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $2,624 in August and is under budget by $1,605 for the year. The over-run in August is all due to higher Professional development revenue.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->c. <!--[endif]-->Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $52,069 in August and over budget by $86,498 for the year. The over-run in August is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $26.0K), NCP/SL sales (up $37.0K), offset by lower List Rental (down $7.1K) and lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->d. <!--[endif]-->Subscriptions - This area is under-budget by $5,188 in August and is under budget by $9,674 for the year. The under-run for August is due to lower NCM and related products (down $5.1K). Last month I mentioned this could be a budget anomaly. This could be true. Rate increases will not take effect until October. This may have not been taken into consideration during the budget monthly distribution, resulting in higher monthly budgets in the beginning of the year. This may smooth itself out later in the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->e. <!--[endif]-->Advertising - This area is over budget by $1,475 in August and under budget by $19,485 for the year. The month and year to date variance is all due to the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->f. <!--[endif]-->All grants - This area is under budget by $9,815 in August and is under budget by $7,638 for the year. The under-run August is primarily due to lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $8.5K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $1K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->g. <!--[endif]-->Sponsorships - This area is under budget by $20,000 in August and is under budget by $20,000 for the year. The under-run in August is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be "conservative". If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->h. <!--[endif]-->Other - This area was over budget by $281 in August and is over budget by $6,377 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->B. <!--[endif]-->Expenses

<!--[if !supportLists]-->a. <!--[endif]-->Personnel - This area is over budget by $3,275 in August and over budget by $14,221 for the year. The over-run in August is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->b. <!--[endif]-->Publications - This area is under budget by $6,653 in August and over budget by $9,714 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->c. <!--[endif]-->Travel - This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->d. <!--[endif]-->Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->e. <!--[endif]-->Postage and Mailing Service - This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->f. <!--[endif]-->Office Supplies and Equipment - This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->g. <!--[endif]-->Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->h. <!--[endif]-->Telephone and communications - This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->i. <!--[endif]-->Commissions - This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->j. <!--[endif]-->Computer Expenses - This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->k. <!--[endif]-->Advertising and Promotion - This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->l. <!--[endif]-->Insurance - This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->m. <!--[endif]-->Depreciation - This area is on target in August and on target for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->n. <!--[endif]-->Bank and trust fees - This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->o. <!--[endif]-->Other - This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->p. <!--[endif]-->Expense allocation - This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->q. <!--[endif]-->Meeting services - This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)

<!--[if !supportLists]-->r. <!--[endif]-->Legal and Audit - This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->s. <!--[endif]-->Printing - This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> IV. <!--[endif]--> Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874. Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

<!--[if !supportLists]--> V. <!--[endif]--> CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VI. <!--[endif]-->DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VII. <!--[endif]--> ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to pay-out the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->VIII. <!--[endif]-->ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

Donna and Paul, when do you arrive in Houston? Maybe it would work best to meet to discuss either before the meeting (Thurs early eve or Friday sometime) or before/after the FAC meeting?

If those options don't work I will be flexible to meet your needs.

Thanks Paul, great summary as always. Hoped the market would continue its stellar performance but not today! Will see how the month ends.

Paul and Donna, have been thinking about Pat's eval/comp/bonus as we get closer to planning FY 15 budget. Can we talk about this soon or at least schedule a little face time at FNCE?

Donna, of course don't want to rain on your parade but do want to "earn" my keep on FAC and BoD.

Cheers,

All,

The year is moving very quickly. I can't believe it is nearly the end of September. Next week, on Tuesday, September 24th at 1 .m. CDT, we will have our September Finance and Audit Committee meeting. I hope you all will be able to attend. Please look for the Webinar invitation from Eric Hayes as well as an e-mail from Maria Juarez when everything is on the portal. This month, we will be focusing on the July final financials, August preliminary financials and a FNCE financial update.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> I. <!--[endif]-->July Changes

There were no changes to the actual results for July. However, we did modify the monthly budgets slightly for CDR. This would only impact the distribution across the months and not the total annual budget. We hope this will be the last month that we make any changes to the budget. The monthly distributions may not be perfect, but, they should be close enough that any variances due to the budget distribution should be small.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> II. <!--[endif]-->Investments

As I mentioned on our last call, the investment portfolios were not performing well in August. The combined portfolios lost more than $983K in August and brings us back to a "break even". Since this is bad news, and I hate bad news, I will chalk it up to timing and talk about September!! As of September 18th, the combined Academy and Foundation portfolios have gained $1,960,000. So, I guess we have gained the $983K loss back and added a little extra...nearly $1M extra! So, we are approaching $2M in gains for the fiscal year. Hopefully, we will be able to hold onto these gains over the next few weeks. There are still 8 trading days left and a debt/budget deadline of October 1st looming in front of us. So, anything can happen between now and the end of the month.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> III. <!--[endif]--> Academy August Financials (A10)

August, overall, was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $2,772. Again, this was primarily driven by Publications (up $52,069). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $39,652. As always, there were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy's operating income being $52,424 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for August.

The investment loss of $372,553 did make the results look somewhat worse. However, as I mentioned above, this may be a timing issue. The final result was net loss of $677,805 for the month of August. This is far below budget and is being driven all by the investment losses. Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,546,187. This is $223,964 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $11,351 while expenses for the year are lower by $212,612. So, even though some of the variances could be a concern, especially on the revenue side, the Academy will finish the first quarter doing better than the budget operationally.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> A. <!--[endif]--> Revenues

<!--[if !supportLists]--> a. <!--[endif]--> Membership Dues - This area under budget by $18,676 in August and is under budget by $24,122 for the year. This could be a budget timing issue. We have looked at the number of members and the revenue we have received this year, through August, versus last year, through August. We are higher overall. This may play itself out over the next couple of months.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> b. <!--[endif]--> Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $2,624 in August and is under budget by $1,605 for the year. The over-run in August is all due to higher Professional development revenue.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> c. <!--[endif]--> Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $52,069 in August and over budget by $86,498 for the year. The over-run in August is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $26.0K), NCP/SL sales (up $37.0K), offset by lower List Rental (down $7.1K) and lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]--> d. <!--[endif]--> Subscriptions – This area is under-budget by $5,188 in August and is under budget by $9,674 for the year. The under-run for August is due to lower NCM and related products (down $5.1K). Last month I mentioned this could be a budget anomaly. This could be true. Rate increases will not take effect until October. This may have not been taken into consideration during the budget monthly distribution, resulting in higher monthly budgets in the beginning of the year. This may smooth itself out later in the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->e. <!--[endif]-->Advertising – This area is over budget by $1,475 in August and under budget by $19,485 for the year. The month and year to date variance is all due to the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->f. <!--[endif]-->All grants - This area is under budget by $9,815 in August and is under budget by $7,638 for the year. The under-run August is primarily due to lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $8.5K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $1K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->g. <!--[endif]-->Sponsorships – This area is under budget by $20,000 in August and is under budget by $20,000 for the year. The under-run in August is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be “conservative”. If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->h. <!--[endif]-->Other – This area was over budget by $281 in August and is over budget by $6,377 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->B. <!--[endif]-->Expenses

<!--[if !supportLists]-->a. <!--[endif]-->Personnel – This area is over budget by $3,275 in August and over budget by $14,221 for the year. The over-run in August is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->b. <!--[endif]-->Publications – This area is under budget by $6,653 in August and over budget by $9,714 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->c. <!--[endif]-->Travel – This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->d. <!--[endif]-->Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->e. <!--[endif]-->Postage and Mailing Service – This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->f. <!--[endif]-->Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->g. <!--[endif]-->Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->h. <!--[endif]-->Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->i. <!--[endif]-->Commissions – This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->j. <!--[endif]-->Computer Expenses – This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->k. <!--[endif]-->Advertising and Promotion – This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->l. <!--[endif]-->Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->m. <!--[endif]-->Depreciation – This area is on target in August and on target for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->n. <!--[endif]-->Bank and trust fees – This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->o. <!--[endif]-->Other – This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->p. <!--[endif]-->Expense allocation – This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->q. <!--[endif]-->Meeting services – This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)

<!--[if !supportLists]-->r. <!--[endif]-->Legal and Audit – This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->s. <!--[endif]-->Printing – This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> IV. <!--[endif]--> Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874. Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

<!--[if !supportLists]--> V. <!--[endif]--> CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VI. <!--[endif]--> DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VII. <!--[endif]--> ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to pay-out the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->VIII. <!--[endif]-->ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

Donna,

I think I got the changes you suggested. I will continue to clean and tighten the work. I am off the next couple of days. I am going to see my son play soccer. However, I am available if you need to talk to me. You can call me on my cell phone at 630-750-8311. I will be on the call on Tuesday but, Christian will be running the show in the office. Let me know your thoughts.

Thanks Paul, great summary as always. Hoped the market would continue its stellar performance but not today! Will see how the month ends.

Paul and Donna, have been thinking about Pat's eval/comp/bonus as we get closer to planning FY 15 budget. Can we talk about this soon or at least schedule a little face time at FNCE?

Donna, of course don't want to rain on your parade but do want to "earn" my keep on FAC and BoD.

Cheers,
Mary

All,

The year is moving very quickly. I can't believe it is nearly the end of September. Next week, on Tuesday, September 24th at 1 .m. CDT, we will have our September Finance and Audit Committee meeting. I hope you all will be able to attend. Please look for the Webinar invitation from Eric Hayes as well as an e-mail from Maria Juarez when everything is on the portal. This month, we will be focusing on the July final financials, August preliminary financials and a FNCE financial update.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> I. <!--[endif]-->July Changes

There were no changes to the actual results for July. However, we did modify the monthly budgets slightly for CDR. This would only impact the distribution across the months and not the total annual budget. We hope this will be the last month that we make any changes to the budget. The monthly distributions may not be perfect, but, they should be close enough that any variances due to the budget distribution should be small.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> II. <!--[endif]-->Investments

As I mentioned on our last call, the investment portfolios were not performing well in August. The combined portfolios lost more than $983K in August and brings us back to a "break even". Since this is bad news, and I hate bad news, I will chalk it up to timing and talk about September!! As of September 18th, the combined Academy and Foundation portfolios have gained $1,960,000. So, I guess we have gained the $983K loss back and added a little extra.nearly $1M extra! So, we are approaching $2M in gains for the fiscal year. Hopefully, we will be able to hold onto these gains over the next few weeks. There are still 8 trading days left and a debt/budget deadline of October 1st looming in front of us. So, anything can happen between now and the end of the month.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> III. <!--[endif]-->Academy August Financials (A10)

August, overall, was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $2,772. Again, this was primarily driven by Publications (up $52,069). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $39,652. As always, there were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy's operating income being $52,424 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for August.

The investment loss of $372,553 did make the results look somewhat worse. However, as I mentioned above, this may be a timing issue J. The final result was net loss of $677,805 for the month of August. This is far below budget and is being driven all by the investment losses.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,546,187. This is $223,964 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $11,351 while expenses for the year are lower by $212,612. So, even though some of the variances could be a concern, especially on the revenue side, the Academy will finish the first quarter doing better than the budget operationally.

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

<!--[if !supportLists]-->A. <!--[endif]-->Revenues

<!--[if !supportLists]-->a. <!--[endif]-->Membership Dues - This area under budget by $18,676 in August and is under budget by $24,122 for the year. This could be a budget timing issue. We have looked at the number of members and the revenue we have received this year, through August, versus last year, through August. We are higher overall. This may play itself out over the next couple of months.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->b. <!--[endif]-->Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $2,624 in August and is under budget by $1,605 for the year. The over-run in August is all due to higher Professional development revenue.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->c. <!--[endif]-->Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $52,069 in August and over budget by $86,498 for the year. The over-run in August is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $26.0K), NCP/SL sales (up $37.0K), offset by lower List Rental (down $7.1K) and lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.0K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->d. <!--[endif]-->Subscriptions - This area is under-budget by $5,188 in August and is under budget by $9,674 for the year. The under-run for August is due to lower NCM and related products (down $5.1K). Last month I mentioned this could be a budget anomaly. This could be true. Rate increases will not take effect until October. This may have not been taken into consideration during the budget monthly distribution, resulting in higher monthly budgets in the beginning of the year. This may smooth itself out later in the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->e. <!--[endif]-->Advertising - This area is over budget by $1,475 in August and under budget by $19,485 for the year. The month and year to date variance is all due to the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->f. <!--[endif]-->All grants - This area is under budget by $9,815 in August and is under budget by $7,638 for the year. The under-run August is primarily due to lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $8.5K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $1K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->g. <!--[endif]-->Sponsorships - This area is under budget by $20,000 in August and is under budget by $20,000 for the year. The under-run in August is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be "conservative". If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.

Other - This area was over budget by $281 in August and is over budget by $6,377 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

Personnel - This area is over budget by $3,275 in August and over budget by $14,221 for the year. The over-run in August is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.

Publications - This area is under budget by $6,653 in August and over budget by $9,714 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).

Travel - This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).

Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).

Postage and Mailing Service - This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).

Office Supplies and Equipment - This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.

Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.

Telephone and communications - This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.

Commissions - This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->j. <!--[endif]-->Computer Expenses - This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->k. <!--[endif]-->Advertising and Promotion - This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->l. <!--[endif]-->Insurance - This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->m. <!--[endif]-->Depreciation - This area is on target in August and on target for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->n. <!--[endif]-->Bank and trust fees - This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->o. <!--[endif]-->Other - This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).

<!--[if !supportLists]-->p. <!--[endif]-->Expense allocation - This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->q. <!--[endif]-->Meeting services - This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)

<!--[if !supportLists]-->r. <!--[endif]-->Legal and Audit - This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->s. <!--[endif]-->Printing - This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> IV. <!--[endif]--> Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874.

Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

<!--[if !supportLists]--> V. <!--[endif]--> CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VI. <!--[endif]-->DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

<!--[if !supportLists]--> VII. <!--[endif]--> ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to payout the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->VIII. <!--[endif]-->ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

Thanks Paul, great summary as always. Hoped the market would continue its stellar performance but not today! Will see how the month ends.

Paul and Donna, have been thinking about Pat's eval/comp/bonus as we get closer to planning FY 15 budget. Can we talk about this soon or at least schedule a little face time at FNCE?

Donna, of course don't want to rain on your parade but do want to "earn" my keep on FAC and BoD.

All,

The year is moving very quickly. I can't believe it is nearly the end of September. Next week, on Tuesday, September 24th at 1 .m. CDT, we will have our September Finance and Audit Committee meeting. I hope you all will be able to attend. Please look for the Webinar invitation from Eric Hayes as well as an e-mail from Maria Juarez when everything is on the portal. This month, we will be focusing on the July final financials, August preliminary financials and a FNCE financial update.

I. July Changes

There were no changes to the actual results for July. However, we did modify the monthly budgets slightly for CDR. This would only impact the distribution across the months and not the total annual budget. We hope this will be the last month that we make any changes to the budget. The monthly distributions may not be perfect, but, they should be close enough that any variances due to the budget distribution should be small.

As I mentioned on our last call, the investment portfolios were not performing well in August. The combined portfolios lost more than $983K in August and brings us back to a “break even”. Since this is bad news, and I hate bad news, I will chalk it up to timing and talk about September!! As of September 18th, the combined Academy and Foundation portfolios have gained $1,960,000. So, I guess we have gained the $983K loss back and added a little extra...nearly $1M extra! So, we are approaching $2M in gains for the fiscal year. Hopefully, we will be able to hold onto these gains over the next few weeks. There are still 8 trading days left and a debt/budget deadline of October 1st looming in front of us. So, anything can happen between now and the end of the month.

III. Academy August Financials (A10)

August, overall, was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $2,772. Again, this was primarily driven by Publications (up $52,069). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $39,652. As always, there were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy's operating income being $52,424 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for August.

The investment loss of $372,553 did make the results look somewhat worse. However, as I mentioned above, this may be a timing issue J. The final result was net loss of $677,805 for the month of August. This is far below budget and is being driven all by the investment losses.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,546,187. This is $223,964 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $11,351 while expenses for the year are lower by $212,612. So, even though some of the variances could be a concern, especially on the revenue side, the Academy will finish the first quarter doing better than the budget operationally.

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

A. Revenues

- a. Membership Dues - This area under budget by $18,676 in August and is under budget by $24,122 for the year. This could be a budget timing issue. We have looked at the number of members and the revenue we have received this year, through August, versus last year, through August. We are higher overall. This may play itself out over the next couple of months.
- b. Programs and Meetings - This area is over budget by $2,624 in August and is under budget by $1,605 for the year. The over-run in August is all due to higher Professional development revenue.
- c. Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $52,069 in August and over budget by $86,498 for the year. The over-run in August is primarily due to Traditional Publication sales (up $26.0K), NCP/SL sales (up $37.0K), offset by lower List Rental (down $7.1K) and lower Marketing sales (down $3.0K) and lower all other (down $1.0K).
- d. Subscriptions – This area is under-budget by $5,188 in August and is under budget by $9,674 for the year. The under-run for August is due to lower NCM and related products (down $5.1K). Last month I mentioned this could be a budget anomaly. This could be true. Rate increases will not take effect until October. This may have not been taken into consideration during the budget monthly distribution, resulting in higher monthly budgets in the beginning of the year. This may smooth itself out later in the year.
- e. Advertising – This area is over budget by $1,475 in August and under budget by $19,485 for the year. The month and year to date variance is all due to the Food and Nutrition Magazine.
- f. All grants - This area is under budget by $9,815 in August and is under budget by $7,638 for the year. The under-run August is primarily due to lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $8.5K) offset by higher Research Grants (up $1K).
- g. Sponsorships – This area is under budget by $20,000 in August and is under budget by $20,000 for the year. The under-run in August is due to expiring Sponsorships not being renewed and reductions in Sponsorship agreements. At this time, it looks like the Academy will fall short of the FY14 budget. The Marketing team is working on securing new Sponsors. However, these may not materialize. Therefore, we are beginning to reduce our revenue projects to be “conservative”. If new Sponsors are found, it will be a alter this course.
- h. Other – This area was over budget by $281 in August and is over budget by $6,377 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

- a. Personnel – This area is over budget by $3,275 in August and over budget by $14,221 for the year. The over-run in August is due to costs associated with turn-over, both voluntary and involuntary, and the need for temporarily help to fill both vacant positions and to support positions where individuals are on sick leave.
- b. Publications – This area is under budget by $6,653 in August and over budget by $9,714 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).
- c. Travel – This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).
- e. Postage and Mailing Service – This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.
- i. Commissions – This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

- j. Computer Expenses – This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.
- k. Advertising and Promotion – This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- l. Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.
- m. Depreciation – This area is on target in August and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees – This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.
- o. Other – This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).
- p. Expense allocation – This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.
- q. Meeting services – This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)
- r. Legal and Audit – This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.
- s. Printing – This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874. Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

VII. ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to pay-out the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Journal costs (down $7.9K) and lower Food and Nutrition Magazine costs (down $2.8K), offset by higher Traditional Publications (up $4.0K).
- c. Travel – This area was under budget by $14,097 in August and under budget by $59,876 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower Research (down $2.6K), lower Informatics (down $2.2K), lower Public Policy (down $6.6K) and lower across all other (down $2.7K).
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $15,557 in August and is under budget by $72,211 for the year. The under-run in August is being driven by lower Journal (down $3.0K), lower Marketing (down $10.0 K), lower membership (down $13.0K) and lower Research (down $18.6K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $12.8K), higher Governance (up $7.5K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.6K) and higher across all other (up $5.1K).
- e. Postage and Mailing Service – This area is over budget by $4,233 in August and under budget by $3,209 for the year. This over-run in August is primarily due to higher Food and Nutrition Magazine (up $2.0K), higher Traditional Publications (up $1.0K), up across all other (up $1.0K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is over budget by $785 in August and under budget by $3,978 for the year. The over-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $1,224 in August and under budget by $5,715 for the year. The under-run in August is due to lower utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $835 in August and over budget by $7,726 for the year. The over-run in August is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.
- i. Commissions – This area is over budget by $295 in August and is under budget by $3,897 for the year. The over-run in August is due to higher Ad revenue for the Food and Nutrition Magazine.

- j. Computer Expenses – This area is over budget by $7,502 for August and under budget by $4,831 for the year. The over-run in August is due to IT maintenance and repair requirements.
- k. Advertising and Promotion – This area is under budget by $1,537 in August and under budget by $2,439 for the year. The under-run in August is across all areas of the business.
- l. Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in August and is over budget by $1,527 for the year. The over-run in August is due to slightly higher insurance premiums and will continue for the year.
- m. Depreciation – This area is on target in August and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees – This area is under budget by $2,441 in August and over budget by $17,964 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower credit card fees.
- o. Other – This area is under budget by $5,479 in August and under budget $23,803 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $1.7K), lower Public Policy (down $1.3K) and lower across all other (down $2.5K).
- p. Expense allocation – This area is over budget by $9,109 in August and is over budget by $9,109 for the year. This is due to the recognition of expenses for the ANDII database supported by CDR.
- q. Meeting services – This area is under budget by $10,154 in August and is under budget for the year by $50,992. The under-run in August is being driven primarily by lower Marketing (down $6.3K), lower Public Policy (down $1.6K), lower Research (down $1.9K) and lower across all other areas of the business (down $0.3K)
- r. Legal and Audit – This area is on target in August and is over budget by $803 for the year.
- s. Printing – This area is under budget by $834 in August and is under budget by $24,509 for the year. The under-run in August is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $6.3K) offset by higher Marketing (down $5.4K).

As I mentioned above, the month of August was a good month for the Academy. We have some concerns on revenue. However, we have some good news as well. We will need to continue monitoring the revenue as we progress through the year.

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in August with the exception of the investment returns. Revenue exceeded the budget by $148,361. In addition, expenses were under budget by $1,874. Overall, the Foundation had operating deficit of $365,395. This was more than $150,000 better (lower) than the budget. We won't talk about the investments. Revenue was over budget primarily due to CDR support of $150,000. CDR support was not budgeted because CDR had not yet approved the continuation of their support when the budget was developed. This will be over budget all year. The expenses do not have any major variance. Most of them can be attributed to timing at this stage.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up over $207K, expenses are down over $54K and the overall operating deficit is nearly $262K better (lower) than the budget. If it were not for the investment income, the Foundation would be having an all-star year. Hopefully, September's results will put them back in the game!

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in August. Revenues are $6,766 over budget while expenses are $101,651 under budget. The expenses can be mapped to two major projects; Specialty Certification (down $67K) and Advanced Level Practice Audit Committee (down $35K). There are other variances, but, these stand out the most. For the month of August, CDR had an operating deficit of $335,115 which was significantly lower than the budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are still a little lower than budget (down by $9,268). Expenses, through August, are lower by $135,733. The investment income, year to date, is actually a loss of $9K. Even with this loss, CDR's Net deficit was $117,160 smaller than the original budget. With the investment results from September, this should turn around.

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in August. Revenue did not meet expectations (down by $48,774). However, expenses were also down (down by $63,895). As I mentioned last month, the key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the operating income. In August, this was $100,209!! Very nice result. Like everyone else, we will ignore the investment losses!!!

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. They have a combined net income of $252,322. This is $67,868 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will keep reserves in a good spot. As you can see on page A16, only one MIG is still in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 73%). It has gone up in August.

VII. ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in August. Revenues were higher (up $7,521) while expenses were slightly over budget (up by $3,506). The over-run in expenses is essentially due to the accumulated vacation paid to the former Executive Director. When he left, we are required to pay-out the vacation. Since this position has not been filled, this should even out in September. Overall, ACEND had an operating and net deficit of $3,122. This was $4,016 better (lower) than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has an operating and net income of $51,782. This is $75,781 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $231,582.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC's revenues and expenses were not up to the budget, but, they had a good month in August. Revenue was down slightly (down $927). Expenses were over budget by $1,500. The over-run on the budget is due to additional contributions to candidates than was budgeted. Not a bad thing to do. The PAC reserves ($259,004) can handle the additional contributions.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $3,739) and higher on expense (up $9,667). The revenue is trending downward and could be a concern. However, the PAC leadership is working to turn the revenue upward. That, coupled with the large reserves, puts the PAC in very good financial shape.

I will stop here on the summaries. They are light, but, there isn't too much to be concerned about overall. It seems our biggest problem in August was the investment returns. September looks to turn that around.

Have a great night.

Good morning,

Great question. Currently, all individuals using the "public" link receive the following message:

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Actions Completed

Alert Name (Oppose Cuts to Nutrition Programs)

Thank you for taking action.

We have experienced a few situations (less than 10) where the address of the individual could not be verified. In these circumstances, I have worked with our contractor to resolve the issue as quickly as possible. Normally it is an easy resolution. The system uses the home address and zip code to identify the legislators. So if the address is not accurate, the legislators' names will not appear thus stopping the individual from continuing with the action alert. In the last two days, I have worked with approximately 25 members to resolve issues for them, the most common was the prefix field not completed.

We have had 2,548 letters sent to Representatives. We have seen more timely participation in our "public" links which is exciting.

If you have additional questions, please contact us.

Best,
Teresa

Margaret,

We have only recently begun to have "public" action alerts. I am including Teresa on this message so she can respond. We have had many public members respond to our previous action alert for the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act.

Interestingly, yesterday Teresa worked with a non-member RD to complete the alert who was having issues with her address. We have frequently noted that many of the Academy's efforts benefit the profession not just members, this is a poignant example.

Hi there,

I'm the Public Policy Coordinator for Maine and just wanted to send an update on the Farm Bill LTE's. I invited the other members of our Public Policy Panel to share in the process of sending letters to our various newspapers throughout the state but did not get an overwhelming response, so I sent out a letter to several of the larger papers myself. Three out of the four that I sent it to have now published it, and I anticipate the last will (as they called yesterday to verify that I sent it and said they would run it ASAP). Here are the links:

We need your assistance today!

In July 2013, the House passed a “farm only” farm bill, which omitted the nutrition title. Now that Congress is back in session the House leadership is debating cutting up to $40 billion from nutrition programs such as SNAP and SNAP-Ed, in the Nutrition Reform and Work Opportunity Act. The Center for Budget and Policy Priorities has estimated that this proposal would deny up to 6 million people access to the SNAP program. Feeding America estimates that this translates into a loss of 1.5 billion meals per year for the next 10 years for struggling families. We are also expecting that the SNAP-Nutrition Education (SNAP-Ed) program will see significant cuts. We are asking you, as public policy leaders, to activate your members!

Here is what we want you to do today:

1. Send an eblast message to your members asking them to send letters to their Representative. You can also post the message to your electronic mailing list. The following approved message should be used.

Subject: Millions will lose access to food – ACT TODAY!

Dear Colleague,

Hi there,

I'm the Public Policy Coordinator for Maine and just wanted to send an update on the Farm Bill LTE's. I invited the other members of our Public Policy Panel to share in the process of sending letters to our various newspapers throughout the state but did not get an overwhelming response, so I sent out a letter to several of the larger papers myself. Three out of the four that I sent it to have now published it, and I anticipate the last will (as they called yesterday to verify that I sent it and said they would run it ASAP). Here are the links:

We need your assistance today!

In July 2013, the House passed a “farm only” farm bill, which omitted the nutrition title. Now that Congress is back in session the House leadership is debating cutting up to $40 billion from nutrition programs such as SNAP and SNAP-Ed, in the Nutrition Reform and Work Opportunity Act. The Center for Budget and Policy Priorities has estimated that this proposal would deny up to 6 million people access to the SNAP program. Feeding America estimates that this translates into a loss of 1.5 billion meals per year for the next 10 years for struggling families. We are also expecting that the SNAP-Nutrition Education (SNAP-Ed) program will see significant cuts. We are asking you, as public policy leaders, to activate your members!

Here is what we want you to do today:

1. Send an eblast message to your members asking them to send letters to their Representative. You can also post the message to your electronic mailing list. The following approved message should be used.

Subject: Millions will lose access to food – ACT TODAY!

Dear Colleague,

*The House has proposed to cut $40 billion dollars from nutrition programs, including SNAP and SNAP-Ed, in the Nutrition Reform and Work Opportunity Act. Hi there,

I'm the Public Policy Coordinator for Maine and just wanted to send an update on the Farm Bill LTE's. I invited the other members of our Public Policy Panel to share in the process of sending letters to our various newspapers throughout the state but did not get an overwhelming response, so I sent out a letter to several of the larger papers myself. Three out of the four that I sent it to have now published it, and I anticipate the last will (as they called yesterday to verify that I sent it and said they would run it ASAP). Here are the links:

Paul, I love it. I think it is exactly what I wanted. Minor changes are:

1. Slide 8 - Could you move the green column (policy requirement to be first and then put FY12 and FY13 after it)?
2. Slide 10 - Move the box that has the information for capital infrastructure a little more left so it does not cover new research initiatives.
3. Slide 14 - Move the box on the bottom down a little so it does not cover graph at the bottom.

Thanks for being so willing to listen to me and adapting to what I think would be the most useful information for the membership. As usual, I like to educate as well as inform, and I think this does that very well

Hi,

I took action yesterday. Also, I want to share what is happening in Maine on the Farm Bill Letter To the Editor's due to the leadership of our new Public Policy Coordinator that attended PPW as a student member two years ago with myself and Pat Watson our previous PPC and now Maine Academy President Elect. Read her letter (pasted below) to Jennifer Noll Folliard Director, USDA Legislation and Policy and then forwarded to Mary Pat. She definitely caught the public policy fever!

Marcy

Hi there,

I'm the Public Policy Coordinator for Maine and just wanted to send an update on the Farm Bill LTE's. I invited the other members of our Public Policy Panel to share in the process of sending letters to our various newspapers throughout the state but did not get an overwhelming response, so I sent out a letter to several of the larger papers myself. Three out of the four that I sent it to have now published it, and I anticipate the last will (as they called yesterday to verify that I sent it and said they would run it ASAP). Here are the links:

We need your assistance today!

In July 2013, the House passed a "farm only" farm bill, which omitted the nutrition title. Now that Congress is back in session the House leadership is debating cutting up to $40 billion from nutrition programs such as SNAP and SNAP-Ed, in the Nutrition Reform and Work Opportunity Act. The Center for Budget and Policy Priorities has estimated that this proposal would deny up to 6 million people access to the SNAP program. Feeding America estimates that this translates into a loss of 1.5 billion meals per year for the next 10 years for struggling families. We are also expecting that the SNAP-Nutrition Education (SNAP-Ed) program will see significant cuts. We are asking you, as public policy leaders, to activate your members!

Here is what we want you to do today:

1. Send an eblast message to your members asking them to send letters to their Representative. You can also post the message to your electronic mailing list. The following approved message should be used.

Subject: Millions will lose access to food – ACT TODAY!

Dear Colleague,

We need your assistance today!

In July 2013, the House passed a “farm only” farm bill, which omitted the nutrition title. Now that Congress is back in session the House leadership is debating cutting up to $40 billion from nutrition programs such as SNAP and SNAP-Ed, in the Nutrition Reform and Work Opportunity Act. The Center for Budget and Policy Priorities has estimated that this proposal would deny up to 6 million people access to the SNAP program. Feeding America estimates that this translates into a loss of 1.5 billion meals per year for the next 10 years for struggling families. We are also expecting that the SNAP-Nutrition Education (SNAP-Ed) program will see significant cuts. We are asking you, as public policy leaders, to activate your members!

Here is what we want you to do today:

1. Send an eblast message to your members asking them to send letters to their Representative. You can also post the message to your electronic mailing list. The following approved message should be used.

Fight Hunger Now: Stop Cuts to Vital Nutrition Programs

The House is currently debating a "nutrition only" Farm Bill that would deny up to 6 million people access to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). The bill would cut $40 billion from the program over 10 years, leaving millions to struggle with food insecurity. Please urge Congress to oppose these cuts.

We need your assistance today!

In July 2013, the House passed a “farm only” farm bill, which omitted the nutrition title. Now that Congress is back in session the House leadership is debating cutting up to $40 billion from nutrition programs such as SNAP and SNAP-Ed, in the Nutrition Reform and Work Opportunity Act. The Center for Budget and Policy Priorities has estimated that this proposal would deny up to 6 million people access to the SNAP program. Feeding America estimates that this translates into a loss of 1.5 billion meals per year for the next 10 years for struggling families. We are also expecting that the SNAP-Nutrition Education (SNAP-Ed) program will see significant cuts. We are asking you, as public policy leaders, to activate your members!

Here is what we want you to do today:

1.Send an eblast message to your members asking them to send letters to their Representative. You can also post the message to your electronic mailing list. The following approved message should be used.

The Seven Things that Only a Board of Directors Can Do

By Henry Givray, President & CEO, SmithBucklin

Opportunities abound for associations, professional societies and other volunteer-governed organizations to make tangible and far-reaching contributions to their members, industries, professions and causes. These types of organizations represent communities of individuals who share a commitment, passion and vested interests. Those who also volunteer to serve on their organization's board of directors and committees give willingly of their time, energy, dollars and heart but receive no compensation. Properly harnessed, this powerful, collective human force offers limitless opportunities to advance ideas, take action, drive desired outcomes, create value for individual stakeholders and improve the state or condition of an industry or profession. However, the inherent hurdles and challenges such organizations face are formidable. By their very nature, these organizations operate in an environment of planned and rapid turnover. They are subject to varying and often conflicting objectives, discontinuous interactions and fragile commitments of time-pressed volunteer board members who are expected to serve as stewards of the organization's success and long-term vitality. Many factors will determine whether a volunteer board can successfully overcome both inherent and situational challenges, but one stands out...

Former WDMA Chairman Tourek on Major Organizational Change

In 2008, Steve Tourek served as the Window and Door Manufacturers Association's Chairman of the Board. It was an interesting time for his industry. The housing boom was showing signs of bust. The economy was about to suffer an historic meltdown, and the policymakers on Capitol Hill were poised to get involved in a big way. WDMA board members were seeing the dark clouds on the horizon.

At the same time, WDMA hired new management to help chart a new course for its future. That course change would come to entail the opening of what Tourek calls a "co-location" in Washington, D.C. Tourek, who today serves as senior vice president and general counsel of Marvin Windows and Doors Inc., recently sat down with Board Forward to discuss the association's shift in focus to advocacy at the federal level. What follows is our chat...

Five Considerations for Establishing a Reserve Policy

Reserves, commonly referred to as net assets, are important to build and maintain, but the amount that should be maintained depends primarily on the appropriate assessment of an organization's overall financial risk. A common rule of thumb among non profit organizations is to build and maintain net assets that equal 50 percent of annual operating expenses. While this is a good starting point, there are a number of key considerations that volunteer boards should evaluate when assessing financial risk and ultimately setting a reserve policy for the organization, including:

Good Conflict Makes a Good Board

Each board of directors has its own characteristic rhythm, social rules and level of effectiveness. To this end, it has long puzzled many as to what exactly makes a board effective. In his research, the article's author found that "there is something powerful about the way directors speak to one another, especially when they disagree." His interviews with directors uncovered two kinds of boardroom conflict – cognitive and affective. Each has very different implications for board performance.

Managing Risk in the Digital Age: Lessons and Tools

Henry Ristuccia, global leader, Governance, Risk and Compliance Services at Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Ltd., recently discussed what risk issues are top-of-mind today for decision makers and boards of directors. Since the depths of the financial crisis in 2007 and 2008, he stated, what has been learned is "risk management programs need to have much more of an outside-in perspective with objective, externally sourced data used for benchmarking and analysis of risks to an organization.

Subject: Professional Development/Succession Planning

As part of the ongoing professional development plan for Academy staff, I will be instituting a Knowledge Is Power lunch series to provide a broad-based overview of the Academy for both new and tenured staff in a relaxed, open setting. Sessions will illustrate each department's structure and functions as they relate to the Academy's strategic direction. The program will consist of nine (9) one-hour lunchtime sessions over 18-month period beginning in the Fall. Each session will start with a standard, baseline agenda, to be customized as necessary for each department. I will explain how each department contributes to the advancement of the Strategic Plan.

I am also implementing a professional development program with the Executive Team to better cultivate employees for succession across the organization. On Monday, September 30th, we will participate in an Executive Team retreat focusing on emotional intelligence, knowledge management and succession planning. Both activities respond to my performance goal to develop a succession plan to assure and support the Academy's continued success.

Subject: Professional Development/Succession Planning

As part of the ongoing professional development plan for Academy staff, I will be instituting a Knowledge Is Power lunch series to provide a broad-based overview of the Academy for both new and tenured staff in a relaxed, open setting. Sessions will illustrate each department's structure and functions as they relate to the Academy's strategic direction. The program will consist of nine (9) one-hour lunchtime sessions over 18-month period beginning in the Fall. Each session will start with a standard, baseline agenda, to be customized as necessary for each department. I will explain how each department contributes to the advancement of the Strategic Plan.

I am also implementing a professional development program with the Executive Team to better cultivate employees for succession across the organization. On Monday, September 30th, we will participate in an Executive Team retreat focusing on emotional intelligence, knowledge management and succession planning. Both activities respond to my performance goal to develop a succession plan to assure and support the Academy's continued success.

Get the VIP Treatment You Deserve at FNCE[®]

Dear Donna,

For the first time ever, the Academys Political Action Committee (ANDPAC) will be offering its top donors VIP treatment at FNCE. Perks include:

- A VIP lounge with computers, internet, TV, snacks and a place to kick back;
- Entrance to an exclusive top donor meet and greet with the ANDPAC Board and current and past Academy Presidents;
- Free admission to the ANDPAC Power Breakfast;
- A personal introduction and photo with Representative Gene Green from Texas;
- Wine and cheese receptions on Sunday and Monday;
- Preferred seating at special events and much more!

Please note that the level of VIP treatment is dependent on your donor level status. To find out more, please contact andpac@eatright.org.

Thank you for your contribution. We look forward to seeing you at FNCE!

Sincerely,

Subject: First cut at the HOD
Attachment: 2014 hod fall presentation 2nd version 0913 for donna.ppt

Donna,

Attached is the first draft of the HOD presentation. I tried to put in most of the things you had on your list. You want to run this as a slide show once before you go through the pages. I have added a few “animations”. The theme that I am trying to get across is as follows;

1. We all did well in FY13 thanks to investment returns
2. Reserves are strong across all organizations
3. Academy is investing in the future with new programs and services resulting in a deficit and a reduction in reserves
4. New programs will help the profession grow
5. We are also reducing our focus on Sponsorships, but all funding sources are critical
6. Everything is driven by membership and its growth
7. Still risks in the future.

I will go through each slide so you know what I was thinking. Keep in mind, the title line in each slide are generally “connected” and the key takeaway is in the box at the bottom.

1. Slide 1 – Cover
2. Slide 2 – Intro to FAC for last and this year.
3. Slide 3 – This is really the only area where I talk about “consolidated Academy”. This compares Net Income (which is after investments) and how the CA compares to the budget and to

FY12. In both cases, you can see this was a strong year. This “transitions” over to slide 4

4. Slide 4 – It was a strong year primarily because of Investment returns. Each are listed. I emphasize the more than $6.6M in total return. This transitions over to slide 5

5. Slide 5 – This shows the reserves for each Academy organization. Naturally, I combined the DPGS/MIGs. ACEND and ANDPAC are here, but, they do not invest their reserves.

6. Slide 6 – I stuck this in to address the Foundation. You can emphasize the Foundation on the previous slide. They have the largest reserves. Their growth is emphasized on slide 6.

7. Slide 7 - This begins the Academy. Emphasis here is investing in the future. Yes, this is a euphemism for a deficit, but, it sounds nicer. Even though we are investing for the future, we will still have appropriate reserves. This transitions to slide 8.

8. Slide 8 – This addresses the areas we are investing in. Similar to the one presented to the Board, but, I added Capital. This transitions to slide 9.

9. Slide 9 – This addresses how we determine where to invest. The list are the top third from the Needs Satisfaction Survey. The ones in red are the ones that will get additional focus in FY14. You can see, they are all red.

10. Slide 10 – This slide is a continuation of the Investment/Deficit from slide 7. Essentially, we are saying not only are we investing, but, we are also seeing a shift in one of our source of funding; sponsorships.

11. Slide 11 – This slide addresses the overall funding sources. As you can see, if you factor in the use of investments, Dues are just 38.1% of the total funding for the Academy in FY14. This transitions to slide 12.

12. Slide 12 – This is to emphasize that all funding sources, dues and non-dues, really starts with membership. This slide addresses the growth over time. Please read the box at the bottom. In the box, I tossed in a little humor. We can delete “Size does matter”.

13. Slide 13 – This addresses where your dues dollars go. But also transitions to slide 14.

14. Slide 14 – This is to emphasize that not all of the funding provided comes from Dues. It repeats slide 11, but, it takes out the dues portion. I would put in something that addresses where the actual dollars all go. However, in doing so, we would have to do a great deal of allocations. People might start picking apart things like Overhead/Administration. I can hear the question; why is Administration 10% (made up) of the overall cost? Or why are we not spending more money on Research?, etc. I can attempt to do that if you like. We have some time.

- 15. Slide 15 – This slide just address risks.
- 16. Slide 16 _ this slide just summarizes the other 15.
- 17. Slide 17 – This slide is to make sure people know they can send an e-mail with questions.

I will continue to work on the detail, wording and animations. Let me know your thoughts. We have time to make any and all adjustments you would like. As always, you can call me at 312-899-4730 or at 630-750-8311 if you have any questions or concerns.

Hi Donna. Thank you for your support of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation through your service on the Foundation's Board of Directors. Each fall, the Foundation develops personal service plans for each member. These serve as a discussion starting point for how we can make your time on the Board meaningful while fulfilling the mission and vision of the Foundation. A draft of this plan is attached. We would like to set up a call to discuss your plan and anticipate no more than 30 minutes of your time. I have copied Linda Hudson who is coordinating these calls and will reach out to you shortly with some suggested time over the next few weeks. Thanks.

Hello Everyone,

Carla and her team will schedule a photographer to take a professional group shot during the Food & Nutrition Conference on Saturday, October 19, 2013. To allow enough time for photo prep, please arrange to arrive at the George R. Brown Convention Center General Assembly Theater by 3:15 p.m.

- Neckline: Simple necklines look better than cluttered ones. A V-neck lengthens the neck; a round neckline shortens it. A collar frames the face well, without taking away length from your neck. A solid color, collared blouse with a V-neck or a few buttons undone is most popular. Avoid turtlenecks because they completely hide the neck and can be unflattering.

- Jackets, blazers: subdued/avoid patterns. Wear solid colors. They are more appealing and authoritative than plaids, stripes or large prints.

- Personal: Wear something that makes you feel great and relaxed.
- Hair: Cut your hair a week before the shoot to allow the trim to settle.

For women:

- Limited Jewelry: Avoid distracting accessories, such as large, shiny jewelry. If you have a pierced ear, wear studs or small hoops. Avoid chunky necklaces, they take the focus away from your face and smile.
- Light Makeup: Avoid heavy makeup! Heavy makeup tends to look caked up. Remember that the cameras and lenses produce images at far higher definition and our job is to flatter you! During finishing of the selected image, we will take care of blemishes and other touch ups on the skin during the basic retouch process J.
- Eyeliner: Soft, applied with a brush sparingly, using very little on the lower lid.

As always, please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions. Look forward to seeing everyone soon in Houston!

Best regards,

Doris Acosta

We are returning to our practice of taking an annual Board picture. This year we are shooting it at FNCE prior to Opening Session on Saturday, October 19th. Please arrive at the George R. Brown Convention Center – General Assembly Theater by 3:15 pm to prepare for the photo shoot. More information regarding attire will be coming from Doris Acosta. The activity will also be reflected on the Board FNCE schedule, which you'll be receiving shortly.

Hi! LOL :) Try No. 7 brand "Photo Fix" cream. I understand the movie stars use it --and it really works for me! I found it at Target and also have seen it at Ulta. Just a little tip from the salon at the House of Farr :)

We are returning to our practice of taking an annual Board picture. This year we are shooting it at FNCE prior to Opening Session on Saturday, October 19th. Please arrive at the George R. Brown Convention Center – General Assembly Theater by 3:15 pm to prepare for the photo shoot. More information regarding attire will be coming from Doris Acosta. The activity will also be reflected on the Board FNCE schedule, which you'll be receiving shortly.

Hi Donna. Thank you for your support of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation through your service on the Foundation's Board of Directors. Each fall, the Foundation develops personal service plans for each member. These serve as a discussion starting point for how we can make your time on the Board meaningful while fulfilling the mission and vision of the Foundation. A draft of this plan is attached. We would like to set up a call to discuss your plan and anticipate no more than 30 minutes of your time. I have copied Linda Hudson who is coordinating these calls and will reach out to you shortly with some suggested time over the next few weeks. Thanks.

Subject: President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition

I am pleased to inform you that Penny Kris-Etherton, PhD, RD, has been appointed to the President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition (PCFSN) Science Board beginning January 2014. The President's Council promotes programs and initiatives that motivate people of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities to lead active, healthy lives. Its mission is to engage, educate, and empower all Americans to adopt a healthy lifestyle that includes regular physical activity and good nutrition. They are looking to draw upon Penny's expertise over the next three years. Our last representative was Susan Finn, PhD, RD, FADA, in 2008-2009.

Subject: President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition

I am pleased to inform you that Penny Kris-Etherton, PhD, RD, has been appointed to the President's Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition (PCFSN) Science Board beginning January 2014. The President's Council promotes programs and initiatives that motivate people of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities to lead active, healthy lives. Its mission is to engage, educate, and empower all Americans to adopt a healthy lifestyle that includes regular physical activity and good nutrition. They are looking to draw upon Penny's expertise over the next three years. Our last representative was Susan Finn, PhD, RD, FADA, in 2008-2009.

To: Beth Foland <efoland@doe.in.gov>

Hi Beth,

Just wanted to update you on the newsletter! I have all of the information in the newsletter and mostly formatted. I am just going back through and double-checking things and need to make it look a little prettier :)

I am having trouble getting one of the tables into the document without spending a LOT of time on it and completely recreating it, but will work on that tomorrow.

My first question is this: There are a lot of hyperlinks in the Word document and I am wondering if you want all of them hyperlinked into the PDF? So, if they are linked, people would be able to click on them through the PDF to go to the webpage. I would imagine this would be the way you would like it, but I just wanted to check as there are so many in this newsletter.

Secondly, how do you feel about columns in the newsletter? The last one typically had 3 columns per page. I wasn't sure if we wanted to keep it this way or try two or one? Doesn't matter to me, I will do whatever you would like. Easy to change. Currently, I have 3 columns for the articles, but when I get to the references, I did one because I feel like those are hard to read as 3 columns.

And lastly, I need a full list of the exact sponsors to put at the bottom. I wasn't sure if the website has the current sponsors or not? I know it is missing one because I never got the logo...trying to remember which one that was.

Almost forgot...what Volume and No. should this issue be? The Spring 2013 was Volume 38 - No. 2 and I believe that was the last one that went out.

Ok, so I'm attaching the rough draft...and PLEASE keep in mind this is a rough draft!! I am still going through and "pretty-ing" it up! And I already see some changes that need to be made. But go ahead and take a look at it and let me know about the columns and what things you do not like, etc.

I'm sorry this has taken so long but this is a HUGE! newsletter and the tables and graphs were hard to get in there and make look nice. Also, I realize page 8 is blank. I am still working on getting that table in there!!

Didn't mean for this e-mail to get so long! Sorry!

Thanks,
Britt

Attached please find a letter sent from Glenna and me to the Commission on Long Term Care. Our letter will be sent along with letters from other organizations on financing long term care for older adults.

The Commission on Long Term Care was created by Congress to develop a national plan for providing long term services for the elderly and disabled. The Commission was formed after the demise of the voluntary long-term care insurance program created by the Affordable Care Act, called the Community Living Assistance Services and Supports Act, or CLASS. The CLASS Act was intended to help finance long term care and help reduce some of the current financial outlay of the Medicaid program. The voluntary nature of the ACT made the sustainability factor questionable for long term success.

The Commission was given nine months to complete the task; however, because of the timing of sequestration and the fiscal cliff, the Commission scaled back this ambitious timeline. The focus of the Commission now appears to be identifying community-based care solutions rather than institutional care, to reflect the desire that many older adults have expressed to remain independent and living in their own home as long as possible.

Our efforts vis à vis the Commission on Long Term Care have been to offer suggestions for innovative approaches to nutrition services involving registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs) that could be expanded or extended as part of a plan for community-based long term care. With only six months and a few meetings remaining, the Commission has a very short timeframe to meet its charge. The opportunity to provide written input allows us to showcase nutrition services to the Commission. We are proud to have such members providing innovative nutrition interventions and services. Whitney Brown was able to summarize these ideas and solutions in the attached document for our signatures.

PIA Staff led by Mary Pat Raimondi and Jeanne Blankenship reached out LPPC expert members that included then Speaker Becky Dornier, Brenda Richardson, Dianne Polly, Martha Peppones, Karen Ehrens, Lisa Eaton Wright and Missy Cody to review the document.

We hope this will be the start of a much needed conversation of financing long term care and the importance of nutrition services in ensuring that aging adults are able to remain healthy and in their homes.

Kudos to the PIA Staff and LPPC! Wonderful job articulating these examples of the major impact of food and nutrition on the long term health/care of independent living older adults!

Subject: Commission on Long Term Care

Attached please find a letter sent from Glenna and me to the Commission on Long Term Care. Our letter will be sent along with letters from other organizations on financing long term care for older adults.

The Commission on Long Term Care was created by Congress to develop a national plan for providing long term services for the elderly and disabled. The Commission was formed after the demise of the voluntary long-term care insurance program created by the Affordable Care Act, called the Community Living Assistance Services and Supports Act, or CLASS. The CLASS Act was intended to help finance long term care and help reduce some of the current financial outlay of the Medicaid program. The voluntary nature of the ACT made the sustainability factor questionable for long term success.

The Commission was given nine months to complete the task; however, because of the timing of sequestration and the fiscal cliff, the Commission scaled back this ambitious timeline. The focus of the Commission now appears to be identifying community-based care solutions rather than institutional care, to reflect the desire that many older adults have expressed to remain independent and living in their own home as long as possible.

Our efforts vis à vis the Commission on Long Term Care have been to offer suggestions for innovative approaches to nutrition services involving registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs) that could be expanded or extended as part of a plan for community-based long term care. With only six months and a few meetings remaining, the Commission has a very short timeframe to meet its charge. The opportunity to provide written input allows us to showcase nutrition services to the Commission. We are proud to have such members providing innovative nutrition interventions and services. Whitney Brown was able to summarize these ideas and solutions in the attached document for our signatures.

PIA Staff led by Mary Pat Raimondi and Jeanne Blankenship reached out LPPC expert members that included then Speaker Becky Dornier, Brenda Richardson, Dianne Polly, Martha Peppones, Karen Ehrens, Lisa Eaton Wright and Missy Cody to review the document.

We hope this will be the start of a much needed conversation of financing long term care and the importance of nutrition services in ensuring that aging adults are able to remain healthy and in their homes.

Help End Hunger: Go Orange

September is Hunger Action Month: Show your support by wearing orange. With 15 percent of American households suffering from hunger, organizations are teaming up to raise awareness of this important issue. Meeting nutrition needs throughout the lifecycle continues to be one of the Academy's main public policy priorities as it supports a comprehensive Farm Bill, the National School Lunch and Breakfast Program, Meals on Wheels and many other federal programs and initiatives.

Susan,

Here is the finance information for the ANDF board call. I know we only have 15 minutes. However, Donna and I will stay with the cover pages and ask if there are any questions. When you send this out, please let the board members know that we won't be going through the entire package on the call and to review it in advance.

I took a cut at the FY13 information using the "new detailed package". The FY14 information is through July. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns. If you don't have any, feel free to send this out.

2014 results cover memo through July.doc

Donna,

I hope you had a great weekend. As you probably know, we have a Foundation meeting on September 17th. They would like a quick financial overview. I put together two documents; FY13 financial summary and a FY14, through July, financial summary. The FY13 information is a very large report. Last year, a Foundation Board member did not think he was getting enough information and requested that I create a new, more detailed report. After searching the world and not getting anything specific direction from the Board member, the attached report was create. It also was accepted as we go forward. We will provide this twice a year; mid-year and end of year. It is a very lengthy report. However, it does make us (staff) better. I don't think anyone will expect us to go through the report. So, we can stay on the summary page.

The second report is providing some information on FY14. Since August will not be done until later, the information can only be through July. Again, this is a high level report. I am using the relevant pages from our FAC call to make up this report.

In both cases, I have a cover memo. I put both you and me as the presenters. Primarily because you should not be expected to know every detail. That being said, we have two weeks and I can provide additional detail. If you would like it to just come from you, that would be fine. Just let me know. So, take a look at these reports and let me know your thoughts. I think Susan would like this information by Friday.

Take care.

Paul

Quote of the Week

50th Anniversary of I Have a Dream Speech

Now is the time to make real the promises of democracy.

Now is the time to rise from the dark and desolate valley of segregation to the sunlit path of racial justice.

Now is the time to open the doors of opportunity to all of God's children.

Now is the time to lift our nation from the quick sands of racial injustice to the solid rock of brotherhood.

Good morning Paul and Donna,

Please excuse my absence from the call on Tuesday. I have the calls on my calendar, however an urgent webex meeting involving some overseas colleagues with impossible schedules has trumped that.

If I was not going to be a facilitator of the event we will plan on this call, I would defer it--but that isn't possible.

I will read all of the information for the FAC call and forward questions to you.

Thanks for understanding, and my apology.

Hope you both are enjoying the waning days of summer!

Monday, August 26, 2013

To: Academy Board of Directors

From: Juliana Smith, Director of Consumer Protection and Licensure

Re: LPPC Action on Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee (CPLS) Recommendations

Please be advised that the LPPC approved two recommendations made by the CPLS:

1) The Public Policy Panel Leader Title “Licensure Board Liaison” be changed to “Consumer Protection Coordinator.”

The new name more appropriately describes the duties of this leadership role. This position is envisioned to be an integral part of the affiliate public policy panel responsible for keeping the affiliate informed about consumer protection issues and monitoring the activities of state licensure, certification or regulatory boards. This position is necessary for consumer protection even in states that currently do not have licensure or certification.

2) The Academy adopt the following policy statement regarding dual service on Academy or Affiliate and state licensure or certification boards:

“Academy members considered for appointment to or who currently hold positions on state licensure or certification boards are strongly discouraged from concurrently holding elected or appointed leadership positions on Academy boards, state affiliate boards, and/or public policy panels. Participation on Academy committees that influence consumer protection laws or regulations should be carefully considered.

Affiliate leaders are encouraged to review and understand the laws and regulations surrounding consumer protection and licensure, ethics, and conflict of interests that are in effect in their respective states when considering recommendations for appointments to state licensure or certification boards. ”

Some states prohibit dual memberships for those who hold leadership positions with fiduciary responsibilities in both entities. While not deemed to be specifically illegal or unethical in other states, the significant potential for an actual or perceived conflict of interest makes it desirable to have a separation of these duties. Finally, members who seek assistance with licensure or who wish to discuss concerns related to the licensure board are not well served when the leadership of both entities includes simultaneous cross representation.

Communication Plan

A plan for communicating these recommendations to Academy and affiliate leaders has been initiated. The recommendations will be also be presented to licensure leaders at the consumer Protection and Licensure Summit being held on October 18-19, 2013 in Houston, Texas. In addition the information will be shared directly with affiliate leaders and members of the public policy panel through the weekly public policy update tomorrow.

Finally, a summary of the recommendations will be included in the Fall 2013 House of Delegates and the October Board of Directors LPPC Reports.

Best regards,

Juliana Smith

From: Kathleen W. McClusky, MS, RD, FADA, Chair 2013 Corporate Award Selection Committee

Re: 2013 Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation Corporate Award

Each year, the Academy Foundation Corporate Award Selection Committee is charged with selecting a recipient for the Academy Foundation Board's consideration and approval.

The corporate award is given to a corporation or group that has demonstrated meaningful support to the Academy Foundation through the Scholarship and Awards Program, Research Endowment, Kids Eat Right Initiative, Annual Fund or activities of the Academy through the Foundation. The support may come in the form of financial contributions, organizational service or committee involvement. A copy of this criteria document is attached.

A crystal apple is presented each year to the recipient at the Academy Foundation Gala, which takes place during the Academy's Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo. This year's event is scheduled for Monday, October 21, 2013 in Houston.

The 2013 Academy Foundation Corporate Award Selection Committee included: Evelyn F. Crayton, EdD, RD, LD, Jean H. Ragaile, RD and Kathleen W. McClusky, MS, RD, FADA.

The following organizations were considered for this year's award. Attached is an overview of the organizations giving histories.

- Coca Cola
- General Mills
- The Kellogg Company
- PepsiCo

The Academy Foundation Corporate Award Selection Committee recommends that General Mills receive the 2013 Corporate Award.

Please approve or oppose awarding the 2013 Corporate Award to General Mills via email to Amy Donatell at adonatell@eatright.org by Tuesday, August 28th. Motions conducted via email require a unanimous vote and responses should be returned within five working days. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Amy Donatell at adonatell@eatright.org or 800/877-1600 x4767.

School Nutrition Services (SNS) DPG webinar:

“Creating and Fostering Positive Experiences in School Nutrition Internships”

Tuesday, August 27, 2013, 2:30 pm EST/1:30 pm CST/12:30 pm MST/11:30 am PST

Creating and fostering positive experiences for students and interns within the school nutrition sector is an indispensable way to recruit and train the next generation of school nutrition professionals. Our expert speakers will share the results of their research with preceptors and dietetics students. Learn about new tools and resources available to both educators and school nutrition program directors and staff that can help create valuable experiences in school nutrition programs.

Date: Tuesday, August 27, 2013

Time: 2:30 pm EST/1:30 pm CST/12:30 pm MST/11:30 am PST

Length: 75 minutes

To register for this meeting

1. Go to

<https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/j.php?ED=29022543&RG=1&UID=52438228&RT=MiM3>

2. Register for the meeting.

Once the host approves your request, you will receive a confirmation email with instructions for joining the meeting. Note: If you already registered for this meeting, you do not need to register again.

Annually at the beginning of the program year, we ask that you share information with us about invitations you have accepted to present at affiliate, DPG, MIG and/or other organization meetings as Board members speaking on Academy activities and Academy-related business. We track face-to-face presentations and request you please communicate to us any meetings you attend this program year on behalf of the Academy by submitting the Board Representation at Meetings form. This electronic form can be completed by accessing the following link http://academybod.webauthor.com/modules/portal/complete_form.cfm?xm_form_id=192 and is found on the Board Communications Platform under the Library tab in the green menu bar. To log onto the platform, please use your Academy username and password.

Board policies related to Board member representation at meetings are attached. Board members attending affiliate, DPG, MIG and/or other organization meetings should have all expenses reimbursed by the affiliate, DPG, MIG and/or other organization. In accordance with policy, Board members may not accept an honorarium or fee for representing the Academy or for presenting on Academy-related business or initiatives. You may, however, ask that the honorarium be sent in your name to the Foundation or PAC. Board members who present a continuing professional development session are entitled to receive compensation; the amount is of course negotiated between the organization and you.

If you are requested to present on a topic representing your expertise/practice area, you may want to suggest to the meeting organizers that you are also available to provide a separate Academy Update presentation. This update covers the Academy's initiatives and accomplishments on behalf of members and is updated frequently. You can access and download the presentation from the Board Communications Platform by clicking here.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Per our strategic plan, the Academy is committed to providing members with state-of-art professional development for education, competence and career success and we provide relevant and valued programs, products and services for diverse member audiences. We need to share cutting-edge information with our members, even when evidence is lacking as long as they practice safely. Further, members value having an understanding of the variety of programs, products and services that are available to their clients and consumers in the marketplace. Research and Ethics committees will be developing guidelines to support members in practicing within their scope and in determining efficacy.

Currently, participating companies have products, programs and services that are of interest to food and nutrition professionals; consistent with the Academy's philosophy; have a preponderance of current and scientifically valid information; and comply with the applicable standards and regulations.

In November, we will revisit the Exhibitor Eligibility Guidelines to ensure that the companies on the Expo floor fit within the scope of our conference, meet the needs of our audience and more importantly, advance our mission, vision and strategic plan. We will look closely at both sides of the issues and identify ways that we can respond to trends in the food, nutrition and dietetics arena within the Expo floor, while making sure members are receiving information to help them practice safely.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Per our strategic plan, the Academy is committed to providing members with state-of-art professional development for education, competence and career success and we provide relevant and valued programs, products and services for diverse member audiences. We need to share cutting-edge information with our members, even when evidence is lacking as long as they practice safely. Further, members value having an understanding of the variety of programs, products and services that are available to their clients and consumers in the marketplace. Research and Ethics committees will be developing guidelines to support members in practicing within their scope and in determining efficacy.

Currently, participating companies have products, programs and services that are of interest to food and nutrition professionals; consistent with the Academy's philosophy; have a preponderance of current and scientifically valid information; and comply with the applicable standards and regulations.

In November, we will revisit the Exhibitor Eligibility Guidelines to ensure that the companies on the Expo floor fit within the scope of our conference, meet the needs of our audience and more importantly, advance our mission, vision and strategic plan. We will look closely at both sides of the issues and identify ways that we can respond to trends in the food, nutrition and dietetics arena within the Expo floor, while making sure members are receiving information to help them practice safely.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

All,

We have a Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, August 27th at 1 p.m. CDT. I hope you all will be able to attend. Please look for the Webinar invitation from Robert Miller as well as an e-mail from Maria Juarez when everything is on the portal. This month, we will be focusing on the June Financials, July financials and a FNCE financial update. Hopefully, this will not take the full 90 minutes, but, given my propensity to talk, I can't guarantee it J

I. June Changes

- There were no changes to the actual results for June. However, we did modify the monthly budgets slightly for CDR, ACEND, DPGs/MIGs, and the Foundation. This would only impact the distribution across the months and not the total annual budgets. We will continue to improve the budget distributions with the various teams through the month of July. Once July goes final, we will set the monthly distribution unless we find a situation that is clearly wrong (FNCE in November would be a good example).

II. Investments

- Our investment portfolios rebounded in July. The combined portfolios gained nearly $1.7M in July. This did bring our investments returns to just under $987,000 for the first two months of the fiscal year. That is the good news. The bad news is August is not continuing the trend. Through yesterday, our combined portfolios are down $784,000. So, we are still up for the year, but, not too much. We still have 6 trading days in August so anything can happen. I hope today's results are an indication of an uptick to eliminate the losses.

III. Academy July Financials (A10)

July was a very good month for the Academy. Revenue was up, over-running the budget by $28,974. This was primarily driven by Publications (up $34,977). Expenses were down when compared to budget by $44,423. There were quite a few variances that will be addressed below. The combination of additional revenue and lower expenses resulted in the Academy's operating income being $73,397 better (in this case lower) than the budget. It is lower because we had budgeted an operating deficit for July.

The investment income of $649,193 enhanced the results and offset the Academy's operating loss. The final result was net income of $114,025 for the month of July. This was $614,615 better than the budget.

Taking a look at the year to date numbers, the Academy currently has an operating deficit of $1,240,936. This is $171,540 lower (better) than the budget. Revenue for the year is higher by $8,580 while expense for the year are lower by $162,960. So, in short, we are starting the year off in a good financial position.

The following is a breakdown of the various categories

A. Revenues

- a. Membership Dues - This area under budget by $4,564 in July and is under budget by $5,446 for the year. Membership dues is off to a good start even though the budget may be a little light. It is always difficult to determine when members will renew. We are closer to the budget this year than we have been in previous years which is a good sign.
- b. Programs and Meetings - This area is under budget by $1,262 in July and is under budget by $4,229 for the year. The under-run in July is all due to lower Professional development revenue.
- c. Publications and Materials - This area is over budget by $34,977 in July and over budget by $35,428 for the year. The over-run in July is primarily due to NCP/SL sales (up $35.1K).
- d. Subscriptions – This area is under-budget by $4,505 in July and is under budget by $4,486 for the year. The under-run for July is due to lower NCM and related products (down $6.5K) offset by higher EAL subscriptions (up $2.0). this is the first time I can recall that NCM and related products have not exceeded the budget. At this stage, I am saying it is a budget anomaly. We will dig deeper to see if this should be a concern.
- e. Advertising – This area is on target for the month of July. No money was budgeted and no money was received.
- f. All grants - This area was over budget by $4,321 in July and is over budget by $2,177 for the year. The over run in July is primarily due to higher Research (up $15.6K) and lower ConAgra Home Food Safety (down $9.6K). Some of this could be due to budget timing.
- g. Sponsorships – This area is on target for the month of July and is on target for the year.
- h. Other – This area was over budget by $7 in July and is over budget by $6,096 for the year. This basically is on target with no material variance in any project.

B. Expenses

- a. Personnel – This area is under budget by $159 in July and over budget by $10,947 for the year. The under-run in July is due to lower benefit costs.

- b. Publications – This area is over budget by $17,402 in July and over budget by $16,366 for the year. The over run in July is primarily due to higher Journal costs. Generally, in July, the members who have not renewed are dropped from the distribution list. This year, the drop was pushed back to August resulting in an over-run in July.
- c. Travel – This area was under budget by $13,022 in July and under budget by $45,778 for the year. The under-run in July is primarily due to lower Governance (down $9.1K), lower Marketing (down $7.5K), lower Public Policy (down $5.8K) and all other (down $1.4K) offset by higher Research (up $6.4K) and higher Student Council (up $4.4K). Some of the variances could be due to budget timing.
- d. Professional Fees - This area was under budget by $26,468 in July and is under budget by $56,653 for the year. The under-run in July is being driven by lower Governance (down $13.9K), lower Marketing (down $24.0K), lower membership (down $13.0K), lower Research (down $9.5K) and lower across all other (down $4.9K) offset by higher IT/Web (up $22.4K), higher informatics (up $12.9K) and higher Public Policy (up $3.5K). This is one area we still need to review deeper. Some of this could be due to budget distributions not being correct.
- e. Postage and Mailing Service – This area is under budget by $947 in July and under budget by $7,442 for the year. This under-run in July is primarily due to lower Membership (down $4.4K) offset by higher Governance (up $1.3k) and higher publications (up $2.2K).
- f. Office Supplies and Equipment – This area is under budget by $964 in July and under budget by $4,763 for the year. The under-run in July is across all areas of the business.
- g. Rent and utilities - This area is under budget by $678 in July and under budget by $4,491 for the year. The under-run in July is due to higher utility costs.
- h. Telephone and communications – This is over budget by $4,002 in July and over budget by $6,891 for the year. The over-run in July is due to basic telephone costs in Washington and Chicago.
- i. Commissions – This area is on target for the month of July. Nothing budgeted and nothing spent.
- j. Computer Expenses – This area is under budget by $3,415 for July and under budget by $12,333 for the year. The under-run in July is primarily due to lower Web hosting costs.
- k. Advertising and Promotion – This area is over budget by $265 in July and under budget by $902 for the year. The over-run in July is across all areas of the business.
- l. Insurance – This area is over budget by $509 in July and is over budget by $1,018 for the year. The over-run in July is due to slightly higher insurance premiums.

- m. Depreciation – This area is on target in July and on target for the year.
- n. Bank and trust fees – This area is over budget by $16,822 in July and over budget by $20,405 for the year. The over-run in July is primarily due to additional credit card fees.
- o. Other – This area is under budget by $9,549 in July and under budget $18,325 for the year. The under-run in July is primarily due to lower costs for Marketing (down $4.1K), lower Research (down $4.3K) and lower across all other (down $1.1K).
- p. Expense allocation – This area is on target in July and on target for the year.
- q. Meeting services – This area is under budget by $14,635 in July and is under budget for the year by $40,838. The under-run in July is being driven primarily by lower Governance (down $2.1K), lower Marketing (down $4.6K), lower Public Policy (down $3.3K), lower Membership (down $2.7K) and lower Journal (down $2.2K) offset by higher across all other (up $0.3K).
- r. Legal and Audit – This area is over budget by $643 in July and over budget by $805 for the year. The over-run in July is all due to higher legal fees.
- s. Printing – This area is under budget by $14,229 in July and is under budget by $23,676 for the year. The under-run in July is primarily due to lower expenses for Membership (down $11.6K), lower Marketing (down $1.0K) and lower across all other (down $1.6K).

IV. Foundation (A8)

The Foundation had a great month in July. Revenue exceeded the budget by $68,518. In addition, expenses were under budget by $25,299. Overall, the Foundation had operating income of $64,587. This was nearly $94,000 better than the budget. In addition, the investment income for July was very good. The Foundation received nearly $600,000 in investment income. So, the bottom line; The Foundation had $664,146 in net income. This was much higher than the budget.

Year to date, the Foundation is doing very well. The Foundation revenues are up, expense are down and it has a net income of $245,193. It is too early to determine which way the year will go. However, the Foundation is having a very solid start to the fiscal year. In addition, on A9, you will see the Foundation Net Assets are again above $20.5M. Another good financial indicator.

V. CDR (A11)

CDR overall had a good month in July. The only negative is revenue was a little lower than anticipated. Revenue was down $21,601. This could be due to budget distributions. Expenses were lower by $42,696 to offset the revenue shortfall. For the month of July, CDR had net income of $125,016 easily beating the original budget.

Year to date, CDR is also performing well. Revenues are just a little lower than budget (down by $16,033). Expenses, through July, are lower by $59,443. Once you couple this with the investment income, CDR had net income through July of $37,464. This was $175,287 higher than the budget. So, CDR is again outperforming the bottom line!

VI. DPGS/MIGS (A12)

The combined DPGS/MIGS had a good month in July. We are still working on the budget distributions, so, the variances for the month can be misleading. The key measure for the DPGs/MIGs is the $123,991 operating income result for July. This is a very strong number. Adding in the investment income of $206,791 resulted in the combined DPG/MIG net income of $330,782. Again, a very strong number.

Year to date, the combined DPGs/MIGs are performing well overall. The combined net income is $276,760. This is $177,393 higher than the budget. Naturally, this will increase most of the reserves. As you can see on page A16 only, one MIG is in the watch category (Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition at 72%). Everyone is doing well.

VII. ACEND (A13)

ACEND had another great month in July. Revenues were virtually on target while expenses were under budget by $25,642. Overall, ACEND had operating and net income of $2,651. This was nearly $25,000 higher than the budget.

Year to date, ACEND has operating and net income of $54,904. This is $71,765 higher than the budget. So, ACEND continues to exceed expectations and their reserves are now at $234,704.

VIII. ANDPAC (A14)

ANDPAC did not have a good month in July. However, this was by design. Revenue was higher than the target, but, expenses were $10,500 higher as well. The expenses were higher due to the PAC contributing more money in July to political candidates that they anticipated. Since the PAC reserves are high ($262,884), this is what you would want them to do.

Year to date, the PAC is running light on revenue (down $2,812) and higher on expense (up $8,167). The under-run in both cases can be attributed to timing. In addition, even after the operating deficit of $20K, the PAC still has $263,884 in reserve. The PAC is in very good financial shape.

I hope these “light” summaries will help you understand the financials better. We are still wrestling with the monthly budget distributions and we should have that wrapped up when July goes final. Don’t forget to look for the Webinar invitation and for the e-mail from Maria letting you know when items are put onto the portal.

Have a great night.

Hello All,

We are beginning to explore options for Spring/Summer 2014 to schedule Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management Programs. We have located hotel availability as noted below. Please let me know if you are available. We are looking to schedule one program in March/April and one in June 2014. The locations will be selected based on faculty availability.

Annapolis, MD – March 9-12, 2014 or March 26-28, 2014

Providence, RI – April 30 – May 2, 2014

Indianapolis, IN – June 11-14, 2014

Columbus, OH – June 18-21, 2014 or June 24-28, 2014

Thank you.

Re: 2013 Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation Corporate Award

Each year, the Academy Foundation Corporate Award Selection Committee is charged with selecting a recipient for the Academy Foundation Board's consideration and approval.

The corporate award is given to a corporation or group that has demonstrated meaningful support to the Academy Foundation through the Scholarship and Awards Program, Research Endowment, Kids Eat Right Initiative, Annual Fund or activities of the Academy through the Foundation. The support may come in the form of financial contributions, organizational service or committee involvement. A copy of this criteria document is attached.

A crystal apple is presented each year to the recipient at the Academy Foundation Gala, which takes place during the Academy's Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo. This year's event is scheduled for Monday, October 21, 2013 in Houston.

The 2013 Academy Foundation Corporate Award Selection Committee included: Evelyn F. Crayton, EdD, RD, LD, Jean H. Ragaile, RD and Kathleen W. McClusky, MS, RD, FADA.

The following organizations were considered for this year's award. Attached is an overview of the organizations giving histories.

- Coca Cola
- General Mills
- The Kellogg Company
- PepsiCo

The Academy Foundation Corporate Award Selection Committee recommends that General Mills receive the 2013 Corporate Award.

Please approve or oppose awarding the 2013 Corporate Award to General Mills via email to Amy Donatell at adonatell@eatright.org by Tuesday, August 28th. Motions conducted via email require a unanimous vote and responses should be returned within five working days. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Amy Donatell at adonatell@eatright.org or 800/877-1600 x4767.

Good morning Paul and Donna,

Please excuse my absence from the call on Tuesday. I have the calls on my calendar, however an urgent webex meeting involving some overseas colleagues with impossible schedules has trumped that.

If I was not going to be a facilitator of the event we will plan on this call, I would defer it--but that isn't possible.

I will read all of the information for the FAC call and forward questions to you.

Thanks for understanding, and my apology.

Subject: Ban of Oxford Biomedical Technology's MRT/LEAP Exhibit at 2013 AND Annual Conference

August 20, 2013

Dear AND Board of Directors and Colorado Delegate, Alena Clark:

Since time is of essence before Oxford Biomedical Technologies decides that taking legal action against AND is the only source open to them to prevent AND from blocking their access to their customer base while allowing their competitor, Cell Science Systems (marketers of the old ALCAT test), access to that customer base, I am writing my grave concern and protest against AND's unjust, unethical, and unreasonable ban/rejection of Oxford's MRT/LEAP booth for this year's AND FNCE Annual Conference. It is my understanding that an Ethical Complaint is being filed by several dietitians whose many patients have enjoyed great success and relief of their chronic symptoms with the LEAP Program over the past 8 years. Some of these Dietitians are very well known and well respected by their peers, including myself.

The reasons or grounds for rejection have no basis of fact. The reasons, as I understand it, first stated that Oxford's "LEAP" program is "not an approved NIH test for IgE allergy testing", which is not what it was ever designed for. Now they are being banned because "genetic or genomic tests applied to nutritional solutions are unproven." This is not a genomic test. I have in ten years never seen nor heard of any genetic or genomic basis for the LEAP treatment protocols or testing, and I have no idea who could have dreamed this up. None of these reasons for barring this company and its products are true. To allow them to exhibit this year (as they have done every year for a decade) reflects an endorsement by AND of LEAP. In which case you have also endorsed their competitors while condemning them, and endorsed everyone else you allow to exhibit.

Dietary and lifestyle counseling are provided based on a blood test for delayed non-IgE food/chemical sensitivities, a topic I see is on the training agenda for FNCE. So, after these many years, it is hardly unproven. As LEAP Dietitians, we have steadily seen amazing changes in our client's health. It provides an opportunity to make effective, patient-directed changes in an individual's eating habits when other attempts have failed. The treatment method specifically targets the proven causal basis of the symptoms of IBS-D, Fibromyalgia and Migraines. We have recruited over 1,000 RDs and Nutritionists to become Certified LEAP Therapists to participate professionally in this unique patented test for delayed non-IgE food/chemical Sensitivities.

Please quickly address this issue immediately and allow LEAP and the CLT course to, again, as it has for many years, simply be seen in a booth at FNCE and permit Registered Dietitians the right, and grant us the respect and dignity innate in that right, to look at products and services which can help our patients and make up our own minds about whether we choose to use those services, just like the other vendors such as Soft Drink and grossly over processed food vendors who are allowed to market to us, often with the very products that make our patients ill.

I do know personally the officers and doctors who own and operate Oxford personally. They are, unlike many companies who you have welcomed into the exhibit area, true healthcare professionals who developed this program so RD's can improve patient care. I also know that it pains them, especially their CEO, who is a healthcare professional with a career spanning 40+ years in the industry, to see that you leave them no alternative but to take swift and decisive legal action against AND to correct this wrong which is being directed at them for reasons that are unknown, but which will soon be public record of the worst kind if they are banned from exhibiting as you are now doing.

Hi Donna,

I think that you are the faculty member who added the attached report on the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Healthy School for Healthy Kids initiative to the prework readings. We informed by Robert Wood Johnson Foundation that report from this initiative is outdated. Do you have a replacement for this report or should it remain as part of the reading?

Thank you.

August 20, 2013

Dear AND Board of Directors and Colorado Delegate, Alena Clark:

Since time is of essence before Oxford Biomedical Technologies decides that taking legal action against AND is the only source open to them to prevent AND from blocking their access to their customer base while allowing their competitor, Cell Science Systems (marketers of the old ALCAT test), access to that customer base, I am writing my grave concern and protest against AND's unjust, unethical, and unreasonable ban/rejection of Oxford's MRT/LEAP booth for this year's AND FNCE Annual Conference. It is my understanding that an Ethical Complaint is being filed by several dietitians whose many patients have enjoyed great success and relief of their chronic symptoms with the LEAP Program over the past 8 years. Some of these Dietitians are very well known and well respected by their peers, including myself.

The reasons or grounds for rejection have no basis of fact. The reasons, as I understand it, first stated that Oxford's "LEAP" program is "not an approved NIH test for IgE allergy testing", which is not what it was ever designed for. Now they are being banned because "genetic or genomic tests applied to nutritional solutions are unproven." This is not a genomic test. I have in ten years never seen nor heard of any genetic or genomic basis for the LEAP treatment protocols or testing, and I have no idea who could have dreamed this up. None of these reasons for barring this company and its products are true. To allow them to exhibit this year (as they have done every year for a decade) reflects an endorsement by AND of LEAP. In which case you have also endorsed their competitors while condemning them, and endorsed everyone else you allow to exhibit.

Dietary and lifestyle counseling are provided based on a blood test for delayed non-IgE food/chemical sensitivities, a topic I see is on the training agenda for FNCE. So, after these many years, it is hardly unproven. As LEAP Dietitians, we have steadily seen amazing changes in our client's health. It provides an opportunity to make effective, patient-directed changes in an individual's eating habits when other attempts have failed. The treatment method specifically targets the proven causal basis of the symptoms of IBS-D, Fibromyalgia and Migraines. We have recruited over 1,000 RDs and Nutritionists to become Certified LEAP Therapists to participate professionally in this unique patented test for delayed non-IgE food/chemical Sensitivities.

Please quickly address this issue immediately and allow LEAP and the CLT course to, again, as it has for many years, simply be seen in a booth at FNCE and permit Registered Dietitians the right, and grant us the respect and dignity innate in that right, to look at products and services which can help our patients and make up our own minds about whether we choose to use those services, just like the other vendors such as Soft Drink and grossly over processed food vendors who are allowed to market to us, often with the very products that make our patients ill.

I do know personally the officers and doctors who own and operate Oxford personally. They are, unlike many companies who you have welcomed into the exhibit area, true healthcare professionals who developed this program so RD's can improve patient care. I also know that it pains them, especially their CEO, who is a healthcare professional with a career spanning 40+ years in the industry, to see that you leave them no alternative but to take swift and decisive legal action against AND to correct this wrong which is being directed at them for reasons that are unknown, but which will soon be public record of the worst kind if they are banned from exhibiting as you are now doing.

The Academy has been overseeing the Home Food Safety program since 1999 and has owned the HomeFoodSafety.org site for more than 14 years.

This morning I had a positive one-on-one conversation with Dawn Sweeney, CEO of NRA, regarding this issue. We agreed that our long-standing relationship is much more important than a domain name and do not want to have anything impact it adversely. Dawn will offer some proposed changes to their site's URL by September 15, at which point the Academy can begin working toward securing the domain HomeFoodSafety.com from NRA. The conversation ended very amicably, and we will be discussing some potential ways to complement each other's efforts and possibly integrate content.

Donna,

Thank you for the delightful update and photo! I am glad that you, and the other meeting attendees were able to educate and engage Representative Barrow on our behalf. These meetings with legislators do help them get to know us and the issues we care about. I know the other attendees were glad to have you there to alleviate any pre-meeting anxiety they may have felt. It definitely gets easier to meet with them after you've done it once. This is another reason why it is so important for us all to start forming relationships with our elected officials.

Thank you for your leadership,

Janice

Janice, Attached is a photo of our meeting with Representative John Barrow. We had 5 Registered Dietitians in attendance and one Dietetic Student. The meeting went very well and I think everyone who attended had a very positive experience. John Barrow did not act like he knew much about the bill, but was very supportive of the bill and of us coming to talk to him. He said he would get his staff right on learning more about it. I think several of the Dietitians were nervous before the meeting, but were very excited after the meeting to see how approachable the legislators really are. I think they will not hesitate to go back again, when they need to. Thanks for all of you did to prepare us for the meeting. One thing I did, and I think was very helpful, was to make name tags with our credentials on them for the meeting. That helped me since I did not know everyone, but I think also helped John Barrow when he asked questions. He really did not have any questions about the bill, but stated that it is really hard to get anything done in Washington because of grid lock. One thing I failed to mention and that he did ask, was what group we were representing. That was an easy answer!

Cindy, I will listen out for your call tonight. I have plans this evening and may not be available when you call.

Other states are taking similar efforts to educate their members and let them know how important this legislation is. The speakers on our monthly PPC calls frequently refer to this grassroots strategy for organizing and educating members. Our members certainly have the right to choose whether or not they advocate for the profession and clients. If this legislation is as important as many of the leaders on this email chain have said they believe it is, I hope we can all join together and help spread the word further about it.

I would like to take a moment to commend the work of the Augusta district. I reached out to them on Thursday evening to let them know that only 11 RD's had contacted Representative Barrow regarding the legislation. As they had 5 RD's from their district attending a meeting with Representative Barrow the following day, they acknowledged the importance of activating their membership immediately. Tracey Neely, Rachel Johanek and Cindy Wallerich crafted personal letters, got on the phone with their members and called RD facility managers the next morning to ask they speak with their RD staff about the legislation and the importance of the action alert. This is a truly great example of how grassroots organizing works and I appreciate their support.

I am glad that we are having some discussion amongst the 40+ people who are cc'd on this email chain. However, it is time to take the vast wealth of knowledge and passion that we have to the other 1400+ members out there who aren't a part of this discussion.

Have a good one,

Janice

Well said, I'm not a voting member but would say aye! To note, when/if this goes through, Medicaid is on it's heels followed by private pay. This is a service already reimbursed, we are providers already recognized by CMS, and the cost savings are 85% for RDN vs MD. These are points that have gotten attention. An interesting talking point that the intern working in the Washington office uncovered when he looked at every piece of research on cost benefit of RD providing IBT or MNT; if we were to go back to the obesity/overweight status of 1980, we would save $1 trillion dollars between 2005 - 2030!

It is shameful that our profession cares so little about what our organization is trying to accomplish that they will not spend a minute or two to point and click to send out this or any message. It is my understanding this is a clean bill without pork rolled into it so there should be no issue about added cost not related to healthcare. I think it is more of an issue of taking a few minutes to open the email and send the message rather than a second to delete it.

As Julie said, it doesn't matter if a dietitian accepts reimbursement for services. I think this bill in particular is about making us relevant in healthcare and puts us on the map as a profession that has something other than hairnets, spatulas and aprons to offer. Reimbursement in hospital settings (and hospital satellite settings) for this service will increase the value of the licensed dietitian and further reinforce licensure. Hospitals are having a tough financial time and they are being held accountable now, more than ever for their outcomes. An income producing and result driven rather than a spending nutrition department makes us relevant.

It also has everything to do with respect. If our colleagues have so little respect for what our profession is trying to accomplish that they can't take a few minutes out of their day to point and click, we are doomed as a profession!

I know we can't shame people by adding their names to an email list of who did not vote, but certainly, we can send out a list of who did. Maybe this will help push people to respond. Kind of like making people accountable. Maybe we should do a raffle. We could pick a dietitian for each action alert and offer them free admission to ACE. And once a year, we can offer an all expense paid trip to ACE for a member who voted in all action alerts. This would be a good reason to send out a list: so everyone who voted knows they were counted and added to the hat to be drawn. Can we bring up a motion in the meeting next week? All in favor say "aye".

Sorry for the rant!

I would like to add to what Janice has encouraged us all to do. I had the opportunity to go to Washington DC this week with Linda Gigliotti and Anne Wolf as representatives of the WMDPG and the Academy to lobby for this legislation, along with representatives of the other organizations sponsoring this bill. Whether or not you are currently impacted by the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act or not, whether or not you currently accept insurance or plan to in the future, this act may literally impact the future of reimbursement for our profession. If you were a member of congress and less than 1% of the profession lobbying for reimbursement cared enough to spend 2 minutes, what would you do? With your connections, you can make an impact.

Affiliate Presidents- 71%- up from 14%

Statewide participation- 7%- up from 5%

While our response rates have improved, our overall response rate of 7% statewide is extremely low. Georgia has some very important legislators who can be instrumental in the passage of the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act but they must hear from their constituents!

The TROA action alert will be sent out again to all members. I am asking that you forward it on to all of the RD's you know and ask them to respond to it.

Attached to this email. you wil find an issue brief. Please feel free to use it and pass along to other RD's. If you have any questions about TROA or how to send in action alerts, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am happy to help and support you in any way that I can.

Subject: National Restaurant Association

Importance: High

On July 10, 2013, we sent the attached cease and desist communication to the National Restaurant Association (NRA) requesting it change its homefoodsafety.com website to another domain name to avoid confusion with the Academy's popular homefoodsafety.org. The Academy has been overseeing the Home Food Safety program since 1999 and has owned the HomeFoodSafety.org site for more than 14 years.

This morning I had a positive one-on-one conversation with Dawn Sweeney, CEO of NRA, regarding this issue. We agreed that our long-standing relationship is much more important than a domain name and do not want to have anything impact it adversely. Dawn will offer some proposed changes to their site's URL by September 15, at which point the Academy can begin working toward securing the domain HomeFoodSafety.com from NRA. The conversation ended very amicably, and we will be discussing some potential ways to complement each other's efforts and possibly integrate content.

Thanks, Donna. Your comments are exactly how I felt as well. So many moments of culture shock, but also so many opportunities for collaboration with wonderful people very interested in nutrition.

Hope all is well with you!

Hi everyone, thank you for providing your availability for the dates below. The March and April dates will not work based on your availability. It looks like we may be able to schedule a program on June 18-21, 2014; however, the location may change. Please save this date on your calendar and will confirm later with the specifics.

We need to schedule a program prior to June 1, 2014 to meet budget. We have located availability in Buffalo, New York for May 19-21 (Monday to Wednesday) and May 28-30 (Thursday to Saturday – Memorial Day is May 26). Are you available?

Thank you.

Subject: Availability - Locations for Spring /Summer 2014 Weight Management Programs

Hello All,

We are beginning to explore options for Spring/Summer 2014 to schedule Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management Programs. We have located hotel availability as noted below. Please let me know if you are available. We are looking to schedule one program in March/April and one in June 2014. The locations will be selected based on faculty availability.

Annapolis, MD – March 9-12, 2014 or March 26-28, 2014

Providence, RI – April 30 – May 2, 2014

Indianapolis, IN – June 11-14, 2014

Columbus, OH – June 18-21, 2014 or June 24-28, 2014

Thank you.

Janice, Attached is a photo of our meeting with Representative John Barrow. We had 5 Registered Dietitians in attendance and one Dietetic Student. The meeting went very well and I think everyone who attended had a very positive experience. John Barrow did not act like he knew much about the bill, but was very supportive of the bill and of us coming to talk to him. He said he would get his staff right on learning more about it. I think several of the Dietitians were nervous before the meeting, but were very excited after the meeting to see how approachable the legislators really are. I think they will not hesitate to go back again, when they need to. Thanks for all of you did to prepare us for the meeting. One thing I did, and I think was very helpful, was to make name tags with our credentials on them for the meeting. That helped me since I did not know everyone, but I think also helped John Barrow when he asked questions. He really did not have any questions about the bill, but stated that it is really hard to get anything done in Washington because of grid lock. One thing I failed to mention and that he did ask, was what group we were representing. That was an easy answer!

Cindy, I will listen out for your call tonight. I have plans this evening and may not be available when you call.

Other states are taking similar efforts to educate their members and let them know how important this legislation is. The speakers on our monthly PPC calls frequently refer to this grassroots strategy for organizing and educating members. Our members certainly have the right to choose whether or not they advocate for the profession and clients. If this legislation is as important as many of the leaders on this email chain have said they believe it is, I hope we can all join together and help spread the word further about it.

I would like to take a moment to commend the work of the Augusta district. I reached out to them on Thursday evening to let them know that only 11 RD's had contacted Representative Barrow regarding the legislation. As they had 5 RD's from their district attending a meeting with Representative Barrow the following day, they acknowledged the importance of activating their membership immediately. Tracey Neely, Rachel Johanek and Cindy Wallerich crafted personal letters, got on the phone with their members and called RD facility managers the next morning to ask they speak with their RD staff about the legislation and the importance of the action alert. This is a truly great example of how grassroots organizing works and I appreciate their support.

I am glad that we are having some discussion amongst the 40+ people who are cc'd on this email chain. However, it is time to take the vast wealth of knowledge and passion that we have to the other 1400+ members out there who aren't a part of this discussion.

Have a good one,

Janice

I would like to request that at least 9 other GAND leaders join me in making phone calls to our members. Let's us tell our membership know how important this bill is to our profession and demonstrate our dedication to getting it passed by reaching out directly. If 10 of us participate it will be approximately 15 phone calls to make per person. If more that 10 would like to participate, the number of calls will be even less. If you will answer this call to action with me, please send me a SEPARATE email with the subject "count me in."

Thanks for your leadership,

Janice

Well said, I'm not a voting member but would say aye! To note, when/if this goes through, Medicaid is on it's heels followed by private pay. This is a service already reimbursed, we are providers already recognized by CMS, and the cost savings are 85% for RDN vs MD. These are points that have gotten attention. An interesting talking point that the intern working in the Washington office uncovered when he looked at every piece of research on cost benefit of RD providing IBT or MNT; if we were to go back to the obesity/overweight status of 1980, we would save $1 trillion dollars between 2005 - 2030!

It is shameful that our profession cares so little about what our organization is trying to accomplish that they will not spend a minute or two to point and click to send out this or any message. It is my understanding this is a clean bill without pork rolled into it so there should be no issue about added cost not related to healthcare. I think it is more of an issue of taking a few minutes to open the email and send the message rather than a second to delete it.

As Julie said, it doesn't matter if a dietitian accepts reimbursement for services. I think this bill in particular is about making us relevant in healthcare and puts us on the map as a profession that has something other than hairnets, spatulas and aprons to offer. Reimbursement in hospital settings (and hospital satellite settings) for this service will increase the value of the licensed dietitian and further reinforce licensure. Hospitals are having a tough financial time and they are being held accountable now, more than ever for their outcomes. An income producing and result driven rather than a spending nutrition department makes us relevant.

It also has everything to do with respect. If our colleagues have so little respect for what our profession is trying to accomplish that they can't take a few minutes out of their day to point and click, we are doomed as a profession!

I know we can't shame people by adding their names to an email list of who did not vote, but certainly, we can send out a list of who did. Maybe this will help push people to respond. Kind of like making people accountable. Maybe we should do a raffle. We could pick a dietitian for each action alert and offer them free admission to ACE. And once a year, we can offer an all expense paid trip to ACE for a member who voted in all action alerts. This would be a good reason to send out a list: so everyone who voted knows they were counted and added to the hat to be drawn. Can we bring up a motion in the meeting next week? All in favor say "aye".

Sorry for the rant!

I would like to add to what Janice has encouraged us all to do. I had the opportunity to go to Washington DC this week with Linda Gigliotti and Anne Wolf as representatives of the WMDPG and the Academy to lobby for this legislation, along with representatives of the other organizations sponsoring this bill. Whether or not you are currently impacted by the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act or not, whether or not you currently accept insurance or plan to in the future, this act may literally impact the future of reimbursement for our profession. If you were a member of congress and less than 1% of the profession lobbying for reimbursement cared enough to spend 2 minutes, what would you do? With your connections, you can make an impact.

Response Rate:

Executive Committee- 71%- up from 50%

Affiliate Presidents- 71%- up from 14%

Remaining leadership positions- 32%- up from 29%

Statewide participation- 7%- up from 5%

While our response rates have improved, our overall response rate of 7% statewide is extremely low. Georgia has some very important legislators who can be instrumental in the passage of the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act but they must hear from their constituents!

TheTROA action alert (<http://www.eatright.org/members/actioncenter.aspx>)will be sent out again to all members. I am asking that you forward it on to all of the RD's you know and ask them to respond to it.

Attached to this email. you wil find an issue brief. Please feel free to use it and pass along to other RD's. If you have any questions about TROA or how to send in action alerts, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am happy to help and support you in any way that I can.

Pat and colleagues,

One of the things I value about our Academy is the dedication and loyalty of many of our staff. Their longevity, the footprints of success they have left for all of us, their regard by so many members and volunteers who have been touched by their assistance and guidance is evidence of the mutual respect we all share.

Please convey our deep appreciation to Harold on behalf of all of us for his expertise and continuous value he brings to the Academy and our mission to both the members and the public.

Where are the dead bodies? Toxicology experts hit back at latest attack on food additive safety system

(The second paper from researchers at Pew Health published this month to argue that the system governing the safety of food additives is deeply flawed, fails to provide any evidence that it has allowed harmful substances to slip through the net, say toxicology experts)

It is interesting! I was thinking about this on the way to work this morning – how we want everything and want respect, but then when the opportunity arises, we are paralyzed. I think about how much time and energy it took to get the bill introduced, no easy task. I also think about how much we have put into make the resources available and the process easy. We have visited over 50 offices in the past 6 weeks to make these August visits go easier. The action alert is one small, but very important piece. We can go into an office and tell them – we know that XX number of our members have communicated with you on this issue.

Member engagement is a goal. I am glad to see some of the public policy leaders speaking up. I think we have to engage these leaders and get them fired up and give them the tools they need to get their members to take action. Their role is critical!

Let me know how the visit goes, we met with Hill and he knew you by name J

Paul, First off - how is your son adjusting to college? Secondly, How is your family adjusting? Thirdly, thanks for taking the lead on this presentation. I have been thinking about this a lot and have several thoughts on what I think we need to present.

1. I think we need to do the pie chart on where our revenue comes from.
2. I think we need to do the pie chart on where our revenue goes.
3. We do want to convey that we are in a very strong fiscal position and that are membership is as high as it has ever been.
4. I would love to do something that talks about some of the big new projects that our revenue supports like the (2) new websites, Evidence Analysis Library, 5 new Mobile applications, hiring someone to help with Licensure battles, ANDDI, Washington Office staff, Nutrition Care Manual (maybe you can think of some other things). I did get a list from Barbara Visocan on what members rated as the top benefits of membership, and I think most of these would cover those areas.
5. I don't know if we could say something about if we did not have sponsorship, then we would not be able to do a lot of these innovative things? I know that is a touchy area, but I would like to somehow get in a plug for our sponsorship money and how much we depend on it.
6. I would also like to mention the statistic that 42% (?) of our operating budget comes from dues.
7. I know there are some typical things we need to include, so I will leave those to you, but my goal is to try and make them really get something out of what I talk about. I just don't want it to be a bunch of numbers that do not mean a thing to them!

Those are my thoughts for now, but I wanted the tone to be mostly that we are in great financial shape, and that the academy is doing great things to meet the needs of our members. Which is why are membership numbers are so high and we are starting to really be recognized as the nation's food and nutrition leaders.

Thanks again for taking the lead. You make this job a piece of cake

Donna,

You are on the schedule for the HOD meeting addressing the financial status of the Academy. I usually take a cut at the presentation and provide it to you for adjustments and changes. It will make your life a little easier. So, if that is fine with you, do you have any "specifics" that you would like to have included? Or is there anything you would like to emphasize? Keep in mind you only have 10 minutes, so, it is difficult to emphasize too much. Let me know and I will begin the process.

I wanted to update you on some recent developments regarding the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo Hot Topic session "Public-Private Collaborations." As you may have seen, literally within minutes of the session information being posted to eatright.org, it was criticized on Academy member Andy Bellatti's "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" Facebook page and his Twitter feed. Just as quickly, Mr. Bellatti emailed Diane Moore-Enos, Director of Professional Development, to complain that the session was not structured as a point-counterpoint debate.

Mr. Bellatti erroneously believes – and has repeatedly said so on the Internet – that he was assured the session would be organized as a "dialogue" between RDNs who would criticize the Academy's corporate sponsorship program and other RDNs who would presumably defend it. He also came to believe, erroneously, that he would have input in the development of the session. These misconceptions have repeatedly found their way to his Facebook page, where his followers accept them as factual.

In a thoughtful and reasoned reply, Diane explained to Mr. Bellatti why the session was structured as it is. Her reply was instantly posted to Mr. Bellatti's Facebook page, with a predictably negative response from him.

Since you may receive questions from members or others about this session and its development, we wanted you to be aware of the following facts, which Diane has already communicated to Mr. Bellatti:

- Cross-sector collaborations is an issue that goes beyond the Academy and beyond corporate sponsorship.
- The topic deserves a wider discussion than could be accomplished at one FNCE session.
- This important issue has more than two sides.
- The national-level committee of Academy members that directs the FNCE educational program and provides oversight for session development supported approaching this topic through an independent, expert speaker with no ties to the Academy.
- The invited speaker, Michael Specter, is an award-winning writer at The New Yorker whose work focuses on science, health and technology. He is eminently qualified to speak at this session.
- Approximately one-third of the session (substantially more time than usual) will consist of Q&A, allowing attendees plenty of time to ask questions and have a meaningful, professional dialogue on cross-sector collaborations.
- The session's format will allow for clear lines of conversation on public-private collaborations, without evolving into an airing of the personal opinions or biases.
- To extend the conversation beyond FNCE, questions emerging from the session will be used to develop further professional education opportunities for Academy members.

None of these facts changed Mr. Bellatti's views regarding the session. As part of his critique of the Academy and this session, using terms like "oppression," he is now encouraging his Facebook followers (the majority of whom are neither Academy members nor RDNs) to email form letters to Glenna, Sonja and Diane, expressing disapproval of the format and the speaker, and demanding a point-counterpoint format.

Despite this campaign, I am confident that the format and the session's intended goal are appropriate for FNCE and will offer attendees an interesting and thought-provoking look at a topic of great importance to the Academy and other organizations that are engaged in public-private relationships.

We used Dr. Covello's message guidelines in developing the following response from Diane to members submitting the form letter.

On behalf of the Academy, we thank you for your email. The session is intended to be educational in nature on the topic of Public Private Collaborations. It does in fact include the opportunity to share viewpoints during the extended Q&A. Please remember, this is the first conversation, which starts with education. Questions that emerge will continue the dialogue, including member point-counterpoint panels. Hope to see you at FNCE!

I am excited about this session, and I hope you are too. You know from the Board retreat how hard we are working to make sure the Academy does what is best for all our members in terms of relationships with outside organizations.

Please use the information in Diane's response as talking points with members. We will continue to monitor the situation and will keep you posted. Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

SUBJECT: Academy Nominations

I am writing to request your assistance in helping identify future leaders for the Academy. We depend on suggestions for nominations from the affiliates, DPGs, MIGs and Organizational Units. Your input is critical to our success in selecting candidates for the national ballot who will ensure a viable future for the Academy and profession. We know there are individuals in your group who would make excellent leaders and we ask your help in submitting their names to the Nominating Committee.

The process of soliciting candidates to be considered has begun, with a deadline of September 9 for President-elect, Speaker-elect and Treasurer-elect. The deadline is critical, as the Nominating Committee will interview these candidates at the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo in the fall. Potential candidates for all other positions are due by October 25.

As you plan for your meetings and conference calls, I encourage you to add to the agenda discussion of members to submit to the Nominating Committee. I would be happy to join your call to explain the process and the qualifications in more detail.

For more information about the responsibilities and qualifications for each position, go to www.eatright.org/qualifications. Members should use the Call for Nominations form to submit names for ballot positions, which is on the Academy's website at www.eatright.org/elections.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. I look forward to working with you in promoting leadership in the Academy and finding the best-qualified candidates for the ballot.

Pat and colleagues,

One of the things I value about our Academy is the dedication and loyalty of many of our staff. Their longevity, the footprints of success they have left for all of us, their regard by so many members and volunteers who have been touched by their assistance and guidance is evidence of the mutual respect we all share.

Please convey our deep appreciation to Harold on behalf of all of us for his expertise and continuous value he brings to the Academy and our mission to both the members and the public.

Please wish Harold the best on his special day! He is a strong, steady, extremely capable and competent leader that we depend on for all of our governance issues. We appreciate him so much – especially on HLT! 20 years – wow! He is an icon of the HOD!

PS – Instead of TP... Let's throw him a Hawaiian Luau style celebration next time we are together - with an emphasis on 'Drink Right' J

Warmest regards,

I believe I promised you some information regarding how members and non-members view the 55+ benefits that the Academy has to offer. As I recall, you were going to work in some information about these into your FNCE Treasurer presentation. Please note that the benefits, as rated by the members and non-members who participated in the Needs Survey last year, have been grouped into 3 tiers of value/preference. The top third are, of course, the most valued. Please let me know if you have any questions or need any more information. Barbara

I am just returning from a productive and yet informal lunch with the SNA staff leaders. It was great to have Teresa Nece be able to join us.

Both of your ears should be burning...Donna for your great leadership in both organizations and even more for your daily work with the students. Pat, for your support of staff making our job much easier and rewarding. J I did volunteer that on your next trip here we would make time for a meeting with them as well.

The Expo Hall

Be prepared when you walk into the Expo Hall by visiting the FNCE® Web site, www.eatright.org/fnce. Here you will find more than 350 companies listed alphabetically, by booth number or by product category. Prepare for your FNCE Expo experience:

- Identify the products and services that will provide solutions for immediate or long-range issues you are facing in your job.
- Gather company and product information on all of 2013 FNCE exhibitors.
- Learn about products and latest trends in food, nutrition, diabetes management, clinical nutrition, and specialty foods.
- Check out our new pavilions Vegetarian and Kids Healthy Trail!
- Discover advances in computer software and systems.
- Cultivate resources that will help you stay ahead of the competition.
- Plan questions for company representatives.
- Maximize your exhibit time by exploring companies in advance online and on our NEW! FNCE App!

The New Product Showcase

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has just made it easier to find new products before, during and after the show! The New Product Showcase is a virtual showcase that allows you to get a first look at new products from FNCE exhibitors! These products are online now and will stay online 3 months post-FNCE. Not to mention, they will be showcased in slideshow format outside the Expo hall on-site! So what are you waiting for? This is your opportunity to see the latest trends and products in the food and nutrition industry! Check out the New Product Showcase today!

The Member Product MarketPlace

Are you an Academy member who owns their own product? Are you attending FNCE? If so, consider exhibiting at the Member Product MarketPlace! The Academy has extended the deadline to sign up and you won't want to miss participating in this exciting showcase! There is no greater opportunity to promote your products to over 8,500 of your peers. Not to mention, your company will be included in the first-ever FNCE App talk about exposure! The Member Product MarketPlace will be Sunday, October 20, 2013, from 8 a.m. 4 p.m. in the 3rd Floor Foyer of the George R. Brown Convention Center across from the educational sessions and near the Skybridge Walkway. For more information and to read the prospectus, click here.

Become a Student Host at FNCE® 2013!

Student Members in eligible states and programs have the opportunity to serve as Student Hosts. All Student Hosts receive complimentary FNCE® registration in exchange for providing event assistance (for seven hours) during the conference. In addition to receiving complimentary registration, hosts receive a rare opportunity to help out behind the scenes and network with their peers as well as meet leaders in the field of dietetics. The application will be open August 5-30. To find out more information, please visit the Student Host information page or apply now!

Be Prepared When You Walk into the Expo Hall

Plan your time in the Expo Hall by visiting the FNCE® Web site, www.eatright.org/fnce. Here you will find more than 350 companies listed alphabetically, by booth number or by product category. Prepare for your FNCE Expo experience:

- Identify the products and services that will provide solutions for immediate or long-range issues you are facing in your job.

- Gather company and product information on all of 2013 FNCE exhibitors.
- Learn about products and latest trends in food, nutrition, diabetes management, clinical nutrition, and specialty foods.
- And More!

Find New Products at the New Product Showcase

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has just made it easier to find new products before, during and after the show! The New Product Showcase is a virtual showcase that allows you to get a first look at new products from FNCE exhibitors! These products are online now and will stay online 3 months post-FNCE. This is your opportunity to see the latest trends and products in the food and nutrition industry. Check out the New Product Showcase today. Click here.

The Member Product MarketPlace

Are you an Academy member that owns their own product? If so, consider exhibiting at the Member Product MarketPlace. The Academy has extended the deadline to sign up and you won't want to miss participating in this exciting showcase. There is no greater opportunity to promote your products to over 8,500 of your peers. Not to mention, your company will be included in the first-ever FNCE App talk about exposure. The Member Product MarketPlace will be Sunday, October 20, 2013, from 8 a.m. 4 p.m. in the 3rd Floor Foyer of the George R. Brown Convention Center across from the educational sessions and near the Skybridge Walkway. For more information and to read the prospectus, click here.

Holly,

As I mentioned in July, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics would need a total of $1,000,000 moved from reserves. The first amount of $500,000 was moved in July. Attached is our request to move the remaining $500,000. This does not have to be done today. I recognize that the reduction in cash will push the Academy portfolio to at least 65% in equities. This is at the top limit of our equity threshold. In the event this action takes the portfolio beyond the 65% in equities as defined in our policies, AI has permission to exceed this level as he deems appropriate.

I don't anticipate additional cash needs at this time. However, I will keep AI apprised in the event this changes. If you have any question or concerns, please let me know.

You have such a way with words. I think you ought to write books when you retire. I totally understand about having good kids. So few people can say that about their children. I listen to Mary Russell talk about how her son has lost his way, and all the problems she has with him, and I am so thankful that I have never had to deal with those problems. I tell my kids all the time how appreciative I am of them, and how little trouble (actually none) they gave me growing up. I do not take much of the credit. I think they came into this world with good heads on their shoulders and I just kept them on the right path. Putting the time in when they are young, really does help in the long run. As adults they are terrific friends. Ages 28 and 31. Every stage they go through has its good points and you are embarking on a great stage. You will now see how all your hard work will pay off in spades. All you can do now is pray for them, listen to them, support them (financially, emotionally and spiritually) and love them unconditionally. I look forward to hearing how great he does on the field and in school. It can be done!

Donna,

You are right about my son. It is funny how he has been hanging around the house more. I think he is already beginning to "miss" us in some ways. He is a good kid and I hope he keeps his head on straight. More importantly, he needs to study!!! His soccer schedule will be brutal for the first few weeks. We drop him off at school a week from Monday. They grow up fast!! Your grandson will be off to school before you know it! Kids do take a lot of energy. Last week, in Kansas City, the coach's 3 year old and 2 year old boys decided they liked me. Go figure. They kept me running for 3 days. What I got out of that was a very bad cold!! I have been sick ever since. I had forgotten what a pool of germs little kids are. I was never sick until my kids went to school. Then it seemed like I was sick for 18 years!! Oh well, the greatest thing is little children are blank canvases and we can help them become the great works of art God intended.

Have a great weekend and I will talk to you soon.

Paul, Thank you for letting me know, and I absolutely remember that we were going to need $500,000 in the near future. I do not have any questions or concerns. The investment reserves news is great. I know you all are getting ready for your son to go off to college. It is such a bittersweet time. Just keep in mind, that this is exactly what you raised him to do! The good news about them going off to college, is that somehow the parents all of a sudden get much smarter in the children's eyes. I am keeping my 7 month old grandson by myself this weekend, so I will be ready to come back to work on Monday for sure. Even though he is so sweet, it is obvious to me why God did not intend for "old people" to have children. My goal is to keep him safe until they return. My husband gets back from Ireland Saturday night, so he will be a lot of help after that. Have a good weekend!

Donna,

As you may recall, we removed $500,000 from the reserves in July. At that time I mentioned we may need to move a total of $1,000,000. I anticipate we will need to move the remaining $500,000 next week. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns. Our cash is low, but sufficient to meet our needs in the short term. That being said, I don't want to get caught short and have to react quickly to any cash requirements. You can never tell when large bills may come up. When the request goes out to Segall, Bryant and Hamill, I will "cc" you on the request.

On a bright note; the combined investment reserves were up approximately $1,720,000 in July. A nice return for the Academy and the Foundation! Have a great weekend and if you have any questions, please let me know.

You have such a way with words. I think you ought to write books when you retire. I totally understand about having good kids. So few people can say that about their children. I listen to Mary Russell talk about how her son has lost his way, and all the problems she has with him, and I am so thankful that I have never had to deal with those problems. I tell my kids all the time how appreciative I am of them, and how little trouble (actually none) they gave me growing up. I do not take much of the credit. I think they came into this world with good heads on their shoulders and I just kept them on the right path. Putting the time in when they are young, really does help in the long run. As adults they are terrific friends. Ages 28 and 31. Every stage they go through has its good points and you are embarking on a great stage. DATE: August 2, 2013

TO: Committee, Sub-committee, Task Force and Workgroup Members

FROM: Dr. Glenna McCollum, MPH, RDN
President 2013-2014
The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

As a member-led organization, our collaborative leadership is vital to the future success of our profession. Like the century of leaders before us, what we do, what we say, the challenges we are willing to embrace, the risks we are willing to take, and the leadership we demonstrate together, will impact the health of our nation and determine the opportunities of our profession for generations to come. Your leadership is crucial. The voice you have and the example you set will empower our members to be the food and nutrition leaders. Thus, I have three things to ask of you as you provide leadership in 2013-2014.

YOUR TIME: BE PURPOSEFUL

Begin with the end in mind whether at work, leading a team or completing a project, be efficient and effective by making the complex simple. Keep the Academy's mission and vision (<http://www.eatright.org/strategicplan/>) at the forefront of your mind and your work, and share them often with those around you.

The new name of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the new optional credential of the registered dietitian nutritionist (RDN) are helping to position our profession at the top of the list when our nation seeks leaders who can help improve the health of our nation. As CNNMoney indicated in its 2011 online article (<http://money.cnn.com/magazines/moneymag/best-jobs/2011/jobs-helping-others/3.html>), dietetics ranks third among professions most likely to change the world for the better. Embrace the positive opportunities we have to do just that.

YOUR TREASURE: SET THE EXAMPLE

The Academy is our organization and nutrition and dietetics is our profession, but we didn't get here alone! In a century of rich history, our history Carry the Flame (<https://www.eatright.org/shop/product.aspx?id=4894>) reminds us that we stand on the shoulders of giants - of women and men who had a vision for a healthy nation and were willing to work hard, take action, fight for policy changes, contribute financially and create a legacy. Our leaders nearly 100 years ago made an investment in us by creating a profession to be proud of, and to benefit from.

And now, it is our turn to be investors: The next generations will stand on our shoulders. What we do together now makes a difference and creates our legacy. I'm asking you as a leader to set an example by becoming a philanthropist for our profession and contributing to our policy initiatives.

Set an example as a leader:

- Join the EatRight Society. Make a $250 tax deductible donation to the Academy's Foundation (<http://www.eatright.org/foundation>) in support of research, scholarships, Kids Eat Right (<http://www.eatright.org/foundation/kidseatright/>) and so much more.
- Join the President's Circle. Make a $250 contribution to the Academy's Political Action Committee (<http://www.eatright.org/andpac>). With nutrition and dietetics as our profession, politics must be our passion.
- Young Professionals and Students: Begin your investment now. Make a $50 donation to the Foundation (<http://www.eatright.org/foundation>) and a contribution to ANDPAC (<http://www.eatright.org/andpac>). By doing so, you make investment in the professional organization whose future belongs to you.

YOUR TALENTS: HELP OTHERS LEAD

Speaking "from leader to leader," thank you to all members for sharing your talents and expertise with the Academy. When you take an active leadership role, you can do much toward realizing your dreams and passions. In the words of Warren Bennis, a pioneer in the field of leadership studies: "The process of becoming a leader is much the same as the process of becoming an integrated human being. For the leader, as for the integrated person, life itself is the career" (Basic Books 2009).

CATALYTIC LEADERSHIP

As you lead by example, I also ask you to be a catalyst for others. Encourage your colleagues. Inspire our young professionals. Include our diverse members. For we know a mere encounter with catalytic leadership can provide an "ah-ha" moment, unveiling a part of ourselves perhaps hidden from us before. These moments change us! So I ask you to be the one to bring forth the best and greatest potential in those around you as you lead. Be a catalytic leader.

As I serve as President for the Academy during 2013-2014, the mission, vision, values and goals will be my purpose. In addition, there are five specific areas of importance to me:

1. Increased involvement by our students and young professionals in leadership,
2. Enhanced utilization of our experienced leaders, particularly in external positions of influence,
3. Implementing the tenants of the Visioning Report,
4. Increased Collaboration, Leadership, Innovation, Mentorship, and Balance (CLIMB) throughout our organization and our profession,

5. Determining the Academy's role in resolving the global food crisis (feeding 9 billion people by 2050 requiring a 70-80% increase in worldwide crop production).

Thank you for your willingness to serve and to give of your volunteer time, your treasure and professional talents. As we move into the future, I look forward to creating a lasting legacy with you - for our nation and for our profession.

DATE: August 2, 2013

TO: House of Delegates

FROM: Dr. Glenna McCollum, MPH, RDN
President 2013-2014
The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

As a member-led organization, our collaborative leadership is vital to the future success of our profession. Like the century of leaders before us, what we do, what we say, the challenges we are willing to embrace, the risks we are willing to take, and the leadership we demonstrate together, will impact the health of our nation and determine the opportunities of our profession for generations to come. Your leadership is crucial. The voice you have and the example you set will empower our members to be the food and nutrition leaders. Thus, I have three things to ask of you as you provide leadership in 2013-2014.

YOUR TIME: BE PURPOSEFUL

Begin with the end in mind. Whether at work, leading a team or completing a project, be efficient and effective by making the complex simple. Keep the Academy's mission and vision at the forefront of your mind and your work, and share them often with those around you.

The new name of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the new optional credential of the registered dietitian nutritionist (RDN) are helping to position our profession at the top of the list when our nation seeks leaders who can help improve the health of our nation. As CNNMoney indicated in its 2011 online article, dietetics ranks third among professions most likely to change the world for the better. Embrace the positive opportunities we have to do just that.

YOUR TREASURE: SET THE EXAMPLE

The Academy is our organization and nutrition and dietetics is our profession, but we didn't get here alone! In a century of rich history, our history Carry the Flame reminds us that we stand on the shoulders of giants – of women and men who had a vision for a healthy nation and were willing to work hard, take action, fight for policy changes, contribute financially and create a legacy. Our leaders nearly 100 years ago made an investment in us by creating a profession to be proud of, and to benefit from.

And now, it is our turn to be investors: The next generations will stand on our shoulders. What we do together now makes a difference and creates our legacy. I'm asking you as a leader to set an example by becoming a philanthropist for our profession and contributing to our policy initiatives.

Set an example as a leader:

- Join the EatRight Society. Make a $250 tax deductible donation to the Academy's Foundation in support of research, scholarships, Kids Eat Right and so much more.
- Join the President's Circle. Make a $250 contribution to the Academy's Political Action Committee. With nutrition and dietetics as our profession, politics must be our passion.
- Young Professionals and Students: Begin your investment now. Make a $50 donation to the Foundation and a contribution to ANDPAC. By doing so, you make investment in the professional organization whose future belongs to you.

YOUR TALENTS: HELP OTHERS LEAD

Speaking "from leader to leader," thank you to all members for sharing your talents and expertise with the Academy. When you take an active leadership role, you can do much toward realizing your dreams and passions. In the words of Warren Bennis, a pioneer in the field of leadership studies: "The process of becoming a leader is much the same as the process of becoming an integrated human being. For the leader, as for the integrated person, life itself is the career" (Basic Books 2009).

CATALYTIC LEADERSHIP

As you lead by example, I also ask you to be a catalyst for others. Encourage your colleagues. Inspire our young professionals. Include our diverse members. For we know a mere encounter with catalytic leadership can provide an “ah-ha” moment, unveiling a part of ourselves perhaps hidden from us before. These moments change us! So I ask you to be the one to bring forth the best and greatest potential in those around you as you lead. Be a catalytic leader.

As I serve as President for the Academy during 2013-2014, the mission, vision, values and goals will be my purpose. In addition, there are five specific areas of importance to me:

1. Increased involvement by our students and young professionals in leadership,
2. Enhanced utilization of our experienced leaders, particularly in external positions of influence,
3. Implementing the tenants of the Visioning Report,
4. Increased Collaboration, Leadership, Innovation, Mentorship, and Balance (CLIMB) throughout our organization and our profession,
5. Determining the Academy's role in resolving the global food crisis (feeding 9 billion people by 2050 requiring a 70-80% increase in worldwide crop production).

Thank you for your willingness to serve and to give of your volunteer time, your treasure and professional talents. As we move into the future, I look forward to creating a lasting legacy with you – for our nation and for our profession.

Subject: Final Approval of Ethics Opinion “The Impact of Social Media on Business and Ethical Practice in Dietetics”

The Ethics Committee is pleased to present the final draft of the Ethics Opinion “The Impact of Social Media on Business and Ethical Practice in Dietetics” for your approval. An ethics opinion is defined as a interpretation or application of the Academy/CDR Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics by the Ethics Committee in response to a specific ethics issue or situation facing dietetics professionals in practice. These opinions are available to all members and credentialed practitioners to serve as an educational guide for their conduct. All ethics opinions are published upon approval in the Journal of the Academy for Nutrition and Dietetics.

The purpose for developing this ethics opinion focused on social media relates to the input the Ethics Committee received during FNCE 2011 in San Diego. During an Open Space Discussion on ethics that was directed to practitioners and educators, several educators noted ethical concerns related to use of social media by students and interns. Also, a few practitioners asked questions related to this topic. The Ethics Committee felt that an ethics opinion would be a perfect opportunity to provide some clarity on the use of social media by students, DTRs and RDs or RDNs as it relates to ethical behavior.

This final ethics opinion has been through a rigorous development and review process which involved the following steps:

1. The author was selected by the Ethics Committee based on the expertise and experience in the topical area (January 2012).
2. The first draft was reviewed by the Ethics Committee and feedback provided to the author (April 2012).
3. The draft was reviewed by a group of four Academy members selected by the Ethics Committee. This review was a blinded review process (June-July 2012).
4. The draft was reviewed on several occasions by the Academy’s legal counsel, an external ethicist, and the Academy’s Strategic Communications Team (August 2012).
5. Input was sought from the BOD and CDR (November-December 2012).
6. The draft was released to the membership along with all credentialed practitioners for a 60-day review period (February-April 2013). A total of forty members responded to the request for input and indicated strong support for the document presented.

At this time, the Ethics Committee is agreement to present the Ethics Opinion “The Impact of Social Media on Business and Ethical Practice in Dietetics” for your approval in order to publish in our Journal in November 2013. The other members of the Ethics Committee are Janet Skates (CDR representative) and Mary Russell (BOD representative). Please note your response to the electronic motion below.

Hunger Webinars Archived for Viewing

Kids Eat Right recently hosted a series of six hunger webinars as part of the Future of Food project. In collaboration with Feeding America through an educational grant from the National Dairy Council, the purpose of the webinars was to help increase awareness about hunger as a public health issue and to help equip Academy members with knowledge and skills to provide effective nutrition education to food insecure audiences.

Hi Donna and Paul,

Because of a work meeting I'll need to leave today's call just before 2 pm CT. Typically I don't have many conflicts but today is a challenge; I'll be hopping in and out of meetings and calls early or late, which is definitely not what I prefer.

Talk with you soon,

Dear Academy Board,

I wanted to share with you the ANDPAC event for Senator Carper at the Washington office yesterday was a big success. I am attaching a couple of photos for you to review and more will be available on Facebook in the very near future – we just got the CD with the photos this afternoon.

In attendance at the event were representatives from the obesity community that worked with Senator Carper on the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act. These included American Society for Metabolic and Bariatric Surgery (ASMBS), American Society for Bariatric Physicians (ASBP), the Obesity Society (TOS), and the Obesity Action Coalition (OAC). In addition, several pharmaceutical companies were represented.

Senator Carper was at the office for over one hour and let each person in attendance share insights and opinions regarding the obesity epidemic. We have a blurb ready for inclusion in Eat Right Weekly next week to share with members.

Later in the day, I received an email from his campaign that said the following and I quote "Thanks again for having us this morning! I appreciated you all taking time out of your morning to meet with us and Senator Carper had a GREAT time. He was talking about it all day!"

That is what we want, Senators and Representatives having a lasting impression that makes them remember the Academy. We are so fortunate to have a PAC that allows us to make these connections and to have these types of events in conjunction with our Hill visits and the advocacy work of our members.

Thank you again for your support of Senator Carper!

This just arrived this morning; therefore, thought I'd best forward to you for YOUR HUMOR OF THE DAY. MAKE A GREAT DAY! Ken..

The American Medical Association has weighed in on the proposed new health care package. The Allergists were in favor of scratching it, but the Dermatologists advised not to make any rash moves. The Gastroenterologists had sort of a gut feeling about it, but the Neurologists thought the Administration had a lot of nerve.

Meanwhile, Obstetricians felt certain everyone was laboring under a misconception, while the Ophthalmologists considered the idea shortsighted. Pathologists yelled, "Over my dead body!" while the Pediatricians said, "Oh, grow up!"

The Psychiatrists thought the whole idea was madness, while the Radiologists could see right through it. Surgeons decided to wash their hands of the whole thing and the Internists claimed it would indeed be a bitter pill to swallow.

The Plastic Surgeons opined that this proposal would "put a whole new face on the matter". The Podiatrists thought it was a step forward, but the Urologists were pissed off at the whole idea. Anesthesiologists thought the whole idea was a gas, and those lofty Cardiologists didn't have the heart to say no.

In the end, the Proctologists won out, leaving the entire decision up to the assholes in Washington

Sorry to bother you all, but all of Eric's emails were going to the systems spam folder, that I do not have access to. I got it straightened out and I should not have anymore problems getting emails from him in the future. Thanks for checking and helping make sure I got the email. It would not be good if the Chairman of the Committee could not log onto the call. Talk to you all next Tuesday!

Donna,

We had a great visit today with his staff, they are looking forward to your visit in August. I will get you some information from our visit. They had questions and concerns about medication piece.

I am working on the minutes from our visits -- will share those soon!

Have a good weekend, was nice to see you in Annapolis - can't get that orange necklace out of my mind, I need one!

All,

There will be a Finance and Audit Committee call on Tuesday, July 30th at 1 p.m. CDT. Maria has put most of the information for the call onto the portal. There will be a few additional pieces added today. When it is completed, Maria will send to you an email. In addition, you should have received an invitation for the webinar from Eric Hayes. If you have not, please let me know as soon as possible.

This will not be a long email this month (I can hear the collective sigh of relief!). We will have June information completed. However, we are still working on the "monthly" distribution for the FY14 budget. This is taking a little longer than we anticipated. We will make some additional “tweaks” this morning and expect to make a few more over the next few weeks. By the time we have our meeting in Aug, the adjustments should stop.

Christian, Maria and I look forward to going over the financials next week with you. If you have any questions or concerns, or if you cannot make the call, please let us know as soon as possible.

All,

There will be a Finance and Audit Committee call on Tuesday, July 30th at 1 p.m. CDT. Maria has put most of the information for the call onto the portal. There will be a few additional pieces added today. When it is completed, Maria will send to you an email. In addition, you should have received an invitation for the webinar from Eric Hayes. If you have not, please let me know as soon as possible.

This will not be a long email this month (I can hear the collective sigh of relief!). We will have June information completed. However, we are still working on the "monthly" distribution for the FY14 budget. This is taking a little longer than we anticipated. We will make some additional "tweaks" this morning and expect to make a few more over the next few weeks. By the time we have our meeting in Aug, the adjustments should stop.

Christian, Maria and I look forward to going over the financials next week with you. If you have any questions or concerns, or if you cannot make the call, please let us know as soon as possible.

Paul

On the Pulse of Public Policy

Fight Obesity Today: Expand Medicare Coverage to Include RDNs

The Academy is calling on every member to stand up against obesity and help seniors stay healthy. Contact your members of Congress today and urge them to support the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, which expands Medicare to allow registered dietitian nutritionists to independently bill for intensive behavioral therapy for obesity.

What Will Happen to the Nutrition Part of the Farm Bill?

Last week, the House of Representatives passed a "farm only" farm bill, excluding the nutrition title that contains important programs like SNAP, SNAP-Ed, the Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Program, Farmers Market Nutrition Programs and others. These critical food and nutrition assistance programs are susceptible to drastic cuts in funding, which would lead to increased hunger and decreased nutrition knowledge for vulnerable populations, and decreased employment for many Academy members.

Subject: Herbert Gemple

Hello Academy Foundation BOD and Past Chairs,

It is with sadness that the Academy Foundation informs you of the death of Herbert Gemple, the beloved husband of former Foundation Chair Nylda Gemple. Herb passed away on July 19, 2013 at the Veterans Hospital in Palo Alto, California. Nylda and Herb were happily married just short of 50 years.

Herb was active in philanthropic causes throughout his life, including the Academy Foundation. Herb and Nylda support a named research grant to fund studies looking at the correlation of diet and nutrition in treating neurological disorders as well as a scholarship at the Foundation.

A military service will be held on Friday July 26 at the National Military Cemetery in San Juan, Puerto Rico that will include an honor guard ceremony. Plans are being made for a memorial celebration of Herb's life in Northern California that will take place in the fall at a location and place still to be determined.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that memorial donations be made to the Academy Foundation (please see the attached tribute gift form) or the Spinal Cord Unit of the Veterans Affairs Hospital in Palo Alto, CA.

Condolences can be sent to Nylda at:

The latest prediction is the week long 100+ degrees is ready to break! We are looking forward to cold front moving in putting us in the 90's range. It is amazing how our expectations change as that sounds pretty good. LOL

We should also be able to offer you very nice sunshine here on the East Coast.

Plenty of water as you travel.

Safe travels,

Jeanne and Mary Pat

Hi Donna-

Yes, Glenna, Sandra and Katie Brown have a 3:45 transportation. Please go to the US Airways baggage claim and look for a driver holding a sign with Glenna's last name.

I have copied them to alert them to look for you.

Safe travels!

Glenna asked me to send this note to all of you. As some of you know, my friend, Maria Museler lives in Annapolis and she has suggested several restaurants for Sunday evening. I am in one of the early shuttle groups with Becky, Donna, Linda and Nancy. We will accept the heavy responsibility of picking a restaurant for Sunday evening from the list Maria has provided. Please check for messages when you arrive at the hotel so you will know the time to meet in the lobby to head out for dinner. I will probably be going to Maria's house, so may not be joining you.

Please RSVP to this note to let us know whether you will be joining us for dinner Sunday evening or not, since we will probably need to make reservations.

Looking forward to seeing all of you Sunday or Monday am.

Subject: July 22-24, 2013 Board Retreat

Staff and I are looking forward to seeing you at the Board retreat!

The purpose of the retreat is two-pronged: to conduct business by planning for the continuing execution of the strategic plan and to network. The agenda is primarily focused on planning our direction, short and long-term, and the dialogue is generative and strategic.

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the retreat are now available on the Board of Directors' communication platform. Please login to the communications platform using the link <http://academybod.webauthor.com> and enter your Academy website username and password. The agenda and attachments are located under the Library tab, 2013 Board Meetings, July Board Retreat. The size of the meeting packet is reduced, therefore paper copies will not be provided.

Marsha Rhea, President of Signature i, LLC, has been engaged to facilitate the retreat. Some of you know her from the great job she performed facilitating the 2011 Future Connections Summit, the joint meeting of organization units related to the Visioning Report, and most recently, the Academy Foundation Board meeting.

To foster collaboration and open dialogue with the Academy's major organization units, we welcome their representatives to the retreat: Nancy Wooldridge, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Annalynn Skipper, immediate past chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Anne Kendall, chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Merievelyn Stuber, vice chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Linda Snetselaar, Editor of the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; and Julie Grim, chair of the Nominating Committee. Former Academy president and Academy Foundation chair, Susan Finn, will also be joining us on the first day to share an approach to the 100th anniversary project, outlining a blueprint for action that sets the stage for the next century.

One of my goals has been to provide for an advisory group to the Board at each annual retreat to assist us in strategic thinking, with external viewpoints and counsel on key issues facing us. This year's distinguished advisors are Craig Burkhardt, Bill Doyle, Dr. Vincent Covello, David Mitchell, and Kelly Carey, who will share their perspectives and proposed strategies on licensure, sponsorship, communications, and positioning. They will lead us in identifying our challenges and opportunities and assist us finding innovative solutions. The biographical sketch for each is attached. I am excited about the thought-provoking information they will share with us and look forward to lively, substantive dialogue!

The attire for the meeting is casual. The temperature this time of year in Annapolis will be in the high eighties to low nineties during the day and in the seventies in the evening. Please note identification is required for entry to the Annapolis State House for our tour.

We have grouped members with similar flight arrival and departure times for private shuttles to/from the airport. Arrival and departure schedules and confirmations for the coordinated transportation are attached. Please let Joan know if you will be traveling with a guest for the shuttle rides and/or bringing a guest for the activities.

Please contact me if you have any questions or need assistance. Safe travels!

Pat

Glenna asked me to send this note to all of you. As some of you know, my friend, Maria Museler lives in Annapolis and she has suggested several restaurants for Sunday evening. I am in one of the early shuttle groups with Becky, Donna, Linda and Nancy. We will accept the heavy responsibility of picking a restaurant for Sunday evening from the list Maria has provided. Please check for messages when you arrive at the hotel so you will know the time to meet in the lobby to head out for dinner. I will probably be going to Maria's house, so may not be joining you.

Please RSVP to this note to let us know whether you will be joining us for dinner Sunday evening or not, since we will probably need to make reservations.

Looking forward to seeing all of you Sunday or Monday am.

Subject: July 22-24, 2013 Board Retreat

Staff and I are looking forward to seeing you at the Board retreat!

The purpose of the retreat is two-pronged: to conduct business by planning for the continuing execution of the strategic plan and to network. The agenda is primarily focused on planning our direction, short and long-term, and the dialogue is generative and strategic.

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the retreat are now available on the Board of Directors' communication platform. Please login to the communications platform using the link <http://academybod.webauthor.com> and enter your Academy website username and password. The agenda and attachments are located under the Library tab, 2013 Board Meetings, July Board Retreat. The size of the meeting packet is reduced, therefore paper copies will not be provided.

Marsha Rhea, President of Signature i, LLC, has been engaged to facilitate the retreat. Some of you know her from the great job she performed facilitating the 2011 Future Connections Summit, the joint meeting of organization units related to the Visioning Report, and most recently, the Academy Foundation Board meeting.

To foster collaboration and open dialogue with the Academy's major organization units, we welcome their representatives to the retreat: Nancy Wooldridge, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Annalynn Skipper, immediate past chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Anne Kendall, chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Merievelyn Stuber, vice chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Linda Snetselaar, Editor of the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; and Julie Grim, chair of the Nominating Committee. Former Academy president and Academy Foundation chair, Susan Finn, will also be joining us on the first day to share an approach to the 100th anniversary project, outlining a blueprint for action that sets the stage for the next century.

One of my goals has been to provide for an advisory group to the Board at each annual retreat to assist us in strategic thinking, with external viewpoints and counsel on key issues facing us. This year's distinguished advisors are Craig Burkhardt, Bill Doyle, Dr. Vincent Covello, David Mitchell, and Kelly Carey, who will share their perspectives and proposed strategies on licensure, sponsorship, communications, and positioning. They will lead us in identifying our challenges and opportunities and assist us finding innovative solutions. The biographical sketch for each is attached. I am excited about the thought-provoking information they will share with us and look forward to lively, substantive dialogue!

The attire for the meeting is casual. The temperature this time of year in Annapolis will be in the high eighties to low nineties during the day and in the seventies in the evening. Please note identification is required for entry to the Annapolis State House for our tour.

We have grouped members with similar flight arrival and departure times for private shuttles to/from the airport. Arrival and departure schedules and confirmations for the coordinated transportation are attached. Please let Joan know if you will be traveling with a guest for the shuttle rides and/or bringing a guest for the activities.

Please contact me if you have any questions or need assistance. Safe travels!

Best regards,

Pat

Dear Hope:

SCAN is pleased to announce its partnership with The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Sports Science Institute (SSI) to develop nutrition resources on the topic of health and safety for collegiate athletes, coaches, trainers, administrators and others working in collegiate athletics. The NCAA created the Sport Science Institute in January 2013 with the mission to promote and develop safety, excellence and wellness in collegiate student-athletes, and to foster life-long physical and mental development.

The nutrition resources are available on the websites of both SCAN and NCAA. New content will be uploaded on a continual basis. Click HERE to view fact sheets, articles and webinars developed by SCAN members and the SSI team.

Visit the NCAA Sports Science Institute website and 'Sign Up for the Newsletter' if you work in collegiate athletics and would like to receive monthly e-newsletters highlighting resources that can benefit the student-athlete.

As SCAN announces the new partnership with the NCAA Sports Science Institute we remind you to take advantage of the many free sports nutrition fact sheets and webinars (in our online store) geared toward athletes that SCAN has developed over the years.

A Missing Link Between Sports Nutrition & Performance

The multibillion-dollar sports nutrition market has long focused on muscle repair and growth. But the next performance edge may be more fundamental: keep athletes healthy so they can train harder and longer. Brian McFarlin, Ph.D., FACSM, an expert in exercise physiology, nutrition and immunology, has spent years researching the negative impact of intense exercise on immune health. Sports dietitian Dave Ellis, RD, CSCS works with numerous college and professional teams on how to manage physical and lifestyle stress so they can maximize training and performance. Hello all –

Kathy asked me to pass along some information from Maria about alternate modes of transportation in Annapolis, other than walking. Maria's suggestions follow. Just a note, we will all get the chance to experience the electric cruisers on our Monday tour of the city!

Kathy

It occurred to me that you may want to use two, essentially free, modes of transportation to get around for dinners. First there is the Circulator, a trolley type bus, that runs a circle right past the Loew's hotel away from town, and across the street into town. I think it runs like every 30 minutes or so. Secondly, the E-Z-Cruisers. These are electric golf cart type vehicles that are on call, the concierge at the hotel can call them, that will essentially take you anywhere in town (down to McGarvey's for a great pub type dinner or oysters if you so choose), the cost is a tip for the driver. They are fun and we have used them to avoid driving because parking is problematical or the weather is not conducive to walking. So rather than walking, hopefully this massive heat wave will subside while you are here, you may want to take advantage of these modes of travel about town. See you soon, Maria

Glenna asked me to send this note to all of you. As some of you know, my friend, Maria Museler lives in Annapolis and she has suggested several restaurants for Sunday evening. I am in one of the early shuttle groups with Becky, Donna, Linda and Nancy. We will accept the heavy responsibility of picking a restaurant for Sunday evening from the list Maria has provided. Please check for messages when you arrive at the hotel so you will know the time to meet in the lobby to head out for dinner. I will probably be going to Maria's house, so may not be joining you.

Please RSVP to this note to let us know whether you will be joining us for dinner Sunday evening or not, since we will probably need to make reservations.

Looking forward to seeing all of you Sunday or Monday am.

Subject: July 22-24, 2013 Board Retreat

Staff and I are looking forward to seeing you at the Board retreat!

The purpose of the retreat is two-pronged: to conduct business by planning for the continuing execution of the strategic plan and to network. The agenda is primarily focused on planning our direction, short and long-term, and the dialogue is generative and strategic.

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the retreat are now available on the Board of Directors' communication platform. Please login to the communications platform using the link <http://academybod.webauthor.com> and enter your Academy website username and password. The agenda and attachments are located under the Library tab, 2013 Board Meetings, July Board Retreat. The size of the meeting packet is reduced, therefore paper copies will not be provided.

Marsha Rhea, President of Signature i, LLC, has been engaged to facilitate the retreat. Some of you know her from the great job she performed facilitating the 2011 Future Connections Summit, the joint meeting of organization units related to the Visioning Report, and most recently, the Academy Foundation Board meeting.

To foster collaboration and open dialogue with the Academy's major organization units, we welcome their representatives to the retreat: Nancy Wooldridge, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Annalynn Skipper, immediate past chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Anne Kendall, chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Merievelyn Stuber, vice chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Linda Snetselaar, Editor of the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; and Julie Grim, chair of the Nominating Committee. Former Academy president and Academy

Foundation chair, Susan Finn, will also be joining us on the first day to share an approach to the 100th anniversary project, outlining a blueprint for action that sets the stage for the next century.

One of my goals has been to provide for an advisory group to the Board at each annual retreat to assist us in strategic thinking, with external viewpoints and counsel on key issues facing us. This year's distinguished advisors are Craig Burkhardt, Bill Doyle, Dr. Vincent Covello, David Mitchell, and Kelly Carey, who will share their perspectives and proposed strategies on licensure, sponsorship, communications, and positioning. They will lead us in identifying our challenges and opportunities and assist us finding innovative solutions. The biographical sketch for each is attached. I am excited about the thought-provoking information they will share with us and look forward to lively, substantive dialogue!

The attire for the meeting is casual. The temperature this time of year in Annapolis will be in the high eighties to low nineties during the day and in the seventies in the evening. Please note identification is required for entry to the Annapolis State House for our tour.

We have grouped members with similar flight arrival and departure times for private shuttles to/from the airport. Arrival and departure schedules and confirmations for the coordinated transportation are attached. Please let Joan know if you will be traveling with a guest for the shuttle rides and/or bringing a guest for the activities.

Please contact me if you have any questions or need assistance. Safe travels!

Best regards,

Pat
