Dear Ms. Kopp:

This responds to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated June 6, 2023 that you submitted to the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) requesting records sent to DIA's Directorate of Science and Technology from the National Center for Medical Intelligence pertaining to any of the following: activity at health facilities in Wuhan, China; an unidentified illness in Wuhan; communications intercepts that mention Wuhan. You also requested e-mail correspondence to or from LTG Robert Ashley Jr., Suzanne White, the former Deputy Director of Commonwealth Integration, or the former Chief of Staff containing Wuhan; National Center for Medical Intelligence; NCMI. The time frame requested was November 1, 2019 – December 31, 2019.

As you are aware, this case is currently the subject of litigation in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, case number 23-cv-03771.

Based on the information contained in your request, the DIA conducted a search of its systems of records for responsive documents. Despite a thorough search, no documents responsive to your request were found.

Sincerely,

C. C. Davison
