

Who is validating the data entered? Given that many RDs still “select” terms “from intake” instead of actually diagnosing nutrition problems, I fear that we will be way off track and introduce a lot of noise when we think we are creating music.

C'est la vie, I guess.

Pat this is fabulous news. Thanks to you and all of the Academy staff members who bought this collaboration to fruition.

We are so accustomed to getting "other" news updates daily from multiple sources--what a terrific way service to give members and non members alike the ability to access cutting edge food and nutrition updates from around the world.

The ability to promote Academy events and resources is a a bonus and will continue to raise our profile.

Nutrition and Dietetics SmartBrief will start the New year off with a bang.

Dear Ms. Babjack,

I am just following up on the invitation that we made for Donna Martin to be of our keynote speakers. As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

Dear Ms. Babjack,

I am just following up on the invitation that we made for Donna Martin to be of our keynote speakers. As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

An additional thought regarding the raised to key note is that the Harms at extremes did talk about increased mortality when intake was too low – however the data is quite limited. This in conjunction with the fact that the HF project really is not recommending the previously very low limit of 1500mg/day but is in fact recommending a more generous 2000-3000mg intake daily. The HF recommendations is also not particularly strong with a grade III level of data.

This is quite a controversial topic and we need to tread lightly but acknowledge that the previously extremely low levels of sodium that were recommended may not be appropriate for either the general population nor those with HF.

Dear Ms. Babjack,

I am just following up on the invitation that we made for Donna Martin to be of our keynote speakers. As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

I will send this out today. I had hoped to compile it on Friday but was waiting for some of the information. I will be setting the itinerary as discussed in the call and Listing all of the details and rough agenda for the visit. I apologize for the delay, Liz has handled this for the other visits which was really helpful.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?

4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you be able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

This in conjunction with the fact that the HF project really is not recommending the previously very low limit of 1500mg/day but is in fact recommending a more generous 2000-3000mg intake daily. The HF recommendations is also not particularly strong with a grade III level of data.

This is quite a controversial topic and we need to tread lightly but acknowledge that the previously extremely low levels of sodium that were recommended may not be appropriate for either the general population nor those with HF.

Thanks Doris. I am not sure what they are really wanting us to speak on exactly, but when I looked at who their speakers usually are, it makes me very nervous. They have world renown speakers and I am to be the closing keynote? Hopefully, we can get more information from them on what exactly they want.

Pat, I will not be President then, so do you think they would prefer to have Mary speak? Neither of us are experts in sodium. Thanks!

Dear Ms. Babjack,

I am just following up on the invitation that we made for Donna Martin to be of our keynote speakers. As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

The tributes were perfect. Dan Glickman, an Academy honorary member and former USDA Secretary, described a Gus we all could laugh about remembering the volume of Gus's emails.

Kevin's was a beautiful tribute to a colleague. Kevin also gave mention to their current work together with the Academy and how he will be missed. It made me proud of the commitment of our public members.

His last email to me was to ask if I would work with the World Bank on malnutrition. He was the great connector. He invited Jenn and I to lunch there before she left. It was an amazing time and I was moved that everyone knew Gus from the head of the Bank to the person checking IDs.

I would be glad to share his wife's email if that was not available to you.

I am glad we all worked with him. He will be missed.

Dear Ms. Babjack,

I am just following up on the invitation that we made for Donna Martin to be of our keynote speakers. As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

Pat, I will not be President then, so do you think they would prefer to have Mary speak? Neither of us are experts in sodium. Thanks!

Hi Pepin,

Is the Academy looking at the implications to RDNs of CVS purchasing Aetna? Third party reimbursement? I wonder if they are moving toward CVS Wellness Clinics? Would that include nutrition advice? CVS is gaining ground – they have taken over the Target Pharmacy activities, as well.

Seems to me that CVS action could be a positive or negative action for RDNs long term. Would appreciate your thoughts. Thanks!

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.

2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Sandy,

Sorry to hear you aren't feeling well. We definitely will focus on the kitchen and equipment for the video, the requests below were general footage to frame the video and story but we can get that elsewhere. Is the date in general a go for you? I am happy to talk on Thursday.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you be able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

The House Leadership Team is continuing to work on outcomes and action steps from the fall 2017 HOD meeting; we will be sharing the information with you via a future communication.

- Remember, we have posted the compiled HOD workbooks from the meeting as well as the meeting graphics.
- You may wish to use the Fall Meeting Recap document for your delegate reports.
- All follow-up materials from the meeting will be posted in the Fall Meeting Outcomes folder as well as on the HOD pages of the Academy website.

Seeking Volunteers -- PowerPoint Presentation

We are still seeking delegates who would be interested in taking the meeting recap document and forthcoming meeting outcomes to create a PowerPoint presentation that all delegates can use when talking about the fall HOD meeting with their constituents. We hope you'll consider this opportunity as another way to be involved as a delegate.

- If you are interested or have questions, email ashlachter@eatright.org. Please respond before Friday, December 8.

Please work with your boards and executive committees in sharing the following information with members:

•December 4 Webinar: National Campaign and Social Media Guidelines

Please join the Nominating Committee for a webinar on Monday, December 4 at 1pm-2pm CT to learn about the National Campaign and Social Media Guidelines. This interactive webinar will provide details and clarification regarding the campaign guidelines and how you can take an active role in the election process. Click here to register. Presenters: Nominating Committee Members Bethany Thayer, MS, RDN, FAND and Kris Clark, PhD, RDN. The webinar will be recorded and uploaded to the elections website www.eatrightPRO.org/elections for future playback.

•Opportunities to Serve Survey Available

If you are interested in volunteering for an Academy committee, please complete the Opportunities to Serve Survey. The information provided will assist the Academy's President-elect and Speaker-elect in making appointments for the 2018-2019 program year. The survey will be available December 1, 2017 – January 10, 2018.

Outstanding Online Expense Reports

If you have not done so, please submit online expense reports from the HOD meeting. Complete your expense report at www.eatright.org/expense. Click here to review the expense report instructions, and here to review the Reimbursement Guidelines for Delegates.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

Dear All:

Here is a very rough draft of the agenda/run of show for the briefing. I have followed up with our invites to bill sponsors and champions (Heitkamp, Gillibrand, Merkeley, Barletta, Katko) and am waiting to hear back from folks. We will need to make time in the agenda for members/staff if they are available. I also know that we have thrown around some other ideas for speakers, but I think we have a pretty packed agenda with the panel we have. I have kept their remarks relatively short too. I am open and happy to make changes. I thought this could be a good place for us to start a conversation. Hopefully I will know more by Monday at 3pm when we are scheduled to talk.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Happy Friday!

Dear Ms. Babjack,

I am just following up on the invitation that we made for Donna Martin to be of our keynote speakers. As a matter of fact, after a meeting of the WSS 2018, it was decided that Donna Martin would be the closing keynote speaker on June 21. As this is a rather important speaking slot, I would like to make sure that we have it all arranged well ahead of time.

Would it be possible for you to let me have a status update on this?

Best regards,

Subject: World Salt Symposium Keynote Address

Attn:

Ms. Patricia M. Babjak

CEO, Board of Directors

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Dear Ms. Babjack,

The Salt Institute is working with AND on the Sodium Project and your organization was kind enough to invite us to attend the Academy Foundation Donor Reception at The London House Hotel during the recent FNCE meeting in Chicago.

The Salt Institute is organizing the Tenth World Salt Symposium to be held in Park City, Utah, on June 19-21, 2018. It will be the latest in a series of international symposia, conducted since 1962, specifically dedicated to the subject of salt. The extended period between these conferences ensures a far-reaching and inclusive technical content. This is, without doubt, the most important international meeting focused on the subject of salt. All the information on the Salt Symposium can be found at the following website: <http://www.worldsaltsymposium.org/next-symposium/>

During the Academy Foundation Donor Reception, I had the opportunity to meet Donna Martin and asked her if she would accept the Salt Institute's invitation to be a keynote speaker at the World Salt Symposium in Park City next year. Donna responded positively and asked me to contact you so that we may start making arrangements for her participation. We will be pleased to cover all transportation and meeting expenses.

Within the framework of Salt and Health, we would be very pleased if her address might deal with the need to rigorously pursue sound science rather than accepting opinion (expert or institutional). Of course, this relates to the 100-year-old salt controversy, which has been characterized by far more heat than light, more dispute than resolution. Myth-information serves neither the cause of consumers, nor that of science.

The dates for the World Salt Symposium in Park City are June 19-21, 2018. I would very much like Donna to be one of the leading keynote speakers (25-30 minutes), so the June 19 opening date seems best for the address. Alternatively, the June 21 closing can be considered. The decision will be Donna's, depending upon her requirements.

Please let me have your comments and advise on how to proceed. I will immediately set things in motion with our meeting coordinator.

Thank you and very best regards,

Mort

Will's comments to Pam's email

The term selection menus use the NCPT as well as its Nutrition Assessment and Nutrition Diagnosis Etiology matrices to choose the order of the terms. So yes, we consulted with our member experts for more than 10 years to create those drop-downs.

In response to the diagnosis comment. Pam appears to be making the very common mistake of confusing the “Problem Statement” (which the NCPT states make be used interchangeably with “Diagnosis”), which is indeed selected from standardized terminology, with a “Nutrition Diagnosis”, which is, of course, described by the combination of problem, etiology, and signs and symptoms.

As for her concerns about whether dietitians will use the NCPT appropriately, as an educator, I’m sure she knows that this is a competency which must be met in order to gain registration status and use ANDHII in patient care. If she has concerns that her program is not adequately preparing students in this area, we could assist her in locating resources from the eNCPT and ACEND.

Of course we also have this validation research demonstrating that ANDHII use does capture coherent descriptions of patient care using NCPT that can be compared with EBNPGs (see posters attached)

Tina’s comments:

The overall approach is that we continue to want to improve the quality in these exact ways. It is always a matter of putting the funding in these specific directions, including validation.

I know that Pam has had concerns for some time and do not know the history of her involvement with the project.

She, like others, has informatics training which I completely lack.

I have heard informatics people at places I have worked make the same comments about “drop downs”-but free text is not appropriate either as it is not “searchable”

Look forward to thoughts on how/if to reply.

Would think she would have written to Alison and will??

Howdy!

Me again.

I'm sitting in on a webinar for the ANDHII thingie.

I have some serious concerns from an informatics standpoint. I raised these concerns when the thing was in draft format and it looks like nothing was done.

Problems begin when presenters say stuff like “We used lots of drop downs” and “Select your diagnosis”.

There is a science to creating drop down menus. Did an expert consult with the Academy for that work? There is a known bias when using drop down menus.... folks choose the top items, especially when in a hurry.

Diagnosticians don't select a diagnosis. They diagnose a health problem. There's a huge difference.

Who is validating the data entered? Given that many RDs still "select" terms "from intake" instead of actually diagnosing nutrition problems, I fear that we will be way off track and introduce a lot of noise when we think we are creating music.

C'est la vie, I guess.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Of course we also have this validation research demonstrating that ANDHII use does capture coherent descriptions of patient care using NCPT that can be compared with EBNPGs (see posters attached)

The overall approach is that we continue to want to improve the quality in these exact ways. It is always a matter of putting the funding in these specific directions, including validation.

She, like others, has informatics training which I completely lack.

I have heard informatics people at places I have worked make the same comments about "drop downs"-but free text is not appropriate either as it is not "searchable"

Look forward to thoughts on how/if to reply.

Howdy!

Me again.

I'm sitting in on a webinar for the ANDHII thingie.

I have some serious concerns from an informatics standpoint. I raised these concerns when the thing was in draft format and it looks like nothing was done.

Problems begin when presenters say stuff like "We used lots of drop downs" and "Select your diagnosis".

There is a science to creating drop down menus. Did an expert consult with the Academy for that work? There is a known bias when using drop down menus.... folks choose the top items, especially when in a hurry.

Diagnosticians don't select a diagnosis. They diagnose a health problem. There's a huge difference.

Who is validating the data entered? Given that many RDs still "select" terms "from intake" instead of actually diagnosing nutrition problems, I fear that we will be way off track and introduce a lot of noise when we think we are creating music.

C'est la vie, I guess.

Will's comments to Pam's email

The term selection menus use the NCPT as well as its Nutrition Assessment and Nutrition Diagnosis Etiology matrices to choose the order of the terms. So yes, we consulted with our member experts for more than 10 years to create those drop-downs.

In response to the diagnosis comment. Pam appears to be making the very common mistake of confusing the "Problem Statement" (which the NCPT states make be used interchangeably with "Diagnosis"), which is indeed selected from standardized terminology, with a "Nutrition Diagnosis", which is, of course, described by the combination of problem, etiology, and signs and symptoms.

As for her concerns about whether dietitians will use the NCPT appropriately, as an educator, I'm sure she knows that this is a competency which must be met in order to gain registration status and use ANDHII in patient care. If she has concerns that her program is not adequately preparing students in this area, we could assist her in locating resources from the eNCPT and ACEND.

Of course we also have this validation research demonstrating that ANDHII use does capture coherent descriptions of patient care using NCPT that can be compared with EBNPGs (see posters attached)

Jeanne and Nancy:

Attached is a brief recap of my EXCELLENT visit at Laguna Middle School on Tuesday, The interviewees did a great job ... and I think that kitchen tour really knocked it out of the park.

Sorry that I did not have time to put it all into the Google doc ... I had already started this and it was much easier for me to finish it in WORD.

Best from DEN again!!

Sandy,

Sorry to hear you aren't feeling well. We definitely will focus on the kitchen and equipment for the video, the requests below were general footage to frame the video and story but we can get that elsewhere. Is the date in general a go for you? I am happy to talk on Thursday.

Jeanne & Nancy

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Subject: RE: Possible Visit

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.

2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?

3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Sandy,

We are hoping you are still able to accommodate a site visit on the 5th. Would you be able to have a call next Monday or Tuesday to discuss logistics? Mary Russell, President-elect and Nancy Farrell who is the project lead for this site would be onsite for the tour and to guide the videographer. I am attaching a site visit summary to give you an idea of what we are trying to accomplish but we can discuss that more early next week and then I will work with Nancy to develop a specific agenda after we talk.

Thank you and I look forward to speaking!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

See below and note who was included on the "to" list.

I know that Pam has had concerns for some time and do not know the history of her involvement with the project.

She, like others, has informatics training which I completely lack.

I have heard informatics people at places I have worked make the same comments about "drop downs"-but free text is not appropriate either as it is not "searchable"

Look forward to thoughts on how/if to reply.

Would think she would have written to Alison and will??

Howdy!

Me again.

I'm sitting in on a webinar for the ANDHII thingie.

I have some serious concerns from an informatics standpoint. I raised these concerns when the thing was in draft format and it looks like nothing was done.

Problems begin when presenters say stuff like "We used lots of drop downs" and "Select your diagnosis".

There is a science to creating drop down menus. Did an expert consult with the Academy for that work? There is a known bias when using drop down menus.... folks choose the top items, especially when in a hurry.

Diagnosticians don't select a diagnosis. They diagnose a health problem. There's a huge difference.

Who is validating the data entered? Given that many RDs still "select" terms "from intake" instead of actually diagnosing nutrition problems, I fear that we will be way off track and introduce a lot of noise when we think we are creating music.

C'est la vie, I guess.

Hello Donna and Amy,

I hope you are well. I have attached an Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics waiver for use of film footage in your school district. Could you please sign the agreement form and return a scanned email attachment to me. Please let me know if you have any questions.

We really appreciate your help with our project. It will be a great success thanks to you and the rest of the folks in Burke County!

Thank you,

Erin

Thanks so much for sharing. I can hear her frustration through out her letter. Frustration that I myself have felt with our colleagues when asked "what is the Academy doing..." As we have spoken about before motivating our members to work hard and move our profession forward is the hardest and most important task we all have. It's still amazes me that colleagues want someone else to pay for their professional membership. There is not an easy answer to the lack of commitment and dedication. Lucille

Mary – thank you so much for taking the time to respond and share the information below. I know the Academy supports the role of the dietitian related to patient care and the management of malnutrition. I truly appreciate all of the resources available to Academy members and do find them to be useful in the work that I do as a Clinical Nutrition Manager.

It is ironical that your email came today, as one of my first meetings today was with our Population Health Nurses to discuss how we can manage patients with a diagnosis of malnutrition who are transitioning from acute to ambulatory care. That transition of care is a stumbling block for us and I am sure many other healthcare organizations. In addition, we also discussed how the ambulatory nurse could assist in screening for malnutrition risk and implement intervention.

When Aurora Health Care implemented its malnutrition identification/intervention process, we made sure to include many disciplines - nurses, physicians, PT, OT, Speech – since they all touched the patient in ways that might identify a risk for malnutrition. Identification and management of malnutrition is truly an interdisciplinary process.

I think my struggle is more so with the dietitians who do not embrace their role. They don't want to do NFPE or don't "have time" to begin a malnutrition identification program or find it easier to message the physician rather than have a face to face conversation. They choose to do nothing and then are dismayed when another discipline like nursing takes the lead in managing a population. Aurora is a 15 hospital healthcare system with a few "affiliates". We have a RD at one affiliate who despite my offers to assist with training/implementation of NFPE and malnutrition documentation, refuses to move forward due to lack of time. I find myself coaching dietitians at least several times a year regarding their role, the part of the patient's care they own, the need to be visible, and the importance in being present and vocal about nutrition when patient or population management decisions are being made. Again, they argue they don't have time, yet complain if another discipline drives the nutritional care for a given population. This is where we risk being left behind. I find many of our dietitians (about 100) are not Academy members and likelihood of Aurora paying for membership is small given they do not pay for any other discipline professional membership. That leaves it to the Clinical Nutrition Manager to advocate for and be the voice of the Academy. I am happy to do that and see that as part of my role however, it can be a challenge to get the buy in. I think as a manager my greatest challenge with staff RDs is how to get them to "own" what they do and develop their passion for delivering great nutrition care.

Again, thank you for your support and the support the Academy provides to its members.

Subject: CNM listserv post regarding CNS and malnutrition

Dear Lynn and Melissa,

I read with interest your posts regarding the National Association of Clinical Nurse Specialists' white paper Malnutrition in Hospitalized Adult Patients: The Role of the Clinical Nurse Specialist. The white paper's call to action is to consult with and engage interprofessional health care teams to prioritize optimal nutrition in patient care management.

As clinicians, we place malnutrition at the heart of what we do; we are focused on treating or preventing many aspects of malnutrition. Because malnutrition affects quality of life, individual and system costs and health outcomes, we regularly work collaboratively with our nursing, pharmacist and physician colleagues to identify and treat it.

We absolutely know that it is the registered dietitian nutritionist who leads the clinical nutrition care workflow elements and plays a major role in the nutritional care of the patient. The RDN must be the driver of malnutrition identification and care in the organization/facility/care setting, including nutrition screening assessment diagnosis intervention/plan of care monitoring and evaluation, through discharge planning and transitions of care.

I assure you that malnutrition has been and continues to be a significant priority for the Academy. It is at the core of the new Strategic Plan. There are many projects, resources and upcoming developments related to demonstrating how RDNs lead efforts to decrease hospital-acquired malnutrition, malnutrition in the community, food insecurity and the global burden of malnutrition. The Academy is working in collaboration with key stakeholders to lead both research and quality efforts. The Academy's website details our work in malnutrition.

One of the most significant projects is the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative Learning Collaborative 2.0. The preliminary MQii data results are due to be reviewed in the coming months. The outcomes will highlight the RDNs' leadership role in many aspects of the nutrition care workflow elements, including quality improvement for readmission rates and a greater emphasis on discharge planning and transitions of care. I encourage you to view the MQii videos featuring RDNs who are currently leading interprofessional teams in their facilities.

Please note that the Revised 2017 Scope of Practice for the RDN and the Revised 2017 Standards of Practice and Professional Performance for RDNs have just been released online as Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Articles in Press.

As an RDN with a long history of clinical experience, I value and appreciate the work you do and look forward to working closely with DPGs and individual RDNs and NDTRs to elevate the RDN as the leader in malnutrition care across the health delivery continuum. Please reach out with ideas, thoughts and concerns at any time.

Best regards, and thank you for your passion for and advocacy of expert patient care through the work of RDNs.

It is unfair to put you in the middle, Mary, so I recommend that you simply say that you've forwarded her comments to the Data Center Team at headquarters.

I know that Pam has had concerns for some time and do not know the history of her involvement with the project.

She, like others, has informatics training which I completely lack.

I have heard informatics people at places I have worked make the same comments about “drop downs”-but free text is not appropriate either as it is not “searchable”

Look forward to thoughts on how/if to reply.

Would think she would have written to Alison and will??

Howdy!

Me again.

I'm sitting in on a webinar for the ANDHII thingie.

I have some serious concerns from an informatics standpoint. I raised these concerns when the thing was in draft format and it looks like nothing was done.

Problems begin when presenters say stuff like “We used lots of drop downs” and “Select your diagnosis”.

There is a science to creating drop down menus. Did an expert consult with the Academy for that work? There is a known bias when using drop down menus.... folks choose the top items, especially when in a hurry.

Diagnosticians don't select a diagnosis. They diagnose a health problem. There's a huge difference.

Who is validating the data entered? Given that many RDs still "select" terms "from intake" instead of actually diagnosing nutrition problems, I fear that we will be way off track and introduce a lot of noise when we think we are creating music.

C'est la vie, I guess.

Hello all,

Subject: RE: CNM listserv post regarding CNS and malnutrition

Mary – thank you so much for taking the time to respond and share the information below. I know the Academy supports the role of the dietitian related to patient care and the management of malnutrition. I truly appreciate all of the resources available to Academy members and do find them to be useful in the work that I do as a Clinical Nutrition Manager.

It is ironical that your email came today, as one of my first meetings today was with our Population Health Nurses to discuss how we can manage patients with a diagnosis of malnutrition who are transitioning from acute to ambulatory care. That transition of care is a stumbling block for us and I am sure many other healthcare organizations. In addition, we also discussed how the ambulatory nurse could assist in screening for malnutrition risk and implement intervention.

When Aurora Health Care implemented its malnutrition identification/intervention process, we made sure to include many disciplines - nurses, physicians, PT, OT, Speech – since they all touched the patient in ways that might identify a risk for malnutrition. Identification and management of malnutrition is truly an interdisciplinary process.

I think my struggle is more so with the dietitians who do not embrace their role. They don't want to do NFPE or don't "have time" to begin a malnutrition identification program or find it easier to message the physician rather than have a face to face conversation. They choose to do nothing and then are dismayed when another discipline like nursing takes the lead in managing a population. Aurora is a 15 hospital healthcare system with a few "affiliates". We have a RD at one affiliate who despite my offers to assist with training/implementation of NFPE and malnutrition documentation, refuses to move forward due to lack of time. I find myself coaching dietitians at least several times a year regarding their role, the part of the patient's care they own, the need to be visible, and the importance in being present and vocal about nutrition when patient or population management decisions are being made. Again, they argue they don't have time, yet complain if another discipline drives the nutritional care for a given population. This is where we risk being left behind. I find many of our dietitians (about 100) are not Academy members and likelihood of Aurora paying for membership is small given they do not pay for any other discipline professional membership. That leaves it to the Clinical Nutrition Manager to advocate for and be the voice of the Academy. I am happy to do that and see that as part of my role however, it can be a challenge to get the buy in. I think as a manager my greatest challenge with staff RDs is how to get them to "own" what they do and develop their passion for delivering great nutrition care.

Again, thank you for your support and the support the Academy provides to its members.

Dear Lynn and Melissa,

I read with interest your posts regarding the National Association of Clinical Nurse Specialists' white paper Malnutrition in Hospitalized Adult Patients: The Role of the Clinical Nurse Specialist. The white paper's call to action is to consult with and engage interprofessional health care teams to prioritize optimal nutrition in patient care management.

As clinicians, we place malnutrition at the heart of what we do; we are focused on treating or preventing many aspects of malnutrition. Because malnutrition affects quality of life, individual and system costs and health outcomes, we regularly work collaboratively with our nursing, pharmacist and physician colleagues to identify and treat it.

We absolutely know that it is the registered dietitian nutritionist who leads the clinical nutrition care workflow elements and plays a major role in the nutritional care of the patient. The RDN must be the driver of malnutrition identification and care in the organization/facility/care setting, including nutrition screening assessment diagnosis intervention/plan of care monitoring and evaluation, through discharge planning and transitions of care.

I assure you that malnutrition has been and continues to be a significant priority for the Academy. It is at the core of the new Strategic Plan. There are many projects, resources and upcoming developments related to demonstrating how RDNs lead efforts to decrease hospital-acquired malnutrition, malnutrition in the community, food insecurity and the global burden of malnutrition. The Academy is working in collaboration with key stakeholders to lead both research and quality efforts. The Academy's website details our work in malnutrition.

One of the most significant projects is the Malnutrition Quality Improvement Initiative Learning Collaborative 2.0. The preliminary MQii data results are due to be reviewed in the coming months. The outcomes will highlight the RDNs' leadership role in many aspects of the nutrition care workflow elements, including quality improvement for readmission rates and a greater emphasis on discharge planning and transitions of care. I encourage you to view the MQii videos featuring

RDNs who are currently leading interprofessional teams in their facilities.

Please note that the Revised 2017 Scope of Practice for the RDN and the Revised 2017 Standards of Practice and Professional Performance for RDNs have just been released online as Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Articles in Press.

As an RDN with a long history of clinical experience, I value and appreciate the work you do and look forward to working closely with DPGs and individual RDNs and NDTRs to elevate the RDN as the leader in malnutrition care across the health delivery continuum. Please reach out with ideas, thoughts and concerns at any time.

Best regards, and thank you for your passion for and advocacy of expert patient care through the work of RDNs.

Donna:

As I read it:

- There is no change from the May proclamation.
 - Districts will still have to ask for waivers.
 - Holding steady at Sodium Target is not permanent but will relay further research.
- IMHO ... for your and Jeanne's eyes only.
- This could have been so much worse.
 - This is not a rollback; it is flexibility moving forward.
 - So far in my discussions out in the field:
 - I have only seen 1% flavored milk in Indiana.
 - Districts that asked for whole grain waivers will continue to do so. Districts that have whole grain products that are working will continue to do so. (BTW ... many very good districts serve non-creditable grains as an extra. Example: They offer/serve a whole grain, like a breadstick or roll, with regular pasta.)
 - Most people are relieved not to be forced to move to Target 2 Sodium Levels.
- Happy to chat more anytime,

Dayle

Dear School Health Policy Consortium members:

As you may have seen, today the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced a new "School Meal Flexibility Rule" that will weaken school nutrition standards aimed at reducing sodium and increasing whole grains, as well as allow schools to now serve 1% flavored milk.

Healthier Generation believes this change fails to account for the tremendous progress seen in thousands of schools nationwide that are successfully implementing healthier meal standards. You can find a statement from our CEO, Dr. Howell Wechsler, below (and on our website).

Please let us know if your organization is planning to respond with a statement or during the public comment period. We'd love to try to align on messaging!

Thank you!

As I read it:

- There is no change from the May proclamation.
 - Districts will still have to ask for waivers.
 - Holding steady at Sodium Target is not permanent but will relay further research.
- IMHO ... for your and Jeanne's eyes only.
- This could have been so much worse.
 - This is not a rollback; it is flexibility moving forward.
 - So far in my discussions out in the field:
 - I have only seen 1% flavored milk in Indiana.
 - Districts that asked for whole grain waivers will continue to do so. Districts that have whole grain products that are working will continue to do so. (BTW ... many very good districts serve non-creditable grains as an extra. Example: They offer/serve a whole grain, like a breadstick or roll, with regular pasta.)
 - Most people are relieved not to be forced to move to Target 2 Sodium Levels.
- Happy to chat more anytime,

Dear School Health Policy Consortium members:

As you may have seen, today the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced a new “School Meal Flexibility Rule” that will weaken school nutrition standards aimed at reducing sodium and increasing whole grains, as well as allow schools to now serve 1% flavored milk.

Healthier Generation believes this change fails to account for the tremendous progress seen in thousands of schools nationwide that are successfully implementing healthier meal standards. You can find a statement from our CEO, Dr. Howell Wechsler, below (and on our website).

Please let us know if your organization is planning to respond with a statement or during the public comment period. We'd love to try to align on messaging!

Thank you!

Hi Donna,

I can absolutely help with this! There are a ton of great photos – is it okay if I put them on a jump drive and mail it to you? I think there will be too many to send via email. Let me know if that works.

Thanks!

I know that Pam has had concerns for some time and do not know the history of her involvement with the project.

She, like others, has informatics training which I completely lack.

I have heard informatics people at places I have worked make the same comments about "drop downs"-but free text is not appropriate either as it is not "searchable"

Look forward to thoughts on how/if to reply.

Would think she would have written to Alison and will??

Howdy!

Me again.

I'm sitting in on a webinar for the ANDHII thingie.

I have some serious concerns from an informatics standpoint. I raised these concerns when the thing was in draft format and it looks like nothing was done.

Problems begin when presenters say stuff like "We used lots of drop downs" and "Select your diagnosis".

There is a science to creating drop down menus. Did an expert consult with the Academy for that work? There is a known bias when using drop down menus.... folks choose the top items, especially when in a hurry.

Diagnosticians don't select a diagnosis. They diagnose a health problem. There's a huge difference.

Who is validating the data entered? Given that many RDs still "select" terms "from intake" instead of actually diagnosing nutrition problems, I fear that we will be way off track and introduce a lot of noise when we think we are creating music.

C'est la vie, I guess.

Hi all,

Attached are Ms. Hayes' slides from her Cooper Lecture at the Food and Nutrition Conference and Expo in Chicago last month. We wanted to go ahead and send these since there seemed to be much interest on the call. We will also be sending meeting minutes and the DoD Food Environment APF and NAF business process maps later this week. Again, thank you all for participating in the call this afternoon!

Dear School Health Policy Consortium members:

As you may have seen, today the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced a new “School Meal Flexibility Rule” that will weaken school nutrition standards aimed at reducing sodium and increasing whole grains, as well as allow schools to now serve 1% flavored milk.

Healthier Generation believes this change fails to account for the tremendous progress seen in thousands of schools nationwide that are successfully implementing healthier meal standards. You can find a statement from our CEO, Dr. Howell Wechsler, below (and on our website).

Please let us know if your organization is planning to respond with a statement or during the public comment period. We'd love to try to align on messaging!

Thank you!

Malnutrition and Nutrition-Focused Physical Exam: Practical Applications in the Pediatric Setting

CPEU: 1.5 credits

This webinar will discuss RDN practices, perceptions, knowledge, barriers, and responsibilities with utilizing the Academy/ASPEN pediatric indicators recommended for the identification and documentation of pediatric malnutrition, along with performing nutrition focused physical exam (NFPE). The webinar will also introduce the systematic approach of NFPE and explore the methods used to teach the RDN to identify subcutaneous fat loss, muscle wasting, micronutrient deficiencies, fluid accumulation, and functional status to identify malnutrition.

Learning Objectives:

1. Apply the Academy/ASPEN Indicators for pediatric malnutrition as defined by the 2014 Consensus Statement
 2. Identify the components of a NFPE (muscle wasting, fat loss, nutrition related fluid accumulation, and functional status)
 3. Recognize clinical signs of micronutrient deficiencies
 4. Identify and problem-solve barriers to performing NFPE
 5. Demonstrate NFPE
- REGISTER HERE!

Speakers:

Beth Mordarski, RDN, LD is currently the NFPE Program Manager for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, in addition to practicing as a clinical dietitian at Regency Hospital in Cleveland, OH. She developed the NFPE Hands-on Training Workshop for the Academy and, along with managing the NFPE Program, Beth is a NFPE Workshop Trainer. Beth began her career in the hospital setting and was able to gain experience starting in community hospitals and then spending nine years at University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center, a large teaching hospital, where she was also a dietetic intern preceptor. She has over 15 years of clinical nutrition experience.

Carly D. G. Leon, MS, RD, CD, CNSC completed her dietetic internship from Carle Foundation Hospital in Champaign, IL. Carly started her dietetics career as a clinical dietitian at Advocate Christ Hospital and with the Greater Chicago Food Depository developing nutrition education programs and improving the collection of nutritious foods for food pantries. For the past ten-plus years she has worked at Childrens Hospital of Wisconsin as an outpatient dietitian in Hepatology/Solid Organ Transplant and GI. Carly loves her position and working with children. In addition, she finds her nutrition physical exam skills are imperative to her role as the nutrition provider, in particular where more traditional growth parameters fall short.

REGISTER HERE!

If your schedule changes and you cannot attend, note that the webinar will be recorded and available at eatrightPRO for self-study.

Join us on December 13th in Washington D.C. to advocate for better foodservice equipment and infrastructure in schools!

Dear Colleague,

As school nutrition professionals, we know that old and outdated kitchen equipment hinders schools' ability to adapt to the nutritional needs of our nation's students. I have seen firsthand how challenging it is to prepare healthy, appealing and economical meals when you don't have the equipment you need.

We have captured video and images of the need for equipment upgrades and we listened to your stories – now we want to share them with members of Congress.

I invite you to join me for the Academy's advocacy day for the School Foodservice Modernization Equipment Project and congressional briefing on Wednesday, December 13 in Washington, D.C. We need SNS members to participate and help us deliver our messages to Congressional leaders who determine if the grants and loans will be funded now and in the future.

The advocacy day and congressional briefing are open to all members, partners and allies in the field and friends of the dietitian community at no cost.

Register here for the event.

Schedule at a glance:

- 9 – 10 a.m. Meeting for those participating in Hill visits
- 10 – 11:30 a.m. Congressional briefing
- Noon – 3:30 p.m. Capitol Hill visits

Please do not hesitate to contact Jeanne Blankenship with any questions or concerns.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.

2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?

3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you be able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Jeanne, This is the answer from the Director for the Chicago visit.

Do you want me to check with Meghan Gibbons for a visit with her outside of Chicago? If so, what day do you want to go there?

Can you get me a number on how many small bags of grits we need? I need to get them ordered and I need to know where to have them sent. I will have them delivered two days before our hill visits.

Happy Thursday!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Thanks.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Hi Jeanne,

As you may have seen, today the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced a new "School Meal Flexibility Rule" that will weaken school nutrition standards aimed at reducing sodium and increasing whole grains, as well as allow schools to now serve 1% flavored milk.

Healthier Generation believes this change fails to account for the tremendous progress seen in thousands of schools nationwide that are successfully implementing healthier meal standards. You can find a statement from our CEO, Dr. Howell Wechsler, below (and on our website).

Please let us know if your organization is planning to respond with a statement or during the public comment period. We'd love to try to align on messaging!

Thank you!

Nancy

USDA Waters Down Nutrition Standards with School Meal Flexibility Rule

(November 29, 2017) – The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) published today a new School Meal Flexibility Rule (Flexibility Rule) that will weaken nutrition standards aimed at reducing sodium and increasing whole grains for meals provided under the USDA's National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs. Additionally, schools will now have the discretion to serve 1 percent flavored milk, a move that unnecessarily allows more sugar and calories to be added to our children's diets. The changes proposed by the Flexibility Rule do not reflect the tremendous progress and success we have seen from schools across the country in meeting or exceeding national guidelines for healthier school meals.

Healthier Generation's Healthy Schools Program has worked with schools to implement healthier meals that meet federal nutrition standards required by the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010, which were derived from the best scientific evidence of our children's dietary needs. The success we've witnessed at the school level demonstrates that schools can serve nutritious and appealing meals while meeting the original timeline for meal pattern requirements. This success runs contrary to U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue's recent statement that "schools need flexibility in menu planning so they can serve nutritious and appealing meals." Tens of thousands of schools are already doing just that – serving up nutritious and delicious meals.

Additionally, the data does not support the need for additional flexibility. The USDA's 2016 press release indicated that 99 percent of schools nationwide reported meeting the existing nutrition standards. Further, the former Kids' Safe and Healthful Foods Project of The Pew Charitable Trusts found that near the end of the 2014-15 school year, 6 in 10 directors said they faced few or no ongoing obstacles to meeting updated school breakfast requirements. We have seen this data come to life through meals planned and served by schools across the country.

Every child deserves a healthy future – now is not the time to reverse progress toward that reality. Instead of lowering standards, we need to provide additional training and resources to the minority of schools that have difficulty meeting sodium targets and whole grain requirements. Schools need our support to continue offering meals that keep kids healthy, an investment in our children's health that will best prepare the next generation for success.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.

2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?

3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?

4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you be able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Thanks.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Sandy,

Sorry to hear you aren't feeling well. We definitely will focus on the kitchen and equipment for the video, the requests below were general footage to frame the video and story but we can get that elsewhere. Is the date in general a go for you? I am happy to talk on Thursday.

Jeanne & Nancy

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

December 13: Academy's Advocacy Day

The Academy will host an advocacy day and congressional briefing with partner organizations on December 13 in Washington, D.C. Members will have the opportunity to inform policymakers about the importance of foodservice modernization in schools and to advocate for the School Food Modernization Act (H.R. 3006/S. 1402). The event is open to all Academy members at no cost.

President's Tour: School Kitchens in Pennsylvania

Academy President Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, met recently with leaders in three Erie, Pa., schools to highlight the importance of updating school kitchens as part of a grant from Pew Charitable Trusts and its Kids' Safe and Healthful Food Project. Additional funding would help schools like Erie's Diehl Elementary, which has just one oven used to cook meals for 500 students.

Hi all,

Attached are Ms. Hayes' slides from her Cooper Lecture at the Food and Nutrition Conference and Expo in Chicago last month. We wanted to go ahead and send these since there seemed to be much interest on the call. We will also be sending meeting minutes and the DoD Food Environment APF and NAF business process maps later this week. Again, thank you all for participating in the call this afternoon!

Best,

Kate

Hopefully you guys can get started in the morning and we can get most of the day on film. Do you want to chat later today or first thing tomorrow? I really appreciate you squeezing this in!

I can sympathize with the writer in that manners and social etiquette have significantly declined and it is not just in the youth or college ages. Social media has allowed folks to write what they would not likely say to someone's face and in front of others. Likewise, those who greatly despair the loss of what my mom would have said is "common courtesy" expected of all and to all, choose not to speak up to let folks know that their words are inappropriate and not appreciated. It is incumbent on us all to have the courage to speak up or write back to the individual our disappointment in a professional manner, which is our freedom of speech as well. The silent majority will need to exercise their values openly, again in a professional way. When folks are not challenged to be the best they can be through social media or otherwise, they likely feel that they are accepted in their actions, speech and demeanor. But, this is our responsibility individually. I agree that the Organization cannot sanction free speech. The sad part is that this has become pervasive in many areas and if collectively "we---in every walk of life" are not part of the peer pressure to rise above hate language, bad behavior, and inappropriate interactions, this pattern will continue. It may rise to individual litigation when something rises to slander, because often the dialog is directed at a person or persons, rather than the organization. When levied against the organization, we can respond as appropriate with facts and our principles of governance and goals. Or in some circumstances, let the egregious individual show themselves for what he/she is and after a period, no one listens.

Pat, your words were great in your response and the call to action through our Pledge of Professional

Civility is important. Thank you for the time and thoughtful reflection that went in to your response on our behalf. I truly am grateful. There truly is no enforcement option for the values of respect, civility, and dignified/professional discourse through social media, it seems, if the masses don't respond with elegant disdain.

Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of, and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

Just spent at least 25 mins reading a long FB discussion about the blog post—started by Rebecca Subbiah, one of those interviewed in the piece. Interesting comments by a number of folks, nearly all very reasonable. Milton contributed some highly thoughtful ideas as did Angela Lemond and many others. One person suggested a “controversial topics” session at FNCE to allow expression of different sides to ideas. Several defer fed the pledge-others not so thrilled by it. Also see that DIFM and others are tweeting about it. Really great to see what I feel is a generally balanced and reasonable discussion.

Of note, Tara, the person who wrote to Pat and Donna, added her voice to the conversation and encouraged people to contact them and the HOD-helpfully provided emails.

Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of, and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

Just spent at least 25 mins reading a long FB discussion about the blog post—started by Rebecca Subbiah, one of those interviewed in the piece. Interesting comments by a number of folks, nearly all very reasonable. Milton contributed some highly thoughtful ideas as did Angela Lemond and many others. One person suggested a “controversial topics” session at FNCE to allow expression of different sides to ideas. Several deferred the pledge—others not so thrilled by it.

Also see that DIFM and others are tweeting about it. Really great to see what I feel is a generally balanced and reasonable discussion.

Of note, Tara, the person who wrote to Pat and Donna, added her voice to the conversation and encouraged people to contact them and the HOD—helpfully provided emails.

Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of, and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

Likewise, those who greatly despair the loss of what my mom would have said is "common courtesy" expected of all and to all, choose not to speak up to let folks know that their words are inappropriate and not appreciated. It is incumbent on us all to have the courage to speak up or write back to the individual our disappointment in a professional manner, which is our freedom of speech as well. The silent majority will need to exercise their values openly, again in a professional way. When folks are not challenged to be the best they can be through social media or otherwise, they likely feel that they are accepted in their actions, speech and demeanor. But, this is our responsibility individually. I agree that the Organization cannot sanction free speech. The sad part is that this has become pervasive in many areas and if collectively "we---in every walk of life" are not part of the peer pressure to rise above hate language, bad behavior, and inappropriate interactions, this pattern will continue. It may rise to individual litigation when something rises to slander, because often the dialog is directed at a person or persons, rather than the organization. When levied against the organization, we can respond as appropriate with facts and our principles of governance and goals. Or in some circumstances, let the egregious individual show themselves for what he/she is and after a period, no one listens.

Pat, your words were great in your response and the call to action through our Pledge of Professional

Civility is important. Thank you for the time and thoughtful reflection that went in to your response on our behalf. I truly am grateful. There truly is no enforcement option for the values of respect, civility, and dignified/professional discourse through social media, it seems, if the masses don't respond with elegant disdain.

I wonder if this would be a good opportunity for the Ethics Committee Chair-Lisa Dierks-to reach out to Tara and have a personal conversation? Maybe a simple personal call could open doors all around and also help Tara understand the ethics process.

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of, and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

majority will need to exercise their values openly, again in a professional way. When folks are not challenged to be the best they can be through social media or otherwise, they likely feel that they are accepted in their actions, speech and demeanor. But, this is our responsibility individually. I agree that the Organization cannot sanction free speech. The sad part is that this has become pervasive in many areas and if collectively “we---in every walk of life” are not part of the peer pressure to rise above hate language, bad behavior, and inappropriate interactions, this pattern will continue. It may rise to individual litigation when something rises to slander, because often the dialog is directed at a person or persons, rather than the organization. Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of,

and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

As Manju sad, there is so much that members are not aware of in spite of great efforts by staff and volunteer leaders.

The updated Code of Ethics should be ready for rollout in 6 months or so. This creates a great opportunity for innovative and interesting ways to get the word out about ethics in all areas and stages of practice, through videos and articles and all sorts of creative means. I know Barbara Visocan and Doris Acosta and other staff and volunteers will put their heads together and we all can help.

Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of, and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Patricia M. Babjak

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

Empower RDNs to Identify and Diagnose Malnutrition

Research shows that nutrition intervention of a patient with, or at risk for, malnutrition can decrease length of hospital stay, falls, pressure ulcers, infections, complications, re-admissions, and overall health care costs.

Registered Dietitian Nutritionists (RDNs) can perform a nutrition focused physical exam (NFPE) to more accurately provide individuals with a nutrition diagnosis of malnutrition. The Academy offers a Hands-On Training Workshop designed to provide the RDN with the skills to perform an NFPE, empowering the RDN to accurately identify and diagnosis patients with malnutrition.

Host an NFPE Hands-On Training Workshop and enjoy these benefits:

- No fee for hosting!
- One complimentary workshop registration for host site (when hosting an open workshop)
- Complimentary NFPE Pocket Guides for facility RDNs
- Learn NFPE techniques in the comfort of your own facility and practice on your patient population

Attendees receive the following benefits:

- 1:6 trainer-to-participant ratio for personalized instruction
- 10 hours of continuing professional education
- Ongoing support from Academy staff and trainer(s)
- Peer Champion resources for implementation with RDNs at home facility

The Academy is scheduling facility host sites for the NFPE Hands-on Training Workshop. If your facility is interested in being a host site, learn more here or contact nfpe@eatright.org.

Tara,

Thank you for your email to the Academy about today's online Washington Post blog post. We are in complete agreement that abusive online behavior – whatever the cause and whoever is the perpetrator – is unprofessional and reflects poorly on all of us.

It is not possible, or legal, for the Academy to censor or attempt to silence people online; we have no right to control individuals' free speech. When and where freedom of speech crosses the line into abusive and actionable behavior is a different issue, and one that virtually every organization and profession with an online presence grapples with daily.

The Academy has taken, and continues to take, steps to encourage all nutrition and dietetics practitioners to engage with civility and professionalism while using social media; the new Pledge of Professional Civility is an optional statement that Academy members and non-members alike can take to demonstrate their commitment to civil online discourse and, by example, to encourage others to do the same.

In addition, the Academy has taken (and continues to take) specific steps to address abusive behavior without infringing on freedom of speech and while relying – as we must – on each individuals' ability to know what is appropriate to say, and when.

The Academy's practice paper Social Media and the Dietetics Practitioner: Opportunities, Challenges, and Best Practices clearly states that, when using social media, nutrition and dietetics practitioners must remember that they are governed by the same Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics that guides all other aspects of practice. All practitioners must be aware of, and follow, the Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics. The Code contains a mechanism for reporting allegations of unprofessional or unethical behavior by practitioners.

As the Social Media practice paper points out, there are legal ramifications for unprofessional online behavior, which are also reportable to the appropriate authorities:

In addition, it is critical to have a thorough understanding of all the factors related to social media professionalism, including disclosure rules from the Federal Trade Commission, patient/client privacy and confidentiality as covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and copyright laws that protect intellectual property. In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

In today's digital age, it is essential for nutrition and dietetics practitioners to recognize the professional opportunities and challenges of social media. Failing to effectively and ethically use social media can reflect poorly on the individual practitioner and the profession. Certain violations may have legal implications.

As you can see, we walk a fine line between free speech and actionable abuse, between encouraging everyone to act in a civil manner befitting adults and enforcing the Academy's Code of Ethics that is appropriate for a respected health profession.

Our work in this area goes on, and the Academy appreciates your input and concern as a valued member. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Patricia M. Babjak

Subject: Washington Post article- Time to act AND

Good morning,

I woke up this morning to the Washington Post article, exposing the personal and career abuse and humiliation that some RDs are inflicting on others via social media. How deeply embarrassing for our professional community that this story is relevant enough to be reported at this level. This threatens to undermine all the good that we do in the community and the way the public sees us and respects us.

This has been going on far too long and I know that the Academy is well aware. I know this because I've witnessed countless threads on Facebook practice group pages commiserating on the emotional and professional pain and damage that these people have caused. The end of the thread usually ends in the victim being encouraged to report the abuse and then agrees to do so. There are several perpetrators, one in particular, Leah McGrath, whose abusive behavior has gone unchecked. It is cruel. It is hurtful. It is wildly unprofessional. And for some reason, for some of these practitioners, these attacks are extremely personal.

So I ask, when is the Academy going to do more than put out a statement or position paper on social media etiquette? In any profession, there are codes and standards that members must abide in order to maintain their credentials and status. It is time to establish a code of ethics and appropriate disciplinary action for this kind of behavior. This cannot continue. It is destroying the fabric of our profession and our credibility.

On behalf of myself and so many other RD, I ask, PLEASE DO SOMETHING NOW.

Sincerely,

Tara Noseck, RD

Donna, Wendy and I are delighted you can make this work. You won't need to do a formal presentation; we are inviting you to serve as a panelist. I've attached a draft meeting agenda; see the top of page 3 for details. We'll certainly provide more detail after the first of the year, once we've confirmed the panelists from CDC and USDA.

Joan, I've attached a request form. I used an affiliate request form...from my files when I was president of the California Academy. If you need a different form completed, please let me know.

I am scheduled to be in Pennsylvania for their state meeting on April 5th so I do not see a way I can make this work? If I came I would only be able to be there for a little while in the morning and have to leave to go to Pennsylvania. If you would like someone else to come from the BOD I

Dear Donna,

I'm writing on behalf of Wendy Reinhardt Kapsak and the Produce for Better Health Foundation.

I'm working with Wendy and her team to plan a few spring meetings, including a National Fruit and Vegetable Alliance meeting in Scottsdale, Arizona, on Wednesday, April 4.

We know you will be incredibly busy with spring affiliate meetings, but we wanted to assess your interest in participating in this meeting. The goal is to explore multi-sector strategies and partnerships for increasing fruit and vegetable consumption. We know many in the produce industry know and love you, but we want to share your expertise with a broader group of public health, nutrition, produce industry, CPG, retail, and foodservice leaders.

Please let us know if you're interested and available to be in Arizona for a few days that week. Also, please let us know if you'd like us to work with Joan at the Academy to make a formal request for your time.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Warm regards,

Amy

Request for Photos, Videos and Stories for School Foodservice Equipment Modernization Project

The Academy recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trusts to advocate for school food modernization as part of its Kids' Safe and Healthful Foods Project. We are asking our members who work in school nutrition services to submit their photos, videos and stories that showcase the challenges and successes of equipment and infrastructure in school kitchens. Share with us how past funding has affected the ability to serve healthy meals in schools and how additional resources could improve a kitchen's functionality.

Please fill out this survey or send stories (limited to 3 paragraphs), photos or videos to Nate Stritzinger. The deadline for submissions has been extended to COB Friday, December 1.

There's a bonus: The person with the best submission will have the opportunity to share in-person at the Congressional Briefing on December 13, in conjunction with the Academy's advocacy day on school foodservice modernization.

Policy leaders, please share this information with your members.

December 4 Webinar: National Campaign and Social Media Guidelines

The Academy's Nominating Committee will host a National Campaign and Social Media Guidelines webinar on December 4 from 1 -2 p.m. (CT). The interactive webinar will provide details and clarification on the campaign guidelines and how you can take an active role in the election process. Committee Members Bethany Thayer, MS, RDN, FAND and Kris Clark, PhD, RDN will be presenting. Its not too late to register for the webinar. If you are unable to attend the webinar, it will be recorded and uploaded to the elections website for future playback.

Register for the Advocacy Day held on December 13

Join the Academy's advocacy day and congressional briefing on December 13 from 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (ET) on Capitol Hill in Dirksen Senate Building, Room SD-G50. Academy members will have the opportunity to inform policymakers about the importance of food service modernization in schools and to advocate for the School Food Modernization Act (H.R. 3006/ S. 1402). The Academy and partner organizations are organizing this day.

Schedule at a glance:

9 – 10 a.m. Meeting for those participating in Hill visits

10 – 11:30 a.m. Congressional briefing

Noon – 3:30 p.m. Hill visits

The event is open to all members (and guests) at no cost. Register here.

World AIDS Day December 1

Friday is World AIDS Day, a day of awareness for those individuals impacted by HIV/AIDS. This year's theme is "Increasing Impact through Transparency, Accountability, and Partnerships." More than 1.1 million Americans live with AIDS and one out of seven people do not know. The Academy continues to advocate for the provision of essential food and nutrition services for people living with HIV through the Ryan White program. Learn why nutrition is vital to those living with HIV/AIDS.

News from the Hill

HHS Secretary Nomination Hearing Wednesday

The Senate Health, Education Labor and Pensions Committee (HELP) is holding a hearing 9:30 a.m. ET Wednesday for the nomination of Alex Michael Azar II to serve as Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary. The position has been vacant since September. Watch the hearing here.

Congressional Leaders Near Agreement on Budget Deal

Congressional leaders continue to negotiate an agreement on federal spending levels for Fiscal Year 2018, which would then allow the Appropriations Committees to draft a spending bill for the remainder of the fiscal year. As a reminder, the current continuing resolution (CR) spending bill expires December 8, and a short-term funding extension may be needed to keep the federal government operating beyond December 8. The Academy will continue to monitor these negotiations and is working to ensure that vital nutrition programs receive sufficient federal funding. Stay tuned for more information as it becomes available!

Tax Bill Update

The Senate debates the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act this week, with a vote on the final bill expected Thursday or Friday. The Academy expressed our concerns in a letter to U.S. Senate and House of Representatives leadership on November 20. We also joined 60 organizations in sending a sign-on letter to leadership addressing concerns that legislative proposals being considered by Congress that would make significant changes to the tax code could result in increased deficits and reduced resources to fund vital government services, including public health services.

December to be Busy on Capitol Hill

Members of the House and Senate return to Capitol Hill for a busy several weeks before adjourning for the holidays on December 15. Before the end of the year, Congress must enact a budget deal to raise the spending caps and pass legislation to fund the federal government. Congress must also pass emergency spending for natural disasters and tax reform. Additionally, Congress is working to re-authorize the Children's Health Insurance Program, Community Health Centers and the National Health Service Corps.

Make sure to follow PPWN for ways to take action during this busy time!

Preventive Health Savings Act Introduced in the Senate

Senators Ben Cardin (MD), Mike Crapo (ID) and Angus King (ME) re-introduced the Preventive Health Savings Act on November 28, which would allow policymakers to more accurately assess legislation that would prevent chronic disease. This legislation allows the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) to evaluate the cost-saving potential of prevention programs over a longer time frame, which will enable the CBO to provide Congress with a more accurate assessment of the long-term budgetary effects of preventive health programs. This analysis is critical to gaining support for the Academy's legislative priorities, including the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act and the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act. The Academy has supported this bill in prior congressional sessions, and we will have updated resources for Academy members available on the website soon.

Update on Action Alerts

There's still time. We currently have three Action Alerts open. As we are nearing the end of this legislative session, we encourage you to take action on the following (if you have not already done so):

1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – National Diabetes month is ending in a few days but there is still time to take action.
2. Nutrition Education Programs in the Farm Bill
3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – More co-sponsors have been added to the bill. It's not too late to contact your senator and representative and ask them for their support.

Cut and past the following message and post to your communication platforms. It is not too late to make a difference!

(PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Yes, that doesn't surprise me. I know she's very vigorous about questioning the science behind many events, programs, and individual stances and social media posts. I think her heart is in the right place.

To me, it's high time the science-based folks "fought back" on social media because the non-science-based folks got such a big head start. Of course, I wouldn't want any true bullying to take place. I'm sure I'm not aware of all the issues here...

Attached is a Washington Post blog that came out this morning; online only. The blog mentions the civility pledge and the tone of Twitter conversations among dietitians. Overall, the blog is positive about the pledge. The writer obviously had several RDNs point the finger at other RDNs who are bullying online. And, we also know it was an RDN who brought it to the attention of the writer. Unfortunately it doesn't mention that generally the Academy's membership exchanges online are positive.

There's drama on dietitian Twitter, and it's exposing deep rifts in nutrition doctrine

We expect our members will share this online so we wanted you to be aware. On the positive side, even some of our detractors are valuing the intent of the pledge.

Yes, that doesn't surprise me. I know she's very vigorous about questioning the science behind many events, programs, and individual stances and social media posts. I think her heart is in the right place.

To me, it's high time the science-based folks "fought back" on social media because the non-science-based folks got such a big head start. Of course, I wouldn't want any true bullying to take place. I'm sure I'm not aware of all the issues here...

Attached is a Washington Post blog that came out this morning; online only. The blog mentions the civility pledge and the tone of Twitter conversations among dietitians. Overall, the blog is positive about the pledge. The writer obviously had several RDNs point the finger at other RDNs who are bullying online. And, we also know it was an RDN who brought it to the attention of the writer. Unfortunately it doesn't mention that generally the Academy's membership exchanges online are positive.

Hi, I tried to call; but you are on the phone, This is fine, please if you could just create a general list we can work from, that would be best. I can be there by 7:30 on Wednesday!

Call me at 404-786-6314 if you prefer talking!

Thanks, David

PS,

I left a message for Jeanne, never heard back from her, I did get a card that I'll be able to hand over after the days work. You'll need to let me know who I will need to invoice after the shoot.

Dear Pat and Donna,

In case you have not seen this:

https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/wonk/wp/2017/11/28/theres-drama-on-dietitian-twitter-and-its-exposing-deep-rifts-in-nutrition-doctrine/?utm_term=.dcda2c55f497

An article in WaPo that mentions the Civility Pledge and the tone of some Twitter conversations.

I wish Barbara Ivens were interviewed for this piece because her talk at FNCE captured a greater problem: opinions and beliefs trumping science.

I hope we can acknowledge that much of the online conversation among dietitians is positive and constructive, even though the article ignores that fact. And please note, despite what the article says, Melinda Hemmelgarn did not disclose her corporate affiliations with the organic industry at the 2015 event. I was in the audience and so was Connie Diekman.

While I know Ashely Colpaart is no longer an Academy members, I'm not confident she left the Academy after receiving abusive tweets. Additionally, my understanding is that Ashley is on good terms with Leah McGrath.

And regarding DFPI, this article says DFPI opposes corporate influence in nutrition. That's false! DFPI opposes certain corporate influence. The Kind snack bars, for example, made a substantial financial contribution to science in nutrition and DFPI celebrated that.

Sincerely,
Milton

Hi Milton,

Thank you for the feedback. We had a similar response on the 4Ps call today as you did. By now, you have seen my communication to the Board. We are answering a couple follow-up emails sent to the President's email box subsequent to the blog. Sadly, some of the responses show a gap in knowledge, for instance, members asking the Academy to draft a code of ethics.

Best regards,

Pat

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you be able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Can you get me a number on how many small bags of grits we need? I need to get them ordered and I need to know where to have them sent. I will have them delivered two days before our hill visits.

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Thanks.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Interesting that one of the dietitians quoted as being the victim of bullying has herself bullied other dietitians for years, even before social media!

Having trouble viewing this e-mail? View it in your browser.

Today we celebrate #GivingTuesday, a global day of giving and an effort to bring together like-minded people to support causes near and dear to their hearts. Today is all about giving to the organizations about which you are passionate.

I can think of no other cause or organization more closely aligned with our passion, profession and priorities than our Foundation. The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation is the only charitable organization devoted to nutrition and dietetics, working within our profession to provide educational opportunities and resources to position RDNs as leaders in food, nutrition, and health.

Although affiliated with the Academy, the Foundation is an independent 501(c)(3) public charity and does not receive any portion of member dues. Each year, hundreds of Academy members receive life-changing educational opportunities at all levels of study. The Academy Foundation relies on donations to thrive, and our success and impact are directly attributable to the generosity of Academy members.

Press play to hear grateful Foundation recipients express their appreciation for your generous gifts.

Please help us continue our great work by making a donation today and celebrating #GivingTuesday. Lets come together as a community to help our Foundation continue its great work!

Sorry to hear you aren't feeling well. We definitely will focus on the kitchen and equipment for the video, the requests below were general footage to frame the video and story but we can get that elsewhere. Is the date in general a go for you? I am happy to talk on Thursday.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Sandy,

Sorry to hear you aren't feeling well. We definitely will focus on the kitchen and equipment for the video, the requests below were general footage to frame the video and story but we can get that elsewhere. Is the date in general a go for you? I am happy to talk on Thursday.

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

We are hoping you are still able to accommodate a site visit on the 5th. Would you be able to have a call next Monday or Tuesday to discuss logistics? Mary Russell, President-elect and Nancy Farrell who is the project lead for this site would be onsite for the tour and to guide the videographer. I am attaching a site visit summary to give you an idea of what we are trying to accomplish but we can discuss that more early next week and then I will work with Nancy to develop a specific agenda after we talk.

Thank you and I look forward to speaking!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Sandy,

We are hoping you are still able to accommodate a site visit on the 5th. Would you be able to have a call next Monday or Tuesday to discuss logistics? Mary Russell, President-elect and Nancy Farrell who is the project lead for this site would be onsite for the tour and to guide the videographer. I am attaching a site visit summary to give you an idea of what we are trying to accomplish but we can discuss that more early next week and then I will work with Nancy to develop a specific agenda after we talk.

Thank you and I look forward to speaking!

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Hi Pat and Donna,

Here is the Washington Post blog that just came out this morning. Liz is quoted as is Andy Bellatti. Leah is not mentioned by name.

Overall, I think it is fine and positive about the pledge. The writer obviously had several RDNs point the finger at RDNs who are bullying online.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Dear Pat and Donna,

An article in WaPo that mentions the Civility Pledge and the tone of some Twitter conversations.

I wish Barbara Ivens were interviewed for this piece because her talk at FNCE captured a greater problem: opinions and beliefs trumping science.

I hope we can acknowledge that much of the online conversation among dietitians is positive and constructive, even though the article ignores that fact. And please note, despite what the article says, Melinda Hemmelgarn did not disclose her corporate affiliations with the organic industry at the 2015 event. I was in the audience and so was Connie Diekman.

While I know Ashely Colpaart is no longer an Academy members, I'm not confident she left the Academy after receiving abusive tweets. Additionally, my understanding is that Ashley is on good terms with Leah McGrath.

And regarding DFPI, this article says DFPI opposes corporate influence in nutrition. That's false! DFPI opposes certain corporate influence. The Kind snack bars, for example, made a substantial financial contribution to science in nutrition and DFPI celebrated that.

Sincerely,
Milton

Jeanne & Nancy

I am sorry I need to cancel the call this morning. I am home sick with Strep and feel miserable. Can we reschedule for Thursday? I am contagious so I most likely will not be at work tomorrow. Here is some information about my district. I am a K-8 school district. To answer a few of the questions below, I would need to get approval through my superintendent on selecting a parent. We don't have too many involved parents, so this may be a challenge to get someone during the day on short notice. Most of our parents work multiple jobs. The shooting in the classroom would also be a challenge. I would have to identify an elementary school and principal/teacher that would be willing to allow us to film in the school, which will be hard at this time of year. They are protective of their time and distractions to students during the day. I would also need to work with my director of communications and we need to notify all the parents at the elementary level that filming would take place in the school.

I am sorry, not trying to be difficult, I was just assuming the filming would be more in the kitchen and dining areas. Once we go out of these areas there are several more layers to address.

Thanks, sorry about the last minute cancellation, I was slow to get out of bed and get to the doctor this morning.

Hello all,

In case I can't get on the phone call in time this morning. Here are some of my questions:

My flight arrives at O'Hare 710AM and I depart O'Hare 6PM so I have a full day in Chicago.

1. I need the name and address for our morning school location. I could arrive at the first location about 8AM.
2. Sandy – can I have your cell phone number?
3. Can we get some filming done at both breakfast and lunch times? An elementary school in the AM and a middle or high school for noon?
4. We need a couple parent and student interviews. Sandy – would you able to select a parent and 1-2 students (MS or HS levels)? Student(s) would need a media release signed.
5. Is there a chance we could get some B roll filming – a) of a teacher at the blackboard with only students backs present (no faces)? b) Or if they have media releases, shots of kids interacting in class – hanging up book bags, settling into desks, listening at story time in the library (ES level) ?
6. Can I have the contact info – name and cell number of the videographer please?

Appreciate the answers to these questions. Many thanks!!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Thanks.

Subject: Possible Visit

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Hi Carolyn and Demetrius-

I just wanted to let you know that Amy B's dad passed away around 4am on Sunday morning after a near 11 year brain cancer battle. She went to Ohio to visit her family for the holiday weekend, so she is staying there for the week and working remote Monday/Tuesday and will be on bereavement Wednesday – Friday. I will share the funeral/wake details once those are finalized this afternoon.

I am not sure if the Academy normally sending something from her work “family” or if that is something we should do personally from the LLPE team. I am fine handling however you prefer.

Thanks,

Diane

Hello all,

Attached are four separate pages of a video storyboard. Based on our project objectives, this draft gives us a rough idea of the video concept.

Jeanne has asked that the four of us review this and be able to comment on it tomorrow.

We should be able to see what gaps we have, what additional footage we need (mostly B roll filming I believe), etc. etc.

Look forward to your input!

Jeanne, I really don't need to chat if you are OK? I will have my bookkeeper (her name is Delia Peel) pick you up at the airport Wednesday morning and I will take you back Wednesday night. She can just bring you to the middle school for us to film and do interviews that morning. I will have already done the school bus arrivals, breakfast in the classroom, the superintendent and the assistant principal at one of the schools. We can do the equipment, the coach and the equipment with you.

Hi Donna!

I am actually arriving on Wednesday morning and then back late that night. I had a conflict tomorrow evening that I could not reschedule. So I land at 8:41 and figured I would get a car and head your way. Then I fly out around 6 p.m.

Hopefully you guys can get started in the morning and we can get most of the day on film. Do you want to chat later today or first thing tomorrow? I really appreciate you squeezing this in!

Jeanne, I really don't need to chat if you are OK? I will have my bookkeeper (her name is Delia Peel) pick you up at the airport Wednesday morning and I will take you back Wednesday night. She can just bring you to the middle school for us to film and do interviews that morning. I will have already done the school bus arrivals, breakfast in the classroom, the superintendent and the assistant principal at one of the schools. We can do the equipment, the coach and the equipment with you.

Hi Donna!

I am actually arriving on Wednesday morning and then back late that night. I had a conflict tomorrow evening that I could not reschedule. So I land at 8:41 and figured I would get a car and head your way. Then I fly out around 6 p.m.

Hopefully you guys can get started in the morning and we can get most of the day on film. Do you want to chat later today or first thing tomorrow? I really appreciate you squeezing this in!

I am still waiting to confirm a couple of the appointments. Mary Pat's phone number is incorrect on the contact information form. I am going to send her an email. Trish's phone number wouldn't allow messages, but am pretty sure she is willing to serve as chair next year. Asked everyone to get back to me by this week.

Hi Donna and Dianne,

Thank you for a productive call yesterday for the appointments to ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS. I appreciate your flexibility in rescheduling the call to allow you the time needed to review the binder of information. I do feel a little bit like Santa, making my list and checking it twice. Good thing I did so as it looks like we have an extra person for LPPC (see Current 2017 and Open Slots 2018 document). If you agree with my assessment, would you like to consider Laura Purdue a back-up person? I'm also awaiting confirmation from Pat that there are no issues with asking Mary Pat to serve on ANDPAC. I'll let you know as soon as I hear from her.

The following items are provided for your use in making contact with the individuals being appointed to ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS:

1. Contact Information for Appointees (email address and phone number) – I have included terms of office as well as your assignments for contacting the appointees.
2. Appointments for 2018 for ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS
3. Template email for committee member and committee vice chair—simply fill in the blanks noted in yellow.
4. Committee descriptions for ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS—you can copy and paste this information into the template email.

Please make contact with these individuals as soon as possible after the Thanksgiving holiday. It would be great to have all the appointments confirmed by December 8—please keep this as our goal. Dianne – we can also discuss whether you want to rotate off LPPC as of December 31, 2017 and let Marcy rotate on as we discussed this summer. Jeanne was fine with whatever we'd like to do.

Let me know who accepts and who declines—I will keep track of this information. Once everyone accepts (I'm being optimistic), I'll take care of sending out official appointment letters from you (similar to the other appointment letters) as well as our standard "rejection" letter that outlines other opportunities to serve the Academy.

If you need any assistance with this process, please let me know. We are happy to assist as needed. Thanks!!

Hi Donna,

The registration link would be the same. You will have to log out of your name and Click on register again. Instead of logging in with your information, click "New Visitor Registration", where you can type in Rudy Falana's info.

I hope this helps, but please let me know if you require any more assistance.

Mary Russell, President-elect and Nancy Farrell who is the project lead for this site would be onsite for the tour and to guide the videographer. I am attaching a site visit summary to give you an idea of what we are trying to accomplish but we can discuss that more early next week and then I will work with Nancy to develop a specific agenda after we talk.

Thank you and I look forward to speaking!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Thanks.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Hi Donna!

I am actually arriving on Wednesday morning and then back late that night. I had a conflict tomorrow evening that I could not reschedule. So I land at 8:41 and figured I would get a car and head your way. Then I fly out around 6 p.m.

Hopefully you guys can get started in the morning and we can get most of the day on film. Do you want to chat later today or first thing tomorrow? I really appreciate you squeezing this in!

Hi Donna and Dianne,

Thank you for a productive call yesterday for the appointments to ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS. I appreciate your flexibility in rescheduling the call to allow you the time needed to review the binder of information. I do feel a little bit like Santa, making my list and checking it twice. Good thing I did so as it looks like we have an extra person for LPPC (see Current 2017 and Open Slots 2018 document). If you agree with my assessment, would you like to consider Laura Purdue a back-up person? I'm also awaiting confirmation from Pat that there are no issues with asking Mary Pat to serve on ANDPAC. I'll let you know as soon as I hear from her.

The following items are provided for your use in making contact with the individuals being appointed to ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS:

1. Contact Information for Appointees (email address and phone number) – I have included terms of office as well as your assignments for contacting the appointees.
2. Appointments for 2018 for ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS
3. Template email for committee member and committee vice chair—simply fill in the blanks noted in yellow.
4. Committee descriptions for ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS—you can copy and paste this information into the template email.

Please make contact with these individuals as soon as possible after the Thanksgiving holiday. It would be great to have all the appointments confirmed by December 8—please keep this as our goal. Dianne – we can also discuss whether you want to rotate off LPPC as of December 31, 2017 and let Marcy rotate on as we discussed this summer. Jeanne was fine with whatever we'd like to do.

Let me know who accepts and who declines—I will keep track of this information. Once everyone accepts (I'm being optimistic), I'll take care of sending out official appointment letters from you (similar to the other appointment letters) as well as our standard "rejection" letter that outlines other opportunities to serve the Academy.

If you need any assistance with this process, please let me know. We are happy to assist as needed. Thanks!!

All,

We have a Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, November 28th at 1 p.m. CST. Please let me know if you can't attend. You should also receive the webinar invitation today from the Academy IT team.

This month's meeting will focus on the October financial results and the 2019 Fiscal Year budget parameters and schedule. It is hard to believe we are beginning the budget process once again.

Maria will make sure all of the documents are loaded onto the portal today. However, I am attaching the agenda, preliminary October financial results and the Academy narrative for October with this email. Hopefully, this will make it easier for you.

As you might expect, given the success of FNCE, the October financial results are very good across the entire Academy structure. Keep in mind, many of our vendors have not yet provided to us all of the bills. So, Accounting works with the various teams to get estimates for many of the expenses and a few of the revenues. This will cause the preliminary October numbers to change before they are final. I would believe some expense areas will go up and some will go down. When it is all final, I hope that the “bottom line” results actually get better.

As for the Academy, you will see that revenue was over budget by $147,170!! Most of which is FNCE related. You may be thinking that $147,170 isn't very much when you considering how successful FNCE appeared. Well, keep in mind that the Meeting's team did a great job of budgeting the revenue for FY18. If you scroll over to the year to date numbers and the comparison to 2017, you will see the jump in revenue. Year to date, the Academy is $225,617 over budget on revenue. This is great news, but, not the best part of the story. If you look at the comparison to FY17, the Academy is $1,286,985 higher in revenue through October of 2017 than we were through October of 2016! Most of this, but not all, is due to FNCE. Again, that is great news from two perspectives; we were able to generate higher revenue for FNCE and our revenue for the other programs and services are also growing when compared to FY17. The only category that is lower than FY17 is Membership and we knew this would decline in FY18. Overall revenue for FY18 is up 11.14%. If you back out Membership, non-membership revenue is up nearly 18%! Great news on the revenue front.

There is one thing I would like to bring to your attention for October. You will see that the Sponsorship revenue is “on-budget” for the month at $320,910. It actually could have been higher. FNCE actually generated higher Sponsorship revenue than expected. However, when we look down the road for the entire year, we are still expecting to “not meet the entire Sponsorship budget” for FY18. So, instead of booking Sponsorship revenue in excess of budget for October and then telling you later “We are under-running Sponsorship”, we only booked the budget. Consider it a “budget timing issue” J. I will explain further on the call. Hopefully, the hard work being done by the Corporate Relations team will pay off and they are successful in getting another major sponsor.

On the expense side; the Academy was under-budget by $109,019 for October. I do expect that to change. Especially in the travel category. We moved as many FNCE related expense reimbursement requests that were received in November into October in order to properly reflect expenses and the budget comparison. However, the gap is still very high. I also know that we may have overstated expenses in a few areas that were for the operations of FNCE itself. As you can imagine, the amount of bills and detail the vendors have to sift through, and then our Meeting's team needs to validate, takes time. So, we worked to estimate the expenses where we did not have final billing. In the next couple of weeks, we will get a clearer picture of the final expenses. Since the expenses may change, I won't go into any more detail here.

Investments continued the successful run in October. The Academy received $274,166 of the total investment returns for October. This is $178,332 higher than the budget. Year to date, the Academy has received $748,571 in investment returns. This is $269,405 higher than budget. I will tell you that through yesterday, the portfolio is up another 1% for November. Hopefully, this will hold and we will see these numbers increase.

Finally, the Net Income for October came in at $3,336,398. This is $434,521 better than the budget. Year to date, the Academy Net Income now stands at $1,847,403. This is $612,384 better than the budget. If you continue on page A10 of the October results to the last number in the last column, you will see the Academy Net Income is $1,795,317 higher than when compared to FY17. These are numbers we haven't seen in a while!

I will stop here and wish everyone a safe and Happy Thanksgiving. Enjoy your weekend. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to let me know, either via email or by phone. Don't hesitate to use my cell phone if you feel so compelled. I can be reached at 630-750-8311.

Hoping that you had a delicious and restful holiday!

I am just checking in about reimbursement for my travel expenses for the current school foodservice project. Since Nancy cancelled her trip out to CA due to travel costs, I want to make certain that everything I do will be reimbursable.

For ND I had airfare, car rental/gas, meals, and two nights hotel (with the missed connection in DEN).

For CA visits, there will be no expenses since these were/will be done in conjunction with other travel.

For DC, I have purchase an airline ticket. I tried to go through the AND Travel Store but they needed a code and you were already out of the office for the holiday. I was able to book one through United for exactly the same cost.

- I made the reservation to arrive 3 pm on Tuesday and leave on Friday.
- There is no way for me to get home from DC and do the Hill visits on Wednesday, so I assumed that you would pay for two nights DC hotel.
- I planned to stay the extra Thursday night in DC on my own since it was much cheaper to fly home on Friday. I will take care of third night on my own ... either in hotel or with family.

Please let me know if these plans are OK ... and how I will submit the expenses for reimbursement.

Thanks,

Dayle

I had an early morning FB message from Nancy alerting me to the fact that she was not coming to CA due to high travel costs.

I am checking in to see where that leaves us with the visit and interviews planned at SLCUSD for Tuesday.

- I am perfectly willing to proceed as planned.
- I am also willing to do what I can with or without a videographer. I have my iPhone and brought my tripod with me.

If you want me go ahead, I would like feedback on the interviews that I have done to date.

- Jeanne ... you said that you saw my iPhone interview from Natomas? How was the quality of that video?
- What about the interviews that I did in ND? I am quite certain the video quality was good, but I need feedback on my role as interviewer.

Please let me know your thoughts and wishes asap. I would like to alert Erin Primer and the interviewees here as possible on Monday morning.

Jeanne and Nancy:

I am looking forward to a great visit with Erin Primer at Laguna Middle School (central distribution kitchen for elementary schools) next Tuesday. We had lunch yesterday along with a farm visit ... and I know that she will be a great interview.

VIDEOGRAPHER:

- Picture Stable is not able to work with us on Tuesday AM.
- They recommended Jack Hutchinson: 805-748-5225

SCHEDULE:

- I now have a much better idea of timing for visit on Tuesday.
- We need to be at school at 7:30 AM to see their ancient (40 year old) packaging line that packs entrees and other items for elementary schools.
- That ends at 8:30 AM when the kitchen starts prepping middle school lunches. We will be able to film lunch prep plus second breakfast service to middle school lines.
- We are scheduled to interview Erin, principal and new cook who has just come to school foodservice from restaurants. He has direct experience with the aging and difficult equipment in the schools.
- We also can interview, Kati Fosselius, MS, RDN, Director, Dietetic Internship, Food Science and Nutrition Department, California Polytechnic State University. Her interns do a rotation with SLCUSD and she can speak to several aspects of their partnership.
- We can visit (if desired) City Farm, where SLCUSD sources REALLY local veggies ... about 1.5 miles from Laguna Middle School.
- I estimate that we can finish interviews and filming at school by 10:30 am. We need an extra hour if we want to visit the farm, maybe interview Erin and the Director Steven Marx (<http://centralcoastgrown.org/city-farm/>).

ERIN POV:

- Erin is a very articulate, passionate, experienced director/chef ... while she is not an RDN, she appreciate partnerships with Cal Poly dietetic interns.
- See attached from testimony she provided in DC on local food opportunities.
- Her kitchen is struggling with lots of outdated equipment and serving lines ... which negatively affect menu offerings and even the presentation of foods to students.
- She says that they make-do a lot ... living with old equipment because it still "works" while replacing the truly broken equipment.
- She read all the materials that have been shared with her and will be able to answer the issues very effectively.

Call me if you need anything ... I will be making fruit salad all day.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Member's Tour: School Kitchens in North Dakota

Academy member Dayle Hayes, MS, RD, met with school leaders in Fargo, N.D., to highlight the importance of updating school kitchens as part of a grant from Pew Charitable Trusts and its Kids' Safe and Healthful Food Project, which advocate for school foodservice modernization. As part of the project, The Academy asks members who work in school foodservice to submit photos, videos and stories that show the challenges at schools that have inadequate kitchen equipment and infrastructure, as well as success stories from schools that were able to upgrade their kitchens.

Academy Opposes Threats to Vital Nutrition Programs

The Academy joined 60 organizations to send a letter to U.S. Senate and House of Representatives leaders expressing serious concerns about proposals that would reduce resources for vital government services, including public health. The changes to the tax code that are under consideration could result in increased deficits and elimination of programs that fund critical nutrition programs. According to the Congressional Budget Office, the proposals would result in complete elimination of the Social Services Block Grant and the Prevention and Public Health Fund, which fund vital nutrition services. The House passed H.R. 1, the Tax Cuts and Job Creation Act of 2017, on November 16, and the Senate is planning to vote on separate tax reform legislation after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Cook County Board Passes Resolution commemorating Academy's Centennial

The Cook County, Ill., Board of Commissioners passed a resolution in honor of the Academy's 100th birthday. Commissioner Richard Boykin recognized the important role the Academy has played in improving the health of Americans. Several Academy members from the Chicago area attended the meeting where the resolution was passed.

Narrative for October.pdf

All,

We have a Finance and Audit Committee meeting on Tuesday, November 28th at 1 p.m. CST. Please let me know if you can't attend. You should also receive the webinar invitation today from the Academy IT team.

This month's meeting will focus on the October financial results and the 2019 Fiscal Year budget parameters and schedule. It is hard to believe we are beginning the budget process once again.

Maria will make sure all of the documents are loaded onto the portal today. However, I am attaching the agenda, preliminary October financial results and the Academy narrative for October with this email. Hopefully, this will make it easier for you.

As you might expect, given the success of FNCE, the October financial results are very good across the entire Academy structure. Keep in mind, many of our vendors have not yet provided to us all of the bills. So, Accounting works with the various teams to get estimates for many of the expenses and a few of the revenues. This will cause the preliminary October numbers to change before they are final. I would believe some expense areas will go up and some will go down. When it is all final, I hope that the “bottom line” results actually get better.

As for the Academy, you will see that revenue was over budget by $147,170!! Most of which is FNCE related. You may be thinking that $147,170 isn't very much when you considering how successful FNCE appeared. Well, keep in mind that the Meeting's team did a great job of budgeting the revenue for FY18. If you scroll over to the year to date numbers and the comparison to 2017, you will see the jump in revenue. Year to date, the Academy is $225,617 over budget on revenue. This is great news, but, not the best part of the story. If you look at the comparison to FY17, the Academy is $1,286,985 higher in revenue through October of 2017 than we were through October of 2016! Most of this, but not all, is due to FNCE. Again, that is great news from two perspectives; we were able to generate higher revenue for FNCE and our revenue for the other programs and services are also growing when compared to FY17. The only category that is lower than FY17 is Membership and we knew this would decline in FY18. Overall revenue for FY18 is up 11.14%. If you back out Membership, non-membership revenue is up nearly 18%! Great news on the revenue front.

There is one thing I would like to bring to your attention for October. You will see that the Sponsorship revenue is “on-budget” for the month at $320,910. It actually could have been higher. FNCE actually generated higher Sponsorship revenue than expected. However, when we look down the road for the entire year, we are still expecting to “not meet the entire Sponsorship budget” for FY18. So, instead of booking Sponsorship revenue in excess of budget for October and then telling you later “We are under-running Sponsorship”, we only booked the budget. Consider it a “budget timing issue” J. I will explain further on the call. Hopefully, the hard work being done by the Corporate Relations team will pay off and they are successful in getting another major sponsor.

On the expense side; the Academy was under-budget by $109,019 for October. I do expect that to change. Especially in the travel category. We moved as many FNCE related expense reimbursement requests that were received in November into October in order to properly reflect expenses and the budget comparison. However, the gap is still very high. I also know that we may have overstated expenses in a few areas that were for the operations of FNCE itself. As you can imagine, the amount of bills and detail the vendors have to sift through, and then our Meeting's team needs to validate, takes time. So, we worked to estimate the expenses where we did not have final billing. In the next couple of weeks, we will get a clearer picture of the final expenses. Since the expenses may change, I won't go into any more detail here.

Investments continued the successful run in October. The Academy received $274,166 of the total investment returns for October. This is $178,332 higher than the budget. Year to date, the Academy has received $748,571 in investment returns. This is $269,405 higher than budget. I will tell you that through yesterday, the portfolio is up another 1% for November. Hopefully, this will hold and we will see these numbers increase.

Finally, the Net Income for October came in at $3,336,398. This is $434,521 better than the budget. Year to date, the Academy Net Income now stands at $1,847,403. This is $612,384 better than the budget. If you continue on page A10 of the October results to the last number in the last column, you will see the Academy Net Income is $1,795,317 higher than when compared to FY17. These are numbers we haven't seen in a while!

I will stop here and wish everyone a safe and Happy Thanksgiving. Enjoy your weekend. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to let me know, either via email or by phone. Don't hesitate to use my cell phone if you feel so compelled. I can be reached at 630-750-8311.

Jeanne and Nancy:

I am looking forward to a great visit with Erin Primer at Laguna Middle School (central distribution kitchen for elementary schools) next Tuesday. We had lunch yesterday along with a farm visit ... and I know that she will be a great interview.

VIDEOGRAPHER:

- Picture Stable is not able to work with us on Tuesday AM.
- They recommended Jack Hutchinson: 805-748-5225

SCHEDULE:

- I now have a much better idea of timing for visit on Tuesday.
- We need to be at school at 7:30 AM to see their ancient (40 year old) packaging line that packs entrees and other items for elementary schools.
- That ends at 8:30 AM when the kitchen starts prepping middle school lunches. We will be able to film lunch prep plus second breakfast service to middle school lines.
- We are scheduled to interview Erin, principal and new cook who has just come to school foodservice from restaurants. He has direct experience with the aging and difficult equipment in the schools.
- We also can interview, Kati Fosselius, MS, RDN, Director, Dietetic Internship, Food Science and Nutrition Department, California Polytechnic State University. Her interns do a rotation with SLCUSD and she can speak to several aspects of their partnership.
- We can visit (if desired) City Farm, where SLCUSD sources REALLY local veggies ... about 1.5 miles from Laguna Middle School.
- I estimate that we can finish interviews and filming at school by 10:30 am. We need an extra hour if we want to visit the farm, maybe interview Erin and the Director Steven Marx (<http://centralcoastgrown.org/city-farm/>).

ERIN POV:

- Erin is a very articulate, passionate, experienced director/chef ... while she is not an RDN, she appreciate partnerships with Cal Poly dietetic interns.

- See attached from testimony she provided in DC on local food opportunities.
- Her kitchen is struggling with lots of outdated equipment and serving lines ... which negatively affect menu offerings and even the presentation of foods to students.
- She says that they make-do a lot ... living with old equipment because it still "works" while replacing the truly broken equipment.
- She read all the materials that have been shared with her and will be able to answer the issues very effectively.

Call me if you need anything ... I will be making fruit salad all day.

December 4 Webinar: National Campaign and Social Media Guidelines

The Academy's Nominating Committee will host a National Campaign and Social Media Guidelines webinar on December 4 from 1-2 p.m. CT. The interactive webinar will provide details and clarification on the campaign guidelines and how you can take an active role in the election process. Committee Members Bethany Thayer, MS, RDN, FAND and Kris Clark, PhD, RDN will be presenting. If you are interested in viewing the webinar, register here. If you are unable to attend the webinar, it will be recorded and uploaded to the elections website for future playback.

Request for Photos, Videos and Stories for School Food Modernization Project

As mentioned in last week's PPWN, the Academy recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trusts to advocate for school food modernization as part of its Kids' Safe and Healthful Foods Project. We are asking our members who work in school nutrition services to submit their photos, videos and stories that showcase the challenges and successes of equipment and infrastructure in school kitchens. Share with us how past funding has affected the ability to serve healthy meals in schools and how additional resources could improve a kitchen's functionality.

Please fill out this survey or send stories (limited to 3 paragraphs), photos or videos to Nate Stritzinger. The deadline for submissions is 5 p.m. EST November 28.

The person with the best submission will have the opportunity to share in-person at the Congressional Briefing on December 13 which is being held in conjunction with the Academy's advocacy day focusing on school foodservice modernization.

Policy leaders, please share this information with your members.

Register for the Advocacy Day held on December 13

The Academy is hosting an advocacy day and congressional briefing with partner organizations on December 13 from 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. EST in Washington, DC. Academy members will have the opportunity to inform policymakers about the importance of food service modernization in schools and to advocate for the School Food Modernization Act (H.R. 3006/ S. 1402).

The Advocacy Day schedule is as follows:

9 a.m. – 10 a.m. Meeting for those participating in Hill visits

10 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Congressional briefing

Noon – 3:30 p.m. Hill visits

Registration is now open to all Academy members and there is no cost to attend.

Academy Tours School Kitchens in North Dakota

Pictured: a student and Dana Rieth, RDN, Director of Food Services, West Fargo Public Schools, West Fargo, North Dakota in the kitchen at LE Berger Elementary School.

As part of the School Foodservice Equipment Modernization Project, Academy member Dayle Hayes, MS, RD met with school leaders in Fargo, North Dakota highlight the importance of updating school kitchens. While in North Dakota, Hayes represented the Academy and advocated for school food service modernization. Hooray for Hayes and special thanks to the RDs of North Dakota: Rylee Welly, RDN, Cindy Hogenson, RDN and Dana Rieth, RDN!

News from the Hill

The House and Senate are out until after the holiday. Happy Thanksgiving!

Academy Reviewing Impact of Tax Reform Proposals on Health Care

As promised, we wanted to provide you with an update on the tax proposal. Under consideration last week by the Senate Finance Committee is a provision that would repeal the Affordable Care Act individual mandate to obtain health insurance coverage. The most recent Congressional Budget Office (CBO) analysis concludes that enacting this provision into law would result in an estimated 13 million more uninsured Americans by 2027, which does not align with the Academy's health care tenets.

The Academy expressed our concerns in a letter to U.S. Senate and House of Representatives leadership on November 20. We also joined 60 organizations in sending a sign-on letter to leadership addressing concerns that legislative proposals being considered by Congress that would make significant changes to the tax code could result in increased deficits and reduced resources to fund vital government services, including public health services.

On November 16, the House passed their version of the bill, which does not contain the repeal of the individual mandate. A full vote by the Senate is expected after the Thanksgiving recess. Due to the differences in the House and Senate versions, it is likely that there will be a conference committee to reconcile the differences after the Senate votes. If you have additional questions, please contact Stefanie Winston Rinehart.

New CDC Report on Adult Fruit and Vegetable Consumption

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recently released its Morbidity and Mortality Weekly report (MMWR) on Disparities in State-Specific Adult Fruit and Vegetable Consumption. According to the report, only nine percent of adults eat enough vegetables and only 12 percent get the recommended amount of daily fruit. The report said "continued efforts are needed to identify and address barriers to fruit and vegetable consumption." The report is another example of the needed role of dietitians in the health care community and should be used as a resource when advocating for nutrition and dietetics.

Nomination Hearing for HHS Secretary scheduled for November 29

Last week, President Trump nominated Alex Michael Azar II to be the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS). The Senate Health, Education Labor and Pensions Committee (HELP) will hold a nomination hearing November 29. The Secretary position has been vacant since Tom Price resigned in September. The Academy will work with partners to once again submit hearing questions.

Update on Action Alerts

Passing legislation takes time and persistence. We currently have three Action Alerts open. As we are nearing the end of this legislative session, we encourage you to take action on the following (if you have not already done so):

1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – National Diabetes month is ending soon but there is still time to take action.
2. Nutrition Education Programs in the Farm Bill
3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – More co-sponsors have been added to the bill. It's not too late to contact your senator and representative.

Cut and past the following message and post to your communication platforms. It is not too late to make a difference!

(PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Hi,

Lucille's message says she is free Monday 11am-1pm CT.

I could meet a 1pm CT Monday but that does not sound good for Lucille. Any time after 1 pm CT Monday will work for me.

I have work meetings from 11:30am-12:30 pm CT on Monday--they cannot be rescheduled.

Hi Donna and Dianne,

Thank you for a productive call yesterday for the appointments to ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS. I appreciate your flexibility in rescheduling the call to allow you the time needed to review the binder of information. I do feel a little bit like Santa, making my list and checking it twice. Good thing I did so as it looks like we have an extra person for LPPC (see Current 2017 and Open Slots 2018 document). If you agree with my assessment, would you like to consider Laura Purdue a back-up person? I'm also awaiting confirmation from Pat that there are no issues with asking Mary Pat to serve on ANDPAC. I'll let you know as soon as I hear from her.

The following items are provided for your use in making contact with the individuals being appointed to ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS:

1. Contact Information for Appointees (email address and phone number) – I have included terms of office as well as your assignments for contacting the appointees.
2. Appointments for 2018 for ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS
3. Template email for committee member and committee vice chair—simply fill in the blanks noted in yellow.
4. Committee descriptions for ANDPAC, LPPC and CPLS—you can copy and paste this information into the template email.

Please make contact with these individuals as soon as possible after the Thanksgiving holiday. It would be great to have all the appointments confirmed by December 8—please keep this as our goal. Dianne – we can also discuss whether you want to rotate off LPPC as of December 31, 2017 and let Marcy rotate on as we discussed this summer. Jeanne was fine with whatever we'd like to do.

Let me know who accepts and who declines—I will keep track of this information. Once everyone accepts (I'm being optimistic), I'll take care of sending out official appointment letters from you (similar to the other appointment letters) as well as our standard "rejection" letter that outlines other opportunities to serve the Academy.

If you need any assistance with this process, please let me know. We are happy to assist as needed. Thanks!!

Dear Academy Team and Board Members,

Well, in thinking about it, it's just one big team, isn't it!?

I am grateful for having met a group of folks like yourself who continue to be dedicated to a cause which is so vitally important to our nation, our world and our future. Having the opportunity to work with each of you over the past few years has truly been an honor and a privilege.

And as something I'm sure all of our members would like us to remember, make sure we all balance that turkey and ham on Thursday with at least five servings of vegetables and fruits! Count me in - but I am going to have two pieces of pie :)

Happy Thanksgiving to all of you.

Dear Donna,

Thank you for your contribution in October of $200 to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee (ANDPAC). You have contributed $615 to ANDPAC in 2017. As a reminder, ANDPAC contributions are totaled over a calendar year (January 1 December 31). You can now check your donation online. Simply go to ANDPAC, sign in and click on Donation Summary.

ANDPAC donor levels in a calendar year:

- Champions donate $1000 or more
- Eagles contribute $500 to $999
- Presidents Circle donors contribute $250 to $499
- Capitol Club donors contribute $100 to $249
- Student Stars are student members who donate $25 or more

The funds we receive from generous members like you make it possible for the Academy to articulate its legislative objectives on Capitol Hill and to engage in a dialogue with the elected officials who lead our country. Connecting with members of Congress provides us with the opportunity to advocate for food access and safety, nutrition and health services.

As members of the Academy, we have the opportunity to support food, nutrition and health initiatives at federal, state and local levels. Your donation to ANDPAC helps the Academy achieve its vision of optimizing the nations health through food and nutrition.

Please check out our most recent video to learn how you help us to make a difference.

Thank you again for your support and contribution to ANDPAC!

Sincerely,

Susan C. Scott, MS, RDN, LD

2017 Chair, ANDPAC Board of Directors

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Political Action Committee is a separate segregated fund of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics used to support candidates and elected officials. Academy members are not required to contribute to ANDPAC and there is no reprisal for not contributing. Amounts recommended for contribution in Academy publications are merely suggestions and there is no minimum contribution level.

Federal law requires political committees to report to Federal Election Commission the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200.00 in a calendar year. Corporate contributions are prohibited by law. Individuals can not contribute more than $5000 per calendar year to the same political action committee. There is no penalty for not contributing. Donations to ANDPAC are not tax deductible.

Sandy,

We are hoping you are still able to accommodate a site visit on the 5th. Would you be able to have a call next Monday or Tuesday to discuss logistics? Mary Russell, President-elect and Nancy Farrell who is the project lead for this site would be onsite for the tour and to guide the videographer. I am attaching a site visit summary to give you an idea of what we are trying to accomplish but we can discuss that more early next week and then I will work with Nancy to develop a specific agenda after we talk.

Thank you and I look forward to speaking!

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

You are receiving this message on behalf of our Marketing Partners at #GiveHealthy.

Traditional food drives often result in lots of highly processed, canned food donations -- much of which turns into waste and does little to promote good health.

The #GiveHealthy Movement, or Food Drive 2.0, is designed to heighten public awareness that hunger is a health issue, and to make it easy for people to donate fresh fruits, vegetables, and other healthy food.

Companies, schools, civic groups, faith-based organizations, and teams can easily conduct food drives to raise healthy food. #GiveHealthy drives are conducted online and then delivered to hunger-relief organizations -- when and where they need it! It's finally possible to get fresh, healthy food to the people who need it most -- with zero waste!

The #GiveHealthy Movement is a great way for Academy members to boost their efforts to elevate the eating habits of millions of Americans, particularly those most in need.

What you can do:

- Introduce #GiveHealthy to groups planning food drives
- Connect food pantries and food banks to #GiveHealthy so they can register to receive healthy food donations (#GiveHealthy is FREE to hunger-relief organizations)
- Become a #GiveHealthy Ambassador and help spread the word!

Thanks Marsha. Sorry I did not have much time for the call, but I am pleased with our decisions. I talked to Jeanne and she asked Mary Pat if she wanted to do AND PAC and she does. I feel strongly that we have to respect our Academy staff recommendations. You always do such a great job with all this Committee appointment stuff. Have a great Thanksgiving.

I have work meetings from 11:30am-12:30 pm CT on Monday--they cannot be rescheduled.

Subject: Re: School Food Modernization Project Check In: Call in Information

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,

Liz

Hi All,

Here are the talking points for Thursday's hill visits. They are slightly different based on our hill targets. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. I will plan to take the lead at the meetings unless we need to split up. Once I have Chelsea's updated grid, I will let you know if you need to be prepared to take the lead during a visit.

Thanks and safe travels home.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)

4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

I would hope that you will keep me abreast of what is going on. - Leah

You sure you don't want to talk? I've spoken to half a dozen people and counting. I approached them after seeing their tweets, some years old, about being "bullied" on social media. They each independently identified you as being the instigator.

The story would really benefit from your perspective. While all these people have told me similar stories, I'm sure it's not the only one.

I just received this email on my business e-mail. I don't give this email out so I can only wonder it was provided to this reporter by someone at the Academy. This is totally unacceptable and disappointing that my "fellow dietitians" are communicating this to the media. This is the 2nd email I have gotten on this subject - I referred the other one to you as well.

I have communicated to the Academy as to why I do not support the Civility Pledge. It seems apparent to me that running this through the Food and Nutrition Magazine subverted due process. This whole "pledge" is both objectionable and unnecessary. I will refer you to the Marketplace of Ideas Theory. Marketplace of Ideas Theory I have not spoken out about this publicly but if I am continued to be pushed in this way I will.

Hi Leah,

My name is Caitlin Dewey and I'm a reporter covering food policy at the Washington Post. I'm working on a story about the social media civility pledge that the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics recently began promoting, and I hoped you'd have some time today to talk to me about it. A number of dietitians have told me that they believe the pledge was instituted because of complaints they made to AND about your behavior on Twitter. They claim that you have harassed them and unfairly called their reputations into question.

I'd like to hear how you see your social media advocacy, the state of nutrition discourse online, and what you think of the AND pledge. Please let me know when you get a chance.

Thanks,

Caitlin

Thank you for sharing Gretchen's message. A draft response for you to share with her follows below. Also, it appears Gretchen works for Wiley's Finest, a Wild Alaskan Fish Oil company out of Ohio <http://wileysfinest.com/>. We will reach out to them regarding exhibiting in 2018, as they have not been on the Expo floor. As a possible new exhibiting company they would go through the New Exhibiting Company review first hand.

Hi Gretchen,

Any potential first-time FNCE® exhibitor is reviewed by the Academy Knowledge Center RDNs. This includes a review of their website, product labels, sell sheets, the products, programs or services promoted in the booth. In addition, any claims are reviewed and are required to be backed by science. The Academy does not review every piece of collateral distributed from the Expo floor. FNCE® attendees use their professional judgment to evaluate exhibitor products, programs and services.

The following two links may be helpful regarding the Academy's eligibility to exhibit which is on the FNCE® website, in addition within the Rules and Regulations, see items 2 and 3.

See the following link and then click on Exhibit Eligibility <http://eatrightfnce.org/exhibitors/become-an-exhibitor/>.

The FNCE® Expo is open to exhibitors whose products, programs, and services are of interest to food and nutrition professionals; consistent with the Academy's mission, vision and philosophy; have a preponderance of current and scientifically valid information; comply with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration rules, regulations and guidelines, if so regulated; and are accredited through the National Commission for Certifying Agencies, if required. The Academy does not endorse any programs, products or services on the Expo floor. Attendees use their professional judgement to evaluate Exhibitor products, programs or services. The views expressed in Exhibitor materials do not necessarily reflect the official positions or policies of the Academy. No endorsement of Exhibitor's programs, product or services should be inferred. See the following link for Rules and Regulations (specifically #2 and #3) <http://eatrightfnce.org/exhibitors/exhibitor-resources/>.

If there is a specific FNCE® 2017 exhibitor of concern, we would be most interested in learning more.

Hi Judy

Good to chat yesterday.

Follow-up comment: A few years ago I suggested that the Academy create some guidelines or criteria for dietary supplement companies who exhibit. I know they banned supplement companies for years, and then allowed them to exhibit. Some companies are clearly better than others, and some deserve to exhibit.

I suggested that the quality or content of materials being distributed be reviewed or approved. I mentioned this to Diane or someone she referred me to, and they replied that they didn't do that.

At present, dietitians are given the same information that is given to consumers and used in marketing. Is it quality information and evidence based? Who knows. Are they providing materials to RDNs that is marketing hype and misleading? Yes. Maybe not all of the companies but basing practice decisions on marketing hype is a problem. RDNs are not trained to know the difference, and if the Academy allows these materials to be distributed, doesn't that infer they are credible?

I know of major trade shows – not academic meetings – that approve all the materials that are distributed.

I put effort into reaching the right people on this years ago, and nothing happened. It needs to be addressed.

Joan, The only expenses I have for the International Diabetes Conference is 306 miles for mileage. Lucille paid for lunch and parking. Hope you have a great Thanksgiving. I am excited because I have figured out a way to be able to transport my mother in her wheelchair to my house for Thanksgiving lunch! We are doing Thanksgiving on Friday so we could get her transported. Oh how the little things in life make me happy!!!

Thanks Pat for this response. Hope you and the girls have a wonderful Thanksgiving. I am excited because I have worked out for my Mom to be able to come to my house for Thanksgiving this year with a company who can transport her to and from her facility. This will make Thanksgiving extra special for her and me!

As always, I am thankful for your friendship and support of me as President of the Academy.

Hello Judy,

Thank you for sharing Gretchen's message. A draft response for you to share with her follows below. Also, it appears Gretchen works for Wiley's Finest, a Wild Alaskan Fish Oil company out of Ohio <http://wileysfinest.com/>. We will reach out to them regarding exhibiting in 2018, as they have not been on the Expo floor. As a possible new exhibiting company they would go through the New Exhibiting Company review first hand.

Wishing you a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday!

Hi Gretchen,

Any potential first-time FNCE® exhibitor is reviewed by the Academy Knowledge Center RDNs. This includes a review of their website, product labels, sell sheets, the products, programs or services promoted in the booth. In addition, any claims are reviewed and are required to be backed by science. The Academy does not review every piece of collateral distributed from the Expo floor. FNCE® attendees use their professional judgment to evaluate exhibitor products, programs and services.

The following two links may be helpful regarding the Academy's eligibility to exhibit which is on the FNCE® website, in addition within the Rules and Regulations, see items 2 and 3.

See the following link and then click on Exhibit Eligibility <http://eatrightfnce.org/exhibitors/become-an-exhibitor/>.

The FNCE® Expo is open to exhibitors whose products, programs, and services are of interest to food and nutrition professionals; consistent with the Academy's mission, vision and philosophy; have a preponderance of current and scientifically valid information; comply with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration rules, regulations and guidelines, if so regulated; and are accredited through the National Commission for Certifying Agencies, if required. The Academy does not endorse any programs, products or services on the Expo floor. Attendees use their professional judgement to evaluate Exhibitor products, programs or services. The views expressed in Exhibitor materials do not necessarily reflect the official positions or policies of the Academy. No endorsement of Exhibitor's programs, product or services should be inferred. See the following link for Rules and Regulations (specifically #2 and #3) <http://eatrightfnce.org/exhibitors/exhibitor-resources/>.

If there is a specific FNCE® 2017 exhibitor of concern, we would be most interested in learning more.

Hi Leah,

My name is Caitlin Dewey and I'm a reporter covering food policy at the Washington Post. I'm working on a story about the social media civility pledge that the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics recently began promoting, and I hoped you'd have some time today to talk to me about it. A number of dieticians have told me that they believe the pledge was instituted because of complaints they made to AND about your behavior on Twitter. They claim that you have harassed them and unfairly called their reputations into question.

I'd like to hear how you see your social media advocacy, the state of nutrition discourse online, and what you think of the AND pledge. Please let me know when you get a chance.

Thanks,
Caitlin

We are contacting the reporter and talking with her this afternoon and we will clarify that there wasn't any single event or individual that initiated the pledge, but the undercurrents of general negativity in today's social media culture were becoming disheartening for many of the Academy's members. Since she addressed the media inbox, I will reply back to Leah and copy you.

Thank you and wishing you and your family a very Happy Thanksgiving!

Best regards,

Doris

I just received this email on my business e-mail. I don't give this email out so I can only wonder it was provided to this reporter by someone at the Academy. This is totally unacceptable and disappointing that my "fellow dieticians" are communicating this to the media. This is the 2nd email I have gotten on this subject - I referred the other one to you as well.

I have communicated to the Academy as to why I do not support the Civility Pledge. It seems apparent to me that running this through the Food and Nutrition Magazine subverted due process. This whole "pledge" is both objectionable and unnecessary. I will refer you to the Marketplace of Ideas Theory. Marketplace of Ideas Theory I have not spoken out about this publicly but if I am continued to be pushed in this way I will.

Hi Leah,

My name is Caitlin Dewey and I'm a reporter covering food policy at the Washington Post. I'm working on a story about the social media civility pledge that the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics recently began promoting, and I hoped you'd have some time today to talk to me about it.

A number of dietitians have told me that they believe the pledge was instituted because of complaints they made to AND about your behavior on Twitter. They claim that you have harassed them and unfairly called their reputations into question.

I'd like to hear how you see your social media advocacy, the state of nutrition discourse online, and what you think of the AND pledge. Please let me know when you get a chance.

Thanks,
Caitlin

I have work meetings from 11:30am-12:30 pm CT on Monday--they cannot be rescheduled.

Erin, Here is the filled out form. If you could send it to the Hyatt that would be great. If they could send me a receipt for Delia Peel's room that would be helpful. The board will reimburse me for that room. Sorry for the confusion, but I tried my best to get them to put this on my credit card right off the bat. Thanks for handling this.

Good afternoon,

I spoke with Erin Primer this afternoon and provided her with some background information on the bill. She is interested in issuing a press release after the visit, and I said I'll be happy to work with her if she would like.

I look forward to chatting with you tomorrow.

Thank you,

Erin

Liz, Jeanne and Donna:

I am very sorry that I cannot make Tuesday's call. I somehow missed that part of the email thread. I am on Pacific time and am taking the director here in SLCUSD out to lunch to make final plans for the visit on Tuesday. Her district is on vacation this week and she has already make special arrangements for us to meet tomorrow during noontime.

Erin Primer does the PR for her department. Not sure how well/necessary a press release is at this point ... she has been checking with district leaders to meet us for an interview next Tuesday but this is not a "tour" in any regular sense.

•I will provide more details for our schedule after we meet tomorrow.

I updated Jeanne about the ND visits last week in writing and by phone. If anyone is viewing that video this week, I would very much appreciate feedback on the footage before next Tuesday.

Thanks,

Dayle

Dear All:

1. Donna and I just finished our Erie visit. We have a lot of footage of kitchens that are woefully under equipped. We had local media coverage and conducted some great interviews to capture the need in the district and the potential impact. I have written up the summary of our visit in our master planning document under the Erie tab.

2. I have also attached a summary of our hill visits from last Thursday here. Please add your notes from the visits to the document, so we have all the information in one place.

3. Let's plan to meet Tuesday, November 21 at 4pm ET to update where we are on the project and to review next steps.

Call in information:

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Access Code: 142827

Agenda:

I. Site visits

- Fargo recap
- Erie recap
- What's needed for IL, CA, Ga
- Review master planning sheet (Erin needs contact information for press release)

II. Hill visits

- Recap of Thursday and Tuesday Visits
- Follow up

III. Briefing

- Room update
- Invite plan/update
- Speakers (who else do we want or need)
- Lobby day (what needs to happen to organize and execute)

Let me know if anyone has any questions. Talk to you all tomorrow.

Best,

Liz

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,

Liz

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Access Code: 142827

Here's the Agenda:

- Review task list from 11/6 meeting

- Update on site visit schedule
 - o Confirmed sites: CA, ND, IL, NY, PA, GA
 - o What details does Erin have about communications/what does she need? Will we send out press release?
 - o Review site visit goals
 - o Camera crew confirmed for all sites?
 - o What else do we need?
- Update on initial hill visits
 - o How many offices are confirmed? Update on grid
 - o Who is still available on 11/16 and 11/20 for visits
 - o Need to update leave behinds with AND logo
 - o Build out packet: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards
 - o Liz will type out talking points for each office for staff
 - o Need to include ask for briefing room with bill sponsors
- Update on Briefing
 - o Confirmed speakers: Donna, Rodney, Jane Balek from SNF, Donna's SI
 - o Need to confirm date, time, and location
 - o Need to prepare invite

Talk soon,

Liz

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)

6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Liz

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.

- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Liz, Jeanne and Donna:

I am very sorry that I cannot make Tuesday's call. I somehow missed that part of the email thread. I am on Pacific time and am taking the director here in SLCUSD out to lunch to make final plans for the visit on Tuesday. Her district is on vacation this week and she has already make special arrangements for us to meet tomorrow during noontime.

Erin Primer does the PR for her department. Not sure how well/necessary a press release is at this point ... she has been checking with district leaders to meet us for an interview next Tuesday but this is not a "tour" in any regular sense.

- I will provide more details for our schedule after we meet tomorrow.

I updated Jeanne about the ND visits last week in writing and by phone. If anyone is viewing that video this week, I would very much appreciate feedback on the footage before next Tuesday.

Thanks,

Dayle

The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Subject: Site Visits, North Dakota, November 15

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Ok I thought he had changed his plans and could be there earlier. We will need to go back and adjust the time of the briefing as we had changed it to 10 thinking he was on an earlier flight.

We have not scheduled the reception - what is feasible for you to get here? We will adjust according to your time.

This is the 2nd email I have gotten on this subject - I referred the other one to you as well.

I have communicated to the Academy as to why I do not support the Civility Pledge. It seems apparent to me that running this through the Food and Nutrition Magazine subverted due process. This whole "pledge" is both objectionable and unnecessary. I will refer you to the Marketplace of Ideas Theory. Hi Leah,

My name is Caitlin Dewey and I'm a reporter covering food policy at the Washington Post. I'm working on a story about the social media civility pledge that the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics recently began promoting, and I hoped you'd have some time today to talk to me about it. A number of dieticians have told me that they believe the pledge was instituted because of complaints they made to AND about your behavior on Twitter. They claim that you have harassed them and unfairly called their reputations into question.

I'd like to hear how you see your social media advocacy, the state of nutrition discourse online, and what you think of the AND pledge. Please let me know when you get a chance.

Thanks,

Caitlin

Liz, Jeanne and Donna:

I am very sorry that I cannot make Tuesday's call. I somehow missed that part of the email thread. I am on Pacific time and am taking the director here in SLCUSD out to lunch to make final plans for the visit on Tuesday. Her district is on vacation this week and she has already make special arrangements for us to meet tomorrow during noontime.

Erin Primer does the PR for her department. Not sure how well/necessary a press release is at this point ... she has been checking with district leaders to meet us for an interview next Tuesday but this is not a "tour" in any regular sense.

- I will provide more details for our schedule after we meet tomorrow.

I updated Jeanne about the ND visits last week in writing and by phone. If anyone is viewing that video this week, I would very much appreciate feedback on the footage before next Tuesday.

Thanks,

Dayle

Dear All:

1. Donna and I just finished our Erie visit. We have a lot of footage of kitchens that are woefully under equipped. We had local media coverage and conducted some great interviews to capture the need in the district and the potential impact. I have written up the summary of our visit in our master planning document under the Erie tab.

2. I have also attached a summary of our hill visits from last Thursday here. Please add your notes from the visits to the document, so we have all the information in one place.

3. Let's plan to meet Tuesday, November 21 at 4pm ET to update where we are on the project and to review next steps.

Call in information:

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Access Code: 142827

- Agenda:

I. Site visits

- Fargo recap

- Erie recap

- What's needed for IL, CA, Ga

- Review master planning sheet (Erin needs contact information for press release)

II. Hill visits

- Recap of Thursday and Tuesday Visits

- Follow up

III. Briefing

- Room update

- Invite plan/update

- Speakers (who else do we want or need)

- Lobby day (what needs to happen to organize and execute)

Let me know if anyone has any questions. Talk to you all tomorrow.

Best,

Liz

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,

Liz

Hi All,

Here are the talking points for Thursday's hill visits. They are slightly different based on our hill targets. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. I will plan to take the lead at the meetings unless we need to split up. Once I have Chelsea's updated grid, I will let you know if you need to be prepared to take the lead during a visit.

Thanks and safe travels home.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)

2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Ok I thought he had changed his plans and could be there earlier. We will need to go back and adjust the time of the briefing as we had changed it to 10 thinking he was on an earlier flight.

We have not scheduled the reception - what is feasible for you to get here? We will adjust according to your time.

Erin, Here is the filled out form. If you could send it to the Hyatt that would be great. If they could send me a receipt for Delia Peel's room that would be helpful. The board will reimburse me for that room. Sorry for the confusion, but I tried my best to get them to put this on my credit card right off the bat. Thanks for handling this.

Hi Donna,

Thanks for letting me know! Yes, I thought you said you had submitted something before FNCE. I checked with my event manager yesterday, and it sounds like the front desk did not apply any credit card to their rooms. Sorry about this!

Can you see the attachment now? Feel free to send directly to me so that I can forward to my event manager. Or if you feel more comfortable you can send directly to the event manager: Rachelle Meo at rachelle.meo@hyatt.com I can give her the heads up to look for it.

Thank you!

Good Morning Donna,

Hope all is well!

There was some confusion at the Hyatt Regency Chicago regarding two of your guests' stays: Delia Peel and Dusty Avery. Were you paying for their guest room charges or were they?

Dusty stayed two nights for a total of $638.60.

Delia stayed for three nights for a total of $957.90

If they are to pay I will have them charge their credit card they gave when they checked in. But if you are paying please fill out this credit card authorization form.

Thank you and enjoy your thanksgiving with your family!

Attachment: unknown_name_nkcxg

Dear NDEP Members,

In order to provide clarification regarding the intent of the Outstanding Dietetics Educator Award, the NDEP Council amended the wording for one of the eligibility criteria for nominees. Under Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators, #2 now reads

1. Educator and/or Program Director in an ACEND-accredited dietetics education program:
 1. Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)
 2. Dietetic Internship (DI)
 3. Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD)
 4. Dietetic Technician Program (DT)

This replaces language that would apparently limit nominations only to educators with academic appointments, meaning that those educators not affiliated with university or college programs would not be eligible for consideration. No other changes have been made.

The updated criteria and procedures for the 2018 Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award are attached and are also available on the NDEP website at www.ndepnet.org. If you have any questions, please contact your Regional Director.

I am on Pacific time and am taking the director here in SLCUSD out to lunch to make final plans for the visit on Tuesday. Her district is on vacation this week and she has already make special arrangements for us to meet tomorrow during noontime.

Erin Primer does the PR for her department. Not sure how well/necessary a press release is at this point ... she has been checking with district leaders to meet us for an interview next Tuesday but this is not a "tour" in any regular sense.

- I will provide more details for our schedule after we meet tomorrow.

I updated Jeanne about the ND visits last week in writing and by phone. If anyone is viewing that video this week, I would very much appreciate feedback on the footage before next Tuesday.

Thanks,

Dayle

1. Donna and I just finished our Erie visit. We have a lot of footage of kitchens that are woefully under equipped. We had local media coverage and conducted some great interviews to capture the need in the district and the potential impact. I have written up the summary of our visit in our master planning document under the Erie tab.

2. I have also attached a summary of our hill visits from last Thursday here. Please add your notes from the visits to the document, so we have all the information in one place.

3. Let's plan to meet Tuesday, November 21 at 4pm ET to update where we are on the project and to review next steps.

Call in information:

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Agenda:

I. Site visits

-Fargo recap

-Erie recap

-What's needed for IL, CA, Ga

-Review master planning sheet (Erin needs contact information for press release)

II. Hill visits

- Recap of Thursday and Tuesday Visits

- Follow up

III. Briefing

- Room update

- Invite plan/update

- Speakers (who else do we want or need)

- Lobby day (what needs to happen to organize and execute)

Let me know if anyone has any questions. Talk to you all tomorrow.

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary

- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Good afternoon,

I spoke with Erin Primer this afternoon and provided her with some background information on the bill. She is interested in issuing a press release after the visit, and I said I'll be happy to work with her if she would like.

I look forward to chatting with you tomorrow.

Thank you,

Erin

Liz, Jeanne and Donna:

I am very sorry that I cannot make Tuesday's call. I somehow missed that part of the email thread. I am on Pacific time and am taking the director here in SLCUSD out to lunch to make final plans for the visit on Tuesday. Her district is on vacation this week and she has already make special arrangements for us to meet tomorrow during noontime.

Erin Primer does the PR for her department. Not sure how well/necessary a press release is at this point ... she has been checking with district leaders to meet us for an interview next Tuesday but this is not a "tour" in any regular sense.

- I will provide more details for our schedule after we meet tomorrow.

I updated Jeanne about the ND visits last week in writing and by phone. If anyone is viewing that video this week, I would very much appreciate feedback on the footage before next Tuesday.

Thanks,

Dear All:

1. Donna and I just finished our Erie visit. We have a lot of footage of kitchens that are woefully under equipped. We had local media coverage and conducted some great interviews to capture the need in the district and the potential impact. I have written up the summary of our visit in our master planning document under the Erie tab.

2. I have also attached a summary of our hill visits from last Thursday here. Please add your notes from the visits to the document, so we have all the information in one place.

3. Let's plan to meet Tuesday, November 21 at 4pm ET to update where we are on the project and to review next steps.

Call in information:

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Access Code: 142827

Agenda:

I. Site visits

- Fargo recap

- Erie recap

- What's needed for IL, CA, Ga

- Review master planning sheet (Erin needs contact information for press release)

II. Hill visits

- Recap of Thursday and Tuesday Visits

- Follow up

III. Briefing

- Room update

- Invite plan/update

- Speakers (who else do we want or need)

- Lobby day (what needs to happen to organize and execute)

Let me know if anyone has any questions. Talk to you all tomorrow.

Best,

Liz

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,

Liz

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Access Code: 142827

Here's the Agenda:

- Review task list from 11/6 meeting
- Update on site visit schedule
 - o Confirmed sites: CA, ND, IL, NY, PA, GA
 - o What details does Erin have about communications/what does she need? Will we send out press release?
 - o Review site visit goals
 - o Camera crew confirmed for all sites?

- o What else do we need?
- Update on initial hill visits
- o How many offices are confirmed? Update on grid
- o Who is still available on 11/16 and 11/20 for visits
- o Need to update leave behinds with AND logo
- o Build out packet: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards
- o Liz will type out talking points for each office for staff
- o Need to include ask for briefing room with bill sponsors
- Update on Briefing
- o Confirmed speakers: Donna, Rodney, Jane Balek from SNF, Donna's SI
- o Need to confirm date, time, and location
- o Need to prepare invite

Talk soon,

Liz

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie

- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Liz

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,

Liz

Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)

2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

I am very sorry that I cannot make Tuesday's call. I somehow missed that part of the email thread. I am on Pacific time and am taking the director here in SLCUSD out to lunch to make final plans for the visit on Tuesday. Her district is on vacation this week and she has already make special arrangements for us to meet tomorrow during noontime.

Erin Primer does the PR for her department. Not sure how well/necessary a press release is at this point ... she has been checking with district leaders to meet us for an interview next Tuesday but this is not a "tour" in any regular sense.

- I will provide more details for our schedule after we meet tomorrow.

I updated Jeanne about the ND visits last week in writing and by phone. If anyone is viewing that video this week, I would very much appreciate feedback on the footage before next Tuesday.

Thanks,

Dayle

Tom, this is a terrific President's page. It gives great information and I learned something reading it. I did not know about the Foundation farm group that Amy is on. So glad we got these great RDN's to participate. Very articulate. Thank you for another wonderful piece. Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family. I am grateful this thanksgiving for you and your team that supports me so well.

I walked to accounting your second century payment for your pledge of $1,250 on your credit card.

I will follow up with a letter later.

Thank you and have a Happy, Healthy Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

Dear All:

1. Donna and I just finished our Erie visit. We have a lot of footage of kitchens that are woefully under equipped. We had local media coverage and conducted some great interviews to capture the need in the district and the potential impact. I have written up the summary of our visit in our master planning document under the Erie tab.

2. I have also attached a summary of our hill visits from last Thursday here. Please add your notes from the visits to the document, so we have all the information in one place.

3. Let's plan to meet Tuesday, November 21 at 4pm ET to update where we are on the project and to review next steps.

Call in information:

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010
Access Code: 142827

Agenda:

I. Site visits

- Fargo recap
- Erie recap
- What's needed for IL, CA, Ga
- Review master planning sheet (Erin needs contact information for press release)

II. Hill visits

-Recap of Thursday and Tuesday Visits

-Follow up

III. Briefing

-Room update

-Invite plan/update

-Speakers (who else do we want or need)

-Lobby day (what needs to happen to organize and execute)

Let me know if anyone has any questions. Talk to you all tomorrow.

Best,

Liz

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,
Liz

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Subject: Important: Appointment Conference Call (LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc) Materials and Connection Information

Good evening Donna and Dianne,

Thank you for your patience as I worked with the staff in the Washington, DC office to obtain their valuable input on their committee appointments. As a reminder, we will be convening on Tuesday, November 21 at 2:00 pm CT/3:00 pm ET to discuss the appointments for LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc. You can anticipate this meeting lasting 1 hour. In order to prepare for the call, please review the attached pdf binder, which contains all the necessary materials with the exception of staff input for CPLS. I will send that information under separate cover as soon as it is received. The materials included are: committee descriptions for LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc; current members of LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc and the open slots for these three groups; and for each committee staff recommendations and rationale along with the names and information from the Opportunities to Serve survey of those individuals who selected one of these committees as a first or second choice. Jeanne and her team asked for resumes on the LPPC side in an effort to get more information about the top candidates before they were ranked by the current committee leaders with staff input. They strived to provide their recommendations solely from the results of the Opportunities to Serve survey, although at times you'll find recommendations from outside the survey respondent list with a rationale for doing so.

There are bookmarks within the PDF file to help you move from section to section. While the list of names from the survey for some of the committee is long, you'll also see that the same name may appear more than once due to their general interest in getting involved in the policy and advocacy work of the Academy in some way. If you need any other information from me in advance of the call, just let me know.

We will be using WebEx so we can view documents on your computer screen. Please use the following link to connect to the meeting:

Join WebEx meeting

Meeting number: 740 167 401

Meeting password: LPPC

We will be using integrated sound for the meeting, so you will not need to dial into a conference call line. Rather, when you join the meeting via WebEx you will be asked to join the integrated sound portion of the meeting and then will need to unmute yourself. This set-up works best using your computer. If you prefer to use the conference call line, let me know and I can change the set-up for the meeting.

In advance, thanks for your participation in the appointment of LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc. Talk to you on Tuesday!

Malnutrition and Nutrition-Focused Physical Exam: Practical Applications in the Pediatric Setting

Date: Friday, December 1, 12 PM CST (1 hr. 30 min. event)

CPEU: 1.5 credits

This webinar will discuss RDN practices, perceptions, knowledge, barriers, and responsibilities with utilizing the Academy/ASPEN pediatric indicators recommended for the identification and documentation of pediatric malnutrition, along with performing nutrition focused physical exam (NFPE). The webinar will also introduce the systematic approach of NFPE and explore the methods used to teach the RDN to identify subcutaneous fat loss, muscle wasting, micronutrient deficiencies, fluid accumulation, and functional status to identify malnutrition.

Learning Objectives:

1. Apply the Academy/ASPEN Indicators for pediatric malnutrition as defined by the 2014 Consensus Statement
 2. Identify the components of a NFPE (muscle wasting, fat loss, nutrition related fluid accumulation, and functional status)
 3. Recognize clinical signs of micronutrient deficiencies
 4. Identify and problem-solve barriers to performing NFPE
 5. Demonstrate NFPE
- REGISTER HERE!

Speakers:

Beth Mordarski, RDN, LD is currently the NFPE Program Manager for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, in addition to practicing as a clinical dietitian at Regency Hospital in Cleveland, OH. She developed the NFPE Hands-on Training Workshop for the Academy and, along with managing the NFPE Program, Beth is a NFPE Workshop Trainer. Beth began her career in the hospital setting and was able to gain experience starting in community hospitals and then spending nine years at University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center, a large teaching hospital, where she was also a dietetic intern preceptor. She has over 15 years of clinical nutrition experience.

Carly D. G. Leon, MS, RD, CD, CNSC completed her dietetic internship from Carle Foundation Hospital in Champaign, IL. Carly started her dietetics career as a clinical dietitian at Advocate Christ Hospital and with the Greater Chicago Food Depository developing nutrition education programs and improving the collection of nutritious foods for food pantries. For the past ten-plus years she has worked at Childrens Hospital of Wisconsin as an outpatient dietitian in Hepatology/Solid Organ Transplant and GI. Carly loves her position and working with children. In addition, she finds her nutrition physical exam skills are imperative to her role as the nutrition provider, in particular where more traditional growth parameters fall short.

REGISTER HERE!

If your schedule changes and you cannot attend, note that the webinar will be recorded and available at eatrightPRO for self-study.

Can you bring me up to speed on the schools on the 5th? We are trying to get a schedule out together for the 5th. My thought is that we rent one car, then we could go to the site downtown at breakfast and then leave for Romeoville and arrive before lunch. What do others think? Nancy is trying to book her flight, so if we can get the day scheduled that would be helpful.

I know you are in Erie today, so let me know ASAP.

Looks like this area is about 30-45 minutes by car from Romeoville (understanding that traffic can always add to that timing).

Please let me know what I can/should do to get these arrangements made. I a, ready to do anything!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

Good evening Donna and Dianne,

Thank you for your patience as I worked with the staff in the Washington, DC office to obtain their valuable input on their committee appointments. As a reminder, we will be convening on Tuesday, November 21 at 2:00 pm CT/3:00 pm ET to discuss the appointments for LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc. You can anticipate this meeting lasting 1 hour. In order to prepare for the call, please review the attached pdf binder, which contains all the necessary materials with the exception of staff input for CPLS. I will send that information under separate cover as soon as it is received. The materials included are: committee descriptions for LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc; current members of LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc and the open slots for these three groups; and for each committee staff recommendations and rationale along with the names and information from the Opportunities to Serve survey of those individuals who selected one of these committees as a first or second choice. Jeanne and her team asked for resumes on the LPPC side in an effort to get more information about the top candidates before they were ranked by the current committee leaders with staff input. They strived to provide their recommendations solely from the results of the Opportunities to Serve survey, although at times you'll find recommendations from outside the survey respondent list with a rationale for doing so.

There are bookmarks within the PDF file to help you move from section to section. While the list of names from the survey for some of the committee is long, you'll also see that the same name may appear more than once due to their general interest in getting involved in the policy and advocacy work of the Academy in some way. If you need any other information from me in advance of the call, just let me know.

We will be using WebEx so we can view documents on your computer screen. Please use the following link to connect to the meeting:

Join WebEx meeting

Meeting number: 740 167 401

Meeting password: LPPC

We will be using integrated sound for the meeting, so you will not need to dial into a conference call line. Rather, when you join the meeting via WebEx you will be asked to join the integrated sound portion of the meeting and then will need to unmute yourself. This set-up works best using your computer. If you prefer to use the conference call line, let me know and I can change the set-up for the meeting.

In advance, thanks for your participation in the appointment of LPPC, ANDPAC and CPLSc. Talk to you on Tuesday!

Dear All:

Thanks to Dayle and Jeanne for giving me the information to create a master planning document for our site visits. I created it in a google document, so that we can all have access and can update it as necessary. I created the document and filled in all of the fields for Erie, PA but the rest of the document needs to be updated with details for the other site visits. This will be very helpful for Erin who is aiming to work with all of the media contacts in each of the districts.

The document is a google spreadsheet with multiple tabs. The first tab is just the general information for each site visit. Please review and update. If you are the lead connecting with the district, please reach out and get the district media contact ASAP. In the notes section, please include details about the site if possible so Erin can tailor her media pitches. There is also a suggested interview questions tab. These are just starter questions, but remember to review and be prepared to conduct the interviews with stakeholders on the ground. The rest of the tabs are specific to each site visit. Fill in those details as you get information/finalize plans. Please feel free to add columns or rows in case I missed something. We can also use this document to write up a recap of the visit. This will be helpful to have all notes/comments in one place as we prepare talking points for the briefing.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Let's plan to have a check in call on Tuesday, November 21 @ 4pm. I will send out a call-in number later.

Thanks,
Liz

Here's the Agenda:

- Review task list from 11/6 meeting
- Update on site visit schedule
 - o Confirmed sites: CA, ND, IL, NY, PA, GA
 - o What details does Erin have about communications/what does she need? Will we send out press release?
 - o Review site visit goals

- o Camera crew confirmed for all sites?
- o What else do we need?
- Update on initial hill visits
- o How many offices are confirmed? Update on grid
- o Who is still available on 11/16 and 11/20 for visits
- o Need to update leave behinds with AND logo
- o Build out packet: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards
- o Liz will type out talking points for each office for staff
- o Need to include ask for briefing room with bill sponsors
- Update on Briefing
- o Confirmed speakers: Donna, Rodney, Jane Balek from SNF, Donna's SI
- o Need to confirm date, time, and location
- o Need to prepare invite

Talk soon,

Liz

Hi All,

Here are the talking points for Thursday's hill visits. They are slightly different based on our hill targets. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. I will plan to take the lead at the meetings unless we need to split up. Once I have Chelsea's updated grid, I will let you know if you need to be prepared to take the lead during a visit.

Thanks and safe travels home.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Liz

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Subject: Site Visits, North Dakota, November 15

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Hi Jo Jo,

The E-Team is developing an alliance plan to support our strategic direction and we be reviewing everyone's feedback soon. I was to meet with Larry Ellingson, former president of ADA, at FNCE but unfortunately he had a schedule change and couldn't make it. I am asking his opinion on what and with whom we should be collaborating. He's incredibly well connected and I value his opinion.

I'll circle back as soon as the alliance plan is approved.

Dear Donna and Pat,

I would like to know if anyone will be representing the Academy at the American Diabetes Association Scientific Session in June of 2018? Of course I believe this is a very important alliance to develop for the Academy. I would like to offer to attend the event as our representative if possible. Last year we planned attendance too late and could not get an audience with the Interim CEO, Martha Clark. She is still there and I feel it is a great time to make that connection, but we need to start working on that meeting soon.

Joan, thanks for the update on the timeline and knowledge of academy's timely follow through. It was helpful for me to see what was suggested by the practice groups as well as RISA teams comments in the document they provided several months back. Cant understand why most suggestions and references weren't added. Maybe too many emails. Communication is always a struggle when working on joint documents!

Thank you so much for your review and comments.

To help clarify the review process, on June 19 Dr. Ibrahim sent the second draft of the statement which was then sent to staff and WM and DCE DPG for review. Their suggestions were shared with you for review and the combined recommendations, attached, were sent to Dr. Ibrahim on July 4. We requested that he send the final draft to the Academy so that we could see if our recommendations were incorporated. Dr. Ibrahim sent the final draft just last week, which was shared for review. Although Dr. Ibrahim mentions "no major changes are allowed," staff review notes that all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines has been removed and recommends a statement about the recently published EAL papers be added. Otherwise it is a "yes" with the understanding it will undergo copyediting prior to joint publication.

I will summarize the points and concerns and send our combined comments, also attached, to Dr. Ibrahim. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or questions.

Thank you, again!

I agree with Lucille. I support the additions. But - I thought Dr. Ibrahim's last communication was for the Academy to give a yes or no to the article and that he implied it was too late to make any additional changes. Maybe I misunderstood?

Hi Joan,

I hope you are having a great week.

I spoke with Alison and Marsha, and at minimum we have two suggestions for the paper. The author has removed all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines so we added a brief statement about three papers recently published in the journal on an EAL diabetes systematic review (1) and guideline (2). I added the references in a comment (page 5), please see attached. Also, it is very important for the authors to use patient centered language.

Prior to publication, the paper will likely require an extreme amount of copyediting and could greatly benefit from re-organization. It is lacking a clear introduction with an objective, as well as a conclusion.

In the future, it would be greatly beneficial to have upfront conversations on outline, and expectations for joint publications.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to review.

Please let me know if I can provide anything further.

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

- 1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.
- 2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The policies can be viewed by clicking here<<https://www.andean.org/citing-content>>.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

Subject: FW: WCPD9: Workshop Presentation and Draft Summit Statement

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andecal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL

- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. We look forward to continued collaboration. Sure , your journal is very important considering the huge number of members and potential readers .

Cant understand why most suggestions and references weren't added. Maybe too many emails. Communication is always a struggle when working on joint documents!

Their suggestions were shared with you for review and the combined recommendations, attached, were sent to Dr. Ibrahim on July 4. We requested that he send the final draft to the Academy so that we could see if our recommendations were incorporated. Dr. Ibrahim sent the final draft just last week, which was

Although Dr. Ibrahim mentions “no major changes are allowed,” staff review notes that all information on the Academy’s diabetes guidelines has been removed and recommends a statement about the recently published EAL papers be added. - Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. Subject: Summit , Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action

Dear All ,

You are already invited to join the two hours summit to be held parallel to the 9th World Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and its Complications, Georgia World Congress Center , Room A406 , it should be on Saturday Dec 3rd 17.00 – 19.00 .

please find attached the first draft of the proposed statement to be discussed in our summit , kindly consider the following :

- this document is just a first draft subjected to changes and/or modifications , so please feel free to comment and suggest
- the statement should serve as an action plan , so we need to focus on the key factors , the specific actions and programs to prevent diabetes in a novel approach.
- you are more than welcome to send your comments in advance

- also those whom won't be able to attend , can still send their comments by e-mail , hopefully in advance

Best ,

To help clarify the review process, on June 19 Dr. Ibrahim sent the second draft of the statement which was then sent to staff and WM and DCE DPG for review. Their suggestions were shared with you for review and the combined recommendations, attached, were sent to Dr. Ibrahim on July 4. We requested that he send the final draft to the Academy so that we could see if our recommendations were incorporated. Dr. Ibrahim sent the final draft just last week, which was shared for review. Although Dr. Ibrahim mentions "no major changes are allowed," staff review notes that all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines has been removed and recommends a statement about the recently published EAL papers be added. Otherwise it is a "yes" with the understanding it will undergo copyediting prior to joint publication.

I will summarize the points and concerns and send our combined comments, also attached, to Dr. Ibrahim. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or questions.

Thank you, again!

I agree with Lucille. I support the additions. But - I thought Dr. Ibrahim's last communication was for the Academy to give a yes or no to the article and that he implied it was too late to make any additional changes. Maybe I misunderstood?

Hi Joan,

I hope you are having a great week.

I spoke with Alison and Marsha, and at minimum we have two suggestions for the paper. The author has removed all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines so we added a brief statement about three papers recently published in the journal on an EAL diabetes systematic review (1) and guideline (2). I added the references in a comment (page 5), please see attached. Also, it is very important for the authors to use patient centered language.

Prior to publication, the paper will likely require an extreme amount of copyediting and could greatly benefit from re-organization. It is lacking a clear introduction with an objective, as well as a conclusion.

In the future, it would be greatly beneficial to have upfront conversations on outline, and expectations for joint publications.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to review.

Please let me know if I can provide anything further.

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.

2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The polices can be viewed by clicking here<<https://www.anddeal.org/citing-content>>.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES

- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Hi Joan,

I hope you are having a great week.

I spoke with Alison and Marsha, and at minimum we have two suggestions for the paper. The author has removed all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines so we added a brief statement about three papers recently published in the journal on an EAL diabetes systematic review (1) and guideline (2). I added the references in a comment (page 5), please see attached. Also, it is very important for the authors to use patient centered language.

Prior to publication, the paper will likely require an extreme amount of copyediting and could greatly benefit from re-organization. It is lacking a clear introduction with an objective, as well as a conclusion.

In the future, it would be greatly beneficial to have upfront conversations on outline, and expectations for joint publications.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to review.

Please let me know if I can provide anything further.

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.

2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The policies can be viewed by clicking here< <https://www.andeal.org/citing-content>>.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

Subject: FW: WCPD9: Workshop Presentation and Draft Summit Statement

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES

- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. We look forward to continued collaboration. Sure , your journal is very important considering the huge number of members and potential readers .

Joan

Dear All ,

You are already invited to join the two hours summit to be held parallel to the 9th World Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and its Complications, Georgia World Congress Center , Room A406 , it should be on Saturday Dec 3rd 17.00 – 19.00 .

please find attached the first draft of the proposed statement to be discussed in our summit , kindly consider the following :

- this document is just a first draft subjected to changes and/or modifications , so please feel free to comment and suggest
- the statement should serve as an action plan , so we need to focus on the key factors , the specific actions and programs to prevent diabetes in a novel approach.
- you are more than welcome to send your comments in advance
- also those whom won't be able to attend , can still send their comments by e-mail , hopefully in advance

Hi, Donna: We received information from Alison Steiber about an RDN who volunteered in Puerto Rico, whose story might be good for your March page. Please see below, her name is Carla Huebner, and while she was not an Academy member when she first went to Puerto Rico, she has since joined. (A benefit of membership: You might be written about in a President's Page...!)

If you would like, we can add her to the list of possible interview subjects for the disaster relief page. Please let us know, thanks very much. Talk to you soon!

Thank you so much for your review and comments.

To help clarify the review process, on June 19 Dr. Ibrahim sent the second draft of the statement which was then sent to staff and WM and DCE DPG for review. Their suggestions were shared with you for review and the combined recommendations, attached, were sent to Dr. Ibrahim on July 4. We requested that he send the final draft to the Academy so that we could see if our recommendations were incorporated. Dr. Ibrahim sent the final draft just last week, which was shared for review. Although Dr. Ibrahim mentions "no major changes are allowed," staff review notes that all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines has been removed and recommends a statement about the recently published EAL papers be added. Otherwise it is a "yes" with the understanding it will undergo copyediting prior to joint publication.

I will summarize the points and concerns and send our combined comments, also attached, to Dr. Ibrahim. Please let me know if you have any additional comments or questions.

Thank you, again!

Subject: FW: WCPD9: Workshop Presentation and Draft Summit Statement

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeanal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? "The mission of the

WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. We look forward to continued collaboration. Sure , your journal is very important considering the huge number of members and potential readers .

Joan

Dear All ,

You are already invited to join the two hours summit to be held parallel to the 9th World Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and its Complications, Georgia World Congress Center , Room A406 , it should be on Saturday Dec 3rd 17.00 – 19.00 .

please find attached the first draft of the proposed statement to be discussed in our summit , kindly consider the following :

- this document is just a first draft subjected to changes and/or modifications , so please feel free to comment and suggest
- the statement should serve as an action plan , so we need to focus on the key factors , the specific actions and programs to prevent diabetes in a novel approach.
- you are more than welcome to send your comments in advance
- also those whom won't be able to attend , can still send their comments by e-mail , hopefully in advance

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)

4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Hi Joan,

I hope you are having a great week.

I spoke with Alison and Marsha, and at minimum we have two suggestions for the paper. The author has removed all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines so we added a brief statement about three papers recently published in the journal on an EAL diabetes systematic review (1) and guideline (2). I added the references in a comment (page 5), please see attached. Also, it is very important for the authors to use patient centered language.

Prior to publication, the paper will likely require an extreme amount of copyediting and could greatly benefit from re-organization. It is lacking a clear introduction with an objective, as well as a conclusion.

In the future, it would be greatly beneficial to have upfront conversations on outline, and expectations for joint publications.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to review.

Please let me know if I can provide anything further.

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

- 1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.
- 2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The policies can be viewed by clicking here< <https://www.andeal.org/citing-content>>.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? "The mission of the

Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. We look forward to continued collaboration. Sure , your journal is very important considering the huge number of members and potential readers .

Subject: Summit , Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action

Dear All ,

You are already invited to join the two hours summit to be held parallel to the 9th World Congress on Prevention of Diabetes and its Complications, Georgia World Congress Center , Room A406 , it should be on Saturday Dec 3rd 17.00 – 19.00 .

please find attached the first draft of the proposed statement to be discussed in our summit , kindly consider the following :

- this document is just a first draft subjected to changes and/or modifications , so please feel free to comment and suggest
- the statement should serve as an action plan , so we need to focus on the key factors , the specific actions and programs to prevent diabetes in a novel approach.
- you are more than welcome to send your comments in advance
- also those whom won't be able to attend , can still send their comments by e-mail , hopefully in advance

Best ,

Mahmoud Ibrahim , MD

Based on these unfortunate events I feel we are going to need to reschedule tomorrow afternoon's call as best case scenario is that you will have perhaps a maximum of 6 hours tomorrow to review materials prior to the call (and probably less based on your work commitments). Please let me know how you'd like to proceed. I know in speaking with Jeanne today her hope is that you will accept the recommendations for appointees compiled by current committee leaders. Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Hi,

I could move my 1:00 pm CT/2:00 pm ET appointment if you want to use that time slot in case you have the opportunity to start your holiday break early. Dianne – would that be OK for you?

Thanks,

Marsha

Based on these unfortunate events I feel we are going to need to reschedule tomorrow afternoon's call as best case scenario is that you will have perhaps a maximum of 6 hours tomorrow to review materials prior to the call (and probably less based on your work commitments). Please let me know how you'd like to proceed. I know in speaking with Jeanne today her hope is that you will accept the recommendations for appointees compiled by current committee leaders. I recognize, however, that you may have other individuals in mind and want you to have the time you need to review all information as you make these important decisions. Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

I wish I had better news for you, but I still do not have the information from Jeanne. I don't know what to say. I'm soon boarding a plane home from DC so if it arrives in my inbox after my plan departs I probably will not be able to turn it around for you until the morning. Based on these unfortunate events I feel we are going to need to reschedule tomorrow afternoon's call as best case scenario is that you will have perhaps a maximum of 6 hours tomorrow to review materials prior to the call (and probably less based on your work commitments). Please let me know how you'd like to proceed. I know in speaking with Jeanne today her hope is that you will accept the recommendations for appointees compiled by current committee leaders. I recognize, however, that you may have other individuals in mind and want you to have the time you need to review all information as you make these important decisions. As always, feel free to call me in the morning to discuss.

Thank you,

Marsha

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

Marsha

Good afternoon,

I hope you are both doing well and fully recuperated from FNCE. As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Good evening,

I wish I had better news for you, but I still do not have the information from Jeanne. I don't know what to say. I'm soon boarding a plane home from DC so if it arrives in my inbox after my plan departs I probably will not be able to turn it around for you until the morning. Based on these unfortunate events I feel we are going to need to reschedule tomorrow afternoon's call as best case scenario is that you will have perhaps a maximum of 6 hours tomorrow to review materials prior to the call (and probably less based on your work commitments). Please let me know how you'd like to proceed. I know in speaking with Jeanne today her hope is that you will accept the recommendations for appointees compiled by current committee leaders. I recognize, however, that you may have other individuals in mind and want you to have the time you need to review all information as you make these important decisions. As always, feel free to call me in the morning to discuss.

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

Good afternoon,

I hope you are both doing well and fully recuperated from FNCE. As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

Marsha

Good afternoon,

I hope you are both doing well and fully recuperated from FNCE. As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Good evening,

I wish I had better news for you, but I still do not have the information from Jeanne. I don't know what to say. I'm soon boarding a plane home from DC so if it arrives in my inbox after my plan departs I probably will not be able to turn it around for you until the morning. Based on these unfortunate events I feel we are going to need to reschedule tomorrow afternoon's call as best case scenario is that you will have perhaps a maximum of 6 hours tomorrow to review materials prior to the call (and probably less based on your work commitments). Please let me know how you'd like to proceed. I know in speaking with Jeanne today her hope is that you will accept the recommendations for appointees compiled by current committee leaders. I recognize, however, that you may have other individuals in mind and want you to have the time you need to review all information as you make these important decisions. As always, feel free to call me in the morning to discuss.

Hi All,

Thanks to Nate for taking notes during yesterday's call. The items that are bolded are follow up items. They are attached to this email.

I will be creating a site visit master google document tomorrow and will share with everyone. I think it would be a good idea to have another call on Tuesday, November 21 to share how the first two site visits went and check in. I am available from 11am-12pm ET and after 4pm ET. Please let me know if either of those times work for you.

Happy Thursday!

1. Dial In to the Conference (United States): (712) 770-4010

Access Code: 142827

Here's the Agenda:

- Review task list from 11/6 meeting
- Update on site visit schedule
 - o Confirmed sites: CA, ND, IL, NY, PA, GA
 - o What details does Erin have about communications/what does she need? Will we send out press release?
 - o Review site visit goals
 - o Camera crew confirmed for all sites?
 - o What else do we need?
- Update on initial hill visits
 - o How many offices are confirmed? Update on grid
 - o Who is still available on 11/16 and 11/20 for visits

- o Need to update leave behinds with AND logo
- o Build out packet: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards
- o Liz will type out talking points for each office for staff
- o Need to include ask for briefing room with bill sponsors
- Update on Briefing
- o Confirmed speakers: Donna, Rodney, Jane Balek from SNF, Donna's SI
- o Need to confirm date, time, and location
- o Need to prepare invite

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.

- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Here are the talking points for Thursday's hill visits. They are slightly different based on our hill targets. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. I will plan to take the lead at the meetings unless we need to split up. Once I have Chelsea's updated grid, I will let you know if you need to be prepared to take the lead during a visit.

Thanks and safe travels home.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)

4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Joan,

I support the additions added by Lisa to the document.

I also, agree with Lucille's comments. I would have liked to have had the additions earlier from the Academy before I put my presentation together. It may have prevented me from doing some last minute updates to my slide deck. Oh well.

I have no problem with the comments but to say there was not time for our input is very frustrating as we sent this to Alison and her team 10 months ago.. How much time do they want for commentary? We appreciate if you summarize the points and concerns and send to Dr. I. Thanks

Good evening,

I wish I had better news for you, but I still do not have the information from Jeanne. I don't know what to say. I'm soon boarding a plane home from DC so if it arrives in my inbox after my plan departs I probably will not be able to turn it around for you until the morning. Based on these unfortunate events I feel we are going to need to reschedule tomorrow afternoon's call as best case scenario is that you will have perhaps a maximum of 6 hours tomorrow to review materials prior to the call (and probably less based on your work commitments). Please let me know how you'd like to proceed. I know in speaking with Jeanne today her hope is that you will accept the recommendations for appointees compiled by current committee leaders. I recognize, however, that you may have other individuals in mind and want you to have the time you need to review all information as you make these important decisions. As always, feel free to call me in the morning to discuss.

Thank you,

Marsha

Hi,

I have asked Charlene to move our meeting back ½ hour to 2:30 pm – 3:30 pm Central time/3:30 pm – 4:30 pm Eastern time, so you should receive an updated calendar invitation. I'm still awaiting materials from Jeanne. Depending on when I receive materials from her, please let me know if you will have adequate time to review or if we need to reschedule the meeting. Please feel free to call me to discuss.

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

Marsha

I will certainly try to have it reviewed, but was just informed that my board would like me to be present at 1:00 CST for an important citywide meeting. If we could make our call 1/2 hour later it might work better for me. How long does it usually take?

If you need more time I am happy to reschedule the call so you can make informed decisions.

Good afternoon,

I hope you are both doing well and fully recuperated from FNCE. As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Survey for SNS DPG Members - Food Service Modernization Project

The Academy recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trusts to advocate for school food service modernization as part of its Kids' Safe and Healthful Foods Project. We are working with a team, including Academy President Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, to demonstrate the status of school infrastructure and food service equipment across the country. As part of the project we are asking our members who work in the school food service environment to submit their photos, videos and stories that show the challenges and successes school kitchens face when it comes to the equipment and infrastructure they have to work with. Policy leaders, please share this survey.

The person who submits the best story/photos will have the opportunity to share in-person at the Congressional Briefing during our School Foodservice Equipment Modernization Advocacy Day on Wednesday, December 13th! The deadline for submissions is Tuesday, November 28th at 5PM EST.

Save the Date –Advocacy Day to be Held on December 13

The Academy is hosting an advocacy day and Congressional briefing with partner organizations on December 13. These Capitol Hill events are a great opportunity for Academy members to inform policymakers about the importance of food service equipment modernization in our nation's schools and to have registered dietitian nutritionists and the school nutrition community advocate for the School Food Modernization Act (H.R. 3006/S. 1402).

Information will be sent to policy leaders in the local area to share with members to encourage attendance. Registration will be open to all Academy members and there is not a cost to attend the event. We will update members as soon the Registration link becomes available.

Menu-label law Moves Forward

A provision in the Affordable Care Act that requires restaurants, supermarkets, convenience stores and pizza delivery chains to post calorie counts nationwide by next year is moving forward. The FDA recently posted a draft guidance to help businesses comply with the law. The Academy will work with Affiliates to draft comments on the final version to be submitted by the January 2018 deadline.

Academy Shares Key Nutrition Priorities during Public Health Fair

The Academy educated policymakers from Capitol Hill, federal agencies, and national health care organizations on key nutrition issues, including MyPlate resources, food insecurity among active duty military and veterans and the public health benefit of continued support for breastfeeding moms and babies during the annual Coalition for Health Public Fair. Congressional Public Health Caucus Co-Chair Rob Wittman (Va.), a champion of the Academy, spoke about the importance of investing in public health research. The Academy was a sponsor of the Public Health Fair, and collaborated with the Committee on Public Health and Community Nutrition.

Senate Passes Resolution Designating November 9 as National Diabetes Heart Health Awareness Day

As highlighted in last week's PPWN, the Academy recently signed on to a letter supporting PFCD's initiative and its resolution to designate November 9th National Heart Health Awareness Day. The Senate passed S. Res. 324 on November 9th, and Representative Etsy (Conn.) spoke at a Hill briefing last week about H. Res. 610, the companion resolution in the U.S.

House of Representatives. The Academy is a partner organization of the Partnership to Fight Chronic Disease (PFCD) which raises awareness of the toll taken by diabetes, cardiovascular disease, obesity and others. PFCD supports the Academy's goal of encouraging the co-treatment of diabetes and cardiovascular disease in order to reduce the overall burden of illness. Members are encouraged to thank the co-sponsors of the legislation for their continued support.

Academy Reviewing Impact of Tax Reform Proposals on Health Care

The Academy continue to monitor tax reform debate in Congress and plans to communicate with key leaders later this week on sections that impact health care. The House is expected to vote this week and the Senate Finance Committee added an amendment to the bill last night that included a repeal to the Affordable Care Act's individual mandate. The Academy is analyzing the bill to determine the impact on health care programs and services and will post an updated summary on the Academy's News Center.

Yesterday, the Congressional Budget Office also published a report that shows the impact of the tax bill on other federal health programs including a 4 percent cut in Medicare payments, and elimination of both the Social Services Block Grant and the Prevention and Public Health Fund. Resources are available here on the budget from our partners in the Coalition for Health Funding

Alex Michael Azar II Nominated to serve as Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS)

On Monday, November 13, President Trump nominated Alex Azar, a former pharmaceutical executive, to serve as Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS). Azar was the Deputy Secretary of HHS and served as the General Counsel under George W. Bush, but recently led the Biomedicine business unit of Eli Lilly and Company. This position has been vacant since former Secretary Tom Price resigned in September. Azar's confirmation hearings have not been finalized.

National Obesity Care Week a Success

Thank you for joining the Academy's efforts in making National Obesity Care Week, Oct. 29 – Nov. 4, a success. The Academy joined national stakeholders to promote the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830) and to ensure anyone affected by obesity receives respectful and comprehensive care. Academy members interested in this critical practice are invited to join the Weight Management DPG.

ANDPAC Members attend Rep. Eshoo's 25th Anniversary

LPPC Chair and Vice President of Public Policy for the California Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Lorri Holzberg, MA, RDN attended the 25th Anniversary Celebration in honor of Academy champion Rep. It's Not too Late to make a Difference - Action Alerts

There are currently three Action Alerts open. As we are nearing the end of this legislative session, we encourage you to take action on the following (if you have not already done so):

1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299)

2. Nutrition Education Programs in the Farm Bill

3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830

Cut and past the following message and post to your communication platforms. It is not too late to make a difference!

(PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

There are many organizations that we need to work with not only endocrine/diabetes groups. If we only focus on one group we miss out on other opportunities. She missed her chance to meet with the group at the last meeting. I feel strongly that she should not be the one constantly funded to go to these diabetes meetings. She is using her position on the board to do so. Reminds me of members who want to be funded for FNCE all the time.

Glad you like the ballot Mary!

Dear Donna and Pat,

I would like to know if anyone will be representing the Academy at the American Diabetes Association Scientific Session in June of 2018? Of course I believe this is a very important alliance to develop for the Academy. I would like to offer to attend the event as our representative if possible. Last year we planned attendance too late and could not get an audience with the Interim CEO, Martha Clark. She is still there and I feel it is a great time to make that connection, but we need to start working on that meeting soon.

Subject: Food Service Modernization Project – Call for Stories, Photos and Videos

Background and Project Overview

The National School Lunch Program (NSLP) turned 71-years old this year and many of the 95,000+ school kitchens that participate are just as old. Outdated kitchen infrastructure and equipment make it nearly impossible for all schools to serve healthy and nutritious meals to the more than 31 million children – or 3 out of every 5 students – who eat school meals daily. Today, 55% of school districts need kitchen infrastructure improvements, such as electrical upgrades, and 88% need at least one piece of kitchen equipment¹.

That’s why the Academy is advocating for food service modernization in schools. This means ensuring that improvements to school kitchen infrastructure, access to kitchen equipment and funding for the means to create healthy school meals are included in any child nutrition reauthorization or infrastructure bill that Congress puts forth. We are working with a team, including Academy President Donna Martin EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, to host site visits around the country to demonstrate the status of school infrastructure and food service equipment. Photography and video footage will be captured at each site and compiled into brief videos that highlight the challenges and successes schools and districts face. The project will culminate in a Congressional Briefing and Quarterly Advocacy Day on Wednesday, December 13, when Academy members will ask their members of Congress to support school food service modernization.

Why We Need Your Help!

As part of our project we would like to highlight some of our members' work across the country by compiling stories, photos and videos that can be shared with members of Congress. We are looking for:

- 1) success stories from schools and districts that were funded in the past by grants including the USDA's School Kitchen Equipment Grant and
- 2) stories about schools that face significant challenges preparing healthy meals with their current kitchen equipment and infrastructure.

We would like to love to hear from anyone with a compelling story, but especially from members in California, Georgia, Illinois, Maine, New York, North Dakota, and Pennsylvania where key congressional support resides. The deadline for submissions is Tuesday, November 28th at 5PM EST. The person who submits the best story will have the opportunity to share it in-person at the Congressional Briefing during our Quarterly Advocacy Day on December 13th!
Please save the date!

You can share your experiences, stories and photos with us via this survey.

We'll keep you informed of any project updates going forward. Thanks!

Dear NDEP Membership:

NDEP is pleased to present the slate of candidates for office for the 2018-2019 year:

- Vice Chair: Kathy Border, Ed.D, RDN, CDN, FAND and Kendra Kattelman, PhD, RDN, LN, FAND
- HOD Delegate: Malinda Cecil, PhD, RDN, LDN and Laurie Kruzich, MS, RDN, LD
- South Central Regional Director: Jaimette McCulley, MS, RD, LD and Julie Schumacher, EDD, RD, LDN
- South East Regional Director: Phyllis Fatzinger McShane, MS, RD, LDN/LD
- West Central Regional Director: Lona Sandon, PhD, MEd, RDN, LD and Janelle Walter, PhD, RD, LD, CFCS

According to NDEP policy, a slate of candidates must be presented to the NDEP membership at least 30 days prior to the start of voting. Should you wish to petition that additional candidates be included on the slate, you must submit a petition to the NDEP Nominating Committee by contacting Robyn Osborn, Past Chair-NDEP at ndep@eatright.org within the next 30 days or by December 20, 2017. You must also have the support with signatures of 5% or 66 NDEP members.

Petitions must include biographical information on the candidate and qualifications for the NDEP leadership position. If deemed eligible for the NDEP position by the NDEP Nominating Committee, the additional candidates will be added to a contested ballot prior to the start of online voting, beginning February 1, 2018.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

CMS Clarifies Billing for Intensive Behavioral Therapy for Obesity Benefit

Registered dietitian nutritionists who are providing Medicare's Intensive Behavioral Therapy for Obesity benefit "incident to" a primary care provider now have clarification from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services on billing units. Effective October 1, CMS pays up to two units per day for individual services (G0447) and one unit per day for group services (G0473). Academy members are urged to contact your members of Congress to request their support of the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, which would enable RDNs to be billable providers for these services.

Academy Shares Key Nutrition Priorities during Public Health Fair

At the annual Coalition for Health Public Fair, the Academy educated policymakers from Capitol Hill, federal agencies and national health care organizations on key nutrition issues including MyPlate resources, food insecurity among active duty military and veterans and other issues. The Academy was a sponsor of the fair and collaborated with the Committee on Public Health and Community Nutrition to discuss the public health benefit of continued support for breast-feeding mothers and babies. Congressional Public Health Caucus Co-Chair Rob Wittman (Va.), a supporter of the Academy, spoke about the importance of investing in public health research.

Academy Meets with CDC's Senior Leadership

The Academy met in Atlanta, Ga., recently with senior leadership from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Division of Nutrition, Physical Activity and Obesity to advance the Academy's priorities on nutrition, obesity and diabetes. An issue of key importance to both the Academy and CDC is the Prevention Fund, which funds programs that incentivize healthy lifestyles, to reduce the amount of money that needs to be spent each year to treat chronic diseases.

Hi Joan,

I hope you are having a great week.

I spoke with Alison and Marsha, and at minimum we have two suggestions for the paper. The author has removed all information on the Academy's diabetes guidelines so we added a brief statement about three papers recently published in the journal on an EAL diabetes systematic review (1) and guideline (2). I added the references in a comment (page 5), please see attached. Also, it is very important for the authors to use patient centered language.

Prior to publication, the paper will likely require an extreme amount of copyediting and could greatly benefit from re-organization. It is lacking a clear introduction with an objective, as well as a conclusion.

In the future, it would be greatly beneficial to have upfront conversations on outline, and expectations for joint publications.

Thank you so much for the opportunity to review.

Please let me know if I can provide anything further.

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

- 1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.
- 2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The policies can be viewed by clicking here.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

Subject: FW: WCPD9: Workshop Presentation and Draft Summit Statement

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions

· Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. We look forward to continued collaboration. Sure , your journal is very important considering the huge number of members and potential readers .

Hi All,

Here are the talking points for Thursday's hill visits. They are slightly different based on our hill targets. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. I will plan to take the lead at the meetings unless we need to split up. Once I have Chelsea's updated grid, I will let you know if you need to be prepared to take the lead during a visit.

Thanks and safe travels home.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Attached are the current campaign guidelines approved by the Nominating Committee. Please note that the Board's role is to become informed about the candidates and encourage members to vote. No member of the Board of Directors, while serving on the Board, may support an individual candidate through print, electronic or social media communications (e.g., Internet, Facebook, Twitter or Linked In). The guidelines were sent to all candidates on the 2018 ballot.

Nominating Committee members Bethany Thayer and Kris Clark are presenting a webinar for Academy members on Monday, December 4 at 1pm-2pm CST to provide details regarding the campaign guidelines. If you are interested in participating, please click here to register. The webinar will be recorded and uploaded to the election website for future playback.

As a reminder, the Nominating Committee is discontinuing the Meet the Candidates Forum for this election year due to consistent very small member turnout.

I have a few edits to make, but will send you a simplified blurb for PPWN and one for ERW to Erin in the afternoon so those members not in the SNS DPG have an opportunity to share their stories. A more detailed explanation will be sent out to the SNS DPG to strongly encourage their members to participate.

Attachment:

Hello NOMIN Members,

We're calling on all #guyatitians this morning! DiabetesEveryDay.com founder Toby Mussman Smithson is looking for a #guyatitian with diabetes to serve as a moderator for her session at #FNCE 2018.

If interested, email Toby directly at toby@diabeteseveryday.com.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Best,

Dylan Bailey, MS

AND School Modernization Act Hill Visit Talking Points.docx

Hi All,

Here are the talking points for Thursday's hill visits. They are slightly different based on our hill targets. Please review and let me know if you have any questions. I will plan to take the lead at the meetings unless we need to split up. Once I have Chelsea's updated grid, I will let you know if you need to be prepared to take the lead during a visit.

Thanks and safe travels home.

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)

6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Dayle,

I think the site overview gives a good summary of the goals of the visits. I know we may not have all of our ducks in order for this first one, but we will get better! The main goal is to feature the directors/staff and their equipment needs and successes and link them back to serving healthy meals etc. If we want to chat this afternoon, I can talk!

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Hi All,

Jeanne and staff are still in their staff retreat, so I don't think we are having a formal check in call but I wanted to communicate some updates and highlight some priority actions that we need for Thursday's hill visits. Let me know if we want to have a conference call tomorrow. I can be available between 2-5pm.

Priority Actions:

1. Please provide an updated list/schedule for Thursday's hill visits. (Chelsea)
2. Send/provide talking points for hill meetings. (Liz)
3. Make AND packets to leave at hill visits for Thursday. Include: AND folder, list of current sponsors, updated leave behind, AND staff business cards (Erin/Nate)
4. Send around hill visit assignments based on current schedule (Liz)
5. Confirm with Liz availability for Thursday's visit. (Tenasha, Jeanne, Erin, Nate)
6. Depending on first meeting times choose a meet up point for team. (Liz)

Additional Action Items:

1. Confirm camera crew for all sites (Jeanne)
2. Send district media contact information to Erin ASAP (Liz, Dayle, Nancy)
3. Send out press release or work with district to send out media alert about site visits (Erin)

Updates:

- Erie and Syracuse site visits confirmed
- Donna's travel confirmed for Erie
- Rodney Taylor available and interested in speaking at briefing
- Jane Balek (SNF) confirmed for briefing

Looking forward to speaking with you all soon.

Liz

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.

- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

Good afternoon,

I hope you are both doing well and fully recuperated from FNCE. As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Is there any chance we can move the shoot day up to Wednesday, Nov 29?

I have classes Tuesday and Thursday, and completely forgot about that. If not, I will make sure my proffers know... and just miss classes. This is my first semester back in college in 30 years, it has created a few challenges!

Please let me know, Thanks, David

I will certainly try to have it reviewed, but was just informed that my board would like me to be present at 1:00 CST for an important citywide meeting. If we could make our call 1/2 hour later it might work better for me. How long does it usually take?

Good afternoon,

I hope you are both doing well and fully recuperated from FNCE. As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Hi Dianne,

Thanks for letting us know about your work commitment. I'm fine with shifting the call ½ hour later if it works for Donna. In terms of how long it takes, it all depends on how prepared you both come to the meeting and whether or not your individual selections align. If you are both in agreement, it goes quickly. If you have differing opinions, then obviously you'll need time to talk through those selections. You can easily accomplish in 1 hour, and possibly less.

Thanks,

Marsha

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
 - If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.
- Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

- 1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.
- 2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The policies can be viewed by clicking here.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

Best regards,
Joan

Dear Dr. Ibrahim

Thank you so much for the opportunity to be represented at WCPD9. It was a wonderful conference. My colleagues and I enjoyed speaking and meeting individuals from all over the world. Marcy walked away from the Summit filled with gratitude that nutrition services by RDN's was a strong recommendation. We will review the statement and get back to you as soon as possible. I would like very much to offer my assistance as an advisor in the planning sessions for the next Congress and other initiatives. We agree we would like to collaborate further.

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? "The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. I had a fabulous visit with the folks at Natomas, including their awesome RDN Rylee Welly.

I took some video in their central kitchen ... answering the questions on the site visit document. Not sure how much will be useful ... altho they did a terrific job.

•What is the best way to get my video file to you?

You can see photos on their Instagram page at <https://www.instagram.com/nusdfood/> ... and I have plenty from my visit. Let me know if these will be helpful.

Jeanne and Nancy:

Looking forward to our visit to ND this week ...

I wanted to share travel details and learn more about video plans so that I can connect with directors.

TRAVEL:

- Attached is my United itinerary ... arriving FAR at 12:55 PM
- Will rent car, can pick up Nancy if necessary
- Made hotel reservation at Home2 Suites by Hilton Fargo, ND, 1652 44th Street South, Fargo, ND 58103, 701-492-4502 (willing to change, but got good rate of $114.42 and it is a newer hotel)

VIDEO:

- Please let me know details.
- If they are available, I would like to do a pre-visit on Tuesday afternoon.

Do we need to talk on Monday/Tuesday to make certain that I understand the goals?

Delighted to be involved,

Dayle

Hello Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Immediate Past President Lucille Beseler, thank you again for providing the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics the opportunity to contribute to the summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. The Academy reviewers were pleased that many of our suggestions to strengthen content around MNT, the role/value of RDNs and an action step around referrals to qualified health care providers were incorporated into the second draft. Assuming the copy editing will happen prior to joint publication, the paper with general edits is attached. The overall feedback follows below.

- 1) Because the paper is national and global, recommend to mention the WHO Diabetes Program and how this paper supports it.
- 2) Exact content from the Evidence Analysis Library (EAL) Prevention of Type 2 Guideline is used, specifically the MNT and Physical Activity recommendations. According to EAL reprinting policies, when recommendations are cited they need to be used in their entirety and referenced. The policies can be viewed by clicking here.

Please forward a copy of the final draft of the paper so that it can be considered for the Academy's approval to be jointly published. Also, if you can share the names of the organizations it's being submitted to, our editor can reach out to the other journal editors.

Thank you, again!

As for the proposed statement , please find below the answers for your questions , I also went through the valuable documents you provided and shared them with the writing group , because of the very limited word count , I would appreciate if Lucille and her colleagues could send few paragraphs containing the very important info and data to be considered in the final draft , please include the corresponding references .

your prompt response will be highly appreciated .

Subject: FW: WCPD9: Workshop Presentation and Draft Summit Statement

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andeanal.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL
- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

As a reminder, we are scheduled to meet via WebEx next Thursday, November 16, 2:00 – 3:00 pm, so you can make appointments for ANDPAC, LPPC, and the Consumer Protection and Licensure Subcommittee for the 2018 calendar year. While my goal was to provide you with documents for that call yesterday, I am still awaiting staff input from the Washington office. As soon as I receive their input I will pass it along with the other materials you need so you can do your homework in advance of the call.

Thanks and you'll hear from me soon!

Ciara Frisbie from CNN just reached out to me and asked whether she and David could visit a Burke County school during lunch time next week and also visit the gardens. She's also wondering if they could bring a photographer.

Would that be possible?

Dear Donna,

A contribution has been made in your honor to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation from Constance G. Mueller. This gift will enable the Foundation to continue to provide scholarships, research grants, continuing education awards and innovative educational programs through the Kids Eat Right initiative. This year, the Foundation looks forward to making an impact on thousands of students, dietetic professionals and kids who will all benefit from the Academy Foundation's initiatives.

Sincerely,

Mary and Dayle, Attached is a PDF of both bills for the Equipment Modernization Grant for School Nutrition Programs. Also included in an article PEW wrote on the subject that gives great context as to why we are doing this project. Dayle, I realize you are more than well versed on all this information, but I know Mary is not, so I thought this would prove helpful in preparing her for her Chicago visit to the schools. Speaker Message 12 HOD Office Hours 11/28 & 11/29 ANDPAC-Thank You!

Mark Your Calendars for the Inaugural HOD Office Hours on 11/28 & 11/29

To promote connectivity among the HOD, Directors Tammy Randall and Milton Stokes will host two live WebEx sessions called HOD Office Hours. We will be discussing your thoughts from the first months of the 2017-18 HOD year.

Feel free to join at any point during one or both sessions. Stay for as long as you like.

Review the discussion post for more details on joining the HOD office hours.

- Session 1- Tuesday, November 28 from 3 pm – 4 pm CST (using WebEx and phone)
- Session 2- Wednesday, November 29 from 11:30 am – 12:30 pm CST (using WebEx and phone)

Fall 2017 Meeting Outcomes

All follow-up information from the meeting will be in the Fall Meeting Outcomes folder.

The HLT is continuing to work on the next steps from the HOD meeting.

- You may wish to use Fall Meeting Recap document for your delegate reports.
- We have posted the dream photos.
- Stay tuned for additional calls to action.

Seeking Volunteers-PowerPoint Presentation

We are seeking delegates who would be interested in taking the meeting recap document and forthcoming meeting outcomes to create a PowerPoint presentation that delegates can use when talking about the fall HOD meeting with their constituents.

•If you are interested, please email ashlachter@eatright.org before Monday, November 20.

Top Innovators in Dietetics Practice and Education Session Announced

The Council on Future Practice is excited to announce the top two innovators from the ninth annual FNCE® Innovations in Dietetics Practice and Education session.

•Top Innovator in Practice Amy Buehrle Light, RDN, LDN, for the project "Using Informatics to Control Food Costs in Foodservice Operations

•Top Innovator in Education Erin Bergquist, MPH, RD, CNSC, LD, for the project "Team Based Learning Activities Improve Application of the Nutrition Care Process in a Dietetic Internship."

Please work with your boards and executive committees to share the announcement.

HOD ANDPAC Donations

Congratulations and thank you to the House of Delegates for leading by strong example in fundraising efforts for ANDPAC!

•81% of delegates have donated to ANDPAC this year, and as of 10/31/17 the House of Delegates has raised $6,950.50. We are well on our way and we do have until December 31 to reach our 100% HOD participation goal.

•The average HOD contribution per person is about $65. Your contributions, on average, are higher than the average donor contribution.

•Please see the thank you note from Susan Scott, ANDPAC Chair.

Online Expense Reports

Thanks to those delegates who have submitted their expense reports from the fall meeting. We still have several outstanding reports, and we are asking that everyone please submit their HOD meeting expenses as soon as possible!

•Online Expense Report – Complete your expense report at www.eatright.org/expense. Click here to review the expense report instructions, and here to review the Reimbursement Guidelines for Delegates.

Dayle,

I am working on the day of show schedule. Basically we want to tour their site and hear their equipment successes and challenges. We will ask each site to bring in VIPs for the tour – principals, superintendents, mayors or other local leaders that might strengthen the stories – such as emergency responders. We will capture the video and stories and interviews at each site.

I will work with Donna and try to get a draft done by tomorrow.

I have added Nancy and Liz to the email. Nancy is going to cover the IL, ND and CA events and assist with the execution. Nancy is willing to be flexible with her schedule next week to make the 13-15th work for North Dakota – could we possibly have a call this evening to discuss? She and I can make it work into the evening (as long as multi-tasking is allowed since I may be driving at some point).

Also, can we aim for the 28th for SLO? That would allow Nancy to get there from the East Coast on the 27th.

Let me know if we can do a call this evening.

Great to chat yesterday ... glad to be of help and this project.

Can you send me a brief summary of what we are asking from districts? Specifics for visit, video needs, etc.

If I can get that info, I will confirm date for ND visit next week.

Best,

Meghan,

Is there any way to get video from that visit? It would be great to include that in our video if you can get any footage.

Yes, I'm interested and available on Dec. 5th. I've added it in my calendar and will wait to hear additional details. Looking forward to meeting and working with Mary! If you have any criteria to help me select a school, please send my way. We're hosting the Lt. Gov of IL and her Chief of Staff this Wed., Nov. 15th to view our breakfast programs. One of my talking points is the need for additional funding for equipment, specifically for the Breakfast After the Bell mandatory reg in Illinois (for schools greater than 70% F/R). Though it's doubtful we'll see that funding from the broke State of IL (Mary should intimately understand this one!), it's a great transition into this topic and video.

Thank you for the opportunity!

Meghan, Loved our lunch at FNCE. Hope you enjoyed FNCE as much as I did.

I am working with the DC office to see about doing a possible visit in your school district on December 5th for the Equipment Grant I talked to you about? I cannot get away from work to do all these visits, so you will get to meet the President-elect Mary Russell who lives in Chicago. Mary does not work in School Nutrition, but I know you can help bring her up to speed. Right now they are talking about doing breakfast in your schools and then going to Sandy Voss' district in the afternoon. This is all subject to change, but I just wanted to see if this might work for you before we proceed any further? Thanks!

unknown_name_gxl3x

Dear NDEP Members –

NDEP is pleased to announce the 2018 Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award nominations are now being accepted! The purpose of the Outstanding Dietetics Educator Award (ODEA) is to recognize the teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of faculty in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs. One educator can be selected from each of the four program types in each geographic region (a maximum of four awardees from each of the six geographic regions for a total of 24).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding educators in the Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and NDEP-line, each awardee will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the Academy President. Awards will be presented at the 2018 NDEP regional meetings.

Eligibility

Nominees must be a current member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, but are not required to be an NDEP member for consideration for this award.

Preceptors are not eligible for this award as there is a separate award given to Outstanding Preceptors.

Active NDEP Council members are not eligible for this award. For a listing of the current NDEP Council members go to www.ndepnet.org.

Previous ODEA winners cannot be nominated for the same program award again; however, they could be nominated for an award for a different program type, if applicable.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators

- Member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics
- Faculty with academic appointments in ACEND-accredited dietetics education programs:
- Cordinated Program in Dietetics (CP)
- Dietetic Internship (DI)
- Didactic Prgram in Dietetics (DPD)
- Dietetic Technician Prgram (DT)
- Demonstrated innovative teaching skills and techniques.
- Demonstrated mentoring of students.
- Demonstrated leadership; e.g., national, state, or district dietetic association activities, community service, honors received, scientific and professional presentations, publications, etc.

Selection Procedure and Submission Dates

Nominations from peers and/or students will be sent to the Nutrition and Dietetic Educators and Preceptors (NDEP) Regional Director in the corresponding geographic area by January 12, 2018. Each Regional Director will select no more than one educator for each type of dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, DT) in the region (maximum four).

Each nomination application will be a single PDF that includes the ODEA Data Sheet, curriculum vitae (or resume), and three reference letters. Nominations must be sent electronically. Jpeg documents or individual documents will not be accepted. Additional materials beyond the requested materials (data sheet, CV, letters) will not be reviewed.

Award Winners will be announced in March 2018!

For more information, please visit the NDEP website at www.ndepnet.org and refer to the attached documents for criteria and data sheets!

Jeanne, This is the answer from the Director for the Chicago visit.

Do you want me to check with Meghan Gibbons for a visit with her outside of Chicago? If so, what day do you want to go there?

Can you get me a number on how many small bags of grits we need? I need to get them ordered and I need to know where to have them sent. I will have them delivered two days before our hill visits.

Happy Thursday!

Hi Donna! Sorry for the delay in response. Glad to hear you had an amazing conference, I was so bummed not to be there - SNA committee days fell on the same weekend.

We have purchased two Combi ovens on federal grant dollars at our central kitchen and I have 11 satellite sites that we are in some cases literally working out of closets :) If you think we would be a good fit for your video, I would be happy to help. I have some meetings scheduled for Monday, Dec 4th, but would be open on Tuesday, Dec 5th.

Thanks.

Sandy, The Academy Public Policy Office is working with me on trying to help get some Federal equipment grant money for School Nutrition Programs. We have a little seed money to go out and videotape in school districts around the country that either need equipment or have gotten a grant in the past to showcase the need. Would we be able to interview you and do some videotaping in one of your schools either December 4th or 5th? If one of those dates work for you I will get back to you with more details. Thanks!

(See below) I responded to this gentleman and encouraged him to contact the Academy on the civility pledge and his other questions about division in membership. He said that he had put out a call to the Academy. I did not comment on any of this except to say that dietitians, like any other professionals, have members that reflect a wide range of experience, roles and perspectives. He also asked about sponsorship and seemed to think the civility pledge had something to do with the division between science-based dietitians and those interested more in social justice issues like hunger and nutrition. I again told him that the Academy was best equipped to answer his questions about sponsorship and what safeguards you have in place to prevent undue influence by sponsors but that the Academy, as a group of nutrition professionals, has always been interested and involved with issues of hunger, food insecurity and other economic issues that would effect food supply and nutrition. Leah McGrath

This is Joe Fassler from the New Food Economy, how are you? I'm writing an article about a divide that seems to be growing among dietitians, with people trying to use the field to talk about larger social and economic issues on one side, and others who feel professionals should just stick with the science. As a prominent voice in the field, I wonder if you might have thoughts on this.

I'm also interested in the "professional civility" pledge just issued by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and whether you think such a thing might be necessary. Do you think that standards of civility have slipped, and are they important? Or is that the academy's way of trying to encourage its members not steer clear of this debate altogether?

Could we find a few minutes to speak by phone? Hope so—let me know what you think!

Thanks,

Joe

please find attached the almost final version of the statement , kindly consider the below :

- at this point , no major change(s) are allowed , it is almost a Yes or No version
- We will edit the IMAGE tables and rearrange the references in unified format
- should this version fails to meet the minimal expectations of the Nutrition Academy , we will still be interested in getting one of you (Lucille – Jo Jo or Donna) as a coauthor , the others may be included in the full list , kindly forward this email to Donna since I do not have her email
- the deadline for your response is November 30th , we expect the statement to be published beginning of 2018
- if you like we could meet for dinner Friday November 17th at Marriott Hotel for more discussion

Thank you so much for the opportunity to be represented at WCPD9. It was a wonderful conference. My colleagues and I enjoyed speaking and meeting individuals from all over the world. Marcy walked away from the Summit filled with gratitude that nutrition services by RDN's was a strong recommendation. We will review the statement and get back to you as soon as possible. I would like very much to offer my assistance as an advisor in the planning sessions for the next Congress and other initiatives. We agree we would like to collaborate further.

Subject: FW: WCPD9: Workshop Presentation and Draft Summit Statement

Dear Dr. Ibrahim,

On behalf of Lucille Beseler, thank you for the opportunity to review the draft summit statement Global Status of Diabetes Prevention and Prospects for Action. Although Lucille will be in attendance at the summit on Saturday, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics offers the following general comments for your consideration in advance of the meeting. We have also attached the Academy's Prevention of Type 2 Diabetes Evidence-based Nutrition Practice Guideline executive summary, which can be found on our Evidence Analysis Library <https://www.andean.org/topic.cfm?menu=5344>. This document may provide additional insight for nutrition intervention.

We are aware there will be a second draft developed for review and we will be pleased to share more detailed comments at that time.

- Is the focus of the paper global or domestic? GLOBAL

- If it is a global statement perhaps it should address diabetes prevention in general, i.e., including other diabetes prevention strategies. YES
- Intervention is mentioned at the beginning of the paper, is this going to be addressed throughout? YES
- Who is the target audience, the general population, or those at increased risk for Type 2 Diabetes? Health care professionals , however there should be also an executive summary for the decision makers , media and lay people (general population)
- Under the Community design, built environment and food insecurity section, perhaps policy issues can be addressed here. YES , please provide your suggestions
- Has the initiative by the World Health Organization been considered? “The mission of the WHO Diabetes Programme is to prevent type 2 diabetes and to minimize complications and maximize quality of life for all people with diabetes. Our core functions are to set norms and standards, promote surveillance, encourage prevention, raise awareness and strengthen prevention and control.” <http://www.who.int/diabetes/en/> , We are aware of it , I guess the draft matches with its main contents but it could be also considered as a reference

Thank you again for including the Academy in the development of this important statement paper. We will be pleased to submit the paper for consideration for co-publication in our Journal, along with others including Endocrine Practice, Diabetes Care and Diabetes and Metabolism. We look forward to continued collaboration. Sure , your journal is very important considering the huge number of members and potential readers .

Subject: Reporter call

(See below) I responded to this gentleman and encouraged him to contact the Academy on the civility pledge and his other questions about division in membership. He said that he had put out a call to the Academy. I did not comment on any of this except to say that dietitians, like any other professionals, have members that reflect a wide range of experience, roles and perspectives. He also asked about sponsorship and seemed to think the civility pledge had something to do with the division between science-based dietitians and those interested more in social justice issues like hunger and nutrition. I again told him that the Academy was best equipped to answer his questions about sponsorship and what safeguards you have in place to prevent undue influence by sponsors but that the Academy, as a group of nutrition professionals, has always been interested and involved with issues of hunger, food insecurity and other economic issues that would effect food supply and nutrition. Leah McGrath

This is Joe Fassler from the New Food Economy, how are you? I'm writing an article about a divide that seems to be growing among dietitians, with people trying to use the field to talk about larger social and economic issues on one side, and others who feel professionals should just stick with the science. As a prominent voice in the field, I wonder if you might have thoughts on this.

I'm also interested in the "professional civility" pledge just issued by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and whether you think such a thing might be necessary. Do you think that standards of civility have slipped, and are they important? Or is that the academy's way of trying to encourage its members not steer clear of this debate altogether?

Could we find a few minutes to speak by phone? Hope so—let me know what you think!

Thanks,

Joe

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Compliance with Revised Nutrition Facts Panel Dependent on FDA Finalizing Guidance

The Academy actively worked to create, and strongly supports, the final revisions to Nutrition Facts Panel. The Academy would like to see these implemented without delay. This tremendous benefit to the public would otherwise be denied for more than a year if the FDA's proposed delay is finalized. Regrettably, however, the Academy recognizes that the FDA's delays in finalizing directly relevant, critical guidance related to fiber and added sugars may necessitate delaying the compliance date. The Academy recently urged the FDA to finalize these guidance documents without delay to ensure that there will be no additional delays in implementing revisions to the NFP.

Academy Urges Congress to Protect Historic Investment in Prevention

The House of Representatives recently passed the Championing Healthy Kids Act, which reauthorizes several federal health programs, including the Children's Health Insurance program, that had gone unfunded since September but would use the Prevention and Public Health Fund to pay for the cost of these programs. The Academy continues to oppose this approach as the Prevention Fund provides critical support for interventions led by food and nutrition professionals to improve community health. The Academy urged Congress to find a bipartisan solution to fund these important programs and the Senate is poised to address this issue soon. Thanks to advocacy work from the Academy and its partners, U.S. Rep. Tony Cardenas (Calif.) introduced an amendment to remove the Prevention Fund from the Championing Healthy Kids Act, and the Academy will continue to advocate for a strong investment in prevention and treatment to improve the health and nutrition of the country.

Academy Commends Congress and President for Creating Clinical Care Commission

The Academy is pleased to announce that the president signed the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 920) into law to coordinate and leverage various federal programs related to diabetes. The Academy will continue to work with the bill's sponsors and the administration to ensure federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases.

House Hears Testimony on the Importance of Agriculture Research

A panel of experts testified about the value of federal agricultural research and the role it plays in protecting agriculture and the public from biological threats, as well as addressing global food system challenges to feed an ever-growing world population. The Academy's new Strategic Plan echoes the witnesses' statements through principles "focus[ing] on system-wide impact across the food, well-being, and health care sectors and hav[ing] a global impact in eliminating all forms of malnutrition."

Academy Supports Veterans Administration Telehealth Initiative

After careful consideration and discussion with Academy member experts, the Academy wrote to the Department of Veterans Affairs to support its proposal to preempt state licensure laws related to telehealth for VA employees, including RDNs. The proposal will ease practice across state lines while the health and safety of consumers by the VA's policies regarding dietitian hiring.

Academy Endorses Commodity Supplemental Food Program Bill

The Academy joined partner organizations in addressing hunger, aging and malnutrition by supporting the Nourishing Our Golden Years Act, sponsored by U.S. Sen. Robert P. Casey, Jr. (Penn.), which would enable eligible seniors to receive shelf-stable, nutrient-rich USDA foods for a minimum of one year. This effort to ease the administrative burden for those delivering the Commodity Supplemental Food Program to seniors represents a continuing commitment by the Academy to ensure seniors with food insecurity have access to nutritious food to preserve or improve their health and independence.

Dear Donna,

Thank you for joining us at our Second Century FUN-RAISER. An unprecedented energy and record crowd of more than 1,000 helped us enjoy a spectacular night. Academy members of every generation joined in the festivities, celebrating the Foundation's success at Chicago's iconic Navy Pier with Academy and Foundation leaders, distinguished donors, friends and colleagues.

The Fun-Raiser Gala was delightful and a perfect opportunity to support the Foundation (without breaking the bank) and celebrate with friends in an open, social and festive environment. Great band, nice food, wonderful surroundings and plenty of giggles at the photo booth!

Christina C. Lemon, MS, RD, CD, President, Wisconsin Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

I had the opportunity to meet so many colleagues whose lives were touched by the Foundation. Hundreds of members each year receive scholarships, awards, fellowships, and research grants through the Foundation – members of all ages, backgrounds and skill sets. Thousands more participate in our public education programs like Kids Eat Right and Future of Food, utilizing Foundation resources to take these programs into their communities.

Our Foundation is the only charitable organization devoted exclusively to promoting nutrition and dietetics. Although affiliated with the Academy, the Foundation is an independent 501(c)(3) public charity and does not receive any portion of member dues. The success and impact of our programs and services are directly attributed to the generous support of our donors.

Please check out the videos below if you didn't have a chance to see them during the event – these stories told first-hand by our donors and volunteers are what we are all about!

Pat, Here is the answer I received when I asked about the gift cards and the Puerto Rico students. She emailed me and I emailed back and asked how the students liked their gift cards. She also mentioned they are having trouble with the internet and applying for disaster relief funds. I told her I did not think there was as deadline on applying.

I again told him that the Academy was best equipped to answer his questions about sponsorship and what safeguards you have in place to prevent undue influence by sponsors but that the Academy, as a group of nutrition professionals, has always been interested and involved with issues of hunger, food insecurity and other economic issues that would effect food supply and nutrition. Leah McGrath

This is Joe Fassler from the New Food Economy, how are you? I'm writing an article about a divide that seems to be growing among dietitians, with people trying to use the field to talk about larger social and economic issues on one side, and others who feel professionals should just stick with the science. As a prominent voice in the field, I wonder if you might have thoughts on this.

I'm also interested in the "professional civility" pledge just issued by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and whether you think such a thing might be necessary. Do you think that standards of civility have slipped, and are they important? Or is that the academy's way of trying to encourage its members not steer clear of this debate altogether?

Could we find a few minutes to speak by phone? Hope so—let me know what you think!

Thanks,

Joe

He also asked about sponsorship and seemed to think the civility pledge had something to do with the division between science-based dietitians and those interested more in social justice issues like hunger and nutrition. I again told him that the Academy was best equipped to answer his questions about sponsorship and what safeguards you have in place to prevent undue influence by sponsors but that the Academy, as a group of nutrition professionals, has always been interested and involved with issues of hunger, food insecurity and other economic issues that would effect food supply and nutrition. Leah McGrath

This is Joe Fassler from the New Food Economy, how are you? I'm writing an article about a divide that seems to be growing among dietitians, with people trying to use the field to talk about larger social and economic issues on one side, and others who feel professionals should just stick with the science. As a prominent voice in the field, I wonder if you might have thoughts on this.

I'm also interested in the "professional civility" pledge just issued by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and whether you think such a thing might be necessary. Do you think that standards of civility have slipped, and are they important? Or is that the academy's way of trying to encourage its members not steer clear of this debate altogether?

Could we find a few minutes to speak by phone? Hope so—let me know what you think!

Thanks,

Joe

Vince:

Confirming my visit tomorrow morning ... with my SINCEREST thanks to you for your willingness to host me.

•What time and where do I need to meet you?

•I am happy to get to _____ early.

•I am staying Courtyard Sacramento Midtown, 4422 Y Street Sacramento.

•I would prefer to do Uber/Lyft rather than rent a car.

My personal goal is to see as much of your program successes as possible ... and spotlight those on School Meals That Rock.

IF IT IS POSSIBLE ... and we have access to a video camera (or using my iPhone):

•I would love to showcase your program in the Academy's current School Foodservice Equipment Modernization Project.

•See attached DRAFT of site visits for the project.

•We want to make this as UNcomplicated as possible for your team.

I am tied up in a meeting at Clif Bar pretty much until 3:30 PM. I may have a short break at 11:30 ... if we need to talk, please text me and I can step out of my meeting. MOBILE: 406-698-8868

THANKS again and again!

Local Academy Members Invited to Participate in Public Health Fair on Capitol Hill

Just a quick reminder that Academy members are welcome to participate in the Academy's public health fair booth today from noon to 3 p.m. ET. The event sponsored by the Coalition for Health Funding will be held in the foyer of the Rayburn House Office Building in Washington, DC. This is a great opportunity for members to promote their role in public health and highlight the importance of breastfeeding and the MyPlate initiative, among others. To find out more information, contact Stefanie Winston Rinehart.

Championing Health Kids Act Passed in the House

The Championing Healthy Kids Act (combines H.R. 3921 and H.R. 3922) passed the U.S. House of Representatives on November 3. The legislation funds important programs like the state Children's Health Insurance Program, community health centers, and other important public health priorities. Congressman Greg Walden (Ore.) introduced the bill that moved through the House Energy & Commerce Committee (E&C). The bill includes a 5-year reauthorization of the CHIP program, a 2-year reauthorization of the Community Health Center Fund and two years of relief from impending cuts to Disproportionate Share Hospital (DSH) payments that help provide care to low-income and underserved communities. The Academy is in support of these programs, however, as expressed in a letter to the E&C last month, we are opposed to using the Prevention Fund to pay for these programs. The Prevention Fund provides critical support for interventions led by food and nutrition professionals to improve community health. The Academy will continue to advocate for a strong investment in prevention and treatment to improve the health and nutrition of the nation.

To view Rep. Walden's remarks on the House Floor, click here.

House Subcommittee on Research and Technology Heard Testimony on the Importance of Agriculture Research

Ensuring that people have access to healthy food systems is always a priority for the Academy. Academy staff recently attended an event where a panel of experts discussed the value of agriculture research with the U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Research and Technology. This is an important message for Congress to hear. Increases in funding for federal agriculture research will be a critical step to ensuring that safe and nutritious food is available. Federal agriculture research protects agriculture and the public from biological threats, both naturally occurring and deliberate, as well as addressing global food system challenges to feed an ever-growing world population. The Academy will continue to work to spread this message to key members of Congress. Visit the subcommittee webpage to learn more about the hearing and watch the recording.

Academy Supports Designating November 9th as National Diabetes Heart Health Awareness Day

Diabetes impacts over 29 million people in the US and increases the risk of heart failure, heart attack, stroke, or other cardiovascular complications. The Academy is a partner organization of the Partnership to Fight Chronic Disease (PFCD) which raises awareness of the toll taken by diabetes, cardiovascular disease, obesity and others. PFCD supports the Academy's goal of encouraging the co-treatment of diabetes and cardiovascular disease in order to reduce the overall burden of illness. As part of these efforts, the Academy recently signed on to a letter supporting PFCD's initiative and its resolution to designate November 9th National Heart Health Awareness Day.

FDA Proposes Rule to Revoke Claim that Soy Protein Protects the Heart

The Academy is closely monitoring the status of the Food and Drug Administration's claim that soy protein protects the heart. The FDA is considering revoking the claim. Dr. Susan Mayne, director of the FDA's Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition, released a statement saying the FDA is considering revoking the claim "because numerous studies published since the claim was authorized in 1999 have presented inconsistent findings on the relationship between soy protein and heart disease." The Academy is working with our member leaders to develop a response. If you are interested, work through the Dietetic Practice Groups' Policy and Advocacy Leaders (PALs), in either SCAN, Vegetarian Nutrition or DIFM Practice Groups, to submit input relevant to this proposed rule.

Compliance with Revised Nutrition Facts Panel Dependent on FDA Finalizing Guidance

The Academy supports the final revisions to the Nutritional Facts Panel (NFP) that is found on packaged food. The Academy has been working for several years to improve these labels to help consumers make informed food choices. The new panel will be a tremendous benefit to the public, but the FDA is considering extending the compliance dates for the new labeling, a move which would deprive the public of the labels for more than a year. We think this would be a mistake and the Academy submitted comments to the FDA urging it to finalize its process to ensure that there will be no additional delays. The Academy will keep you posted on any updates. To read more, click here.

National Clinical Care Commission Act signed into Law

The president signed the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 920) into law on November 3. The Academy worked with the bill's sponsors and the administration to ensure that registered dietitian nutritionists have a seat at the table and to ensure federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. This bill creates a commission to evaluate and recommend solutions for better coordination and use of federal programs to support care for people with diabetes and metabolic syndromes and disorders. We released a statement commending Congress and the President on the legislation and will continue to work on this issue going forward.

Academy Supports Veterans Administration Telehealth Initiative

The Academy supports a proposal to preempt state licensure laws related to telehealth for Department of Veterans Affairs' employees that includes RDNs. The Academy noted in a letter to the VA that the proposal will ease practice across state lines while the health and safety of consumers is ensured by the VA's strong, applicable policies and rules regarding dietitian hiring and standard practices. Additionally, the proposal would prevent incompetent practice and notify state and federal entities when that practice is noted. We will update Academy members on any movement on this issue.

Academy Endorses Commodity Supplemental Food Program Bill

The Academy we signed on to a letter and partnered with organizations in the hunger, aging, and malnutrition communities in supporting the Nourishing Our Golden Years Act sponsored by Senator Robert P. Casey, Jr. (Penn.), which would enable eligible seniors to receive shelf-stable, nutrient-rich USDA foods for a minimum of one-year before their eligibility must be recertified. This effort to ease the administrative burden for those delivering the Commodity Supplemental Food Program to seniors represents a continuing commitment by the Academy to ensure seniors with food insecurity have access to nutritious food to preserve or improve their health and independence.

Save the Date –December Quarterly Advocacy Day to be Held on December 13, 2017

The Academy has recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trust to implement the “School Foodservice Modernization Project”—a project that will advocate for food service modernization in schools as part of its Kids’ Safe and Healthful Food Project. The Foodservice Modernization Project will ensure that key items are included in any child nutrition reauthorization and/or infrastructure bills that both the House and Senate (H.R. 3006/S. 1402) put forth, such as improving school kitchen infrastructure, access to kitchen equipment and funding for the means to create healthy school meals. On December 13th, the Academy is hosting an Advocacy Day with partner organizations which will include a Congressional Briefing on Capitol Hill in Washington, DC. The purpose of these events are to inform policymakers about the importance of food service modernization in our nation’s schools and to have registered dietitian nutritionists and the school nutrition community advocate for H.R. 3006/S. 1402.

Information will be sent to policy leaders in the local area to share with members to encourage attendance. Registration is open to all Academy members and there is not a cost to attend the event.

Stay tuned for next week’s PPWN for information on how to register for the advocacy day.

(PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Hello Carole,

We recently published a new infographic titled '13 Tips to Help You Step off the Diet/Riot Roller Coaster' along with the article which gives readers a quick look at the 30-day challenge towards getting active!. We believe you might be interested in reading and possibly sharing it with your readers.

We've done a ton of research to make it useful and resourceful for the audience and we think it's a pretty good resource to check out. Please find the link below:

Dear Cindy, Dana and Emily:

I am working with Donna Martin, Academy President, and the DC Office on a project to advocate for increased school kitchen equipment and infrastructure funding in the next round of CNR.

We are visiting schools in some targeted states to learn about equipment and infrastructure needs and successes.

I am hoping that we can come to North Dakota next week to visit Fargo and West Fargo schools ... and maybe even Grand Forks as well if timing/travel allows.

- The DC office is working on the specifics but here is a broad outline:
- "Basically we want to tour their site and hear their equipment successes and challenges. We will ask each site to bring in VIPs for the tour – principals, superintendents, mayors or other local leaders that might strengthen the stories – such as emergency responders. We will capture the video and stories and interviews (by me or another RDN) at each site."*

I realize that this is short notice, but am hoping that Wednesday (first choice) or Thursday next week (November 15 or 16) might work for you. We would work to create as little disruption as possible ... and I can promise some positive social media posts on School Meals That Rock.

I am traveling for work in California this week ... but will try to answer as many questions as I can as quickly as possible. You can call or text my mobile phone: 406-698-8868

Thanks for helping us out with this important project to increase the fund available to schools for equipment and infrastructure.

Hi Donna:

Thanks...I am aware of this as Chris & I are in touch. She had sent me the letter notifying PRC about 2024 requirements.

My concern is that my PRC friend is thinking of adding more roadblocks to the Filipino RNDs. (I spent lots of time at FNCE trying to convince her not to. I hope I succeeded!) Suggested review classes esp on NCP instead.

I am taking a workshop there before the NDAP convention, a follow up of the 2-day NCP workshop. This time, Esther Myers will do it. Milton & possibly Chris Vogliano will do a 30 each presentation.

We, AND members, are doing what we can to help. This trip will be self-financed (except for Milton! He is such a good person!)

Hope you can join me in 2019? I think you will enjoy the people and the islands.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Subject: Re: PRC/CDR Reciprocity

Hi Donna:

All is well from our end. There are a number of issues in the Philippines that do not affect us.

I remember Pat as the CDR Executive Director then.

The question is in the Philippines! They just now (I have the date &law) require CEUs to continue being RNDs (their RDNs) to practice there. None before. This is through the government (PRC) which does the credentialing for all professions.

My concern (for the Filipino RNDs) is that the PRC RNDs also want to include 3 years experience to CDR test takers.

I talked to them at FNCE. I told them that it will help the pass rates if the test takers take review classes relative to our exams. This has been proven.

The 3 year experience there will not guarantee an increase in the pass rate. I know many with years of experience failing. I know of the many who reviewed and passed.

I am on the NDAP convention program in February, 2018 speaking on the Reciprocity Agreements. I plan on starting with the Dietetics history there, then the Reciprocity Agreements with 5 then 4 countries, the PH pass rates - and what can be done to increase the pass rates. I will share with Chris to ensure that I am right in my presentation RE our end.

My continued involvement w/ the Philippines - I was a Balik Scientist three times. Govt programs of 3 months each to entice scientists to go back "home". First time was when it first started many years ago, then as a Visiting professor at a university and the last one was at PRC.

Again, we are okay here. I am just concerned about the extra hardships they may add to those who want to be RDNs by adding a 3 years experience esp since the practices there are mostly in foodservice. As of now.

Would like to see more CDR credentialed RDNs there especially because of the MDs practicing Dietetics.

There is an organization of MDs that wants &does Clinical Nutrition work in hospitals (PhilSPEN). Established by Dr. Lido for parenteral &enteral Nutrition In hospitals, etc. When I was a Balik Scientist (2nd time) I asked him why he started it. He told me that RNDs "do not do well in these". Yes, doctors do nutritional assessments &care at hospitals. I know that some RNDs who may go on rounds with MDs give their part to them &the MDs re-write and charge extra for the work. I found this out at the most expensive and best hospital (St. Luke's) in Manila. MDs take extra courses in Dietetics (Phil Women's U offer this for MDs) and join Dr. Lido's organization. I had MDs in my graduate class at PWU! And of course, I talked to them.

Most of the RNDs work in foodservice in hospitals. Or own foodservices. Not many are in school lunch programs. Only several hospitals I know have "clinical dietitians" but they are subjected to what the MDs want.

I will take you to hospitals (best & regular) when you come in 2019.

Again, no problem for us here but I feel bad for the Filipinos if the PRC adds a 3 year experience (anywhere) before giving the needed papers to allow them to take our exams.

This is longer than I intended. Thank you for reading it.

Subject: Re: PRC/CDR Reciprocity

As Executive Director of CDR, I was present at the signing of the reciprocity agreement between CDR and the Commission. I checked with Chris Reidy and the Commission continues to honor the agreement. Whatever verification requirements are being discussed or revised by the PRC have been initiated by the PRC and it is its purview. It will not affect the agreement. Nothing new is being mandated by CDR other than the Masters degree requirement in 2024 for individuals establishing registration eligibility only. Those that are registered and don't have a Masters are not required to obtain one.

I hope I am understanding the issue correctly and am addressing it.

Subject: PRC/CDR Reciprocity

Hello Donna:

First, like to let you know how wonderful the FNCE was!

RE: The CDR/PRC Reciprocity, I have all the information and pictures of the signing somewhere here.

Sanirose Orbeta was the PRC representative who signed the document. She was very active & chaired the PRC BOND. Now, Virgith Buena is the Chair of the PRC Board of Nutritionists Dietitians. Two others (Imelda Agdeppa and Joy Buen Viage) were appointed last year by the Philippine President to make up the team.

Virgith and Mel from PRC and Zhenie Velasco, the NDAP (their AND) president met with you. They were at the MIG Reception, too. Like to have you at the NDAP convention in 2019.

The PRC (Professional Regulations Commission) is the licensing arm of the gov't. It also licenses doctors, nurses, lawyers, accountants, etc.

Chris Reidy has already informed (letter) Virgith of the need for MS degrees in 2023. They also know that the baccalaureate grads can take the exams for NDTRs. I told them about it after talking to Chris a while back. Of course, the supervised practice continues.

My role with it? I was asked by CDR (through Karen Lechowich) to hand-deliver the letter to the Philippine representative at the ICD in Israel. Velona Corpuz was the head of the PH team attending the convention. That was in 1982. Been involved as a messenger or reviewer of correspondences from the PH for CDR especially from the start.

I invited the PH ambassador and other Filipino RDs around the US to attend the signing of the Agreement. Sanirose Orbeta and the ambassador were the signatories for PRC. Pat Babjak and Chris Reidy were present. Sue Finn was there, too. Colleen M (I think) signed the agreement, too. I need to check the record & pictures.

I will be sending copies of the signatories and pictures to Virgith as requested.

Please share with Mary Russell? (I don't have her email address.)

As to whoever told you that you are not friendly just want to make you feel bad. It's not true and we all know that. I wish I saw/met her. You bet, I would have given her a piece of my mind.

Again, thank you.

Bea

Dear Cindy, Dana and Emily:

I am working with Donna Martin, Academy President, and the DC Office on a project to advocate for increased school kitchen equipment and infrastructure funding in the next round of CNR.

We are visiting schools in some targeted states to learn about equipment and infrastructure needs and successes.

I am hoping that we can come to North Dakota next week to visit Fargo and West Fargo schools ... and maybe even Grand Forks as well if timing/travel allows.

- The DC office is working on the specifics but here is a broad outline:
- "Basically we want to tour their site and hear their equipment successes and challenges. We will ask each site to bring in VIPs for the tour – principals, superintendents, mayors or other local leaders that might strengthen the stories – such as emergency responders. We will capture the video and stories and interviews (by me or another RDN) at each site."*

I realize that this is short notice, but am hoping that Wednesday (first choice) or Thursday next week (November 15 or 16) might work for you. We would work to create as little disruption as possible ... and I can promise some positive social media posts on School Meals That Rock.

I am traveling for work in California this week ... but will try to answer as many questions as I can as quickly as possible. You can call or text my mobile phone: 406-698-8868

Thanks for helping us out with this important project to increase the fund available to schools for equipment and infrastructure.

Dayle

I have added Nancy and Liz to the email. Nancy is going to cover the IL, ND and CA events and assist with the execution. Nancy is willing to be flexible with her schedule next week to make the 13-15th work for North Dakota – could we possibly have a call this evening to discuss? She and I can make it work into the evening (as long as multi-tasking is allowed since I may be driving at some point).

Also, can we aim for the 28th for SLO? That would allow Nancy to get there from the East Coast on the 27th.

Let me know if we can do a call this evening.

If I can get that info, I will confirm date for ND visit next week.

Dayle,

I am working on the day of show schedule. Basically we want to tour their site and hear their equipment successes and challenges. We will ask each site to bring in VIPs for the tour – principals, superintendents, mayors or other local leaders that might strengthen the stories – such as emergency responders. We will capture the video and stories and interviews at each site.

I will work with Donna and try to get a draft done by tomorrow.

I have added Nancy and Liz to the email. Nancy is going to cover the IL, ND and CA events and assist with the execution. Nancy is willing to be flexible with her schedule next week to make the 13-15th work for North Dakota – could we possibly have a call this evening to discuss? She and I can make it work into the evening (as long as multi-tasking is allowed since I may be driving at some point).

Also, can we aim for the 28th for SLO? That would allow Nancy to get there from the East Coast on the 27th.

Let me know if we can do a call this evening.

Dear Cindy, Dana and Emily:

I am working with Donna Martin, Academy President, and the DC Office on a project to advocate for increased school kitchen equipment and infrastructure funding in the next round of CNR.

We are visiting schools in some targeted states to learn about equipment and infrastructure needs and successes.

I am hoping that we can come to North Dakota next week to visit Fargo and West Fargo schools ... and maybe even Grand Forks as well if timing/travel allows.

- The DC office is working on the specifics but here is a broad outline:
- "Basically we want to tour their site and hear their equipment successes and challenges. We will ask each site to bring in VIPs for the tour – principals, superintendents, mayors or other local leaders that might strengthen the stories – such as emergency responders. We will capture the video and stories and interviews (by me or another RDN) at each site."*

I realize that this is short notice, but am hoping that Wednesday (first choice) or Thursday next week (November 15 or 16) might work for you. We would work to create as little disruption as possible ... and I can promise some positive social media posts on School Meals That Rock.

I am traveling for work in California this week ... but will try to answer as many questions as I can as quickly as possible. You can call or text my mobile phone: 406-698-8868

Thanks for helping us out with this important project to increase the fund available to schools for equipment and infrastructure.

Dayle,

I am working on the day of show schedule. Basically we want to tour their site and hear their equipment successes and challenges. We will ask each site to bring in VIPs for the tour – principals, superintendents, mayors or other local leaders that might strengthen the stories – such as emergency responders. We will capture the video and stories and interviews at each site.

I will work with Donna and try to get a draft done by tomorrow.

I have added Nancy and Liz to the email. Nancy is going to cover the IL, ND and CA events and assist with the execution. Nancy is willing to be flexible with her schedule next week to make the 13-15th work for North Dakota – could we possibly have a call this evening to discuss? She and I can make it work into the evening (as long as multi-tasking is allowed since I may be driving at some point).

Also, can we aim for the 28th for SLO? That would allow Nancy to get there from the East Coast on the 27th.

Let me know if we can do a call this evening.

Great to chat yesterday ... glad to be of help and this project.

Can you send me a brief summary of what we are asking from districts? Specifics for visit, video needs, etc.

If I can get that info, I will confirm date for ND visit next week.

Hi Milton,

You are correct, that it is not a piece we would send out to the membership because of its political slant. I considered including the article in Nutrition News, which all members receive unless they opt out. However, our Nutrition News procedures preclude disseminating it based on: "will not include items considered to be commentary, including blogs, letters, columns, and editorials." I think many of our members might consider it an editorial. I will ask Joan to share the article with the Board.

Thanks!

Mary,

Do you have any days available the week of December 4th to do a site visit to a school district? We will make sure you are briefed and ready to go! The visits are about ½ day (thought the school is about an hour from downtown). We are touring the sites and capturing video for use in a Congressional briefing on December 13th.

(See below) I responded to this gentleman and encouraged him to contact the Academy on the civility pledge and his other questions about division in membership. He said that he had put out a call to the Academy. I did not comment on any of this except to say that dietitians, like any other professionals, have members that reflect a wide range of experience, roles and perspectives. He also asked about sponsorship and seemed to think the civility pledge had something to do with the division between science-based dietitians and those interested more in social justice issues like hunger and nutrition. I again told him that the Academy was best equipped to answer his questions about sponsorship and what safeguards you have in place to prevent undue influence by sponsors but that the Academy, as a group of nutrition professionals, has always been interested and involved with issues of hunger, food insecurity and other economic issues that would effect food supply and nutrition. Leah McGrath

This is Joe Fassler from the New Food Economy, how are you? I'm writing an article about a divide that seems to be growing among dietitians, with people trying to use the field to talk about larger social and economic issues on one side, and others who feel professionals should just stick with the science. As a prominent voice in the field, I wonder if you might have thoughts on this.

I'm also interested in the "professional civility" pledge just issued by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and whether you think such a thing might be necessary. Do you think that standards of civility have slipped, and are they important? Or is that the academy's way of trying to encourage its members not steer clear of this debate altogether?

Could we find a few minutes to speak by phone? Hope so—let me know what you think!

Thanks,

Joe

A communication from Mary Gregoire, PhD, RD, Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics Executive Director, follows below.

Best regards,
Joan

Joan Schwaba, MS, RDN, LDN

Director, Strategic Management
Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

Greetings from ACEND,

The Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND[®]) is writing to keep you informed of our standards development work. A copy of the November Standards Update is posted on the ACEND webpage: Monthly Standards Update. In this issue the proposed demonstration program research logic model is discussed, updates to the Rationale Document are released and a call for the second cohort of demonstration program applications is issued.

ACEND has made some slight changes to the 2017 Accreditation Standards. The revised documents are available on the ACEND Standards Website at www.eatrightpro.org/2017Standards. Public comments on the revised standards can be made at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2017StdComments> until December 4, 2017.

The monthly Virtual Town Hall meetings are held on the second Thursday of the month at 1 PM Central Time. The town hall provides a time for ACEND to share updates on its standards work and for stakeholders to ask questions. Information on joining the town hall can be found at www.eatrightpro.org/FutureModel.

Please share this information with your constituents/colleagues. If you or they have questions, please send them to acend@eatright.org or call 312-899-4872, so we can respond to them. Future editions of the monthly update will include these questions and an ACEND response.

Thank you.

I was with the Astros when we lost 100 games 3 years in a row. The credit for this win goes to players and coaches. It has been a whirlwind to say the least. A little hectic that all of this was happening during FNCE.

Subject: Academy Honors and Awards Program

This is the time of year when affiliates, DPGs, MIGs, and individual Academy members begin to develop honors and awards nomination packets. Please encourage your colleagues to submit nominations to recognize individuals who have advanced the profession. To learn more about the awards and honors program, refer to <http://www.eatrightPRO.org/nationalawards/>.

Please remember that members of the Board of Directors are not eligible to receive an Academy honor or award. Also, no current member of the Academy's Board may provide a letter of support for inclusion in honors and awards nominee packets (see excerpts from Honors and Awards policy below). If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Barbara Visocan at bvisocan@eatright.org.

Board of Directors Eligibility ^{3/4} No member of the Board of Directors may at the time of honors and awards selection and/or presentation be eligible to receive an Academy honor or award. This includes those on the ballot for the following year; if a Board nominee is elected, he/she is not eligible for an award.

Members of the Academy/Academy Foundation Boards of Directors are eligible to receive a national Academy honor or award after three (3) years upon completing their term of service, with the exception of the public member who may be eligible immediately after completing their term of office.

Letters of Support No current members involved in the selection process for an honor or award, including the Board of Directors, may provide a letter of support for Academy honors and awards nominations. Academy Staff may not write letters of support for National Honors and Awards nominees.

Dear Milton,

Thank you so much for your offer to represent the Academy at the 2018 Nutritionist-Dietitians Association of the Philippines annual conference. We will provide you with a revised Academy Update presentation closer to the date so it is refreshed with new content.

Would you be able to join us on the 4Ps call next Tuesday, November 7 at 11:30am CT? I would like to verbally discuss the role Esther is playing in presenting the 2-day workshop to train dietitians on the Nutrition Care Process. I am asking that Alison Steiber also be on the call. If you are unable to join us I will schedule another call with you and Alison. There are reasons for me wanting to do this verbally rather than in writing.

Again, thank you for your offer and look forward to speaking with you soon!

Dear Pat, Alison, and Donna:

Does the Board have an interest or need to provide an Academy update at the 2018 Nutritionist-Dietitians' Association of the Philippines (NDAP) annual conference?

I am going and will present on the topic of consumer education. Since work is covering my travel, two birds with one stone. But I can't recall where the Philippines landed in the Academy's ex-U.S. discussions for prioritization.

Bea Dykes is also working to make space on the program for Chris Vogliano to speak, but it seems his schedule may not allow it for 2018.

We are also supporting a separate 2-day workshop to train dietitians on the Nutrition Care Process. Bea is the organizers. Esther Myers spoke at that last year and will likely do it again for 2018. I provide one hour on communicating with patients/clients whereas Esther and others take care of the rest of the content. It's based on Academy content/NCP.

Sincerely,
Milton

Donna and Jeanne:

I spoke to my contact at the ND Department of Public Instruction and got some good leads (see below). In our conversation, she indicated that ND districts have lots of equipment needs and that grants have been "puny" ($38,000 total for 2017).

Here are three potentially good districts they could all be covered in a two day visit to North Dakota:

- Mission Readiness ... ALL three are near Air Force bases
- Disaster Responsiveness ... ALL three had disastrous flooding in 2009.
- RDN members ... ALL three have RDNs on staff, in at least two cases they are SNS DPG members

FARGO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

- <https://www.fargo.k12.nd.us/NutritionServices>
- Cindy Hogenson and Marilyn Magnusson are RDNs, do not know their membership status

WEST FARGO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

- <https://www.west-fargo.k12.nd.us/domain/102>
- Dana Reith is an SNS DPG member and is big on Farm to School

GRAND FORKS PUBLIC SCHOOLS (one hour north of other districts)

- <https://www.gfschools.org/Page/378>
- Emily Karel is RDN and member of SNS DPG

I would be honored to go to ND to visit these districts as part of this project.

- Best time for me ... November 13 thru 15, possibly 16

Let me know if you need more info,

Hello, Pat.

I'm glad to hear about the presentation materials, and I will confirm with the NDAP organizers that I will be able to provide an Academy update.

I would love to join the call on 11/7; however, I am in a mandatory workshop that day from 8 am until 12 pm Central.

If it works for the group, I'm available 11/7 between 130 pm – 4 m Central.

Sincerely,

Milton

Dear Milton,

Thank you so much for your offer to represent the Academy at the 2018 Nutritionist-Dietitians Association of the Philippines annual conference. We will provide you with a revised Academy Update presentation closer to the date so it is refreshed with new content.

Would you be able to join us on the 4Ps call next Tuesday, November 7 at 11:30am CT? I would like to verbally discuss the role Esther is playing in presenting the 2-day workshop to train dietitians on the Nutrition Care Process. I am asking that Alison Steiber also be on the call. If you are unable to join us I will schedule another call with you and Alison. There are reasons for me wanting to do this verbally rather than in writing.

Again, thank you for your offer and look forward to speaking with you soon!

We are pleased to announce that Erin Bergquist, MPH, RD, CNSC, LD received recognition as Top Innovator in Dietetics Education for her Innovation in Dietetics Practice and Education display titled "Team Based Learning Activities Improve Application of the Nutrition Care Process in a Dietetic Internship." This display was presented during the Innovations in Dietetics Practice and Education session conducted during FNCE® 2017 in Chicago.

The Academy's Council on Future Practice is the organizational unit that sponsors this session during FNCE® each year. In its ninth year, the session recognizes educator contributions to the profession of nutrition and dietetics. Erin Bergquist was selected by a panel of judges to receive this recognition.

The Council on Future Practice sponsors this inspirational session for members to showcase their innovations. The goal of the session is to provide an outlet for educators and practitioners to present their best ideas and innovations that will keep the profession consistently moving forward. Please join us in congratulating Erin Bergquist for her contribution to keep the profession of nutrition and dietetics moving forward into the future. She is a model of excellence for our membership and hope that you will share her story of achievement.

It was certainly their year after all the trauma for the city and residents. Know how you must feel as have been a Cub fan my entire life. Want to see the ring--saw the Cub one and it is UNBELIEVABLE!!! I'm sure the Astro's will have one just as nice if not nicer.

Congrats to you, your team and the entire Houston area. Well deserved.

Dear Pat, Alison, and Donna:

Does the Board have an interest or need to provide an Academy update at the 2018 Nutritionist-Dietitians' Association of the Philippines (NDAP) annual conference?

I am going and will present on the topic of consumer education. Since work is covering my travel, two birds with one stone. But I can't recall where the Philippines landed in the Academy's ex-U.S. discussions for prioritization.

Bea Dykes is also working to make space on the program for Chris Vogliano to speak, but it seems his schedule may not allow it for 2018.

We are also supporting a separate 2-day workshop to train dietitians on the Nutrition Care Process. Bea is the organizers. Esther Myers spoke at that last year and will likely do it again for 2018. I provide one hour on communicating with patients/clients whereas Esther and others take care of the rest of the content. It's based on Academy content/NCP.

Sincerely,
Milton

You are receiving this message on behalf of one of our member advantage partners, Mercer.

YOUR INCOME IS THE FUEL THAT DRIVES YOUR FINANCIAL ENGINE.

You need to help protect it.

That's why the Group Disability Income Insurance Plan for members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics could be critical to your personal financial future.

After all...what would the lost income mean to you, your family, your savings and your lifestyle if an illness or accident took you out of work for 6...9...12 months or more? How quickly would you run through the savings it's taken you a lifetime to build?

This very real financial risk is precisely why the Group Disability Income Insurance Plan was made available. It's designed to provide the income you need to help cover expenses during a disability.

I know it's easy to put off a decision like this, but please don't. Before you do, consider that you could become disabled at any time - and for more than just a few months.

So if you think you're protected from a disability, you should think again. I urge you to take action now.

Plan Features and Advantages:

- Provides own occupation vs. any job
- Pays for covered Sickness or Injuries

- Affordable group rates vs. individual rates
- Benefit checks start quickly, after just 60 days

Hi Donna,

We are pleased to include you on the agenda for the Idaho Academy's 2018 Annual Meeting in Sun Valley on Friday, April 20 at the Sun Valley Resort. Your sessions are scheduled at the following times: 7:30am-8:15am (Academy update) and 9:00am-10:00am (opening session)

Please complete our speaker agreement found at the following link no later than Wednesday, November 15: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/N8FMWLC>

Items to note before completing the agreement:

- We would like your session to meet the following criteria: Level II: Assumes that the participant has general knowledge of the literature and professional practice within the area(s) covered. The focus of the activity is to enhance knowledge and application of the participant.
- You will be asked to include information specific to your presentation in the agreement, including: session title, description, and learning objectives. You will want to draft these before starting the agreement.

- I will return a PDF copy of the speaker agreement to you after you have submitted it with all fields completed.

I have attached two documents that will be useful resources as you prepare your presentation*.

You will see there is an expectation that speakers will focus more on facilitating discussion and opportunities for interaction rather than lecturing to the audience. The conference theme is, "Building Bridges: Celebrating 70 Years of the Idaho Academy of Nutrition &Dietetics"--this year's event is a celebration! We're hopeful sessions will be lively and engaging.

*TedX talks are much shorter than presentations at the Annual Meeting, but the guidance offered in their speaker guide is something you'll likely find helpful.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Thanks!

Jill

Hi Judy

Good to chat yesterday.

Follow-up comment: A few years ago I suggested that the Academy create some guidelines or criteria for dietary supplement companies who exhibit. I know they banned supplement companies for years, and then allowed them to exhibit. Some companies are clearly better than others, and some deserve to exhibit.

I suggested that the quality or content of materials being distributed be reviewed or approved. I mentioned this to Diane or someone she referred me to, and they replied that they didn't do that.

At present, dietitians are given the same information that is given to consumers and used in marketing. Is it quality information and evidence based? Who knows. Are they providing materials to RDNs that is marketing hype and misleading? Yes. Maybe not all of the companies but basing practice decisions on marketing hype is a problem. RDNs are not trained to know the difference, and if the Academy allows these materials to be distributed, doesn't that infer they are credible?

I know of major trade shows – not academic meetings – that approve all the materials that are distributed.

I put effort into reaching the right people on this years ago, and nothing happened. It needs to be addressed.

Gretchen

This is the time of year when affiliates, DPGs, MIGs, and individual Academy members begin to develop honors and awards nomination packets. Please encourage your colleagues to submit nominations to recognize individuals who have advanced the profession. To learn more about the awards and honors program, refer to <http://www.eatrightPRO.org/nationalawards/>.

Please remember that members of the Board of Directors are not eligible to receive an Academy honor or award. Also, no current member of the Academy's Board may provide a letter of support for inclusion in honors and awards nominee packets (see excerpts from Honors and Awards policy below). If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Barbara Visocan at bvisocan@eatright.org.

Board of Directors Eligibility ^{3/4} No member of the Board of Directors may at the time of honors and awards selection and/or presentation be eligible to receive an Academy honor or award. This includes those on the ballot for the following year; if a Board nominee is elected, he/she is not eligible for an award.

Members of the Academy/Academy Foundation Boards of Directors are eligible to receive a national Academy honor or award after three (3) years upon completing their term of service, with the exception of the public member who may be eligible immediately after completing their term of office.

Letters of Support No current members involved in the selection process for an honor or award, including the Board of Directors, may provide a letter of support for Academy honors and awards nominations. Academy Staff may not write letters of support for National Honors and Awards nominees.

The Academy/CDR Code of Ethics for the Profession of Nutrition and Dietetics is an enforceable code—unlike some associations which have aspirational codes. A CDR and Academy Board disciplinary process governs how each submitted ethics complaint is handled by the Ethics Committee. Sanctions over the years have ranged from mandatory participation in continuing professional education units to suspension of registration or revocation of credential. It is a confidential process and hence the leaders or other members to whom you've spoken would not be aware of the sanctions taken.

The Code of Ethics is currently under revision. Look for updates and the final, revised code and disciplinary process in upcoming Academy/CDR communications.

Hope this helps.

Hi, Donna, thanks for your reply and the explanations. This however does not change one of my observations, i.e. you cannot have a closed "community" on Twitter and you cannot control how people interact. Addressing the message and not attacking the messenger are an important component in taking a stand for science.

I also appreciated your recommendation to use the avenue of filing an ethics complaint, however, many, including those I would consider "in the know" who have had elected positions with/for the Academy have told me frankly that filing an ethics complaint is a waste of time. Is that not the case? Will the process be changed? I know of dietitians who have written to me about fellow dietitians at the state level who regularly share misinformation (e.g. health benefits of raw milk) but will not file any sort of complaint with their state dietetics association or licensure because they know their name will be shared with the very person they have concerns about. I have also heard from those who have filed ethics complaints about fellow dietitians and as far as they know there has never been any action taken by the Academy. I realize that the Academy is not an enforcement agency but to hold out in this Civility Pledge the idea of being able to file an ethics complaint as a resource that is not really actionable seems misleading.

I work for a multi-billion dollar company and we have a confidential and anonymous reporting structure and method when there are issues of harassment. Does the Academy offer this when Academy members are concerned about ethics violations and individuals spreading inaccurate information? If not, perhaps this should be considered.

Looking through those that have signed the "pledge" I can only hope the hypocrisy of Chris Vogliano and Abby Langer signing the "pledge" does not escape those who designed it. I am happy to send screen shots of Chris asking other dietitians to send screenshots so he can file an ethics complaint about me and Abby complaining I had bullied her - both on Dietitians on the Blog. Well, one can hope that perhaps they will indeed behave in a more civil manner. Carole Bartolloto has attacked many scientists and others on social media, myself included, who support GMO... Jan Patenaude is well known for spreading misinformation about LEAP and MRT and harassing individuals on Facebook groups and list serves (NE) . Another signer, Rebecca Subbiah a former Stone Soup blogger, years ago posted a video featuring screenshots of my tweets featuring my photo on YouTube that I was able to have YouTube pull down for bullying.

So this only leads me to question the honesty of many of those "pledging". or maybe we should just hope for the best moving forward?

Leah,

Thank you for sharing your experiences and thoughtful questions.

The decision to roll out the pledge via the magazine platform was informed by two key factors: First, Food & Nutrition has a long-standing “SocialPro” series that covers professionalism in social media and cyberbullying. The magazine also hosts the popular guest blogs Stone Soup, Student Scoop and The Feed, which include social media components designed to foster positive engagement and community. Second, launching through the magazine helped reinforce the distinction between the pledge — which is a voluntary commitment to professional and courteous communications — and the Academy’s Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics.

The Pledge of Professional Civility does not replace the Code of Ethics, but complements the Code by supporting the tenet that nutrition and dietetics practitioners demonstrate respect for the values, rights, knowledge and skills of colleagues and other professionals.

Regarding your concern about free speech, the voluntary pledge does not seek to dictate how a nutrition and dietetics practitioner can behave, but provides guiding principles for how we should behave as professionals and colleagues. For example, if an individual believes fellow practitioners may cause patients or consumers harm through their social media content, an appropriate action is to file a complaint with the ethics committee and allow the process to take it from there. Continuously calling out fellow practitioners in a misguided attempt to “correct” them would not be appropriate. Unfortunately, this is the sort of experience reported by Academy members representing many different perspectives and opinions. (You mentioned some examples yourself!)

As you note, there was a clear need for a campaign addressing professional civility in social media among the nutrition and dietetics community. The Board of Directors approved Food & Nutrition’s concept during its September meeting and the Pledge of Professional Civility was developed with the support of respected key influencers in the community. It is clearly stated on the site that pledgers “will be listed on this site and/or in Food & Nutrition Magazine® as having made a public declaration of support for respect and civil discourse among the profession.”

The Pledge of Professional Civility encourages behavior that is becoming of the profession, and discourages behavior that dishonors the profession. It is a voluntary commitment that has no bearing on the maintenance of one’s credential, and one should not feel obligated to take the pledge if it does not align with one’s own values.

Thank you again for reaching out.

Subject: Why I won't be signing the Civility Pledge

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,
 - * once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.
 - *You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech
 - *How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?
 - *If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?

5. free speech

6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

He is not an member but is an RDN ; you don't need to be a member. We have a lot of non member RDNs who need to sign it.

They're the ones we worry about not complying with protocols and standards since they're not always up on best or latest practices. It was hard for Andy to tell others to drop their membership- he was actually called out by his colleagues on why he was maintaining his status.

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Emergency Resources for Puerto Rico

Important disaster relief legislation passed by Congress is heading to President Trump's desk for his signature into law, including $1.27 billion in disaster nutrition assistance for Puerto Rico. The Academy joined national public health organizations in urging swift passage of the bill.

New Report Showcases How Budget Cuts Hurt Hungry Seniors

A report by NDD United titled "Faces of Austerity 2.0: How Budget Cuts Continue to Make Us Sicker, Poorer and Less Secure" highlights federal government programs that help ensure older Americans can eat healthful and nutritious meals. The Older Americans Act creates three major funding streams that support states and tribal organizations in addressing hunger among seniors. The Academy served as a reviewer for the draft document and attended the Capitol Hill briefing following the report's release.

Academy Participates in National Obesity Care Week

The Academy is participating in the third annual National Obesity Care Week, which ends November 4. This national awareness campaign focuses on the need for respectful and comprehensive care for anyone affected by obesity. Members can participate by asking senators and representatives to cosponsor the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830).

Senate Passes Academy's Centennial Resolution

The Senate passed S. Res. 75, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial. A companion measure, H. Res. 161 is gaining support in the House of Representatives. Help secure the support of your representatives by asking them to cosponsor this exciting measure. The Academy applauds the advocacy support of our members who reached out to their members of Congress.

Academy Urges Congress to Protect Historic Investment in Prevention

The House of Representatives is expected to vote this week on a bill to reauthorize several federal health programs, including the Children's Health Insurance program, but would use the Prevention and Public Health Fund to pay for the cost of these programs. The Academy continues to oppose this approach, as the Prevention Fund provides critical support for interventions led by food and nutrition professionals to improve community health. These jobs would disappear without this investment. The Academy recommended that Congress find a bipartisan solution to fund these important programs before funding runs out at the end of the year.

CPE CORNER

Nutrition-Focused Physical Exam Hands-On Training Workshop

The Academy has developed an interactive, hands-on training workshop to provide registered dietitian nutritionists with skills and knowledge to perform nutrition-focused physical exam skills in the workplace and aid in the nutrition diagnosis of malnutrition. Here is Bailey Weiner's contact information. She was a great intern for us soon surprise she was a leader with the recent hurricane. She also has a colleague who helped a dietetic student.

I am trying to track down a food bank member. Also thought a member working with senior meals might have a story?

How is your week?

Thanks for the update. Interesting how she sees her colleagues as bullies but not herself. I find it troubling that this individual would spend so much time and energy pointing her finger at colleagues providing misinformation. perhaps she should direct her energy to "others" that are the real peddlers of misinformation and support her colleagues. As a former state license chair all complaints are investigated but our investigators are looking for harm! Sorry to say general misinformation is not always "harmful" so the complaints don't go further. Maybe that's what she feels is a waste of time.

This is just too much!!

Hi, Donna, thanks for your reply and the explanations. This however does not change one of my observations, i.e. you cannot have a closed "community" on Twitter and you cannot control how people interact. Addressing the message and not attacking the messenger are an important component in taking a stand for science.

I also appreciated your recommendation to use the avenue of filing an ethics complaint, however, many, including those I would consider "in the know" who have had elected positions with/for the Academy have told me frankly that filing an ethics complaint is a waste of time. Is that not the case? Will the process be changed? I know of dietitians who have written to me about fellow dietitians at the state level who regularly share misinformation (e.g. health benefits of raw milk) but will not file any sort of complaint with their state dietetics association or licensure because they know their name will be shared with the very person they have concerns about. I have also heard from those who have filed ethics complaints about fellow dietitians and as far as they know there has never been any action taken by the Academy. I realize that the Academy is not an enforcement agency but to hold out in this Civility Pledge the idea of being able to file an ethics complaint as a resource that is not really actionable seems misleading.

I work for a multi-billion dollar company and we have a confidential and anonymous reporting structure and method when there are issues of harassment. Does the Academy offer this when

Academy members are concerned about ethics violations and individuals spreading inaccurate information? If not, perhaps this should be considered.

Looking through those that have signed the "pledge" I can only hope the hypocrisy of Chris Vogliano and Abby Langer signing the "pledge" does not escape those who designed it. I am happy to send screen shots of Chris asking other dietitians to send screenshots so he can file an ethics complaint about me and Abby complaining I had bullied her - both on Dietitians on the Blog. Well, one can hope that perhaps they will indeed behave in a more civil manner. Carole Bartolloto has attacked many scientists and others on social media, myself included, who support GMO... Jan Patenaude is well known for spreading misinformation about LEAP and MRT and harassing individuals on Facebook groups and list serves (NE) . Another signer, Rebecca Subbiah a former Stone Soup blogger, years ago posted a video featuring screenshots of my tweets featuring my photo on YouTube that I was able to have YouTube pull down for bullying.

So this only leads me to question the honesty of many of those "pledging". or maybe we should just hope for the best moving forward?

Leah,

Thank you for sharing your experiences and thoughtful questions.

The decision to roll out the pledge via the magazine platform was informed by two key factors: First, Food & Nutrition has a long-standing "SocialPro" series that covers professionalism in social media and cyberbullying. The magazine also hosts the popular guest blogs Stone Soup, Student Scoop and The Feed, which include social media components designed to foster positive engagement and community. Second, launching through the magazine helped reinforce the distinction between the pledge — which is a voluntary commitment to professional and courteous communications — and the Academy's Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics.

The Pledge of Professional Civility does not replace the Code of Ethics, but complements the Code by supporting the tenet that nutrition and dietetics practitioners demonstrate respect for the values, rights, knowledge and skills of colleagues and other professionals..

Regarding your concern about free speech, the voluntary pledge does not seek to dictate how a nutrition and dietetics practitioner can behave, but provides guiding principles for how we should behave as professionals and colleagues. For example, if an individual believes fellow practitioners may cause patients or consumers harm through their social media content, an appropriate action is to file a complaint with the ethics committee and allow the process to take it from there.

Continuously calling out fellow practitioners in a misguided attempt to “correct” them would not be appropriate. Unfortunately, this is the sort of experience reported by Academy members representing many different perspectives and opinions. (You mentioned some examples yourself!)

As you note, there was a clear need for a campaign addressing professional civility in social media among the nutrition and dietetics community. The Board of Directors approved Food & Nutrition's concept during its September meeting and the Pledge of Professional Civility was developed with the support of respected key influencers in the community. It is clearly stated on the site that pledgers “will be listed on this site and/or in Food & Nutrition Magazine® as having made a public declaration of support for respect and civil discourse among the profession.”

The Pledge of Professional Civility encourages behavior that is becoming of the profession, and discourages behavior that dishonors the profession. It is a voluntary commitment that has no bearing on the maintenance of one's credential, and one should not feel obligated to take the pledge if it does not align with one's own values.

Thank you again for reaching out.

Subject: Why I won't be signing the Civility Pledge

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,
 - * once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.
 - *You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech
 - *How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?
 - *If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?
5. free speech
6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

Here is a potential response that Donna could provide:

Leah:

The Academy/CDR Code of Ethics for the Profession of Nutrition and Dietetics is an enforceable code—unlike some associations which have aspirational codes. A CDR and Academy Board disciplinary process governs how each submitted ethics complaint is handled by the Ethics Committee. Sanctions over the years have ranged from mandatory participation in continuing professional education units to suspension of registration or revocation of credential. It is a confidential process and hence the leaders or other members to whom you've spoken would not be aware of the sanctions taken.

The Code of Ethics is currently under revision. Look for updates and the final, revised code and disciplinary process in upcoming Academy/CDR communications.

Thanks so much Pat and Barbara.

He comments about the Ethics Committee were presumably intended to sting and they do. Is the process a "waste of time" because individuals must identify themselves? Anyone who has served on this committee knows well how seriously the concerns are taken and how carefully the process is executed.

Hi, Donna, thanks for your reply and the explanations. This however does not change one of my observations, i.e. you cannot have a closed "community" on Twitter and you cannot control how people interact. Addressing the message and not attacking the messenger are an important component in taking a stand for science.

I also appreciated your recommendation to use the avenue of filing an ethics complaint, however, many, including those I would consider "in the know" who have had elected positions with/for the Academy have told me frankly that filing an ethics complaint is a waste of time. Is that not the case? Will the process be changed? I know of dietitians who have written to me about fellow dietitians at the state level who regularly share misinformation (e.g. health benefits of raw milk) but will not file any sort of complaint with their state dietetics association or licensure because they know their name will be shared with the very person they have concerns about. I have also heard from those who have filed ethics complaints about fellow dietitians and as far as they know there has never been any action taken by the Academy. I realize that the Academy is not an enforcement agency but to hold out in this Civility Pledge the idea of being able to file an ethics complaint as a resource that is not really actionable seems misleading.

I work for a multi-billion dollar company and we have a confidential and anonymous reporting structure and method when there are issues of harassment. Does the Academy offer this when Academy members are concerned about ethics violations and individuals spreading inaccurate information? If not, perhaps this should be considered.

Looking through those that have signed the "pledge" I can only hope the hypocrisy of Chris Vogliano and Abby Langer signing the "pledge" does not escape those who designed it. I am happy to send screen shots of Chris asking other dietitians to send screenshots so he can file an ethics complaint about me and Abby complaining I had bullied her - both on Dietitians on the Blog. Well, one can hope that perhaps they will indeed behave in a more civil manner. Carole Bartolloto has attacked many scientists and others on social media, myself included, who support GMO... Jan Patenaude is well known for spreading misinformation about LEAP and MRT and harassing individuals on Facebook groups and list serves (NE) . Another signer, Rebecca Subbiah a former Stone Soup blogger, years ago posted a video featuring screenshots of my tweets featuring my photo on YouTube that I was able to have YouTube pull down for bullying.

So this only leads me to question the honesty of many of those "pledging". or maybe we should just hope for the best moving forward?

I realize that the Academy is not an enforcement agency but to hold out in this Civility Pledge the idea of being able to file an ethics complaint as a resource that is not really actionable seems misleading.

I work for a multi-billion dollar company and we have a confidential and anonymous reporting structure and method when there are issues of harassment. Does the Academy offer this when Academy members are concerned about ethics violations and individuals spreading inaccurate information? If not, perhaps this should be considered.

Looking through those that have signed the "pledge" I can only hope the hypocrisy of Chris Vogliano and Abby Langer signing the "pledge" does not escape those who designed it. I am happy to send screen shots of Chris asking other dietitians to send screenshots so he can file an ethics complaint about me and Abby complaining I had bullied her - both on Dietitians on the Blog. Well, one can hope that perhaps they will indeed behave in a more civil manner. Carole Bartolloto has attacked many scientists and others on social media, myself included, who support GMO... Jan Patenaude is well known for spreading misinformation about LEAP and MRT and harassing individuals on Facebook groups and listservs (NE) . Another signer, Rebecca Subbiah a former Stone Soup blogger, years ago posted a video featuring screenshots of my tweets featuring my photo on YouTube that I was able to have YouTube pull down for bullying.

So this only leads me to question the honesty of many of those "pledging". or maybe we should just hope for the best moving forward?

Leah,

Thank you for sharing your experiences and thoughtful questions.

The decision to roll out the pledge via the magazine platform was informed by two key factors: First, Food & Nutrition has a long-standing "SocialPro" series that covers professionalism in social media and cyberbullying. The magazine also hosts the popular guest blogs Stone Soup, Student Scoop and The Feed, which include social media components designed to foster positive engagement and community. Second, launching through the magazine helped reinforce the distinction between the pledge — which is a voluntary commitment to professional and courteous communications — and the Academy's Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics.

The Pledge of Professional Civility does not replace the Code of Ethics, but complements the Code by supporting the tenet that nutrition and dietetics practitioners demonstrate respect for the values, rights, knowledge and skills of colleagues and other professionals.

Regarding your concern about free speech, the voluntary pledge does not seek to dictate how a nutrition and dietetics practitioner can behave, but provides guiding principles for how we should behave as professionals and colleagues. For example, if an individual believes fellow practitioners may cause patients or consumers harm through their social media content, an appropriate action is to file a complaint with the ethics committee and allow the process to take it from there. Continuously calling out fellow practitioners in a misguided attempt to “correct” them would not be appropriate. Unfortunately, this is the sort of experience reported by Academy members representing many different perspectives and opinions. (You mentioned some examples yourself!)

As you note, there was a clear need for a campaign addressing professional civility in social media among the nutrition and dietetics community. The Board of Directors approved Food & Nutrition's concept during its September meeting and the Pledge of Professional Civility was developed with the support of respected key influencers in the community. It is clearly stated on the site that pledgers “will be listed on this site and/or in Food & Nutrition Magazine® as having made a public declaration of support for respect and civil discourse among the profession.”

The Pledge of Professional Civility encourages behavior that is becoming of the profession, and discourages behavior that dishonors the profession. It is a voluntary commitment that has no bearing on the maintenance of one's credential, and one should not feel obligated to take the pledge if it does not align with one's own values.

Subject: Why I won't be signing the Civility Pledge

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,
 - * once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.
 - *You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech
 - *How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?
 - *If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?
5. free speech
6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

Hi, Donna, thanks for your reply and the explanations. This however does not change one of my observations, i.e. you cannot have a closed "community" on Twitter and you cannot control how people interact. Addressing the message and not attacking the messenger are an important component in taking a stand for science.

I also appreciated your recommendation to use the avenue of filing an ethics complaint, however, many, including those I would consider "in the know" who have had elected positions with/for the Academy have told me frankly that filing an ethics complaint is a waste of time. Is that not the case? Will the process be changed? I know of dietitians who have written to me about fellow dietitians at the state level who regularly share misinformation (e.g. health benefits of raw milk) but will not file any sort of complaint with their state dietetics association or licensure because they know their name will be shared with the very person they have concerns about. I have also heard from those who have filed ethics complaints about fellow dietitians and as far as they know there has never been any action taken by the Academy. I realize that the Academy is not an enforcement agency but to hold out in this Civility Pledge the idea of being able to file an ethics complaint as a resource that is not really actionable seems misleading.

Senate Approves Centennial Resolution

On Monday, the Senate unanimously approved the centennial resolution (S. Res. 75) which recognizes the 100th anniversary the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Happy Anniversary and Happy Halloween!

New Report Showcases How Budget Cuts Hurt Hungry Seniors

NDD United recently released a report, "Faces of Austerity 2.0: How Budget Cuts Continue to Make Us Sicker, Poorer, and Less Secure" that highlighted the federal government programs that help ensure older Americans can eat healthy and nutritious meals. The Academy is a member of the NDD United coalition that is working to save programs like the Older Americans Act from devastating budget cuts. The Older Americans Act creates three major funding streams that help support states and tribal organizations that help fight hunger among seniors. The Academy served as a reviewer for the draft document and attended a Capitol Hill briefing following the release of the report.

Senate HELP Committee Heard Mixed Testimony on Corporate Wellness Programs

The Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) heard testimony from several Corporate (employee) Wellness Programs. Wellness Programs like the Cleveland Clinic expressed their support for the programs, while others said it was burdensome to provide detailed health and medical information, including weight and blood pressure. The Academy is committed to ensuring that wellness programs enabled by the Affordable Care Act, including those offering incentives for improved health, are designed to be non-discriminatory and demonstrably effective. Registered dietitian nutritionists and nutrition and dietetic technicians, registered, are leaders in delivering preventive services in both clinical and community settings and in facilitating and participating in research in chronic disease prevention and health promotion. Interested in learning more about the hearing, click here. Click here to watch the recorded hearing.

Academy Urges Congress to Protect Historic Investment in Prevention

The House of Representatives is expected to vote this week on a bill to reauthorize several federal health programs (including the National Health Service Corp, Community Health Centers and the Children's Health Insurance Program). The Academy supports the continuation of these vital programs. However, the Academy opposes using the Prevention and Public Health Fund to pay for the programs. The Prevention Fund provides critical support for interventions led by food and nutrition professionals to improve community health. These jobs would disappear without this investment. The Academy has asked Congress to find a bipartisan solution to fund these important programs before funding runs out at the end of the year.

Academy Participates in National Obesity Care Week

This week, the Academy is participating in the third annual National Obesity Care Week which ends Nov. 4. This national awareness campaign is designed to raise awareness of the need for respectful and comprehensive care for anyone affected by obesity. A great way for members to participate in NOCW is by contacting your senators and representatives and asking them to cosponsor the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830).

Wisconsin Event Connects Affiliate with U.S. Senators

Wisconsin Academy of Nutrition and Dietetic members shared information about key nutrition legislation including the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act and Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill with Senators Tammy Baldwin (Wis.) and Elizabeth Warren (Mass.) while attending a local fundraising event. These Academy members also thanked Sen. Warren for co-sponsoring the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial during the event which was funded by ANDPAC.

Dietetic Intern Jamie Freier, Dietetic Student Molly Matthiesen, Senator Tammy Baldwin, Senator Elizabeth Warren, Tracey Elmes RD, WAND President-Elect Laura Isaacson RD and WAND Professional Education Chair Amy Giffin RD.

Local Academy Members Invited to Participate in Public Health Fair on Capitol Hill

Academy members are welcome to participate in the Academy's public health fair booth on Wednesday, November 8 from noon to 3 p.m. ET. The event sponsored by the Coalition for Health Funding will be held in the foyer of the Rayburn House Office Building in Washington, DC. This is a great opportunity for members to promote their role in public health and highlight the importance of breastfeeding and the MyPlate initiative, among others. To find out more information, contact Stefanie Winston Rinehart.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post Message

It's not too late to advocate for three important nutrition policy issues. There are currently three action alerts, described in detail below, that require Academy members attention. If you have not already done so, take action on the following:

- 1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – Medicare provides coverage for testing our nation's seniors for diabetes and pre-diabetes, but until a patient is diagnosed with diabetes MNT is not a covered service. Academy members should reach out to members of Congress to gain support for the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124 /S. 1299). The bill, backed by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, would reimburse RDNs for medical nutrition therapy provided to patients with pre-diabetes.
- 2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill – Congress is currently working on the reauthorization of the Farm Bill, which reauthorizes two important nutrition education programs: SNAP Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention grants (SNAP-Ed) and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP). These education programs coordinate to maximize reach and attempt, with limited funding, to meet the need for nutrition education messages that empower families to make healthy choices. We urge Academy members to take action and ask Congress to include SNAP-ED and EFNEP in the Farm Bill. These programs provide targeted effective nutrition education that empowers families to make lasting behavioral change and build skills to manage limited resources towards economic self-sufficiency beyond the short time that a typical SNAP recipient utilizes that benefit.

3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – A new report from the CDC shows that the prevalence of obesity has risen to 40 percent of adults and 19 percent of youth. These stunning statistics are another reminder of the importance of intervention and counseling from RDNs.

There are several ways you can get involved.

Weight Management DPG Chair Eileen Ford, MS, RD encourages you to contact your member of Congress today and ask them to support the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, a bill which will help address the obesity epidemic by providing better treatment options from health professionals such as RDNs. Eileen invites you to join the Weight Management DPG if you are interested in this critical practice area.

Notable mentions: Please join us during the week of October 29 – November 4 in recognizing National Obesity Care Week. We are excited to participate in the 3rd Annual NOCW, a national awareness campaign to ensure anyone affected by obesity receives respectful and comprehensive care.

Take Action --PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Thanks for sharing Liz! Given their name one might speculate why they did not propose such a pledge at the first sign of behavior that did not reflect integrity.

Hope you all are enjoying Halloween! We have seen quite a few unicorns and princesses so far.

Senate Approves Centennial Resolution

On Monday, the Senate unanimously approved the centennial resolution (S. Res. 75) which recognizes the 100th anniversary the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. Happy Anniversary and Happy Halloween!

New Report Showcases How Budget Cuts Hurt Hungry Seniors

NDD United recently released a report, "Faces of Austerity 2.0: How Budget Cuts Continue to Make Us Sicker, Poorer, and Less Secure" that highlighted the federal government programs that help ensure older Americans can eat healthy and nutritious meals. The Academy is a member of the NDD United coalition that is working to save programs like the Older Americans Act from devastating budget cuts. The Older Americans Act creates three major funding streams that help support states and tribal organizations that help fight hunger among seniors. The Academy served as a reviewer for the draft document and attended a Capitol Hill briefing following the release of the report.

Senate HELP Committee Heard Mixed Testimony on Corporate Wellness Programs

The Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP) heard testimony from several Corporate (employee) Wellness Programs. Wellness Programs like the Cleveland Clinic expressed their support for the programs, while others said it was burdensome to provide detailed health and medical information, including weight and blood pressure. The Academy is committed to ensuring that wellness programs enabled by the Affordable Care Act, including those offering incentives for improved health, are designed to be non-discriminatory and demonstrably effective. Registered dietitian nutritionists and nutrition and dietetic technicians, registered, are leaders in delivering preventive services in both clinical and community settings and in facilitating and participating in research in chronic disease prevention and health promotion. Interested in learning more about the hearing, click here. Click here to watch the recorded hearing.

Academy Urges Congress to Protect Historic Investment in Prevention

The House of Representatives is expected to vote this week on a bill to reauthorize several federal health programs (including the National Health Service Corp, Community Health Centers and the Children's Health Insurance Program). The Academy supports the continuation of these vital programs. However, the Academy opposes using the Prevention and Public Health Fund to pay for the programs. The Prevention Fund provides critical support for interventions led by food and nutrition professionals to improve community health. These jobs would disappear without this investment. The Academy has asked Congress to find a bipartisan solution to fund these important programs before funding runs out at the end of the year.

Academy Participates in National Obesity Care Week

This week, the Academy is participating in the third annual National Obesity Care Week which ends Nov. 4. This national awareness campaign is designed to raise awareness of the need for respectful and comprehensive care for anyone affected by obesity. A great way for members to participate in NOCW is by contacting your senators and representatives and asking them to cosponsor the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (H.R. 1953/S.830).

Wisconsin Event Connects Affiliate with U.S. Senators

Wisconsin Academy of Nutrition and Dietetic members shared information about key nutrition legislation including the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act and Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill with Senators Tammy Baldwin (Wis.) and Elizabeth Warren (Mass.) while attending a local fundraising event. These Academy members also thanked Sen. Warren for co-sponsoring the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial during the event which was funded by ANDPAC.

Dietetic Intern Jamie Freier, Dietetic Student Molly Matthiesen, Senator Tammy Baldwin, Senator Elizabeth Warren, Tracey Elmes RD, WAND President-Elect Laura Isaacson RD and WAND Professional Education Chair Amy Giffin RD.

Local Academy Members Invited to Participate in Public Health Fair on Capitol Hill

Academy members are welcome to participate in the Academy's public health fair booth on Wednesday, November 8 from noon to 3 p.m. ET. The event sponsored by the Coalition for Health Funding will be held in the foyer of the Rayburn House Office Building in Washington, DC. This is a great opportunity for members to promote their role in public health and highlight the importance of breastfeeding and the MyPlate initiative, among others. To find out more information, contact Stefanie Winston Rinehart.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post Message

It's not too late to advocate for three important nutrition policy issues. There are currently three action alerts, described in detail below, that require Academy members attention. If you have not already done so, take action on the following:

- 1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – Medicare provides coverage for testing our nation's seniors for diabetes and pre-diabetes, but until a patient is diagnosed with diabetes MNT is not a covered service. Academy members should reach out to members of Congress to gain support for the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124 /S. 1299). The bill, backed by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, would reimburse RDNs for medical nutrition therapy provided to patients with pre-diabetes.
- 2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill – Congress is currently working on the reauthorization of the Farm Bill, which reauthorizes two important nutrition education programs: SNAP Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention grants (SNAP-Ed) and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP). These education programs coordinate to maximize reach and attempt, with limited funding, to meet the need for nutrition education messages that empower families to make healthy choices. We urge Academy members to take action and ask Congress to include SNAP-ED and EFNEP in the Farm Bill. These programs provide targeted effective nutrition education that empowers families to make lasting behavioral change and build skills to manage limited resources towards economic self-sufficiency beyond the short time that a typical SNAP recipient utilizes that benefit.

3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – A new report from the CDC shows that the prevalence of obesity has risen to 40 percent of adults and 19 percent of youth. These stunning statistics are another reminder of the importance of intervention and counseling from RDNs.

There are several ways you can get involved.

Weight Management DPG Chair Eileen Ford, MS, RD encourages you to contact your member of Congress today and ask them to support the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, a bill which will help address the obesity epidemic by providing better treatment options from health professionals such as RDNs. Eileen invites you to join the Weight Management DPG if you are interested in this critical practice area.

Notable mentions: Please join us during the week of October 29 – November 4 in recognizing National Obesity Care Week. We are excited to participate in the 3rd Annual NOCW, a national awareness campaign to ensure anyone affected by obesity receives respectful and comprehensive care.

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Hello Donna,

I hope you had the opportunity to rest up after the excitement of FNCE.

Attached is an invitation to speak at the CNM Symposium in Albuquerque on March 15-17, 2018. You are scheduled to present at the Alabama School Nutrition Association/ Alabama Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics conference on March 14-16 in Birmingham. Please let me know your thoughts and if you would like to appoint a BOD member to attend the CNM Symposium in your place.

Happy Halloween (I bet your grandkids are sporting adorable costumes today)!

Doris and Mac, I know you all are just like me and have not had a chance to take a breath from FNCE. I have had several people inquire about how they could get access to pictures that were taken at FNCE with our professional photographer? I told them I had no idea, but would inquire for them. I wanted to get the pictures of my friends who traveled so far of them meeting Sanjay Gupta after his presentation. I thought by getting the picture that was taken that would be a nice thank you to them.

My second question is that I would really love a copy of opening session to share with my mother. As you recall she is bedridden from a stroke and it would mean the world to her to be able to see me talk about her on stage. No rush on these issues, but I wanted to go ahead and check to see what we could do about getting them.

Thanks!

Unfortunately, the Opening Session video doesn't include the portion with the thank you to the family and friends, but still exudes the wonderful performance you did at each session. I am checking on any professional video/photography and its availability.

Doris and Mac, I know you all are just like me and have not had a chance to take a breath from FNCE. I have had several people inquire about how they could get access to pictures that were taken at FNCE with our professional photographer? I told them I had no idea, but would inquire for them. I wanted to get the pictures of my friends who traveled so far of them meeting Sanjay Gupta after his presentation. I thought by getting the picture that was taken that would be a nice thank you to them.

My second question is that I would really love a copy of opening session to share with my mother. As you recall she is bedridden from a stroke and it would mean the world to her to be able to see me talk about her on stage. No rush on these issues, but I wanted to go ahead and check to see what we could do about getting them.

Thanks!

Hello Ms. Martin,

My name is Levin Dotimas. I am an NDTR and a member of the AND. I recently graduated from Brigham Young University and am currently working as a dining room supervisor for Sodexo in Maryland. I was hoping to cross paths with you at FNCE, but was unable to due the great number of people in attendance. I am writing you to ask how I can be involved in a committee. I am especially interested in the Diversity Committee. As a male Filipino, I feel that I am in a special position to be able to influence other minorities to join and strengthen our profession. I also recognize the need to increase our diversity. I'd love to speak with you about this when you have time. This email format does not allow me to attach my resume, but maybe later when you reply I'll be able to send it.

Thank you very much for reading and I hope to hear from you soon!

Subject: Joining a committee

Hello Ms. Martin,

My name is Levin Dotimas. I am an NDTR and a member of the AND. I recently graduated from Brigham Young University and am currently working as a dining room supervisor for Sodexo in Maryland. I was hoping to cross paths with you at FNCE, but was unable to due the great number of people in attendance. I am writing you to ask how I can be involved in a committee. I am especially interested in the Diversity Committee. As a male Filipino, I feel that I am in a special position to be able to influence other minorities to join and strengthen our profession. I also recognize the need to increase our diversity. I'd love to speak with you about this when you have time. This email format does not allow me to attach my resume, but maybe later when you reply I'll be able to send it.

Thank you very much for reading and I hope to hear from you soon!

Levin Dotimas

Hi Donna,

The Opening Session was recorded and you will be getting a DVD of the Opening Session to share with your mom, as well as the photos. Diane will work with the A/V company to get that to you asap.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Doris

Mac, I went to EatrightPro and was able to see the videos we played at opening session. I was under the impression that you all taped opening session and that I would be able to get a copy of the tape to show my Mom? It looks like my script is there, but no actual video of me presenting? Would that be correct? There is not a tape of me?

Here are the links to the Facebook Live sessions the Creative Media team did for:

- Opening Session: <https://www.facebook.com/eatrightPRO/videos/1585111024865254/>
- Member Showcase: <https://www.facebook.com/eatrightPRO/videos/1586658351377188/>
- Closing Session: <https://www.facebook.com/eatrightPRO/videos/1587855377924152/>

Unfortunately, the Opening Session video doesn't include the portion with the thank you to the family and friends, but still exudes the wonderful performance you did at each session. I am checking on any professional video/photography and its availability.

Talk soon,

Doris and Mac, I know you all are just like me and have not had a chance to take a breath from FNCE. I have had several people inquire about how they could get access to pictures that were taken at FNCE with our professional photographer? I told them I had no idea, but would inquire for them. I wanted to get the pictures of my friends who traveled so far of them meeting Sanjay Gupta after his presentation. I thought by getting the picture that was taken that would be a nice thank you to them.

My second question is that I would really love a copy of opening session to share with my mother. As you recall she is bedridden from a stroke and it would mean the world to her to be able to see me talk about her on stage. No rush on these issues, but I wanted to go ahead and check to see what we could do about getting them.

Thanks!

Hi Levin,

Thank you for your interest in the Honors Committee and the Diversity Committee. I've provided a short explanation of what each committee entails below.

The Honors Committee recommends to the Board of Directors (BOD) recipients for the Academy's national honors and awards. The committee meets via teleconference call (generally four to five meetings annually). Most of the work occurs in February and March when the awards nominations, which have been submitted online, are reviewed and scored. Committee members are also asked to review the nomination solicitation and review process on an annual basis. The resulting award recipients are given a national Academy spotlight and recognized at FNCE® and in the Journal.

Note: We are always seeking an NDTR to serve on the Honors Committee.

The Diversity Committee recommends policies and strategies to enhance the recruitment and retention of, and leadership development for, individuals from underrepresented groups as identified by the Academy. The committee also serves as a resource or partner with other Academy units working on diversity projects while striving to increase members' understanding and awareness of issues related to diversity and cultural competency through activities that support the Academy's strategic plan. The committee meets via teleconference call (generally four to five meetings annually) and once, in-person, at FNCE®.

More information on each Academy committee can be found at:

<http://www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/volunteering/committees-and-task-forces>

Please let me know if you have any questions.

So pleased to hear you are interested in participation in an Academy Committee. I have cc'ed Michelle Paprocki and Matthew Novotny, who will reach out regarding Member Services Advisory Committee, Diversity, and Honors and Awards Committees. An Opportunities to Serve announcement (as Donna has mentioned) will be forthcoming and you will want to submit your name via that method. However, Michelle and Matthew can tell you a bit about the 3 committees that I mentioned above so that you will be able to determine if you want to submit your name for any or all of them.

Levin, Thanks so much for reaching out to me. I am so sorry I did not get to connect with you at FNCE. I am passing your information on to Barbara Visocan at the Academy. She is a Vice President in charge of membership and the diversity committee.

More importantly, please be on the lookout for the link in Eat Right Weekly that will allow you to volunteer to serve on a committee. That link will come out in December 2017. Members will receive the link in Eat Right Weekly to complete an online form indicating a desire to serve on committees and task forces. Please be sure to complete and submit it; the President-elect and Speaker-elect make their yearly nominations using that list. I wish you the best and appreciate your willingness to serve.

Levin, Thanks so much for reaching out to me. I am so sorry I did not get to connect with you at FNCE. I am passing your information on to Barbara Visocan at the Academy. She is a Vice President in charge of membership and the diversity committee.

More importantly, please be on the lookout for the link in Eat Right Weekly that will allow you to volunteer to serve on a committee. That link will come out in December 2017. Members will receive the link in Eat Right Weekly to complete an online form indicating a desire to serve on committees and task forces. Please be sure to complete and submit it; the President-elect and Speaker-elect make their yearly nominations using that list. I wish you the best and appreciate your willingness to serve.

I was hoping to cross paths with you at FNCE, but was unable to due the great number of people in attendance. I am writing you to ask how I can be involved in a committee. I am especially interested in the Diversity Committee. As a male Filipino, I feel that I am in a special position to be able to influence other minorities to join and strengthen our profession. Doris and Mac, I know you all are just like me and have not had a chance to take a breath from FNCE. I have had several people inquire about how they could get access to pictures that were taken at FNCE with our professional photographer? I told them I had no idea, but would inquire for them. I wanted to get the pictures of my friends who traveled so far of them meeting Sanjay Gupta after his presentation. I thought by getting the picture that was taken that would be a nice thank you to them.

My second question is that I would really love a copy of opening session to share with my mother. As you recall she is bedridden from a stroke and it would mean the world to her to be able to see me talk about her on stage. No rush on these issues, but I wanted to go ahead and check to see what we could do about getting them.

Hello Donna,

I hope you had the opportunity to rest up after the excitement of FNCE.

Attached is an invitation to speak at the CNM Symposium in Albuquerque on March 15-17, 2018.

You are scheduled to present at the Alabama School Nutrition Association/ Alabama Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics conference on March 14-16 in Birmingham. Please let me know your thoughts and if you would like to appoint a BOD member to attend the CNM Symposium in your place.

Happy Halloween (I bet your grandkids are sporting adorable costumes today)!

I am working on the Houston RDN's names for you.

More to come.

The other topic we probably ought to spotlight is malnutrition. We could use the RDN's we spotlighted in the videos at FNCE maybe?

Thank you for your email Patricia,

We are very happy with the news, thank you!

I have limited access to email until electricity is restored in the island but I will forward the information to our faculty. We have not been able to have much contact or speak since the hurricane but Profesor Celia Mir has been coordinating the group of students that will go to FNCE. I believe many had their travel arrangements finalized before hurricane Maria so perhaps a large number of them will be there.

I was unable to email before and now I see the deadline to confirm the number of students for the reception has passed. I am not sure if you were able to receive this information from Celia Mir.

Please let me know if there is still time so I can reach out to her.

thanks again,

Subject: Joining a committee

Hello Ms. Martin,

My name is Levin Dotimas. I am an NDTR and a member of the AND. I recently graduated from Brigham Young University and am currently working as a dining room supervisor for Sodexo in Maryland. I was hoping to cross paths with you at FNCE, but was unable to due the great number of people in attendance. I am writing you to ask how I can be involved in a committee. I am especially interested in the Diversity Committee. As a male Filipino, I feel that I am in a special position to be able to influence other minorities to join and strengthen our profession. I also recognize the need to increase our diversity. I'd love to speak with you about this when you have time. This email format does not allow me to attach my resume, but maybe later when you reply I'll be able to send it.

Thank you very much for reading and I hope to hear from you soon!

Levin Dotimas

Leah,

Thank you for sharing your experiences and thoughtful questions.

The decision to roll out the pledge via the magazine platform was informed by two key factors: First, Food & Nutrition has a long-standing “SocialPro” series that covers professionalism in social media and cyberbullying. The magazine also hosts the popular guest blogs Stone Soup, Student Scoop and The Feed, which include social media components designed to foster positive engagement and community. Second, launching through the magazine helped reinforce the distinction between the pledge — which is a voluntary commitment to professional and courteous communications — and the Academy’s Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics.

The Pledge of Professional Civility does not replace the Code of Ethics, but complements the Code by supporting the tenet that nutrition and dietetics practitioners demonstrate respect for the values, rights, knowledge and skills of colleagues and other professionals.

Regarding your concern about free speech, the voluntary pledge does not seek to dictate how a nutrition and dietetics practitioner can behave, but provides guiding principles for how we should behave as professionals and colleagues. For example, if an individual believes fellow practitioners may cause patients or consumers harm through their social media content, an appropriate action is to file a complaint with the ethics committee and allow the process to take it from there. Continuously calling out fellow practitioners in a misguided attempt to “correct” them would not be appropriate. Unfortunately, this is the sort of experience reported by Academy members representing many different perspectives and opinions. (You mentioned some examples yourself!)

As you note, there was a clear need for a campaign addressing professional civility in social media among the nutrition and dietetics community. The Board of Directors approved Food & Nutrition’s concept during its September meeting and the Pledge of Professional Civility was developed with the support of respected key influencers in the community. It is clearly stated on the site that pledgers “will be listed on this site and/or in Food & Nutrition Magazine® as having made a public declaration of support for respect and civil discourse among the profession.”

The Pledge of Professional Civility encourages behavior that is becoming of the profession, and discourages behavior that dishonors the profession. It is a voluntary commitment that has no bearing on the maintenance of one’s credential, and one should not feel obligated to take the pledge if it does not align with one’s own values.

Thank you again for reaching out.

Subject: Why I won't be signing the Civility Pledge

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,
 - * once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.
 - *You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech
 - *How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?
 - *If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?
5. free speech
6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

“The Academy supports National Obesity Care Week because there are still barriers to cost-effective and clinically effective solutions to treating obesity,” said registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy President Donna Martin. “The Treat and Reduce Obesity Act would allow a variety of qualified practitioners, including registered dietitian nutritionists, to more effectively treat this disease, which impacts more than one-third of our nation.”

All,

Below is the draft response. We look forward to discussing at 3 p.m. Central (4 p.m. Eastern). As a remind, the call number is (866) 477-4564 and the meeting code is 47 06 63 11 73. Thank you!

Thank you for sharing your experiences and thoughtful questions.

The decision to roll out the pledge via the magazine platform was informed by two key factors: First, Food & Nutrition has a long-standing SocialPro series that covers professionalism in social media and cyberbullying, and the magazine also hosts a popular guest blog program that includes social media components designed to foster positive engagement and community. Second, launching through the magazine helped reinforce the distinction between the pledge — which is a voluntary commitment to professional and courteous communications — and the Academy's Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics.

The Pledge of Professional Civility does not replace the Code of Ethics, but complements the Code by supporting the tenet that nutrition and dietetics practitioners demonstrate respect for the values, rights, knowledge and skills of colleagues and other professionals.

Regarding your concern about free speech, the voluntary pledge does not seek to dictate how a nutrition and dietetics practitioner can behave, but provides guiding principles for how we should behave as professionals and colleagues. For example, if an individual believes fellow practitioners may cause patients or consumers harm through their social media content, an appropriate action is to file a complaint with the ethics committee and allow the process take it from there. Continuously calling out fellow practitioners in a misguided attempt to “correct” them would not be appropriate. Unfortunately, this is the sort of experience reported by Academy members representing many different perspectives and opinions. (You mentioned some examples yourself!)

As you note, there was a clear need for a campaign addressing professional civility in social media among the nutrition and dietetics community. The Board of Directors approved Food & Nutrition's concept during its September meeting and the Pledge of Professional Civility was developed with the support of respected key influencers in the community. If the Pledge of Professional Civility were to be adapted as an Academy policy or official guideline, an appropriate review process would be identified and implemented. It is clearly stated on the site that pledgers “will be listed on this site and/or in Food & Nutrition Magazine® as having made a public declaration of support for respect and civil discourse among the profession.”

The Pledge of Professional Civility encourages behavior that is becoming of the profession, and discourages behavior that dishonors the profession. It is a voluntary commitment that has no bearing on the maintenance of one's credential, and one should not feel obligated to take the pledge if it does not align with one's own values.

Thank you again for reaching out.

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?

2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?

3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.

4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,

* once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.

*You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech

*How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?

*If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?

5. free speech

6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

Hi, Donna,

The following quote appears in the attached press release concerning our support for National Obesity Care Week and the Academy's urging the U.S. Senate and House to pass the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act. Please let me know if you have any questions or changes to your quote. We plan on sending this out tomorrow, Oct. 31.

Hoping all is well and thank you for a great FNCE!

"The Academy supports National Obesity Care Week because there are still barriers to cost-effective and clinically effective solutions to treating obesity," said registered dietitian nutritionist and Academy President Donna Martin. "The Treat and Reduce Obesity Act would allow a variety of qualified practitioners, including registered dietitian nutritionists, to more effectively treat this disease, which impacts more than one-third of our nation."

Reply-To: Leah McGrath <lam1961@yahoo.com>

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins. This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,

* once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.

*You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech

*How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?

*If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?

5. free speech

6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

Thank you for sharing your experiences and thoughtful questions.

The decision to roll out the pledge via the magazine platform was informed by two key factors: First, Food & Nutrition has a long-standing SocialPro series that covers professionalism in social media and cyberbullying, and the magazine also hosts a popular guest blog program that includes social media components designed to foster positive engagement and community. Second, launching through the magazine helped reinforce the distinction between the pledge — which is a voluntary commitment to professional and courteous communications — and the Academy's Code of Ethics for the Profession of Dietetics.

The Pledge of Professional Civility does not replace the Code of Ethics, but complements the Code by supporting the tenet that nutrition and dietetics practitioners demonstrate respect for the values, rights, knowledge and skills of colleagues and other professionals.

Regarding your concern about free speech, the voluntary pledge does not seek to dictate how a nutrition and dietetics practitioner can behave, but provides guiding principles for how we should behave as professionals and colleagues. For example, if an individual believes fellow practitioners may cause patients or consumers harm through their social media content, an appropriate action is to file a complaint with the ethics committee and allow the process take it from there. Continuously calling out fellow practitioners in a misguided attempt to “correct” them would not be appropriate. Unfortunately, this is the sort of experience reported by Academy members representing many different perspectives and opinions. (You mentioned some examples yourself!)

As you note, there was a clear need for a campaign addressing professional civility in social media among the nutrition and dietetics community. The Board of Directors approved Food & Nutrition's concept during its September meeting and the Pledge of Professional Civility was developed with the support of respected key influencers in the community. If the Pledge of Professional Civility were to be adapted as an Academy policy or official guideline, an appropriate review process would be identified and implemented. It is clearly stated on the site that pledgers “will be listed on this site and/or in Food & Nutrition Magazine® as having made a public declaration of support for respect and civil discourse among the profession.”

The Pledge of Professional Civility encourages behavior that is becoming of the profession, and discourages behavior that dishonors the profession. It is a voluntary commitment that has no bearing on the maintenance of one's credential, and one should not feel obligated to take the pledge if it does not align with one's own values.

Thank you again for reaching out.

Hello Ms. Martin,

My name is Levin Dotimas. I am an NDTR and a member of the AND. I recently graduated from Brigham Young University and am currently working as a dining room supervisor for Sodexo in Maryland. I was hoping to cross paths with you at FNCE, but was unable to due the great number of people in attendance. I am writing you to ask how I can be involved in a committee. I am especially interested in the Diversity Committee. As a male Filipino, I feel that I am in a special position to be able to influence other minorities to join and strengthen our profession. I also recognize the need to increase our diversity. I'd love to speak with you about this when you have time. This email format does not allow me to attach my resume, but maybe later when you reply I'll be able to send it.

Thank you very much for reading and I hope to hear from you soon!

Hi Donna,

I hope you have recovered from a fantastic FNCE! I'm sure that it was exhausting as well as exhilarating. You did an incredible job at the opening session. In fact, it was the best opening session I can remember in the 40 straight FNCEs I've attended! I was nearly in tears listening to Malina sing the National Anthem. I met her on the Nutrition Entrepreneurs DPG EML in 2009 when she was getting her prerequisites to apply for an internship at NYU. She asked a question on the EML and I replied with some references and we continued to communicate. She told me of her transition to a second career after working as a professional actress, singer and model. We stayed in touch and met in person a couple of years later when she came to her first and second FNCEs and sat at my Gala table. I advised her as she applied for her internship, started her first job and then took a second position after staying home with her 3 girls for a few years. She contacted me about applying for the spokesperson position in NYC when it opened this year and I encouraged her to do so and wrote a rec letter. I was so thrilled when she told me she was singing at the opening session. And she did an amazing job.

I also heard that you met my part-time assistant, Adrian Boulter, who told you about one of my other mentees, Tracy Williams, a young member in Chicago with cerebral palsy. I've been working with Tracy virtually since Feb. 2016 and finally met her in person at this FNCE. I also arranged for her to room with one of my former interns! (Those were the two I was having lunch with on Friday at the Hyatt McCormick when you and Mary came in and met them>0 Adrian hasn't told me yet that she spoke to you about Tracy, but Tracy did! When we were out on the dance floor at the Monday fundraiser, Adrian and I got photos with Harriet Cloud and Linda Farr. When I saw you nearby and asked her if she wanted a photo with "the president," she said she already had one. She is my girl!!!! No fear taking opportunities!!

I am just so grateful that you are our president and representing us so well. You have the right approach, communication skills, background and look for the job and you make us, as a profession, look good. Thank you for taking time from your job, life and family to do this job.

I agree that a response is appropriate. I will draft some ideas for your consideration and we can chat at your convenience — although the earlier in the week, the better. It's not uncommon for some members to send inquiries on a Friday night or Saturday morning and then tell constituents that there's been "no response yet" even though it's the weekend.

Subject: Why I won't be signing the Civility Pledge

Reply-To: Leah McGrath <lam1961@yahoo.com>

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins. This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleagues should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,

* once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook ( like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.

*You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech

*How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?

*If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?

5. free speech

6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,
 - * once you post on Twitter your community is the world. Social media encompasses Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest...while there certainly are situations when you could have a restricted "community" on some of these formats, e.g. a closed group on Facebook (like the Dietitians on the Blog page that bullied and threatened me) this is certainly not the case with Twitter. Once you post on Twitter your community is the world.
 - *You cannot restrict someone's right to free speech
 - *How would I know if someone is "fellow colleague" if they, like many dietitians, don't identify themselves as such in their profile?
 - *If someone is posting something that is blatantly incorrect don't we have a responsibility to question this (in a civil, respected manner) so that others watching silently and part of the community are aware that this information may not be correct?
5. free speech
6. Once you "take the pledge" your name is included so now we have a vehicle to belittle those that have not signed it? Is this really productive or a positive way to handle this? Do people know that their names are going to be published?

I appreciate the intent of the Civility Pledge and clearly a discussion on this is needed given what some of our members, like Neva Cochran, Robyn Flipse, Sylvia Klinger and others have been subjected to by members of "Dietitians for Professional Integrity" as well as what vocal advocates of LEAP/MRT have said on-line about members like Milton Stokes and Sherry Coleman Collins.

This type of belittling and harassment has been going on for quite some time on Twitter and Facebook.

You would think that after the bullying, harassment and threats I was subject to by fellow dietitians on Dietitians on the Blog Facebook page in September that I would be the first one to sign on to the 'Civility Pledge' Professional Civility - Food & Nutrition Magazine introduced by F&N magazine during FNCE. On the surface it sounded good and in fact I have no issue with the "pledge" itself, but when I read the Guiding Principles more closely I had concerns:

1. Why was this a Food and Nutrition Magazine initiative and not something put forth by the Academy?
2. We have a Code of Ethics and a revised one in the works, why do we need a "pledge"?
3. Who reviewed this? Typically the Academy sends out these sorts of things for comments/responses/feedback before making them public - but they didn't do that with the pledge - at least as far as I know.
4. I won't sign a "pledge" that includes this "As a vehicle for engagement and connection, social media should not be used for disrupting fellow colleagues' engagement with their communities. Practitioners who feel compelled to question the content of a fellow colleague should do so in a private message, and to recognize that it is the recipient's choice whether to engage in further conversation" Here's the thing,

DRAFT

Dear Academy Sponsors:

On behalf of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Board of Directors, our Foundation and our members, thank you for your sponsorship and support of the Academy's 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo™. More than 13,000 Academy members, speakers, exhibitors, guests and other attendees came to Chicago for FNCE® for the Academy's Centennial celebration. We hope you had a productive and enjoyable conference.

The Academy is grateful for your commitment to our organization and to the nutrition and dietetics profession. We appreciate the time, resources, effort and creativity you put into your events and exhibits, all add immeasurable value to the FNCE experience.

We look forward to continuing our relationship and to working closely together to accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition.

In appreciation,

Thanks Lucille and Donna for these terrific insights.

Thus occurred to me: before every BoD agenda item we ask if there are any conflicts of interest. Now I wonder if we need to ask that same question every time someone (in this case Sylvia, not Bea) approaches us with a "concern", complaint or weighted question.

Too much. I think they have had this conflict before(Bea and Sylvia). We have done our due diligence with a benchmark survey for other like CEO's. As we have discussed Pat you are not at the 97th percentile but just over the mean. We should reiterate our policy that we want to pay our CEO competitively at the mean. We need CEO's with non profit management experience that can handle a foundation and the organization with millions budgetary experience. I would love to compare my presidents travel and spending with hers. She is too much. Can't wait to talk about this but I think we need to craft a message to the former presidents regarding Pat contract renewal and we can ask Steve to help make it transparent and in HR non profit lingo. We need to be ahead of this curve. Thanks, Lucille

Hi Donna,

I appreciate you sharing this. I am surprised because she is always so complimentary and we worked well together when she was Speaker and President. Sylvia is probably not happy with me these days because I won't reimburse her for her non approved international trips she takes. She also asked to be our "International Ambassador" / representative. The same can be said about Bea though. She wanted reimbursement for being Sonja's handler. As our rep to ICDA Sylvia got pushback and was not happy because she never informed the Board about the new international education and accreditation standards . On the other hand she was my staunch supporter when Patti Landers on NDEP attacked me for supporting the NDA and when she questioned my salary. Joan, please have the letter we have re the salary, benchmarking, etc which Lucille used after she received an inquiry as an attachment.. Most of my counterparts in the nonprofit sector do not have a related degree but attain the position by experience and outcomes. Joan, please also attach the release related to my background.. Perhaps my work with Harvard and national election by my peers to chair of NCCA may count with her. How would Sylvia know what the President's budget is? The whole conversation about Dawn is strange too since then President Darlene Dougherty and Dawn's good friend came to the office and walked her out after one year. I know Mary is not copied on this so I look forward to hearing more (wrong choice of words!).

Hi Mary:

I wanted to take a few minutes of your time in Chicago but it was just not possible & probably not the right time anyway.

If I may, I would like to share my thoughts & feelings regarding a talk with Sylvia. As you know, we do travel together. . I would prefer to keep quiet but I need to share this. The reason is because she told me that she spoke (complain) to you about this.

S is not happy about Pat Babjak. She complained about the $400 K salary and her type of college degree. Also that since her presidency, the AND Presidents' expense budget has increased 4 times. Huh? I don't see anything wrong here.

I believe Pat is doing well, is committed to our cause and deserves our thanks.

When Sylvia said an RDN should be the CEO, like Dawn Treatwell, I really got upset. Pat compared to Dawn? And I told her what I thought.

Dawn came to Dayton, OH from Cornell U. She taught at Cornell while her husband was taking his doctorate. Anyway, I was the president of the Dayton district then, and Dawn, the president elect. She created so much havoc at work and at the district that included cancelling a member meeting less than 3 hours before w/o Board approval. She used a "talk" as her own, a Readers Digest item. Lots more.

When Dawn became ADA's CEO, some of us in OH joked about giving up our membership!

I have known Pat for a long time. Even before the Philippine Reciprocity (CDR/PRC) Agreement, when she was the CDR Executive Director. I was the one asked to hand deliver the letter to the head of the Philippine RDs at the ICD in Israel (1992).

I like Pat and am so glad she is our CEO. (Once, I even handed her a plaque from FADAN with an RD behind her name. This, she kept till she became an honorary member.) I believe she has done and continues to do what is needed as our CEO. She is committed. I can go on and on but I think you know what I mean.

It has taken a lot for me to share this and the only reason I do is because Sylvia said she talked/complained to you - and that an RD like Dawn should be the president!

Thank you.

Bea

Dear Julianne,

It was wonderful meeting you and all the students at the School Spirit Award reception! You are the future of the Academy and the nutrition and dietetics profession. I appreciate your interest in volunteering your time and expertise for the Academy. A number of ways for you to serve follow.

- Volunteer to be your program's Student Liaison.
- Apply for a scholarship through the Academy Foundation (available in the spring).

- Consider submitting an article for the Student Scoop e-newsletter and blog.
- Get involved with a dietetic practice group, member interest group or your affiliate.
- Create a mentor profile through the eMentoring system to help other students learn from your experiences.

- Find more volunteer opportunities here:

<http://www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/volunteering/volunteer-opportunities>.

In December 2017 members will be receiving a link in Eat Right Weekly to complete an online form indicating a desire to serve on committees and task forces. Please be sure to complete and submit it; the President-elect and Speaker-elect make their yearly nominations using that list. I am also sharing your name with Academy groups who may be looking for students and/or practitioners to serve on their committee, councils, or taskforces. I will remember your initiative and your interest to serve.

Best regards,

Pat

This is Julianne Epperson, I had the pleasure of meeting you at FNCE this past weekend at the Student Spirit Award. It was an honor to be recognized by the Academy for this award and I am very proud to be a dietetic intern of the Purdue University Coordinated Program in Dietetics.

I am interested in becoming more involved with the Academy and if you could offer any suggestions on the right path to take I would greatly appreciate it. Again it was very nice to meet you and I hope we will stay in touch.

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

Dear Julianne,

It was wonderful meeting you and all the students at the School Spirit Award reception! You are the future of the Academy and the nutrition and dietetics profession. I appreciate your interest in volunteering your time and expertise for the Academy. A number of ways for you to serve follow.

- Volunteer to be your program's Student Liaison.
- Apply for a scholarship through the Academy Foundation (available in the spring).
- Consider submitting an article for the Student Scoop e-newsletter and blog.
- Get involved with a dietetic practice group, member interest group or your affiliate.
- Create a mentor profile through the eMentoring system to help other students learn from your experiences.

· Find more volunteer opportunities here:

<http://www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/volunteering/volunteer-opportunities>.

In December 2017 members will be receiving a link in Eat Right Weekly to complete an online form indicating a desire to serve on committees and task forces. Please be sure to complete and submit it; the President-elect and Speaker-elect make their yearly nominations using that list. I am also sharing your name with Academy groups who may be looking for students and/or practitioners to serve on their committee, councils, or taskforces. I will remember your initiative and your interest to serve.

Too much. I think they have had this conflict before(Bea and Sylvia). We have done our due diligence with a benchmark survey for other like CEO's. As we have discussed Pat you are not at the 97th percentile but just over the mean. We should reiterate our policy that we want to pay our CEO competitively at the mean. We need CEO's with non profit management experience that can handle a foundation and the organization with millions budgetary experience. I would love to compare my presidents travel and spending with hers. She is too much. Can't wait to talk about this but I think we need to craft a message to the former presidents regarding Pat contract renewal and we can ask Steve to help make it transparent and in HR non profit lingo. We need to be ahead of this curve. Thanks, Lucille

Hi Donna,

I appreciate you sharing this. I am surprised because she is always so complimentary and we worked well together when she was Speaker and President. Sylvia is probably not happy with me these days because I won't reimburse her for her non approved international trips she takes. She also asked to be our "International Ambassador" / representative. The same can be said about Bea though. She wanted reimbursement for being Sonja's handler. As our rep to ICDA Sylvia got pushback and was not happy because she never informed the Board about the new international education and accreditation standards. On the other hand she was my staunch supporter when Patti Landers on NDEP attacked me for supporting the NDA and when she questioned my salary. Joan, please have the letter we have re the salary, benchmarking, etc which Lucille used after she received an inquiry as an attachment.. Most of my counterparts in the nonprofit sector do not have a related degree but attain the position by experience and outcomes. Joan, please also attach the release related to my background.. Perhaps my work with Harvard and national election by my peers to chair of NCCA may count with her. How would Sylvia know what the President's budget is? The whole conversation about Dawn is strange too since then President Darlene Dougherty and Dawn's good friend came to the office and walked her out after one year. I know Mary is not copied on this so I look forward to hearing more (wrong choice of words!).

Hi Mary:

I wanted to take a few minutes of your time in Chicago but it was just not possible & probably not the right time anyway.

If I may, I would like to share my thoughts & feelings regarding a talk with Sylvia. As you know, we do travel together. . I would prefer to keep quiet but I need to share this. The reason is because she told me that she spoke (complain) to you about this.

S is not happy about Pat Babjak. She complained about the $400 K salary and her type of college degree. Also that since her presidency, the AND Presidents' expense budget has increased 4 times. Huh? I don't see anything wrong here.

I believe Pat is doing well, is committed to our cause and deserves our thanks.

When Sylvia said an RDN should be the CEO, like Dawn Treatwell, I really got upset. Pat compared to Dawn? And I told her what I thought.

Dawn came to Dayton, OH from Cornell U. She taught at Cornell while her husband was taking his doctorate. Anyway, I was the president of the Dayton district then, and Dawn, the president elect. She created so much havoc at work and at the district that included cancelling a member meeting less than 3 hours before w/o Board approval. She used a "talk" as her own, a Readers Digest item. Lots more.

When Dawn became ADA's CEO, some of us in OH joked about giving up our membership!

I have known Pat for a long time. Even before the Philippine Reciprocity (CDR/PRC) Agreement, when she was the CDR Executive Director. I was the one asked to hand deliver the letter to the head of the Philippine RDs at the ICD in Israel (1992).

I like Pat and am so glad she is our CEO. (Once, I even handed her a plaque from FADAN with an RD behind her name. This, she kept till she became an honorary member.) I believe she has done and continues to do what is needed as our CEO. She is committed. I can go on and on but I think you know what I mean.

It has taken a lot for me to share this and the only reason I do is because Sylvia said she talked/complained to you - and that an RD like Dawn should be the president!

Thank you.

Bea

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

Pat

Erin, I wanted to send you a special thank you for all you did for me and my family at the hotel. I did not realize you had that much interaction with them, but when I got home to Augusta my husband Stan said to me " You know who I was really impressed with?" I said everyone I bet! He said that Erin Cannon was so nice and helpful and always had a nice smile. Thanks for impressing my husband, that is hard to do. Thanks again for always being there to help us get the job done!! Hope you are getting to rest some.

Thank you Pat for you never ending commitment to the Academy, BOD, members and staff. We all appreciate what you do. It seems that FNCE went off without a hitch. Every time I saw you, Diane, Mary, Paul... any of the staff - they were always smiling... busy but smiling. They seemed to have everything under control. That is the sign of a great organized plan lead by a firm and confident leader like you.

It was so special to be a part of this 100th year celebration. It really came home to me when Don said, you will be in the BOD picture when the Academy looks at it in another 100 years. Now that is pretty special!!!

Thanks Lucille and Donna for these terrific insights.

Thus occurred to me: before every BoD agenda item we ask if there are any conflicts of interest. Now I wonder if we need to ask that same question every time someone (in this case Sylvia, not Bea) approaches us with a "concern", complaint or weighted question.

As we have discussed Pat you are not at the 97th percentile but just over the mean. We should reiterate our policy that we want to pay our CEO competitively at the mean. We need CEO's with non profit management experience that can handle a foundation and the organization with millions budgetary experience. I would love to compare my presidents travel and spending with hers. She is too much. Can't wait to talk about this but I think we need to craft a message to the former presidents regarding Pat contract renewal and we can ask Steve to help make it transparent and in HR non profit lingo. Hi Donna,

I appreciate you sharing this. I am surprised because she is always so complimentary and we worked well together when she was Speaker and President. Sylvia is probably not happy with me these days because I won't reimburse her for her non approved international trips she takes. She also asked to be our "International Ambassador" / representative. The same can be said about Bea though. She wanted reimbursement for being Sonja's handler. As our rep to ICDA Sylvia got pushback and was not happy because she never informed the Board about the new international education and accreditation standards . On the other hand she was my staunch supporter when Patti Landers on NDEP attacked me for supporting the NDA and when she questioned my salary. Joan, please have the letter we have re the salary, benchmarking, etc which Lucille used after she received an inquiry as an attachment.. Most of my counterparts in the nonprofit sector do not have a related degree but attain the position by experience and outcomes. Joan, please also attach the release related to my background.. Perhaps my work with Harvard and national election by my peers to chair of NCCA may count with her. How would Sylvia know what the President's budget is? The whole conversation about Dawn is strange too since then President Darlene Dougherty and Dawn's good friend came to the office and walked her out after one year. I know Mary is not copied on this so I look forward to hearing more (wrong choice of words!).

Hi Mary:

I wanted to take a few minutes of your time in Chicago but it was just not possible & probably not the right time anyway.

If I may, I would like to share my thoughts & feelings regarding a talk with Sylvia. As you know, we do travel together. . I would prefer to keep quiet but I need to share this. The reason is because she told me that she spoke (complain) to you about this.

S is not happy about Pat Babjak. She complained about the $400 K salary and her type of college degree. Also that since her presidency, the AND Presidents' expense budget has increased 4 times. Huh? I don't see anything wrong here.

I believe Pat is doing well, is committed to our cause and deserves our thanks.

When Sylvia said an RDN should be the CEO, like Dawn Treatwell, I really got upset. Pat compared to Dawn? And I told her what I thought.

Dawn came to Dayton, OH from Cornell U. She taught at Cornell while her husband was taking his doctorate. Anyway, I was the president of the Dayton district then, and Dawn, the president elect. She created so much havoc at work and at the district that included cancelling a member meeting less than 3 hours before w/o Board approval. She used a "talk" as her own, a Readers Digest item. Lots more.

When Dawn became ADA's CEO, some of us in OH joked about giving up our membership!

I have known Pat for a long time. Even before the Philippine Reciprocity (CDR/PRC) Agreement, when she was the CDR Executive Director. I was the one asked to hand deliver the letter to the head of the Philippine RDs at the ICD in Israel (1992).

I like Pat and am so glad she is our CEO. (Once, I even handed her a plaque from FADAN with an RD behind her name. This, she kept till she became an honorary member.) I believe she has done and continues to do what is needed as our CEO. She is committed. I can go on and on but I think you know what I mean.

It has taken a lot for me to share this and the only reason I do is because Sylvia said she talked/complained to you - and that an RD like Dawn should be the president!

Thank you.

When Sylvia said an RDN should be the CEO, like Dawn Treatwell, I really got upset. Pat compared to Dawn? And I told her what I thought.

Dawn came to Dayton, OH from Cornell U. She taught at Cornell while her husband was taking his doctorate. Anyway, I was the president of the Dayton district then, and Dawn, the president elect. She created so much havoc at work and at the district that included cancelling a member meeting less than 3 hours before w/o Board approval. She used a "talk" as her own, a Readers Digest item. Lots more.

When Dawn became ADA's CEO, some of us in OH joked about giving up our membership!

I have known Pat for a long time. Even before the Philippine Reciprocity (CDR/PRC) Agreement, when she was the CDR Executive Director. I was the one asked to hand deliver the letter to the head of the Philippine RDs at the ICD in Israel (1992).

I like Pat and am so glad she is our CEO. (Once, I even handed her a plaque from FADAN with an RD behind her name. This, she kept till she became an honorary member.) I believe she has done and continues to do what is needed as our CEO. She is committed. I can go on and on but I think you know what I mean.

It has taken a lot for me to share this and the only reason I do is because Sylvia said she talked/complained to you - and that an RD like Dawn should be the president!

Thank you.

Too much. I think they have had this conflict before(Bea and Sylvia). We have done our due diligence with a benchmark survey for other like CEO's. As we have discussed Pat you are not at the 97th percentile but just over the mean. We should reiterate our policy that we want to pay our CEO competitively at the mean. We need CEO's with non profit management experience that can handle a foundation and the organization with millions budgetary experience. I would love to compare my presidents travel and spending with hers. She is too much. Can't wait to talk about this but I think we need to craft a message to the former presidents regarding Pat contract renewal and we can ask Steve to help make it transparent and in HR non profit lingo. We need to be ahead of this curve. Thanks, Lucille

Hi Donna,

I appreciate you sharing this. I am surprised because she is always so complimentary and we worked well together when she was Speaker and President. Sylvia is probably not happy with me these days because I won't reimburse her for her non approved international trips she takes. She also asked to be our "International Ambassador" / representative. The same can be said about Bea though. She wanted reimbursement for being Sonja's handler. As our rep to ICDA Sylvia got pushback and was not happy because she never informed the Board about the new international education and accreditation standards . On the other hand she was my staunch supporter when Patti Landers on NDEP attacked me for supporting the NDA and when she questioned my salary. Joan, please have the letter we have re the salary, benchmarking, etc which Lucille used after she received an inquiry as an attachment.. Most of my counterparts in the nonprofit sector do not have a related degree but attain the position by experience and outcomes. Joan, please also attach the release related to my background.. Perhaps my work with Harvard and national election by my peers to chair of NCCA may count with her. How would Sylvia know what the President's budget is? The whole conversation about Dawn is strange too since then President Darlene Dougherty and Dawn's good friend came to the office and walked her out after one year. I know Mary is not copied on this so I look forward to hearing more (wrong choice of words!).

Hi Mary:

I wanted to take a few minutes of your time in Chicago but it was just not possible & probably not the right time anyway.

If I may, I would like to share my thoughts & feelings regarding a talk with Sylvia. As you know, we do travel together. . I would prefer to keep quiet but I need to share this. The reason is because she told me that she spoke (complain) to you about this.

S is not happy about Pat Babjak. She complained about the $400 K salary and her type of college degree. Also that since her presidency, the AND Presidents' expense budget has increased 4 times. Huh? I don't see anything wrong here.

I believe Pat is doing well, is committed to our cause and deserves our thanks.

Speaker Message

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics is committed to a world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition.

View in browser.

Speaker Message 11 Thank You!

Thank you for an EXCELLENT HOD Meeting! Thank you to all delegates and meeting participants for your enthusiasm, passion, and engagement as we discussed our Championing Nutrition and Dietetics Practitioners in Roles of Leadership in Public Health mega issue and Draft Code of Ethics: Education and Communication Strategies topic at the fall 2017 HOD Meeting. What a productive and FUN meeting!

- The House Leadership Team is currently reviewing the workbooks from the meeting to determine the next steps. Continue to watch the Speaker Messages for calls to action and communications that you can share with your constituents.

HOD Meeting Evaluation Due 11/3

Please check your email from 10/21 for your HOD meeting evaluation survey. The House Leadership Team utilizes the feedback to evaluate the meeting and assess changes moving forward, so we appreciate you taking time to complete the survey.

Online Expense Report

All delegates should be able to submit their online expense reports. Thank you for your patience.

- Here is the Web address for the online system: www.eatright.org/expense. You will need to enter your username and password, which is the same log-in you use for the Academy website. Please review these instructions when submitting your online expense report. Contact the HOD Governance Team if you experience any difficulties or have questions.

Fall 2017 HOD Meeting Presentations

The Academy Committee and Task Force Reports and many of the Academy presentations to the HOD have been posted on the platform. The presentations will also be available on the HOD pages of the Academy's Web site in the coming week.

Pledge of Professional Civility

As you know, Food & Nutrition Magazine® has launched an initiative to help foster community and constructive discourse among peers: The Pledge of Professional Civility. The pledge was announced during FNCE® by Academy President Donna Martin at the Member Showcase and discussed during the FNCE® session on Cyberbullying, presented by Academy President-elect Mary Russell and Past-President Connie Diekman.

- As professionals who are active in social media and communications, you are no doubt aware of some challenges regarding a shift in the online behavioral landscape. Forums such as social media channels and listservs continue to provide positive opportunities for discussion and connection; however, antagonism and negativity also have become more prevalent. The Pledge of Professional Civility is a voluntary, public commitment to the civil treatment of professional peers, including those with whom we may not agree on all issues. Anyone is welcome to take the pledge.
- As Academy leaders, we encourage all of you to review the Guiding Principles and supporting resources, take the Pledge of Professional Civility, and help demonstrate positive, productive engagement among our community.

Submit National Honors and Awards Nominations

Do you know an outstanding role model who has advanced the nutrition and dietetics profession, exhibited leadership, and shown devotion to serving others in both dietetics and allied fields? If so, recognize their contributions by nominating them for an Academy National Award. Submit an intent to nominate by January 15, 2018 and complete the full online nomination by March 1, 2018. Award recipients will be announced in May 2018 and recognized at the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics' 2018 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo in Washington, D.C. Learn More

Hi Mary:

I wanted to take a few minutes of your time in Chicago but it was just not possible & probably not the right time anyway.

If I may, I would like to share my thoughts & feelings regarding a talk with Sylvia. As you know, we do travel together. . I would prefer to keep quiet but I need to share this. The reason is because she told me that she spoke (complained) to you about this.

S is not happy about Pat Babjak. She complained about the $400 K salary and her type of college degree. Also that since her presidency, the AND Presidents' expense budget has increased 4 times. Huh? I don't see anything wrong here.

I believe Pat is doing well, is committed to our cause and deserves our thanks.

When Sylvia said an RDN should be the CEO, like Dawn Treatwell, I really got upset. Pat compared to Dawn? And I told her what I thought.

Dawn came to Dayton, OH from Cornell U. She taught at Cornell while her husband was taking his doctorate. Anyway, I was the president of the Dayton district then, and Dawn, the president elect. She created so much havoc at work and at the district that included cancelling a member meeting less than 3 hours before w/o Board approval. She used a "talk" as her own, a Readers Digest item. Lots more.

When Dawn became ADA's CEO, some of us in OH joked about giving up our membership!

I have known Pat for a long time. Even before the Philippine Reciprocity (CDR/PRC) Agreement, when she was the CDR Executive Director. I was the one asked to hand deliver the letter to the head of the Philippine RDs at the ICD in Israel (1992).

I like Pat and am so glad she is our CEO. (Once, I even handed her a plaque from FADAN with an RD behind her name. This, she kept till she became an honorary member.) I believe she has done and continues to do what is needed as our CEO. She is committed. I can go on and on but I think you know what I mean.

It has taken a lot for me to share this and the only reason I do is because Sylvia said she talked/complained to you - and that an RD like Dawn should be the president!

Thank you.

Bea

Dear Board members,

Thank you for all of your contributions to an incredibly successful and inspirational Centennial FNCE! I am sharing with you a communication sent from me and on your behalf to all staff (see below). Every team at headquarters, even those working behind the scenes such as the mailroom, office services, accounting, and IT, plays a vital role in its success. We will have a pizza party celebration in appreciation sponsored by the Academy and Foundation boards.

Thank you again, and it was wonderful seeing all of you!

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

Donna and Cindy:

For food service equipment people:

- Mike Burke is great. He travels all over the country and is very well-connected.
- Another possibility is JJ Jackson ... School Nutrition Guru at SMART Temps Temperature Management System
- They are actually buddies.

For New York state, here are my recommendations:

- Rachel Murphy, RD, CDN, Director at Syracuse City Schools

•<http://www.syracusecityschools.com//districtpage.cfm?pageid=511>

•(315) 435-4207

•Julie Raway, RDN, BOCES, State President of New York Academy

•jraway@btboces.org

•<http://www.btbocesfs.org/nutrition.cfm> (covers many districts in southern tier of NYS)

•Alexandra TePoel RD,CDN, Victor Central District, Director of Food Services

•This district may be OK with equipment, but she has previous experience in Rochester City Schools

•585-924-3252 ext. 5436

•tepoela@victorschools.org

If you still need more NYS information, you can check with Deborah Beauvais. She has done lots of renovations in her districts ... but will also know about other districts.

Yes ... I hit the ground running ... and am getting ready to come to Georgia. See you Tuesday night for tapas!!

Hope you have recovered from FNCE. I had to hit the ground running.

Cindy and Donna:

Here are my thoughts ... and I can certainly come up with more as necessary:

Georgia - Donna has this one covered

North Dakota or Maine

My first choice is Maine ... because of articulate members. Also North Dakota has used oil $$$$ to modernization in many districts. I could provide contacts if you want them.

•Jeanne Reilly: jreilly@windhamraymondschools.org

•SNS DPG and SNA member, director of year, SNA state president

•Has already worked with Pew

•She can help you find more Mainers if you need them.

California or Pennsylvania

My first choice is in Pennsylvania. I do have plenty of California contacts if you want them.

•Amy Virus, PhD, RDN, alvir@philasd.org

•Assistant Director in Philly Schools where they need lots of equipment

•Certainly Academy member, probably SNA member

•I have several other ideas for PA districts if Amy does not work out.

New York

•NYC Schools are an obvious choice and they have RDNs

•However most of the update large cities have terrible problems with aging equipment.

•I can suggest some folks ... but I need a little more information:

•Do you want only self operators or are FSM companies ok?

Illinois

My first choice is the RDN that made the video I showed at the end of my Cooper Lecture.

- Her name is Sandy Voss and she has two adjacent district Marquardt 15 and Glen Ellyn 41 (which I KNOW needs equipment.
- Sandy is definitely an RDN (and I think an Academy member) as is her assistant Stefanie.

•You can reach her at sandy svoss@d15.us

•If you need more Illinois contacts, Chicago Public Schools has significant modernization needs. The new RDN for CPS was at the Lecture ... but she works for FSM.

•Jill Williams, Karen Greathouse and Carol Longley (all SNS members) would certainly have additional ideas.

This should get you started ... let me know about FSM companies and I help fill in the gaps.

SOOOO wonderful to celebrate with you in Chicago ... see you at Golden Radish!

Hi Dayle,

Hope you had safe travels.

I was in a meeting with Donna this morning and some of the AND PAC team. They are working on a quick time line for an advocacy day in December for “school food Service modernization as part of its Kids safe and Healthful Foods Project” sponsored by a grant from the Pew Charitable Trust.

I’m helping Donna by reaching out to you for a list of school districts that may have some stories on the need of equipment for the varying needs that we have (breakfast, lunch, ffvp, Supper, disaster relief, sustainability, farm to school, etc).

The states they wanted to focus on are:

Georgia - Donna has this one covered
North Dakota or Maine
California or Pennsylvania
New York
Illinois

Please copy us as I can help in reaching out to our SNS DPG members. AND PAC prefers that the school district is represented by an academy member (and we would live it if they are an SNS member as well.

Call me if you have further questions. (678-516-7335)

As you know, Food & Nutrition Magazine® has launched an initiative to help foster community and constructive discourse among peers: The Pledge of Professional Civility. The pledge was announced during FNCE® by Academy President Donna Martin at the Member Showcase and discussed during the FNCE® session on Cyberbullying, presented by Academy President-elect Mary Russell and Past-President Connie Diekman.

As professionals who are active in social media and communications, you are no doubt aware of some challenges regarding a shift in the online behavioral landscape. Forums such as social media channels and listservs continue to provide positive opportunities for discussion and connection; however, antagonism and negativity also have become more prevalent.

The Pledge of Professional Civility is a voluntary, public commitment to the civil treatment of professional peers, including those with whom we may not agree on all issues. Anyone is welcome to take the pledge. As Academy leaders, we encourage all of you to review the Guiding Principles and supporting resources, take the Pledge of Professional Civility and help demonstrate positive, productive engagement among our community.

Dianne Polly will also be sharing the Pledge with the House of Delegates this week.

Hi all,

Thank you all for your hard work in planning an exceptional meeting. Our team echoes all of the comments already said. I don't think it's coincidence that we saw the highest attendance on the year the CLL planned a record number of sessions. I've been monitoring the evaluations and I'm confident that many of the CLL planned sessions will score near perfect. I plan on sharing all session scores with you before you start grading proposals. This will give you an opportunity to listen to the recordings to see which sessions scored well and which ones missed the mark.

I will provide the names of the speakers we are reaching out to for anchor sessions next week. In the meantime, please encourage your colleagues and fellow thought leaders to submit proposals for FNCE 2018. The call is open until Nov. 15th. I'm hoping the quality of the program this year can set the bar for proposals for next year (and lessen the burden on the CLL).

You all are amazing! Thanks for making the planning process so enjoyable.

Best,

Lori

Dear group- Many thanks to all of you for your tireless efforts to make this FNCE the best ever! We all know the work associated with planning these sessions, so I hope everyone is getting some rest. Something to think about- since you all are rockstar session planners, do we need to plan more sessions from the CLL?

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

Pat

Congratulations to all.. I was really so sorry to miss this amazing meeting- especially since it's my last year on the Committee for Lifelong learning and I was excitedly awaiting to see how our planned sessions turned out...

Life is always about trying to have a balanced orchestration between our private and professional lives-- A tough task for sure. I missed FNCE because months ago my husband had discretely planned a re-enactment of our honeymoon during this exact FNCE time period. I just didn't have the heart to tell him that I had to cancel his surprise due to FNCE. Seems impossible to believe, but FNCE coincided with the exact date of our anniversary.. So, I am so sorry, but during FNCE I was eating lobsters, ocean front, thinking of you all and our sessions!

So, thank you again to everyone- and to Donna for the kind shout-out. Your presentation was so inspiring and genuine- a true tribute to leadership of the Academy.

Joan- please share my sentiments with the BOD too for me!

Take care everyone,

Hope

As you know, Food & Nutrition Magazine® has launched an initiative to help foster community and constructive discourse among peers: The Pledge of Professional Civility. The pledge was announced during FNCE® by Academy President Donna Martin at the Member Showcase and discussed during the FNCE® session on Cyberbullying, presented by Academy President-elect Mary Russell and Past-President Connie Diekman.

As professionals who are active in social media and communications, you are no doubt aware of some challenges regarding a shift in the online behavioral landscape. Forums such as social media channels and listservs continue to provide positive opportunities for discussion and connection; however, antagonism and negativity also have become more prevalent. The Pledge of Professional Civility is a voluntary, public commitment to the civil treatment of professional peers, including those with whom we may not agree on all issues. Anyone is welcome to take the pledge. As Academy leaders, we encourage all of you to review the Guiding Principles and supporting resources, take the Pledge of Professional Civility and help demonstrate positive, productive engagement among our community.

Dianne Polly will also be sharing the Pledge with the House of Delegates this week.

Cindy and Donna:

Here are my thoughts ... and I can certainly come up with more as necessary:

Georgia - Donna has this one covered

North Dakota or Maine

My first choice is Maine ... because of articulate members. Also North Dakota has used oil $$$$ to modernization in many districts. I could provide contacts if you want them.

•Jeanne Reilly: jreilly@windhamraymondschools.org

•SNS DPG and SNA member, director of year, SNA state president

•Has already worked with Pew

•She can help you find more Mainers if you need them.

California or Pennsylvania

My first choice is in Pennsylvania. I do have plenty of California contacts if you want them.

•Amy Virus, PhD, RDN, alvir@philasd.org

•Assistant Director in Philly Schools where they need lots of equipment

•Certainly Academy member, probably SNA member

•I have several other ideas for PA districts if Amy does not work out.

New York

•NYC Schools are an obvious choice and they have RDNs

•However most of the update large cities have terrible problems with aging equipment.

•I can suggest some folks ... but I need a little more information:

•Do you want only self operators or are FSM companies ok?

Illinois

My first choice is the RDN that made the video I showed at the end of my Cooper Lecture.

•Her name is Sandy Voss and she has two adjacent district Marquardt 15 and Glen Ellyn 41 (which I KNOW needs equipment.

•Sandy is definitely an RDN (and I think an Academy member) as is her assistant Stefanie.

•You can reach her at sandy svoss@d15.us

•If you need more Illinois contacts, Chicago Public Schools has significant modernization needs. The new RDN for CPS was at the Lecture ... but she works for FSM.

•Jill Williams, Karen Greathouse and Carol Longley (all SNS members) would certainly have additional ideas.

This should get you started ... let me know about FSM companies and I help fill in the gaps.

SOOOO wonderful to celebrate with you in Chicago ... see you at Golden Radish!

Hi Dayle,

Hope you had safe travels.

I was in a meeting with Donna this morning and some of the AND PAC team. They are working on a quick time line for an advocacy day in December for "school food Service modernization as part of its Kids safe and Healthful Foods Project" sponsored by a grant from the Pew Charitable Trust.

I'm helping Donna by reaching out to you for a list of school districts that may have some stories on the need of equipment for the varying needs that we have (breakfast, lunch, ffvp, Supper, disaster relief, sustainability, farm to school, etc).

The states they wanted to focus on are:

Georgia - Donna has this one covered
North Dakota or Maine
California or Pennsylvania
New York
Illinois

Please copy us as I can help in reaching out to our SNS DPG members. AND PAC prefers that the school district is represented by an academy member (and we would live it if they are an SNS member as well.

Call me if you have further questions. (678-516-7335)

Congratulations to all.. I was really so sorry to miss this amazing meeting- especially since it's my last year on the Committee for Lifelong learning and I was excitedly awaiting to see how our planned sessions turned out...

Life is always about trying to have a balanced orchestration between our private and professional lives-- A tough task for sure. I missed FNCE because months ago my husband had discretely planned a re-enactment of our honeymoon during this exact FNCE time period. I just didn't have the heart to tell him that I had to cancel his surprise due to FNCE. Seems impossible to believe, but FNCE coincided with the exact date of our anniversary.. So, I am so sorry, but during FNCE I was eating lobsters, ocean front, thinking of you all and our sessions!

So, thank you again to everyone- and to Donna for the kind shout-out. Your presentation was so inspiring and genuine- a true tribute to leadership of the Academy.

Joan- please share my sentiments with the BOD too for me!

Take care everyone,

Hope

Dear Board members,

Thank you for all of your contributions to an incredibly successful and inspirational Centennial FNCE! I am sharing with you a communication sent from me and on your behalf to all staff (see below). Every team at headquarters, even those working behind the scenes such as the mailroom, office services, accounting, and IT, plays a vital role in its success. We will have a pizza party celebration in appreciation sponsored by the Academy and Foundation boards.

Thank you again, and it was wonderful seeing all of you!

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

Pat

All,

I too ditto your sentiment. It was amazing seeing all our hard work pay off. Over and over again, I heard fabulous reviews from attendees in CLL and non-CLL planned sessions. I hope the overall evaluations reflect the reviews we all received personally! Roberta – I think we may want to consider planning additional sessions, but I hesitate to say ‘absolutely’ until we see the session evals from FNCE 2017 and the quality of sessions submitted for 2018.

I also want to thank Gigi, Cyndi, and Hope for your mentorship. It has been a pleasure working with and learning from you all.

Gigi – I hope we hear from you shortly after Baby Hinsley arrives. I know I’d love to have some baby pictures in my inbox along with all of this work!

Regarding 2018, I have an idea for a session....just kidding! Time to relax a bit, right? Looking forward to at least meeting the bar you all just raised so high during FNCE 2017.

Take care everyone,

Meghan

 3. The Illinois RDN I want to spotlight is Meghan Gibbons gibbonsmk@vvsd.org The district is Valley View School District in Romeoville, IL 60446 She has gotten lots of equipment grants and would be thrilled to work with us. She is super eloquent.

Georgia - Donna has this one covered

North Dakota or Maine

My first choice is Maine ... because of articulate members. Also North Dakota has used oil $$$$ to modernization in many districts. I could provide contacts if you want them.

•Jeanne Reilly: jreilly@windhamraymondschools.org

•SNS DPG and SNA member, director of year, SNA state president

•She can help you find more Mainers if you need them.

California or Pennsylvania

My first choice is in Pennsylvania. I do have plenty of California contacts if you want them.

•Amy Virus, PhD, RDN, alvir@philasd.org

•Assistant Director in Philly Schools where they need lots of equipment

•Certainly Academy member, probably SNA member

My first choice is the RDN that made the video I showed at the end of my Cooper Lecture.

•Her name is Sandy Voss and she has two adjacent district Marquardt 15 and Glen Ellyn 41 (which I KNOW needs equipment.

•Sandy is definitely an RDN (and I think an Academy member) as is her assistant Stefanie.

•You can reach her at sandy svoss@d15.us

•If you need more Illinois contacts, Chicago Public Schools has significant modernization needs. The new RDN for CPS was at the Lecture ... but she works for FSM.

•Jill Williams, Karen Greathouse and Carol Longley (all SNS members) would certainly have additional ideas.

This should get you started ... let me know about FSM companies and I help fill in the gaps.

Subject: PRC/CDR Reciprocity

Hello Donna:

First, like to let you know how wonderful the FNCE was!

RE: The CDR/PRC Reciprocity, I have all the information and pictures of the signing somewhere here.

Sanirose Orbeta was the PRC representative who signed the document. She was very active & chaired the PRC BOND. Now, Virgith Buena is the Chair of the PRC Board of Nutritionists Dietitians. Two others (Imelda Agdeppa and Joy Buen Viage) were appointed last year by the Philippine President to make up the team.

Virgith and Mel from PRC and Zhenie Velasco, the NDAP (their AND) president met with you. They were at the MIG Reception, too. Like to have you at the NDAP convention in 2019.

The PRC (Professional Regulations Commission) is the licensing arm of the gov't. It also licenses doctors, nurses, lawyers, accountants, etc.

Chris Reidy has already informed (letter) Virgith of the need for MS degrees in 2023. They also know that the baccalaureate grads can take the exams for NDTRs. I told them about it after talking to Chris a while back. Of course, the supervised practice continues.

My role with it? I was asked by CDR (through Karen Lechowich) to hand-deliver the letter to the Philippine representative at the ICD in Israel. Velona Corpuz was the head of the PH team attending the convention. That was in 1982. Been involved as a messenger or reviewer of correspondences from the PH for CDR especially from the start.

I invited the PH ambassador and other Filipino RDs around the US to attend the signing of the Agreement. Sanirose Orbeta and the ambassador were the signatories for PRC. Pat Babjak and Chris Reidy were present. Sue Finn was there, too. Colleen M (I think) signed the agreement, too. I need to check the record & pictures.

I will be sending copies of the signatories and pictures to Virgith as requested.

Please share with Mary Russell? (I don't have her email address.)

As to whoever told you that you are not friendly just want to make you feel bad. It's not true and we all know that. I wish I saw/met her. You bet, I would have given her a piece of my mind.

Again, thank you.

Hi all,

I loved your story of opportunity Hope and so happy you could enjoy this time celebrating your anniversary!

Thank you so much Cindy, Hope and Gigi for all of your hard work these last three years. We have learned so much from your expertise and you will be missed!

The team did outstanding work not only picking awesome proposals but creating fabulous CLL planned sessions. Kudos also to the foresight to have the anchor sessions we started planning for in 2015 as those, plus the leadership sessions planned by the CLL academy team were a huge asset to the total program.

Rest up as we have more fun coming as we look to 2018 in Wa DC. Let hope we can land some of the terrific anchor sessions we voted for and again receive top rated sessions for our next meeting.

Best,

Christine

I learned years ago that family comes before work/volunteer opportunities. Our families give up so much for us to do these assignments so I am thrilled that you had another anniversary with an obviously loving husband who puts you first in his life.

Hoping you have many more times with him.

Life is always about trying to have a balanced orchestration between our private and professional lives-- A tough task for sure. I missed FNCE because months ago my husband had discretely planned a re-enactment of our honeymoon during this exact FNCE time period. I just didn't have the heart to tell him that I had to cancel his surprise due to FNCE. Seems impossible to believe, but FNCE coincided with the exact date of our anniversary.. So, I am so sorry, but during FNCE I was eating lobsters, ocean front, thinking of you all and our sessions!

So, thank you again to everyone- and to Donna for the kind shout-out. Your presentation was so inspiring and genuine- a true tribute to leadership of the Academy.

Joan- please share my sentiments with the BOD too for me!

Take care everyone,

Everyone on this team did such an amazing job with FNCE this year. All I heard was compliments about the sessions over and over. I am honored to be part of the team, and really excited that this was how we launched our second century. Thanks to Donna for introducing our new strategic plan; I know the CLL will continue to push the envelope into developing nutrition research, untouched topics, and full inclusion so no RD feels a lack of relevant information.

Even when we are not physically together, we are always a team! Looking forward to January :)

Congratulations to all.. I was really so sorry to miss this amazing meeting- especially since it's my last year on the Committee for Lifelong learning and I was excitedly awaiting to see how our planned sessions turned out...

Life is always about trying to have a balanced orchestration between our private and professional lives-- A tough task for sure. I missed FNCE because months ago my husband had discretely planned a re-enactment of our honeymoon during this exact FNCE time period. I just didn't have the heart to tell him that I had to cancel his surprise due to FNCE. Seems impossible to believe, but FNCE coincided with the exact date of our anniversary.. So, I am so sorry, but during FNCE I was eating lobsters, ocean front, thinking of you all and our sessions!

So, thank you again to everyone- and to Donna for the kind shout-out. Your presentation was so inspiring and genuine- a true tribute to leadership of the Academy.

Joan- please share my sentiments with the BOD too for me!

Take care everyone,

Subject: PRC/CDR Reciprocity

Hello Donna:

First, like to let you know how wonderful the FNCE was!

RE: The CDR/PRC Reciprocity, I have all the information and pictures of the signing somewhere here.

Sanirose Orbeta was the PRC representative who signed the document. She was very active & chaired the PRC BOND. Now, Virgith Buena is the Chair of the PRC Board of Nutritionists Dietitians. Two others (Imelda Agdeppa and Joy Buen Viage) were appointed last year by the Philippine President to make up the team.

Virgith and Mel from PRC and Zhenie Velasco, the NDAP (their AND) president met with you. They were at the MIG Reception, too. Like to have you at the NDAP convention in 2019.

The PRC (Professional Regulations Commission) is the licensing arm of the gov't. It also licenses doctors, nurses, lawyers, accountants, etc.

Chris Reidy has already informed (letter) Virgith of the need for MS degrees in 2023. They also know that the baccalaureate grads can take the exams for NDTRs. I told them about it after talking to Chris a while back. Of course, the supervised practice continues.

My role with it? I was asked by CDR (through Karen Lechowich) to hand-deliver the letter to the Philippine representative at the ICD in Israel. Velona Corpuz was the head of the PH team attending the convention. That was in 1982. Been involved as a messenger or reviewer of correspondences from the PH for CDR especially from the start.

I invited the PH ambassador and other Filipino RDs around the US to attend the signing of the Agreement. Sanirose Orbeta and the ambassador were the signatories for PRC. Pat Babjak and Chris Reidy were present. Sue Finn was there, too. Colleen M (I think) signed the agreement, too. I need to check the record & pictures.

I will be sending copies of the signatories and pictures to Virgith as requested.

Please share with Mary Russell? (I don't have her email address.)

As to whoever told you that you are not friendly just want to make you feel bad. It's not true and we all know that. I wish I saw/met her. You bet, I would have given her a piece of my mind.

Again, thank you.

Bea

Doris and Tom,
First thanks for making me look so good at FNCE. My scripts were all great. The HOD presentation was really well received. Your staff are amazing. Tom sorry I never got to see you to give you a big hug.

I thought it might be good to do a president's page on the Dietitians working on disaster relief. For example the Dietitians in Houston who worked in the hospitals over night for days to feed the hospital. The Dietitians that opened their schools to feed the hurricanes victims who had to flee. The Educators that helped the Puerto Rico students get the money together to be able to come to FNCE when the banks were closed. I am not sure how we could bring in the California wildfires, but you might be able to come up with an angle. We could also talk about the $100,000 the Academy gave to the disaster relief fund and ask people to donate. What are your thoughts?

Thank you for your email Patricia,
We are very happy with the news, thank you!
I have limited access to email until electricity is restored in the island but I will forward the information to our faculty. We have not been able to have much contact or speak since the hurricane but Profesor Celia Mir has been coordinating the group of students that will go to FNCE. I believe many had their travel arrangements finalized before hurricane Maria so perhaps a large number of them will be there.
I was unable to email before and now I see the deadline to confirm the number of students for the reception has passed. I am not sure if you were able to receive this information from Celia Mir. Please let me know if there is still time so I can reach out to her.

thanks again,
Elsa

Dear Elsa,

Congratulations on being a winner of the 2017 Academy's Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo™ School Spirit Contest! We hope you are safe and well and realize due to the recent hurricane your students may not be able to travel to Chicago. If you are able to come, please join Academy President Donna Martin, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, and other members of the Academy's Board of Directors for a private reception on Monday, October 23 at the McCormick Place West, 2301 South King Drive, Chicago, room W176AB, from 12:30pm – 1:30pm. Light Refreshments will be served. Please RSVP to Joan Schwaba at jschwaba@eatright.org by Friday, October 13 to confirm the number of students and faculty planning to attend the reception.

Best regards,
Pat

This is Julianne Epperson, I had the pleasure of meeting you at FNCE this past weekend at the Student Spirit Award. It was an honor to be recognized by the Academy for this award and I am very proud to be a dietetic intern of the Purdue University Coordinated Program in Dietetics.

I am interested in becoming more involved with the Academy and if you could offer any suggestions on the right path to take I would greatly appreciate it. Again it was very nice to meet you and I hope we will stay in touch.

Good thought but many of the other sessions were also well received. I would suggest we see what comes in prior to the January meeting and review the speakers and depth of the presentations. Then "go for it" if needed to keep the bar at the level we just set or even aim higher if that's possible. Can you say overachiever LOL.

Welcome home after a very exciting, successful and I'm sure exhausting FNCE and HOD meeting. I want to thank you both for spending time with the committee Chairs and Vice Chairs at the networking event. I don't know if you realized it, but it meant so much to them to have you there. Your presence reinforced to them the importance of their leadership within the Academy and the support of not only both of you personally, but the entire Board of Directors. They know your dance cards are full during FNCE and they truly appreciated having the "dance" with both of you. Many of them took the time throughout FNCE to share their appreciation of your presence with me.

Agriculture

Based on our Second Century plans and our new strategic plan it is imperative that dietetic professionals learn more about the field of agriculture. All of us need to know where our food comes from and how can we as dietitians make sure we have enough nutritious food to feed the growing populations of the world. Children need to understand that our food does not come from a grocery store, but from hard working farmers. Combining nutrition and agriculture into a profession is a natural fit.

1. Communication in ag is Amy Myrdal Miller of California. Amy grew up on a farm and works extensively in agriculture; all types of crops.

2. Actual Farmer is Jennie Schmidt, Maryland. She's an RD farmer. Tomatoes, soy, corn and wine grapes. Used to also farm organically. Jennie serves on several farm/ag professional society boards and also has been an active Academy member serving on many committees, paper development, etc. She's a rock star.

3. Ag Promotion / promoting fruit/veg and working with farmers, produce retail/supermarkets, schools, and much more is CEO and president of Produce for Better Heath, Wendy Reinhardt Kapsak, MS RD. Works will organics and conventional. All types of Ag. All forms fruit and veg.

First thanks for making me look so good at FNCE. My scripts were all great. The HOD presentation was really well received. Your staff are amazing. Tom sorry I never got to see you to give you a big hug.

I thought it might be good to do a president's page on the Dietitians working on disaster relief. For example the Dietitians in Houston who worked in the hospitals over night for days to feed the hospital. The Dietitians that opened their schools to feed the hurricanes victims who had to flee. The Educators that helped the Puerto Rico students get the money together to be able to come to FNCE when the banks were closed. I am not sure how we could bring in the California wildfires, but you might be able to come up with an angle. We could also talk about the $100,000 the Academy gave to the disaster relief fund and ask people to donate. What are your thoughts?

Mail 2017-2018 HOD - New Online Certificate of Training Program: Public Health Nutrition View
Post Message Good afternoon,

Thank you all for a great HOD Meeting! As you may be aware, this week's Eatright Weekly contained information about the Academy's New Online Certificate Program in Public Health Nutrition. Just a relevant tidbit of information after our extensive discussions about RDNs in Public Health!

New Online Certificate of Training Program: Public Health Nutrition

Develop competency and earn CPEUs online with a new program concerning the emerging and exciting area of public health nutrition. The Level 2 program consists of five modules covering the foundations of public health nutrition, developing, implementing and evaluating a plan and more. This program has been developed by the Academy's Center for Lifelong Learning and planned with the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists, Committee for Public Health/Community Nutrition and the Public Health and Community Nutrition dietetic practice group.

Academy Highlights Links: Worksite Wellness and Chronic Disease Prevention

The Academy's recent comments on the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Draft National Occupational Research Agenda focus on the preventive nature of effective worksite wellness measures and emphasize the Academy's support for continued funding for research, vetting relevant resources and sharing best practices and strategies. Since Americans spend 41 percent of their food dollars on eating away from home, the Academy encouraged the CDC to recognize worksite food consumption for its substantial expected contribution to overall nutrition and calorie intake and its effect on health status.

Record Attendance at FNCE: Bold, Purposeful Way to Continue Our Legacy

Attendance at the Centennial Food &Nutrition Conference &Expo in Chicago, Ill., was the largest in the Academy's history, topping 13,000. In her opening remarks, President Donna S. Martin, EdS, RDN, LD, SNS, FAND, said: "For 100 years, the Academy has honored the vision of our founders by working throughout food and health systems to improve the nation's health. And they have continued to evolve, becoming more global and complex. These challenges also create unprecedented opportunities for innovation and collaboration. During our Centennial year, we are working to choose a bold purposeful way to continue this legacy with a new vision for the Academy - one that will not only elevate the profession and expand our reach, but do more to improve health around the world." The text of President Martin's remarks and links to videos that were shown at the Opening Session spotlighting the work of Academy members are available on the Academy's website. Also available is the introductory video of Doris V. Derelian, PhD, JD, RDN, FAND, who received the 2017 Marjorie Hulsizer Copher Award, the Academy's highest honor. Hi, Donna:

Following up on our emails from this morning, we have checked and Cilia Mir, the educator from Puerto Rico who brought her students to FNCE, is not an Academy member. Our practice has been to feature only members in President's Pages (it's one of the benefits of membership). Would it be all right with you if we postpone a page on disaster relief for a future month, and we could in the meantime locate members who were affected and/or took part in recovery efforts. We can check with Juan L. Cruz Colon, the Puerto Rico affiliate president (and a member...!) for suggestions and potentially profile him as well. We could also seek members' stories via communications like Eat Right Weekly.

So for February, would you be OK with us doing a page that you had earlier suggested on RDNs involved in agriculture? (See below.)

Please let us know your thoughts, and we'll move forward. Thank you very much!

Tom

Agriculture

Based on our Second Century plans and our new strategic plan it is imperative that dietetic professionals learn more about the field of agriculture. All of us need to know where our food comes from and how can we as dietitians make sure we have enough nutritious food to feed the growing populations of the world. Children need to understand that our food does not come from a grocery store, but from hard working farmers. Combining nutrition and agriculture into a profession is a natural fit.

1. Communication in ag is Amy Myrdal Miller of California. Amy grew up on a farm and works extensively in agriculture; all types of crops.

2. Actual Farmer is Jennie Schmidt, Maryland. She's an RD farmer. Tomatoes, soy, corn and wine grapes. Used to also farm organically. Jennie serves on several farm/ag professional society boards and also has been an active Academy member serving on many committees, paper development, etc. She's a rock star.

3. Ag Promotion / promoting fruit/veg and working with farmers, produce retail/supermarkets, schools, and much more is CEO and president of Produce for Better Health, Wendy Reinhardt Kapsak, MS RD. Works with organics and conventional. All types of Ag. All forms fruit and veg.

Hi, Donna: Thank you very much, and congratulations on a fantastic FNCE. I was at your Opening Session speech and you did an amazing job! We're glad to know we were able to help in any way we could. (And I'll pencil in a delayed hug for the next time we see you...!)

We would be glad to help with a president's page on RDNs involved in disaster relief. It's a great and timely topic and shows what our members can do for people under the most trying of circumstances. Are there specific members you would like us to spotlight? I saw a photo on Facebook of you and Pat meeting at FNCE with an educator from Puerto Rico. If you can please send us the names of anyone you'd like to feature in the article, we will be glad to contact them.

I will be on vacation for two weeks after tomorrow, so we will aim to get the text to you for review by (or before) Thanksgiving, which will give us enough time to make the Journal's deadline.

Thank you and congratulations again, and we will see you soon!

Doris and Tom,

First thanks for making me look so good at FNCE. My scripts were all great. The HOD presentation was really well received. Your staff are amazing. Tom sorry I never got to see you to give you a big hug.

I thought it might be good to do a president's page on the Dietitians working on disaster relief. For example the Dietitians in Houston who worked in the hospitals over night for days to feed the hospital. The Dietitians that opened their schools to feed the hurricanes victims who had to flee. The Educators that helped the Puerto Rico students get the money together to be able to come to FNCE when the banks were closed. I am not sure how we could bring in the California wildfires, but you might be able to come up with an angle. We could also talk about the $100,000 the Academy gave to the disaster relief fund and ask people to donate. What are your thoughts?

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

This meeting was a home run from start to finish. I started to name folks and just sighed—the list is exhaustive. The AND and ANDF staff who made this possible with countless hours of preparation can take a long and well deserved bow. We are indebted to each of you and want you to know of our heartfelt thanks for all you do for FNCE every year and throughout the year. The Academy would be lost without you. We bring our hearts, passion and individual talents to the table as volunteers and you are the foundation that keeps us moving and on track.

How, can we say thanks on behalf of our membership, and say it well enough.....I'm at a loss, but know this, YOU are appreciated more than you can imagine!

Dear Board members,

Thank you for all of your contributions to an incredibly successful and inspirational Centennial FNCE! I am sharing with you a communication sent from me and on your behalf to all staff (see below). Every team at headquarters, even those working behind the scenes such as the mailroom, office services, accounting, and IT, plays a vital role in its success. We will have a pizza party celebration in appreciation sponsored by the Academy and Foundation boards.

Thank you again, and it was wonderful seeing all of you!

Best regards,
Pat

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

Ditto to all the previous comments!

This committee was fantastic and I thank Gigi and Hope and Cynthia for your mentoring and hard work for FNCE 2017.

Can't wait to see if we can make FNCE 2018 just as awesome!

See you in January!

Pat, your message to the entire Academy staff says it all. Thank you for sharing our collective appreciation!!

We know that staff at all levels always go the extra mile each and every day. This FNCE was a long distance endurance race that they all navigated with perfection.

What a fabulous FNCE-memories to cherish now and for our successors to marvel over in 2117.

Dear Board members,

Thank you for all of your contributions to an incredibly successful and inspirational Centennial FNCE! I am sharing with you a communication sent from me and on your behalf to all staff (see below). Every team at headquarters, even those working behind the scenes such as the mailroom, office services, accounting, and IT, plays a vital role in its success. We will have a pizza party celebration in appreciation sponsored by the Academy and Foundation boards.

Thank you again, and it was wonderful seeing all of you!

Best regards,
Pat

Dear Headquarters Team:

As our President Donna Martin says, "Teamwork makes the dream work." No one team can do it alone. Each and every staff member significantly contributed to this year's highly successful 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo! From planning to execution it was par excellence. Member leaders from the Committee for Lifelong Learning, HOD, CDR, ACEND, Quality Management, DPGs, LPPC, Council on Research, Foundation, Honors Committee and many more worked in partnership with staff to develop terrific sessions and events.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we applaud each and every one of you for making this unprecedented week happen and for your remarkable work on behalf of all attendees, exceeding all expectations. THANK YOU for making our Centennial a memorable experience for members!

As you may already know, this year's FNCE was the most-attended event in the Academy's 100-year history: more than 13,000 registrants, shattering all records. In her Opening Session remarks, President Martin singled out our Headquarters Team as... "incredible and with us every step of the way. I assure you, we are in excellent hands." If you haven't already, I encourage you to read

Donna's entire Opening Session speech, and view the inspiring videos highlighting our members in action.

FNCE 2017 was one for the record book. In all my years with the Academy, I have never been as proud of the Headquarters Team as I am today. Thank you for your dedication to our members and the Academy!

In appreciation,

Pat

Donna Martin,

I ask the favor of your indulgence to hear about why , as I pack my bags for FNCE 2017, I feel so especially joyful. I know that you are more than “very busy” at this moment, so understand if you have no time to read this immediately.

We have 3 generations /5 registered dietitians in our family. For this reason, the lives of our family members have been filled with the enthusiasm that we all share related to this gift. We have all practiced in different settings , savored all of our professional days and look forward to all that the future holds.

Attached is a picture of us all, in order:

- Brian Higginson is a Nutrition Care Clinic Dietitian at Swedish Medical Center in Seattle
- Michelle Higginson is a Clinical Nutrition Specialist at Swedish Medical Center in Seattle. Brian and Michelle are husband and wife , Michelle is my niece
- Ruth Clark is now retired, was one of the first consultant dietitians in long term care , beginning in 1968. Ruth is my Mom
- Kristin Hatch is owner and founder of Nutrition for Life, Inc, a private practice in Lakeville, Ma
- Carolyn Milles is owner and founder of CV Wellbeing , a private practice in Gorham, ME and Carolyn Victoria Brands, working as a brand and marketing consultant primarily for health professionals. Carolyn is our daughter

Michelle, Carolyn and I will actually be at FNCE17. It is also special to us, as my Mom, Ruth, began her internship at the VA Hospital in Chicago in 1944, needed to leave midstream to attend to family concerns and finished her internship at Mount Auburn Hospital in Boston. Given that this is the 100th anniversary of the Academy, it is especially momentous that we will be in Chicago together, where Ruth began her preparation to be a RD.

Thank you for allowing me to share this with you.

Last , but not least, I thank you very much for taking on the immense responsibility of leading our professional organization. The impact we have as an organization is increasingly significant and broad in spectrum. We appreciate your gift of time, talent and expertise.

My cell phone is 508-965-1124 if you should ever wish to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kristin

Hi, Donna: Thank you very much, and congratulations on a fantastic FNCE. I was at your Opening Session speech and you did an amazing job! We're glad to know we were able to help in any way we could. (And I'll pencil in a delayed hug for the next time we see you...!)

We would be glad to help with a president's page on RDNs involved in disaster relief. It's a great and timely topic and shows what our members can do for people under the most trying of circumstances. Are there specific members you would like us to spotlight? I saw a photo on Facebook of you and Pat meeting at FNCE with an educator from Puerto Rico. If you can please send us the names of anyone you'd like to feature in the article, we will be glad to contact them.

I will be on vacation for two weeks after tomorrow, so we will aim to get the text to you for review by (or before) Thanksgiving, which will give us enough time to make the Journal's deadline.

Thank you and congratulations again, and we will see you soon!

Doris and Tom,

First thanks for making me look so good at FNCE. My scripts were all great. The HOD presentation was really well received. Your staff are amazing. Tom sorry I never got to see you to give you a big hug.

I thought it might be good to do a president's page on the Dietitians working on disaster relief. For example the Dietitians in Houston who worked in the hospitals over night for days to feed the hospital. The Dietitians that opened their schools to feed the hurricanes victims who had to flee. The Educators that helped the Puerto Rico students get the money together to be able to come to FNCE when the banks were closed. I am not sure how we could bring in the California wildfires, but you might be able to come up with an angle. We could also talk about the $100,000 the Academy gave to the disaster relief fund and ask people to donate. What are your thoughts?

2017 FNCE was a Success

The 2017 FNCE was a huge success. The PIA staff would like to thank all of the LPPC and ANDPAC members who volunteered their time at the ANDPAC booth to encourage other members to take action on issues that impact the nutrition and dietetics communities. Many thanks! Stay tuned for highlights from the Conference.

FNCE 2018 and Public Policy Workshop Update

FNCE 2018 will be held October 20 – 23 in Washington, D.C. In order to make the most of the Academy's presence in the nation's capital, PPW will be integrated into FNCE with Hill visits scheduled for Wednesday, October 24. More information and guidance will follow from the PIA team and from your affiliate and DPG/MIG staff partners including budget considerations. There will be policy activities and events throughout the conference – plan to attend now! Since PPW will not be held in June, the Academy will instead host a quarterly advocacy day.

Strategic Measures Update

This year, we have had 100 percent participation in the data collection for the strategic measures. The PIA staff, Tenasha Williams and Nate Strizinger, are in the process of analyzing and compiling the data in an updated format. The data should be released in early 2018.

Public Policy Panels and State Issues to be reviewed

Mike Glasgow, vice chair of the Legislative and Public Policy Committee is leading a task force that will conduct an environmental scan of state issues and public policy panel positions. The task force will be reaching out to affiliates to solicit information, ideas and feedback. The recommendations of the group will be used to plan future policy initiatives.

2018 National Anti-Hunger Policy Conference Registration Open

The 2018 National Anti-Hunger Policy Conference will be held on February 25-27, 2018 at the Omni Hotel in Washington, DC. Over 1,000 participants are expected to attend the Conference. Please register by January 5 to reserve your spot (you can also take advantage of the Early-Bird rate $350 if you register now).

FDA's Proposed Delay of Nutrition Facts Label Compliance Raises Academy's concerns

The Academy is in the process of reviewing the rationale from the Food and Drug Administration for its proposed delay of the compliance deadline by up to 1 1/2 years for final rules associated with the updated Nutrition Facts Label. As stated by the FDA in its proposal, manufacturers with $10 million or more in annual food sales would have until January 1, 2020 to implement the new label, and manufacturers with less than $10 million in annual food sales would have until January 1, 2021. The Academy will be commenting to the FDA about its proposal and its consistency with the Academy's Principles for Nutrition Labeling. We will keep you updated on more information as it becomes available.

Link Between Worksite Wellness and Cancer, Cardiovascular and Other Chronic Disease Prevention

According to the Bureau Labor of Statistics of 2016, Americans spend 41 percent of every food dollar on food purchased away from home. The Academy encourages the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to recognize worksite food consumption for its expected substantial contribution to overall nutrition and calorie intake and thus its effect on health status. On October 10, 2017, the Academy released comments on the CDC's Draft National Occupational Research Agenda focused on the preventive nature of effective worksite wellness measures, and emphasized the Academy's support for the continuation of funding, research vetting of relevant resources and the sharing of best practices and strategies from successful evidencebased workplace wellness programs.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post Message

It's not too late to voice your concerns. There are currently three action alerts, described in detail below, that require members' attention:

- 1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – Medicare provides coverage for testing our nation's seniors for diabetes and pre-diabetes, but until a patient is diagnosed with diabetes MNT is not a covered service. Academy members should reach out to members of Congress to gain support for the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124 /S. 1299). The bill, backed by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, would reimburse RDNs for medical nutrition therapy provided to patients with pre-diabetes.
- 2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill – Congress is currently working on the reauthorization of the Farm Bill, which reauthorizes two important nutrition education programs: SNAP Nutrition

Education and Obesity Prevention grants (SNAP-Ed) and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP). These education programs coordinate to maximize reach and attempt, with limited funding, to meet the need for nutrition education messages that empower families to make healthy choices. We urge Academy members to take action and ask Congress to include SNAP-ED and EFNEP in the Farm Bill. These programs provide targeted effective nutrition education that empowers families to make lasting behavioral change and build skills to manage limited resources towards economic self-sufficiency beyond the short time that a typical SNAP recipient utilizes that benefit.

3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – A new report from the CDC shows that the prevalence of obesity has risen to 40 percent of adults and 19 percent of youth. These stunning statistics are another reminder of the importance of intervention and counseling from RDNs.

There are several ways you can get involved.

Weight Management DPG Chair Eileen Ford, MS, RD encourages you to contact your member of Congress today and ask them to support the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, a bill which will help address the obesity epidemic by providing better treatment options from health professionals such as RDNs. Eileen invites you to join the Weight Management DPG if you are interested in this critical practice area.

Notable mentions: Please join us during the week of October 29 – November 4 in recognizing National Obesity Care Week. We are excited to participate in the 3rd Annual NOCW, a national awareness campaign to ensure anyone affected by obesity receives respectful and comprehensive care.

Take Action

Cut and paste the following message and post to your communication platforms.

(PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Hi Nathaniel,

This is very interesting!! Unfortunately, Linette will not be attending FNCE this year due to family commitments.

I will be there and would like to schedule a time to meet. My best day to meet would be Tuesday. I'm wide open right now so let me know what works best for you and when/where. I'm staying at the Hyatt Regency (on Wacker) but can meet where it's convenient.

Subject: Meeting with SNS at FNCE for Food Service Modernization Project

Dear Cyndia and Linette,

I hope this email finds you well as we are in the last stages of preparation for FNCE 2017. The Academy has recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trust to advocate for food service modernization in schools. This means ensuring that key items are included in any child nutrition reauthorization or infrastructure bill that Congress puts forth such as improving school kitchen infrastructure, access to kitchen equipment and funding for the means to create healthy school meals. We are working with a team that includes our own Academy President, Donna Martin, to host site visits around the country to demonstrate school kitchen needs and success stories of those that have been funded in the past by grants that include the USDA's School Kitchen Equipment Grants. We are planning a congressional briefing in December to coincide with an advocacy day here in DC so that we can advocate as dietitians for improvements to school kitchen infrastructure that allows for improved ability for schools to serve healthy and nutritious meals to students.

As part of our project we would like to highlight some of our members' work by compiling photos and stories that can be shared with members of Congress about both successes and challenges that schools face when it comes to preparing meals with the kitchen equipment and infrastructure that schools currently have. If you are attending FNCE this year in Chicago, it would be great to schedule a meeting with you in-person regarding reaching out to our SNS DPG members to share their photos and stories with us!

We will be available to take meetings at the Nutrition Policy and Advocacy Center (NPAC is centrally located on level 3 of McCormick Place West). The best times for us to meet would be the following below:

Saturday, October 21	2 – 4 p.m.
Sunday, October 22	10:00 a.m. – Noon
Monday, October 23	7:30 – 10:00 a.m.
Tuesday, October 24	7:30 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Please let me know if there is a date and time that would work best for either or both of you and we can pencil you in. If these times do not work, you can stop by the NPAC booth on Sunday or Monday at any time between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or we can figure something else out that works for both of our schedules. Thanks!

Donna,

I thought you might be interested in joining me for a virtual webinar with a twist—free lunch on Concur! Over the lunch hour on Tuesday, October 24, you'll see how we offer clients one streamlined experience from travel booking to expense reimbursement to automating the AP process – all from the comfort of your desk.

We are offering two sessions so please click on the appropriate link to register:

- Tuesday, October 24, 2017 at 12:00 pm EST.
- Tuesday, October 24, 2017 at 12:00 pm PST.

You won't part ways hungry, and you could open up the door to a better way to manage your spending.

Cheers!

This is very interesting!! Unfortunately, Linette will not be attending FNCE this year due to family commitments.

I will be there and would like to schedule a time to meet. My best day to meet would be Tuesday. I'm wide open right now so let me know what works best for you and when/where. I'm staying at the Hyatt Regency (on Wacker) but can meet where it's convenient.

Thanks!!

Subject: Meeting with SNS at FNCE for Food Service Modernization Project

Dear Cyndia and Linette,

I hope this email finds you well as we are in the last stages of preparation for FNCE 2017. The Academy has recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trust to advocate for food service modernization in schools. This means ensuring that key items are included in any child nutrition reauthorization or infrastructure bill that Congress puts forth such as improving school kitchen infrastructure, access to kitchen equipment and funding for the means to create healthy school meals. We are working with a team that includes our own Academy President, Donna Martin, to host site visits around the country to demonstrate school kitchen needs and success stories of those that have been funded in the past by grants that include the USDA's School Kitchen Equipment Grants. We are planning a congressional briefing in December to coincide with an advocacy day here in DC so that we can advocate as dietitians for improvements to school kitchen infrastructure that allows for improved ability for schools to serve healthy and nutritious meals to students.

As part of our project we would like to highlight some of our members' work by compiling photos and stories that can be shared with members of Congress about both successes and challenges that schools face when it comes to preparing meals with the kitchen equipment and infrastructure that schools currently have. If you are attending FNCE this year in Chicago, it would be great to schedule a meeting with you in-person regarding reaching out to our SNS DPG members to share their photos and stories with us!

We will be available to take meetings at the Nutrition Policy and Advocacy Center (NPAC is centrally located on level 3 of McCormick Place West). The best times for us to meet would be the following below:

Saturday, October 21	2 – 4 p.m.
Sunday, October 22	10:00 a.m. – Noon
Monday, October 23	7:30 – 10:00 a.m.
Tuesday, October 24	7:30 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Please let me know if there is a date and time that would work best for either or both of you and we can pencil you in. If these times do not work, you can stop by the NPAC booth on Sunday or Monday at any time between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or we can figure something else out that works for both of our schedules. Thanks!

Dear Cyndia and Linette,

I hope this email finds you well as we are in the last stages of preparation for FNCE 2017. The Academy has recently received a grant from the Pew Charitable Trust to advocate for food service modernization in schools. This means ensuring that key items are included in any child nutrition reauthorization or infrastructure bill that Congress puts forth such as improving school kitchen infrastructure, access to kitchen equipment and funding for the means to create healthy school meals. We are working with a team that includes our own Academy President, Donna Martin, to host site visits around the country to demonstrate school kitchen needs and success stories of those that have been funded in the past by grants that include the USDA's School Kitchen Equipment Grants. We are planning a congressional briefing in December to coincide with an advocacy day here in DC so that we can advocate as dietitians for improvements to school kitchen infrastructure that allows for improved ability for schools to serve healthy and nutritious meals to students.

Hi Mackenzie-

I hope this email finds you well. Thank you for following up with us in June regarding our invitation for Mrs. Obama at the 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo™ in October. I was wondering if you had any further updates as to her availability at this point?

Since we want to keep your team informed about the Opening Session in October, we recently confirmed that Dr. Sanjay Gupta will also be joining us at Opening Session as part of the FNCE® keynote speaker series.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Hello, NDEP members –

In order to help keep everyone in the loop, I'd like to share information that NDEP Council and members will be reviewing and discussing as part of the NDEP Council meeting and at the Membership Breakfast Meeting during FNCE in Chicago.

Reports to NDEP have been submitted by ACEND, CDR, Council on Future Practice (CFP), and the Board of Directors (BOD), as well as NDEP Committee reports submitted by each committee's chairperson. ACEND and CDR representatives will also be on hand during the NDEP Membership Breakfast to present their updates and field questions, and have provided their presentation slides for everyone to review ahead of the meeting if desired.

These reports and presentation slides are now available in our NDEP portal library under the heading FNCE Member Meeting 2017. To visit the portal, go to <http://ndep.webauthor.com>

If you're planning on attending FNCE and can join us for the NDEP Membership Breakfast on Monday, October 23 from 6:30 AM to 7:45 AM at the Hyatt Regency McCormick Place, we'll look forward to seeing you there! If you'd like to touch base with me before the membership meeting, please don't hesitate to do so.

If you're not able to attend FNCE and join us for the NDEP Membership Breakfast, please consider taking a look at the reports and presentation slides, and then letting me know if you have any questions or comments.

I'd like to be to provide everyone with an opportunity ask questions and provide comments, including anyone who is unable to attend our Membership Breakfast. This will be followed by compiling the responses of our NDEP Council, committee chairs, and liaisons from CDR, ACEND, CFP, and BOD and sharing them with everyone via our NDEP portal post-FNCE.

Thanks - I'm looking forward to hearing from you.

Dear Donna, Mary, JoJo, Margaret and Pat,

We are looking forward to you joining us for the Foundation Board of Directors dinner on Saturday evening at the Chicago Firehouse Restaurant. As you will be "hosting" the Opening Night Party and will arrive a little late for our event, I wanted to get your dinner selections ahead of time so that I can pre-order them and have them ready for your arrival at the restaurant.

I have pre-ordered the Firehouse Caesar Salad for all dinner guests. Please select from the following options for your entrée and dessert. Also, let me know if you have any special meal requirements:

Entrée:

Airline Chicken Breast Chicken au Jus Roasted

or

Scottish Organic Salmon Lemon Herb Butter

or

Filet Mignon 8-Ounce Center-Cut Prime complements

Grilled Jumbo Asparagus and Truffle Potato Gratin.

Dessert

Creamy Rum Cheesecake, Walnut-Graham Cracker Crust Raspberries

Or

Valrhona Chocolate Crèmeux, Shortbread Cookies, Sweet Cream

Please note, a SUV has been arranged to take you from McCormick Place West to dinner for 7:45 PM . Joan has included this on the Board Schedule.

We are looking forward to seeing you soon. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions. You can reach me on my cell at 708-567-8532.

Hello everyone,

I wanted to take a minute to thank all of you once again for agreeing to present at the upcoming RR training this Saturday.

We have 39 reps in attendance, which is more than we have had for the past 2 years! I know each of them will benefit from your expertise that you have graciously agreed to share with them.

By now, all of you should have gotten the final agenda for the training. Because we have only one day to cover a lot of material, it is important that we try and stick to the time schedule, so please try to arrive a few minutes before you are scheduled to speak. Also, as you approach the end of your allotted time to present, I will be holding a sign saying "5" to indicate that you have 5 minutes to wrap up your presentation. I will then hold up another sign that says "End" to let you know that you will need to quickly complete your presentation so time for Q&A can follow. (I wanted to give you a heads up so you were not surprised when you saw me doing this J).

Thank you again and safe travels to all of you!

See you Saturday,

Subject: Meeting at FNCE: October 22

Dear Celia,

I am sorry to hear about the devastation from the recent hurricane in Puerto Rico, but am so glad you are safe and able to travel to Chicago. I am confirming our meeting with Academy President Donna Martin and the Academy's Life Long Learning Officer Diane Enos on Sunday, October 22 from 9:00am - 9:30am in room W177 at McCormick Place West, 2301 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago.

Congratulations to the University of Puerto Rico for registering 47 students for FNCE! I hope the students who are able to come to FNCE can attend the School Spirit reception on Monday, October 23 from 12:30pm - 1:30pm at McCormick Place West in room W176 AB. Members of the Academy's Board of Directors will be attending and look forward to meeting the students.

Best regards,

Subject: REQUEST: Puerto Rico Colleagues and 47 Students
Attachment:

Dear Arizona Academy Leaders, Colleagues and Students:

Over the course of the past couple of weeks, I have been in touch with Dr. Celia Mir from San Juan, Puerto Rico, a territory of the U.S. She is the student advisor for the many Academy students on this island and has always promoted student participation at FNCE. I want to share some of our communication and ask that during FNCE, any encouraging gestures of kindness would be greatly appreciated by her 47 students who will be attending - despite the life/death situations they have survived and endured from Hurricane Maria.

After weeks of not being able to contact her students - not knowing if they even survived the hurricane, here is her communication:

"Dr.Celia Mir: (cell: 787)226-0954; email: cndpr.drmir2@gmail.com)

(TXT) Thank goodness, my students are safe but they are suffering from the same afflictions as the whole of the population: no water, power, gas. It's the same in more than 3/4 of the island. PR is now entering a period of serious health concerns - infections, contamination, gastroenteritis, etc. People are dying, not only because of the hit of the hurricane but because of the consequences.

(TXT) After speaking with the students, we all agreed it would be beneficial to attend FNCE because it will be enriching to all of us. Our students need support and the perception of inclusion and sympathy. Showing signs of concern from the Board and our profession would make a big difference to the students. They would feel supported, encouraged and strengthened by our community. They have been through so much...."

Arizona...Please know, any effort to reach out, include and embrace these 47 students from Puerto Rico - would be greatly appreciated. Many of our colleagues and students (FL, TX, PR,) have suffered at the destruction of hurricanes this season - and we have a great opportunity to show compassion. Also, Academy President, Donna Martin, reminds us of the opportunity to help by donating to the Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund (see below). I hope you will join me in making a contribution - it only takes a few clicks! Many thanks to all of you!

Though you will be in my thoughts, unfortunately I will not be attending FNCE this year due to my father's ill health. I know I can count on all of you:)

My sincere thanks,

Glenna

Subject: Senate Vote Expected on Friday, October 20

The Senate is expected to vote on Friday, October 20, on S. Res. 75, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial. We are asking policy leaders to contact senators today to ask them to cosponsor this tribute to the Academy's Centennial. The House resolution (H. Res. 161) continues to gain co-sponsors. Help us celebrate by reaching out to your representatives to co-sponsor this legislation. Click here to take action

In anticipation that the Senate will approve the congressional resolution on Friday commemorating our Centennial, Donna will announce the exciting news at Opening Session and we are preparing signage of the resolution to be displayed in the Convention Center.

Alternatively, if it passes between Saturday evening and Monday morning, Donna will announce it at the Member Showcase (Monday at 10 a.m.). If it happens after noon on Monday, she will announce it at the Closing Session (Tuesday at 2 p.m.).

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

To My Academy Colleagues:

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

The Senate is expected to vote on Friday, October 20, on S. Res. 75, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial. We are asking policy leaders to contact senators today to ask them to cosponsor this tribute to the Academy's Centennial. The House resolution (H. Res. 161) continues to gain co-sponsors. Help us celebrate by reaching out to your representatives to co-sponsor this legislation. Click here to take action

In anticipation that the Senate will approve the congressional resolution on Friday commemorating our Centennial, Donna will announce the exciting news at Opening Session and we are preparing signage of the resolution to be displayed in the Convention Center.

Alternatively, if it passes between Saturday evening and Monday morning, Donna will announce it at the Member Showcase (Monday at 10 a.m.). If it happens after noon on Monday, she will announce it at the Closing Session (Tuesday at 2 p.m.).

Did anyone get this email? This is very impressive that a company is actually launching a product at FNCE, having the CEO speak and then an after party.

I have been happily inundated with email blasts from FNCE vendors connecting to our members in innovative ways. Kudos to Jennifer Horton and the marketing team for their hard work for getting these vendors and exhibitors! I am seeing exciting new vendors. Can't wait to see that expo floor. What is the Cranberry BOG! Should be a fun surprise. Everyone at headquarters is so important to the success of FNCE. Safe travels to all...Lucille

About DayTwoDayTwo is the first company to bring to market a process to accurately predict individual glycemic response to specific foods and food combinations. Using full-shotgun sequencing of the gut microbiome DNA "metagenomics" and other clinical factors, we create a personalized nutrition profile, and enable food and meal recommendations tailored for the individual which accurately scores their glycemic response.

Who Should Attend the Launch Party: Dietitians, Nutritionists, Diabetes Care and Management, Sports Fitness, and other Health and Business Professionals and those interested in the microbiome.

The FNCE banners are up at the airports and around the city welcoming attendees to Chicago! I am pleased to report that FNCE attendance numbers as of yesterday are at 11,619, up 22% since 2016. We are at 95% of goal for paid attendance for 2017 and are confident that we will meet our goals since historically we pick up an average of 800 additional paid attendees onsite.

Safe travels.

Green = Go. No state laws or regulations that would prevent RDNs from pursuing diet order writing privileges

Yellow = Caution. State laws and regulations are not clear

Red = Stop. State laws or regulations do not allow RDNs to independently write diet orders.

Does that makes sense?

ON THE PULSE OF PUBLIC POLICY

Members' Input Needed: Global Fellowship Opportunities

In strategic planning conversations, members indicated a strong interest in more professional, educational and volunteer opportunities. To advance the Academy's new shared vision - a world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition - the Academy and the Foundation are exploring ways to build a global talent pool. The purpose of a new survey is to further define priorities and help focus the Academy's efforts.

Senate to Vote on Academy's Centennial Resolution

Thanks to the support and grassroots advocacy of Academy members, the Senate plans to vote on S. Res. 75, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial. In addition, the House's resolution H. Res. 161 continues to gain co-sponsors; members are asked to contact your senators and representatives and ask them to cosponsor this exciting measure.

Take Action to Improve Access to Nutrition Services

In advance of American Diabetes Month in November, Academy members can easily reach out to your members of Congress to gain support for the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124/S. 1299). The bill, backed by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, would reimburse RDNs for medical nutrition therapy they provide to patients with prediabetes.

Subject: New Strategic Plan

In September, the Board of Directors adopted a new Strategic Plan. A copy is attached and can be accessed on the Academy's website by clicking here< <http://www.eatrightpro.org/resource/leadership/board-of-directors/strategic-plan/what-is-the-academys-strategic-plan>>.

The Academy involved thousands of external stakeholders and members in the strategic planning process, including students and Millennial members, general membership, Council on Future Practice, HOD, DPGs, MIGs and the Academy and Foundation boards. Last fall, we hosted the Nutrition Impact Summit where we engaged over 200 stakeholders. The Summit helped shape a collective vision for our future and ideas for collaborative initiatives.

The plan includes a new Vision for the Academy: A world where all people thrive through the transformative power of food and nutrition. Our plan also includes a new Mission for the organization: Accelerate improvements in global health and well-being through food and nutrition. We have adopted five Principles that reflect our core commitments. As an organization and as a profession, we will apply the principles to make an impact in three focus areas: prevention and well-being, health care and health systems, and food safety and nutrition security.

The new Strategic Plan expands and builds upon our organizational strengths in research, professional development, workforce capacity, advocacy and communications – all of which translate to opportunities for branding the profession and our organization. The plan is dynamic, future-focused and measureable, and as with previous plans, the Board will regularly review and modify the plan in the context of the evolving environment. Soon we will be introducing our global strategy for standardizing education and elevating practice worldwide. We will also be establishing international opportunities for our members across the continuum from students to professionals in practice.

We have planned an exciting celebration at FNCE this year, highlighted by Donna announcing the new Strategic Plan at Opening Session. The welcome to Chicago began with a display of Academy centennial banners at the airports and throughout the city. This year we have attendees from over 80 countries; truly reaching and impacting the global nutrition community. There are more than 130 cutting-edge nutrition science research and educational presentations, lectures, panel discussions, culinary demonstrations, and hot topic sessions that include nutrigenomics, food fraud, medical marijuana, and career global opportunities.

Thank you for your input and feedback to the Strategic Plan and your leadership and achievements over the years which contributed to our successful centennial! For those of you attending FNCE this year be sure to look at the Academy's timeline and interactive display acknowledging many of these milestones.

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

The FNCE banners are up at the airports and around the city welcoming attendees to Chicago! I am pleased to report that FNCE attendance numbers as of yesterday are at 11,619, up 22% since 2016. We are at 95% of goal for paid attendance for 2017 and are confident that we will meet our goals since historically we pick up an average of 800 additional paid attendees onsite.

Safe travels.

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund.

The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

Subject: FNCE Numbers Update

The FNCE banners are up at the airports and around the city welcoming attendees to Chicago! I am pleased to report that FNCE attendance numbers as of yesterday are at 11,619, up 22% since 2016. We are at 95% of goal for paid attendance for 2017 and are confident that we will meet our goals since historically we pick up an average of 800 additional paid attendees onsite.

Safe travels.

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Hello, NDEP members –

We have received a request from the Public Health/Community Nutrition Practice Group (PHCNPG) of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics and the Association of State Public Health Nutritionists (ASPHN) to assist in the review of the following document:

Guide for Developing and Enhancing Skills in Public Health and Community Nutrition

This 2017 document follows the authors' review of and update to the Guidelines for Community Nutrition Supervised Experiences (originally authored in 1995 and revised in 2003).

The authors' request is for 2-3 NDEP members to assist in reviewing the Guide for Developing and Enhancing Skills in Public Health and Community over the next few weeks.

A single consensus document must be submitted to PHCNPG and ASPHN no later than Friday, November 17.

I would like to have comments/input/feedback on the document submitted as a first round by November 3. That will give time for consolidating the feedback and providing it to fellow reviewers, plus allow time for a telephone conference or two as needed, to discuss consensus for a final version in time for the November 17th deadline. Lauren Bozich, our Academy Liaison, will be able to assist in setting up telephone conference calls.

Please let me know of your interest/willingness to review this on behalf of NDEP no later than Monday, October 23. You can contact me at pmk356@aol.com. Please include your vita/resume to assist in designating reviewers- thanks!

Please don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions – I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund.

The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Harvey in Texas and the aftermath of Irma that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation of Jose in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington - it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CDT tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond.

This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve a donation of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Beseler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Hi, Marty and Donna. Attached is the draft message that we would like to send today under your signatures to the Academy BOD. Because we require a second (beyond the President), Pat has reached out to Lucille to provide her support as well. I will add your appropriate degrees and title before sending but if you could approve the message below at your earliest convenience we can get this done! Thank you both so much for your kindness and your responsiveness. This truly will mean so much to so many.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Hi, Marty and Donna. Attached is the draft message that we would like to send today under your signatures to the Academy BOD. Because we require a second (beyond the President), Pat has reached out to Lucille to provide her support as well. I will add your appropriate degrees and title before sending but if you could approve the message below at your earliest convenience we can get this done! Thank you both so much for your kindness and your responsiveness. This truly will mean so much to so many.

DRAFT MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Irma in Texas and the aftermath of Jose that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington -- it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew it's original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CST tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve the release of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation as a donation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Bessler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

Mary Beth, sorry few corrections, first in paragraph 2, sentence 5:

it was Hurricane Harvey in Texas, then Irma in Florida, and José in Puerto Rico.

And in the 2nd-to-last sentence in that paragraph, should be "its" (original gift) not "it's".

And me being really picky here, it should be 9am CDT, not CST. J

Once those are corrected, it's good to go for me, too!

Hi, Marty and Donna. Attached is the draft message that we would like to send today under your signatures to the Academy BOD. Because we require a second (beyond the President), Pat has reached out to Lucille to provide her support as well. I will add your appropriate degrees and title before sending but if you could approve the message below at your earliest convenience we can get this done! Thank you both so much for your kindness and your responsiveness. This truly will mean so much to so many.

DRAFT MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Board Members,

I'm sure you have seen the appeal to members to support the Foundation Disaster Relief Fund. The most recent call to action that was issued yesterday appears at the end of this message. It is truly gratifying how so many of you have stepped up with your support. We thank you for your gifts. Many of our members are contributing as well, doing what they can to support this fund but unfortunately it's simply not enough.

Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of those who respond to our calls for support the balance is low yet the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000. These are incredibly turbulent times and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Irma in Texas and the aftermath of Jose that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation in Puerto Rico and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington -- it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will continue to encourage our members to give what they can but we think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew it's original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members need our help.

We are fortunate to be days away from a meeting that is breaking attendance records and drawing members from our borders and beyond, even members representing those hard hit areas. It is an important and timely action that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree respond yes to this message and the motion below and please do so before 9AM CST tomorrow. Illinois law requires 100% approval for this motion to pass. We are not trying to rush the decision but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full board agrees, to share the good news. We hope you will help us advance this request. We know you are all busy right now getting ready for the meeting but please take the time to respond. This may be one of the most important votes you cast.

Motion: To approve the release of $100,000 from the Academy to the Foundation as a donation to support the Disaster Relief Fund of the Foundation.

Motion: M. Yadrick

Second: L. Bessler

Thank you for your consideration and thank you for all that you do to support our members.

To My Academy Colleagues:

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

FNCE Policy and Advocacy Events

Last week we posted information regarding FNCE 2017. Please see attached for a detailed description of FNCE's Advocacy events. Don't forget that policy leaders should RSVP for the networking events! If you have additional questions or concerns, please let me know.

Registration OPEN for the FNCE 2017 ANDPAC Luncheon and Walking Tour

If you are headed to Chicago this weekend, it's not too late to register for the FNCE ANDPAC luncheon and walking tour. The luncheon will take place on Saturday, October 21 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. At the luncheon, you will hear from a local elected official and be able to network with other policy wonks. Add your name to the RSVP list and pay at the door or register for the event by adding it to your FNCE registration. Following the luncheon, get your 10,000 steps for the day by joining us for a walking tour of the city 1:30 – 3:30 p.m. Register for the walking tour today! The names of those who attend will be entered into a drawing for a chance to win a FitBit. You do not need to attend the luncheon to participate in the walking tour.

Academy Commends Passage of the National Clinical Care Commission Act

We did it! Thanks to all your hard work and continuous support, the President will sign the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 920) into law. This bill gives registered dietitian nutritionists a seat at the table to ensure federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. The Academy will continue to work with the bill sponsors and the Administration to make certain that RDNs are represented as the Commission is established in the coming weeks. Again, thanks to all of the Academy members who made this possible!

Academy Supports Emergency Resources for Puerto Rico

Our hearts go out to Academy members and millions of Puerto Ricans impacted by Hurricane Maria. The Academy's Foundation Disaster Relief Funds are available to support personal and professional life-rebuilding efforts of Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. To apply, please click here.

The Foundation is accepting donations from Academy members to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

The Academy joined national public health organizations in supporting swift passage of an emergency funding bill in the House and Senate that includes SNAP benefits. The House passed a bill last week for public health and other health and medical needs in the wake of the recent hurricanes and wildfires. The bill language specifically includes disaster nutrition assistance of $1.27 billion for Puerto Rico. The Senate is expected to approve the bill.

The Academy Turns 100! Senate to Vote on Centennial Resolution

This year marks our 100th anniversary! To celebrate this historical moment, the Senate is expected to vote on Friday, October 20 on S. Res. 75, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial. We are asking policy leaders to contact your senators today to ask them to cosponsor this tribute to the Academy's Centennial! The House resolution (H. Res. 161) continues to gain co-sponsors. Help us celebrate by reaching out to your representatives to co-sponsor this legislation. Click here to take action.

Kudos to KSAND's Telehealth Initiatives

The Kansas Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics submitted testimony to the Kansas Legislature's Special Committee on Health this week in support of telehealth legislation. This legislation would enable Kansas practitioners to conveniently connect with their patients remotely, resulting in increased efficiencies, greater access to care, better health outcomes, and the assurance that they can be paid for the services they render. Insurance companies often do not cover clinical services provided to patients at a distance through the use of technology in states without telehealth coverage laws, but even when coverage does exist, states without a telehealth parity law is likely to allow insurers to pay significantly reduced rates for services provided remotely. Kudos to KSAND for being in the forefront of recognizing the importance of telehealth in the nutrition and dietetics community. Job well done, KSAND! The Academy continues to engage in conversations at a national level regarding telehealth and dietetic practice.

Florida Licensure Lawsuit

As you may have noted in last week's Eat Right Weekly, the Academy reiterated its strong support of our members and the need for occupational licensing laws – such as dietetics licensure – to protect the public from the risk of harm from incompetent or unqualified individuals. Just recently in Florida, a lawsuit against the state was filed on behalf of a woman who had been practicing without a license by lawyers with a prominent anti-licensure advocacy group. Of course, outside groups like this who oppose all licensure on ideological grounds have long aligned themselves with certain individuals who lack the minimum qualifications to become licensed (but want to anyway) in trying to weaken or dismantle states' regulation of the practice of dietetics and nutrition and the provision of medical nutrition therapy. Academy members should rest assured that the Academy is working tirelessly to defend your license and licensure laws and to ensure they reflect the unparalleled academic and experiential standards represented by the RDN credential.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post Message

There are three action alerts, described in detail below, that require members' attention:

- 1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – Medicare provides coverage for testing our nation's seniors for diabetes and pre-diabetes, but until a patient is diagnosed with diabetes MNT is not a covered service. Academy members should reach out to members of Congress to gain support for the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124 /S. 1299). The bill, backed by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, would reimburse RDNs for medical nutrition therapy provided to patients with pre-diabetes.
- 1. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill – Congress is currently working on the reauthorization of the Farm Bill, which reauthorizes two important nutrition education programs: SNAP Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention grants (SNAP-Ed) and the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP). These education programs coordinate to maximize reach and attempt, with limited funding, to meet the need for nutrition education messages that empower families to make healthy choices. We urge Academy members to take action and ask Congress to include SNAP-ED and EFNEP in the Farm Bill. These programs provide targeted effective nutrition education that empowers families to make lasting behavioral change and build skills to manage limited resources towards economic self-sufficiency beyond the short time that a typical SNAP recipient utilizes that benefit.
- 1. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – A new report from the CDC shows that the prevalence of obesity has risen to 40 percent of adults and 19 percent of youth. These stunning statistics are another reminder of the importance of intervention and counseling from RDNs. There are several ways you can get involved.

Weight Management DPG Chair Eileen Ford, MS, RD encourages you to contact your member of Congress today and ask them to support the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, a bill which will help address the obesity epidemic by providing better treatment options from health professionals such as RDs. Eileen invites you to join the Weight Management DPG if you are interested in this critical practice area.

And, mark your calendars, and join us in recognizing National Obesity Care Week, Oct. 29 – Nov. 4. We are excited to participate in the 3rd Annual NOCW, a national awareness campaign to ensure anyone affected by obesity receives respectful and comprehensive care.

Take Action

Cut and paste the following message and post to your communication platforms.

(PPCs/PALs, Please Post this Message to Your Communication Channels)

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Come Meet Us at the Nutrition Policy Action Center at FNCE

FNCE is a great opportunity to engage Academy members in our policy priorities, and members will be able to take action at computers located at the Nutrition Policy Action Center. Take action (during FNCE 2017) on the three action alert that are currently open. Our goal is to reach every member of Congress during FNCE on these three issues!

The Academy's policy leaders and PIA staff will be available at the Nutrition Policy Action Center to answer questions and help members take action. We also will have issue briefs about our policy issues. Please stop by! We look forward to celebrating the Academy's Centennial with you all!

The House passed a bill last week for public health and other health and medical needs in the wake of the recent hurricanes and wildfires. The bill language specifically includes disaster nutrition assistance of $1.27 billion for Puerto Rico. The Senate is expected to approve the bill.

The Academy Turns 100! Senate to Vote on Centennial Resolution

This year marks our 100th anniversary! To celebrate this historical moment, the Senate is expected to vote on Friday, October 20 on S. Res. 75, the congressional resolution commemorating the Academy's Centennial. We are asking policy leaders to contact your senators today to ask them to cosponsor this tribute to the Academy's Centennial! The House resolution (H. Res. 161) continues to gain co-sponsors. Help us celebrate by reaching out to your representatives to co-sponsor this legislation. Click here to take action.

Kudos to KSAND's Telehealth Initiatives

The Kansas Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics submitted testimony to the Kansas Legislature's Special Committee on Health this week in support of telehealth legislation. This legislation would enable Kansas practitioners to conveniently connect with their patients remotely, resulting in increased efficiencies, greater access to care, better health outcomes, and the assurance that they can be paid for the services they render. Insurance companies often do not cover clinical services provided to patients at a distance through the use of technology in states without telehealth coverage laws, but even when coverage does exist, states without a telehealth parity law is likely to allow insurers to pay significantly reduced rates for services provided remotely. Kudos to KSAND for being in the forefront of recognizing the importance of telehealth in the nutrition and dietetics community. Job well done, KSAND! The Academy continues to engage in conversations at a national level regarding telehealth and dietetic practice.

Florida Licensure Lawsuit

As you may have noted in last week's Eat Right Weekly, the Academy reiterated its strong support of our members and the need for occupational licensing laws – such as dietetics licensure – to protect the public from the risk of harm from incompetent or unqualified individuals. Just recently in Florida, a lawsuit against the state was filed on behalf of a woman who had been practicing without a license by lawyers with a prominent anti-licensure advocacy group. Of course, outside groups like this who oppose all licensure on ideological grounds have long aligned themselves with certain individuals who lack the minimum qualifications to become licensed (but want to anyway) in trying to weaken or dismantle states' regulation of the practice of dietetics and nutrition and the provision of medical nutrition therapy. Academy members should rest assured that the Academy is working tirelessly to defend your license and licensure laws and to ensure they reflect the unparalleled academic and experiential standards represented by the RDN credential.

Action Alerts Open – Please Post Message

There are three action alerts, described in detail below, that require members' attention:

1. Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act, (H.R. 3124/S. 1299) – Medicare provides coverage for testing our nation's seniors for diabetes and pre-diabetes, but until a patient is diagnosed with diabetes MNT is not a covered service. Academy members should reach out to members of Congress to gain support for the Preventing Diabetes in Medicare Act (H.R. 3124 /S. 1299). The bill, backed by the Diabetes Advocacy Alliance, would reimburse RDNs for medical nutrition therapy provided to patients with pre-diabetes.

2. Nutrition Education in the Farm Bill – Congress is currently working on the reauthorization of the Farm Bill, which reauthorizes two important nutrition education programs: SNAP Nutrition Education and Obesity Prevention grants (SNAP-Ed) and the Expanded Food and Nutrition

Education Program (EFNEP). These education programs coordinate to maximize reach and attempt, with limited funding, to meet the need for nutrition education messages that empower families to make healthy choices. We urge Academy members to take action and ask Congress to include SNAP-ED and EFNEP in the Farm Bill. These programs provide targeted effective nutrition education that empowers families to make lasting behavioral change and build skills to manage limited resources towards economic self-sufficiency beyond the short time that a typical SNAP recipient utilizes that benefit.

3. Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, H.R. 1953/S.830 – A new report from the CDC shows that the prevalence of obesity has risen to 40 percent of adults and 19 percent of youth. These stunning statistics are another reminder of the importance of intervention and counseling from RDNs. There are several ways you can get involved.

Weight Management DPG Chair Eileen Ford, MS, RD encourages you to contact your member of Congress today and ask them to support the Treat and Reduce Obesity Act, a bill which will help address the obesity epidemic by providing better treatment options from health professional such as RDNs. Eileen invites you to join the Weight Management DPG if you are interested in this critical practice area.

And, mark your calendars, and join us in recognizing National Obesity Care Week, Oct. 29 – Nov. 4. We are excited to participate in the 3rd Annual NOCW, a national awareness campaign to ensure anyone affected by obesity receives respectful and comprehensive care.

Important Congressional Issues Require Your Action!

As a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, please urge your policymakers to support legislation that protects and values nutrition services in areas of prevention and treatment (including treatment and reduction of obesity and diabetes prevention) and in the role of nutrition education as highlighted in the Farm Bill. It is important for members of Congress to hear from their constituency. As vital decisions are made regarding health care in the upcoming weeks, the voice of every member is critical. Take action today!

Come Meet Us at the Nutrition Policy Action Center at FNCE

FNCE is a great opportunity to engage Academy members in our policy priorities, and members will be able to take action at computers located at the Nutrition Policy Action Center. Take action (during FNCE 2017) on the three action alert that are currently open. Our goal is to reach every member of Congress during FNCE on these three issues!

The Academy's policy leaders and PIA staff will be available at the Nutrition Policy Action Center to answer questions and help members take action. We also will have issue briefs about our policy issues. Please stop by! We look forward to celebrating the Academy's Centennial with you all!

FNCE Policy and Advocacy Events

Last week we posted information regarding FNCE 2017. Please see attached for a detailed description of FNCE's Advocacy events. Don't forget that policy leaders should RSVP for the networking events! If you have additional questions or concerns, please let me know.

Registration OPEN for the FNCE 2017 ANDPAC Luncheon and Walking Tour

If you are headed to Chicago this weekend, it's not too late to register for the FNCE ANDPAC luncheon and walking tour. The luncheon will take place on Saturday, October 21 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. At the luncheon, you will hear from a local elected official and be able to network with other policy wonks. Add your name to the RSVP list and pay at the door or register for the event by adding it to your FNCE registration. Following the luncheon, get your 10,000 steps for the day by joining us for a walking tour of the city 1:30 – 3:30 p.m. Register for the walking tour today! The names of those who attend will be entered into a drawing for a chance to win a FitBit. You do not need to attend the luncheon to participate in the walking tour.

Academy Commends Passage of the National Clinical Care Commission Act

We did it! Thanks to all your hard work and continuous support, the President will sign the National Clinical Care Commission Act (S. 920) into law. This bill gives registered dietitian nutritionists a seat at the table to ensure federal programs provide the most efficient and effective care for people with diabetes and related diseases. The Academy will continue to work with the bill sponsors and the Administration to make certain that RDNs are represented as the Commission is established in the coming weeks. Again, thanks to all of the Academy members who made this possible!

Academy Supports Emergency Resources for Puerto Rico

Our hearts go out to Academy members and millions of Puerto Ricans impacted by Hurricane Maria. The Academy's Foundation Disaster Relief Funds are available to support personal and professional life-rebuilding efforts of Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. To apply, please click here.

The Foundation is accepting donations from Academy members to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

The Academy joined national public health organizations in supporting swift passage of an emergency funding bill in the House and Senate that includes SNAP benefits. The House passed a bill last week for public health and other health and medical needs in the wake of the recent hurricanes and wildfires. The bill language specifically includes disaster nutrition assistance of $1.27 billion for Puerto Rico. The Senate is expected to approve the bill.

The Academy Turns 100! Senate to Vote on Centennial Resolution

Hi, Donna,

Thank you for your wonderful message about the Disaster Relief Fund this week, and for lending your name to this important appeal. I'm so proud that individual leaders like you have stepped forward with contributions. Members are responding, doing what they can to support this fund, but it's simply not enough. Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of our members who respond to our calls for support like the one you issued today, the balance is low and the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000.

These are incredibly turbulent times, and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Irma in Texas and the aftermath of Jose that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation in Puerto Rico, and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington -- it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will do what it can do to encourage our members to give what they can, but I think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members would be helped.

I've discussed this with Pat and Mary Beth and they agree that this would be an important and timely gesture that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree, a request would be made to the Academy Board and a vote could be taken online. I would be proud to put my name next to yours on this request. By Illinois law It would require 100% approval to pass. I'm not trying to rush the decision, but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full Board agrees, to share the good news. I hope you will help me advance this request. I know you are incredibly busy right now but I'm happy to jump on a call at your convenience to discuss.

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Did You Know?

Did you know that you can find all you need to manage your credential by logging into the CDR website at cdrnet.org and clicking on the MyCDR link?

Once logged in, you will see the MyCDR link in the upper right hand corner of the website. There you will find your original date of registration, your five-year recertification period ending date, and whether or not you have submitted your Learning Plan and/or Activity Log. You will also be able to:

- view and update your contact information and reset your password under the Profile tab;
- view and update your Learning Plan and add activities to your Activity Log under the PDP tab;
- pay the annual registration maintenance fee and print invoices and receipts under the CDR Fees tab;
- view and print invoices for CDR products, services and fees under the Invoices tab;
- register for a certificate of training program under the Weight Management tab;
- apply for a specialist certification examination under the Apply for Specialist Certification tab;
- print a copy a registration identification card under the CDR ID Card tab;
- view important messages from CDR under the Message Center tab;
- apply for the Advanced Practitioner in Clinical Nutrition certification examination under the Apply Advanced Practice Certification tab;
- apply for the Interdisciplinary Board Certified Specialist in Obesity and Weight Management certification examination under the Apply for Obesity &Weight Management Certification tab;
- Academy members may complete Journal quizzes and print certificates under the Journal Article Quiz tab.

Look for these coming enhancements to the MyCDR link:

- an at-a-glance graphic view of your current credential status (Learning Plan, Activity Log, Payment);
- pop-up alerts keeping you informed of approaching deadlines and new system features;
- integration of the CPE database with the Activity Log.

Continuing Professional Education Approval Criteria

CDR has revised the current continuing professional education approval criteria to require that all continuing professional education activity types (excluding academic coursework) addressing diet and nutrition topics, include an RD or DTR in program planning. This policy change is effective for continuing professional activities offered on or after June 1, 2018 and for CDR credentialed practitioners recertifying beginning a new recertification cycle on or after June 2, 2018.

Practice Competencies Initiative

The CDR Competency Assurance Panel collaborated with the Academy's Quality Management Committee on the development of dietetics practice competencies and performance indicators. These competencies and performance indicators will replace the current learning need codes for the Professional Development Portfolio recertification system in 2015 beginning with new registrants whose registration begins on or after June 2, 2015 and current registrants beginning their June 1, 2016 recertification cycle. An article describing the development and validation of the practice competencies was published in the June 2015 Journal of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

The CDR website has been updated to include a Practice Competencies page, <https://www.cdrnet.org/competencies>, which includes several practitioner resources including recordings of webinar presentations made during 2016-2017.

For additional information go to <https://www.cdrnet.org/competencies/webinars>.

Interdisciplinary Specialist Certification

CDRs new interdisciplinary Board Certified Specialist in Obesity and Weight Management examination was administered in March and September 2017. One hundred and seventy-seven professionals now hold the CSOWM specialist credential. The next examination will be administered in March 2018 with a first application deadline of December 5, 2017. To My Academy Colleagues:

I speak for all Academy members, the Board of Directors and our Headquarters Team in sending our prayers and condolences to those who have been endangered by the wildfires in California, as well as in Montana, Oregon and Washington. These fires have caused horrifying losses of life and property, and continue to do so.

The Foundation's Disaster Relief Fund is here to support Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Please share this important information with your colleagues.

In addition, the Foundation accepts donations to provide relief to members and their families who need assistance.

To Academy members and everyone who is at risk or has been affected by these fires, please know we support you and are with you in mind, body and spirit.

Marty,. Thanks for taking the time to address this important issue. I absolutely would support the Academy adding $100,000 to the disaster relief fund. I think the good news is that this FNCE is doing so well that I think it puts us in a much better position to be able to do this. Let me know how you want to proceed? You have my 100% support. Thanks again for your leadership on this! This will go over so well with our members. See you soon!

Hi, Donna,

Thank you for your wonderful message about the Disaster Relief Fund this week, and for lending your name to this important appeal. I'm so proud that individual leaders like you have stepped forward with contributions. Members are responding, doing what they can to support this fund, but it's simply not enough. Since the Disaster Relief fund was established by the Academy in 2005 with a $100,000 gift to the Foundation we have helped more than 60 members and have nearly exhausted the fund. Even with the generosity of our members who respond to our calls for support like the one you issued today, the balance is low and the demand is high and growing. We have an available balance of $18,000 and requests from Irma victims alone that total $47,000.

These are incredibly turbulent times, and the number of natural disasters seems unprecedented. Beginning with Hurricane Irma in Texas and the aftermath of Jose that tore through Florida, followed by the devastation in Puerto Rico, and now the historic wildfires that have threatened lives and livelihoods in California, Oregon and Washington -- it feels like the time is now for the Academy to replenish this invaluable member relief fund. The Foundation will do what it can do to encourage our members to give what they can, but I think it would be a tremendous gesture, in recognition of our 100th anniversary, if the Academy would renew its original gift and provide another $100,000 contribution to the Disaster Relief Fund. So many members would be helped.

I've discussed this with Pat and Mary Beth and they agree that this would be an important and timely gesture that would help our nutrition and dietetics family. If you agree, a request would be made to the Academy Board and a vote could be taken online. I would be proud to put my name next to yours on this request. By Illinois law It would require 100% approval to pass. I'm not trying to rush the decision, but members need our help now and we have a wonderful opportunity in just a few short days, if the full Board agrees, to share the good news. I hope you will help me advance this request. I know you are incredibly busy right now but I'm happy to jump on a call at your convenience to discuss.

You must be totally overwhelmed with FNCE prep. We are all so proud to have you as our Centennial President. Can't wait to see you on stage in a few days.

In considering which national honor would be best for Dr. Cucena, it appears that she would, indeed, qualify for the Medallion. She has been an International category member since 2007 so she would meet the 10 year requirement for membership. I have inserted the qualifications for

Medallion below. Let me know if there is anything else to assist, Barbara

Medallion Award Qualifications:

- a. A member of the Academy for a minimum of 10 years
- b. Has contributed to the profession:
 - exceptional service to the Academy at the national, state, dietetic practice and member interest (DPG/MIG) groups and district/local levels
 - exceptional service to other food and nutrition organizations
 - outstanding professional leadership abilities at all levels of the profession and the community
 - instrumental in moving the profession forward
- c. Has demonstrated characteristics such as:
 - dedication to high standards for the profession
 - source of inspiration and outstanding role model
 - promotion of the registered dietitian nutritionist and food and nutrition service to others in allied fields and the community

Barbara, I know you are getting ready for FNCE like I am, but I wanted to check on the qualifications for a medallion award please. The person who I am interested to see if she would qualify would be Marianella Herrera Cucena. She is an MD and a certified nutritionist and currently President of the AODA. She lives in Venezuela and Houston. She is speaking twice at FNCE. She is amazing and I think she would be someone we would want to recognize, but not sure if she fits into the Medallion category? If she doesn't, could you suggest another award please? Amazing does not begin to describe her. Thanks and see you soon!

Donna:

You must be totally overwhelmed with FNCE prep. We are all so proud to have you as our Centennial President. Can't wait to see you on stage in a few days.

In considering which national honor would be best for Dr. Cucena, it appears that she would, indeed, qualify for the Medallion. She has been an International category member since 2007 so she would meet the 10 year requirement for membership. I have inserted the qualifications for Medallion below. Let me know if there is anything else to assist, Barbara

Medallion Award Qualifications:

- a. A member of the Academy for a minimum of 10 years
- b. Has contributed to the profession:
 - exceptional service to the Academy at the national, state, dietetic practice and member interest (DPG/MIG) groups and district/local levels
 - exceptional service to other food and nutrition organizations
 - outstanding professional leadership abilities at all levels of the profession and the community
 - instrumental in moving the profession forward
- c. Has demonstrated characteristics such as:
 - dedication to high standards for the profession
 - source of inspiration and outstanding role model
 - promotion of the registered dietitian nutritionist and food and nutrition service to others in allied fields and the community

Barbara, I know you are getting ready for FNCE like I am, but I wanted to check on the qualifications for a medallion award please. The person who I am interested to see if she would qualify would be Marianella Herrera Cucena. She is an MD and a certified nutritionist and currently President of the AODA. She lives in Venezuela and Houston. She is speaking twice at FNCE. She is amazing and I think she would be someone we would want to recognize, but not sure if she fits into the Medallion category? If she doesn't, could you suggest another award please? Amazing does not begin to describe her. Thanks and see you soon!

Academy Foundation Second Century FUN-raiser—Ticket pick-up instructions

Make plans to attend the Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo, October 21-24 in Chicago and celebrate the Academy's Centennial.

View in browser.

Dear Donna,

Thank you for purchasing a ticket(s) to the upcoming Academy Foundation Second Century FUN-raiser. Your support helps the Foundation to make an impact on thousands of students, dietetic professionals and children who will all benefit from our initiatives.

The Foundation's Second Century FUN-raiser is taking place on Monday, October 23, 2017 in the Crystal Gardens of Navy Pier from 8:00 pm -10:00 pm. We are excited to share that we are sold-out and this year's new format includes food stations, live entertainment and dancing. Semi-formal attire is encouraged.

Your tickets can be picked up at the Foundation Booth located within the Academy Avenue – Central Concourse, Level 3 of McCormick Place West, beginning on Saturday, October 15. The Foundation Booth is open from 8:00 am-5:00 pm each day. Tickets are required for entry into the event.

Shuttles will run from the Hyatt Regency Chicago only to/from Navy Pier from 7:30 pm-10:30 pm. Please use the evening reception shuttle, your own transportation, or walk to the Hyatt Regency Chicago for pick-up in front of the East Tower.

If you have any questions, please contact Martha Ontiveros at montiveros@eatright.org or 312-899-4773.

Thank you for supporting the Foundation! We are looking forward to seeing you in Chicago!

Hi Mackenzie-

I hope you are doing well. As we quickly approach our Centennial meeting in Chicago this week, I wanted to circle back to see if there was any further information (or confirmation) that Mrs. Obama will be able to participate in our Centennial meeting this Saturday on October 21.

We are still holding out hope for a live participation, but please let me know what may or may not be a possibility.

Looking forward to your reply!

Hi Mackenzie-

I hope this email finds you well. Thank you for following up with us in June regarding our invitation for Mrs. Obama at the 2017 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo™ in October. I was wondering if you had any further updates as to her availability at this point?

Since we want to keep your team informed about the Opening Session in October, we recently confirmed that Dr. Sanjay Gupta will also be joining us at Opening Session as part of the FNCE® keynote speaker series.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Best Regards,

Diane

Thank you, Donna, for responding.

Kevin, at some point I would like to talk with you about NDEP. Originally the meeting at FNCE was scheduled from 9:00am – 9:00pm, so we had to step in to remind the council that all groups need to pause their meetings to attend Opening Session and the celebration party. I went to the council's website and was appalled to see that the council is described as a DPG, which of course it is not. In 2011, a request came to the Academy Board of Directors that the DEP DPG and the Council on Education merge. Your colleague Deb Canter was chair of DEP at the time and she can provide some additional historical background. For reasons unbeknownst to me, the group continues to portray itself as a DPG, or as an autonomous unit, or as reporting to ACEND. When the two groups made the request to the Academy's Board to approve the merge, the Board responded affirmatively, and since then the group reports to the Board as a council; the group seems to have forgotten that this was its request. I plan to course correct by inviting the NDEP chair to present a midyear and year-end update to the Board. I will talk to Mary Gregoire and Lauren Bozich, the staff resources, after FNCE. I need to also evaluate the content of its orientation, specifically the part describing its structure and role. I will update you regarding the strategy following the conference. The council's meeting on Saturday would obviously not be the place to start the dialogue.

If you have any other questions while at FNCE please call my cell at 312-350-1880.

Pat

Kevin, I can help answer your questions, and I might add that you are a very popular board member according to your schedule. In terms of the AND PAC luncheon overlap I would not worry about going to that. That is one you have to buy a ticket to go to and it will be well attended so no issues there. All board members do not go to that luncheon. Sunday for the President's lecture you can just come late with Mary. On Monday do the best you can to get to the Member Showcase as that is one of our keynotes. Usually there are not any conflicts with Member Showcase. Everyone will be super busy and we all will have to be coming and going some. If you do the best you can you will be fine. We so appreciate your willingness to do all the extra assignments that you were asked to do. Like I said very popular! Love having you on the dream team. Remember to have fun!

Hi Joan & Pat (cc: Donna),

First - congrats to all of you for what is already an obviously a VERY successful FNCE. The energy in my classrooms with the students who are attending is at an all time high!!! I look forward to you meeting some of them.

Thanks for this schedule update - all very very helpful. I realize this is an incredibly hectic time for you, but did want to notify you of a few instances of possible overlap for me via the FNCE schedule, and perhaps gather your advice.

Saturday: I previously accepted an invitation to join the NDEP Council for lunch. Is it preferred that I attend the ANDPAC luncheon instead?

Sunday: I will be joining Mary Russell at the Code of Ethics Task Force meeting (2:15), which may overlap a bit with the President's lecture.

Monday: I previously accepted an invitation to serve as Judge at the Innovation posters (via Anna Shlachter), and believe this may overlap slightly with the member showcase lecture and school spirit reception too.

Thank you all again for your understanding with me as an entry-level Board member. I'm just so humbled to be part of this incredible Dietetics Dream Team.

Attached is the final Board schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. Those activities which are highlighted in yellow require your attendance. For those of you who have been assigned to DPG/MIG events, we have registered you and notified the DPG or MIG chair. You will be greeted by the chair and if not, please introduce yourself; a list of DPG and MIG leaders is attached for reference.

The Board FNCE schedule lists times to extend your appreciation to our exhibitors and sponsors. Attached are your designated assignments for thanking the exhibitors. The assignments are made to ensure all the exhibitors are covered, but it doesn't preclude you from thanking others for their generous support of the Academy's meetings and programs, including FNCE, especially the 14 sponsors who have booths on the exhibit floor. A list of the sponsor booth names and locations is included in the attachment. We have several engagement opportunity booths for attendees on the exhibit floor, such as Ocean Spray Cranberry Juice and its bog!

We are pleased that you'll be attending the HOD meeting on Friday, October 20 and Saturday, October 21. A copy of the agenda is attached and meeting materials can be accessed on the HOD webpage at www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/house-of-delegates/about-hod-meetings >Fall 2017 Meeting Materials. Be sure to check the seating charts for your table assignments for Friday and Saturday. Attached is the BOD tip sheet to help you understand your role in the HOD meeting.

About HOD Meetings - eatrightpro.org

www.eatrightpro.org

Delegates meet in the fall (in conjunction with FNCE ®) and the spring in order to conduct business and mega issue dialogues. Member input on these important topics ...

You are asked to attend the ANDPAC Signature Luncheon on Saturday, October 21 from 11:30 am – 1:00 pm at McCormick Place West in room W194AB. To purchase tickets for this fundraising event, contact PIA staff partner Christine Rhone at crhone@eatright.org as soon as possible.

The Board has reserved VIP seating in the front rows of the meeting rooms for Opening Session, Member Showcase and Closing Session. For early access please promptly come to the VIP entrance of the Skyline Ballroom W375E in McCormick Place West (see map attached) at the times designated below. The best way to get to that location and avoid congestion is by taking the escalator from Room W177 to the VIP entrance. An Academy staff partner wearing a red FNCE vest will meet you there to be escorted to your seats.

- Opening Session: 3:25 pm to 3:35 pm
- Member Showcase: 9:35 am – 9:45 am
- Closing Session: 1:20 pm – 1:30 pm

A paper copy of the final Board FNCE schedule, your exhibitor assignments and the HOD meeting agenda will be included in your on arrival packet which will be hand delivered at the HOUSEwarming Party on Thursday, October 19, from 5:45 pm – 6:45 pm at the Hyatt Regency Chicago Hotel, Plaza Ballroom. If you do not plan to attend the party, your packet will be delivered to your hotel room that evening. Also included in your packet will be your FNCE badge, ribbon(s), Quick Reference Guide, Day-at-a-Glance Program Grid and a paper copy of your FNCE 2017 Leader Remarks and Talking Points. A paper copy of the script will also be included with instructions for those Board members (Lucille, Jo Jo, Linda, Manju, Marcy, Michele, Dianne, Marty) introducing Medallion recipients during the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 22.

As Board members staying at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, you have access to the Regency Club (concierge). Please take advantage of the club's amenities such as breakfast, beverages and snacks. As a reminder, a Board Get-together is scheduled for Friday, October 20, from 7:30 pm – 9:30 pm in Donna's Monarch Suite on the 34th floor. Please let me know if you are planning on bringing a family member.

Doris, Here is the video my daughter got my grandson to do. It is not great, but if you all could use any of it for the end of my presentation I would love it and it would mean a lot to her. Maybe if it was just playing as the song is playing. If you can work some magic that would be great. If not, I understand!

See you soon!

Hi Ethan,

It's so nice to hear that Dr. Mir will be your guest at the Honors Breakfast. I am responding on behalf of Donna since we have the communication thread.

On October 9, Dr. Mir was copied on an email to the Program Director of the University of Puerto Rico, Elsa Pinto. Dr. Mir was included on this email (lugougol@hotmail.com) since she is the advisor for the student dietetics club at the university. Joan also wrote her on October 15 using two email addresses (lugougol@hotmail.com and drmirupr2@gmail.com) to ensure receipt, again congratulating the university for registering 47 students for FNCE and being one of the four winners of the School Spirit Award. Dr. Mir confirmed receipt on October 16. Please see the email thread below.

Dear Celia,

I am sorry to hear about the devastation from the recent hurricane in Puerto Rico, but am so glad you are safe and able to travel to Chicago. I am confirming our meeting with Academy President Donna Martin and the Academy's Life Long Learning Officer Diane Enos on Sunday, October 22 from 9:00am - 9:30am in room W177 at McCormick Place West, 2301 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago.

Congratulations to the University of Puerto Rico for registering 47 students for FNCE! I hope the students who are able to come to FNCE can attend the School Spirit reception on Monday, October 23 from 12:30pm - 1:30pm at McCormick Place West in room W176 AB. Members of the Academy's Board of Directors will be attending and look forward to meeting the students.

Subject: RE: Our Puerto Rico Colleagues and 47 PR students

Glenna,

Thank you for your email. On September 8, I forwarded an all-member email regarding the Academy's efforts on behalf of hurricane relief and recovery. The Academy's Foundation Disaster Relief Fund is here to support personal and professional life-rebuilding efforts of Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Updates were also posted on the Academy's social media outlets and in Eat Right Weekly.

The Academy has been in communication with Juan Cruz, president of the Puerto Rico affiliate and several members and leaders in Puerto Rico, including the University of Puerto Rico's internship director Elsa Pinto. Mr. Cruz indicated that he has been working from his cell phone with limited data and no wifi. He isn't able to distribute anything to members as all power grids and most of the cell towers were destroyed.

We have also been communicating with Dr. Celia Mir-Franqui and our CEO and I will personally be meeting with her at FNCE on Sunday, October 22. The group of students from Puerto Rico won the student challenge this year and will be recognized at a reception in their honor at FNCE on Monday, October 23. I will also include a message to all Academy members who have been affected by the hurricanes, storms and fires in my Opening Session remarks.

In addition, the Academy has notified members who live in Puerto Rico that we will issue a full FNCE refund if they are not able to attend. All they need to do is send an email to FNCE@eatright.org. If individuals do not have email capabilities, we will get their names and information and process refunds accordingly.

The Academy continues to support our fellow colleagues in the devastated areas and we are with them in mind, body and spirit.

Dear Academy Leaders and Colleagues:

Over the course of the past couple of weeks, I have been in touch with Dr. Celia Mir from San Juan, Puerto Rico, a territory of the U.S. She is the student advisor for the many Academy students on this island and has always promoted student participation at FNCE. I want to share some of our communication and ask that during FNCE, any encouraging gestures of kindness would be greatly appreciated by her 47 students who will be attending - despite the life/death situations they have survived and endured from Hurricane Maria.

After weeks of not being able to contact her students - not knowing if they were alive or even survived the hurricane, here is her communication:

"Dr.Celia Mir: (787)226-0954

(TXT.1) Hello Glenna. I have not heard from the Academy, but if they contact me, I can help prepare a plan and procedure to help our AND student members. The 47 students who planned to go with me to the 2017 FNCE, have already paid for their whole trip and events. I don't know if all of them are ok... IF they can go, they will need, at least emotional support. Thanks for your concern... (Then....)

(TXT.2) The only email for me that is working is drmirupr2@gmail.com. If the airport becomes fully functional, I believe we can make it to FNCE - but still waiting. I wish I could get together with all my students just to make sure they are ok! I am flying back to Puerto Rico Oct 9, 2017. We sent boxes of food and medicine to our people. (Then...)

(TXT.3) Thank goodness, my students are safe but they are suffering from the same afflictions as the whole of the population: no water, power, gas. It's the same in more than 3/4 of the island. PR is now entering a period of serious health concerns - infections, contamination, gastroenteritis, etc. People are dying, not only because of the hit of the hurricane but because of the consequences.

(TXT.4) After speaking with the students, we all agreed it would be beneficial to attend FNCE because it will be enriching to all of us. Our students need support and the perception of inclusion and sympathy. Showing signs of concern from the Board and our profession would make a big difference to the students. They would feel supported, encouraged and strengthened by our community. They have been through so much...."

Please know, any effort to reach out, include and embrace these 47 students from Puerto Rico - would be greatly appreciated. Many of our colleagues and students (FL, TX, PR) have suffered at the destruction of hurricanes this season - and we have a great opportunity to show compassion. Thank you!

Though you will be in my thoughts and prayers, unfortunately I will not be able to attend FNCE this year due to my father's ill health. I know I can count on all of you:)

My sincere thanks,

Glenna

Kevin, I can help answer your questions, and I might add that you are a very popular board member according to your schedule. In terms of the AND PAC luncheon overlap I would not worry about going to that. That is one you have to buy a ticket to go to and it will be well attended so no issues there. All board members do not go to that luncheon. Sunday for the President's lecture you can just come late with Mary. On Monday do the best you can to get to the Member Showcase as that is one of our keynotes. Usually there are not any conflicts with Member Showcase. Everyone will be super busy and we all will have to be coming and going some. If you do the best you can you will be fine. We so appreciate your willingness to do all the extra assignments that you were asked to do. Like I said very popular! Love having you on the dream team. Remember to have fun!

Hi Joan &Pat (cc: Donna),

First - congrats to all of you for what is already an obviously a VERY successful FNCE. The energy in my classrooms with the students who are attending is at an all time high!!! I look forward to you meeting some of them.

Thanks for this schedule update - all very very helpful. I realize this is an incredibly hectic time for you, but did want to notify you of a few instances of possible overlap for me via the FNCE schedule, and perhaps gather your advice.

Saturday: I previously accepted an invitation to join the NDEP Council for lunch. Is it preferred that I attend the ANDPAC luncheon instead?

Sunday: I will be joining Mary Russell at the Code of Ethics Task Force meeting (2:15), which may overlap a bit with the President's lecture.

Monday: I previously accepted an invitation to serve as Judge at the Innovation posters (via Anna Shlachter), and believe this may overlap slightly with the member showcase lecture and school spirit reception too.

Thank you all again for your understanding with me as an entry-level Board member. I'm just so humbled to be part of this incredible Dietetics Dream Team.

Hi Joan &Pat (cc: Donna),

First - congrats to all of you for what is already an obviously a VERY successful FNCE. The energy in my classrooms with the students who are attending is at an all time high!!! I look forward to you meeting some of them.

Thanks for this schedule update - all very very helpful. I realize this is an incredibly hectic time for you, but did want to notify you of a few instances of possible overlap for me via the FNCE schedule, and perhaps gather your advice.

Saturday: I previously accepted an invitation to join the NDEP Council for lunch. Is it preferred that I attend the ANDPAC luncheon instead?

Sunday: I will be joining Mary Russell at the Code of Ethics Task Force meeting (2:15), which may overlap a bit with the President's lecture.

Monday: I previously accepted an invitation to serve as Judge at the Innovation posters (via Anna Shlachter), and believe this may overlap slightly with the member showcase lecture and school spirit reception too.

Thank you all again for your understanding with me as an entry-level Board member. I'm just so humbled to be part of this incredible Dietetics Dream Team.

Subject: PRIORITY: FNCE Information

Attached is the final Board schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. Those activities which are highlighted in yellow require your attendance. For those of you who have been assigned to DPG/MIG events, we have registered you and notified the DPG or MIG chair. You will be greeted by the chair and if not, please introduce yourself; a list of DPG and MIG leaders is attached for reference.

The Board FNCE schedule lists times to extend your appreciation to our exhibitors and sponsors. Attached are your designated assignments for thanking the exhibitors. The assignments are made to ensure all the exhibitors are covered, but it doesn't preclude you from thanking others for their generous support of the Academy's meetings and programs, including FNCE, especially the 14 sponsors who have booths on the exhibit floor. A list of the sponsor booth names and locations is included in the attachment. We have several engagement opportunity booths for attendees on the exhibit floor, such as Ocean Spray Cranberry Juice and its bog!

We are pleased that you'll be attending the HOD meeting on Friday, October 20 and Saturday, October 21. A copy of the agenda is attached and meeting materials can be accessed on the HOD webpage at www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/house-of-delegates/about-hod-meetings >Fall 2017 Meeting Materials. Be sure to check the seating charts for your table assignments for Friday and Saturday. Attached is the BOD tip sheet to help you understand your role in the HOD meeting.

About HOD Meetings - eatrightpro.org

www.eatrightpro.org

Delegates meet in the fall (in conjunction with FNCE ®) and the spring in order to conduct business and mega issue dialogues. Member input on these important topics ...

You are asked to attend the ANDPAC Signature Luncheon on Saturday, October 21 from 11:30 am – 1:00 pm at McCormick Place West in room W194AB. To purchase tickets for this fundraising event, contact PIA staff partner Christine Rhone at crhone@eatright.org as soon as possible.

The Board has reserved VIP seating in the front rows of the meeting rooms for Opening Session, Member Showcase and Closing Session. For early access please promptly come to the VIP entrance of the Skyline Ballroom W375E in McCormick Place West (see map attached) at the times designated below. The best way to get to that location and avoid congestion is by taking the escalator from Room W177 to the VIP entrance. An Academy staff partner wearing a red FNCE vest will meet you there to be escorted to your seats.

- Opening Session: 3:25 pm to 3:35 pm
- Member Showcase: 9:35 am – 9:45 am
- Closing Session: 1:20 pm – 1:30 pm

A paper copy of the final Board FNCE schedule, your exhibitor assignments and the HOD meeting agenda will be included in your on arrival packet which will be hand delivered at the HOUSEwarming Party on Thursday, October 19, from 5:45 pm – 6:45 pm at the Hyatt Regency Chicago Hotel, Plaza Ballroom. If you do not plan to attend the party, your packet will be delivered to your hotel room that evening. Also included in your packet will be your FNCE badge, ribbon(s), Quick Reference Guide, Day-at-a-Glance Program Grid and a paper copy of your FNCE 2017 Leader Remarks and Talking Points. A paper copy of the script will also be included with instructions for those Board members (Lucille, Jo Jo, Linda, Manju, Marcy, Michele, Dianne, Marty) introducing Medallion recipients during the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 22.

As Board members staying at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, you have access to the Regency Club (concierge). Please take advantage of the club's amenities such as breakfast, beverages and snacks. As a reminder, a Board Get-together is scheduled for Friday, October 20, from 7:30 pm – 9:30 pm in Donna's Monarch Suite on the 34th floor. Please let me know if you are planning on bringing a family member.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Hi Ethan,

It's so nice to hear that Dr. Mir will be your guest at the Honors Breakfast. I am responding on behalf of Donna since we have the communication thread.

On October 9, Dr. Mir was copied on an email to the Program Director of the University of Puerto Rico, Elsa Pinto. Dr. Mir was included on this email (lugougol@hotmail.com) since she is the advisor for the student dietetics club at the university. Joan also wrote her on October 15 using two email addresses (lugougol@hotmail.com and drmirupr2@gmail.com) to ensure receipt, again congratulating the university for registering 47 students for FNCE and being one of the four winners of the School Spirit Award. Dr. Mir confirmed receipt on October 16. Please see the email thread below.

Dear Celia,

I am sorry to hear about the devastation from the recent hurricane in Puerto Rico, but am so glad you are safe and able to travel to Chicago. I am confirming our meeting with Academy President Donna Martin and the Academy's Life Long Learning Officer Diane Enos on Sunday, October 22 from 9:00am - 9:30am in room W177 at McCormick Place West, 2301 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago.

Congratulations to the University of Puerto Rico for registering 47 students for FNCE! I hope the students who are able to come to FNCE can attend the School Spirit reception on Monday, October 23 from 12:30pm - 1:30pm at McCormick Place West in room W176 AB. Members of the Academy's Board of Directors will be attending and look forward to meeting the students.

Subject: RE: Our Puerto Rico Colleagues and 47 PR students

Glenna,

Thank you for your email. On September 8, I forwarded an all-member email regarding the Academy's efforts on behalf of hurricane relief and recovery. The Academy's Foundation Disaster Relief Fund is here to support personal and professional life-rebuilding efforts of Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Updates were also posted on the Academy's social media outlets and in Eat Right Weekly.

The Academy has been in communication with Juan Cruz, president of the Puerto Rico affiliate and several members and leaders in Puerto Rico, including the University of Puerto Rico's internship director Elsa Pinto. Mr. Cruz indicated that he has been working from his cell phone with limited data and no wifi. He isn't able to distribute anything to members as all power grids and most of the cell towers were destroyed.

We have also been communicating with Dr. Celia Mir-Franqui and our CEO and I will personally be meeting with her at FNCE on Sunday, October 22. The group of students from Puerto Rico won the student challenge this year and will be recognized at a reception in their honor at FNCE on Monday, October 23. I will also include a message to all Academy members who have been affected by the hurricanes, storms and fires in my Opening Session remarks.

In addition, the Academy has notified members who live in Puerto Rico that we will issue a full FNCE refund if they are not able to attend. All they need to do is send an email to FNCE@eatright.org. If individuals do not have email capabilities, we will get their names and information and process refunds accordingly.

The Academy continues to support our fellow colleagues in the devastated areas and we are with them in mind, body and spirit.

Dear Academy Leaders and Colleagues:

Over the course of the past couple of weeks, I have been in touch with Dr. Celia Mir from San Juan, Puerto Rico, a territory of the U.S. She is the student advisor for the many Academy students on this island and has always promoted student participation at FNCE. I want to share some of our communication and ask that during FNCE, any encouraging gestures of kindness would be greatly appreciated by her 47 students who will be attending - despite the life/death situations they have survived and endured from Hurricane Maria.

After weeks of not being able to contact her students - not knowing if they were alive or even survived the hurricane, here is her communication:

"Dr.Celia Mir: (787)226-0954

(TXT.1) Hello Glenna. I have not heard from the Academy, but if they contact me, I can help prepare a plan and procedure to help our AND student members. The 47 students who planned to go with me to the 2017 FNCE, have already paid for their whole trip and events. I don't know if all of them are ok... IF they can go, they will need, at least emotional support. Thanks for your concern... (Then....)

(TXT.2) The only email for me that is working is drmirupr2@gmail.com. If the airport becomes fully functional, I believe we can make it to FNCE - but still waiting. I wish I could get together with all my students just to make sure they are ok! I am flying back to Puerto Rico Oct 9, 2017. We sent boxes of food and medicine to our people. (Then...)

(TXT.3) Thank goodness, my students are safe but they are suffering from the same afflictions as the whole of the population: no water, power, gas. It's the same in more than 3/4 of the island. PR is now entering a period of serious health concerns - infections, contamination, gastroenteritis, etc. People are dying, not only because of the hit of the hurricane but because of the consequences.

(TXT.4) After speaking with the students, we all agreed it would be beneficial to attend FNCE because it will be enriching to all of us. Our students need support and the perception of inclusion and sympathy. Showing signs of concern from the Board and our profession would make a big difference to the students. They would feel supported, encouraged and strengthened by our community. They have been through so much...."

Please know, any effort to reach out, include and embrace these 47 students from Puerto Rico - would be greatly appreciated. Many of our colleagues and students (FL, TX, PR) have suffered at the destruction of hurricanes this season - and we have a great opportunity to show compassion. Thank you!

Though you will be in my thoughts and prayers, unfortunately I will not be able to attend FNCE this year due to my father's ill health. I know I can count on all of you:)

My sincere thanks,

Glenna

Attached is the final Board schedule highlighting FNCE activities which require and/or encourage Board attendance. Those activities which are highlighted in yellow require your attendance. For those of you who have been assigned to DPG/MIG events, we have registered you and notified the DPG or MIG chair. You will be greeted by the chair and if not, please introduce yourself; a list of DPG and MIG leaders is attached for reference.

The Board FNCE schedule lists times to extend your appreciation to our exhibitors and sponsors. Attached are your designated assignments for thanking the exhibitors. The assignments are made to ensure all the exhibitors are covered, but it doesn't preclude you from thanking others for their generous support of the Academy's meetings and programs, including FNCE, especially the 14 sponsors who have booths on the exhibit floor. A list of the sponsor booth names and locations is included in the attachment. We have several engagement opportunity booths for attendees on the exhibit floor, such as Ocean Spray Cranberry Juice and its bog!

We are pleased that you'll be attending the HOD meeting on Friday, October 20 and Saturday, October 21. A copy of the agenda is attached and meeting materials can be accessed on the HOD webpage at www.eatrightpro.org/resources/leadership/house-of-delegates/about-hod-meetings >Fall 2017 Meeting Materials. Be sure to check the seating charts for your table assignments for Friday and Saturday. Attached is the BOD tip sheet to help you understand your role in the HOD meeting.

You are asked to attend the ANDPAC Signature Luncheon on Saturday, October 21 from 11:30 am – 1:00 pm at McCormick Place West in room W194AB. To purchase tickets for this fundraising event, contact PIA staff partner Christine Rhone at crhone@eatright.org as soon as possible.

The Board has reserved VIP seating in the front rows of the meeting rooms for Opening Session, Member Showcase and Closing Session. For early access please promptly come to the VIP entrance of the Skyline Ballroom W375E in McCormick Place West (see map attached) at the times designated below. The best way to get to that location and avoid congestion is by taking the escalator from Room W177 to the VIP entrance. An Academy staff partner wearing a red FNCE vest will meet you there to be escorted to your seats.

- Opening Session: 3:25 pm to 3:35 pm
- Member Showcase: 9:35 am – 9:45 am
- Closing Session: 1:20 pm – 1:30 pm

A paper copy of the final Board FNCE schedule, your exhibitor assignments and the HOD meeting agenda will be included in your on arrival packet which will be hand delivered at the HOUSEwarming Party on Thursday, October 19, from 5:45 pm – 6:45 pm at the Hyatt Regency Chicago Hotel, Plaza Ballroom. If you do not plan to attend the party, your packet will be delivered to your hotel room that evening. Also included in your packet will be your FNCE badge, ribbon(s), Quick Reference Guide, Day-at-a-Glance Program Grid and a paper copy of your FNCE 2017 Leader Remarks and Talking Points. A paper copy of the script will also be included with instructions for those Board members (Lucille, Jo Jo, Linda, Manju, Marcy, Michele, Dianne, Marty) introducing Medallion recipients during the Honors Breakfast on Sunday, October 22.

As Board members staying at the Hyatt Regency Chicago, you have access to the Regency Club (concierge). Please take advantage of the club's amenities such as breakfast, beverages and snacks. As a reminder, a Board Get-together is scheduled for Friday, October 20, from 7:30 pm – 9:30 pm in Donna's Monarch Suite on the 34th floor. Please let me know if you are planning on bringing a family member.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Yes, I find it interesting and disturbing. Doris is "investigating" the PhD. Some of us wonder if the Dr. Mir connection isn't Glenna vying for an adjunct faculty position with PR University.

Hi Ethan,

It's so nice to hear that Dr. Mir will be your guest at the Honors Breakfast. I am responding on behalf of Donna since we have the communication thread.

On October 9, Dr. Mir was copied on an email to the Program Director of the University of Puerto Rico, Elsa Pinto. Dr. Mir was included on this email (lugougol@hotmail.com) since she is the advisor for the student dietetics club at the university. Joan also wrote her on October 15 using two email addresses (lugougol@hotmail.com and drmirupr2@gmail.com) to ensure receipt, again congratulating the university for registering 47 students for FNCE and being one of the four winners of the School Spirit Award. Dr. Mir confirmed receipt on October 16. Please see the email thread below.

Dear Celia,

I am sorry to hear about the devastation from the recent hurricane in Puerto Rico, but am so glad you are safe and able to travel to Chicago. I am confirming our meeting with Academy President Donna Martin and the Academy's Life Long Learning Officer Diane Enos on Sunday, October 22 from 9:00am - 9:30am in room W177 at McCormick Place West, 2301 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago.

Congratulations to the University of Puerto Rico for registering 47 students for FNCE! I hope the students who are able to come to FNCE can attend the School Spirit reception on Monday, October 23 from 12:30pm - 1:30pm at McCormick Place West in room W176 AB. Members of the Academy's Board of Directors will be attending and look forward to meeting the students.

Subject: RE: Our Puerto Rico Colleagues and 47 PR students

Glenna,

Thank you for your email. On September 8, I forwarded an all-member email regarding the Academy's efforts on behalf of hurricane relief and recovery. The Academy's Foundation Disaster Relief Fund is here to support personal and professional life-rebuilding efforts of Academy members and other nutrition and dietetics professionals who have been affected by disasters. Updates were also posted on the Academy's social media outlets and in Eat Right Weekly.

The Academy has been in communication with Juan Cruz, president of the Puerto Rico affiliate and several members and leaders in Puerto Rico, including the University of Puerto Rico's internship director Elsa Pinto. Mr. Cruz indicated that he has been working from his cell phone with limited data and no wifi. He isn't able to distribute anything to members as all power grids and most of the cell towers were destroyed.

We have also been communicating with Dr. Celia Mir-Franqui and our CEO and I will personally be meeting with her at FNCE on Sunday, October 22. The group of students from Puerto Rico won the student challenge this year and will be recognized at a reception in their honor at FNCE on Monday, October 23. I will also include a message to all Academy members who have been affected by the hurricanes, storms and fires in my Opening Session remarks.

In addition, the Academy has notified members who live in Puerto Rico that we will issue a full FNCE refund if they are not able to attend. All they need to do is send an email to FNCE@eatright.org. If individuals do not have email capabilities, we will get their names and information and process refunds accordingly.

The Academy continues to support our fellow colleagues in the devastated areas and we are with them in mind, body and spirit.

Dear Academy Leaders and Colleagues:

Over the course of the past couple of weeks, I have been in touch with Dr. Celia Mir from San Juan, Puerto Rico, a territory of the U.S. She is the student advisor for the many Academy students on this island and has always promoted student participation at FNCE. I want to share some of our communication and ask that during FNCE, any encouraging gestures of kindness would be greatly appreciated by her 47 students who will be attending - despite the life/death situations they have survived and endured from Hurricane Maria.

After weeks of not being able to contact her students - not knowing if they were alive or even survived the hurricane, here is her communication:

(TXT.1) Hello Glenna. I have not heard from the Academy, but if they contact me, I can help prepare a plan and procedure to help our AND student members. The 47 students who planned to go with me to the 2017 FNCE, have already paid for their whole trip and events. I don't know if all of them are ok... IF they can go, they will need, at least emotional support. Thanks for your concern... (Then....)

(TXT.2) The only email for me that is working is drmirupr2@gmail.com. If the airport becomes fully functional, I believe we can make it to FNCE - but still waiting. I wish I could get together with all my students just to make sure they are ok! I am flying back to Puerto Rico Oct 9, 2017. We sent boxes of food and medicine to our people. (Then...)

(TXT.3) Thank goodness, my students are safe but they are suffering from the same afflictions as the whole of the population: no water, power, gas. It's the same in more than 3/4 of the island. PR is now entering a period of serious health concerns - infections, contamination, gastroenteritis, etc. People are dying, not only because of the hit of the hurricane but because of the consequences.

(TXT.4) After speaking with the students, we all agreed it would be beneficial to attend FNCE because it will be enriching to all of us. Our students need support and the perception of inclusion and sympathy. Showing signs of concern from the Board and our profession would make a big difference to the students. They would feel supported, encouraged and strengthened by our community. They have been through so much...."
