Tom --

I'm trying to find out if there's any way that the team of people who worked on the two Cantox review articles (Williams et al and Giesy et al) could receive Roundup polo shirts as a token of appreciation for a job well done. I realize this project finished up quite some time ago ... I wouldn't know were to begin to make this happen ...although I see a lot of people with logoed shirts ...

I know you're well connected ... any ideas? We're talking about 8 people for which some recognition for this project would be appropriate ...
