Speaker Message 6

Actions: Draft Code of Ethics, Surveys, and Interviews

Information Request for the Fall HOD Meeting- Complete by September 1

Complete this short survey to help us prepare for the Fall HOD Meeting.

- One question refers to practice area and this information will be used for the table assignments during the HOD meeting.
- In addition, there are two questions on the survey regarding dietary needs and special assistance for the HOD meeting.

Comment Period for the Draft Code of Ethics Open through Monday, September 18

The Code of Ethics Taskforce is seeking input from Academy Members and CDR Credentialed Practitioners on the draft Code of Ethics.

- Review the draft Code of Ethics and provide input by taking the survey by September 18.

- Talk with your boards and executive committees on ways to communicate and encourage all credentialed practitioners to review the draft Code of Ethics and complete of the survey.

Reviewing the draft Code of Ethics will also help you prepare for the HOD Fall meeting dialogue on Saturday, October 21. We will be discussing ways to help support the communication and education of the Code of Ethics, when it is completed.

Fall 2017 Meeting Materials

The meeting materials, including the draft agenda, will continue to be posted in the Fall 2017 HOD Meeting folder.

Input Requested- Interview a High Level/Executive Leader in Public Health and Post Key Takeaways by September 11

- Continue to submit the key takeaways from your interview with a current high level/executive leader in public health on this discussion post.

- Refer to Speaker Message 5 and the discussion post for additional details.

Nominations for the 2018 Elections

- Mobilize your key informants and solicit nominees for the Academy national ballot.
- The Nominating Committee is looking for leaders with the skills and vision to further the profession. Please visit www.eatrightPRO.org/elections to view the positions available on the 2018 ballot.

Complete Tasks and Be Entered into the Raffle by September 1

Complete the following tasks to be entered for a chance to win a raffle prize during the fall 2017 HOD Meeting:

- Submit the required administrative paperwork
- Watch the HOD Platform training video and set up your profile and headshot on the HOD platform
- Identify 3-5 Key Informants
- Review policies A.4, A.6 G.5-G.8, G.10 and K.6-K.8 in the HOD Manual
- Make your travel arrangements for the fall meeting in Chicago.

Once you've completed all of these important tasks, email HOD@eatright.org with the subject:

Tasks Completed. Make sure you include your signature the email. Refer to Speaker Message 5 for additional information.

Hello Donna,

Well it sounds like you will be able to do this! So thank you to you and Joan for making this possible!

Just to reiterate:

You will be speaking briefly to the Reimbursement Reps on Saturday, October 21 in Chicago from 8:10-8:15 am at McCormick Center West in Room W176 C

I just wanted to give you a few talking points/outline of what you might address that morning as you welcome them.

Please feel free to add to this in whatever way you would like to!

- Thank the members for being present for the training and for taking on the role as a reimbursement representative
- Stress that their work is important and the Academy is appreciative of their efforts in this role
- Let them know that they have your support for the work they are doing

· Summarize by telling them that this event is not only for them but also for their members. As they leave –they need to remember that one of their roles as a rep is to take this information and assist and educate their affiliate, DPG and MIG members.

Thank you again Donna!

Hello Donna,

Speaking at the Reimbursement Representative Training on Saturday, October 21 from 8:10 – 8:15 am at the McCormick Center may work fine with your schedule. Although the HOD is meeting at the Hyatt Regency hotel on Saturday from 7:15 am - noon, the open dialogue session begins at 8:45am which should allow adequate time to travel between the two locations. If you feel this is doable we will put it on your schedule.

Thanks!

Hello Donna,

We are once again in the process of planning the one day Pre-FNCE Reimbursement Rep (RR) Training that will take place on Saturday, October 21 from 7:15am - 3:00pm CDT.

This is a wonderful opportunity for the Affiliate and DPG RRs to come together and help build a good foundation for them to better serve their members in this important volunteer role.

I have attached the proposed agenda of the training for you to get a better sense of what is involved that day.

One of the brief presentations we have always tried to have at the beginning of the training is a welcome from the Academy President .

This is an opportunity for the President to show support for the RRs and the important work they do -- and I believe it really helps set the tone for the day.

Therefore, I am asking you if you might be able to do a very brief welcome on October 21 at the McCormick Center West in Room W176 C from 8:10 – 8:15 am?

I recognize and respect the fact that you will have many scheduled commitments that day, but I still wanted to ask to see if this would be a possibility.

I would provide you with a short outline that would help you with the major areas we would ask you touch on - using your own words.

Thank you very much Donna for considering this request and I look forward to hearing back from you as soon as possible!

House of Delegates Update

2017-2018 Mega Issue is Championing the RDN in positions of leadership in public health and government positions . . . more to come from our HOD representative this Fall.

Public Policy Action Update and Activity

The 2017 Public Policy Workshop was held on June 25 - 26, 2017. The Academy's Policy, Initiatives, and Advocacy (PIA) team chose 2 priority issues:

- Preserve funding for chronic disease prevention programs that were funded under the Prevention and Public Health Fund since 2010.
- Maintain funding for SNAP-Ed and EFNEP when the Farm Bill is reauthorized later this year.
- You can advocate for these issues and others by completing the action alerts at www.eatrightpro.org/action-center.

Academy Lays Groundwork to Facilitate Licensed Practice across State Lines

The Academy is beginning a strategic review of the practicability and implications of pursuing enactment of a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist Compact that would enable RDNs and other qualified licensed dietitians to practice in multiple states under a single license.

Several other health professions, including physicians and nurses, have chosen to move in this direction, but dietitian nutritionists face unique issues in developing a compact owing to the lack of uniformity of state licensure laws. We hope to have this initial groundwork complete by the end of the calendar year, and will be engaging all Academy units as the process continues. Watch for future updates in Eatright Weekly, or contact the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at tmrifkin@eatright.org or ptuma@eatright.org.

Attention Students: Volunteer to serve on the NEP DPG Board

Are you a student member interested in becoming more involved? We are recruiting for our student liaison board position. If you are interested, please email Pauline Williams pauline_williams@byu.edu

Member Shout-out

Congratulations to NEP Member Melissa Maulding. Melissa was awarded the Mid-Career Professional Achievement Award at the 2017 Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior (SNEB) conference.

Nominations for the 2018 Academy Election

It is never too early to start thinking about the future. The call for nominations for the 2018 Election has begun. Nominations for president-elect, speaker-elect and treasurer-elect closes September 1, 2017. All other nominations are due October 25, 2017. The Nominating Committee is looking for leaders with the skills and vision to further the profession. Lori, Thanks so much for the invite. We have a big "Feed my School" event that day with our congressman and about 50 guests coming so I probably will not be available for the call. If we get finished in time I will certainly join you all. Thanks for the notice.

Hi Donna,

I just sent over a calendar invite for the Committee for Lifelong Learning's discussion on potential FNCE 2018 anchor sessions. I will also invite Mary Russell since it's regarding FNCE 2018 planning. I'm sure your schedule is packed so I just wanted to let you know that you're not required to be on this call, but as always, your insight is helpful in planning. If you have any thought leaders that you would like to see at FNCE 2018, let me know and I will add them to the list.

Thanks!

Kay, We are in a total holding pattern waiting for Mrs. Obama's team to let us know if she will be at FNCE to speak. If she comes to speak she will receive her honorary membership at the same time. We all have our fingers crossed that she may be coming, because they have corresponded with us on several occasions and have not said NO. They typically wait until the last minute to give you the green light. I personally think she might come, but it is absolutely up in the air right now. Thanks for checking.

Hello,

Below is the draft citation for Michelle Obama's receipt of honorary membership, which will appear in the 2017 FNCE App. The citation can be no more than 200 words in length (currently 193). I would appreciate your feedback.

2017 Honorary Citation for Michelle Robinson Obama

In recognition of:

- Her work to support policy changes aimed at improving the nutritional health of Americans, a goal consistent with the Academy's Vision of optimizing health through food and nutrition.
- Her creation of Let's Move that combined comprehensive strategies with common sense to put children on the path to a healthy future by giving parents useful information and fostering environments that support healthy choices.
- Her use of her highly visible position as First Lady to model healthy behaviors and create public-private partnerships to encourage citizens, especially the youngest citizens, to make healthy food choices, drink more water, and be physically active.
- Her consistent and enthusiastic support of the registered dietitian-nutritionist as the expert on food and nutrition, and her reliance on evidence-based strategies to address child obesity.
- Her public advocacy for the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act, which updated school nutrition standards for the first time in 15 years.
- Her installation of the first White House garden since Eleanor Roosevelt's in 1943, which sparked a national conversation around nutrition, health, & wellness, and the possibility of growing fresh vegetables in a home garden or patio container.

THANKS,

Cathy

Hello Donna,

We are once again in the process of planning the one day Pre-FNCE Reimbursement Rep (RR) Training that will take place on Saturday, October 21 from 7:15am - 3:00pm CDT.

This is a wonderful opportunity for the Affiliate and DPG RRs to come together and help build a good foundation for them to better serve their members in this important volunteer role.

I have attached the proposed agenda of the training for you to get a better sense of what is involved that day.

One of the brief presentations we have always tried to have at the beginning of the training is a welcome from the Academy President .

This is an opportunity for the President to show support for the RRs and the important work they do -- and I believe it really helps set the tone for the day.

Therefore, I am asking you if you might be able to do a very brief welcome on October 21 at the McCormick Center West in Room W176 C from 8:10 – 8:15 am?

I recognize and respect the fact that you will have many scheduled commitments that day, but I still wanted to ask to see if this would be a possibility.

I would provide you with a short outline that would help you with the major areas we would ask you touch on - using your own words.

Thank you very much Donna for considering this request and I look forward to hearing back from you as soon as possible!

November 17-19, 2017

The National Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and Its Complications is a global forum where experts on diabetes and its prevention meet to facilitate quality scientific and research discussions on principles of diabetes prevention programs from around the world. Currently in its second year, this global forum provides proven strategies in the treatment of diabetes complications. Diabetes prevention experts will describe current research and technology used in prevention; effective screening tools; and medications. Diabetes management experts will discuss the relationships between diabetes and cancer, cardiovascular disease, oral health; and associated complications such as insulin resistance, retinopathy and renal failure.

The Congress is intended for Family Medicine, General Practice and Internal Medicine physicians, researchers, physician assistants, nurses, nurse practitioners, dietitians, diabetes educators, and other healthcare professionals interested in diabetes prevention and treatment.

Hello Melissa,

Lucille Beseler shared a copy of the blast email with the brochure she received. I noticed the Eatright logo is still on the brochure. As noted below, you cannot use the logo as that implies that we are endorsing this event. Please remove the Academy logo and replace the sponsorship statement with:

Also, I sent additional edits to the brochure which I am reattaching. Lucille is no longer the Academy President and the information on the brochure on the blast email is incorrect. I appreciate your attention to making these corrections. Please confirm.

Subject: Reimbursement Representative Training--Request to speak from NSC team

Hello Donna,

We are once again in the process of planning the one day Pre-FNCE Reimbursement Rep (RR) Training that will take place on Saturday, October 21 from 7:15am - 3:00pm CDT.

This is a wonderful opportunity for the Affiliate and DPG RRs to come together and help build a good foundation for them to better serve their members in this important volunteer role. I have attached the proposed agenda of the training for you to get a better sense of what is involved that day.

One of the brief presentations we have always tried to have at the beginning of the training is a welcome from the Academy President .

This is an opportunity for the President to show support for the RRs and the important work they do -- and I believe it really helps set the tone for the day.

Therefore, I am asking you if you might be able to do a very brief welcome on October 21 at the McCormick Center West in Room W176 C from 8:10 – 8:15 am?

I recognize and respect the fact that you will have many scheduled commitments that day, but I still wanted to ask to see if this would be a possibility.

I would provide you with a short outline that would help you with the major areas we would ask you touch on - using your own words.

Thank you very much Donna for considering this request and I look forward to hearing back from you as soon as possible!

Below is an announcement Lucille asked that I share with you regarding the Congress on the Prevention of Diabetes and Its Complications. I have included the brochure as a separate attachment, in the event you'd like to download it. The Academy is promoting the event through DPG and affiliate communications channels, in ERW and on social media. They are offering a discounted registration rate for Academy members.

Thanks for all your work on this and presenting for the Academy!

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN

November 17-19, 2017

The National Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and Its Complications is a global forum where experts on diabetes and its prevention meet to facilitate quality scientific and research discussions on principles of diabetes prevention programs from around the world. Currently in its second year, this global forum provides proven strategies in the treatment of diabetes complications. Diabetes prevention experts will describe current research and technology used in prevention; effective screening tools; and medications. Diabetes management experts will discuss the relationships between diabetes and cancer, cardiovascular disease, oral health; and associated complications such as insulin resistance, retinopathy and renal failure.

The Congress is intended for Family Medicine, General Practice and Internal Medicine physicians, researchers, physician assistants, nurses, nurse practitioners, dietitians, diabetes educators, and other healthcare professionals interested in diabetes prevention and treatment.

Hello Melissa,

Lucille Beseler shared a copy of the blast email with the brochure she received. I noticed the Eatright logo is still on the brochure. As noted below, you cannot use the logo as that implies that we are endorsing this event. Please remove the Academy logo and replace the sponsorship statement with:

Speakers provided by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Also, I sent additional edits to the brochure which I am reattaching. Lucille is no longer the Academy President and the information on the brochure on the blast email is incorrect. I appreciate your attention to making these corrections. Please confirm.

Thank you!

I just sent over a calendar invite for the Committee for Lifelong Learning's discussion on potential FNCE 2018 anchor sessions. I will also invite Mary Russell since it's regarding FNCE 2018 planning. I'm sure your schedule is packed so I just wanted to let you know that you're not required to be on this call, but as always, your insight is helpful in planning. If you have any thought leaders that you would like to see at FNCE 2018, let me know and I will add them to the list.

Thanks!

Hello,

Below is the draft citation for Michelle Obama's receipt of honorary membership, which will appear in the 2017 FNCE App. The citation can be no more than 200 words in length (currently 193). I would appreciate your feedback.

2017 Honorary Citation for Michelle Robinson Obama

In recognition of:

- Her work to support policy changes aimed at improving the nutritional health of Americans, a goal consistent with the Academy's Vision of optimizing health through food and nutrition.
- Her creation of Let's Move that combined comprehensive strategies with common sense to put children on the path to a healthy future by giving parents useful information and fostering environments that support healthy choices.
- Her use of her highly visible position as First Lady to model healthy behaviors and create public-private partnerships to encourage citizens, especially the youngest citizens, to make healthy food choices, drink more water, and be physically active.
- Her consistent and enthusiastic support of the registered dietitian-nutritionist as the expert on food and nutrition, and her reliance on evidence-based strategies to address child obesity.
- Her public advocacy for the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act, which updated school nutrition standards for the first time in 15 years.

- Her installation of the first White House garden since Eleanor Roosevelt's in 1943, which sparked a national conversation around nutrition, health, & wellness, and the possibility of growing fresh vegetables in a home garden or patio container.

THANKS,

Cathy

Subject: Obesity Week

Hi Donna. I hope you are having a great week. It was so good to see you at PPW in June. I hope you don't mind me emailing you directly. (Please correct me if protocol is wrong.)

As Past-Chair of the Weight Management DPG, I oversee our Network Committee. We have a Network relationship with The Obesity Society (TOS) and the American Society for Metabolic and Bariatric Surgeons (ASMBS) and through work with Diane Enos will try to move TOS to an Alliance relationship with the Academy. I will be attending Obesity Week (OW) in late October after FNCE and hope to continue strengthening our relationship with TOS (and ASMBS).

The Weight Management DPG leadership attending OW will work to schedule some meetings with TOS leadership during OW. I wondered if you or other leadership from the Academy (other Presidents and/or E-Team) might be going to OW as we would want to include Academy leadership at these meetings as well. When I was the Network Director for the Weight Management DPG years ago I always saw an Academy President at Obesity Week and wanted to check. One of my favorite memories is attending TOS leadership meetings with Marty Yadrick.

Thanks in advance for your reply.

I am looking forward to FNCE and seeing you there!

The Weight Management DPG leadership attending OW will work to schedule some meetings with TOS leadership during OW. I wondered if you or other leadership from the Academy (other Presidents and/or E-Team) might be going to OW as we would want to include Academy leadership at these meetings as well. When I was the Network Director for the Weight Management DPG years ago I always saw an Academy President at Obesity Week and wanted to check. One of my favorite memories is attending TOS leadership meetings with Marty Yadrick.

Thanks in advance for your reply.

I am looking forward to FNCE and seeing you there!

Hi Donna. I hope you are having a great week. It was so good to see you at PPW in June. I hope you don't mind me emailing you directly. (Please correct me if protocol is wrong.)

As Past-Chair of the Weight Management DPG, I oversee our Network Committee. We have a Network relationship with The Obesity Society (TOS) and the American Society for Metabolic and Bariatric Surgeons (ASMBS) and through work with Diane Enos will try to move TOS to an Alliance relationship with the Academy. I will be attending Obesity Week (OW) in late October after FNCE and hope to continue strengthening our relationship with TOS (and ASMBS).

Good morning all,

Shortly after the great call yesterday I went home and oops!!! My iPhone got irretrievably water damaged. (Note to self-do not carry phone in back pants pocket).

AND we are heading to Canada Thursday 8/17 for a short camping/horseback trip in the outback, and will not have access to email (or phone in Jim's case) Fri am-Sun pm. Will be back home Mon 8/21, late afternoon.

I am working on getting a new cell phone and will let you know when I do. I can still text via my iPad, get calls at work, and of course read email.

Happy Wednesday.

Hi Donna –

Great seeing you today! I let Doris know you said goodbye J. She was tied up in a meeting. I don't want to jump the gun by sending Marcy the list of potential nominees for the HOD positions on the ballot, until you reach out to her first. I have attached the list here but will be happy to forward to Marcy once you contact her.

The only nomination we have for Speaker is Diane Heller. On my notes from today's call I have the following nominations to submit:

- Angela Tagtow – Speaker
- Mary Etta Moorachian – Speaker
- Ann Dunaway Teh – Speaker and HOD Director
- Jennifer Wooley – HOD Director

- Lisa Dierks – Speaker
- Robert Anding – Speaker
- Sherry Coleman Collins – Speaker
- Cynthia Bayerl – Speaker and HOD Director

Thanks!

Public Health/Community Nutrition Dietetic Practice Group Webinar:

Title: Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities: How Dietitians Can Be Used in Various Settings

Date: Thursday, August 17 | Time: 12 noon CST CPEU: 1 credit Price: Free

Description: The Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities provide nutrition and operational guidance to inform contracts in federal facilities. Although they were written by a coalition of 9 federal agencies, they are applicable to many other public and private facilities, including worksites, hospitals, parks and recreation, and more. The goals of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities are designed to ensure that:

- Healthier foods and beverages are available and encouraged at federal facilities;
- Environmentally responsible practices are conducted in federal food service venues;
- Communities are economically supported through local food sourcing;
- Food safety practices are followed to minimize the risk of foodborne illnesses.

Dietitians can play a critical role in facilitating the use of food service guidelines in various settings. This webinar will provide an overview of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities, explain how dietitians can help promote and implement food service guidelines, and describe a case study on the use of food service guidelines in a state program.

Learning Objectives:

1. Outline sections of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities and describe highlights of the guidance they provide
2. Describe how food service guidelines can be incorporated into contractual agreements for food service
3. Apply Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities in various settings

Regulatory Comment Request: Development of Healthy People 2030

This particular proposal involves commenting on the proposed HP2030 Framework. Note that the Framework is very general and broad in scope. Specific health and nutrition objectives based on specific criteria will be developed at a later stage in the process.

The Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), is soliciting written comments on the Healthy People 2030 proposed framework, including the vision, mission, overarching goals, plan of action, and foundational principles.

For more information, please visit the Federal Registrar Posting at:
<https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2017-13463>

Please submit any comments you would like included in the Academy's response to Judy Klavens-Giunta at klavensgi@gmail.com by August 30 2017.

Request for Comments: Info Collection- Health and Diet Survey

This particular proposal involves commenting on the quality, utility and effectiveness of the Food and Drug Administration's Health and Diet survey, and their assessment of the burden involved for respondents. While we have not yet received the survey tool, the 2014 survey is available. Please comment on your vision of an ideal FDA survey, and in the event the FDA's new draft survey tool becomes available, I will forward it. Some potential content areas that may be worthy of mention in your input include

1. Knowledge, beliefs, attitudes toward the Nutrition Facts Panel & menu labeling
2. GMO, organic, antibiotic-free, etc.
3. Inclusion of phosphorus on NFP
4. Consumer response to recommendations to reduce sodium intake

Here is a link to the Federal Register request for comments:

Please send any comments you would like included in the Academy's response to Judy Klavens-Giunta by August 29, 2017 at klavensgi@gmail.com

Volunteers Needed for Review for Scope of Practice for the NDTR

Are you a DTR or work with ones? We are seeking 2-3 volunteers to review the scope of practice for the NDTR on behalf of the PHCNPG. For more information or to volunteer, please email jcperalez@gmail.com.

"The revised 2017 Scope of Practice for the NDTR includes the following component(s):

- Practice Areas, Services and Activities:

- Community and Public Health

- School Nutrition

Input Review Needed!

The Academy is seeking your input on this proposal regarding the paperwork and regulatory burdens associated with the WIC FMNP regulations which "... require that certain program-related information be collected and that full and complete records concerning FMNP operations are maintained." Note that these record keeping requirements include nutrition education provided to WIC participants, but the types of data collected are not clear from the published entry.

The specific questions the Academy would like you to answer are:

- Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the the agency, including whether the info has a practical utility;
- The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, which includes validity of the methodology and assumptions used
- Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected
- Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on responders, including use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

For more detailed information about the proposed information collection, visit <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2017-14623>

Please respond to Judy Klavens-Giunta at klavensgi@gmail.com by Mon, August 21st.

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

A few weeks ago at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Thank you so much, Donna! We will ask those who are quoted in the article to review and approve their comments, then send it to the Journal.

Doris will be with you tomorrow, and I'll be available via email, phone, text, etc., as needed. Looking forward to making good progress on FNCE speeches and remarks (including for the HOD and Member Showcase, along with Opening Session), especially after you and Doris give additional direction after tomorrow's practice.

Also -- Doris may have mentioned this... Can you please send us the names of about 15-20 songs or performers you'd like us to include as the audience walk-in and walk-out music before and after the big sessions -- we want to use your favorites! Doris and Diane Levin will also talk with you about possible music for you to be introduced by, and to end the Opening Session. We'll then take care of obtaining the music and will work with the A/V team to have the songs playing in the hall.

Thank you again, talk to you soon!

Yes, for sure but.... the requirement for speaker needs to be looked at. Why did the HLT ask that the eligibility for speaker require having served since 2001 instead of specifying 5 or ten years? Soon it'll be 20 years and so there's no correlation to currency which the time requirement was supposedly addressing. I'm thinking of what Mary said that being off the Board one year she's playing catch up. Please let's discuss the eligibility requirements as well. Thanks!

Hi Ms. Martin,

Wow, it was such an honor to have you speak at our Internship Ceremony on Friday! I think half the audience wanted to switch careers into dietetics after your speech; I know I am still feeling so fired up. I was especially excited to hear about the variety of job opportunities you mentioned - specifically the global ones. I'm very interested in using my degree to travel and see the world during this time in my life. However, after researching for the past couple of months I haven't had much luck finding outlets to do so. I've looked into the American Overseas Dietetic Association, but I am imagining a more short term (4-6 months) venture. I thought I would ask if you knew of any opportunities I could apply for? I am willing to work in virtually any area of nutrition, I just want to serve and help in any way that I can. The growing need for dietitians in agriculture sounded really intriguing. I know you are extremely busy, so I greatly appreciate any advice or leads you could offer.

I've attached my resume for your reference and the picture we took on Friday! It really made my day getting to talk to you after the ceremony. Hope you enjoyed your time back in Birmingham!

Thanks again :)

Connect with the Academy:

Dear Practitioners,

Malnutrition is associated with adverse outcomes such as impaired wound healing, muscle-wasting and increased risk of complications and mortality resulting in longer hospital stays, readmissions, and increased costs. Thus, the estimated economic burden of malnutrition is $157 billion annually, with $51.3 billion of that amount being associated with older adults.

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and Avalere Health, a DC-based healthcare consulting firm, have been making major strides with the development and implementation of the de novo malnutrition electronic clinical quality measures, or eQMs. In April 2017, the malnutrition eQMs were included in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services pre-rule for the federal Hospital Inpatient Quality Reporting Program.

On Monday, August 14, 2017, the final rule for acute care hospitals Inpatient Prospective Payment Systems was published. CMS acknowledged the overwhelming support it received from numerous health systems and hospitals on the malnutrition measures, also stating the measures would be an important first step to incentivizing hospitals to improve malnutrition awareness and care. They noted, the Academics four malnutrition eQMs are in continued consideration with CMS as they develop future policy regarding the adoption and use of eQMs. The Academy will continue engagement in the upcoming months to share valuable insights gained from eQMs test data collected through the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative (MQii) Learning Collaborative 2.0. Support for MQii provided by Abbott.

The MQii Learning Collaborative 2.0 has brought together 50 hospitals throughout the nation where acute care facilities are implementing the malnutrition eQMs and quality improvement projects. The Academy has witnessed RDNs taking the lead within their interprofessional clinical teams and advocating positive change for their patients and clients.

Valuable educational resources for practitioners to champion advancing malnutrition quality in their facilities include eCQMs FAQs along with the MQii Toolkit.

The Academy continues our commitment to elevate our practitioners to accelerate improved malnutrition outcomes throughout the health systems continuum of care.

Greetings Board of Directors,

I am writing to you as a member of the Academy's Nominating Committee. The process of soliciting qualified, visionary candidates with demonstrated leadership abilities to be considered for the 2018 national ballot has begun. The deadline for nominations for President-elect, Speaker-elect and Treasurer-elect is September 1. Nominations for all other positions are due by October 25. I encourage you to put forward names for consideration.

Members may submit nominations two ways:

- on-line at www.eatrightPRO.org/elections
- email: nominations@eatright.org / fax: 312/899-4765 the attached nominations form

For more information about the ballot positions available and the responsibilities and qualifications for each, go to www.eatrightPRO.org/elections. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. I appreciate your assistance in promoting leadership in the Academy and finding the best-qualified candidates for the ballot.

Thank you and I look forward to seeing you in September!

The Mighty Microbiome: What We Know and What We Need to Learn

Date: Wednesday, August 16, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPEU Hours: 1.0

The microbiome is one of the hottest topics in current nutrition science. Interest in dietary factors that affect the microbiome, such as prebiotics and probiotics, continue to increase. This session will provide an update on emerging areas of health research that have been connected to the gut microbiome, including the links between the microbiome, food, and health. In addition, the session will address current consumer interest and understanding of this complicated topic, providing additional insights on how to better communicate this complex topic to a variety of audiences.

Learning Objectives:

1. Identify specific dietary components that drive the composition and metabolic activity of the GI microbiota
 2. Apply this information to formulate diets (including use of pre or probiotics) that leverage host-microbe interactions
 3. Discuss the body of evidence that demonstrates the role of pre and probiotics in supporting the balance of the gut microbiome and subsequently, human health
 4. Provide consumer insights and practical advice that will allow practitioners to better communicate the benefits of pre and probiotics as well as the science behind the microbiome
- REGISTER HERE!

Speakers:

Dr. Hannah Holscher, RD, PhD completed clinical training at Ingalls Memorial Hospital in Harvey, IL and joined the University of Illinois faculty as an Assistant Professor in June 2015. As Director of the Nutrition and the Human Microbiome Laboratory, her research team aims to enhance human health through dietary modulation of the gastrointestinal microbiome. In addition to serving as a research mentor for undergraduate and graduate students, she has taught both basic and advanced nutrition classes and has been included on the List of Teachers Ranked as Excellent by their Students five times for two different courses at the University of Illinois. Megan Meyer, PhD is the Director, Science Communication at the International Food Information Council (IFIC) Foundation where she creates educational materials to help consumers better understand food and nutrition related issues and promotes science communication to a variety of audiences. In addition, Dr. Meyer oversees the execution and development of IFIC Foundation consumer research projects. She has a BS in Biology from Loyola University Maryland as well as a PhD in Microbiology and Immunology focused on nutritional immunology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. REGISTER HERE!

If your schedule changes and you cannot attend, note that the webinar will be recorded and available at eatrightPro for self-study

- It was also recommended that ANDF items be left off because it would apply to all and may be confusing to members.

If the Board consensus has changed, please let me know. Thanks!

No changes to the first page.

Three small edits/questions.

Under strategies, didn't we decide to add leadership to the professional development topic?

Under the workforce topic, forth bullet point, I think health literacy was added after the word diversity.

Lastly why was the ANDF info left off.

Moderator: Jonathan Valdez, MBA, RDN, CSG, CDN, CCM, ACE-CPT

Speaker: Manuel Villacorta, MS, RDN

Date: September 14, 2017

Time: One hour presentation beginning at 2:30 pm EDT/1:30 pm CDT/12:30 pm MDT/11:30am PDT

Registration Link: <http://bit.ly/2uxYXeA>

- Registration is free.
- This session will be presented using VOIP. A phone number will not be available.
- Free CPEU Credit will be earned for live attendance.
- Webinar will be recorded and posted to the NOMIN website for later viewing.

Objectives

- Identify two major obstacles in the book publishing process
- Critique your current strategies used to gain publicity and recognition
- Learn ways to build your platform from the ground up

Session Summary

Humble professional beginnings and nearly two decades of experience have paved Manuel Villacorta's way to book publishings, featured news segments, the launch of the state-of-the-art Whole Body Reboot app, and international recognition as a nutrition expert and earning high acclaim in the field of dietetics. During this session, you will learn about Manuel's successes and struggles to get where he is today in the very crowded and competitive nutrition world of self-employment. Join Manuel to learn what needs to be done to be recognized as a distinguished nutrition professional.

Speakers' Bio

Manuel Villacorta, MS, RDN, is an internationally recognized, award-winning registered dietitian-nutritionist with more than 18 years of experience. He is the author of four books, Eating Free, Peruvian Power Foods and his latest bestseller Whole Body Reboot: The Peruvian Superfoods Diet, and his fourth upcoming book titled Flat-Belly 365, that is to be published in January 2018.

Villacorta is a trusted voice in the health and wellness industry. A national media spokesperson for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics from 2010-2013, he is also a health blog contributor for The Huffington Post and an on-air contributor for Univision. Manuel's latest contribution has been as a leading nutrition expert for a series about Superfoods with National Geographic.

Manuel is the owner of MV Nutrition, a San Francisco-based private practice, and the recipient of five "Best Bay Area Nutritionist" awards from the San Francisco Chronicle, ABC7 News and Citysearch. Manuel is the founder of the Whole Body Reboot website & App, a weight loss program with emphasis on superfoods. He is one of the leading weight loss and nutrition experts in the country.

Born and raised in Peru, he currently lives in San Francisco. Villacorta earned his Bachelor of Science in nutrition and physiology metabolism from the University of California, Berkeley, and his Master of Science in nutrition and food science from California State University, San Jose. He has been the recipient of numerous prestigious awards for his research and contributions to the field of nutrition and dietetics.

Hi Donna,

I hope all is well with you. We are getting really excited about FNCE and the buzz it is generating is incredible.

In preparation for training on Tuesday, we have prepared a draft of your Opening Session remarks. Please review and we will work together with Diane Levin to make changes and fine tune it during the training.

Please do not hesitate to call on me if you have any questions or if there is anything you need. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago soon.

No changes to the first page.

Three small edits/questions.

Under strategies, didn't we decide to add leadership to the professional development topic?

Under the workforce topic, forth bullet point, I think health literacy was added after the word diversity.

Lastly why was the ANDF info left off.

At the July Board retreat you approved the Strategic Plan with modifications. Those changes have now been incorporated into the document and the final copy is attached. Please let me know as soon as possible if you have any additional edits.

The Strategic Plan will be released to the leadership following the September Board meeting and will be debuted at the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo's Opening Session in October.

We will discuss the messaging and communication rollout at the September Board meeting next month. In the interim, we have prepared talking points which you might find useful for your conversations with members.

Hi Donna,

I am going to be working with you this year on your President's Reception at FNCE! It will be held on Sunday, October 22 from 8-10 pm at the Wyndham Grand Hotel in the Penthouse Ballroom, which sits on the 39th floor with 360° views of downtown Chicago. It should be beautiful with the city all lit up at night!

Attached are the guidelines for the President's Reception you will need to review. Also attached is a template for sending me your list of people. I would like to send out the invitations no later than September 8th.

As always, don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks!

Dante, thanks for reaching out. I have a 12:55 pm flight to Chicago that day. Could Pat do 9:30 CST which would be 10:30 EST? If not, I will just catch up with her while I am in Chicago.
Thanks!

Hi Donna,

I am going to be working with you this year on your President's Reception at FNCE! It will be held on Sunday, October 22 from 8-10 pm at the Wyndham Grand Hotel in the Penthouse Ballroom, which sits on the 39th floor with 360° views of downtown Chicago. It should be beautiful with the city all lit up at night!

Attached are the guidelines for the President's Reception you will need to review. Also attached is a template for sending me your list of people. I would like to send out the invitations no later than September 8th.

As always, don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks!

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the August Standards Update is posted on the ACEND Monthly Standards webpage Monthly Standards Update. In this issue the application process for the first cohort of programs is discussed as well as questions related to both the 2012 and Future Education Model Standards.

The Future Education Model Accreditation Standards for Associate, Bachelor's and Graduate Degree Programs were released on June 19, 2017. ACEND invites programs interested in being accredited under these standards to apply to be an early adopter demonstration program. The Standards and information about the demonstration program application process can be found at: www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

The monthly Virtual Town Hall meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month at 1 PM Central Time. The town hall provides a time for ACEND to share updates on its standards work and for stakeholders to ask questions. Information on joining the town hall can be found at www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

The Inpatient Prospective Payment Systems (IPPS) for acute care hospitals final rule was filed by the Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Final Rule will be published in the Federal Register on August 14. CMS has delayed the decision on the Academy's four malnutrition electronic clinical quality measures, however, they will consider the malnutrition measures when they develop future policy regarding the use of eCQM. We want to emphasize that this is a delay and not a decline. It is also important to note no eCQMs were adopted onto the list for IPPS federal program. CMS acknowledged the overwhelming support it received from numerous health systems and hospitals on the malnutrition measures and also stated the measures would be an important first step to incentivizing hospitals to improve malnutrition awareness and care.

The Academy will continue to be steadfast in advocating for malnutrition recognition in all aspects of health care and health systems. We remain committed to elevating our practitioners in leading their quality management goals for positive patient/client outcomes. It is our goal to stay the course as malnutrition remains a major component for hospitals.

We have reviewed the CMS response and will take the following steps:

- Draft a letter to CMS on Monday, August 7, 2017, thanking CMS for its response.
- Continue engagement with CMS Center for Clinical Standards and Quality for the Malnutrition Composite Measure.
- Continue to support, educate, train and prepare RDNs to take the leadership role and champion malnutrition.
- Review data/outcome from the Learning Collaborative process. Currently have 50 of the 5000 U.S. hospitals participating testing the measures and completing QI projects to reform the clinical workflow process.

The Academy's role as measure steward will move forward. We will expand our circle of partners to accelerate our efforts in eliminating all forms of malnutrition, a principle in our new strategic plan.

Sharon McCauley will continue as our point person to work with other teams across the organization. I thank them for their many contributions to date.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hello, Amy. Greetings from Maine! J

I'm happy to present at affiliate meetings.

In addition to providing the board update, I can speak on the topic of agriculture (e.g., plant breeding and plant biotechnology); communication careers for dietitians / dietitians in health comm and marketing; and the changing paradigm to reach consumers leading with values instead of facts. Please let me know if you require more information on these topics.

Regarding travel, my travel is already covered by my budget. And if there is an honorarium, I will need to donate it to the Foundation and my employer will match 100%.

The only other thing I wish to note is my spring travel schedule is usually very busy. The earlier I can confirm affiliate needs, the better for me and my family.

The Board recognizes the value of the relationship with our affiliate organizations and the importance of keeping members well-informed of the products, services and activities of the Academy and Foundation. To maintain this relationship, affiliates are encouraged to invite a Board member to attend their annual meeting for an Academy Update presentation.

As a part of this opportunity we would like to suggest to the affiliate meeting organizers that they maximize the Board member's attendance by planning a second presentation on a topic representing the Board member's expertise/practice area. If you are willing and able to present at a meeting and would like to offer a second presentation, please provide your top three specialty areas of expertise to me (abiedenharn@eatright.org) by August 18 so they may be included on the Board Request Form completed by the affiliate. We hope you take advantage of this opportunity to share useful, timely information and network with Academy members.

Select affiliates who have not had a Board member present an Academy Update in several years due to funding have the opportunity to participate in an Affiliate Speaker Grant program. Ten grants in the amount of $500 will be awarded to select affiliates to help offset travel costs associated with a Board member's attendance.

Please let me know if you have any questions!

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy President Meets with Nutrition Policymakers in D.C.

President Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, represented the Academy in meetings August 2 in Washington, D.C., with policymakers responsible for initiatives important to members. She met with Maggie Lyons, chief of staff and senior advisor for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Under Secretary for Food, Nutrition and Consumer Services; and the chronic disease team at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Martin highlighted the great work of Academy members in school nutrition and anti-hunger programs. She also met with staffers of House Budget Committee member Rob Woodall (Ga.) to encourage continued investment in evidence-based nutrition programs.

Academy's Policy Comments Reflect Priorities

In three sets of formal comments to federal agencies, the Academy underscored our policy priorities and stances and offered specific suggestions for improving policy to make it more effective and efficient for the public and Academy members. The Academy led a sign-on letter with partners urging the U.S. Department of Agriculture to adopt strategies to improve elderly access to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) to ensure a vulnerable and under-resourced population has food options available. The Academy also offered ways for USDA to improve procurement practices for school food authorities, specifically by encouraging the Food and Nutrition Service to work with states to provide additional training opportunities prior to assessment of procurement practices and ultimately data collection, analysis and corrective action. And the Academy reiterated our support for menu labeling at restaurant chains and other large food establishments without additional delay, given its promise to help consumers select healthier food options.

USDA Recognizes National Farmers Market Week

Agriculture Secretary Sonny Perdue issued a proclamation designating August 6 to 13 as National Farmers Market Week. Academy members provide nutrition education at USDA programs such as the WIC Farmers Market Nutrition Program and the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. SNAP is seeing large growth in redemptions at the 3,200 farmers markets and stands that accept EBT cards.

USDA Awards Grants to Help Families Afford Healthy Food

Agriculture Secretary Sonny Perdue announced 32 grants totaling $16.8 million to help Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program participants increase their purchases of fruits and vegetables. The grant program was an Academy priority when the 2014 Farm Bill was legislated, and the Academy is advocating for the program again in the current Farm Bill reauthorization.

Congress' August Recess: A Great Time for Members to Take Action

Members of Congress are in their districts until September 5, making now a great time to make your voice heard on the Academy's important legislative priorities. Help secure your member's support to co-sponsor the congressional resolution recognizing the Academy's Centennial and the contributions of our past and present. An Action Alert in next week's Eat Right Weekly will provide an opportunity to ask members of Congress to support the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (S. 1299 and H.R. 3124), which would enable Medicare to cover medical nutrition therapy for prediabetes. Thanks to all Academy members who support these important legislative initiatives; your support is needed for the Academy's advocacy to succeed.

New Research on Reducing Global and Domestic Food Insecurity

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Economic Research Service has released several new reports on food security and health. "Food Insecurity, Chronic Disease and Health among Working-Age Adults" examines the impact of food insecurity on chronic disease risk. "Progress and Challenges in Global Food Security" highlights the importance of U.S. food aid and challenges still needing to be addressed. And USDA's Amber Waves blog summarizes research showing the impact of the school meals program on reducing food insecurity. Significant work to reduce food insecurity is being done by Academy members across the country and the world.

Hello – it was a pleasure to catch up with you last week. I am excited about your year as President of AND. As I mentioned on the call, we would love to have you come visit us at CDC. I know your schedule is crazy busy, just let us know when you are in the area and we will work something out.

Also, thanks for the invitation to the event in Burke. We are hoping to have a couple of us attend.

I mentioned we have a new ECE infographic, it can be found here – <https://www.cdc.gov/obesity/downloads/ECE-infographic.pdf>.

Thanks-Janelle

Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities: How Dietitians Can Use in Various Settings

Time: 12 PM CST

CPEU: 1 credit

The Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities provide nutrition and operational guidance to inform contracts in federal facilities. Although they were written by a coalition of 9 federal agencies, they are applicable to many other public and private facilities, including worksites, hospitals, and parks and recreation. The goals of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities are designed to ensure that:

- Healthier foods and beverages are available and encouraged at federal facilities;
- Environmentally responsible practices are conducted in federal food service venues;
- Communities are economically supported through local food sourcing;
- Food safety practices are followed to minimize the risk of foodborne illnesses.

Dietitians can play a critical role in facilitating the use of food service guidelines in various settings. This webinar will provide an overview of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities, explain how dietitians can help promote and implement food service guidelines, and describe a case study on the use of food service guidelines in a state program.

Speakers:

Dr. Leah Michele Maynard, PhD earned her doctorate in Nutritional Sciences from the University of Kentucky in 1996, and has worked as an epidemiologist in the Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity, and Obesity at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, Georgia since 2001. She performs various functions (e.g., conducts research, translates science to communication documents, provides technical assistance to funded states and other groups) primarily to encourage the availability of healthier foods in various food service and retail environments. She was the lead author for the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities, published in January 2017, and co-wrote Healthier Food Retail: An Action Guide for Public Health Practitioners.

Carol Voss, MEd, RDN, LDN is the Nutrition Coordinator for Health Promotion and Chronic Disease Control Partnership at Iowa Department of Public Health (IDPH). During Carol's 20-year tenure with the IDPH, she has also worked with the Diabetes Control Program and the Food Stamp Nutrition Education Program. Carol has been involved in the development of various coalitions and organizations that are related to food and nutrition and was very active in Iowa's Pick a better snack campaign. Carol received her Masters of Education and dietetics degree from Iowa State University and undergraduate degree from University of Northern Iowa.

Hi all, We thought it would be nice to send a group thank you to Senator Blumenthal and the Senators who cosponsored his motion to commit on prevention, even though it wasn't offered in the end. As you know this is the most support we've seen to date for the Prevention Fund.

We put together the attached letter, to be signed by CEOs/senior leadership. We will do another letter specific to Blumenthal with a tweak to specifically acknowledge that he introduced it. If you would like to sign on, please fill out this form so we can collect logos/signatures by next Tuesday, August 15th. (I know a lot of people are on vacation this week)

All,

We will try to get this done within an hour. However, it will depend on what types of questions you may have for executive session with the auditors. So, block out 1.5 hrs. I will put on the agenda 1 in order to provide a guidance during the call.

Attached is your contract for the September 7-9, 2017 Certificate of Training in Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management program. Please sign and return the contract to me by fax (312/899-4772) or e-mail by Friday, August 18, 2017. I have attached a tentative agenda.

You have been approved for travel to Memphis. In order for your airfare to be charged to the Academy credit card on file, you must have an active Traveler Profile in Deem@work® (formerly aXiom), the online booking tool for the Academy Travel Desk. Instructions to book travel are included below.

Programs Location:

Hilton Memphis

Tennessee AB

939 Ridge Lake Blvd.

Memphis, TN 38120

The hotel is 14 miles from the Memphis (MEM) International Airport.

If you do NOT have a traveler profile, please let me know, and I will request for an activation email to be sent to you from Deem@work within two (2) business days prompting you to complete your profile.

If you do not wish to create a profile, you will have to book your travel on your own and submit your expenses for reimbursement after the program. NOTE: Any ticket purchase that is over the Academy Limit of $600 will still need to be receive prior approval or you might not be reimbursed for your travel.

Select Meeting Name: Academy Miscellaneous Travel

Meeting Location: Memphis, Tennessee

Dates: September 7-9, 2017

GL Code: 1041790

- 1) Go online to: <http://www.atcmeetings.com/academy>
- 2) Login to your account (use the “Official Travel” portal on the right side of the page) using your email address and the password you created when you activated your account. (If you have forgotten your login, click “Forgot password and enter your email address on file with Deem in the USERNAME field. You will immediately receive a reset password email.)
- 3) Search for and select your flights (book “non-refundable” fares only)
 - a. You have the option of searching by “Price” or “Schedule”.
 - b. Click on your preferred airline if you only want to view their fares.
- 4) When you reach the Purchase Trip page, select the Academy Miscellaneous Travel from the drop-down menu, enter the GL Code of 1041791.

Booking Your Travel with an Agent ($33 service fee)

- 1) Book your travel whenever possible Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. EST.

- 3) Provide the agent with the GL Code listed above.

Your presentation times are:

Thursday, September 7, 2017

School Nutrition

3:45 – 5:00 pm

Q&A 4:00 – 5:15 pm

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail. Please provide your revised presentation by Monday, August 28, 2017.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org
2. To login choose the “Login” option on the upper right-hand side of the page.
1. Sign-in using your Academy/CDR username and password.
2. On the purple banner, hover over the “Portal” option on the right-hand side and choose the “Library” option from the drop-down menu.
3. Click on the “2017 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts” link located to the left.
4. Click on the “Upload Multiple Files” link located in the gray menu bar.
5. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on “add files” button (lower left side)
6. Browse for your file.
7. Click open.
8. To add another file choose “Add Files” button again to add another file to the list.
9. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the “Start Upload” button (lower left side). When upload had finished press “Continue.”
10. Don’t pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on “Complete Upload” bar.
11. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

Thank you.

PHCNPG Weekly Update: August 6, 2017

Volunteers Needed for Review for Scope of Practice for the NDTR

Are you a DTR or work with ones? We are seeking 2-3 volunteers to review the scope of practice for the NDTR on behalf of the PHCNPG. For more information or to volunteer, please email jcperalez@gmail.com.

"The revised 2017 Scope of Practice for the NDTR includes the following component(s):

- Practice Areas, Services and Activities:
- Community and Public Health
- School Nutrition

Input Review Needed!

The Academy is seeking your input on this proposal regarding the paperwork and regulatory burdens associated with the WIC FMNP regulations which "... require that certain program-related information be collected and that full and complete records concerning FMNP operations are maintained." Note that these record keeping requirements include nutrition education provided to WIC participants, but the types of data collected are not clear from the published entry.

The specific questions the Academy would like you to answer are:

- Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the the agency, including whether the info has a practical utility;
- The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, which includes validity of the methodology and assumptions used
- Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected
- Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on responders, including use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

For more detailed information about the proposed information collection, visit <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2017-14623>

Title: Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities: How Dietitians Can Use in Various Settings

Date: Thursday, August 17 | Time: 12 noon CST

CPEU: 1 credit Price: Free

Description: The Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities provide nutrition and operational guidance to inform contracts in federal facilities. Although they were written by a coalition of 9 federal agencies, they are applicable to many other public and private facilities, including worksites, hospitals, parks and recreation, and more. The goals of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities are designed to ensure that:

- Healthier foods and beverages are available and encouraged at federal facilities;
- Environmentally responsible practices are conducted in federal food service venues;
- Communities are economically supported through local food sourcing;
- Food safety practices are followed to minimize the risk of foodborne illnesses.

Dietitians can play a critical role in facilitating the use of food service guidelines in various settings. This webinar will provide an overview of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities, explain how dietitians can help promote and implement food service guidelines, and describe a case study on the use of food service guidelines in a state program.

Learning Objectives:

- 1) Outline sections of the Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities and describe highlights of the guidance they provide
- 2) Describe how food service guidelines can be incorporated into contractual agreements for food service
- 3) Apply Food Service Guidelines for Federal Facilities in various settings

Customizing your career: Putting yourself on a global path

TATYANA EL-KOUR, MS, RDN, FAND

Independent Consultant - Global and Health Nutrition Expert - Policy Strategist

Learning Objectives:

- Identify career paths that may be options for dietetic and nutrition professionals in global public health settings.
- Describe best strategies and qualities for success needed to effectively work in public health and community nutrition globally.
- Apply practical tips for effectively customizing your career based on specific context and need.
- Conceptualize ways for improved career planning and learning in everyday practice.

This webinar is a great place to start learning about the exciting career path where nutrition and global public health meet. The webinar provides practical insight for career planning and discusses the daily activities of practitioners employed in various sectors of the workforce. Several aspects of global work, including job duties, demands, and rewards, as well as the qualities needed for success will also be discussed.

- A spotlight on the University of Minnesota Coordinated Masters Program

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

A few weeks ago at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Support ANDPAC, Support the Profession

Health related legislation/regulations will impact public health and your lives as an RDN!

In this video, which is the third of a four-part series, listen to Academy President, Donna Martin, and President Elect Lucille Beseler, explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC.

ANDPAC is the only PAC that represents the Academy's food, nutrition, and health professionals. Stay informed on the Academy's legislative priorities and see what others have to say about the importance of supporting ANDPAC by donating to ANDPAC today. Please consider joining the "high five" club - a $5 donation to ANDPAC each month.

Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Good afternoon! The Academy has been asked to join a letter for Senator Blumenthal and the 19 Senators that cosponsored an amendment to protect the Prevention Fund during the health care debate on August 3rd. We thought it would be great to have Donna sign on, since it asks for senior leadership; let me know if you have any questions or concerns, we have a week until the deadline for this one!

Sincerely,

Stefanie

Subject: Thank you to prevention supporters

Hi all, We thought it would be nice to send a group thank you to Senator Blumenthal and the Senators who cosponsored his motion to commit on prevention, even though it wasn't offered in the end. As you know this is the most support we've seen to date for the Prevention Fund.

We put together the attached letter, to be signed by CEOs/senior leadership. We will do another letter specific to Blumenthal with a tweak to specifically acknowledge that he introduced it. If you would like to sign on, please fill out this form so we can collect logos/signatures by next Tuesday, August 15th. (I know a lot of people are on vacation this week)

School Nutrition

3:45 – 5:00 pm

Q&A 4:00 – 5:15 pm

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail. Please provide your revised presentation by Monday, August 28, 2017.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org
2. To login choose the “Login” option on the upper right-hand side of the page.
 1. Sign-in using your Academy/CDR username and password.
 2. On the purple banner, hover over the “Portal” option on the right-hand side and choose the “Library” option from the drop-down menu.
 3. Click on the “2017 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts” link located to the left.
 4. Click on the “Upload Multiple Files” link located in the gray menu bar.
 5. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on “add files” button (lower left side)
 6. Browse for your file.
 7. Click open.

8. To add another file choose “Add Files” button again to add another file to the list.
9. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the “Start Upload” button (lower left side). When upload had finished press “Continue.”
10. Don’t pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on “Complete Upload” bar.
11. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

Thank you.

Laney,

Thank you again for meeting with us last week; we enjoyed our discussion of best practices to improve health outcomes and reduce health care costs. Also, thank you for rescuing my cell phone; really appreciated that!

I have attached a fact sheet on the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953), which we had discussed, as well as a fact sheet on the Value of Nutrition Services in Prevention and Treatment. I also wanted to flag the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124), which was recently re-introduced, and is cosponsored by Reps. DeGette and Lynn Jenkins. It would be great to have Rep. Woodall as a cosponsor of these important bills, and I am happy to answer any questions that you may have on them.

Most importantly, I wanted to share the invitation to Donna Martin's Feed My School event, and we would love to work with your office on having a site visit at a school in the 7th district as well.

Thank you again for your time, and we look forward to working with you!

Hi Donna,

I am going to be working with you this year on your President's Reception at FNCE! It will be held on Sunday, October 22 from 8-10 pm at the Wyndham Grand Hotel in the Penthouse Ballroom, which sits on the 39th floor with 360° views of downtown Chicago. It should be beautiful with the city all lit up at night!

Attached are the guidelines for the President's Reception you will need to review. Also attached is a template for sending me your list of people. I would like to send out the invitations no later than September 8th.

As always, don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks!

- 3) Provide the agent with the GL Code listed above.

Your presentation times are:

Thursday, September 7, 2017
School Nutrition

3:45 – 5:00 pm

Q&A 4:00 – 5:15 pm

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail. Please provide your revised presentation by Monday, August 28, 2017.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org

2. To login choose the “Login” option on the upper right-hand side of the page.

1. Sign-in using your Academy/CDR username and password.
2. On the purple banner, hover over the “Portal” option on the right-hand side and choose the “Library” option from the drop-down menu.
3. Click on the “2017 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts” link located to the left.
4. Click on the “Upload Multiple Files” link located in the gray menu bar.
5. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on “add files” button (lower left side)
6. Browse for your file.
7. Click open.
8. To add another file choose “Add Files” button again to add another file to the list.
9. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the “Start Upload” button (lower left side). When upload had finished press “Continue.”
10. Don’t pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on “Complete Upload” bar.
11. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

Thank you.

The Inpatient Prospective Payment Systems (IPPS) for acute care hospitals final rule was filed by the Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Final Rule will be published in the Federal Register on August 14. CMS has delayed the decision on the Academy's four malnutrition electronic clinical quality measures, however, they will consider the malnutrition measures when they develop future policy regarding the use of eCQM. We want to emphasize that this is a delay and not a decline. It is also important to note no eCQMs were adopted onto the list for IPPS federal program. CMS acknowledged the overwhelming support it received from numerous health systems and hospitals on the malnutrition measures and also stated the measures would be an important first step to incentivizing hospitals to improve malnutrition awareness and care.

The Academy will continue to be steadfast in advocating for malnutrition recognition in all aspects of health care and health systems. We remain committed to elevating our practitioners in leading their quality management goals for positive patient/client outcomes. It is our goal to stay the course as malnutrition remains a major component for hospitals.

We have reviewed the CMS response and will take the following steps:

- Draft a letter to CMS on Monday, August 7, 2017, thanking CMS for its response.
- Continue engagement with CMS Center for Clinical Standards and Quality for the Malnutrition Composite Measure.
- Continue to support, educate, train and prepare RDNs to take the leadership role and champion malnutrition.
- Review data/outcome from the Learning Collaborative process. Currently have 50 of the 5000 U.S. hospitals participating testing the measures and completing QI projects to reform the clinical workflow process.

The Academy's role as measure steward will move forward. We will expand our circle of partners to accelerate our efforts in eliminating all forms of malnutrition, a principle in our new strategic plan.

Sharon McCauley will continue as our point person to work with other teams across the organization. I thank them for their many contributions to date.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

I am going to have to ask your patience in my recovery and tell you that I will not be able to attend the upcoming BOD meeting in Chicago.

I am progressing well with my rehab but it has been an ongoing challenge! To tell you the truth, I am truly having to learn to walk all over again! My muscles have deteriorated in my right leg to the extend that I am still struggling with simply walking.

My goal is to be able to attend FNCE in October so I am concentrating on that and don't want to risk another injury on unfamiliar ground or in an airport full of people who are in a rush!

If possible, I am more than willing to attend virtually if that option is available this time as it was in Austin.

Thanks for your patience and understanding!

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the August Standards Update is posted on the ACEND Monthly Standards webpage. Monthly Standards Update In this issue the application process for the first cohort of programs is discussed as well as questions related to both the 2012 and Future Education Model Standards.

The Future Education Model Accreditation Standards for Associate, Bachelor's and Graduate Degree Programs were released on June 19, 2017. ACEND invites programs interested in being accredited under these standards to apply to be an early adopter demonstration program; applications for the first cohort of programs are due by 11:00 am CT on Monday, October 9, 2017. The Standards and information about the demonstration program application process can be found at: www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

The monthly Virtual Town Hall meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month at 1 PM Central Time. The town hall provides a time for ACEND to share updates on its standards work and for stakeholders to ask questions. Information on joining the town hall can be found at www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

I am progressing well with my rehab but it has been an ongoing challenge! To tell you the truth, I am truly having to learn to walk all over again! My muscles have deteriorated in my right leg to the extent that I am still struggling with simply walking.

My goal is to be able to attend FNCE in October so I am concentrating on that and don't want to risk another injury on unfamiliar ground or in an airport full of people who are in a rush!

If possible, I am more than willing to attend virtually if that option is available this time as it was in Austin.

Thanks for your patience and understanding!

Susan

As Donna mentioned at the close of the Board retreat, the next meeting of the Board is scheduled for September 14-15. The meeting will be held at the Loews Chicago O'Hare Hotel in Rosemont, Illinois and begin on Thursday, September 14 at 1:00pm with light refreshments and adjourn on Friday, September 15 by 2:30pm.

Hotel arrangements have been made at the Loews hotel for arrival on Thursday, September 14 and departure on Friday, September 15. If business or personal reasons require you to extend your stay, please notify me. Your hotel room will be master-billed; you will be asked to pay for incidentals.

You are approved to make your travel arrangements. Please fly into the O'Hare International Airport (ORD) airport the morning of Thursday, September 14 and depart on Friday, September 15 after 2:30pm. To book your travel through the Academy's travel service please click on www.atcmeetings.com/Academy and login using your email address and the password you created when you activated your account. When you reach the Purchase Trip page, select Academy Board of Directors Fall Meeting 9/14/2017-9/15/2017 from the drop-down menu, enter the GL Code 1032430. If you wish to book your travel on your own, please submit your expenses for reimbursement after the conclusion of the meeting. The hotel is located two miles from the airport and offers a complimentary airport shuttle to all guests. For domestic flights, pick up is at the Hotel Shuttle Center, Door #2 located by baggage claim; follow the red Shuttle Center signs. Transportation is also available by taxi, just a 10-15 minute ride between the airport and the hotel.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Dear Dra. Edna Nava, If it is OK with you I would love to talk about "The Past, Present and Future of School Nutrition Programs in the United States". Specifically how we got our programs started and how they have changed over the past 100 years. What the new trends and regulations are for our programs. I also need details on the amount of time I have to present and the location of the meeting. Will you be making my hotel reservations? I will gladly make my flight arrangements once I hear back from you. I am really excited about doing this presentation. Looking forward to hearing back from you.

Hi Donna,

Objective for speaker:

- Share how nutrition and dietetics professionals need to counter media reports and work with local journalists to make consumers aware of untrue or misleading food and nutrition information.
- Explain how food and nutrition professionals can turn science-based, accurate, credible information more interesting or "sexy" so the media wants to pick them up.
- Advise on how the audience of food and nutrition professionals can use their skills to make sure they become the most trusted source of food and nutrition in their media markets for the people in the communities they serve.
- Speak on how food and nutrition professionals should keep recommendations realistic for everyday people, making sure to be sensitive to consumers' challenges (food prices, time constraints, environmental situations such as food deserts, etc.).

What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

- GMOs, organics, food misinformation, food safety, latest weight loss gimmick, genetics ... Everything related to food is subject to "controversy" because controversy sells, but there are ways for food and nutrition professionals to discuss hot button issues and topics in a way that is science-based and not polarizing. For example, parents, if you want to feed your family exclusively organic produce, that's fine. Don't forget that the same food safety issues exist and that you'll want to wash those fruits and vegetables before you serve them. But for you other parents who just want to make sure your family has healthful meals, organic produce is not more nutritious than conventionally grown fruits and vegetables. And guess what? Sometimes the frozen and canned versions are even more nutritious!

- Motivating and empowering consumers to adopt healthier lifestyles and want to take responsibility for their own health.
- Adapting to Dr. Google ... how the Internet and social media are changing healthcare, healthcare professionals and savvy consumers.
- Keeping up with advancements in a technologically driven world, breakthroughs in information gathering, research, treatments, and communications.

Subject: Insight for Sanjay Gupta Session Prep

Hi Donna – We are in the process of providing Sanjay some advance planning information for him to design out his presentation. I wanted to give you the opportunity to provide insight on the following items (see below for #1 and #2):

Speech Information

Speech Title: How Media Influences Healthcare Today

Description: Named a “pop culture icon” by USA Today, Dr. Sanjay Gupta is perhaps the most media-savvy physician working today. Gupta is a broadcaster, writer, podcaster and web-contributor, all of which places him in a unique position to examine why certain health-related stories make the headlines and others don't. In this presentation, he takes a hard look at the media's role in conveying sometimes frightening medical information.

1. Objective for speaker: I would love for him to help Dietetic Professionals know how to counter media reports that are untrue or misleading about medical information when they are dealing with the public. How do we make our stories more interesting or "sexy" so the media wants to pick them up? How do we make sure we are the trusted source on nutrition for the public?

2. What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

The "clean, non-GMO-, gluten free, organic craze" that is causing the public to purchase food that is not necessarily any healthier. How do we motivate people to want to take responsibility for their own health?

Thank you,

Diane

Hi Donna,

Please review and let us know your thoughts. I know Diane is on a tight deadline and would like to get this back to them today. Thank you and we look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best,

Objective for speaker:

- Share how nutrition and dietetics professionals need to counter media reports and work with local journalists to make consumers aware of untrue or misleading food and nutrition information.
- Explain how food and nutrition professionals can turn science-based, accurate, credible information more interesting or "sexy" so the media wants to pick them up.
- Advise on how the audience of food and nutrition professionals can use their skills to make sure they become the most trusted source of food and nutrition in their media markets for the people in the communities they serve.
- Speak on how food and nutrition professionals should keep recommendations realistic for everyday people, making sure to be sensitive to consumers' challenges (food prices, time constraints, environmental situations such as food deserts, etc.).

What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

- GMOs, organics, food misinformation, food safety, latest weight loss gimmick, genetics ... Everything related to food is subject to "controversy" because controversy sells, but there are ways for food and nutrition professionals to discuss hot button issues and topics in a way that is science-based and not polarizing. For example, parents, if you want to feed your family exclusively organic produce, that's fine. Don't forget that the same food safety issues exist and that you'll want to wash those fruits and vegetables before you serve them. But for you other parents who just want to make sure your family has healthful meals, organic produce is not more nutritious than conventionally grown fruits and vegetables. And guess what? Sometimes the frozen and canned versions are even more nutritious!
- Motivating and empowering consumers to adopt healthier lifestyles and want to take responsibility for their own health.
- Adapting to Dr. Google ... how the Internet and social media are changing healthcare, healthcare professionals and savvy consumers.
- Keeping up with advancements in a technologically driven world, breakthroughs in information gathering, research, treatments, and communications.

Subject: Insight for Sanjay Gupta Session Prep

Hi Donna – We are in the process of providing Sanjay some advance planning information for him to design out his presentation. I wanted to give you the opportunity to provide insight on the following items (see below for #1 and #2):

Speech Information

Speech Title: How Media Influences Healthcare Today

Description: Named a “pop culture icon” by USA Today, Dr. Sanjay Gupta is perhaps the most media-savvy physician working today. Gupta is a broadcaster, writer, podcaster and web-contributor, all of which places him in a unique position to examine why certain health-related stories make the headlines and others don't. In this presentation, he takes a hard look at the media's role in conveying sometimes frightening medical information.

1. Objective for speaker: I would love for him to help Dietetic Professionals know how to counter media reports that are untrue or misleading about medical information when they are dealing with the public. How do we make our stories more interesting or "sexy" so the media wants to pick them up? How do we make sure we are the trusted source on nutrition for the public?

2. What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

The "clean, non-GMO-, gluten free, organic craze" that is causing the public to purchase food that is not necessarily any healthier. How do we motivate people to want to take responsibility for their own health?

Thank you,

Diane

Subject: CMS and MQii measures update

The Inpatient Prospective Payment Systems (IPPS) for acute care hospitals final rule was filed by the Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and the Final Rule will be published in the Federal Register on August 14. CMS has delayed the decision on the Academy's four malnutrition electronic clinical quality measures, however, they will consider the malnutrition measures when they develop future policy regarding the use of eCQM. We want to emphasize that this is a delay and not a decline. It is also important to note no eCQMs were adopted onto the list for IPPS federal program. CMS acknowledged the overwhelming support it received from numerous health systems and hospitals on the malnutrition measures and also stated the measures would be an important first step to incentivizing hospitals to improve malnutrition awareness and care.

The Academy will continue to be steadfast in advocating for malnutrition recognition in all aspects of health care and health systems. We remain committed to elevating our practitioners in leading their quality management goals for positive patient/client outcomes. It is our goal to stay the course as malnutrition remains a major component for hospitals.

We have reviewed the CMS response and will take the following steps:

- Draft a letter to CMS on Monday, August 7, 2017, thanking CMS for its response.
- Continue engagement with CMS Center for Clinical Standards and Quality for the Malnutrition Composite Measure.
- Continue to support, educate, train and prepare RDNs to take the leadership role and champion malnutrition.
- Review data/outcome from the Learning Collaborative process. Currently have 50 of the 5000 U.S. hospitals participating testing the measures and completing QI projects to reform the clinical workflow process.

The Academy's role as measure steward will move forward. We will expand our circle of partners to accelerate our efforts in eliminating all forms of malnutrition, a principle in our new strategic plan.

Sharon McCauley will continue as our point person to work with other teams across the organization. I thank them for their many contributions to date.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi,

Thanks and we'll give it a try. I'm sure many folks won't want to turn on their web cam or may not have one. But at least it gives folks the opportunity to see your beautiful faces and to put names and faces together for those who are on camera.

Thanks,

Marsha

Good afternoon,

Thanks for the speedy response. Let's do it on September 28, 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time. Shall we try using WebEx and a conference call line in the hopes that at least some folks will use a web cam? Or do you prefer to be "hidden"?

Thanks again,

Good morning,

As always, it was good to see both of you at the BOD meeting in Austin. And thanks, Donna, for getting me up early to walk. In follow up to conversations I've had with both of you, I'd like to propose a few dates/times for our first forum with the Committee Chairs:

September 21 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 26 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 27 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 28 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

The purpose of the forum is to share the Academy's new Strategic Plan and engage the group in an interactive discussion of the plan and how they see their committee being able to support it. In the past we've held the forums via conference call but could try doing so with WebEx and perhaps get them to turn on their web cams. We don't want it to be pure presentation, but really an opportunity for a 2-way dialogue. As with any event, there's no good time for all involved, so I'm just proposing something that seems to generally work. But I'm open to other suggestions.

Please let me know by Monday what works for you so we can do a "Save the Date." As we get closer to the actual event, I'll work with both of you on talking points.

Thank you for being willing to engage with the Committee Chairs in this way. It means a lot to them to have a direct line to both of you.

Best,

Marsha

She indicated that the data team at CNN consists of five people, and they're really backed up at the moment. She said she'd check back in with her manager today to see where things stand. I'll let you know as soon as she gets back to me.

I hope you're having a great Friday! I heard back from Ciara, the reporter from CNN. She indicated that you provided great insight during the conversation yesterday.

She is wondering if she could speak with one of the cafeteria managers in your school district because she wants to explore a few key elements, such as advancements made in kitchen equipment that have helped serving healthier foods to students and some of the day-to-day operations.

I'm not sure whether that would be possible or what the protocol is in your school district, but I told her I'd reach out to you and ask.

Thanks again for agreeing to the interview yesterday.

Information wise, we are looking to discuss the relationship between the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the School Nutrition Association in previous years. Shirley Watkins (Former SNA president) informed us yesterday that there used to be a relationship between the two, but things began breaking off with SNA when it went in a separate direction for its viewpoints on healthier meals for K-12 students.

Donna,

Hello, I hope you're doing well today!

We were contacted today by a reporter with CNN who is working on a story about the school lunch proclamation that Ag Secretary Sonny Perdue recently announced. One aspect of the story involves the School Nutrition Association.

One of the Association's former managers, Shirley Watkins, spoke to the reporter this afternoon about the organization's position change throughout the years. They briefly mentioned the Academy. The reporter wants to "get some perspective on how the relationship(s) have changed" and wants to know if someone is available to talk this week.

On its face, the interview seems to be similar, subject-wise, to an article in which you were recently quoted:

http://www.pressrepublican.com/news/local_news/food-fight-on-over-changes-to-federal-nutrition-standards-for/article_5077d9c6-7779-5728-b75b-f394451dba2f.html

Would you be interested in talking to the CNN reporter?

Sounds great! The reporter, Cara, just got back to me. This is specifically what they want to discuss with you. Are you still comfortable talking to the reporter, and if so, what number should I have her call you at?

Information wise, we are looking to discuss the relationship between the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the School Nutrition Association in previous years. Shirley Watkins (Former SNA president) informed us yesterday that there used to be a relationship between the two, but things began breaking off with SNA when it went in a separate direction for its viewpoints on healthier meals for K-12 students.

Thanks!

Rhys

Donna,

Hello, I hope you're doing well today!

We were contacted today by a reporter with CNN who is working on a story about the school lunch proclamation that Ag Secretary Sonny Perdue recently announced. One aspect of the story involves the School Nutrition Association.

One of the Association's former managers, Shirley Watkins, spoke to the reporter this afternoon about the organization's position change throughout the years. They briefly mentioned the Academy. The reporter wants to "get some perspective on how the relationship(s) have changed" and wants to know if someone is available to talk this week.

On its face, the interview seems to be similar, subject-wise, to an article in which you were recently quoted:

Hi Donna – We are in the process of providing Sanjay some advance planning information for him to design out his presentation. I wanted to give you the opportunity to provide insight on the following items (see below for #1 and #2):

Speech Information

Speech Title: How Media Influences Healthcare Today

Description: Named a “pop culture icon” by USA Today, Dr. Sanjay Gupta is perhaps the most media-savvy physician working today. Gupta is a broadcaster, writer, podcaster and web-contributor, all of which places him in a unique position to examine why certain health-related stories make the headlines and others don't. In this presentation, he takes a hard look at the media's role in conveying sometimes frightening medical information.

1. Objective for speaker: I would love for him to help Dietetic Professionals know how to counter media reports that are untrue or misleading about medical information when they are dealing with the public. How do we make our stories more interesting or "sexy" so the media wants to pick them up? How do we make sure we are the trusted source on nutrition for the public?

2. What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

The "clean, non-GMO-, gluten free, organic craze" that is causing the public to purchase food that is not necessarily any healthier. How do we motivate people to want to take responsibility for their own health?

Thank you,

Diane

Just spent 45 minutes with them on the phone. I think it went great. Gave her lots to think about. She seemed very pleased. Watch for the article. Not sure when it will come out. They have been working on it for 2 weeks. I had to tiptoe around a lot of issues.

Sounds great! The reporter, Cara, just got back to me. This is specifically what they want to discuss with you. Are you still comfortable talking to the reporter, and if so, what number should I have her call you at?

Information wise, we are looking to discuss the relationship between the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the School Nutrition Association in previous years. Shirley Watkins (Former SNA president) informed us yesterday that there used to be a relationship between the two, but things began breaking off with SNA when it went in a separate direction for its viewpoints on healthier meals for K-12 students.

Thanks!

Donna,

Hello, I hope you're doing well today!

We were contacted today by a reporter with CNN who is working on a story about the school lunch proclamation that Ag Secretary Sonny Perdue recently announced. One aspect of the story involves the School Nutrition Association.

One of the Association's former managers, Shirley Watkins, spoke to the reporter this afternoon about the organization's position change throughout the years. They briefly mentioned the Academy. The reporter wants to "get some perspective on how the relationship(s) have changed" and wants to know if someone is available to talk this week.

On its face, the interview seems to be similar, subject-wise, to an article in which you were recently quoted:

http://www.pressrepublican.com/news/local_news/food-fight-on-over-changes-to-federal-nutrition-standards-for/article_5077d9c6-7779-5728-b75b-f394451dba2f.html

Would you be interested in talking to the CNN reporter?

Thanks!

Subject: Insight for Sanjay Gupta Session Prep

Hi Donna – We are in the process of providing Sanjay some advance planning information for him to design out his presentation. I wanted to give you the opportunity to provide insight on the following items (see below for #1 and #2):

Speech Information

Speech Title: How Media Influences Healthcare Today

Description: Named a “pop culture icon” by USA Today, Dr. Sanjay Gupta is perhaps the most media-savvy physician working today. Gupta is a broadcaster, writer, podcaster and web-contributor, all of which places him in a unique position to examine why certain health-related stories make the headlines and others don't. In this presentation, he takes a hard look at the media's role in conveying sometimes frightening medical information.

1. Objective for speaker: I would love for him to help Dietetic Professionals know how to counter media reports that are untrue or misleading about medical information when they are dealing with the public. How do we make our stories more interesting or "sexy" so the media wants to pick them up? How do we make sure we are the trusted source on nutrition for the public?

2. What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

The "clean, non-GMO-, gluten free, organic craze" that is causing the public to purchase food that is not necessarily any healthier. How do we motivate people to want to take responsibility for their own health?

Thank you,

Diane

Hello, Amy. Greetings from Maine! J

I'm happy to present at affiliate meetings.

In addition to providing the board update, I can speak on the topic of agriculture (e.g., plant breeding and plant biotechnology); communication careers for dietitians / dietitians in health comm and marketing; and the changing paradigm to reach consumers leading with values instead of facts. Please let me know if you require more information on these topics.

Regarding travel, my travel is already covered by my budget. And if there is an honorarium, I will need to donate it to the Foundation and my employer will match 100%.

The only other thing I wish to note is my spring travel schedule is usually very busy. The earlier I can confirm affiliate needs, the better for me and my family.

The Board recognizes the value of the relationship with our affiliate organizations and the importance of keeping members well-informed of the products, services and activities of the Academy and Foundation. To maintain this relationship, affiliates are encouraged to invite a Board member to attend their annual meeting for an Academy Update presentation.

As a part of this opportunity we would like to suggest to the affiliate meeting organizers that they maximize the Board member's attendance by planning a second presentation on a topic representing the Board member's expertise/practice area. If you are willing and able to present at a meeting and would like to offer a second presentation, please provide your top three specialty areas of expertise to me (abiedenharn@eatright.org) by August 18 so they may be included on the Board Request Form completed by the affiliate. We hope you take advantage of this opportunity to share useful, timely information and network with Academy members.

Select affiliates who have not had a Board member present an Academy Update in several years due to funding have the opportunity to participate in an Affiliate Speaker Grant program. Ten grants in the amount of $500 will be awarded to select affiliates to help offset travel costs associated with a Board member's attendance.

Please let me know if you have any questions!

Best regards,
Amy Biedenharn

Your Input Needed-Code of Ethics Revision

Dear Academy Members and CDR Credentialed Practitioners:

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (Academy)/Commission on Dietetics Registration (CDR) Code of Ethics for the Nutrition and Dietetics Profession (COE) was last updated in 2009.

Professional codes of ethics are dynamic documents, modified and adapted as society and professions change. This is true of the Academy/CDR Code of Ethics which has evolved over time as healthcare and the many other arenas in which nutrition and dietetics practitioners work have become more complex, multifaceted and challenging.

Recognizing a need for review and revision of the 2009 Academy/CDR COE, a Task Force was formed in 2016 with the charge of reviewing the current principles and accompanying clarification statements.

The Code of Ethics Task Force has worked diligently over the last 10 months to review benchmarking codes from related non-profit and healthcare related professional associations, as well as the current ethical challenges of our profession. The draft COE is a result of this work. Now we need your input to ensure that the Task Force has drafted a new COE that is reflective of the ethical challenges of your nutrition and dietetics practice.

All Academy members and all CDR credentialed practitioners agree to abide by the Code of Ethics. Thus, it is imperative that you respond to the attached survey no later than Monday, September 18, 2017 at 5pm Central Time. The Code of Ethics Task Force will review all member and credentialed practitioner input, making revisions as appropriate. The revised draft COE will then move to the Academy Board of Directors and Board of the Commission on Dietetics Registration for final approval. We anticipate releasing the newly approved COE in mid-2018.

Please click here to review the draft COE. Once you complete your COE review, please click here to take the survey.

Thank you in advance for your review and input.

Sincerely,

Lisa Dierks, MFCS, RDN, LD
Chair, Code of Ethics Task Force

Good morning,

As always, it was good to see both of you at the BOD meeting in Austin. And thanks, Donna, for getting me up early to walk. In follow up to conversations I've had with both of you, I'd like to propose a few dates/times for our first forum with the Committee Chairs:

September 21 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 26 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 27 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 28 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

The purpose of the forum is to share the Academy's new Strategic Plan and engage the group in an interactive discussion of the plan and how they see their committee being able to support it. In the past we've held the forums via conference call but could try doing so with WebEx and perhaps get them to turn on their web cams. We don't want it to be pure presentation, but really an opportunity for a 2-way dialogue. As with any event, there's no good time for all involved, so I'm just proposing something that seems to generally work. But I'm open to other suggestions.

Please let me know by Monday what works for you so we can do a "Save the Date." As we get closer to the actual event, I'll work with both of you on talking points.

Thank you for being willing to engage with the Committee Chairs in this way. It means a lot to them to have a direct line to both of you.

Best,

Marsha

Good afternoon,

Thanks for the speedy response. Let's do it on September 28, 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time. Shall we try using WebEx and a conference call line in the hopes that at least some folks will use a web cam? Or do you prefer to be "hidden"?

Thanks again,

Subject: Committee Chairs Forum

Good morning,

As always, it was good to see both of you at the BOD meeting in Austin. And thanks, Donna, for getting me up early to walk. In follow up to conversations I've had with both of you, I'd like to propose a few dates/times for our first forum with the Committee Chairs:

September 21 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 26 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 27 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 28 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

The purpose of the forum is to share the Academy's new Strategic Plan and engage the group in an interactive discussion of the plan and how they see their committee being able to support it. In the past we've held the forums via conference call but could try doing so with WebEx and perhaps get them to turn on their web cams. We don't want it to be pure presentation, but really an opportunity for a 2-way dialogue. As with any event, there's no good time for all involved, so I'm just proposing something that seems to generally work. But I'm open to other suggestions.

Please let me know by Monday what works for you so we can do a "Save the Date." As we get closer to the actual event, I'll work with both of you on talking points.

Thank you for being willing to engage with the Committee Chairs in this way. It means a lot to them to have a direct line to both of you.

Best,

Marsha

Want to Win a Prize?

Input Requested- Interview a High Level/Executive Leader in Public Health and Post Key Takeaways by 9/11/17

This year's fall Mega Issue is Championing RDNs in Positions of Leadership in Public Health. In preparation for the fall 2017 HOD meeting, the House Leadership Team (HLT) is asking that each delegate identify and personally interview a current high level/executive leader in public health. We will use this information for the fall HOD dialogue.

Tips for selection: Can be a person within or outside our profession in a public health position at a federal, state or local agency or coalition, university, or a community or medical health system.

Sample interview questions:

- Describe your current position and responsibilities.
- What skills, experiences, networks/groups helped you achieve this high level position in public health?
- What advice would you have for those who might like to pursue a similar role?

Actions:

- Review the discussion post and sample interview questions.
- Post key takeaways from the interview on this discussion post by September 11, 2017.

HOD Manual Review

Learn more about Academy Governance, Knowledge-Based Strategic Governance (KBSG), and "Representative of" vs "Representative for".

- Review policies A.6, G.5, G.10 and K.6-K.8 in the HOD Manual.

Want to Win a Prize?

We are two months into the 2017-18 year and know you have been actively completing and reviewing items to prepare for your work in the HOD. THE House Leadership Team wants you to be prepared for your role and is adding a little fun to your tasks! Complete the following tasks to be entered for a chance to win a raffle prize:

- Submit the required administrative paperwork
- Watch the HOD Platform training video and set up your profile and headshot on the HOD platform
- Identify your 3-5 Key Informants
- Review policies A.4, A.6 G.5-G.8, G.10 and K.6-K.8 in the HOD Manual
- Make your travel arrangements for the fall meeting in Chicago

Enter into the Raffle

Once you've completed all of these important tasks, email HOD@eatright.org with the subject: Tasks Completed. Make sure you include your name in the email.

- Delegates who complete the tasks and email HOD@eatright.org by September 1 will be entered for a chance to win prizes during the fall 2017 HOD Meeting.

Nominations for the 2018 Election

The Nominating Committee is looking for leaders with the skills and vision to further the profession. Please visit www.eatrightPRO.org/elections to view the positions available on the 2018 ballot.

- As a delegate, you are in a position to help identify future leaders (or you may consider advancing your own leadership path).
- Nominations for president-elect, speaker-elect and treasurer-elect closes September 1, 2017. All other nominations are due October 25, 2017.

Dear Fellow Collaborators,

I hope this finds you well-rested and energized after Tuesday's strategy session! To echo the comments Kim and I shared at the end of our gathering, thank you for your attendance and thoughtful contributions to the conversation of how Feeding America can uniquely play a role in improving the dietary quality of individuals experiencing food insecurity. There is certainly much work to be done for us as a collective, and after Tuesday's meeting, Feeding America is in a stronger position to bring our strategic "we think" proposals to the Board of Directors this fall. The cross-sector thinking and processing provided a more full exploration of possible strategies, as well as helped to narrow our focus on where Feeding America may have the most impact.

Knowing that the work, in many ways, has just begun, we will continue to keep you all apprised of our progress and key next steps for both the diet quality work as well as the body of work led by Bill around nutritious food access--which we know in many ways is inextricably linked to our goals. We hope to also hear from you about the milestones of your organization and collaborations addressing food insecurity and dietary quality. We welcome you to share your work on Feeding America's Hunger and Health blog, if interested.

Attached you will find key slides from yesterday's presentations as well as the final participant list. If you have any follow-up questions or thoughts, please do not hesitate to reach out to me or anyone on my team.

Thank you again! We are very hopeful about the work ahead, and have enjoyed reflecting on the "plus and wish" comments many of you shared as we closed out the day.

Dr. Mir,

It is always a pleasure to hear from you and we anticipate receiving the student membership applications each year.

We are happy to learn that you are planning to attend FNCE in Chicago this October with your students. We wish you and the University of Puerto Rico students the best of luck in the 2017 School Spirit Contest and will consider your email as your intent to participate. The winning school will have the opportunity to meet with Donna Martin, Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics President for 2017-2018 and the Academy Board of Directors at FNCE in Chicago.

However, regardless of the contest outcome, it may be possible for you to meet very briefly with the current President, Donna Martin, and Academy CEO, Pat Babjak while at FNCE. This will need to be coordinated closer to FNCE once schedules are determined. I will reach out to you the week of October 1st.

Thank you for your continued support of your students and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

My name is Dr. Celia Mir RDN, LND and I'm a professor at the University of Puerto Rico. I am also the Advisor of our student organization called Círculo de Nutrición y Dietética. Continuously, since 1992, I've organized a group of students to attend the ADA (now AND) Annual Convention. Our university has a Didactic Program in Dietetics that lasts an average of 6 years with 150 total students (25 new students per year). Of these students 60 are enrolled in the second, third and fourth year which are the ones that are in the student organization affiliated to AND. At this moment, (July 10, 2017) forty seven (47) students have confirmed that they will be attending this year Chicago FNCE (2017 Convention). This represents that 78% of our students will be with us in Chicago. It would be an honor for our students to meet and greet Dr. Evelyn Crayton, President of AND and other members of our Board if we get to be selected for this recognition.

The Board recognizes the value of the relationship with our affiliate organizations and the importance of keeping members well-informed of the products, services and activities of the Academy and Foundation. To maintain this relationship, affiliates are encouraged to invite a Board member to attend their annual meeting for an Academy Update presentation.

As a part of this opportunity we would like to suggest to the affiliate meeting organizers that they maximize the Board member's attendance by planning a second presentation on a topic representing the Board member's expertise/practice area. If you are willing and able to present at a meeting and would like to offer a second presentation, please provide your top three specialty areas of expertise to me (abiedenharn@eatright.org) by August 18 so they may be included on the Board Request Form completed by the affiliate. We hope you take advantage of this opportunity to share useful, timely information and network with Academy members.

Select affiliates who have not had a Board member present an Academy Update in several years due to funding have the opportunity to participate in an Affiliate Speaker Grant program. Ten grants in the amount of $500 will be awarded to select affiliates to help offset travel costs associated with a Board member's attendance.

Please let me know if you have any questions!

Best regards,
Amy Biedenharn

Good morning,

As always, it was good to see both of you at the BOD meeting in Austin. And thanks, Donna, for getting me up early to walk. In follow up to conversations I've had with both of you, I'd like to propose a few dates/times for our first forum with the Committee Chairs:

September 21 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 26 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 27 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

September 28 1:00 – 2:00 pm Central time

The purpose of the forum is to share the Academy's new Strategic Plan and engage the group in an interactive discussion of the plan and how they see their committee being able to support it. In the past we've held the forums via conference call but could try doing so with WebEx and perhaps get them to turn on their web cams. We don't want it to be pure presentation, but really an opportunity for a 2-way dialogue. As with any event, there's no good time for all involved, so I'm just proposing something that seems to generally work. But I'm open to other suggestions.

Please let me know by Monday what works for you so we can do a "Save the Date." As we get closer to the actual event, I'll work with both of you on talking points.

Thank you for being willing to engage with the Committee Chairs in this way. It means a lot to them to have a direct line to both of you.

Best,

Marsha

Hi Donna-

I spoke with Kimbal's team today and he would like to use the following format for his Member Showcase keynote:

Part 1: Kimbal is planning to start the keynote with a 20 minute solo talk on the topic of trust and how trust has become essential in our food system.

Part 2: Kimbal would like to do a fireside chat (two comfortable chairs as we have done before) that is driven by us at the Academy around the session description:

Global Food represents a $4.8 trillion market. This is an incredible opportunity for our generation. According to Kimbal Musk, our society needs young, hungry, smart people innovating food from all angles: technology, data, automation, organic farming, responsible sourcing, opening real food restaurants, promoting gardening and so much more.

I wanted to make sure that you would be comfortable with this format and wanted to roll Doris in for the following:

1. He does not want his mom to moderate...he prefers Donna as President if willing
2. He does not want it to be a talking head moderator (a media spokesperson, etc).

I would imagine these questions are pre-scripted and shared from us to his team. He wants it to be casual and engaging on this topic.

Do you have any thoughts or concerns on this adjusted format as proposed?

Thanks,

Diane

Hi

It was fortunate that Milton was elected to the HLT. We finally get some honest feedback from an HLT leader. He is telling us what we have observed for awhile. Some delegates are only there to be funded for FNCE.

Delegates stay in the position too long and are not visionaries. Good for Milton. Next let's cut down on all the face to face HLT meetings and retreats! Thanks, Lucille

He received unanimous input from the individuals that was quite disheartening, but not surprising. The interviewees are despondent, disenchanting, discouraged and feel extremely underutilized with their roles in the House. The negative responses Milton received serve to validate our perspective on the need for change. He described Monsanto's Leadership Exchange program and it seems to be in line with our thinking on how we could transform the House and engage members. Milton is going to ask Diane Polly to schedule a conference call with the HLT as soon as possible to discuss the delegates' feedback. I plan to be on the call. He will recommend a discussion on a transformation with the delegates at the Fall House in October. The call for change will come directly from the delegates rather than a top-down decision. The timing is perfect for the discussion with our second century initiatives and the unveiling of our new strategic plan at FNCE.

In addition, we can ask Glenn Tecker to provide additional models of member engagement and leadership development at the HLT retreat in January 2018. We anticipate that this will be an agenda item for the September Board meeting so stay tuned. Milton is a change agent and I'm very hopeful regarding the next steps.

Excellent news, Pat! Milton has demonstrated in so many arenas that he gets things done, and he is an important asset to the HoD and the BoD.

The concern and feelings you describe have been shared by many HoD members (including me back in the PID days) among themselves and with Harold and perhaps others --kudos to Donna, Milton and you (and others) for supporting change at the highest level, and seeking voice of customer to inform that change.

I'm thrilled that the change will come from the delegates--a "local" movement will surely lead to great discussion and engagement vs. a "top down" approach.

Wow, this is exciting!

Excellent news, Pat! Milton has demonstrated in so many arenas that he gets things done, and he is an important asset to the HoD and the BoD.

The concern and feelings you describe have been shared by many HoD members (including me back in the PID days) among themselves and with Harold and perhaps others --kudos to Donna,

Milton and you (and others) for supporting change at the highest level, and seeking voice of customer to inform that change.

I'm thrilled that the change will come from the delegates--a "local" movement will surely lead to great discussion and engagement vs. a "top down" approach.

Wow, this is exciting!

This afternoon I had an insightful conversation with Milton Stokes regarding the current charge given to the HLT members. They interviewed a specific number of delegates and received feedback on the functioning of the House of Delegates. He received unanimous input from the individuals that was quite disheartening, but not surprising. The interviewees are despondent, disenchanting, discouraged and feel extremely underutilized with their roles in the House. The negative responses Milton received serve to validate our perspective on the need for change. He described Monsanto's Leadership Exchange program and it seem to be in line with our thinking on how we could transform the House and engage members. Milton is going to ask Diane Polly to schedule a conference call with the HLT as soon as possible to discuss the delegates' feedback. I plan to be on the call. He will recommend a discussion on a transformation with the delegates at the Fall House in October. The call for change will come directly from the delegates rather than a top-down decision. The timing is perfect for the discussion with our second century initiatives and the unveiling of our new strategic plan at FNCE.

In addition, we can ask Glenn Tecker to provide additional models of member engagement and leadership development at the HLT retreat in January 2018. We anticipate that this will be an agenda item for the September Board meeting so stay tuned. Milton is a change agent and I'm very hopeful regarding the next steps.

Pat

Part 1: Kimbal is planning to start the keynote with a 20 minute solo talk on the topic of trust and how trust has become essential in our food system.

Part 2: Kimbal would like to do a fireside chat (two comfortable chairs as we have done before) that is driven by us at the Academy around the session description:

Global Food represents a $4.8 trillion market. This is an incredible opportunity for our generation. According to Kimbal Musk, our society needs young, hungry, smart people innovating food from all angles: technology, data, automation, organic farming, responsible sourcing, opening real food restaurants, promoting gardening and so much more.

I wanted to make sure that you would be comfortable with this format and wanted to roll Doris in for the following:

1. He does not want his mom to moderate...he prefers Donna as President if willing
2. He does not want it to be a talking head moderator (a media spokesperson, etc).

I would imagine these questions are pre-scripted and shared from us to his team. He wants it to be casual and engaging on this topic.

Do you have any thoughts or concerns on this adjusted format as proposed?

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy Commends Senate Vote to Reject Health Care Freedom Act

Thanks to outreach by Academy members and our partners in opposing the bill, the Senate voted July 28 to reject the latest amendment to the American Health Care Act, the Health Care Freedom Act. The Academy commended the Senate for its vote and urges Congress to work in a bipartisan process to improve access to high-quality and affordable health care for all Americans.

Academy Urges Trump Administration: Don't Roll Back School Meal Standards

In a July 31 White House meeting with the Office of Management and Budget, the Academy joined organizations from the National Alliance for Nutrition and Activity and from industry in detailing the economic and health costs associated with a relaxation in school meals standards. These costs - associated with the Trump administration's proposal to eliminate or postpone requirements that schools serve 100-percent whole-grain rich products; disallow sugary, flavored, 1-percent milk; and lower the sodium content of school meals - are significant and must be accurately assessed before the interim final rule is finalized. The Academy has been at the forefront of these issues during previous debates and negotiations on child nutrition reauthorization, with constant input from member leaders and dietetic practice groups, and continues to support school nutrition directors who lead in planning and serving children nutritious school meals.

Nutrition Legislation Highlighted at Congressional Panel

A July 25 congressional briefing focused on the importance of nutrition and physical activity in improving chronic disease outcomes. The Academy supports two bills introduced during National Nutrition Month that were highlighted in the briefing: H.R. 1413, the ENRICH Act, sponsored by Reps. Tim Ryan (Ohio) and Pat Tiberi (Ohio), which would establish a $15 million competitive grant program to integrate and expand nutrition education into medical schools' curricula; and H.R. 1634, the EAT for Health Act, sponsored by Ryan and Rep. Raul Grijalva (Ariz.), which would increase nutrition-focused continuing medical education opportunities.

Senate Holds Confirmation Hearings for Key Health Officials

The Senate's Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee held a hearing August 1 on the nominations of Lance Robertson, MPA, to be Assistant Secretary of Aging and Jerome Adams, MD, to be U.S. Surgeon General. On August 3, the Senate Finance Committee will hold a confirmation hearing for Matthew Bassett, MHA, to be Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services. The Academy strongly supports filling these key positions and looks forward to their confirmation by the full Senate.

Academy Member Provides Vital Input at Farm Bill Listening Session

During the first week of Congress's August work period, the House Agriculture Committee and Agriculture Secretary Sonny Perdue held the first of several Farm Bill listening sessions in San Angelo, Texas. Academy member Tabitha Odom, MPH, RD, LD, spoke on the importance and effectiveness of SNAP Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention grants (SNAP-Ed) and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP), and encouraged continued investment in these important initiatives. Learn more about the Academy's farm bill priorities.

Update on Congressional Centennial Resolution

Thanks to the continued outreach of Academy members, support for the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 32 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 10 cosponsors in the Senate. New cosponsors in the House are Eric Crawford (Ark.), John Duncan (Tenn.), Jenniffer Gonzalez-Colon (Puerto Rico) and Grace Meng (N.Y.). Joe Donnelly (Ind.) is a new cosponsor in the Senate. Congressional champions in both chambers greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. Hi Donna-

I spoke with Kimbal's team today and he would like to use the following format for his Member Showcase keynote:

Part 1: Kimbal is planning to start the keynote with a 20 minute solo talk on the topic of trust and how trust has become essential in our food system.

Part 2: Kimbal would like to do a fireside chat (two comfortable chairs as we have done before) that is driven by us at the Academy around the session description:
Global Food represents a $4.8 trillion market. This is an incredible opportunity for our generation. According to Kimbal Musk, our society needs young, hungry, smart people innovating food from all angles: technology, data, automation, organic farming, responsible sourcing, opening real food restaurants, promoting gardening and so much more.

I wanted to make sure that you would be comfortable with this format and wanted to roll Doris in for the following:

CPEU Hours: 1.0

The microbiome is one of the hottest topics in current nutrition science. Interest in dietary factors that affect the microbiome, such as prebiotics and probiotics, continue to increase. This session will provide an update on emerging areas of health research that have been connected to the gut microbiome, including the links between the microbiome, food, and health. In addition, the session will address current consumer interest and understanding of this complicated topic, providing additional insights on how to better communicate this complex topic to a variety of audiences.

Learning Objectives:

1. Identify specific dietary components that drive the composition and metabolic activity of the GI microbiota
2. Apply this information to formulate diets (including use of pre or probiotics) that leverage host-microbe interactions
3. Discuss the body of evidence that demonstrates the role of pre and probiotics in supporting the balance of the gut microbiome and subsequently, human health
4. Provide consumer insights and practical advice that will allow practitioners to better communicate the benefits of pre and probiotics as well as the science behind the microbiome

Hi Donna – We are in the process of providing Sanjay some advance planning information for him to design out his presentation. I wanted to give you the opportunity to provide insight on the following items (see below for #1 and #2):

Speech Information

Speech Title: How Media Influences Healthcare Today

Description: Named a “pop culture icon” by USA Today, Dr. Sanjay Gupta is perhaps the most media-savvy physician working today. Gupta is a broadcaster, writer, podcaster and web-contributor, all of which places him in a unique position to examine why certain health-related stories make the headlines and others don’t. In this presentation, he takes a hard look at the media’s role in conveying sometimes frightening medical information.

- 1. Objective for speaker:
- 2. What hot button or topics should the speaker include in the presentation?

Thank you,

Diane

Q&A 4:00 – 5:15 pm

If possible, we are requesting that you send one PowerPoint for the participants to print and one to show on screen. The PowerPoint to print should only include text and not any unnecessary animations /graphics. We have received complaints regarding the fact that the animations/graphics often time cover up text. Here are the instructions to upload your files. However, if the file is not too large, you can email it to me. I will acknowledge receipt of the e-mail. Please provide your revised presentation by Monday, August 28, 2017.

1. Go to www.cdrnet.org
2. To login choose the “Login” option on the upper right-hand side of the page.
 1. Sign-in using your Academy/CDR username and password.
 2. On the purple banner, hover over the “Portal” option on the right-hand side and choose the “Library” option from the drop-down menu.
 3. Click on the “2017 Childhood Faculty PowerPoint Files and Handouts” link located to the left.
 4. Click on the “Upload Multiple Files” link located in the gray menu bar.
 5. Scroll down to the bottom of the grey area and click on “add files” button (lower left side)
 6. Browse for your file.
 7. Click open.
 8. To add another file choose “Add Files” button again to add another file to the list.
 9. When you have all the files that you would like to add, click on the “Start Upload” button (lower left side). When upload had finished press “Continue.”
 10. Don’t pay attention to the list of folder. Just stroll down to the bottom of the page and click on “Complete Upload” bar.
 11. When you are done, please logout (upper right hand corner).

Thank you.

Global Breastfeeding Scorecard Released

Global Breastfeeding Scorecard, a new report by UNICEF and WHO in collaboration with the Global Breastfeeding Collective, has been published. The collaborative evaluated 194 nations and found that only 40 per cent of children younger than six months are breastfed exclusively and only 23 countries have exclusive breastfeeding rates above 60 per cent.

Senate Health Care Bill Update

Thanks to the outreach by Academy members and our partners, on July 28 the Senate voted to reject the latest amendment to the American Health Care Act, entitled the “Health Care Freedom Act,” or “skinny bill repeal” by a vote of 51-49. Senators John McCain (R-AZ), Lisa Murkowski (R-AK), and Susan Collins (R-ME) joined all Democrats in opposition. The next steps for Congress remain uncertain. Twenty senators submitted their names to co-sponsor a motion by Senator Richard Blumenthal (D-CT) to preserve the Prevention and Public Health Fund, a testament to the power of advocacy!

Here are several statements generated since last week's defeat of the legislation from Trust for America's Health, Public Health Institute, American Lung Association, and the American Heart Association. The Academy issued a press release commending the Senate vote, and urging Congress to work in a bipartisan process to improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Americans.

Thank you for your work to keep the action alert alive and in its success!

Update on Centennial Resolution

The Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 32 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 10 cosponsors in the Senate. New co-sponsors in the House are Reps. Eric Crawford (Ark.), John Duncan (Tenn.), Jennifer Gonzalez-Colon, (P.R.), and Grace Meng (N.Y.). Senator Donnelly (Ind.) is the new co-sponsor in the Senate. Please continue to ask your members to reach out to their members of Congress in your media channels. If a member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org. Learn More

Nutrition Legislation Highlighted in Congressional Panel

A July 25th congressional briefing focused on the importance of nutrition and physical activity to improve chronic disease outcomes. Two Academy-supported bills, introduced during National Nutrition Month, were highlighted in the briefing: H.R. 1413, the ENRICH Act, sponsored by Reps. Tim Ryan (Ohio) and Pat Tiberi (Ohio), which would establish a $15 million competitive grant program to integrate and expand nutrition education into medical schools' curricula; and H.R. 1634, the EAT for Health Act, sponsored by Reps. Grijalva (Ariz.) and Tim Ryan (Ohio), which would increase nutrition-focused continuing medical education opportunities. Currently the Academy does not have an action alert open on these issues, watch for more information.

Blumenthal and Pingree Introduce Bicameral Food Recovery Act

Senator Richard Blumenthal (Conn.) and Congresswoman Chellie Pingree (Maine) introduced the Food Recovery Act, comprehensive bicameral legislation to reduce food waste in stores and restaurants, schools and institutions, on farms, and in American homes. Senators Ron Wyden (Ore.), Brian Schatz, (Hawaii), Jeff Merkley (Ore.), and Cory Booker (New Jersey) are original cosponsors of the Food Recovery Act. The Academy was pleased to work with Sen. Blumenthal on this legislation. More information will be available once the legislation is posted. A future action alert is being considered.

Roundtable on Obesity Solutions Releases Brief and Announces Next Public Meeting

The Challenge of Treating Obesity and Overweight: Proceedings of a Workshop—In Brief summarizes the Roundtable's April 2017 workshop of the same name. The workshop discussions covered treatments for obesity, overweight, and severe obesity in adults and children; emerging treatment opportunities; the development of a workforce for obesity treatments; payment and policy considerations; and promising ways to move forward. To read and download. The Academy continues to be an active participant in the roundtable.

The Roundtable's next public workshop, Advancing Obesity Solutions through Investments in the Built Environment, will be held on September 12 at the National Academy of Sciences Building. Roundtable members are encouraged to share the workshop with their colleagues using this link.

Looking for a Career Change? The Academy is Hiring!

We have had staff transitions during the past two months including retirements and relocations and as a result have several exciting opportunities in our Washington, D.C. office. We are in the process of finalizing the positions and will posting the openings in the near future. If you are interested in any of the following employment opportunities, please use the links below to directly apply. Please note, these full-time positions are based in Washington, D.C. and are not designed for telecommuting.

Volunteers Sought for Public Policy Environmental Scan Task Force

The Academy's Legislative and Public Policy Committee (LPPC) is conducting an environmental scan of public policy issues. The task force seeks input and representation from members of affiliate public policy panels and DPG/MIG policy and advocacy leaders. To volunteer for this six to eight month task force, send your resume to Jeanne Blankenship.

APHA Public Health Fellowship in Government

The American Public Health Association is accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Public Health Fellowship in Government. The goal of the fellowship is to increase participants' understanding about the intersection between public health and policy. Fellows will work in a congressional office or on a congressional committee, focusing on issues related to public health. All public health professionals are eligible to apply; applicants must have a Master's in Public Health or a related field. Applications are due by August 14, 2017.

Key Health Officials Confirmed, Named

On Tuesday, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee held a hearing for the nominations of Mr. Lance Robertson for Assistant Secretary of Aging and Dr. Jerome Adams for Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, among others. On Thursday, the Senate Finance Committee will hold a confirmation hearing on Matthew Bassett for Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services. The Academy has been supportive of filling these key positions, and looks forward to the full Senate confirmations.

In addition to the hearings, other key appointments have been made. USDA Food Safety and Inspection Services Administrator Al Almanza has retired after 39 years of service to the Agency. Secretary Perdue has announced that beginning Aug.1, 2017, Carmen Rottenberg will be the Acting Deputy Under Secretary for Food Safety. Paul Kiecker will be the Acting Administrator.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type “Optional Event Attendee Only” (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the “Additional Registration Options,” add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Global Breastfeeding Scorecard Released

Global Breastfeeding Scorecard, a new report by UNICEF and WHO in collaboration with the Global Breastfeeding Collective, has been published. The collaborative evaluated 194 nations and found that only 40 per cent of children younger than six months are breastfed exclusively and only 23 countries have exclusive breastfeeding rates above 60 per cent.

Senate Health Care Bill Update

Thanks to the outreach by Academy members and our partners, on July 28 the Senate voted to reject the latest amendment to the American Health Care Act, entitled the “Health Care Freedom Act,” or “skinny bill repeal” by a vote of 51-49. Senators John McCain (R-AZ), Lisa Murkowski (R-AK), and Susan Collins (R-ME) joined all Democrats in opposition. The next steps for Congress remain uncertain. Twenty senators submitted their names to co-sponsor a motion by Senator Richard Blumenthal (D-CT) to preserve the Prevention and Public Health Fund, a testament to the power of advocacy!

Here are several statements generated since last week's defeat of the legislation from Trust for America's Health, Public Health Institute, American Lung Association, and the American Heart Association. The Academy issued a press release commending the Senate vote, and urging Congress to work in a bipartisan process to improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Americans.

Thank you for your work to keep the action alert alive and in its success!

Update on Centennial Resolution

The Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 32 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 10 cosponsors in the Senate. New co-sponsors in the House are Reps. Eric Crawford (Ark.), John Duncan (Tenn.), Jennifer Gonzalez-Colon, (P.R.), and Grace Meng (N.Y.). Senator Donnelly (Ind.) is the new co-sponsor in the Senate. Please continue to ask your members to reach out to their members of Congress in your media channels. If a member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org. Learn More

Nutrition Legislation Highlighted in Congressional Panel

A July 25th congressional briefing focused on the importance of nutrition and physical activity to improve chronic disease outcomes. Two Academy-supported bills, introduced during National Nutrition Month, were highlighted in the briefing: H.R. 1413, the ENRICH Act, sponsored by Reps. Tim Ryan (Ohio) and Pat Tiberi (Ohio), which would establish a $15 million competitive grant program to integrate and expand nutrition education into medical schools' curricula; and H.R. 1634 , the EAT for Health Act, sponsored by Reps. Grijalva (Ariz.) and Tim Ryan (Ohio), which would increase nutrition-focused continuing medical education opportunities. Currently the Academy does not have an action alert open on these issues, watch for more information.

Blumenthal and Pingree Introduce Bicameral Food Recovery Act

Senator Richard Blumenthal (Conn.) and Congresswoman Chellie Pingree (Maine) introduced the Food Recovery Act, comprehensive bicameral legislation to reduce food waste in stores and restaurants, schools and institutions, on farms, and in American homes. Senators Ron Wyden (Ore.), Brian Schatz, (Hawaii), Jeff Merkley (Ore.), and Cory Booker (New Jersey) are original cosponsors of the Food Recovery Act. The Academy was pleased to work with Sen. Blumenthal on this legislation. More information will be available once the legislation is posted. A future action alert is being considered.

Roundtable on Obesity Solutions Releases Brief and Announces Next Public Meeting

The Challenge of Treating Obesity and Overweight: Proceedings of a Workshop—In Brief summarizes the Roundtable's April 2017 workshop of the same name. The workshop discussions covered treatments for obesity, overweight, and severe obesity in adults and children; emerging treatment opportunities; the development of a workforce for obesity treatments; payment and policy considerations; and promising ways to move forward. To read and download. The Academy continues to be an active participant in the roundtable.

The Roundtable's next public workshop, Advancing Obesity Solutions through Investments in the Built Environment, will be held on September 12 at the National Academy of Sciences Building. Roundtable members are encouraged to share the workshop with their colleagues using this link.

Looking for a Career Change? The Academy is Hiring!

We have had staff transitions during the past two months including retirements and relocations and as a result have several exciting opportunities in our Washington, D.C. office. We are in the process of finalizing the positions and will posting the openings in the near future. If you are interested in any of the following employment opportunities, please use the links below to directly apply. Please note, these full-time positions are based in Washington, D.C. and are not designed for telecommuting.

Coordinator, Grassroots Advocacy

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

Manager, Policy and Advocacy Communications

Director, Legislative and Government Affairs

Volunteers Sought for Public Policy Environmental Scan Task Force

The Academy's Legislative and Public Policy Committee (LPPC) is conducting an environmental scan of public policy issues. The task force seeks input and representation from members of affiliate public policy panels and DPG/MIG policy and advocacy leaders. To volunteer for this six to eight month task force, send your resume to Jeanne Blankenship.

APHA Public Health Fellowship in Government

The American Public Health Association is accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Public Health Fellowship in Government. The goal of the fellowship is to increase participants' understanding about the intersection between public health and policy. Fellows will work in a congressional office or on a congressional committee, focusing on issues related to public health. All public health professionals are eligible to apply; applicants must have a Master's in Public Health or a related field. Applications are due by August 14, 2017.

Key Health Officials Confirmed, Named

On Tuesday, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee held a hearing for the nominations of Mr. Lance Robertson for Assistant Secretary of Aging and Dr. Jerome Adams for Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, among others. On Thursday, the Senate Finance Committee will hold a confirmation hearing on Matthew Bassett for Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services. The Academy has been supportive of filling these key positions, and looks forward to the full Senate confirmations.

In addition to the hearings, other key appointments have been made. USDA Food Safety and Inspection Services Administrator Al Almanza has retired after 39 years of service to the Agency. Secretary Perdue has announced that beginning Aug.1, 2017, Carmen Rottenberg will be the Acting Deputy Under Secretary for Food Safety. Paul Kiecker will be the Acting Administrator.

Senate Confirmation Hearings on Key Health Officials

On Tuesday, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee held a hearing for the nominations of Mr. Lance Robertson for Assistant Secretary of Aging and Dr. Jerome Adams for Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, among others. On Thursday, the Senate Finance Committee will hold a confirmation hearing on Matthew Bassett for Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services. The Academy has been supportive of filling these key positions, and looks forward to the full Senate confirmations.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type “Optional Event Attendee Only” (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the “Additional Registration Options,” add the Advocacy Day of Action.

Donna,

Attached is the (almost) final agenda for tomorrow; I just heard back from CDC this morning, so I am very excited that we were able to get that meeting scheduled! Let me know if you have any questions or need anything, and I'm excited to see you tomorrow! Also, my cell is (616) 485-8709.

Sincerely,

Stefanie

I am set for tomorrow. I am having dinner with Amy Hahn tonight to connect with her. She will be at the meeting tomorrow also. Katie Brown will also be there. I got input from Jenn and Mary Pat on some homework they gave us. I am glad Stef is handling Wednesday appointments. I am more worried about getting things arranged for that day. Want to make good use of my time here. Tomorrow should be easy for me. I already have a lot of ideas I want to share. Thanks for checking. Until Stef reached out I was worried about Wednesday. I want to make sure you get your monies worth out of me! Thanks for this opportunity.

August is Kids Eat Right Month!
Volume 3, Issue 20, August 1, 2017

Celebrate Kids Eat Right Month with Us!

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (AND) celebrates Kids Eat Right during the month of August. This month was created to focus on the importance of kids eating the right types of food their bodies need to grow into healthy adults. From infants to teenagers, the AND has resources and creative tools to help parents, teachers, and the community, encourage our youngest eaters to make healthy decisions. Get kid-tested and approved recipes, tips, and more for each age group!

- Babies
- Toddlers
- Pre-School
- Grade School
- Teenagers

Get involved and become a Kids Eat Right campaign member to further promote healthy eating and the prevention of childhood obesity. Kids Eat Right campaign members will have access to educational materials, reference lists, handouts, and templates free of charge, for public health projects.

OCFS Encourages Healthy, Local Food for All Child Nutrition Programs

Kids Eat Right Month is a reminder that increasing access to healthy food for all children is important for proper growth and development. Establishing positive eating and physical activity habits at a young age, promotes a healthy body weight and connects kids to their food. These kids, who will grow into adults, will be equipped with healthy habits they can pass on for generations to come.

The Farm to School program promotes local foods and strengthens community partnerships and engagement. Bring farm to school to your child's school, day care, after-school program, or even birthday party! Teach our future generation that when you buy local foods, kids win, farmers win, and communities win!

Evaluating farm to school efforts is critical in helping to identify and acknowledge the benefits these activities have on students. To learn more about evaluation methods, read the story below from LiveWell Colorado.

Interested in a national farm to school evaluation? Check out the Farm to School Census to learn more about the impact it has on communities!

Analyzing District Lunch Menus with LiveWell Colorado's School Food Initiative

In April 2013, LiveWell Colorado (LWC) partnered with the Gretchen Swanson Center for Nutrition (GSCN), a public health nutrition research and evaluation center, to design and conduct an evaluation of LiveWell's flagship school-based program, the School Food Initiative (SFI). The SFI works with districts across the state to replace highly processed school lunch items with scratch-cooked, fresh meals and enhanced salad bars.

The cornerstone of the evaluation for each cohort has been the Quantitative Menu Analysis, otherwise known as the QMA. The QMA is conducted at baseline and then again at follow-up to determine how a district's menu has shifted toward more fresh, whole ingredients after their participation in the SFI. This is accomplished by an in-depth review and analysis of each food item in the district's menu cycle in order to determine the percentage of fresh/whole ingredients used within each component (e.g., protein, grain, produce, etc.). Each ingredient is assigned a category based on its level of processing (fresh/whole, transitional, highly processed) as indicated by recipes and product labels. This is guided by the use of an ingredient rubric, which sorts all ingredients that a district may utilize into these 3 categories. The rubric was developed by iteratively modifying an existing LWC tool by the GSCN research team in coordination with the SFI Program Director, a registered dietitian. The current rubric is now more aligned with school food and includes a comprehensive list of ingredients within these 3 levels of processing.

Topics such as QMA development, cohort results, and longitudinal cohort results have been presented at national conferences, such as Biennial Childhood Obesity, American Evaluation Association, and American Public Health Association, as well as published in the Journal of School Health. Additionally, results from the most recent cohort were developed into an infographic, which outlines the increase in the use of fresh/whole ingredients, particularly among fresh fruits and vegetables. As a partner in the San Luis Valley Local Foods Coalition's new Farm to School Grant, we look forward to supporting the Coalition's 14 school districts in getting more locally grown produce out of the dirt, into the cafeteria, and on to student lunch trays!

Upcoming Webinars and Conferences

Partnering for More Successful Summers: Bringing together Summer Meals, SNAP-Ed and local farmers to better serve communities

Date: August 8th from 2:00-3:00PM EST

Learning Objectives: Participants will be able to:

1. Identify possible partnership activities between Summer Food Service, SNAP-Ed, Farm to Summer and Farmers Markets.
2. Describe how partnerships may be developed and leveraged for program success.
3. Apply the strategies presented in the webinar to their partnership efforts.

Who Should Attend: SNAP-Ed providers and administrators, partner organizations at State and local levels, Child Nutrition, Farmers Markets, and Summer Food Service stakeholders, and all others interested in building and leveraging partnerships with SNAP-Ed.

Farm to Summer initiatives, such as serving at farmers' markets or offering agriculture-focused activities, can attract children and teens to summer meal sites; however, robust programming requires thoughtful planning and strategic partnerships. While summer meals may be ending for many sponsors across the country, now is the perfect time to start thinking about Farm to Summer for 2018. During this webinar, discover how program operators are enhancing their programs through partnerships with SNAP-educators and farmers.

This webinar is free to attend but registration is required.

Kids Eat Right with Garden to Café

Garden to Café is San Diego Unified Farm to School's favorite program! School gardens throughout the district can be certified to serve their garden-grown produce as part of their school salad bar for the National School Lunch Program. They train dedicated teachers, volunteers, community partners, and cafeteria staff who are interested in bringing the program to their school. In partnership with the County of San Diego Department of Environmental Health, they ensure the school garden meets various criteria regarding safe growing and harvesting practices. Once a school is certified, the school can begin harvesting, preparing, and serving raw garden produce in their cafeterias! Some of our favorite produce items that school gardens have served on their school salad bars are snap peas, radishes, microgreens, cheddar cauliflower, and broccoli. Students get to plant, grow, harvest, and weigh garden produce. Their harvest is delivered to the cafeteria, washed, prepped, and served, to be eaten for lunch the following day. Garden to Café is a great way for school food service departments to support school gardens, and to ensure that lessons learned in the garden about growing healthy food extend to making healthy choices in the cafeteria!

So I think we need to either have him on a four P's call or I would also be OK with you just calling him to hear him out. Let me know what you think?

Second issue. Do you think there is anyway we could fund Gus to come to FNCE? He has not asked to be funded, but I think it would be money well spent. I had dinner with Mary Pat tonight and she said she would be glad to make sure he got to the right sessions. Just a thought.

August is Kids Eat Right Month!
Volume 3, Issue 20, August 1, 2017

Celebrate Kids Eat Right Month with Us!

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (AND) celebrates Kids Eat Right during the month of August. This month was created to focus on the importance of kids eating the right types of food their bodies need to grow into healthy adults. From infants to teenagers, the AND has resources and creative tools to help parents, teachers, and the community, encourage our youngest eaters to make healthy decisions. Get kid-tested and approved recipes, tips, and more for each age group!

- Babies
- Toddlers
- Pre-School
- Grade School
- Teenagers

Get involved and become a Kids Eat Right campaign member to further promote healthy eating and the prevention of childhood obesity. Kids Eat Right campaign members will have access to educational materials, reference lists, handouts, and templates free of charge, for public health projects.

OCFS Encourages Healthy, Local Food for All Child Nutrition Programs

Kids Eat Right Month is a reminder that increasing access to healthy food for all children is important for proper growth and development. Establishing positive eating and physical activity habits at a young age, promotes a healthy body weight and connects kids to their food. These kids, who will grow into adults, will be equipped with healthy habits they can pass on for generations to come.

The Farm to School program promotes local foods and strengthens community partnerships and engagement. Bring farm to school to your child's school, day care, after-school program, or even birthday party! Teach our future generation that when you buy local foods, kids win, farmers win, and communities win!

Here are 5 Ways Schools Can Boost the Local Food Economy.

Check out these factsheets to learn more about farm to school and how to integrate these activities in many settings!

Evaluating farm to school efforts is critical in helping to identify and acknowledge the benefits these activities have on students. To learn more about evaluation methods, read the story below from LiveWell Colorado.

Analyzing District Lunch Menus with LiveWell Colorado's School Food Initiative

In April 2013, LiveWell Colorado (LWC) partnered with the Gretchen Swanson Center for Nutrition (GSCN), a public health nutrition research and evaluation center, to design and conduct an evaluation of LiveWell's flagship school-based program, the School Food Initiative (SFI). The SFI works with districts across the state to replace highly processed school lunch items with scratch-cooked, fresh meals and enhanced salad bars.

The cornerstone of the evaluation for each cohort has been the Quantitative Menu Analysis, otherwise known as the QMA. The QMA is conducted at baseline and then again at follow-up to determine how a district's menu has shifted toward more fresh, whole ingredients after their participation in the SFI. This is accomplished by an in-depth review and analysis of each food item in the district's menu cycle in order to determine the percentage of fresh/whole ingredients used within each component (e.g., protein, grain, produce, etc.). Each ingredient is assigned a category based on its level of processing (fresh/whole, transitional, highly processed) as indicated by recipes and product labels. This is guided by the use of an ingredient rubric, which sorts all ingredients that a district may utilize into these 3 categories. The rubric was developed by iteratively modifying an existing LWC tool by the GSCN research team in coordination with the SFI Program Director, a registered dietitian. The current rubric is now more aligned with school food and includes a comprehensive list of ingredients within these 3 levels of processing.

Topics such as QMA development, cohort results, and longitudinal cohort results have been presented at national conferences, such as Biennial Childhood Obesity, American Evaluation Association, and American Public Health Association, as well as published in the Journal of School Health. Additionally, results from the most recent cohort were developed into an infographic, which outlines the increase in the use of fresh/whole ingredients, particularly among fresh fruits and vegetables. As a partner in the San Luis Valley Local Foods Coalition's new Farm to School Grant, we look forward to supporting the Coalition's 14 school districts in getting more locally grown produce out of the dirt, into the cafeteria, and on to student lunch trays!

Upcoming Webinars and Conferences

Partnering for More Successful Summers: Bringing together Summer Meals, SNAP-Ed and local farmers to better serve communities

Date: August 8th from 2:00-3:00PM EST

Learning Objectives: Participants will be able to:

1. Identify possible partnership activities between Summer Food Service, SNAP-Ed, Farm to Summer and Farmers Markets.
2. Describe how partnerships may be developed and leveraged for program success.
3. Apply the strategies presented in the webinar to their partnership efforts.

Who Should Attend: SNAP-Ed providers and administrators, partner organizations at State and local levels, Child Nutrition, Farmers Markets, and Summer Food Service stakeholders, and all others interested in building and leveraging partnerships with SNAP-Ed.

Farm to Summer initiatives, such as serving at farmers' markets or offering agriculture-focused activities, can attract children and teens to summer meal sites; however, robust programming requires thoughtful planning and strategic partnerships. While summer meals may be ending for many sponsors across the country, now is the perfect time to start thinking about Farm to Summer for 2018. During this webinar, discover how program operators are enhancing their programs through partnerships with SNAP-educators and farmers.

This webinar is free to attend but registration is required.

Kids Eat Right with Garden to Café

Garden to Café is San Diego Unified Farm to School's favorite program! School gardens throughout the district can be certified to serve their garden-grown produce as part of their school salad bar for the National School Lunch Program. They train dedicated teachers, volunteers, community partners, and cafeteria staff who are interested in bringing the program to their school. In partnership with the County of San Diego Department of Environmental Health, they ensure the school garden meets various criteria regarding safe growing and harvesting practices. Once a school is certified, the school can begin harvesting, preparing, and serving raw garden produce in their cafeterias! Some of our favorite produce items that school gardens have served on their school salad bars are snap peas, radishes, microgreens, cheddar cauliflower, and broccoli. Students get to plant, grow, harvest, and weigh garden produce. Their harvest is delivered to the cafeteria, washed, prepped, and served, to be eaten for lunch the following day. Garden to Café is a great way for school food service departments to support school gardens, and to ensure that lessons learned in the garden about growing healthy food extend to making healthy choices in the cafeteria!

Good evening CLL Leaders,

Thank you for joining the call last week. Since some committee members were unable to attend, I am attaching the minutes so that everyone can get up to speed on FNCE items.

The one big action item we discussed is 2018 anchor sessions. Please email me 1-2 speaker names, with contact information (if available) for anchor sessions by August 21st. I think it's best if everyone focuses on thought leaders in their expertise area so we have a nice balance of speakers for discussion. We will regroup in a month to vote on which speakers we should move forward with inviting. Chris will be in contact with the incoming members to get their input.

I will send out a Doodle for potential conference call dates shortly.

Best,

I am set for tomorrow. I am having dinner with Amy Hahn tonight to connect with her. She will be at the meeting tomorrow also. Katie Brown will also be there. I got input from Jenn and Mary Pat on some homework they gave us. I am glad Stef is handling Wednesday appointments. I am more worried about getting things arranged for that day. Want to make good use of my time here. Tomorrow should be easy for me. I already have a lot of ideas I want to share. Thanks for checking. Until Stef reached out I was worried about Wednesday. I want to make sure you get your monies worth out of me! Thanks for this opportunity.

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

A few weeks ago at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Subject: Re: AND-DCID Updated Proposal

Pat, colleagues,

Here are the responses to your questions. Please let us know if you need any additional information.

. Is the literature review intended to be a scoping exercise and could the Academy's EAL librarians/consultants assist with this? If so, some funding would need to go to that ie (1K)—or is this one way the fellow contributes by conducting a literature review and scoping document?

Yes. The literature review will be a scoping exercise that will include the context of undernutrition in Central America and the problem analysis (i.e., major causes, social, financial, agricultural, economic, environmental and other dimensions). The plan discussed with Alison is that the AND fellow will participate fully in this work.

. How will the membership list be identified?

We have identified a list of the most relevant and authoritative agencies and NGOs (i.e. USAID, WFP, WHO, UNICEF, FAO, OXFAM, Save the Children, World Vision). However, we are going to start identifying the different organizations addressing malnutrition issues in Central America by using Google searches. We are going to use search combinations of the word "organization," a food issue category term (i.e. malnutrition, stunting, maternal health, breast-feeding, water safety and sanitation), and a geographic identifier.

. Will there be an IRB for the phone interviews?

We can create a taskforce or delegate to one or two people from the steering committee (e.g., Alison from AND) the task of reviewing and approving the questionnaire and script to be used for the phone interviews.

- Has thought been given to using previously validated questions and/development of a script to use for these interviews?

Yes. During the study design phase, a questionnaire, script and e-mail invitation template for interviews will be developed. These materials will be reviewed and approved before starting using them.

- What is the role of the Co-Principal Investigator?

AND Fellow will work alongside Estuardo in the data-gathering, content analysis, and engagement with policymakers and implementing agencies.

- What is the funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator?

There is no separate funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator; the time/travel and other expenses of the AND fellow will have to be financed within the $75K envelope. We would appreciate your guidance on how to best do this.

- Will there be a quarterly update to the Academy's Foundation on progress made?

Yes. We have planned quarterly updates. This will be part of the communication plan and RACI matrix Estuardo will work on once the project is approved.

Best wishes,

Indermit

Dear Indermit,

It was a pleasure meeting you and Livleen. I have copied Donna Martin on this email, so you now have her contact information going forward. Thank you for addressing the feedback provided by Alison, and the points raised during our conversation in the revised proposal. We do understand the time constraints that come with university scheduling, but we have a few remaining questions which follow below.

- Is the literature review intended to be a scoping exercise and could the Academy's EAL librarians/consultants assist with this? If so, some funding would need to go to that ie (1K)—or is this one way the fellow contributes by conducting a literature review and scoping document?
- How will the membership list be identified?
- Will there be an IRB for the phone interviews?
- Has thought been given to using previously validated questions and/development of a script to use for these interviews?
- What is the role of the Co-Principal Investigator?
- What is the funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator?
- Will there be a quarterly update to the Academy's Foundation on progress made?

Again, the Academy is very interested in the topic of malnutrition and looks forward to the potential for collaboration in addressing this issue. Thank you!

Best regards,

Pat

Dear Lucille and Pat,

Please find attached a revised proposal. This reflects inputs from Alison, and the points raised during our conversation in DC last weekend.

I would have liked the work on this to have begun in June because (summers are the best time for serious work at universities), but I completely understand why we might not be able to begin right away. We've pushed the proposed start date to August 1, but I've asked Estuardo to keep the delivery dates the same as before. We can change this to cover a full calendar year if that is administratively more convenient.

Please let me know if you need more information before the AND Foundation can consider this proposal.

Warmest wishes,

Indermit

PS: I couldn't find Donna Martin's email address. Please share this with her as you see fit.

Good Morning, Donna -

I hope your summer is going well. I was so thankful to be able to meet you at PPW this year! It's so wonderful to have a president that is so approachable and driven; who also represents school foodservice.

We had spoken a little about having you speak as a keynote at our Indiana Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Annual Meeting at The Forum of Fishers April 11-12, 2018. This year's program, Nourishing the Next Generation, will focus on the impact of nutrition professionals across the globe. The second day of the meeting tends to have more students in attendance, but we are happy to have you either day.

If this is still something that you are available for and interested in, please let me know. I know you mentioned that we would pay for travel and lodging, which would be just fine. The meeting is held about 35 minutes north of central Indianapolis.

Talk to you soon!

Barilla[®] Ready Pasta with Shrimp & Green Beans

Welcome to another Food & Nutrition Test Kitchen contest, where readers are invited to try a tasty recipe, submit feedback, share using #FNTestKitchen and #PassionForPasta, and enter to win an awesome prize! This round features Barilla[®] Ready Pasta with Shrimp & Green Beans. Use this base recipe as inspiration, and try all sorts of combinations using your favorite Barilla pasta and ingredients! The Passion For Pasta Recipe Builder can help guide you towards a delicious, balanced pasta dish, and for even more inspiration, visit PassionForPasta.com.

Barilla's new Ready Pasta provides an ultraconvenient pasta option for anyone seeking a quick meal, side or snack. This fully cooked pasta can be either heated in the microwave for 60 seconds or in a skillet with two teaspoons of olive oil for 2 to 4 minutes, and then topped with your favorite sauce, vegetables and protein for a complete meal. Barilla Ready Pasta is made with just three simple ingredients: fully cooked al dente pasta, extra virgin olive oil and a pinch of sea salt.

Participation in the contest is easy: Make the featured recipe, submit input using this form, and you will automatically be entered to win an All-Clad Stainless Steel 5-Piece Set of professional-grade cookware ($349.99 value)!

Whether you're cooking solo in your home kitchens, gathering friends for a dinner party or leading a community cooking class or demo, anyone is welcome to participate. Follow the recipe precisely, or adapt it to accommodate food allergies, taste preferences or nutrient needs with ingredient substitutions or adjustments to cooking methods. If the modification doesn't work out, no worries. As long as you submit details through our online form, it's a Test Kitchen win!

Contest Rules:

Anyone can access the recipe and complete the form. Only Academy members or Food & Nutrition subscribers are eligible to win sweepstakes prizes. The following individuals are not eligible:

employees or spokespeople of the Academy; and employees of vendors of the Academy or its design, advertising or fulfillment agencies (collectively, "vendors").

Eligible participants who complete Test Kitchen Feedback forms automatically will be entered to win the prize. The deadline to enter is Sept. 12, 2017. Sweepstakes drawing will occur on Sept. 15, 2017 and the winner will be announced in the November/December 2017 issue of Food & Nutrition.

Test Kitchen participants are encouraged to share photos and test kitchen stories on social media using the hashtag #FNTestKitchen, and for this pasta special, feel free to also tag #PassionForPasta. Social media engagement bears no effect on raffle eligibility, and using the hashtag #contest is solely at the discretion of the individual.

Wonderful! See below for details.

- Alumni Talk
 - o 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions
 - o Attendees would include alumni, students and faculty from the UAB Department of Nutrition Sciences. We'll get you the estimated number of attendees closer to the day.
 - o The UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success was very interested in having you speak to alumni since it is the Academy's centennial year, you are the president-elect and a graduate of the school.
 - o You will most likely have an overlap of attendees for this talk and the DI certificate ceremony so the topics would need to be different.
 - o The message for this talk could be on how you were able to impact the school systems in your area and how you will use your position in the Academy to continue to make a difference. I think it is inspiring to hear about the innovative ideas dietitians are implementing in the community to make an impact.
- DI Certificate Ceremony
 - o 20-30 minute talk

- o The message could be about a dietitians impact on initiating change in the profession, government, and/or the community. Or maybe what advice you would have given yourself back at your graduation.
- o This talk will be specifically directed to the graduating interns (25 total). There will be parents, preceptors and program faculty (past and present) in attendance. We usually have around 125 attend.

Thank you,

Donna,

I have received approval for UAB to pay for your flight from Augusta to Birmingham and then from Birmingham to Tulsa! Our Office Associate, Sarah Peek, will need your date of birth, cell phone number, how your name appears on your license and an example of a flight you would like for UAB to book for you. I've included her on this email so that you can send the requested information to her directly.

For the keynote speech, really any topic that would encourage the interns, motivate them to do great things, fulfill their full potential...something along those lines. Maybe even sharing some advice on starting out a career in dietetics. I'll probably talk about dreaming big. Were there any moments in your career where an opportunity scared you but you took on the challenge and it changed your career? Feel free to call me if you'd like to discuss this further. I'll also have the Chair of the Department, Tim Garvey, and the Vice Chair of the Education Mission within the Department talk for a little bit.

I had previously mentioned that the UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success is very interested in having you speak with our program alumni outside of the DI Certificate Ceremony. Would you be interested in also doing a separate talk for alumni, students, and faculty in the Department of Nutrition Sciences that Friday, August 11th? We were thinking possibly 7:30-8:15 or 8-8:45 that morning before the ceremony; a 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions? If you are interested, we were thinking of the below ideas as topics:

- Your work with the School system in Georgia – focused on athletes performance, addressing nutrition in a low income population and food desserts

- Involvement with national organization – vision for nutrition in the future, importance of involvement on a policy avenue

Again, thank you so much for accepting our invitation. We look forward to having you return to UAB!

Carleton, I would love to come and be the keynote speaker for the UAB Dietetic Intern graduation. Do you all think you would be willing to pay for half of my airline ticket that I am going to make from Augusta to Birmingham and then Birmingham to Tulsa and then Tulsa to Augusta? I think it would only be about $350 for your share. I would not need an hotel room as I can stay at my son's home in Birmingham. If that would work out, then all I need from you is some idea of what you would like me to talk about so I can work on the presentation. Just some idea of what direction to go in for the presentation would be great. Look forward to hearing back from you. Thanks!

Wonderful! See below for details.

- Alumni Talk
 - o 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions
 - o Attendees would include alumni, students and faculty from the UAB Department of Nutrition Sciences. We'll get you the estimated number of attendees closer to the day.
 - o The UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success was very interested in having you speak to alumni since it is the Academy's centennial year, you are the president-elect and a graduate of the school.
 - o You will most likely have an overlap of attendees for this talk and the DI certificate ceremony so the topics would need to be different.
 - o The message for this talk could be on how you were able to impact the school systems in your area and how you will use your position in the Academy to continue to make a difference. I think it is inspiring to hear about the innovative ideas dietitians are implementing in the community to make an impact.
- DI Certificate Ceremony
 - o 20-30 minute talk
 - o The message could be about a dietitians impact on initiating change in the profession, government, and/or the community. Or maybe what advice you would have given yourself back at your graduation.
 - o This talk will be specifically directed to the graduating interns (25 total). There will be parents, preceptors and program faculty (past and present) in attendance. We usually have around 125 attend.

Thank you,

Donna,

I have received approval for UAB to pay for your flight from Augusta to Birmingham and then from Birmingham to Tulsa! Our Office Associate, Sarah Peek, will need your date of birth, cell phone number, how your name appears on your license and an example of a flight you would like for UAB to book for you. I've included her on this email so that you can send the requested information to her directly.

For the keynote speech, really any topic that would encourage the interns, motivate them to do great things, fulfill their full potential...something along those lines. Maybe even sharing some advice on starting out a career in dietetics. I'll probably talk about dreaming big. Were there any moments in your career where an opportunity scared you but you took on the challenge and it changed your career? Feel free to call me if you'd like to discuss this further. I'll also have the Chair of the Department, Tim Garvey, and the Vice Chair of the Education Mission within the Department talk for a little bit.

I had previously mentioned that the UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success is very interested in having you speak with our program alumni outside of the DI Certificate Ceremony. Would you be interested in also doing a separate talk for alumni, students, and faculty in the Department of Nutrition Sciences that Friday, August 11th? We were thinking possibly 7:30-8:15 or 8-8:45 that morning before the ceremony; a 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions? If you are interested, we were thinking of the below ideas as topics:

- Your work with the School system in Georgia – focused on athletes performance, addressing nutrition in a low income population and food desserts
- Involvement with national organization – vision for nutrition in the future, importance of involvement on a policy avenue

Again, thank you so much for accepting our invitation. We look forward to having you return to UAB!

Carleton, I would love to come and be the keynote speaker for the UAB Dietetic Intern graduation. Do you all think you would be willing to pay for half of my airline ticket that I am going to make from Augusta to Birmingham and then Birmingham to Tulsa and then Tulsa to Augusta? I think it would only be about $350 for your share. I would not need an hotel room as I can stay at my son's home in Birmingham. If that would work out, then all I need from you is some idea of what you would like me to talk about so I can work on the presentation. Just some idea of what direction to go in for the presentation would be great. Look forward to hearing back from you. Thanks!

Carleton, Thanks so much for your email. I will definitely see what I can try and work out to come to the Student Graduation Ceremony to speak on Friday, August 11th. How long would you like me to speak for if I can work it out? I need to get with the Academy to check my schedule because of another potential speaking engagement that I might have on the 12th. I may have to go to Oklahoma City on Saturday, August 12th to speak so I would then need to fly to Birmingham on Thursday and then fly to Oklahoma City on Friday night. If I don't have to speak Saturday in Oklahoma City on Saturday I could drive from Augusta both ways. I will get back to you as soon as I know what my Saturday plans are. Thanks!

Hello Donna,

I hope you are doing well. It was so wonderful to hear you speak at the ALDA Annual Meeting this month. I'm very excited about where the Academy is moving! I am contacting you today to invite you to be the keynote speaker at the UAB Dietetic Internships certificate ceremony on Friday, August 11th. The ceremony will be from 9 to 10:30am with a small reception following.

If this date does not work for you, would you be interested in visiting UAB at another time during the summer or fall? I have been in communication with the UAB School of Health Professions alumni department and we are all very interested in having you visit UAB during the Academy's centennial year to speak to current students and faculty as well as our alumni family within the Department of Nutrition Sciences. I have included Amanda Martin, a representative from the SHP Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success, on this email if you would like to discuss the alumni speaking opportunity in more detail.

Okay thanks for that, very helpful! Right now, Secretary DeVos is supposed to be out of town on those days, but they will let me know if anything changes; I called my friend as well just to flag, so will see what I can do! I'll forward you the email, they are very quick to respond :)

I will be there August 1 and 2. I have the all day on August 1 with Feeding America and an appointment with one of Perdue's new employees at either 10:30 or 11 oin the 2nd. Would love to get in with Sec. DeVos on August 2. My flight is out at 4:15pm out of Reagan that day. Whatever magic you can work out would be great.

Hi Donna,

It looks like you are staying in an area with some great restaurant choices.

Here are two choices I looked at. I booked us a 7:30 reservation at Oyamel (under Hahn) at 401 7th St NW, 20004. I actually ate there last month on a family trip-it's not your typical Mexican restaurant. Here is the website.

<http://www.oyamel.com/>

Oyamel Cocina Mexicana - A Jose Andres Restaurant

www.oyamel.com

Oyamel Cocina Mexicana restaurant offers an authentic and creative menu, brought to you by award-winning Chef Jose Andres.

However, if this doesn't sound like your thing, here is another restaurant I had looked at but never made it to, called Cedar (822 E Street NW, 2004).

<http://www.cedardc.com/>

Cedar

www.cedardc.com

Contemporary American cuisine in Penn Quarter. Includes menus, event calendar, and information about private parties.

If you prefer this, I can switch or you can make a 7:30 reservation here and I'll cancel Oyamel. I'm open to other suggestions as well.

Looking forward to meeting you!

Hi Donna. Pat told me that you were attending the Feeding America meeting next week. The Foundation will be represented by Amy Knoblock-Hahn. Amy has been managing several projects for us with FA. I'm introducing you two virtually so you connect prior to the meeting. Amy can fill you in on all of the great work that the Foundation is doing with FA. I think you will both enjoy connecting.

Hi, Amy. Are you confirmed to go to this meeting? If so, I want to put you in touch with Donna Martin, Academy President who will also be attending. It would be good for the two of you to connect before the meeting so she can learn a bit more about the great work you are doing on our behalf. Let me know your plans. Thanks!

Hi Jessica,

I'm not sure if you have found someone else from the Academy, but if not, I may be able to fit the meeting into my schedule. I have been working as the lead evaluation expert on the Healthy Cities project, and I will be the PI for the new point of service project with Feeding America. In speaking with Christine, it sounds like some of the work that will come from this meeting will help inform our new project.

However, I live in St. Louis; I'm not sure if there are travel funds available for the meeting? If the meeting is a half day versus a full day, I may be able to do a round trip on the same day to save on lodging costs, but perhaps that isn't feasible for this meeting.

I look forward to hearing more details if you think this may be suitable.

Thanks!

Jeanne and Amy,

Good afternoon. I hope this finds you both well.

Feeding America sent along the below invitation to Mary Pat, and didn't realize her retirement date had already arrived. Very exciting for her!

In her auto-response, I understand that you, Jeanne, are the next point of contact. If you and/or Amy have a recommendation on who may be the best individual to invite in Mary Pat's seat at the table, would you mind sharing their name? Though the meeting is in DC, we do not necessarily need someone from the DC office.

As noted below, the focus will be on exploring strategies for "improving the diet quality of people we serve" throughout the Feeding America network. We would certainly value having AND's voice and expertise at the table.

With appreciation,

Jessica

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Feeding America's 2025 Goal: By 2025, Feeding America, in collaboration with our network and our partners, will ensure access to enough nutritious food for people struggling with hunger, and make meaningful progress toward ending hunger.*

Donna,

I am checking on a staff meeting; also seeing about scheduling a few Hill meetings (with August recess, it had been a bit tricky, but seeing what we can get scheduled!). Are you available at all tomorrow, or is the Feeding America meeting all day? Rep. Woodall from Georgia's office would love to meet to discuss the farm bill, but only had availability on the 1st. Thanks and let me know if you need anything from me!

Sincerely,

Stefanie

Wonderful! See below for details.

· Alumni Talk

- o 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions
- o Attendees would include alumni, students and faculty from the UAB Department of Nutrition Sciences. We'll get you the estimated number of attendees closer to the day.
- o The UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success was very interested in having you speak to alumni since it is the Academy's centennial year, you are the president-elect and a graduate of the school.
- o You will most likely have an overlap of attendees for this talk and the DI certificate ceremony so the topics would need to be different.
- o The message for this talk could be on how you were able to impact the school systems in your area and how you will use your position in the Academy to continue to make a difference. I think it is inspiring to hear about the innovative ideas dietitians are implementing in the community to make an impact.

- DI Certificate Ceremony

- o 20-30 minute talk
- o The message could be about a dietitians impact on initiating change in the profession, government, and/or the community. Or maybe what advice you would have given yourself back at your graduation.
- o This talk will be specifically directed to the graduating interns (25 total). There will be parents, preceptors and program faculty (past and present) in attendance. We usually have around 125 attend.

Thank you,

Carleton

Donna,

I have received approval for UAB to pay for your flight from Augusta to Birmingham and then from Birmingham to Tulsa! Our Office Associate, Sarah Peek, will need your date of birth, cell phone number, how your name appears on your license and an example of a flight you would like for UAB to book for you. I've included her on this email so that you can send the requested information to her directly.

For the keynote speech, really any topic that would encourage the interns, motivate them to do great things, fulfill their full potential...something along those lines. Maybe even sharing some advice on starting out a career in dietetics. I'll probably talk about dreaming big. Were there any moments in your career where an opportunity scared you but you took on the challenge and it changed your career? Feel free to call me if you'd like to discuss this further. I'll also have the Chair of the Department, Tim Garvey, and the Vice Chair of the Education Mission within the Department talk for a little bit.

I had previously mentioned that the UAB School of Health Professions Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success is very interested in having you speak with our program alumni outside of the DI Certificate Ceremony. Would you be interested in also doing a separate talk for alumni, students, and faculty in the Department of Nutrition Sciences that Friday, August 11th? We were thinking possibly 7:30-8:15 or 8-8:45 that morning before the ceremony; a 30-minute talk and 15-minutes for questions? If you are interested, we were thinking of the below ideas as topics:

- Your work with the School system in Georgia – focused on athletes performance, addressing nutrition in a low income population and food desserts
- Involvement with national organization – vision for nutrition in the future, importance of involvement on a policy avenue

Again, thank you so much for accepting our invitation. We look forward to having you return to UAB!

Carleton, I would love to come and be the keynote speaker for the UAB Dietetic Intern graduation. Do you all think you would be willing to pay for half of my airline ticket that I am going to make from Augusta to Birmingham and then Birmingham to Tulsa and then Tulsa to Augusta? I think it would only be about $350 for your share. I would not need an hotel room as I can stay at my son's home in Birmingham. If that would work out, then all I need from you is some idea of what you would like me to talk about so I can work on the presentation. Just some idea of what direction to go in for the presentation would be great. Look forward to hearing back from you.

Hello Donna,

I hope you are doing well. It was so wonderful to hear you speak at the ALDA Annual Meeting this month. I'm very excited about where the Academy is moving! I am contacting you today to invite you to be the keynote speaker at the UAB Dietetic Internships certificate ceremony on Friday, August 11th. The ceremony will be from 9 to 10:30am with a small reception following.

If this date does not work for you, would you be interested in visiting UAB at another time during the summer or fall? I have been in communication with the UAB School of Health Professions alumni department and we are all very interested in having you visit UAB during the Academy's centennial year to speak to current students and faculty as well as our alumni family within the Department of Nutrition Sciences. I have included Amanda Martin, a representative from the SHP Office of Student Recruitment, Engagement and Success, on this email if you would like to discuss the alumni speaking opportunity in more detail.

Hi Jessica,

I'm not sure if you have found someone else from the Academy, but if not, I may be able to fit the meeting into my schedule. I have been working as the lead evaluation expert on the Healthy Cities project, and I will be the PI for the new point of service project with Feeding America. In speaking with Christine, it sounds like some of the work that will come from this meeting will help inform our new project.

However, I live in St. Louis; I'm not sure if there are travel funds available for the meeting? If the meeting is a half day versus a full day, I may be able to do a round trip on the same day to save on lodging costs, but perhaps that isn't feasible for this meeting.

I look forward to hearing more details if you think this may be suitable.

Thanks!

If you and/or Amy have a recommendation on who may be the best individual to invite in Mary Pat's seat at the table, would you mind sharing their name? Though the meeting is in DC, we do not necessarily need someone from the DC office.

As noted below, the focus will be on exploring strategies for "improving the diet quality of people we serve" throughout the Feeding America network. We would certainly value having AND's voice and expertise at the table.

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Feeding America's 2025 Goal: By 2025, Feeding America, in collaboration with our network and our partners, will ensure access to enough nutritious food for people struggling with hunger, and make meaningful progress toward ending hunger.*

Dear Donna,

The Policy Initiatives and Advocacy office would be grateful to have your input on this comment opportunity. As Academy President and a content expert in this topic area, your input will contribute greatly to our comments on this proposal. The deadline by which we seek input back to the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy office is Monday August 14, 2017.

Please find attached a template with questions and issues raised by FNS in its proposal. If multiple questions are on the template, there is no need to answer them all; in fact, you may choose to focus on those of particular interest to your membership. Please use the template to record and submit your input.

This particular proposal seeks comments on the clarity, quality and burden assessment relative to the collection of data from State and school food authorities to measure the effectiveness of using Medicaid data to directly certify students. Attached is an Academy comment on another recent related regulatory item. You may use this as a base from which to start---is there anything to add to this previous comment? What content should be modified? Additionally, you may want to consider including in your input the potential for improved agency efficiency should direct certification be expanded.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email me.

Thanks again for your interest and I look forward to hearing back from you.

Hi Donna. Pat told me that you were attending the Feeding America meeting next week. The Foundation will be represented by Amy Knoblock-Hahn. Amy has been managing several projects for us with FA. I'm introducing you two virtually so you connect prior to the meeting. Amy can fill you in on all of the great work that the Foundation is doing with FA. I think you will both enjoy connecting.

Hi Jessica,

I'm not sure if you have found someone else from the Academy, but if not, I may be able to fit the meeting into my schedule. I have been working as the lead evaluation expert on the Healthy Cities project, and I will be the PI for the new point of service project with Feeding America. In speaking with Christine, it sounds like some of the work that will come from this meeting will help inform our new project.

However, I live in St. Louis; I'm not sure if there are travel funds available for the meeting? If the meeting is a half day versus a full day, I may be able to do a round trip on the same day to save on lodging costs, but perhaps that isn't feasible for this meeting.

I look forward to hearing more details if you think this may be suitable.

Thanks!

In her auto-response, I understand that you, Jeanne, are the next point of contact. If you and/or Amy have a recommendation on who may be the best individual to invite in Mary Pat's seat at the table, would you mind sharing their name? Though the meeting is in DC, we do not necessarily need someone from the DC office.

As noted below, the focus will be on exploring strategies for "improving the diet quality of people we serve" throughout the Feeding America network. We would certainly value having AND's voice and expertise at the table.

Subject: Invitation: Diet Quality Strategy Session, August 1st

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Dear Donna,

The Policy Initiatives and Advocacy office would be grateful to have your input on this comment opportunity. As Academy President and a content expert in this topic area, your input will contribute greatly to our comments on this proposal. The deadline by which we seek input back to the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy office is Monday August 14, 2017.

Please find attached a template with questions and issues raised by FNS in its proposal. If multiple questions are on the template, there is no need to answer them all; in fact, you may choose to focus on those of particular interest to your membership. Please use the template to record and submit your input.

This particular proposal seeks comments on the clarity, quality and burden assessment relative to the collection of data from State and school food authorities to measure the effectiveness of using Medicaid data to directly certify students. Attached is an Academy comment on another recent related regulatory item. You may use this as a base from which to start---is there anything to add to this previous comment? What content should be modified? Additionally, you may want to consider including in your input the potential for improved agency efficiency should direct certification be expanded.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email me.

Thanks again for your interest and I look forward to hearing back from you.

Hi Donna,

It looks like you are staying in an area with some great restaurant choices.

Here are two choices I looked at. I booked us a 7:30 reservation at Oyamel (under Hahn) at 401 7th St NW, 20004. I actually ate there last month on a family trip-it's not your typical Mexican restaurant. Here is the website.

<http://www.oyamel.com/>

www.oyamel.com

Oyamel Cocina Mexicana restaurant offers an authentic and creative menu, brought to you by award-winning Chef Jose Andres.

However, if this doesn't sound like your thing, here is another restaurant I had looked at but never made it to, called Cedar (822 E Street NW, 2004).

<http://www.cedardc.com/>

www.cedardc.com

Contemporary American cuisine in Penn Quarter. Includes menus, event calendar, and information about private parties.

If you prefer this, I can switch or you can make a 7:30 reservation here and I'll cancel Oyamel. I'm open to other suggestions as well.

Looking forward to meeting you!

Hi Jessica,

I'm not sure if you have found someone else from the Academy, but if not, I may be able to fit the meeting into my schedule. I have been working as the lead evaluation expert on the Healthy Cities project, and I will be the PI for the new point of service project with Feeding America. In speaking with Christine, it sounds like some of the work that will come from this meeting will help inform our new project.

However, I live in St. Louis; I'm not sure if there are travel funds available for the meeting? If the meeting is a half day versus a full day, I may be able to do a round trip on the same day to save on lodging costs, but perhaps that isn't feasible for this meeting.

I look forward to hearing more details if you think this may be suitable.

Thanks!

Good afternoon. I hope this finds you both well.

Feeding America sent along the below invitation to Mary Pat, and didn't realize her retirement date had already arrived. Very exciting for her!

In her auto-response, I understand that you, Jeanne, are the next point of contact. If you and/or Amy have a recommendation on who may be the best individual to invite in Mary Pat's seat at the table, would you mind sharing their name? Though the meeting is in DC, we do not necessarily need someone from the DC office.

As noted below, the focus will be on exploring strategies for “improving the diet quality of people we serve” throughout the Feeding America network. We would certainly value having AND’s voice and expertise at the table.

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Hi Jessica,

I'm not sure if you have found someone else from the Academy, but if not, I may be able to fit the meeting into my schedule. I have been working as the lead evaluation expert on the Healthy Cities project, and I will be the PI for the new point of service project with Feeding America. In speaking with Christine, it sounds like some of the work that will come from this meeting will help inform our new project.

However, I live in St. Louis; I'm not sure if there are travel funds available for the meeting? If the meeting is a half day versus a full day, I may be able to do a round trip on the same day to save on lodging costs, but perhaps that isn't feasible for this meeting.

I look forward to hearing more details if you think this may be suitable.

Thanks!

Subject: Invitation: Diet Quality Strategy Session, August 1st

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Good afternoon!

This email comes to you as a 7-minute request.

Feeding America, in preparation for Tuesday's meeting in D.C., is finalizing an environmental scan of national organizations working to improve the dietary quality of people who are food insecure. Tuesday's full group will engage in an exercise based on this scan, but to ensure we have as comprehensive a list as possible, we are seeking your contributions as experts in the sector and partner attendees.

In the attached PPT, you will see the socio ecological model and the definitions for each level (slides 1-2). If you have time before 12pm ET on Monday, please enter in the names of missing organizations (including your own) for levels where their (your) work has impact. We also welcome pushback on where we have placed current organizations within the SEM.

As a reminder, we are solely focusing on national organizations working to improve the dietary quality of people who are food insecure.

Thank you for sharing your insights as we finalize this scan! Should you have any questions, please let me know.

With care,

Jessica and Team

Note: If easiest for you, please make your changes/additions/notes within the deck in red text. I'll compile.

Subject: Pre-Work: Improved Dietary Quality Strategy Session (Aug. 1, D.C.)

Greetings!

We are looking forward to working with you next week to brainstorm and develop strategic options for improving the dietary quality of individuals who are food insecure.

This email includes meeting details and pre-work that will help to prepare your mind to contribute during the session.

Strategy Session Focus

Given the strategies in place/already being developed for nutritious food access (sourcing and distribution), this session will focus on improved diet quality for people who are food insecure.

TASK: To identify and articulate Feeding America's unique role to improve dietary quality for people who are food insecure in order to inform FANO's key strategic priorities by:

- Exploring the barriers to healthy eating for people who are food insecure
- Leveraging our knowledge and understanding of the socio-ecological model to inform strategic choices

Pre-Meeting Assignment and References:

To further bring us all into the mindset for our session, you'll find pre-work below.

- 1. Read: SocioEcoModel PDF, Key Planning Assumptions PDF (for all FANO strategies), and "session prep" below
- 2. Reflect: Bring with you thoughts on your own local or national efforts to address the barriers and leverage opportunities for improving the diet of lower-income or food-insecure individuals/communities
- 3. Reference: A list of your fellow collaborators, with links to respective LinkedIn and organization sites – let's stay connected! Also, I've re-attached the previous "details" email.

Session Prep

Please complete this incubation assignment.

There are many examples of small and big successes as it relates to improving nutrition and healthy eating behaviors. The Robert Wood Johnson Healthy Eating Research program works to promote healthy eating, especially among lower-income and racial and ethnic populations at highest risk for obesity. We would encourage you to use this website (or others you may be familiar with) as a starting point for your incubation assignment. Please explore these resources and come prepared to share a key takeaway or learning that you think will be particularly relevant for us to consider during this strategic planning process to improve dietary quality for people who are food insecure.

An example of what one would bring on Tuesday: “Stress during pregnancy and early childhood is linked to poor dietary behaviors throughout life. This makes me think we should find ways to reduce or address stress among pregnant individuals and young children. Feeding America could explore partnerships and advocacy opportunities with potential partners (e.g., WIC, Head Start, Planned Parenthood, OB/GYN, pediatricians).”

Session Location & Timing:

- Date:* Tuesday, August 1st
- Location:* 1100 G St. NW, 10th Floor, Suite 1030, Room 2 (wifi, entrance code, etc.)
- The entrance of the building is on 11th St. just south of G St. NW. (SW corner of 11th & G St, located to the left of the SunTrust ATM.)
- See the front desk when you enter the building. They will buzz you to the 10th floor.
- Public transit: Metro Center Metro Station, Chinatown Metro Station
- Optional Breakfast Taco Buffet:* 8-8:30am ET
- Start/End Times:* 8:30am-5:30pm ET
- Lunch and afternoon snacks will be provided (vegetarian options available)
- Most current agenda will be sent out prior to the meeting
- Dress is casual – jeans are fine! Temps may vary, so consider dressing in layers.

Please contact me with any questions you may have prior to or on the day of the gathering. My cell number is: 312.315.1628 – texts and calls welcome.

We're looking forward to a great session next week,

Jessica and Team

Good Morning, Donna -

I hope your summer is going well. I was so thankful to be able to meet you at PPW this year! It's so wonderful to have a president that is so approachable and driven; who also represents school foodservice.

We had spoken a little about having you speak as a keynote at our Indiana Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Annual Meeting at The Forum of Fishers April 11-12, 2018. This year's program, Nourishing the Next Generation, will focus on the impact of nutrition professionals across the globe. The second day of the meeting tends to have more students in attendance, but we are happy to have you either day.

If this is still something that you are available for and interested in, please let me know. I know you mentioned that we would pay for travel and lodging, which would be just fine. The meeting is held about 35 minutes north of central Indianapolis.

Talk to you soon!

Lorri and Mike,

Please find attached the last two sets of comments I plan to send you for a few days! The school food procurement comments are due Monday (I've also included Donna Martin on this email to share them with her and offer her the opportunity to add any additional thoughts to what SNS shared) and the menu labeling comments are due Wednesday. Thank you!

Good Morning, Donna -

I hope your summer is going well. I was so thankful to be able to meet you at PPW this year! It's so wonderful to have a president that is so approachable and driven; who also represents school foodservice.

We had spoken a little about having you speak as a keynote at our Indiana Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Annual Meeting at The Forum of Fishers April 11-12, 2018. This year's program, Nourishing the Next Generation, will focus on the impact of nutrition professionals across the globe. The second day of the meeting tends to have more students in attendance, but we are happy to have you either day.

If this is still something that you are available for and interested in, please let me know. I know you mentioned that we would pay for travel and lodging, which would be just fine. The meeting is held about 35 minutes north of central Indianapolis.

Talk to you soon!

Dear Nominating Committee,

Thanks for your input and for considering the board's recommendations. I know that we are all serving in this role because we want the best for the Academy. Based on feedback received thus far, I propose that we move forward with the committee's original decision and timeline.

You'll be happy to know that the Interview Questions Subcommittee has already incorporated the six attributes a board candidate should possess into the questions list and that is almost ready to share with the full committee. Thanks to the bio form subcommittee and Joan, the bio form has also been updated with the video upload capability and references request.

To paraphrase one of Judy's points, no matter the interview method or position, it is important to know what we are looking for and to be clear about that before going in. I'd like to work with the interview questions subcommittee to take a deeper dive into this over the next couple weeks so that we are all on one page.

Please feel free to chime in if you have more thoughts. So you are aware, I will be out of the country on a short vacation beginning tomorrow, July 28 through August 2 and mostly unavailable.

Thanks again. And have a great weekend!

I agree with Judy. I thought we agreed to try some new elements this year such as a video, assessment, and letter of recommendation from their affiliate president or chair of a DPG to get to the right candidates. From this we can see if we still think Skype or face-to-face are needed and build that in to next year's schedule. This will give us time to let potential candidates know and ask that everyone submit their application well before FNCE. And even though this shouldn't matter I think we need to think logistically if there is any possibility of getting the committee together in December given what I heard Joan and Marisa say about the difficulty they had finding the November date. Just my 2 cents.

There is a definite value to the face-to-face or Skype interview but think we agreed to try videos this year and see how that goes. I think logistically there are several things we first want to figure out (timing, location, format, cost if face-to-face, if real time or not, what we really want to know from each candidate based on the position, how to do it if the candidate is interested in more than one position, etc.).

Also, if we find that videos help us to narrow candidates as a result of a preliminary screening, then we can have fewer face-to-face or Skype interviews and do that as part of the Nov. or Dec. meeting. Or we may find that the videos, if the questions are good at getting to what we want to know, are sufficient. Regardless of what we ultimately decide, it seems to me that if we do not have a good grasp of what we are looking for in each position and how to ask the questions that get to that, no process we use is really helpful.

One thing that also occurred to me is that we need to know what is a “required or essential” skill for each position versus a desired or learned one. For example, is it fair to expect someone to know everything required of a position or are some things to be learned in the role that is taken? What can be learned and what must be known? What is the role of others on a board, cte, HLT, etc. in mentoring a new person? Don’t we also have a role in teaching others so they can grow in their role?

If we are not clear on these things as a group, a face-to-face or Skype is unfair to the candidate.

Just my thoughts. JR

To the Academy’s Nominating Committee:

The Board of Directors held its annual retreat last week to work on the Academy’s Strategic Plan. As we celebrate our 100 year anniversary, this an exciting, important time for our organization and our profession alike. Part of the Board’s considerations in setting the strategic direction included the vital issue of selecting and developing the organization’s future leaders. In particular, we discussed how candidates be considered and vetted for positions on the Board of Directors.

Our meeting facilitator Glenn Tecker, an internationally renowned expert on governance and association management, noted six key attributes a Board candidate should possess. Mr. Tecker said a candidate for a Board of Directors' position should have:

1. The ability to think strategically and analytically and to effectively communicate thoughts and the reasons for them.
2. Earned respect of other key stakeholder group members.
3. The ability to work well with others as a member of a collaborative group with group decision-making authority and an understanding of the fiduciary duties of loyalty, care and obedience.
4. Demonstrated understanding of the differences between "oversight" and "supervision."
5. Earned a reputation for emotional maturity, personal integrity and honesty.
6. Demonstrated familiarity with the body of knowledge related to both the process for which the group is responsible as well as the substantive content of the subject area within which decisions and choices will have to be made.

To ensure we have the best qualified, most forward-thinking Board leading our organization and carrying out the Strategic Plan, we also discussed the importance of assessing and interviewing individuals who possess these key attributes. To accomplish this, the Board has recommended that the nominees for the Board Director and House of Delegates Director positions be interviewed virtually.

The Nominating Committee's selections meeting was traditionally held in December, following face-to-face interviews with candidates at the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo. Recently, this meeting has been moved up to November. With the time constraints we will all experience at FNCE, and with our meeting following shortly afterward, the recommendation was made to move the Nominating Committee meeting back to December, allowing time to virtually interview the additional Board positions in November. We hope you are able to adjust your schedule.

Thank you for your commitment and dedication to the Academy and the profession. On behalf of the Board, we truly appreciate your continued hard work in identifying the Academy's leaders, now and for the future. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Lucille

Good afternoon!

This email comes to you as a 7-minute request.

Feeding America, in preparation for Tuesday's meeting in D.C., is finalizing an environmental scan of national organizations working to improve the dietary quality of people who are food insecure. Tuesday's full group will engage in an exercise based on this scan, but to ensure we have as comprehensive a list as possible, we are seeking your contributions as experts in the sector and partner attendees.

In the attached PPT, you will see the socio ecological model and the definitions for each level (slides 1-2). If you have time before 12pm ET on Monday, please enter in the names of missing organizations (including your own) for levels where their (your) work has impact. We also welcome pushback on where we have placed current organizations within the SEM.

As a reminder, we are solely focusing on national organizations working to improve the dietary quality of people who are food insecure.

Thank you for sharing your insights as we finalize this scan! Should you have any questions, please let me know.

With care,

Jessica and Team

Note: If easiest for you, please make your changes/additions/notes within the deck in red text. I'll compile.

Subject: Pre-Work: Improved Dietary Quality Strategy Session (Aug. 1, D.C.)

Greetings!

We are looking forward to working with you next week to brainstorm and develop strategic options for improving the dietary quality of individuals who are food insecure.

This email includes meeting details and pre-work that will help to prepare your mind to contribute during the session.

Strategy Session Focus

Given the strategies in place/already being developed for nutritious food access (sourcing and distribution), this session will focus on improved diet quality for people who are food insecure.

TASK: To identify and articulate Feeding America's unique role to improve dietary quality for people who are food insecure in order to inform FANO's key strategic priorities by:

- Exploring the barriers to healthy eating for people who are food insecure
- Leveraging our knowledge and understanding of the socio-ecological model to inform strategic choices

Pre-Meeting Assignment and References:

To further bring us all into the mindset for our session, you'll find pre-work below.

- 1. Read: SocioEcoModel PDF, Key Planning Assumptions PDF (for all FANO strategies), and "session prep" below

2. Reflect: Bring with you thoughts on your own local or national efforts to address the barriers and leverage opportunities for improving the diet of lower-income or food-insecure individuals/communities
3. Reference: A list of your fellow collaborators, with links to respective LinkedIn and organization sites – let's stay connected! Also, I've re-attached the previous "details" email.

Session Prep

Please complete this incubation assignment.

There are many examples of small and big successes as it relates to improving nutrition and healthy eating behaviors. The Robert Wood Johnson Healthy Eating Research program works to promote healthy eating, especially among lower-income and racial and ethnic populations at highest risk for obesity. We would encourage you to use this website (or others you may be familiar with) as a starting point for your incubation assignment. Please explore these resources and come prepared to share a key takeaway or learning that you think will be particularly relevant for us to consider during this strategic planning process to improve dietary quality for people who are food insecure.

An example of what one would bring on Tuesday: "Stress during pregnancy and early childhood is linked to poor dietary behaviors throughout life. This makes me think we should find ways to reduce or address stress among pregnant individuals and young children. Feeding America could explore partnerships and advocacy opportunities with potential partners (e.g., WIC, Head Start, Planned Parenthood, OB/GYN, pediatricians)."

Session Location & Timing:

- Date: Tuesday, August 1st
- Location: 1100 G St. NW, 10th Floor, Suite 1030, Room 2 (wifi, entrance code, etc.)
- The entrance of the building is on 11th St. just south of G St. NW. (SW corner of 11th & G St, located to the left of the SunTrust ATM.)
- See the front desk when you enter the building. They will buzz you to the 10th floor.
- Public transit: Metro Center Metro Station, Chinatown Metro Station
- Optional Breakfast Taco Buffet: 8-8:30am ET
- Start/End Times: 8:30am-5:30pm ET
- Lunch and afternoon snacks will be provided (vegetarian options available)
- Most current agenda will be sent out prior to the meeting
- Dress is casual – jeans are fine! Temps may vary, so consider dressing in layers.

Please contact me with any questions you may have prior to or on the day of the gathering. My cell number is: 312.315.1628 – texts and calls welcome.

We're looking forward to a great session next week,

Dear Nominating Committee,

Thanks for your input and for considering the board's recommendations. I know that we are all serving in this role because we want the best for the Academy. Based on feedback received thus far, I propose that we move forward with the committee's original decision and timeline.

You'll be happy to know that the Interview Questions Subcommittee has already incorporated the six attributes a board candidate should possess into the questions list and that is almost ready to share with the full committee. Thanks to the bio form subcommittee and Joan, the bio form has also been updated with the video upload capability and references request.

To paraphrase one of Judy's points, no matter the interview method or position, it is important to know what we are looking for and to be clear about that before going in. I'd like to work with the interview questions subcommittee to take a deeper dive into this over the next couple weeks so that we are all on one page.

Please feel free to chime in if you have more thoughts. So you are aware, I will be out of the country on a short vacation beginning tomorrow, July 28 through August 2 and mostly unavailable.

Thanks again. And have a great weekend!

Based on the number of applicants we get can we create some hypothetical schedules for different scenarios so we can figure out how it might play out, costs, time e.g.,

1. If we did face-to-face and also Skype around FNCE
2. If we did preliminary video submissions to prescreen then Skype and face-to-face in Nov or Dec
3. Other ideas

Maybe we can have this done now and review in at a Jan conference call or early enough for implementation and communication of the change

Just a thought. Will support whatever is decided. It's important that we decide and then all support and advocate publicly, as this is how the consensus process works.

I agree with Judy. I thought we agreed to try some new elements this year such as a video, assessment, and letter of recommendation from their affiliate president or chair of a DPG to get to the right candidates. From this we can see if we still think Skype or face-to-face are needed and build that in to next year's schedule. This will give us time to let potential candidates know and ask that everyone submit their application well before FNCE. And even though this shouldn't matter I think we need to think logistically if there is any possibility of getting the committee together in December given what I heard Joan and Marisa say about the difficulty they had finding the November date. Just my 2 cents.

There is a definite value to the face-to-face or Skype interview but think we agreed to try videos this year and see how that goes. I think logistically there are several things we first want to figure out (timing, location, format, cost if face-to-face, if real time or not, what we really want to know from each candidate based on the position, how to do it if the candidate is interested in more than one position, etc.).

Also, if we find that videos help us to narrow candidates as a result of a preliminary screening, then we can have fewer face-to-face or Skype interviews and do that as part of the Nov. or Dec. meeting. Or we may find that the videos, if the questions are good at getting to what we want to know, are sufficient. Regardless of what we ultimately decide, it seems to me that if we do not have a good grasp of what we are looking for in each position and how to ask the questions that get to that, no process we use is really helpful.

One thing that also occurred to me is that we need to know what is a "required or essential" skill for each position versus a desired or learned one. For example, is it fair to expect someone to know everything required of a position or are some things to be learned in the role that is taken? What can be learned and what must be known? What is the role of others on a board, cte, HLT, etc. in mentoring a new person? Don't we also have a role in teaching others so they can grow in their role?

If we are not clear on these things as a group, a face-to-face or Skype is unfair to the candidate.

Just my thoughts. JR

Director, Strategic Management

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

To the Academy's Nominating Committee:

The Board of Directors held its annual retreat last week to work on the Academy's Strategic Plan. As we celebrate our 100 year anniversary, this an exciting, important time for our organization and our profession alike. Part of the Board's considerations in setting the strategic direction included the vital issue of selecting and developing the organization's future leaders. In particular, we discussed how candidates be considered and vetted for positions on the Board of Directors.

Our meeting facilitator Glenn Tecker, an internationally renowned expert on governance and association management, noted six key attributes a Board candidate should possess. Mr. Tecker said a candidate for a Board of Directors' position should have:

1. The ability to think strategically and analytically and to effectively communicate thoughts and the reasons for them.
2. Earned respect of other key stakeholder group members.
3. The ability to work well with others as a member of a collaborative group with group decision-making authority and an understanding of the fiduciary duties of loyalty, care and obedience.
4. Demonstrated understanding of the differences between "oversight" and "supervision."
5. Earned a reputation for emotional maturity, personal integrity and honesty.
6. Demonstrated familiarity with the body of knowledge related to both the process for which the group is responsible as well as the substantive content of the subject area within which decisions and choices will have to be made.

To ensure we have the best qualified, most forward-thinking Board leading our organization and carrying out the Strategic Plan, we also discussed the importance of assessing and interviewing individuals who possess these key attributes. To accomplish this, the Board has recommended that the nominees for the Board Director and House of Delegates Director positions be interviewed virtually.

The Nominating Committee's selections meeting was traditionally held in December, following face-to-face interviews with candidates at the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo. Recently, this meeting has been moved up to November. With the time constraints we will all experience at FNCE, and with our meeting following shortly afterward, the recommendation was made to move the Nominating Committee meeting back to December, allowing time to virtually interview the additional Board positions in November. We hope you are able to adjust your schedule.

Thank you for your commitment and dedication to the Academy and the profession. On behalf of the Board, we truly appreciate your continued hard work in identifying the Academy's leaders, now and for the future. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,
Lucille

I will be there August 1 and 2. I have the all day on August 1 with Feeding America and an appointment with one of Perdue's new employees at either 10:30 or 11 oin the 2nd. Would love to get in with Sec. DeVos on August 2. My flight is out at 4:15pm out of Reagan that day. Whatever magic you can work out would be great.

Hi Donna,

I hope you're having a wonderful summer! I'm ordering the certificates for our Honorary Membership award recipients and I'm wondering if we should add a credential for Michelle Obama.

I can't find that she uses her JD anywhere online, so I figured I'd ask you for your suggestion. Can you please advise?

Thank you,

Dear Donna,

The Policy Initiatives and Advocacy office would be grateful to have your input on this comment opportunity. As Academy President and a content expert in this topic area, your input will contribute greatly to our comments on this proposal. The deadline by which we seek input back to the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy office is Monday August 14, 2017.

Please find attached a template with questions and issues raised by FNS in its proposal. If multiple questions are on the template, there is no need to answer them all; in fact, you may choose to focus on those of particular interest to your membership. Please use the template to record and submit your input.

This particular proposal seeks comments on the clarity, quality and burden assessment relative to the collection of data from State and school food authorities to measure the effectiveness of using Medicaid data to directly certify students. Attached is an Academy comment on another recent related regulatory item. You may use this as a base from which to start---is there anything to add to this previous comment? What content should be modified? Additionally, you may want to consider including in your input the potential for improved agency efficiency should direct certification be expanded.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email me.

Thanks again for your interest and I look forward to hearing back from you.

Hello Edna,

Thank you for your reply. You mention you'd like Donna to lecture about nutrition programs in schools. However what specifically would you like her to talk about – is it related to school nutrition in the U.S. or in Mexico?

Many thanks!

Dear Joan

Thank you very much for your answer.

We want to invite Donna as president of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics for a plenary lecture on Friday, October 13 in Mexico City.

It is our first Mexican College of Nutrition International Congress.

The subject we want for the lecture is about the nutrition programs in the schools that she coordinates or a subject that she proposes.

We are agree to covered all the expenses.

Thank you.

Best regards.

Edna.

Looking for a Career Change? The Academy is Hiring!

We have had staff transitions during the past two months including retirements and relocations and as a result have several exciting opportunities in our Washington, D.C. office. We are in the process of finalizing the positions and will posting the openings in the near future. If you are interested in any of the following employment opportunities, please send a cover letter and resume to jblankenship@eatright.org. Please note, these full-time positions are based in Washington, D.C. and are not designed for telecommuting.

Coordinator, Grassroots Advocacy

(4-year degree, one to two years of experience)

This position provides administrative and technical support for grassroots advocacy operations internally and externally to Academy volunteer leaders and members. The position implements and monitors grassroots activities in coordination with the senior manager/director, grassroots advocacy and prepares accurate and concise documents and reports that summarize strategic measure outcomes. The position requires an understanding of the legislative and regulatory environment, nutrition policy and the Academy's priority areas.

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

(4-year degree, one year academic training, four to five years of experience; RDN preferred)

The purpose of this position is to advance the Academy's public policy agenda by supporting and further developing grassroots infrastructure that expands organizational capacity and outcomes. This position is the policy and advocacy connection between the Academy and affiliate and DPG/MIG policy efforts including training members on effective advocacy for all levels of government.

Manager, Policy and Advocacy Communications

(4-year degree, two to three years of experience; RDN preferred)

1. planning, composition, layout and production of communications in all media formats for the PIA unit including online, social marketing and traditional venues. Develops PIA communications and assesses audiences, market and vehicles; makes recommendations for coordinated, effective dissemination of messages to assure consistent messaging within the Academy. Conducts policy research to validate facts contained in communications and reports. Leads other strategic communication and marketing initiatives as needed.

Director, Legislative and Government Affairs

(4-year degree, one year academic training, five to seven years of experience; RDN preferred)

This position identifies, develops and strengthens relationships with key stakeholders including members of Congress, federal agencies and strategic partners to successfully achieve the Academy's public policy goals. In addition, this position serves as the staff liaison to the Legislative and Public Policy Committee and oversees strategic planning and the development and execution of the program of work which includes oversight of the grassroots advocacy platform and strategic measures.

Act Now to Urge the Senate to Reject Harmful Health Care Legislation

Yesterday, the Senate passed a procedural "motion to proceed" to debate on the reconciliation bill by a vote of 51 to 50 on a tie-breaking vote from the Vice President. The Senate now begins 20 hours of debate, followed by amendments that will be offered by Senators (see chart here for a helpful flowchart). Although it remains unclear what version of the Senate bill ultimately will be voted on, all of the proposed versions would eliminate access to vital nutrition services for prevention and treatment, and fails to improve access to quality and affordable health care. The Academy staff will continue to follow this debate closely, and will provide substantive updates.

Thank you to the Academy member leaders who have already reached out to your Senators; your emails and calls have been extremely helpful. Please continue to urge your Senators to vote "no" on the bill by taking action and urging your colleagues to do so as well.

The Academy's letter that was sent to Senators last week is available here, and today the Academy's sent out an updated press release opposing the Senate bill, which is available here.

Congress Works to Pass Funding Bills Before August Recess

Last week, the House Appropriations Committee approved the Labor, Health and Human Services spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018, which now joins the Agriculture spending bill for a vote on the House floor. The House Budget Committee also voted to approve the Fiscal Year 2018 budget blueprint, which would cut funding for evidence-based nutrition research and services that are vital to the nation's health. The Academy continues to join over 800 national, state and local organizations to urge Congress to agree on a bipartisan budget agreement that would allow for increased investment in nutrition and health programs.

New Senate Sponsors for Academy Centennial Resolution!

The Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 28 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and nine cosponsors in the Senate, with Senators Dianne Feinstein (Calif.) and Joe Donnelly (Ind.) as the new sponsors. Please continue to encourage your affiliate and DPG/MIG members to ask their members of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If a member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org. Learn More

Provider Competencies for the Prevention and Management of Obesity

Last month, the Provider Competencies for the Prevention and Management of Obesity were released at a Bipartisan Policy Center event featuring former Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman, members of the competency development workgroup, and leaders in obesity treatment and advocacy. These first-of-their-kind educational competencies were developed by the Provider Training and Education Workgroup, consisting of more than 20 leading health organizations including the Academy and representing a dozen health professions. The competencies are aimed at many types of health professionals engaged in obesity prevention and management and each specialty is encouraged to adapt these competencies to fit their needs. You can download the competencies or watch the event recording. Read the press release from the event or more about BPC's obesity care work to learn how these competencies impact the work of Academy members.

Secretary Perdue Announces New Leadership for Food, Nutrition, and Consumer Services

U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue named three individuals to take on leadership roles within the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Food, Nutrition, and Consumer Services (FNCS). Brandon Lipps will serve as the Administrator of the Food and Nutrition Service, and also as Acting Deputy Under Secretary of FNCS until the Senate confirms a permanent presidentially-nominated appointee. In addition, Maggie Lyons will serve as Chief of Staff and senior advisor to the Under Secretary, while Kailee Tkacz will serve as policy advisor. Academy President Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND will be meeting with staff from USDA next week.

Volunteers Sought for Public Policy Environmental Scan Task Force

The Academy's Legislative and Public Policy Committee (LPPC) is conducting an environmental scan of public policy issues. The task force seeks input and representation from members of affiliate public policy panels and DPG/MIG policy and advocacy leaders. To volunteer for this six to eight month task force, contact Jeanne Blankenship.

APHA Public Health Fellowship in Government

The American Public Health Association is accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Public Health Fellowship in Government. The goal of the fellowship is to increase participants' understanding about the intersection between public health and policy. Fellows will work in a congressional office or on a congressional committee, focusing on issues related to public health. All public health professionals are eligible to apply; applicants must have a Master's in Public Health or a related field. Applications are due by August 14, 2017.

Impacting Older Adult Malnutrition through State and Local Policy

Ohio, Massachusetts, and Virginia have already taken legislative action on older adult malnutrition policy, and advocates in states such as Florida are working on actions of their own. Learn how to take the fight against older adult malnutrition to the state and local level on July 27th at 1 p.m. Eastern Time in a webinar hosted by the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition and the Academy. Hear from state and local leaders who are working to implement malnutrition policy and find out how you can make a difference in your community through state advocacy, coalition-building, and more! Register Now! SPRs are asked to attending this webinar if their schedules permit.

Register Today for Webinar Addressing Disaster SNAP!

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled:

“Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children’s Health

The Academy’s next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children’s health issues with one of the Academy’s national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type “Optional Event Attendee Only” (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the “Additional Registration Options,” add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Attachment: image001.png

As Donna mentioned at the close of the Board retreat, the next meeting of the Board is scheduled for September 14-15. The meeting will be held at the Loews Chicago O'Hare Hotel in Rosemont, Illinois and begin on Thursday, September 14 at 1:00pm with light refreshments and adjourn on Friday, September 15 by 2:30pm.

Hotel arrangements have been made at the Loews hotel for arrival on Thursday, September 14 and departure on Friday, September 15. If business or personal reasons require you to extend your stay, please notify me. Your hotel room will be master-billed; you will be asked to pay for incidentals.

You are approved to make your travel arrangements. Please fly into the O'Hare International Airport (ORD) airport the morning of Thursday, September 14 and depart on Friday, September 15 after 2:30pm. To book your travel through the Academy's travel service please click on www.atcmeetings.com/Academy and login using your email address and the password you created when you activated your account. When you reach the Purchase Trip page, select Academy Board of Directors Fall Meeting 9/14/2017-9/15/2017 from the drop-down menu, enter the GL Code 1032430. If you wish to book your travel on your own, please submit your expenses for reimbursement after the conclusion of the meeting. The hotel is located two miles from the airport and offers a complimentary airport shuttle to all guests. For domestic flights, pick up is at the Hotel Shuttle Center, Door #2 located by baggage claim; follow the red Shuttle Center signs. Transportation is also available by taxi, just a 10-15 minute ride between the airport and the hotel.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

New CDC Report: Diabetes Affects More Than 30 Million People in U.S.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's newly released National Diabetes Statistics Report for 2017, 30.3 million Americans have diabetes, of which 23.1 million people are diagnosed and 7.2 million undiagnosed. The Academy uses this data as part of advocacy efforts to improve access to nutrition services for people with diabetes and prediabetes. Academy members are encouraged to access this report and associated useful infographics from CDC.

Congress Works to Pass Funding Bills Before August Recess

The House Appropriations Committee has approved the Labor, Health and Human Services spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018, which now joins the Agriculture spending bill for a vote on the full House floor. Among other vital programs, the House Budget Committee's approval of the FY 2018 budget blueprint cuts funding for evidence-based nutrition research and services that are vital to the country's health. The Academy continues to join more than 800 national, state and local organizations to urge Congress to agree on a bipartisan budget agreement that allows for increased investment in cost-effective nutrition and health programs.

Act Now: Urge Senate to Reject Harmful Health Care Legislation

By one vote, the Senate passed a procedural "motion to proceed" on July 25 allowing it to debate health care legislation; a vote on the legislation itself is possible as early as July 26. The Academy thanks members and leaders who have reached out to your senators; your emails and calls have been extremely helpful. Please continue to urge your senators to vote "no" on this harmful bill and urge your colleagues to do so as well. The Academy's opposition to the bill was noted in a letter to Senate leaders last week, and an updated announcement of the Academy's opposition to the Senate's bill was released July 25.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow

Thanks to the continued outreach of Academy members, support for the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 28 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and seven cosponsors in the Senate. New cosponsors are Sens. John Boozman (Ark.), Joe Donnelly (Ind.) and Dianne Feinstein (Calif.). Congressional champions in both chambers greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org.

Looking for a Career Change? The Academy is Hiring!

We have had staff transitions during the past two months including retirements and relocations and as a result have several exciting opportunities in our Washington, D.C. office. We are in the process of finalizing the positions and will posting the openings in the near future. If you are interested in any of the following employment opportunities, please send a cover letter and resume to jblankenship@eatright.org. Please note, these full-time positions are based in Washington, D.C. and are not designed for telecommuting.

Coordinator, Grassroots Advocacy

(4-year degree, one to two years of experience)

This position provides administrative and technical support for grassroots advocacy operations internally and externally to Academy volunteer leaders and members. The position implements and monitors grassroots activities in coordination with the senior manager/director, grassroots advocacy and prepares accurate and concise documents and reports that summarize strategic measure outcomes. The position requires an understanding of the legislative and regulatory environment, nutrition policy and the Academy's priority areas.

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

(4-year degree, one year academic training, four to five years of experience; RDN preferred)

The purpose of this position is to advance the Academy's public policy agenda by supporting and further developing grassroots infrastructure that expands organizational capacity and outcomes. This position is the policy and advocacy connection between the Academy and affiliate and DPG/MIG policy efforts including training members on effective advocacy for all levels of government.

Manager, Policy and Advocacy Communications

(4-year degree, two to three years of experience; RDN preferred)

Oversees planning, composition, layout and production of communications in all media formats for the PIA unit including online, social marketing and traditional venues. Develops PIA communications and assesses audiences, market and vehicles; makes recommendations for coordinated, effective dissemination of messages to assure consistent messaging within the Academy. Conducts policy research to validate facts contained in communications and reports. Leads other strategic communication and marketing initiatives as needed.

Director, Legislative and Government Affairs

(4-year degree, one year academic training, five to seven years of experience; RDN preferred)

This position identifies, develops and strengthens relationships with key stakeholders including members of Congress, federal agencies and strategic partners to successfully achieve the Academy's public policy goals. In addition, this position serves as the staff liaison to the Legislative and Public Policy Committee and oversees strategic planning and the development and execution of the program of work which includes oversight of the grassroots advocacy platform and strategic measures.

Act Now to Urge the Senate to Reject Harmful Health Care Legislation

Yesterday, the Senate passed a procedural "motion to proceed" to debate on the reconciliation bill by a vote of 51 to 50 on a tie-breaking vote from the Vice President. The Senate now begins 20 hours of debate, followed by amendments that will be offered by Senators (see chart here for a helpful flowchart). Although it remains unclear what version of the Senate bill ultimately will be voted on, all of the proposed versions would eliminate access to vital nutrition services for prevention and treatment, and fails to improve access to quality and affordable health care. The Academy staff will continue to follow this debate closely, and will provide substantive updates.

Thank you to the Academy member leaders who have already reached out to your Senators; your emails and calls have been extremely helpful. Please continue to urge your Senators to vote "no" on the bill by taking action and urging your colleagues to do so as well.

The Academy's letter that was sent to Senators last week is available here, and today the Academy's sent out an updated press release opposing the Senate bill, which is available here.

Congress Works to Pass Funding Bills Before August Recess

Last week, the House Appropriations Committee approved the Labor, Health and Human Services spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018, which now joins the Agriculture spending bill for a vote on the House floor. The House Budget Committee also voted to approve the Fiscal Year 2018 budget blueprint, which would cut funding for evidence-based nutrition research and services that are vital to the nation's health. The Academy continues to join over 800 national, state and local organizations to urge Congress to agree on a bipartisan budget agreement that would allow for increased investment in nutrition and health programs.

New Senate Sponsors for Academy Centennial Resolution!

The Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 28 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and nine cosponsors in the Senate, with Senators Dianne Feinstein (Calif.) and Joe Donnelly (Ind.) as the new sponsors. Please continue to encourage your affiliate and DPG/MIG members to ask their members of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If a member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org. Learn More

Provider Competencies for the Prevention and Management of Obesity

Last month, the Provider Competencies for the Prevention and Management of Obesity were released at a Bipartisan Policy Center event featuring former Agriculture Secretary Dan Glickman, members of the competency development workgroup, and leaders in obesity treatment and advocacy. These first-of-their-kind educational competencies were developed by the Provider Training and Education Workgroup, consisting of more than 20 leading health organizations including the Academy and representing a dozen health professions. The competencies are aimed at many types of health professionals engaged in obesity prevention and management and each specialty is encouraged to adapt these competencies to fit their needs. You can download the competencies or watch the event recording. Read the press release from the event or more about BPC's obesity care work to learn how these competencies impact the work of Academy members.

Secretary Perdue Announces New Leadership for Food, Nutrition, and Consumer Services

U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue named three individuals to take on leadership roles within the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Food, Nutrition, and Consumer Services (FNCS). Brandon Lipps will serve as the Administrator of the Food and Nutrition Service, and also as Acting Deputy Under Secretary of FNCS until the Senate confirms a permanent presidentially-nominated appointee. In addition, Maggie Lyons will serve as Chief of Staff and senior advisor to the Under Secretary, while Kailee Tkacz will serve as policy advisor. Academy President Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND will be meeting with staff from USDA next week.

Volunteers Sought for Public Policy Environmental Scan Task Force

The Academy's Legislative and Public Policy Committee (LPPC) is conducting an environmental scan of public policy issues. The task force seeks input and representation from members of affiliate public policy panels and DPG/MIG policy and advocacy leaders. To volunteer for this six to eight month task force, contact Jeanne Blankenship.

APHA Public Health Fellowship in Government

The American Public Health Association is accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Public Health Fellowship in Government. The goal of the fellowship is to increase participants' understanding about the intersection between public health and policy. Fellows will work in a congressional office or on a congressional committee, focusing on issues related to public health. All public health professionals are eligible to apply; applicants must have a Master's in Public Health or a related field. Applications are due by August 14, 2017.

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled: “Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children’s Health

The Academy’s next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children’s health issues with one of the Academy’s national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type “Optional Event Attendee Only” (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the “Additional Registration Options,” add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

A few weeks ago at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Support ANDPAC, Support the Profession

Health related legislation/regulations will impact public health and your lives as an RDN!

In this video, which is the third of a four-part series, listen to Academy President, Donna Martin, and President Elect Lucille Beseler, explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC.

ANDPAC is the only PAC that represents the Academy's food, nutrition, and health professionals. Stay informed on the Academy's legislative priorities and see what others have to say about the importance of supporting ANDPAC by donating to ANDPAC today. Please consider joining the "high five" club - a $5 donation to ANDPAC each month.

Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Learn more and earn CPEUs at: <http://www.eatrightstore.org/products/cpe-opportunities/certificates-of-training>

Customizing your career: Putting yourself on a global path

TATYANA EL-KOUR, MS, RDN, FAND

Independent Consultant - Global and Health Nutrition Expert - Policy Strategist

1 CPEU

Learning Objectives:

At the end of this webinar, the participant will be able to:

- Identify career paths that may be options for dietetic and nutrition professionals in global public health settings.
- Describe best strategies and qualities for success needed to effectively work in public health and community nutrition globally.
- Apply practical tips for effectively customizing your career based on specific context and need.
- Conceptualize ways for improved career planning and learning in everyday practice.

This webinar is a great place to start learning about the exciting career path where nutrition and global public health meet. The webinar provides practical insight for career planning and discusses the daily activities of practitioners employed in various sectors of the workforce. Several aspects of global work, including job duties, demands, and rewards, as well as the qualities needed for success will also be discussed.

Tom, I thought I would share with you some of my thoughts about cooking classes for the President's page.

Growing up, a home cooked meal was something I took for granted, because it was all I knew. Meal time was a time we all talked about everything that went on that day at school. We were not allowed to watch TV and cell phones were something only the Jetsons had. When I go to a wedding shower or baby shower the advice I always give to Brides and Mom's is to have a meal at home with your family. Meal time should be a "Tech Free" time so everyone is engaged. Yet I am increasingly concerned that dietetic practitioners and Americans do not know how to cook. We don't teach cooking in Home Economics anymore. So that is why I am so excited about the efforts going on all over the country with our dietetic professionals teaching children to seniors how to cook.

Please feel free to use, change and edit. Just my thoughts. Thanks Tom!

Greetings!

We are looking forward to working with you next week to brainstorm and develop strategic options for improving the dietary quality of individuals who are food insecure.

This email includes meeting details and pre-work that will help to prepare your mind to contribute during the session.

Strategy Session Focus

Given the strategies in place/already being developed for nutritious food access (sourcing and distribution), this session will focus on improved diet quality for people who are food insecure.

TASK: To identify and articulate Feeding America's unique role to improve dietary quality for people who are food insecure in order to inform FANO's key strategic priorities by:

- Exploring the barriers to healthy eating for people who are food insecure
- Leveraging our knowledge and understanding of the socio-ecological model to inform strategic choices

Pre-Meeting Assignment and References:

To further bring us all into the mindset for our session, you'll find pre-work below.

- 1. Read: SocioEcoModel PDF, Key Planning Assumptions PDF (for all FANO strategies), and "session prep" below
- 2. Reflect: Bring with you thoughts on your own local or national efforts to address the barriers and leverage opportunities for improving the diet of lower-income or food-insecure individuals/communities
- 3. Reference: A list of your fellow collaborators, with links to respective LinkedIn and organization sites – let's stay connected! Also, I've re-attached the previous "details" email.

Session Prep

Please complete this incubation assignment.

There are many examples of small and big successes as it relates to improving nutrition and healthy eating behaviors. The Robert Wood Johnson Healthy Eating Research program works to promote healthy eating, especially among lower-income and racial and ethnic populations at highest risk for obesity. We would encourage you to use this website (or others you may be familiar with) as a starting point for your incubation assignment. Please explore these resources and come prepared to share a key takeaway or learning that you think will be particularly relevant for us to consider during this strategic planning process to improve dietary quality for people who are food insecure.

An example of what one would bring on Tuesday: “Stress during pregnancy and early childhood is linked to poor dietary behaviors throughout life. This makes me think we should find ways to reduce or address stress among pregnant individuals and young children. Feeding America could explore partnerships and advocacy opportunities with potential partners (e.g., WIC, Head Start, Planned Parenthood, OB/GYN, pediatricians).”

Session Location &Timing:

- Date:* Tuesday, August 1st
- Location:* 1100 G St. NW, 10th Floor, Suite 1030, Room 2 (wifi, entrance code, etc.)
- The entrance of the building is on 11th St. just south of G St. NW. (SW corner of 11th & G St, located to the left of the SunTrust ATM.)
- See the front desk when you enter the building. They will buzz you to the 10th floor.
- Public transit: Metro Center Metro Station, Chinatown Metro Station
- Optional Breakfast Taco Buffet:* 8-8:30am ET
- Start/End Times:* 8:30am-5:30pm ET
- Lunch and afternoon snacks will be provided (vegetarian options available)
- Most current agenda will be sent out prior to the meeting
- Dress is casual – jeans are fine! Temps may vary, so consider dressing in layers.

Please contact me with any questions you may have prior to or on the day of the gathering. My cell number is: 312.315.1628 – texts and calls welcome.

We're looking forward to a great session next week,

Tom, I made just two tiny edits. One was putting in a space and the other was changing in to on. You have created another great journal article. I love that we featured a DTR and I will push that out on social media when this is published.

I have an idea for the next President's page. I would like to focus on teaching people how to cook. I would like to do something on Blue Apron/Hello Fresh. I do have a contact for the dietitian at hello fresh. Rebecca Lewis, MS RD. Her email is didyouknow213@yahoo.com

I would like to also include the Charlie Cart Project that we are doing in our School district that teaches children to cook. The contact for that is Kara LeClair at 706-554-2306
Kleclair@burke.k12.ga.us

The other person who I would like to include that does cooking classes is Rosemary Riley and her information is below.

Dear Donna, It was nice to meet you in person at the PAC breakfast during the PPW in D. C. in June. I live in Columbus, Ohio which I understand you visit and my daughter graduated from the University of Georgia in 2009. She had a great experience there and got a job in PR one month after graduation with Weber- Shandwick in New York City. She has been there for 7 years and is doing well in healthcare PR.

Just as background for you, I retired from Abbott Nutrition 3 years ago after working there for more than 25 years. I had many different positions in R&D but my final project was the creation of the Abbott Nutrition Health Institute. I still do some consulting for them.

I have spent the last three years working in the community, primarily focusing on culinary nutrition programming for people with diabetes, seniors, and cancer survivors. I am on the Board and Chairman of the Health Committee, and volunteer instructor for Cooking Matters, one of the 4 programs offered by a local non-profit, Local Matters. I also volunteer for the JamesCare for life program where we harvest from the Garden of Hope at 11:00 am and then cook with cancer survivors at 6:00 pm.

I am also involved with the Culinary Medicine program offered to OSU Med Students and Nationwide Children's Hospital residents. Local Matters provides the Culinary guidance and kitchen facilities. I am concerned that the role of the dietitian are not reinforced in these programs. I signed up to help with the dishes to make sure there was a dietitian in the room. I demonstrated my worth over time but they did not feel it was needed to start. It feels like the nutrition expert is the chef or possibly physicians when we both know that neither group has had the training that is needed to help our patients.

Please contact me the next time you are planning on coming to Columbus. I would love to show you the work that we are doing here.

Warmest regards, Rosemary

Hope this makes sense? Let me know what you think. I really am concerned that dietitians coming out of school do not know how to cook either!
Thanks for making this year such a pleasure for me!

Tom, I made just two tiny edits. One was putting in a space and the other was changing in to on. You have created another great journal article. I love that we featured a DTR and I will push that out on social media when this is published.

I have an idea for the next President's page. I would like to focus on teaching people how to cook. I would like to do something on Blue Apron/Hello Fresh. I do have a contact for the dietitian at hello fresh. Rebecca Lewis, MS RD. Her email is didyouknow213@yahoo.com

I would like to also include the Charlie Cart Project that we are doing in our School district that teaches children to cook. The contact for that is Kara LeClair at 706-554-2306
Kleclair@burke.k12.ga.us

The other person who I would like to include that does cooking classes is Rosemary Riley and her information is below.

Dear Donna, It was nice to meet you in person at the PAC breakfast during the PPW in D. C. in June. I live in Columbus, Ohio which I understand you visit and my daughter graduated from the University of Georgia in 2009. She had a great experience there and got a job in PR one month after graduation with Weber- Shandwick in New York City. She has been there for 7 years and is doing well in healthcare PR.

Just as background for you, I retired from Abbott Nutrition 3 years ago after working there for more than 25 years. I had many different positions in R&D but my final project was the creation of the Abbott Nutrition Health Institute. I still do some consulting for them.

I have spent the last three years working in the community, primarily focusing on culinary nutrition programming for people with diabetes, seniors, and cancer survivors. I am on the Board and Chairman of the Health Committee, and volunteer instructor for Cooking Matters, one of the 4 programs offered by a local non-profit, Local Matters. I also volunteer for the JamesCare for life program where we harvest from the Garden of Hope at 11:00 am and then cook with cancer survivors at 6:00 pm.

I am also involved with the Culinary Medicine program offered to OSU Med Students and Nationwide Children's Hospital residents. Local Matters provides the Culinary guidance and kitchen facilities. I am concerned that the role of the dietitian are not reinforced in these programs. I signed up to help with the dishes to make sure there was a dietitian in the room. I demonstrated my worth over time but they did not feel it was needed to start. It feels like the nutrition expert is the chef or possibly physicians when we both know that neither group has had the training that is needed to help our patients.

Please contact me the next time you are planning on coming to Columbus. I would love to show you the work that we are doing here.

Warmest regards, Rosemary

All,

I know that the investment returns and the potential volatility in the market are on everyone's mind these days. This morning, I opened up an envelope from Segal, Bryant and Hamill that contained a small overview of the markets. I thought the Committee might like to see it. We don't need to discuss it this afternoon. I will see about getting Al Bryant, our investment manager at SBH, to join us on our next call.

Happy reading.

All,

We made a change to the agenda for tomorrow's meeting. It will be loaded onto the portal, but, I am also attaching a copy for you. The biggest change is the time change that was not incorporated onto the portal agenda. The meeting tomorrow is at 1:30 p.m. CDT. If you can't make it, and haven't informed me already, please do so.

One final note; When I opened up the excel files on the portal, I noticed it is very difficult to read if they are not downloaded. I didn't realize that the portal would show much more than the charts and financial summaries we discussed. So, if you are looking at the excel files, please download them first. It will be easier to understand. As we move forward, the excel files will be converted into a .pdf format to make it easier for you. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

All,

We are fast approaching our first Finance and Audit Committee meeting for the year. You should be receiving the webinar invitation from the Academy IT department within the next couple of days. There has been a request to change the start of this meeting to 1:30 CDT. Please note the change in your calendars. The meeting should not take more than 1.5 hrs (hopefully, not that long).

So, please make sure you mark your calendars for the Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, July 25th at 1:30 CDT. I will also send out a calendar invitation.

If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Hello Maggie,

Congratulations on your new position! If possible, Donna Martin the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics 2017-2018 President, is in town August 2. We would love to schedule a meeting that morning.

I am cc-ing the Academy's Vice President of Policy Initiatives and Advocacy, Jeanne Blankenship, on this email. My last day with the Academy is this coming Monday so I will not be at the meeting, but I wish you the best as you begin your new position.

Very best,

Hi Jennifer,

Lauren from the Secretary's scheduling office forwarded me your request; I recently started at USDA as the Chief of Staff and Senior Advisor at the Food, Nutrition and Consumer Services and would be more than happy to meet with your group at your convenience on behalf of the Secretary.

If you could send over your availability we can find a time that works.

Thank you,

Maggie

All,

We made a change to the agenda for tomorrow's meeting. It will be loaded onto the portal, but, I am also attaching a copy for you. The biggest change is the time change that was not incorporated onto the portal agenda. The meeting tomorrow is at 1:30 p.m. CDT. If you can't make it, and haven't informed me already, please do so.

One final note; When I opened up the excel files on the portal, I noticed it is very difficult to read if they are not downloaded. I didn't realize that the portal should show much more than the charts and financial summaries we discussed. So, if you are looking at the excel files, please download them first. It will be easier to understand. As we move forward, the excel files will be converted into a .pdf format to make it easier for you. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

Hello Ms. Martin,

I apologize for the delay in getting back to you on this. The Secretary will be unable to meet on June 26th or 27th due to scheduling conflicts. He has had a significant amount of changes and official travel added to his calendar in the last few weeks. Thank you for your understanding and feel free to let me know when you are back in DC so we may coordinate.

Thank you.

Hi Donna. It was great to see you last week. Congrats on a great meeting. As I mentioned, Amy Knoblock-Hahn was also invited by Feeding America to also attend their Diet Quality Strategy Meeting. Amy is a consultant for the Foundation who works on some of our Future of Food projects. Attached is a summary of her work and I have include her photo below. Let me know if there is an additional information I can provide. Thanks.

Dear NDEP Members,

Remember to register for the Preceptor Guidance Webinar on July 26th!

The NDEP Professional Development Committee is hosting a complimentary webinar to provide guidance for preceptors on how to be more effective in their interactions with dietetic interns/students.

Learning objectives for this webinar:

1. Differentiate effective versus ineffective preceptors.
2. Identify characteristics of effective preceptors.
3. Demonstrate how to be an effective preceptor and mentor.

Participants will receive 1 CEU. Participants do not need to be NDEP members to attend.

Date: Wednesday, July 26, 2017 from 12:00 PM- 1:00 PM CT.

To register, click here:

<https://eatright.webex.com/eatright/j.php?RGID=rf6ddae9251df70fcae3242a28521f5a2>

If you are unable to attend the webinar during this time, it will be recorded and made available via an email blast as well as through the NDEP Portal library.

Speaker Message 4 Trainings & Action Items

HOD Communications Platform Training Video

All delegate should review the HOD Communications Platform training video (~11 minutes).

HOD Manual

The HLT completed additional revisions to the HOD manual. The current version is posted in the 2017-18 HOD Manual folder. While the manual will be used year-round to guide your work, we wanted to highlight some policies that will help prepare you for your work in the House.

Review the following policies:

- A.4b- This policy reviews the core functions that guide the work of the HOD.
- Public Policy has been added as a new core function.
- This is an outcome of our ongoing work and support of public policy efforts, and it was also a recommendation from the 2016-17 Public Policy Task Force.
- G.6- This policy reviews all positions in the HOD.
- Updates include suggested requirements for the Affiliate and DPG delegate positions, as well as benefits and leadership advancement opportunities for office.
- Share this information with your boards/executive committees as you begin the nominations process for 2018-19 and beyond.
- The suggested requirements do not affect the status of current delegates.
- G.7- This policy helps delineate the roles of the delegates and their relationship to constituents and to the House.
- G.8- This policy reviews the roles and responsibilities as they relate to each core function, including the new core function of Public Policy.

HLT Outreach to Each Delegate

A member of the HLT will reach out to each of you individually, via phone or email, not only to briefly explain our plans for the upcoming program year, but to also to ask for your suggestions for the House this year.

Public Policy Updates

Weekly public policy updates are provided for your review and information. Please stay tuned for notices that may require action on your part.

Academy Lays Groundwork to Facilitate Licensed Practice across State Lines

The Academy is beginning a strategic review of the practicability and implications of pursuing enactment of a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist Compact that would enable RDNs and other qualified licensed dietitians to practice in multiple states under a single license.

Several other health professions, including physicians and nurses, have chosen to move in this direction, but dietitian nutritionists face unique issues in developing a compact owing to the lack of uniformity of state licensure laws. We hope to have this initial groundwork complete by the end of the calendar year, and will be engaging all Academy units as the process continues.

- Watch for future updates in Eatright Weekly, or contact the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at mrifkin@eatright.org or ptuma@eatright.org.

2017-18 Table Facilitators - Respond by Wednesday, July 26

As previously noted in the Speaker Message 3, we are seeking 2+ year delegates to serve as Table Facilitators for the 2017-18 HOD Meetings.

- Please send an email to hod@eatright.org by Wednesday, July 26, if you're interested in this leadership opportunity. Thanks to those who have already expressed interest.

New Delegate Orientation

New Delegates should review the Your Role as a Delegate training video (20 minutes).

HOD Meeting Travel

If you have not received an email from the Academy Meeting Service team regarding your travel, please contact Erin Cannon at ecannon@eatright.org.

- Refer to policy B.5 Reimbursement for Travel, Per Diem, and Lodging (previously B.3a) for information on HOD travel reimbursement.

- 10/19- Make sure to arrive in time for our pre-meeting activities (starting at 3:00 PM CT)

- 10/21- The HOD meeting will be ending around noon

Administrative Paperwork — Past Due

We still have over 30% of delegates who have not turned in their administrative paperwork for the HOD. Please submit this as soon as possible. The original email was sent June 27 or you can refer to this post in the HOD platform.

- Thanks to the delegates who have submitted the documents. If you have sent the documents to us, you do not need to resend them.

Good morning,

We are looking forward to our day of conversation and strategy development on Tuesday, August 1 in Washington, D.C. As you solidify your travel plans, Feeding America would like to recommend three hotel options that are located near our meeting space.

Hotel Recommendations

1. Hotel Monaco Kimpton You're invited to use Feeding America's Global Business Rate code of GBP4309, which should give 15-20% off published rates (Currently $220+ w/ code)
2. Courtyard Washington Convention Center by Marriott (currently $270+)
3. Hilton Garden Inn Downtown (Currently $219+)

Meeting Details

- Please plan to be available between 8:30am and 5:30pm ET on Tuesday, August 1
- Breakfast, lunch and afternoon snacks will be provided
- Most current agenda will be sent out prior to the meeting

Meeting Space

- 1100 G St. NW, 10th Floor, Suite 1030, Room 2 (wifi, entrance code, etc.)
- The entrance of the building is on 11th St. just south of G St. NW. (SW corner of 11th & G St, located to the left of the SunTrust ATM.)
- Please see the front desk when you enter the building. They will buzz you to the 10th floor.
- Public transit: Metro Center Metro Station, Chinatown Metro Station

Please contact me with any questions you may have prior to or on the day of the gathering. My cell number is: 312.315.1628 – texting and calls welcome.

Both Maggie and Brandon have extensive experience in SNAP and Maggie in WIC but I think school nutrition they are lacking in expertise.

Maggie's announcement was today. She previously worked for GMA. I can ask that someone from the Secretary's office also be there. Or ask that acting under sec Brandon Lipps attend? Both Maggie and Brandon have extensive experience in SNAP and Maggie in WIC but I think school nutrition they are lacking in expertise.

Hi Jennifer,

Lauren from the Secretary's scheduling office forwarded me your request; I recently started at USDA as the Chief of Staff and Senior Advisor at the Food, Nutrition and Consumer Services and would be more than happy to meet with your group at your convenience on behalf of the Secretary.

If you could send over your availability we can find a time that works.

Thank you,

Hello Lauren,

Donna Martin forwarded on your response to flag for a later date when she was going to be in town. We just found out that she is in town August 2 and would love to find a time that day to meet with the Secretary. I know that Donna is very excited to speak with Sectary Perdue about her child nutrition programs in Burke County, Georgia. Thank you, in advance, for working with Donna and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Please let us know if you need any additional information or have any questions.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Keep Up the Call: Protect Vital Nutrition Services in Congress

Thanks to the grassroots advocacy of Academy members and our partners opposing the Senate's Better Care Reconciliation Act, Sens. Susan Collins (Maine), Mike Lee (Utah), Jerry Moran (Kan.) and Rand Paul (Ky.) joined with their Democratic and Independent colleagues opposing the legislation. Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (Ky.) announced that the Senate would not vote on the BCRA, and would instead consider the House-passed American Health Care Act, with possible changes to fully repeal the Affordable Care Act. The Academy remains opposed to the American Health Care Act and encourages Congress to work in a bipartisan manner to improve access to high-quality health care services and invest in vital nutrition services to reduce health care spending, including those funded by the Prevention Fund. The Academy is monitoring health care legislation and will notify policy leaders with more details and ways to take action as needed. Learn More

Food and Nutrition Services: Core Component of the HIV/AIDS Policy

In a letter to the Health Resources and Services Administration of the Department of Health and Human Services, the Academy underscored the importance of food and nutrition services, including medical nutrition therapy provided by Academy members, to people living with HIV. People who receive effective services and become food-secure are more likely to keep scheduled primary care visits, score higher on health functioning, are at lower risk for inpatient hospital stays and are more likely to take their medications.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow

Thanks to the continued outreach of Academy members, support for the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial has 28 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and seven cosponsors in the Senate. Congressional champions in both chambers greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org.

Congress Continues to Work on Annual Spending Legislation

The House Appropriations Committee held a July 19 hearing to consider the Labor, Health and Human Services spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018, which was introduced on July 12 and considered by the subcommittee on July 13. Last week, the House Appropriations Committee approved the Agriculture spending bill for FY 2018. The Academy continues to monitor these important bills to protect federal funding for health and nutrition programs, and will provide updates with more details, including the impact on programs such as nutrition research, senior nutrition programs and WIC, which employ Academy members.

Senate Hearing: Reducing Senior Malnourishment, Social Isolation and Health Care Costs

The Senate's Special Committee on Aging recently held a hearing on "Nourishing our Golden Years: How Proper and Adequate Nutrition Promotes Health Aging and Positive Outcomes." The committee heard testimony from experts including Academy member Connie Bales, PhD, RD, professor and associate director of the Center for the Study of Aging at Duke University School of Medicine. Speakers stressed the importance of reimbursement for nutrition services provided by registered dietitians to offset health care costs that result without these services and the need for community engagement and programs. The Academy continues to advocate for these and other innovative services tailored to the nutritional needs of seniors.

July 31 Application Deadline: Funding Opportunity to Improve Community Health Among Native Americans

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Minority Health has released a new funding opportunity, "Empowered Communities for a Healthier Nation Initiative." The goal is to demonstrate the effectiveness of collaborations between research institutions and Native American tribes and tribal organizations to reduce health disparities and improve health outcomes. The deadline to apply is July 31, with an anticipated start date for the project of September 30.

Jeanne and Pat, The superintendent said he would make an exception for me to be away the first day of school. Do you want to see if you can get me in to see Betsy Duvos either the day before or the day after when I am there? I would love to also see Sonny Perdue then, but that seems like it is harder to accomplish? If you can let me know what you can work out I will make flight arrangements. I won't be able to get out Tuesday night if the meeting goes until 5:30pm so Wednesday would be able the best date to meet with Betsy Duvos and Sonny if we could arrange it. Share our Strength had also wanted me to do a podcast for them on Hunger when I was in town the next time, so one we figure this out I will reach out to them also. My head is spinning right now! All good stuff though!

Understood! If you can't make it, I think it's worth looking at how we can make sure we get the voice of the board there!

Jeanne and Pat, Obviously this area is one I am passionate about. Let me check with the superintendent tomorrow morning to get permission to come. The only reason I hesitate is that the is our first day of school and he is pretty funny about us being gone then. I feel like he will agree, but want to check to make sure. Talk to you tomorrow.

Hi Donna,

We received the invitation below for a high-level strategy meeting with Feeding America. I think our participation is important given the direction of our new strategic plan. I communicated with Pat and we agreed that this would be an excellent fit for you as president. Would you be available? If you are not, I can have staff cover but wanted to give you first right of refusal!

Jeanne and Amy,

Good afternoon. I hope this finds you both well.

Feeding America sent along the below invitation to Mary Pat, and didn't realize her retirement date had already arrived. Very exciting for her!

In her auto-response, I understand that you, Jeanne, are the next point of contact. If you and/or Amy have a recommendation on who may be the best individual to invite in Mary Pat's seat at the table, would you mind sharing their name? Though the meeting is in DC, we do not necessarily need someone from the DC office.

As noted below, the focus will be on exploring strategies for "improving the diet quality of people we serve" throughout the Feeding America network. We would certainly value having AND's voice and expertise at the table.

With appreciation,

Subject: Invitation: Diet Quality Strategy Session, August 1st

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Feeding America's 2025 Goal: By 2025, Feeding America, in collaboration with our network and our partners, will ensure access to enough nutritious food for people struggling with hunger, and make meaningful progress toward ending hunger.*

Subject: July 19-21 Board Retreat

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the retreat have begun to be posted on the Board portal. All agenda item attachments for the retreat will be placed on the portal by Friday, July 14; a complete PDF of the attachments will also be provided. Please click here and enter your Academy website username and password to access the agenda and attachments.

The purpose of the retreat is to conduct a Board orientation focused on governance, to approve the Academy's strategic plan, and to network. The agenda for the retreat differs from our regular agenda format, since the purpose of the retreat is primarily focused on developing our strategic direction.

Glenn Tecker will lead us in discussion on governance and strategic thinking. His biographical sketch is attached. To foster collaboration and open dialogue with the Academy's major organization units, we welcome their representatives to the retreat: Coleen Liscano, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Wanda Eastman, chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Linda Snetselaar, Editor of the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; and Marisa Moore, chair of the Nominating Committee. Lisa Dierks, chair of the Ethics Committee Task Force, will join us by phone to present the new Ethics Code and Steven Worth, Senior Consultant at Worth Consulting, will present the Global Business Development Strategy report.

A schedule of our networking activities follows.

On Wednesday, July 19, you have the option to visit Contemporary Austin – Jones Center before we go to dinner. This urban art museum reflects a spectrum of contemporary art through exhibitions, commissions, education, and collections. To participate in the museum visit, please meet in the lobby of the Driskill hotel between 5:30pm-6:00pm to walk in groups to the museum, located across the street. At 7:00pm we have dinner reservations at Café Blue (thanks, Jo Jo, for the recommendation!), located at 340 East 2nd Street, about a 10 minute walk from our hotel. Please meet back at the Driskill hotel at 6:45pm to walk as a group to the restaurant.

On Thursday, July 20, you have the option to visit the retail shops of your liking in the 2nd Street District of Austin. The shops are all a comfortable walking distance from the hotel; a map and list of shops will be provided. Please meet in the lobby of the hotel at 5:30pm to walk over to 2nd Street, just a half mile away. Afterwards the group will meet at Malverde restaurant for dinner at 7:00pm, located at 400b West 2nd Street, in the heart of the 2nd Street shopping district. Malverde is an award-winning modern Mexican restaurant, helmed by Executive Chef Rick Lopez.

The attire for the meeting is casual. The temperature this time of year in Austin will be in the middle nineties during the day and upper seventies in the evening.

See you soon!

Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Thank you, Jeanne!

Donna, we are pleased to hear that you will be able to join Feeding America, network members and external partners as we explore strategies for improving dietary quality for those experiencing food insecurity. Our team is in the midst of solidifying the agenda for the day, and I will be sending out details (e.g., hotel recommendations and meeting location) in the coming day - if not today.

In the interim, please let me know if I can answer any questions. I've included the original invitation copy below, as a reference.

With appreciation,
Jessica

"As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships).

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org).

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact me with questions.

Sincerely,
Jessica

*Feeding America's 2025 Goal: By 2025, Feeding America, in collaboration with our network and our partners, will ensure access to enough nutritious food for people struggling with hunger, and make meaningful progress toward ending hunger."

Looking for a Career Change? The Academy is Hiring!

We have had staff transitions during the past two months including retirements and relocations and as a result have several exciting opportunities in our Washington, D.C. office. We are in the process of finalizing the positions and will posting the openings in the near future. If you are interested in any of the following employment opportunities, please send a cover letter and resume to jblankenship@eatright.org. Please note, these full-time positions are based in Washington, D.C. and are not designed for telecommuting.

Coordinator, Grassroots Advocacy

(4-year degree, one to two years of experience)

This position provides administrative and technical support for grassroots advocacy operations internally and externally to Academy volunteer leaders and members. The position implements and monitors grassroots activities in coordination with the senior manager/director, grassroots advocacy and prepares accurate and concise documents and reports that summarize strategic measure outcomes. The position requires an understanding of the legislative and regulatory environment, nutrition policy and the Academy's priority areas.

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

(4-year degree, one year academic training, four to five years of experience; RDN preferred)

The purpose of this position is to advance the Academy's public policy agenda by supporting and further developing grassroots infrastructure that expands organizational capacity and outcomes. This position is the policy and advocacy connection between the Academy and affiliate and DPG/MIG policy efforts including training members on effective advocacy for all levels of government.

Manager, Policy and Advocacy Communications

(4-year degree, two to three years of experience; RDN preferred)

1. planning, composition, layout and production of communications in all media formats for the PIA unit including online, social marketing and traditional venues. Develops PIA communications and assesses audiences, market and vehicles; makes recommendations for coordinated, effective dissemination of messages to assure consistent messaging within the Academy. Conducts policy research to validate facts contained in communications and reports. Leads other strategic communication and marketing initiatives as needed.

Director, Legislative and Government Affairs

(4-year degree, one year academic training, five to seven years of experience; RDN preferred)

This position identifies, develops and strengthens relationships with key stakeholders including members of Congress, federal agencies and strategic partners to successfully achieve the Academy's public policy goals. In addition, this position serves as the staff liaison to the Legislative and Public Policy Committee and oversees strategic planning and the development and execution of the program of work which includes oversight of the grassroots advocacy platform and strategic measures.

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

(4-year degree, one year academic training, four to five years of experience; RDN preferred)

further developing grassroots infrastructure that expands organizational capacity and outcomes. This position is the policy and advocacy connection between the Academy and affiliate and DPG/MIG policy efforts including degree, one year academic training, five to seven years of experience; RDN preferred)

Senate Health Care Bill Stalls in Congress

Thanks to the grassroots advocacy of Academy members and our partners in opposition to the Senate's Better Care Reconciliation Act, Senators Susan Collins (Maine), Mike Lee (Utah), Jerry Moran (Kan.), and Rand Paul (Ky.) have joined with their Democratic and Independent Senate colleagues opposing the legislation. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (Ky.) announced that no votes will be held on the BCRA; the Senate will now consider the House-passed American Health Care Act, with possible changes to fully repeal the Affordable Care Act. The Academy remains opposed to the American Health Care Act, and continues to encourage Congress to work in a bipartisan manner to improve access to quality health care services and invest in vital nutrition services to reduce health care spending, including those funded by the Prevention Fund. Academy staff are continuing to monitor any possible legislation closely, and will send a message to our policy leaders with more details and ways for you to take action.

Congress Continues to Work on Annual Spending Legislation

On July 19, the House Appropriations Committee will hold a hearing to consider the Labor, Health and Human Services spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018, which was introduced on July 12 and considered by the subcommittee on July 13. This is one of the 12 spending bills that Congress must pass by September 30 in order to continue funding the federal government. Last week, the House Appropriations Committee approved the Agriculture spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018. The Academy continues to monitor these important bills to protect federal funding for health and nutrition programs.

Update on Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial

Support for H. Res. 161/ S. Res 75, the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial, has 28 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 7 cosponsors in the Senate. Congressional champions in the House and Senate greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org.

APHA Public Health Fellowship in Government

The American Public Health Association is accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Public Health Fellowship in Government. The goal of the fellowship is to increase participants' understanding about the intersection between public health and policy. Fellows will work in a congressional office or on a congressional committee, focusing on issues related to public health. All public health professionals are eligible to apply; applicants must have a Master's in Public Health or a related field. Applications are due by August 14, 2017.

U.S. Surgeon General and CDC Director Nominations Made by Trump Administration

President Trump recently nominated Dr. Jerome Adams to be the next U.S. Surgeon General. Dr. Adams is currently serving as the Indiana State Health Commissioner and has been very involved in prevention issues in Indiana.

Dr. Brenda Fitzgerald, currently Georgia Health Commissioner, has been nominated as the next Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. More information can be found in the HHS news release. In addition, the President announced his intent to nominate Bob Kadlec to be the new HHS Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response.

The Challenge of Treating Obesity and Overweight: Proceedings of a Workshop—in Brief

The Roundtable on Obesity Solutions of the Health and Medicine Division of the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine held a workshop in Washington, DC, on April 6, 2017, titled "The Challenge of Treating Obesity and Overweight: A Workshop. The workshop discussions covered treatments for obesity, overweight, and severe obesity in adults and children; emerging treatment opportunities; the development of a workforce for obesity treatments; payment and policy considerations; and promising ways to move forward which have been summarized in a brief. The Academy is a member of the Roundtable and participated in the planning and delivery of the workshop.

Senate Hearing Showcases Senior Nutrition and Role of Registered Dietitian Nutritionists

Last week, the Senate's Special Committee on Aging held a hearing on "Nourishing our Golden Years: How Proper and Adequate Nutrition Promotes Health Aging and Positive Outcomes." The Academy met with the committee staff in advance of the hearing to share resources and information about senior nutrition and current initiatives. During the hearing, testimonies were given from medical professionals, public health personnel, and a woman who receives senior nutrition benefits in addition to Medicaid. The panel highlighted how senior nutrition services, in both the clinical setting and the community setting, help reverse malnourished seniors in the short-term, but have long-term affects by keeping health care costs down. The panel and committee members, including Connie Bales, PhD RD, stressed the importance of reimbursement for nutrition services provided by registered dietitians to offset healthcare costs that result without such services. Learn more about how nutrition services do not allow seniors to “suffer in silence” as put by Senator Casey, rather aid seniors and all Americans here. The hearing and written testimony are available here.

Join Food Safety Experts for Knowledge Exchange on July 25

Clostridium perfringens is one of the most common foodborne pathogens in the United States. The CDC estimates it causes nearly one million cases of foodborne illness each year. Join Academy partners in the Partnership for Food Safety Education for a Knowledge Exchange on July 25 at 1pm EST, which will include an interview with public health investigators from Contra Costa County, California, followed by an open Q&A session. Knowledge Exchanges are just 30 minutes long - and a great "lunch break" learning activity. Please submit your questions in advance to info@fightbac.org.

Impacting Older Adult Malnutrition through State and Local Policy

Ohio, Massachusetts, and Virginia have already taken legislative action on older adult malnutrition policy, and advocates in states such as Florida are working on actions of their own. Learn how to take the fight against older adult malnutrition to the state and local level on July 27th at 1 p.m. Eastern Time in a webinar hosted by the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition and the Academy. Hear from state and local leaders who are working to implement malnutrition policy and find out how you can make a difference in your community through state advocacy, coalition-building, and more! Register Now!

Register Today for Webinar Addressing Disaster SNAP!

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled: “Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

FRAC is also offering a series of webinars related to child nutrition policy. Click on the links below to join these events.

Afterschool Meals Matter

Innovative Afterschool Partnerships

July 20, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time. School is around the corner and it is an excellent time to reach out to potential partners who can assist you in building a stronger Afterschool Meal Program. Libraries are moving from serving summer meals to also participating in the Afterschool

Meal Program. Mayors are running city-wide efforts to increase participation in Afterschool Meals and there are opportunities to partner with groups that are offering innovative afterschool programming. Join this call to learn more about the innovative partnerships that are happening across the country.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners! The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Senate Hearing Showcases Senior Nutrition and Role of Registered Dietitian Nutritionists

Last week, the Senate’s Special Committee on Aging held a hearing on “Nourishing our Golden Years: How Proper and Adequate Nutrition Promotes Health Aging and Positive Outcomes.” The Academy met with the committee staff in advance of the hearing to share resources and information about senior nutrition and current initiatives. During the hearing, testimonies were given from medical professionals, public health personnel, and a woman who receives senior nutrition benefits in addition to Medicaid. The panel highlighted how senior nutrition services, in both the clinical setting and the community setting, help reverse malnourished seniors in the short-term, but have long-term affects by keeping health care costs down. The panel and committee members, including Connie Bales, PhD RD, stressed the importance of reimbursement for nutrition services provided by registered dietitians to offset healthcare costs that result without such services. Learn more about how nutrition services do not allow seniors to “suffer in silence” as put by Senator Casey, rather aid seniors and all Americans here. The hearing and written testimony are available here.

Join Food Safety Experts for Knowledge Exchange on July 25

Clostridium perfringens is one of the most common foodborne pathogens in the United States. The CDC estimates it causes nearly one million cases of foodborne illness each year. Join Academy partners in the Partnership for Food Safety Education for a Knowledge Exchange on July 25 at 1pm EST, which will include an interview with public health investigators from Contra Costa County, California, followed by an open Q&A session. Knowledge Exchanges are just 30 minutes long - and a great "lunch break" learning activity. Please submit your questions in advance to info@fightbac.org.

Innovative Afterschool Partnerships

July 20, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time. School is around the corner and it is an excellent time to reach out to potential partners who can assist you in building a stronger Afterschool Meal Program. Libraries are moving from serving summer meals to also participating in the Afterschool Meal Program. Mayors are running city-wide efforts to increase participation in Afterschool Meals and there are opportunities to partner with groups that are offering innovative afterschool programming. Join this call to learn more about the innovative partnerships that are happening across the country.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children’s Health

The Academy’s next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children’s health issues with one of the Academy’s national alliance partners! The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Looking for a Career Change? The Academy is Hiring!

We have had staff transitions during the past two months including retirements and relocations and as a result have several exciting opportunities in our Washington, D.C. office. We are in the process of finalizing the positions and will posting the openings in the near future. If you are interested in any of the following employment opportunities, please send a cover letter and resume to jblankenship@eatright.org. Please note, these full-time positions are based in Washington, D.C. and are not designed for telecommuting.

Coordinator, Grassroots Advocacy

(4-year degree, one to two years of experience)

This position provides administrative and technical support for grassroots advocacy operations internally and externally to Academy volunteer leaders and members. The position implements and monitors grassroots activities in coordination with the senior manager/director, grassroots advocacy and prepares accurate and concise documents and reports that summarize strategic measure outcomes. The position requires an understanding of the legislative and regulatory environment, nutrition policy and the Academy's priority areas.

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

(4-year degree, one year academic training, four to five years of experience; RDN preferred)

The purpose of this position is to advance the Academy's public policy agenda by supporting and further developing grassroots infrastructure that expands organizational capacity and outcomes.

This position is the policy and advocacy connection between the Academy and affiliate and DPG/MIG policy efforts including training members on effective advocacy for all levels of government.

Manager, Policy and Advocacy Communications

(4-year degree, two to three years of experience; RDN preferred)

Oversees planning, composition, layout and production of communications in all media formats for the PIA unit including online, social marketing and traditional venues. Develops PIA communications and assesses audiences, market and vehicles; makes recommendations for coordinated, effective dissemination of messages to assure consistent messaging within the Academy. Conducts policy research to validate facts contained in communications and reports. Leads other strategic communication and marketing initiatives as needed.

Director, Legislative and Government Affairs

(4-year degree, one year academic training, five to seven years of experience; RDN preferred)

This position identifies, develops and strengthens relationships with key stakeholders including members of Congress, federal agencies and strategic partners to successfully achieve the Academy's public policy goals. In addition, this position serves as the staff liaison to the Legislative and Public Policy Committee and oversees strategic planning and the development and execution of the program of work which includes oversight of the grassroots advocacy platform and strategic measures.

Senior Manager, Grassroots and State Government Advocacy

(4-year degree, one year academic training, four to five years of experience; RDN preferred)

The purpose of this position is to advance the Academy's public policy agenda by supporting and further developing grassroots infrastructure that expands organizational capacity and outcomes.

This position is the policy and advocacy connection between the Academy and affiliate and DPG/MIG policy efforts including degree, one year academic training, five to seven years of experience; RDN preferred)

Senate Health Care Bill Stalls in Congress

Thanks to the grassroots advocacy of Academy members and our partners in opposition to the Senate's Better Care Reconciliation Act, Senators Susan Collins (Maine), Mike Lee (Utah), Jerry Moran (Kan.), and Rand Paul (Ky.) have joined with their Democratic and Independent Senate colleagues opposing the legislation. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (Ky.) announced that no votes will be held on the BCRA; the Senate will now consider the House-passed American Health Care Act, with possible changes to fully repeal the Affordable Care Act. The Academy remains opposed to the American Health Care Act, and continues to encourage Congress to work in a bipartisan manner to improve access to quality health care services and invest in vital nutrition services to reduce health care spending, including those funded by the Prevention Fund. Academy staff are continuing to monitor any possible legislation closely, and will send a message to our policy leaders with more details and ways for you to take action.

Congress Continues to Work on Annual Spending Legislation

On July 19, the House Appropriations Committee will hold a hearing to consider the Labor, Health and Human Services spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018, which was introduced on July 12 and considered by the subcommittee on July 13. This is one of the 12 spending bills that Congress must pass by September 30 in order to continue funding the federal government. Last week, the House Appropriations Committee approved the Agriculture spending bill for Fiscal Year 2018. The Academy continues to monitor these important bills to protect federal funding for health and nutrition programs.

Update on Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial

Support for H. Res. 161/ S. Res 75, the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial, has 28 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 7 cosponsors in the Senate. Congressional champions in the House and Senate greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org.

APHA Public Health Fellowship in Government

The American Public Health Association is accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Public Health Fellowship in Government. The goal of the fellowship is to increase participants' understanding about the intersection between public health and policy. Fellows will work in a congressional office or on a congressional committee, focusing on issues related to public health. All public health professionals are eligible to apply; applicants must have a Master's in Public Health or a related field. Applications are due by August 14, 2017.

U.S. Surgeon General and CDC Director Nominations Made by Trump Administration

President Trump recently nominated Dr. Jerome Adams to be the next U.S. Surgeon General. Dr. Adams is currently serving as the Indiana State Health Commissioner and has been very involved in prevention issues in Indiana.

Dr. Brenda Fitzgerald, currently Georgia Health Commissioner, has been nominated as the next Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. More information can be found in the HHS news release. In addition, the President announced his intent to nominate Bob Kadlec to be the new HHS Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response.

The Challenge of Treating Obesity and Overweight: Proceedings of a Workshop—in Brief

The Roundtable on Obesity Solutions of the Health and Medicine Division of the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine held a workshop in Washington, DC, on April 6, 2017, titled "The Challenge of Treating Obesity and Overweight: A Workshop. The workshop discussions covered treatments for obesity, overweight, and severe obesity in adults and children; emerging treatment opportunities; the development of a workforce for obesity treatments; payment and policy considerations; and promising ways to move forward which have been summarized in a brief. The Academy is a member of the Roundtable and participated in the planning and delivery of the workshop.

Pat, Just to let you know that when I talked to Dianne Polly about the board next year she requested to be on some of our 4P's calls. She just thought every now and then it would be helpful. I really don't want to expand the BOD people on that call, but if we can think of any times that we might need input from her or have an issue that she could assist us with, then we need to make sure we include her on the call. We are currently conducting a review of the Certificate of Training in Childhood and Adolescent Weight Management self-study module. We have given you access to the 2016 childhood program pre-work materials at www.cdrnet.org. Instructions to access the module are included below.

A paper copy of the module is attached. The paper copy modules does not include the actual articles. Would you please review the articles included in the module and identify if there are any articles that should be added, subtracted, or replaced. Keep in mind that the intent of the self-study is to provide attendees with the foundation knowledge to allow richer discussions at the onsite workshop (in other words, they should be consistent with the self-study learning objectives identified within the module). The articles should not present the content that will be covered onsite. However, if you have suggested changes to the learning objectives, please do provide those too!

A paper copy of the current pre-test is also attached. Please review the test and identify items that should be deleted, edited or added. We have included the source and performance of each item for March 2017 program. Those poor performing questions are indicated in red (11, 17, 28, 38, 52, 59, 66, 73). The anticipation is that the items will perform at 70%.

I have included suggested competencies that we have identified for each learning activity. Please review and confirm the competencies are correct and provide edits.

Please send your feedback to me by e-mail or fax (312/899-4772) by September 15, 2017. After we receive all the feedback, we will send you a summary of recommendations and, if warranted, schedule a faculty teleconference to finalize the changes. Note that changes in articles will also change the learning activities and pre-test so we will be following up later for your input on those as well. All changes will be implemented as of November 1, 2017.

Please note the following:

- 1) The PNCM is linked in Learning Activity 1 - Confirm that this should remain
- 2) Counseling Videos and Documents are linked in Learning Activity 4 – Confirm that these should remain

Pat, Just to let you know that when I talked to Dianne Polly about the board next year she requested to be on some of our 4P's calls. She just thought every now and then it would be helpful. I really don't want to expand the BOD people on that call, but if we can think of any times that we might need input from her or have an issue that she could assist us with, then we need to make sure we include her on the call. This is just a FYI email to the 4 P's and Joan. Thanks!

Hi, Donna: As you no doubt know, the Senate debate on repealing the ACA has continued to lose support. Our DC office has updated a prior letter (originally sent to House leaders) to send over your name to Senate leaders opposing the House's American Health Care Act, since this seems to be the direction that the Senate is taking. Can you please review the attached letter as soon as possible and let us know if it is OK or needs any edits, which we're glad to make. We will also adapt the letter into a press release stating our opposition to the bill.

Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Thank you for your response, Jeanne. I have attached the letter I received for your review. To clarify, the letter was drafted by a separate organization who contacted our lobbyist to determine if we would agree to co-sign. Unfortunately, I do not know the other organizations that were asked to sign the letter. We were asked to provide communication by Monday if we choose to opt out of the letter.

GAND has communicated with Isakson's office on numerous occasions both at home and in DC. I know many of our members have completed the open action alerts, but the response we consistently receive is one that is oppositional to our expressed viewpoints and requests. I am working on getting either him or someone from his office to visit one of our work sites during the August recess so they can better understand the role of the dietitian.

Thanks for the clarity on ANDPAC. I do unfortunately use those names interchangeably, but do understand the role of the PAC is financial. We use our PAC here in a similar fashion.

Thanks again for agreeing to review the letter. I look forward to hearing your feedback.

Michelle,

Thanks for the message. Yes, the Academy asks affiliates to follow the national policy positions and that is part of the article of affiliation. I am happy to review the letter. I wonder however why your affiliate has not considered sending its own letter on this issue as we have an open action alert that we have asked members to send. The affiliate could send a similar letter and we would be happy to assist.

Also, to clarify, ANDPAC is the political action side of things. It does not determine policy -- that is the role of the LPPC. Many organizations have PACs which are used to provide financial support and gain access to members of Congress or candidates. Sometimes it's confusing and people use ANDPAC in place of our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy work and it part of it, but not synonymous!

Let me know if you would like for me to review the letter.

One more question, has your affiliate met with Isakson in his Georgia office? That is considerably more effective!

While I know we are equally opposed to changes in the healthcare law that limits access, I don't want to compete against or sabotage our larger message by engaging in smaller conversations. The affiliate could send a similar letter and we would be happy to assist.

Also, to clarify, ANDPAC is the political action side of things. It does not determine policy -- that is the role of the LPPC. Many organizations have PACs which are used to provide financial support and gain access to members of Congress or candidates. Sometimes it's confusing and people use ANDPAC in place of our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy work and it part of it, but not synonymous!

Let me know if you would like for me to review the letter.

One more question, has your affiliate met with Isakson in his Georgia office? That is considerably more effective!

Our lobbyist (lawyer) has recommended we sign the letter. While I know we are equally opposed to changes in the healthcare law that limits access, I don't want to compete against or sabotage our larger message by engaging in smaller conversations. I hope this makes sense. I just need some clarity on whether I can give the ok to sign on or whether I have to communicate that the Georgia Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics cannot sign on.

Do you want to see if you can get me in to see Betsy Duvos either the day before or the day after when I am there? I would love to also see Sonny Perdue then, but that seems like it is harder to accomplish? If you can let me know what you can work out I will make flight arrangements. I won't be able to get out Tuesday night if the meeting goes until 5:30pm so Wednesday would be able the best date to meet with Betsy Duvos and Sonny if we could arrange it. Share our Strength had also wanted me to do a podcast for them on Hunger when I was in town the next time, so once we figure this out I will reach out to them also. My head is spinning right now! Subject: Invitation: Diet Quality Strategy Session, August 1st

Dear Mary Pat,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET.

Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Feeding America's 2025 Goal: By 2025, Feeding America, in collaboration with our network and our partners, will ensure access to enough nutritious food for people struggling with hunger, and make meaningful progress toward ending hunger.*

Pat, I just got a chance to look at the draft this morning. My initial impression is that I really like it. My first thoughts on it are as follows and may not be accurate. I would like to see a little more verbiage or emphasis on the following areas, but I may be missing something that others might see that I didn't.

1. Making sure we are evidenced based.
 2. More on collaboration across disciplines and with other organizations including global.
 3. Maybe something on promoting our brand.
 4. Also something on developing our members as the leaders in all these areas.
- Just my quick thoughts, but as I said, I might not be seeing these ideas in the plan.

Jeanne, I did not talk to her about the HOD. I talked to her about Public Policy and that we were going to be hiring people for a few positions that were open (not that she should apply) and that down the road her expertise in public policy might prove helpful to the group. Such as serving on a task force working on a legislative issue that is in her interest area. She is bright and capable, but has been disillusioned with a lot that the Academy has been doing in the past around sponsorship. I thought bringing her into the fold might get her back on track.

Hi Jeanne,

I met with Donna Martin on Sunday at Florida's Nutrition Symposium. I shared with her my passion and determination in pushing for policy changes that improve nutritional outcomes.

For the past 10 years, I have been working at the organizational level driving change, but I am now ready to branch out and work with the Academy. I am interested in learning more about becoming involved with the House of Delegates. Donna mentioned that there were a few positions that were going to become vacant. What does the application process look like?

Hi Donna,

It was a pleasure meeting you at Sunday's empowerment breakfast at Florida's symposium.

Thank you for delivering such a motivating talk on how dietitians need to be the transformative power of food and nutrition.

What impacting are we making? What a great question!

As I shared with you after the meeting, I am highly motivated to help create positive change and be an advocate for our profession. There are so many frustrating road blocks to helping individuals reach their fullest health potential. I have made it my mission to do what I can to clear the red tape and work with or around the obstacles, be it politics, policy or the food industry.

As the chief wellness dietitian at Baptist Health South Florida, I developed our food policy and advocate for a healthier food environment and the role of dietitians in the organization. I have been working for the past 10 years at the organizational level, but I am ready to take my efforts to the next level. I would like to get more involved with the Academy in helping push for policy changes and advocacy.

You had mentioned that there are a few positions opening for delegates and told me I should reach out to Jeanne, which I will, thank you for the connection. We also briefly spoke about the recent changes that were done to the sponsorship policy, who is the best contact for that? I am interested in reaching out and learning more about guidelines that were set.

Thank you again for you direction!

To your health,

I'm reaching out to invite you to participate in a Feeding America Strategic Planning Session on Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC.

As part of our work to achieve the outcomes of the organization's 2025 goal*, Feeding America is holding a series of strategy development sessions to gather input from senior network leaders and external partners.

This session, led by the Feeding America community health and nutrition team, will focus on efforts to improve the diet quality of people we serve. The facilitated, day-long session will be held Tuesday, August 1st in Washington, DC. While the agenda and meeting location are being finalized, we are tentatively planning to begin at 8:30am and conclude no later than 5:30pm ET. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

The attendee invitation list has been crafted to represent an array of national experts, including the diversity of the food bank network (i.e., EPGs, geographic regions, approaches to food distribution, nutrition programming, and partnerships). Given your leadership at the Academy and expertise as a nutrition professional, your participation will be very valuable to this discussion. We did, however, recently learn that you will be retiring (congratulations!), so if you are unable to attend, we invite you to share this opportunity with a member of your senior staff.

Please RSVP by email to Jessica Hager, Manager of Community Health and Nutrition, External Partnerships, (jessicahager@feedingamerica.org) by Wednesday, July 19th.

More details will be provided in the coming week, though feel free contact Jessica Hager with questions. We thank you in advance for your consideration of this request. We know that your time is precious, especially during these summer months, and hope you will be able to join us as we create strategies to guide the next phase of improving the lives of individuals experiencing food insecurity.

Sincerely,

Kim

Hi Donna,

Sorry to be so piecemeal, but I just heard from Susan. She plans to join by phone for the DPG plan on Wednesday afternoon. She has a Dr. appointment Thursday morning but will try to pop on the phone for Thursday afternoon's dialogue. On Friday she has PT most of the morning so may not be able to join at all. I also let Pat and Diane Enos know.

Take care!

Hello Donna,

The retreat is right around the corner! I am preparing your talking points and am aiming to send them to you tomorrow. We will have a paper copy of the full packet for you at your seat, along with a paper copy of your talking points.

As a reminder, Steve, Hope and Susan will not be at the meeting – Hope, and possibly Susan, will be calling in. Kevin Concannon has to leave Friday morning for a USDA meeting and Milton will be arriving Thursday morning due to family commitments.

Please let me know if there is anything you need and don't hesitate to text or call me at any time (847-337-3082).

See you soon!

Subject: July 19-21 Board Retreat

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the retreat have begun to be posted on the Board portal. All agenda item attachments for the retreat will be placed on the portal by Friday, July 14; a complete PDF of the attachments will also be provided. Please click here and enter your Academy website username and password to access the agenda and attachments.

The purpose of the retreat is to conduct a Board orientation focused on governance, to approve the Academy's strategic plan, and to network. The agenda for the retreat differs from our regular agenda format, since the purpose of the retreat is primarily focused on developing our strategic direction.

Glenn Tecker will lead us in discussion on governance and strategic thinking. His biographical sketch is attached. To foster collaboration and open dialogue with the Academy's major organization units, we welcome their representatives to the retreat: Coleen Liscano, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Wanda Eastman, chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Linda Snetselaar, Editor of the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; and Marisa Moore, chair of the Nominating Committee. Lisa Dierks, chair of the Ethics Committee Task Force, will join us by phone to present the new Ethics Code and Steven Worth, Senior Consultant at Worth Consulting, will present the Global Business Development Strategy report.

A schedule of our networking activities follows.

On Wednesday, July 19, you have the option to visit Contemporary Austin – Jones Center before we go to dinner. This urban art museum reflects a spectrum of contemporary art through exhibitions, commissions, education, and collections. To participate in the museum visit, please meet in the lobby of the Driskill hotel between 5:30pm-6:00pm to walk in groups to the museum, located across the street. At 7:00pm we have dinner reservations at Café Blue (thanks, Jo Jo, for the recommendation!), located at 340 East 2nd Street, about a 10 minute walk from our hotel. Please meet back at the Driskill hotel at 6:45pm to walk as a group to the restaurant.

On Thursday, July 20, you have the option to visit the retail shops of your liking in the 2nd Street District of Austin. The shops are all a comfortable walking distance from the hotel; a map and list of shops will be provided. Please meet in the lobby of the hotel at 5:30pm to walk over to 2nd Street, just a half mile away. Afterwards the group will meet at Malverde restaurant for dinner at 7:00pm, located at 400b West 2nd Street, in the heart of the 2nd Street shopping district. Malverde is an award-winning modern Mexican restaurant, helmed by Executive Chef Rick Lopez.

The attire for the meeting is casual. The temperature this time of year in Austin will be in the middle nineties during the day and upper seventies in the evening.

See you soon!

Do you provide outpatient nutrition services to patients with multiple chronic conditions related to obesity? The Academy is applying for a research grant to explore RDN integration (via referral and/or co-location) in primary care for this population and needs to know how many RDNs might be interested in participating in this project.

If you provide outpatient nutrition services and are interested in learning more, please take this short 3 minute survey to tell us a little about your practice, experience and interest. You are not making a formal commitment to the project. We will contact respondents in September with more information and to determine if you might be a good project fit.

TAKE SURVEY

Please complete the survey by July 24. If you experience any problems with the survey, please contact Marsha Schofield, MS, RD, LD, FAND, Senior Director of Governance and Nutrition Services Coverage, at mschofield@eatright.org.

All,

We are fast approaching our first Finance and Audit Committee meeting for the year. You should be receiving the webinar invitation from the Academy IT department within the next couple of days. There has been a request to change the start of this meeting to 1:30 CDT. Please note the change in your calendars. The meeting should not take more than 1.5 hrs (hopefully, not that long).

So, please make sure you mark your calendars for the Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, July 25th at 1:30 CDT. I will also send out a calendar invitation.

If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Good Afternoon Dr. Martin,

I am writing to thank you for the message you posted on the "President's Page" of the July 2017 Journal. I am a Registered Dietitian working for the Department of Defense/Department of the Army at Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland. I very much appreciated your mention of RDN's working with our service members, retirees and their family members. I have been a dietitian for 19 years now and have been with the Army for almost 5. This has been the most rewarding job of my career. I am so very fortunate to help the people that do so much for our country. Thank you again for mentioning this very important aspect of the field of dietetics!

Senate Hearing Showcases Senior Nutrition and Role of Registered Dietitian Nutritionists

Yesterday, the Senate’s Special Committee on Aging held a hearing on “Nourishing our Golden Years: How Proper and Adequate Nutrition Promotes Health Aging and Positive Outcomes.” The Academy met with the committee staff in advance of the hearing to share resources and information about senior nutrition and current initiatives. During the hearing, testimonies were given from medical professionals, public health personnel, and a woman who receives senior nutrition benefits in addition to Medicaid. The panel highlighted how senior nutrition services, in both the clinical setting and the community setting, help reverse malnourished seniors in the short-term, but have long-term affects by keeping health care costs down. The panel and committee members, including Connie Bales, PhD RD, stressed the importance of reimbursement for nutrition services provided by registered dietitians to offset healthcare costs that result without such services. Learn more about how nutrition services do not allow seniors to “suffer in silence” as put by Senator Casey, rather aid seniors and all Americans here. The hearing and written testimony are available here.

Public Policy Workshop – Hill Visit Reports and Evaluation Reminder!

Hill Visit Reports

If you haven't filled out your reports, remember we need to hear about your meetings with members of Congress! This information is important to the Academy's advocacy work in Washington, D.C. Guidance for completing the Hill Visits Report:

1. Affiliate PPC or alternate are asked to make sure that reports on all meetings on Capitol Hill are submitted. Use the notes from your visits to enter the information for the report.
1. If several people attended a meeting, only one team member needs to complete the report on that meeting.
1. The survey is set to allow reporting on more than one meeting. For instance, if you met with both Senators and 1 Representative, you will be prompted to complete the information for each meeting.
1. The survey will allow you to access the survey more than one time if needed.
1. If teams dropped off packets but did not meet with the Congress member or staff, report the information in the additional comments question at the end of the report. Be sure to enter the name of the staff member with whom you left the packet in the “met with” question.

It is important that we hear about your work with the 535 members of Congress! If you have any questions, please let us know.

PPW Meeting Evaluation

In an effort to learn and build on the success of this event, please complete the evaluation survey . Your input will help shape our future public policy workshops.

Action Alert Participation for Affiliates and DPG/MIGs

Many PPCs and PALs have requested current action alert participation numbers. We anticipate having the information available to you in the near future. We appreciate your patience during our staff transitions!

Academy Opposes Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act of 2017

The Senate continues to deliberate over its version of health care and has delayed its August recess by two weeks in hopes of reaching consensus. There is still time to take action to tell Congress that health care must include platforms that support prevention and well-being and access to care.

On June 27, the Academy voiced opposition to the Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act. In a letter to the Senate Majority and Senate Minority leaders, registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy President Donna Martin said that the bill as written fails to meet the Academy's five tenets of health care; therefore the Academy strongly opposes passage of the current version of the bill in the Senate. The Academy urges the Senate to work in a bipartisan manner to draft common-sense reforms that would improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Americans, and

Keep Up the Call to Protect Vital Nutrition Services in Congress

On July 6, 14 members of the Senate HELP Committee sent out a Dear Colleague letter, along with state fact sheets in support of the Prevention Fund and how its investments are being used to improve health. The Academy continues to encourage Congress to work in a bipartisan manner to invest in vital nutrition services for prevention and treatment, including those funded by the Prevention Fund. Take action today to connect with your Members of Congress or learn more.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow

Thanks to the continued outreach of Academy members, support for S. Res 75/H. Res. 161, the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial, has 21 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 6 cosponsors in the Senate as of the end of last week. Congressional champions in the House and Senate greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org.

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 Gains New Sponsors

As a result of Academy members communicating with members of Congress and the efforts of members meetings with congressional offices at the Public Policy Workshop, support for the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 has added 28 new cosponsors in the House of Representatives since June 1, 2017! Congressional champions in both chambers greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them. We currently do not have an action alert open for TROA and apologize for the error in Eat Right Weekly this week. We plan to open an action alert in conjunction with the one for prediabetes (information follows in the next topic) in the near future. PPCs and PALs will receive instruction and messaging for sharing the action alerts with affiliates and DPG/MIGs.

Academy Diabetes Priorities Gain Bipartisan Support with House Bill

The Academy is pleased to announce that on June 29, U.S. Reps. Diana DeGette (Colo.) and Lynn Jenkins (W.Va.) introduced the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124) in the House of Representatives. This will be a companion bill to the Senate version of the bill (S. 1299), introduced by Senators Peters and Capito. Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the bill had 15 original cosponsors; stay tuned for an action alert next week to continue to build support for access to nutrition services provided by RDNs.

Academy Lays Groundwork to Facilitate Licensed Practice across State Lines

The Academy is beginning a strategic review of the practicability and implications of pursuing enactment of a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist Compact that would enable RDNs and other qualified licensed dietitians to practice in multiple states under a single license. Several other health professions, including physicians and nurses, have chosen to move in this direction, but dietitian nutritionists face unique issues in developing a compact owing to the lack of uniformity of state licensure laws. We hope to have this initial groundwork complete by the end of the calendar year, and will be engaging all Academy units as the process continues. Watch for future updates in Eatright Weekly, or contact the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at mrifkin@eatright.org or ptuma@eatright.org.

PALs and PPCs -- Please share this information on your electronic mailing list if you see questions from members about telehealth and licensure.

Join Food Safety Experts for Knowledge Exchange on July 25

Clostridium perfringens is one of the most common foodborne pathogens in the United States. The CDC estimates it causes nearly one million cases of foodborne illness each year. Join Academy partners in the Partnership for Food Safety Education for a Knowledge Exchange on July 25 at 1pm EST, which will include an interview with public health investigators from Contra Costa County, California, followed by an open Q&A session. Knowledge Exchanges are just 30 minutes long - and a great "lunch break" learning activity. Please submit your questions in advance to info@fightbac.org.

Impacting Older Adult Malnutrition through State and Local Policy

Ohio, Massachusetts, and Virginia have already taken legislative action on older adult malnutrition policy, and advocates in states such as Florida are working on actions of their own. Learn how to take the fight against older adult malnutrition to the state and local level on July 27th at 1 p.m. Eastern Time in a webinar hosted by the Defeat Malnutrition Today coalition and the Academy. Hear from state and local leaders who are working to implement malnutrition policy and find out how you can make a difference in your community through state advocacy, coalition-building, and more! Register Now!

Register Today for Webinar Addressing Disaster SNAP!

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled: “Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

FRAC is also offering a series of webinars related to child nutrition policy. Click on the links below to join these events.

Breakfast Matters

Engaging Educators in Breakfast After the Bell July 13, 2017 - 3:00 PM Eastern Time
Educators are key to implementing successful breakfast after the bell programs. Join this webinar to learn how you can engage teachers, principals, and administrators to create effective and sustainable programs, such as breakfast in the classroom, “grab and go,” and second chance. Resources will also be shared to help ensure your school’s transition to a breakfast after the bell program is smooth and successful.

Afterschool Meals Matter

Innovative Afterschool Partnerships
July 20, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time. School is around the corner and it is an excellent time to reach out to potential partners who can assist you in building a stronger Afterschool Meal Program. Libraries are moving from serving summer meals to also participating in the Afterschool Meal Program. Mayors are running city-wide efforts to increase participation in Afterschool Meals and there are opportunities to partner with groups that are offering innovative afterschool programming. Join this call to learn more about the innovative partnerships that are happening across the country.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children’s Health

The Academy’s next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children’s health issues with one of the Academy’s national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Academy Opposes Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act of 2017

The Senate continues to deliberate over its version of health care and has delayed its August recess by two weeks in hopes of reaching consensus. There is still time to take action to tell Congress that health care must include platforms that support prevention and well-being and access to care.

On June 27, the Academy voiced opposition to the Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act. In a letter to the Senate Majority and Senate Minority leaders, registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy President Donna Martin said that the bill as written fails to meet the Academy's five tenets of health care; therefore the Academy strongly opposes passage of the current version of the bill in the Senate. The Academy urges the Senate to work in a bipartisan manner to draft common-sense reforms that would improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Americans, and

On July 6, 14 members of the Senate HELP Committee sent out a Dear Colleague letter, along with state fact sheets in support of the Prevention Fund and how its investments are being used to improve health. The Academy continues to encourage Congress to work in a bipartisan manner to invest in vital nutrition services for prevention and treatment, including those funded by the Prevention Fund. Take action today to connect with your Members of Congress or learn more.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow

Thanks to the continued outreach of Academy members, support for S. Res 75/H. Res. 161, the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial, has 21 cosponsors in the House of Representatives and 6 cosponsors in the Senate as of the end of last week. Congressional champions in the House and Senate greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at swinston@eatright.org.

Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 Gains New Sponsors

As a result of Academy members communicating with members of Congress and the efforts of members meetings with congressional offices at the Public Policy Workshop, support for the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 has added 28 new cosponsors in the House of Representatives since June 1, 2017! Congressional champions in both chambers greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them. We currently do not have an action alert open for TROA and apologize for the error in Eat Right Weekly this week. We plan to open an action alert in conjunction with the one for prediabetes (information follows in the next topic) in the near future. PPCs and PALs will receive instruction and messaging for sharing the action alerts with affiliates and DPG/MIGs.

Academy Diabetes Priorities Gain Bipartisan Support with House Bill

The Academy is pleased to announce that on June 29, U.S. Reps. Diana DeGette (Colo.) and Lynn Jenkins (W.Va.) introduced the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124) in the House of Representatives. This will be a companion bill to the Senate version of the bill (S. 1299), introduced by Senators Peters and Capito. Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the bill had 15 original cosponsors; stay tuned for an action alert next week to continue to build support for access to nutrition services provided by RDNs.

Academy Lays Groundwork to Facilitate Licensed Practice across State Lines

The Academy is beginning a strategic review of the practicability and implications of pursuing enactment of a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist Compact that would enable RDNs and other qualified licensed dietitians to practice in multiple states under a single license. Several other health professions, including physicians and nurses, have chosen to move in this direction, but dietitian nutritionists face unique issues in developing a compact owing to the lack of uniformity of state licensure laws. We hope to have this initial groundwork complete by the end of the calendar year, and will be engaging all Academy units as the process continues. Watch for future updates in Eatright Weekly, or contact the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team at mrifkin@eatright.org or ptuma@eatright.org.

Register Today for Webinar Addressing Disaster SNAP!

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled: “Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

FRAC is also offering a series of webinars related to child nutrition policy. Click on the links below to join these events.

Breakfast Matters

Engaging Educators in Breakfast After the Bell July 13, 2017 - 3:00 PM Eastern Time
Educators are key to implementing successful breakfast after the bell programs. Join this webinar to learn how you can engage teachers, principals, and administrators to create effective and sustainable programs, such as breakfast in the classroom, “grab and go,” and second chance. Resources will also be shared to help ensure your school’s transition to a breakfast after the bell program is smooth and successful.

Afterschool Meals Matter

Innovative Afterschool Partnerships
July 20, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time. School is around the corner and it is an excellent time to reach out to potential partners who can assist you in building a stronger Afterschool Meal Program. Libraries are moving from serving summer meals to also participating in the Afterschool Meal Program. Mayors are running city-wide efforts to increase participation in Afterschool Meals and there are opportunities to partner with groups that are offering innovative afterschool programming. Join this call to learn more about the innovative partnerships that are happening across the country.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children’s Health

The Academy’s next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children’s health issues with one of the Academy’s national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Senate Hearing Showcases Senior Nutrition and Role of Registered Dietitian Nutritionists

Yesterday, the Senate’s Special Committee on Aging held a hearing on “Nourishing our Golden Years: How Proper and Adequate Nutrition Promotes Health Aging and Positive Outcomes.” The Academy met with the committee staff in advance of the hearing to share resources and information about senior nutrition and current initiatives. During the hearing, testimonies were given from medical professionals, public health personnel, and a woman who receives senior nutrition benefits in addition to Medicaid. The panel highlighted how senior nutrition services, in both the clinical setting and the community setting, help reverse malnourished seniors in the short-term, but have long-term affects by keeping health care costs down. The panel and committee members, including Connie Bales, PhD RD, stressed the importance of reimbursement for nutrition services provided by registered dietitians to offset healthcare costs that result without such services. Learn more about how nutrition services do not allow seniors to “suffer in silence” as put by Senator Casey, rather aid seniors and all Americans here. The hearing and written testimony are available here.

PHCNPG Weekly Update: July 9, 2017

Proposed Maternal and Child Health Action Plan: Request for Comments

The Title V Maternal and Child Health (MCH) Block Grant to States program is a formula grant under which funds are awarded to 59 states and jurisdictions to address health services within a state for the target population of mothers, infants and children.

The updates proposed by HRSA's Maternal and Child Health Bureau (MCHB) for this edition of the guidance are intended to reinforce the role of the state in developing a Title V Maternal and Child Health (MCH) Action Plan that addresses its priority needs. This particular proposal involves assessment of the burden, quality, utility and clarity of a survey to define states' development of maternal and child health program activities, leadership efforts and action plans.

HRSA specifically requests comments regarding:

1. The necessity and utility of the proposed information collection for the proper performance of the agency's functions
2. The accuracy of the estimated burden
3. Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected
4. The use of automated collection techniques to minimize the information collection burden

For more information, please visit the Federal Registrar posting here. More information can also be found in the MCH Block Grant Updated Draft or the Updated Appendix.

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

Last week at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Support ANDPAC, Support the Profession

Health related legislation/regulations will impact public health and your lives as an RDN!

In this video, which is the third of a four-part series, listen to Academy President, Donna Martin, and President Elect Lucille Beseler, explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC.

ANDPAC is the only PAC that represents the Academy's food, nutrition, and health professionals. Stay informed on the Academy's legislative priorities and see what others have to say about the importance of supporting ANDPAC by donating to ANDPAC today. Please consider joining the "high five" club - a $5 donation to ANDPAC each month.

NEW! Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Keep Up the Call in Congress: Protect Vital Nutrition Services

Members of the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee sent a letter and fact sheets to their Senate colleagues in support of the Prevention Fund, detailing how the fund's investments are efficiently and effectively improving health in the states. The Academy continues to encourage Congress to work in a bipartisan manner to invest in vital nutrition services for prevention and treatment, including those funded by the Prevention Fund. Take action today to connect with your members of Congress.

Academy Laying Groundwork for Strategies to Facilitate Licensed Practice Across State Lines

The Academy is beginning a strategic review of the practicability and implications of pursuing enactment of a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist Compact that would enable RDNs and other qualified licensed dietitians to practice in multiple states under a single license. Several other health professions, including physicians and nurses, have chosen to move in this direction, but RDNs face unique issues in developing a compact due to the lack of uniformity of state licensure laws. The Academy hopes to complete initial groundwork by the end of 2017 and will engage all Academy units as the process continues. More information will be provided as it becomes available, or contact the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team: mrifkin@eatright.org or ptuma@eatright.org.

Congressional Support Keeps Growing for Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017

Thanks to the continued outreach of Academy members and the efforts of members meeting with congressional offices at the Public Policy Workshop, support for the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act of 2017 has added 28 new cosponsors in the House of Representatives since June 1.

Congressional champions in both chambers greatly appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to cosponsor the bill.

Dear Joan

Thank you very much for your answer.

We want to invite Donna as president of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics for a plenary lecture on Friday, October 13 in Mexico City.

It is our first Mexican College of Nutrition International Congress.

The subject we want for the lecture is about the nutrition programs in the schools that she coordinates or a subject that she proposes.

We are agree to covered all the expenses.

Thank you.

Best regards.

Edna.

Pat, colleagues,

Here are the responses to your questions. Please let us know if you need any additional information.

· Is the literature review intended to be a scoping exercise and could the Academy's EAL librarians/consultants assist with this? If so, some funding would need to go to that ie (1K)—or is this one way the fellow contributes by conducting a literature review and scoping document?

Yes. The literature review will be a scoping exercise that will include the context of undernutrition in Central America and the problem analysis (i.e., major causes, social, financial, agricultural, economic, environmental and other dimensions). The plan discussed with Alison is that the AND fellow will participate fully in this work.

· How will the membership list be identified?

We have identified a list of the most relevant and authoritative agencies and NGOs (i.e. USAID, WFP, WHO, UNICEF, FAO, OXFAM, Save the Children, World Vision). However, we are going to start identifying the different organizations addressing malnutrition issues in Central America by using Google searches. We are going to use search combinations of the word "organization," a food issue category term (i.e. malnutrition, stunting, maternal health, breast-feeding, water safety and sanitation), and a geographic identifier.

· Will there be an IRB for the phone interviews?

We can create a taskforce or delegate to one or two people from the steering committee (e.g., Alison from AND) the task of reviewing and approving the questionnaire and script to be used for the phone interviews.

- Has thought been given to using previously validated questions and/development of a script to use for these interviews?

Yes. During the study design phase, a questionnaire, script and e-mail invitation template for interviews will be developed. These materials will be reviewed and approved before starting using them.

- What is the role of the Co-Principal Investigator?

AND Fellow will work alongside Estuardo in the data-gathering, content analysis, and engagement with policymakers and implementing agencies.

- What is the funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator?

There is no separate funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator; the time/travel and other expenses of the AND fellow will have to be financed within the $75K envelope. We would appreciate your guidance on how to best do this.

- Will there be a quarterly update to the Academy's Foundation on progress made?

Yes. We have planned quarterly updates. This will be part of the communication plan and RACI matrix Estuardo will work on once the project is approved.

Best wishes,

Indermit

Dear Indermit,

It was a pleasure meeting you and Livleen. I have copied Donna Martin on this email, so you now have her contact information going forward. Thank you for addressing the feedback provided by Alison, and the points raised during our conversation in the revised proposal. We do understand the time constraints that come with university scheduling, but we have a few remaining questions which follow below.

- Is the literature review intended to be a scoping exercise and could the Academy's EAL librarians/consultants assist with this? If so, some funding would need to go to that ie (1K)—or is this one way the fellow contributes by conducting a literature review and scoping document?
- How will the membership list be identified?
- Will there be an IRB for the phone interviews?
- Has thought been given to using previously validated questions and/development of a script to use for these interviews?
- What is the role of the Co-Principal Investigator?
- What is the funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator?
- Will there be a quarterly update to the Academy's Foundation on progress made?

Again, the Academy is very interested in the topic of malnutrition and looks forward to the potential for collaboration in addressing this issue. Thank you!

Dear Lucille and Pat,

Please find attached a revised proposal. This reflects inputs from Alison, and the points raised during our conversation in DC last weekend.

I would have liked the work on this to have begun in June because (summers are the best time for serious work at universities), but I completely understand why we might not be able to begin right away. We've pushed the proposed start date to August 1, but I've asked Estuardo to keep the delivery dates the same as before. We can change this to cover a full calendar year if that is administratively more convenient.

Please let me know if you need more information before the AND Foundation can consider this proposal.

Warmest wishes,

Indermit

Tom, thanks for giving me the opportunity to review these letters. One suggestion I have is to include the eatrightPREP™ RDN exam study platform as part of the thank you letter to the faculty.

I think they might really appreciate the fact their students might have a better chance of passing the exam if they do the exam study. The only other suggestion I have is the part in the second letter where you say that more students join while they are students than after. The after part seems a little negative or awkward? Not sure how to fix that last part of the sentence, but it just seemed funny to me. Take or leave all suggestions.

Hello Donna,

I have been working with the Florida Department of Citrus (FDOC) on nutrition communications, alongside Shelley Rossetter, Public Relations Manager, and Sam Lane, Director of Global Marketing. FDOC is an executive agency charged with the marketing, research and regulation of the Florida citrus industry.

FDOC is interested in hearing about future opportunities for collaboration with the Academy and is also hoping to spread awareness on issues facing the Florida citrus industry. Being that you are president of AND, I was hoping to arrange an opportunity for Shelley, Sam, and one of my colleagues (Michael DeAngelis, cc-ed here) to meet with you at the upcoming Florida Food & Nutrition Symposium. We see that you are speaking on the agenda, and since we'll be in attendance, we thought it might be the perfect chance for all of us to be in the same place, making it convenient to grab coffee or meet up.

If you're interested, please let us know your availability for a 30 to 60-minute meet-up. Suggested times are below, but we can work to find others if these do not work. We would be pleased to have this discussion with you given your areas of expertise.

- Monday, July 17

NE in a NutShell - Are You Ready for FNCE®? Monthly E-blast to the Amazing Members of NE

View this email in your browser

Message from the Chair

FNCE[®] may seem far away, but before you know it you'll be on a flight to Chicago. The Academy is celebrating its 100th Birthday, and NE is also celebrating 40 years, so if you're having second thoughts about going, don't! We are busy planning our NE events, and would love to see a record number of NE members in Chicago, so do join us this year!

If you're looking for some sponsorship for the CEUs, consider asking your employer. And remember, as a business owner, you can deduct your FNCE[®] expenses come tax time. Students - check out the Academy's Stipend Program.

As always, NEDPG is planning lots of fun events. We'll have both a sponsored breakfast and a lunch session this year, as well as our fabulous Networking Event. This is a grand opportunity to meet up with colleagues, and meet those who you admire.

Opening session begins at 4:00pm with Dr Sanjay Gupta. On Monday, you can hear from Kimball Musk (NE's Maye Musk's son, and yes, Elon's brother) who will speak about the future of food. Closing session features Dr. Michio Kaku, who will take us on a grand tour of what the future might hold, explaining how the brain functions and how technologies will change our daily lives.

It's all worth the trip as both NEDPG and the Academy have special events planned for 2017:

Saturday: The Academy will be hosting a special Centennial Celebration from 6:00-7:30 pm, right after opening session - everyone's invited! Enjoy a cocktail and light hors d'oeuvres as you mingle with attendees and exhibitors! You'll also be able to track down your favorite DPGs and friends during the event at a specially marked location in the Expo hall.

Sunday: Join NEDPG for our annual Networking Event on Sunday evening this year. Check the website for more information soon.

Monday: NEDPG will be in the Expo Hall in DPG Showcase, celebrating our 40th birthday and giving away fun prizes.

Don't miss the Academy Foundation Gala: First Party of the Second Century[®] on Monday night at 8:00 pm CT at the Crystal Garden at Navy Pier. This year's format is new with food stations replacing a sit-down dinner, along with live entertainment and dancing. Tickets are priced at $100 with all proceeds going toward the Academy Foundation Eatright Fund for programs that address areas of greatest immediate and emerging needs.

We hope to see you in Chicago!

Don't miss this week's Twitter Chat Wednesday, July 12th at 8:00pm ET. Our topic is something everyone can benefit from - CREATIVE CONTENT: STAYING PASSIONATE AND ENERGIZED TO PRODUCE YOUR BEST WORK AND ELEVATE YOUR BUSINESS. Follow the chat on Twitter by checking the hashtag #NEDPG.

As always, please check in with us. We want your feedback. We also need your help identifying new members. If you speak with a friend or colleague who could benefit from NEDPG, invite them to join by emailing them the link. Thank you and enjoy sunny July!

Tom, thanks for giving me the opportunity to review these letters. One suggestion I have is to include the eatrightPREP™ RDN exam study platform as part of the thank you letter to the faculty. I think they might really appreciate the fact their students might have a better chance of passing the exam if they do the exam study. The only other suggestion I have is the part in the second letter where you say that more students join while they are students than after. The after part seems a little negative or awkward? Not sure how to fix that last part of the sentence, but it just seemed funny to me. Take or leave all suggestions.

Kevin:

Thank you for sharing the very interesting HBR article. The topics align with much of the work recently undertaken by the Academy's Headquarters Team, particularly in the current environment. The article's discussion of "reigniting growth" made me think of our wide-ranging, forward-looking revised mission, vision, principles and our upcoming strategic planning session in July.

This multifaceted work is paying off and reigniting membership growth. Though FY17 evidenced a slight decrease in total membership related to the ACEND program shrinkage, the Retired category membership grew 22.1 percent. Although ACEND student enrollment decreased by 1,981, the Academy continues to maintain an impressive 85 percent market share of student members.

Additionally, dues revenue for FY17 ended ahead of budget based upon the membership category mix. Though it is still early in the 2017-2018 membership year, the Academy is now ahead year-to-date in total membership in the Active member category, specifically those in their first through fifth years. Student, Retired and International membership numbers are ahead year-to-date as well. We will know on September 1 whether these early numbers continue to hold.

For a number of years, we have foreseen a "perfect storm" of membership stagnation, as Baby Boomers retire and Millennials, known to be "non-joiners" and more financially challenged, are less likely to join professional organizations. Meanwhile, we have seen shrinkage in ACEND program participation in the past two academy years, plus anecdotal reports of some educators who actively discourage their students from Academy membership.

Since membership recruitment and retention efforts and outcomes are areas you may be asked about, below is some information on our ongoing efforts to retain and grow the Academy's membership. The Membership Team works hand-in-hand with all Academy departments to increase membership. Just a few of those efforts are outlined below.

- The Academy uses many communication channels to reach out to non-members through large-, medium- and small-scale recruit campaigns. During the first six months of the 2016-2017 membership year, we sent more than 236,000 pieces of communication, including mailings, emails, social media and telemarketing.

- We focus on students because they are integral to the future success of the organization. Student outreach takes many forms –the Student Liaison program and FNCE Student Track, to name just two.

- The Academy accesses quantitative data to highlight and promote the most valued member benefits, while also highlighting new programs.
- We micro-target non-members who have made a publications purchase or previously belonged to a DPG/MIG; these people receive communications that relate their interest to Academy member benefits.
- We micro-targets unique value propositions and benefits related to specific membership categories. For example, students without a credential are not likely to be interested in CPE, so they would not receive recruitment emails that highlight the free or discounted CPE members receive.
- Last fall, the Academy increased targeted telemarketing efforts and added more than 500 members, generating more than $66,000 in dues revenue.

- We revised the Associate membership category qualifications and grassroots initiatives to encourage practitioners who support the food, nutrition and dietetics field but are not RDNs/NDTRs to join the Academy. Many of these individuals do not realize that they can qualify for membership.

I hope you will agree that, even without the revenue streams enjoyed by for-profits, the Academy is continually working to reignite membership growth through well-orchestrated initiatives.

Best regards,

Pat

They will be sent to educators in ACEND programs, as well as a select group of advanced degree program educators to encourage their students to join the Academy:

- Letter to ACEND educators with information on the Fall Educator's Mailing
- Letter to a small group of Advanced Degree program educators with information on the Fall Educator's Mailing
- Thank you Letter to all educators who participate in the Fall Educator's Mailing

Could you please let us know if these letters look OK to you, or if you would like us to make any edits? Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Hello Donna,

I have been working with the Florida Department of Citrus (FDOC) on nutrition communications, alongside Shelley Rossetter, Public Relations Manager, and Sam Lane, Director of Global Marketing. FDOC is an executive agency charged with the marketing, research and regulation of the Florida citrus industry.

FDOC is interested in hearing about future opportunities for collaboration with the Academy and is also hoping to spread awareness on issues facing the Florida citrus industry. Being that you are president of AND, I was hoping to arrange an opportunity for Shelley, Sam, and one of my colleagues (Michael DeAngelis, cc-ed here) to meet with you at the upcoming Florida Food & Nutrition Symposium. We see that you are speaking on the agenda, and since we'll be in attendance, we thought it might be the perfect chance for all of us to be in the same place, making it convenient to grab coffee or meet up.

If you're interested, please let us know your availability for a 30 to 60-minute meet-up. Suggested times are below, but we can work to find others if these do not work. We would be pleased to have this discussion with you given your areas of expertise.

- Monday, July 17
 - o afternoon between 1:30 and 6 p.m.
- Tuesday, July 18
 - o morning before 9:30 a.m.

Thank you for your consideration in arranging the meeting.

Best,

Pat, I am so pleased to see all the efforts the Academy is putting forth to recruit and retain members. Please make sure you thank our membership team headed by Barbara Visocan for all her efforts to make sure the perfect storm is not what we experience with our membership. The preliminary numbers are encouraging and I think all our efforts on multiple fronts are contributing to our success. Kudos to you and your team. Can't wait to do our strategic planning in Austin.

Thank you for sharing the very interesting HBR article. The topics align with much of the work recently undertaken by the Academy's Headquarters Team, particularly in the current environment. The article's discussion of "reigniting growth" made me think of our wide-ranging, forward-looking revised mission, vision, principles and our upcoming strategic planning session in July.

This multifaceted work is paying off and reigniting membership growth. Though FY17 evidenced a slight decrease in total membership related to the ACEND program shrinkage, the Retired category membership grew 22.1 percent. Although ACEND student enrollment decreased by 1,981, the Academy continues to maintain an impressive 85 percent market share of student members.

Additionally, dues revenue for FY17 ended ahead of budget based upon the membership category mix. Though it is still early in the 2017-2018 membership year, the Academy is now ahead year-to-date in total membership in the Active member category, specifically those in their first through fifth years. Student, Retired and International membership numbers are ahead year-to-date as well. We will know on September 1 whether these early numbers continue to hold.

For a number of years, we have foreseen a “perfect storm” of membership stagnation, as Baby Boomers retire and Millennials, known to be “non-joiners” and more financially challenged, are less likely to join professional organizations. Meanwhile, we have seen shrinkage in ACEND program participation in the past two academy years, plus anecdotal reports of some educators who actively discourage their students from Academy membership.

Since membership recruitment and retention efforts and outcomes are areas you may be asked about, below is some information on our ongoing efforts to retain and grow the Academy’s membership. The Membership Team works hand-in-hand with all Academy departments to increase membership. Just a few of those efforts are outlined below.

- The Academy uses many communication channels to reach out to non-members through large-, medium- and small-scale recruit campaigns. During the first six months of the 2016-2017 membership year, we sent more than 236,000 pieces of communication, including mailings, emails, social media and telemarketing.
- We focus on students because they are integral to the future success of the organization. Student outreach takes many forms –the Student Liaison program and FNCE Student Track, to name just two.
- The Academy accesses quantitative data to highlight and promote the most valued member benefits, while also highlighting new programs.
- We micro-target non-members who have made a publications purchase or previously belonged to a DPG/MIG; these people receive communications that relate their interest to Academy member benefits.
- We micro-targets unique value propositions and benefits related to specific membership categories. For example, students without a credential are not likely to be interested in CPE, so they would not receive recruitment emails that highlight the free or discounted CPE members receive.

- Last fall, the Academy increased targeted telemarketing efforts and added more than 500 members, generating more than $66,000 in dues revenue.
- We revised the Associate membership category qualifications and grassroots initiatives to encourage practitioners who support the food, nutrition and dietetics field but are not RDNs/NDTRs to join the Academy. Many of these individuals do not realize that they can qualify for membership.

I hope you will agree that, even without the revenue streams enjoyed by for-profits, the Academy is continually working to reignite membership growth through well-orchestrated initiatives.

Pat

Dear Pat

Thank you for this wonderful update on the Academy efforts through the visionary plan to build membership while actively engaging members. Our recruitment of new younger members that are not joiners is an achievement. I am so happy to know that we continue to excel while other associations are really struggling with membership. Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the July Standards Update is posted on the ACEND Monthly Standards webpage. Monthly Standards Update In this issue the similarities and differences between the 2017 and Future Education Model Accreditation Standards are noted, as well as new questions related to both sets of standards and the demonstration programs.

The Future Education Model Accreditation Standards for Associate, Bachelor's and Graduate Degree Programs were released on June 19, 2017. ACEND invites programs interested in being accredited under these standards to apply to be an early adopter demonstration program. The Standards and information about the demonstration program application process can be found at: www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Beginning on July 13, 2017, the monthly Virtual Town Hall meetings will be held on the second Thursday of the month at 1 PM Central Time. The ACEND Standards Committee periodically changes the time that the Town Hall is held, so that people who were not able to attend in the past due to scheduling conflicts may be able to join us now.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

Dr. Mir,

It is always a pleasure to hear from you and we anticipate receiving the student membership applications each year.

We are happy to learn that you are planning to attend FNCE in Chicago this October with your students. We wish you and the University of Puerto Rico students the best of luck in the 2017 School Spirit Contest and will consider your email as your intent to participate. The winning school will have the opportunity to meet with Donna Martin, Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics President for 2017-2018 and the Academy Board of Directors at FNCE in Chicago.

However, regardless of the contest outcome, it may be possible for you to meet very briefly with the current President, Donna Martin, and Academy CEO, Pat Babjak while at FNCE. This will need to be coordinated closer to FNCE once schedules are determined. I will reach out to you the week of October 1st.

Thank you for your continued support of your students and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

My name is Dr. Celia Mir RDN, LND and I'm a professor at the University of Puerto Rico. I am also the Advisor of our student organization called Círculo de Nutrición y Dietética. Continuously, since 1992, I've organized a group of students to attend the ADA (now AND) Annual Convention. Our university has a Didactic Program in Dietetics that lasts an average of 6 years with 150 total students (25 new students per year). Of these students 60 are enrolled in the second, third and fourth year which are the ones that are in the student organization affiliated to AND. At this moment, (July 10, 2017) forty seven (47) students have confirmed that they will be attending this year Chicago FNCE (2017 Convention). This represents that 78% of our students will be with us in Chicago. It would be an honor for our students to meet and greet Dr. Evelyn Crayton, President of AND and other members of our Board if we get to be selected for this recognition.

Hello Donna,

I have been working with the Florida Department of Citrus (FDOC) on nutrition communications, alongside Shelley Rossetter, Public Relations Manager, and Sam Lane, Director of Global Marketing. FDOC is an executive agency charged with the marketing, research and regulation of the Florida citrus industry.

FDOC is interested in hearing about future opportunities for collaboration with the Academy and is also hoping to spread awareness on issues facing the Florida citrus industry. Being that you are president of AND, I was hoping to arrange an opportunity for Shelley, Sam, and one of my colleagues (Michael DeAngelis, cc-ed here) to meet with you at the upcoming Florida Food & Nutrition Symposium. We see that you are speaking on the agenda, and since we'll be in attendance, we thought it might be the perfect chance for all of us to be in the same place, making it convenient to grab coffee or meet up.

If you're interested, please let us know your availability for a 30 to 60-minute meet-up. Suggested times are below, but we can work to find others if these do not work. We would be pleased to have this discussion with you given your areas of expertise.

- Monday, July 17
 - o afternoon between 1:30 and 6 p.m.
- Tuesday, July 18
 - o morning before 9:30 a.m.

Thank you for your consideration in arranging the meeting.

Kevin:

Thank you for sharing the very interesting HBR article. The topics align with much of the work recently undertaken by the Academy's Headquarters Team, particularly in the current environment. The article's discussion of "reigniting growth" made me think of our wide-ranging, forward-looking revised mission, vision, principles and our upcoming strategic planning session in July.

This multifaceted work is paying off and reigniting membership growth. Though FY17 evidenced a slight decrease in total membership related to the ACEND program shrinkage, the Retired category membership grew 22.1 percent. Although ACEND student enrollment decreased by 1,981, the Academy continues to maintain an impressive 85 percent market share of student members.

Additionally, dues revenue for FY17 ended ahead of budget based upon the membership category mix. Though it is still early in the 2017-2018 membership year, the Academy is now ahead year-to-date in total membership in the Active member category, specifically those in their first through fifth years. Student, Retired and International membership numbers are ahead year-to-date as well. We will know on September 1 whether these early numbers continue to hold.

For a number of years, we have foreseen a “perfect storm” of membership stagnation, as Baby Boomers retire and Millennials, known to be “non-joiners” and more financially challenged, are less likely to join professional organizations. Meanwhile, we have seen shrinkage in ACEND program participation in the past two academy years, plus anecdotal reports of some educators who actively discourage their students from Academy membership.

Since membership recruitment and retention efforts and outcomes are areas you may be asked about, below is some information on our ongoing efforts to retain and grow the Academy’s membership. The Membership Team works hand-in-hand with all Academy departments to increase membership. Just a few of those efforts are outlined below.

- The Academy uses many communication channels to reach out to non-members through large-, medium- and small-scale recruit campaigns. During the first six months of the 2016-2017 membership year, we sent more than 236,000 pieces of communication, including mailings, emails, social media and telemarketing.
- We focus on students because they are integral to the future success of the organization. Student outreach takes many forms –the Student Liaison program and FNCE Student Track, to name just two.
- The Academy accesses quantitative data to highlight and promote the most valued member benefits, while also highlighting new programs.
- We micro-target non-members who have made a publications purchase or previously belonged to a DPG/MIG; these people receive communications that relate their interest to Academy member benefits.
- We micro-targets unique value propositions and benefits related to specific membership categories. For example, students without a credential are not likely to be interested in CPE, so they would not receive recruitment emails that highlight the free or discounted CPE members receive.
- Last fall, the Academy increased targeted telemarketing efforts and added more than 500 members, generating more than $66,000 in dues revenue.
- We revised the Associate membership category qualifications and grassroots initiatives to encourage practitioners who support the food, nutrition and dietetics field but are not RDNs/NDTRs to join the Academy. Many of these individuals do not realize that they can qualify for membership.

I hope you will agree that, even without the revenue streams enjoyed by for-profits, the Academy is continually working to reignite membership growth through well-orchestrated initiatives.

Best regards,

Pat

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the July Standards Update is posted on the ACEND Monthly Standards webpage. Monthly Standards Update In this issue the similarities and differences between the 2017 and Future Education Model Accreditation Standards are noted, as well as new questions related to both sets of standards and the demonstration programs.

The Future Education Model Accreditation Standards for Associate, Bachelor's and Graduate Degree Programs were released on June 19, 2017. ACEND invites programs interested in being accredited under these standards to apply to be an early adopter demonstration program. The Standards and information about the demonstration program application process can be found at: www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Beginning on July 13, 2017, the monthly Virtual Town Hall meetings will be held on the second Thursday of the month at 1 PM Central Time. The ACEND Standards Committee periodically changes the time that the Town Hall is held, so that people who were not able to attend in the past due to scheduling conflicts may be able to join us now.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

The agenda and corresponding attachments for the retreat have begun to be posted on the Board portal. All agenda item attachments for the retreat will be placed on the portal by Friday, July 14; a complete PDF of the attachments will also be provided. Please click here and enter your Academy website username and password to access the agenda and attachments.

The purpose of the retreat is to conduct a Board orientation focused on governance, to approve the Academy's strategic plan, and to network. The agenda for the retreat differs from our regular agenda format, since the purpose of the retreat is primarily focused on developing our strategic direction.

Glenn Tecker will lead us in discussion on governance and strategic thinking. His biographical sketch is attached. To foster collaboration and open dialogue with the Academy's major organization units, we welcome their representatives to the retreat: Coleen Liscano, chair of the Commission on Dietetic Registration; Wanda Eastman, chair of the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics; Linda Snetselaar, Editor of the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; and Marisa Moore, chair of the Nominating Committee. Lisa Dierks, chair of the Ethics Committee Task Force, will join us by phone to present the new Ethics Code and Steven Worth, Senior Consultant at Worth Consulting, will present the Global Business Development Strategy report.

A schedule of our networking activities follows.

On Wednesday, July 19, you have the option to visit Contemporary Austin – Jones Center before we go to dinner. This urban art museum reflects a spectrum of contemporary art through exhibitions, commissions, education, and collections. To participate in the museum visit, please meet in the lobby of the Driskill hotel between 5:30pm-6:00pm to walk in groups to the museum, located across the street. At 7:00pm we have dinner reservations at Café Blue (thanks, Jo Jo, for the recommendation!), located at 340 East 2nd Street, about a 10 minute walk from our hotel. Please meet back at the Driskill hotel at 6:45pm to walk as a group to the restaurant.

On Thursday, July 20, you have the option to visit the retail shops of your liking in the 2nd Street District of Austin. The shops are all a comfortable walking distance from the hotel; a map and list of shops will be provided. Please meet in the lobby of the hotel at 5:30pm to walk over to 2nd Street, just a half mile away. Afterwards the group will meet at Malverde restaurant for dinner at 7:00pm, located at 400b West 2nd Street, in the heart of the 2nd Street shopping district. Malverde is an award-winning modern Mexican restaurant, helmed by Executive Chef Rick Lopez.

The attire for the meeting is casual. The temperature this time of year in Austin will be in the middle nineties during the day and upper seventies in the evening.

See you soon!

Hello Donna,

Of the 6 members of the comp committee, the latest one to arrive on Wednesday, July 19 is at 11:25am. With the airport only 6 miles away, perhaps you all can meet at 12:15pm before the start of the retreat at 1:00pm? I have asked for a private room near the boardroom and I can order box lunches. Thoughts?

Thanks!

Hi All,

Attached you will find the revised CEO Evaluation form based on the comments from today's meeting. I deleted the proposed sections and included a page at the end of the evaluation for the comments or topics to be discussed later. Please review and write up your suggested changes/edits to summary section of the evaluation and any other edits you may have to the sections covered in today's meeting. Please be prepared to discuss at the meeting scheduled for next week (date and time will be confirmed soon).

Also, attached you will find a book entitled Nonprofit Executive Compensation that Lucille wanted to share with you.

If you have any questions, please give me a call.

Hello, I have submitted these questions on-line to Food and Nutrition Magazine but would like to also draw your attention to them. This is regarding the latest issue of Food and Nutrition Magazine. As someone who writes regularly for publications I know full well that it can be difficult to include all the pertinent information on a topic but in this recent issue I found several rather glaring omissions:

- 1. Article on Food Sensitivities by Taylor Wolfram - There was no mention of the recent position paper authored by Sherry Coleman Collins on Food Allergies nor was there any mention of the fact that CDR no longer approves CEU's for LEAP related activities. This could very well have given the readers a skewed perception of the stance of the Academy on LEAP/MRT.
- 2. Article on Discount Grocers by Lauren Fox - As someone who has been a retail dietitian for 17 years I was interested to read this article but disappointed that no retail dietitians, including those that work for/consult with discount grocers, were interviewed. Since there are about 1000 of us and there is a subgroup of FCP DPG we are not hard to find! Also I was surprised given the Academy's collaboration w/ the Retail Dietitians Business Alliance on the on-line retail dietetics training program that there was no mention of this, nor was RDBA or FMI (Food Marketing Institute) interviewed for their perspective.

My graduate students and I have found the article interesting and applicable in several ways. I promise I won't email numerous articles in the future too!

As such, I was intrigued during our May Board meeting by the rich discussion about membership and strategies to support a viable membership into the future. The attached article, titled "Reigniting Growth" pertains to organizational "stall out" - and not to imply that we have stalled, but while the article pertains more to the corporate environment, it does have some interesting moments and messages to share too. I thought I might pass it along for your review too - see what you think, and feel free to use it additionally or file away for now too.

I can't wait to see everyone in Austin (and Donna this week at SNA/Atlanta)!

My graduate students and I have found the article interesting and applicable in several ways. I promise I won't email numerous articles in the future too!

As such, I was intrigued during our May Board meeting by the rich discussion about membership and strategies to support a viable membership into the future. The attached article, titled "Reigniting Growth" pertains to organizational "stall out" - and not to imply that we have stalled, but while the article pertains more to the corporate environment, it does have some interesting moments and messages to share too. I thought I might pass it along for your review too - see what you think, and feel free to use it additionally or file away for now too.

I can't wait to see everyone in Austin (and Donna this week at SNA/Atlanta)!

Best wishes to you all, Kevin

Thanks so much, Jeanne. The groups who have been asked to sign the letter are as follows:

Protect Our Care GA coalition partners (letter signatories)

Advocates for Responsible Care (ARxC)
American Lung Association in Georgia
ChildKind
Easter Seals of Southern Georgia
Employment First Georgia
Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta
Feminist Women's Health Center
Georgia Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
Georgia Academy of Family Physicians
Georgia Budget and Policy Institute
Georgia Council on Developmental Disabilities Georgia Equality
Georgia Watch
Georgia Women (And Those Who Stand With Us)
Georgians for a Healthy Future
Hemophilia of Georgia

HSTAT
Housing Georgia
Interfaith Children's Movement
Lupus Foundation of America, Georgia Chapter
Mental Health America of Georgia

National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners, Georgia Chapter
National M.S. Society, Georgia Chapter
Open Hand Atlanta
Presbyterians for a Better Georgia
Thrive SS
United Way of Greater Atlanta
Voices for Georgia's Children
YWCA of Greater Atlanta
159 Georgia Together

GAND is listed, but can be removed if we opt out as I indicated earlier. It appears the original author of the letter was Georgians for a Healthy Future. The author acknowledges the letter is incomplete at this point, but feels that once completed the essence of the letter won't change from what she has provided. Hope this additional information is helpful. Please let me know if you have any other questions or need any more information.

Thanks again,

Unfortunately, I do not know the other organizations that were asked to sign the letter. We were asked to provide communication by Monday if we choose to opt out of the letter.

GAND has communicated with Isakson's office on numerous occasions both at home and in DC. I know many of our members have completed the open action alerts, but the response we consistently receive is one that is oppositional to our expressed viewpoints and requests. I am working on getting either him or someone from his office to visit one of our work sites during the August recess so they can better understand the role of the dietitian.

Thanks for the clarity on ANDPAC. I do unfortunately use those names interchangeably, but do understand the role of the PAC is financial. We use our PAC here in a similar fashion.

Thanks again for agreeing to review the letter. I look forward to hearing your feedback.

Michelle,

Thanks for the message. Yes, the Academy asks affiliates to follow the national policy positions and that is part of the article of affiliation. I am happy to review the letter. I wonder however why your affiliate has not considered sending its own letter on this issue as we have an open action alert that we have asked members to send. The affiliate could send a similar letter and we would be happy to assist.

Also, to clarify, ANDPAC is the political action side of things. It does not determine policy -- that is the role of the LPPC. Many organizations have PACs which are used to provide financial support and gain access to members of Congress or candidates. Sometimes it's confusing and people use ANDPAC in place of our Policy Initiatives and Advocacy work and it part of it, but not synonymous!

Let me know if you would like for me to review the letter.

One more question, has your affiliate met with Isakson in his Georgia office? That is considerably more effective!

Speaker Message 3 HOD Manual and Updates

We hope you had an enjoyable 4th of July!

2017-18 HOD Manual is Available

The electronic 2017-18 HOD Manual is now uploaded to the HOD Communications Platform.

This manual has been prepared to:

- Orient members of the HOD with a focus on the HOD Core Functions.
- Serve as a reference during the series of New Delegate Orientation Sessions.
- Serve as a resource for both new and continuing delegates with their constituencies.
- Ensure continuity of HOD activities.
- Provide policies and procedures to facilitate HOD Meetings and related activities.
- Guide the House Leadership Team in managing the HOD.

Required HOD Administrative Paperwork due in 1 Week

On June 27, you received an email request from hod@eatright.org to complete the required administrative documents before July 14, 2017.

- If you cannot locate the email or have questions, please contact hod@eatright.org. This information is also found in Section B of the HOD Manual.

Call for Volunteers: 2017-18 Table Facilitators

We are seeking 2+ year delegates to serve as table facilitators during the Fall and Spring HOD meetings. The Academy will reimburse one night of your hotel stay in Chicago for serving as a table facilitator. Refer to policy G.13 of the HOD Manual for more details and requirements for table facilitators.

- Please email hod@eatright.org if you are interested in volunteering for this leadership opportunity.

Fall HOD Meeting Travel

All delegates should make their Fall HOD meeting travel arrangements as soon as possible.

- You should plan to arrive in Chicago on the afternoon of Thursday, October 19 for pre-meeting activities including trainings and the HOUSEWarming party.

- The HOD meeting will begin early on Friday, October 20 and will conclude around noon on Saturday, October 21. A draft agenda will be posted in the next few weeks.

If you have not received an email from the Academy Meeting Service team regarding your travel, please contact Erin Cannon at ecannon@eatright.org. Refer to policy B.3a for information on HOD travel reimbursement.

Take Action: Three Open Action Alerts

Twelve delegates recently participated in Public Policy Workshop (PPW); all delegates can still have an impact by completing the three open Action Alerts. Public Policy updates are also posted for your review.

- Below are links to Academy social media posts that may be shared with your members to encourage them to take the Action Alerts:

Dear Indermit,

It was a pleasure meeting you and Livleen. I have copied Donna Martin on this email, so you now have her contact information going forward. Thank you for addressing the feedback provided by Alison, and the points raised during our conversation in the revised proposal. We do understand the time constraints that come with university scheduling, but we have a few remaining questions which follow below.

- . Is the literature review intended to be a scoping exercise and could the Academy's EAL librarians/consultants assist with this? If so, some funding would need to go to that ie (1K)—or is this one way the fellow contributes by conducting a literature review and scoping document?
- . How will the membership list be identified?
- . Will there be an IRB for the phone interviews?
- . Has thought been given to using previously validated questions and/development of a script to use for these interviews?
- . What is the role of the Co-Principal Investigator?
- . What is the funding structure for the Co-Principal Investigator?
- . Will there be a quarterly update to the Academy's Foundation on progress made?

Again, the Academy is very interested in the topic of malnutrition and looks forward to the potential for collaboration in addressing this issue. Thank you!

Best regards,

Dear Lucille and Pat,

Please find attached a revised proposal. This reflects inputs from Alison, and the points raised during our conversation in DC last weekend.

I would have liked the work on this to have begun in June because (summers are the best time for serious work at universities), but I completely understand why we might not be able to begin right away. We've pushed the proposed start date to August 1, but I've asked Estuardo to keep the delivery dates the same as before. We can change this to cover a full calendar year if that is administratively more convenient.

Please let me know if you need more information before the AND Foundation can consider this proposal.

Warmest wishes,

Indermit

I know I was tagged on another Twitter thread about this Dirty Dozen issue but I didn't ever say anything about CDR or even respond to it. I am not sure why you thought I was the instigator. If you can send me a screen shot or link to the tweet you think I posted to Donna, I would like to see it. If it exists, someone has hacked my Twitter account.

Dear Ms. Cochran,

This email is in response to a tweet you sent to Donna Martin this morning regarding various continuing education activities.

We were able to locate a live webinar (not a podcast) on the Dirty Dozen that was submitted for prior approval. We have not been able to find any activities with Don Huber, PhD as a presenter either submitted for prior approval or offered by an accredited provider.

If they have a complaint about any of the programs, you can submit the complaint in writing to cdr@eatright.org. Please cite in your email the specific criteria that you feel has not been met:

- Dietetics related
- Professional in nature (not geared toward the lay public)
- If the content is clinical, it must be evidence based

No this was not a formal partnership as it was not warranted. We connected DCE from the start and the email below included the current DCE leadership. In addition Susan Scott was a member leader involved.

You can decide how to promote this. I am sure AADE will also help spread the message.

Was there an agreement with ADA on this in terms of the Academy posting this or disseminating the information? I am assuming DCE has already been involved?

I wanted to share with you the program information that has been developed by the American Diabetes Association nutrition staff. As you might remember it is program that is led by RDNs helping persons with diabetes know what to eat. Set in groups, the pilots have demonstrated some great outcomes.

Although there is no formal reimbursement, there are many ways our members could implement the program. Patients could self-pay a group rate. Another would be for the Academy working with ADA to approach a private insurer since it will help benefit their clients. I know Mark Bertollini of Aetna seems to favor this type of approach.

Please share with anyone.

Subject: Training Program for RDNs

Hello!

I wanted to share that our call for applications to bring 16 dietitians from across the country to train our newest program, What Can I Eat? is ready for sharing!

Please feel free to share the information below with any and all dietitians that you think may be interested in applying!

Are you a Registered Dietitian or do you know a Registered Dietitian that would like to serve as a Master Trainer and Facilitator for the American Diabetes Association's new nutrition program What Can I Eat? We are seeking registered dietitians (RDN's and RDN, CDE's) who want to step up their participation in the fight against diabetes.

Description of What Can I Eat:

What Can I Eat is a nutrition focused diabetes self-management support program for adults living with type 2 and their families and caregivers. The program consists of five interactive 90 minute sessions (food is love, healthy eating, shopping and cooking, eating out, 3-month reunion) held once per week in groups of 10-15 participants aiming to answer the most common question people with diabetes face on a daily basis: What can I eat?

Why we need your help and support:

In order to reach as many people with diabetes as possible, especially in regions disparately impacted by diabetes, we need your help. That's why we are looking for your expertise to expand the reach and work to improve the 29.1 million lives of people living with diabetes.

Application will open on July 1, 2017 and will be accessible on the DiabetesPro website for 30 days:<https://professional.diabetes.org/content-page/what-can-i-eat>

For more information please direct any questions to Director of Nutrition, Sacha Uelmen: SUelmen@diabetes.org.

Subject: Training Program for RDNs

Hello!

I wanted to share that our call for applications to bring 16 dietitians from across the country to train our newest program, What Can I Eat? is ready for sharing!

Please feel free to share the information below with any and all dietitians that you think may be interested in applying!

Are you a Registered Dietitian or do you know a Registered Dietitian that would like to serve as a Master Trainer and Facilitator for the American Diabetes Association's new nutrition program What Can I Eat? We are seeking registered dietitians (RDN's and RDN, CDE's) who want to step up their participation in the fight against diabetes.

Description of What Can I Eat:

What Can I Eat is a nutrition focused diabetes self-management support program for adults living with type 2 and their families and caregivers. The program consists of five interactive 90 minute sessions (food is love, healthy eating, shopping and cooking, eating out, 3-month reunion) held once per week in groups of 10-15 participants aiming to answer the most common question people with diabetes face on a daily basis: What can I eat?

Why we need your help and support:

In order to reach as many people with diabetes as possible, especially in regions disparately impacted by diabetes, we need your help. That's why we are looking for your expertise to expand the reach and work to improve the 29.1 million lives of people living with diabetes.

Application will open on July 1, 2017 and will be accessible on the DiabetesPro website for 30 days: <https://professional.diabetes.org/content-page/what-can-i-eat>

For more information please direct any questions to Director of Nutrition, Sacha Uelmen:
SUelmen@diabetes.org.

Sincerely,

Sacha

Subject: ADA Training Program for RDNs

I wanted to share with you the program information that has been developed by the American Diabetes Association nutrition staff. As you might remember it is program that is led by RDNs helping persons with diabetes know what to eat. Set in groups, the pilots have demonstrated some great outcomes.

Although there is no formal reimbursement, there are many ways our members could implement the program. Patients could self-pay a group rate. Another would be for the Academy working with ADA to approach a private insurer since it will help benefit their clients. I know Mark Bertollini of Aetna seems to favor this type of approach.

Please share with anyone.

Subject: FINAL RE: Save the Date: Sunday June 25 7:45 pm Dinner

Hello all,

ANDPAC leadership has discussed the Sunday evening meal reservation. As Susan is in Paris, and I initially made the dinner reservations I thought it would be ok for me to send one last follow up email.

I cancelled the initial dinner reservation, spoke to the concierge at the Grand Hyatt Washington and found a restaurant about two blocks walking distance from our hotel. I have made a 745/8PM dinner reservation for 15 people at Bobby Vans Grill (steak, seafood, pasta) for Sunday evening June 25th.

We understand that the priority is for Public Policy Leaders to be with our affiliates that evening continuing to prepare for Capitol Hill visits Monday. However, if you have completed that priority and are so inclined to unwind and team build, please join at least me at Bobby Vans Grill.

Let me know your intentions after you've determined your plans upon the conclusion of Sunday's workshop

While it was my hope that we could enjoy some social connectivity, working to increase member confidence is the bigger priority for the next day's Hill visits.

Apologies to each of you for this confusion. Thank you for your tireless work for our profession. Looking forward to a great and most success PPW!!!

USDA's Secretary Sonny Perdue to Meet with School Nutrition Professionals at ANC

SNA is pleased to announce that on Wednesday, July 12, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue will meet school nutrition professionals participating in SNA's 71st Annual National Conference (ANC) in Atlanta, GA. His visit to Atlanta is a return to Georgia where he served as governor from 2003 to 2011, and this is the first time in 20 years that a Secretary of Agriculture has addressed an ANC audience. More than 6,500 will be attending ANC, July 9-12, to share best practices for improving menus, strengthening school meal programs and expanding student access to healthy meals.

Secretary Perdue will address ANC attendees at the Closing General Session and then meet with school nutrition professionals who serve on SNA's incoming and outgoing Board of Directors – members elected to represent the broad range of school meal programs across the United States. The event will give Secretary Perdue the opportunity to hear first-hand about successes and challenges as schools have worked to improve menus for students while meeting updated nutrition standards for meals and snacks.

"We are looking forward to Secretary Perdue's visit next week, grateful and honored that he is making this time in his busy schedule," said SNA President Becky Domokos-Bays, PhD, RD, SNS. "This is a real testament to the Secretary's commitment to school meals and the professionals who serve them to America's children. We're also gratified by his request to have a listening session to learn more from those on the front lines."

SNA plans to capture video of the Secretary's remarks and make it available to the entire membership on our website.

USDA's Secretary Sonny Perdue to Meet with School Nutrition Professionals at ANC

SNA is pleased to announce that on Wednesday, July 12, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue will meet school nutrition professionals participating in SNA's 71st Annual National Conference (ANC) in Atlanta, GA. His visit to Atlanta is a return to Georgia where he served as governor from 2003 to 2011, and this is the first time in 20 years that a Secretary of Agriculture has addressed an ANC audience. More than 6,500 will be attending ANC, July 9-12, to share best practices for improving menus, strengthening school meal programs and expanding student access to healthy meals.

Secretary Perdue will address ANC attendees at the Closing General Session and then meet with school nutrition professionals who serve on SNA's incoming and outgoing Board of Directors – members elected to represent the broad range of school meal programs across the United States.

The event will give Secretary Perdue the opportunity to hear first-hand about successes and challenges as schools have worked to improve menus for students while meeting updated nutrition standards for meals and snacks.

"We are looking forward to Secretary Perdue's visit next week, grateful and honored that he is making this time in his busy schedule," said SNA President Becky Domokos-Bays, PhD, RD, SNS. "This is a real testament to the Secretary's commitment to school meals and the professionals who serve them to America's children. We're also gratified by his request to have a listening session to learn more from those on the front lines."

SNA plans to capture video of the Secretary's remarks and make it available to the entire membership on our website.

Hi Donna

Thank you for bringing this issue to my attention. CDR staff have researched this issue. Here is a summary of findings.

CDR staff did recently approve a live webinar called "Hidden Dangers in Food: The Dirty Dozen of Ingredients". It was submitted through Nutritional Medicinals The speaker was an MD who did his residency at Harvard;, please see attached CV and program description. CDR requires that only clinical related topics be evidence-based.

. As far as the Dr Huber/GMO talk, we are unable to identify it in our CPE database without knowing the title or provider. The following is a list of CPE database activities including GMO in the title that was entered this year; almost all are offered by CDR accredited providers and the other two were prior approved by state affiliates CPE reviewers. It does not appear that Don Huber is included in any of them.

CDR staff googled conferences that Don Huber may have spoken at recently or is scheduled to speak. None of them make claims that CEUs are offered/available and none of them were submitted for prior approval. We also looked through my spreadsheets from all of 2017 and didn't see Don Huber listed as presenter in any of them. We will be happy to research further with additional specific information regarding this session. CDR staff will reach out to the individuals included in the communication below to see if we can glean additional information. If the program is offered by a CDR accredited provider there is a complaint process in place to address this issue.

The CDR Competency Assurance Panel is currently conducting a comprehensive evaluation of the CDR Program Provider Accreditation and prior approval processes with the intent of improving the quality of continuing professional education offerings.

Subject: Questions about CEU Approvals

Chris, People have been asking me on twitter about why the Academy is approving the following subjects for CEU's when they are not evidence based topics? I told them I would check with you and get back to them. Specifically they are talking about a podcast on the Environmental Work Group's list of the dirty dozen fruits and vegetables with the highest amount of pesticides in them. The other topic they asked about was CEU's for Dr. Huber where he talks about GMO's (see below). I know these are touchy subjects, but how do we vet these topics for approval? Any help in responding to them would be appreciated. Thanks!

That's good to know. There are CEU's offered for Dr. Huber to talk about his secret GMO-invading organism that kills people too. 1/2

Academy Honors and Awards

Dear Rita,

Congratulations on receiving the 2017 Medallion Award! You will be recognized at the 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo's Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 21, 2017, at 7 a.m. at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, Grand EF. Your acceptance remarks should be one (1) minute in length. A photographer will be present at the session.

As you may be aware, you can invite up to nine (9) guests to sit at your reserved table at the Honors Breakfast. Please send Matthew the names and street addresses of your guests via email by Monday, July 31, so they can receive a formal invitation on your behalf.

On Monday, October 22, Medallion recipients will also be recognized during the Member Showcase from 10 a.m. – noon at McCormick Place West, 375 CDE. Near the beginning of the program, you will walk on stage with the other recipients and wave as your name is announced. Time will not be allocated for comments. Please meet Matthew near the stage at 9 a.m. to rehearse your stage walk. Remember to wear your Medallion!

A multi-panel floor display spotlighting all the recipients of the Academy's 2017 National Honors and Awards will be located at McCormick Place West in a highly visible locale. This tribute will highlight the Academy's excellence and be an inspiration to others.

Please contact Matthew Novotny at mnovotny@eatright.org, or 1-800/877-1600 ext. 4827, should you have any questions. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Again, congratulations on your wonderful achievement!

Sincerely,

Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND

President

Hi Donna,

I hope you're doing well and enjoying the summer! I'd like to send the email below (ok'd by Doris and Tom) to the seven 2017 Medallion Award recipients.

Can you please have a look at your earliest convenience and let me know if I have your consent to send it?

Thank you,

Academy Honors and Awards

Dear Rita,

Congratulations on receiving the 2017 Medallion Award! You will be recognized at the 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo's Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 21, 2017, at 7 a.m. at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, Grand EF. Your acceptance remarks should be one (1) minute in length. A photographer will be present at the session.

As you may be aware, you can invite up to nine (9) guests to sit at your reserved table at the Honors Breakfast. Please send Matthew the names and street addresses of your guests via email by Monday, July 31, so they can receive a formal invitation on your behalf.

On Monday, October 22, Medallion recipients will also be recognized during the Member Showcase from 10 a.m. – noon at McCormick Place West, 375 CDE. Near the beginning of the program, you will walk on stage with the other recipients and wave as your name is announced. Time will not be allocated for comments. Please meet Matthew near the stage at 9 a.m. to rehearse your stage walk. Remember to wear your Medallion!

A multi-panel floor display spotlighting all the recipients of the Academy's 2017 National Honors and Awards will be located at McCormick Place West in a highly visible locale. This tribute will highlight the Academy's excellence and be an inspiration to others.

Please contact Matthew Novotny at mnovotny@eatright.org, or 1-800/877-1600 ext. 4827, should you have any questions. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Again, congratulations on your wonderful achievement!

Hello Mim,

Thank you so much for extending an invitation for Donna Martin to present the keynote at Stamford University's awards ceremony on December 15, 2017. I will be pleased to check with Donna regarding her availability. According to policy we ask that the expenses for Academy Board members to present at meeting and events be covered by the organizer. Please let me know if this is agreeable to you.

It is time to begin working on your October page, which you previously mentioned you would like to be on Farm to School, Farm to Hospital, etc., based on October being Farm to School Month. We'll begin working on that and send you a draft for review later this month. We will contact and spotlight some or all of the members you suggested: Lisa McDowell, Kara Sample, Gitta Genter-Sweeney, Doris Demers (an NDTR).

Thanks again, talk to you soon!

Hi Donna

Thank you for bringing this issue to my attention. CDR staff have researched this issue. Here is a summary of findings.

CDR staff did recently approve a live webinar called "Hidden Dangers in Food: The Dirty Dozen of Ingredients". It was submitted through Nutritional Medicinals The speaker was an MD who did his residency at Harvard;, please see attached CV and program description. CDR requires that only clinical related topics be evidence-based.

. As far as the Dr Huber/GMO talk, we are unable to identify it in our CPE database without knowing the title or provider. The following is a list of CPE database activities including GMO in the title that was entered this year; almost all are offered by CDR accredited providers and the other two were prior approved by state affiliates CPE reviewers. It does not appear that Don Huber is included in any of them.

CDR staff googled conferences that Don Huber may have spoken at recently or is scheduled to speak None of them make claims that CEUs are offered/available and none of them were submitted for prior approval. We also looked through my spreadsheets from all of 2017 and didn't see Don Huber listed as presenter in any of them. We will be happy to research further with additional specific information regarding this session. CDR staff will reach out to the individuals included in the communication below to see if we can glean additional information. If the program is offered by a CDR accredited provider there is a complaint process in place to address this issue.

The CDR Competency Assurance Panel is currently conducting a comprehensive evaluation of the CDR Program Provider Accreditation and prior approval processes with the intent of improving the quality of continuing professional education offerings.

Subject: Questions about CEU Approvals

Chris, People have been asking me on twitter about why the Academy is approving the following subjects for CEU's when they are not evidence based topics? I told them I would check with you and get back to them. Specifically they are talking about a podcast on the Environmental Work Group's list of the dirty dozen fruits and vegetables with the highest amount of pesticides in them. The other topic they asked about was CEU's for Dr. Huber where he talks about GMO's (see below). I know these are touchy subjects, but how do we vet these topics for approval? Any help in responding to them would be appreciated. Thanks!

Pat,

Ref: Farmers Markets, Nutrition and Academy's Registered Dietitians

Good morning--and again, so many thanks for the invitation to join the Board of the Foundation and the terrific meeting in Chicago last week.

I learned much about the Foundation and the Academy's work and the enthusiasm and talents of your 75,000 members.

An example is Academy member, Peggy Zamore who runs the Danbury CT farmers markets. She worked with Farm Credit East and her Commissioner of Ag in CT to raise funds for an innovative program to support diet impacted Veterans in her region to come each week to her Danbury Farmers Market for $10 in fresh fruits and vegetables along with nutrition education.

Also Francie Randolph in Truro also is working with a local Academy Registered Dietitian to support nutrition counseling to SNAP, WIC, Seniors and Veterans coming to her farmers markets on the Cape including support for a Veggie R/x program.

I've included Peggy's contacts and also the press release from Farm Credit East.

With sincere thanks,

Gus

Farmers' Market Programs Offer Critical Support to Sick, Food Insecure Veterans

<https://www.farmcrediteast.com/News/media-center/press-releases/20170628FarmersMarkets>

Farm Credit East Provides Grants to Support Farmers' Markets

Of the eight grants Farm Credit East provided, five of the recipients will use the funds for innovative programs to reach food insecure Veterans, while others will use the funds for promotion of farmers' markets or to support Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits

June 28, 2017

As summer kicks into full swing across the Northeast, farm fresh products are coming into season, and farmers' markets throughout the region are gearing up to provide fresh, local, affordable farm products to consumers. To support these important channels for Northeast farmers to reach consumers, Farm Credit East recently provided $1,000 grants to eight farmers' markets and organizations to aid outreach efforts.

Of the eight grants Farm Credit East provided, five of the recipients will use the funds for innovative programs to reach food insecure veterans, while others will use the funds for promotion of farmers' markets or to support Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits.

"These 2017 timely and innovative Farm Credit East grants will help expand access by families buying healthy, affordable and increasingly accessible local fresh produce at these farmers' markets. Farmers will also benefit from the additional revenue," said Gus Schumacher, Founding Board Chair of Wholesome Wave. "A number of participating farmers' markets will also use these Farm Credit East funds to increase the purchasing power for at-risk Veterans, as well as help address some of the diet and health challenges Veterans face."

"Farm Credit East is pleased to support local farmers and farmers' markets, as well as the local communities these markets bring together," said Bill Lipinski, Farm Credit East CEO. "Farmers' markets provide many of our members with an additional outlet to market their products and offer consumers a great place to buy locally grown farm products."

Farmers' markets and organizations receiving funds include:

- Danbury Farmers' Market (Connecticut)
- Farmers Market Federation of New York

- Farm Fresh Rhode Island
- Federation of Massachusetts Farmers' Markets
- Maine Farmland Trust
- New Jersey Farmers' Direct Marketing Association
- Seacoast Eat Local (New Hampshire)
- Sustainable CAPE (Massachusetts)

This is the time of year when local fruits, vegetables and other farm products are in abundance, so celebrate Northeast agriculture by visiting your local farmers' market. If you're unsure of where to find the nearest farmers' market, roadside stand, winery or other retail farm operation, check out Farm Credit East's Farm Fresh Guide for a listing of resources to find locations throughout Farm Credit East's seven-state territory of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York and Rhode Island.

Tom,

Thanks for sharing the press release. We did get the check. I am attaching a poster we created to promote SNAP to our Veterans. The poster has been printed and will be distributed to Vet Centers across the state next week.

We are also using the funds to create bag stuffer to help dispel myths of farmers markets and encourage SNAP users to shop at farmers markets with their benefits. We haven't completed that piece, but should be done and ready for distribution by mid July.

thanks again for the opportunity!

Hi Donna

I am checking to see if these programs are offered by a CDR accredited provider, prior approved by CDR staff or a state affiliate reviewer. I will follow up as soon as I have more information.

Subject: Questions about CEU Approvals

Chris, People have been asking me on twitter about why the Academy is approving the following subjects for CEU's when they are not evidence based topics? I told them I would check with you and get back to them. Specifically they are talking about a podcast on the Environmental Work Group's list of the dirty dozen fruits and vegetables with the highest amount of pesticides in them. The other topic they asked about was CEU's for Dr. Huber where he talks about GMO's (see below). I know these are touchy subjects, but how do we vet these topics for approval? Any help in responding to them would be appreciated. Thanks!

Oh and who thought this was OK?

Just FYI: CDR approved CEU for functional formularies podcast titled "hidden dangers in did: the dirty dozen", where the EWG was supported

That's good to know. There are CEU's offered for Dr. Huber to talk about his secret GMO-invading organism that kills people too. 1/2

Hi Diane,

I am going to need to resign from the DPG workgroup for two reasons.

With my current role on the NE DPG board as their speaker/media specialty chair, I feel that there is potential for a conflict of interest

More important, I am finding that my time is very limited for any more volunteer work. I am also on a communications workgroup for ANDPAC.

And, I think you have a fine team working on this project!

It has been a pleasure to get to know you and your passion for the profession.

I hope that there is a future opportunity for our paths to cross Diane.

I look forward to seeing you in Chicago!

Courage! And quite possibly time- the documents are long and need quite a bit of attention. Still, all of us have DPG connections of one kind or another. This evolution of DPGs will be done effectively and well and the Academy will emerge stronger, more effective and much more cohesive.

And Donna, the message about the need for leadership training and development is coming at me from several directions--focusing there is a genius move on your part!

Hi Lucille,

We are hoping for strong numbers and have done extensive marketing, including key DPGs such as NE. We previously did a webinar for them on this topic, but this time have the great opportunity to have a speaker from CMS.

Good afternoon,

The Nutrition Services Coverage team is pleased to announce that it is partnering with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) to offer a free webinar to Academy members on Medicare's Quality Payment Program. This webinar represents the second time in the past 3 years that the Academy has worked with CMS to offer an educational program tailored to the needs of our members. Please see the announcement below about the webinar. We hope you can join us for this event and encourage you to share the announcement with others.

Free July 25 Webinar: Helping RDNs Understand Medicare's New Quality Payment Program

Have you heard Medicare is shifting away from fee-for-service to pay-for-performance?

Join experts from the Academy's Nutrition Services Payment Committee and the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services as they review Medicare's Quality Payment Program (QPP) and explain what it means for registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs) in a free 1.5 hour webinar.

Signed into law in April 2015, the Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act (MACRA) created a new way for Medicare Part B providers to get paid for their services. Effective January 1, 2017, the new Quality Payment Program (QPP) rewards value and shifts payment away from fee-for-service to pay-for-performance.

Our special guest speaker from CMS will provide an overview of the two tracks of Medicare's QPP, the Merit-based Incentive payment System (MIPS) and the Advanced Alternative Payment Models (APMs), and our RDN speaker will discuss how RDNs can participate in the program now to prepare for the future.

Join your fellow RDNs as we move forward together in understanding this new payment program. Register for this informative webinar today!

Date: Tuesday, July 25, 2017

Time: 12 noon to 1:30 pm Central time

CPE: 1.5 hours pending

Speakers: Natalie Stephens RDN, LD, FAND and Oluyemisi Aderomilehin, MPH, CPH, CHES

Registration Required: follow the link below to register.

<http://bit.ly/2thTewa>

Please let me know if you have any questions or would like more information about the program. And thank you for sharing this announcement with members as one way to highlight the value of their membership and the relationships we have established with CMS.

Thank you,

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy Recommends Measures to Ensure Access and Utilization of Healthful Foods

The Academy's Farm Bill Workgroup released recommendations for the comprehensive food system legislation set to be debated and reauthorized in Congress. The Academy offers recommendations to build upon and strengthen existing Farm Bill programs; increase access to affordable, nutritious food, especially for those most in need; and improve the demand and marketplace for a diversity of foods that contribute to health and food security.

Academy's Diabetes Priorities Gain Bipartisan Support with House Bill

U.S. Reps. Diana DeGette (Colo.) and Lynn Jenkins (Kan.) have introduced the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124) in the House of Representatives. The bill is a companion to the Senate's bill (S. 1299). Thanks to the outreach of Academy members, the House bill had 15 original cosponsors. Academy members will soon be urged via an action alert to continue to build support for access and coverage for expanded MNT provided by registered dietitian nutritionists.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members during the 2017 Public Policy Workshop, H. Res. 161, the Congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial, has 21 cosponsors in the House of Representatives. Congressional champions in the House and Senate say they appreciate Academy members reaching out to them; please take a moment to ask your member of Congress to cosponsor the resolution. If your member of Congress has expressed interest, please email the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team: swinston@eatright.org.

Protect Vital Nutrition Services That Are At Risk in Congress

The U.S. Senate postponed a planned vote on the Senate's Better Care Reconciliation Act of 2017, thanks to the united advocacy efforts of Academy members and other health care professions opposing the legislation. Senate champions expressed appreciation for numerous letters that they received from Academy members, and will continue to engage in discussions when they are in their home states this week. The Academy continues to work with Congress to improve the country's nutrition and health, and urges members to contact your Senators and encourage them to oppose this legislation and work in a bipartisan manner to draft common-sense reforms.

Protecting the Nation: Members Recognized for Service

The Academy's history started with national service in World War I and continues to this day. The July Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics President's Page by President Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, highlights members who work with the country's armed services and veterans. Thanks to outreach by Academy members and Mission Readiness, members of Congress received copies of this important article and expressed continued appreciation for the vital role registered dietitian nutritionists fill in the armed forces, U.S. Public Health Service Commissioned Corps, civil service and VA health care system.

Good afternoon,

The Nutrition Services Coverage team is pleased to announce that it is partnering with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) to offer a free webinar to Academy members on Medicare's Quality Payment Program. This webinar represents the second time in the past 3 years that the Academy has worked with CMS to offer an educational program tailored to the needs of our members. Please see the announcement below about the webinar. We hope you can join us for this event and encourage you to share the announcement with others.

Free July 25 Webinar: Helping RDNs Understand Medicare's New Quality Payment Program

Have you heard Medicare is shifting away from fee-for-service to pay-for-performance?

Join experts from the Academy's Nutrition Services Payment Committee and the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services as they review Medicare's Quality Payment Program (QPP) and explain what it means for registered dietitian nutritionists (RDNs) in a free 1.5 hour webinar.

Signed into law in April 2015, the Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act (MACRA) created a new way for Medicare Part B providers to get paid for their services. Effective January 1, 2017, the new Quality Payment Program (QPP) rewards value and shifts payment away from fee-for-service to pay-for-performance.

Our special guest speaker from CMS will provide an overview of the two tracks of Medicare's QPP, the Merit-based Incentive payment System (MIPS) and the Advanced Alternative Payment Models (APMs), and our RDN speaker will discuss how RDNs can participate in the program now to prepare for the future.

Join your fellow RDNs as we move forward together in understanding this new payment program. Register for this informative webinar today!

Date: Tuesday, July 25, 2017

Time: 12 noon to 1:30 pm Central time

CPE: 1.5 hours pending

Speakers: Natalie Stephens RDN, LD, FAND and Oluyemisi Aderomilehin, MPH, CPH, CHES

Registration Required: follow the link below to register.

NEW! Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Hello, NDEP members –

We have received a request from the Academy's Quality Management Committee (QMC) and the QMC's Scope and Standards of Practice Workgroup to assist in the review of the following guiding document:

Scope of Practice for the Registered Dietitian Nutritionist

This document is being revised and updated, and the QMC would like our assistance in the review of a component of this SOP regarding:

- Practice Areas, Services and Activities:
- Research
- Universities and Other Academic Settings

The section to be reviewed is just a little over two pages long, but its content is significant.

We are asking for 2-3 NDEP members to assist in reviewing this document within a short time frame.

A single consensus document must be submitted to the QMC no later than Monday, July 31st (yes, this year!)

I'm thinking that reviewers would need to have their comments/input/feedback submitted as a first round within about a week. That will give time for consolidating the feedback and getting it to fellow reviewers, plus allow time for a telephone conference or two as needed, to discuss consensus for a final version in time for a July 31st deadline. Lauren Bozich, our Academy Liaison, will be able to assist in setting up telephone conference calls.

Since the turnaround time is so short, please let me know of your interest/willingness to review this on behalf of NDEP no later than Monday, July 10. You can contact me at pmk356@aol.com. Please include your vita/resume to assist us in designating reviewers- thanks!

Please don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions – I look forward to hearing from you.

OMG - Beth, you have a lot on your plate. I am so sorry to hear about both your parent's issues. I will keep you in my prayers. Just lost my Dad in April to dementia and now with my Mom's stroke she has no quality of life. This stage of life stinks for sure. No good answers, but take it a day at a time.

She is stable. She has bile duct cancer and the treatment that she had been receiving does not seem to be working any longer, so we were about to start a new chemo and her doc found a blood clot in her liver (caused by the tumors) so they put her on a blood thinner called Lovonox which had to be injected into abdomen twice daily. Saturday night I had to rush her to the ER because she was in incredible pain. It turns about that she developed a hematoma due to the blood thinner. She has received three blood transfusions since Sunday and as of last night, her numbers are improving. What complicates all of this is my dad has Alzheimer's and lives at home. One of my brother flew in today help Sunday night, which has been incredibly helpful. My mom will be admitted until at last Saturday so they can monitor the clot in her liver and make sure the hematoma goes down.

Thanks for asking. Sorry to ramble.

I hope you had a great 4th.

Susie and Beth, Loved seeing you both in Chicago for a quick dinner.

I know you all have thought about all these ideas for fundraising, but they came to me and I just wanted to make sure you already had them on your radar.

1. Are we contacting our honorary members who typically are financially stable?
 2. Have we contacted past Public Members who served on the board?
 3. Are you planning some type of competition between the states and DPG's like we do for voting?
 4. We need to do a text this number and donate $10 to the foundation. Evidently our millennials are big into this and seem to do this better than writing a check.
- Just my thoughts, take or leave them! Happy 4th of July!

Hey, Donna,

Great to see you last week in Chicago.

Hey, I just got a call from Celia Mir, PhD, RD, from Puerto Rico. She is bringing 40 dietetics students to FNCE this year and was hoping there might be a time that they could all meet you. It wouldn't have to be for a long period of time - probably just a few questions and photos, I'd imagine.

Celia is a great lady. She's a prof at U of PR and has been involved for years with CNDPR, their licensing body. She said they'd be in Chicago from Oct 19-25, if I heard her correctly. Hopefully there'll be a time when you might have a few minutes to meet with them.

OK let me know and if you think it'll work, I will put you/Joan directly in touch with Dr. Mir.
Thanks!

Hey, Donna,

Great to see you last week in Chicago.

Hey, I just got a call from Celia Mir, PhD, RD, from Puerto Rico. She is bringing 40 dietetics students to FNCE this year and was hoping there might be a time that they could all meet you. It wouldn't have to be for a long period of time - probably just a few questions and photos, I'd imagine.

Celia is a great lady. She's a prof at U of PR and has been involved for years with CNDPR, their licensing body. She said they'd be in Chicago from Oct 19-25, if I heard her correctly. Hopefully there'll be a time when you might have a few minutes to meet with them.

OK let me know and if you think it'll work, I will put you/Joan directly in touch with Dr. Mir.
Thanks!

Marty

Thank you, both. How exciting for the students! I will be happy to reach out to Dr. Mir to find a time for Donna to meet with her and the students. Another thought is the School Spirit event. We are just beginning our promotion of the contest - where the schools who bring the most number of students to FNCE get a chance to have a meet 'n greet with the you (Donna) and the BOD in your suite.

I will work on this and follow up with you.

Hey, Donna,

Great to see you last week in Chicago.

Hey, I just got a call from Celia Mir, PhD, RD, from Puerto Rico. She is bringing 40 dietetics students to FNCE this year and was hoping there might be a time that they could all meet you. It wouldn't have to be for a long period of time - probably just a few questions and photos, I'd imagine.

Celia is a great lady. She's a prof at U of PR and has been involved for years with CNDPR, their licensing body. She said they'd be in Chicago from Oct 19-25, if I heard her correctly. Hopefully there'll be a time when you might have a few minutes to meet with them.

OK let me know and if you think it'll work, I will put you/Joan directly in touch with Dr. Mir.
Thanks!

Marty

Mary Pat, Thanks so much for all the work you are doing to fully orient Gus to "our world". He is going to be much more of an asset to ANDPAC and ANDF because of your efforts. He was influential already, but now armed with this knowledge, he might become a true champion for us. Kudos to you!!!!

Hi Donna,

It was so very nice to meet you in Chicago and thanks again for a great panel.

Just wanted to start a fresh email chain to introduce you to our outreach team (Matt/Lara/Michelle/Ali cc'd here).

Will let them follow up after the holiday about any potential FE screenings/collaborations, but in the meantime, please find links for materials below.

Please feel free to help us spread the word.

We'll certainly keep you posted on any upcoming screenings in Chicago... And happy to set a call anytime to discuss all the above further.

Thx! Happy 4th!!

Hi, Donna. Always fun to spend time with you and thanks for all of your great suggestions, keep them coming! You will be happy to know that we do have plans in place and are already moving forward on a comprehensive honorary member engagement and solicitation effort as well as past public members. There is plenty of competition between the DPGs as well as the states and we tried to incent them by offering a scholarship in their respective DPG or state name if they hit a specific target. Now the text option is something we have explored every year since they started making that available and my recollection is that it is extremely expensive to pull off and only cost-effective if you are drawing in hundreds of thousands of dollars. I've included Susie and Beth on my response so they can readily correct any and all of my inaccuracies. J

Happy Fourth of July to you too!!!!!!

Susie and Beth, Loved seeing you both in Chicago for a quick dinner.

I know you all have thought about all these ideas for fundraising, but they came to me and I just wanted to make sure you already had them on your radar.

1. Are we contacting our honorary members who typically are financially stable?
2. Have we contacted past Public Members who served on the board?
3. Are you planning some type of competition between the states and DPG's like we do for voting?
4. We need to do a text this number and donate $10 to the foundation. Evidently our millennials are big into this and seem to do this better than writing a check.

Just my thoughts, take or leave them! Happy 4th of July!

Jo Jo,

I am open to any ideas you have to make it fun. I have another idea that provides clients that want to lose weight called "Jump Start" using the concept of low carb breakfast with 3 sample menus, and the lunch and dinner encourages 50% of plate with vegetables (or ½ fruit) and dinner encouraging 6 ounces of lean protein with three sample menus. I call it "Jump Start". This messaging has been highly accepted by many of my male participants. I developed this idea for my spouse when he complained that he was always hungry when we cut back on carbs. When I am back in the office on Wednesday I will send the handout and a few photos.

We could do demo or simply show some photos of the sample dinner meals. I have one photo of mock chicken parmesan (six ounce chicken breast baked with ¼ cup marinara sauce and as soon as it is taken from the oven I grate fresh Parmesan cheese that melts and gives the entre a rich flavor despite being lower in fat) served with 1 cup steamed broccoli with fresh lemon. It looks and tastes yummy. The second recipe is shrimp stir fry and encourages using chop sticks and the third recipe is rosemary roasted pork tenderloin and roasted vegetables. Maybe we could pair these recipes with a wine!

I have time Wednesday morning before 11:30 EST to discuss further if that works for you. Call my cell phone listed below.

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Jo Jo, thanks for stopping by to chat about this while you were at HQ for the Foundation meeting. As requested, I am sharing Lucille and Donna's session outline as FYI as you consider ideas for a possible 1.5 hour hands on workshop for the 2nd National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes taking place on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Please know it is, of course, your option to be a presenter or recommend someone else, knowing your expertise in this area we wanted to reach out to you both.

Lucille and Donna's 2 hour Session: Their title and outline follows. Their bios and headshots are attached.

Title: The Cure for Childhood Obesity: A Multi Community Approach Linking MDs, Families and Schools

Part 1

Lucille Beseler - 45 minutes

- The prevalence of obesity and pre-diabetes in children
- Developing an Obesity Screening program for pediatric practices
- Imbedding RDNs into pediatric practices to provide reimbursable nutrition services
- New models to deliver nutrition care- telehealth

Part 2

Donna S. Martin - 45 minutes

- What schools are doing to address childhood obesity/pre-diabetes -- school food service, Kids Eat Right programs

Q&A 15-30 minutes

The link to the 2nd National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes <http://diabetes-prevention.us/home.php>. Although you are familiar with the audience, the website lists the attendees as Physicians, Researchers, Physician Assistants, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Dietitians, Podiatrists, Pharmacists, Psychologists, Endocrinologists, Diabetes Educators, People Interested in Diabetes, People With Diabetes, Diabetes Health Professionals and Other Healthcare Professionals.

Thank you for any ideas or help you can provide. Have a safe and enjoyable 4th!

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Dr. Ibrahim has invited the Academy to participate in the Conference on Diabetes Prevention again this year. It will be held on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Lucille and Donna will be presenting a session on childhood obesity and we have an additional opportunity to do a 1.5 hour hands-on workshop. We would greatly appreciate your input and ideas for the workshop. We have also reached out to the DCE and WM DPGs and are awaiting their response. You might even have a session already developed that you would like to present. Thoughts?

Thank you!

I call it "Jump Start". This messaging has been highly accepted by many of my male participants. I developed this idea for my spouse when he complained that he was always hungry when we cut back on carbs. When I am back in the office on Wednesday I will send the handout and a few photos.

We could do demo or simply show some photos of the sample dinner meals. I have one photo of mock chicken parmesan (six ounce chicken breast baked with ¼ cup marinara sauce and as soon as it is taken from the oven I grate fresh Parmesan cheese that melts and gives the entre a rich flavor despite being lower in fat) served with 1 cup steamed broccoli with fresh lemon. It looks and tastes yummy. The second recipe is shrimp stir fry and encourages using chop sticks and the third recipe is rosemary roasted pork tenderloin and roasted vegetables. Maybe we could pair these recipes with a wine!

I have time Wednesday morning before 11:30 EST to discuss further if that works for you. Call my cell phone listed below.

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Jo Jo, thanks for stopping by to chat about this while you were at HQ for the Foundation meeting. As requested, I am sharing Lucille and Donna’s session outline as FYI as you consider ideas for a possible 1.5 hour hands on workshop for the 2nd National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes taking place on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Please know it is, of course, your option to be a presenter or recommend someone else, knowing your expertise in this area we wanted to reach out to you both.

Lucille and Donna’s 2 hour Session: Their title and outline follows. Their bios and headshots are attached.

Part 1

Lucille Beseler - 45 minutes

- The prevalence of obesity and pre-diabetes in children
- Developing an Obesity Screening program for pediatric practices
- Imbedding RDNs into pediatric practices to provide reimbursable nutrition services
- New models to deliver nutrition care- telehealth

Part 2

Donna S. Martin - 45 minutes

- What schools are doing to address childhood obesity/pre-diabetes -- school food service, Kids Eat Right programs

Q&A 15-30 minutes

The link to the 2nd National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes <http://diabetes-prevention.us/home.php>. Although you are familiar with the audience, the website lists the attendees as Physicians, Researchers, Physician Assistants, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Dietitians, Podiatrists, Pharmacists, Psychologists, Endocrinologists, Diabetes Educators, People Interested in Diabetes, People With Diabetes, Diabetes Health Professionals and Other Healthcare Professionals.

Thank you for any ideas or help you can provide. Have a safe and enjoyable 4th!

Subject: May financial results

All,

The May results have been completed and loaded onto the portal for you. We will discuss this information at our July meeting. However, if you have questions as you review this information, please don't hesitate to reach out to me, either by email or phone. My phone is 800-877-1600, extension 4730.

Maria has loaded onto the portal the following information;

1. Minutes from the May 23rd Finance Committee call
2. Final April Financial results
3. Preliminary May results
4. Academy Variance report for May

Christian is finishing up the final narrative from April. As soon as that is available, Maria will let you know.

As for the results for the year, overall, they were excellent. As you will see on A1 of the May results, the overall results are as follows;

Consolidate Financials

2017 Actuals

2017 Budget

Variance fav/(unfav)

Revenue

$ 38,007.4

$ 38,225.9

$ (218.5)

Expense

40,883.5

44,914.3

4,030.8

Operating Income/(Deficit)

$ (2,876.1)

$ (6,688.4)

$ 3,812.3

Investment Income

$ 4,950.8

$ 3,385.7

$ 1,565.1

Final Income/(Deficit)

$ 2,074.7

$ 5,377.4

All of the information above is in thousands. As you can see, the Consolidated financial results show a Final Income of $2,074,700 after investments. This is $5,377,400 better than the budget!! That is a fantastic number. Of course, it was helped by great results from our investment portfolio. However, if you look at the Operating Income/(Deficit) numbers you will see that, even though the Consolidated financials had a deficit of $2,876,100, it was $3,812,300 lower than the budget. Again, a great number overall.

I won't get into each organizations results except to say; everyone did better than budget on the bottom line!

When you go through the financial details on pages A8 through A15, you will see many negative variances for May. That is caused, for the most part, by everyone pushing through expenses that were budgeted, but, may have been expected earlier in the year. In addition, there are always year-end adjustments that are necessary due to required liabilities for items such as vacation balances, additional medical requirements, etc. Most of these you will see these adjustments in the personnel lines of the various business.

The Academy variance report for May will provide "high level" explanation of the significant variances for the month.

As a reminder, remember the simplicity of the financial documents. A negative number means it did not meet budget expectations and a positive number means it was better than budget expectations. For example;

- a. For revenue, a positive number means we had more revenue than we budgeted. A negative number means we had less revenue than we budgeted.
- b. For expenses, the opposite is true. A positive number means we had less expense than budgeted. A negative number means we had more expense than budgeted.
- c. For investment income, which is treated like revenue, a positive number means we had more investment income than budgeted. A negative number means we had less investment income than budgeted.

The other thing to remember is the financial information is created in a layered approach. Pages A1 through A7 are the "high level" results. Pages A8 through A15 provides the detail to support pages A1 through A7. There is one exception to this approach; We don't provide a detailed supporting page for A1 since it is a summary of all of the other pages. If this is something you would like in the future, we can provide this information.

I hope everyone has a great July 4th weekend. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Paul

At this point it was not hands on but with your help we could make it so. How about a demo with audience taking part of a group attending a session of DPP and or DSME facilitated by an RDN?

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Jo Jo, thanks for stopping by to chat about this while you were at HQ for the Foundation meeting. As requested, I am sharing Lucille and Donna's session outline as FYI as you consider ideas for a possible 1.5 hour hands on workshop for the 2nd National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes taking place on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Please know it is, of course, your option to be a presenter or recommend someone else, knowing your expertise in this area we wanted to reach out to you both.

Lucille and Donna's 2 hour Session: Their title and outline follows. Their bios and headshots are attached.

Part 1

Lucille Beseler - 45 minutes

- The prevalence of obesity and pre-diabetes in children
- Developing an Obesity Screening program for pediatric practices
- Imbedding RDNs into pediatric practices to provide reimbursable nutrition services
- New models to deliver nutrition care- telehealth

Part 2

Donna S. Martin - 45 minutes

- What schools are doing to address childhood obesity/pre-diabetes -- school food service, Kids Eat Right programs

Q&A 15-30 minutes

The link to the 2nd National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes <http://diabetes-prevention.us/home.php>. Although you are familiar with the audience, the website lists the attendees as Physicians, Researchers, Physician Assistants, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Dietitians, Podiatrists, Pharmacists, Psychologists, Endocrinologists, Diabetes Educators, People Interested in Diabetes, People With Diabetes, Diabetes Health Professionals and Other Healthcare Professionals.

Thank you for any ideas or help you can provide. Have a safe and enjoyable 4th!

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Dr. Ibrahim has invited the Academy to participate in the Conference on Diabetes Prevention again this year. It will be held on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Lucille and Donna will be presenting a session on childhood obesity and we have an additional opportunity to do a 1.5 hour hands-on workshop. We would greatly appreciate your input and ideas for the workshop. We have also reached out to the DCE and WM DPGs and are awaiting their response. You might even have a session already developed that you would like to present. Thoughts?

Thank you!

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Dr. Ibrahim has invited the Academy to participate in the Conference on Diabetes Prevention again this year. It will be held on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Lucille and Donna will be presenting a session on childhood obesity and we have an additional opportunity to do a 1.5 hour hands-on workshop. We would greatly appreciate your input and ideas for the workshop. We have also reached out to the DCE and WM DPGs and are awaiting their response. You might even have a session already developed that you would like to present. Thoughts?

Thank you!

Attachment:

All,

The May results have been completed and loaded onto the portal for you. We will discuss this information at our July meeting. However, if you have questions as you review this information, please don't hesitate to reach out to me, either by email or phone. My phone is 800-877-1600, extension 4730.

Maria has loaded onto the portal the following information;

1. Minutes from the May 23rd Finance Committee call
2. Final April Financial results
3. Preliminary May results
4. Academy Variance report for May

Christian is finishing up the final narrative from April. As soon as that is available, Maria will let you know.

As for the results for the year, overall, they were excellent. As you will see on A1 of the May results, the overall results are as follows;

Consolidate Financials

2017 Actuals

2017 Budget

Variance fav/(unfav)

Revenue

$ 38,007.4

$ 38,225.9

$ (218.5)

Expense

40,883.5

44,914.3

4,030.8

Operating Income/(Deficit)

$ (2,876.1)

$ (6,688.4)

$ 3,812.3

Investment Income

$ 4,950.8

$ 3,385.7

$ 1,565.1

Final Income/(Deficit)

$ 2,074.7

$ 5,377.4

All of the information above is in thousands. As you can see, the Consolidated financial results show a Final Income of $2,074,700 after investments. This is $5,377,400 better than the budget!! That is a fantastic number. Of course, it was helped by great results from our investment portfolio. However, if you look at the Operating Income/(Deficit) numbers you will see that, even though the Consolidated financials had a deficit of $2,876,100, it was $3,812,300 lower than the budget. Again, a great number overall.

I won't get into each organizations results except to say; everyone did better than budget on the bottom line!

When you go through the financial details on pages A8 through A15, you will see many negative variances for May. That is caused, for the most part, by everyone pushing through expenses that were budgeted, but, may have been expected earlier in the year. In addition, there are always year-end adjustments that are necessary due to required liabilities for items such as vacation balances, additional medical requirements, etc. Most of these you will see these adjustments in the personnel lines of the various business.

The Academy variance report for May will provide "high level" explanation of the significant variances for the month.

As a reminder, remember the simplicity of the financial documents. A negative number means it did not meet budget expectations and a positive number means it was better than budget expectations. For example;

- a. For revenue, a positive number means we had more revenue than we budgeted. A negative number means we had less revenue than we budgeted.
- b. For expenses, the opposite is true. A positive number means we had less expense than budgeted. A negative number means we had more expense than budgeted.
- c. For investment income, which is treated like revenue, a positive number means we had more investment income than budgeted. A negative number means we had less investment income than budgeted.

The other thing to remember is the financial information is created in a layered approach. Pages A1 through A7 are the “high level” results. Pages A8 through A15 provides the detail to support pages A1 through A7. There is one exception to this approach; We don’t provide a detailed supporting page for A1 since it is a summary of all of the other pages. If this is something you would like in the future, we can provide this information.

I hope everyone has a great July 4th weekend. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Paul

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

I wondered if you had any thoughts regarding the hands-on workshop for the National Conference on Prevention of Diabetes. I will be in the office when you are in this week, Jo Jo, in case you'd like to chat during your break.

Thanks!

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Dr. Ibrahim has invited the Academy to participate in the Conference on Diabetes Prevention again this year. It will be held on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Lucille and Donna will be presenting a session on childhood obesity and we have an additional opportunity to do a 1.5 hour hands-on workshop. We would greatly appreciate your input and ideas for the workshop. We have also reached out to the DCE and WM DPGs and are awaiting their response. You might even have a session already developed that you would like to present. Thoughts?

Thank you!

Joan,

The Academy Nutrition Services Payment Committee and DCE asked me to speak about the new Medicare Diabetes Prevention Program that will be covered by Medicare in 2018.

Attached is the webinar presentation slides that Ann Albright, Joyce Green Pastors and I presented titled “The Medicare Diabetes Prevention Program: Opportunities for nutrition and dietetics practitioners” in June to 1000 Academy members.

Also attached are the questions we answered after the presentation. I have ccd Michelle Kuppich the Academy staff that was instrumental in supporting the three speakers.

If this would be of interest to Dr. Ibrahim, I could update members on the pending CMS that should be out by November 17-19.

Joan, I am shocked they asked me to come speak again? I was just there in April. That does make me feel good, but I am still surprised. I think Tammy or Hope are excellent choices since they could drive. Ask Hope first since she is a director at large and does not have as much BOD responsibility as Tammy does with the House. She is on vacation right now, but she may still respond. Then ask Tammy.

The other thought is Lucille because she did not get to go last year because of the New York conflict.

On the plane headed to Chicago for the Foundatuon dinner and a talk tomorrow for Dairy. They just said the plane has mechanical issues. I am the worst person to fly with ever. I do not have good luck. Thanks for your help with this.

Dear Gus

Malnutrition is the new normal: ~~A British problem needing a global outlook~~

Malnutrition in all its forms affects 1 in 3 people in the world. The UK is no exception and faces a complex mix of obesity and food insecurity.

This event promotes fresh thinking on food policy to tackle malnutrition in the UK and abroad and supports inter-country learning on food and nutrition policy ideas.

Lord Cameron of Dillington will chair this lively discussion. Professor Corinna Hawkes will give the keynote speech and Professor Renato Maluf will provide insight into the experiences of Brazil. Our panel of commentators, which includes Lord Watts, Emma Lewell-Buck MP (TBC) and Maggie Throup MP will offer their views on examples of policy action in the UK and Brazil which will be presented during the evening.

Unfortunately, these are the same dates you are scheduled to present at the PAND 2018 Annual Meeting & Exhibition being held on April 5-7 in Grantville, PA. Please let me know your thoughts and if you'd like me to ask another BOD member on your behalf to present in your place. If so, maybe Hope and Tammy are a consideration; they live in the Cleveland area, about a 3.5 hr drive away. Thanks!

Hi Donna,

So sorry for the delayed response, I have been out of town traveling and then busy with my 8 year old daughter's softball season!

We would be thrilled if covering your airfare was something that the Academy could arrange. There is a airport in Hailey, Idaho which is about a 20 minute drive from our conference location of the Sun valley Lodge in Ketchum, Idaho.

The theme of our annual meeting for 2018 will be "Building Bridges - Celebrating 70 Years of the Idaho Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics." We are really trying to incorporate our theme into all aspects of our meeting. Our goal is to build relationships, promote networking and really "tell a story" around this theme.

Our meeting planner, Jill Rice has been sending the following request out to all prospective speakers/presentors:

Presentation style and integrating the theme into sessions:

For our conference this year, we are focusing on creating experiences that foster communication and opportunities for interaction rather than sitting through lecture after lecture. The role of the speaker is to intentionally facilitate discussion and relationship building. "Humans are wired to listen to stories, and metaphors abound for the narrative structures that work best to engage people. Take the audience on a journey." We are looking for presenters who can engage attendees in a dynamic and exciting way that really connects the audience to the topic and it's importance.

I am aware that if you were able to attend that you would be presenting a "Academy Update." I am wondering if you could somehow work our theme into your presentation as well. I have heard that you have done amazing work with the school lunch program and have worked with Michelle Obama as well. I know our members would love to hear more about your experiences and successes in networking and "building bridges" within these areas of your practice!

We are planning on having our first official Annual Planning Committee Meeting on August 9th. Please keep me apprised of the probability of the Academy being able to pay for your airfare to Sun Valley. Of course, we understand if it does not work out this year. We will play it by ear!

Thank you again for your reply and I am looking forward to meeting you face-to-face in October!

Sarah, I totally understand how expensive it is to host speakers for a small state. One of my goals this year as President was to try and determine a way that more small states could have someone from the board come and speak at their state meeting. Your email sped up that process. We are currently developing a grant type process that would enable small states (like Idaho) to be able to apply for funding to pay for the airfare for someone from the board to be able to speak at their meeting. Do you think if airfare was paid for you all could afford the hotel room and local transportation? Some states I go to speak at have someone on the board pick me up at the airport and take me back to the airport to save money. I am not that familiar with Idaho, but let me know if that might work for you all and I will save the date on my calendar. Hello Donna,

Greetings from Twin Falls, Idaho! My name is Sarah Renaldi and I am the President-Elect and Annual Meeting Planning Chair for the Idaho Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

I am writing to first, express my gratitude that you expressed a willingness to attend our Annual Meeting as I understand that you were offered an informal invitation by one of our members this past spring.

I am also writing to express my disappointment that after sitting down and meeting as a planning committee, we realized that we cannot incur the expense that it would take to get you to the (expensive) resort town of Sun Valley.

I know that you have much experience with budgets and speaker costs and I have no doubt that you will understand where we are coming from.

I sincerely apologize for any misunderstanding this may have caused. I am looking forward to meeting you in Chicago this October for the 100 year FNCE celebration!

Thank you again for your understanding and graciousness.

Academy Opposes Senate Health Care Bill

The Academy has expressed its opposition to the Senate's Better Care Reconciliation Act of 2017, which may be voted on after Congress's July 4 recess. In a letter to the Senate Majority and Minority leaders, President Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, wrote that the bill fails to improve access to quality health care services; to invest in vital nutrition services that would reduce health care spending; or to meet the Academy's five tenets of health care. The Academy urged the Senate to work in a bipartisan manner to draft common-sense reforms and continues to offer to work with Congress to improve the nutrition and health of the country. Take action today to connect with your senators to oppose the legislation.

PPW 2017: 'Together We Have a Louder Voice'

At the Academy's successful 2017 Public Policy Workshop, more than 350 members focused on the importance of nutrition services in health care prevention and nutrition education programs in the Farm Bill. President Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, spoke on how these policies save money and reminded members of the Academy's traditionally nonpartisan role in advocating in Congress. U.S. Sen. Pat Roberts (Kan.), a supporter of the Academy especially on agriculture issues, spoke at the ANDPAC Power Breakfast and received the Academy's 2017 Public Policy Leadership Award, along with Sen. Gary Peters (Mich.). Academy member Patty Keane, MS, RD, received the Award for Grassroots Excellence. Former Agriculture Under Secretary Kevin Concannon, now a member of the Academy's Board of Directors, gave an inspiring talk at PPW as well. Learn about PPW events on Facebook and on Twitter using #PPW2017. An overall message of PPW was that members of Congress need to hear from their constituents on the Academy's priority issues, and every Academy member's voice is critical. In the words of Susan Scott, MS, RDN, LD, chair of the Academy's political action committee ANDPAC: "Together have a louder voice."

Academy Supports New Bill in Congress: Nutrition Education and Wellness in Schools

U.S. Reps. Jim McGovern (Mass.), Mark Pocan (Wis.) and Tim Ryan (Ohio), introduced the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act, which would help schools meet their wellness policy goals that focus on nutrition by providing grant funding. With the Academy's input, the bill focuses on the need to coordinate school meals and nutrition education with qualified nutrition professionals leading these efforts. In announcing the Academy's support, President Donna Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, said the bill "supports the development of children's lifelong healthy behaviors that will improve educational attainment and decrease diet-related chronic disease."

NEW! Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Request for Comments: Info Collection: Evaluation of Alternatives to Improve Elderly Access (to SNAP):

FNS is interested in exploring whether policy options designed to improve access to SNAP for the elderly are effective. The objective of the study is to better understand how to maximize elder (60+) access to SNAP. The evaluation will have four key components:

- (1) Exploratory Study*
- (2) Study of State Interventions*
- (3) Study of elder participant perspectives*
- (4) Study of State Intervention Effects*

The key data source for this study will be a longitudinal file for each State that will be built by requesting caseload data from each study State for a period of time beginning 12 months before the implementation of an intervention and continuing through 12 months after implementation.

For more details about the study, visit this link to the Federal Register:
<https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2017-11028>

Comments are invited on:

- 1. Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility;*
- 2. The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;*

3. Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
4. Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Good morning--great pix in the paper of you demonstrating Julia Child knife skills at York Farmers Market!, We'll sign you up for a future "James Beard Nutrition Skill Award as -NASDA's Top Aggie Chef" !

Congrats on this terrific Penna. Dept of Ag outreach promoting USDA's Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program and options for healthy eating with healthy fruit and veggies purchases from the Senior's program.

Here this week in Chicago at the Board meeting of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietitians this week, for some strange reason, they asked to join their Foundation Board. My first meeting tomorrow.- a bit nervous. They have 75,000 Registered Dietitians with impressive leadership.

We'll have to nominate you as Chair of the NASDA State Commissioners of Agriculture "Healthy Eating" Committee--maybe a challenge to Mike Strain in New Orleans at your 2017 NASDA Ag Commissioners Annual meeting on which Commissioner of Ag qualifies annually for the Russell Redding Knife and Healthy Eating Skill Award promoting USDA's WIC and Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Programs.

Also pleased that PA adds a few $million from State Funds to top up and promote state wide this very popular program for healthy nutrition for Seniors in the Keystone State!

Congrats--great Pix.

Mr Secretary,

Russell,

Ref: Cooking and Nutrition Demo--and Tasting--York, PA Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program

Good morning--great pix in the paper of you demonstrating Julia Child knife skills at York Farmers Market!, We'll sign you up for a future "James Beard Nutrition Skill Award as -NASDA's Top Aggie Chef" !

Congrats on this terrific Penna. Dept of Ag outreach promoting USDA's Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program and options for healthy eating with healthy fruit and veggies purchases from the Senior's program.

Here this week in Chicago at the Board meeting of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietitians this week, for some strange reason, they asked to join their Foundation Board. My first meeting tomorrow.- a bit nervous. They have 75,000 Registered Dietitians with impressive leadership.

We'll have to nominate you as Chair of the NASDA State Commissioners of Agriculture "Healthy Eating" Committee--maybe a challenge to Mike Strain in New Orleans at your 2017 NASDA Ag Commissioners Annual meeting on which Commissioner of Ag qualifies annually for the Russell Redding Knife and Healthy Eating Skill Award promoting USDA's WIC and Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Programs.

Also pleased that PA adds a few $million from State Funds to top up and promote state wide this very popular program for healthy nutrition for Seniors in the Keystone State!

Congrats--great Pix.

Gus

Public Policy Workshop – Hill Visit Reports and Evaluation

Hill Visit Reports

We need to hear about your meetings with members of Congress! This information is important to the Academy’s advocacy work in Washington, D.C.

Guidance for completing the Hill Visits Report:

1. Affiliate PPC or alternate are asked to make sure that reports on all meetings on Capitol Hill are submitted. Use the notes from your visits to enter the information for the report.
1. If several people attended a meeting, only one team member needs to complete the report on that meeting.
1. The survey is set to allow reporting on more than one meeting. For instance, if you met with both Senators and 1 Representative, you will be prompted to complete the information for each meeting.
1. The survey will allow you to access the survey more than one time if needed.
1. If teams dropped off packets but did not meet with the Congress member or staff, report the information in the additional comments question at the end of the report. Be sure to enter the name of the staff member with whom you left the packet in the “met with” question.

It is important that we hear about your work with the 535 members of Congress! If you have any questions, please let us know.

PPW Meeting Evaluation

In an effort to learn and build on the success of this event, please complete the evaluation survey . Your input will help shape our future public policy workshops.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post this Message

Cut and past the following message and post to your communication platforms. There are three action alerts open:

1. Value of Nutrition Services in Prevention and Treatment (Opposes Better Care Reconciliation Act)
2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill
3. The Academy's 100 Year Resolution

(Message to Post)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

This week at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Academy Opposes Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act of 2017

On June 27, the Academy voiced opposition to the Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act, which the Senate plans to vote on after the July 4 recess. In a letter to the Senate Majority and Senate Minority leaders, registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy President Donna Martin said that the bill as written fails to meet the Academy's five tenets of health care; therefore the Academy strongly opposes passage of the current version of the bill in the Senate. The Academy urges the Senate to work in a bipartisan manner to draft common-sense reforms that would improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Americans, and continues to offer to work with Congress to improve the nutrition and health of the country.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow!

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members during the Public Policy Workshop, H. Res. 161, the Congressional Resolution Commemorating the Academy's Centennial has two new cosponsors in the House of Representatives! We are pleased to announce that Reps. Rick Allen (Ga.) and Barbara Lee (Calif.) have co-sponsored the Resolution. Our Congressional champions in both the House and Senate appreciate the work of Academy members in reaching out to Congress! Please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the Congressional Resolution. Also, if your Member of Congress has expressed interest in supporting the resolution, please let the Academy's PIA office know!

ANDPAC Chair Susan Scott: “Together we have a louder voice!”

Susan Scott, AL Dietetics Association Public Policy Coordinator and chair of the Academy’s Political Action Committee, helped rally the over 350 Academy members that attended the Public Policy Workshop (PPW) June 25-26 with her above quote. This year members demonstrated the importance of nutrition services in the Prevention Fund and nutrition education in the Farm Bill. President of the AND, Donna Martin, discussed how these pieces of legislation save money and reminded members to “Be able to change hats” as they tailor messages to the political party of the person they were meeting with. Attendees heard from many other Academy members and staff, in addition to agricultural champion Senator Roberts (R-Kan) who graciously attended the ANDPAC Power Breakfast. Follow the events that occurred at PPW on Twitter and Facebook from @EatRightPRO and #PPW2017.

PPW Award Winners

Patty Keane was recognized for her efforts in nutrition receiving the Award for Grassroots Advocacy on the first day of PPW. Another award, the Public Policy Leadership Award was bestowed to two nutrition policy champions, Sens. Gary Peters (Michigan) and Pat Roberts (Kansas). PPW attendees also had the pleasure of listening to anti-hunger champion Kevin Concannon speak at the workshop, who was the former Under Secretary of the USDA’s Food, Nutrition, and Consumer Services and new member of Academy’s board of directors. Concannon was awarded with AND President Donna Martin’s hometown famous grits for taking the time to speak to over 350 Academy members who attended the Public Policy Workshop. Follow the other events that occurred on Twitter and Facebook from @EatRightPRO and #PPW2017.

Register Today for Webinar Addressing Disaster SNAP!

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled: “Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

FRAC is also offering a series of webinars related to child nutrition policy. Click on the links below to join these events.

Summer Meals Matter

Developing Menus and Serving High-Quality Meals July 6, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time.
Creating an appealing, high-quality Summer Meal Program menu is important to the success of your program and can draw more children to attend and gain the support of parents. Menus that include variety and healthy food while addressing cultural preferences are important to incorporate into your summer program. Other considerations that come into play as you design your menus are how to budget for the best quality meal and what to do about curbing waste. Hear from program providers on what they do to develop their summer menus, how they've improved quality, and how to get feedback from the children being served at sites.

Breakfast Matters

Engaging Educators in Breakfast After the Bell July 13, 2017 - 3:00 PM Eastern Time

Educators are key to implementing successful breakfast after the bell programs. Join this webinar to learn how you can engage teachers, principals, and administrators to create effective and sustainable programs, such as breakfast in the classroom, "grab and go," and second chance. Resources will also be shared to help ensure your school's transition to a breakfast after the bell program is smooth and successful.

Afterschool Meals Matter

Innovative Afterschool Partnerships

July 20, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time. School is around the corner and it is an excellent time to reach out to potential partners who can assist you in building a stronger Afterschool Meal Program. Libraries are moving from serving summer meals to also participating in the Afterschool Meal Program. Mayors are running city-wide efforts to increase participation in Afterschool Meals and there are opportunities to partner with groups that are offering innovative afterschool programming. Join this call to learn more about the innovative partnerships that are happening across the country.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type “Optional Event Attendee Only” (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the “Additional Registration Options,” add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Public Policy Workshop – Hill Visit Reports and Evaluation

Hill Visit Reports

We need to hear about your meetings with members of Congress! This information is important to the Academy’s advocacy work in Washington, D.C.

Guidance for completing the Hill Visits Report:

1. Affiliate PPC or alternate are asked to make sure that reports on all meetings on Capitol Hill are submitted. Use the notes from your visits to enter the information for the report.
1. If several people attended a meeting, only one team member needs to complete the report on that meeting.
1. The survey is set to allow reporting on more than one meeting. For instance, if you met with both Senators and 1 Representative, you will be prompted to complete the information for each meeting.
1. The survey will allow you to access the survey more than one time if needed.
1. If teams dropped off packets but did not meet with the Congress member or staff, report the information in the additional comments question at the end of the report. Be sure to enter the name of the staff member with whom you left the packet in the “met with” question.

It is important that we hear about your work with the 535 members of Congress! If you have any questions, please let us know.

PPW Meeting Evaluation

In an effort to learn and build on the success of this event, please complete the evaluation survey

. Your input will help shape our future public policy workshops.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post this Message

Cut and past the following message and post to your communication platforms. There are three action alerts open:

1. Value of Nutrition Services in Prevention and Treatment (Opposes Better Care Reconciliation Act)
2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill
3. The Academy's 100 Year Resolution

(Message to Post)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

This week at the Public Policy Workshop, over 350 members of the Academy met with members of Congress to advocate for the value of nutrition in prevention and treatment and the role of nutrition education in the Farm Bill. In addition to these meetings, members of Congress need to hear from constituents. As important decisions are made regarding health care this week, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Academy Opposes Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act of 2017

On June 27, the Academy voiced opposition to the Senate Better Care Reconciliation Act, which the Senate plans to vote on after the July 4 recess. In a letter to the Senate Majority and Senate Minority leaders, registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy President Donna Martin said that the bill as written fails to meet the Academy's five tenets of health care; therefore the Academy strongly opposes passage of the current version of the bill in the Senate. The Academy urges the Senate to work in a bipartisan manner to draft common-sense reforms that would improve access to quality and affordable health care for all Americans, and continues to offer to work with Congress to improve the nutrition and health of the country.

Congressional Support for Academy's Centennial Continues to Grow!

Thanks to the outreach of Academy members during the Public Policy Workshop, H. Res. 161, the Congressional Resolution Commemorating the Academy's Centennial has two new cosponsors in the House of Representatives! We are pleased to announce that Reps. Rick Allen (Ga.) and Barbara Lee (Calif.) have co-sponsored the Resolution. Our Congressional champions in both the House and Senate appreciate the work of Academy members in reaching out to Congress! Please take a moment to ask your Member of Congress to join in celebrating the Academy's Centennial by co-sponsoring the Congressional Resolution. Also, if your Member of Congress has expressed interest in supporting the resolution, please let the Academy's PIA office know!

ANDPAC Chair Susan Scott: “Together we have a louder voice!”

Susan Scott, AL Dietetics Association Public Policy Coordinator and chair of the Academy’s Political Action Committee, helped rally the over 350 Academy members that attended the Public Policy Workshop (PPW) June 25-26 with her above quote. This year members demonstrated the importance of nutrition services in the Prevention Fund and nutrition education in the Farm Bill. President of the AND, Donna Martin, discussed how these pieces of legislation save money and reminded members to “Be able to change hats” as they tailor messages to the political party of the person they were meeting with. Attendees heard from many other Academy members and staff, in addition to agricultural champion Senator Roberts (R-Kan) who graciously attended the ANDPAC Power Breakfast. Follow the events that occurred at PPW on Twitter and Facebook from @EatRightPRO and #PPW2017.

PPW Award Winners

Patty Keane was recognized for her efforts in nutrition receiving the Award for Grassroots Advocacy on the first day of PPW. Another award, the Public Policy Leadership Award was bestowed to two nutrition policy champions, Sens. Gary Peters (Michigan) and Pat Roberts (Kansas). PPW attendees also had the pleasure of listening to anti-hunger champion Kevin Concannon speak at the workshop, who was the former Under Secretary of the USDA’s Food, Nutrition, and Consumer Services and new member of Academy’s board of directors. Concannon was awarded with AND President Donna Martin’s hometown famous grits for taking the time to speak to over 350 Academy members who attended the Public Policy Workshop. Follow the other events that occurred on Twitter and Facebook from @EatRightPRO and #PPW2017.

Register Today for Webinar Addressing Disaster SNAP!

Join partner organization, the Food Research & Action Center (FRAC) for a webinar titled: “Disaster SNAP: The Before, During, and After” on July 27, 2017 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. This webinar is meant to inform advocates, organizations, and state agencies about ways that the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) can assist disaster victims and their communities. Participants will hear from experts about best practices for planning and implementing a Disaster SNAP (D-SNAP) to assist people not already enrolled in regular SNAP as well as opportunities for providing supplemental and replacement benefits for SNAP recipients who suffer a misfortune. The webinar will cover the planning, execution, and aftermath stages of D-SNAP and include time for questions. Register today!

FRAC is also offering a series of webinars related to child nutrition policy. Click on the links below to join these events.

Summer Meals Matter

Developing Menus and Serving High-Quality Meals July 6, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time.
Creating an appealing, high-quality Summer Meal Program menu is important to the success of your program and can draw more children to attend and gain the support of parents. Menus that include variety and healthy food while addressing cultural preferences are important to incorporate into your summer program. Other considerations that come into play as you design your menus are how to budget for the best quality meal and what to do about curbing waste. Hear from program providers on what they do to develop their summer menus, how they've improved quality, and how to get feedback from the children being served at sites.

Breakfast Matters

Engaging Educators in Breakfast After the Bell July 13, 2017 - 3:00 PM Eastern Time
Educators are key to implementing successful breakfast after the bell programs. Join this webinar to learn how you can engage teachers, principals, and administrators to create effective and sustainable programs, such as breakfast in the classroom, "grab and go," and second chance. Resources will also be shared to help ensure your school's transition to a breakfast after the bell program is smooth and successful.

Afterschool Meals Matter

Innovative Afterschool Partnerships
July 20, 2017 - 1:00 PM Eastern Time. School is around the corner and it is an excellent time to reach out to potential partners who can assist you in building a stronger Afterschool Meal Program. Libraries are moving from serving summer meals to also participating in the Afterschool Meal Program. Mayors are running city-wide efforts to increase participation in Afterschool Meals and there are opportunities to partner with groups that are offering innovative afterschool programming. Join this call to learn more about the innovative partnerships that are happening across the country.

Hi, Donna: The Membership Team has drafted the email below, to go over your name to 45-year members of the Academy. They are planning to send an email each month to specific anniversary groups (40, 35, 30, 25, etc.). Could you please review the email and let us know if it is OK, or if you'd like us to make any edits? Thank you very much!

Tom

Connect with the Academy:

Dear NAME,

On behalf of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, I would like to offer a heartfelt THANK YOU for your 45 years of continuous membership.

We value your exemplary loyalty and service to our organization, and your continued support allows the Academy to stay on the cutting-edge of the nutrition and dietetics profession. While you're well aware of what the Academy offers, here are some newer benefits we encourage you to consider:

- Member-preferred discounts on professional publications such as the newly released Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Complete Food & Nutrition Guide, 5th Ed.
- The opportunity to share your expertise and knowledge with those in the field through the Academy's eMentoring Program. The program is entirely online, so you can easily build mentoring into your schedule.
- Up to 48 free CPE opportunities annually via the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, including ethics article CPE (required by CDR).

While 45 years of membership is its own impressive achievement, we would be remiss in failing to mention that upon your 50-year anniversary, the cost of Academy membership is reduced to only $50.00 annually. We look forward to offering this ongoing discount in just five short years. In addition to the lower membership rate, the Academy will offer complimentary FNCE® registration and an invitation to a 50-Year Member Celebration at the meeting taking place during your 50th year.

Again, your continued membership with the Academy has not gone unnoticed. You are the backbone of our organization, and we would not be where we are without you.

Congratulations on this impressive achievement!

We value your exemplary loyalty and service to our organization, and your continued support allows the Academy to stay on the cutting-edge of the nutrition and dietetics profession. While you're well aware of what the Academy offers, here are some newer benefits we encourage you to consider:

- Member-preferred discounts on professional publications such as the newly released Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Complete Food & Nutrition Guide, 5th Ed.
- The opportunity to share your expertise and knowledge with those in the field through the Academy's eMentoring Program. The program is entirely online, so you can easily build mentoring into your schedule.
- Up to 48 free CPE opportunities annually via the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, including ethics article CPE (required by CDR).

While 45 years of membership is its own impressive achievement, we would be remiss in failing to mention that upon your 50-year anniversary, the cost of Academy membership is reduced to only $50.00 annually. We look forward to offering this ongoing discount in just five short years. In addition to the lower membership rate, the Academy will offer complimentary FNCE® registration and an invitation to a 50-Year Member Celebration at the meeting taking place during your 50th year.

Again, your continued membership with the Academy has not gone unnoticed. You are the backbone of our organization, and we would not be where we are without you.

Congratulations on this impressive achievement!

Dear PPW participants,

The Academy's Public Policy Workshop was a huge success! Thank you for your great advocacy work on Capitol Hill yesterday.

Hill Visit Reports

We need to hear about your meetings with members of Congress. This information is important to the Academy's advocacy work in Washington, D.C.

Guidance for completing the Hill Visits Report:

1. Affiliate PPC or alternate are asked to make sure that reports on all meetings on Capitol Hill are submitted. Please coordinate with the PPC or alternate PPC. Use the notes from your visits to enter the information for the report.
 1. If several people attended a meeting, only one team member needs to complete the report on that meeting.
 1. The survey is set to allow reporting on more than one meeting. For instance, if you met with both Senators and 1 Representative, you will be prompted to complete the information for each meeting.
 1. The survey will allow you to access the survey more than one time if needed.
 1. If teams dropped off packets but did not meet with the Congress member or staff, report the information in the additional comments question at the end of the report. Be sure to enter the name of the staff member with whom you left the packet in the "met with" question.
 1. It is important that we hear about your work with the 535 members of Congress!
- It is important that we hear about your work with the 535 members of Congress! Thank you for participating in PPW and reporting your advocacy efforts. If you have any questions, please let us know.

PPW Meeting Evaluation

In an effort to learn and build on the success of this event, please complete the evaluation survey

. Your input will help shape our future public policy workshops.

Thank you for participating in PPW 2017 and helping to shape future public policy workshops!

Best Regards,

Jeanne

This past Sunday and Monday, June 25 and 26, more than 350 passionate, dedicated Academy members gathered in Washington, D.C. for the Academy's 2017 Public Policy Workshop. I'm sure you have already received positive feedback and seen many social media postings about PPW and the enthusiasm demonstrated by our members as they made direct connections to members of Congress. We could not be more pleased to see this response!

In this second year of the PPW realignment, we appreciate the expanded platform's success across all levels of the organization – from committees to affiliates and DPGs. The leadership of ANDPAC and LPPC continues to drive progress toward the Academy's policy and advocacy goals at the workshop, and this year was no exception.

Donna, Lucille and Mary served as moderators for the event, and each of them brought inspiration to the attendees, many of whom were attending as students or members for the first time. Thank you to the all of you who served as mentors to your affiliate leaders this year!

The Academy's messages could not have been delivered by our members at a more strategic time. The two advocacy issues for PPW were 1) the Value of Nutrition in Prevention and Treatment and 2) Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill. Both topics are relevant and timely, especially given the health reform discussions that are happening this week on Capitol Hill.

Kevin Concanon's insight on nutrition assistance programs was a PPW highlight. Two members of Congress – Rep. Michelle Lujan Grisham (N.M.) and Sen. Gary Peters (Mich.) – sent informative video messages.

The sold-out ANDPAC Power Breakfast honored Public Policy Leadership Award winner Sen. Pat Roberts (Kan.). His remarks demonstrated the beneficial relationship between the Academy and the Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry Committee's members and staff. Sen. Roberts noted the Academy provides and advocates for science-based policy in a nonpartisan manner, and he expressed his gratitude for our work.

Many thanks go to ANDPAC and LPPC members and the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy and the Meetings and Lifelong Learning teams for planning and executing another great Public Policy Workshop!

Dear Secretary DeVos,

On behalf of Academy President Donna Martin, the School Nutrition Director for Burke County Georgia, I wanted to reach out to request a meeting to discuss our shared priorities with the Department of Education and ways that the Academy can provide assistance to your Department. Next week, over 400 Academy members will be in Washington DC for our annual policy workshop, and even though I know that you are likely already booked, I thought I would check to see if you had any free time for a brief introductory meeting.

If next week does not work, I look forward to working with your office to find a time that we can meet, and discuss the important work that you are doing at the Department of Education. Please see the attached letter for a more detailed request, and thank you for your consideration.

Susie, The Dairy Council has asked me to stay on after my talk and talk to their 30 member Board for the next 90 minutes. Therefore, I will not be able to come to the Foundation board meeting. I am disappointed, but I will still be there for dinner Wednesday night. What is the new time? It did not come through in the email.

Hello,

Below is the draft citation for Michelle Obama's receipt of honorary membership, which will appear in the 2017 FNCE App. The citation can be no more than 200 words in length (currently 193). I would appreciate your feedback.

2017 Honorary Citation for Michelle Robinson Obama

In recognition of:

- Her work to support policy changes aimed at improving the nutritional health of Americans, a goal consistent with the Academy's Vision of optimizing health through food and nutrition.
- Her creation of Let's Move that combined comprehensive strategies with common sense to put children on the path to a healthy future by giving parents useful information and fostering environments that support healthy choices.
- Her use of her highly visible position as First Lady to model healthy behaviors and create public-private partnerships to encourage citizens, especially the youngest citizens, to make healthy food choices, drink more water, and be physically active.
- Her consistent and enthusiastic support of the registered dietitian-nutritionist as the expert on food and nutrition, and her reliance on evidence-based strategies to address child obesity.
- Her public advocacy for the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act, which updated school nutrition standards for the first time in 15 years.
- Her installation of the first White House garden since Eleanor Roosevelt's in 1943, which sparked a national conversation around nutrition, health, & wellness, and the possibility of growing fresh vegetables in a home garden or patio container.

THANKS,

Cathy

Hi, Donna: Attached for your review is our draft of your September president's page. Roberta Anding and Marie Spano provided great information, and both have reviewed this text and suggested edits, which we have made. Could you please let us know if this text is OK, or if you'd like us to make any edits, and we will send it to the Journal. To meet our deadline, we need to send it to them before the end of this week.

Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Hello,

Below is the draft citation for Michelle Obama's receipt of honorary membership, which will appear in the 2017 FNCE App. The citation can be no more than 200 words in length (currently 193). I would appreciate your feedback.

2017 Honorary Citation for Michelle Robinson Obama

In recognition of:

- Her work to support policy changes aimed at improving the nutritional health of Americans, a goal consistent with the Academy's Vision of optimizing health through food and nutrition.
- Her creation of Let's Move that combined comprehensive strategies with common sense to put children on the path to a healthy future by giving parents useful information and fostering environments that support healthy choices.

- Her use of her highly visible position as First Lady to model healthy behaviors and create public-private partnerships to encourage citizens, especially the youngest citizens, to make healthy food choices, drink more water, and be physically active.
- Her consistent and enthusiastic support of the registered dietitian-nutritionist as the expert on food and nutrition, and her reliance on evidence-based strategies to address child obesity.
- Her public advocacy for the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act, which updated school nutrition standards for the first time in 15 years.
- Her installation of the first White House garden since Eleanor Roosevelt's in 1943, which sparked a national conversation around nutrition, health, & wellness, and the possibility of growing fresh vegetables in a home garden or patio container.

THANKS,

Cathy

Hello,

Below is the draft citation for Michelle Obama's receipt of honorary membership, which will appear in the 2017 FNCE App. The citation can be no more than 200 words in length (currently 193). I would appreciate your feedback.

2017 Honorary Citation for Michelle Robinson Obama

In recognition of:

- Her work to support policy changes aimed at improving the nutritional health of Americans, a goal consistent with the Academy's Vision of optimizing health through food and nutrition.
- Her creation of Let's Move that combined comprehensive strategies with common sense to put children on the path to a healthy future by giving parents useful information and fostering environments that support healthy choices.
- Her use of her highly visible position as First Lady to model healthy behaviors and create public-private partnerships to encourage citizens, especially the youngest citizens, to make healthy food choices, drink more water, and be physically active.
- Her consistent and enthusiastic support of the registered dietitian-nutritionist as the expert on food and nutrition, and her reliance on evidence-based strategies to address child obesity.
- Her public advocacy for the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act, which updated school nutrition standards for the first time in 15 years.
- Her installation of the first White House garden since Eleanor Roosevelt's in 1943, which sparked a national conversation around nutrition, health, & wellness, and the possibility of growing fresh vegetables in a home garden or patio container.

THANKS,

Cathy

Welcome to Shutterfly Share

Thank you for creating a Shutterfly Share Site. This is your personal site to connect, communicate, and share photos and memories with your friends, family, and community groups.

Here's how to get started:

- Add pictures, videos and other content: You can select pictures & videos from your Shutterfly account or upload them from your computer to your new site. Add other content such as photo books, journals, a calendar, and much more.
- Invite friends and family: When you're ready to tell people about your new site, simply click the "Send Email" link and include a personal email to invite them to come check out your site. To keep your friends and family posted on new content to your site, add them as members to your site so they can receive automatic email notifications of content updates. Each member will be able to set their own notification frequency.

New! Download the free Share Sites iPhone App

- Access your site on the go and share photos directly from your phone

For your records, here is your site information:

Site Name: PPW 2017 ANDPAC Breakfast

Site URL: <https://ppw2017andpacbreakfast.shutterfly.com/>

Site Email Address: ppw2017andpacbreakfast@sfly.com

(Use the site email address to send messages to site members and automatically post messages to the site message board. Note: Emails with JPEGs attached will post to the picture section only.)

Have fun building your site!

Thanks,

The Shutterfly Share Team

Downloaded from Shutterfly. There a cute one with him and his harvest bright hat and the fruit we gave him. It was purple fruits and vegetables for his K State. Any ideas?

Welcome to Shutterfly Share

Thank you for creating a Shutterfly Share Site. This is your personal site to connect, communicate, and share photos and memories with your friends, family, and community groups.

Here's how to get started:

- Add pictures, videos and other content: You can select pictures & videos from your Shutterfly account or upload them from your computer to your new site. Add other content such as photo books, journals, a calendar, and much more.
- Invite friends and family: When you're ready to tell people about your new site, simply click the "Send Email" link and include a personal email to invite them to come check out your site. To keep your friends and family posted on new content to your site, add them as members to your site so they can receive automatic email notifications of content updates. Each member will be able to set their own notification frequency.

New! Download the free Share Sites iPhone App

- Access your site on the go and share photos directly from your phone

For your records, here is your site information:

Site Name: PPW 2017 ANDPAC Breakfast
Site URL: <https://ppw2017andpacbreakfast.shutterfly.com/>
Site Email Address: ppw2017andpacbreakfast@sfly.com

(Use the site email address to send messages to site members and automatically post messages to the site message board. Note: Emails with JPEGs attached will post to the picture section only.)

Have fun building your site!

Thanks,

Dear Secretary DeVos,

On behalf of Academy President Donna Martin, the School Nutrition Director for Burke County Georgia, I wanted to reach out to request a meeting to discuss our shared priorities with the Department of Education and ways that the Academy can provide assistance to your Department.

Next week, over 400 Academy members will be in Washington DC for our annual policy workshop, and even though I know that you are likely already booked, I thought I would check to see if you had any free time for a brief introductory meeting.

If next week does not work, I look forward to working with your office to find a time that we can meet, and discuss the important work that you are doing at the Department of Education. Please see the attached letter for a more detailed request, and thank you for your consideration.

Stefanie

Dear Secretary DeVos,

On behalf of Academy President Donna Martin, the School Nutrition Director for Burke County Georgia, I wanted to reach out to request a meeting to discuss our shared priorities with the Department of Education and ways that the Academy can provide assistance to your Department. Next week, over 400 Academy members will be in Washington DC for our annual policy workshop, and even though I know that you are likely already booked, I thought I would check to see if you had any free time for a brief introductory meeting.

If next week does not work, I look forward to working with your office to find a time that we can meet, and discuss the important work that you are doing at the Department of Education. Please see the attached letter for a more detailed request, and thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Stefanie

I completed the survey referenced below. The invitation indicates, "... by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results" without qualification.

It was only after completing the survey that I was informed that unless you are a member of the Academy, you must purchase the results at a discounted rate. This is clearly misleading. I am not currently a member of the Academy and would like to confirm that I will have free access to the results. Please advise.

In addition, the email provided below to which users are directed to send questions and concerns is not valid.

Thanks,

Dear Julie Hupperich:

Since 2002, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has sponsored the most extensive recurring survey of compensation and benefits in our field, helping practitioners and employers alike to make well-informed choices about pay and perks.

The 2017 research is now under way, and you have been scientifically selected for inclusion. Your reply is critical for the validity of results - it will stand for many others like you. This is true even if you are not currently working in the field - we need to know that, too.

Of course, your answers will be kept completely confidential by the company conducting the research for us, and used only in tabulation with others.

The survey should take only 10-15 minutes to complete. And by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results.

Please take a few minutes to complete the survey here:

Dear NDEP Members,

This email is a call for interested mentees and mentors for the new NDEP graduate student mentoring program. NDEP is beginning a program to provide an opportunity for graduate students to network and learn from other NDEP members who are in the job positions that they wish to attain (DPD Directions, Faculty Members, etc.). Many graduate students have questions on negotiating salaries, the accreditation process, pedagogy techniques, and tenure in teaching positions. If you are a graduate student who has similar concerns and would like to be placed in the mentoring program, please email Emily Riddle at esr146@gmail.com.

The NDEP Graduate Student Representative is also looking for mentors. Mentors will have the opportunity to share their experiences and knowledge related to the characteristics, skills and experiences necessary to succeed in their current role as a program director and/or faculty member. If you are interested in being a mentor or have questions about this program, please contact Emily Riddle at esr146@gmail.com.

Thank you!

Hello,

Below is the draft citation for Michelle Obama's receipt of honorary membership, which will appear in the 2017 FNCE App. The citation can be no more than 200 words in length (currently 193). I would appreciate your feedback.

2017 Honorary Citation for Michelle Robinson Obama

In recognition of:

- Her work to support policy changes aimed at improving the nutritional health of Americans, a goal consistent with the Academy's Vision of optimizing health through food and nutrition.

- Her creation of Let's Move that combined comprehensive strategies with common sense to put children on the path to a healthy future by giving parents useful information and fostering environments that support healthy choices.
- Her use of her highly visible position as First Lady to model healthy behaviors and create public-private partnerships to encourage citizens, especially the youngest citizens, to make healthy food choices, drink more water, and be physically active.
- Her consistent and enthusiastic support of the registered dietitian-nutritionist as the expert on food and nutrition, and her reliance on evidence-based strategies to address child obesity.
- Her public advocacy for the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act, which updated school nutrition standards for the first time in 15 years.
- Her installation of the first White House garden since Eleanor Roosevelt's in 1943, which sparked a national conversation around nutrition, health, & wellness, and the possibility of growing fresh vegetables in a home garden or patio container.

THANKS,

Cathy

Vitamin E: Setting the Record Straight

Date: Tuesday, June 27, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPEU Hours: 1.0

CPE Level: 2

For 90 years vitamin E research has produced prolific and notable discoveries, including isolation from plants, chemical identifications, and total syntheses. This eye-opening presentation will cover important milestones in vitamin E research, distinguish between the vitamins two subgroups (tocopherols and tocotrienols), and identify current sources and compositions of tocotrienols. Importantly, alpha-tocopherol interference with tocotrienol functions will be discussed, as well as the anti-oxidant and anti-inflammatory properties observed with tocotrienol application in cardiovascular and cardiometabolic disease, cancer, radiation exposure, and the aging bone. The latest studies will highlight tocotrienols role as the 21st century vitamin E.

Learning Objectives:

1. Explain the origins, history, and sources of vitamin E
2. Identify vitamin E as a family of eight distinct vitamers
3. Differentiate tocopherol and tocotrienol, including the functions and benefits

Speaker: Barrie Tan, Ph.D.

Dr. Barrie Tan, Ph.D earned his doctorate in chemistry at the University of Otago, and soon became a professor of chemistry and food science/nutrition at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. His research expertise includes lipid-soluble nutrients (carotenoids, E vitamers, CoQ10, and omega-3s). He was the first to introduce tocotrienol's benefits to the nutrition industry, and developed the first-ever tocopherol-free tocotrienol product derived from annatto. Today, his research focuses on lipid-soluble nutrients that impact chronic conditions. Dr. Tan is the senior editor of Tocotrienols: Vitamin E Beyond Tocopherols (2013), and continues to collaborate with numerous universities worldwide to further tocotrienol research. REGISTER HERE!

Here is the final version of the script that has been reviewed and edited by Strategic Communications.

A couple of changes, but nothing major. They just cleaned it up and made it better!

In the last session, we did change the Sen. Peters section as the affiliate will say a few words (so thus removed from Mary's script).

Again, I will have printed copies of the scripts for you.

See you tomorrow!

Jeanne

Speakers and Moderators,

Attached is the near final script for Sunday. There are a few sections that will be edited – I need to look at the slides for the table talk.

Let me know if you want to reassign any sections. Mary – the award section has a lot – so if you want to split that out with Donna we could do that. I am happy to make any edits you would like and finalize this tomorrow.

We will have to move the sessions at a fast clip!

Appreciate your leadership and apologize for the lateness of the script, I am moving as fast as I can! I will have printed copies for each of you ready on Sunday.

Hello Debra,

Donna forwarded me your question regarding the Market Research Panel blast email and asked me to respond. According to the Academy's Marketing Team this is legitimate; they launched another recruitment effort for the Eatright Research Panel. If you have any further questions please feel free to contact Georgia Gofis, the Director of Marketing and Business Development, at ggofis@eatright.org or 312/899-4809.

Have a wonderful weekend!

In an ongoing effort to keep you updated on our progress, we are delighted to report that the initial eatright Market Research Panel survey will be sent out to registered panelists shortly.

Please be advised that not all panel participants will receive this initial survey. Only those who are within the selected interest area(s) of the surveying company will receive this survey.

Additionally, there is a limit on the total number of survey responses to be collected. Once the pre-selected number of responses has been reached the survey will be closed to further participation.

We thank you for your continued patience during this process. Please take a moment to review and update the contact and interest area information you previously submitted by clicking the link below.

ACTION ALERT

Almost 400 members will be storming Capitol Hill as part of the Academys Public Policy Workshop on Monday, June 26 in Washington, D.C. We need all members to take action today to raise awareness of our issues.

Take action on these three issues:

- The critical need to pair nutrition education with nutrition assistance programs
- Legislation that reduces access to nutrition services for prevention and treatment, including the American Health Care Act (AHCA) and the Better Care Reconciliation Act
- Resolution Recognizing 100th Anniversary of the Academy

TAKE ACTION TODAY!

As individuals and as an organization, we can make a difference but only with your help.

1. Even if you have sent Academy Action Alerts in the past, please take action today!
2. Make a contribution to ANDPAC. Relationships built through ANDPAC, allow the Academy to actively voice our commitment to improving cost-efficient and quality health care for older Americans.

In this video, listen to Academy President Donna Martin and Past President Lucille Beseler explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC.

Thank you in advance for taking action and making our profession the nations food and nutrition leaders.

Dear Public Policy Workshop Attendees,

We are looking forward to seeing you on Sunday, June 25! Get social! Follow us on Twitter using #PPW2017! Be sure to post your Hill visit pictures and to thank your members of Congress on social media!

PPW Agenda and Handouts

The final agenda and handouts for PPW are posted to the community of interest as a combined easy-to-use master document and attached to this email. PPW is a paperless conference. To download the master document, complete the following steps:

- (1) Sign on to the PPW COI.
- (2) Click the "Library" tab at the top
- (3) Go to the folder entitled, "PPW2017 Combined Documents"
- (4) Download and OPEN the document entitled, "PPW2017 Documents."

Note: If you are having trouble logging into the COI, please use your member/registration number and your password for www.eatrightpro.org.

Action Alerts for PPW are Now Open!

Please take action today so that your members of Congress know our issues are important. Every letter counts! New! We've added buttons at the bottom of the page after you take action to share the information on Facebook and Twitter.

PPW Today

Beginning on Saturday, the PPW Today newsletter will be posted to the COI as a PDF document. Please download and share widely! PPCs and PALs should post to your groups electronic mailing lists if possible.

Affiliate PPCs, DPG/MIG PALs Meeting Reminder -- Constitution A at 1 p.m.

PPCs will receive leave-behind packets for Congressional offices at the meeting. The packets are easy to recognize, green folders for the House of Representatives and red folders for the Senate.

All PPCs and PALs (or designated alternates) should attend this required meeting. The agenda has been posted to the PPC and DPG COIs.

Seating by Voting State

Public Policy Workshop attendees, including students, will be seated by the voting state that attendees provided at registration. Each table will be labeled with the name of the state or states seated at the table. In a few cases, a state may have a second or third table due to the number of attendees. Smaller states may be seated together. A map is attached with the affiliate table assignments.

Hill Visits

As a reminder, the Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) or designated alternate for each affiliate will work with you to schedule all of the Hill visits for your group. Attendees do not need to schedule their own visits, unless this has been agreed upon with or requested by your PPC. If you have not connected with your PPC, please let me know. A list of PPCs and their contact information is available on the COI. The PPW Tool Kit contains sample scripts for scheduling meetings that may be useful.

Hill visits are planned from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. A few reminders:

- Red, white and blue professional attire is recommended – and if you have an ANDPAC flag scarf, don't forget to wear it proudly
- Wear comfortable shoes
- Bring your business cards
- Arrange to leave luggage at hotel
- Security may be heightened, leave liquids and sharps in your store luggage

Be Part of the ANDPAC Spirit Walk at PPW!

Ask friends, family and affiliate members to be there in spirit and sponsor you as you walk the halls of Congress visiting legislators in Washington DC. All donations help ANDPAC support the Academy's legislative food, nutrition and health goals.

It's simple -

- Invite family, friends, and affiliate members to sponsor your walk through a $10 donation to ANDPAC
- Ask sponsors to provide you with a selfie photo for you to carry to The Hill (hand held fan provided)
- Tell sponsors that their name will be included on a list of sponsors in a letter presented to their legislator

Together let's walk the talk in Washington DC on June 26th!

Get Motivated and Support ANDPAC

Health related legislation, and regulations, will impact public health and your livelihood as an RDN. In this video, listen to Academy President, Donna Martin, and Past President Lucille Beseler, explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC.

ANDPAC is the only PAC that represents the Academy's food, nutrition and health professionals. Stay informed on the Academy legislative priorities and donate to ANDPAC today.

REMINDER – this video can be shared in private, Academy member based social media sites. However, the link cannot be shared in public social media sites.

As you remember last December we were asked to review a draft statement, Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action, for the 9th World Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and its Complications summit which you attended.

The summit organizers compiled the responses from the many contributing organizations and sent a revised copy this week for our review, asking to see if it meets our “minimal expectations.” I have send the draft statement out to select staff, DCE DPG and WM DPG for review. The reviewers felt that they did incorporate some of our previous suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers. They provided a few general suggestions, and noted it needs much copy editing, which will be done before publishing (see copy attached – still awaiting WM DPG’s reply). The summit organizers have asked for the statement to be jointly published in the contributing organizations’ journals, and we are onboard to do that.

Dr. Ibrahim has asked for our reply by early next week. Please let me know if you have any comments you’d like me to include – and sorry for short turnaround time. When I send our reviewer responses to him I will request the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy’s approval to be jointly published.

Thank you!

Ms. Hupperich, Barbara Visocan at the Academy asked me to respond to your email that reached Donna Martin (signer of the survey invitation email you reference).

By providing an email address in the final survey question, you are now on the list to be emailed an Executive Summary of results when that is available. This is what the invitation email referenced.

When you hit the SUBMIT button for your survey, you should have seen this page, which tries to be clear about the optional nature of a full report purchase.

I hope this clarifies the situation, and would welcome any suggestions you might have for making the difference between the Executive Summary you will receive and the full report more clear.

I completed the survey referenced below. The invitation indicates, "... by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results" without qualification. It was only after completing the survey that I was informed that unless you are a member of the Academy, you must purchase the results at a discounted rate. This is clearly misleading. I am not currently a member of the Academy and would like to confirm that I will have free access to the results. Please advise.

In addition, the email provided below to which users are directed to send questions and concerns is not valid.

Dear Julie Hupperich:

Since 2002, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has sponsored the most extensive recurring survey of compensation and benefits in our field, helping practitioners and employers alike to make well-informed choices about pay and perks.

The 2017 research is now under way, and you have been scientifically selected for inclusion. Your reply is critical for the validity of results - it will stand for many others like you. This is true even if you are not currently working in the field - we need to know that, too.

Of course, your answers will be kept completely confidential by the company conducting the research for us, and used only in tabulation with others.

The survey should take only 10-15 minutes to complete. And by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results.

Please take a few minutes to complete the survey here:

Thank you in advance for helping us bring this benefit to you and to all in our profession.

Sincerely,

Speaker Message 2 HOD Planning Updates and Administrative Paperwork

Greetings Delegates:

Hopefully you are enjoying the first few days of summer and staying cool from some of the record breaking heat temperatures.

Preparing for the 2017-18 Year

Taking a little time to prepare for the new HOD year can go a long way toward enhancing your effectiveness and satisfaction as a delegate. Where to begin? Here are 3 recommended actions to get you off on the right foot:

- 1. Set up your profile on the HOD Communications Platform. Be sure to upload your photo and include your role in the HOD in your signature line (e.g., Tennessee Affiliate Delegate, Weight Management DPG Delegate, Delegate At-Large: Retired).
- 2. Complete the administrative paperwork. You will soon be receiving an email from hod@eatright.org with the instructions on how to complete the required documents. You will need to review, sign and return the documents before July 14, 2017.
- 3. Identify 5-7 key informants you can utilize throughout the 2017-2018 program year to gather input on mega issues and serve as a think tank for new ideas and innovations. Try to include a dietetic intern, under 30 member, one male, and NDTR if possible. Future Speaker Messages will identify key topics or calls to action for your key informants.

ACEND Updates:

Share the following updates with your constituents.

- The ACEND Board is pleased to release of the Future Education Model Accreditation Standards for the Associate, Bachelor's and Graduate Degree Programs. Information can be found on ACEND's website.
- ACEND's Virtual Town Hall meetings will be held on the second Thursday of the each month at 1:00 pm CT.

Updates from the HLT Planning Meeting:

- You voted and we listened! We will be discussing the mega issue: Championing the Registered Dietitian Nutritionist in Positions of Leadership (in Public Health and Government positions).
- We also plan to dialogue about the new Code of Ethics (to be released prior to the Fall HOD Meeting) and some of the practical applications for all members.
- We plan to post our HOD policy manual soon.
- We hope to have our mentors and mentees connected by mid-July.
- Be expecting a phone call or email from a House Leadership Team member introducing themselves and sharing with you our goals for next year.
- Lastly, we may not be sending out Speaker Messages each week. We will only send them out when there is new information, but feel free to contact any of the team members if you have questions or concerns in between messages. Also remember you can also use the COI discussion board to ask any questions.
- Weekly public policy updates are provided for your review and information. By staying on top of public policy updates, you can support your affiliate or DPG policy team and serve as a role model for Action Alerts.
- Be sure to share the Transforming Vision into Action Voting information with members and cast your vote! Voting closes on June 30th.

June 23, 2017

Ms. Hupperich, Barbara Visocan at the Academy asked me to respond to your email that reached Donna Martin (signer of the survey invitation email you reference).

By providing an email address in the final survey question, you are now on the list to be emailed an Executive Summary of results when that is available. This is what the invitation email referenced.

When you hit the SUBMIT button for your survey, you should have seen this page, which tries to be clear about the optional nature of a full report purchase.

I hope this clarifies the situation, and would welcome any suggestions you might have for making the difference between the Executive Summary you will receive and the full report more clear.

I completed the survey referenced below. The invitation indicates, "... by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results" without qualification. It was only after completing the survey that I was informed that unless you are a member of the Academy, you must purchase the results at a discounted rate. This is clearly misleading. I am not currently a member of the Academy and would like to confirm that I will have free access to the results. Please advise.

In addition, the email provided below to which users are directed to send questions and concerns is not valid.

June 22, 2017

Dear Julie Hupperich:

Since 2002, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has sponsored the most extensive recurring survey of compensation and benefits in our field, helping practitioners and employers alike to make well-informed choices about pay and perks.

The 2017 research is now under way, and you have been scientifically selected for inclusion. Your reply is critical for the validity of results - it will stand for many others like you. This is true even if you are not currently working in the field - we need to know that, too.

Of course, your answers will be kept completely confidential by the company conducting the research for us, and used only in tabulation with others.

The survey should take only 10-15 minutes to complete. And by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results.

Please take a few minutes to complete the survey here:
<http://www.readexsurvey.net/acb/survey.asp?19335RJXS>

Thank you in advance for helping us bring this benefit to you and to all in our profession.

Sincerely,

Hello Jo Jo and Marcy,

Dr. Ibrahim has invited the Academy to participate in the Conference on Diabetes Prevention again this year. It will be held on November 17-19 in Atlanta. Lucille and Donna will be presenting a session on childhood obesity and we have an additional opportunity to do a 1.5 hour hands-on workshop. We would greatly appreciate your input and ideas for the workshop. We have also reached out to the DCE and WM DPGs and are awaiting their response. You might even have a session already developed that you would like to present. Thoughts?

Thank you!

TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

We are very aware that change seems to come in waves.

Today I learned with mixed emotions that Jenn will be leaving her position next month. Sad for so many of us who appreciate her talents, expertise, and enthusiasm for life. It is hard not to go on Capitol Hill and have a member of Congress or staff member rave about Jenn!

But exciting for her, as she and Pete head to the upper Midwest. Pete has been offered a terrific job at Augustana University in Sioux Falls, SD, a huge coup for the recently PhD graduate in music. Sioux Falls is a great town for so many reasons including the start to raising a family.

Jenn will be missed but will remain a life-long colleague and friend for all of us!

Subject: 2017 Compensation and Benefits Survey

June 22, 2017

Dear Julie Hupperich:

Since 2002, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has sponsored the most extensive recurring survey of compensation and benefits in our field, helping practitioners and employers alike to make well-informed choices about pay and perks.

The 2017 research is now under way, and you have been scientifically selected for inclusion. Your reply is critical for the validity of results - it will stand for many others like you. This is true even if you are not currently working in the field - we need to know that, too.

Of course, your answers will be kept completely confidential by the company conducting the research for us, and used only in tabulation with others.

The survey should take only 10-15 minutes to complete. And by completing it, you become eligible for a free emailed early-bird Executive Summary of results.

Please take a few minutes to complete the survey here:
<http://www.readexsurvey.net/acb/survey.asp?19335RJXS>

Thank you in advance for helping us bring this benefit to you and to all in our profession.

Sincerely,

Donna S Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND

Donna,

I saw the social media comment on your post. These are usual type of questions with new legislation so glad to answer.

We talked extensively internally and with our external partners and Hill staff. We reviewed the manpower needs for this and the level of expertise, the conclusion was this could be an ideal opportunity for our members that are four year graduates, and would help to provide qualified professionals in rural parts of the country with the workforce demands. We also reviewed the professional standards for school food service directors to see if any language could be included. The conclusion was the language did not provide enough focus on nutrition that would be needed for this position.

To assure success of this legislation, Team Nutrition, a division within USDA would be the lead. This unit that has the most amount of and the highest quality RDNs second only to CNPP. These RDNs have the expertise administer nutrition grants and qualifications required of grantees to assure effective outcomes. Here is the language of the bill. After our due diligence, we feel the bill will provide a way to continue to improve children's health while at the same offering new opportunities for our members.

I agree that these spots at the Academy should be filled quickly, as it is a critical time for school nutrition and for farm bill programs. We need strong people in these positions. Very excited to announce that this bill has been introduced. We have been working on this bill for 6 months and are so impressed with the Congressmans leadership. He will continue to look for a R co-sponsor and will work to include this language in ag appropriations and increase funding for Team Nutrition overall. This fits nicely with our Second Century objectives.

Donna has provided a great quote supporting the bill. Unfortunately they didn't include her title but they are fixing now.

After our due diligence, we feel the bill will provide a way to continue to improve children's health while at the same offering new opportunities for our members.

A nutrition coordinator may not be appointed under this subsection unless the Coordinator has a background in nutrition education, dietetics, or nutrition program management

Jenn, Quick question about the Nutrition Coordinator bill. What would the qualifications for the coordinator be? People are asking if we can make sure it is an RDN? See you Sunday!

Thanks for the note, Donna. I know it must feel like you losing folks, but you still have so many that love and respect you here in DC. There are still champions here that would love love love to continue working with you and the Academy. I agree that these spots at the Academy should be filled quickly, as it is a critical time for school nutrition and for farm bill programs. We need strong people in these positions. I have some suggestions for Jeanne.

Im sad to leave but Im excited personally to start this new adventure. J Im not sure how long we will stay in SD ... but for now it is our new adventure J am in a state of depression over losing you, Mary Pat and Lorelei. It does not bode well for School Nutrition. Don't get me wrong, I am happy for you, just sad for us!

Very excited to announce that this bill has been introduced. We have been working on this bill for 6 months and are so impressed with the Congressmans leadership. He will continue to look for a R co-sponsor and will work to include this language in ag appropriations and increase funding for Team Nutrition overall. This fits nicely with our Second Century objectives.

Donna has provided a great quote supporting the bill. Unfortunately they didn't include her title but they are fixing now.

Good Afternoon,

I wanted to share the press release for the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act that just went live. Congressman Ryan has been very passionate about working on this issue and I really appreciate your help making this legislation a reality. Feel free to share with other interested parties and on social media.

Thanks,

Stephen

Hi Donna,

Thank you for agreeing to record a short "Thank You" message to send to renewed members. The short message is attached.

We will be using a 3rd party telemarketing company, ListeNation, to record and deliver your message. There are three ways to record the message:

1. Call directly into their system using a landline phone: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/>
2. Use an Apple device (iPhone or iPad) to record the message and send it via email: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/iphone/>
3. Use an Android device to record the message and send it via email: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/android/>

I see that you used your landline last time, so feel free to do that again if it's easiest.

I apologize for the short notice, but could you please send your final message by this Friday, June 23rd? The message is scheduled to go out next week.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need any assistance.

Thank you very much!

Hi Donna,

Thank you for agreeing to record a short "Thank You" message to send to renewed members. The short message is attached.

We will be using a 3rd party telemarketing company, ListeNation, to record and deliver your message. There are three ways to record the message:

1. Call directly into their system using a landline phone: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/>
2. Use an Apple device (iPhone or iPad) to record the message and send it via email: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/iphone/>
3. Use an Android device to record the message and send it via email: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/android/>

I see that you used your landline last time, so feel free to do that again if it's easiest.

I apologize for the short notice, but could you please send your final message by this Friday, June 23rd? The message is scheduled to go out next week.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need any assistance.

Thank you very much!

Very excited to announce that this bill has been introduced. We have been working on this bill for 6 months and are so impressed with the Congressmans leadership. He will continue to look for a R co-sponsor and will work to include this language in ag appropriations and increase funding for Team Nutrition overall. This fits nicely with our Second Century objectives.

Donna has provided a great quote supporting the bill. Unfortunately they didn't include her title but they are fixing now.

Good Afternoon,

I wanted to share the press release for the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act that just went live. Congressman Ryan has been very passionate about working on this issue and I really appreciate your help making this legislation a reality. Feel free to share with other interested parties and on social media.

Thanks,

Very excited to announce that this bill has been introduced. We have been working on this bill for 6 months and are so impressed with the Congressmans leadership. He will continue to look for a R co-sponsor and will work to include this language in ag appropriations and increase funding for Team Nutrition overall. This fits nicely with our Second Century objectives.

Donna has provided a great quote supporting the bill. Unfortunately they didn't include her title but they are fixing now.

Subject: PIA Update

ANDPAC and LPPC Leaders,

We are very aware that change seems to come in waves!

Today we learned with mixed emotions that Jenn Folliard, Director of USDA Legislation will be leaving her position at the end of next month. This news was sad for so many of us who appreciate her talents, expertise, and enthusiasm for life.

Jenn's husband Pete has been offered a terrific job at Augsburg University in Sioux Falls, SD, a huge coup for the recent PhD graduate in music. Sioux Falls is a great town for so many reasons including the start to raising a family. Jenn will be missed but will remain a life-long colleague and friend to us all.

Although change can be hard, it also can bring new opportunities for moving forward. This, we think, will be the case for continuing with a great Policy Initiatives and Advocacy Team. Following PPW, we will begin the process of recruiting in order to fill positions that are open as a result of the recent transitions. Should you be aware of qualified candidates, please encourage them to apply or to forward their information to me.

The board of directors will be developing a strategic plan next month for leading the Academy into the second century. This is an opportunity for us to ensure that the work of the PIA team aligns with the new mission and vision.

The Academy is committed to the value and importance of our policy and advocacy initiatives and to remain at the forefront of food and nutrition policy.

Best Regards,

Jeanne

Very excited to announce that this bill has been introduced. We have been working on this bill for 6 months and are so impressed with the Congressmans leadership. He will continue to look for a R co-sponsor and will work to include this language in ag appropriations and increase funding for Team Nutrition overall. This fits nicely with our Second Century objectives.

Donna has provided a great quote supporting the bill. Unfortunately they didn't include her title but they are fixing now.

Hello Donna,

Greetings from Twin Falls, Idaho! My name is Sarah Renaldi and I am the President-Elect and Annual Meeting Planning Chair for the Idaho Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

I am writing to first, express my gratitude that you expressed a willingness to attend our Annual Meeting as I understand that you were offered an informal invitation by one of our members this past spring.

I am also writing to express my disappointment that after sitting down and meeting as a planning committee, we realized that we cannot incur the expense that it would take to get you to the (expensive) resort town of Sun Valley.

I know that you have much experience with budgets and speaker costs and I have no doubt that you will understand where we are coming from.

I sincerely apologize for any misunderstanding this may have caused. I am looking forward to meeting you in Chicago this October for the 100 year FNCE celebration!

Thank you again for your understanding and graciousness.

If you would like to discuss further or have any questions, please feel free to email me or call my cell phone: 208-310-6554.

Sincerely,

Sarah Renaldi, MS, RDN, LD

Today I learned with mixed emotions that Jenn will be leaving her position next month. Sad for so many of us who appreciate her talents, expertise, and enthusiasm for life. It is hard not to go on Capitol Hill and have a member of Congress or staff member rave about Jenn!

But exciting for her, as she and Pete head to the upper Midwest. Pete has been offered a terrific job at Augustana University in Sioux Falls, SD, a huge coup for the recently PhD graduate in music. Sioux Falls is a great town for so many reasons including the start to raising a family.

Jenn will be missed but will remain a life-long colleague and friend for all of us!

A very draft session outline follows below. Lucille and Donna are reviewing and working on a title. I will try calling you today to discuss. Separately, we are working on the 1.5 hour hands-on workshop outline, speakers and title and will have that to you next week.

Part 1

Lucille Beseler - 45 minutes

The prevalence of obesity and pre-diabetes in children

Developing an Obesity Screening program for pediatric practices

Imbedding RDN's into pediatric practices to provide reimbursable nutrition services

New models to deliver nutrition care- telehealth

Part 2

Donna Martin - 45 minutes

What schools are doing to address childhood obesity/pre-diabetes -- school food service, kids eat right programs

Q&A 15-30 minutes

Hello Donna,

Greetings from Twin Falls, Idaho! My name is Sarah Renaldi and I am the President-Elect and Annual Meeting Planning Chair for the Idaho Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

I am writing to first, express my gratitude that you expressed a willingness to attend our Annual Meeting as I understand that you were offered an informal invitation by one of our members this past spring.

I am also writing to express my disappointment that after sitting down and meeting as a planning committee, we realized that we cannot incur the expense that it would take to get you to the (expensive) resort town of Sun Valley.

I know that you have much experience with budgets and speaker costs and I have no doubt that you will understand where we are coming from.

I sincerely apologize for any misunderstanding this may have caused. I am looking forward to meeting you in Chicago this October for the 100 year FNCE celebration!

Thank you again for your understanding and graciousness.

If you would like to discuss further or have any questions, please feel free to email me or call my cell phone: 208-310-6554.

Sincerely,

Sarah Renaldi, MS, RDN, LD

9. August Advocacy Day -- Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health – Register Today!
10. Updated PPW Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators – Updated
11. Dates to Remember – Must Attend Events in One Location!

PPW – Your Voice Matters, Even if You Can't Attend!

In order to help raise awareness of the importance of nutrition in prevention and health care and nutrition education in food assistance programs, we need your help before and during PPW.

Watch for an action alert this week and be sure to send a letter to your members of Congress! It makes a difference when your affiliate meets with Congressional leaders and they have heard from you!

Also, we will be posting PPW Today each day of the meeting – check it out to learn more about the issues and chatter from the meeting. Of course, watch for us on social media by following #PPW2017.

American Health Care Act – the Senate Version

1. is thought that the Senate version of the AHCA will be introduced later this week or early next, though the text of the bill has not yet been released. There will likely be changes to the bill language compared to the version that passed through the House of Representatives. The inclusion of nutrition services in prevention and health care continues to be the focus for the Academy and will be emphasized during the timely Hill meetings conducted during PPW. Watch for more details on the Senate version and the Academy's analysis of its potential impact on RDNs and NDTRs.

School Nutrition Coordinator Legislation Introduced

Check out the press release for the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act! The Academy has worked with Rep. Tim Ryan (Ohio) on the bill language for this legislation for the past several months. This bill would allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) and local wellness programs. We know you agree, that this is a great start to the Academy's advocacy efforts for the Second Century!

Support ANDPAC, Support the Profession

Health related legislation, and regulations, will impact public health and your livelihood as an RDN. In this video, listen to Academy President, Donna Martin, and President Elect Lucille Beseler, explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC. ANDPAC is the only PAC that represents the Academy's food, nutrition and health professionals. Stay informed on the Academy legislative priorities and donate to ANDPAC today.

Feel free to share this video with members; and show it at affiliate annual, district, DPG and MIG meetings. This video is the third in a five-part series that the ANDPAC Board of Directors is distributing to generate an understanding, interest and engagement in the Academy's public policy efforts on Capitol Hill. Your voice and support is needed now more than ever.

REMINDER – this video is a solicitation for Academy members only. It can be shared in private, Academy member based social media sites. However, the link cannot be shared in public social media sites.

Regulatory Comment Success! Nutrition Screening and MACRA

Nutritional screening is referred to in the recently released MACRA payments proposed rule. The Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015 (MACRA) established the Quality Payment Program for eligible clinicians. Nutrition screening is used as an example of a patient-reported outcome tool with corresponding data that should be captured in EHRs. Read more on page 179 of the proposed rule.

Stay-cation Advocacy -- How to Win in Washington From Your Own Backyard

Traveling to Washington to meet lawmakers can be challenging for advocates, while members of Congress often are harried and overbooked when in Washington. "Stay-cation" advocacy back home can often be the best strategy to get "quality time" with key decision makers. Join Academy partner, the Congressional Management Foundation for this webinar on June 22, 2017 at 1:00 PM EST. Register here!

Advocacy Alert: Video Message to Congress

National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs, NANASP and Meals on Wheels America have teamed up again to produce a joint video message to Congress advocating on behalf of funding for senior nutrition programs. NANASP Executive Director Bob Blancato and Meals on Wheels America President and CEO Ellie Hollander can be seen in this short video explaining the impact of cuts on programs that serve older adults. NANASP and MOWA have sent this video to Members of Congress who make funding decisions; we encourage you to send this video to your Representative and Senators as well!

It's a Wrap! PPW Webinars Posted

As a reminder those attending PPW should come prepared! Follow the links below to listen to the recordings (internet access required) prior to your arrival as the information will not be repeated at the meeting. CPEU certificates are posted on the PPW COI along with the MP4 versions of the recordings.

Session 1: What's In It for Me? Making your Impact on Policy Makers -- Recording

Session 2: Telling Your Story on Capitol Hill -- Recording

Session 3: Academy Issue 1: Value of Nutrition Services in Prevention and Treatment -- Recording

Session 4: Academy Issue 2: Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill -- Recording

Session 5: Ready Set Charge! -- Recording

The PPW Bootcamp webinar recordings are also available. The mp4 recordings are filed in the PPW Bootcamp 2017 subtopic in the PPW Community of Interest.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type “Optional Event Attendee Only” (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the “Additional Registration Options,” add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express

PPW 2017 Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The updated list of registrants for PPW 2017 has been posted in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). A few final edits are being made this week in response to member changes to their voting states.

To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. As a reminder, PPCs should contact those members attending from his/her affiliate to provide guidance on the affiliate’s scheduling of Hill meetings.

Dates to Remember

Very excited to announce that this bill has been introduced. We have been working on this bill for 6 months and are so impressed with the Congressmans leadership. He will continue to look for a R co-sponsor and will work to include this language in ag appropriations and increase funding for Team Nutrition overall. This fits nicely with our Second Century objectives.

Donna has provided a great quote supporting the bill. Unfortunately they didn't include her title but they are fixing now.

Good Afternoon,

I wanted to share the press release for the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act that just went live. Congressman Ryan has been very passionate about working on this issue and I really appreciate your help making this legislation a reality. Feel free to share with other interested parties and on social media.

Thanks,

Stephen

Mary Pat,

On behalf of Brookings Executive Education I would like to invite you to speak on a panel to a group of masters students visiting DC from Asia who attend Singapore Management University as part of their Masters in Tri Sector Collaboration. I am designing two days of programing to teach them about our government/ political system.

This would be an off the record event and the working title is Panel: Lobbyists – How Does It Fit Into the Process? It will take place on Tuesday, August 1, from 1:30 – 2:45 PM in the Cannon House Office Building, The event will be structured to have each of you (2) you speak for about 15 minutes and then spend the remainder of the session engaging in questions and answers. We are interested in hearing your thoughts about the how you engage with the hill both tactics and process as a lobbyist (we hope to have your co-panelist from a corporation). The student's overall final project will address food and nutrition, and thus I might expect some questions on substance too.

We hope that we can lend us your expertise and experience. Please let me know if you have any questions at: (202) 797-6319 or, you may e-mail me at: idubin@brookings.edu. I look forward to your hopefully positive response.

A very draft session outline follows below. Lucille and Donna are reviewing and working on a title. I will try calling you today to discuss. Separately, we are working on the 1.5 hour hands-on workshop outline, speakers and title and will have that to you next week.

Part 1

Lucille Beseler - 45 minutes

The prevalence of obesity and pre-diabetes in children

Developing an Obesity Screening program for pediatric practices

Imbedding RDN's into pediatric practices to provide reimbursable nutrition services

New models to deliver nutrition care- telehealth

Part 2

Donna Martin - 45 minutes

What schools are doing to address childhood obesity/pre-diabetes -- school food service, kids eat right programs

Q&A 15-30 minutes

Hi. Thanks so much for your support! You are amazing and I feel like we're soul sisters on many levels. J

My Dad was born in 1929, and his mom kept a scrapbook of his accomplishments during his youth. I've been looking over it, and noticed a newspaper clipping about his high school graduation. It highlighted a quote from a Reverend who gave the Baccalaureate sermon as he charged the students to ponder: "How Shall I Meet this Hour of Opportunity?" Quite fitting for you and I as we embark on our new adventures!

Cheers to an unbelievably successful year (for both of us!). Looking forward to seeing you next week at the Sustainability Summit!

I love that we are focusing on top line revenue growth too! Just so you all know, I met Diane Heller for dinner last night. She looks great and is about to finish her treatment. She is focused on running for office again this year. She is not sure what she wants to run for though. She will be in Chicago next week during the Foundation meeting for a special donors meeting.

Agreed can be a great source of revenue. Application is very thorough. The question how we position certificate programs that will provide a service to other organizations without diminishing the role of RDN and NDTR's. I believe we can do it with careful strategy. Lucille

Hello all,

ANDPAC leadership has discussed the Sunday evening meal reservation. As Susan is in Paris, and I initially made the dinner reservations I thought it would be ok for me to send one last follow up email.

I cancelled the initial dinner reservation, spoke to the concierge at the Grand Hyatt Washington and found a restaurant about two blocks walking distance from our hotel. I have made a 745/8PM dinner reservation for 15 people at Bobby Vans Grill (steak, seafood, pasta) for Sunday evening June 25th.

We understand that the priority is for Public Policy Leaders to be with our affiliates that evening continuing to prepare for Capitol Hill visits Monday. However, if you have completed that priority and are so inclined to unwind and team build, please join at least me at Bobby Vans Grill.

Let me know your intentions after you've determined your plans upon the conclusion of Sunday's workshop

Greetings Everyone!

I respectfully resend this Dinner invitation. Our work continues through the evening with our home affiliates in PPW preparation.

While it was my hope that we could enjoy some social connectivity, working to increase member confidence is the bigger priority for the next day's Hill visits.

Apologies to each of you for this confusion. Thank you for your tireless work for our profession. Looking forward to a great and most success PPW!!!

Mary Pat,

On behalf of Brookings Executive Education I would like to invite you to speak on a panel to a group of masters students visiting DC from Asia who attend Singapore Management University as part of their Masters in Tri Sector Collaboration. I am designing two days of programming to teach them about our government/ political system.

This would be an off the record event and the working title is Panel: Lobbyists – How Does It Fit Into the Process? It will take place on Tuesday, August 1, from 1:30 – 2:45 PM in the Cannon House Office Building, The event will be structured to have each of you (2) you speak for about 15 minutes and then spend the remainder of the session engaging in questions and answers. We are interested in hearing your thoughts about the how you engage with the hill both tactics and process as a lobbyist (we hope to have your co-panelist from a corporation). The student's overall final project will address food and nutrition, and thus I might expect some questions on substance too.

We hope that we can lend us your expertise and experience. Please let me know if you have any questions at: (202) 797-6319 or, you may e-mail me at: idubin@brookings.edu. I look forward to your hopefully positive response.

Best,

PPW – Your Voice Matters, Even if You Can't Attend!

In order to help raise awareness of the importance of nutrition in prevention and health care and nutrition education in food assistance programs, we need your help before and during PPW.

Watch for an action alert this week and be sure to send a letter to your members of Congress! It makes a difference when your affiliate meets with Congressional leaders and they have heard from you!

Also, we will be posting PPW Today each day of the meeting – check it out to learn more about the issues and chatter from the meeting. Of course, watch for us on social media by following #PPW2017.

American Health Care Act – the Senate Version

It is thought that the Senate version of the AHCA will be introduced later this week or early next, though the text of the bill has not yet been released. There will likely be changes to the bill language compared to the version that passed through the House of Representatives. The inclusion of nutrition services in prevention and health care continues to be the focus for the Academy and will be emphasized during the timely Hill meetings conducted during PPW. Watch for more details on the Senate version and the Academy's analysis of its potential impact on RDNs and NDTRs.

School Nutrition Coordinator Legislation Introduced

Check out the press release for the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act! The Academy has worked with Rep. Tim Ryan (Ohio) on the bill language for this legislation for the past several months. This bill would allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) and local wellness programs. We know you agree, that this is a great start to the Academy's advocacy efforts for the Second Century!

Support ANDPAC, Support the Profession

Health related legislation, and regulations, will impact public health and your livelihood as an RDN. In this video, listen to Academy President, Donna Martin, and President Elect Lucille Beseler, explain why they believe you should support ANDPAC. ANDPAC is the only PAC that represents the Academy's food, nutrition and health professionals. Stay informed on the Academy legislative priorities and donate to ANDPAC today.

Feel free to share this video with members; and show it at affiliate annual, district, DPG and MIG meetings. This video is the third in a five-part series that the ANDPAC Board of Directors is distributing to generate an understanding, interest and engagement in the Academy's public policy efforts on Capitol Hill. Your voice and support is needed now more than ever.

REMINDER – this video is a solicitation for Academy members only. It can be shared in private, Academy member based social media sites. However, the link cannot be shared in public social media sites.

Regulatory Comment Success! Nutrition Screening and MACRA

Nutritional screening is referred to in the recently released MACRA payments proposed rule. The Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015 (MACRA) established the Quality Payment Program for eligible clinicians. Nutrition screening is used as an example of a patient-reported outcome tool with corresponding data that should be captured in EHRs. Read more on page 179 of the proposed rule.

Stay-cation Advocacy -- How to Win in Washington From Your Own Backyard

Traveling to Washington to meet lawmakers can be challenging for advocates, while members of Congress often are harried and overbooked when in Washington. "Stay-cation" advocacy back home can often be the best strategy to get "quality time" with key decision makers. Join Academy partner, the Congressional Management Foundation for this webinar on June 22, 2017 at 1:00 PM EST. Register here!

Advocacy Alert: Video Message to Congress

National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs, NANASP and Meals on Wheels America have teamed up again to produce a joint video message to Congress advocating on behalf of funding for senior nutrition programs. NANASP Executive Director Bob Blancato and Meals on Wheels America President and CEO Ellie Hollander can be seen in this short video explaining the impact of cuts on programs that serve older adults. NANASP and MOWA have sent this video to Members of Congress who make funding decisions; we encourage you to send this video to your Representative and Senators as well!

It's a Wrap! PPW Webinars Posted

As a reminder those attending PPW should come prepared! Follow the links below to listen to the recordings (internet access required) prior to your arrival as the information will not be repeated at the meeting. CPEU certificates are posted on the PPW COI along with the MP4 versions of the recordings.

Join the Academy and USBC to Advocate for Women and Children's Health

The Academy's next quarterly advocacy day will be held on August 7 in Washington, D.C., when Academy members will be joining the United States Breastfeeding Committee for its Advocacy Day of Action. Participate in this one-day event to advocate for breastfeeding and women and children's health issues with one of the Academy's national alliance partners!

The advocacy day will follow the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening (NBCC); however, attendance at the conference is not necessary to participate in the advocacy event. A registration fee of $35 for the conference includes a lunch voucher to dine in the Capitol Visitors Center, materials, briefing/training, and round trip transportation from Arlington, Virginia if needed. For those able to attend, a briefing will be held on Sunday, August 6 from 3-5 p.m. Others can choose to participate in a preparation webinar that will be announced at a later date. For more information about the NBCC, contact Sara Walz, or register today!

Tips on registering:

The online registration for the National Breastfeeding Coalitions Convening is being used for attendees, even for those who are only attending the advocacy day;

1. Select the Registration Type "Optional Event Attendee Only" (base price $0.00).
2. In the box next to the registration type use the following code: nyajyvfq. Do not enter this code at the box at the bottom.
3. Fill out the registration form (two pages) and when you arrive at the "Additional Registration Options," add the Advocacy Day of Action.
4. Pay $35 using a Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express

PPW 2017 Registration List for Affiliate Public Policy Coordinators

The updated list of registrants for PPW 2017 has been posted in the Public Policy Coordinator COI for use by the affiliate public policy coordinators (PPCs). A few final edits are being made this week in response to member changes to their voting states.

To download a copy of the document go to the Library, find the PPW folder and then PPW 2017 subfolder to find the registration list. Please review the list to identify your state team members. As a reminder, PPCs should contact those members attending from his/her affiliate to provide guidance on the affiliate's scheduling of Hill meetings.

Hi. Thanks so much for your support! You are amazing and I feel like we're soul sisters on many levels. J

My Dad was born in 1929, and his mom kept a scrapbook of his accomplishments during his youth. I've been looking over it, and noticed a newspaper clipping about his high school graduation. It highlighted a quote from a Reverend who gave the Baccalaureate sermon as he charged the students to ponder: "How Shall I Meet this Hour of Opportunity?" Quite fitting for you and I as we embark on our new adventures!

Cheers to an unbelievably successful year (for both of us!). Looking forward to seeing you next week at the Sustainability Summit!

Mary Pat,

On behalf of Brookings Executive Education I would like to invite you to speak on a panel to a group of masters students visiting DC from Asia who attend Singapore Management University as part of their Masters in Tri Sector Collaboration. I am designing two days of programming to teach them about our government/ political system.

This would be an off the record event and the working title is Panel: Lobbyists – How Does It Fit Into the Process? It will take place on Tuesday, August 1, from 1:30 – 2:45 PM in the Cannon House Office Building, The event will be structured to have each of you (2) you speak for about 15 minutes and then spend the remainder of the session engaging in questions and answers. We are interested in hearing your thoughts about the how you engage with the hill both tactics and process as a lobbyist (we hope to have your co-panelist from a corporation). The student's overall final project will address food and nutrition, and thus I might expect some questions on substance too.

We hope that we can lend us your expertise and experience. Please let me know if you have any questions at: (202) 797-6319 or, you may e-mail me at: idubin@brookings.edu. I look forward to your hopefully positive response.

NEW! Public Health Nutrition - Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with this brand-new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) and the Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition (CPHCN) and the Public Health and Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG).

The Level 2 program consists of five separate modules that build on each other:

- Module 1: Foundations of Public Health Nutrition
- Module 2: Public Health Nutrition Work
- Module 3: Developing a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 4: Implementing and Evaluating a Public Health Nutrition Plan
- Module 5: Building Partnerships and Collaborations

To receive the certificate associated with this training, all five modules and related tests must first be completed and a final post-test in Module 5 must be passed with a minimum of an 80 percent score. The Certificate of Training can then be downloaded and printed from the site.

Academy members enjoy a reduced rate of $24 for each module or may complete all five modules and earn 10.0 hours of CPEUs for $120.

Learn more and earn CPEUs at: <http://www.eatrightstore.org/products/cpe-opportunities/certificates-of-training>

Request for Comments: Info Collection: Evaluation of Alternatives to Improve Elderly Access (to SNAP):

FNS is interested in exploring whether policy options designed to improve access to SNAP for the elderly are effective. The objective of the study is to better understand how to maximize elder (60+) access to SNAP. The evaluation will have four key components:

- (1) Exploratory Study*
- (2) Study of State Interventions*
- (3) Study of elder participant perspectives*
- (4) Study of State Intervention Effects*

The key data source for this study will be a longitudinal file for each State that will be built by requesting caseload data from each study State for a period of time beginning 12 months before the implementation of an intervention and continuing through 12 months after implementation.

For more details about the study, visit this link to the Federal Register:

<https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2017-11028>

Comments are invited on:

- 1. Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility;*
- 2. The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;*
- 3. Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;*
- 4. Ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.*

Hi Nancy,

I will be going to dinner with my affiliate. If we are done early, I will drop by Bobby Vans Grill. I have encouraged the LPPC to meet up with their affiliates as one of our projects is for our members to become more active with their affiliates as a way to disseminate information more seamlessly. That said, I appreciate your always working on bonding of our committee members.

Hello all,

ANDPAC leadership has discussed the Sunday evening meal reservation. As Susan is in Paris, and I initially made the dinner reservations I thought it would be ok for me to send one last follow up email.

I cancelled the initial dinner reservation, spoke to the concierge at the Grand Hyatt Washington and found a restaurant about two blocks walking distance from our hotel. I have made a 745/8PM dinner reservation for 15 people at Bobby Vans Grill (steak, seafood, pasta) for Sunday evening June 25th.

We understand that the priority is for Public Policy Leaders to be with our affiliates that evening continuing to prepare for Capitol Hill visits Monday. However, if you have completed that priority and are so inclined to unwind and team build, please join at least me at Bobby Vans Grill.

Let me know your intentions after you've determined your plans upon the conclusion of Sunday's workshop

I respectfully resend this Dinner invitation. Our work continues through the evening with our home affiliates in PPW preparation.

While it was my hope that we could enjoy some social connectivity, working to increase member confidence is the bigger priority for the next day's Hill visits.

Apologies to each of you for this confusion. Thank you for your tireless work for our profession. Looking forward to a great and most success PPW!!!

Hello ANDPAC BOD, and Communication Workgroup Members -

As promised, I am sharing the third ANDPAC video in our five-video series for release this year. These videos have been approved by the DC PP office and the Academy Strategic Communication teams.

This video captures words from our 2017-18 President, Donna Martin, and 2016-17 President Lucille Beseler. The link will be shared this week in ERW, PPWN and in a Friday PPW communication.

Please help to reiterate ANDPAC's message by sharing this video with your affiliate Executive Director/Board members/PPC or DPG and MIGs. (Reminder – this video can be shared in Academy member based social media sites only. No public sites). Any questions – don't hesitate to ask.

In case you need the exact link -

Mary Beth, I will be in Chicago next Wednesday night before I do a presentation for Dairy on Thursday morning. I understand you all might be having a Foundation BOD dinner that night. If it would not cause problems I would love to join you all for dinner? If not appropriate just let me know and I will understand. I get in at 5:30 pm to Midway and I thought that might work out. I was going to try and come by on Thursday after my presentation, but I thought Wednesday night might work better. Let me know what you think? Thanks!

Mary Beth, I will be in Chicago next Wednesday night before I do a presentation for Dairy on Thursday morning. I understand you all might be having a Foundation BOD dinner that night. If it would not cause problems I would love to join you all for dinner? If not appropriate just let me know and I will understand. I get in at 5:30 pm to Midway and I thought that might work out. I was going to try and come by on Thursday after my presentation, but I thought Wednesday night might work better. Let me know what you think? Thanks!

Hi, Donna. We would love to have you join us for dinner! I'm copying Beth on this message so she can include you in the count. We are dining at Eden, 1748 W. Lake Street, Chicago at 6:30 PM. You are also more than welcome to join any and all of the Board meeting so I've attached the full agenda. The more the merrier, we would love to have you. Thanks for thinking of this and glad the NDC is making it possible.

Katie, Thanks for doing this outline. This will be very helpful for my 9:30am conference call in the morning. Why don't we wait to do anything else with the slides until after my phone call at 9:30 when I can share with them what we have planned. The one thing I would like to add is that this pushes children into anorexia or orthorexia nervosa. Great start, thanks!

Hannah Phelps Proctor, the staff partner for this committee, has recommended replacing William with Karsyn Tall. Karsyn is a dietetic intern who selected the Student Advisory Committee as her first choice on the Opportunities to Serve survey. She previously volunteered as a Student Liaison and served as the HOD Representative for the 2016-2017 Student Advisory Committee where she was an active and engaged committee member.

Subject: ANDPAC Video #3

Hello ANDPAC BOD, and Communication Workgroup Members -

As promised, I am sharing the third ANDPAC video in our five-video series for release this year. These videos have been approved by the DC PP office and the Academy Strategic Communication teams.

This video captures words from our 2017-18 President, Donna Martin, and 2016-17 President Lucille Beseler. The link will be shared this week in ERW, PPWN and in a Friday PPW communication.

Please help to reiterate ANDPAC's message by sharing this video with your affiliate Executive Director/Board members/PPC or DPG and MIGs. (Reminder – this video can be shared in Academy member based social media sites only. No public sites). Any questions – don't hesitate to ask.

In case you need the exact link -

Hi! How are you doing? Is the bill still on track for introduction at the end of the month?

Here is a quote from our 2017-2018 President, Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND

This bill is an opportunity for school districts to hire a nutrition coordinator who will build on the work of wellness committees and school nutrition directors to improve healthy school environments. As a school nutrition director myself, I know that employing a school nutrition coordinator would help many districts create more opportunities for children to learn about the healthy food that is being served in cafeterias and to promote physical activity during and outside of school. This bill supports the development of children's lifelong healthy behaviors that will improve educational attainment and decrease diet-related chronic disease.

Hi Donna,

Hope your call went well. Mary Beth is reiterating to Katie today that she's writing your presentation and preparing the slides.

For today's call Jo Jo was put on the agenda addressing the first item so that you can thank her when she's done and excuse her, if you wish.

Please thank Jo Jo for accepting the appointment to serve as our advisor on the American Association of Clinical Endocrinologists (AACE) -- Lifestyle and Nutrition Scientific Committee and the Obesity Scientific Committee. We're also grateful for the steps she took in salvaging the relationship with AACE and credibility of the Academy after Susan Yake's communications with them. Asking her to expand on that would be a good thing for all of us to know.

Finally, please thank her for being our liaison to the American Association of Diabetes Educators annual meeting which is in August. Staff has contacted AADE's office to inform them. There an issue that Jo Jo may bring up – DCE DPG has traditionally held a breakfast for DCE members attending the AADE conference. Diane Juskelis very tersely informed them that they can no longer do that and they have to hold it at FNCE. Although that makes sense (they can always schedule it at both events), it's the way Diane Juskelis communicated that may cause ill feelings. If Jo Jo doesn't bring it up, I did ask Diane Enos to explain what happened. As Ps, you need to know in case a DCE member(s) brings it up.

Talk to you soon!

Pat, Diane and Joan,

In follow-up to our conversation yesterday regarding Board attendance at affiliate meetings I put together a few more thoughts and information.

Potential Options (based on conversation, options in blue seem to be the most favored options)

- Accept applications from affiliates requesting that the Academy fund an Academy Board member. Academy selects a set number (maybe 5 a year?) affiliates to support based on a criteria.

- Target affiliates who have not had a Board member attend their meeting in recent years and have minimal funding and approach them about the Academy sending a representative.
- Develop a rolling schedule that over the course of 3-5 years the Academy funds to attend an affiliate meeting at least once. (This would allow us to set an amount of affiliates each year. Say 7-10?).
- Continue as is, allowing affiliates to request Board attendance and affiliate pays.
- Allow all affiliates to request Board attendance and Academy pays.
- Offer a recording webinar available for download to affiliates who cannot afford Board attendance (in 2016-2017 a 3 minute video was available. We may consider recording a 30 – 60 minute webinar).

Criteria for Selection

- If we target affiliates who have not had a Board member attend recently, attached is a spreadsheet with additional information including:
 - o When the last time a Board member attended
 - o Membership size – I included end of year information for 16/17 and as of June 2017. (there are a lot of people still renewing so the as of today number is a little low)
 - o Using 2016 Principles of Affiliation annual report of financial reporting (note this is self-reported by the affiliate)
- If we accept applications for affiliates seeking funding through an application we can ask:
 - o General information already on the application – Meeting dates, location, proposed speaker, estimated attendance.
 - o Financial Need – amount of conference budgeted revenue and expenses
 - o “Why do you need the funding? Are there any special circumstances?”
 - o Check box session specific information – (ie a specific Academy programs/initiatives the affiliate wants more information about)

You are welcome to forward this information on if you'd like. I plan to speak to this during the call.

Thanks,

Amy

Hi Donna,

Thank you for agreeing to record a short "Thank You" message to send to renewed members. The short message is attached.

We will be using a 3rd party telemarketing company, ListeNation, to record and deliver your message. There are three ways to record the message:

1. Call directly into their system using a landline phone: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/>
2. Use an Apple device (iPhone or iPad) to record the message and send it via email: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/iphone/>
3. Use an Android device to record the message and send it via email: <http://listenation.com/what-we-do/listenation-call/recordinginstructions/android/>

I see that you used your landline last time, so feel free to do that again if it's easiest.

I apologize for the short notice, but could you please send your final message by this Friday, June 23rd? The message is scheduled to go out next week.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need any assistance.

Thank you very much!

Greetings from ACEND,

The ACEND Board is pleased to announce the release of the *Future Education Model Accreditation Standards for Associate, Bachelor's and Graduate Degree Programs. ACEND invites programs interested in being accredited under these standards to apply to be an early adopter demonstration program. The Standards and information about the demonstration program application process can be found at: www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel. A copy of the June Standards Update also is posted on this webpage.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Beginning on July 13, 2017, the monthly Virtual Town Hall meetings will be held on the second Thursday of the month at 1 PM Central Time. The ACEND Standards Committee periodically changes the time that the Town Hall is held, so that people who were not able to attend in the past due to scheduling conflicts may be able to join us now.

Thank you.

Hi, Donna: Each year at this time, the Academy's President has recorded a short phone message, to be sent to members thanking them for renewing their membership and encouraging them to complete a Member Profile survey.

The text of this year's text message is attached for your review. If you are OK with this, Matthew and Lilliane from the Membership Team will contact you to arrange for you to record the message. Please let us know if the text is OK, or if you would like us to make any edits. Thank you very much!

Greetings Everyone!

I respectfully resend this Dinner invitation. Our work continues through the evening with our home affiliates in PPW preparation.

While it was my hope that we could enjoy some social connectivity, working to increase member confidence is the bigger priority for the next day's Hill visits.

Apologies to each of you for this confusion. Thank you for your tireless work for our profession. Looking forward to a great and most success PPW!!!

ANDPAC Board - Y'all are Rock Stars!!!

Warm regards,
Susan

Hello ANDPAC BOD, and Communication Workgroup Members -

As promised, I am sharing the third ANDPAC video in our five-video series for release this year. These videos have been approved by the DC PP office and the Academy Strategic Communication teams.

This video captures words from our 2017-18 President, Donna Martin, and 2016-17 President Lucille Beseler. The link will be shared this week in ERW, PPWN and in a Friday PPW communication.

Please help to reiterate ANDPAC's message by sharing this video with your affiliate Executive Director/Board members/PPC or DPG and MIGs. (Reminder – this video can be shared in Academy member based social media sites only. No public sites). Any questions – don't hesitate to ask.

In case you need the exact link -

image002.jpg

Dear ANDPAC Power Breakfast Attendees,

The Academy's Public Policy Workshop is just less than a week away!

We have exciting news to share; our special guest speaker at the Monday, June 26th ANDPAC Power Breakfast is Senator Pat Roberts from Kansas.

After the breakfast, JOIN IN A SPIRIT WALK to Capitol Hill. Here is how:

- Invite family, friends, and affiliate members to sponsor your walk through a $10 donation to ANDPAC.
- Ask sponsors to provide you with a selfie photo for you to carry to The Hill (hand held fan provided).
- Tell sponsors that their name will be included on a list of sponsors in a letter presented to their legislator.

Breakfast details:

- Close to 100 attendees are expected for the breakfast. Therefore, every attendee will need to arrive at the National Press Club by 7 a.m. Attendees should be checked-in and seated before 7:15 a.m. The breakfast buffet will open at 7:15 a.m.
- The National Press Club is .05 mile from the Grand Hyatt, Washington DC. The address for the National Press Club is: 529 14th Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20045

- Capitol Hill is approximately 1.5 miles from the National Press Club.
- Please join us in wearing patriotic colors – red, white or blue on Monday morning and for the Hill visits. Don't forget your ANDPAC scarf! Don't have one? They will be available at the booth for a $50 contribution.

Important Note: The National Press Club is a secure facility all attendees/staff must have a valid QR code to pass through security gates at the entrance of the Club on the 13th floor.

ALL GUESTS MUST HAVE A VALID CODE TO ENTER THE FACILITY.

Simply present this code - either printed or on your mobile device - at the turnstiles located on the 13th floor on the day of our event. We will have printed copies available at the registration desk for your convenience.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at ANDPAC@eatright.org.

Thank you for your plans to attend the breakfast!!

Be RED, WHITE, &BLUE PROUD!!

Be part of The ANDPAC Spirit Walk at PPW!

Ask friends, family and affiliate members to be there in spirit and sponsor you as you walk the halls of Congress visiting legislators in Washington DC. All donations help ANDPAC support the Academy's legislative food, nutrition and health goals.

It's simple -

- Invite family, friends, and affiliate members to sponsor your walk through a $10 donation to ANDPAC.
- Ask sponsors to provide you with a selfie photo for you to carry to The Hill (hand held fan provided).
- Tell sponsors that their name will be included on a list of sponsors in a letter presented to their legislator.

Together let's walk the talk in Washington DC on June 26.

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee is a separate segregated fund of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics used to support candidates and elected officials. Academy members are not required to contribute to ANDPAC and there is no reprisal for not contributing. Amounts recommended for contribution in Academy publications are merely suggestions and there is no minimum contribution level.

Federal law requires political committees to report to Federal Election Commission the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200.00 in a calendar year. Corporate contributions are prohibited by law. Individuals can not contribute more than $5000 per calendar year to the same political action committee. Donations to ANDPAC are not tax deductible.

If it helps, you can now officially share with Kelly that Sanjay Gupta is going to be the keynoter since he has done work with the Obamas.

We are formally announcing it this week, but you could share with Kelly if it might help.

Hello ANDPAC BOD, and Communication Workgroup Members -

As promised, I am sharing the third ANDPAC video in our five-video series for release this year. These videos have been approved by the DC PP office and the Academy Strategic Communication teams.

This video captures words from our 2017-18 President, Donna Martin, and 2016-17 President Lucille Beseler. The link will be shared this week in ERW, PPWN and in a Friday PPW communication.

Please help to reiterate ANDPAC's message by sharing this video with your affiliate Executive Director/Board members/PPC or DPG and MIGs. (Reminder – this video can be shared in Academy member based social media sites only. No public sites). Any questions – don't hesitate to ask.

Jenn, I would love to meet with her. I have permission from Pat to be able to fly up when we can schedule meetings with Secretary's in DC. It looks like the letter has not been finished, but I am good with what has been written so far. One thing I worry about with charter schools is that they are not always a part of the National School Lunch/Breakfast Program, so some of the children miss out on our great meals! Go for it!

Katie, Thanks for doing this outline. This will be very helpful for my 9:30am conference call in the morning. Why don't we wait to do anything else with the slides until after my phone call at 9:30 when I can share with them what we have planned. The one thing I would like to add is that this pushes children into anorexia or orthorexia nervosa. Great start, thanks!

Subject: PPW -- Sunday Evening

Greetings ANDPAC and LPPC members,

There have been questions about scheduling a group dinner on Sunday evening after the reception. As a reminder, we scheduled the combined LPPC and ANDPAC joint meeting so that we could enjoy time together with the two committees and to network at PPW given the time constraints with the workshop schedule. Both ANDPAC and LPPC have discussed the importance of each committee member's engagement with his or her affiliate and role as a mentor to volunteer policy leaders.

If you have not already made plans for dinner and the opportunity to meet with your affiliate to network and help prepare your delegation for PPW is available, I would ask that you consider making time with your affiliate a priority. I know that our leaders value and respect your experience which will help them feel more confident during the Hill meetings.

Please let me know if you have questions -- looking forward to seeing you Sunday!

Hi. No problem at all. Below is what I'm suggesting for your outline.

Marketing Food Through Hope, Not Fear (June 29 - 7:30-8:45)

The United States has one of the safest and most productive food systems on the planet, all while enabling consumers to spend the smallest percentage of income to purchase food. If we can agree that we want to produce food that is safe, affordable, accessible and nutritious, why are food marketers increasingly using tactics designed to erode consumer trust in food production? An executive panel of experts will discuss the ethics of food marketing as it relates to sustainability and agriculture.

Donna and the Academy's unique perspective on this topic:

- School food service à critically important to serve as many kids as possible and provide access to nutritious meals for optimal student success
- Rates of food insecurity among kids
- Consequences
- A look at the school district and community Donna serves
- Academy's position papers on food security and comprehensive school meals
- # of school meals served
- Benefits of school meals
- Moms and kids need to be able to trust the wholesomeness of school meals and not be confused/guilty by unsound marketing about food and food production practices

Let me know what you think. I can draft some content for slides and then hand it off to Doris and graphics to pretty it up.

Donna – I left you a voice mail message on your cell phone, and said that I would follow-up with an email with more details. Katie Brown, Camellia and I have discussed this opportunity and think you would be perfect for this panel of experts. The meeting will be held in Chicago at the Loews Hotel Downtown (Loews Chicago Hotel (Downtown)) at 455 N. Park Drive in Chicago, IL. I am not sure if you are involved in the AND Foundation Board meeting on June 28-29, but this is early in the morning and I hope that you can participate. Your valuable experience as the School Nutrition Director for Burke County as well as your expertise as an RDN would really add to this panel.

The description of the session and the invited panelists are noted below.

Could you let me know at your earliest convenience, if you are interested and able to participate? If I need to go through some specific channels at the Academy now that you are President, please let me know and I will do that.

June Chair Monthly Message

Monthly Message from Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation Chair

Martin M Yadrick, MS, MBI, RDN, FAND

Starting the New Year With Thanks

As you know, June 1 is the start of the fiscal year for the Foundation, and so in this first message to you as incoming Chair, I want to express my gratitude.

First, I am grateful for the leadership of the 2015-17 Foundation Chair, Jean Ragalie-Carr, RDN, LDN, FAND. Jean's enthusiasm is contagious, getting Academy members pumped up about the positive work of the Foundation in providing student scholarships, research grants, and community nutrition and exercise programs like Kids Eat Right. Jean always makes volunteers and staff feel valued and that their work and contributions are appreciated. As they say, I have big shoes to follow!

Second, I'm grateful to outgoing Foundation Board members, Terri Raymond, Donna Martin, Margaret Garner, and Eileen Kennedy. Each of these individuals made a mark on your Foundation by their thoughtful counsel, their financial generosity, and their unwavering dedication to the Foundation's mission of advancing public health and nutrition. With sadness yet with thanks for her inspiring life and career, we remember and thank Constance Geiger, taken much too soon. It was an honor to have known her for nearly two decades and we will miss her profoundly.

I'm grateful to our generous donors, some well-known in the profession and others quietly in the background, all with the same fervor for the work of the Foundation. Especially now that we're in our Second Century, excitement for the new programs being initiated is matched by generous pledges to the Second Century campaign. Whether you're a student about to embark on your professional journey, a mid-career RDN or NDTR, or a seasoned professional enjoying retirement, we hope that you will help ensure that the work of the Foundation continues and expands, by your generous, tax-deductible donation.

Please mark your calendars now for the First Party of the Second Century (Foundation Gala), to be held at Chicago's Crystal Garden at Navy Pier on Monday evening, October 23, at 8 p.m., during the 2017 FNCE®. Come #PartywithMarty! This year's format is different, including a reception and dancing, with individual tickets priced at just $100, half of the last year's price at that price you can afford to bring a friend! I hope to see you at FNCE® and I look forward to serving you as Foundation Chair for the next two years.

Sincerely,

Martin M Yadrick, MS, MBI, RDN, FAND

Tab, I talked to Pat Babjak at the Academy, and she said with this much advance time they would be able to help me get a presentation together for me to be able to participate in the panel discussion. I can help get it together some, but am somewhat time limited right now with other commitments. She said she would have our staff get with you and Camellia to get the presentation together. If that is not acceptable, then let me know. Thanks!

Donna – I left you a voice mail message on your cell phone, and said that I would follow-up with an email with more details. Katie Brown, Camellia and I have discussed this opportunity and think you would be perfect for this panel of experts. The meeting will be held in Chicago at the Loews Hotel Downtown (Loews Chicago Hotel (Downtown)) at 455 N. Park Drive in Chicago, IL. I am not sure if you are involved in the AND Foundation Board meeting on June 28-29, but this is early in the morning and I hope that you can participate. Your valuable experience as the School Nutrition Director for Burke County as well as your expertise as an RDN would really add to this panel.

The description of the session and the invited panelists are noted below.

Could you let me know at your earliest convenience, if you are interested and able to participate? If I need to go through some specific channels at the Academy now that you are President, please let me know and I will do that.

Thanks in advance for considering. Tab

Marketing Food Through Hope, Not Fear (June 29 - 7:30-8:45)

The United States has one of the safest and most productive food systems on the planet, all while enabling consumers to spend the smallest percentage of income to purchase food. If we can agree that we want to produce food that is safe, affordable, accessible and nutritious, why are food marketers increasingly using tactics designed to erode consumer trust in food production? An executive panel of experts will discuss the ethics of food marketing as it relates to sustainability and agriculture.

Opening: Chris Policinski, Innovation Center Board Chair and CEO, Land O'Lakes and video remarks by Congresswoman Marcia Fudge (15 minutes)

Hi, Donna: Following up on Jenn Folliard's June 6 email (below), the DC office has drafted a quote that would come from you, to be included in a press release being prepared by Rep. Tim Ryan's office on the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act. The text is below, which includes a couple of small edits by us. Could you please let us know if this looks OK to you, or if you would like us to make any edits? We're glad to do so.

Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Tom

This bill is an opportunity for school districts to hire a nutrition coordinator who will build on the work of wellness committees and school nutrition directors to improve healthy school environments. As a school nutrition director myself, I know that employing a school nutrition coordinator would help many districts create more opportunities for children to learn about the healthy food that is being served in cafeterias and to promote physical activity during and outside of school. This bill supports the development of children's lifelong healthy behaviors that will improve educational attainment and decrease diet-related chronic disease.

Donna,

Hope you are well! Just wanted to put this on your radar. We have been working with Congressman Tim Ryan's staff to get this bill off the ground. We think it fits nicely with our 2nd Century objective to promote more Academy members in schools and strengthens the requirements for wellness policies by providing funding to help LEAs implement them. Written into the bill is a requirement to coordinate with school nutrition directors too. At the end of this week I'll work with communications to get a quote from you to put into the Congressman's press release when he introduces the bill at the end of the month. Very exciting!

Lauren Au also brought to our attention her research presented last month which found:

School wellness committees are associated with lower BMI z-scores and improved dietary outcomes in U.S. schoolchildren. Presented at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Healthy Eating Research Meeting on April 20, 2017 by Lauren Au PhD, RD, of the University of California, Nutrition Policy Institute.

What is the association between school wellness committees and implementation of nutrition wellness policies on: Children's weight status (BMI-z); Obesity-related dietary outcomes?

- An active wellness committee was associated with decreased BMI z-scores in U.S. School children

- Schools that reported better implementation of wellness policies had children with improved obesity-related dietary outcomes
- Active school engagement in wellness policy implementation appears to play a positive role in efforts to reduce childhood obesity

Summary of the bill:

Congressman Tim Ryan is planning on introducing a bill to improve the implementation of nutrition education through the utilization of nutrition specialists in local school districts. This bill titled Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act will allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) activities and local wellness policies.

These programs include using innovative lunchroom strategies such as family style eating to encourage healthy decision making, delivering hands-on nutrition education lessons that are aligned across grade levels, and providing schools and child care providers the technical assistance they need to develop health centered environments.

Very best,

Jenn

Dear Public Policy Workshop Attendees,

We are looking forward to seeing you a week from today on Sunday, June 25!

PPW Agenda and Handouts

The agenda for PPW is posted to the community of interest. The agenda and the handouts will be available to download as one easy-to-use master document by June 21st. PPW is a paperless conference. To download the master document, complete the following steps:

- (1) Sign on to the PPW COI.
- (2) Click the "Library" tab at the top
- (3) Go to the folder entitled, "Agenda & Handouts"
- (4) Download and OPEN the document entitled, "PPW Handouts – Master Document."

Affiliate PPCs, DPG/MIG PALs Meeting Reminder -- Constitution A at 1 p.m.

PPCs will receive leave-behind packets for Congressional offices at the meeting. The packets are easy to recognize, green folders for the House of Representatives and red folders for the Senate. All PPCs and PALs (or designated alternates) should attend this required meeting.

Seating by Voting State

Public Policy Workshop attendees, including students, will be seated by voting state. Each table will be labeled with the name of the state or states seated at the table. In a few cases, a state may have a second or third table due to the number of attendees. Smaller states may be seated together.

Hill Visits Reminders

As a reminder, the Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) or designated alternate for each affiliate will work with you to schedule all of the Hill visits for your group. Attendees do not need to schedule their own visits, unless this has been agreed upon with or requested by your PPC. If you have not connected with your PPC, please let me know. A list of PPCs and their contact information is available on the COI. The PPW Tool Kit contains sample scripts for scheduling meetings that may be useful.

Hill visits are planned from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. A few reminders:

- Red, white and blue professional attire is recommended – and if you have an ANDPAC flag scarf, don't forget to wear it proudly
- Wear comfortable shoes
- Bring your business cards
- Arrange to leave luggage at hotel
- Security may be heightened, leave liquids and sharps in your store luggage

Meeting Location

Grand Hyatt Washington DC
Constitution Ballroom BCDE
1000 H Street NW

Washington, D.C., USA, 20001

Tel: 202 582 1234

Note: There will be Wi-Fi in the Constitution Ballroom.

Getting to PPW

It is highly recommended that attendees use the Metro train system to travel from the airport to the hotel. Fares vary depending on the time of day. Vending machines are available to purchase a transit card.

From Ronald Reagan National Airport:

ANDPAC Power Breakfast – Only a Few Seats Remain!

ANDPAC's Chair Susan Scott personally invites you to the ANDPAC Power Breakfast on Monday, June 26th. The Power Breakfast will be held at the prestigious National Press Club and will honor Public Policy Leadership winner Senator Pat Roberts (Kansas). Making your donation for the $125 breakfast (ticket required) is very effective in providing Academy members the opportunities to speak with members of Congress and candidates on your behalf. To reserve your spot, email ANDPAC@eatright.org. We anticipate that the event will reach capacity prior to PPW preventing on-site registration.

DC Walking History Tour – Sponsored by ANDPAC

Are you arriving at PPW early? If you are looking for a way to get your steps in and find out more about our nation's capital – we have the solution! Join us for a walking tour led by history buff and Academy staff member Pepin Tuma. The event will be held on Sunday, June 25 from 8 to 10 a.m. A $25 dollar contribution to ANDPAC is requested and can be paid onsite. Register for the event today!

Be part of The ANDPAC Spirit Walk at PPW!

Ask friends, family and affiliate members to be there in spirit and sponsor you as you walk the halls of Congress visiting legislators in Washington DC. All donations help ANDPAC support the Academy's legislative food, nutrition and health goals.

It's simple -

- Invite family, friends, and affiliate members to sponsor your walk through a $10 donation to ANDPAC
- Ask sponsors to provide you with a selfie photo for you to carry to The Hill (hand held fan provided)
- Tell sponsors that their name will be included on a list of sponsors in a letter presented to their legislator

Together let's walk the talk in Washington DC on June 26th!

Are you a nursing mother who needs access to a lactation room on Capitol Hill?

We can help meet your needs, but we need to know in advance. Please email govaffairs@eatright.org to request this service.

Please let me know if you have questions, see you next week!

TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

Dear Public Policy Workshop Attendees,

We are looking forward to seeing you a week from today on Sunday, June 25!

PPW Agenda and Handouts

The agenda for PPW is posted to the community of interest. The agenda and the handouts will be available to download as one easy-to-use master document by June 21st. PPW is a paperless conference. To download the master document, complete the following steps:

- (1) Sign on to the PPW COI.
- (2) Click the "Library" tab at the top
- (3) Go to the folder entitled, "Agenda & Handouts"
- (4) Download and OPEN the document entitled, "PPW Handouts – Master Document."

Affiliate PPCs, DPG/MIG PALs Meeting Reminder -- Constitution A at 1 p.m.

PPCs will receive leave-behind packets for Congressional offices at the meeting. The packets are easy to recognize, green folders for the House of Representatives and red folders for the Senate. All PPCs and PALs (or designated alternates) should attend this required meeting.

Seating by Voting State

Public Policy Workshop attendees, including students, will be seated by voting state. Each table will be labeled with the name of the state or states seated at the table. In a few cases, a state may have a second or third table due to the number of attendees. Smaller states may be seated together.

Hill Visits Reminders

As a reminder, the Public Policy Coordinators (PPCs) or designated alternate for each affiliate will work with you to schedule all of the Hill visits for your group. Attendees do not need to schedule their own visits, unless this has been agreed upon with or requested by your PPC. If you have not connected with your PPC, please let me know. A list of PPCs and their contact information is available on the COI. The PPW Tool Kit contains sample scripts for scheduling meetings that may be useful.

Hill visits are planned from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. A few reminders:

- Red, white and blue professional attire is recommended – and if you have an ANDPAC flag scarf, don't forget to wear it proudly
- Wear comfortable shoes
- Bring your business cards
- Arrange to leave luggage at hotel
- Security may be heightened, leave liquids and sharps in your store luggage

Meeting Location

Grand Hyatt Washington DC

Constitution Ballroom BCDE

1000 H Street NW

Washington, D.C., USA, 20001

Tel: 202 582 1234

Note: There will be Wi-Fi in the Constitution Ballroom.

Getting to PPW

It is highly recommended that attendees use the Metro train system to travel from the airport to the hotel. Fares vary depending on the time of day. Vending machines are available to purchase a transit card.

Hi Hope,

Thank you for your email. I value your comments and appreciate your feedback. As leaders, it's vital to provide motivational support and have the ability to enhance others' commitment to their work. I am proud of the internal team that did and is continuing to do all of the heavy lifting on the Second Century initiative. Katie was a part of a much larger team and had the privilege of reporting the results of the work that was accomplished by Academy and Foundation staff.

Hope, you understand management and know that the lead on a project doesn't seek personal accolades without acknowledging the contributions of others. At Headquarters, many valued staff members across the organization, also some of the best and brightest, working on Second Century felt they were doing all the work while certain individuals were taking much of the credit. I couldn't agree with you more on acknowledging individuals for their contributions. I also remember that Lucille was gracious and extended a thank you from the podium to Katie by name and the Academy staff who worked on the Summit.

The Academy's executive team is committed to fostering teamwork by providing opportunities for staff to learn and grow together. As CEO, it is important to keep the best and brightest staff at all levels and it is also vital that individuals have the ability and desire to work cooperatively with others on a team because as you know, no one person can do it alone.

Thank you, Hope.

Best regards,

Pat

Hello to some of my favorite people---

I am being very selective in my response to this announcement about Katie as to not cause any undue drama; however I felt compelled to be honest in hopes of making us look internally and really thinking about some approaches and policies that can be improved.

I am referencing the fact that although I have had zero contact with Katie at all during my time on the BOD, nor do I know her personally, I was actually making some observations and wondering how long it would take before another organization stole someone quite valuable as Katie from us.

Specifically, I totally noticed while attending the Second Century events last year that although we (the BOD) had heard from Katie numerous times in the planning process-- such that clearly she was a very hard worker with an enormous input to the process from the onset -- and of value to the Academy, in all the accolades she was not mentioned during the Second Century credits to the large group of attendees. I have no idea why I noticed this but I absolutely did. I was thinking about this and wondered back last Sept. how long it would take for us to lose her.

Hence, this came as no surprise to me when this was announced. ...

I have no interest in being overly judgmental where I have no authority to be, but I do have high interest in maintaining the best and the brightest AND the most hard working at the Academy. I just wonder how many times there are others who do the lion's share of the work yet receive zero to little accolades when all is said and done, because of whatever reason or reasons internal to policies that should be changed. Or, at least noticed. And, I am not naive-- I know this happens many times in organizations everywhere, but I felt compelled to say something at this time point..

Just some food for thought to perhaps avoid the loss of someone else of amazing talent and dedication to another organization..

Thanks for listening,

Hope

Hi, Donna: Following up on Jenn Folliard's June 6 email (below), the DC office has drafted a quote that would come from you, to be included in a press release being prepared by Rep. Tim Ryan's office on the Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act. The text is below, which includes a couple of small edits by us. Could you please let us know if this looks OK to you, or if you would like us to make any edits? We're glad to do so.

Thank you very much, talk to you soon!

Tom

This bill is an opportunity for school districts to hire a nutrition coordinator who will build on the work of wellness committees and school nutrition directors to improve healthy school environments. As a school nutrition director myself, I know that employing a school nutrition coordinator would help many districts create more opportunities for children to learn about the healthy food that is being served in cafeterias and to promote physical activity during and outside of school. This bill supports the development of children's lifelong healthy behaviors that will improve educational attainment and decrease diet-related chronic disease.

Donna,

Hope you are well! Just wanted to put this on your radar. We have been working with Congressman Tim Ryan's staff to get this bill off the ground. We think it fits nicely with our 2nd Century objective to promote more Academy members in schools and strengthens the requirements for wellness policies by providing funding to help LEAs implement them. Written into the bill is a requirement to coordinate with school nutrition directors too. At the end of this week Ill work with communications to get a quote from you to put into the Congressman's press release when he introduces the bill at the end of the month. Very exciting!

Lauren Au also brought to our attention her research presented last month which found:

School wellness committees are associated with lower BMI z-scores and improved dietary outcomes in U.S. schoolchildren. Presented at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Healthy Eating Research Meeting on April 20, 2017 by Lauren Au PhD, RD, of the University of California, Nutrition Policy Institute.

What is the association between school wellness committees and implementation of nutrition wellness policies on: Children's weight status (BMI-z); Obesity-related dietary outcomes?

- An active wellness committee was associated with decreased BMI z-scores in U.S. School children
- Schools that reported better implementation of wellness policies had children with improved obesity-related dietary outcomes
- Active school engagement in wellness policy implementation appears to play a positive role in efforts to reduce childhood obesity

Summary of the bill:

Congressman Tim Ryan is planning on introducing a bill to improve the implementation of nutrition education through the utilization of nutrition specialists in local school districts. This bill titled Nutrition Coordinators for Local Healthy Youth Act will allow qualified professionals to lead nutrition education and promotion efforts by giving districts the ability to appoint a nutrition coordinator to oversee their Team Nutrition (TN) activities and local wellness policies.

These programs include using innovative lunchroom strategies such as family style eating to encourage healthy decision making, delivering hands-on nutrition education lessons that are aligned across grade levels, and providing schools and child care providers the technical assistance they need to develop health centered environments.

Very best,

Jenn

How wonderful to kick off the year with such positive events! I always enjoy listening to you present, so I can imagine everyone did so as well.

You have nothing but support from me (and my team). Fortunately I love my job (even on those "tough days"), so it makes it pretty darn easy to work with such amazing RDNs!

Gladly will give that man of mine a big kiss when he gets home from work. ;)

Diane, I have an amazing first 2 weeks. Spoke in Arizona to an awesome group. Then just spoke in Chicago to about 100 RDN's and School Nutrition Directors on their role in Public Policy. It went great too. Believe me when I say not all my talks go great, but I love it when they do. Lots of well wishes from members, board and staff. Doing my interviews with all "old" board members and that is going well too. My motto is I can do anything for a year. Especially, when I have you all on my team. Cannot tell you how much I appreciate the support. I know it is your job, but somehow you don't make me feel like that is the only reason you are doing it! Kiss your husband for me!

Hi Donna-

Happy Friday! I wanted to give you some good news and let you know that CNN and just signed off on all of the approvals necessary for Sanjay to present the opening keynote lecture at our centennial FNCE. They apologized for the delay, but it was due to the fact that Sanjay has a brand-new CNN show that's going to be released in the fall that aligns with our meeting timing and they wanted to make sure that everything aligned from both perspectives.

Sanjay is very excited to be the opening keynote and CNN was more than pleased with the extensive documentation we provided about the educational caliber of the meeting.

Contract will be finalized next week, so we will be able to announce publicly by mid next week.

Let me know if I can answer any questions.

It was an especially competitive this year due to a growing number of applicants—over 1,200! I am hopeful she can do a video.

I do know that Sanjay was Obama's surgeon general choice in 2011 but Sanjay withdrew his name due to other professional conflicts with CNN and his neurosurgery responsibilities.

Wondering if we communicate him as the confirmed keynote speaker that maybe it would help get a video or a last minute live acceptance.

Hi Donna-

Happy Friday! I wanted to give you some good news and let you know that CNN and just signed off on all of the approvals necessary for Sanjay to present the opening keynote lecture at our centennial FNCE. They apologized for the delay, but it was due to the fact that Sanjay has a brand-new CNN show that's going to be released in the fall that aligns with our meeting timing and they wanted to make sure that everything aligned from both perspectives.

Sanjay is very excited to be the opening keynote and CNN was more than pleased with the extensive documentation we provided about the educational caliber of the meeting.

Contract will be finalized next week, so we will be able to announce publicly by mid next week.

Let me know if I can answer any questions.

Best,

Diane

Vitamin E: Setting the Record Straight

Date: Tuesday, June 27, 12 PM CST (1 hour event)

CPEU Hours: 1.0

CPE Level: 2

For 90 years vitamin E research has produced prolific and notable discoveries, including isolation from plants, chemical identifications, and total syntheses. This eye-opening presentation will cover important milestones in vitamin E research, distinguish between the vitamins two subgroups (tocopherols and tocotrienols), and identify current sources and compositions of tocotrienols. Importantly, alpha-tocopherol interference with tocotrienol functions will be discussed, as well as the anti-oxidant and anti-inflammatory properties observed with tocotrienol application in cardiovascular and cardiometabolic disease, cancer, radiation exposure, and the aging bone. The latest studies will highlight tocotrienols role as the 21st century vitamin E.

Learning Objectives:

1. Explain the origins, history, and sources of vitamin E
2. Identify vitamin E as a family of eight distinct vitamers
3. Differentiate tocopherol and tocotrienol, including the functions and benefits

Speaker: Barrie Tan, Ph.D.

Dr. Barrie Tan, Ph.D earned his doctorate in chemistry at the University of Otago, and soon became a professor of chemistry and food science/nutrition at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. His research expertise includes lipid-soluble nutrients (carotenoids, E vitamers, CoQ10, and omega-3s). He was the first to introduce tocotrienol's benefits to the nutrition industry, and developed the first-ever tocopherol-free tocotrienol product derived from annatto. Today, his research focuses on lipid-soluble nutrients that impact chronic conditions. Dr. Tan is the senior editor of Tocotrienols: Vitamin E Beyond Tocopherols (2013), and continues to collaborate with numerous universities worldwide to further tocotrienol research. REGISTER HERE!

If your schedule changes and you cannot attend, note that the webinar will be recorded and available at eatrightPRO for self-study.

Hello to some of my favorite people---

I am being very selective in my response to this announcement about Katie as to not cause any undue drama; however I felt compelled to be honest in hopes of making us look internally and really thinking about some approaches and policies that can be improved.

I am referencing the fact that although I have had zero contact with Katie at all during my time on the BOD, nor do I know her personally, I was actually making some observations and wondering how long it would take before another organization stole someone quite valuable as Katie from us.

Specifically, I totally noticed while attending the Second Century events last year that although we (the BOD) had heard from Katie numerous times in the planning process-- such that clearly she was a very hard worker with an enormous input to the process from the onset -- and of value to the Academy, in all the accolades she was not mentioned during the Second Century credits to the large group of attendees. I have no idea why I noticed this but I absolutely did. I was thinking about this and wondered back last Sept. how long it would take for us to lose her. Hence, this came as no surprise to me when this was announced. ...

I have no interest in being overly judgmental where I have no authority to be, but I do have high interest in maintaining the best and the brightest AND the most hard working at the Academy. I just wonder how many times there are others who do the lion's share of the work yet receive zero to little accolades when all is said and done, because of whatever reason or reasons internal to policies that should be changed. Or, at least noticed. And, I am not naive-- I know this happens many times in organizations everywhere, but I felt compelled to say something at this time point..

Just some food for thought to perhaps avoid the loss of someone else of amazing talent and dedication to another organization..

Thanks for listening,
Hope

TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

Hello Donna,

Greetings from Twin Falls, Idaho! My name is Sarah Renaldi and I am the President-Elect and Annual Meeting Planning Chair for the Idaho Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

I am writing to first, express my gratitude that you expressed a willingness to attend our Annual Meeting as I understand that you were offered an informal invitation by one of our members this past spring.

I am also writing to express my disappointment that after sitting down and meeting as a planning committee, we realized that we cannot incur the expense that it would take to get you to the (expensive) resort town of Sun Valley.

I know that you have much experience with budgets and speaker costs and I have no doubt that you will understand where we are coming from.

I sincerely apologize for any misunderstanding this may have caused. I am looking forward to meeting you in Chicago this October for the 100 year FNCE celebration!

Thank you again for your understanding and graciousness.

If you would like to discuss further or have any questions, please feel free to email me or call my cell phone: 208-310-6554.

TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

Pat
It kills me that everyone is sending congrats and kudos!! Do we get it when someone gives their resignation it tells the employer I do not want to work for you anymore. This does not make the employer feel warm and fuzzy. So unless we are retiring or moving that requires a change in jobs all this touchy feely stuff is not appropriate for us volunteers. Had to get it out!

Thanks Lucille

TO: Foundation Board, Academy Board and Executive Team

After 10 years of dedicated and creative service to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation, Katie Brown, EdD, RDN, LD is taking her talents and moving on to the next great opportunity. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with her -- for her energy and her enthusiasm and undeniable passion for nutrition, dietetics, the Academy and of course Kids Eat Right, the signature program that she helped us to launch. Her leadership began as a consultant and has evolved to the position as Chief Global Nutrition Strategy Officer. She was a key member of the staff and volunteer teams that lead our Second Century efforts to the place where we are today -- a new mission for the Academy and a big bold vision for the future. I want to thank her for all that she has done and all that she will continue to do to elevate the profession.

Katie's last day with the Academy Foundation will be June 23. Shortly thereafter she will assume her new position as Sr. VP of Thought Leadership with the National Dairy Council addressing priority issues for NDC including nutrition sustainability, child health and wellness, global health and partnerships.

eatright Market Research Panel Update

In an ongoing effort to keep you updated on our progress, we are delighted to report that the initial eatright Market Research Panel survey will be sent out to registered panelists shortly.

Please be advised that not all panel participants will receive this initial survey. Only those who are within the selected interest area(s) of the surveying company will receive this survey.

Additionally, there is a limit on the total number of survey responses to be collected. Once the pre-selected number of responses has been reached the survey will be closed to further participation.

We thank you for your continued patience during this process. Please take a moment to review and update the contact and interest area information you previously submitted by clicking the link below.

Hello, I hope you're having a great day! I was wondering if you've had a chance to review the following statement about the FDA's decision to delay the Nutrition Facts Panel. Does this look OK to you?

Thanks!

DRAFT

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics supports Americans' ability to know what is in their food so that they can make healthy choices at the point of purchase for themselves and their families. The Food and Drug Administration's proposed rule on menu labeling would do much to supply consumers with that valuable information. The Academy is disappointed that, following a robust notice and comment period, the FDA has delayed the rule's implementation. The food industry has been working to comply with the updated Nutrition Facts Label, which gives consumers calorie information in a bolder format, uses more realistic serving sizes, and most importantly will provide a separate line and Daily Value for added sugars. In the interest of assisting Americans in knowing what is in their food, the Academy encourages the FDA to reconsider its decision and implement the rule without delay.

Nice recognition of the work of NCFAR national coalition food and agriculture research.

We met yesterday with Sonny Ramaswamy who publicly acknowledge our support in food, nutrition and Ag research. Hopefully he will get lots of grant applications for child obesity projects.

Executive Director Dr. Sally Rockey to Participate in Today's Senate Agriculture Committee Hearing

Foundation for Food and Agriculture Research Executive Director Dr. Sally Rockey will participate in today's Senate Agriculture Committee hearing, titled "Agricultural Research: Perspectives on Past and Future Successes for the 2018 Farm Bill."

This will be Dr. Rockey's first opportunity to publicly thank the Committee in this type of setting for their forethought in establishing FFAR through a bipartisan, broad-based effort in the 2014 Farm Bill. She will speak on a panel alongside the following U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) officials, who are also FFAR ex-officio board members:

- Dr. Ann Bartuska, Acting Under Secretary, USDA Research, Education, and Economics
- Dr. Sonny Ramaswamy, Director, USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture

•Dr. Chavonda Jacobs-Young, Administrator, USDA Agricultural Research Service
Leading up to the hearing, the National Coalition for Food and Agriculture Research announced their submission of testimony and a group letter signed by more than 60 organizations in support of FFAR and the need for a strong food and agriculture research title.

Dr. Rockey intends to update the Senators on the progress made by FFAR including the following program announcements over the past month:

- Sustainable American Aquaculture Competitive Grant Program to Open for Applications July 10
- Grant to Michigan State University Researchers for Work to Combat Invasive Pest in Tart Cherries
- Grant to University of Illinois Researcher Developing Cutting Edge Plant Simulation Models
- Competitive Grant Program to Improve Health and Productivity of Egg-laying Hens and Swine: Now Open for Applications

As we look toward the 2018 Farm Bill, FFAR will continue to demonstrate its unique value to the American taxpayer and to U.S. agriculture. Today, Dr. Rockey will ask for the Committee's continued support for FFAR, as well as for agricultural research across the board. She will discuss how the Foundation is perfectly positioned to put America back on top as a global leader in agriculture R&D by accelerating problem solving on behalf of U.S. agriculture. She will emphasize FFAR's unique matching model. FFAR matches every one of its public research dollars with outside funding, delivering huge value for American taxpayers.
