Yes, I saw this released in Canada. Good progress on a more meal focused approach and nutrition (rather than agriculture) based.

Big area that is causing controversy is the removal of dairy products as recommended food group – Now only 3 food groups -vegetables, proteins and grains. This is significant! Dairy in Canada has always been protected by supply management and tariffs. Now with new NAFTA and removal of the dairy guidelines, the Canadian dairy industry is facing significant headwinds. But this also may be a foreshadowing of a shift in consumer influence on governments from an industry bias to a more balanced nutrition and health approach.

As expected, lots of social media commentary with agriculture industry and health observations.

Importance: High

I am sharing Canada's new Food Guide, which was unveiled yesterday and has received positive reviews on social and traditional media ... Health experts have broadly come out in support of Canada's revamped food guide, saying it represents a clear improvement over the 2007 version.

Here is a snapshot of the new Food Guide:

- Eat a variety of healthy foods each day
- Have plenty of vegetables and fruits
- Choose whole grain foods
- Eat protein foods
- Make water your drink of choice

Below is the email forwarded from the Dietitians of Canada. For more information please visit the official website at <https://food-guide.canada.ca/en/>. We will be posting information for members to eatrightPRO under latest news for members.

Dear Martin,

Canada's new Food Guide was launched this morning in Montreal. Nathalie Savoie was there to speak on behalf of Dietitians of Canada members. We think you will be proud to see that the new Food Guide is modern, relevant, informed by scientific evidence and in line with the recommendations we provided during consultations.

To support you, we have worked with Health Canada to provide member resources and the information below.

Canada's new Food Guide takes a modern approach to communicating dietary guidance to consumers, health professionals and policy makers. There are new features to explore that better meet your needs, whether you are looking for healthy eating information for yourself or as part of your work.

The suite of Food Guide resources includes:

- Canada's Dietary Guidelines for Health Professionals and Policy Makers
- Food Guide Snapshot
- Resources such as actionable advice, videos and recipes
- Evidence including the Evidence Review for Dietary Guidance 2015 and the Food, Nutrients and Health: Interim Evidence Update 2018

What else is new?

- Modern visuals: The old rainbow visual has been replaced with modern photography featuring healthy food choices and eating habits.
- User-focused: The old “all-in-one” tool has been replaced with a suite of online resources developed for various users.
- Renewed terminology: The new Guide uses terminology that Canadians already use when making food choices, such as protein foods, rather than specific food groups.
- Beyond food: Instead of focusing on food groups, number of servings and serving sizes, the new Guide includes at a glance information on what to eat and provides actionable advice on how to eat, including cooking more often and eating meals with others.
- Evidence: The new Guide reflects the best of the latest evidence on food and health, including providing precision on the replacement of saturated fat with unsaturated fat to support cardiovascular health. Industry-commissioned reports were excluded to reduce the potential for, or the perception of, conflict of interest.
- Mobile first: The new Guide delivers healthy eating information in a mobile-friendly web application that is available anytime, anywhere.
- Openness: The revision process for the new Guide was enhanced by including two phases of public online consultations and posting What We Heard reports on Canada.ca.
- Transparency: During the revision process, officials from Health Canada's Office of Nutrition Policy and Promotion did not meet with representatives from the food and beverage industry. Correspondence and meetings on the Food Guide between industry and other Health Canada officials are disclosed on Canada.ca.

You will also be interested to know:

- The new Food Guide includes key considerations such as recognition of the importance of traditional foods for Indigenous Peoples, cultural diversity and environmental sustainability, all of which Dietitians of Canada strongly supported throughout the consultation process.
- The introduction in the Dietary Guidelines acknowledges the additional guidance needed by individuals with specific dietary requirements, including those receiving care in a clinical setting, steering these individuals to get specialized advice from a dietitian.

Key links:

- Health Canada has put together a Stakeholder Toolkit including a slide deck and other resources for dietitians about Canada's new Food Guide. It provides an overview and messages that will be helpful for you. We encourage you to review it today.
- A copy of Nathalie Savoie's remarks has been posted as a member resource. Reading them may inspire the conversations that you will have in your workplaces in the coming weeks and months

- Canada's Food Guide - includes a suite of resources for both consumers and health care professionals)

Public Policy Weekly News

News from the Hill and Beyond
Government Shutdown Continues...

After more than 30 days without pay, federal workers across the U.S. are experiencing financial strain and many are seeking support to keep food on the table. Local assistance programs and faith-based communities have provided some relief; however, there is no immediate end in sight for the partial shutdown that includes the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Food and Drug Administration. The Senate is expected to vote later this week on a proposal that combines a package of disaster aid and a series of fiscal 2019 spending bills that would also give legal status for Dreamers and $5.7 in border wall funding; the proposal has been rejected by the Senate minority leaders.

House-Senate Approved Language Hints at Delay for USDA Relocations

Although it is unlikely for the House and Senate to resolve the partial government shutdown, appropriations language from both chambers suggest that moving forward with the relocation of the National Institute of Food and Agriculture out of the Capitol area region is premature and without adequate justification and cost analysis. The proposed language would also delay the proposed transfer of the Economic Research Service to the Office of the chief Economist. The Academy has advocated for a deeper analysis of the proposed move and its potential implications.

Member Updates and Professional Development

NEW Quarterly Initiative!

Malnutrition Advocacy In-district

As part of the Academy's grassroots advocacy strategy for 2019, we will be focusing on quarterly advocacy topics that state affiliates will work on in-state and in-district.

This quarter we would like for you, our policy leaders, to lead the efforts in asking members of Congress in your district to support the role of RDNs and NDTRs in the prevention and treatment of malnutrition. If you have new Congressmen, scheduling a meeting with them is particularly important as it will be an opportunity to begin building a relationship that will last the next several years and beyond.

An email will be sent out later this week outlining the initiative in more detail and will provide you with additional direction on what you can do, where you can find resources available to you and how you can share your successes.

Academy Initiates STAR Program

The Academy's State Policy Representatives, working alongside Affiliate Reimbursement Representatives, will join their counterparts in the Obesity Medical Association, the American Society for Metabolic & Bariatric Surgery and The Obesity Society as State Advocacy Representatives, or STARs, to assemble grassroots coalitions that will advance coverage and access to obesity care in Medicaid and state medical plans. STARs met last week for their first convening and will be scheduling appointments with their governor's over the next few months. We are looking forward to seeing all the great work our member leaders are taking to advance this critical issue.

Public Policy Open Forum Next Week:

Strategic Measures FY2018 - Register

Policy leaders: register today for the special second open forum of the month to be held next Tuesday, January 29, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, that will go over the Strategic Measures data from FY2018 and next steps.

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Overview of the FY2018 Strategic Measures Report with results and recommendations going forward.
- Tuesday, January 29, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

February Public Policy Open Forum - Speakers Needed!

- We are looking for speakers with expertise in digital advocacy/digital communications to share their knowledge and know-how with us on the next Public Policy Open Forum. Send us an email if you or someone you know might be interested, available and a good fit. Thank you!
- Open Forum Date: Tuesday, February 19, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

Webinar on January 31: Meeting with Your Members of Congress - Register

Make the most of your in-person meetings with legislators in-district and on the Hill in 2019 by attending the Congressional Management Foundation's webinar: What to Expect in a Meeting with a Member of Congress, held on Thursday, January 31 from 3-4 p.m. Eastern Time. The presentation will provide an overview of congressional offices, outline staff roles in meetings and offer tips for meeting with members of Congress and their staff. Register for the webinar today!

PPCs and PALs: this is a perfect webinar to share with your affiliate and DPG members who may be new to advocacy and is a great refresher for policy veterans alike. Feel free to copy/paste the posting above to your newsletters and other communications channels.

Regulatory Roundup

DPG Input Needed on Utility and Burden of Info Collection on Federal Nutrition Programs

The Academy is seeking DPG expert feedback on an information collection from USDA's Food and Nutrition Service that will contribute to the development of nutrition education and promotion materials and related tools and grants for FNS population groups. Any of our members working in or on projects related to any FNS program including child nutrition programs, school meals, SNAP and SNAP-Ed, etc. and invited to respond in particular. Broadly, we are looking for:

- The value of nutrition assistance programs to your work, including success stories
- Feedback on the utility and/or burden of collecting information through focus groups, interviews, surveys and web-based collection tools.

Your input is important to us, as FNS uses this collection to design interventions to convey science-based, behavior-focused nutrition messages about healthy eating and physical activity to children and adults eligible to participate in FNS nutrition assistance programs.

Any feedback can be submitted to DPG PALs, and PALs may submit comments on behalf of their DPG here. Please share with your DPG members. Click on the purple button below for the full Regulatory Roundup with additional details. A calendar containing links to several meetings is included.

DPG PAL Regulatory Input Meeting on January 31

Our monthly PAL call, taking place on Thursday, January 31 at 2 p.m. Eastern Time, will begin with a follow-up on DPGs' role in Academy's Dietary Guidelines for Americans Engagement Process of recommending subject-matter experts to serve on the Academy's DGA Think Tanks. Each Think Tank will focus on either one of the limited set of topics the Dietary Guidelines Advisory Committee will be permitted to review, or on an additional topic or issue the Academy recognizes as important considerations in the formulation of national nutrition guidelines.

In addition, PALs will be introduced to a draft of the Academy's new Regulatory Dictionary, a resource coming soon that will outline input on agency regulations. PALs will be offered an opportunity to refine the document to ensure it meets member needs prior to its finalization. We hope to see you at the meeting!

Dispelling Myths: ANDPAC Funds Relationships, Not Lobbyists

It is a common myth that the Academy's political action committee primarily funds a lobbyist in Washington, D.C. In truth, when the Academy advocates on members' behalf, we never use ANDPAC funds. Members' contributions to ANDPAC are used to develop and maintain relationships with congressional candidates who support the Academy's mission, vision and public policy priorities. Dollars contributed to the PAC go directly to candidates and ANDPAC administrative fund donations cover operational costs such as software and supplies. Donate to ANDPAC today!

Michigan RDNs Meet with Congressman Upton (Mich.)

Michigan RDNs Takara Page, MS, RDN, CNSC and Corey Shack, MS, RD, CSNC met with Representative Fred Upton (Mich.) to discuss key nutrition legislation including the Treat and Reduce Obesity, expected to be reintroduced in this 116th Congress, and the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act. The Congressman has been a champion of the Academy over the past 30 years, having supported important health care and nutrition legislation, including an original bill he introduced to expand coverage for Medical Nutrition Therapy. Rep. Upton received the Public Policy Leadership Award back in 2000 and we are glad to see this longstanding relationship continue!

Do you have a Thumbs Up submission for PPWN? We'd love to highlight the work that you do to advance nutrition policy and the profession for all of us. Send photos and a quick write-up about your recent policy accomplishments to Nate Stritzinger.

- Registration is FREE
- This session will be presented using VOIP. A phone number will not be available.
- 1 Free CPEU Credit will be earned for live attendance.

- The webinar will be recorded and posted to the IND website for later viewing. Slides and recording will be sent to all registrants.

Objectives

Attendees will know:

1. How the new labeling regulations will impact Supplement Facts labels.
2. What are the major labeling changes and the importance of the dietitian in communicating these changes.
3. Why not all dietary supplement labels will be affected by the new regulations.
4. How to identify Supplement Facts labels that comply with the new regulations.

Learning Need Codes:

- 2020 Composition of foods, nutrient analysis
- 3100 Supplemental nutrients, botanicals
- 4030 Dietary guidelines, DRIs, Food Guide Pyramid, food labeling

Performance Indicators:

PI 1: 10.4 Applies knowledge of the interrelationship and impact of pharmacotherapy, dietary supplements, functional foods and nutrients on health and disease in accordance with Scope of Practice and Standards of Professional Performance for RDNs.

PI 2: 9.4 Teaches, guides and instructs a variety of individuals, groups or populations.

PI 3: 8.1 Interprets and applies current food and nutrition science and principles in dietetics practice.

CPE Level II

Session Summary:

The new labeling regulations announced by the US Food and Drug Administration in May 2016 that go into effect in 2020 will impact on the label and labeling Daily Values (DVs) of almost all packaged food and beverage labels, and 52% of dietary supplement labels. This presentation will focus on how the new labeling regulations will impact Dietary Supplement Labels. Why most, but not all, labels will be affected by this change, and how to identify labels that comply with the new regulations.

Speaker Bio:

Leila Saldanha has over 30 years' experience in packaged food and dietary supplements. She has served (since 2003) as a Scientific Consultant at the Office of Dietary Supplements at the National Institutes of Health. Leila was Vice President, Nutritional Sciences for the Consumer Healthcare Products Association, a trade organization representing manufacturers and distributors of non-prescription medicines and dietary supplement products. She has held several progressively responsible senior managerial roles during her 10 plus years at the Kellogg Company, including Director, Nutrition and Scientific Affairs for the AsiaPacific region based in Sydney, Australia. Leila is a Fellow and has been an active professional member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics since 1985. The Academy has exciting news to share about the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative (MQii)! We are very pleased to announce the collaboration with Morrison Healthcare to help support further recruitment in the MQii Learning Collaborative. Morrison Healthcare will join efforts with the Academy and Avalere Health to have its 776 hospitals and healthcare systems advance malnutrition quality, drive outcomes, and highlight Registered Dietitian Nutritionists as the leading experts in malnutrition care.

Please see attached Press Release for more details.

Pat, Thanks for the assurances. I am sorry that it came to this, but I feel so much better that we are going back and doing our due diligence so we can put this to rest one way or the other. I do hate it for the volunteers who put their heart and soul into a project to have it shot down. There are always two sides to every story and in this case I do think it is best to pause and "double down" to be able to satisfy all the critics. Treating staff poorly is always in bad taste and can come back to bite you someday!

Hi Donna,

I want to assure you that we will thoroughly assess all of the information provided and will be diligent in due process. The initial reviewers are being asked to revisit the content of the program and we are adding three more external reviewers who are experts in the respective module topics. We are also sharing all feedback generated by the CoT with the Academy's Agriculture, Sustainability and Health Fellow Marie Spiker and education contractor Amanda Hege.

We are proud of the volunteer and staff commitment that was invested in the project, which started more than three years ago. It's unfortunate that the pushback came from three members employed by industry who understandably feel a responsibility to protect their private interests. I just wish the conversation had been civil with staff and supported by evidence (which we had to request multiple times). It will be interesting to see what comes out of the review.

Since the launch in early December, members have expressed a strong interest in the Academy's Sustainable Food Systems Certificate of Training (CoT) program. As with all educational programming, we encourage users to contact the Center for Lifelong Learning with any questions or concerns regarding the program's information. We have had multiple downloads and visits to the site and have received three emails requesting further review of the CoT content. We anticipate completing the review in a few months, including any module editing. The process of submitting blinded feedback for review has begun, and we are taking the following steps:

1. The Sustainable Food Systems CoT registration is paused for the time being until further external review can be provided. All promotion is on hold.
  - Three additional external reviewers will be added to support this process
  - Academy staff will remove promotion from all marketing materials, social media, website (CPD and Eatright Store)
  - HEN DPG will remove promotions and links to the CoT from any webpages, print and social media
2. Disable all new registrations and purchases until further notice.
  - Anyone who is currently registered will have ability to complete the modules within the 30-day timeframe, but no extension will be granted beyond the 30 days; CPEUs are valid
  - Anyone who has completed the modules are not affected; CPEUs are valid

The 2019 Academy Center for Lifelong Learning Conceptual Framework for Data Driven Decision Making reflects our due diligence and is attached. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Pat

Hi Donna,

I want to assure you that we will thoroughly assess all of the information provided and will be diligent in due process. The initial reviewers are being asked to revisit the content of the program and we are adding three more external reviewers who are experts in the respective module topics. We are also sharing all feedback generated by the CoT with the Academy's Agriculture, Sustainability and Health Fellow Marie Spiker and education contractor Amanda Hege.

We are proud of the volunteer and staff commitment that was invested in the project, which started more than three years ago. It's unfortunate that the pushback came from three members employed by industry who understandably feel a responsibility to protect their private interests. I just wish the conversation had been civil with staff and supported by evidence (which we had to request multiple times). It will be interesting to see what comes out of the review.

Pat

Since the launch in early December, members have expressed a strong interest in the Academy's Sustainable Food Systems Certificate of Training (CoT) program. As with all educational programming, we encourage users to contact the Center for Lifelong Learning with any questions or concerns regarding the program's information. We have had multiple downloads and visits to the site and have received three emails requesting further review of the CoT content. We anticipate completing the review in a few months, including any module editing. The process of submitting blinded feedback for review has begun, and we are taking the following steps:

1. The Sustainable Food Systems CoT registration is paused for the time being until further external review can be provided. All promotion is on hold.
  - Three additional external reviewers will be added to support this process
  - Academy staff will remove promotion from all marketing materials, social media, website (CPD and Eatright Store)
  - HEN DPG will remove promotions and links to the CoT from any webpages, print and social media
2. Disable all new registrations and purchases until further notice.
  - Anyone who is currently registered will have ability to complete the modules within the 30-day timeframe, but no extension will be granted beyond the 30 days; CPEUs are valid
  - Anyone who has completed the modules are not affected; CPEUs are valid

The 2019 Academy Center for Lifelong Learning Conceptual Framework for Data Driven Decision Making reflects our due diligence and is attached. Please let me know if you have any questions.

23. Outstanding Preceptor Awards – Applications due February 1st

From: ndep@eatright.org

Subject: Outstanding Preceptor Awards – Applications due February 1st
Attachment: unknown\_name\_pwoaj

Dear NDEP Members –

Do you know of a deserving preceptor that goes above and beyond your expectations with each student/intern they work with? Someone who somehow finds the time in their busy schedule to continually mentor new students/interns? Someone your students/interns continually praise for their exceptional talents? If so, perhaps you should consider nominating them for NDEP's annual Outstanding Preceptor Award for 2019.

The purpose of the Outstanding Preceptor Award (OPA) is to recognize the exceptional teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of preceptors in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. Note: Program directors and faculty are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Dietetic Educators. Active NDEP Council members and previous OPA winners are not eligible for this award.

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding preceptors in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-Line, each awardee will receive $1,000 to attend the 2019 Food and Nutrition Conference and Expo in Philadelphia (supported by the Academy's Foundation), one (1) year membership in NDEP (June 1, 2019-May 31, 2020), and a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Awards will be presented during the member showcase and during an NDEP-sponsored event.

Criteria:

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Preceptor in an ACEND-accredited supervised practice program (CP, DI, DT or ISPP).

Preceptors do NOT need to reside in the same Area as the Program Director and/or students/interns in order to be nominated.

Submission and Selection Procedure:

Nominations will be accepted via this survey link:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2019PreceptorAwards>

Nominations will be collected using an online entry system (Survey Monkey), which will close at 5 pm CST on February 1, 2019.

A single nomination, that includes both peers/program directors/program faculty AND students/interns, will be collected using an online entry system (Survey Monkey), which will close at 5pm CST on February 1, 2019. Self-nominations will not be accepted.

Nomination applications should be submitted by the Program Director, acknowledging the preceptor's affiliation with the program; and MUST include a completed online entry, which includes two separate focused statements of support (one from peers/program directors/faculty AND one from interns). Additional materials beyond the online entry will not be reviewed.

Nominations MUST highlight the exemplary accomplishments of the preceptor above and beyond what would be considered core preceptor responsibilities based upon the following key areas:

- Teaching, which should showcase innovative teaching skills and techniques to facilitate student/intern learning. Examples: Has the preceptor used any unique ways to help program directors meet required ACEND competencies? Has the preceptor incorporated any projects that require collecting data, measuring outcomes to summarize the impact of the procedure? Does the preceptor demonstrate a desire to expand these skills/techniques and share with other preceptors?
- Mentoring, which should include those behaviors that elevate student learning and level of practice. Does the preceptor continue to function as a mentor to entry-level and experienced RDs?"
- Excellence in Professional Practice, which should include participation beyond membership in local, state, or national organizations, community organizations, workplace committees, public policy, etc. Examples may include leadership position in professional organizations, activities demonstrating contributions that have implications for the field of dietetics.

The NDEP Preceptor Director and Preceptor Committee will receive, review, and select the winner from the eligible nominations after the survey has been closed. The committee will select no more than one preceptor from each of the six geographical regions. There is a maximum of six awards per year.

Questions about the selection procedure and submission process to should be directed to NDEP at ndep@eatright.org.

Attached is a sample of the survey monkey to be used for a nomination.

Pat, This is a fantastic announcement. Sharon McCauley and her team need to be commended. To get Morrison with its 776 hospitals to join the MQii efforts will speed up the efforts of eliminating malnutrition at warp speed. This will be a great tidbit to share when we go to the states to give the "Your Academy in Action" report. This is our Academy in action!

Subject: Academy Announces MQii Collaboration with Morrison Healthcare

The Academy has exciting news to share about the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative (MQii)! We are very pleased to announce the collaboration with Morrison Healthcare to help support further recruitment in the MQii Learning Collaborative. Morrison Healthcare will join efforts with the Academy and Avalere Health to have its 776 hospitals and healthcare systems advance malnutrition quality, drive outcomes, and highlight Registered Dietitian Nutritionists as the leading experts in malnutrition care.

Please see attached Press Release for more details.

Since the launch in early December, members have expressed a strong interest in the Academy's Sustainable Food Systems Certificate of Training (CoT) program. As with all educational programming, we encourage users to contact the Center for Lifelong Learning with any questions or concerns regarding the program's information. We have had multiple downloads and visits to the site and have received three emails requesting further review of the CoT content. We anticipate completing the review in a few months, including any module editing. The process of submitting blinded feedback for review has begun, and we are taking the following steps:

1. The Sustainable Food Systems CoT registration is paused for the time being until further external review can be provided. All promotion is on hold.
  - Three additional external reviewers will be added to support this process
  - Academy staff will remove promotion from all marketing materials, social media, website (CPD and Eatright Store)
  - HEN DPG will remove promotions and links to the CoT from any webpages, print and social media
2. Disable all new registrations and purchases until further notice.
  - Anyone who is currently registered will have ability to complete the modules within the 30-day timeframe, but no extension will be granted beyond the 30 days; CPEUs are valid
  - Anyone who has completed the modules are not affected; CPEUs are valid

Kudos to Neva for communicating this, Donna for sharing and Joan/Chris making sure CDR understands the Campaign Guidelines.

These snafus related to Linda's campaign are distressing and must be extremely hard for other candidates to deal with.

Donna,

I took a screenshot of Nancy DiMarco's Facebook messenger message to me this afternoon and have attached it. This was identical to the one that Carmen Roman-Shriver had sent me not even an hour before Nancy's. So Linda must be giving them the exact wording of what to send out. I also received an email from Carmen.

It has been brought to my attention that a message has been posted by an elected Commissioner on Facebook supporting Linda Farr for the position of President-elect. According to the Campaign Guidelines, attached, an elected leader's role is to support and encourage the voting process in general and emphasize credentialed practitioner participation in the elections, however, an elected leader cannot show favoritism by supporting one candidate over another.

The post is a violation of the campaign guidelines and must be taken down immediately.

Thank you for your understanding, and the CDR Nominating Committee appreciates your support of the National CDR and Academy elections. Please let me know if you have any questions.

When I talked to Neva about the petition she said she did not want to sign it, but felt uncomfortable telling Linda she was not supporting her. It is obvious that she is not supporting her. Linda is very organized about her campaign, but she is not getting hardly any (maybe 1) likes on her tweets, Instagram and Facebook posts.

Are CDR commissioners allowed to openly campaign for candidates on the Academy ballot? When I was running for president elect and I asked Jessie Pavlinac if she would support me, she said she couldn't openly support anyone because she was on CDR. I just got a Facebook messenger message that I know was a blast from Nancy DiMarco in support of Linda. I believe she still on CDR. That's the second identical messenger blast I received in 1 hour today for Linda. She is super organized.

CDR should be following our procedures, practices and policies. I'm forwarding this to Chris Reidy. Joan, please send Chris the template letter we use regarding campaigning. The question I have for Neva is why she signed her petition. Thanks for bringing it to our attention, Donna.

Public Policy Weekly News

News from the Hill and Beyond

Academy Encourages U.S. Senate to Take Action to End Partial Government Shutdown

The Academy has communicated with leaders in the U.S. Senate, requesting their action to pass appropriations bills already passed by the U.S. House of Representatives, in order to reopen the government and ensure continued access to important nutrition programs and services. In the letter sent last week, the Academy noted the impact of the partial shutdown on nutrition programs including their funding, oversight, and administration as well as the potential for harm to Americans that could result from decreased food safety or access to health care services. The partial government shutdown began when lawmakers failed to pass seven remaining spending bills before the December 21 deadline, thereby furloughing approximately 380,000 workers and withholding pay from another 420,000 despite requiring them to report for work.

Member Updates and Professional Development

NEW Quarterly Initiative!

Malnutrition Advocacy In-district

As part of the Academy's grassroots advocacy strategy for 2019, we will be focusing on quarterly advocacy topics that state affiliates will work on in-state and in-district. This quarter we would like for you, our policy leaders, to lead the efforts in asking Congress to support the role of RDNs and NDTRs in the prevention and treatment of malnutrition. For more information, check out the recording from today's open forum and keep an eye out for forthcoming resources that will be posted to the COI!

Public Policy Open Forum Recording from Today Available on the COI

The recording for Malnutrition In-district and Policy Update for the 116th Congress, held today at 2 p.m. Eastern Time, is now available on the COI; the CPEU certificate and evaluation will be sent out later this week.

The open forum reviews important policy updates from the Academy at the federal and state level in the new Congress, as well as next steps to take for advocating in-district. If you did not have an opportunity to attend the webinar in-person, please take the time to watch this important presentation!

Upcoming Public Policy Open Forums

Policy leaders: register today for the second open forum to be held this month on Tuesday, January 29, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, that will go over the Strategic Measures data from FY2018 and next steps. View the Public Policy Open Forum schedule below:

January

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Overview of the FY2018 Strategic Measures Report with results and recommendations going forward.
- Tuesday, January 29, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

February - Speakers Needed!

- We are Looking for speakers with expertise in digital advocacy/digital communications. Send us an email if you or someone you know might be interested and a good fit. Thank you!
- Tuesday, February 19, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

Webinar on January 31: Meeting with Your Members of Congress - Register

Make the most of your in-person meetings with legislators in-district and on the Hill in 2019 by attending the Congressional Management Foundation's webinar: What to Expect in a Meeting with a Member of Congress, held on Thursday, January 31 from 3-4 p.m. Eastern Time. The presentation will provide an overview of congressional offices, outline staff roles in meetings and offer tips for meeting with members of Congress and their staff. Register for the webinar today!

PPCs and PALs: this is a perfect webinar to share with your affiliate and DPG members who may be new to advocacy and is a great refresher for policy veterans alike. Feel free to copy/paste the posting above to your newsletters and other communications channels.

Reminder: All-STAR Call this Thursday for SPRs and RRs - Register

Register for the All STAR Meeting on January 17, 2019 at 7 p.m. Eastern Time. This will be our first opportunity to convene all STARs, representing all 50 states, from each obesity care partner organization. STAR Program members will advocate for expanding coverage and access to obesity care in state Medicaid programs, including nutrition counseling, medical nutrition therapy and intensive behavioral therapy for obesity. More information about the program and training materials are available on the COI.

Consumer Food Safety Education Conference - March 6-8, 2019

The Partnership for Food Safety and Education is hosting its Consumer Food Safety Education Conference at the Walt Disney Swan and Dolphin Resort in Florida from March 6-8, 2019. Earn more than 13 CPEUs throughout the conference!

Attendees will:

- Learn strategies to influence the food safety knowledge, attitudes and behavior change of consumers;
- Be equipped with the tools to address the biggest food safety education challenges;
- Have the opportunity to network and dialogue with health and food safety professionals from all sectors.

Sign up by January 25, 2019 for early bird pricing while it lasts!

Regulatory Roundup

DPG Input Needed on Utility and Burden of Info Collection on Federal Nutrition Programs

The Academy is seeking DPG expert feedback on an information collection from USDA's Food and Nutrition Service that will contribute to the development of nutrition education and promotion materials and related tools and grants for FNS population groups. Any of our members working in or on projects related to any FNS program including child nutrition programs, school meals, SNAP and SNAP-Ed, etc. and invited to respond in particular. Broadly, we are looking for:

- The value of nutrition assistance programs to your work, including success stories
- Feedback on the utility and/or burden of collecting information through focus groups, interviews, surveys and web-based collection tools.

Your input is important to us, as FNS uses this collection to design interventions to convey science-based, behavior-focused nutrition messages about healthy eating and physical activity to children and adults eligible to participate in FNS nutrition assistance programs.

Any feedback can be submitted to DPG PALs, and PALs may submit comments on behalf of their DPG here. Please share with your DPG members. Click on the purple button below for the full Regulatory Roundup with additional details. A calendar containing links to several meetings is included.

Doris, I just took a quick look through the revised Academy updates and am so thrilled to see the results. You included 100% of my recommendations and the results are amazing. Thank you so much. I will try and spend some more time on it as I know Terri and Mary will. This may not be the final version, but if you could send me this draft in a powerpoint format I would greatly appreciate it. You could post it on the portal and give us a link for now, if that is the easiest way to do it, and we could download it from there. Please give my sincerest thanks to your team for a job well done. Can't wait to give this presentation.

Hello everyone!

We truly appreciate all of the valuable feedback. Attached is the updated Your Academy in Action presentation for your review and input. Please note, the Leadership Institute slide #12 will be updated as soon as we have more information. We will also provide a current list of alliances for slide #26 because there are too many to list on one slide.

Thanks, again and please let us know your thoughts. We look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,

Doris

Doris, This is a great start to what should be a great slide deck for all kinds of meetings where we will be presenting this. I like all of Mary's comments and have a few of my own. Some are very similar to Mary's.

1. Could you please list a couple of examples of the Did you Know topics we have covered that we could use in the presentation?
2. Under the why be a member what students say I would change the bullet for Justin Pascual to read The Academy is a priceless tool for your career that will catalyze your success as a professional in nutrition and dietetics.
3. Under the findings of the Salary Survey I think it would be confusing for people who look at the slide and don't listen carefully to understand what is meant by reflects increases in younger members. We might not want to put on the slide that these figures are essentially the same as 2015, but we might need to say that annualized wages are the same as 2015 because we have had an increase in percentage of younger members in the workforce. Not sure how to do that though? I also think we need to clarify that education and job responsibility relates strongly to increases in compensation on the slide. I also agree with Mary on putting the reference to the continuing increase in need for RDN's and NDTR's in the notes section, but I think we need to word it more positively like increased demand for RDN's and NDTR's in the future.
4. On the first MGii slide I think we need to add the statistic on there about 27% decrease in 30 day readmission rates and two day reduction in average length of stay. That is powerful information we don't want the audience to miss. Some of them like to take pictures of the slides and that would be helpful information for them to take back.
5. I know this is petty, but could you change the slide on Media Coverage to replace Debbie Petipain talking about healthy and simple lunchbox options? The SNS DPG is very sensitive about us trying to encourage parents to pack their children lunch. We advocate for eating school lunch. in the talking points we talk about pre-biotics and pro-biotics and this would be a much better example to give.
6. I had the same question about the alliance examples on the slide as Mary, but I would love a list of Alliances for us to use as a reference as we talk about this important topic.
7. On the Consumer Protection slide we need a color code for the slide so we can talk about what the colors mean on the slide. I think the best state map to put on this slide would be therapeutic diet orders. We have discussed licensure a lot, but not diet order writing so much.
8. I was the one who asked to have the sponsorship information put into the presentation, but my main focus on that was to get out to our members that we have a very rigorous process by which potential sponsors have to go through to become a sponsor. Our members still think Coca cola and Pepsi are sponsors. I would like the slide to reflect more that aspect of sponsorship. Not so much that once they are sponsors we regulate what they send out.

9. I have had several requests from members to have an update on the Second Century. I don't feel like the slide is an update. It is just a synopsis of what the projects are. What I think the members want is what is going on with these projects? Have they started? Have we given out any grants? Information along those lines.

10. on the Where does my Contribution go slide I would put some of the projects we have started funding. The title does not go with the bullet points.

11. I also like the tile Your Academy in Action.

12. I know this would be a ton of work to do, but it would be fantastic is we could have individual information for each state we are going to give the presentation to which would list what the licensure status was, diet ordering situation, telehealth and interstate practice regulations. Just a thought. I just think the states so appreciate us personalizing it.

13. We don't mention anything about FNCE this year (numbers) or next year? Maybe just a small plug would be helpful.

14. On the Code of ethics slide we should add and support for the values of our profession. Just having values on the slide does not make much sense.

15. the Leadership institute will be a popular slide, but without much information I hate to even mention it. Do we have any idea of when it might happen? Who would be included? Who is designing it? Anything along those lines would be very helpful.

16. I think we need to mention in the talking points our successful PPW last year. Remember the three of us are not the only ones who will be using this slide deck.

Thanks for listening to my suggestions. I am excited about the direction we are going with this.

Hi Doris,

Many thanks to you and the team for creating this document.

Title: like Your Academy in Action the best, or perhaps @ Your Academy in Action (which may be a tad too "cutesy" on second thought).

Notes: great detail, and quite long. I know that the info is there so we can customize, personalize, etc. For me it would be very useful to have the notes as short bullets rather than complete sentences. The scenarios of presentations vary a lot--sometimes the laptop is far away from the podium, sometimes there is no podium, etc- so it is great to have the notes be short and succinct so they could be on note cards if needed.

Is there a way to separate the notes so we could put them on 3x5 cards (or etc) if we wanted to? Other ideas for keeping track of the key messages?

Member benefits slide-the Journal subscription price may not be the most crucial think to highlight--perhaps the value of its free CPE instead?

Love the "why be a member" and slides--likely many in these audiences are members but these slides can encourage them to recruit and also target those who may be teetering re renewal or are not members

Super to have the student input!!

Like the comp slides. Is there a reference for the Academy's belief that there will be more need to RDNs and NDTRs in coming years?

Is there any "harder" data for the Leadership Institute? People at FNCE heard this message and may crave a bit of an update. Good to mention it for sure.

Like the international focus a lot--especially here would be great to bullet the talking points-a lot of info to share (if time allows) and don't want to read it

Like MQii--any value in mentioning the MCC study and the value that will bring to the definition of malnutrition?

D&I is so important--again, what is the best way to assure that we can cover the high points of the detailed notes without reading them exactly? LOVE the accommodation side!!

Spokesperson and media coverage is great to highlight--is there a place here for encouraging people to consider a spokesperson or media role, and a referral to Academy programs that may guide them that pursuit?

May need to update HoD slide pending outcome of discussion between now and time of presentations--I am not convinced right now that there is a "bold step" being made.

I would prefer if the Future of the HOD slide was stronger--but at the moment we cannot predict how it will go.

I LOVE Terri's comments on the plan to date. We cannot use these verbatim (at least not without her permission) and they DO clearly state the goals and desired future state.

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

Alliances slide--what does the "I don't expect you to read all the names o the screen" refer to? Maybe the slide and not the notes was edited? Would it help to highlight one or two as examples, or would that be seen as favoritism?

Really love the policy slides--lead, build, strengthen and focus on consumer protection are super!! again, how do we best consolidate the notes so we can convert the details comfortably, quite completely, and without rattling papers?

Also love the "entry points to leadership" idea! Circles back to the member comments earlier about the values they gain.

Thanks for reading all of this, and for your hard work. I am really excited to get out and share this great news with members and would be members.

Mary

Hello everyone!

We truly appreciate all of the valuable feedback. Attached is the updated Your Academy in Action presentation for your review and input. Please note, the Leadership Institute slide #12 will be updated as soon as we have more information. We will also provide a current list of alliances for slide #26 because there are too many to list on one slide.

Thanks, again and please let us know your thoughts. We look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,

Doris

Subject: Re: Revised 2019 Academy report for your review and feedback

Doris, This is a great start to what should be a great slide deck for all kinds of meetings where we will be presenting this. I like all of Mary's comments and have a few of my own. Some are very similar to Mary's.

1. Could you please list a couple of examples of the Did you Know topics we have covered that we could use in the presentation?
2. Under the why be a member what students say I would change the bullet for Justin Pascual to read The Academy is a priceless tool for your career that will catalyze your success as a professional in nutrition and dietetics.
3. Under the findings of the Salary Survey I think it would be confusing for people who look at the slide and don't listen carefully to understand what is meant by reflects increases in younger members. We might not want to put on the slide that these figures are essentially the same as 2015, but we might need to say that annualized wages are the same as 2015 because we have had an increase in percentage of younger members in the workforce. Not sure how to do that though? I also think we need to clarify that education and job responsibility relates strongly to increases in compensation on the slide. I also agree with Mary on putting the reference to the continuing increase in need for RDN's and NDTR's in the notes section, but I think we need to word it more positively like increased demand for RDN's and NDTR's in the future.

4. On the first MGii slide I think we need to add the statistic on there about 27% decrease in 30 day readmission rates and two day reduction in average length of stay. That is powerful information we don't want the audience to miss. Some of them like to take pictures of the slides and that would be helpful information for them to take back.

5. I know this is petty, but could you change the slide on Media Coverage to replace Debbie Petipain talking about healthy and simple lunchbox options? The SNS DPG is very sensitive about us trying to encourage parents to pack their children lunch. We advocate for eating school lunch. in the talking points we talk about pre-biotics and pro-biotics and this would be a much better example to give.

6. I had the same question about the alliance examples on the slide as Mary, but I would love a list of Alliances for us to use as a reference as we talk about this important topic.

7. On the Consumer Protection slide we need a color code for the slide so we can talk about what the colors mean on the slide. I think the best state map to put on this slide would be therapeutic diet orders. We have discussed licensure a lot, but not diet order writing so much.

8. I was the one who asked to have the sponsorship information put into the presentation, but my main focus on that was to get out to our members that we have a very rigorous process by which potential sponsors have to go through to become a sponsor. Our members still think Coca cola and Pepsi are sponsors. I would like the slide to reflect more that aspect of sponsorship. Not so much that once they are sponsors we regulate what they send out.

9. I have had several requests from members to have an update on the Second Century. I don't feel like the slide is an update. It is just a synopsis of what the projects are. What I think the members want is what is going on with these projects? Have they started? Have we given out any grants? Information along those lines.

10. on the Where does my Contribution go slide I would put some of the projects we have started funding. The title does not go with the bullet points.

11. I also like the tile Your Academy in Action.

12. I know this would be a ton of work to do, but it would be fantastic is we could have individual information for each state we are going to give the presentation to which would list what the licensure status was, diet ordering situation, telehealth and interstate practice regulations. Just a thought. I just think the states so appreciate us personalizing it.

13. We don't mention anything about FNCE this year (numbers) or next year? Maybe just a small plug would be helpful.

14. On the Code of ethics slide we should add and support for the values of our profession. Just having values on the slide does not make much sense.

15. the Leadership institute will be a popular slide, but without much information I hate to even mention it. Do we have any idea of when it might happen? Who would be included? Who is designing it? Anything along those lines would be very helpful.

16. I think we need to mention in the talking points our successful PPW last year. Remember the three of us are not the only ones who will be using this slide deck.

Thanks for listening to my suggestions. I am excited about the direction we are going with this.

Hi Doris,

Many thanks to you and the team for creating this document.

Title: like Your Academy in Action the best, or perhaps @ Your Academy in Action (which may be a tad too "cutesy" on second thought).

Notes: great detail, and quite long. I know that the info is there so we can customize, personalize, etc. For me it would be very useful to have the notes as short bullets rather than complete sentences. The scenarios of presentations vary a lot--sometimes the laptop is far away from the podium, sometimes there is no podium, etc- so it is great to have the notes be short and succinct so they could be on note cards if needed.

Is there a way to separate the notes so we could put them on 3x5 cards (or etc) if we wanted to?
Other ideas for keeping track of the key messages?

Member benefits slide-the Journal subscription price may not be the most crucial think to highlight--perhaps the value of its free CPE instead?

Love the "why be a member" and slides--likely many in these audiences are members but these slides can encourage them to recruit and also target those who may be teetering re renewal or are not members

Super to have the student input!!

Like the comp slides. Is there a reference for the Academy's belief that there will be more need to RDNs and NDTRs in coming years?

Is there any "harder" data for the Leadership Institute? People at FNCE heard this message and may crave a bit of an update. Good to mention it for sure.

Like the international focus a lot--especially here would be great to bullet the talking points-a lot of info to share (if time allows) and don't want to read it

Like MQii--any value in mentioning the MCC study and the value that will bring to the definition of malnutrition?

D&I is so important--again, what is the best way to assure that we can cover the high points of the detailed notes without reading them exactly? LOVE the accommodation side!!

Spokesperson and media coverage is great to highlight--is there a place here for encouraging people to consider a spokesperson or media role, and a referral to Academy programs that may guide them that pursuit?

May need to update HoD slide pending outcome of discussion between now and time of presentations--I am not convinced right now that there is a "bold step" being made.

I would prefer if the Future of the HOD slide was stronger--but at the moment we cannot predict how it will go.

I LOVE Terri's comments on the plan to date. We cannot use these verbatim (at least not without her permission) and they DO clearly state the goals and desired future state.

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

Alliances slide--what does the "I don't expect you to read all the names o the screen" refer to? Maybe the slide and not the notes was edited? Would it help to highlight one or two as examples, or would that be seen as favoritism?

Really love the policy slides--lead, build, strengthen and focus on consumer protection are super!! again, how do we best consolidate the notes so we can convert the details comfortably, quite completely, and without rattling papers?

Also love the "entry points to leadership" idea! Circles back to the member comments earlier about the values they gain.

Thanks for reading all of this, and for your hard work. I am really excited to get out and share this great news with members and would be members.

Mary

Thank you for today's call. As discussed, attached is the initial draft that captures all of the information you indicated was important to include. In addition, here are a few recommendations for the new name:

- Academy Happenings
- Activities @ Your Academy
- Academy Accomplishments
- Your Academy in Action

We welcome your thoughts/recommendations/comments/ideas on the new name and the presentation. Please review and provide your feedback and once we hear back from everyone, we will modify it and send a link to download the PowerPoint.

Thank you very much and please let me know if you have any questions.

The 2019 Election will run February 1–15, 2019.

The CDR 2019 Commissioner Slate of Candidates can be viewed here.

Did You Know?

CDR credentialed practitioners, RDs and DTRs, elect CDR Commissioners for three-year terms on an annual basis. Every year the CDR Nominating Committee distributes a call for nominations to all CDR credentialed practitioners. The Nominating Committee reviews all nominations and develops a slate of candidates. The candidate slate is distributed to all CDR credentialed practitioners in February of each year. Election results are reported annually in late February. As a credentialed practitioner it is very important that you participate in the election process.

Since 1990, an elected DTR member has served on the Commission. A Board Certified Specialist and an Advanced Practice in Clinical Nutrition credentialed practitioner are also included on CDR since the implementation of these certification programs. A public representative has held an appointed position on CDR since 1984 and has full rights and privileges. Beginning in June 2006, a newly credentialed registered dietitian serves in an appointed position on the Commission for a two-year term. In all, the Commission currently consists of 12 members, 10 who are RDs, 1 of whom is newly credentialed, 1 DTR and 1 public representative.

CDR News Highlights

Dietetic Technician, Registered Marketing Initiative

CDR has implemented a marketing initiative to promote the value of the DTR credential to employers and didactic program in dietetics (DPD) program directors.

During focus groups with educators and dietetic technicians, DPD program directors were identified as a primary target audience for the bachelor degreed, DPD program graduate dietetic technician. A promotional poster highlighting the practice role options for DTRs was sent to all ACEND accredited DPD program directors in April/May. Promotional brochures highlighting the DTR's role in different practice settings, such as school nutrition, public health, acute care, long-term care and retail were recently sent to RD employers in these practice sectors.

Please visit CDR's website to view these materials: cdrnet.org/opportunities.

Practice Competencies Initiative

The CDR Competency Assurance Panel collaborated with the Academy's Quality Management Committee on the development of dietetics practice competencies and performance indicators. These competencies and performance indicators replaced the current learning need codes for the Professional Development Portfolio recertification system.

This new system began in 2015 with new registrants whose registration began on or after June 2, 2015 and current registrants beginning their June 1, 2016 recertification cycle. An article describing the development and validation of the practice competencies was published in the June 2015 Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

CDR has been hosting webinars entitled Your PDP and Practice Competencies: What's Next and What's in It for You? The schedule of 2019 webinars introducing the new practice competencies to CDR credentialed practitioners beginning a new recertification cycle in 2019 is listed below:

Continuing Professional Education Approval Criteria

CDR has revised the current continuing professional education approval criteria to require that all continuing professional education activity types (excluding academic coursework) addressing diet and nutrition topics, include an RD or DTR in program planning*. This policy change is effective for continuing professional activities offered on or after June 1, 2018 and for CDR credentialed practitioners recertifying beginning a new recertification cycle on or after June 2, 2018.

*Academic Coursework, and CPE activities offered by American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS), American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP), American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (AANP), American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA), Organizations accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), Organizations accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), American Psychiatric Association (APA), American Psychological Association (APA), American Public Health Association (APHA), pharmacy, dentistry, and speech language pathology societies and associations are excluded from this requirement.

New Policy: Continuing Professional Education Activities Addressing Ethics

At its October 2018 meeting the Commission established the following policy effective January 1, 2019:

All continuing professional education providers (CDR Accredited providers and those seeking prior approval) will submit all ethics related activities; e.g., self-study, webinars, live lecture/seminars, through the CDR online prior approval application process for review to ensure that information and interpretations provided in the activities are consistent with current Academy/CDR Code of Ethics

Online Dietetics Preceptor Training Program

The online Dietetics Preceptor Training program, has been reformatted to allow course participants to complete either the full eight (8) hour course or to complete any one of three course segments offering either two (2) or three (3) continuing professional education units. This formatting change was made to encourage greater participation in this course. The course can be found here: www.cdrcampus.com

New Specialist Certification

CDR recently implemented a Board Certified Specialist in Pediatric Nutrition with a Critical Care emphasis. This new certification will address practice in critical care units for the pediatric population. The designation for this new specialist certification will be CSPCC. Twenty-one Registered Dietitians passed the first examination administered this Fall.

For more information, please visit CDR's website:

New Online Assess and Learn Module

A new online Assess & Learn module entitled, The Role of Nutrition in Health Promotion and Prevention, is now available at www.cdrcampus.com. In this module there are five case scenarios, each addressing one of the five levels of the social ecological model. The scenarios are interrelated to reinforce the concept that CDR credentialed practitioners can address primary prevention of overweight and obesity through many diverse approaches. The scenarios also demonstrate the interconnectedness of RDs' work across a community and the need for RDs to be players and leaders at all levels and in all sectors of society. The content provided for any one level is not intended to be a comprehensive assessment of competencies for that level, but the knowledge, competencies and skills assessed across all five levels will give CDR credentialed practitioners a good sense of their role in the social ecological approach to nutrition in health promotion and disease prevention.

Cost: $64.99 for 7 CPEUs.

Updated Assess and Learn Module—Managing Type 2 Diabetes

This newly revised Assess and Learn module will help you assess your ability to provide medical nutrition therapy, identify specific nutrition diagnoses, and provide evidence-based nutrition knowledge in the management of clients with type 2 diabetes mellitus. The self-assessment will also evaluate aspects of critical thinking and problem-solving to address the multifaceted nutrition-related problems associated with type 2 diabetes. Collaboration with the health care team is also evaluated so effective quality nutrition care and desired outcomes are optimized. Whether you work in an area that encounters persons with type 2 diabetes or provide consultation to health care providers that administer services to patients with diabetes, this course will be helpful in assessing your knowledge and ability to manage the unique nutrition challenges of this chronic disease.

Cost: $55.49 for 6 CPEUs.

Interdisciplinary Specialist Certification in Obesity and Weight Management

The CDR Interdisciplinary Board Certified Specialist in Obesity and Weight Management examination is administered annually in March and September. Registered Dietitians, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, Exercise Physiologists, Licensed Clinical Psychologists and Licensed Clinical Social Workers are currently eligible to take the examination. At its October 2018 meeting the Commission passed a motion to expand eligibility for this certification to include certified nurse specialists (CNSs or overall APRNs), physical therapists (PTs), and pharmacists.

Advanced Practitioner in Clinical Nutrition Certification Update

- Fifty-three registered dietitians have successfully completed the Advanced Practitioner in Clinical Nutrition examination.
- The next examination administrations will be April 2019.
- The examination fee is $450.
- Exam dates and deadlines are available at the following link:

cdrnet.org/advanced-practice-examination-dates-and-fee-schedule

Ethics Toolkit

The joint Academy/CDR Ethics Committee has updated the Ethics Education Facilitator's Guide to educate CDR credentialed practitioners and Academy members on the 2018 Code of Ethics for the Nutrition and Dietetics Profession.

This Guide offers an overview of the Academy/CDR Code of Ethics along with guided discussion. It is not intended to be an in depth study of professional ethics. Although facilitators are welcome to adapt time frames to their individual schedules, the script, activities and handouts in this Guide have been designed for a two hour presentation.

•Ethics Education PowerPoint Presentation

•Facilitator's Script for the Ethics Education PowerPoint Presentation

•Facilitator's Guide Handouts

The ethics resources may be downloaded and used by all nutrition and dietetics practitioners for personal use only and are not available for resale or any commercial use.

Doris, I just took a quick look through the revised Academy updates and am so thrilled to see the results. You included 100% of my recommendations and the results are amazing. Thank you so much. I will try and spend some more time on it as I know Terri and Mary will. This may not be the final version, but if you could send me this draft in a powerpoint format I would greatly appreciate it. You could post it on the portal and give us a link for now, if that is the easiest way to do it, and we could download it from there. Please give my sincerest thanks to your team for a job well done. Can't wait to give this presentation.

Doris, This is a great start to what should be a great slide deck for all kinds of meetings where we will be presenting this. I like all of Mary's comments and have a few of my own. Some are very similar to Mary's.

1. Could you please list a couple of examples of the Did you Know topics we have covered that we could use in the presentation?
2. Under the why be a member what students say I would change the bullet for Justin Pascual to read The Academy is a priceless tool for your career that will catalyze your success as a professional in nutrition and dietetics.
3. Under the findings of the Salary Survey I think it would be confusing for people who look at the slide and don't listen carefully to understand what is meant by reflects increases in younger members. We might not want to put on the slide that these figures are essentially the same as 2015, but we might need to say that annualized wages are the same as 2015 because we have had an increase in percentage of younger members in the workforce. Not sure how to do that though? I also think we need to clarify that education and job responsibility relates strongly to increases in compensation on the slide. I also agree with Mary on putting the reference to the continuing increase in need for RDN's and NDTR's in the notes section, but I think we need to word it more positively like increased demand for RDN's and NDTR's in the future.
4. On the first MGii slide I think we need to add the statistic on there about 27% decrease in 30 day readmission rates and two day reduction in average length of stay. That is powerful information we don't want the audience to miss. Some of them like to take pictures of the slides and that would be helpful information for them to take back.
5. I know this is petty, but could you change the slide on Media Coverage to replace Debbie Petipain talking about healthy and simple lunchbox options? The SNS DPG is very sensitive about us trying to encourage parents to pack their children lunch. We advocate for eating school lunch. in the talking points we talk about pre-biotics and pro-biotics and this would be a much better example to give.
6. I had the same question about the alliance examples on the slide as Mary, but I would love a list of Alliances for us to use as a reference as we talk about this important topic.
7. On the Consumer Protection slide we need a color code for the slide so we can talk about what the colors mean on the slide. I think the best state map to put on this slide would be therapeutic diet orders. We have discussed licensure a lot, but not diet order writing so much.

8. I was the one who asked to have the sponsorship information put into the presentation, but my main focus on that was to get out to our members that we have a very rigorous process by which potential sponsors have to go through to become a sponsor. Our members still think Coca cola and Pepsi are sponsors. I would like the slide to reflect more that aspect of sponsorship. Not so much that once they are sponsors we regulate what they send out.

9. I have had several requests from members to have an update on the Second Century. I don't feel like the slide is an update. It is just a synopsis of what the projects are. What I think the members want is what is going on with these projects? Have they started? Have we given out any grants? Information along those lines.

10. on the Where does my Contribution go slide I would put some of the projects we have started funding. The title does not go with the bullet points.

11. I also like the tile Your Academy in Action.

12. I know this would be a ton of work to do, but it would be fantastic is we could have individual information for each state we are going to give the presentation to which would list what the licensure status was, diet ordering situation, telehealth and interstate practice regulations. Just a thought. I just think the states so appreciate us personalizing it.

13. We don't mention anything about FNCE this year (numbers) or next year? Maybe just a small plug would be helpful.

14. On the Code of ethics slide we should add and support for the values of our profession. Just having values on the slide does not make much sense.

15. the Leadership institute will be a popular slide, but without much information I hate to even mention it. Do we have any idea of when it might happen? Who would be included? Who is designing it? Anything along those lines would be very helpful.

16. I think we need to mention in the talking points our successful PPW last year. Remember the three of us are not the only ones who will be using this slide deck.

Thanks for listening to my suggestions. I am excited about the direction we are going with this.

Hi Doris,

Many thanks to you and the team for creating this document.

Title: like Your Academy in Action the best, or perhaps @ Your Academy in Action (which may be a tad too "cutesy" on second thought).

Notes: great detail, and quite long. I know that the info is there so we can customize, personalize, etc. For me it would be very useful to have the notes as short bullets rather than complete sentences. The scenarios of presentations vary a lot--sometimes the laptop is far away from the podium, sometimes there is no podium, etc- so it is great to have the notes be short and succinct so they could be on note cards if needed.

Is there a way to separate the notes so we could put them on 3x5 cards (or etc) if we wanted to?
Other ideas for keeping track of the key messages?

Member benefits slide-the Journal subscription price may not be the most crucial think to highlight--perhaps the value of its free CPE instead?

Love the "why be a member" and slides--likely many in these audiences are members but these slides can encourage them to recruit and also target those who may be teetering re renewal or are not members

Super to have the student input!!

Like the comp slides. Is there a reference for the Academy's belief that there will be more need to RDNs and NDTRs in coming years?

Is there any "harder" data for the Leadership Institute? People at FNCE heard this message and may crave a bit of an update. Good to mention it for sure.

Like the international focus a lot--especially here would be great to bullet the talking points-a lot of info to share (if time allows) and don't want to read it

Like MQii--any value in mentioning the MCC study and the value that will bring to the definition of malnutrition?

D&I is so important--again, what is the best way to assure that we can cover the high points of the detailed notes without reading them exactly? LOVE the accommodation side!!

Spokesperson and media coverage is great to highlight--is there a place here for encouraging people to consider a spokesperson or media role, and a referral to Academy programs that may guide them that pursuit?

May need to update HoD slide pending outcome of discussion between now and time of presentations--I am not convinced right now that there is a "bold step" being made.

I would prefer if the Future of the HOD slide was stronger--but at the moment we cannot predict how it will go.

I LOVE Terri's comments on the plan to date. We cannot use these verbatim (at least not without her permission) and they DO clearly state the goals and desired future state.

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

Alliances slide--what does the "I don't expect you to read all the names o the screen" refer to? Maybe the slide and not the notes was edited? Would it help to highlight one or two as examples, or would that be seen as favoritism?

Really love the policy slides--lead, build, strengthen and focus on consumer protection are super!! again, how do we best consolidate the notes so we can convert the details comfortably, quite completely, and without rattling papers?

Also love the "entry points to leadership" idea! Circles back to the member comments earlier about the values they gain.

Thanks for reading all of this, and for your hard work. I am really excited to get out and share this great news with members and would be members.

Mary

Doris, I just took a quick look through the revised Academy updates and am so thrilled to see the results. You included 100% of my recommendations and the results are amazing. Thank you so much. I will try and spend some more time on it as I know Terri and Mary will. This may not be the final version, but if you could send me this draft in a powerpoint format I would greatly appreciate it. You could post it on the portal and give us a link for now, if that is the easiest way to do it, and we could download it from there. Please give my sincerest thanks to your team for a job well done. Can't wait to give this presentation.

Hello everyone!

We truly appreciate all of the valuable feedback. Attached is the updated Your Academy in Action presentation for your review and input. Please note, the Leadership Institute slide #12 will be updated as soon as we have more information. We will also provide a current list of alliances for slide #26 because there are too many to list on one slide.

Thanks, again and please let us know your thoughts. We look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Hello everyone!

We truly appreciate all of the valuable feedback. Attached is the updated Your Academy in Action presentation for your review and input. Please note, the Leadership Institute slide #12 will be updated as soon as we have more information. We will also provide a current list of alliances for slide #26 because there are too many to list on one slide.

Thanks, again and please let us know your thoughts. We look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,

Doris

Doris, This is a great start to what should be a great slide deck for all kinds of meetings where we will be presenting this. I like all of Mary's comments and have a few of my own. Some are very similar to Mary's.

1. Could you please list a couple of examples of the Did you Know topics we have covered that we could use in the presentation?
2. Under the why be a member what students say I would change the bullet for Justin Pascual to read The Academy is a priceless tool for your career that will catalyze your success as a professional in nutrition and dietetics.
3. Under the findings of the Salary Survey I think it would be confusing for people who look at the slide and don't listen carefully to understand what is meant by reflects increases in younger members. We might not want to put on the slide that these figures are essentially the same as 2015, but we might need to say that annualized wages are the same as 2015 because we have had an increase in percentage of younger members in the workforce. Not sure how to do that though? I also think we need to clarify that education and job responsibility relates strongly to increases in compensation on the slide. I also agree with Mary on putting the reference to the continuing increase in need for RDN's and NDTR's in the notes section, but I think we need to word it more positively like increased demand for RDN's and NDTR's in the future.
4. On the first MGii slide I think we need to add the statistic on there about 27% decrease in 30 day readmission rates and two day reduction in average length of stay. That is powerful information we don't want the audience to miss. Some of them like to take pictures of the slides and that would be helpful information for them to take back.
5. I know this is petty, but could you change the slide on Media Coverage to replace Debbie Petipain talking about healthy and simple lunchbox options? The SNS DPG is very sensitive about us trying to encourage parents to pack their children lunch. We advocate for eating school lunch. in the talking points we talk about pre-biotics and pro-biotics and this would be a much better example to give.
6. I had the same question about the alliance examples on the slide as Mary, but I would love a list of Alliances for us to use as a reference as we talk about this important topic.
7. On the Consumer Protection slide we need a color code for the slide so we can talk about what the colors mean on the slide. I think the best state map to put on this slide would be therapeutic diet orders. We have discussed licensure a lot, but not diet order writing so much.
8. I was the one who asked to have the sponsorship information put into the presentation, but my main focus on that was to get out to our members that we have a very rigorous process by which potential sponsors have to go through to become a sponsor. Our members still think Coca cola and Pepsi are sponsors. I would like the slide to reflect more that aspect of sponsorship. Not so much that once they are sponsors we regulate what they send out.

9. I have had several requests from members to have an update on the Second Century. I don't feel like the slide is an update. It is just a synopsis of what the projects are. What I think the members want is what is going on with these projects? Have they started? Have we given out any grants? Information along those lines.

10. on the Where does my Contribution go slide I would put some of the projects we have started funding. The title does not go with the bullet points.

11. I also like the tile Your Academy in Action.

12. I know this would be a ton of work to do, but it would be fantastic is we could have individual information for each state we are going to give the presentation to which would list what the licensure status was, diet ordering situation, telehealth and interstate practice regulations. Just a thought. I just think the states so appreciate us personalizing it.

13. We don't mention anything about FNCE this year (numbers) or next year? Maybe just a small plug would be helpful.

14. On the Code of ethics slide we should add and support for the values of our profession. Just having values on the slide does not make much sense.

15. the Leadership institute will be a popular slide, but without much information I hate to even mention it. Do we have any idea of when it might happen? Who would be included? Who is designing it? Anything along those lines would be very helpful.

16. I think we need to mention in the talking points our successful PPW last year. Remember the three of us are not the only ones who will be using this slide deck.

Thanks for listening to my suggestions. I am excited about the direction we are going with this.

Hi Doris,

Many thanks to you and the team for creating this document.

Title: like Your Academy in Action the best, or perhaps @ Your Academy in Action (which may be a tad too "cutesy" on second thought).

Notes: great detail, and quite long. I know that the info is there so we can customize, personalize, etc. For me it would be very useful to have the notes as short bullets rather than complete sentences. The scenarios of presentations vary a lot--sometimes the laptop is far away from the podium, sometimes there is no podium, etc- so it is great to have the notes be short and succinct so they could be on note cards if needed.

Is there a way to separate the notes so we could put them on 3x5 cards (or etc) if we wanted to? Other ideas for keeping track of the key messages?

Member benefits slide-the Journal subscription price may not be the most crucial think to highlight--perhaps the value of its free CPE instead?

Love the "why be a member" and slides--likely many in these audiences are members but these slides can encourage them to recruit and also target those who may be teetering re renewal or are not members

Super to have the student input!!

Like the comp slides. Is there a reference for the Academy's belief that there will be more need to RDNs and NDTRs in coming years?

Is there any "harder" data for the Leadership Institute? People at FNCE heard this message and may crave a bit of an update. Good to mention it for sure.

Like the international focus a lot--especially here would be great to bullet the talking points-a lot of info to share (if time allows) and don't want to read it

Like MQii--any value in mentioning the MCC study and the value that will bring to the definition of malnutrition?

D&I is so important--again, what is the best way to assure that we can cover the high points of the detailed notes without reading them exactly? LOVE the accommodation side!!

Spokesperson and media coverage is great to highlight--is there a place here for encouraging people to consider a spokesperson or media role, and a referral to Academy programs that may guide them that pursuit?

May need to update HoD slide pending outcome of discussion between now and time of presentations--I am not convinced right now that there is a "bold step" being made.

I would prefer if the Future of the HOD slide was stronger--but at the moment we cannot predict how it will go.

I LOVE Terri's comments on the plan to date. We cannot use these verbatim (at least not without her permission) and they DO clearly state the goals and desired future state.

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

Alliances slide--what does the "I don't expect you to read all the names o the screen" refer to? Maybe the slide and not the notes was edited? Would it help to highlight one or two as examples, or would that be seen as favoritism?

Really love the policy slides--lead, build, strengthen and focus on consumer protection are super!! again, how do we best consolidate the notes so we can convert the details comfortably, quite completely, and without rattling papers?

Also love the "entry points to leadership" idea! Circles back to the member comments earlier about the values they gain.

Thanks for reading all of this, and for your hard work. I am really excited to get out and share this great news with members and would be members.

Mary

Thank you for today's call. As discussed, attached is the initial draft that captures all of the information you indicated was important to include. In addition, here are a few recommendations for the new name:

- Academy Happenings
- Activities @ Your Academy
- Academy Accomplishments
- Your Academy in Action

We welcome your thoughts/recommendations/comments/ideas on the new name and the presentation. Please review and provide your feedback and once we hear back from everyone, we will modify it and send a link to download the PowerPoint.

Thank you very much and please let me know if you have any questions.

Academy Encourages U.S. Senate to Take Action to End Partial Government Shutdown

The Academy has communicated with leaders in the U.S. Senate, requesting their action to pass appropriations bills already passed by the U.S. House of Representatives, in order to reopen the government and ensure continued access to important nutrition programs and services. In the letter sent last week, the Academy noted the impact of the partial shutdown on nutrition programs including their funding, oversight, and administration as well as the potential for harm to Americans that could result from decreased food safety or access to health care services. The partial government shutdown began when lawmakers failed to pass seven remaining spending bills before the December 21 deadline, thereby furloughing approximately 380,000 workers and withholding pay from another 420,000 despite requiring them to report for work.

The recording for Malnutrition In-district and Policy Update for the 116th Congress, held today at 2 p.m. Eastern Time, is now available on the COI; the CPEU certificate and evaluation will be sent out later this week.

The open forum reviews important policy updates from the Academy at the federal and state level in the new Congress, as well as next steps to take for advocating in-district. If you did not have an opportunity to attend the webinar in-person, please take the time to watch this important presentation!

Upcoming Public Policy Open Forums

Policy leaders: register today for the second open forum to be held this month on Tuesday, January 29, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, that will go over the Strategic Measures data from FY2018 and next steps. View the Public Policy Open Forum schedule below:

January

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Overview of the FY2018 Strategic Measures Report with results and recommendations going forward.
- Tuesday, January 29, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

February - Speakers Needed!

- We are Looking for speakers with expertise in digital advocacy/digital communications. Send us an email if you or someone you know might be interested and a good fit. Thank you!
- Tuesday, February 19, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

Webinar on January 31: Meeting with Your Members of Congress - Register

Make the most of your in-person meetings with legislators in-district and on the Hill in 2019 by attending the Congressional Management Foundation's webinar: What to Expect in a Meeting with a Member of Congress, held on Thursday, January 31 from 3-4 p.m. Eastern Time. The presentation will provide an overview of congressional offices, outline staff roles in meetings and offer tips for meeting with members of Congress and their staff. Register for the webinar today!

PPCs and PALs: this is a perfect webinar to share with your affiliate and DPG members who may be new to advocacy and is a great refresher for policy veterans alike. Feel free to copy/paste the posting above to your newsletters and other communications channels.

Reminder: All-STAR Call this Thursday for SPRs and RRs - Register

Register for the All STAR Meeting on January 17, 2019 at 7 p.m. Eastern Time. This will be our first opportunity to convene all STARs, representing all 50 states, from each obesity care partner organization. STAR Program members will advocate for expanding coverage and access to obesity care in state Medicaid programs, including nutrition counseling, medical nutrition therapy and intensive behavioral therapy for obesity. More information about the program and training materials are available on the COI.

Consumer Food Safety Education Conference - March 6-8, 2019

The Partnership for Food Safety and Education is hosting its Consumer Food Safety Education Conference at the Walt Disney Swan and Dolphin Resort in Florida from March 6-8, 2019. Earn more than 13 CPEUs throughout the conference!

Attendees will:

- Learn strategies to influence the food safety knowledge, attitudes and behavior change of consumers;
- Be equipped with the tools to address the biggest food safety education challenges;
- Have the opportunity to network and dialogue with health and food safety professionals from all sectors.

Sign up by January 25, 2019 for early bird pricing while it lasts!

Regulatory Roundup

DPG Input Needed on Utility and Burden of Info Collection on Federal Nutrition Programs

The Academy is seeking DPG expert feedback on an information collection from USDA's Food and Nutrition Service that will contribute to the development of nutrition education and promotion materials and related tools and grants for FNS population groups. Any of our members working in or on projects related to any FNS program including child nutrition programs, school meals, SNAP and SNAP-Ed, etc. and invited to respond in particular. Broadly, we are looking for:

- The value of nutrition assistance programs to your work, including success stories
- Feedback on the utility and/or burden of collecting information through focus groups, interviews, surveys and web-based collection tools.

Your input is important to us, as FNS uses this collection to design interventions to convey science-based, behavior-focused nutrition messages about healthy eating and physical activity to children and adults eligible to participate in FNS nutrition assistance programs.

Any feedback can be submitted to DPG PALs, and PALs may submit comments on behalf of their DPG here. Please share with your DPG members. Click on the purple button below for the full Regulatory Roundup with additional details. A calendar containing links to several meetings is included.

CONFIDENTIAL- DO NOT DISTRIBUTE

Attached is a PDF on the Food in the Anthropocene: the EAT – Lancet Commission on healthy diets from sustainable food systems report. The Commission is informed by a range of disciplines, including health, nutrition, environmental sustainability, food systems, and economic and political governance. The evidence-based report calls for a substantial global shift towards healthy dietary patterns, large reductions in food loss and waste, and major improvements in food production practices.

In anticipation of the report, we have worked on a PowerPoint and talking points for the Board and Academy Spokespeople. Please note, the report is under strict embargo until 6.30 p.m. [Eastern time] on Wednesday January 16. We will forward the entire report to you via email tomorrow after the embargo. In the meanwhile, please review the attached PowerPoint and talking points:

Talking Points

Food in the Anthropocene: the EAT –Lancet Commission Healthy Diets from Sustainable Food Systems

January 2018

1. Food in the Anthropocene: the EAT – Lancet Commission on healthy diets from sustainable food systems is more than two years of collaboration between 37 experts from 16 countries. The Commission is informed by a range of disciplines, including health, nutrition, environmental sustainability, food systems, and economic and political governance.
2. The evidence-based report calls for a substantial global shift towards healthy dietary patterns, large reductions in food loss and waste, and major improvements in food production practices.
3. The EAT–Lancet Commission addresses the need for a new universal healthy reference diet based on in-depth nutritional analyses. The healthy reference diet largely consists of vegetables, fruits, whole grains, legumes, nuts, and unsaturated oils, includes a low to moderate amount of seafood and poultry, and includes no or a low quantity of red meat, processed meat, added sugar, refined grains, and starchy vegetables.
4. The Academy is committed to improving the nation's health and advancing the profession of nutrition and dietetics through research, education and advocacy. This information is not new to the Academy and some recommendations highlighted in the report are in line with the Dietary Guidelines for Americans.
5. The Academy has always supported evidence-based and informed diet and health recommendations that take into account the impact on the environment. To be truly informed, these choices should recognize nutrition quality and not just calorie, as well as access, so that malnutrition is not the unintended consequence.

6. For a more personalized approach to meeting nutritional goals, the Academy recommends consumers consult with a registered dietitian nutritionist. To find an RDN, visit eatright.org.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Pat

Pat, Thanks for the quick response. I totally get what you are saying about not seeming biased and having Katie talk to the media spokespersons. I was surprised that she did not seem all that biased on the call, but others on the call were very concerned about the report. It could have serious repercussions if it got out that she was the source though. Thanks for always being the voice of reason. As long as they are getting some guidance on how to respond to the media I am totally satisfied. I am glad you are meeting with Marianne Smith Edge tomorrow. The other hot topic on the call was about our Sustainability Certificate of Training. I am not all that familiar with it, but most of the leaders on the call were very upset about it. They said that some of them had contacted the Academy, but that they felt like it fell on deaf ears. They seemed very concerned that it was not a great representation of what the Academy stood for based on the round table on sustainability that was just held. Since I was not involved with the round table I just listened to their griping. I could not recognize all the voices on the call to tell you who was doing most of the complaining, but there was a lot. Marianne Smith Edge might be able to shed some light on the subject when you talk to her tomorrow. I am sure you know more about this subject and more on the background of what they are saying. I will be anxious to hear more about this issue when we have our next P's call. I will also be anxious to see how much play this "new diet" gets in the media. I asked if this "new diet" had a name and they said some are calling it "The Great Food Transformation" diet. Sounds a little like "the transformative power of food and nutrition".

Thank you , Donna, but absolutely not because Katie has a very biased opinion on the report and the Academy has to steer clear from even the perception of industry influence. We can't have Dairy providing guidance to our spokespeople on a report that puts them in a negative light.

Alison, Doris, Mary Beth and I have an embargoed copy of the full document and are working on the Academy's communication that will be distributed tomorrow to the Board and Academy Spokespeople.

I am meeting with Marianne Smith Edge tomorrow, and she too wants to discuss the report.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Pat

Pat and Doris, I know you all are aware that this report is coming out January 17th. I was on a call today with Katie Brown and Jean Regalie Carr about their concerns about the report and what some of the issues Dairy, Egg and the Beef Council have with the report. I told them I would reach out to you to see if you all would want Katie to do an optional phone call with the media spokespersons to get them up to speed with what is coming out with the report so they would be ready to answer questions.? See Katie's note below about how she reached out to some of us to get us more educated about the sustainability issues they have with the report. On the call today was Marianne Smith Edge, Alice Henneman, Bob Murray, Sue Finn and about 8 other "Academy Leaders". They are all concerned about this report. I just want to make sure our media spokespersons are prepared because it seems like their will be a firestorm surrounding this report. If you are interested please reach out to Kate, if not that is OK also.

Hello – Next week EATLancet will launch a report and a surround sound communications campaign on “Attempting to define healthy and sustainable food systems”, as well as set specific dietary targets to answer “How do we give all humans a healthy diet without depleting the planet’s resources.” I’d like to take some time to share our initial intelligence on this report and potential opportunities for engagement. Please join me and a select group of other health and wellness professionals for a quick 30 minute call. Because of the short notice, two calendar invites will be scheduled in hopes that you are able to participate on one the following dates:

Dear NDEP Central Region Members –

The NDEP Central Regional Directors have extended the deadline to submit nominations for the ODEA awards until Friday January 18th!

States in the Central Region:

North Central: Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee

South Central: Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia

If you have submissions for the ODEA, please submit them to:

North Central Regional Director and Lead Regional Director: Leann Schaeffer - ls60@uakron.edu

The purpose of the Outstanding Dietetics Educator Award (ODEA) is to recognize the teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of faculty in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. One educator can be selected from each of the four program types in each geographic region (a maximum of four awardees from each of the six geographic regions for a total of 24).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding educators in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-line, each awardee will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Winners will also receive complimentary registration to the 2019 NDEP Spring regional meeting of their choice and will be presented with their awards!

Eligibility

-Nominees must be a current member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and a current member of Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group

-Preceptors are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Preceptors.

-Active NDEP Council members are not eligible for this award. For a listing of the current NDEP Council members go to www.ndepnet.org.

-Previous ODEA winners cannot be nominated for the same program award again; however, they could be nominated for an award for a different program type, if applicable.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Member of the Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Educator and/or Program Director in an ACEND-accredited dietetics education program:
  - a. Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)
  - b. Dietetic Internship (DI)
  - c. Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD)
  - d. Dietetic Technician Program (DT)
- Demonstrated Active Learning Strategy/ Student Centered Techniques
- Demonstrated Dietetics Mentoring Experience (Outside of role as faculty or director-not including current students/interns. Includes previous students/interns now considered professionals).
- Demonstrated leadership in Education and Dietetics; e.g., national, state, or district dietetic association activities, community service, honors received, scientific and professional presentations, publications, etc.

Selection Procedure and Submission Dates

Nominations from peers and/or students will be sent to the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Regional Director in the corresponding geographic area by January 18, 2019. Each Regional Director will select no more than one educator for each type of dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, DT) in the region (maximum four per region).

Each nomination application will be a single PDF that includes the ODEA Data Sheet, curriculum vitae (or resume), and three reference letters. Nominations must be sent electronically. Jpeg documents or individual documents will not be accepted. Additional materials beyond the requested materials (data sheet, CV, letters) will not be reviewed.

Award Winners will be announced in March 2019!

For more information, please visit the NDEP website at www.ndepnet.org, NDEP Portal Library and refer to the attached documents for criteria and data sheets!

Subject: Foundation Food Security Solutions Fellowship

Importance: High

A communication from Marty Yadrick, MBI, MS, RDN, FAND, Academy Foundation Chair, follows.

Thanks,

Martha Ontiveros
Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation

Hello Academy Board of Directors,

As you may know, thanks to three planning grants from the General Mills Foundation (GMF), the Foundation has been working on its Food Security Solutions (formerly Hunger Free Communities) project since early 2016. This includes the work of recent Foundation fellow Lee Unangst, MS, RDN, who wrapped up his fellowship at the end of September. You can view more information on this project here.

I am pleased to share that we recently received a fourth planning grant from GMF, which will allow us to continue this important work.

This grant will continue to fund the program and will provide a new fellowship opportunity. This opportunity is for an RDN member of the Academy to participate part-time (0.75 FTE) in a one-year fellowship to lead the development and implementation of a robust communications, engagement, and dissemination plan to promote increased awareness and use of the FSS guide and tools and the ANDHII Survey App in the public health community and to related stakeholders.

That fellowship application is now available on the Foundation's website. Applications are due Sunday, January 13, 2019, and the fellowship is set to begin on or around February 18, 2019.

The Foundation is thrilled to continue this important work on food security and offer unique fellowship opportunities to our members.

Warmly,

<image001.jpg>

Martin M Yadrick, MBI, MS, RDN, FAND

Hello Academy Board of Directors,

As you may know, thanks to three planning grants from the General Mills Foundation (GMF), the Foundation has been working on its Food Security Solutions (formerly Hunger Free Communities) project since early 2016. This includes the work of recent Foundation fellow Lee Unangst, MS, RDN, who wrapped up his fellowship at the end of September. You can view more information on this project here.

I am pleased to share that we recently received a fourth planning grant from GMF, which will allow us to continue this important work.

This grant will continue to fund the program and will provide a new fellowship opportunity. This opportunity is for an RDN member of the Academy to participate part-time (0.75 FTE) in a one-year fellowship to lead the development and implementation of a robust communications, engagement, and dissemination plan to promote increased awareness and use of the FSS guide and tools and the ANDHII Survey App in the public health community and to related stakeholders.

That fellowship application is now available on the Foundation's website. Applications are due Sunday, January 13, 2019, and the fellowship is set to begin on or around February 18, 2019.

The Foundation is thrilled to continue this important work on food security and offer unique fellowship opportunities to our members.

Warmly,

Martin M Yadrick, MBI, MS, RDN, FAND

Subject: Re: Revised 2019 Academy report for your review and feedback

Doris, This is a great start to what should be a great slide deck for all kinds of meetings where we will be presenting this. I like all of Mary's comments and have a few of my own. Some are very similar to Mary's.

1. Could you please list a couple of examples of the Did you Know topics we have covered that we could use in the presentation?

2. Under the why be a member what students say I would change the bullet for Justin Pascual to read The Academy is a priceless tool for your career that will catalyze your success as a professional in nutrition and dietetics.

3. Under the findings of the Salary Survey I think it would be confusing for people who look at the slide and don't listen carefully to understand what is meant by reflects increases in younger members. We might not want to put on the slide that these figures are essentially the same as 2015, but we might need to say that annualized wages are the same as 2015 because we have had an increase in percentage of younger members in the workforce. Not sure how to do that though? I also think we need to clarify that education and job responsibility relates strongly to increases in compensation on the slide. I also agree with Mary on putting the reference to the continuing increase in need for RDN's and NDTR's in the notes section, but I think we need to word it more positively like increased demand for RDN's and NDTR's in the future.
4. On the first MGii slide I think we need to add the statistic on there about 27% decrease in 30 day readmission rates and two day reduction in average length of stay. That is powerful information we don't want the audience to miss. Some of them like to take pictures of the slides and that would be helpful information for them to take back.
5. I know this is petty, but could you change the slide on Media Coverage to replace Debbie Petipain talking about healthy and simple lunchbox options? The SNS DPG is very sensitive about us trying to encourage parents to pack their children lunch. We advocate for eating school lunch. in the talking points we talk about pre-biotics and pro-biotics and this would be a much better example to give.
6. I had the same question about the alliance examples on the slide as Mary, but I would love a list of Alliances for us to use as a reference as we talk about this important topic.
7. On the Consumer Protection slide we need a color code for the slide so we can talk about what the colors mean on the slide. I think the best state map to put on this slide would be therapeutic diet orders. We have discussed licensure a lot, but not diet order writing so much.
8. I was the one who asked to have the sponsorship information put into the presentation, but my main focus on that was to get out to our members that we have a very rigorous process by which potential sponsors have to go through to become a sponsor. Our members still think Coca cola and Pepsi are sponsors. I would like the slide to reflect more that aspect of sponsorship. Not so much that once they are sponsors we regulate what they send out.
9. I have had several requests from members to have an update on the Second Century. I don't feel like the slide is an update. It is just a synopsis of what the projects are. What I think the members want is what is going on with these projects? Have they started? Have we given out any grants? Information along those lines.
10. on the Where does my Contribution go slide I would put some of the projects we have started funding. The title does not go with the bullet points.

11. I also like the tile Your Academy in Action.

12. I know this would be a ton of work to do, but it would be fantastic is we could have individual information for each state we are going to give the presentation to which would list what the licensure status was, diet ordering situation, telehealth and interstate practice regulations. Just a thought. I just think the states so appreciate us personalizing it.

13. We don't mention anything about FNCE this year (numbers) or next year? Maybe just a small plug would be helpful.

14. On the Code of ethics slide we should add and support for the values of our profession. Just having values on the slide does not make much sense.

15. the Leadership institute will be a popular slide, but without much information I hate to even mention it. Do we have any idea of when it might happen? Who would be included? Who is designing it? Anything along those lines would be very helpful.

16. I think we need to mention in the talking points our successful PPW last year. Remember the three of us are not the only ones who will be using this slide deck.

Thanks for listening to my suggestions. I am excited about the direction we are going with this.

Hi Doris,

Many thanks to you and the team for creating this document.

Title: like Your Academy in Action the best, or perhaps @ Your Academy in Action (which may be a tad too "cutesy" on second thought).

Notes: great detail, and quite long. I know that the info is there so we can customize, personalize, etc. For me it would be very useful to have the notes as short bullets rather than complete sentences. The scenarios of presentations vary a lot--sometimes the laptop is far away from the podium, sometimes there is no podium, etc- so it is great to have the notes be short and succinct so they could be on note cards if needed.

Is there a way to separate the notes so we could put them on 3x5 cards (or etc) if we wanted to?
Other ideas for keeping track of the key messages?

Member benefits slide-the Journal subscription price may not be the most crucial think to highlight- perhaps the value of its free CPE instead?

Love the "why be a member" and slides--likely many in these audiences are members but these slides can encourage them to recruit and also target those who may be teetering re renewal or are not members

Super to have the student input!!

Like the comp slides. Is there a reference for the Academy's belief that there will be more need to RDNs and NDTRs in coming years?

Is there any "harder" data for the Leadership Institute? People at FNCE heard this message and may crave a bit of an update. Good to mention it for sure.

Like the international focus a lot--especially here would be great to bullet the talking points-a lot of info to share (if time allows) and don't want to read it

Like MQii--any value in mentioning the MCC study and the value that will bring to the definition of malnutrition?

D&I is so important--again, what is the best way to assure that we can cover the high points of the detailed notes without reading them exactly? LOVE the accommodation side!!

Spokesperson and media coverage is great to highlight--is there a place here for encouraging people to consider a spokesperson or media role, and a referral to Academy programs that may guide them that pursuit?

May need to update HoD slide pending outcome of discussion between now and time of presentations--I am not convinced right now that there is a "bold step" being made.

I would prefer if the Future of the HOD slide was stronger--but at the moment we cannot predict how it will go.

I LOVE Terri's comments on the plan to date. We cannot use these verbatim (at least not without her permission) and they DO clearly state the goals and desired future state.

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

Alliances slide--what does the "I don't expect you to read all the names o the screen" refer to? Maybe the slide and not the notes was edited? Would it help to highlight one or two as examples, or would that be seen as favoritism?

Really love the policy slides--lead, build, strengthen and focus on consumer protection are super!! again, how do we best consolidate the notes so we can convert the details comfortably, quite completely, and without rattling papers?

Also love the "entry points to leadership" idea! Circles back to the member comments earlier about the values they gain.

Thanks for reading all of this, and for your hard work. I am really excited to get out and share this great news with members and would be members.

Mary

Thank you for today's call. As discussed, attached is the initial draft that captures all of the information you indicated was important to include. In addition, here are a few recommendations for the new name:

- Academy Happenings
- Activities @ Your Academy
- Academy Accomplishments
- Your Academy in Action

We welcome your thoughts/recommendations/comments/ideas on the new name and the presentation. Please review and provide your feedback and once we hear back from everyone, we will modify it and send a link to download the PowerPoint.

Thank you very much and please let me know if you have any questions.

Agree! When I saw your message I was reviewing the deck Doris sent and happened to be on the HOD info slides. Your message exactly hit on what we want to tell members about the HOD-the document shared was not that message.

Really quite shocking that the brain power in that design team room was unable to distill the messages—you did so, in a short time alone!!

Doris, This is a great start to what should be a great slide deck for all kinds of meetings where we will be presenting this. I like all of Mary's comments and have a few of my own. Some are very similar to Mary's.

1. Could you please list a couple of examples of the Did you Know topics we have covered that we could use in the presentation?
2. Under the why be a member what students say I would change the bullet for Justin Pascual to read The Academy is a priceless tool for your career that will catalyze your success as a professional in nutrition and dietetics.
3. Under the findings of the Salary Survey I think it would be confusing for people who look at the slide and don't listen carefully to understand what is meant by reflects increases in younger members. We might not want to put on the slide that these figures are essentially the same as 2015, but we might need to say that annualized wages are the same as 2015 because we have had an increase in percentage of younger members in the workforce. Not sure how to do that though? I also think we need to clarify that education and job responsibility relates strongly to increases in compensation on the slide. I also agree with Mary on putting the reference to the continuing increase in need for RDN's and NDTR's in the notes section, but I think we need to word it more positively like increased demand for RDN's and NDTR's in the future.
4. On the first MGii slide I think we need to add the statistic on there about 27% decrease in 30 day readmission rates and two day reduction in average length of stay. That is powerful information we don't want the audience to miss. Some of them like to take pictures of the slides and that would be helpful information for them to take back.
5. I know this is petty, but could you change the slide on Media Coverage to replace Debbie Petipain talking about healthy and simple lunchbox options? The SNS DPG is very sensitive about us trying to encourage parents to pack their children lunch. We advocate for eating school lunch. in the talking points we talk about pre-biotics and pro-biotics and this would be a much better example to give.

6. I had the same question about the alliance examples on the slide as Mary, but I would love a list of Alliances for us to use as a reference as we talk about this important topic.

7. On the Consumer Protection slide we need a color code for the slide so we can talk about what the colors mean on the slide. I think the best state map to put on this slide would be therapeutic diet orders. We have discussed licensure a lot, but not diet order writing so much.

8. I was the one who asked to have the sponsorship information put into the presentation, but my main focus on that was to get out to our members that we have a very rigorous process by which potential sponsors have to go through to become a sponsor. Our members still think Coca cola and Pepsi are sponsors. I would like the slide to reflect more that aspect of sponsorship. Not so much that once they are sponsors we regulate what they send out.

9. I have had several requests from members to have an update on the Second Century. I don't feel like the slide is an update. It is just a synopsis of what the projects are. What I think the members want is what is going on with these projects? Have they started? Have we given out any grants? Information along those lines.

10. on the Where does my Contribution go slide I would put some of the projects we have started funding. The title does not go with the bullet points.

11. I also like the tile Your Academy in Action.

12. I know this would be a ton of work to do, but it would be fantastic is we could have individual information for each state we are going to give the presentation to which would list what the licensure status was, diet ordering situation, telehealth and interstate practice regulations. Just a thought. I just think the states so appreciate us personalizing it.

13. We don't mention anything about FNCE this year (numbers) or next year? Maybe just a small plug would be helpful.

14. On the Code of ethics slide we should add and support for the values of our profession. Just having values on the slide does not make much sense.

15. the Leadership institute will be a popular slide, but without much information I hate to even mention it. Do we have any idea of when it might happen? Who would be included? Who is designing it? Anything along those lines would be very helpful.

16. I think we need to mention in the talking points our successful PPW last year. Remember the three of us are not the only ones who will be using this slide deck.

Thanks for listening to my suggestions. I am excited about the direction we are going with this.

Hay,

Welcome to the Grand Canyon

This incredible natural attractions is one of the most visited places in the United States.

Carved out by the Colorado River, the Grand Canyon cuts deep into the landscape, creating dramatic cliff walls and ledges. Visitors standing on the rim of the canyon can see down to the canyon floor a mile below, and look out over the ridges and cliffs that run as far as the eye can see. The South Rim is the most visited section of Grand Canyon

National Park, with a large visitors center, regular bus service along the Rim in the high season and a walkway that runs along the canyon with numerous viewing points and platforms.

The North Rim, which also has lookout areas, provides a different perspective.

This section of the park has limited access from November to May due to snow and winter conditions.

Hi Doris,

Many thanks to you and the team for creating this document.

Title: like Your Academy in Action the best, or perhaps @ Your Academy in Action (which may be a tad too "cutesy" on second thought).

Notes: great detail, and quite long. I know that the info is there so we can customize, personalize, etc. For me it would be very useful to have the notes as short bullets rather than complete sentences. The scenarios of presentations vary a lot--sometimes the laptop is far away from the podium, sometimes there is no podium, etc- so it is great to have the notes be short and succinct so they could be on note cards if needed.

Is there a way to separate the notes so we could put them on 3x5 cards (or etc) if we wanted to?
Other ideas for keeping track of the key messages?

Member benefits slide-the Journal subscription price may not be the most crucial think to highlight--perhaps the value of its free CPE instead?

Love the "why be a member" and slides--likely many in these audiences are members but these slides can encourage them to recruit and also target those who may be teetering re renewal or are not members

Super to have the student input!!

Like the comp slides. Is there a reference for the Academy's belief that there will be more need to RDNs and NDTRs in coming years?

Is there any "harder" data for the Leadership Institute? People at FNCE heard this message and may crave a bit of an update. Good to mention it for sure.

Like the international focus a lot--especially here would be great to bullet the talking points-a lot of info to share (if time allows) and don't want to read it

Like MQii--any value in mentioning the MCC study and the value that will bring to the definition of malnutrition?

D&I is so important--again, what is the best way to assure that we can cover the high points of the detailed notes without reading them exactly? LOVE the accommodation side!!

Spokesperson and media coverage is great to highlight--is there a place here for encouraging people to consider a spokesperson or media role, and a referral to Academy programs that may guide them that pursuit?

May need to update HoD slide pending outcome of discussion between now and time of presentations--I am not convinced right now that there is a "bold step" being made.

I would prefer if the Future of the HOD slide was stronger--but at the moment we cannot predict how it will go.

I LOVE Terri's comments on the plan to date. We cannot use these verbatim (at least not without her permission) and they DO clearly state the goals and desired future state.

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

Alliances slide--what does the "I don't expect you to read all the names o the screen" refer to? Maybe the slide and not the notes was edited? Would it help to highlight one or two as examples, or would that be seen as favoritism?

Really love the policy slides--lead, build, strengthen and focus on consumer protection are super!! again, how do we best consolidate the notes so we can convert the details comfortably, quite completely, and without rattling papers?

Also love the "entry points to leadership" idea! Circles back to the member comments earlier about the values they gain.

Thanks for reading all of this, and for your hard work. I am really excited to get out and share this great news with members and would be members.

Mary

Subject: Revised 2019 Academy report for your review and feedback

Thank you for today's call. As discussed, attached is the initial draft that captures all of the information you indicated was important to include. In addition, here are a few recommendations for the new name:

- Academy Happenings
- Activities @ Your Academy
- Academy Accomplishments
- Your Academy in Action

We welcome your thoughts/recommendations/comments/ideas on the new name and the presentation. Please review and provide your feedback and once we hear back from everyone, we will modify it and send a link to download the PowerPoint.

Thank you very much and please let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

During this weekend meeting would it be possible to pose these or other thoughts/questions that might create a more condensed version of the suggested changes and how they will affect future work and outcomes of the HOD?

The eleven pages are just so long and full of rhetoric and I fear sending this out will reduce support, buy-in, acceptance, understanding - call it whatever - but if the HOD loses support and respect we all stand to lose the same and ultimately and most importantly membership in our organization.

My apologies for the sharp comments this am - was feeling like "snoopy" ARRGGHH!!

Hi Pat,

Happy New Year! While you will be receiving this document in the HLT agenda packet scheduled to be released tomorrow, I wanted to go ahead and share with you the report from the HOD Evolution Designers. Marcy will be sharing it with the 3Ps in a special message (after the HLT receives it), so no need for you to do so. I'm happy to discuss any of the content with you in advance of the HLT meeting.

Hi Pat, Mary, Donna,

It was easy for me to look at the HOD and critique and complain - I did a masterful job of it! Having said that I also know that our colleagues worked hard to create change and while we all see it from different perspectives I am trying to see it from a less emotional and biased perspective - well, I'm trying.....not saying my dial is changing much but at least trying.

During this weekend meeting would it be possible to pose these or other thoughts/questions that might create a more condensed version of the suggested changes and how they will affect future work and outcomes of the HOD?

First - Both our delegates and many members are excited and looking forward to the promised changes from our HOD.

Next - What three items will create the greatest impact for delegates and members? In what ways do these changes improve communication, efficiency and effectiveness and long term success of members? and probably most importantly meet the suggestions and requests of delegates and members?

Last - what is the "elevator speech/slogan we can use to sell these changes and drive support from delegates and members?

The eleven pages are just so long and full of rhetoric and I fear sending this out will reduce support, buy-in, acceptance, understanding - call it whatever - but if the HOD loses support and respect we all stand to lose the same and ultimately and most importantly membership in our organization.

My apologies for the sharp comments this am - was feeling like "snoopy" ARRGGHH!!

Terri

Hi Pat,

Happy New Year! While you will be receiving this document in the HLT agenda packet scheduled to be released tomorrow, I wanted to go ahead and share with you the report from the HOD Evolution Designers. Marcy will be sharing it with the 3Ps in a special message (after the HLT receives it), so no need for you to do so. I'm happy to discuss any of the content with you in advance of the HLT meeting.

Weekly News for Academy Policy Leaders

Public Policy Weekly News

January 8, 2018

Academy Welcomes the New 116th Congress

Academy Staff went to the Hill this past week to welcome both freshmen and returning members of Congress being sworn into the 116th Congress. Staff met with new members to spread the word on the role of food and nutrition in prevention and treatment and thanked the Academy's champions for supporting food, nutrition and agriculture issues. Although not all committee assignments have been confirmed, we have been in touch with leadership on key committees and are monitoring any forthcoming developments in the new Congress. The Academy is looking forward to a productive 2019 with our sights set on improving health care and health systems, advocating for nutrition program funding and greater reimbursement opportunities for nutrition professionals, and increased food and nutrition safety and security.

Member Updates and Professional Development

Last Chance to Serve on Academy Committees and Task Forces for 2019-2020 - Due Tomorrow, January 9!

It is that time of year again where members are encouraged to submit their qualifications and interest in serving on appointed national-level Academy committees and task forces for 2019-2020. There are 21 standing committees, including the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee; a full list can be found here. Please fill out the survey by January 9, 2019 to be considered for any of the positions available.

Regulatory Roundup

DPG Input Needed on Utility and Burden of Info Collection on Federal Nutrition Programs

The Academy is seeking DPG expert feedback on an information collection from USDA's Food and Nutrition Service that will contribute to the formative development of nutrition education and promotion materials and related tools and grants for FNS population groups. Any of our members working in or on projects related to any FNS program including child nutrition programs, school meals, SNAP and SNAP-Ed, etc. and invited to respond in particular. Broadly, we are looking for:

- The value of nutrition assistance programs to your work, including success stories
- Feedback on the utility and/or burden of collecting information through focus groups, interviews, surveys and web-based collection tools.

Your input is important to us, as FNS uses this collection to design interventions to convey science-based, behavior-focused nutrition messages about healthy eating and physical activity to children and adults eligible to participate in FNS nutrition assistance programs.

Any feedback can be submitted to DPG PALs, and PALs may submit comments on behalf of their DPG here. Please share with your DPG members. The full Regulatory Roundup can be found below for more information.

94. Outstanding Preceptor Awards - Now Accepting Nominations!

From: ndep@eatright.org
To: DMartin@burke.k12.ga.us
Hidden recipients: dmartin@burke.k12.ga.us
Sent Date: Jan 08, 2019 10:43:24
Subject: Outstanding Preceptor Awards - Now Accepting Nominations!
Attachment: unknown\_name\_o85jy

Dear NDEP Members –

Do you know of a deserving preceptor that goes above and beyond your expectations with each student/intern they work with? Someone who somehow finds the time in their busy schedule to continually mentor new students/interns? Someone your students/interns continually praise for their exceptional talents? If so, perhaps you should consider nominating them for NDEP's annual Outstanding Preceptor Award for 2019.

The purpose of the Outstanding Preceptor Award (OPA) is to recognize the exceptional teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of preceptors in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. Note: Program directors and faculty are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Dietetic Educators. Active NDEP Council members and previous OPA winners are not eligible for this award.

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding preceptors in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-Line, each awardee will receive $1,000 to attend the 2019 Food and Nutrition Conference and Expo in Philadelphia (supported by the Academy's Foundation), one (1) year membership in NDEP (June 1, 2019-May 31, 2020), and a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Awards will be presented during the member showcase and during an NDEP-sponsored event.

Criteria:

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
  - Preceptor in an ACEND-accredited supervised practice program (CP, DI, DT or ISPP).
- Preceptors do NOT need to reside in the same Area as the Program Director and/or students/interns in order to be nominated.

Submission and Selection Procedure:

Nominations will be accepted via this survey link:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2019PreceptorAwards>

Nominations will be collected using an online entry system (Survey Monkey), which will close at 5 pm CST on February 1, 2019.

1. A single nomination, that includes both peers/program directors/program faculty AND students/interns, will be collected using an online entry system (Survey Monkey), which will close at 5pm CST on February 1, 2019. Self-nominations will not be accepted.
2. Nomination applications should be submitted by the Program Director, acknowledging the preceptor's affiliation with the program; and MUST include a completed online entry, which includes two separate focused statements of support (one from peers/program directors/faculty AND one from interns). Additional materials beyond the online entry will not be reviewed.
1. Nominations MUST highlight the exemplary accomplishments of the preceptor above and beyond what would be considered core preceptor responsibilities based upon the following key areas:
  1. Teaching, which should showcase innovative teaching skills and techniques to facilitate student/intern learning. Examples: Has the preceptor used any unique ways to help program directors meet required ACEND competencies? Has the preceptor incorporated any projects that require collecting data, measuring outcomes to summarize the impact of the procedure? Does the preceptor demonstrate a desire to expand these skills/techniques and share with other preceptors?
  2. Mentoring, which should include those behaviors that elevate student learning and level of practice. Does the preceptor continue to function as a mentor to entry-level and experienced RDs?"
  3. Excellence in Professional Practice, which should include participation beyond membership in local, state, or national organizations, community organizations, workplace committees, public policy, etc. Examples may include leadership position in professional organizations, activities demonstrating contributions that have implications for the field of dietetics.
3. The NDEP Preceptor Director and Preceptor Committee will receive, review, and select the winner from the eligible nominations after the survey has been closed. The committee will select no more than one preceptor from each of the six geographical regions. There is a maximum of six awards per year.
4. Questions about the selection procedure and submission process to should be directed to NDEP at ndep@eatright.org

Attached is a sample of the survey monkey to be used for a nomination.

Dear NDEP Members –

NDEP is pleased to announce the 2019 Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award nominations are now being accepted! The purpose of the Outstanding Dietetics Educator Award (ODEA) is to recognize the teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of faculty in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. One educator can be selected from each of the four program types in each geographic region (a maximum of four awardees from each of the six geographic regions for a total of 24).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding educators in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-line, each awardee will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Winners will also receive complimentary registration to the 2019 NDEP Spring regional meeting of their choice and will be presented with their awards!

Eligibility

- Nominees must be a current member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and a current member of Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Preceptors are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Preceptors.
- Active NDEP Council members are not eligible for this award. For a listing of the current NDEP Council members go to www.ndepnet.org.
- Previous ODEA winners cannot be nominated for the same program award again; however, they could be nominated for an award for a different program type, if applicable.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Member of the Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Educator and/or Program Director in an ACEND-accredited dietetics education program:
  - Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)
  - Dietetic Internship (DI)
  - Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD)
  - Dietetic Technician Program (DT)

- Demonstrated Active Learning Strategy/ Student Centered Techniques
- Demonstrated Dietetics Mentoring Experience (Outside of role as faculty or director-not including current students/interns. Includes previous students/interns now considered professionals).
- Demonstrated leadership in Education and Dietetics; e.g., national, state, or district dietetic association activities, community service, honors received, scientific and professional presentations, publications, etc.

Selection Procedure and Submission Dates

Nominations from peers and/or students will be sent to the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Regional Director in the corresponding geographic area by January 11, 2019. Each Regional Director will select no more than one educator for each type of dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, DT) in the region (maximum four per region).

Each nomination application will be a single PDF that includes the ODEA Data Sheet, curriculum vitae (or resume), and three reference letters. Nominations must be sent electronically. Jpeg documents or individual documents will not be accepted. Additional materials beyond the requested materials (data sheet, CV, letters) will not be reviewed.

Award Winners will be announced in March 2019!

For more information, please visit the NDEP website at www.ndepnet.org, NDEP Portal Library and refer to the attached documents for criteria and data sheets!

Dear NDEP Members,

Do you have an innovative teaching approach, or teach an unusual topic in dietetics? Does your program have a unique design? Have you found a solution to problems other directors or preceptors struggle with? We have 4-5 opportunities for members to give a short presentation (20-30 minutes each) about their best practices at each Spring regional meeting. See information specifically for each of the three regional meetings below:

Western Region

March 7-8th, 2019

The Benson, a Coast Hotel; 309 Southwest Broadway Ave., Portland, OR

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the 2019 Western Nutrition and Dietetic Educator and Preceptor (NDEP) meeting in Oregon. Mark your calendars for March 7th-8th, 2019! To submit a "Best Practice," for the western region meeting, please fill out the Best Practices form and send it to Lona Sandon - Lona.Sandon@utsouthwestern.edu by January 21st. You will be notified if accepted by February 8th.

Central Region

Metropolitan at The 9, Autograph Collection; 2017 East 9th St., Cleveland, OH

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the 2019 Central Nutrition and Dietetic Educator and Preceptor (NDEP) meeting in Ohio! Mark your calendars for March 14th-15th, 2019! To submit a "Best Practice," please fill out the Best Practices form and send it to Linda Godfrey - lgodfre@samford.edu by January 21st. You will be notified if accepted by February 8th.

Eastern Region

April 4-5th, 2019

The Westin Annapolis; 100 Westgate Circle, Annapolis, MD

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at the 2019 Eastern Nutrition and Dietetic Educator and Preceptor (NDEP) meeting in Maryland. Mark your calendars for April 4th-5th, 2019! To submit a "Best Practice," for the eastern region, please fill out the Best Practices form and send it

Happy New Year!

You might have seen this article about SNAP enrollment in Georgia. It has some good data that might be useful in future communications with your members of Congress. If you scroll down past the article there are a couple of different links to other articles. I think this issue will continue to be a topic of discussion given the proposed rule to tighten the waiver process for states. I am also not surprised that Georgia has taken this action because Secretary Perdue will want to point out what has transpired in his own state. Either way, it's good to know the environment.

Georgia dropped about 8,000 people from SNAP benefits each month from April through October due to work requirements. That's 20 times more than during the prior six-month period. The uptick is due in part to the state's new "Georgia Gateway" system, which has given state administrators a new way to track food stamp recipients. The Atlanta Journal-Constitution has more.

Jeanne

Thanks Joan, good to see the messages and the issues regarding SNAP benefits.

Another aspect of the Farm Bill to consider is the legalization and de-scheduling of hemp and the extraction of CBD. While it has now become legal to grow hemp, the use of CBD in food and other consumer products is still murky. The FDA released the attached communication shortly after the Farm Bill signing.

Essentially the FDA has not opined on the efficacy of CBD and will still be the primary regulator of any CBD infused products.

“We’re aware of the growing public interest in cannabis and cannabis-derived products, including cannabidiol (CBD). This increasing public interest in these products makes it even more important with the passage of this law for the FDA to clarify its regulatory authority over these products. In short, we treat products containing cannabis or cannabis-derived compounds as we do any other FDA-regulated products — meaning they’re subject to the same authorities and requirements as FDA-regulated products containing any other substance. This is true regardless of the source of the substance, including whether the substance is derived from a plant that is classified as hemp under the Agriculture Improvement Act.”

No doubt, our members will encounter CBD products in their work and it should be considered a non approved product like many dietary supplements.

It may be worthwhile for the Academy to have a position on this.

Best regards,

Dave

Attached is a press release providing the Academy's reaction to yesterday's signing of the farm bill. According to the release, "The bill will serve the public by investing in a strong food safety net, nutrition education programs, and a robust food system and strengthened economy; however a proposed rule could decrease states' flexibility to waive work requirements for people who receive SNAP benefits."

Also attached is a release offering health tips for the New Year from Academy Spokespeople.

FOOD SECURITY SOLUTIONS FELLOWSHIP - Application Now Open!

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation (Foundation) is funding a Food Security Solutions (FSS) Fellow. This opportunity, available through a grant to the Foundation by General Mills Foundation (GMF), will fund an RDN member of the Academy to participate part-time (0.75 FTE) in a one-year project in collaboration with the Foundation's FSS program to lead the development and implementation of a robust communications, engagement, and dissemination plan to promote increased awareness and use of the FSS guide and tools and the ANDHII Survey App in the public health community and to related stakeholders. The fellowship begins on or around February 18, 2019. The deadline to apply is Wednesday, January 9, 2019. For more details and to access the application, please visit the Foundation's website HERE.

AWARDS - Applications Now Open!

Through the generosity of Academy members and donors, the Foundation is pleased to offer more than 25 awards for nutrition and dietetics practitioners and students. The types of awards vary and include recognition, continuing education, program development, and international awards. Each award has its own unique criteria that recipients must meet to be eligible. The deadline for all applications is February 10, 2019. For more information about the individual awards and to access the applications, please CLICK HERE.

GRANTS - Applications Now Open!

The Foundation is thrilled to announce that applications for research grants are now open. Research topics vary between grants and include cardiovascular disease, nutrition and oral health, epidemiology, and more. The deadline for all applications is February 10, 2019. ---

Attached is a press release providing the Academy's reaction to yesterday's signing of the farm bill. According to the release, "The bill will serve the public by investing in a strong food safety net, nutrition education programs, and a robust food system and strengthened economy; however a proposed rule could decrease states' flexibility to waive work requirements for people who receive SNAP benefits."

Also attached is a release offering health tips for the New Year from Academy Spokespeople.

The press releases can also be viewed on the Academy's website.

Happy holidays!

I checked with CDR and the membership and FNCE teams and none show her as an RDN. I am thinking her RD is a credential provided in Venezuela, however we do not have reciprocity with that country.

Dr. Herrera has been a member of the Academy for 12 years and would be eligible for the Medallion; to this day, I did not realize the Medallion could be bestowed to a non-RDN, although none have been. I have included a link to the deadlines and requirements for Academy honors and awards page, here.

Pat, I am so sorry. She holds herself out as having a Nutrition Degree and she was head of the International DPG so I assumed she was an RDN. So sorry for my misspeaking. I would still like to see us pursue her for a Medallion. Thanks for all the back work on this.

I checked with CDR and the membership and FNCE teams and none show her as an RDN. I am thinking her RD is a credential provided in Venezuela, however we do not have reciprocity with that country.

Best,

Pat

Dr. Herrera has been a member of the Academy for 12 years and would be eligible for the Medallion; to this day, I did not realize the Medallion could be bestowed to a non-RDN, although none have been. I have included a link to the deadlines and requirements for Academy honors and awards page, here.

Best,

Pat

Hi. Let me know the procedures and timeline to see if/when/how. She has been active in the Academy but don't know if she is an RD. She is an MD so if we don't think that Medallion will go through maybe there are other recognition avenues Thx JR

Hello everyone and happy holidays.

This is to confirm that we are in the contractual process to schedule a childhood weight management program on November 21-23 in New Orleans. Please add this program to your calendar.

Also, please don't forget to add the May 9-11 2019 childhood program on your calendar. Contracts will be distributed early April 2019. This program will be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Thank you.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

President Expected to Sign Farm Bill: Work Requirements Remain a Priority

The farm bill, passed by both the House and Senate, is expected to be signed into law this week by President Trump. Reportedly the U.S. Department of Agriculture simultaneously will announce plans to restrict state-requested waivers for SNAP participant work requirements. This year's farm bill has been widely praised by members of Congress, agriculture and farming interest groups and food and nutrition organizations, including the Academy, as an example of bipartisan compromise. The farm bill largely resembles the 2014 bill, following months of discussion of proposed changes to work requirements passed by the House.

Legislation Aims to Understand and Prevent Maternal and Postpartum Deaths

The Preventing Maternal Deaths Act (H.R. 1318/S. 1112) passed the House and Senate last week and is expected to be signed into law before Congress adjourns. The bill authorizes $58 million annually for the Safe Motherhood program over the next five years, and includes $12 million for a new maternal mortality review committee program that will include registered dietitian nutritionists as members.

Government Shutdown Looms: WIC Will Remain Open

A partial government shutdown may occur if Congress cannot reach agreement on funding

President Trump's border security initiative. Potential scenarios include a short- or long-term continuing resolution for all of the seven pending spending bills; a CR only for the Homeland Security bill; or a partial shutdown for agencies without funding, including the Department of Agriculture and Food and Drug Administration. Academy members are encouraged to promote accurate messaging to the public, since inaccurate or misleading information on programs such as WIC could lead to decreased participation - despite clinics remaining open in the event of a short-term shutdown.

CPE CORNER

It is time once again for members to indicate their interest in volunteering on national committees and task forces. The "Opportunities to Serve" survey is now available online at:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/HRPCW6J>

Please note that a description of each committee is available via a link in the "Opportunities to Serve" survey. Members already appointed to serve on an Academy committee or task force for 2019-2020 do not need to complete the Opportunities to Serve Survey. Instead, we ask that you share this information with colleagues who may be interested in volunteering on an Academy committee or task force.

The information you provide when completing this survey will be critical to Terri J. Raymond, MA, RDN, CD, FAND, President-elect, and Diane W. Heller, MMSc, RDN, LD, FAND, Speaker-elect, as they make appointments for the various Academy committees and task forces throughout the 2019-2020 program year. Although we cannot ensure that everyone who completes the survey will be selected to serve, every effort will be made to consider your unique talents during the appointment process.

Please complete this survey by January 9, 2019. If you have any questions or concerns regarding the survey, please contact Charlene Rice ( crice@eatright.org or 800/877-1600, ext. 4892).

Please accept our gratitude upon completing this survey. Your willingness to serve the Academy is greatly appreciated!

Public Policy Weekly News

December 18, 2018

From the Academy's Policy Initiatives and Advocacy team in Washington, D.C., here's to a happy, healthy holiday season. We look forward to spreading the policy news with you in the new year when PPWN (and Congress) return!

News from the Hill and Beyond

Farm Bill Sent to President's Desk After Months of Tireless Advocacy Work

The U.S. House and Senate approved a farm bill that is expected to be signed into law by President Trump this Thursday, with speculation that the USDA will simultaneously announce efforts to restrict state-requested waivers for SNAP participant work requirements. The bipartisan bill language largely reflects that of the 2014 farm bill after months of discourse regarding proposed changes to work requirements passed by the House. The conference bill was widely celebrated by members of Congress, agriculture and farming interest groups, and food and nutrition organizations - including the Academy - as an example of bipartisan compromise.

Thank you to all of our members and policy leaders who have worked to pass a bipartisan farm bill that upholds and strengthens the many vital nutrition, nutrition research and nutrition education programs in the bill. Your advocacy efforts that include sending Action Alerts, writing op-eds, reaching out on social media, meeting with members of Congress and their staff, and connecting with state and local leaders all helped to push a better bill forward and build political capital that can be leveraged in future initiatives.

USDA Seeks SNAP-Ed Toolkit Reviewers and Interventions for Review

USDA is looking to build a diverse team of experts in the field of nutrition and obesity prevention to review up to three interventions to expand the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Each intervention review is estimated to take 5 hours; reviewers will need to complete one hour of training via webinar, scheduled for Wednesday, March 20, 2019.

If interested in being a reviewer, please send an email with your resume, CV, or biosketch, as well as a brief account of your interest by Friday, February 1, 2019.

If interested in submitting an intervention for review, please fill out the interest form. You will receive an official invitation to submit January 7, 2019.

Member Updates and Professional Development

Opportunity to Serve on Academy Committees and Task Forces for 2019-2020 - Survey Due January 9

It is that time of year again where members are encouraged to submit their qualifications and interest in serving on appointed national-level Academy committees and task forces for 2019-2020. There are 21 standing committees, including the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee; a full list can be found here.

Please fill out the survey by January 9, 2019 to be considered for any of the positions available.

Health and Wellness Coaching Online Certificate of Training Program

Develop coaching skills and earn CPEUs with this brand-new online program that exhibits how to facilitate behavior change and promote health and wellness coaching. The level two program consists of four modules covering coaching techniques, behavior change, and using a positive, strengths-based approach in practice! This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Weight Management, Nutrition Entrepreneurs, Dietitians in Integrative & Functional Medicine, and Sports, Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition DPGs.

Public Policy Open Forums

Here are the upcoming Public Policy Open Forums scheduled through January. Be sure to save the date:

Malnutrition Advocacy In-District and Policy Update for the New 116th Congress - Register

- Tuesday, January 15, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- Introduction to this quarter's advocacy topic of malnutrition advocacy in-district and an update from the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy team in Washington D.C. on what to expect in the 116th Congress.

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Tuesday, January 29, 2018, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- Overview of the FY2018 Strategic Measures Report with results and recommendations going forward.

Academy Seeks Inpatient Facilities for Malnutrition Clinical Characteristics Study

The Academy's Nutrition Research Network is conducting a study to validate the malnutrition clinical characteristics - a set of criteria used to diagnose malnutrition in hospitalized adults and children. The study will also examine the amount and level of an RDN's care necessary to improve patient medical outcomes, both overall and in the context of malnutrition. The NRN is recruiting 60 adult and 60 pediatric inpatient facilities. There is a financial incentive for participating sites and CPEUs will be provided to research RDNs who attend the in-person training.

Consumer Food Safety Education Conference - March 6-8, 2019

The Partnership for Food Safety and Education is hosting its Consumer Food Safety Education Conference at the Walt Disney Swan and Dolphin Resort in Florida from March 6-8, 2019.

Attendees will:

- Learn strategies to influence the food safety knowledge, attitudes and behavior change of consumers;
- Be equipped with the tools to address the biggest food safety education challenges;
- Have the opportunity to network and dialogue with health and food safety professionals from all sectors.

Sign up by January 25, 2019 for early bird pricing while it lasts.

Student Scholarships Available - January 14 Deadline

Undergraduate and graduate students studying food safety, food microbiology, public health, environmental health, or nutrition and dietetics with a demonstrated interest in food safety at a U.S.-based university are eligible to apply. The deadline for submission is January 14, 2019.

Regulatory Roundup

This Thursday: PAL Monthly Call to Focus on DGAs 2020-2025 and HP2030

Join us for the next PAL Monthly Call to be held this Thursday, December 20, 2018, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time. Agenda items to be discussed include:

- DGAs 2020-2025
- First on the agenda is the Academy's framework and process for responding to the 2020 Dietary Guidelines for Americans and how DPGs will be engaged to recommend subject-matter experts on multiple topics and issues.
- Healthy People 2030
- Please review the HP2030 topics and objectives relevant to your DPG. We will be requesting input from your DPGs by January 7 on the proposed objectives and whether any additional objectives should be included. Note that many topics (e.g., "Access to Health Services" and "Educational and Community-Based Programs") are broad and relevant for multiple DPGs, so please skim through to see whether objectives of interest are included. See below for additional information on HP2030.

Comment Opportunity: Proposed Objectives for Healthy People 2030

Every decade, the Healthy People initiative develops a new set of science-based, 10-year national objectives with the goal of improving the health of all Americans through encouraging multi-sectorial cross-community collaborations, empowering individuals toward making informed health decisions and measuring the impact of prevention activities. In preparation for HP2030, the Office for Disease Promotion and Health Prevention has issued a request for comments on objectives to be included its next 10-year plan.

HP2030 is particularly important to the Academy as it helps to reinforce federal nutrition policy guidelines and drive research into selected areas and topics that could directly impact nutrition knowledge and affect MNT standards of practice.

PALs: we would like you to coordinate the collection of comments for proposed objectives across health sectors that include: maternal/infant/child health, heart disease, nutrition and weight, diabetes, and cancer. Other topics can be found here. Please share this information with your DPG through your communication channels to solicit DPG member feedback.

Policy Leaders: If you would like to provide input, please reach out to your PAL, whose contact information can be found on the Academy's Leadership Directory, if needed. The deadline for submission to your PAL is Monday, January 7, 2018.

Call for Nominations

A call for nominations has been opened for:

1. Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee and
2. Advisory Committee on Heritable Disorders in Newborns and Children.

See below for more information. Interested candidates should send their CV and a brief letter of interest describing their basis for nomination to Mark Rifkin by December 20, 2018.

Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee, Due December 20

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services seeks nominees for membership on the Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee. Since this committee advises CMS on determinations of Medicare coverage for various diagnoses and conditions, Academy participation could have substantial implications for increasing nutrition service coverage and access for Medicare participants.

Advisory Committee on Heritable Disorders in Newborns and Children, Due December 20

The Health Resources and Services Administration seeks nominees for membership on the Advisory Committee on Heritable Disorders in Newborns and Children. Since this committee advises HHS on policies, guidelines and programs to reduce morbidity and mortality in children with, or at risk for, heritable disorders, Academy participation could have substantial implications for MNT protocols and insurance coverage for such services for this population.

Action Alerts

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency - the voice of every member is critical.

ANDPAC Corner

ANDPAC: Onward and Upward in 2019!

As the year comes to a close, we reflect on our successes and look forward to new opportunities in 2019. We truly appreciate all of our members who have contributed to ANDPAC this year, and our DPGs and affiliates that took the extra step in raising awareness and funds for ANDPAC and who attended events for their members of Congress throughout the year. Affiliates can always request to attend events in-district by having your PPC submit an event request form and official event flyer. Through your efforts, you made a difference in bringing visibility to our organization, our profession, and our issues.

Donate to ANDPAC today!

Thumbs Up

Do you have a Thumbs Up submission for PPWN? We'd love to highlight the work that you do to advance nutrition policy and the profession for all of us. Send photos and a quick write-up about your recent policy accomplishments to Nate Stritzinger.

In Case You Missed It

If you didn't read last week's PPWN, here is what you may have missed:

Thanks to you all..... Some memories are best put to bed (pun intended), and I am ready for this to be a distant one. Maybe I was overdue for a reminder of all my blessings ( if this 2 week episode with..... a car battery dead in the midst and alternator to blame -having both replaced-, then the ice machine malfunctioning with a 4 hour labor/parts..... doesn't teach me, what will? Right?)

I've never forgotten though, how fortunate I am to have family and friends including my Academy family who have immensely enriched my life and shown me grace and role models for becoming a better person ( a work still in progress.... So truly don't give up on me!).

Thanks everyone. Please share my gratefulness for the emails and good wishes!

Margaret,

I've had that dreadful apparatus up my nostril, too (after bleeding post-sinus surgery years ago) and so I know the awful pain you had to endure. It felt like a Boeing 747 was inside my head.

Anyway, we are so sorry that you're suffering, and please don't worry about any Foundation or Academy responsibilities – as Susie said, just rest and get well. Please keep us posted on how you're doing, but only if you feel up to it.

Subject: illness

I think I owe you both an explanation. Until today I have missed 8 working days, something that has not happened since my late husband was in the hospital 14 years ago and it was not for my illness obviously. It began with a heightened allergy outbreak, then into sinusitis, then while at work on the antibiotics for the last day, a profuse bleeding from both nostrils occurred. This got me sent immediately to an ENT, who first cauterized an area in one nostril to stop the bleeding which sent me home. Then within 45 min, I was bleeding through that packing, bleeding into my throat and coughing up large clots, and back to the ENT where I spent 5 hours. That got me the dreaded apparatus well up into my nostrils with two balloon inflation to provide maximum pressure. They watched me for quite a while as blood was still going down my throat & clots. That sent me home again on bedrest, no lifting, no bending, no blowing my nose, absolutely no sneezing---you get the picture. To say the headaches from all this were bad is an understatement, and I could only take Tylenol because the heavier stuff caused violent vomiting & the obvious worry there. All in all I have been in bed 3 weekends in a row, the first trying to get past the worsened allergy situation, the that following week the sinusitis, only to be followed by the above. There are still clots in my nostril, hoping that they will be reabsorbed still; headaches better this weekend since the apparatus (which was in for 7 days) was removed. It has been a difficult course.

Next week they may be able to scope the area depending on visibility, if not it will be mid-January. I fully suspect polyps in the upper area that were aggravated by both the allergies and sinusitis. I have been sleeping upright per his orders since the original visit to the ENT. Mouth breathing is no fun. I told the ENT I needed to talk to God about changing the odor and taste of blood!

I was so sorry to miss the call. Just in no shape at all. But I am better now. My Christmas wish is for normal breathing and the ability to blow my nose---seems simple enough, but obviously more complex than I appreciated. I'm talking to myself about gratefulness, and not taking simple things like these for granted.

Probably more than you wanted to know. Hopefully my journey is close to ending on this. Hey, if you think about it bring up the awful taste of blood to God!

Best wishes to you,

Margaret

Dear NDEP Members –

NDEP is pleased to announce the 2019 Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award nominations are now being accepted! The purpose of the Outstanding Dietetics Educator Award (ODEA) is to recognize the teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of faculty in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. One educator can be selected from each of the four program types in each geographic region (a maximum of four awardees from each of the six geographic regions for a total of 24).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding educators in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-line, each awardee will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Winners will also receive complimentary registration to the 2019 NDEP Spring regional meeting of their choice and will be presented with their awards!

Eligibility

- Nominees must be a current member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and a current member of Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Preceptors are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Preceptors.
- Active NDEP Council members are not eligible for this award. For a listing of the current NDEP Council members go to www.ndepnet.org.
- Previous ODEA winners cannot be nominated for the same program award again; however, they could be nominated for an award for a different program type, if applicable.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Member of the Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Educator and/or Program Director in an ACEND-accredited dietetics education program:
  - . Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)
  - Dietetic Internship (DI)
  - Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD)
  - Dietetic Technician Program (DT)

- Demonstrated Active Learning Strategy/ Student Centered Techniques
- Demonstrated Dietetics Mentoring Experience (Outside of role as faculty or director-not including current students/interns. Includes previous students/interns now considered professionals).
- Demonstrated leadership in Education and Dietetics; e.g., national, state, or district dietetic association activities, community service, honors received, scientific and professional presentations, publications, etc.

Selection Procedure and Submission Dates

Nominations from peers and/or students will be sent to the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Regional Director in the corresponding geographic area by January 11, 2019. Each Regional Director will select no more than one educator for each type of dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, DT) in the region (maximum four per region).

Each nomination application will be a single PDF that includes the ODEA Data Sheet, curriculum vitae (or resume), and three reference letters. Nominations must be sent electronically. Jpeg documents or individual documents will not be accepted. Additional materials beyond the requested materials (data sheet, CV, letters) will not be reviewed.

Award Winners will be announced in March 2019!

For more information, please visit the NDEP website at www.ndepnet.org, NDEP Portal Library and refer to the attached documents for criteria and data sheets!

Pat, Thanks for letting us know about Margaret. She has had to deal with a lot at work and she has also had really sick grandchildren. She certainly didn't need this on top of all of that. I am sure she is so glad she is not running for President -elect on top of all of this. I will reach out to her.

Mary, I am glad you are getting a little bit of quality time with your Mom. I know the long term prognosis is not good, but enjoy every minute you have left with her when she is at the best she can be. Keep us posted.

I think I owe you both an explanation. Until today I have missed 8 working days, something that has not happened since my late husband was in the hospital 14 years ago and it was not for my illness obviously. It began with a heightened allergy outbreak, then into sinusitis, then while at work on the antibiotics for the last day, a profuse bleeding from both nostrils occurred. This got me sent immediately to an ENT, who first cauterized an area in one nostril to stop the bleeding which sent me home. Then within 45 min, I was bleeding through that packing, bleeding into my throat and coughing up large clots, and back to the ENT where I spent 5 hours. That got me the dreaded apparatus well up into my nostrils with two balloon inflation to provide maximum pressure. They watched me for quite a while as blood was still going down my throat & clots. That sent me home again on bedrest, no lifting, no bending, no blowing my nose, absolutely no sneezing---you get the picture. To say the headaches from all this were bad is an understatement, and I could only take Tylenol because the heavier stuff caused violent vomiting & the obvious worry there. All in all I have been in bed 3 weekends in a row, the first trying to get past the worsened allergy situation, the that following week the sinusitis, only to be followed by the above. There are still clots in my nostril, hoping that they will be reabsorbed still; headaches better this weekend since the apparatus (which was in for 7 days) was removed. It has been a difficult course.

Next week they may be able to scope the area depending on visibility, if not it will be mid-January. I fully suspect polyps in the upper area that were aggravated by both the allergies and sinusitis. I have been sleeping upright per his orders since the original visit to the ENT. Mouth breathing is no fun. I told the ENT I needed to talk to God about changing the odor and taste of blood!

I was so sorry to miss the call. Just in no shape at all. But I am better now. My Christmas wish is for normal breathing and the ability to blow my nose---seems simple enough, but obviously more complex that I appreciated. I'm talking to myself about gratefulness, and not taking simple things like these for granted.

Probably more than you wanted to know. Hopefully my journey is close to ending on this. Hey, if you think about it bring up the awful taste of blood to God!

Best wishes to you,

Margaret

Hi Mary,

I'm so sorry to hear that you mom is doing poorly L I will be thinking of you and your family!!

I will start a new email thread and connect you with Jenna Schiffelbein and Katy Magoon from New Hampshire who are planning the meeting and speakers. That may be easier to sort out the details together.

Thanks,

Hi Amy,

so sorry for the delay. My mom is doing poorly and I was quite distracted today. Before learning of her declining status I did do some work on local airports and discovered that Manchester (about 40 miles from Dover) appears to be the best airport. No non-stop flights from Chicago. I will want double check that with a travel agent.

I will need to know the details (i.e. the two speaking times). I assume given the distance from the airport would have to spend at least 1 night; am open to negotiating that.

I am excited proceeding with the Academy update and a nutrition support session. Am very interested in learning more about the focus they are looking for on the latter topic-enteral, parenteral, guidelines lipid emulsions, all of the above?

Please LMK whom I should contact for details.

Many thanks for all of your work on this and all of the other sessions.

Happiest holidays,

Mary

Hi Mary,

Regarding New Hampshire – I let them know that you are available, but asked if they would want to keep costs low for somebody local. They are very interested in your Nutrition Support expertise. Here is their response:

I truly believe a speaker who can truly cater to the topic of Nutrition Support would be ideal. Where would Mary Russell be flying from? We of course would like to keep the costs as minimal as possible but we also value our members requests/feedback and many are noting that they want more related to updates in nutrition support. I would say that Mary Russell would be our #1 choice and then Marcy Kyle.

This is for April 30 to Dover, NH.

Let me know what you would like to do.

Thanks,

Amy

Good morning everyone-

April 30 would work for me. I'd be happy to speak.

That said-Amy could you remind me which Board member was requested originally?

Considering travel expenses within their budget-assume Ellen or Marcy would be least costly.

The state should have an idea what they can "afford" and also whether they would like an additional presentation from a Board speaker.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I heard back from New Hampshire (their President was out for a surgery for a few weeks). I was awaiting for them to decide about either Ellen or Marcy attending (because they are closest and the meeting butted up against the Academy Board meeting). However, NH has actually decided to change the date of their meeting to April 30th. Which happens to fall on a Tuesday.

So I wanted to circle back to see if any of you are able/willing to attend on April 30 to Dover, NH. (I can also still ask Ellen or Marcy since they are closest, but wanted to ask you first).

Let me know what you think.

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

- Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Terri if you are available and the $$ work out would be terrific to have you attend the NJ meeting.

Agree that Ellen would be a very good alternate if NJ funds are tight.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

That got me the dreaded apparatus well up into my nostrils with two balloon inflation to provide maximum pressure. They watched me for quite a while as blood was still going down my throat & clots. That sent me home again on bedrest, no lifting, no bending, no blowing my nose, absolutely no sneezing---you get the picture. To say the headaches from all this were bad is an understatement, and I could only take Tylenol because the heavier stuff caused violent vomiting & the obvious worry there. All in all I have been in bed 3 weekends in a row, the first trying to get past the worsened allergy situation, the that following week the sinusitis, only to be followed by the above. There are still clots in my nostril, hoping that they will be reabsorbed still; headaches better this weekend since the apparatus (which was in for 7 days) was removed. It has been a difficult course.

Next week they may be able to scope the area depending on visibility, if not it will be mid-January. I fully suspect polyps in the upper area that were aggravated by both the allergies and sinusitis. I have been sleeping upright per his orders since the original visit to the ENT. Mouth breathing is no fun. I told the ENT I needed to talk to God about changing the odor and taste of blood!

I was so sorry to miss the call. Just in no shape at all. But I am better now. My Christmas wish is for normal breathing and the ability to blow my nose---seems simple enough, but obviously more complex that I appreciated. I'm talking to myself about gratefulness, and not taking simple things like these for granted.

Probably more than you wanted to know. Hopefully my journey is close to ending on this. Hey, if you think about it bring up the awful taste of blood to God!

Best wishes to you,

Margaret

Thank you Pat - will get a card off to Margaret pronto. Sounds horrible. We can probably blame it on climate change along with so many other things. Hopefully moods and health will return with holiday spirit and family, friends and great food!

Margaret,

I've had that dreadful apparatus up my nostril, too (after bleeding post-sinus surgery years ago) and so I know the awful pain you had to endure. It felt like a Boeing 747 was inside my head.

Anyway, we are so sorry that you're suffering, and please don't worry about any Foundation or Academy responsibilities – as Susie said, just rest and get well. Please keep us posted on how you're doing, but only if you feel up to it.

I think I owe you both an explanation. Until today I have missed 8 working days, something that has not happened since my late husband was in the hospital 14 years ago and it was not for my illness obviously. It began with a heightened allergy outbreak, then into sinusitis, then while at work on the antibiotics for the last day, a profuse bleeding from both nostrils occurred. This got me sent immediately to an ENT, who first cauterized an area in one nostril to stop the bleeding which sent me home. Then within 45 min, I was bleeding through that packing, bleeding into my throat and coughing up large clots, and back to the ENT where I spent 5 hours. That got me the dreaded apparatus well up into my nostrils with two balloon inflation to provide maximum pressure. They watched me for quite a while as blood was still going down my throat & clots. That sent me home again on bedrest, no lifting, no bending, no blowing my nose, absolutely no sneezing---you get the picture. Subject: RE: World Food Prize

Dear Ethan, Angie and Mary Pat,

Thank you for your communication regarding the Academy's involvement in the World Food Prize Week (WFPW) and opportunities to highlight our work at future meetings.

I agree with the need to more clearly define our role at the WFPW and to establish goals and outcomes for attending the meeting. Your list of proposed opportunities is an excellent start. I would like to ask that you continue to develop these ideas in collaboration with Jeanne and develop budget proposals to determine the feasibility of implementation.

I am appointing the three of you to develop and submit a presentation proposal for consideration by February 1 to Ambassador Quinn. Jeanne has been in communication with him this week and conveyed our interest in presenting during the scheduled events, including the Borlaug Dialogue, the Hunger Summit and the Global Youth Institute. The Academy's nutrition initiatives, including the Global Fellowship Program, prepare the workforce to engage in solutions to hunger and food insecurity and sustainable food systems and could be showcased during the event.

As you know, we have previously engaged in the Iowa Hunger Summit and participated on a panel at this year's meeting. It is my understanding that submissions are made through a specific process unique to the meeting despite its inclusion in the WFPW activities. Our efforts for the Summit have been mindful of the Iowa Academy of Nutrition Dietetics since the majority of the content of the meeting is focused on state-level approaches to food insecurity.

Jeanne has offered to work with you to prioritize the opportunities and align resources. It will be important for the Academy and Foundation to know the goals, role of the affiliate and relevant DPGs, and associated costs for proposed ideas in order to determine which could be supported. We will begin to consider the budgets for the new fiscal year soon, therefore further development of the ideas should also be completed by February 1.

Thank you again for your willingness to place the Academy in a visible position to advance the profession! Wishing you all a happy and healthy holiday season.

Best regards,

Pat

Hi Pat and Jeanne,

I hope all is well and that you will have a wonderful Thanksgiving! Angie Tagtow, Mary Pat Raimondi and I just met by conference call and brainstormed about the World Food Prize. We discussed possible approaches to include and enhance participation of Registered Dietitians in the World Food Prize. Our conversation took us in several directions.

1. To determine if AND can have either a side meeting sponsored by one of our Practice Groups or MIGs or Foundation that includes pertinent topics such as the importance of the First 1000 days on health.
2. To work with other like-minded organizations to cosponsor events during the WFP such as a breakfast with panels. For example, the Alliance to End Hunger co-sponsored a breakfast with The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations which was titled, "Climate Variability and Conflict: Actions Needed to ensure Food and Nutrition Security. It might be that
3. To promote other RDNs to participate in the Global Youth Institute as panel members. I have participated in this event twice and it is a good way to get students to think about nutrition.
4. To continue to promote RDNs on panels in the Iowa Hunger Caucus and on panels in the WFP.

We were also wondering what sort of support AND and the AND Foundation would be willing and able to provide. I think this is an important point before we get too involved in making inroads into the WFP.

Thanks for your help with this!

Take care,

Ethan

Hi Amy,

so sorry for the delay. My mom is doing poorly and I was quite distracted today. Before learning of her declining status I did do some work on local airports and discovered that Manchester (about 40 miles from Dover) appears to be the best airport. No non-stop flights from Chicago. I will want double check that with a travel agent.

I will need to know the details (i.e. the two speaking times). I assume given the distance from the airport would have to spend at least 1 night; am open to negotiating that.

I am excited proceeding with the Academy update and a nutrition support session. Am very interested in learning more about the focus they are looking for on the latter topic-enteral, parenteral, guidelines lipid emulsions, all of the above?

Please LMK whom I should contact for details.

Many thanks for all of your work on this and all of the other sessions.

Happiest holidays,

Mary

Hi Mary,

Regarding New Hampshire – I let them know that you are available, but asked if they would want to keep costs low for somebody local. They are very interested in your Nutrition Support expertise. Here is their response:

I truly believe a speaker who can truly cater to the topic of Nutrition Support would be ideal. Where would Mary Russell be flying from? We of course would like to keep the costs as minimal as possible but we also value our members requests/feedback and many are noting that they want more related to updates in nutrition support. I would say that Mary Russell would be our #1 choice and then Marcy Kyle.

This is for April 30 to Dover, NH.

Let me know what you would like to do.

Thanks,

Amy

Good morning everyone-
April 30 would work for me. I'd be happy to speak.

That said-Amy could you remind me which Board member was requested originally?

Considering travel expenses within their budget-assume Ellen or Marcy would be least costly.

The state should have an idea what they can "afford" and also whether they would like an additional presentation from a Board speaker.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I heard back from New Hampshire (their President was out for a surgery for a few weeks). I was awaiting for them to decide about either Ellen or Marcy attending (because they are closest and the meeting butted up against the Academy Board meeting). However, NH has actually decided to change the date of their meeting to April 30th. Which happens to fall on a Tuesday.

So I wanted to circle back to see if any of you are able/willing to attend on April 30 to Dover, NH. (I can also still ask Ellen or Marcy since they are closest, but wanted to ask you first).

Let me know what you think.

Thanks,

Amy

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

- Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Kudos Amy and Pat for initiating and executing this terrific member "value add".

A win for everyone.

Terri if you are available and the $$ work out would be terrific to have you attend the NJ meeting.

Agree that Ellen would be a very good alternate if NJ funds are tight.

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

I would be happy to do an academy update and a talk on either The History of School Nutrition, our Farm to School Program or I have a leadership presentation I do that is very interactive with the audience sharing tips on leadership skills. ### Credential Opportunity for Employees - Dietetic Technician, Registered (DTR)

Are you interested in expanding your current staff or helping your employees advance themselves professionally? Incorporating dietetic technicians, registered (DTRs) into your clinical nutrition or food service management teams is a benefit to your existing professional staff as well as to your clients/customers.

Individuals who have successfully completed both a bachelor's degree and an Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) accredited Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD) are eligible to take the registration examination for dietetic technicians without meeting additional academic or supervised practice requirements. Once credentialed, these individuals are required to comply with the Commission on Dietetic Registration's (CDR) professional development/recertification requirements, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics and the Standards of Practice.

Employers who want to better utilize and/or integrate DTRs into their workplace can also access eight sample position descriptions written with consideration of the DT education and training curriculum, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Standards of Practice (SOP) and Standards of Professional Performance (SOPP). These position descriptions as well as informational DTR brochures, videos and a printable poster can be accessed on the CDR website.

HOW TO TAKE THE REGISTRATION EXAMINATION FOR DIETETIC TECHNICIANS

If you have an employee who has met these eligibility requirements, but has not yet established eligibility with CDR, they should contact the current program director from their ACEND accredited DPD program to initiate the eligibility application process. Candidates who are already eligible for the examination for dietetic technicians would have previously received an Authorization to Test email from CDR's testing vendor Pearson VUE. This email contains information on how to schedule their examination.

Additional information about this pathway is located here.

If you have comments or questions about eligibility to take the registration examination for dietetic technicians, please contact CDR at cdrexams@eatright.org.

I reviewed the section again, it is 4202 and the only change from the 2014 bill is that it is now extended to 2023. The fresh is still there!

Good morning!

Attached is a speaker grant proposal for Marcy to attend Hawaii's meeting. This one has been moving forward already, but we were still waiting the actual application (attached). Marcy is available and is planning to attend. Hawaii does have additional budget to cover additional flight and hotel costs.

Please let me know if you all approve.

PS – Update on NH – yesterday I let them know, Mary, that you are available, but I inquired if they would want to coordinate a local Board member to keep costs low. They are deciding. They did say Nutrition Support is a topic they want as a secondary topic for members. So it may be a good fit for you. I'll let you know how they respond about if they want Ellen or Marcy (local).

Good morning everyone-
April 30 would work for me. I'd be happy to speak.

That said-Amy could you remind me which Board member was requested originally?

Considering travel expenses within their budget-assume Ellen or Marcy would be least costly.

The state should have an idea what they can "afford" and also whether they would like an additional presentation from a Board speaker.

However, NH has actually decided to change the date of their meeting to April 30th. Which happens to fall on a Tuesday.

So I wanted to circle back to see if any of you are able/willing to attend on April 30 to Dover, NH. (I can also still ask Ellen or Marcy since they are closest, but wanted to ask you first).

Let me know what you think.

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

- Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Hi Mary,

Regarding New Hampshire – I let them know that you are available, but asked if they would want to keep costs low for somebody local. They are very interested in your Nutrition Support expertise. Here is their response:

I truly believe a speaker who can truly cater to the topic of Nutrition Support would be ideal. Where would Mary Russell be flying from? We of course would like to keep the costs as minimal as possible but we also value our members requests/feedback and many are noting that they want more related to updates in nutrition support. I would say that Mary Russell would be our #1 choice and then Marcy Kyle.

This is for April 30 to Dover, NH.

Let me know what you would like to do.

Thanks,

Amy

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

New USDA Proposed Rule: Academy Encourages Schools to Stay on Course

School nutrition programs will have more flexibility in areas related to serving flavored milk and whole grains under a final rule released this week by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The rule also allows more time for schools to reach sodium reduction targets. The Academy recognizes some districts need additional flexibility to meet improved school nutrition standards provided by this rule. However, the Academy remains committed to strong nutrition standards for school meals that children want to eat and that Academy members have worked hard to implement.

Short-Term Continuing Resolution Provides Funding: Spending Bill Negotiations Continue

President Trump signed a two-week continuing resolution, passed by Congress, that is set to expire on December 21, allowing time for appropriators to reach agreement on remaining spending bills including those for the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Food and Drug Administration. If, as rumored, a year-long continuing resolution is passed and Fiscal Year 2018 spending limits are maintained, funding for health programs could be lost and new programs likely would not be initiated.

Farm Bill Incorporates Academy's SNAP and SNAP-Ed Stances

The long-anticipated House-Senate conference committee language for the farm bill was released this week and is expected to pass with bipartisan support. Nutrition sections of the compromise bill are similar to the 2014 language, despite efforts by the House majority to make significant changes to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. The new bill will improve coordination of SNAP-Ed with other nutrition education programs; establish a reporting system in all states that administer SNAP-Ed; and require states to annually provide data for a federal report to the House Agriculture Committee. President Trump is expected to sign the farm bill into law next week.

Academy-Supported Maternal Child Health Bills Advance

The House of Representatives passed H.R. 1318, the Preventing Maternal Deaths Act, a bill that is supported by the Academy and other leading health organizations. The Senate is expected to take up the bill before the end of the current Congress. The House is also expected to pass the PREEMIE Act, which supports federal research and initiatives to address preterm birth. The PREEMIE Act has already passed the Senate. President Trump is expected to sign both bills.

News from the Hill and Beyond

USDA's Proposed Rule Offers Flexibility: Academy Encourages Schools to Stay on Course

School nutrition programs will have more flexibility in areas related to serving flavored milk and whole grains under a final rule released this week by the USDA, which the Academy commented on back in January of this year. The Academy recognizes some school districts need additional flexibility to meet improved school nutrition standards; however, the Academy remains committed to strong nutrition standards for school meals that children want to eat and that Academy members have worked hard to implement. Schools that have already successfully adopted higher nutrition standards are advised to maintain them.

The rule also allows more time for schools to reach sodium reduction targets. The Academy strongly supports reducing students' over-consumption of sodium, but recognizes the merits of a slower approach that allows more time for reformulating products and for students' palates to adapt to changes. The Academy looks forward to new sodium Dietary Reference Intake values from the National Academies, which should be factored into future school nutrition standards.

A full press release can be found on the Academy's website.

Farm Bill Details Released: Academy SNAP and SNAP-Ed Stances Incorporated

The long-anticipated farm bill conference bill language was released this week with votes expected by the House in rapid response to the bipartisan agreement which was passed by the Senate on Tuesday. The nutrition sections of the farm bill compromise are similar to the 2014 bill language despite efforts by the House majority to make major changes to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. In terms of SNAP-Ed, the bill will improve coordination with other nutrition education programs, establish a reporting system in all states that administer SNAP-Ed and require states to annually provide data for a federal report to the House Agriculture Committee. Bill analysis of the SNAP-Ed section can be found here. It is anticipated that President Trump will sign the bill into law next week.

USDA Seeks SNAP-Ed Toolkit Reviewers and Interventions for Review

USDA is looking to build a diverse team of experts in the field of nutrition and obesity prevention to review and expand the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Reviewers are asked to thoroughly assess up to three interventions and supporting materials and determine what should be included in the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Each intervention review is estimated to take 5 hours. Reviewers will need to complete one hour of training via webinar, scheduled for Wednesday, March 20, 2019. Check out the website for more information.

If interested in being a reviewer, please send an email with your resume, CV, or biosketch, as well as a brief account of your interest by Friday, February 1, 2019.

If interested in submitting an intervention for review, please fill out the interest form. You will receive an official invitation to submit January 7, 2019.

Academy Seeks Inpatient Facilities for Malnutrition Clinical Characteristics Study

The Academy's Nutrition Research Network is conducting a study to validate the malnutrition clinical characteristics - a set of criteria used to diagnose malnutrition in hospitalized adults and children. The study will also examine the amount and level of an RDN's care necessary to improve patient medical outcomes, both overall and in the context of malnutrition. The NRN is recruiting 60 adult and 60 pediatric inpatient facilities. There is a financial incentive for participating sites and CPEUs will be provided to research RDNs who attend the in-person training.

NEW! Academy Issue Brief and Leave Behind Provide Essential Background on Licensure

With so many sources and opinions for advice about integrating food and nutrition into a healthy lifestyle – not all of which are reliable – consumers are understandably uncertain about who they should turn to for competent advice. To clear any confusion on the importance of licensure in protecting the public and ensuring they have access to qualified providers, the Academy has released an Issue Brief and Leave Behind on licensure that explains its purposes, provide a detailed map highlighting the type of licensure in each state, and highlights the benefits of licensure to all parties.

Policy leaders may review the documents and spread the importance of licensure to our profession by sharing with other Academy members. For any questions, please contact licensure@eatright.org.

Consumer Food Safety Education Conference - March 6-8, 2019

The Partnership for Food Safety and Education is hosting its Consumer Food Safety Education Conference at the Walt Disney Swan and Dolphin Resort in Florida from March 6-8, 2019.

Attendees will:

- Learn strategies to influence the food safety knowledge, attitudes and behavior change of consumers;
- Be equipped with the tools to address the biggest food safety education challenges;
- Have the opportunity to network and dialogue with health and food safety professionals from all sectors.

Sign up by January 25, 2019 for early bird pricing while it lasts.

Student Scholarships Available!

Undergraduate and graduate students studying food safety, food microbiology, public health, environmental health, or nutrition and dietetics with a demonstrated interest in food safety at a U.S.-based university are eligible to apply. The deadline for submission is January 14, 2019.

Comment Opportunity: Proposed Objectives for Healthy People 2030

Every decade, the Healthy People initiative develops a new set of science-based, 10-year national objectives with the goal of improving the health of all Americans through encouraging multi-sectorial cross-community collaborations, empowering individuals toward making informed health decisions and measuring the impact of prevention activities. In preparation for HP2030, the Office for Disease Promotion and Health Prevention has issued a request for comments on objectives to be included its next 10-year plan.

HP2030 is particularly important to the Academy as it helps to reinforce federal nutrition policy guidelines and drive research into selected areas and topics that could directly impact nutrition knowledge and affect MNT standards of practice.

PALs: we would like you to coordinate the collection of comments for proposed objectives across health sectors that include: maternal/infant/child health, heart disease, nutrition and weight, diabetes, and cancer. Other topics can be found here. Please share this information with your DPG through your communication channels to solicit DPG member feedback.

Policy Leaders: If you would like to provide input, please reach out to your PAL, whose contact information can be found on the Academy's Leadership Directory, if needed. The deadline for submission to your PAL is Friday, January 4, 2018.

Request for Info Collection on Farm to School Program and Census

The Academy is seeking DPG expert feedback on an information collection from the USDA on the Farm to School program. In particular, we are looking for how the program has impacted your community, what successes you may have had with the programs or any challenges you may have faced, and any stories and examples to support your position.

Additionally, we would like feedback on the past census questionnaire - does it ask the right questions? Is it designed to, and has the data been employed accurately to, improve the effectiveness of the program or elements thereof? Is it valuable to your practice, your colleagues' practice, or the work of the Academy? Is the length, design, or wording of the Census burdensome?

Any feedback can be submitted to DPG PALs and PALs may submit comments on behalf of their DPG here.

Call for Nominations

A call for nominations has been opened for:

1. Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee and
2. Advisory Committee on Heritable Disorders in Newborns and Children.

See below for more information. Interested candidates should send their CV and a brief letter of interest describing their basis for nomination to Mark Rifkin by December 20, 2018.

Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee, Due December 20

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services seeks nominees for membership on the Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee. Since this committee advises CMS on determinations of Medicare coverage for various diagnoses and conditions, Academy participation could have substantial implications for increasing nutrition service coverage and access for Medicare participants.

Advisory Committee on Heritable Disorders in Newborns and Children, Due December 20

The Health Resources and Services Administration seeks nominees for membership on the Advisory Committee on Heritable Disorders in Newborns and Children. Since this committee advises HHS on policies, guidelines and programs to reduce morbidity and mortality in children with, or at risk for, heritable disorders, Academy participation could have substantial implications for MNT protocols and insurance coverage for such services for this population.

Action Alerts

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency - the voice of every member is critical.

Hi Donna,

It was great to talk with you this afternoon, and we're so happy that you'll be joining us in Louisville!

I have cc'd my colleague Emily Pia who can help with travel arrangements.

As I mentioned on the phone, we'll be in touch after the holidays to confirm session content and logistics. For now, you can just brainstorm how you'd like to present on your summer and afterschool programs, your farm to school initiative, and your work-study program.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or concerns in the meantime, though.

Thanks again,

Carolyn

Carolyn, I am glad you sent me an email when you did. I had just received an invitation to speak in Mississippi at their annual Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Meeting on School Nutrition and had not accepted yet when your invitation came in. I would love to speak on the topic of Schools as Nutrition Hubs. Maybe we can talk more after Thanksgiving about how much time I would have to speak etc. I would love to recommend Mr. Falana to speak at the conference, but I don't think public speaking is one of his strong points. I think I prefer you look for someone else. If you struggle finding someone I can always ask him and he might let one of the Assistant Superintendents do the presentation in place of him. Thanks for the invite and we will talk soon.

Hi Donna,

I hope you're doing well! It was great to see you briefly after your session at FNCE.

Thanks again for taking the time to talk back in September to help us learn how we can work more effectively in rural communities and prepare for our Rural Child Hunger Summit.

Now that we have a better sense of the agenda for the Rural Child Hunger Summit, we would like to invite you to speak during the session we're calling "Strategies to Bolster Rural School Nutrition Finances." This session would be in the morning on the first day of the two-day Summit:

Thursday, March 21, 2019. We would be able to cover your travel costs to and from Louisville, KY.

Are you available and interested?

During the session, we plan to introduce the concept of Schools as Nutrition Hubs. We would love to have you talk about how you've made the child nutrition programs work in your rural district, especially summer and afterschool meals. We would also like you to share your other strategies for running a financially viable program, like your work-study program, all while serving delicious local foods.

Two additional things:

- We would like to have another session gaining buy-in from state and local leaders to support strong school nutrition programs. Do you think that your superintendent Rudy Falana would be interested in speaking during that session? We will also have Melody Schopp, former Secretary of Education in South Dakota and sister of Gay Anderson, but we want to have multiple perspectives at different levels.
- If you haven't already seen it, we would love to have you take a moment to showcase your work through our Hunger Innovation Survey. Respondents will be featured in a report and have the chance to receive grants. My colleague managing this survey and report thought that the work-study program was a particularly innovative idea. The survey closes at the end of the month, so hopefully you can take a moment to do it once schools close for Thanksgiving.

Please let me know if you have questions, and we hope you are able to join us in Louisville!

Thanks,
Carolyn

Malnutrition Care Beyond the Hospital Walls

Date: Wednesday, December 12, 1 PM CST (1 hr. event)

CPEU: 1 credit

Medicare's Value Based Payment (VBP) program provides incentives for high-quality and cost-effective health care. Medicare payments to Accountable Care Organizations, Medicare Advantage plans, and PACE (Programs of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly) programs are influenced by Hierarchical Condition Categories that are part of the VBP program. Accurate coding of chronic diseases, like obesity and malnutrition, helps forecast expected cost of care and improve a provider's quality score. Additionally, adequate malnutrition documentation and coding improves a patient's transition throughout the care continuum to ensure appropriate nutrition services are provided.

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe how malnutrition coding influences the risk assessment factor in Medicare's Hierarchical Condition Categories and leads to increased healthcare payments.
2. Explain how malnutrition diagnoses influence quality outcome measurements and payment in Accountable Care Organizations.
3. Improve clinical nutrition documentation to ensure the malnutrition diagnosis is communicated to the appropriate care providers in every care setting.

Donna,

I met with my CPI committee tonight and we have decided to provide you with 1 hr 15 minutes for the Academy Update and School Nutrition presentation along with Q&A. We are requesting a brief 10-15 minute Academy Update. We do plan to have a short update from our Public Policy Representatives who will also speak on Advocacy Day.

I will need you to provide me with a brief speaker bio (max 300 words), presentation description (max 100 words) and photo (jpeg format preferred). These will be used to promote our event and printed in our program book. I will have Terry send you a contract with information to review and sign.

Our committee would be thrilled if you could provide a presentation on the history of school nutrition. Let me know of the title of your presentation, three learning objectives, and 3-4 learning needs codes. Our committee was thinking a small portion of your time on the Academy Update and a majority of your speaking time with your topic. We would be happy to provide hotel and travel. Because we are requesting a majority of your time to speak on your personal experience as a dietitian in school nutrition and foodservice wondering if you intend to request honorarium? Joan Schwaba had e-mailed me a template/contract I will be working with Terry McBride our Illinois Executive Director in filling out. Let me know if you have any questions.

First of all, thank you all for listening and feedback in this process.

The exhaustive list of diversity initiatives is a good reminder that the Academy is making it a strategic priority. Expanding the reach of the revised committee structure will work when communicated positively and pro-actively. Highlighting our success at FNCE and throughout the year in a variety of ways is critical. Implying we are paying attention to diversity is not enough, we explicitly need to shout it from the rooftops.

Here are some further thoughts on Diversity and Inclusion as we move forward:

- Most of the tactics seem staff driven and not member driven
- Collaboration among the Academy units would be critical
- Share the success of these initiatives (I did not see the results mentioned)
- Clarify the role of the BOD, HOD and the committee members

Possibilities:

- Clarify how all Diversity and Inclusion initiatives align with the strategic plan
- Have a member of each unit of the Academy (CDR, ACEND, DPGs, MIGs) on the committee where it truly is a member driven engagement and inclusivity committee (Our professional diversity also plays a key role)
- Research into the barriers of recruiting leaders from a diverse background
- Fund appropriately for the initiatives to succeed
- Invite the committee/DPG/MIG chairs/leaders to the BOD meeting/retreat as the agenda dictates to hear directly from the members

Pat, I think getting a perspective from Sharon Cox as a BOD member of the underrepresented group and as a strategic expert would be helpful.

Thanks again for working on all members being heard.
With best regards,

- Highlight diversity and inclusion in Academy Update presentation
- Widely promote the first-ever Diversity Excellence Award
- Prioritize past diversity leaders for committee appointments
- Revise the Academy's Diversity Strategic Plan and develop outcome measures (possibly merge Membership Committee and Diversity Commitment and change name to Member Engagement, Diversity and Inclusion Committee)
- Incorporate diversity and inclusion in the orientation for new committee members
- Develop a diversity and inclusion webinar for members
- Work closely with Diversify Dietetics group to highlight D&I efforts

I'm making progress on the Leadership Institute proposal, where we'll ensure diversity and inclusion are covered. These are just a few of the new and innovative ideas to underscore our efforts in this important effort.

Additionally, I contacted Richard Boykin yesterday and asked him to arrange a meeting with members of the Congressional Black Caucus, to lead a discussion with historically black colleges and universities to support the nutrition and dietetics profession and education. Paula Goedert will be nominating the Academy for the Diversity Award at Barnes and Thornburg annual celebration of diversity dinner. It is only fitting for the Academy to now receive the award considering we have been a longtime supporter and have been participating since the dinner's inception.

Please let me know your thoughts. Once I hear back from you, I will tailor this email as a response back to Aida and the current chair Teresa Turner and will request to participate in the Diversity Committee's call to apprise them of the Academy's spotlight on diversity and inclusion this coming year.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions. Look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Pat

Subject: Diversity & Inclusion

Hi Teresa and Aida,

I want to inform you that the Academy is developing a Strategic Communications Plan spotlighting our diversity and inclusion efforts. Programs we will promote include:

- Diversity Mentoring Toolkit for Educators
- Diversity Awards and Grants
- Member Interest Groups

ü Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, which includes:

§ Chinese Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ Filipino Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Indians in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Latinos and Hispanics in Dietetics and Nutrition

ü National Organization of Blacks in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Cultures of Gender and Age, which includes:

§ Thirty and Under in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ Fifty Plus in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ National Organization of Men in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Religion, which includes:

§ Jewish (JMIG)

§ Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition (MIDAN)

- Official Diversity Philosophy
- Cultural Competency Resources
- Mentoring programs
- Food and nutrition information in multiple languages
- Pan-ethnic images in all Academy messaging, such as membership brochures, official websites, social media efforts during National Nutrition Month and on all marketing materials

- Grants and scholarships programs provided by the Academy, ACEND, CDR and the Foundation
- Academy's culturally diverse Spokesperson program.

We will also spotlight new diversity and inclusion initiatives. The Academy will:

- Develop a video for Member Showcase at FNCE in Philadelphia highlighting the Academy's D&I efforts, similar to the excellent D&I video that was forward by Academy member Wahida Karmally
- Highlight former Diversity Award winners more visibly in videos, Board reports, and Member Showcase
- Tailor the "On the Shoulders of Giants" FNCE session in Philadelphia to Diversity, Inclusion and Cultural Competency
- Focus on ISPP programs for diverse populations
- Feature diversity and inclusion in Academy Update presentation
- Widely promote the first-ever Diversity Excellence Award
- Utilize past diversity leaders for committee appointments
- Incorporate diversity and inclusion in the orientation for new committee members
- Produce a diversity and inclusion webinar for members
- Work closely with the Diversify Dietetics group to highlight the Academy's D&I efforts.

In addition, we are working on the Leadership Institute proposal, where diversity and inclusion will be covered. Academy President Mary Russell will feature our D&I efforts in her April Journal President's Page, reaching all members.

We will arrange a meeting with members of the Congressional Black Caucus to lead a discussion with historically black colleges and universities to support nutrition and dietetics education.

The Academy is expected to be nominated to receive the Diversity Award at Barnes and Thornburg's annual celebration of diversity dinner. It is only fitting for the Academy to receive this award given our longtime support and participation in this event since its inception.

Since we know you monitor and update the Diversity Strategic Plan for the next fiscal year and budget, I encourage the Diversity Committee to consider developing multi-year diversity and inclusion plan that includes metrics to assess outcomes for the objectives and strategies.

Thank you for your continued work in this important area. I want to assure you that diversity and inclusion are a high priority for the Academy and I would be happy to participate on the Diversity Committee's next conference call.

Best regards,

Pat

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is committed to a world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.

View in browser.

The Academy's Nutrition Research Network is conducting a study to validate the malnutrition clinical characteristics - a set of criteria used to diagnose malnutrition in hospitalized adults and children. The study will also examine the amount and level of registered dietitian nutritionist's care necessary to improve patient medical outcomes, both overall and in the context of malnutrition. The NRN is recruiting 60 adult and 60 pediatric inpatient facilities. There is a financial incentive for participating sites and CPEUs will be provided to research RDNs who attend the in-person training.

Subject: Malnutrition Measures and MQii

Good morning Felicia,

Donna Martin asked if I would assist you with an update on the 4 eCQMs – electronic Clinical Quality Measures and a brief description of the measures. All 4 measures are on the MUC list for Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) since 2016. They do not look like they will be moving into a CMS inpatient hospital Federal Program for official reporting at this time. We tried this year with a Composite measure submission comprised of the 4 measures as one composite malnutrition global score, and that did not get accepted as for the last 2 years, no eCQMs have been added to the federal reporting for inpatient program by the current administration.

The good news is that our Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative (MQii) is continuing to work with hospital partners to collect data to support the measures. To obtain data and feedback from a variety of demographics - including size, geographic distribution and acute-care types of facilities - a strategic goal was set to enroll 250 sites in the Learning Collaborative by the end of 2018. I am pleased that 256 facilities are now confirmed in the MQii program! This is an important milestone in the initiative that raises awareness of the clinical relevance of malnutrition identification and treatment across the U.S.

The Academy has also been working with stakeholders on adding nutrition as a social determinant of health. We have been involved with Medicare Advantage as well as making the administration aware of our advancement of malnutrition care standards being implemented in hospitals that carry over into the community. We have worked with accountable care organizations (ACOs) to decrease costs, hospital length of stay, and readmissions. Most recently the Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary, Alex M. Azar II in his remarks to the Hatch Foundation for Civility and Solutions, addressed social determinants of health and referenced malnutrition as an important issue. He noted that care for hospital patients with malnutrition is twice as costly as those who are admitted well-nourished. He added that interventions in accountable care organizations have led to savings by screening, intervening and continuing support for malnutrition care after hospital discharge.

Since we are very pleased that our work has made a difference with identifying malnutrition as an issue in the entire learning health system from inpatient acute care hospitals, to post-acute care facilities and beyond within community based organizations. The HHS Secretary's recognition is very valuable as he provides leadership and direction to CMS, the agency with which the Academy has been working to advocate for electronic clinical quality measures (eCQMs) as part of the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative.

Please review the Academy webpages on the MQii – Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative, the 4 measures, FAQs, and the Toolkit at the following links:

Thanks again for exploring the MQii.

I also wanted to add that I am appreciative of your compilation of all the actions/activities regarding our diversity efforts. I am impressed with the possibility of being acknowledged at the Barnes and Thornburg dinner for our efforts. As I initially mentioned during the call, I am still not totally convinced the merger of the diversity committee with the membership committee would be perceived as a positive move. But if the decision is made to proceed, I will support your proposal to have Doris help in developing a strong strategic communications plan to roll out to members.

Farm Bill and Appropriation Votes Expected During Next Two Weeks

Leaders from the farm bill conference committee have reached an agreement but have not yet released details of the new bill believed to be closely aligned with the Senate's earlier version. Votes on the farm bill and the pending appropriation bills will likely be delayed as Congress places legislative agenda items on hold in order to honor former President George H.W. Bush, who passed away over the weekend. A short-term appropriations measure is reportedly being considered in order to fund several agencies, including the USDA and FDA, and to avoid a government shutdown if the current continuing resolution expires this Friday, December 7.

Opportunity to Serve on Academy Committees and Task Forces for 2019-2020

It is that time of year again where members are encouraged to submit their qualifications and interest in serving on appointed national-level Academy committees and task forces for 2019-2020. There are 21 standing committees, including the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee; a full list can be found here. Please fill out the survey by January 9, 2019 to be considered for any of the positions available.

USDA Seeks SNAP-Ed Toolkit Reviewers and Interventions for Review

USDA is looking to build a diverse team of experts in the field of nutrition and obesity prevention to review and expand the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Reviewers are asked to thoroughly assess up to three interventions and supporting materials and determine what should be included in the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Each intervention review is estimated to take 5 hours. Reviewers will need to complete one hour of training via webinar, scheduled for Wednesday, March 20, 2019. Check out the website for more information.

If interested in being a reviewer, please send an email with your resume, CV, or biosketch, as well as a brief account of your interest by Friday, February 1, 2019.

If interested in submitting an intervention for review, please fill out the interest form. You will receive an official invitation to submit January 7, 2019.

Public Policy Open Forums

Update! December Forum Topic Change

The original topic of Strategic Measures for the December Forum has been postponed until January. The new forum topic for this month will be Public Policy Workshop 2018 Debrief. Here is the updated Public Policy Open Forum schedule:

December

PPW 2018 Debrief and Next Steps - Register

- Tuesday, December 18, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- A debrief and review of PPW 2018. Feedback from evaluations will be presented and will include a discussion on next steps.

January

Malnutrition Advocacy In-District and Policy Update for the New 116th Congress - Register

- Tuesday, January 15, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- Introduction to this quarter's advocacy topic of malnutrition advocacy in-district and an update from the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy team in Washington D.C. on what to expect in the 116th Congress.

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Tuesday, January 29, 2018, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- Overview of the FY2018 Strategic Measures Report with results and recommendations going forward.

November Open Forum Recording on the COI

The recording from November Public Policy Open Forum, Achieving Your Policy Goals through Advocacy, held on November 27, 2018, is now on the COI. Please be sure to fill out the evaluation survey included in the folder as we take your responses into account and make improvements based on your feedback!

STAR Training Recording from November 29 Now Available

The State Advocacy Training: Putting Advocacy into Action held last week on November 29 has been recorded and posted to the COI. The training lays the groundwork for the development of state and local level coalitions convening stakeholders around obesity care. The training is intended for SPRs, as well as RRs, SRSs, and other affiliate policy leaders and includes a State Advocacy Representative 'STAR' handbook that goes over state advocacy as it pertains to obesity care. Stay tuned for additional details and next steps in coalition building.

Addressing Malnutrition in VA Hospitals and Beyond: Lessons and Opportunities for Non-VA Organizations - Register

The Veterans Administration has long been focused on ensuring it meets the nutrition needs of its population and has undertaken significant efforts in recent years to support better malnutrition care, both within and beyond the hospital. Learn more on Thursday, December 6 from 1-2 p.m. Eastern Time on a VA-focused webinar offered as part of the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative. Attendees will learn from the VA's experience and how to apply malnutrition quality improvement activities to non-VA facilities. Register today and to send questions you have for the speakers in advance.

Latest Issue of MNT Provider Newsletter

Learn how RDNs can impact the rising incidence and cost of diabetes and prediabetes, read about modernized USPSTF recommendations on obesity screening for adults, and get caught up on recent efforts undertaken by the Academy to expand coverage for MNT under Medicare in the latest issue of the MNT Provider.

Comment Opportunity: Proposed Objectives for Healthy People 2030

Every decade, the Healthy People initiative develops a new set of science-based, 10-year national objectives with the goal of improving the health of all Americans through encouraging multi-sectorial cross-community collaborations, empowering individuals toward making informed health decisions and measuring the impact of prevention activities. In preparation for HP2030, the Office for Disease Promotion and Health Prevention has issued a request for comments on objectives to be included its next 10-year plan.

HP2030 is particularly important to the Academy as it helps to reinforce federal nutrition policy guidelines and drive research into selected areas and topics that could directly impact nutrition knowledge and affect MNT standards of practice.

PALs: we would like you to coordinate the collection of comments for proposed objectives across health sectors that include: maternal/infant/child health, heart disease, nutrition and weight, diabetes, and cancer. Other topics can be found here. Please share this information with your DPG through your communication channels to solicit DPG member feedback.

Policy Leaders: If you would like to provide input, please reach out to your PAL, whose contact information can be found on the Academy's Leadership Directory, if needed. The deadline for submission to your PAL is Friday, January 4, 2018.

Call for Nominations: Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee, Due December 20

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services seeks nominees for membership on the Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee. Since this committee advises CMS on determinations of Medicare coverage for various diagnoses and conditions, Academy participation could have substantial implications for increasing nutrition service coverage and access for Medicare participants.

Pat,

I appreciate the update on Academy Diversity and inclusion initiatives and echo Mary and Diane that the list is impressive. I also agree with Diane that I would like more information on the advantages to the possible merge of Membership Committee and Diversity Commitment and name change to Member Engagement, Diversity and Inclusion Committee. As to the D&I video hmm... does it adequately focus on our MIGs concerns? I am sure Doris and her team have more insight in this type of messaging than I do so am interested in what others think. One last suggestion, the Cultural Competency for Nutrition Professionals (eBook) could be offered for free to members highlighting the Academy's investment and commitment to diversity and inclusion.

Best regards,
Marcy

Wow! What a comprehensive look at Diversity programs and initiatives in place and plans to highlight and bring awareness to our members about diversity, inclusion and cultural competency.

I think it is important for the Academy to focus on an ISPP program for diverse populations. Without additional information I have reservations about merging the Membership Committee and the Diversity Committee. I am sure there will be further information provided to show the benefits of this merger for the Diversity Committee.

Thanks for all of your efforts!

Subject: Diversity &Inclusion

I have been reflecting about the conversation on our recent joint leadership call and last week's call with Manju. Doris and I are developing a Strategic Communications Plan spotlighting our diversity and inclusion efforts.

In addition to Diversity Committee, here some of Academy's current diversity and inclusion programs and initiatives:

- Diversity Mentoring Toolkit for Educators
- Diversity Awards and Grants
- Member Interest Groups
- ü Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, which includes:
  - § Chinese Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics
  - § Filipino Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics
- ü Cultures of Gender and Age, which includes:
  - § Thirty and Under in Nutrition and Dietetics
  - § Fifty Plus in Nutrition and Dietetics
  - § National Organization of Men in Nutrition and Dietetics
- ü RMIG: Religion MIG, which includes:
  - § Jewish (JMIG)
  - § Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition (MIDAN)
- ü Indians in Nutrition and Dietetics
- ü Latinos and Hispanics in Dietetics and Nutrition
- ü National Organization of Blacks in Nutrition and Dietetics
- Official Diversity Philosophy
- Cultural Competency Resources
- Mentoring programs

- Food and nutrition information in multiple languages
- Pan-ethnic images in all Academy messaging, such as membership brochures, official websites, social media efforts, during National Nutrition Month and on all marketing materials
- Grants and scholarships programs provided by the Academy, ACEND, CDR and the Foundation
- Academy's culturally diverse spokesperson program

I am excited about the new and different efforts, and your agreement, Mary, to do an April President's Page on the topic which will reach many members. Some of my other diversity and inclusion ideas follow.

- Develop a video for Member Showcase at FNCE at Philadelphia highlighting the Academy's efforts and objectives. Please take a moment to view this excellent D&I video that was forward by Wahida Karmally.
- Highlight former Diversity Award winners more visibly in videos and Board reports, including Member Showcase
- Focus the "On the Shoulders of Giants" FNCE session on Diversity, Inclusion and Cultural Competency in Philadelphia
- Focus an ISPP program for diverse populations
- Highlight diversity and inclusion in Academy Update presentation
- Widely promote the first-ever Diversity Excellence Award
- Prioritize past diversity leaders for committee appointments
- Revise the Academy's Diversity Strategic Plan and develop outcome measures (possibly merge Membership Committee and Diversity Commitment and change name to Member Engagement, Diversity and Inclusion Committee)
- Incorporate diversity and inclusion in the orientation for new committee members
- Develop a diversity and inclusion webinar for members
- Work closely with Diversify Dietetics group to highlight D&I efforts

I'm making progress on the Leadership Institute proposal, where we'll ensure diversity and inclusion are covered. These are just a few of the new and innovative ideas to underscore our efforts in this important effort.

Additionally, I contacted Richard Boykin yesterday and asked him to arrange a meeting with members of the Congressional Black Caucus, to lead a discussion with historically black colleges and universities to support the nutrition and dietetics profession and education. Paula Goedert will be nominating the Academy for the Diversity Award at Barnes and Thornburg annual celebration of diversity dinner. It is only fitting for the Academy to now receive the award considering we have been a longtime supporter and have been participating since the dinner's inception.

Please let me know your thoughts. Once I hear back from you, I will tailor this email as a response back to Aida and the current chair Teresa Turner and will request to participate in the Diversity Committee's call to apprise them of the Academy's spotlight on diversity and inclusion this coming year.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions. Look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,

Pat

I have been reflecting about the conversation on our recent joint leadership call and last week's call with Manju. Doris and I are developing a Strategic Communications Plan spotlighting our diversity and inclusion efforts.

In addition to Diversity Committee, here some of Academy's current diversity and inclusion programs and initiatives:

- Diversity Mentoring Toolkit for Educators
- Diversity Awards and Grants
- Member Interest Groups

ü Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, which includes:

§ Chinese Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ Filipino Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Cultures of Gender and Age, which includes:

§ Thirty and Under in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ Fifty Plus in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ National Organization of Men in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü RMIG: Religion MIG, which includes:

§ Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition (MIDAN)

ü Indians in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Latinos and Hispanics in Dietetics and Nutrition

ü National Organization of Blacks in Nutrition and Dietetics

- Official Diversity Philosophy
- Cultural Competency Resources
- Mentoring programs
- Food and nutrition information in multiple languages
- Pan-ethnic images in all Academy messaging, such as membership brochures, official websites, social media efforts, during National Nutrition Month and on all marketing materials
- Grants and scholarships programs provided by the Academy, ACEND, CDR and the Foundation
- Academy's culturally diverse spokesperson program

I am excited about the new and different efforts, and your agreement, Mary, to do an April President's Page on the topic which will reach many members. Some of my other diversity and inclusion ideas follow.

- Develop a video for Member Showcase at FNCE at Philadelphia highlighting the Academy's efforts and objectives. Please take a moment to view this excellent D&I video that was forward by Wahida Karmally.
- Highlight former Diversity Award winners more visibly in videos and Board reports, including Member Showcase
- Focus the "On the Shoulders of Giants" FNCE session on Diversity, Inclusion and Cultural Competency in Philadelphia
- Focus an ISPP program for diverse populations
- Highlight diversity and inclusion in Academy Update presentation
- Widely promote the first-ever Diversity Excellence Award

- Prioritize past diversity leaders for committee appointments
- Revise the Academy's Diversity Strategic Plan and develop outcome measures (possibly merge Membership Committee and Diversity Commitment and change name to Member Engagement, Diversity and Inclusion Committee)
- Incorporate diversity and inclusion in the orientation for new committee members
- Develop a diversity and inclusion webinar for members
- Work closely with Diversify Dietetics group to highlight D&I efforts

I'm making progress on the Leadership Institute proposal, where we'll ensure diversity and inclusion are covered. These are just a few of the new and innovative ideas to underscore our efforts in this important effort.

Additionally, I contacted Richard Boykin yesterday and asked him to arrange a meeting with members of the Congressional Black Caucus, to lead a discussion with historically black colleges and universities to support the nutrition and dietetics profession and education. Paula Goedert will be nominating the Academy for the Diversity Award at Barnes and Thornburg annual celebration of diversity dinner. It is only fitting for the Academy to now receive the award considering we have been a longtime supporter and have been participating since the dinner's inception.

Please let me know your thoughts. Once I hear back from you, I will tailor this email as a response back to Aida and the current chair Teresa Turner and will request to participate in the Diversity Committee's call to apprise them of the Academy's spotlight on diversity and inclusion this coming year.

Pat,
Wow! What a comprehensive look at Diversity programs and initiatives in place and plans to highlight and bring awareness to our members about diversity, inclusion and cultural competency. I think it is important for the Academy to focus on an ISPP program for diverse populations. Without additional information I have reservations about merging the Membership Committee and the Diversity Committee. I am sure there will be further information provided to show the benefits of this merger for the Diversity Committee.
Thanks for all of your efforts!
FYI I was not able to open the D&I video.

Dear Tony,

Thank you for sharing this wonderful opportunity for our students who are looking for internship rotations. We will post an announcement on our online message board for educators and include in our Foundation's weekly newsletter to reach our network of scholarship recipients. In addition, the position will be promoted in the January 15 issue of the Student Scoop e-Newsletter and will also be posted to the Student Liaison Community of Interest, encouraging dietetics and nutrition students to apply and share with their fellow students.

Best wishes for a successful program!

Hi Patricia-

Let me start by introducing myself -my name is Tony Sparber and I am the owner of Camp Pocono Trails. We operate a children's weight loss camp located in the Poconos in PA (approx 90 miles from New York City and Philadelphia). During their stay at camp our campers learn all about healthy eating and exercise from our professional, certified staff so they can continue to live a healthy lifestyle once they return home.

We are reaching out to you because we are looking for energetic, motivated nutrition majors who would like the opportunity to work first hand under and with our onsite Registered Dietician Nutritionists in implementing our nutrition program at camp. We can offer your students paid internship opportunities as well as life experience in working with our campers on a day to day basis and helping them to achieve their weight loss goals.

Some of their experiences will include:

Assisting with nutrition classes

Assisting with healthy cooking classes

Assisting with weight loss counseling

Helping to manage the food line at camp

Weigh ins and measurements of our campers

Experience dealing with different food allergies and diets

Below you will find our job description and details that we hope you will share with your nutrition majors.

I am also including a link to our website so you can watch our camp dvd and view our site to see all of our amazing success stories and accomplishments of our former campers! Besides eating healthy and exercising we offer our campers and staff a fun summer camp experience in a beautiful setting.

I can be reached at 800-365-0556 or feel free to email me with any questions. I look forward to hearing from you to discuss opportunities for your nutrition majors.

Marcy is available and is planning to attend. Hawaii does have additional budget to cover additional flight and hotel costs.

Please let me know if you all approve.

PS – Update on NH – yesterday I let them know, Mary, that you are available, but I inquired if they would want to coordinate a local Board member to keep costs low. They are deciding. They did say Nutrition Support is a topic they want as a secondary topic for members. So it may be a good fit for you. I'll let you know how they respond about if they want Ellen or Marcy (local).

Good morning everyone-
April 30 would work for me. I'd be happy to speak.

That said-Amy could you remind me which Board member was requested originally?

Considering travel expenses within their budget-assume Ellen or Marcy would be least costly.

The state should have an idea what they can "afford" and also whether they would like an additional presentation from a Board speaker.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I heard back from New Hampshire (their President was out for a surgery for a few weeks). I was awaiting for them to decide about either Ellen or Marcy attending (because they are closest and the meeting butted up again the Academy Board meeting). However, NH has actually decided to change the date of their meeting to April 30th. Which happens to fall on a Tuesday.

So I wanted to circle back to see if any of you are able/willing to attend on April 30 to Dover, NH. (I can also still ask Ellen or Marcy since they are closest, but wanted to ask you first).

Let me know what you think.

Thanks,

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

· Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Considering travel expenses within their budget-assume Ellen or Marcy would be least costly.

The state should have an idea what they can "afford" and also whether they would like an additional presentation from a Board speaker.

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

· Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

I have been reflecting about the conversation on our recent joint leadership call and last week's call with Manju. Doris and I are developing a Strategic Communications Plan spotlighting our diversity and inclusion efforts.

In addition to Diversity Committee, here some of Academy's current diversity and inclusion programs and initiatives:

- Diversity Mentoring Toolkit for Educators
- Diversity Awards and Grants
- Member Interest Groups

ü Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, which includes:

§ Chinese Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ Filipino Americans in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Cultures of Gender and Age, which includes:

§ Thirty and Under in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ Fifty Plus in Nutrition and Dietetics

§ National Organization of Men in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü RMIG: Religion MIG, which includes:

§ Jewish (JMIG)

§ Muslims in Dietetics and Nutrition (MIDAN)

ü Indians in Nutrition and Dietetics

ü Latinos and Hispanics in Dietetics and Nutrition

ü National Organization of Blacks in Nutrition and Dietetics

- Official Diversity Philosophy
- Cultural Competency Resources
- Mentoring programs
- Food and nutrition information in multiple languages
- Pan-ethnic images in all Academy messaging, such as membership brochures, official websites, social media efforts, during National Nutrition Month and on all marketing materials
- Grants and scholarships programs provided by the Academy, ACEND, CDR and the Foundation
- Academy's culturally diverse spokesperson program

I am excited about the new and different efforts, and your agreement, Mary, to do an April President's Page on the topic which will reach many members. Some of my other diversity and inclusion ideas follow.

- Develop a video for Member Showcase at FNCE at Philadelphia highlighting the Academy's efforts and objectives. Please take a moment to view this excellent D&I video that was forward by Wahida Karmally.
- Highlight former Diversity Award winners more visibly in videos and Board reports, including Member Showcase
- Focus the "On the Shoulders of Giants" FNCE session on Diversity, Inclusion and Cultural Competency in Philadelphia
- Focus an ISPP program for diverse populations

- Highlight diversity and inclusion in Academy Update presentation
- Widely promote the first-ever Diversity Excellence Award
- Prioritize past diversity leaders for committee appointments
- Revise the Academy's Diversity Strategic Plan and develop outcome measures (possibly merge Membership Committee and Diversity Commitment and change name to Member Engagement, Diversity and Inclusion Committee)
- Incorporate diversity and inclusion in the orientation for new committee members
- Develop a diversity and inclusion webinar for members
- Work closely with Diversify Dietetics group to highlight D&I efforts

I'm making progress on the Leadership Institute proposal, where we'll ensure diversity and inclusion are covered. These are just a few of the new and innovative ideas to underscore our efforts in this important effort.

Additionally, I contacted Richard Boykin yesterday and asked him to arrange a meeting with members of the Congressional Black Caucus, to lead a discussion with historically black colleges and universities to support the nutrition and dietetics profession and education. Paula Goedert will be nominating the Academy for the Diversity Award at Barnes and Thornburg annual celebration of diversity dinner. It is only fitting for the Academy to now receive the award considering we have been a longtime supporter and have been participating since the dinner's inception.

Please let me know your thoughts. Once I hear back from you, I will tailor this email as a response back to Aida and the current chair Teresa Turner and will request to participate in the Diversity Committee's call to apprise them of the Academy's spotlight on diversity and inclusion this coming year.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions. Look forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,

Pat

Hello everyone,

As we discussed in Pittsburgh, we are arranging for a teleconference to continue the discussion on enhancing the Childhood program content. Please see Kathy's notes before from our November 2, 2018 dinner meeting. I have included a link to a Doodle Poll to obtain your availability for a call later in the month and the first couple of days in December. Please provide your availability by Friday, November 16, 2018. Let me know if we should invite any other faculty members to join this teleconference. Please keep the following in mind in discussing enhancements the program:

- 1) We cannot add any new sessions. Any new content must be added to current sessions.
- 2) Any changes to the pre-work will be made during the annual review which is conducted over the summer.

<https://doodle.com/poll/wbtx3dqgx48f9dak>

Brief Notes from 11/2/18 dinner

1. Update Craig's slides – readdress stigma and mental health issues; e.g., depression, suicide - possible incorporate into breakout session???
2. Need for RD's to identify warning signs depression/suicide/etc. and when to refer out
3. Need to address Obesity coding - may fit easily into Vanessa's presentation
4. Dana & Deb look at environmental piece duplications get together next week – outcome?
5. Susan incorporate basics of bariatric surgery into pre work – free up time for presentation practical issues
6. Pearlie send out listing of accepted defined terms to use for communication with and about persons with the disease of obesity
7. Need to address parent piece – big gap – discuss practical issues, e.g., when to bring in, when to ask to leave, through the years- Craig addresses with his slides at the end but more practice maybe in breakout sessions???

RDNs need skills to identify early signs of depression/suicide to refer out – not only diagnostic tests – but practical signs. That is why the recent article, "Children Who Are Obese May Struggle in School" was of interest to me.

Hi Amy,

Yes, I can make this work and I will talk with Mary and if she would like to have Ellen Shanley or someone closer we can do that as well!

Thanks so much! It is very exciting that they are requesting a visit and I appreciate all the hard work that makes this a success!

Terri and Donna,

Joan and I are working through schedules for affiliate meetings. For New Jersey, Mary has a conflict and is unable to attend. Are either of you available to join NJ on April 26?

Thanks,

Amy, so sorry we are taking a short vacation and I am behind on email. I agree with Donna that we should support both requests.

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Thanks much.

Subject: Affiliate Speaker Grant - Application Approval

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: “If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast).”
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

News from the Hill and Beyond

Farm Bill and Appropriation Votes Expected During Next Two Weeks

Leaders from the farm bill conference committee have reached an agreement but have not yet released details of the new bill believed to be closely aligned with the Senate's earlier version. Votes on the farm bill and the pending appropriation bills will likely be delayed as Congress places legislative agenda items on hold in order to honor former President George H.W. Bush, who passed away over the weekend. A short-term appropriations measure is reportedly being considered in order to fund several agencies, including the USDA and FDA, and to avoid a government shutdown if the current continuing resolution expires this Friday, December 7.

Member Updates and Professional Development

Opportunity to Serve on Academy Committees and Task Forces for 2019-2020

It is that time of year again where members are encouraged to submit their qualifications and interest in serving on appointed national-level Academy committees and task forces for 2019-2020. There are 21 standing committees, including the Legislative and Public Policy Committee, the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee; a full list can be found here. Please fill out the survey by January 9, 2019 to be considered for any of the positions available.

USDA Seeks SNAP-Ed Toolkit Reviewers and Interventions for Review

USDA is looking to build a diverse team of experts in the field of nutrition and obesity prevention to review and expand the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Reviewers are asked to thoroughly assess up to three interventions and supporting materials and determine what should be included in the SNAP-Ed toolkit. Each intervention review is estimated to take 5 hours. Reviewers will need to complete one hour of training via webinar, scheduled for Wednesday, March 20, 2019. Check out the website for more information.

If interested in being a reviewer, please send an email with your resume, CV, or biosketch, as well as a brief account of your interest by Friday, February 1, 2019.

If interested in submitting an intervention for review, please fill out the interest form. You will receive an official invitation to submit January 7, 2019.

Public Policy Open Forums

Update! December Forum Topic Change

The original topic of Strategic Measures for the December Forum has been postponed until January. The new forum topic for this month will be Public Policy Workshop 2018 Debrief. Here is the updated Public Policy Open Forum schedule:

December

PPW 2018 Debrief and Next Steps - Register

- Tuesday, December 18, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time

January

Malnutrition Advocacy In-District and Policy Update for the New 116th Congress - Register

- Tuesday, January 15, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- Introduction to this quarter's advocacy topic of malnutrition advocacy in-district and an update from the Policy Initiatives and Advocacy team in Washington D.C. on what to expect in the 116th Congress.

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Tuesday, January 29, 2018, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time
- Overview of the FY2018 Strategic Measures Report with results and recommendations going forward.

November Open Forum Recording on the COI

The recording from November Public Policy Open Forum, Achieving Your Policy Goals through Advocacy, held on November 27, 2018, is now on the COI. Please be sure to fill out the evaluation survey included in the folder as we take your responses into account and make improvements based on your feedback!

STAR Training Recording from November 29 Now Available

The State Advocacy Training: Putting Advocacy into Action held last week on November 29 has been recorded and posted to the COI. The training lays the groundwork for the development of state and local level coalitions convening stakeholders around obesity care. The training is intended for SPRs, as well as RRs, SRSs, and other affiliate policy leaders and includes a State Advocacy Representative 'STAR' handbook that goes over state advocacy as it pertains to obesity care. Stay tuned for additional details and next steps in coalition building.

Addressing Malnutrition in VA Hospitals and Beyond: Lessons and Opportunities for Non-VA Organizations - Register

The Veterans Administration has long been focused on ensuring it meets the nutrition needs of its population and has undertaken significant efforts in recent years to support better malnutrition care, both within and beyond the hospital. Learn more on Thursday, December 6 from 1-2 p.m. Eastern Time on a VA-focused webinar offered as part of the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative. Attendees will learn from the VA's experience and how to apply malnutrition quality improvement activities to non-VA facilities. Register today and to send questions you have for the speakers in advance.

Latest Issue of MNT Provider Newsletter

Learn how RDNs can impact the rising incidence and cost of diabetes and prediabetes, read about modernized USPSTF recommendations on obesity screening for adults, and get caught up on recent efforts undertaken by the Academy to expand coverage for MNT under Medicare in the latest issue of the MNT Provider.

Comment Opportunity: Proposed Objectives for Healthy People 2030

Every decade, the Healthy People initiative develops a new set of science-based, 10-year national objectives with the goal of improving the health of all Americans through encouraging multi-sectorial cross-community collaborations, empowering individuals toward making informed health decisions and measuring the impact of prevention activities. In preparation for HP2030, the Office for Disease Promotion and Health Prevention has issued a request for comments on objectives to be included its next 10-year plan.

HP2030 is particularly important to the Academy as it helps to reinforce federal nutrition policy guidelines and drive research into selected areas and topics that could directly impact nutrition knowledge and affect MNT standards of practice.

PALs: we would like you to coordinate the collection of comments for proposed objectives across health sectors that include: maternal/infant/child health, heart disease, nutrition and weight, diabetes, and cancer. Other topics can be found here. Please share this information with your DPG through your communication channels to solicit DPG member feedback.

Policy Leaders: If you would like to provide input, please reach out to your PAL, whose contact information can be found on the Academy's Leadership Directory, if needed. The deadline for submission to your PAL is Friday, January 4, 2018.

Call for Nominations: Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee, Due December 20

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services seeks nominees for membership on the Medicare Evidence Development & Coverage Advisory Committee. Since this committee advises CMS on determinations of Medicare coverage for various diagnoses and conditions, Academy participation could have substantial implications for increasing nutrition service coverage and access for Medicare participants.

Interested candidates should send their CV and a brief letter of interest describing their basis for nomination to Mark Rifkin by December 20, 2018.

Action Alerts

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency - the voice of every member is critical.

Take action today!

Advocacy Tip: Getting in Touch with the 116th Congress

As midterm elections have come to a close, new members of Congress are busy making moves to Washington DC and setting themselves up in-district. If you are trying to schedule a meeting with a new member, wait until January, as many do not know where their offices will be for the remainder of this year, let alone next year.

---

Interested in learning more on how to engage the 116th Congress? Our partners at the Congressional Management Foundation are offering a webinar, Building Relationships with the New Congress on Thursday, December 13 at 1 p.m. Eastern Time where they will cover how to frame issues that matter to Congress and will share the five proven-effective remedies that advocates can use to build and strengthen relationships with their new members. Register today!

Thumbs Up

Academy Member Appointed as Co-Leader of NM DOH Transition Team

Academy member Patty Keane, MS, RD, has been appointed to New Mexico Governor-elect Michelle Lujan Grisham's Transition Team for the NM Department of Health. There are 17 members of the team, most of whom are doctors, and Keane will serve as the co-lead for the DOH transition team with two other transition leaders. This appointment is testament to the impact that long-term grassroots advocacy and sustained relationships can have on policy. Congratulations, Patty!

Do you have a Thumbs Up submission for PPWN? We'd love to highlight the work that you do to advance nutrition policy and the profession for all of us. Send photos and a quick write-up about your recent policy accomplishments to Nate Stritzinger.

Dear NDEP Members –

NDEP is pleased to announce the 2019 Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award nominations are now being accepted! The purpose of the Outstanding Dietetics Educator Award (ODEA) is to recognize the teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of faculty in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. One educator can be selected from each of the four program types in each geographic region (a maximum of four awardees from each of the six geographic regions for a total of 24).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding educators in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-line, each awardee will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Winners will also receive complimentary registration to the 2019 NDEP Spring regional meeting of their choice and will be presented with their awards!

Eligibility

- Nominees must be a current member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and a current member of Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Preceptors are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Preceptors.
- Active NDEP Council members are not eligible for this award. For a listing of the current NDEP Council members go to www.ndepnet.org.
- Previous ODEA winners cannot be nominated for the same program award again; however, they could be nominated for an award for a different program type, if applicable.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Member of the Nutrition and Dietetics Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Group
- Educator and/or Program Director in an ACEND-accredited dietetics education program:
  - . Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)
  - Dietetic Internship (DI)
  - Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD)
  - Dietetic Technician Program (DT)

- Demonstrated Active Learning Strategy/ Student Centered Techniques
- Demonstrated Dietetics Mentoring Experience (Outside of role as faculty or director-not including current students/interns. Includes previous students/interns now considered professionals).
- Demonstrated leadership in Education and Dietetics; e.g., national, state, or district dietetic association activities, community service, honors received, scientific and professional presentations, publications, etc.

Selection Procedure and Submission Dates

Nominations from peers and/or students will be sent to the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Regional Director in the corresponding geographic area by January 11, 2019. Each Regional Director will select no more than one educator for each type of dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, DT) in the region (maximum four per region).

Each nomination application will be a single PDF that includes the ODEA Data Sheet, curriculum vitae (or resume), and three reference letters. Nominations must be sent electronically. Jpeg documents or individual documents will not be accepted. Additional materials beyond the requested materials (data sheet, CV, letters) will not be reviewed.

Award Winners will be announced in March 2019!

For more information, please visit the NDEP website at www.ndepnet.org, NDEP Portal Library and refer to the attached documents for criteria and data sheets!

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Did You Know ...? Licensure and Professional Regulation of Dietitians

Did you know 47 states, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia have statutory provisions regulating the nutrition and dietetics profession or associated titles such as "dietitian" and "nutritionist"? The Academy is dedicated to protecting consumers from harm by unqualified individuals by maintaining existing dietetics licensure laws and enacting or strengthening laws in states that lack sufficient regulations to protect the public.

Farm Bill and Appropriation Votes Expected During Next Two Weeks

Leaders from a House-Senate conference committee have reached an agreement but have not released details of a new farm bill that is believed to be similar to the Senate's earlier version. Votes on the farm bill and pending appropriation likely will be delayed temporarily, following the death of former President George H.W. Bush. A short-term appropriations measure reportedly is being considered to fund several agencies, including the Department of Agriculture and the Food and Drug Administration, and to avoid a government shutdown if the current continuing resolution expires on December 7.

FDA Encourages Consumers: Check Harvest Location Labels

Although labeling regulations do not require produce to carry information regarding place-of-origin, the Food and Drug Administration suggests all romaine lettuce should reflect the harvest date and location; the FDA is encouraging consumers to avoid any romaine from the Central Coast of California or that does not reflect that information. The FDA's recommendations does not yet extend to other types of lettuce or fresh produce. The Academy supports efforts empowering consumers to make informed purchases and that expedite food recalls.

Education Module to Assist with Menu Labeling Compliance

The Food and Drug Administration has released an online education resource to help industry, regulators and consumers understand and comply with new menu labeling regulations. The regulations apply to restaurants and similar retail food establishments that meet criteria such as being part of a chain of 20 or more locations. The Academy continues to support the availability of accurate nutrition information as a tool for consumers.

Use the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Health Informatics Infrastructure to track patient outcomes and identify interventions that work. Every visit entry added to ANDHII's Dietetics Outcomes Registry contributes to real-world research on nutrition outcomes and the effectiveness of registered dietitian nutritionists. The latest ANDHII release includes new enhancements for the Crosstab Report which compares data for a group of patients across visits. ANDHII is available for free to all Academy members and CDR-credentialed practitioners. Students can use ANDHII to improve your understanding and application of the Nutrition Care Process and Terminology and outcomes research.

RESEARCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Seeking Sites for Malnutrition Clinical Characteristics Study

The Academy's Nutrition Research Network is conducting a study to validate the malnutrition clinical characteristics - a set of criteria used to diagnose malnutrition in hospitalized adults and children. The study will also examine the amount and level of registered dietitian nutritionist's care necessary to improve patient medical outcomes, both overall and in the context of malnutrition. The NRN is recruiting 60 adult and 60 pediatric inpatient facilities. There is a financial incentive for participating sites and CPEUs will be provided to research RDNs who attend the in-person training. Donna,

Our committee would be thrilled if you could provide a presentation on the history of school nutrition. Let me know of the title of your presentation, three learning objectives, and 3-4 learning needs codes. Our committee was thinking a small portion of your time on the Academy Update and a majority of your speaking time with your topic. We would be happy to provide hotel and travel. Because we are requesting a majority of your time to speak on your personal experience as a dietitian in school nutrition and foodservice wondering if you intend to request honorarium? Joan Schwaba had e-mailed me a template/contract I will be working with Terry McBride our Illinois Executive Director in filling out. Let me know if you have any questions.

Donna,

Our committee would be thrilled if you could provide a presentation on the history of school nutrition. Let me know of the title of your presentation, three learning objectives, and 3-4 learning needs codes. Our committee was thinking a small portion of your time on the Academy Update and a majority of your speaking time with your topic. We would be happy to provide hotel and travel. Because we are requesting a majority of your time to speak on your personal experience as a dietitian in school nutrition and foodservice wondering if you intend to request honorarium? Joan Schwaba had e-mailed me a template/contract I will be working with Terry McBride our Illinois

Executive Director in filling out. Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Hi Donna,

Your History of School Nutrition sounds interesting! Hope they can give you more time to adequately cover both topics. I see you just replied to Sara and sorry I'm late on the draw with the proposed learning objectives for the Academy Update (although I know it's currently under review). Would you like me to send directly to her, or would you prefer to?

Thank you!

1000 Professional Skills (I); 1080 Legislative and Public Policy (I); 4100 Social Marketing (I); 7200 Team Building (II); 7050 Customer Focus (II)

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

The primary objective of Academy Update 2019 is to highlight current activities and recent developments at the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the Foundation. The presentation:

1. Spotlights new and continuing benefits of Academy membership, such as resources available to assist members in their personal and professional growth;
2. Emphasizes the value of the Academy and members to our profession and challenges we face;
3. Contains information on the Academy's Strategic Plan; and updates members on the progress of the Foundation.

Hi Mary,

They did not put a Board member name on the request, and said they would welcome any Board member who is available. Given the conflict for the three of you on the original date that's why I proposed Ellen or Marcy to them initially. Which I'm happy to stick with if we want.

Their speaker grant application gives a little insight into their expenses. They've been operating on a deficit for years and are working to reduce or offset expenses for a breakeven.

Good morning everyone-

April 30 would work for me. I'd be happy to speak.

That said-Amy could you remind me which Board member was requested originally?

Considering travel expenses within their budget-assume Ellen or Marcy would be least costly.

The state should have an idea what they can “afford” and also whether they would like an additional presentation from a Board speaker.

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

- Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

· Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."

- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Thanks much.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: “If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast).”
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I heard back from New Hampshire (their President was out for a surgery for a few weeks). I was awaiting for them to decide about either Ellen or Marcy attending (because they are closest and the meeting butted up again the Academy Board meeting). However, NH has actually decided to change the date of their meeting to April 30th. Which happens to fall on a Tuesday.

So I wanted to circle back to see if any of you are able/willing to attend on April 30 to Dover, NH. (I can also still ask Ellen or Marcy since they are closest, but wanted to ask you first).

Let me know what you think.

Thanks,

Amy

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

. I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

- Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Hello everyone,

As we discussed in Pittsburgh, we are arranging for a teleconference to continue the discussion on enhancing the Childhood program content. Please see Kathy's notes before from our November 2, 2018 dinner meeting. I have included a link to a Doodle Poll to obtain your availability for a call later in the month and the first couple of days in December. Please provide your availability by Friday, November 16, 2018. Let me know if we should invite any other faculty members to join this teleconference. Please keep the following in mind in discussing enhancements the program:

- 1) We cannot add any new sessions. Any new content must be added to current sessions.
- 2) Any changes to the pre-work will be made during the annual review which is conducted over the summer.

<https://doodle.com/poll/wbtX3dqgx48f9dak>

Brief Notes from 11/2/18 dinner

1. Update Craig's slides – readdress stigma and mental health issues; e.g., depression, suicide - possible incorporate into breakout session???
2. Need for RD's to identify warning signs depression/suicide/etc. and when to refer out
3. Need to address Obesity coding - may fit easily into Vanessa's presentation
4. Dana & Deb look at environmental piece duplications get together next week – outcome?
5. Susan incorporate basics of bariatric surgery into pre work – free up time for presentation practical issues
6. Pearlie send out listing of accepted defined terms to use for communication with and about persons with the disease of obesity
7. Need to address parent piece – big gap – discuss practical issues, e.g., when to bring in, when to ask to leave, through the years- Craig addresses with his slides at the end but more practice maybe in breakout sessions???

RDNs need skills to identify early signs of depression/suicide to refer out – not only diagnostic tests – but practical signs. That is why the recent article, “Children Who Are Obese May Struggle in School” was of interest to me.

Our committee would be thrilled if you could provide a presentation on the history of school nutrition. Let me know of the title of your presentation, three learning objectives, and 3-4 learning needs codes. Our committee was thinking a small portion of your time on the Academy Update and a majority of your speaking time with your topic. We would be happy to provide hotel and

Donna,

Our committee would be thrilled if you could provide a presentation on the history of school nutrition. Let me know of the title of your presentation, three learning objectives, and 3-4 learning needs codes. Our committee was thinking a small portion of your time on the Academy Update and a majority of your speaking time with your topic. We would be happy to provide hotel and travel. Because we are requesting a majority of your time to speak on your personal experience as a dietitian in school nutrition and foodservice wondering if you intend to request honorarium? Joan Schwaba had e-mailed me a template/contract I will be working with Terry McBride our Illinois Executive Director in filling out. Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Donna, lets plan on next week to touch base. Do either of the following times work for you:

Mon 12/10 - at 2:00 MST (4:00 EST)

Thurs 12/13 at 1:30 MST (3:30 EST)

Friday 12/14 at 2:00 MST (4:00 EST)

If not, are there any days/times next week that work for you?

We think the leadership presentation sounds like something that would be engaging and rewarding for our membership!

Thanks,

Paige

Paige, I can talk either tomorrow, Wednesday December 5th or I am pretty wide open next week if you want to pick some times. I would be happy to do an academy update and a talk on either The History of School Nutrition, our Farm to School Program or I have a leadership presentation I do that is very interactive with the audience sharing tips on leadership skills. Whatever works best for you is what I can do. Just let me know what times might work.

Patty, While this is exciting news it is certainly not unexpected. You have been such a champion for Michelle Lujan Grisham and worked so hard on her campaign. You will be such an inspiration to other RDN's around the country on the power of grassroots advocacy. I can't wait to see what all you will get accomplished by being a co-lead for the DOH transition team. Go Patty go! I am super proud of you.

Good morning, ladies! I wanted to share the good news that I have been appointed to Governor-elect Michelle Lujan Grisham's Transition Team for the New Mexico Department of Health (DOH). There are 17 members of the DOH transition team, mostly doctors, and I am a co-lead with two others on the team (Christina Campos, a hospital administrator, and Cliff Rees, a former DOH lawyer, now retired).

We have an extraordinary amount of work to finish in a ridiculously short timeline (and of course this is all on a volunteer basis on top of my job and other volunteer commitments) so I will be much busier than normal for the month of December, but I think it is exciting that we have an incoming Governor who values nutrition enough to put a registered dietitian on the transition team in the first place, let alone in a role as co-lead. In my opinion, a testament to the impact of long term grassroots advocacy and our relationship development while Michelle has been in Congress. :)

If the Academy is interested in more info, let me know. There is a press release on the team appointments here:

Nutrition Communication

Greetings!

In mid-November, I sent out the following invitation and to date have heard from about a dozen of you expressing interest in our second pilot test. I would like to firm up our list by next week, so if you are interested, please let me know.

I am serving as Editor-in-Chief for an exciting project: the creation of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Guide to Nutrition Communication. Currently, the revision of the book is nearing completion and we will be entering the production stage at the beginning of next year. This fall we piloted book sections with potential end-users, namely nutrition students in undergraduate, graduate, and internship programs. Many others wished to participate but were unable to until spring semester. Therefore, we have decided to offer the opportunity to participate in Academic Review 2.0 during spring semester 2019.

You are receiving this email because you:

- were involved in an interview during the initial planning process prior to developing the book, or
- served as an author for one or more chapters, or
- served as a reviewer for one or more book sections, or
- expressed interest in piloting a portion of the book.

One of the goals for the book was to actively involve the audience during its development and creation. As you may be aware, the initial development was informed by surveys and interviews with educators involved in a variety of dietetics education programs, as well as with practitioners in the field. This information directed the breadth and depth of content included, as well as an emphasis on practical application of knowledge. Authors and reviewers throughout the writing process represented both practitioners and educators. Piloting the revised manuscripts allows us to solicit further input from instructors, students, and practicing nutrition and dietetics professionals. This will allow us to “practice what we preach” in the book – which is involving the audience in all stages of the development of nutrition communication.

As the book will be in production at this time, we are not seeking suggestions for changes to the text. The purpose of this “pilot” is to gain insights into how the book will be used, what its outstanding features are, and to solicit ideas for potential ideas that may supplement the book in ancillary materials. This will also allow you to be prepared to implement the book upon publication.

If you are interested in participating in Academic Review 2.0, please reply and you will be sent a document that fully outlines the entire book. You will be asked to select one or more complete sections to pilot. The book contains 8 sections and each section is composed of 3-7 chapters. Refer to the attached document for a brief table of contents for the text. Sections will be provided as PDF proofs that have not gone through the final editing or design process and will still be in manuscript form. Final images and diagrams are still being selected and created. You will have permission to post chapters online or copy for students for the sole purpose of piloting their use. All sections will be available at the start of the semester, giving you maximum flexibility in planning when to implement their use.

Participants will be given links to an online survey to complete for each chapter reviewed. The survey asks respondents (both instructors and students) to describe how a chapter was used or could be used; rate readability and content; and suggest potential activities and discussion questions that could be shared with future users.

You are welcome to forward this invitation to other dietetics educators. Please tell them to indicate who they received the invitation from when they send me a request to participate. If you are not interested in participating, there is no need to reply. Please inform us of your interest by December 10th to plan accordingly. Indicating interest does not commit you to participation.

Once you review the documents with more detail about chapter contents, you may determine your involvement.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Barb

Good morning,

As national leaders, your responsibilities include helping to identify others within the association who possess leadership skills and talents that support the work of the association and help move our Strategic Plan forward. With that role in mind, it is time once again for members to indicate their interest in volunteering on national committees and task forces. The "Opportunities to Serve" survey is now available online at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/HRPCW6J>

Individuals interested in volunteering to serve must complete this survey by January 9, 2019. A description of each committee is available via a link in the "Opportunities to Serve" survey. Members already appointed to serve on an Academy committee or task force for 2019-2020 do not need to complete the Opportunities to Serve Survey. We ask that you share this information with colleagues who may be interested in volunteering on an Academy committee or task force or that you would like to encourage to do so. Also, if you are completing your term of service on the Board of Directors and wish to be considered for one of these positions, please complete the survey.

The information provided when completing this survey will be critical to Terri and Diane as they make appointments for the various Academy committees and task forces throughout the 2019-2020 program year. Although we cannot ensure that everyone who completes the survey will be selected to serve, every effort will be made to consider their unique talents during the appointment process.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the survey, please contact me at mschofield@eatright.org or 1-800-877-1600 ext. 1762. Thank you for helping to identify individuals for consideration for these important appointments.

View in browser.

As a reminder, you have been selected to participate in an AMA/Specialty Society RVS Update Committee (RUC) survey for three new CPT codes recently approved for use in 2020:

98X00

Qualified nonphysician healthcare professional online digital evaluation and management service, for an established patient, for up to seven days, cumulative time during the 7 days; 5-10 minutes

98X01

Qualified nonphysician healthcare professional online digital evaluation and management service, for an established patient, for up to seven days, cumulative time during the 7 days; 11-20 minutes

98X02

Qualified nonphysician healthcare professional online digital evaluation and management service, for an established patient, for up to seven days, cumulative time during the 7 days; 21 or more minutes

In 2020, these three new codes will replace existing CPT code 98969 (Online assessment and management service provided by a qualified nonphysician health care professional to an established patient or guardian, not originating from a related assessment and management services provided within the previous 7 days, using the Internet or similar electronic communication network).

This survey should take 20 – 25 minutes of your time.

Please use the following link to complete the survey by Monday, December 10, 2018:

https://survey.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_elkUeDiKXV4Durb

NOTE: If you exit the survey, your changes are saved automatically. When you reopen the link on the same computer, you will be taken to the last page you viewed and allowed to continue.

The RUC is a unique, multi-specialty committee dedicated to describing the resources required to provide physician and other qualified healthcare professional services. Its recommendations are based on data collected from surveys of practicing qualified healthcare professionals regarding the qualified healthcare professional work involved in performing CPT codes. The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) considers this input when developing Relative Value Units (RVUs). The components of the Medicare physician payment schedule are physician work, practice expense, and professional liability insurance.

We need your help to assure relative values will be accurately and fairly presented to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). Please note, you do not need to respond to the questions for all of the codes in this survey. You may not have recent experience with one or more of the procedures. We ask that you provide responses for those services about which you have direct professional knowledge and feel comfortable answering, whether or not you currently perform the service. The information you provide in this AMA survey will be kept confidential by the Academy and others involved in the survey process. For a better understanding of the AMA/Specialty Society Relative Value Scale Update Committee process, you can watch the video, Understanding the RUC Survey Instrument: Non-Physician Qualified Healthcare Professionals. It describes the survey process and provides general information on the standard RUC survey instrument.

Your input is vital to the success of this process and we appreciate your time.

If you have any questions about this survey, please contact Marsha Schofield, MS, RD, LD, FAND, the Academy's Senior Director of Governance, at 1-800-877-1600 ext. 1762 or mschofield@eatright.org.

Thanks for your note, always love connecting with you! I did chuckle though as you wondered if I am still a member. The answer is a strong yes since I have been an active member for over 40 years. I am retired but not dead. LOL

I have ruminated on your request before answering. There is no question of your stellar qualifications. I wonder though if being added to the ballot through petition is the best for everyone. I have observed this done in the past and the only outcome was that the candidates selected interpreted the action as they were inadequate. I have never been to a nominating committee meeting but I envision there are many factors in building a ballot. I have worked with both candidates within the Academy and with outside partners and found both excellent leaders.

Finally, having worked in the area of elected leaders here in DC, it is my experience that these challenges tend to divide and not unify. And that does not seem to fit your style.

I think you are an excellent leader and hope you will continue to provide your expertise to our members. There are many opportunities besides the President position that would highlight your skills. Thanks again for reaching out.

Thanks for your note, always love connecting with you! I did chuckle though as you wondered if I am still a member. The answer is a strong yes since I have been an active member for over 40 years. I am retired but not dead. LOL

I have ruminated on your request before answering. There is no question of your stellar qualifications. I wonder though if being added to the ballot through petition is the best for everyone. I have observed this done in the past and the only outcome was that the candidates selected interpreted the action as they were inadequate. I have never been to a nominating committee meeting but I envision there are many factors in building a ballot. I have worked with both candidates within the Academy and with outside partners and found both excellent leaders.

Finally, having worked in the area of elected leaders here in DC, it is my experience that these challenges tend to divide and not unify. And that does not seem to fit your style.

I think you are an excellent leader and hope you will continue to provide your expertise to our members. There are many opportunities besides the President position that would highlight your skills. Thanks again for reaching out.

News from the Hill and Beyond

Farm Bill Talks Stalled on Forestry Title as Congress Enters Final Days

Senator Pat Roberts (Kan.) stated this week that the final major hurdle on a conference report for the farm bill rests with the forestry title, hinting that a deal could be reached before the end of the current Congress if talks progress. The House version of the bill included provisions that intended to support “active management” of the nation’s forests and is supported by USDA Secretary Sonny Perdue. Although Sen. Roberts’ comments suggest that consensus has been reached on other issues such as SNAP, details have not emerged regarding the work requirements for participants which was previously a point of contention for the four conference committee leaders. Congress Returns to Looming Deadline and Potential Government Shutdown

With only 10 work days remaining in the 115th Congress, the likelihood of a government shutdown has increased with the current continuing resolution – or appropriations bill, set to expire on December 7*. Lawmakers reportedly have not been able to reach consensus over border wall funding and other issues such as cuts to foreign aid programs and the State Department. If an agreement is not reached, another short- or long-term continuing resolution could be passed to avert a shutdown, thereby funding federal programs at the previous fiscal year levels.

*Breaking Down the Federal Budget: Continuing Resolutions

A continuing resolution or “CR” is an appropriations bill that sets aside money for the government to operate when the current fiscal year’s appropriation bill expires; the government budget operates from October 1 through September 30 each year. The current CR, set to expire on December 7, was passed when a 2019 appropriations bill was not passed by the deadline. Continuing resolutions usually extend funding at a rate or formula based on the previous year’s funding levels until a specific date or until regular appropriations bills are passed.

Regulatory Roundup - Proposed Public Charge Rule

The Academy is seeking DPG and MIG input on a newly proposed rule, “Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds,” which expands the ability of the Department of Homeland Security to determine whether an undocumented immigrant is inadmissible to the U.S. because he or she is likely at any time to become a public charge (i.e., receiving public assistance). The proposed rule fundamentally redefines what it means to be a “public charge”—whereas it currently means whether one was primarily dependent on a limited set of social services, the proposed rule expands the set of triggering social services to include SNAP, and government health insurance programs like Medicaid, Medicare, and possibly CHIP. Information about impacts on access to healthcare, food security, and education particular helpful to the Academy.

We encourage members to review the suggested elements of draft comments by Academy partner, the Food Research and Action Center; additional content used in preparing comments can be found here and in the FRAC Comment Toolkit.

Send comments to your DPG PAL or MIG leaders by Tuesday, November 27.

PALs, please plan to review the regulatory opportunities section each week and share the information with your executive board or team.

PAL Monthly Call - November 29, 2018

The next PAL monthly call will be held this Thursday, November 29, 2018, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds
- Use of the Names of Dairy Foods in the Labeling of Plant-Based Products
- An update on DGA 2020-2025 working groups.

Come prepared to share and discuss. We hope to see all of our PALs there!

Advocacy and Action Center

Action Alerts

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency around this election time. The voice of every member is critical.

Take action today!

Take Action!

Advocacy Tip: Build Relationships In-District

Meeting with members of Congress is an effective way to advocate for nutrition policy and to make our issues heard. According to our partner, the Congressional Management Foundation, almost three-quarters of legislative staff said that meetings between constituents and representatives, senators or staff are important for understanding constituent views. Additionally, conducting meetings in-district are 1.4 times more effective for building relationships than meeting in Washington, D.C.

Consider building a network of advocates in your state by identifying go-to members in each congressional district who can serve as a point of contact. Empower these members to meet with their members and staff in-district to share Academy's priorities. Sometimes a personal ask leveraged through a strong relationship is the best way to push policy forward.

Speaking of campaigning- - it is a sore point with Tammy. She feels that although she and the other candidates can't begin campaigning, Linda is already doing it as part of her petition, and I agree. What never gets asked or answered is what do you bring to the table the others don't?

It's fascinating to consider the fact that in spite of the broad discretion to allow write ins currently in place, we rarely have them-in spite of the presence (sometimes) of several interested people in the "pool".

Interesting to read the last sentence of the HA email, which might be construed to suggest that the person might not be able to "campaign" depending on the definition of "prior to online voting".

She doesn't have the minions she thought she did since she still hasn't met the 500 signature requirement. We already have on the agenda for the next Nominating Committee call a request to increase the number to at minimum a 1000 signatures. In addition, we need to identify a maximum number for the write ins allowed since now by sheer luck we only have the one person. We could, with the way the process is written, have 10+'write ins for a position! Joan is benchmarking what other like organizations do and most do not offer this option. We need think about not allowing write ins also, but once you have this option, it's hard to take it away. People get suspicious. The 5% required to be on a DPG ballot was seen as reasonable based on the various sizes of the DPGs. We can certainly revisit that number as well. A lot to munch on, Donna!

Why is the Academy different than the DPG's? My email was just food for thought as we explore what we think the number ought to be for write in

Nominating Committee (vote for 2):

Ashley Chrisinger, MS, RD, CSO

Jonathan Valdez, MBA, RDN, CSG, CDN, CCM, ACE-CPT

According to Academy policy, a slate of candidates must be presented Healthy Aging DPG membership 30 days prior to the start of voting. Should you wish to petition that additional candidates be included on the ballot slate, you must submit a petition to the HA DPG Nominating Committee by contacting Carol Berg Sloan at cbcrd@verizon.net within the next 30 days by January 4, 2019.

You must also have the support with signatures of 5% or 84 HA DPG members. Petitions must include biographical information on the candidate and qualifications for the HA DPG leadership position. If deemed eligible for the position by the Academy DPG/MIG Relations Team, the additional candidates will be added to a contested ballot prior to the start of online voting, beginning February 1, 2019.

Thank you,

That is exactly what members have been saying to me. What makes her better than the two on the ballot? When does she have to get the 500 signatures in by?

It's fascinating to consider the fact that in spite of the broad discretion to allow write ins currently in place, we rarely have them-in spite of the presence (sometimes) of several interested people in the "pool".

Interesting to read the last sentence of the HA email, which might be construed to suggest that the person might not be able to "campaign" depending on the definition of "prior to online voting".

SNA/SNF Headquarters On the Move

SNA/SNF Headquarters On the Move

Our boxes and crates are packed, and we're ready to relocate the Headquarters office for SNA and SNF from Maryland to Arlington, Virginia!

SNA/SNF will be closed on Friday, November 30, to begin the move over the weekend. The SNA website will remain operational. Staff will be monitoring emails. We will be back open for business on Monday, December 3.

SNA's new address is 2900 S. Quincy Street, Suite 700, Arlington, VA 22206. Its new phone number is (703) 824-3000. Its toll-free number remains (800) 877-8822. The SNA email address, servicecenter@schoolnutrition.org, and all staff email addresses will not change.

The new Headquarters location in Arlington County, Va., has easy access to Capitol Hill, USDA and Reagan National Airport.

We appreciate your patience over the next week as we unpack and get settled.

Healthy Aging DPG 2019 Executive Committee Ballot – Candidate and Petition Info

Hello Health Aging DPG Membership:

Healthy Aging DPG is pleased to present the slate of candidates for office for the 2019-20 year:

Chair-elect:

Melanie Betz, MS, RD, CSG, LDN

Secretary:

Andrea V. Dunn, RD, LD, CDE

Lori Stanfield, MA, RD, CSG, LD, FAND

Delegate:

Amy Sheeley, PhD, RD, LDN

Nominating Committee (vote for 2):

Ashley Chrisinger, MS, RD, CSO

Jonathan Valdez, MBA, RDN, CSG, CDN, CCM, ACE-CPT

According to Academy policy, a slate of candidates must be presented Healthy Aging DPG membership 30 days prior to the start of voting. Should you wish to petition that additional candidates be included on the ballot slate, you must submit a petition to the HA DPG Nominating Committee by contacting Carol Berg Sloan at cbcrd@verizon.net within the next 30 days by January 4, 2019.

You must also have the support with signatures of 5% or 84 HA DPG members. Petitions must include biographical information on the candidate and qualifications for the HA DPG leadership position. If deemed eligible for the position by the Academy DPG/MIG Relations Team, the additional candidates will be added to a contested ballot prior to the start of online voting, beginning February 1, 2019.

Thank you,

Malnutrition Care Beyond the Hospital Walls

Date: Wednesday, December 12, 1 PM CST (1 hr. event)
CPEU: 1 credit

Medicare's Value Based Payment (VBP) program provides incentives for high-quality and cost-effective health care. Medicare payments to Accountable Care Organizations, Medicare Advantage plans, and PACE (Programs of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly) programs are influenced by Hierarchical Condition Categories that are part of the VBP program. Accurate coding of chronic diseases, like obesity and malnutrition, helps forecast expected cost of care and improve a provider's quality score. Additionally, adequate malnutrition documentation and coding improves a patient's transition throughout the care continuum to ensure appropriate nutrition services are provided.

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe how malnutrition coding influences the risk assessment factor in Medicare's Hierarchical Condition Categories and leads to increased healthcare payments.
  2. Explain how malnutrition diagnoses influence quality outcome measurements and payment in Accountable Care Organizations.
  3. Improve clinical nutrition documentation to ensure the malnutrition diagnosis is communicated to the appropriate care providers in every care setting.

Good morning everyone!

Thank you Doris. This outline looks very good.

I assume the leadership slide will give a hint about the Leadership Institute plans--it is possible that members of the various audiences have no (or a faint) memory of past LI and their goals/value.

Given that some people in any audience may not be members (or may be teetering on the edge of not renewing) we might want to include in the "why I am a member" segment a "testimonial" from someone who left and came back or who debated about renewing and then was inspired to continue.

We should consider a slide or two on our advocacy and public policy work, and offer a suggestions on how to get involved.

Mary

Hope all is well with you and that you enjoyed the Thanksgiving holiday.

Pat, Mary Beth and I met today to discuss the Academy Update and attached is a draft outline for your review and feedback. Once we hear back from everyone, we will start designing the slides and writing the script.

Thank you very much and please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

Best regards,

Doris

Good morning everyone!

Thank you Doris. This outline looks very good.

I assume the leadership slide will give a hint about the Leadership Institute plans--it is possible that members of the various audiences have no (or a faint) memory of past LI and their goals/value.

Given that some people in any audience may not be members (or may be teetering on the edge of not renewing) we might want to include in the "why I am a member" segment a "testimonial" from someone who left and came back or who debated about renewing and then was inspired to continue.

We should consider a slide or two on our advocacy and public policy work, and offer a suggestions on how to get involved.

Mary

Hi Mary, Terri and Donna,

Hope all is well with you and that you enjoyed the Thanksgiving holiday.

Pat, Mary Beth and I met today to discuss the Academy Update and attached is a draft outline for your review and feedback. Once we hear back from everyone, we will start designing the slides and writing the script.

Thank you very much and please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

IND MIG invites you all to join them for the following educational webinar...

Webinar Title: PCOS Revisited: New Concepts Connecting the Gut Microbiome, Circadian Rhythm and Hormones

Speaker: Felice Gersh, MD

Date: Tuesday, December 11, 2018

Time: 1:00 pm EDT / 12:00 pm CDT / 11:00 am MDT / 10:00 am PDT

Registration Link: <https://bit.ly/2PahxUc>

- Registration is free.
- This session will be presented using VOIP. A phone number will not be available.
- 1.5 Free CPEU Credit will be earned for live attendance.
- Webinar will be recorded and posted to the IND website for later viewing. Slides and recording will be sent to all registrants.

Objectives

Attendees will be able to:

1. Recognize the importance of the newest research connecting the gut microbiome, the circadian rhythm, hormones, and PCOS
2. Understand how to implement a nutritional program to foster both a healthy gut microbiome and circadian rhythm

3. Recognize the importance for women with PCOS of the timing of both eating and not eating, the role of time restricted eating, and of periodic fasting to help restore reproductive functions and metabolic homeostasis

Learning Need codes:

- 3070 Pharmacological, drug/nutrient, herbal interaction
- 3100 Supplemental nutrients, botanicals
- 5420 Complimentary care, alternative therapies (nutritional care)

Session Summary

Polycystic Ovary Syndrome is the most common endocrine dysfunction of reproductive aged women, impacting virtually all organ systems of the female body. Despite its prevalence and great effect on both reproductive success and metabolic well being, for decades there has been little progress in the understanding of the etiology of PCOS and of the great import which nutrition plays in its evolution, its manifestations, and its potential therapeutic value. In the past few years, there has been an explosion of ground-breaking research into the importance of the microbiomes of the body and of the gut microbiome. Although a hypothesis was published by Professor Kelton Tremellen in 2012, it was only in the last couple of years that his theory was proven correct – indeed, the gut microbiome of women with PCOS is both different and abnormal (dysbiotic). Additionally, women with PCOS have higher levels of circulating endotoxins, indicative of both gut dysbiosis and of impaired gut barrier function. This burgeoning data and understanding of the gut microbiome coincides with growing evidence of the critical interrelationship of the gut microbiome to the circadian rhythm and to hormones. Integral to this complex interconnection is the impact of the gut microbiome on the ovulatory rhythms of women and on metabolic health. This webinar will present the latest data on new understandings of the relationship of the gut microbiome, the circadian rhythm, hormones, and the evolution of PCOS. It will also provide clear-cut protocols for the implementation of nutritional approaches, incorporating food and supplement choices, and covering the best ways to implement time restricted eating and periodic fasting into a nutritional practice to restore female rhythms and the gut microbiome to a healthy state. With the incorporation of nutritional medicine to treat the microbiome and the circadian rhythm, women with PCOS can be provided with renewed hope for the reproductive and metabolic health they both desire and deserve.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

MQii Reaches Milestone

The Academy continues to work with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to advance electronic quality measures as part of the multi-year Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative and continues working with partners to collect data to support the measures. To obtain data and feedback from a variety of demographics - including size, geographic distribution and acute-care types of facilities - a strategic goal was set to enroll 250 sites in the Learning Collaborative. With the recent commitment by Catholic Health Initiatives for 73 hospitals to participate, 256 facilities are now confirmed. This is an important milestone in the initiative that raises awareness of the clinical relevance of malnutrition identification and treatment across the U.S.

Congress Returns: Potential Government Shutdown Looms

With only 10 working days remaining in the 115th Congress, the likelihood of a government shutdown has increased, with the current continuing resolution set to expire on December 7. Congress reportedly has not been able to reach consensus over border wall funding and other issues, such as cuts to foreign aid programs and the State Department. If an agreement is not reached, another short- or long-term continuing resolution could be passed to avert a shutdown, funding federal programs at the previous fiscal year's levels.

Climate Report: Threats to Agriculture and Nutrition

The fourth annual climate risk assessment from the U.S. Global Change Research Program was released last week, representing input from 13 government agencies and more than 300 experts. The 1,600-page report warns of lower major crop yields - and nutritional quality of crops - related to climate change, as well as increased stress on livestock operations and extreme weather events. The Academy's Legislative and Public Policy Committee will consider this report when prioritizing advocacy issues for the upcoming 116th Congress.

Academy Offers Input: USPSTF Draft Research Plan for Vitamin D Deficiency

The Academy submitted comments and questions to the United States Preventive Services Task Force to clarify or improve elements of USPSTF's draft research plan to assess the effects of screening and treatment for vitamin D deficiency, which affects approximately three in four Americans. In addition to highlighting substantial content in the Evidence Analysis Library that is relevant to the draft research plan, the Academy queried the rationale for several inclusion and exclusion criteria. This emphasized the need for structuring and drafting research and recommendations with unambiguous language. This would preempt misinterpretation and narrow application of USPSTF recommendation statements when determining coverage of related services.

News from the Hill and Beyond

Farm Bill Talks Stalled on Forestry Title as Congress Enters Final Days

Senator Pat Roberts (Kan.) stated this week that the final major hurdle on a conference report for the farm bill rests with the forestry title, hinting that a deal could be reached before the end of the current Congress if talks progress. The House version of the bill included provisions that intended to support “active management” of the nation’s forests and is supported by USDA Secretary Sonny Perdue. Although Sen. Roberts’ comments suggest that consensus has been reached on other issues such as SNAP, details have not emerged regarding the work requirements for participants which was previously a point of contention for the four conference committee leaders. Congress Returns to Looming Deadline and Potential Government Shutdown

With only 10 work days remaining in the 115th Congress, the likelihood of a government shutdown has increased with the current continuing resolution – or appropriations bill, set to expire on December 7*. Lawmakers reportedly have not been able to reach consensus over border wall funding and other issues such as cuts to foreign aid programs and the State Department. If an agreement is not reached, another short- or long-term continuing resolution could be passed to avert a shutdown, thereby funding federal programs at the previous fiscal year levels.

*Breaking Down the Federal Budget: Continuing Resolutions

A continuing resolution or “CR” is an appropriations bill that sets aside money for the government to operate when the current fiscal year’s appropriation bill expires; the government budget operates from October 1 through September 30 each year. The current CR, set to expire on December 7, was passed when a 2019 appropriations bill was not passed by the deadline. Continuing resolutions usually extend funding at a rate or formula based on the previous year’s funding levels until a specific date or until regular appropriations bills are passed.

Regulatory Roundup - Proposed Public Charge Rule

The Academy is seeking DPG and MIG input on a newly proposed rule, “Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds,” which expands the ability of the Department of Homeland Security to determine whether an undocumented immigrant is inadmissible to the U.S. because he or she is likely at any time to become a public charge (i.e., receiving public assistance). The proposed rule fundamentally redefines what it means to be a “public charge”—whereas it currently means whether one was primarily dependent on a limited set of social services, the proposed rule expands the set of triggering social services to include SNAP, and government health insurance programs like Medicaid, Medicare, and possibly CHIP. Information about impacts on access to healthcare, food security, and education particular helpful to the Academy.

We encourage members to review the suggested elements of draft comments by Academy partner, the Food Research and Action Center; additional content used in preparing comments can be found here and in the FRAC Comment Toolkit.

Send comments to your DPG PAL or MIG leaders by Tuesday, November 27.

PALs, please plan to review the regulatory opportunities section each week and share the information with your executive board or team.

PAL Monthly Call - November 29, 2018

The next PAL monthly call will be held this Thursday, November 29, 2018, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds
- Use of the Names of Dairy Foods in the Labeling of Plant-Based Products
- An update on DGA 2020-2025 working groups.

Come prepared to share and discuss. We hope to see all of our PALs there!

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency around this election time. The voice of every member is critical.

Take action today!

Take Action!

Advocacy Tip: Build Relationships In-District

Meeting with members of Congress is an effective way to advocate for nutrition policy and to make our issues heard. According to our partner, the Congressional Management Foundation, almost three-quarters of legislative staff said that meetings between constituents and representatives, senators or staff are important for understanding constituent views. Additionally, conducting meetings in-district are 1.4 times more effective for building relationships than meeting in Washington, D.C.

Consider building a network of advocates in your state by identifying go-to members in each congressional district who can serve as a point of contact. Empower these members to meet with their members and staff in-district to share Academy's priorities. Sometimes a personal ask leveraged through a strong relationship is the best way to push policy forward.

Our Profession, Our Foundation, Our Opportunity to Change Lives!

Today we celebrate #GivingTuesday, a global day of giving and an effort to bring together like-minded people to support causes near and dear to their hearts. Today is all about giving to the organizations about which you are passionate.

I can think of no other cause or organization more closely aligned with our passion, profession and priorities than the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation. The Foundation is the only charitable organization devoted to nutrition and dietetics, working within our profession to provide educational opportunities and resources to position RDNs as leaders in food, nutrition and health. Although affiliated with the Academy, the Foundation is an independent public charity and does not receive any portion of member dues.

Hundreds of Academy members each year receive scholarships, awards, fellowships, research grants and disaster relief funds through the Foundation...members of all ages, backgrounds and skill sets. The Foundation relies on donations to thrive, and our success and impact are directly attributable to the generosity of Academy members.

The last year has been difficult for a number of Academy members because of hurricanes and wildfires. Watch the video below and see how your donations to the Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund have helped your fellow Academy members, colleagues and friends in their time of need. And if you have been affected by one of these natural disasters in the last months, please APPLY HERE for financial support.

Watch grateful Foundation disaster relief recipients express their appreciation for your support

Please help us continue our great work by making a donation today and celebrating #GivingTuesday. Let's come together as a community to help our Foundation continue its great work and support the one charity exclusively dedicated to our profession!

Medicaid After Midterms

Many of the nail-biting races of the recent midterm elections overshadowed noteworthy ballot measures, including those in Nebraska, Idaho and Utah where constituents voted to approve the expansion of Medicaid to over 300,000 low-income Americans. The expansion of Medicaid in these states extends existing Medicaid benefits to this new pool of potential beneficiaries, which may include services offered by RDNs, such as nutrition counseling for at-risk populations and preventive nutrition assessments for children. To help centralize and organize Medicaid information, the Academy has a Medicaid toolkit in the works, which should be released in the spring of 2019.

Additionally, in conjunction with Obesity Week last week in Nashville, Tennessee, the STOP Obesity Alliance released a new study assessing the coverage for adult obesity treatment services in Medicaid and state employee health insurance programs. An interactive map shows coverage for obesity services across the U.S., including coverage for nutrition counseling; coverage for nutrition counseling increased from only 9 states in 2009 to 21 states in 2017. Check out the map to see if your state is covered.

Turkey Day Food Safety Tips

It's that time of year again and you're likely to hear in the news about a Salmonella outbreak linked to turkey. As part of the Partnership for Food Safety Education, here are some tips to make your Thanksgiving pathogen-free:

- Store your uncooked turkey separate and on the bottom shelf of the refrigerator
- Put your food thermometer to use when preparing your Thanksgiving turkey. Make sure that the internal temperature reaches 165°F.
- Chill any Thanksgiving leftovers in the refrigerator within 2 hours of your meal.

DCMAND Legislative Day Results in Changes in Licensure Law

The DC Metro Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics affiliate’s “ask” of legislators at their June 2018 Legislative Day was to amend their licensure law to enable the board to be more effective and meet more regularly by adding new members and clarifying the necessary qualifications.

Suggested language for revising the licensure law was recently included in a new bill that passed and was put into law. Congratulations to the DCMAND public policy panel leaders and the affiliate members who worked to make this possible and show the power and effectiveness of working together to accomplish our goals!

Hi Pat and AND Team,

It was so wonderful to meet you and experience FNCE 2018! What an amazing event showcasing the power of food and nutrition. Thank you for welcoming us from Dietitians of Canada and for your generous hospitality.

We're looking forward to the DC Conference in Ottawa in June 2019 and hope to see you there.

Warm Regards,

Lucia

Dear Carol, Lucia, and Nathalie,

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards and staff, thank you for attending FNCE 2018 in Washington, DC! We enjoyed getting to know you better and even dancing with you at the Gala. Board representatives are planning to attend the DC Conference in Ottawa in June 2019. I am extending an invitation to you and to anyone else you deem appropriate to meet with Academy and Foundation staff at our headquarters in Chicago to discuss potential collaboration between our two organizations. We will make sure Chris Reidy, Executive Director of the Commission and Dietetic Registration, our credentialing agency, attends so you can dialogue about the pathways to exam eligibility in Canada and the US.

Wishing you upcoming happy holidays!

Best regards,

Pat

Dear Mary, Donna, Terri, Pat, Staff et al,

I just wanted to send you a belated thank you for giving me the opportunity to attend my first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo 2018 in Washington, DC. What a spectacular event that was. I have never attended anything that big or dynamic in my life. Thank you for this incredible opportunity. I know I will plan to attend again and to bring others even if it is just to be able to put on waders and go in the cranberry bog!

Thank you for inviting us to your Awards Breakfast (sorry we were late – we were on Canadian time!), to the Presidents Reception and to your Gala. We were greeted with warmth and treated like royalty by all of you and the staff as well.

I hope to see you at the DC Conference in Ottawa in June 2018. Sincere gratitude and true respect to all of you and your wonderful academy. Please share my thanks with all.

Hi Marcy,

Thank you for your written update regarding the HOD Evolution Designers. It was disappointing that we were not able to fully discuss this on the joint call last week. In follow-up, we would appreciate receiving both the report from the designers in advance of the HLT planning meeting and also HLT's response as soon as they are available. Please also send us the next steps for discussing the recommendations with the full House. We will include the HOD recommendations as an agenda item at an upcoming Board meeting.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Academy Signs On to Letter Urging Congress: Pass Improved Maternal Health Legislation in 2018
The Academy and other major organizations have joined to encourage Congress to pass legislation before the end of the year to address maternal health in the United States. The groups noted in a letter to leaders that more women die from pregnancy-related complications in the U.S. than in any other developed country, and the rate of maternal deaths continues to rise. The Senate's Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions Committee has unanimously approved S. 1112; in September, leaders of the House Energy and Commerce Committee's Health Subcommittee expressed bipartisan support for passing H.R. 1318 this year.

HHS Secretary Identifies Malnutrition as Component of Addressing Social Determinants of Health
In recent remarks to the Hatch Foundation for Civility and Solutions, Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II addressed social determinants of health and referenced malnutrition as an important issue. He noted that care for hospital patients with malnutrition is twice as costly as those who are admitted well-nourished. He added that interventions in accountable care organizations have led to savings by screening, intervening and continuing support for malnutrition care after hospital discharge. The HHS secretary provides leadership and direction to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the agency with which the Academy has been working to advocate for electronic quality measures as part of the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative.

On behalf of the Academy Board of Directors, we are in receipt of your communication regarding the Commission on Dietetic Registration. Under the Academy bylaws, the Commission has full authority to establish criteria for recertification and CPE provider accreditation. We have noted that Christine Reidy, Executive Director of the Commission, has responded to you regarding your recourse to petition the Commission's Appeals Panel and/or the Competency Assurance Panel concerning the audit results.

Thank you for your feedback and input.

Public Policy Weekly News

News from the Hill and Beyond

Medicaid After Midterms

Many of the nail-biting races of the recent midterm elections overshadowed noteworthy ballot measures, including those in Nebraska, Idaho and Utah where constituents voted to approve the expansion of Medicaid to over 300,000 low-income Americans. The expansion of Medicaid in these states extends existing Medicaid benefits to this new pool of potential beneficiaries, which may include services offered by RDNs, such as nutrition counseling for at-risk populations and preventive nutrition assessments for children. To help centralize and organize Medicaid information, the Academy has a Medicaid toolkit in the works, which should be released in the spring of 2019.

Additionally, in conjunction with Obesity Week last week in Nashville, Tennessee, the STOP Obesity Alliance released a new study assessing the coverage for adult obesity treatment services in Medicaid and state employee health insurance programs. An interactive map shows coverage for obesity services across the U.S., including coverage for nutrition counseling; coverage for nutrition counseling increased from only 9 states in 2009 to 21 states in 2017. Check out the map to see if your state is covered.

Turkey Day Food Safety Tips

It's that time of year again and you're likely to hear in the news about a Salmonella outbreak linked to turkey. As part of the Partnership for Food Safety Education, here are some tips to make your Thanksgiving pathogen-free:

- Store your uncooked turkey separate and on the bottom shelf of the refrigerator
- Put your food thermometer to use when preparing your Thanksgiving turkey. Make sure that the internal temperature reaches 165°F.
- Chill any Thanksgiving leftovers in the refrigerator within 2 hours of your meal.

Regulatory Roundup - Proposed Public Charge Rule

The Academy is seeking DPG and MIG input on a newly proposed rule, “Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds,” which expands the ability of the Department of Homeland Security to determine whether an undocumented immigrant is inadmissible to the U.S. because he or she is likely at any time to become a public charge (i.e., receiving public assistance). The proposed rule fundamentally redefines what it means to be a “public charge”—whereas it currently means whether one was primarily dependent on a limited set of social services, the proposed rule expands the set of triggering social services to include SNAP, and government health insurance programs like Medicaid, Medicare, and possibly CHIP. Information about impacts on access to healthcare, food security, and education particular helpful to the Academy.

We encourage members to review the suggested elements of draft comments by Academy partner, the Food Research and Action Center; additional content used in preparing comments can be found here and in the FRAC Comment Toolkit.

Send comments to your DPG PAL or MIG leaders by Monday, November 26.

PALs, please plan to review the regulatory opportunities section each week and share the information with your executive board or team.

PAL Monthly Call - November 29, 2018

The next PAL monthly call will be held next Thursday, November 29, 2018, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Topics to be discussed include:

- Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds
- Use of the Names of Dairy Foods in the Labeling of Plant-Based Products
- An update on DGA 2020-2025 working groups.

Come prepared to share and discuss. We hope to see all of our PALs there!

Action Center

Action Alerts

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again to inform your member of Congress about important nutrition policy priorities. Your voice makes a difference, but only if it is heard. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency around this election time. The voice of every member is critical.

Take action today!

Take Action!

ANDPAC Corner

Getting the Facts on ANDPAC

Myth: ANDPAC was, and still is, only focused on one issue — coverage for medical nutrition therapy.

Fact: ANDPAC is not a “single issue” political action committee. ANDPAC is one of the largest healthcare professional PACs addressing food, nutrition and health priorities. It exists to advance the public policy priorities of the Academy that include issues related to prevention and well-being, health care and health systems and food and nutrition safety and security. Donate to ANDPAC today to make our voice heard on Capitol on all health and nutrition-related issues the Academy prioritizes.

DCMAND Legislative Day Results in Changes in Licensure Law

The DC Metro Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics affiliate’s “ask” of legislators at their June 2018 Legislative Day was to amend their licensure law to enable the board to be more effective and meet more regularly by adding new members and clarifying the necessary qualifications.

Suggested language for revising the licensure law was recently included in a new bill that passed and was put into law. Congratulations to the DCMAND public policy panel leaders and the affiliate members who worked to make this possible and show the power and effectiveness of working together to accomplish our goals!

Do you have a Thumbs Up submission for PPWN? We'd love to highlight the work that you do to advance nutrition policy and the profession for all of us. Send photos and a quick write-up about your recent policy accomplishments to Nate Stritzinger.

In Case You Missed It

If you didn't read last week's PPWN, here is what you may have missed:

- Midterm Election Update and What's Happening with the Lame Duck
- Prediabetes Public Service Campaign on World Diabetes Day
- Final Call for Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry

I can see how many people would be opposed. "Members should have a choice" etc. but so many members do not choose to make the choice by voting.

Works well for ASPEN it seems; a person moves from VP to PE to President to immediate Past President so it is a longer commitment.

Tammy Randall reached out to me today about Linda Farr's write in quest. She feels like her use of Facebook to solicit signatures is a type of campaigning which no one on the ballot is allowed to do yet. I told her I would pass her concern onto you all. She is not that upset about her doing the write in campaign, but is upset about it being done on facebook.

Please read below. Linda Farr has requested to be included on the ballot for president elect as what we've traditionally termed a "write in candidate". Since we list the candidates in alpha order, she could be listed first on the ballot followed by the words "nomination by petition." I say could because we haven't yet received the signatures. The term itself may be perceived very positively. I've asked Joan to contact Paula Goedert to see if we need to use that terminology. Robert's Rules are considered outdated, so I'm hoping we can use the current term "write in" candidate, which doesn't give it that populist flavor.

Linda Farr has submitted her intent to petition as a candidate for president-elect. The intent to petition has been shared with Molly and Kris. As requested I will provide Linda with a sample collection form. As far as her suggestion regarding how the petitioning candidate is listed (although we don't rule by Robert), I don't think it is an issue to identify her as "Nomination by Petition" versus "Write-in" on the elections website and the ballot - I appreciate your thoughts.

Thank you.

Dear Molly and Nominating Committee: This is my official notification that I intend to petition the ballot as a write-in candidate for the position of President-elect of the Academy.

I have two questions for clarification:

1.) #6 of the Petition Process for Ballot form states that a signature is required. Can you please explain how/if you would like this collected on an electronic form?

2.) #7 states that the successful petitioner will be listed as a "write-in" candidate. According to Roberts Rules of Order this type of nomination would be called a "Nomination by Petition" not a write-in. I believe this terminology should be reviewed for accuracy and potential bias.

Thank you!

Re # signatures, ASPEN (about 6000 members) has done a slate for many years—1 candidate per office, selected by Nom Com.

Their write in policy requires signatures of 2.5% of members.

It's a very academic questions—but wonder what is the policy around write ins for larger member organizations?

Please read below. Linda Farr has requested to be included on the ballot for president elect as what we've traditionally termed a "write in candidate". Since we list the candidates in alpha order, she could be listed first on the ballot followed by the words "nomination by petition." I say could because we haven't yet received the signatures. The term itself may be perceived very positively. I've asked Joan to contact Paula Goedert to see if we need to use that terminology. Robert's Rules are considered outdated, so I'm hoping we can use the current term "write in" candidate, which doesn't give it that populist flavor.

Hi Pat,

Linda Farr has submitted her intent to petition as a candidate for president-elect. The intent to petition has been shared with Molly and Kris. As requested I will provide Linda with a sample collection form. As far as her suggestion regarding how the petitioning candidate is listed (although we don't rule by Robert), I don't think it is an issue to identify her as "Nomination by Petition" versus "Write-in" on the elections website and the ballot - I appreciate your thoughts.

Thank you.

Dear Molly and Nominating Committee: This is my official notification that I intend to petition the ballot as a write-in candidate for the position of President-elect of the Academy.

I have two questions for clarification:

1.) #6 of the Petition Process for Ballot form states that a signature is required. Can you please explain how/if you would like this collected on an electronic form?

2.) #7 states that the successful petitioner will be listed as a "write-in" candidate. According to Roberts Rules of Order this type of nomination would be called a "Nomination by Petition" not a write-in. I believe this terminology should be reviewed for accuracy and potential bias.

Thank you!

Hi Marcy,

Thank you for your written update regarding the HOD Evolution Designers. It was disappointing that we were not able to fully discuss this on the joint call last week. In follow-up, we would appreciate receiving both the report from the designers in advance of the HLT planning meeting and also HLT's response as soon as they are available. Please also send us the next steps for discussing the recommendations with the full House. We will include the HOD recommendations as an agenda item at an upcoming Board meeting.

Dear Donna, I'm writing to ask for your help today in signing a petition that will add me to the ballot as a candidate for Academy President-elect. I have met the qualifications for office and feel that I can provide the bold leadership we need at this time of rapid change.

Click on this link to sign my petition: <https://linda4pres.wufoo.com/forms/z18rfw5j1trsu03/>

The petition process states that I must collect at least 500 signatures from Academy members by December 1, 2018. Your support in completing the very short form and encouraging your Academy friends and colleagues to sign on would be greatly appreciated! I'm hoping that the phone tree effect of your outreach will make this process go quickly. Please sign on today!

Our destiny as a profession will be determined by those who have the courage to act. I have that courage and hope you will support me in that endeavor.

My sincere thanks!

Subject: Childhood Weight Management Program

Hello everyone,

As we discussed in Pittsburgh, we are arranging for a teleconference to continue the discussion on enhancing the Childhood program content. Please see Kathy's notes before from our November 2, 2018 dinner meeting. I have included a link to a Doodle Poll to obtain your availability for a call later in the month and the first couple of days in December. Please provide your availability by Friday, November 16, 2018. Let me know if we should invite any other faculty members to join this teleconference. Please keep the following in mind in discussing enhancements the program:

- 1) We cannot add any new sessions. Any new content must be added to current sessions.
- 2) Any changes to the pre-work will be made during the annual review which is conducted over the summer.

<https://doodle.com/poll/wbtX3dqgx48f9dak>

Brief Notes from 11/2/18 dinner

1. Update Craig's slides – readdress stigma and mental health issues; e.g., depression, suicide - possible incorporate into breakout session???
2. Need for RD's to identify warning signs depression/suicide/etc. and when to refer out
3. Need to address Obesity coding - may fit easily into Vanessa's presentation
4. Dana & Deb look at environmental piece duplications get together next week – outcome?
5. Susan incorporate basics of bariatric surgery into pre work – free up time for presentation practical issues
6. Pearlie send out listing of accepted defined terms to use for communication with and about persons with the disease of obesity
7. Need to address parent piece – big gap – discuss practical issues, e.g., when to bring in, when to ask to leave, through the years- Craig addresses with his slides at the end but more practice maybe in breakout sessions???

RDNs need skills to identify early signs of depression/suicide to refer out – not only diagnostic tests – but practical signs. That is why the recent article, “Children Who Are Obese May Struggle in School” was of interest to me.

Dear Donna, I'm writing to ask for your help today in signing a petition that will add me to the ballot as a candidate for Academy President-elect. I have met the qualifications for office and feel that I can provide the bold leadership we need at this time of rapid change.

Click on this link to sign my petition: <https://linda4pres.wufoo.com/forms/z18rfw5j1trsu03/>

The petition process states that I must collect at least 500 signatures from Academy members by December 1, 2018. Your support in completing the very short form and encouraging your Academy friends and colleagues to sign on would be greatly appreciated! I'm hoping that the phone tree effect of your outreach will make this process go quickly. Please sign on today!

Our destiny as a profession will be determined by those who have the courage to act. I have that courage and hope you will support me in that endeavor.

My sincere thanks!

Hi Donna,

I hope you're doing well! It was great to see you briefly after your session at FNCE.

Thanks again for taking the time to talk back in September to help us learn how we can work more effectively in rural communities and prepare for our Rural Child Hunger Summit.

Now that we have a better sense of the agenda for the Rural Child Hunger Summit, we would like to invite you to speak during the session we're calling "Strategies to Bolster Rural School Nutrition Finances." This session would be in the morning on the first day of the two-day Summit:

Thursday, March 21, 2019. We would be able to cover your travel costs to and from Louisville, KY.

Are you available and interested?

During the session, we plan to introduce the concept of Schools as Nutrition Hubs. We would love to have you talk about how you've made the child nutrition programs work in your rural district, especially summer and afterschool meals. We would also like you to share your other strategies for running a financially viable program, like your work-study program, all while serving delicious local foods.

Two additional things:

- We would like to have another session gaining buy-in from state and local leaders to support strong school nutrition programs. Do you think that your superintendent Rudy Falana would be interested in speaking during that session? We will also have Melody Schopp, former Secretary of Education in South Dakota and sister of Gay Anderson, but we want to have multiple perspectives at different levels.
- If you haven't already seen it, we would love to have you take a moment to showcase your work through our Hunger Innovation Survey. Respondents will be featured in a report and have the chance to receive grants. My colleague managing this survey and report thought that the work-study program was a particularly innovative idea. The survey closes at the end of the month, so hopefully you can take a moment to do it once schools close for Thanksgiving.

Please let me know if you have questions, and we hope you are able to join us in Louisville!

Thanks,
Carolyn

Below are some of my thoughts and do not need your attention at this time. Read when you have time and answer with candor! Please let me preface my writing:

- I am new and all I know right now is what I don't know
- I am a slow reader and slow thinker – assimilative (makes it sound so much better)
- Writing is not my thing – yet below is a pretty good job of overkill!

Please, honest feedback, tell me if this is ridiculous and makes more work for everyone, etc. etc. I will accept and understand!

As a Board member I want to be responsible to make the best possible decisions, provide a thoughtful vote and/or provide meaningful feedback on whatever situation arises. Sometimes this is challenging (for me) where information is provided in a tight time frame and without simple supporting explanation. Would it be reasonable, if, when we receive information for a P and S call, we receive very abbreviated goals and outcomes? For instance, the recent call re: committees – We are looking at committees to:

- Meet strategic goals
- Reduce overhead and wasted staff time
- Clarify outcomes and simplify process and potential overlap

(yes, there were objectives with this topic, for me they were in an overwhelming document of many pages)

My goal is to stay on the surface, not worry about who or how but the big picture strategy of what to do. The clearer the waters, the less likely that the topic needs a deeper dive or questions.

Also, in reviewing the feedback from staff and management re: committees along with the letter from Aida it dawned on me that perhaps, a good process at year end would include a simple questionnaire for committee members. Whether they respond or not is their choice, whether their answers are used is a management choice. In this way they have a chance to air their thoughts and accept changes where they have(had) a voice in the process. The committee liaisons must work with these groups through constant membership changes, so I do not expect this input to greatly affect management's process.

Well, that's enough from me – You are three very special people that I greatly admire and learn from daily – and, in this case, your patience is greatly appreciated.

Terri

Hi all,

I hope you all don't mind me using this distribution list again, but I have a related request for assistance. Brandon Lipps and his team travel regularly across the country looking at schools and their food service programs, and they have asked for examples of districts in which 1% flavored milk that is reformulated to have under 140 or 130 calories/8oz. If you all are in one of those (many? Few?) districts or know someone who is, please let me know? (And if they have school kitchens needing modernization or that have been newly modernized, even better as we can sneak some more advocacy around that issue.) Thank you for any help you may have.

I just wanted to thank all of you who attended the meeting today with Brandon Lipps, Cindy Long and Pam Miller. I think all of you had something powerful to contribute. We supported each other, were effective, and above all kept our customers in mind. Everyone contributed to make it a most meaningful meeting for all involved. Thanks to Pepin for organizing the meeting and hosting it at the Academy offices. I was so proud to be an Academy member today and so proud of all of you. What a perfect way to do Advocacy during PPW. As Dayle says "you all rocked today"!

I do not have Heather Torrey's email or Kelly Diaz's so if you do could you forward this message to them for me?

Beth, I just made a donation to the Second Century Fund in honor of Hope Barkoukis's father's passing. I put the notice to be sent to her work address, but just realized I had her home address. Can you change the letter to go to her home address instead of work for me please? Still praying for your family and your son. I hope things are getting better for him. Happy Thanksgiving to your beautiful family.

I can understand why Tammy feels that way, however, Linda is using her personal Facebook page to solicit signatures. The petition guidelines as they stand currently do not specify how to obtain the support. Joan will be putting the petition process on an upcoming agenda for the Nominating Committee. We should also discuss whether 500 signatures ought to be the minimum requirement.

Please read below. Linda Farr has requested to be included on the ballot for president elect as what we've traditionally termed a "write in candidate". Since we list the candidates in alpha order, she could be listed first on the ballot followed by the words "nomination by petition." I say could because we haven't yet received the signatures. The term itself may be perceived very positively. I've asked Joan to contact Paula Goedert to see if we need to use that terminology. Robert's Rules are considered outdated, so I'm hoping we can use the current term "write in" candidate, which doesn't give it that populist flavor.

Dear Molly and Nominating Committee: This is my official notification that I intend to petition the ballot as a write-in candidate for the position of President-elect of the Academy.

I have two questions for clarification:

1.) #6 of the Petition Process for Ballot form states that a signature is required. Can you please explain how/if you would like this collected on an electronic form?

2.) #7 states that the successful petitioner will be listed as a "write-in" candidate. According to Roberts Rules of Order this type of nomination would be called a "Nomination by Petition" not a write-in. I believe this terminology should be reviewed for accuracy and potential bias.

Thank you!

Subject: Petition for Ballot-Farr

Date: 11-15-18

Dear Molly and Nominating Committee: This is my official notification that I intend to petition the ballot as a write-in candidate for the position of President-elect of the Academy.

I have two questions for clarification:

1.) #6 of the Petition Process for Ballot form states that a signature is required. Can you please explain how/if you would like this collected on an electronic form?

2.) #7 states that the successful petitioner will be listed as a "write-in" candidate. According to Roberts Rules of Order this type of nomination would be called a "Nomination by Petition" not a write-in. I believe this terminology should be reviewed for accuracy and potential bias.

Thank you!

What goes around comes around. Linda needs to speak for herself. Others can cheer her on but the "social media" craze of saying whatever is on your mind is so detrimental for all. I sincerely hope that she does the right thing.

Agree Pat!

My mind also went to the “me vs. what is best for the members” and how potentially divisive and confusing the perceptions could be. In spite of the fact that there is a mechanism for write in candidates, the process seems insulting to the Nom Com and the selected candidates.

You are correct, no write in candidate has won. Diane Heller won after she was placed on the ballot after her run as a write in.

The term itself may be perceived very positively. I've asked Joan to contact Paula Goedert to see if we need to use that terminology. Robert's Rules are considered outdated, so I'm hoping we can use the current term "write in" candidate, which doesn't give it that populist flavor.

Hi Pat,

Linda Farr has submitted her intent to petition as a candidate for president-elect. The intent to petition has been shared with Molly and Kris. As requested I will provide Linda with a sample collection form. As far as her suggestion regarding how the petitioning candidate is listed (although we don't rule by Robert), I don't think it is an issue to identify her as "Nomination by Petition" versus "Write-in" on the elections website and the ballot - I appreciate your thoughts.

Thank you.

Dear Molly and Nominating Committee: This is my official notification that I intend to petition the ballot as a write-in candidate for the position of President-elect of the Academy.

I have two questions for clarification:

1.) #6 of the Petition Process for Ballot form states that a signature is required. Can you please explain how/if you would like this collected on an electronic form?

2.) #7 states that the successful petitioner will be listed as a "write-in" candidate. According to Roberts Rules of Order this type of nomination would be called a "Nomination by Petition" not a write-in. I believe this terminology should be reviewed for accuracy and potential bias.

Thank you!

Subject: Clarification of Concept

Dear Chris, Pat, Mary, and Marcy;

It seems that recently, CDR/CAP is having a hard time with the concept that the public might read books approved for continuing professional education. I think I have a clarification that solves the problem.

“Anyone can read any book today, but professional CPE self-study courses use CDR’s guidelines to select appropriate content and they require the reader to read at a deeper level in order to complete a refereed exam on comprehension and retention of the book content. The public does not do that. This raises the bar and demands greater competency from the professional.”

The question is not, does the public read it, but is it beyond entry-level for our practitioners, as described in CDR’s Handbook. Expert authors with the newest research will continue to write highly referenced books with readable language and a colorful book cover. They will continue to teach their colleagues and speak to professional groups like at our state meetings and at FNCE. Should we deprive our members, especially outpatient RDNs, with the depth and research details presented in authors’ books that cannot be explored in a one hour speech on the same topic? I remember hearing at past Academy education conferences that people glean and retain more with increased hours of exposure to a self-study topic (they can reread and use as a reference) than they get in a one hour presentation with scribbled notes.

In fact, Academy members and registered practitioners believe a better informed public is in keeping with the mission and values of both the Academy and CDR.

Thank you for your consideration. My company and other Providers have had very positive long-standing relationships with CDR and its staff. So, we believe this issue can be solved in a positive spirit based upon reasonable business practices normally used by the CDR and the Academy.

My best, Kathy

Dear Chris, Pat, Mary, and Marcy;

It seems that recently, CDR/CAP is having a hard time with the concept that the public might read books approved for continuing professional education. I think I have a clarification that solves the problem.

“Anyone can read any book today, but professional CPE self-study courses use CDR’s guidelines to select appropriate content and they require the reader to read at a deeper level in order to complete a refereed exam on comprehension and retention of the book content. The public does not do that. This raises the bar and demands greater competency from the professional.”

The question is not, does the public read it, but is it beyond entry-level for our practitioners, as described in CDR’s Handbook. Expert authors with the newest research will continue to write highly referenced books with readable language and a colorful book cover. They will continue to teach their colleagues and speak to professional groups like at our state meetings and at FNCE. Should we deprive our members, especially outpatient RDNs, with the depth and research details presented in authors’ books that cannot be explored in a one hour speech on the same topic? I remember hearing at past Academy education conferences that people glean and retain more with increased hours of exposure to a self-study topic (they can reread and use as a reference) than they get in a one hour presentation with scribbled notes.

In fact, Academy members and registered practitioners believe a better informed public is in keeping with the mission and values of both the Academy and CDR.

Thank you for your consideration. My company and other Providers have had very positive long-standing relationships with CDR and its staff. So, we believe this issue can be solved in a positive spirit based upon reasonable business practices normally used by the CDR and the Academy.

My best, Kathy

Also I am not sure that I expressed myself completely this am on the call - I support and believe we should change the configuration of the committees. However, based on the increased focus

The complaints that I heard from the informatics person are nothing to be concerned with, but she was speaking out in front of young members which was totally inappropriate ( I know it happens).

To your point Donna, it is so important to find people that will get things done. Please, if you have any input to insure we pick members that are more interested in the greater good than their own personal agendas let me know.

Can I ask - why did we spend all of our time discussing committees? - I thought the committees were no longer reporting to the House but all rolled up to the Board - and the Board includes all "6" speakers and HLT. We had no time to discuss the plans for the design team and/or the last minute note from Marcy at 6:38 this morning - I wrote a scathing note to you three about that sheet with the bubbles - what a waste. And the paper that came today said they design team will discuss the relationship between the BOD and the HOD - I did not have the time or the coffee to digest that. It does not seem appropriate for me to bring up my concerns to Marcy individually - your thoughts?

Mary and I received the same complaint from Kathy King Helm. Both entrepreneurs know that CDR has full autonomy is setting requirements related to certification and recertification; Wolf is a former CDR member. Their recourse is to petition the Commission's Appeals Panel and/ or the Competency Assurance Panel . The beyond entry level requirement for CPE has been in existence since 1974. Because they are accredited providers, they are entrusted to follow all the CPE criteria. It's only because they were audited that several offerings were discovered to not meet the criterion of beyond entry level content. They represent a handful out of hundred offerings which do meet all criteria.

The only response you can provide is to thank him for the communication and for sharing his perspective, however the Commission has full authority to set criteria for recertification and CPE provider accreditation, and therefore you recommend he submit an appeal to the Competency Assurance Panel and/or the Appeals Panel.

Hiring lawyers is an empty threat and CDR is within its rights to establish criteria and monitor compliance, especially when the intent is to protect the public through continuing professional education.

Hope this helps!

Subject: CONFIDENTIAL Your help and advice please

First of all Donna,

I hope all is well with you and your loved ones, and thank you again for serving as our president. I am proud of you and all you have accomplished.

The reason I am writing to you is because you are a good friend and because you are still on the BOD.

As you know we have been producing exceptionally high quality CPE programs since 1990. In fact I remember that in our early years I asked you to serve as a reviewer several times, so you know that quality education has always been paramount to me.

Long story short: Five of our programs were audited by CDR in September/October this year. On Nov 7, 18 we, as well as many other providers (I know of six for sure) received the attached notice from CDR (please see attached Notice of Audit), which told us that:

"It is CDR's conclusion that the items listed below are not beyond entry level, and therefore, do not meet the criteria for continuing professional education as described in the Accredited Provider Handbook. CDR requests that these and any other nutrition products presently offered or in development that are based on content for the lay public, be discontinued as continuing professional education as of December 1, 2018."

This means that CDR told us to no longer sell ~40% of all our CPE programs as of 3 weeks after we were notified. This decision was made even though I told them that:

"The case study questions in the study guide (SG) test for higher order learning, as opposed to recall, which transforms the content in the book, into application that is beyond entry-level professional practice."

Plus CDR never even looked at the our CPE programs, except the 5 I sent them, and for those 5 they state that they only looked at the website of the books in question, without any regard to the case study driven study guides which are an integral part of every one of our programs. (So basically they looked at ~half of a program (the book) to make a decision.

Early readings from lawyers I've talked to indicates that this deadline is totally unreasonable and legally indefensible because it takes about 6-9 months to exhaust the CDR appeals process. (In other words we are not provided with due process.) Plus the ruling itself is legally indefensible because CDRs decision was executed on an unpublished standard. That is, the only standard in the Provider's Handbook is that CPE must be "beyond entry level." Yet the only criterion used by CDR, as provided to us in writing, is that these programs are based on "content for the lay public," which has never been used before or has ever been published anywhere. ( Please read my Appeal of the 2018 Deadline attached because it will make more sense).

There are many other grim details that I do not want to bore you with, let it suffice to say that it certainly appears that someone wants to get rid of CPE providers.

In response to the Nov 7 letter, I, as well as other providers, are actively interviewing lawyers since all informal appeals, including at the CDR FNCE meeting in DC where Chris Reidy and Karen Lacey the Chair of the Competency Assurance Panel (CAP), have been totally ignored. In fact when we (providers) shared our concerns and frustrations regarding short deadlines, not being treated like partners, etc. Karen said: "I'm sorry, I was not aware of this and I will take it back for reconsideration to my panel members." Less than one month later we all received the Nov. 7 CDR letter. (By the way the letter is the same for everyone.)

Why am I telling you this?

1. I really would like your advice regarding how to best proceed. In other words given your perspective as a past president, how would proceed if you were me?
2. I would like you to know about this because it appears to be legally untenable and may harm the Academy, it's members, as well as CPE providers.
3. I would be very gratified if you could discuss this with other BOD members as well as Pat Babjak because they have a need to know.

Donna I would love to talk to you about this further. If you are OK with that please give me your phone # and let me know when you'd like me to call. Or feel free to reach out to me, my office number is 410-531-9280 and my cell is 410-440-8103. I'm in the office most of tomorrow (Friday) and most of next week.

But enough of bringing you problems. I would like to wish you and your loved ones a very happy and healthy Thanksgiving.

Wolf

Wonderful to hear from you. Today I'm flying to Montgomery Alabama for the Critical Dietetics conference which was convened by Dr Evelyn Clayton, a former Academy president. I'm leading a workshop on developing anti-bias and anti-racism competencies for Dietetics. I'm hoping this is a first step in the puzzle."

Also I am not sure that I expressed myself completely this am on the call - I support and believe we should change the configuration of the committees. However, based on the increased focus and anger across the country regarding diversity and race we may be a need to be sensitive and work it so the committee feels included in the change.

The complaints that I heard from the informatics person are nothing to be concerned with, but she was speaking out in front of young members which was totally inappropriate ( I know it happens).

To your point Donna, it is so important to find people that will get things done. Please, if you have any input to insure we pick members that are more interested in the greater good than their own personal agendas let me know.

Can I ask - why did we spend all of our time discussing committees? - I thought the committees were no longer reporting to the House but all rolled up to the Board - and the Board includes all "6" speakers and HLT. We had no time to discuss the plans for the design team and/or the last minute note from Marcy at 6:38 this morning - I wrote a scathing note to you three about that sheet with the bubbles - what a waste. And the paper that came today said they design team will discuss the relationship between the BOD and the HOD - I did not have the time or the coffee to digest that. It does not seem appropriate for me to bring up my concerns to Marcy individually - your thoughts?

Thank you all! (thanks Donna, such a nice southern way to be inclusive!) You are the best and I appreciate your patience with my thoughts!

Pat, I would love some advice on how to proceed with answering Wolf's concerns? Are you in the loop with these issues? I will be in the office next Monday and Tuesday and would be glad to discuss. I don't believe for a second that CDR is trying to take continuing education away from our members. I feel like this is in reference to our tightening up on granting CEU's, but would like to have the complete story before I answer. I hate that they are trying to hire lawyers!

Subject: CONFIDENTIAL Your help and advice please

First of all Donna,

I hope all is well with you and your loved ones, and thank you again for serving as our president. I am proud of you and all you have accomplished.

The reason I am writing to you is because you are a good friend and because you are still on the BOD.

As you know we have been producing exceptionally high quality CPE programs since 1990. In fact I remember that in our early years I asked you to serve as a reviewer several times, so you know that quality education has always been paramount to me.

Long story short: Five of our programs were audited by CDR in September/October this year. On Nov 7, 18 we, as well as many other providers (I know of six for sure) received the attached notice from CDR (please see attached Notice of Audit), which told us that:

"It is CDR's conclusion that the items listed below are not beyond entry level, and therefore, do not meet the criteria for continuing professional education as described in the Accredited Provider Handbook. CDR requests that these and any other nutrition products presently offered or in development that are based on content for the lay public, be discontinued as continuing professional education as of December 1, 2018."

This means that CDR told us to no longer sell ~40% of all our CPE programs as of 3 weeks after we were notified. This decision was made even though I told them that:

"The case study questions in the study guide (SG) test for higher order learning, as opposed to recall, which transforms the content in the book, into application that is beyond entry-level professional practice."

Plus CDR never even looked at the our CPE programs, except the 5 I sent them, and for those 5 they state that they only looked at the website of the books in question, without any regard to the case study driven study guides which are an integral part of every one of our programs. (So basically they looked at ~half of a program (the book) to make a decision.

Early readings from lawyers I've talked to indicates that this deadline is totally unreasonable and legally indefensible because it takes about 6-9 months to exhaust the CDR appeals process. (In other words we are not provided with due process.) Plus the ruling itself is legally indefensible because CDR's decision was executed on an unpublished standard. That is, the only standard in the Provider's Handbook is that CPE must be "beyond entry level." Yet the only criterion used by CDR, as provided to us in writing, is that these programs are based on "content for the lay public," which has never been used before or has ever been published anywhere. (Please read my Appeal of the 2018 Deadline attached because it will make more sense).

There are many other grim details that I do not want to bore you with, let it suffice to say that it certainly appears that someone wants to get rid of CPE providers.

In response to the Nov 7 letter, I, as well as other providers, are actively interviewing lawyers since all informal appeals, including at the CDR FNCE meeting in DC where Chris Reidy and Karen Lacey the Chair of the Competency Assurance Panel (CAP), have been totally ignored. In fact when we (providers) shared our concerns and frustrations regarding short deadlines, not being treated like partners, etc. Karen said: "I'm sorry, I was not aware of this and I will take it back for reconsideration to my panel members." Less than one month later we all received the Nov. 7 CDR letter. (By the way the letter is the same for everyone.)

Why am I telling you this?

1. I really would like your advice regarding how to best proceed. In other words given your perspective as a past president, how would proceed if you were me?

2. I would like you to know about this because it appears to be legally untenable and may harm the Academy, it's members, as well as CPE providers.

3. I would be very gratified if you could discuss this with other BOD members as well as Pat Babjak because they have a need to know.

Donna I would love to talk to you about this further. If you are OK with that please give me your phone # and let me know when you'd like me to call. Or feel free to reach out to me, my office number is 410-531-9280 and my cell is 410-440-8103. I'm in the office most of tomorrow (Friday) and most of next week.

But enough of bringing you problems. I would like to wish you and your loved ones a very happy and healthy Thanksgiving.

Thank you Donna for bringing this to our attention. Checking Facebook is now on my list.
Excellent to hear DP's assessment.

Hoping DH begins to consider alternate approaches to the future of the HoD to which we all committed.

Greetings!

I am serving as Editor-in-Chief for an exciting project: the creation of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Guide to Nutrition Communication. Currently, the revision of the book is nearing completion and we will be entering the production stage at the beginning of next year. This fall we piloted book sections with potential end-users, namely nutrition students in undergraduate, graduate, and internship programs. Many others wished to participate but were unable to until spring semester. Therefore, we have decided to offer the opportunity to participate in Academic Review 2.0 during spring semester 2019.

You are receiving this email because you:

- were involved in an interview during the initial planning process prior to developing the book, or
- served as an author for one or more chapters, or
- served as a reviewer for one or more book sections, or
- expressed interest in piloting a portion of the book.

One of the goals for the book was to actively involve the audience during its development and creation. As you may be aware, the initial development was informed by surveys and interviews with educators involved in a variety of dietetics education programs, as well as with practitioners in the field. This information directed the breadth and depth of content included, as well as an emphasis on practical application of knowledge. Authors and reviewers throughout the writing process represented both practitioners and educators. Piloting the revised manuscripts allows us to solicit further input from instructors, students, and practicing nutrition and dietetics professionals. This will allow us to “practice what we preach” in the book – which is involving the audience in all stages of the development of nutrition communication.

As the book will be in production at this time, we are not seeking suggestions for changes to the text. The purpose of this “pilot” is to gain insights into how the book will be used, what its outstanding features are, and to solicit ideas for potential ideas that may supplement the book in ancillary materials. This will also allow you to be prepared to implement the book upon publication.

If you are interested in participating in Academic Review 2.0, please reply and you will be sent a document that fully outlines the entire book. You will be asked to select one or more complete sections to pilot. The book contains 8 sections and each section is composed of 3-7 chapters. Refer to the attached document for a brief table of contents for the text. Sections will be provided as PDF proofs that have not gone through the final editing or design process and will still be in manuscript form. Final images and diagrams are still being selected and created. You will have permission to post chapters online or copy for students for the sole purpose of piloting their use. All sections will be available at the start of the semester, giving you maximum flexibility in planning when to implement their use.

Participants will be given links to an online survey to complete for each chapter reviewed. The survey asks respondents (both instructors and students) to describe how a chapter was used or could be used; rate readability and content; and suggest potential activities and discussion questions that could be shared with future users.

You are welcome to forward this invitation to other dietetics educators. Please tell them to indicate who they received the invitation from when they send me a request to participate. If you are not interested in participating, there is no need to reply. Please inform us of your interest by December 10th to plan accordingly. Indicating interest does not commit you to participation. Once you review the documents with more detail about chapter contents, you may determine your involvement.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Barb

Hi all,

Here is my update on the Evolution Designers for today's 3P and 3Scall if we need to take offline if time does not allow for my update at the end. We have a lot to discuss in one hour!

Talk soon,

Marcy

Outstanding news ! Congratulations on the successful collaboration , it has most significant long term implications .

Perhaps we should enlist this team to renegotiate some of our treaty issues.

Dear Academy and Foundation Board Members,

#GivingTuesday is November 27! The Foundation will be sending an all member email appeal on that day encouraging members to support their profession. Here is a sample social media post you may use or personalize on FB or Twitter to encourage your friends, colleagues and followers to give as well. Thanks for your help!

November 27 is #GivingTuesday – I plan on donating to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation and supporting my fellow Academy members through scholarships, awards, grants and disaster relief funding – please join me in supporting our profession!

Dear NDEP Membership:

NDEP is pleased to present the slate of candidates for office for the 2019-2020 year:

Vice Chair: Susan Helm, PhD, RDN, FAND and Leann Schaeffer, MA, RD, LD

Preceptor Director: Shaynee Roper, M.Ed, RD, LDN; Gena Seraita, MS, RD, CDN; and Becky Sulik, RDN, LD, CDE

West Coast Regional Director: Janet Beary, PhD, RD, CHES and Carrie King, PhD, RD, LD, CDE

North Central Regional Director: Christine Haar, MS, RDN, LD and Michelle Johnson, PhD, RDN, LDN

North East Regional Director: Maria Hall, MS, RD, LDN, SNS

According to NDEP policy, a slate of candidates must be presented to the NDEP membership at least 30 days prior to the start of voting. Should you wish to petition that additional candidates be included on the slate, you must submit a petition to the NDEP Nominating Committee by contacting Pat Knisley, Past Chair-NDEP at ndep@eatright.org within the next 30 calendar days or by December 15, 2018. You must have the support, with signatures, of 5% or 73 NDEP members. For more information on submitting a petition, please email ndep@eatright.org.

Petitions must include biographical information on the candidate and qualifications for the NDEP leadership position. If deemed eligible for the NDEP position by the NDEP Nominating Committee, the additional candidates will be added to a contested ballot prior to the start of online voting, beginning February 1, 2019.

This is the time of year when affiliates, DPGs, MIGs, and individual Academy members begin to develop honors and awards nomination packets. Please encourage your colleagues to submit nominations to recognize individuals who have advanced the profession. To learn more about the awards and honors program, refer to <http://www.eatrightPRO.org/nationalawards/>.

Please remember that members of the Board of Directors are not eligible to receive an Academy honor or award. Also, no current member of the Academy's Board may provide a letter of support for inclusion in honors and awards nominee packets (see excerpts from Honors and Awards policy below). If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Barbara Visocan at bvisocan@eatright.org.

Board of Directors Eligibility <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> No member of the Board of Directors may at the time of honors and awards selection and/or presentation be eligible to receive an Academy honor or award. This includes those on the ballot for the following year; if a Board nominee is elected, he/she is not eligible for an award.

Members of the Academy/Academy Foundation Boards of Directors are eligible to receive a national Academy honor or award after three (3) years upon completing their term of service, with the exception of the public member who may be eligible immediately after completing their term of office.

Letters of Support No current members involved in the selection process for an honor or award, including the Board of Directors, may provide a letter of support for Academy honors and awards nominations. Academy Staff may not write letters of support for National Honors and Awards nominees.

Best regards,

Thanks Amy - glad you checked and it is unfortunate that we cannot attend. The others are spectacular! Looking forward to hearing about other interest.

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

· I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

- Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Kudos Amy and Pat for initiating and executing this terrific member "value add".

A win for everyone.

Terri if you are available and the $$ work out would be terrific to have you attend the NJ meeting.

Agree that Ellen would be a very good alternate if NJ funds are tight.

Amy, so sorry we are taking a short vacation and I am behind on email. I agree with Donna that we should support both requests.

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Thanks much.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Mary, Donna and Terri,

Good catch by Terri – she looked at the New Jersey website and they were promoting a different date. The affiliate changed the date without letting us know (they were very apologetic). Unfortunately the new date is May 10 which is during the Board meeting so everyone will be busy.

To summarize the speaker grants:

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- I'm awaiting an answer from them about either Ellen or Marcy attending. (meeting is May 8th)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

- No attendance. They changed date and their meeting is now during the Academy Board meeting.

Montana Academy

- Donna Martin confirmed. (May 21-22, 2019, Livingston, MT)

Louisiana Academy

· Mary Russell confirmed (Baton Rouge LA. April 9, 2019)

We have a few more that should be coming soon! I'll keep you posted!

Kudos Amy and Pat for initiating and executing this terrific member "value add".
A win for everyone.

Terri if you are available and the $$ work out would be terrific to have you attend the NJ meeting.

Agree that Ellen would be a very good alternate if NJ funds are tight.

Dear Carol, Lucia, and Nathalie,

On behalf of the Academy and Foundation Boards and staff, thank you for attending FNCE 2018 in Washington, DC! We enjoyed getting to know you better and even dancing with you at the Gala. Board representatives are planning to attend the DC Conference in Ottawa in June 2019. I am extending an invitation to you and to anyone else you deem appropriate to meet with Academy and Foundation staff at our headquarters in Chicago to discuss potential collaboration between our two organizations. We will make sure Chris Reidy, Executive Director of the Commission and Dietetic Registration, our credentialing agency, attends so you can dialogue about the pathways to exam eligibility in Canada and the US.

Wishing you upcoming happy holidays!

Best regards,

Pat

I just wanted to send you a belated thank you for giving me the opportunity to attend my first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo 2018 in Washington, DC. What a spectacular event that was. I have never attended anything that big or dynamic in my life. Thank you for this incredible opportunity. I know I will plan to attend again and to bring others even if it is just to be able to put on waders and go in the cranberry bog!

Thank you for inviting us to your Awards Breakfast (sorry we were late – we were on Canadian time!), to the Presidents Reception and to your Gala. We were greeted with warmth and treated like royalty by all of you and the staff as well.

I hope to see you at the DC Conference in Ottawa in June 2018. Sincere gratitude and true respect to all of you and your wonderful academy. Please share my thanks with all.

Dear Mary, Donna, Terri, Pat, Staff et al,

I just wanted to send you a belated thank you for giving me the opportunity to attend my first Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo 2018 in Washington, DC. What a spectacular event that was. I have never attended anything that big or dynamic in my life. Thank you for this incredible opportunity. I know I will plan to attend again and to bring others even if it is just to be able to put on waders and go in the cranberry bog!

Thank you for inviting us to your Awards Breakfast (sorry we were late – we were on Canadian time!), to the Presidents Reception and to your Gala. We were greeted with warmth and treated like royalty by all of you and the staff as well.

I hope to see you at the DC Conference in Ottawa in June 2018. Sincere gratitude and true respect to all of you and your wonderful academy. Please share my thanks with all.

Public Policy Weekly News
November 13, 2018
News from the Hill and Beyond
Midterm Election Update

Last week's midterm elections have the potential to impact aspects of the Academy's policy and advocacy initiatives at the federal, state and local levels. The Academy will strategically look at framing, messaging and advocacy tactics to make progress on our consistent, non-partisan set of initiatives that improve quality of life, health care, and food and nutrition safety and security. In particular, newly elected champions for our priority issues across the country including governors and state legislators present exciting opportunities for advocacy work on reimbursement, consumer protection, and more.

Join our partners at the Congressional Management Foundation for a webinar on December 13 from 1-2 p.m. Eastern Time to look at changes in Congress after the midterm elections and what these might mean for cultivating new relationships and maintaining longstanding ones. This program will look into questions such as:

- What matters to Congress?
- How can elections shift power in Congress?
- What are the five proven-effective "remedies" that citizen advocates can use to establish and strengthen new relationships with their Members of Congress?

Register here for the webinar.

We look forward to a rich discussion with new and seasoned policymakers in the coming months and welcome comments and suggestions from affiliate and DPG member leaders about future policy initiatives and advocacy as we work to develop work plans for the future.

Lame Duck Session Begins as Congress Returns after Midterm Elections

Although House leaders met early this week to discuss a farm bill negotiation deal, pundits are skeptical that a deal can be reached before the end of the lame duck session, citing other legislative issues likely to take priority including additional nominations, leadership elections for both parties and chambers, and the looming year-end spending showdown. Congress still needs to pass seven spending bills by December 7 when the current continuing resolution expires. It is expected that President Trump's call for a border wall will stall progress on passage of the bills which include funding for USDA and the FDA.

FDA Releases Initial Finding on Foodborne Illness in Restaurant Settings

On November 7, the FDA released initial findings in a report on the Occurrence of Foodborne Illness Risk Factors in Fast Food and Full-Service Restaurants from 2013-2014. The initial phase of the 10-year study is meant to provide key insights about food safety for restaurant management by examining foodborne illness risk factors, food safety practices, and behaviors in retail food establishments.

The webinar will be recorded and uploaded to the Academy's website for future playback. Register here.

You're Invited: Licensure Web Series Begins THIS Friday - Register

This Friday, November 16, from 4-5 p.m. Eastern Time the Academy will hold its first of a series of interactive state licensure web-meetings for any and all affiliates either 1) working to enact their state's first dietetics and nutrition licensure law or 2) considering making changes to their existing act anytime in the 2019-2020 state legislative sessions. Thank you to those who filled out the Doodle Poll last week with your availability. We encourage every affiliate even remotely considering legislation to attend the live web-meeting; however, a recording will also be made available for those unable to make it.

The agenda for the first meeting will include:

- An overview of the licensure process
- How to avoid pitfalls
- An outline of key developments in licensure.

Email licensure@eatright.org with any questions or concerns.

November Policy Policy Open Forum

Academy policy leaders are invited to join us later this month for our November Public Policy Open Forum, held on Tuesday, November 27 from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, that will focus on effective advocacy and communication strategies and best practices for grassroots member engagement.

The webinar will feature speakers:

- Lesley McPhatter, MS, RD, CSR - 2018 Award for Grassroots Excellence Winner
- Kim Iles, MS, RD, LDN, CLT - Licensure expert and NC Licensure Board Member
- Laura Perdue, MPH, RD - LPPC Member and Nominator of Rep. Betty McCollum (Minn.) for the 2018 Public Policy Leadership Award
- Lauri Wright, PhD, RDN, LD - LPPC Member and session moderator.

Addressing Malnutrition in VA Hospitals and Beyond: Lessons and Opportunities for Non-VA Organizations - Register

The Veterans Administration has long been focused on ensuring it meets the nutrition needs of its population and has undertaken significant efforts in recent years to support better malnutrition care, both within and beyond the hospital. Learn more on Thursday, December 6 from 1-2 p.m. Eastern Time on a VA-focused webinar offered as part of the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative. Attendees will learn from the VA's experience and how to apply malnutrition quality improvement activities to non-VA facilities. Register today and to send questions you have for the speakers in advance.

The Next Frontier: Research in Pregnant Women and Breastfeeding Women Congressional Briefing - RSVP

On Thursday, November 15 from noon - 1 p.m. Eastern Time, attend a congressional briefing in Room 188 of Russell Senate Office Building hosted by members of the Academy's Breastfeeding Collaborative. The briefing will highlight NIH investments in research in pregnancy and the postpartum period that study these critical periods to optimizing the health of women and their families. Industry will also share challenges and opportunities they face to include this population in clinical trials.

Regulatory Roundup - Proposed Public Charge Rule

The Academy is seeking DPG and MIG input on a newly proposed rule, “Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds,” which expands the ability of the Department of Homeland Security to determine whether an undocumented immigrant is inadmissible to the U.S. because he or she is likely at any time to become a public charge (i.e., receiving public assistance). The proposed rule fundamentally redefines what it means to be a “public charge”—whereas it currently means whether one was primarily dependent on a limited set of social services, the proposed rule expands the set of triggering social services to include SNAP, and government health insurance programs like Medicaid, Medicare, and possibly CHIP. Information about impacts on access to healthcare, food security, and education particular helpful to the Academy.

We encourage members to review the suggested elements of draft comments by Academy partner, the Food Research and Action Center; additional content used in preparing comments can be found here and in the FRAC Comment Toolkit. Send comments to your DPG PAL or MIG leaders by November 26.

PALs, please plan to review the regulatory opportunities section each week and share the information with your executive board or team.

PAL Monthly Call - November 29, 2018

The next PAL monthly call will be held on the fifth Thursday of this month, November 29, 2018, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, due to the Thanksgiving holiday. The agenda will be sent out next week. We hope to see all of our PALs there!

Action Center

Prediabetes Public Service Campaign Set to Launch on World Diabetes Day Wednesday, November 14

A public service announcement campaign developed by the CDC, Ad Council and American Medical Association that focuses on prediabetes launches tomorrow on World Diabetes Day. The PSA toolkit features various resources to raise awareness around these efforts including suggested media copy, videos, graphics, posters, newsletter language and more. Coverage for prediabetes MNT continues to be a priority for the Academy and is the subject of a current action alert – taking action is the perfect way to celebrate the occasion!

Action Alerts

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again to inform your member of Congress about important nutrition policy priorities. Your voice makes a difference, but only if it is heard. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency around this election time. The voice of every member is critical.

Take action today!

Take Action!

Nomination Notices

FINAL Call for Nominations: The Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry due Nov. 15

The Health Resources and Services Administration seeks nominees for membership on the Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry. Since this committee implements performance measures for training in professions which may refer to RDNs, it's important that the Academy be a visible participant.

Interested candidates should send their CV along with a letter describing their interest and basis for nomination Mark Rifkin.

PALs, please plan to review the nomination opportunities section and share the information with your executive board or team.

Dear NDEP Members,

The 2018-2019 Applicant Guide to Supervised Practice is now available!!

The Applicant Guide to Supervised Practice is the most up-to-date reference available detailing internships, individualized supervised practice pathways, and coordinated dietetic education programs. The Guide is published as a searchable .pdf document that details over 250 programs. This year's guide contains international experiences available, length of time in the program's concentration and any restrictions on applicants, such as US citizenship. Also included is an Excel spreadsheet that allows users to sort and search programs by cost, number of applicants, degree or certificate offered, city, stipend offered, program concentration, length, and many other variables.

<https://www.eatrightstore.org/product-type/books/applicant-guide-to-supervised-practice-2018-2019>

Upon completion of your order, a link to access your purchase will be sent to the email address you have on file with the Academy. The link will expire after 30 days after which point you will be unable to download the Guide. Please be sure your email address is accurate before submitting your order and you download the Guide within 30 days!

The Guide is for educational purposes only and should not be used or copied for commercial purposes.

Please email sales@eatright.org for questions related to your purchase or ndep@eatright.org with any questions related to the applicant guide.

Let me know if you approve or have questions. If approved, Joan and I will move forward with the details and scheduling.

Montana Academy

- May 21-22, 2019
- Livingston, MT
- Donna Martin

Louisiana Academy

- April 9, 2019
- Baton Rouge, LA
- Mary Russell
- “We would love to have her at the Breakfast Business Meeting/Awards Ceremony on 4-9-18.”
- Mary, this may sound familiar as they had already reached out to you to coordinate your participation. I wanted them to go through the formal request process.

Kudos Amy and Pat for initiating and executing this terrific member "value add".

A win for everyone.

Terri if you are available and the $$ work out would be terrific to have you attend the NJ meeting.

Agree that Ellen would be a very good alternate if NJ funds are tight.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Hi Amy,

Yes, I can make this work and I will talk with Mary and if she would like to have Ellen Shanley or someone closer we can do that as well!

Thanks so much! It is very exciting that they are requesting a visit and I appreciate all the hard work that makes this a success!

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Thanks much.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

Attached are two more speaker grants – Montana and Louisiana.

Let me know if you approve or have questions. If approved, Joan and I will move forward with the details and scheduling.

Montana Academy

- May 21-22, 2019
- Livingston, MT
- Donna Martin

Louisiana Academy

- April 9, 2019
- Baton Rouge, LA
- Mary Russell

- “We would love to have her at the Breakfast Business Meeting/Awards Ceremony on 4-9-18.”

- Mary, this may sound familiar as they had already reached out to you to coordinate your participation. I wanted them to go through the formal request process.

Thanks,

Amy

Hi, Donna,

I just reviewed all of them and they are fabulous! You did a great job and the grandkids are adorable.

Keep us posted if there is a specific air date.

Happy weekend,

Donna,

Here are some quick thoughts. Remember, this is your story. You are authentic and genuine and that shows through on screen. You are a natural!

1. Interaction with Michelle - the stories you included in your original answers prepared for Adam's taping are perfect. And, remember, it comes from your heart, your experience ... these are fabulous.
2. Impact on your life - when we talked yesterday you mentioned rephrasing the "courage" part. I believe saying Michelle gave you courage is fine. Follow it up with what we discussed - you always had (and do have) courage but you were able to amplify your message and vision, making it public. That is using your courage in new and unexplored ways. Donna, you can never go wrong with sharing what is true to you. :)
3. What Michelle means to you - I also enjoyed when you shared about Michelle believing that children's health and well-being was important and she valued them being a part of your experiences with her. I think it would be great if you shared what you told Adam for the video - the First Lady recognized and fast-tracked the work you were doing and put it on a national/global stage "amplifying" the progress.

Donna, your awesome - you've got this!

Happy Saturday and please call if you need to chat through it.

Best,

Mack

Hi!

Thank you so much for sending us a video for Michelle Obama!

Please do not mention this to anyone and/or post about this on social media and as always, there is no guarantee your video will be used on our show, but the goal is to show each clip to Michelle Obama herself (which is very exciting!).

For the video please follow the following instructions:

- Film on an iphone/camera/etc. but make sure it is framed from the CHEST UP
- Please film HORIZONTALLY
- Please refer to Michelle as (Mrs. Obama, Former First Lady, Michelle Obama, etc. ) NOT "you" since you are not speaking directly to her
- Please make sure there is good lighting and audio in the video before sending to us
- The goal of these videos is to genuinely thank Michelle for the impact she has had on your life so PLEASE do not hold back the tears and please aim to be as genuine and authentic as possible with your video!

•If it is easier to break the video into three parts, feel free to do so, but please make sure you include the following areas:

1. First interaction with Michelle and how exciting that was for you
2. The Impact Michelle has had on your life
3. What Michelle means to you (please provide specific examples such as "Michelle Obama once told me xxx and it has changed me forever")

And finally, if there are any photos of you and Michelle Obama, please email them to us with your video!

We are aiming to get these back asap, but we understand these take a little bit of time, so please let us know when we can expect your video and photos!

Please let us know if you have any questions, thank you!!

Hi, Donna,

I hope all is going well as you are preparing for another big week at FNCE®. Over the last couple of weeks I have given a lot of thought to your request to review your responses for the taping. First, you did a wonderful job, as always. But, more importantly, I was hesitant to even comment because, although you are a Past President of the Academy, this is your personal experience with Mrs. Obama, and your answers depict how you felt in those moments.

However, I did do what you asked J and I have made suggested comments on the attached word doc on items that may resonate more with the direction I imagine their producers going with this project. Please let me know if you need anything else. We will be there to support and assist.

I am going to reach out to Adam Garber on Monday (and will cc: you) to confirm logistics.

We are so excited for you on this opportunity. You always fantastically represent the Academy and the profession; this will be no different.

Sincerely,

mackenzie

Mac and Doris, Would you all have time to look over my answers to the questions Michelle Obama's video team sent me for the video taping we will do at FNCE? I want to make sure what I say is OK with you all and also that it has a good chance of being used for her book tour. You guys know what they are looking for so much better than I do. Any help and suggestions would be greatly appreciated. I know you are busy getting ready for FNCE, but your input would be invaluable for me. Thanks in advance.

The Gut Microbiome: Hype vs. Health

Date: Tuesday, November 13, 12 PM CST (1 hr. event)
CPEU: 1 credit

It's well known that what we eat and drink can affect the composition of the gut microbiome. However, with probiotics now widely available and a growing number of products marketed toward "improving gut health", are hype and hope outpacing the science? This webinar will highlight public understanding and consumer insights as they relate to the gut microbiome and nutrition, and discuss the current state of the evidence on the connection between the microbiome, food, and health.

Learning Objectives:

1. Identify public awareness and market trends related to the gut microbiome and gut health.
2. Discuss definitions and proposed mechanisms of action for pre/pro/synbiotics.
3. Discuss clinical evidence for nutritionally-focused means of modulating the gut microbiome to support gut health.

Speakers

Ali Webster, PhD, RD, is the Associate Director for Nutrition Communications at the International Food Information Council, where she is responsible for developing and managing nutrition science-focused communication programs for consumers and health professionals. Ali joined IFIC from the University of Minnesota in 2017, where she conducted research on the effect of diet on the gut microbiome and worked as a Registered Dietitian counseling patients with gastrointestinal conditions.

Dr. Gail Cresci is full-staff at the Cleveland Clinic Pediatric Institute & Lerner Research Institute, where her role is to conduct and organize her NIH-funded basic and translational research program focusing on the gut microbiome and its metabolome in health and pathological states with a focus in pediatrics. Additionally, she assists with the development and implementation of clinical nutrition research for the Center for Human Nutrition.

Hello everyone,

As we discussed in Pittsburgh, we are arranging for a teleconference to continue the discussion on enhancing the Childhood program content. Please see Kathy's notes before from our November 2, 2018 dinner meeting. I have included a link to a Doodle Poll to obtain your availability for a call later in the month and the first couple of days in December. Please provide your availability by Friday, November 16, 2018. Let me know if we should invite any other faculty members to join this teleconference. Please keep the following in mind in discussing enhancements the program:

- 1) We cannot add any new sessions. Any new content must be added to current sessions.
- 2) Any changes to the pre-work will be made during the annual review which is conducted over the summer.

<https://doodle.com/poll/wbtx3dqgx48f9dak>

Brief Notes from 11/2/18 dinner

1. Update Craig's slides – readdress stigma and mental health issues; e.g., depression, suicide - possible incorporate into breakout session???

2. Need for RD's to identify warning signs depression/suicide/etc. and when to refer out
3. Need to address Obesity coding - may fit easily into Vanessa's presentation
4. Dana & Deb look at environmental piece duplications get together next week – outcome?
5. Susan incorporate basics of bariatric surgery into pre work – free up time for presentation practical issues
6. Pearlie send out listing of accepted defined terms to use for communication with and about persons with the disease of obesity
7. Need to address parent piece – big gap – discuss practical issues, e.g., when to bring in, when to ask to leave, through the years- Craig addresses with his slides at the end but more practice maybe in breakout sessions???

RDNs need skills to identify early signs of depression/suicide to refer out – not only diagnostic tests – but practical signs. That is why the recent article, “Children Who Are Obese May Struggle in School” was of interest to me.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Amy, so sorry we are taking a short vacation and I am behind on email. I agree with Donna that we should support both requests.

Perhaps Marcy (or Ellen) for the NH presentation if she is willing? Am I forgetting anyone else on the Board who is close to NH?

I am committed to speaking at the Rush University internship graduation on 4/26 so callus not speak. Terri? Donna?

Thanks much.

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

· Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."

- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

A communication from Jeanne Blankenship, Vice President of Policy Initiatives and Advocacy follows.

Coordinator, Executive Office Operations
Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Board of Directors:

Today we learned the outcome of elections for most local, state and federal candidates and await results too close either to call or that require a recount. Personal politics aside, mid-term elections have the potential to impact aspects of the Academy's policy and advocacy initiatives and it is important to consider the current and soon-to-changed environment.

While change motivated by political strategy and partisanship is likely, the Academy has a record of bipartisan support for the organization's longstanding food and nutrition policy goals that benefit all individuals in the U.S. and now globally. Our issues focus importance of nutrition services on quality of life, health, longevity and food security. In the face of imminent changes in the makeup and leadership of the next Congress, our goals remain consistent, reflecting a commitment to our strategic impact areas: prevention and well-being, health care and health systems and food and nutrition safety and security.

What will change are the strategies used to frame our conversations, the emphasis of our messaging, and the legislative tactics employed to achieve our goals. We continue to seek to find common ground and position food and nutrition as non-partisan, common sense issues. The most notable change will undoubtedly be that the House of Representatives will now see the Democratic Party in the majority, which eliminates the trifecta of the 115th Congress during which Republicans controlled both chambers as well as the presidency. Despite what was perceived by many to be an opportunity for the Republican Party to advance its agenda during the 115th, the reality is that sweeping change was not easily achieved and little substantive legislation was enacted. Even with a majority, compromise and common ground remain requirements for achieving consensus and passing bills into law, and these are hallmarks of the Academy's policy strategy. It is clear that Americans will continue to stand up and raise their voices on important issues.

The Senate, because Republicans held only a narrow majority, was not able to impart significant change in the current Congress. Yesterday's elections will lead to more seats in the Senate for Republicans in the 116th but it remains to be seen whether this will increase partisanship or whether the need to work with a Democratic House to pass legislation will lead to enhanced compromise and a willingness for both sides to work across the aisle. The Academy saw some of allies lose their seats and some transition to other offices. Relationships with newly-elected candidates are already being considered as we look toward the end of the current Congress and advocate for reintroduction of current and the potential for new bills. Champions newly elected as governors and state legislators across the country present exciting opportunities for our advocacy work on reimbursement, consumer protection, and more.

What is next for the Academy?

First, staff and leaders will be analyzing the results of the elections to identify the impact of the changes on our current issues and define how to develop or strengthen relationships with the newly-elected officials. We will continue to work with partners and legislative champions to make the necessary strategic and tactical decisions in the next year, with cautious optimism that the electoral changes may enable a more productive legislative session. Then, we will use our relationships with Congress to advocate during the lame-duck session which may see movement on the farm bill, spending packages for USDA and FDA, and maternal child health research to name a few. We will also begin to prepare for the opportunity set in motion at FNCE and PPW to bring malnutrition to the forefront of policy change. During the first quarter of 2019, we will visit with the “freshmen” and also return to the seasoned officials to convey the importance of our members in combating malnutrition across the globe. Finally, we will continue to support pro-nutrition candidates and our members who choose to run for public office. While we didn’t achieve success this election with those who ran, the engagement and interest cannot be understated and the value of holding an office must be underscored.

We look forward to a rich discussion and update at the next Board meeting and welcome your comments and suggestions for future policy initiatives and advocacy.

Best regards,

Jeanne Blankenship, MS RDN

Dear NDEP Member,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the November ACEND Standards News is posted on the ACEND webpage: Standards News. In this issue, the ACEND forum presentation at FNCE “Demonstration Program Innovations in Educating Future Practitioners” is highlighted.

ACEND has issued a third call for demonstration programs to be accredited under the FEM Standards; applications are due by 11:00 am CT on January 11, 2019 (see www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel for more information).

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is proposing minor revisions to the Future Education Model Accreditation Standards (see: eatrightPRO.org/FutureModel). Public comments on the proposed revisions to the Standards can be made at https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RevisedFEMuntil January 7, 2019. We encourage you to provide your input.

Moving forward, the ACEND Standards News will be published quarterly with the next edition issued in February 2019.

The next meeting of the quarterly Virtual Town Hall meetings is scheduled for Tuesday January 8, 2019 at 11 am CT. Please note the new day and time. The town hall provides a time for ACEND to share updates on its standards work and for stakeholders to ask questions. Information on joining the town hall can be found at www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the ACEND Standards News will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

Weekly News for Academy Policy Leaders
Public Policy Weekly News
November 6, 2018
News from the Hill and Beyond
Get Out and Vote in the Midterm Elections TODAY

Things have been quiet on Capitol Hill, as members of Congress have been back in-district campaigning for the midterm elections that take place today, November 6, 2018.

Effective advocacy requires more than just good policy; you need legislators willing and working to enact it. If you haven't already, head to your local polling location and vote to elect the candidates who will enact the nutrition policy priorities we hope to see.

Public Policy Workshop
Hill Visit Reports Still Needed

As a reminder to PPCs, Alternates and PALs: please submit your Hill Visit Report Survey online or send scanned copies to Nate Stritzinger. If you, yourself, are not submitting the hill reports, please coordinate with your team leads to do so. We would love to hear about how your visits went and what we can do to follow-up as needed.

PPW 2018 Evaluation Surveys

There are two PPW 2018 Evaluation Surveys open now if you 1) went to PPW 2018 as an attendee or 2) are a PPC, PAL or Alternate. Your responses truly mean a lot to us and they will help shape future PPWs by giving us input on what we can do better going forward. Each survey will take ~10 minutes to complete. Please fill these out if you have not already done so. Thank you!

Minnesota Affiliate Presents Rep. Betty McCollum with the 2018 Public Policy Leadership Award
In-person

Last week, MAND presented Rep. Betty McCollum (Minn.) in-person with the 2018 Public Policy Leadership Award for her outstanding work championing the Academy's policy priorities. The award was officially bestowed upon the Congresswoman during the Public Policy Workshop on October 23, but she was unable to make it; you can watch her acceptance of the award on video, aired at PPW 2018 here.

Member Updates and Professional Development

Contemplating New / Amending Current Dietetics Licensure Legislation?

Beginning on Friday, November 16, the Academy will initiate a series of interactive state licensure web-meetings for any and all affiliates either 1) working to enact their state's first dietetics and nutrition licensure law or 2) considering making changes to their existing act anytime in the 2019-2020 state legislative sessions.

We encourage every affiliate even remotely considering legislation to complete this doodle poll with your availability to join the live web-meeting on Friday, November 16. Please submit your poll responses by November 7, 2018 so we may confirm a time that works best. If you are unable to make the live webinar, a recording will be made available to you.

The agenda for the first meeting includes:

- An overview of the licensure process
- How to avoid pitfalls
- An outline of key developments in licensure.

Subsequent meetings will be focused on topics of general applicability to all affiliates, while others will be dedicated to issues relevant to a smaller subset of affiliates. Feel free to email licensure@eatright.org with any questions or concerns.

Policy and Advocacy Forums Offer Peer-to-Peer Education and Networking

Policy and Advocacy Forums are monthly webinars that focus on an advocacy topic area for policy leaders, encouraging peer-to-peer education and networking. Register below for upcoming forums.

Achieving Your Policy Goals Through Advocacy - Register

- Tuesday, November 27, 2018 , 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

Measuring Up: FY2018 Strategic Measures Report - Register

- Tuesday, December 18, 2018, 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time.

State Obesity Advocacy Initiative will Focus on Access to Care

State Advocacy Training: Putting Advocacy into Action - Register

- Thursday, November 29, 2018, 3:30-4:30 p.m. Eastern Time

This webinar will launch a collaborative effort between the Academy and partner organizations designed to increase access to obesity care. SPRs, SRSs and RRs, along with other interested panel leaders, are asked to attend. The initiative was introduced at the Policy and Advocacy Forums at FNCE®.

Safe Thanksgiving Meal Prep Twitter Party on November 8

Nobody has time to get sick during the holidays. Join the Partnership for Food Safety Education on November 8 at 4 p.m. Eastern Time for a twitter chat on safe holiday meal preparation. Holiday recipes, tips and prizes will be given out during the Twitter Party. Use the #StoryofYourDinner and follow @Fight_Bac to join in.

Regulatory Roundup

Regulatory Roundup

A list of regulatory items, ordered by date, are available here. Check out the calendar for relevant meetings with remote access and open to the public.

PALs, please plan to review the regulatory opportunities section each week and share the information with your executive board or team.

PAL Monthly Call - November 29, 2018

The next PAL monthly call will be held on the fifth Thursday of this month, November 29, 2018, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern Time, due to the Thanksgiving holiday. We hope to see all of our PALs there!

Action Center

Action Alerts: Leading by Example

As policy leaders, it is important that all of you serve as a role model for your affiliate and/or DPG. Our Strategic Measures data has shown that an increase in Action Alert participation by Public Policy Panel leaders is correlated with increased member participation.

Action alerts are open for:

- Co-Sponsor the Cost-Saving Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830)
- Urge Your Members of Congress to Support Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment.

Only 30% of PPCs and 44% of PALs have taken action on the TROA Action Alert, while 33% of PPCs and 48% PALs have taken action on the Malnutrition Action Alert.

Please take action and share these action alerts far and wide with your Affiliates and DPGs so we can amplify the collective voice of RDNs and NDTRs. If you are not sure whether or not you have taken action, you can always take action again to inform your member of Congress about important nutrition policy priorities. Your voice makes a difference, but only if it is heard. Take action today!

PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels:

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment by supporting the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act and preventing and treating malnutrition. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency around this election time. The voice of every member is critical.

Take action today!

Take Action!

Nomination Notices

Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry, Due November 15

The Health Resources and Services Administration seeks nominees for membership on the Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry. Since this committee implements performance measures for training in professions which may refer to RDNs, it's important that the Academy be a visible participant.

Interested candidates should send their CV along with a letter describing their interest and basis for nomination Mark Rifkin.

PALs, please plan to review the nomination opportunities section and share the information with your executive board or team.

ANDPAC Corner

PPW 2018 ANDPAC Affiliate Challenge Winner Selected!

Nilo Couture, MPH, RD, LDN, CDE has been chosen as the winner of the ANDPAC Affiliate Challenge for PPW 2018. By posting a photo with a Keep Calm and Call a Dietitian memento on social media with the hashtags #FNCE and #ANDPAC, she has been randomly selected as the recipient of a $100 gift card. Thank you to all those who shared their experiences on social media. If dietetics is your profession, policy should be your passion!

Wisconsin Affiliate Reps ANDPAC with Rep. Pocan

With support from ANDPAC, WAND members celebrated Halloween one night early with Rep. Pocan (Wis.) and discussed the importance of RDNs with the Congressman. This event was a valuable follow-up from a visit to the Congressman's Washington D.C. office at PPW 2018 and shows that policy work always continues back at home, in-district. Dietetic interns at the University of Wisconsin new to the policy arena also had the opportunity to see first-hand the relationship building that goes into advocacy. Keep up the good (policy) work.

Study: Gut bacteria less diverse after immigration to US

A study in the journal Cell found that the gut microbiomes of people who moved to the US from Southeast Asia lost diversity and they became more prone to obesity, and their children had even less gut diversity. Differences in diet were involved, says study co-author Dan Knights, but differences in drinking water and antibiotics may also be factors.

Dietary Health

RDs say interval diet has benefits, should be customized

Plastic surgeon Terry Dubrow and reality TV star Heather Dubrow say their interval eating diet is more effective, safer and easier to follow than ketogenic or other intermittent fasting diets. The diet has merit, says registered dietitian Mitzi Dulan, who recommends remaining mindful of portion size and focusing on high-nutrient foods, and RD Jenna Werner agrees, adding that the diet should be customized for individual lifestyles by a dietitian.

Science & Research

Experts say IgG tests are not scientifically sound

Physicians and allergy and immunology groups say IgG tests, which identify immunoglobulin G in the blood, have never been proven reliable or accurate for diagnosing food allergies. They warn that unnecessarily eliminating foods can lead to the development of a food allergy, especially in children, and can also cause nutritional deficiencies.

Children who are obese are more likely than their healthy-weight peers to be uninterested in schoolwork and to struggle to cope with stressful situations, according to a preliminary study presented at the American Academy of Pediatrics' annual meeting. Researchers asked nearly 23,000 parents and caregivers of 10- to 17-year-olds about "flourishing" indicators, including doing required homework and showing interest in learning new things, and noted these factors could be influenced by social stigma.

Researchers study diet of indigenous population with good heart health

A study in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition found that the diet of the Tsimane people in rural Bolivia is less varied than the diet of neighboring Moseten people or the typical US diet, but it is high in complex carbohydrates, fiber, potassium, magnesium and selenium, potentially explaining the remarkably low rates of cardiovascular disease and metabolic syndrome among the Tsimanes. However, the diabetes rate among Tsimanes appears to be rising as they gain more access to processed foods and sugars, researchers say.

Foundation Scholarship Recipients
Express Their Gratitude

Our Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation invests in the current and future generation of food and nutrition practitioners as the world's largest provider of dietetic scholarships. Over the last three years, your support has helped provide more than $1.5 million in scholarships to 1,208 Academy members, providing opportunities to students at all levels of study to pursue a career in dietetics. Please watch the video below to see the impact your donation has made with two recent scholarship recipients. Each year, Academy members like Megan and Lisa rely on your support to help them reach their educational goals.

Megan Farris & Lisa Piazza, MS, RDN, LDN, with heartfelt thanks for Foundation scholarships

Our Foundation is the only public charity exclusively dedicated to our profession and does not receive a portion of member dues to support its programs. Our success and impact are directly attributed to your generosity. On behalf of all our Foundation scholarship recipients, we thank you for your support. Be sure to check out our 2017-2018 Donor Report that recognizes last fiscal year's donors and accomplishments - together we are creating a world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.

Sincerely,

Joan Schwaba, MS, RDN, LDN

Director, Strategic Management
Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the November ACEND Standards News is posted on the ACEND webpage: Standards News. In this issue, the ACEND forum presentation at FNCE “Demonstration Program Innovations in Educating Future Practitioners” is highlighted.

ACEND has issued a third call for demonstration programs to be accredited under the FEM Standards; applications are due by 11:00 am CT on January 11, 2019 (see www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel for more information).

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND®) is proposing minor revisions to the Future Education Model Accreditation Standards (see: eatrightPRO.org/FutureModel). Public comments on the proposed revisions to the Standards can be made at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RevisedFEM> until January 7, 2019. We encourage you to provide your input.

Moving forward, the ACEND Standards News will be published quarterly with the next edition issued in February 2019.

The next meeting of the quarterly Virtual Town Hall meetings is scheduled for Tuesday January 8, 2019 at 11 am CT. Please note the new day and time. The town hall provides a time for ACEND to share updates on its standards work and for stakeholders to ask questions. Information on joining the town hall can be found at www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the ACEND Standards News will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

Mary Gregoire, PhD, RD

Joe, I could just cry when I read your email. I could also just cry at how lucky we are to have you and Lori running the show. One of the best parts of being President was getting to know the fantastic people behind the scene who do all the heavy lifting at the Academy. You guys lift way more than your share and make us all so proud. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your kind words. Coming from you they mean the world!!!

Hi Donna!

This is a beautiful thing! Although I appreciate you passing the credit to our team, you are forever able to take credit for the direction and execution of the FNCE program. Each year the CLL tries to build on our President's vision and snowball that into future conferences.

I can confidently say that your year as our FNCE January meeting Advisor and Academy President, has had a major impact on programming and will continue to do so for years to come!

So THANK YOU for being the great leader you are and for helping shape our educational offerings.

Credit well deserved!

Hi Mary, Donna and Terri,

I hope you had a nice weekend! We have two speaker grant applications that are ready for review. Both of these applications, New Hampshire and New Jersey, are affiliates who we extended the offer for the grant. (They meet our qualifications for receiving a grant).

New Hampshire Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

TBD- likely around 5/8/2019

Dover, NH

- Requested Board Member: "If we could get a speaker whose overall travel costs would be reduced by their proximity, that would be helpful (e.g., New England, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast)."
- Their application also includes interest in an additional topic. They are interested in a Board member presenting twice if possible (1) Academy Update 2) Educational topic)

New Jersey Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

April 26, 2019

Somerset, NJ

- They did not put a name of a Board member that they would like to request.

Neither affiliate requested a name of an individual, so, Mary, I defer to you first as President if you would like to attend.

Please let me know if you approve these requests. If so, Joan and I will move forward with next steps for coordinating.

Foundation News

Foundation Chair November Message

For those of you who attended FNCE 2018 in Washington D.C., I hope you enjoyed it as much as I did. I had the honor of speaking about the Foundation to a dozen different groups there, including DPG and affiliate leaders, the House of Delegates, Fifty-year Members, Academy media spokespeople, and of course the Gala. It was heartening to be able to share all the good things that the Foundation is doing, especially through our four new videos...READ MORE

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is helping your fellow Academy members in their time of need. See how your support has helped Kalyn Cryer, MS, RDN, LDN, CDE, and Martin Hugo Roman overcome devastating losses in this Foundation video.

The Foundation is proud to offer disaster relief funding to Academy members, nutrition professionals and students impacted by disasters. The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund provides up to $2,500 through the Life Rebuilding Fund for personal rebuilding efforts and up to $500 through the CDR Professional Rebuilding fund for professional and continuing education activities.

Applications are currently being accepted for victims of Hurricane Michael, Hurricane Lane and the California Wildfires. Applications must be received within three months of the disaster to qualify for assistance. APPLY HERE

PPW 2018 Recap

Public Policy Workshop 2018 was the largest and most successful to date, with over 1,400 registrants including 1,060 first-timers and 267 students. Academy members made our voices heard on the Hill at more than 325 scheduled meetings with members of Congress, representing all 50 states and the District of Columbia. We hope that you, our policy leaders, will continue the conversation back in-district and will to get your Affiliate and DPG members excited about and engaged in policy efforts at the state and local level!
Hill Visit Reports and Evaluation Survey for PPCs, PALs and Alternates

As a reminder to PPCs, Alternates and PALs: please submit your Hill Visit Reports online or send scanned copies to Nate Stritzinger. If you, yourself, are not submitting the hill reports, please coordinate with your team leads to do so. It'd be great to hear about how your visits went and what we can do to follow-up if needed.

Additionally, in an effort to learn and build on the success of PPW 2018, please complete the following PPW Evaluation Survey for PPCs, PALs and Alternates. Your responses help to shape the future of PPW.

Contemplating New / Amending Current Dietetics Licensure Legislation?

Beginning on Friday, November 16, the Academy will initiate a series of interactive, recorded web-meetings for any and all affiliates either 1) working to enact their state's first dietetics and nutrition licensure law or 2) considering making changes to their existing act anytime in the 2019-2020 state legislative sessions.

The agenda for the first meeting includes:

- An overview of the licensure process
- How to avoid pitfalls
- An outline of key developments in licensure.

Subsequent meetings will be focused on topics of general applicability to all affiliates, while others will be dedicated to issues relevant to a smaller subset of affiliates. For more information on state licensure, check out our newly updated licensure webpage.

Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry, Due November 15

The Health Resources and Services Administration seeks nominees for membership on the Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry. Since this committee implements performance measures for training in professions which may refer to RDNs, it's important that the Academy be a visible participant.

Interested candidates should send their CV along with a letter describing their interest and basis for nomination Mark Rifkin.

Hi Donna!

This is a beautiful thing! Although I appreciate you passing the credit to our team, you are forever able to take credit for the direction and execution of the FNCE program. Each year the CLL tries to build on our President's vision and snowball that into future conferences.

I can confidently say that your year as our FNCE January meeting Advisor and Academy President, has had a major impact on programming and will continue to do so for years to come!

So THANK YOU for being the great leader you are and for helping shape our educational offerings.

Credit well deserved!

Hi Donna,

It was so great to see you at FNCE! I just wanted to let you know I really enjoyed the conference. The sessions were great and I felt like there were many more sessions this year that seemed applicable to my non-traditional RD journey. I talked to several people who had similar feedback. We all credited your influence. Thanks for all you've done to make the Academy stronger and more inclusive to all dietitians.

XOXO,
Arianne

You have been selected to participate in an AMA/Specialty Society RVS Update Committee (RUC) survey for three new CPT codes recently approved for use in 2020:

98X00

Qualified nonphysician healthcare professional online digital evaluation and management service, for an established patient, for up to seven days, cumulative time during the 7 days; 5-10 minutes

98X01

Qualified nonphysician healthcare professional online digital evaluation and management service, for an established patient, for up to seven days, cumulative time during the 7 days; 11-20 minutes

98X02

Qualified nonphysician healthcare professional online digital evaluation and management service, for an established patient, for up to seven days, cumulative time during the 7 days; 21 or more minutes

In 2020, these three new codes will replace existing CPT code 98969 (Online assessment and management service provided by a qualified nonphysician health care professional to an established patient or guardian, not originating from a related assessment and management services provided within the previous 7 days, using the Internet or similar electronic communication network).

This survey should take 20 – 25 minutes of your time.

Please use the following link to complete the survey by Monday, November 19, 2018:

https://survey.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_elkUeDiKXV4Durb

NOTE: If you exit the survey, your changes are saved automatically. When you reopen the link on the same computer, you will be taken to the last page you viewed and allowed to continue.

The RUC is a unique, multi-specialty committee dedicated to describing the resources required to provide physician and other qualified healthcare professional services. Its recommendations are based on data collected from surveys of practicing qualified healthcare professionals regarding the qualified healthcare professional work involved in performing CPT codes. The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) considers this input when developing Relative Value Units (RVUs). The components of the Medicare physician payment schedule are physician work, practice expense, and professional liability insurance.

We need your help to assure relative values will be accurately and fairly presented to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). Please note, you do not need to respond to the questions for all of the codes in this survey. You may not have recent experience with one or more of the procedures. We ask that you provide responses for those services about which you have direct professional knowledge and feel comfortable answering, whether or not you currently perform the service. The information you provide in this AMA survey will be kept confidential by the Academy and others involved in the survey process. For a better understanding of the AMA/Specialty Society Relative Value Scale Update Committee process, you can watch the video, Understanding the RUC Survey Instrument: Non-Physician Qualified Healthcare Professionals. It describes the survey process and provides general information on the standard RUC survey instrument.

Your input is vital to the success of this process and we appreciate your time.

If you have any questions about this survey, please contact Marsha Schofield, MS, RD, LD, FAND, the Academy's Senior Director of Governance, at 1-800-877-1600 ext. 1762 or mschofield@eatright.org.

Subject: RE: Would like to speak

This is so odd. That session went well overall per attendee evaluation data, but Sam's content responses are very split in how perceived by attendees (it was love him or dislike with no in between). I was actually in that room for part of the session with Lori doing a check and everything was loaded up with the moderator and the technician.

Open comments regarding the Q&A part of the evals as reported by attendees:

1. Sam was poorly prepared for the Session.
2. Sam was condescending in the Q&A
3. Sam mocked the questions from attendees

Seems like he may be aware of how he was received by attendees and is trying to preempt the negative feedback.

We did offer Q&A via the FNCE Mobile app for the first time this year and it was functioning in the session. The moderator then asked questions via the ones coming in via the app that were voted up/down by those in attendance at the session. I am looking at the Q&A log right now and we had over 50 questions with many being read in the room. Over 250 attendees used the app to submit questions, vote on the questions submitted, etc. We had a roaming back up microphone in the room in case there were issues with the app, but the moderator indicated that the app functionality was fine. It is possible that Sam and Walter Willett did not like the app or lack of open mic. It is important to note, though, that the microphones led to grandstanding in session for Q&A with comments and no questions in the past. The app allowed us to control this and get through more Q&A time.

I can tell you that this session had undisclosed sponsorship from the Almond Board and we had to flip the moderator from Kate Geagan to a CLL member onsite as Kate was refusing to remove her slide stating that it was a sponsored session. We made it very clear from the onset this was not acceptable. Maybe this is also part of the issue.

We would welcome feedback from him to improve the Q&A experience via the app and are happy to discuss directly with him. It is ranking very positive right now with attendees since they liked having less grandstanding and duplication of questions that came from the live mic.

She is a great asset to Tecker and to the Academy!

Baxter is completely revamping its Learning Management System also-concepts very similar to those described.

We thought you would find this real life case study exceptionally interesting. (In case you missed it.) We believe it is where technology competence, learning preferences, and the integration of face-to-face and virtual learning is taking us. While the scale of investment and time may be beyond the reach of many associations at the moment, it is likely that both cost and complexity will decrease over time.

Linda Roberts MS RD

Linda Roberts, a registered licensed dietitian, has worked in nutrition and food service operations for over 25 years. Ms Roberts career includes food service management in a metropolitan hospital, clinical dietitian, behaviorist, and independent contractor. Realizing a lifelong dream of business ownership Ms Roberts incorporated Linda Roberts and Associates in 1996. LRA has grown into a nationally recognized dietitian consulting firm contributing to the nutrition care of thousands of elders.

Upon incorporation a potential client asked, "How are you going to keep-up with regulatory changes and trends?" Her response, become active in the American Dietetic Association's (ADA) practice group, Dietetics in Health Care Communities (DHCC). She served as Chair 2008-09, currently serves as DHCC liaison to Pioneer Network, and was named ADA's representative to the prestigious Pioneer Network Food and Dining Clinical Standards Task Force.

Advancing the profession of dietetics in long-term living sparked a passion for writing and presenting information to other practitioners. Ms Roberts was lead author of the Standards of Practice/Standards of Professional Performance for the Registered Dietitian in the Extended Care Setting, content advisor to the ADA Position Paper: Individualized Nutrition Approaches for Older Adults in Health Care Communities, reviewer for ADA Position Paper: Food and Water Safety, and reviewer of American Medical Directors Association Altered Nutrition Status in the Long-term Care Setting Clinical Practice Guidelines.

Ms Roberts is a graduate of Louisiana State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Dietetics and a Master of Science degree in Nutrition.

Thank you so much for presenting at FNCE. We would like to hear your feedback to enhance the Q&A experience. I will be asking Diane Enos, the Academy's Chief Learning Officer, and Mary Beth Whalen, our Chief Operating Officer, to also participate on the call. Please provide some dates and times which you are available to speak. Mary Russell's schedule is very full in the coming weeks so I cannot guarantee she will be able to participate.

Hi Mary and Patricia

Hope you are well. This is Sam Kass, I ran nutrition in the Obama administration. I spoke at FNCE last week, it was great to be back. I have a real concern about the way the QnA is structured. I would like to speak for 10 minutes or so to talk it over if you are willing.

Thanks
Sam

Linda Roberts MS RD

Linda Roberts, a registered licensed dietitian, has worked in nutrition and food service operations for over 25 years. Ms Roberts career includes food service management in a metropolitan hospital, clinical dietitian, behaviorist, and independent contractor. Realizing a lifelong dream of business ownership Ms Roberts incorporated Linda Roberts and Associates in 1996. LRA has grown into a nationally recognized dietitian consulting firm contributing to the nutrition care of thousands of elders.

Upon incorporation a potential client asked, "How are you going to keep-up with regulatory changes and trends?" Her response, become active in the American Dietetic Association's (ADA) practice group, Dietetics in Health Care Communities (DHCC). She served as Chair 2008-09, currently serves as DHCC liaison to Pioneer Network, and was named ADA's representative to the prestigious Pioneer Network Food and Dining Clinical Standards Task Force.

Advancing the profession of dietetics in long-term living sparked a passion for writing and presenting information to other practitioners. Ms Roberts was lead author of the Standards of Practice/Standards of Professional Performance for the Registered Dietitian in the Extended Care Setting, content advisor to the ADA Position Paper: Individualized Nutrition Approaches for Older Adults in Health Care Communities, reviewer for ADA Position Paper: Food and Water Safety, and reviewer of American Medical Directors Association Altered Nutrition Status in the Long-term Care Setting Clinical Practice Guidelines.

Ms Roberts is a graduate of Louisiana State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Dietetics and a Master of Science degree in Nutrition.

Realizing a lifelong dream of business ownership Ms Roberts incorporated Linda Roberts and Associates in 1996. LRA has grown into a nationally recognized dietitian consulting firm contributing to the nutrition care of thousands of elders.

Upon incorporation a potential client asked, "How are you going to keep-up with regulatory changes and trends?" Her response, become active in the American Dietetic Association's (ADA) practice group, Dietetics in Health Care Communities (DHCC). She served as Chair 2008-09, currently serves as DHCC liaison to Pioneer Network, and was named ADA's representative to the prestigious Pioneer Network Food and Dining Clinical Standards Task Force.

Advancing the profession of dietetics in long-term living sparked a passion for writing and presenting information to other practitioners. Ms Roberts was lead author of the Standards of Practice/Standards of Professional Performance for the Registered Dietitian in the Extended Care Setting, content advisor to the ADA Position Paper: Individualized Nutrition Approaches for Older Adults in Health Care Communities, reviewer for ADA Position Paper: Food and Water Safety, and reviewer of American Medical Directors Association Altered Nutrition Status in the Long-term Care Setting Clinical Practice Guidelines.

Ms Roberts is a graduate of Louisiana State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Dietetics and a Master of Science degree in Nutrition.

Happy to you too! The Nominating Committee call went very well so next week's ballot selection meeting should go smoothly. Do you know a Linda Roberts from IL? Chris Palumbo was Nominating her Board Director. I'll tell you more when I see you on Monday and will show you the current list so you can provide feedback.

Dear Sam,

Thank you so much for presenting at FNCE. We would like to hear your feedback to enhance the Q&A experience. I will be asking Diane Enos, the Academy's Chief Learning Officer, and Mary Beth Whalen, our Chief Operating Officer, to also participate on the call. Please provide some dates and times which you are available to speak. Mary Russell's schedule is very full in the coming weeks so I cannot guarantee she will be able to participate.

Hi Mary and Patricia

Hope you are well. This is Sam Kass, I ran nutrition in the Obama administration. I spoke at FNCE last week, it was great to be back. I have a real concern about the way the QnA is structured. I would like to speak for 10 minutes or so to talk it over if you are willing.

Thanks

Public Policy Workshop
PPW 2018 Recap

Public Policy Workshop 2018 was the largest and most successful to date, with over 1,400 registrants including 1,060 first-timers and 267 students. Academy members made our voices heard on the Hill at more than 325 scheduled meetings with members of Congress, representing all 50 states and the District of Columbia. We hope that you, our policy leaders, will continue the conversation back in-district and will to get your Affiliate and DPG members excited about and engaged in policy efforts at the state and local level!

Hill Visit Reports and Evaluation Survey for PPCs, PALs and Alternates

As a reminder to PPCs, Alternates and PALs: please submit your Hill Visit Reports online or send scanned copies to Nate Stritzinger. If you, yourself, are not submitting the hill reports, please coordinate with your team leads to do so. It'd be great to hear about how your visits went and what we can do to follow-up if needed.

Additionally, in an effort to learn and build on the success of PPW 2018, please complete the following PPW Evaluation Survey for PPCs, PALs and Alternates. Your responses help to shape the future of PPW.

Share Your Stories

Please send us your photos, tweets, stories and experiences that highlight your work on the Hill at PPW 2018, or your recent policy accomplishments at the local or state level. We'd love to highlight the work that you do to advance nutrition policy and the profession for all of us! Below are some tweets from PPW last week:

Nomination Notices

Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry, Due November 15

The Health Resources and Services Administration seeks nominees for membership on the Advisory Committee on Training in Primary Care Medicine and Dentistry. Since this committee implements performance measures for training in professions which may refer to RDNs, it's important that the Academy be a visible participant.

Interested candidates should send their CV along with a letter describing their interest and basis for nomination Mark Rifkin.

PALs, please plan to review the nomination opportunities section and share the information with your executive board or team.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Leaders Promote Malnutrition Screening and Assessment for Older Adults

Last week, Academy leaders delivered a key message to the Administration for Community Living: Screening for malnutrition should be strengthened in Older Americans Act programs. Congregate meal dining and home delivered meals provide important opportunities for socialization and improved nutrition for seniors, but nutrition assessment and education are often under-utilized as network providers struggle to meet the needs of an over-burdened system. Representatives from the Dietitians in Health Care Communities and Healthy Aging dietetic practice groups joined members of the Academy Board of Directors and policy leaders in the meeting which was intended to foster collaboration and increased communication with the agency.

Diabetes Advocates to HHS and FDA: Monitoring Devices Should be Accurate

The Academy and other organizations stressed the importance of blood glucose testing system accuracy and the potential implications for people with diabetes including seniors on Medicare in a recent letter to Health and Human Services Secretary Azar and FDA Commissioner Dr. Gottlieb. The communication, submitted by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance which includes the Academy, urged officials to take the necessary steps to ensure all people with diabetes have access to blood glucose testing systems that are accurate and safe. A recent study found that only a fraction of those on the market are accurate in raising concerns about their reliability for monitoring and managing diabetes.

School Nutrition Experts and USDA Officials Engage in Dialogue

Leaders from the Academy's Board of Directors and the School Nutrition Services and Public Health and Community Nutrition dietetic practice groups hosted a listening session with officials from USDA's Food and Nutrition Service in the wake of FNCE® to discuss recent changes to child nutrition programs and ways to reduce regulatory burdens while optimizing program services and health of participants. The dialogue focused on the need for technical assistance, targeted flexibility without sacrificing standards, and working to successfully implement standards nationwide.

Hi Donna,

It's been a while since I met your team at HIMMS. We decided to touch base later in the year to talk through some of our tools/services that can help Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

To recap our conversation:

- GenSigma is an EMR/Data Extraction company that works with all different kinds of EMR, Clinical feeds, Claim feeds with a variety of data sets including HL7, CCD, flat files etc. Our experience is in extraction and handing over messages to platform companies that bubble up insights.
- Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is looking to surface clinical information/messages by normalization
- Given the complexity of healthcare information, Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is looking for a partner to do healthcare data extraction in weeks of instead of months' time.

Healthcare provider data is especially complex and our time proven data models provide normalized data that can span multiple applications. Happy to walk you through if you have a few minutes.

Thanks.

Good afternoon,

Pat and I would like to schedule a joint call with all of you to discuss the following 2 items:

1. Academy Committee Restructure Proposal
2. Update on HOD Evolution Designers

In speaking with Pat, I understand the agenda for the 4P call on November 5 is already full and your next call is not until November 27. We'd like to address #1 sooner than late November as the next Opportunities to Serve survey is scheduled to launch November 29. So we'd like to propose inviting the 4Ps to join the 3S call on Friday, November 16, 9:00 – 10:00 am Central time. Please let me know by Monday, November 5 if this meeting time works.

Thank you,

Good afternoon,

Pat and I would like to schedule a joint call with all of you to discuss the following 2 items:

1. Academy Committee Restructure Proposal
2. Update on HOD Evolution Designers

In speaking with Pat, I understand the agenda for the 4P call on November 5 is already full and your next call is not until November 27. We'd like to address #1 sooner than late November as the next Opportunities to Serve survey is scheduled to launch November 29. So we'd like to propose inviting the 4Ps to join the 3S call on Friday, November 16, 9:00 – 10:00 am Central time. Please let me know by Monday, November 5 if this meeting time works.

Thank you,

Marsha

Marcy, She gave them to me on Tuesday, October 30th at FNCE (see email below). She just asked if I would make sure that her concerns were heard because she had no way of knowing for sure if they were. I don't think there is a need for you to follow up with her. I will be seeing her next week and will let her know that her thoughts were shared with the HOD and the Designer Team. She will be satisfied with that. Thanks for responding.

Donna,

First, when did Sandra provide you with this information? I can assure you her message was shared on the COI column. Sandra's Delegate posted the information below on the HOD COI days before the HOD meeting so her concerns and comments were taken into account by all Delegates and BOD that attended the meeting.

I personally spent quite a bit of time at the ANDPAC Signature event meeting discussing the outcomes of the HOD meeting as well.

I will follow-up with her again if needed and as you know all of the COI comments will be taken into account by the Designer team.

Thanks for sharing,

Marcy

Marcy and Marcia, I wanted to forward this information that was sent to me from Sandra Parker (Nominating Committee Member) during FNCE. Since she was on the nominating committee with me she was not able to attend the HOD. She had concerns that the message she had sent her delegates was not being shared in the manner she had hoped and asked if I could get her message to the right people. I told her I would be glad to and feel like the two of you are the right people. I think she makes some excellent points from several different perspectives. Thanks for listening to her.

Dear Tricia, Michele, and Julie,

I am writing to share my thoughts about the HOD. I am sharing this letter with all of you since you are my state delegate and my delegates of the DCE DPG and Weight Management DPG.

I believe it is time for a major change. I will share my experience and observations with the HOD and suggestions for the future.

I first attended the HOD meetings as a guest and observer in 2004-2006 when I was state president-elect and president. It was the "old" style with area coordinators and multiple delegates per state. During that time, I observed much energy at the meetings. In our state, the three delegate positions were "coveted" because they were recognized as being important and key to leadership advancement. Our delegates traveled the state throughout the year giving reports and obtaining feedback at district meetings.

With the new HOD structure, I was an observer a few times during my DPG chair term. I served three years as a professional issues delegate (PID) and voiced the need for professional delegates for each DPG and MIG rather than a PID representing multiple DPGs/MIGs because it really didn't work. If you were assigned to a DPG that you were not a member, there was resentment from the leadership because they felt they should be represented by one of their own. It also was cumbersome to communicate with multiple DPGs.

I served as a state delegate more recently. Part of the reason I was on the ballot, was because no one else wanted the position. (This is part of the problem and maybe a result of the problem?)

I believe the HOD is no longer relevant to most members. I have observed that it is very difficult to engage members in most mega issues. Is it because they really aren't "mega" issues?

The Academy is a treasure trove of valuable resources. We do excellent work with the many areas of professional practice: position papers; publications including books, the Journal, the Nutrition Care manual; Webinars and Certificates of Learning; Research; the EAL; our DPGs and MIGs.

I propose that the HOD structure end. It needs to be replaced, however, with a vehicle that is a voice and a communicator for every member. I believe that our members want to hear about and have a voice with organizational issues as well as professional practice issues.

Dietitians are brilliant when it comes to solutions. I believe that if the change I suggest happens, a workable alternative will be created.

I did brainstorm a possible solution. First of all, I don't really think that there needs to be a vehicle to discuss professional practice issues. I feel that the areas and committees that exist in our organization already tackle those practice issues well.

The Board of Directors (BOD) could always appoint a task force if needed.

There does need to be a two way communications vehicle for our members. Consider adding 4 positions to the BOD—2 would represent state affiliates and 2 would represent DPGs and MIGs. These 4 BOD directors would need considerable staff support for communications. I envision the 2 affiliate directors would be communicating with the leadership of all affiliates and the 2 DPG/MIG directors with leadership of all the DPGs and MIGs. These four positions would be nationally elected positions and come from the ranks of affiliates and DPGs/MIGs.

I feel this would be a step forward in transparency and would be more inclusive and representative of our members. The back and forth communications with affiliates, DPGs, and MIGs would be critical. I feel that does not happen now when it comes to the dealings of the Board of Directors. With this change, the four individuals would be accountable and in touch with members.

Please feel free to call me. I am pretty much available over the next few days. I'm in the Eastern time zone. I will be arriving at FNCE on Friday around 5 pm and available that evening. I'll be at the headquarters hotel. I will be in meetings starting Saturday morning. My cell phone is 616-453-8182.

Thank you for reaching out for input on this topic.
